

Crazy Wife 1141

Chapter 1141: Is this the attitude you should have when you're asking for help (3)

"What's wrong? No one dared to speak? Hmph! My ning clan's auction has always had a good reputation in the divine realm. If any of you want to doubt the reputation of our ning clan, you don't have to come and participate in the future." Seeing that no one dared to speak, the host continued.

"Don't be fooled by him. The woman who won the moon Crystal is with them." Seeing this, ning Qi 'er shouted through the crystal glass.

However, just as she finished shouting, she heard a 'pa!', Ning Qi 'er's beautiful face was slapped.

Ning Qi 'er looked at ning Haoran in disbelief. With tears in her eyes, she said, "Big brother! Why did you hit me?"

"Do you know what you're saying? Even if you have any dissatisfaction, you can't ruin the ning family's reputation in front of outsiders. If this matter were to be spread back to the main family, do you still want to live?" Ning Haoran said with a face full of disappointment. If the old ancestor knew about this, he would definitely not let ning Qi 'er off. Now, he really regretted bringing ning Qi 'er to the divine mainland. Not only did she not help him, but she had also caused him trouble.

"I ... I didn't say that Leng ruoxue is from the ning family." Ning Qi 'er argued. She did not think that she had done anything wrong. On the contrary, she felt that she was placing righteousness before family to protect the ning family's reputation!

"Just because you didn't say it doesn't mean that others won't think about it. Did you forget that the owner of this auction house also has the surname ning?" Ning Haoran said angrily.

In the VIP box, ning Haoran was lecturing his sister. However, the host on the auction stage was quite calm, and one could not even see the slightest bit of panic on him.

"Everyone, those who know our ning family should know our ning family's rules. Whether you're a member of the ning family or not, if you want to buy something at the auction house, you have to pay according to the price. And the lady in the No. 1 VIP box is indeed our ning family's distinguished guest. However, the lady who just said that we're in the same group, I want to ask, as the lady of the ning family's main family, are you not in the same group as us?" The host asked very calmly.

"Hehe! The two young ladies who won the first and the last mystery item are both from the ning family, but their luck is completely different. If you still think that there's something fishy about our auction, then I have nothing to say. Just listen to me." The emcee paused on purpose and said nonchalantly. Since he had already pointed out ning Qi 'er's identity, there was no need to say anything more. As for what others would think, it would be none of his business!

The emcee's words had a certain effect. After everyone knew ning Qi 'er's identity, they thought of the lady's good luck in the No. 1 VIP box. They didn't need to think to know that this was an internal fight in the family.

Al! It was all because of jealousy!

After thinking it through, everyone calmed down and stopped brooding over this matter. After all, the ning family's auction price was clear and honest. They couldn't blame anyone for not getting the moon Crystal. Who asked them to be so timid!

At this moment, in Leng ruoxue's and the others 'VIP box, master ning's face was dark as he glared at the person in VIP box No. 2 across the crystal glass, wishing he could kill the person in there!

"I say, old man ning, stop staring. Unless you dare to release your pressure, otherwise, people can't feel it at all. Don't waste your energy!" The great elder couldn't stand it anymore and reminded him.

"Don't stop me, this unfilial grandson. If I had known that she would be like this, I would have strangled her to death when I gave birth to her!" Master ning said angrily.

"Don't worry! Godfather, we won't stop you. If you need any help, just let me know." Leng ruoxue laughed and teased.

"Xue 'er, this is all your fault. You can't just leave it be, can you?" Master ning said with a 'I'm counting on you' look.

"What does this have to do with me? Godfather, please don't wrong me." Leng ruoxue felt wronged. Her beautiful eyes were glistening with tears, making the evildoer's heart ache.

"Master ning, it's clearly your grandson's fault. How can you blame my Xue 'er?" The demon squinted his eyes and said unhappily.

"How could this little girl be yours? you two aren't even married." Master ning provoked him on purpose.

