Chapter 1131: Our meeting gift (3)

"First elder, I'll immediately send someone to send them an invitation." Ning Fei said excitedly.

"No, you go personally!" The ning family's first elder said.

"Alright," he said. Ning Fei stood up and went straight to the inn.

After receiving the invitation from ning Fei, the first elder glanced at master ning and teased,""Old man ning, the ning family sent us an invitation. I don't know what they're up to!"

"Won't you know if you go and take a look!" Master ning said disapprovingly.

"Well, let's go and have a look the day after tomorrow." The first elder asked with interest.

When Leng ruoxue saw the invitation to the auction! She was also quite interested and planned to visit it with them the day after tomorrow! It seemed that she had not been to an auction before!

The morning after tomorrow.

Half an hour before the auction officially began, Leng ruoxue and the others entered the auction hall in a grandiose manner. The waiter saw the VIP invitation in their hands and immediately invited them to the VIP box.

This auction venue was the largest one in Peace City, and the area of the VIP box inside was also very spacious, enough to accommodate all of them.

There were all sorts of facilities in the private room, and the decorations were also very tasteful. It was very similar to the ning family's usual style. However, what Leng ruoxue did not know was that all the shops and auction venues belonging to the ning family were arranged in the same way.

Everyone looked around and found a place to sit down.

The waiter quickly served the refreshments and fruits for Leng ruoxue and the rest to enjoy.

However, not long after they sat down, there was a commotion outside the private room.

"Feng Da, go out and take a look. Why is it so noisy!" Leng ruoxue ordered.

"Yes." Feng Da stood up and walked outside.

When he walked out of the door, Feng Da saw the man who had once quarreled with him arguing with the guards.

"What are you arguing about? Go and quarrel elsewhere, don't affect my family's young lady's mood. " Feng Da frowned and said unhappily. He really couldn't understand why ning Haoran would keep someone like this by his side. He really didn't know how to look at the big picture. He didn't even pay attention to his own status in public.

"This private room should be reserved for my young master and young lady. Hurry up and give it up." The man rolled his eyes at Feng Da and shouted arrogantly.

"Is that so?" Feng Da sneered, grabbed the man's collar, and dragged him to a corner ...

Not long after, Feng Da clapped his hands and walked out from the corner. The guard who was curiously looking at the corner also turned his head and left, pretending that he had not seen anything.

After entering the private room, Feng Da smiled and said to everyone, "It's all settled."

"Kid, did you crack that thing?" The great elder asked curiously. It was very noisy outside, but after Feng Da went out, there was no sound outside. So, he naturally thought that this kid must have killed him. One should know that these people under the little girl were more cold-blooded than the other!

"No, I don't kill dogs." Feng Da laughed evilly. However, that person was not much better off than dead.

"That's good. After all, it's the ning family's dog!" The great elder seemed to be at ease. After he finished speaking, he even stole a glance at master ning.

"Old man, why are you looking at me? Our ning family doesn't have such a dog." Master ning said angrily.

"As the saying goes, you have to look at the owner before you hit the dog! However, since you don't even admit that the dog is yours, I'll just kill it directly next time." The first elder said with an evil smile.

"Kill them if you want to. There's no need to report to me." Master ning said indifferently. He had many children and grandchildren, and he didn't care if a few died, let alone a dog of the ning family!

"Kid, you heard that! In the future, if you see anyone from the ning family that you don't like, just kill them if you want to. There's no need to report to this old man." The great elder deliberately misinterpreted master ning's meaning and said to Feng Da and the others.

However, master ning could ignore the great elder's words, but Feng Da and the others' foreheads were full of black lines. They unanimously agreed to say, "great elder, it's easy for you to say. Not everyone from the ning family in the divine world would come to the divine mainland to find trouble with them. And the ning family on the divine mainland seems to be pleasing them now, so it's really not easy to kill the ning family!"

"Does master ning really not care?" Leng ruoxue chuckled as she asked.

"Little girl, if someone from the ning family provokes you, you just need to tell me. I'll teach him a lesson for you. You don't even need to do anything." When master ning heard this, he quickly said, and his heart was even more upset. This girl is really ruthless! He couldn't let her kill the entire ning family, then wouldn't he become a general without an Army!

"No matter who it is?" Leng ruoxue asked again.

“Of course.” Master ning promised.

“First elder, you have to be my witness!” Leng ruoxue winked at first elder and smiled evilly.

“Hehe! Alright, I’ll be your witness. If this old man dares to go back on his words! I’ll go to the divine realm and ruin his reputation. ” The first elder chuckled.

“Uh!” After hearing first elder’s words, Leng ruoxue wondered if she had found the wrong person. As the master of the ning family, was there any use in ruining his reputation? Who in the divine realm would dare to say anything bad about him? Unless it was a Divine Master. However, a Divine Master would not be so bored.

As the crowd chatted, the auction officially began.

The auction was divided into three rounds. The first round was only for the common items, and the second round was relatively more valuable. However, the third round was still the best.

According to the usual practice, every guest who wanted to participate in the auction would get a list of items before the auction began so that they could prepare enough money for the items they liked. However, the auction this time was different because the guests only got the list of items for the first two auctions. As for the items for the last auction, the organizer had kept it a secret.

However, the ning family’s staff in charge of the auction still very cautiously told the major families that there would be good things in the third auction, and that they should prepare as much money as possible to avoid missing out on it.

The ning family’s secrecy had actually raised the interest of all the major families. As a result, the number of families who had come to participate in the auction had actually doubled. Fortunately, the ning family’s auction ground was large enough, or else it would not have been able to accommodate the representatives of these families.

Chapter 1132: Our meeting gift (4)

Leng ruoxue and the others sat in a spacious and comfortable VIP box. The front of the box was a huge crystal glass, so they could easily see the situation in the auction hall. However, the people outside could not see them. They were quite satisfied with this design. After all, they did not want to be seen as monkeys by others.

As the host’s voice fell, the auction officially began.

Most of the items in the auction this time were owned by the ning family. Some of them were also put up for auction by other families. Yesterday, Leng ruoxue had also instructed Feng Da to put up a few items for auction.

In the first round of the auction, the items were ordinary and cheap. Most of them were medicinal herbs and ores, and the people present were not very interested in these items. Therefore, Leng ruoxue had basically won them at an extremely low price.

“Little girl, what are you doing with so many ordinary herbs and ores?” Master ning asked with a puzzled look.

“That’s right, little girl. Even if the old man is a blacksmith, he can’t eat so many ores! Moreover, these ores are too common, so it’s impossible to craft high quality equipment.” The great elder said disapprovingly. In his opinion, this girl’s behavior was clearly a waste! Those things didn’t need to be bought at all.

“It’s not like I bought it for him, he’s not the only Tool Master around me!” Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

“Uh!” The great elder and master ning had nothing to say.

As the last item was kept in Leng ruoxue’s bag, the first auction had come to a successful end. Other than a few items that Leng ruoxue was not interested in, most of the items had been sold, and the owners of these items were naturally Leng ruoxue.

As the host of the auction, he knew very well that the crowd was not interested in the first auction. Therefore, only when someone called out a bid, it was basically a one-hit call. After all, the main event was later.

After the second auction began, the crowd’s reaction was slightly more enthusiastic than the first. However, none of the big families made a move because they were all waiting for the mysterious last auction!

Most of the items up for auction in the second round were pieces of equipment. Other than a few pieces of Saint-level equipment that were sold for a good price, there were very few people who were interested in the other pieces of equipment. However, they had all found their owners. Leng ruoxue and the others did not participate in this round.

