

Crazy Wife 1031

Chapter 1031: The Dark Canyon (3)

Old Man Zao, who felt President Lu's gaze, looked up and smiled at President Lu and the others before going back to what he was doing.

President Lu was so depressed that he wanted to scratch the wall.

After Old Man Zao finished what he was doing, he started refining his equipment.

Old Man Zao placed the materials into the furnace that had already been preheated. After the materials melted, it was time to purify, shape, and finally temper!

In less than half an hour, a crystal-clear bracelet was completed. At this moment, the storage equipment of the other weapon refiners had yet to be completed.

When the judges saw this unbelievable scene, their jaws dropped again. Damn! What kind of speed was this! It was clearly the last to be refined, but it was the first to be completed, causing them to be on tenterhooks. What's more, even though the disheveled old man had already refined the equipment, their hearts, which were used to waiting until the last moment, could not rest at ease. What was going on!

Old Man Zao ignored everyone's gazes and extinguished the fire. Then, he carried the bracelet to the judges' table and handed it to President Lu.

President Lu took the bracelet from Old Man Zao and sighed. This bracelet was really refined beautifully! It was crystal clear without any impurities. Hehe! He didn't expect this inconspicuous Old Man Zao's aesthetic standards to be first-rate.

One had to know that in addition to having superb refining skills, beauty standards were also quite important for an outstanding artificer. It could be said that neither was indispensable!

President Lu held the bracelet in his hand and observed it carefully. However, Old Man Zao was getting impatient.

"President Lu, my storage bracelet is completed. Can I leave now?" Old Man Zao couldn't help but ask.

"Leave? The competition isn't over yet! You're leaving?" President Lu said in disbelief. Old Man Zao had something so important to do that he actually wanted to leave even though the results weren't out yet!

As there were only 150 artificers in today's competition, they planned to produce results on the spot. All the artificers should know about this! Therefore, he really didn't expect that this old man would leave even though he knew that the results would be released immediately after the competition!

"Yes, I'm tired. I want to go back and rest early," Old Man Zao said awkwardly.

"Sleepy?" The corners of President Lu's mouth twitched a few times. He looked at the old man as if he was a monster and thought to himself, Could it be that sleeping is more important than results in this old man's heart?

Even though he couldn't believe what he was hearing, in Old Man Zao's heart, sleep was really more important than results. Who asked him to be so confident in the storage bracelet he refined!

Unless they secretly did something to prevent him from getting first place, there was no way he could get first place. However, with Mo Yan and Liu Feng around, the probability of these people wanting to defame him was very low.

"Yes, I didn't sleep well last night," Old Man Zao said very casually.

"Uh! But you can't leave. This is a competition after all. You can't break the rules," President Lu said helplessly. He kept telling himself to calm down! He had to calm down!

"Alright then!" Old Man Zao said with some grievance. Then, he returned to his territory with extreme reluctance and closed his eyes...

After a while, the sound of snoring came from the direction of the Old Man Zao.

Immediately, several black lines involuntarily slid down the foreheads of the judges and the artifact masters in the competition...

Liu Feng, who was sitting at the judges' table with Mo Yan, couldn't help but chuckle when he saw Old Man Zao's actions.

"Hehe!" Liu Feng chuckled.

"Is it very funny?" Mo Yan rolled his eyes at Liu Feng helplessly.

"Isn't it funny? This old man is the first artificer who dares to sleep during the artificer competition! Hehe! I like such an extraordinary person!" Liu Feng said proudly. Seeing Old Man Zao so casual, his impression of this old man became even better.

"Hmph! How dare he sleep at such an important occasion and even snore! Such imprudence! Such a person is not worthy of participating in our Artificer Association's competition at all. He should be disqualified!" At this moment, Yin Rumei, who had been sitting at the side without saying anything, spoke up, her beautiful face still filled with disdain.

"Vice President Yin, can I say that you're jealous of Hong Guo? Even if this old man is indecent and you want to disqualify him from the competition, your disciple won't be able to win the championship. Therefore, why do you have to be a villain and let others benefit!" Liu Feng said mockingly.

Yin Rumei was too selfish. Even though the two of them seemed to have a conflict now, Ruhua was raised by Yin Rumei after all. Therefore, no matter how angry Yin Rumei was, she also hoped that Ruhua could get good results. Unfortunately, Ruhua was disappointing. Ever since she schemed against Leng Xiaoyu, she didn't know what was going on. She had performed badly in two consecutive matches and couldn't even be ranked in the top ten now.

"You..." Yin Rumei's anger immediately soared to the highest point after being provoked by Liu Feng. However, before she could flare up, she was suppressed by Mo Yan's words.

"We're in a competition now. Please pay attention to the occasion, Vice President Yin," Mo Yan said lightly.

Yin Rumei had no choice but to suppress her anger when she heard Mo Yan's words. However, it didn't feel good to have fire nowhere to vent. However, she also knew that with Mo Yan around, he wouldn't let her lose her composure at such an important occasion. She also knew that she had to control it, so she could only sulk alone.

Three hours passed quickly. The 150 artificers on the arena completed their refinement. Next, they waited for the results.

The judges divided the work and worked together. In less than half an hour, the results of the blacksmiths were out. After that, they handed the results of their evaluation to Mo Yan and Liu Feng for the final review. As for Yin Rumei, she was ignored by the judges.

After Mo Yan and Liu Feng checked some of the equipment, they nodded in satisfaction. Then, President Lu announced the results of all the artificers on behalf of the Artificer Association.

Old Man Zao did not disappoint and once again took the first place. At the same time, he also won the championship with the first place in all five rounds of the competition. There were definitely no more than 10 people in the history of the artificer competition who won with such a complete victory.

Chapter 1032: The Dark Grand Canyon (4)

After the competition, forces came to visit Leng Ruoxue and the others one after another. This couldn't help but annoy Leng Ruoxue and the others. Therefore, she could only tell the butler directly that she wouldn't see anyone no matter who came.

At this moment, Old Man Zao was dragged away by Liu Feng again.

Leng Ruoxue stood by Leng Xiaoyu's bed and told him the good news.

"Cheapsake Old Ancestor, Old Man Zao finally won the championship." Leng Ruoxue looked at Leng Xiaoyu, who was lying unconscious on the bed.

Unfortunately, Leng Xiaoyu could not give her any response now. Thinking of this, Leng Ruoxue's heart sank. This made her even more determined to find the Black Star Grass.

Extinct? She didn't believe that the Black Star Grass would really be extinct. It was impossible for anything called a natural treasure to not have any means to protect themselves. Therefore, rather than saying that they were extinct, it was more appropriate to say that they were hidden! At least, Leng Ruoxue thought so.

After Old Man Zao's competition, everyone planned to celebrate. However, considering Leng Xiaoyu's reason, they did not celebrate openly. The so-called celebration was just to cover for Leng Ruoxue.

While everyone was drinking and chatting happily, Leng Ruoxue and the other three used the excuse that they were about to break through to temporarily enter seclusion.