"Marriage is just a formality, Xue 'er is mine, this is a fact that no one can change, Hmph! Whoever dares to take my Xue 'er away, I'll definitely make him regret ever being born." The demon warned.

"Uh!" Master ning was speechless. He had also realized that those who were with Leng ruoxue had a serious tendency to be violent. He couldn't afford to offend him!

Just as master ning was moaning and sighing, the guards had already delivered the moon Crystal stones that Leng ruoxue had won.

After the transaction was completed, the great elder looked at the rather large moon Crystal and said with a drool,""Little girl, you're so lucky. You can buy such a Big Moon Crystal at such a low price."

Moon Crystals were extremely precious to blacksmiths. With them, even a blacksmith master without a Natal divine fire could raise the quality of a Saint weapon to a higher level. Although the success rate was not 100%, it could at least reach 60%. Therefore, Moon Crystals had always been hard to find, not to mention such a large piece of top-grade Moon Crystal. It was something that could not be bought with money! The quality of equipment that could be improved by the moon Crystal was not something that other Moon Crystals could compare to.

"Yes, I've always been lucky." Leng ruoxue replied without any hesitation.

“Hehe! Little girl, can you give me some of these stones?” The first elder said, a little embarrassed. Ordinary Moon Crystals were not of much use to him, but they were of the highest quality, and he really needed them.

“Sure, let’s each take half.” Leng ruoxue said generously.

“Xue ‘er, don’t you know how precious these Moon Crystals are? This is a peak grade Moon Crystal.” Master ning reminded.

“I know! It could only improve the quality of equipment! It’s not a big deal!” Leng ruoxue replied nonchalantly. Actually, she had kept half of it for the old man. She had no use for it herself. The purity of her flame was much better than this Moon Crystal.

Chapter 1142: Is this the attitude you have when you’re asking for help?(4)

“Uh!” Master ning was speechless. He had thought that this little girl didn’t know how precious Moon Crystals were! After all this, they didn’t even take it seriously! However, he was really curious about what this little girl cared about.

“Hehe! Little girl, I won’t take your things for free. In the future, if you need anything, just let me know!” The first elder said with a smile.

“Okay, don’t worry. I won’t be polite.” Leng ruoxue chuckled. After she finished speaking, she took out a tool and split the Moon crystal stone into two. She handed one half to the first elder and kept the other half into her bracelet.

After the distribution was done, Leng ruoxue and the rest prepared to leave the auction hall.

Unfortunately, when he reached the door, he met the ning siblings and Ning Xiang and his son.

“You’re really like a ghost that can’t leave. Why do I see you everywhere I go?” Before Leng ruoxue and the rest could say anything, ning Qi ‘er started to complain. She was in a bad mood after being scolded by her brother.

“Miss ning, that’s exactly what I wanted to say, but I don’t think you have time to waste on me now. You’d better think about how to explain what you just did to the ning family!” Leng ruoxue reminded kindly.

“What did I do just now? Don’t wrong me!” Ning Qi ‘er shouted angrily, Hmph! She didn’t feel that she was in the wrong at all, and she wouldn’t allow Leng ruoxue to laugh at her.

“You didn’t do anything. You just said something you shouldn’t have.” Leng ruoxue said with a faint smile. After she finished speaking, she led the crowd and walked past ning Qi ‘er, leaving the auction house without looking back.

After returning to the inn, Leng ruoxue greeted everyone and went straight into her room.

And this time, she returned to her room and did not show her face for three days.

In the living room.

The first elder and master ning stared at each other. For the past three days, Leng ruoxue had shut herself in her room to cultivate while Feng Da and the rest were busy with something. The ning siblings did not appear in front of them, causing the two old men to be bored.

"I say, old man ning, where are the two descendants of your family?" The Grand Elder asked curiously.

"He's probably making money to pay off his debts!" Master ning guessed. He did not pay much attention to the whereabouts of the two people. It was likely that they would not have a good time, because on the day the auction ended, he had sent news of ning Qi 'er's performance in the auction house back to the family, and someone would naturally take responsibility for this matter.