It was almost noon when the first two auctions had ended. After the lunch break, the third auction would begin in the afternoon. Seeing that there were still a few hours before the afternoon auction, Leng ruoxue and the others decided to return to the inn to rest. After all, it was still early.

However, as soon as they left the auction hall, they met the ning siblings, and accompanying them were Ning Xiang and his son.

“What a coincidence! I’m surprised to see you here.” Ning Qi ‘er said with a smile.

“It’s quite a coincidence.” Leng ruoxue’s tone was calm. She planned to walk past ning Qi ‘er and her brother, who were blocking their way, and leave.

“Miss Leng, why don’t we have a meal together?” Ning Qi ‘er looked at her brother and invited him.

“Thank you for your kindness, miss ning, but there’s no need for a meal. We’re tired and would like to go back to the inn to rest. Please move aside, you’re blocking our way.” Leng ruoxue rejected.

“Hey! Miss ning is treating you to a meal because she thinks highly of you, so don’t fail to appreciate her kindness.” Before ning Qi ‘er could speak, Ning Cai, who was beside her, spoke first.

Ning Cai's lustful eyes were still sizing up Leng ruoxue's body. His slightly cloudy eyes were filled with a stunning glow.

"Miss ning doesn't need anyone to look up to her. Get lost and stay cool wherever you come from." Suddenly, a familiar voice spoke before Leng ruoxue and the rest could.

When Leng ruoxue and the rest heard this voice, they turned around and immediately felt a headache. Why was it him? He actually dared to come to Peace City and wasn't afraid that these natives would swallow him alive. This was because this person was none other than the ape that they had met several times in the ascender Alliance.

Yuan hou felt Leng ruoxue's gaze and walked towards the crowd with a coy expression. He lowered his head shyly and said, "Miss ning, long time no see."

"Uh! That's right!" Leng ruoxue braced herself and said. Although she really wanted to pretend that she didn't know Yuan hou, she was afraid that this Yuan hou would pester her relentlessly. Hence, she could only agree to it.

"What did you call her? Miss ning! Hmph! Open your dog eyes and look clearly, she's not miss ning, she's a fake." Ning Qi 'er laughed and exposed Leng ruoxue's true colors.

"You're talking nonsense! You're the fake one!" Yuan hou immediately roared in anger when he heard that his goddess had been humiliated.

"Miss ning Qi 'er is a direct descendant of the ning family's main family. How could she be a fake? if you dare to talk nonsense, I'll beat you up until all your teeth are out!" When Ning Cai heard someone talking about ning Qi 'er, he immediately felt indignant. After all, his life was saved by the ning siblings! Therefore, he naturally knew who his master was!

"All of you, shut up!" Leng ruoxue said with a slight headache. When these two ignorant and incompetent spoilt young masters met, it was like a volcano colliding with the earth. It was hard to determine the winner. However, they were simply too noisy.

After being yelled at by her, the two of them actually shut their mouths.

Leng ruoxue then turned to ning Qi 'er and said, "Miss ning, have you forgotten that I told you that I take my mother's surname?" Leng ruoxue smiled as she reminded him.

"And you, young master ningcai, don't forget the head token in my hand. The siblings can save you once, but they may not be able to save you a second time." Leng ruoxue looked at Ning Cai and warned him. If it wasn't for her being so insistent on dealing with the ning family's rotten matters, it would have been impossible for Ning Cai to leave the cell.

After she finished speaking, Leng ruoxue gave the crowd a look. Everyone understood and immediately walked past them to return to the inn. However, after they left, a hellish voice rang in Ning Cai's mind, "Watch out for your eyes if you dare to look around."

Ning Cai's face instantly turned pale and his entire body trembled in fear. When Yuan hou saw that Leng ruoxue and the rest had abandoned him, he immediately chased after them while shouting, "Miss ning, wait for me!"

As soon as he reached the entrance of the inn, Yuan hou was stopped by Feng Da, who was guarding outside the inn. Feng Da glared at Yuan hou and said fiercely, "Go back to your Inn. Miss hasn't been in a good mood these days. Be careful, she'll fix you up!"

Chapter 1133: Our meeting gift (5)

"Uh! What's wrong with miss ning?" Yuan hou's face was filled with anxiety.

"Come, I'll tell you." Feng Da waved his hand, signaling Yuan hou to come closer.

It was unknown what Feng Da said to Yuan hou, but after Yuan hou heard it, he immediately became angry and turned to walk in the opposite direction ...

In the room of the inn.

Master ning and the first elder stared at Leng ruoxue curiously. However, neither of them said a word, only staring at Leng ruoxue.

"Have you guys seen enough? Just ask whatever you want to ask!" Leng ruoxue said helplessly. Being stared at by a supreme divinity and a divine Emperor, she felt like she had a big mouth!

Not only them, but even Mo Yan and the other two were curious.

"Hehe! Little girl, you're so smart. Since you asked, then tell me the truth! Why did that idiot call you miss ning?" Master ning was confused.

"Uh! It's a long story." Leng ruoxue said calmly. She wasn't afraid that master ning would find out about this. After all, she didn't do anything to harm the ning family's interests. She had only used ning Rong 'er's identity. That was all.

"It doesn't matter, we have plenty of time." Master ning said quickly.

"Alright then!" Leng ruoxue knew that she couldn't muddle through this, so she could only tell them everything that had happened, including how she had come to the God World.

...

After hearing this, a few people who didn't know the truth fell silent.

"Little girl, so you're all ascendants!" Master ning said after a while.

"Yup! I don't know how master ning, as a native, plans to deal with us?" Leng ruoxue laughed evilly as she teased.

"Uh! Actually, the Aborigines and ascendants of the divine world are no longer as hostile to each other as before. It's just that there are still a small number of Aborigines who look down on ascendants. Thus, there will be occasional conflicts. In general, everyone can still live in peace and harmony. Otherwise, how could that ape dare to come to ning city?" Master ning explained with a smile.

Actually, when deities like them reached a certain height, their race and background were nothing. Furthermore, the divine realm revered the strong, and many magical beast experts treated them as equals. Thus, he did not care about the difference between ascendants and natives. In his eyes, as long as he found someone pleasing to the eye, they were all good, no matter how bad that person was.

“However, you used my identity as the young lady of the ning family ...” Master ning’s tone changed, and he only spoke halfway before he stopped.

“What do you want?” Leng ruoxue asked in a cooperative manner.

“Didn’t you say you were the lady of the ning family? Then it’s a done deal. Be my goddaughter!” Master ning said with a smile, hehe! He had been eyeing Leng ruoxue for a long time. He had always regretted that the ning family did not have such a smart girl who knew how to earn money! Now, he had finally gotten the chance. It was an opportunity that could not be missed!

“What’s in it for me to be your goddaughter?” Leng ruoxue asked with a smile.

“Being my goddaughter is already the best thing you can get. What else do you want?” Master ning was a little dumbfounded, but he couldn’t help but wonder if things had changed. He had finally taken a fancy to a girl and wanted to take her as his goddaughter, but she still asked him for benefits. One must know that if such a thing were to happen in the immortal realm, as long as he spread the news, countless people would come to please him! However, it was precisely because he knew that Leng ruoxue would not please him that he valued her even more, right?

“In your eyes, it’s the biggest benefit; however, in my eyes, it’s nothing at all. Additionally, I have to bear a certain risk to be your goddaughter. No matter how I think about it, it’s not worth it. Forget it, you’d better leave this benefit to others!” Leng ruoxue shook her head, her face full of fear.

“What kind of risk does being my goddaughter have to take? Who dares to touch my people! Unless he doesn’t want to live.” When master ning heard this, he immediately blew at his beard and roared. Coupled with his ghostly face, he was really as scary as it could be.