Even though Mo Yan and the others were suspicious of their sudden seclusion, they didn't see any clues from Leng Ruoxue and the others' faces, so they didn't think too much about it. After all, Feng Da and the others were still here!

Mo Yan, Liu Feng, and Liu Yu watched Leng Ruoxue and the other three return to their rooms and left with ease. After all, Mo Yan planned to go to the Dark Grand Canyon and the Abyssal Swamp, so they had to help him prepare.

After Mo Yan and the other two left, Feng Da and the others immediately guarded the courtyard, while Leng Qingtian and Leng Ruohan took the opportunity to meet up with Leng Ruoxue.

Then, the four of them turned invisible and left Flame City.

After Mo Yan prepared everything and handed Leng Xiaoyu and the others to Liu Feng, he left.

.....

The Dark Grand Canyon was located southwest of Flame City, about two days away.

Leng Ruoxue and the others traveled day and night and finally arrived at the Dark Grand Canyon two days later in the afternoon.

Before entering the Dark Grand Canyon, Leng Ruoxue felt an extremely strong dark-attribute spiritual energy rushing towards her. There were also dozens of people lingering outside the canyon.

When they saw Leng Ruoxue and the others, someone immediately came forward to get close.

“Haha! You guys look unfamiliar. This must be your first time in the Dark Grand Canyon!” A man in his thirties said with a smile.

“Yes!” Leng Ruoxue nodded and didn’t deny it.

“Would you like to accompany us?” the man asked again.

“Why do I need a companion?” Leng Ruoxue was very puzzled. She had never liked to move with strangers and it was inconvenient for her to do anything, so she really didn’t have any thoughts of a companion.

“The Dark Grand Canyon is very dangerous. If you have a companion, your safety will be greatly increased. Otherwise, why do you think these people don’t enter the canyon? It’s because they aren’t confident!” the man explained.

“Oh!” Leng Ruoxue nodded and didn’t continue.

“How about it? Do the four of you want to accompany us! There are more than ten of us, and our strength is above that of a mid-level god. If we add you, we can take care of each other,” the man said anxiously. To be honest, it was not easy to see a stranger in the canyon, so he was very afraid that these people would be beaten to it by the other teams.

Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help but think to herself after hearing the man’s words. This man said that his team had more than ten people, but there were at least 40 to 50 people in front of her. In other words, the man wasn’t the only team waiting to form a team here. In that case, why did she have to form a team with this man who took the initiative to come to her door!

Not to mention that she didn't have the intention to accompany others, even if she did, she wouldn't choose someone who took the initiative to come to her door. After all, she didn't have a good impression of someone who took the initiative to come to her door!

However, even though An You had been here before, that was a long time ago. If they could find someone familiar with the terrain here as a guide, it might save them a lot of time. Thinking of this, Leng Ruoxue's beautiful eyes looked at the others.

"My team is the strongest here. You won't regret teaming up with us." The man felt Leng Ruoxue's gaze wandering and couldn't help but explain anxiously.

"Oh! Then can you tell me, if I travel with you and find something good, how will we split it?" Leng Ruoxue raised her eyebrows and asked lightly.

"By the number of people, of course!" the man said fairly.

"Numbers? Why isn't it that whoever puts in more effort gets more?" Leng Ruoxue pretended to be puzzled and asked. However, she couldn't help but sneer in her heart. According to numbers? This man really knew how to plan! In this man's opinion, there were only four of them, while she had more than ten people. Therefore, even if there was good stuff, it was her side who had the final say. Therefore, she thought of this distribution method!

In fact, in Leng Ruoxue's opinion, this was clearly compensation without regard to performance, and this was what she had always disliked. What she pursued was that the more one worked, the more one benefited. Whoever contributed the most was qualified to take the most. However, the man in front of her obviously didn't think so.

Leng Ruoxue sized up the man in front of her with her beautiful eyes and couldn't help but sigh inwardly. One really couldn't judge a book by its cover!

He really didn't expect this man to look so amiable, honest, and scheming!

Still, it didn't make much difference to her. In any case, she had no intention of partnering this man.

"Even if it's based on how much effort we put in, we must be the ones who put in the most effort!" The man said confidently. In other words, no matter how they divided it, they would definitely take the lion's share.

"That might not be the case!" Leng Ruoxue said with a faint smile.

"We have more people, so we naturally have to contribute more," the man reminded unhappily, but he couldn't help complaining in his heart!

Damn, why was this woman so difficult to deal with! Originally, he thought that this woman was so beautiful and should be the daughter of a big family who came out to play. For such a young lady from a big family who was not experienced in the world, she was usually very easy to fool. Therefore, he did not expect Leng Ruoxue to be so difficult to deal with.

Chapter 1033: The Dark Grand Canyon (5)

"I've never known that strength is determined by numbers. I really don't know where you get your confidence from. You guys will contribute the most," Leng Ruoxue said as if she was looking at a joke.

"There are so many of us. Can't we compare to the four of you?" When the man heard this, fire immediately surged up and he couldn't help but roar.

"If I say that you can't compare, will you be so angry that you want to kill me?" Leng Ruoxue asked innocently and innocently. The expression on her beautiful face was even more silly and cute.

The man was very angry, very angry! However, when he saw the innocent expression on Leng Ruoxue's face, he actually couldn't vent all his anger. After holding it in for a long time, the man said angrily, "Hmph! Let's see. Don't regret it if you don't choose us!"

With that, the man turned around and walked away angrily.

"Why is this person like this! How rude." Leng Ruoxue pretended to be dissatisfied as she looked at the man's back.

"Xue'er is so cute." The freak couldn't resist the temptation and hugged the cute Leng Ruoxue...

"Ahem!" Two coughs suddenly sounded. Then, Leng Ruohan said in all seriousness, "Be careful of your image in public. Don't touch my precious sister."

"Xue'er is my woman," the freak reminded him.

"Xue'er is my sister," Leng Ruohan reminded her.

"Brother, Freak, don't be jealous. Let's enter the Dark Grand Canyon quickly!" Leng Ruoxue said helplessly.

"Yes." The two of them immediately nodded. Then the four of them walked towards the entrance of the Grand Canyon.

However, before they entered the canyon, Leng Ruoxue stopped in front of the old and young. Even though Leng Ruohan and the others didn't understand what Xue'er wanted to do, they didn't ask further. In their hearts, Xue'er was right no matter what she did!

.....

The old man in front of Leng Ruoxue was about 70 years old. He looked like he had gone through a lot, but his eyes were extremely bright and revealed a sense of shrewdness.

As for the young man, he looked to be about 17 or 18 years old. He was young and had a pair of bright black eyes on his slightly tender face. At this moment, he was looking at them curiously.

Even though the clothes on these two people were a little shabby, they were very clean. Moreover, their attitude was neither servile nor overbearing, giving Leng Ruoxue a good first impression.

"Does the old man have a team?" Leng Ruoxue asked with a light smile.

"No, we're here to guide someone else," the old man said. His voice was loud and full of energy.

“Oh! I wonder how much you charge?” Leng Ruoxue asked curiously, but she was secretly laughing in her heart. Hehe! She really got what she wanted! She happened to want to find a guide!