"Oh! Hehe! I wonder if they can learn their lesson this time." The first elder said with an evil smile.

"I should be able to!" Master ning was not sure either. He was getting more and more disappointed with the performance of the younger generation in the family. Not only did they scheme against each other all day long, but they also tarnished the family's reputation, which was what he could not tolerate the most. Therefore, he had ordered the family to punish ning Qi 'er severely. As for ning Haoran, he was implicated by ning Qi' er.

Just as master ning had expected, ning Qi 'er and ning Haoran were currently working like cows and horses in the master ning residence!

In the backyard of the ning family's main residence.

Ning Qi 'er looked at the pile of dirty clothes in front of her and scolded angrily, "Damn you, ning Fei! How dare you ask me to do these servants' things? I won't let him off when I return to the main family!"

The more she thought about it, the more she hated Leng ruoxue. She blamed it all on Leng ruoxue.

"Miss ning, if you can't finish washing these clothes today, don't even think about going back to the guest house. This is the order of the host." Ning Qi 'er's curses were heard by ning Fei, who came to check, but he was not angry at all. Instead, he smiled and said to ning Qi' er.

"Ning Fei! Do you know who you're talking to?" Ning Qi 'er's beautiful face was red as she gritted her teeth in anger. She was a direct descendant of the main family, and ning Fei, who was only a branch family in the godly land, dared to treat her like this. She really didn't want to live anymore.

"Miss ning, although you're the main family's young miss, everything I'm doing now is completely according to the main family's orders. So, if you want to blame someone, blame the main family." Ning Fei said with a smile.

However, before he left, he still reminded ning Qi 'er to wash these clothes. If they did not pass the inspection, she could not return to the inn.

Ning Qi 'er glared at ning Fei's back with hatred. However, no matter how much she hated him, she had to finish washing these clothes. Otherwise, unless she could kill the nings in the godly mainland or bribe them, they would definitely complain to the main family.

Compared to ning Qi 'er's depression, ning Fei was in a very good mood. He really didn't expect that the main family would give him such an order, asking him to train ning Haoran and his sister. Didn't that mean that they wanted him to torture them?

Ning Fei went back to the study with a smile on his face. The first elder of the ning family was waiting for him in the study with a serious face!

“Fei ‘er, you’re back!” The first elder said indifferently.

“Is there something you need, first elder?” Ning Fei said with a puzzled look.

“Fei ‘er! Don’t torture the ning siblings too much, or else, if the main family forgives them, we’ll be the ones to suffer!” The ning family’s first elder said worriedly. Although the main family punished them now, who knew if they would let them go? if the main family didn’t pursue the matter, these two siblings would definitely make things difficult for them.

“First elder, don’t worry. I know what I’m doing. I have a feeling that they won’t be able to make a comeback this time.” Ning Fei guessed. He was one of the witnesses of ning Qi ‘er’s words at the auction house. After that, the host ordered the punishment of the siblings. It was very likely that Leng ruoxue was the one who did it. Therefore, how could miss Leng give them a chance to turn things around? wouldn’t that be asking for trouble? When he thought of this, he was even more determined to follow Leng ruoxue’s footsteps. He definitely could not let that pair of siblings run around.

After the ning siblings lost their power, he directly locked up Ning Xiang and his son. This time, no one could think of getting them out.

“Fei ‘er, no matter how much the master likes Ning Xiang, he can’t be the master. So, you just need to manage the ning family well. That way, you can have a place in the master’s family in the future.” The ning family’s first elder said earnestly.

“First elder, I know.” Ning Fei said gratefully.

Chapter 1143: Is this the attitude you have when you’re asking for help (5)

“Do a good job!” The first elder of the ning family patted ning Fei’s shoulder and then left the study.

The ning siblings didn’t finish their work until it was very late. After they returned to the inn, they lay in bed and didn’t want to get up. The fact that they were so tired showed how much work ning Fei had arranged for them.