“Other people might not dare to do anything to me, but the ning family might! If by any chance someone burning with jealousy wants to scheme against me, I’ll have to make you feel awkward, right?” Leng ruoxue said honestly.

“With me around, who would dare to scheme against you?” Master ning roared in anger. That old man was right. This girl was too difficult to deal with. Sigh! Why was it so difficult for him to find a goddaughter that he liked?

“Can you still stay by my side forever? There will always be times when I’m alone, right? No matter who it is, as long as they provoke me, they won’t have a good life. The same goes for the ning family. So, for the peace of your old house, I advise you to give up this idea! Otherwise, if someone from the ning family really offends me, I won’t give you any face!” Leng ruoxue reminded.

“Hmph! The more unwilling you are, the more I will take you as my goddaughter. Little girl, today I will say this, in the future, if there is a ning family member who is blind and provokes you, you can deal with him, no matter who he is!” Master ning’s temper flared up, and he almost roared out his promise.

“Little girl, since old man ning has said so, then you should recognize him as your Godfather! You see, he’s quite pitiful, so just take it as pitying him.” The great elder pleaded, but his words made master ning even angrier.

“You damned old man, how am I pitiful! You better explain yourself clearly.” Master ning’s eyes were wide open as he looked at the great elder.

“You’re begging her to be your goddaughter. Aren’t you pitiful enough?” The great elder said with a smile, but he was laughing in his heart. If old man ning became the little girl’s goddaughter, then he would be his junior. No matter how he looked at it, he would not lose out. Moreover, these people had old man ning as their backing, so they would have a guarantee when they went to the divine world in the future. At least, those who had ideas about them would have to think twice.

“Little girl, are you going to agree or not?” When master ning heard first elder’s words, he felt that he was rather pitiful, so he simply yelled at Leng ruoxue. However, he still put on a pitiful look.

“I can agree to it, but I want a meeting gift.” Leng ruoxue said impolitely. Everyone knew that master ning was rich, so who else could she rip him off? As soon as she finished speaking, she received a look of approval from the first elder.

“There’s no problem with the meeting gift. Quickly acknowledge him as your Godfather!” Master ning said eagerly, as if he was afraid that Leng ruoxue would go back on her words.

“Godfather, please accept my three bows.” Leng ruoxue obediently bowed three times towards master ning. The simple ceremony of acknowledging him as her Godfather was completed, and the great elder naturally had to be the witness.

“Xue ‘er! When you guys go to the divine realm, Godfather will hold a grand family recognition ceremony for you. This way, no one will dare to bully you in the divine realm.” Master ning said happily.

“Thank you, Godfather. Is this our meeting gift?” Leng ruoxue extended her fair and tender little hand in front of master ning.

“Uh! You little money-grubber!” Master ning laughed as he scolded her. He helplessly took out a Lotus-shaped brooch from his storage ring and handed it to Leng ruoxue.

The brooch was of a unique style, new and unique. The entire Lotus was purple in three-dimensional shape, and the flower holder was made of Mithril, looking noble and mysterious.

After Leng ruoxue dripped her blood on the brooch, she realized that it was actually a high-grade defensive divine weapon. Even though it was not the highest-grade divine weapon, it was very suitable for her. Furthermore, there was a storage space in the middle of the lotus flower. The design was too ingenious.

“Little girl, are you satisfied?” Master ning asked despite knowing the answer. Such a beautiful and practical piece of equipment was hard for women to resist!

“Thank you, Godfather. Here’s their meeting gift!” Leng ruoxue pointed at Feng Da and the rest as she reminded them.

“Uh! I didn’t bring that many welcome gifts, so they can owe me one!” Master ning wiped the cold sweat on his forehead and thought to himself, this little girl is going to exploit me!

“Alright, I believe that Godfather will not go back on his word!” Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

“Old man ning! You’ve taken this little girl as your goddaughter, so she’ll be my junior in the future!” At this time, the first elder also laughed and reminded master ning, who was a little too proud.

Chapter 1134: New rules of the auction (1)

“What younger generation? How could I be your junior?” Master ning was puzzled, but Leng ruohan and the others turned their heads away tactfully, laughing secretly in their hearts.

“You’ve taken this little girl as your goddaughter, and I’m her godgrandfather. Aren’t you my junior?” The first elder said with a proud expression.

“Tsk, little Xue ‘er didn’t acknowledge your status. Don’t think too highly of yourself.” Master ning said disdainfully. You want to be my elder? Hmph! Maybe in the next life!

“Then I’m still older than you. Besides, don’t forget that the little girl still has her grandfather!” The first elder said with an evil smile.

“Uh!” Master ning turned to look at Leng Qingtian and the others, then said gloomily, “Let’s talk about our own matters. A little girl is a little girl, and her family is her family.”

When Leng Qingtian heard master ning’s words, he really wanted to tell him, “I don’t want to be your senior either, but first elder is using this matter to anger master ning!” Moreover, the great elder was the Grandmaster of that cheapskate ancestor of his family. Therefore, he could still distinguish between the inside and outside!

“That won’t do! Since you’ve acknowledged this little girl as your goddaughter, you can’t ignore her family. Her family will also be your family in the future. He’s your elder.” The great elder firmly opposed.

“I didn’t say I didn’t care! However, we still have our own opinions.” Master ning said fiercely. Sometimes, he even called the little girl’s grandfather his brother! If the other party suddenly became his elder, he would definitely not be able to accept it!

“You can argue with them, but you’ll be my junior in the future!” The first elder said with a smile.

“In your dreams, you have to beat me first!” Master ning was so angry that he planned to use force to solve the identity problem between them.

“You’re a reverent God, yet you have the nerve to fight with me, a divine Emperor?” The first elder’s eyes widened in disbelief.

...

“Uh!” Master ning was depressed. Wu...Was he really going to be eaten by this old thing?

“Hehe! Don’t worry, we’ll still talk as equals in public, but I’ll treat you as a junior in private.” The first elder said with an evil smile.

“You ...” Master ning was so angry that he couldn’t speak. His resentful eyes kept drifting towards Leng ruoxue, but Leng ruoxue turned her head away and ignored him.

After a long while, Leng ruoxue slowly opened her mouth, "It's getting late, let's go to the auction!" He said.

"Alright, alright!" Everyone immediately responded and left the room together. Seeing that everyone had left, master ning could only follow behind them, feeling wronged.

Along the way, master ning couldn't understand. Not to mention in the ning family, even in the divine world, he had a Supreme status. No matter where he went, he was flattered and pursued. However, in the eyes of these people, he was no different from an ordinary old man.

However, it was also because of this that he was willing to hang out with them and even ignored their rudeness. If this was seen by the ning family, they would be scared to death!

When they arrived at the auction venue, Leng ruoxue and the rest walked straight to the VIP box with familiarity. The moment they entered, they realized that there was already someone inside.

"Why are you guys here? This is our private room." Feng Da asked when he saw the ning siblings sitting inside.

"The entire auction house belongs to the ning family. We can sit wherever we want without anyone's permission." Ning Qi'er said with a proud smile.

"Oh, really? Feng Da, throw them out." Leng ruoxue smiled and said without any emotion.

"Who dares?" Ning Qi'er shouted. However, as soon as she finished speaking, she was the first one to be thrown out. Without any mental preparation, she fell to the ground on all fours, revealing her two white legs ...

Then, Ning Xiang and his son, who were accompanying the ning siblings, were also thrown out. In the blink of an eye, only ning Haoran was left in the room.