“Ten intermediate-grade crystals!” The old man hesitated and said.

“Ten intermediate-grade crystals aren’t expensive. My grandson and I are very familiar with this place. We can definitely bring you guys to find something good,” The old man hurriedly added. In fact, he had already offered this price for a long time. However, others found it expensive, so no one had hired them. Now that someone finally asked, he didn’t want to let go of this opportunity.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue nodded in agreement.

“Ah! You... you agreed?” the old man asked in disbelief. Was he dreaming? This beautiful lady agreed to his bid without any hesitation. This was really unbelievable.

“Yes! Can you bring us into the Grand Canyon now?” Leng Ruoxue asked with a light smile. The reason why she liked this old man and young man was that they looked more honest and pleasing to the eye.

“Yes, yes, Ao’er, thank this lady quickly. The crystal you converted energy into is finally settled,” the old man pulled his grandson over and said happily. His face was almost blooming with joy.

“Thank you, Miss,” the young man named Ao’er said shyly.

“There’s no need to thank me. As long as you can bring me to what I want, I will give you an additional reward,” Leng Ruoxue said softly.

“No, no need. Ten intermediate grade crystals are enough,” the old man hurriedly said. The reason he had offered this price was to earn enough money for his grandson to convert energy. Now that he had earned it, he naturally could not charge additional fees. Otherwise, he would feel guilty.

Seeing the old man decline, Leng Ruoxue didn’t say anything else. Then, the four of them followed the grandfather and granddaughter into the dark canyon...

The Dark Grand Canyon was a deep valley. The temperature inside was very low, and it was foggy all year round. It was dark and humid, so the poisonous insects and poisonous grass here grew very active.

However, with the grandfather and granddaughter leading the way, Leng Ruoxue and the others easily avoided the attacks of many poisonous insects!

Looking at her grandfather and grandson’s familiar and calm manner as if they were walking in their own backyard, Leng Ruoxue felt that her judgment was correct.

“Ao’er and I live nearby. We often came here to play when we were young, so we’re very familiar with the environment here. Most of the poisonous insects here won’t attack you as long as you don’t take the initiative to provoke them. However, some poisonous insects are different, so avoid them if you can. Don’t clash with them head-on,” the old man explained calmly when he felt Leng Ruoxue’s gaze.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue nodded. Even though these two weren’t very strong, they were very clear about life. Their words also revealed their indifferent and aloof characters.

“Miss, there’s a very precious medicinal herb not far from here. However, there’s a guardian beast there, so…” The old man didn’t finish his sentence, but his meaning was very clear.

“What herb?” Leng Ruoxue asked curiously.

“Camphor Wood,” the old man said. Even though he was not an alchemist, he knew how precious Camphor Wood was. Unfortunately, his strength was limited, so he could only sigh at the sight of it. Now that Leng Ruoxue had done a great favor for him and his granddaughter, he was very willing to use this opportunity to tell Leng Ruoxue and the others the location of the incense wood. As for whether they could obtain it or if they had the guts to snatch the wood from the beast’s mouth, it was not within his consideration.

“Are you sure?” Leng Ruoxue couldn’t believe it. How could there be Camphor Tree here? Normally, this place wasn’t suitable for the growth of Camphor Trees! Even though Camphor Trees liked places with dense spiritual energy, there was a trace of poison in the spiritual energy here, so she was suspicious of the old man’s words.

“Yes.” The old man nodded. He had heard the name of the Camphor Wood from the guardian beast! Later, after he was lucky enough to escape from the beast’s mouth, he specially went to investigate the Camphor Tree. That was how he knew how precious this incense wood was.

“In that case, bring us to take a look!” Leng Ruoxue said with interest, and the Qing Jue in the bracelet kept reminding her to get the Camphor Wood.

“Alright, please follow me,” the old man said. Then he walked to the front to lead the way.

Not long after, Leng Ruoxue and the other three followed the old man to a cliff. Through the old man’s guidance, they looked up and indeed found a small tree half the height of a person halfway up the cliff. The small tree was emerald green and watery, and it was growing vigorously. Moreover, it seemed to be living very comfortably.

“This is the Camphor Tree?” Leng Qingtian asked curiously. This Camphor Tree was too small! When would it grow into a towering tree?

“Hehe! Grandpa, this is it,” Leng Ruoxue said with a light smile.

“Xue’er, is this tree still underage?” Leng Qingtian asked with a face full of question marks.

“Grandpa, it’s already an adult. The Camphor Tree will only grow this big,” Leng Ruoxue explained with a smile.

“Uh! What’s the use of such a small tree!” Leng Qingtian complained, feeling extremely disappointed with this small tree.

However, as soon as he finished speaking, a childish voice sounded in his heart.

“I’m very useful, you ignorant old man,” the tender child-like voice said in dissatisfaction.

“Ah! Who’s talking!” Leng Qingtian suddenly shouted.

“Grandpa, what’s wrong?” Leng Ruoxue, who felt that something was wrong, quickly asked with concern.

Chapter 1034: Meeting Mo Yan (1)

“Xue’er, there’s a voice talking to me,” Leng Qingtian said fearfully. However, as soon as he finished speaking, a child’s happy laughter sounded.

“Hehe!”

“Who are you?” Leng Qingtian couldn’t help but ask in his heart.

“Guess!” the child replied playfully.

“I can’t guess.” Leng Qingtian was a little depressed. He didn’t know which brat was playing with him! It was really too detestable.

“Grandpa,” Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help but say worriedly when she saw Leng Qingtian suddenly acting strange again.

“Xue’er, that voice spoke again,” Leng Qingtian said as if he had been wronged. Moreover, it was still teasing him, he added in his heart.

After Leng Ruoxue heard her grandfather’s words, her beautiful eyes couldn’t help but size up the Agarwood on the cliff.

As far as she knew, the main effect of the wood of Camphor Wood was to focus one’s mind and calm one’s mind. It could prevent cultivators from going crazy because of mental demons. Therefore, it was very important to cultivators. Moreover, the Camphor Tree was also the main ingredient in refining the Concentration Pill. It was extremely precious.

However, the price of Camphor Wood had always been high. It was said that a small leaf could be sold for an astronomical price, let alone an entire stalk.

Moreover, according to Qing Jue, this Camphor Wood seemed to have developed intelligence. As such, she had to transplant this rare medicine into the bracelet to prevent others from coveting it. At the same time, she believed that no one would take more care of these precious herbs than Qing Jue.

“Grandpa, that small tree should be playing with you!” Leng Ruoxue said knowingly.

“I’m not a small tree.” A slightly dissatisfied voice sounded in Leng Ruoxue’s heart.

Leng Ruoxue smiled knowingly when she heard this voice. Hehe! She had guessed correctly.

“If you’re not a small tree, are you a big tree?” Leng Ruoxue teased.

“Not really. I’m not an ordinary tree. I’m a Camphor Tree!” the child protested.

“Can you transform?” Leng Ruoxue asked curiously.

"It's not that easy to transform!" The child's voice seemed to be a little sad. Alas! It was a sprite's greatest desire to develop intelligence and transform. However, it was also the most difficult because it was very likely that they would be killed before they could develop intelligence or even transform.