The next day.

The brother and sister both pretended to be sick and refused to get up. After hearing the news, ning Fei came to the shop to visit in person, even bringing an Alchemist with him.

Ning Haoran’s room.

Ning Fei looked at ning Haoran, who was lying on the bed with a pale face. He could not believe that ning Haoran was sick. People in the divinity could be called gods. How could they fall sick like ordinary people? In his opinion, the two were just pretending. However, they were still the direct descendants of the main family, so ning Fei would not force them.

“Young master ning, how is it? I’ve brought an Alchemist with me, why don’t you ask him to help you refine some pills!” Ning Fei said with a smile and a caring look.

“No need, I’ve already eaten.” Ning Haoran suppressed his anger and pretended to be extremely weak. He couldn’t help but curse in his heart. Was this considered being bullied by a dog? He was still a direct descendant of the ning family. Although he didn’t dare to say that he could call the wind and summon the rain in the ning family, he was at least a famous person in the younger generation. When had he ever been bullied like this?

Hmph! He would deal with these people when he returned to the immortal realm! If he didn’t take revenge, he would write the word “ning” backwards! Ning Haoran was filled with hatred in his heart, but he still had to show gratitude on his face.

“Since that’s the case, then young noble ning should have a good rest today! I’ll report your illness to the main family!” Ning Fei said with a faint smile. Then, he turned around and left ning Haoran’s room without giving him a chance to speak.

After leaving ning Haoran’s room, ning Fei went to see ning Qi ‘er again. However, it was not appropriate for a man to go into a girl’s room, so he just greeted her outside the room and left.

As soon as ning Fei left, the door of ning Qi ‘er’s room opened. Ning Qi ‘er ran out of her room and ran into ning Haoran’s room.

“Big brother, I can’t take it anymore. Quickly think of a way. I want to go back to the divine realm now.” Ning Qi ‘er’s face was bitter and she said in a flustered manner.

“I don’t want to go back? We have to leave. Moreover, even if we return to the divine realm, we will still be punished. Moreover, the reason why we are in this state is all because of you!” Ning Haoran shouted angrily. As long as he thought about how he had been implicated by ning Qi ‘er, the anger in his heart would go’ hoo hoo!’ Scurrying upwards.

“How can you blame me for this? I’m doing this for the good of the ning family.” Ning Qi ‘er argued, feeling wronged.

“You still have the face to say that? If it wasn’t for what you said at the auction that day, would we have been punished by the family?” Ning Fei was so angry that his face turned red and his neck became thick. He had already asked his father, and this was a direct order from the master of the family. Unless the master was willing to let them go, no one could help them.

“Hmph! It’s all because of Leng ruoxue, I won’t let her off.” Ning Qi ‘er said hatefully.

“It’s not her. The order was given by the master.” Ning Haoran said with a slight headache. He had already told the old ancestor to tell ning Qi ‘er to restrain herself in the divine mainland and not to provoke Leng ruoxue, but she just wouldn’t listen. Now, not only did she bring trouble upon herself, but she had also implicated him!

“She was the one who told the head of the family. Otherwise, how would the old ancestor know about this?” Ning Qi ‘er said through gritted teeth.

“Didn’t I tell you that our ancestor is in the godly mainland? There were so many people who attended the auction that day, do you think this matter won’t spread?” Ning Haoran said speechlessly. He was really annoyed with his sister. A woman's jealousy was really inexplicable. Actually, thinking about it carefully, Leng ruoxue had not done anything too overboard to ning Qi 'er. However, ning Qi' er just did not like her. She did not even listen to his advice and went against her time and time again. Now, she was fine, but they had been punished.

“What do we do now? Brother, you have to think of something! I don't want to wash clothes anymore.” Ning Qi 'er said gloomily. She knew that ning Fei was messing with her on purpose. Otherwise, how could there be so many clothes to wash? she had been washing clothes every day for the past few days, and now she felt like puking when she saw dirty clothes! If she continued to wash, she would go crazy!