"You've gone too far by treating a girl like this." Ning Haoran said angrily. His heart was filled with hatred. Damn it, these people really didn't give him any face.

"I'm sorry, people who are an eyesore in my eyes are both men and women." Feng Da was ready to attack ning Haoran after he finished speaking. However, ning Haoran was more powerful than him, so he was not stupid enough to deal with him alone. He secretly gave Cheng Wu and the others a look, and they all swarmed up and threw ning Haoran out of the room before he could react.

"Miss, it's finally quiet here." Feng Da smiled at Leng ruoxue after he was done.

"Yes, ask ning Fei to clean this place up." Leng ruoxue nodded and ordered.

"Alright!" "Yes," Feng Da said and went to find ning Fei.

After receiving Leng ruoxue's order, ning Fei immediately brought people to change everything. The refreshments and fruits were also served. Then, he looked at Leng ruoxue uneasily and said, "Miss, I'm really sorry. I didn't know that this would happen."

"It's okay. I know it was Ning Xiang and his son who made the decision. It's not your fault." Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

“Miss, do you want me to arrange for someone to stand guard outside in case someone comes to disturb you?” Ning Fei asked carefully.

“No need. If someone really wants to come, your guards won’t be able to hold on.” Leng ruoxue said.

“Miss, I’ll take my leave first.” Ning Fei said very respectfully.

Leng ruoxue nodded, then turned her gaze to master ning. She smiled and said, “Godfather, I asked Feng Da to throw your grandson and granddaughter out just now. You won’t be angry, will you?”

“Hehe! You’re their elder, and you can punish them however you want for disrespecting you.” Master ning said with a smile, but in his heart, he was secretly thinking, “bad girl, you only remembered to ask me now, why didn’t you ask for my opinion before throwing it!” However, he really didn’t mind.

“It’s good that Godfather said so. Don’t worry, as long as they don’t go too far, I’ll let them live.” Leng ruoxue promised.

“Uh!” Master ning wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and thought to himself, “this girl is really ruthless.” However, he admired her clear-minded personality.

Chapter 1135: New rules of the auction (2)

Not long after, the third auction officially began.

The first item up for auction was a piece of defensive equipment. It was a low-level divine artifact and was a bracer. Although the decorations on it were very beautiful, it was only suitable for men.

“Ladies and gentlemen, the starting price of this wristguard is one hundred high-grade crystals, which is quite cheap. If the owner of this equipment didn’t need money urgently, he wouldn’t have auctioned it at such a low price. It’s done! I know some people can’t wait any longer, so please start filming now!”

The host of the auction was very eloquent. He didn’t introduce the characteristics of the equipment, but used the low price as an entry point, which indeed hit the weakness of some people. This was also where he was smart. After all, although divine artifacts were difficult to make, it was only a primary divine artifact, so it wouldn’t be that precious.

As the host finished speaking, the shooting officially began ...

“One hundred and fifty top grade crystals!”

“Two hundred top grade crystals!”

“I’ll pay three hundred!”

A few interested men called out their bids one by one, and soon, the price of the wrist guard increased several times.

In the end, this piece of equipment was won by a small family at the price of five hundred high-grade crystals.

The second item on the stage was a round bead. This bead was completely black and was only the size of a baby's fist. It emitted a strong dark attribute spiritual Qi. Before the host introduced this item, some people had already started discussing it in private.

...

"What is this? Is it also an equipment?"

"It doesn't look like it?"

The host listened to the discussion with a smile on his face. After a long while, he opened his mouth and introduced, "Everyone, stop guessing. This Pearl is actually the inner core of a sacred beast."

"What? The inner core of a sacred beast? That's good stuff!"

"I really didn't think that there would be a sacred beast inner core in this auction. Sigh! It would be great if it was some other attribute." Someone said with a regretful look.

The inner core of a sacred beast was very practical. Not only could it be used to refine weapons, but it could also be used to refine pills. In addition, it could also be directly absorbed. Only beasts above the sacred beast level would produce an inner core. Spirit beasts and Sacred Beasts did not have inner cores. However, Sacred Beasts were not easy to kill.

What's more, sacred beast level beasts were all very proud. If they realized that they were not the enemy's match, they would rather self-destruct than leave all their treasures to the enemy. Therefore, it was very difficult to take out the sacred beast's inner core in one piece. It was also because of this that the value of the sacred beast's inner core was determined.

As soon as this inner core was revealed, it immediately stirred up the emotions of all the weapon and alchemy Masters who came to the auction. Although there were very few deity with dark attribute, and the value of a dark attribute inner core was not as expensive as the inner core of other attributes, a complete inner core like this was still very rare. Therefore, many people were tempted.

The host only briefly introduced the bead and didn't say anything else. He gave the guests enough time to digest this information. When the time was almost up, he smiled and said, "Distinguished guests, the starting price for this dark attribute inner core is one thousand top grade crystals. You can start the auction now."

As soon as he finished speaking, someone impatiently called out a price ...

"I bid 1500 dollars!"

The first person to bid immediately raised the price of the inner core to one thousand five hundred pieces of high-grade crystal stones.

Immediately, someone, unwilling to be outdone, raised the price to two thousand high-grade crystal stones.

Then, someone offered two thousand five hundred high-grade crystal stones ...

“Three thousand top grade crystals!”

“Three thousand five hundred top grade crystals!”

And the price of this inner core was still rising ...

Leng ruoxue and the others watched the intense competition through the crystal glass like outsiders. No one had any intention of bidding.

“Aren’t you all interested in this inner core?” Master ning asked curiously. Didn’t they have a dark attribute among them? wouldn’t it be just right to buy this inner core?

“What do we want it for?” Feng Da was puzzled.

“This dark attribute inner core, can’t you all use it?” Master ning explained.

“We don’t need it!” Feng Da said honestly.

“Uh! Little Xue ‘er, you don’t want it either?” Master ning asked Leng ruoxue directly.

“No, this neidan’s grade is too low.” Leng ruoxue said directly.

“En, this little girl has good eyes. Although this is the inner core of a sacred beast, it is at most owned by a first or second ranked sacred beast. There should be even better ones later on.” The first elder said.

“You guys are really cunning.” Master ning was speechless. These two foxes, one old and one young, were really a perfect match.

However, even though Leng ruoxue and the rest were not interested, it did not affect the others’ pursuit of the sacred beast inner core. In the end, this sacred beast inner core was auctioned off at the price of ten thousand high-grade crystal stones.

In the VIP box, the great elder looked at master ning in surprise, as if he had discovered a new continent. He just looked at master ning without saying anything, which made master ning’s hair stand on end.

“Damn old man, if you keep staring at me, don’t blame me for being impolite.” Master ning couldn’t bear it anymore and growled.

“What’s wrong with looking? are you afraid of being embarrassed?” The first elder teased with a smirk.

“Go away, you’re the one who’s shy! No one can stand you staring at them like that!” Master ning quibbled.

“Hehe! I’m just curious!” The first elder laughed softly.

“What are you curious about?” Master ning looked at the great elder with vigilance.

“No wonder your ning family is so rich. Even a small inner core can be sold for ten thousand high-grade crystal stones, let alone other things. That’s right, don’t tell me the prices of the divine realm are all raised by your ning family? You’re so black-hearted!” The great elder clicked his tongue in wonder.

“What are you talking about? They were the ones who wanted to buy it, what does it have to do with me? Don’t you spout nonsense!” Master ning shouted angrily. If these words were to spread, the ning family would definitely cause public anger! Moreover, if these words were said by someone else, he would probably laugh it off. But these words were said by the great elder, which was different. Although this old man's strength was not as high as his, his prestige in the divine world was not inferior to his. If his joke were to spread, it would bring trouble to their ning family!