"If I can guarantee that you can transform, are you willing to follow me?" Leng Ruoxue coaxed, her beautiful face full of sincerity.

"Really? But what Little Tiger said about humans can't be trusted," the child said honestly.

"Not all humans are bad," Leng Ruoxue said weakly. These sprites were too wary of humans. However, this was also a good thing. At least they could save their lives.

"Are you a good person?" the child asked innocently.

"Would you believe me if I said I was a good person?" Leng Ruoxue asked in return, feeling a little speechless. This also made her even more determined to transplant this little fellow into the space because this little fellow was really too innocent and didn't have any schemes at all. Alas!

"I believe you!" the child said very seriously. It liked the smell on this woman very much. Otherwise, it wouldn't have taken the initiative to contact them.

"Then come with me! I have a better place. It's more suitable for your growth," Leng Ruoxue said calmly.

"I... I can't go with you," the child said after a moment's hesitation.

"Why not?" Leng Ruoxue was a little puzzled.

"What will happen to Little Tiger if I leave? He's my only friend here. I can't leave him alone," the child said awkwardly.

"If it wants to, it can go with you," Leng Ruoxue suggested.

"Really? Then will you order it around like a servant?" the child asked worriedly.

"No," Leng Ruoxue promised. Even though she didn't know who this Little Tiger mentioned by the sprite was but she would treat it the same as her other beasts no matter if it was a tree or a beast!

"Then I'll discuss it with it," the child said softly. After that, there was silence.

"Miss, this wood's guardian beast is very powerful, but it doesn't seem to be here now, so this is definitely a good time if you want to obtain it." Seeing that Leng Ruoxue and the others didn't react for a long time, the old man couldn't help but say.

"No need," Leng Ruoxue said with a light smile.

"Ah! Miss, don't you want this Camphor Wood anymore?" The old man was a little surprised. No one should be able to refuse this Camphor Wood, right?

"I want it," Leng Ruoxue said with certainty.

"Uh!" The old man was confused. She didn't want to obtain this wood while the guardian beast wasn't around. He really didn't know what this beautiful lady was planning.

However, not long after, the old man saw a black shadow pounce at Leng Ruoxue. The old man was about to speak nervously when he realized that the black shadow stopped in front of Leng Ruoxue and stared at her.

Leng Ruoxue's beautiful eyes sized up the black kitten that was floating in midair and looking at her. Uh! It wasn't a cat, but a small black tiger in disguise. This little tiger's entire body was as black as satin, and a pair of big golden eyes were staring at her with bright eyes. There was still a trace of vigilance in its eyes, but perhaps it had communicated with the Camphor Wood, so it wasn't hostile to her.

And this little black tiger should be the little tiger that Kinan Xiangmu mentioned!

"Human, do you want to take Little Qi away?" The little black tiger asked via voice transmission.

"Yes, and you," Leng Ruoxue replied with a faint smile. Hehe! She had always been the most loving to cute little animals, and this little black tiger's mimicry was really cute, like a kitten.

"Humans are too evil. I don't like humans," the little black tiger said honestly.

"Not all humans are that way," Leng Ruoxue said indifferently. She couldn't bring these two little fellows into the bracelet in front of outsiders. However, she believed that these two little fellows would definitely like it there.

"Little guy, I have a place that's very suitable for the growth of the Camphor Wood. It can also transform as soon as possible, and you can also live there. You will have many companions there." Leng Ruoxue coaxed again.

Chapter 1035: Meeting Mo Yan (2)

"Really?" the little black tiger replied doubtfully, its golden eyes still wary.

"Yes, I don't lie to children," Leng Ruoxue promised.

"Then I'll take a look at that place before deciding," the little black tiger said a little cunningly. Hmph! Even though it had never left the Dark Grand Canyon since it was born, it was not stupid. Moreover, the inherited memories left behind by its parents were not for show.

"It's not convenient with outsiders around now," Leng Ruoxue said honestly.

"It doesn't matter. Just say that I'm your contract beast," the little black tiger suggested.

"Master, I finally found you." Then, the little black tiger pounced into Leng Ruoxue's arms and rubbed against her affectionately. The excited expression on its face really looked like it had found its long-lost master.

"Uh! Little Tiger!" Leng Ruoxue couldn't help but break out in cold sweat. She thought to herself, Looks like this is also a black-bellied little fellow!

"Master, I'm tired," the little black tiger said again.

"Then go into the beast space to rest!" Leng Ruoxue said very cooperatively. This little guy was really too talented in acting. If this was her previous world, it could definitely become a top superstar in the animal world!

Then, Leng Ruoxue sent the little black tiger into the bracelet.

“Miss, is that little black cat your contract beast?” the old man asked curiously. Even though he knew that he really shouldn’t have this curiosity, he couldn’t control it!

“Sort of!” Leng Ruoxue said ambiguously.

Not long after, the little black tiger’s voice sounded in Leng Ruoxue’s heart again. Obviously, the little fellow was very satisfied with its new home and agreed to follow her in the future.

.....

Immediately after, Leng Ruoxue moved the little guy out of the bracelet.

In an instant, a black lightning jumped onto the cliff. In just a few breaths, the black lightning jumped back into Leng Ruoxue’s arms, and a small tree half the height of a person appeared in its claws.

Seeing this, Leng Ruoxue thought for a moment and sent the beast and tree into the bracelet.

Uh! When the grandfather and grandson saw this natural scene, they were all a little dumbfounded. This is! What kind of speed was this! Miss’ beast was really too powerful!

“Miss, let’s leave this place quickly! Otherwise, when that guardian beast returns and sees that the Camphor Wood that it has guarded for many years is gone, it will probably fly into a rage,” the old man said fearfully. At the same time, he couldn’t help but sigh in his heart. It seemed that the Camphor Wood was indeed fated with this Miss! Otherwise, why was the guardian beast not around when she came to retrieve it?

“Okay, let’s leave quickly!” Leng Ruoxue said cooperatively. Then, the four of them left with the grandfather and granddaughter.

After obtaining the Camphor Wood, the sky gradually darkened. The old man brought Leng Ruoxue and the others to a safe place to set up a tent. Then, he started a fire and started cooking.

“Miss, just rest. Let us do these chores,” the old man said apologetically when he saw Leng Ruoxue and the others attack.

“It’s okay,” Leng Ruoxue said indifferently. She could only eat and drink if she did it herself! And she wasn’t a piece of trash who would starve just because there was no one to serve her. Moreover, she was a little afraid that the craftsmanship of this grandfather and granddaughter wasn’t to her liking. Who asked them to be so picky!

“Hehe, that’s right! We’re used to making it ourselves,” Leng Qingtian said. After saying that, he took out a lot of ingredients from his ring and started cooking dinner.

“Uh!” The grandfather and granddaughter looked at the ingredients in front of Leng Ruoxue and the others with widened eyes in disbelief. They secretly wondered why there were so many things in these people’s rings! This was really too extravagant.