“Ah! Now, we can only start with Leng ruoxue. She has the Grand ancestor's personal token, so letting us go is just a matter of a word from her. Why don't we go and beg her!” Ning Haoran said after thinking for a while.

“What? He still had to go and beg that woman? No! I don't want to!” When ning Qi 'er heard her brother's suggestion, she almost vomited blood in anger. After all, she had always felt that Leng ruoxue was the one who had caused them to be punished. Now, they still had to go and beg that woman for mercy. This was something that she could not accept no matter what.

“Then you have a way? If you don't beg her, you can stay in the godly mainland and wash clothes for the rest of your life! Let's see if anyone in the main family still remembers you.” Ning Haoran coldly reminded. There were many people in a big family. Someone could rise to the top position at any time, and someone could fall like a meteor in an instant. Therefore, if he wanted to have a respected position in the family, he couldn't relax his vigilance for a moment.

“I ...” Ning Qi 'er hesitated. Although she knew that her brother's words were not unreasonable, she just could not accept it!

“You what? If you have a good idea, we won't go and beg her! If you don't, then come with me to find her!” Ning Haoran rolled his eyes at ning Qi 'er. Then, he opened the door and went to look for Leng ruoxue.

“Brother! Wait for me, I'll go with you!” Although ning Qi 'er was not willing to bow down to Leng ruoxue, she knew that her brother's suggestion was correct. So, she could only brace herself and follow.

The two of them came to the third floor and found the door to Leng ruoxue's room. Just as they were about to knock on the door, it opened and Feng Da walked out. When he saw the two siblings, he asked in confusion, “What are you guys doing here? My lady is cultivating!”

“Can you ask miss Leng to stop for a while? we have something to discuss with her.” Ning Haoran asked politely.

“What do you think?” Feng Da was speechless. He already said that his miss was cultivating, but he still wanted her to stop and see them. What kind of people were they?

“Feng Da, let them in!” Master ning said after hearing the voice.

“You guys can go in!” Feng Da stepped aside and let the ning siblings in.

The ning siblings walked into the living room and looked around, but they did not see Leng ruoxue.

“Where’s Leng ruoxue? She’s the one we’re here to see!” Ning Qi ‘er asked in dissatisfaction.

“Are you deaf? Didn’t I say that my family’s young miss is currently cultivating!” Feng Da said unhappily. If master ning hadn’t let them in, he wouldn’t have let the brother and sister in!

“We only want to see Leng ruoxue.” Ning Qi ‘er was a little angry.

“It’s the same if you tell me anything.” Master ning said indifferently, his shrewd eyes constantly sizing up his two grandsons.

“Can an ugly monster like you make the decision? The person we want to see is Leng ruoxue. Hurry up and ask her to come out.” Ning Qi ‘er said arrogantly.

When master ning heard ning Qi ‘er’s words, he was depressed. Boohoo ... He was actually scolded by ning Qi ‘er again. How preposterous! However, before he could say anything, Feng Da spoke first.

“Miss ning, if you have something to say, just say it. If you have anything to say, just fart. Our miss really doesn’t have time to see you.” When Feng Da heard this, he was also angry and said impolitely.

“Hehe, you two little fellows, if I’m not wrong, you’re here to ask this little girl for help, right?” At this moment, the great elder asked with a smile.

“Yes, we do have a favor to ask.” Ning Haoran said respectfully. He already knew the identity of the person in front of him, so he did not dare to be presumptuous.

“Is this the attitude you have when you’re asking for help?” Feng Da rolled his eyes at ning Qi ‘er and said unhappily.

Chapter 1144: The God of plagues ‘purpose (1)

“What did I do?” Ning Qi ‘er raised her head, not feeling like she had done anything wrong.

“I’m sorry, this sister of mine has been pampered since she was young. Please don’t take it to heart.” Ning Haoran quickly said. He even glared at his sister, signaling her to shut up. They were here to ask for a favor, so they should lower their status and not act like ning Qi ‘er. Therefore, he did not want his sister to say anything more, or else she would ruin the whole thing.