Chapter 1136: New rules of the auction (3)

"Yes, yes, one of you is willing to be hit and the other is willing to suffer!" The first elder laughed.

With the appearance of the bead, the participants of the auction were more expectant of the next items that were about to appear. However, although the items after the bead were precious, their practical value was not as good as the bead. Therefore, they were not enthusiastically sought after and were only auctioned off at normal prices.

The host had also expected that the items would not be very popular, so he did not introduce them too much. After the auction, he deliberately paused and said very seriously, "Everyone, the next item I'm going to auction has a starting price of one hundred high-grade crystals. Now, everyone can start the auction."

Hearing the host's words, everyone present was stunned. They were all a little puzzled. What did he mean? He didn't even tell them what the item was and just let them bid for it? This was really too strange.

For a moment, no one spoke first. Seeing this, the host chuckled and said, "What's wrong? No one dared to bid? Hehe! This is a new auction method implemented by our auction house. However, today is only a trial. As for whether you can get a good item, it will completely depend on your luck. The items on the stage may be precious items, or their value may not meet your expectations. In short, it will all depend on luck. How about it? Is there anyone who dares to be the first to eat the crab?"

No one responded to the host's words, and the atmosphere became heavy.

In the VIP box, the Grand Elder looked at the silent auction hall and teased with a smile, "I say, old man ning, what the hell is your ning family doing? Won't this way of patting scare everyone away?"

"You're asking me, but who should I ask? I didn't decide on this." Master ning said with wide eyes.

"Hehe! I wonder if this mysterious object can be auctioned off?" The great elder asked curiously.

The moment he finished speaking, Leng ruoxue started bidding.

"One hundred and fifty top grade crystals!" Leng ruoxue called out softly.

"Little girl, are you sure you want to buy it? There's no need to give face to old man ning." First elder warned.

"Aren't you guys curious about what that thing is?" Leng ruoxue asked with a smile.

"Even so, there's no need to spend that money, right? If someone buys it, we'll see it too!" The great elder said.

“But, I want to be the first one to eat the crab.” Leng ruoxue laughed. She did not believe that the ning family had no ulterior motive for making such a move.

After Leng ruoxue was the first to bid, others followed suit. Not long after, the price had risen to 500 high-grade crystal stones. However, after the price had risen to 500 high-grade crystal stones, there were very few people who were willing to bid. For a moment, everyone was in a wait-and-see state.

Leng ruoxue saw that no one else was following, so she raised the price to 600.

Seeing this, the host raised his little hammer and shouted, “Six hundred once!”

“Six hundred twice!”

“Six hundred ...”

Just as the host was about to call for the third time, someone else suddenly made a bid.

“Seven hundred top grade crystals!”

The voice came from the VIP box.

The moment Leng ruoxue heard the voice, she knew it was ning Qi ‘er. She immediately raised the price to 800.

In another VIP box.

Ning Qi ‘er held the megaphone in her hand and was about to continue bidding, but she was stopped by ning Haoran.

“Qi ‘er, stop messing around. If the price is too high and you can’t take out the money, what will we do?” Ning Haoran said with a slight headache. He did not think that his willful sister’s action of raising the price was meaningful. Not only that, if ning Qi ‘er went too far, she might be punished by the family. Therefore, he could not let ning Qi’ er continue to cause trouble like this.

“But we can’t let that annoying woman get away with it.” Ning Qi ‘er said angrily. She was a lady from the direct line of descent of the ning family, yet she had been thrown out like trash just now. She was so angry. Unfortunately, she had no way to take revenge for herself. She was unwilling to accept this, so she could only add some trouble to Leng ruoxue. Hmph! Didn’t that woman want this thing? In that case, he would just have to pay a high price to get it.

Following which, she raised the bid to 900, while Leng ruoxue raised the bid to 1000 high-grade crystal stones.

In less than ten minutes, the mysterious item’s price had risen to ten thousand high-grade crystal stones. This price made everyone in the auction hall speechless.

And this was just the beginning. When the bid reached 10000 high-grade crystals, Leng ruoxue immediately added another 5000. Ning Qi ‘er was not to be outdone and followed suit by adding another 5000.

When the people present saw this scene, they all understood in their hearts. It seemed that the two people in the VIP box had a grudge! Otherwise, why would he raise the price for the other party like this! However, if they raised the price like this, they were afraid that both sides would suffer losses, and at that time, the ning family would benefit.

At the same time, some people were secretly guessing the identity of Leng ruoxue and ning Qi 'er. However, they would never have thought that one of them was the young lady of the ning family and the other was the goddaughter of the ning family's master.

Leng ruoxue and the rest were in the VIP box.

The first elder looked at Leng ruoxue worriedly and could not help but remind her, "Little girl, stop shouting. It's already fifty thousand high-grade crystal stones. If this thing is trash, then it'll be a huge loss."

"I know what I'm doing," Leng ruoxue smiled calmly, then asked master ning curiously, "Godfather, does the ning family need to pay for the things they bought at the auction?"

"Of course, the ning family doesn't have any special privileges." Master ning said with certainty.

"That's good." Leng ruoxue chuckled and immediately raised the price to 100000 high-grade crystal stones.

Her bid not only shocked everyone at the auction, but even the emcee broke out in a cold sweat. The emcee couldn't help but think in her heart, "this young lady is really too ruthless. I wonder who will win."

"One hundred and fifty thousand top grade crystal stones!" Before the emcee could finish her thought, ning Qi 'er's voice rang out again.

"Two hundred thousand top grade crystals!" As soon as ning Qi 'er made her bid, Leng ruoxue followed suit.

Chapter 1137: New rules of the auction (4)

"Two hundred and fifty thousand top grade crystal stones!" Ning Qi 'er shouted.

"Stop shouting!" In the private room, ning Haoran covered ning Qi 'er's mouth with his hand and warned her.

"Brother, don't stop me. I'm going to make this annoying woman bleed!" Ning Qi 'er pulled ning Haoran's hand away and said angrily.

"Three hundred thousand high-grade crystal stones!" Immediately after, ning Qi 'er shouted again. However, everyone present thought that she was a little crazy, because the other party did not bid at all, and she had forcibly raised her bid from 250000 to 300000. This made everyone speechless.

"You're crazy!" Hearing ning Qi 'er continue to bid, ning Haoran's face darkened.

"I will definitely make that damned Leng ruoxue bleed!" Ning Qi 'er said a little crazily.

"What blood! The other party isn't bidding at all, you're the only one who's bidding!" Ning Haoran said angrily.

As soon as he finished speaking, the host's voice was heard. "Congratulations to the lady in the No. 2 VIP box for winning this item. Now, please enjoy her luck!"

After that, the host revealed the mystery.

It turned out that the mysterious item was just a holy weapon-level cup. Everyone was dumbfounded when they saw the blue cup.

Ugh! Although it was a Saint weapon, what could a cup do? Now, they deeply suspected that the ning family had made such a move to play with them!

But even so, no one dared to say this out loud. However, the crowd also lost interest in the next auction item.

When ning Qi 'er found out that she had spent 300000 high-grade crystal stones but only got a cup, she was so angry that she almost died. Her hatred for Leng ruoxue grew even deeper, but she was even more afraid that she would take the cup and ask her for money.

"Brother, you have to help me!" Ning Qi 'er pulled ning Haoran's arm and said coquettishly.

"Help you? How do you want me to help you? Do you think I can take out so many Jingshi?" Ning Haoran said unhappily.