The grandfather and granddaughter were also people who traveled outside all year round. They would also store some food in their storage rings, but it would not be as sumptuous as what Leng Ruoxue had.

Moreover, most of them were mainly dry food. However, the ingredients taken out by these people in front of them were all fresh, so their reaction was so big.

“Don’t just stand there. Come and help.” Leng Ruoxue looked at the dazed grandfather and granddaughter and urged. In fact, everyone who saw the ingredients they prepared for the first time had the same reaction as this grandfather and granddaughter, so she was already used to it.

“Oh! Oh!” Only then did the grandfather and granddaughter react and hurriedly came over to help. Not long after, a sumptuous dinner was ready.

The two of them had never been so satisfied to be able to eat hot food in the wild!

After the meal, the old and young took the initiative to clean up. Leng Ruoxue scattered some colorless and transparent powder around their tent to prevent any uninvited guests from disturbing them.

After greeting the grandfather and granddaughter, Leng Ruoxue and the others went into the tent and rested early.

However, resting was naturally an excuse. After entering the tent, Leng Ruoxue brought the three of them into the bracelet.

“Sister,” Qing Jue appeared in front of Leng Ruoxue and the others and said softly.

“What about the two little fellows?” Leng Ruoxue asked with a light smile. Her grandfather and brother were very interested in the two little fellows.

“In the herb garden!” Qing Jue brought Leng Ruoxue and the others to the herb garden after saying that. In the herb garden.

The Camphor Wood had been replanted, and the little black tiger was lying under the tree. The tree and the beast seemed to be communicating.

After sensing Leng Ruoxue and the others’ auras, the little black tiger raised its head and looked in their direction.

“Master, you’re here,” the little black tiger greeted. Even though it had yet to recognize its master, its master seemed to have called it. Therefore, it blurted out without thinking.

“Yes, is Little Qi satisfied with this place!” Leng Ruoxue knew that the two little fellows were in the bracelet, so she could easily sense their emotions.

“Thank you, Elder Sister. I love this place,” said the Camphor Wood happily, shaking its branches excitedly.

“That’s good.” Leng Ruoxue nodded.

“Elder Sister, these are my gifts to you.” With that, pieces of jade-like sparkling leaves flew towards Leng Ruoxue.

Chapter 1036: Meeting Mo Yan (3)

“Little Qi, I don’t need these leaves now,” Leng Ruoxue said helplessly as she looked at the small and exquisite emerald green leaves on her palm. She didn’t want Little Qi to hurt itself to repay her kindness.

“Hehe! Sister, don’t worry. Plants follow a natural progression. Besides, I didn’t pick these leaves on the spot. I dropped them over the years and gave them all to you now,” Little Qi explained. Even though it was only a small tree with intelligence now, Leng Ruoxue’s words still warmed its heart. When it saw that it wasn’t the only sprite here, it was even clearer that its choice wasn’t wrong. Elder Sister was really a good person.

“That’s good. Little Qi, you have to cultivate hard and strive to transform as soon as possible. This way, you will have more friends,” Leng Ruoxue reminded.

“Yes, I will,” Little Qi said excitedly. Transformation was the greatest dream of every natural treasure. Now that there was such a good opportunity, it naturally didn’t want to miss it.

“Little Qi, do you know where the Black Star Grass is in the Dark Canyon?” Leng Ruoxue asked expectantly.

“I’m sorry, Sister, I’m not sure,” Little Qi said sheepishly. He felt bad that he couldn’t help his sister.

“I only know Little Qi,” the little black tiger said honestly. Basically, there would be guardian beasts beside the natural treasures that were discovered. Therefore, once they discovered something good, they would not leave easily. Naturally, they would not have the chance to come into contact with other things. Moreover, the Black Star Grass was poisonous, and it did not like it.

“Oh!” It seemed that they had to continue walking in, Leng Ruoxue thought helplessly.

“Little Qi, Little Tiger, they’re my grandfather and brother.” Leng Ruoxue only remembered that she hadn’t introduced them when she accidentally saw her grandfather and brother’s interested gazes!

“He’s my fiancé.” Leng Ruoxue pointed at the freak again.

“Hehe! Hello, little fellows!” Leng Qingtian greeted them with a smile.

“Hello, Grandpa Stupid,” Little Qi said with a chuckle.

.....

“Uh!” Leng Qingtian was depressed again when he heard this title. Boohoo... Why did this little guy only know how to bully him! Previously, he teased him, and now he called him Grandpa Stupid!

“Hehe!” Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help but laugh when she saw Leng Qingtian’s expression. However, in the next second, she dragged the freak away to prevent her grandfather from flying off the handle.

“Bad girl, you even dare to tease your own grandfather.” Leng Qing couldn’t help complaining as he looked at Leng Ruoxue’s back. However, his granddaughter wasn’t around, so he could only turn his resentful gaze to his grandson.

“Grandpa, I’m not laughing at you,” Leng Ruohan hurriedly said. In fact, he was secretly laughing in his heart.

With that, he did not dare to stay any longer and slipped away.

“You...” Seeing that his grandson had disappeared, Leng Qingtian couldn’t help but stomp his feet in anger. Boohoo... What a heartless little baddie! All he knew was to bully his grandfather.

“Hehe!” Little Qi, who felt Leng Qingtian’s childish thoughts, couldn’t help but chuckle.

“Little bad tree, it’s all your fault!” Leng Qingtian said with slight dissatisfaction.

Just like that, the man and the tree kept communicating...

The next day.

Leng Ruoxue and the others left the tent and saw that the grandfather and granddaughter had already prepared breakfast.

“Miss, you can eat now,” the old man quickly said when he saw Leng Ruoxue and the others come out.

“Oh! It smells so good! Your cooking is really good.” Leng Qingtian couldn’t help but praise after smelling the fragrance of the food.

“It’s not that. It’s just that Miss’s ingredients are good. Otherwise, she wouldn’t be able to make such good tasting food,” the old man said humbly. Yesterday, after Miss and the others compensated him for his culinary skills, they handed the task of cooking to him and even prepared ingredients for him. Otherwise, he really wouldn’t be able to make such a delicious meal!

“Don’t be humble. Your skills are indeed not bad,” Leng Ruoxue said with certainty.

“Hehe, thank you for your praise, Miss. Hurry up and eat! It won’t taste good if it’s cold,” the old man urged.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue and the others nodded and sat down at the dining table.

After breakfast, they cleaned up briefly and continued on their way.

After walking around the Dark Grand Canyon for two days, Leng Ruoxue and the others led the way and found a few more valuable herbs. However, the Black Star Grass she wanted to find was nowhere to be found.

“Miss, it’s even more dangerous to go any further, so I suggest you don’t go,” the old man couldn’t help but advise as they stood at the entrance of a narrow passageway.

“What’s inside?” Leng Ruoxue asked curiously.

“That’s the deepest part of the Dark Grand Canyon. Besides, I don’t think there’s the Black Star Grass that Miss and the others are looking for,” the old man said. However, even though he said that, he was actually not very sure if there was Black Star Grass inside.

“You’ve been in there?” Leng Ruoxue asked calmly. With the old man’s cautiousness, she didn’t think he had been in there.