"Brother, didn't you give that ning Xiao a thousand top-grade crystals? Help me pay this bill as well!" Ning Qi 'er requested. As a member of the ning family, she was very clear about the rules of the ning family. The family would not pay a single cent for the things she bought, so it was impossible for her to renege on the debt, even if this was the divine mainland.

"I don't have any more money. You can settle this yourself. Don't come to me." Ning Haoran was a little annoyed. Did his sister think he was a crystal mine? If he ran out of money, he would ask him for it. It wasn't easy for him to save up some money! He had saved up the one thousand top-grade crystals for a long time.

"Brother ..." Before ning Qi 'er could finish her sentence, she heard a knock on the door.

Soon after, the guard of the auction house walked in with the Saint artifact cup. After placing the cup on the table, the guard said very respectfully, "Miss ning, this is the cup you bid for. It's a total of three hundred thousand top grade crystal stones. Please pay immediately."

"Brother ..." Ning Qi 'er looked at ning Haoran and called out pitifully. However, ning Haoran turned his head to the other side.

"Miss ning, please pay the full amount." The guard repeated.

"Why are you so anxious? With my status, do you think I'd be short of your money?" Ning Qi 'er shouted angrily.

"Miss, as a member of the ning family, you should know that this is the rule of the ning family. I'm just following the rules, please don't make things difficult for me!" The guard said in a tone that was neither servile nor overbearing. The acting family head and the great elder had already instructed him to collect the debt. If he couldn't get the money back, he didn't need to come back.

"How dare you say that I'm making things difficult for you, Hmph! I don't want this thing anymore, you better return it." Ning Qi 'er used this as an excuse.

"I'm sorry, miss ning. We don't refund the items sold at our auction house. So, whether you want it or not, you have to pay for it. After you pay, I won't care even if you throw it away. So, don't make things difficult for me." The guard said helplessly.

"You ..." Ning Qi 'er was so angry at the guard that she couldn't speak. Her beautiful face was also flushed red.

"Miss ning, if you don't pay up, we'll report this to the main family. You'll have to pay for it too. Moreover, if the main family finds out about this, I'm afraid it'll be bad for your reputation!" The guard reminded.

"But I don't have that much money right now. What do you think I should do?" Ning Qi 'er went all out. She had already lost face anyway, so why would she care about not paying?

"Miss ning, the head of the family has told the great elder that if you can't pay up, you have two choices. One is that we report this to the head of the family, and the other is to stay in the divine mainland and work for the ning family until you pay off your debt. In addition, you have to pay interest." The guard said.

"Please choose one! I'll go back and report after I've made my choice!" The guard urged.

"I'll stay in the godly mainland to work to pay off my debts." Ning Qi 'er gritted her teeth.

"Alright, then please sign this contract, miss ning!" The guard took out a contract from his storage ring and handed it to ning Qi 'er.

"I've signed it, here you go!" Ning Qi 'er took the contract angrily. After signing her name, she threw it back to the guard.

The guard looked at the name on the contract and nodded in satisfaction. He then turned and left.

"Miss ning, this cup is pretty." After the guard left, Ning Cai knew that ning Qi 'er was not in a good mood and comforted her.

However, his comforting words made ning Qi 'er even angrier.

"If you like it, I'll give it to you!" Ning Qi 'er picked up the glass and threw it directly at Ning Cai. Ning Cai was not prepared that ning Qi 'er would turn hostile so he was hit by the glass. It even hit his head and blood started to flow ...

Although it was only a cup, it was still a Saint weapon. Its hardness was incomparable to ordinary cups, so it could be damaged if it was smashed.

"Thank you for your gift, miss ning." Ning Cai immediately ate a pill and said pitifully. He didn't know what he had said wrong. Wu...Why would he get beaten up for comforting people? He felt so wronged.

Chapter 1138: New rules of the auction (5)

Ning Qi 'er was gritting her teeth gloomily, but Leng ruoxue and the rest were very happy.

In Leng ruoxue's private room.

Everyone was discussing spiritedly, because none of them had expected that the mysterious item that was auctioned for three hundred thousand high-grade crystal stones was actually just a cup for drinking water. They just didn't know if it had any special effects, but this should be the most expensive cup in the divine realm! Hehe! This time, miss ning was probably going to cry to death!

"Little girl, it's a good thing you didn't bid for that thing, or you'd have suffered a great loss! However, now that this cup has fallen into the hands of the ning family, I don't understand. Did the ning family profit or lose?" The first elder said with a conflicted expression.

"Of course it's a profit, but it's a loss for ning Qi 'er." Leng ruoxue said.

"Little Xue 'er, what did you tell that Feng Da Kid just now?" Master ning was also curious. Not long after the mystery item was revealed, Leng ruoxue had whispered something to Feng Da, and Feng Da had left after that. This had piqued master ning's curiosity.

"It's nothing. I just asked Feng Da to tell ning Fei and the first elder of the ning family that if ning Qi 'er can't pay the money, she can sell her body to pay the debt. Of course, if you are willing to pay for her, that's fine too." Leng ruoxue laughed evilly. She didn't need to guess to know that ning Qi 'er was definitely furious at this moment. She just didn't know which unlucky person would be implicated.

"Uh! I don't have any money, so I'll let her sell her body to pay off her debts!" Master ning said fearfully.

"Hahaha! You miser, you don't even care about your own descendants!" The first elder laughed happily when he heard master ning's words.

"I have too many descendants. If I manage every one of them, I won't be able to manage them!" Master ning said matter-of-factly.

"Hehe! Who could he blame for that? Who told you to give birth to so many? you're just asking for trouble!" The first elder said with some schadenfreude.

As the crowd teased each other, the next item was placed on the stage.

The host looked at the crowd and said excitedly, "Everyone, the starting price for this item is fifty high-grade crystals. The rules are the same as before, so you can bid now!"

After hearing the emcee's words, the entire venue fell silent again.

With the previous experience, they were now a little uninterested in this mysterious auction item. After all, no one wanted to spend a sky-high price to buy a cup. However, the auction had not officially ended, so those who wanted to leave did not dare to move. Who asked this to be the ning family's? He didn't dare to not give the ning family face!

However, the crowd had already decided to be spectators. In any case, it was impossible to get money from them.

After waiting for a moment, the host saw that no one made a bid and couldn't help but say in disappointment, "No one is interested in this item? This was good stuff! It's hard to find even with a thousand gold!"

Unfortunately, no one believed the host's words, even though he was exaggerating. The lesson from before was too profound, so profound that they didn't dare to easily lay their hands on unknown items. Uh! The risk was too great!

"Don't regret it if you don't bid!" The host reminded him, not giving up. He was secretly worried.

At this time, the auction venue was so quiet that even the sound of breathing could not be heard. Many people lowered their heads so that the emcee would not remember their faces. They were very afraid that the Ning family would make life difficult for them after this!

"One hundred top grade crystals!" Seeing that no one was speaking, Leng Ruoxue called out softly.

"The young lady in the first VIP box has bid one hundred high-grade crystals. Is there anyone else who wants to bid?" The emcee said excitedly, "woo...It's good that someone is finally giving me face."

When the crowd saw the host's excited look, they thought that he was excited because someone else had bid!

"One hundred top quality crystal stones going once!"

"One hundred top quality crystal stones going twice!"

After the host's hammer fell, he deliberately paused to give the others a chance to bid. However, it was obvious that no one appreciated his gesture.

"One hundred top quality crystal stones going thrice! This auction item now belongs to the lady in Room 1." The host shouted excitedly.

However, when he revealed the truth, everyone was dumbfounded again. This time, they were completely dumbfounded ...

This was because the mysterious auction item this time was actually a sparkling and translucent crystal Doll. The little doll was only the size of a palm and had all the facial features. Its entire body was transparent, and there seemed to be a liquid flowing inside ...

"Oh my God! What is this?"

"Isn't this the spirit ginseng fruit? Why would there be a spirit ginseng fruit in an auction?"

"Aiya, what a pity!"

As soon as the items were revealed, some people wrung their hands, some people lamented, but most of them were regretful, and they were so regretful that they wanted to vomit blood.

This was because the spirit ginseng fruit was too rare for cultivators. There were not many of these things in the divine world and they were all sky-high prices. Ordinary cultivators could not afford it at all. However, not only did this spirit ginseng fruit appear in the auction, but it was also sold for 100 high-grade crystal stones. This result was hard for many people to accept.

Immediately, some people began to question.

“What kind of auction is this? Aren’t you playing with us?” A middle-aged man took the lead.

“That’s right. We want to re-auction the spirit ginseng fruit.” Some people jeered, but more people were just watching.

When the emcee heard what they said, she said calmly, “I’ve already said before the auction that this is a new game of our auction house. Whether the item is precious or not depends on luck. Moreover, before the auction, I’ve also said that this is definitely a good item that is hard to find. I can only say that you’re not fated to have this spirit ginseng fruit.”

“The lady in Room 1 has won the bid for the spirit ginseng fruit. She’s just lucky. So, don’t be jealous. There’s more good stuff down there. Don’t miss it this time.” The host reminded.

After hearing the host’s words, the scene became quiet again, because they had been waiting for this sentence. After all, everyone knew that there was no reason to re-auction the things that had already been auctioned. If the ning family really did this, where would their prestige be? In the future, who would dare to trade in the ning family’s auction house?!

The host saw that the crowd had quieted down, so he wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and continued with the auction.

At the same time, Leng ruoxue had already received the spirit ginseng fruit.

Looking at the life-like doll in her hands, Leng ruoxue could not help but sigh at the wonders of nature. Could this be the ginseng fruit that was mentioned in the novels of her previous life? She couldn’t help but let her imagination run wild.

“Big sister, the people of the divine realm have fallen. They actually treat this broken thing as a treasure.” Suddenly, Qing Jue’s disdainful voice rang in Leng ruoxue’s mind.

“Uh! Isn’t this good?” Leng ruoxue transmitted a question with a face full of suspicion.

“It’s not bad. Actually, this thing is a kind of fruit. The spiritual energy contained in it is not bad. Otherwise, it would not be so sought after by those people.” Qing Jue explained.

“We don’t seem to have such a thing in our space.” Leng ruoxue asked out of curiosity.

“There’s no such thing. Back when old master transplanted the fruit tree from the divine realm, this spiritual ginseng fruit was not qualified to enter.” Qing Jue said matter-of-factly.

“How did the spiritual fruits in the space get in?” Leng ruoxue asked in confusion. She felt that Qing Jue’s words were too contradictory.

“Sister, the spirit fruits that old master moved into the space are the best in all realms. I didn’t know why he did this before, but now I know. Those spirit fruits were prepared for you.” Qing Jue said with some sadness. The old master must have predicted that he would take his sister as a disciple. Hence, he had prepared those things. However, there were many things that he could not remember in the past. As the seal was removed, he could remember more and more things.

“Oh!” Leng ruoxue replied softly. Even though she did not know her master’s true identity, she could vaguely guess that her master’s identity was definitely not ordinary.

“Sister, you can keep this spirit ginseng fruit for now! Although it’s not very useful, it can still be used to concoct pills.” Qing Jue warned.

“Alright,” he said. Leng ruoxue nodded her head slightly and thought, sigh! Qing Jue’s standards were too high. He didn’t even care about the spirit ginseng fruit. She still remembered the reaction of the people outside when they found out that she had won the spirit ginseng fruit with 100 high-grade crystal stones!

Chapter 1139: Is this the attitude you have when you’re asking for help (1)

However, Qing Jue’s disdain could not stop Feng Da and the rest from being curious about the spirit ginseng fruit. After they took the spirit ginseng fruit from Leng ruoxue, they started to spread the news as if they had discovered a new continent ...

“Hehe! This is the first time I’ve seen a fruit that looks like a child! Is this good?” Feng Da asked curiously.

“Captain, how can you eat such a cute fruit? I don’t dare to eat it!” Lin Yuan asked curiously.

“Uh! I didn’t say I wanted to eat it, I was just curious!” Feng Da said, a little speechless. Looking at the lifelike doll, he really couldn’t bring himself to eat it.

“Little brat, this spiritual ginseng fruit is a kind of fruit unique to the divine realm. Although it’s not the best, it’s quite suitable for your current strength!” Master ning explained with a smile.

“Oh!” Feng Da nodded in understanding.

“Little girl, you can either eat this fruit now or make it into an elixir. Otherwise, when you reach our level, any fruit will be useless!” The first elder chimed in. He was trying to remind Leng ruoxue not to waste it. No matter how good this fruit was, it would be of little use to powerful people.

“Yes, I plan to refine it into a pill.” Leng ruoxue nodded. Since many of the spirit fruits in her interspace were of a higher grade than this, one Spirit ginseng fruit was nothing to her. Moreover, there were so many of them, so one Spirit ginseng fruit was not enough to split among them.

“Miss, are you really going to refine it into a pill?” Cuizhu looked at the White, tender, and clear fruit in her hand and said with some reluctance.

“Well, silly girl, that’s just a fruit. With Godfather here, we can eat any kind of fruit we want in the future!” Leng ruoxue chuckled.

“Right! That’s right, haha! This old thing is very rich and has a lot of good things. Don’t let him go!” The first elder immediately chuckled in agreement.

...

“You guys are so bad, you only know how to bully me.” Master ning said with a wronged face.

“Godfather, we didn’t bully you. Did you just say that you want to be my goddaughter? You have to give me some benefits!” Leng ruoxue laughed evilly.

“Here! However, my good things have almost all been plundered by this old thing, so you can go and Rob him!” Master ning pointed at the great elder and said fiercely.

“Old man ning, when have I ever plundered your things? Don’t wrong me! Who in the divine realm doesn’t know that you’re a miser! You can only lie to this little girl! No one would believe that!” First elder immediately retorted.

“You didn’t do it a while ago? And before?” Master ning said with wide eyes.

“That’s your ning family’s money, not yours.” The first elder pouted.

“Aren’t the ning family’s things mine?” Master ning shouted at the top of his voice.

“That’s compensation! Do you understand compensation? Old man ning, I was scolded because of you, because of you I was locked up in prison. You haven’t compensated me yet, but I will remember it for you!” First elder warned. Hmph! He might be able to hold on for a while, but he would not be able to hold on for a lifetime. He would get back these debts sooner or later!

“I don’t have money! Go get it from whoever scolded you! Don’t look for me!” Master ning was ready to play dirty to the end.

“Godfather, great elder, stop bickering. The auction has started again!” Leng ruoxue felt a slight headache as she reminded him. She really had to give it to them. These two old men who had lived for God knows how long could actually quarrel over such a small matter. However, this might be the joy of their friendship!

When the two of them heard this, they immediately shut their mouths in tacit understanding and continued to enjoy the show outside.

After the climax of the spirit ginseng fruit, the host waited for everyone to calm down a little before ordering people to present the next item.

Looking at the eager expressions of the audience, the host smiled with satisfaction and said, “Everyone, the starting price for this item is also fifty top grade crystals. Everyone can start bidding now.”

As soon as the emcee finished speaking, the people sitting below the stage couldn’t wait to start bidding.

“One hundred top grade crystals!” Someone spoke first.