“No, I’m too weak to enter,” the old man said honestly.

“But I want to go in and take a look. Otherwise, I won’t give up,” Leng Ruoxue said stubbornly.

“If you don’t want to go in, I won’t force you. I can pay you the reward now. Also, thank you for leading the way for the past few days,” Leng Ruoxue said.

“We’re guides. Since we brought you in, we naturally have to bring you out safely. Therefore, we can’t leave you here. Otherwise, if word gets out, how will we be able to raise our heads in the future! Forget it, I’ll accompany you in! However, you have to be careful inside. I heard from our ancestors that the danger there is a hundred times greater than outside,” the old man reminded.

“Okay, then let’s go in!” Leng Ruoxue said with a smile. Hehe! She really didn’t misjudge him.

“Alright,” the old man replied. Then he walked ahead to scout the way.

This path was abnormally narrow. Only one person could walk on it at a time, so the old man walked at the front while Leng Ruohan and Leng Qingtian followed closely behind. Leng Ruoxue and the freak walked at the back. The young man originally wanted to walk behind, but Leng Ruoxue rejected him. She had many life-saving methods, so she naturally couldn’t let a young man who hadn’t undergone energy conversion walk behind to protect them.

Chapter 1037: Meeting Mo Yan (4)

After walking for about half an hour, Leng Ruoxue and the others finally passed through the narrow path and arrived in a wider valley.

The entire valley was lush green and full of vitality.

Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help but be surprised when she saw the scenery in front of her. She didn’t expect the depths of the dark grand canyon to be like this. Not only her, but even the old man rubbed his eyes in disbelief.

“This... this...” The old man didn’t know what to say. This place... shouldn’t be like this! He had heard from his seniors that the depths of the canyon were very dangerous. However, the scenery in front of him was clearly more beautiful than any place he had been to before. Not only that, he had even seen rare sunlight here. It had to be known that wherever they went previously, they had always been enveloped by fog. Therefore, when he saw this scene, he actually felt a little uncomfortable.

“It seems that you can’t believe everything the predecessors say,” Leng Ruoxue said with a light smile. As the saying went, what you hear is false, and what you see is true. If you didn’t see it with your own eyes, it would be unreal no matter what.

“Hehe! Unexpected, this place really surprised me,” the old man said repeatedly. At the same time, he couldn’t help but secretly rejoice. Fortunately, he chose to follow these people in. Otherwise, if he found out that this was the depths of the Dark Grand Canyon in the future, he would regret it to death!

“Okay, let’s continue on our way!” Leng Ruoxue said with a light smile. Even though the scenery here was good, there would be unknown dangers, so as long as they didn’t leave this place, they couldn’t let their guard down.

“Miss, let’s look over there!” The old man pointed to the east of the valley. The spiritual energy there seemed to be thicker. There might be unexpected gains.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue nodded. With that, they walked in the direction the old man pointed.

Along the way, Leng Ruoxue harvested a lot of precious herbs. However, just as she finished picking a medicinal herb, she suddenly heard the sound of fighting not far away. Originally, she didn’t want to be nosy, but a voice made her feel familiar.

“Grandpa, let’s go over there and take a look,” Leng Ruoxue said to Leng Qingtian and the others.

“Okay.” Leng Qingtian nodded. He had also heard the sounds of fighting over there. Even though he was a little surprised that his granddaughter would be curious about this, since it was his precious granddaughter who had made the decision, he would definitely support her wholeheartedly.

“Miss, let’s not meddle in other people’s business. It’s hard to predict people’s hearts!” The old man hurriedly reminded her.

.....

“Don’t worry, I won’t interfere. I just want to see if it’s someone I know,” Leng Ruoxue explained.

“Oh! Alright then!” The old man was helpless and could only follow Leng Ruoxue and the others.

When she was still a distance away from the scene of the battle, Leng Ruoxue saw the people on both sides of the battle clearly. One of them was really someone she knew because that person was none other than Mo Yan, who had also come to the Dark Grand Canyon.

However, the current situation seemed to be a little disadvantageous for Mo Yan. Even though he had the strength of a Divine Emperor, he could not unleash his true strength on the Divine Continent. Moreover, the other party had many people. Therefore, after a battle, Mo Yan did not have any advantage. Instead, he was in danger of losing.

“Xue’er, let’s go and help him!” Leng Qingtian said worriedly when he saw Mo Yan being surrounded. After all, Mo Yan was the master of the Leng family’s Cheapsake Old Ancestor and had come to the Dark Grand Canyon for the sake of the ancestor. If they encountered danger here, they would feel bad.

“Yes, that person is our friend. We’ll help him. Wait here and don’t move.” Leng Ruoxue nodded and said to the grandfather and granddaughter.

“Okay.” The old man nodded. He knew his strength very well, so he naturally wouldn’t puff himself up at his own cost and cause trouble for Leng Ruoxue and the others.

After Leng Ruoxue settled the old and young, she walked towards the center of the battlefield with the freak and the other three.

“They’re really shameless to bully us with numbers,” Leng Ruoxue said mockingly as she stood outside the battle circle. Coincidentally, the people who surrounded Mo Yan were none other than the team led by the man they met at the entrance of the Dark Grand Canyon.

“Little girl, why are you here?” Hearing a familiar voice, Mo Yan turned his head and asked in disbelief. As he was distracted, he was immediately stabbed and blood flowed down.

“Focus!” Leng Ruoxue reminded Mo Yan, who was in an extremely sorry state.

“Hmph! Why is it you again! Mind your own business, or you’ll regret it,” the man said with a headache after seeing Leng Ruoxue and the others. If possible, he really didn’t want to see these people again.

“Don’t worry, I’m not a busybody. However, this guy’s business isn’t a busybody. He’s my friend, so I have to interfere in this matter.” Leng Ruoxue pointed at Mo Yan.

“Hmph! Then all of you can attack together!” the man roared angrily. He did not care about the few Mystic Gods.

However, he quickly regretted it. Even though Leng Ruoxue and the other three were all at the Mystic God level on the surface, their combat strength was not only at the Mystic God level.

“Since you’re so kind as to invite us, we won’t stand on ceremony,” Leng Ruoxue said with a wicked smile. Then, she gave the freak and the others a look. Immediately after, the four of them rushed into the battle circle and each found an opponent to fight...

The appearance of Leng Ruoxue and the other three immediately relieved a lot of pressure on Mo Yan. However, Mo Yan was still a little angry. He couldn’t help but roar in front of his opponents, “You disobedient little fellows, who let you come here!”

Unfortunately, his roar was ignored by Leng Ruoxue and the others.

“Damn it, where did you perverts come from!” The man roared angrily when he saw his subordinates die in the blink of an eye.

“Calm down! All of you calm down. You have to pay back sooner or later. This is something that will happen sooner or later,” Leng Ruoxue said meaningfully. In fact, she had long seen that this man didn’t have any good intentions. However, what she couldn’t understand was how Mo Yan met them and even got into a conflict.

The man couldn’t help feeling angry when he heard Leng Ruoxue’s words. However, he instantly fell straight to the ground.

Chapter 1038: Meeting Mo Yan (5)

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh! After a few flashes of light, the man and his subordinates disappeared from this world forever.

Mo Yan was a little dumbfounded as he looked at Leng Ruoxue and the others’ swift movements. He was speechless for a long time...

How ruthless, accurate, and fast! Mo Yan, who came back to his senses, thought to himself in shame. However, in an instant, he remembered that Leng Ruoxue and the others had lied to him, so he said with a straight face and slight displeasure, “Girl, aren’t you in seclusion? Why are you here?!”

“Fortunately, we came. Otherwise, we could only collect your corpse,” Leng Ruoxue said with a calm smile. Since she met Mo Yan, she knew that her plan couldn’t be hidden anymore, so she teased him.

“You... wretched girl, this was just an accident. Now, let’s talk about the matter of you lying to me.” Mo Yan’s handsome face flushed red as he said angrily.

“We... have nothing to say. The truth is what you see. We came to the Dark Grand Canyon.” Leng Ruoxue chuckled disapprovingly.

“Alright, Sir Mo Yan, don’t be angry for now. It’s better to treat your injuries. However, Xue’er is right. If we didn’t meet you, I’m afraid we would have to collect your corpse,” Leng Qingtian reminded with a mischievous smile.

“That’s right! Sir Mo Yan, you’re really too careless,” Leng Ruohan said disapprovingly. Wasn’t Mo Yan a Divine Emperor? Why couldn’t he even deal with these few small characters? It was really too disappointing.

“I was schemed against by them.” Seeing through Leng Ruohan’s thoughts, Mo Yan explained with a red face. Sigh! Speaking of which, it was really embarrassing. He had lived for so many years, but there was actually a day when he would fail.

“Eat this.” Leng Ruoxue handed a milky white pill to Mo Yan.

Mo Yan took the pill and threw it into his mouth. In the blink of an eye, he felt his imprisoned divine power become active again. He couldn’t help but feel happy and thought to himself that the medicine this girl gave him was really useful!

“Why do these people want to deal with you?” Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help but ask curiously when she saw that Mo Yan’s injuries had recovered.

“It’s all for this little thing.” Mo Yan took out a fluffy little fellow from his arms and handed it to Leng Ruoxue.

“Uh! What’s this?” Leng Ruoxue looked at the snow-white, fluffy, and fat little ball in Mo Yan’s hand that was only the size of a baby’s fist and asked in confusion.

Chapter 1039: Abyssal Swamp (1)

After leaving the Dark Grand Canyon, Leng Ruoxue and the others went straight to their next destination, the Abyssal Swamp.

The Abyssal Swamp was located in the north of Flame City, about five days away from the Dark Canyon. It was said that even though it was called the Abyssal Swamp, it was no longer a swamp after many years of change. However, it was definitely not a popular place with beautiful scenery.

And the number of people who went to explore the Abyssal Swamp was definitely not as many as the Dark Grand Canyon.

Leng Ruoxue and the others flew for five days and arrived at the Abyssal Swamp in the morning. After finding a place to eat breakfast, they went straight to the entrance of the Abyssal Swamp.

There were only a dozen people guarding the entrance to the Abyssal Swamp. However, no one dared to approach them after seeing their group.

“Let’s go in directly!” Leng Ruoxue saw that those people were sensible and turned to say to her grandfather and the others.

“Okay.” Leng Qingtian and the others nodded. Then, everyone entered the Abyssal Swamp together.

The difference between the Abyssal Swamp and the Dark Grand Canyon was that the Dark Grand Canyon was a deep valley. There were many plants and greenery in the valley, and this place looked more like a plain. The terrain was extremely low and muddy, so Leng Ruoxue found it difficult to imagine that there was Black Star Grass here. In fact, she thought that the Dark Grand Canyon had a larger surface with Black Star Grass.

Leng Ruoxue and the others walked carefully in the Abyssal Swamp. The roads here were full of potholes and the soil was very slippery. If they were not careful, they would be in danger of sinking. Therefore, they had to be 120% vigilant!

Leng Ruoxue and the others walked. Suddenly, a dirty thing that they couldn’t tell what monster it was emerged from the soil in front of them. Moreover, they couldn’t see its eyes. They could only see a semi-circular body that was dripping with mud and emitting a strange smell...

“What is this? It’s disgusting!” Leng Qingtian covered his nose and couldn’t help but say.

“This is a mud beast. Uh! It’s similar to an earth dragon. They’re low-level creatures that live by the soil. They like this kind of place the most. Moreover, this kind of thing is annoying and troublesome. It’s not easy to kill,” Mo Yan explained calmly. Before coming to the Abyssal Swamp, he had expected to encounter mud beasts, so he was naturally very calm. However, these little fellows had probably never heard of such a thing. After all, such a creature was not found in the lower realm.

“Not easy to kill? Then what should we do? Can we bypass it?” Leng Ruoxue asked curiously.

“No, this can be considered a paradise for mud beasts. There will be mud beasts in many places. Moreover, if we can’t kill them, they won’t die as long as we encounter this wet mud,” Mo Yan said with a headache. Moreover, looking at the huge body of the mud beast in front of him, it was clearly the king of this mud beast.

“Can we kill them with fire?” Leng Ruoxue said with a headache. She had already seen bubbles constantly emerging from the wet mud in front of her. She hoped that those small bubbles wouldn’t be the subordinates of this mud beast. Otherwise, it would probably be very troublesome.

“Ordinary flames are useless. Even divine flames will take a lot of effort to kill these disgusting things,” Mo Yan said. After saying that, he wanted to activate his divine flames to destroy the mud beast in front of them.

The mud beast in front of them didn’t seem to understand what they were saying. It just kept crying out, “Woo-woo!” It was similar to the sound of an instrument crying. This was also the unique cry of the mud beast, a provocative cry.

“Let me try!” Leng Ruoxue stopped Mo Yan, who wanted to attack, and said calmly. Since the Divine Fire could kill these disgusting mud beasts, she believed that her flames would be even better.

Thinking of this, Leng Ruoxue immediately activated her intrinsic flame. In an instant, a small flame jumped on her fair and slender fingertips. The flame was dark red with a hint of purple. Even though it was very small, the temperature was extremely high. Seeing that she was about to attack, the freak, Leng Qingtian, and Leng Ruohan immediately took a few steps back. Only Mo Yan, who didn't know what was going on, was still standing foolishly beside her.

However, as soon as Leng Ruoxue's flames appeared, Mo Yan felt the scorching heat and couldn't help but take a step back. He couldn't help but feel uneasy in his heart. How could this perverted girl have such abnormal flames? This kind of high temperature would probably dry the entire Abyssal Swamp, let alone the Mud Beast. It was really too terrifying.

The Mud Beast not far away also instinctively felt that this flame was unusual. Its wet and slippery body could not help but tremble...

"You want to treat us as your food? I'll fulfill your wish!" After Leng Ruoxue finished speaking, the small flame that jumped on her fingertip flew happily towards the huge mud beast and instantly enveloped its huge body. The soaring flames even burned half the sky red...