“Five hundred top grade crystals!” After one person made a bid, another person immediately raised the price to 500. However, this still did not stop the enthusiasm of the crowd, and the price continued to rise ...

In less than half an hour, the price of this mysterious item had already risen to 100000 high-grade crystal stones, and there were still people who continued to bid ...

The host looked at the heated auction scene and was extremely satisfied. Hehe! This time, their auction house could make a big profit again. He really admired the great elder for being able to think of such a method. The great elder’s gift was also clever enough. However, he also knew to stop while he was ahead. When the price of this item rose to two hundred thousand high-grade crystal stones, he decisively sold it.

When the mystery of this mysterious item was revealed, the owner of the item was a little disappointed, but not too pained. After all, this item was about the same price as the one he had bid for. However, its practicality was far inferior to the spirit ginseng fruit.

The next few items were also auctioned for more than 100000 high-grade crystal stones. However, the people who got them were not very satisfied. After all, there was still some gap from their expectations. However, they could not blame anyone, because the host had said that what could be won would depend on luck.

“Hehe! Don’t worry everyone, there’s even better ones coming up!” The host calmed the crowd down a little before continuing the auction.

Although the previous few items were not completely satisfactory, their curiosity had been completely aroused. Therefore, they were extremely enthusiastic about the upcoming items.

When the host ordered someone to bring up another item, everyone present could feel the rich spiritual energy that was emitted from that item. Instantly, everyone became excited ...

“Hehe! The starting price for this item is still fifty pieces of high-grade crystal stones. Now, everyone can start bidding.”

“Five hundred!”

“Two thousand!”

“I’ll pay three thousand!”

Everyone started bidding, and the price was quickly raised ...

Leng ruoxue and the others were in the VIP box.

Chapter 1140: Is this the attitude you should have when you’re asking for help (2)

Master ning looked at the crowd outside the crystal glass and was very satisfied. However, he was quite curious why Xue ‘er didn’t bid.

“Little Xue ‘er, don’t you want this thing?” Master ning asked curiously.

"I don't want to." Leng ruoxue replied without hesitation. Even though the spiritual energy of this item was not bad, she didn't really need it, so she naturally wouldn't bid.

"Hehe! If I'm not wrong, this should be a medicinal herb." The great elder said with a look of understanding. It seemed that ning Fei and the others had put in a lot of effort for today's auction!

"Little girl, wouldn't it be perfect if you bid for the medicinal herbs!" Master ning reminded.

"I don't want to. With so many people bidding, the price will definitely be raised. I don't want to be a spendthrift!" Leng ruoxue replied matter-of-factly. Actually, she had her own cheating device! Therefore, they knew very well what the item being auctioned was, so they would not bid easily.

Even though Leng ruoxue and the rest were not interested in such an item, it was still sold for close to 300000 high-grade crystal stones. After the mystery that everyone was anticipating was revealed, everyone finally found out that it was a thousand-year-old ginseng!

After the ginseng, the host took out a few more items. However, the value of those items made the owners of those items extremely depressed, because they had made a loss!

"Everyone, we will now be displaying the last item of this auction. The starting price is also fifty high-grade crystals. Everyone can start bidding now." The host said the same thing as usual, but he had to say it.

However, after experiencing the ups and downs of the previous items, the people present were much calmer and more rational. Although in the past auctions, the last item would definitely be the most valuable item, this time no one dared to be sure. The ning family's play had already broken their usual way of thinking. In the previous auctions, many people had spent almost all their money, so there were no more people left who could bid for the last item.

"Everyone, this is the last item of this auction. If you don't bid, don't regret it!" The host reminded him as usual.

...

"I bid one hundred pieces of top quality crystal stones!" After the emcee finished speaking, the crowd was silent for a long time before someone made a bid.

"I bid one hundred and fifty pieces of high-grade crystal stones!" Another person made a bid.

Just like that, the price of this item rose at a snail's pace. It was clear that the crowd's enthusiasm for this last item was not very high, and towards the end, there were very few people who bid.

When the price rose to five hundred pieces of high-grade crystal, the crowd went silent again. No one continued to bid.

However, the host didn't strike the small hammer in his hand, as if he was waiting for something.

"Five hundred and ten top grade crystals!" Suddenly, Leng ruoxue's voice rang out in the hall.

After everyone heard her words, several black lines flowed down from their foreheads in unison, and they couldn't help but curse in their hearts. Was it worth shouting for just ten high-grade crystals?

Ning Qi 'er, who was in the other private room, was about to raise the price after hearing Leng ruoxue's bid, but ning Haoran quickly covered her mouth!

"Shut up! You're not allowed to make any more noise!" Ning Haoran felt a headache coming on. This sister of his was too insensible. He had already told her to get along well with Leng ruoxue, but she just wouldn't listen. He was really infuriated.

"Brother, don't forget that we were all humiliated by her just now. Are you really going to take it lying down?" Ning Qi 'er pulled down her brother's hand and said angrily.

"The Grand Madame's personal token is in her hands, so even if she can't bear it, we have to bear with it." Ning Haoran warned. He had always been a flexible person, so he would not fall out with Leng ruoxue and the others over such a small matter. However, he would not forget the humiliation he had suffered today.

"Don't forget that you just signed a contract to stay on the godly mainland to pay your debt. Do you really want to stay here forever?" Ning Haoran said.

"I don't want to! This is all the fault of that damned Leng ruoxue." Ning Qi 'er said with hatred in her eyes, Hmph! She would definitely not let Leng ruoxue off.

"Qi 'er, I won't let her off either. However, we can only endure it for now. When the time is right, you can do whatever you want to her." Ning Haoran promised.

"Really? Big brother, don't lie to me!" Ning Qi 'er had a look of disbelief.

"Qi 'er, no matter who I lie to, I will never lie to you! Don't tell me you don't even believe your brother's words?" Ning Haoran raised his eyebrows and asked.

"Of course I believe what you said, brother. I'm just afraid ..." Before ning Qi 'er could finish her sentence, she heard the emcee's voice. She was even more furious!

"Dammit, she only used 510 high-grade crystals to get a top-grade Moon Crystal! How can her luck be so good? there's definitely something fishy here!" Ning Qi 'er couldn't be bothered with her brother's topic and shouted in jealousy.

Even though she was not a weapon refiner, she was still very clear about the value of a Moon Crystal. A Moon Crystal the size of a fingernail could possibly upgrade a Saint weapon to a divine weapon. Furthermore, the moon Crystal that Leng ruoxue had won was bigger than two adult fists combined! This was really too unreasonable!

The more ning Qi 'er thought about it, the angrier she got. Then, without caring about the consequences, she mocked the audience and shouted, "There's something fishy about this auction. They're definitely colluding."

As soon as ning Qi 'er said this, the auction hall burst into an uproar. Those who were already dissatisfied took the opportunity to make a fuss ...

"That's right, your ning family is really disappointing. The things that were auctioned off before were all sold for such a high price, but the most valuable Moon Crystal was only sold for 510 high-grade crystals. We demand that the ning family give us a reasonable explanation immediately. Otherwise, don't even think about us attending their auctions in the future. ” A discordant voice was heard from the crowd, but the owner of the voice did not dare to show his face.

“What explanation do you want to hear? Don’t tell me that the ning family’s auctioned items are worth a lot of money and we need your consent? I’ll say it for the last time, I’ve already said that the new game is based on luck. Can you blame others for your own bad luck? Also, do you dare to stand out and let us see who you are?” The host’s sharp words immediately quieted down the somewhat restless scene, and his eyes that were searching around made people not dare to look at him directly.