A moment later.

The mud beasts blocking the way turned into steam and disappeared without a trace. The slippery ground in front of them was completely roasted dry...

"Alright, we can continue on our way," Leng Ruoxue said to the freak and the others after clapping her hands.

"Yes." The freak and the other two nodded. However, Mo Yan looked at Leng Ruoxue as if he was looking at a monster. In the end, he only said three words...

"Little pervert!" Mo Yan took a deep breath and couldn't help but say.

"Thank you for the compliment!" Leng Ruoxue smiled very happily. After all, not everyone could get these three words, especially from the mouth of a Weapon God. It should be enough for her to be proud! Hehe!

"Little pervert, you don't just know a little bit about refining weapons!" Mo Yan said with certainty. How could someone with such a powerful intrinsic flame only know a little about refining weapons? He wouldn't believe it even if he was beaten to death!

"I'm more interested in alchemy," Leng Ruoxue said honestly.

"Little pervert! You... you even know how to refine pills!" Mo Yan widened his eyes and said in disbelief. This girl was too much! With such abnormal flames, she even knew how to refine pills and weapons. This was really too shocking.

"Don't tell me you only know a little bit! You refined the pill I ate previously, right?" Mo Yan added.

Chapter 1040: Abyssal Swamp (2)

"I'm quite proficient in alchemy. Is that enough!" Leng Ruoxue said helplessly.

“That’s better,” Mo Yan said like a child.

“Then can we continue on our way now?” Leng Ruoxue asked again.

“Yes.” Mo Yan nodded.

After that, everyone walked for nearly an entire morning. Other than the few weeds and half-withered trees, they didn’t even find the shadow of a single herb. Moreover, the deeper they went, the more Leng Ruoxue didn’t believe that there was Black Star Grass here.

As noon approached, they found a relatively dry place to rest for the time being.

However, Mo Yan was actually not very satisfied with the place they found. He even asked Leng Ruoxue to dry this place with flames.

“Little pervert, hurry up! Hurry up!” Mo Yan pestered like a child.

“Uh!” Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help but frown. She couldn’t help but feel uneasy in her heart. Was this person really Mo Yan? Could he have been swapped? Logically speaking, the Mo Yan she knew shouldn’t be so childish!

“Little pervert...” Mo Yan deliberately dragged out his voice.

“I’m afraid of you,” Leng Ruoxue said helplessly. She resigned herself to fate and activated her vital flame, roasting the place they liked to stay dry. Boohoo... She only knew today that her vital flame had the effect of drying.

“Hehe! Not bad! Well done!” Mo Yan looked at the dry and warm place and nodded in satisfaction. Then, he found a random place to sit down and wait for lunch.

“Sir Mo Yan, you can only eat and drink well if you do it yourself, so hurry up and work! Don’t think of slacking off!” Leng Ruoxue looked at Mo Yan and said with a light smile.

.....

“Uh! I don’t know how to cook,” Mo Yan said awkwardly. It was fine for him to refine weapons, but it was better not to cook!

“Even though you don’t know how to cook, you can’t eat for free!” Leng Ruoxue said with a wicked smile.

“What do you want then?” Mo Yan said warily. That Di Ren owed this little pervert a huge debt. Could it be that this little girl had designs on him again?

“I don’t want to do anything, but it’s only right to pay for the meal. However, you can also choose not to eat. After all, you’re already a Divine Emperor. It’s fine if you don’t eat,” Leng Ruoxue said with a smile.

“I want to eat it!” Mo Yan was very depressed. Boohoo... This bad girl was getting more and more fond of bullying him. However, he couldn’t hit or scold her, so he could only sulk.

“Then pay up!” Leng Ruoxue stretched out her fair and tender hand and handed it to Mo Yan.

“Uh! How much do you want?” Cold sweat dripped from Mo Yan’s head. He was even more speechless in his heart. This little pervert really wanted to collect money from him!

“I won’t ask you for much. I’ll just charge you a supreme-grade crystal for a meal,” Leng Ruoxue said lightly.

“A supreme-grade crystal? Your food is so expensive. I don’t think many people can afford it!” Mo Yan was speechless and looked at Leng Ruoxue even more strangely.

“I won’t give it to others if they want to eat it! However, I know you can definitely afford it!” Leng Ruoxue said with certainty.

“Uh! Alright then! However, you have to remember that I don’t have that many supreme-grade crystals on me,” Mo Yan said helplessly.

“Hehe! I love to keep accounts so that I can calculate interest!” Leng Ruoxue said with a faint smile.

“...”

Mo Yan was really speechless. It seemed that not only was this girl a pervert, but she was also a money-grubber. Sigh! Now, he could finally understand Xiao Yu’s feelings because he was also helpless against this little girl!

Even though he had been cheated, Mo Yan was still very happy with his meal!

After lunch, the group took a short break and continued on their way.

“Mo Yan, there are so few people here!” Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help asking curiously after walking for almost a day and not seeing anyone.

“Yes! The people here definitely can’t compare to the Dark Grand Canyon. There were still many people who came here to train in the past. However, as the living environment changed and the animals and plants here became fewer and fewer, the number of people who came here gradually decreased,” Mo Yan explained.

“Oh! Then with your experience, where do you think there will be traces of Black Star Grass?” Leng Ruoxue asked shamelessly.

“I don’t know either. Why don’t we go over there and take a look! I heard from Liu Yu that there used to be a lot of herbs over there.” Mo Yan pointed to the south of the Abyssal Swamp. This Abyssal Swamp was like the Dark Grand Canyon. There was a lot of fog, so the range of their divine sense couldn’t be too far. Therefore, they could only walk over.

However, what made him happy was that along the way, other than the mud beast they had encountered before, they did not encounter another mud beast. Well! Could it be that those mud beasts were frightened by this girl, so they did not dare to show their heads? He could not help but guess.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue and the others nodded. Then, everyone walked towards the south of the Abyssal Swamp.

When they arrived at the place Mo Yan pointed out, it was already evening. The fog was even thicker, and they could barely see clearly. Therefore, Leng Ruoxue and the others could only find a flat place, set up the tent, and prepare to continue on the road the next day.

This time, without waiting for Mo Yan to speak, Leng Ruoxue took the initiative to warm them up in the tent they wanted. After all, the night in the Abyssal Swamp was very cold.

“Little Pervert, well done.” Mo Yan nodded in satisfaction.

Leng Ruoxue glanced at Mo Yan and scattered a circle of colorless and transparent powder around the tent to prevent snakes, insects, rats, and ants from disturbing them. This way, they could rest in peace.

“Little pervert, what medicine did you sprinkle?” Mo Yan asked curiously. In fact, he had always wanted to ask this question, but every time he was about to ask, he was interrupted.

“Poison,” Leng Ruoxue said softly, and then she saw Mo Yan’s expression change again and again.

“Don’t be afraid. This medicine only works on uninvited guests.” Leng Ruoxue comforted with a naughty smile.

“Oh! Lucky!” Mo Yan broke out in cold sweat. However, after hearing Leng Ruoxue’s explanation, he finally relaxed.