“What if we haggle over it?” Feng Da asked with a smirk.

“Uh! “Well ...” Ning Haoran didn’t know how to continue. It was the first time he had met someone as direct as Feng Da. If it were anyone else who heard him say that, they would say, ‘I won’t argue with her.’ Unfortunately, these people didn’t play by the rules, so he didn’t know how to answer.

“Hehe! Feng Da Kid, don’t be angry, let’s hear their intentions first!” The great elder laughed again. Actually, he mainly wanted to hear what this pair of siblings would say. Moreover, old man ning was also here, so these two siblings wouldn’t be able to play any tricks.

“Mm, if you have something to say, then say it! Although miss isn’t here, as long as it’s not a big deal, we can make the decision!” Feng Da said with a smile.

"It's like this. A few days ago, because of what my insensible sister said, we were punished by the family. So, I would like to ask miss Leng to help us plead for mercy. I can guarantee that this kind of thing will never happen again in the future." Ning Haoran thought for a while and then said.

"Young master ning, it's not good for my young lady to meddle in your ning family's Affairs! You've asked the wrong person for help." Feng Da stole a glance at master ning and said calmly.

"Why can't I interfere? doesn't she have the personal token of my ancestor?" Ning Qi 'er quickly said.

"So what? Even if my family's young miss has your ancestor's token in her hands, she can't casually abuse it ah! Otherwise, if your family's old ancestor finds out, he will blame my family's young miss! It's better for you to go and ask your ancestor for help." Feng Da rejected without even thinking, but he couldn't help but secretly complain in his heart, Hmph! What did he do earlier? Previously, they had caused trouble for his young miss, and now that something had happened, they knew to come and beg his young miss. Did they think that they had nothing better to do, that they had to serve the siblings at any time?

"If we can find the old ancestor, would we still need to come and beg Leng ruoxue?" Ning Qi 'er couldn't help but say. The old ancestor had always appeared and disappeared like a ghost, who knew where he was now!

"Then it's no use for you to come to my young miss now! My family's young miss is cultivating. It's impossible for her to end her cultivation for you and your sister!" Feng Da asked with a smile.

"Then what do we do?" Ning Qi 'er was a little unhappy. From her point of view, Leng ruoxue did not want to help at all. That was why she let her servant block her. Otherwise, what was wrong with cultivating? Can't you stop cultivating for a while?

"Hehe! This matter is easy to handle, let's do it this way! "I'll go and tell ning Fei not to punish you for the time being. However, I can't guarantee whether the nings will take back this order or not. However, you must perform well during this period, or else ..." First elder said, but he only finished half of his words.

"First elder, don't worry. We siblings will definitely perform well." Ning Haoran quickly said. With the help of the first elder of the craftsmen's Guild, ning Fei would not dare to not give them face. In this way, they would not have to do those heavy work. Thinking of this, he was relieved.

"Do your words work? Would ning Fei listen to you?" Ning Qi 'er questioned. She didn't know the great elder's identity, so she didn't think he had such ability.

"Qi 'er, shut up!" When ning Haoran heard ning Qi 'er's words, he broke out in a cold sweat. He was so regretful that he wanted to kill himself. This sister of his was too insensible. Someone was willing to plead for them, but she still had such an attitude. Moreover, the other party was the great elder of the craftsmen's main Guild! Moreover, she was a good friend of the old ancestor, so how could they tolerate her questioning? if she refused to help in a fit of anger, they would have no place to cry even if they wanted to.

With that in mind, ning Haoran bowed deeply to the great elder and said apologetically, "Great elder, my little sister is insensible. Please don't hold it against her."

"I won't argue with an insensible little guy." The first elder disapprovingly said.

"Damn it, who are you calling insensible?" When ning Qi 'er heard the first elder say these three words, she was a little angry.

"Qi 'er!" Ning Haoran's head hurt. Seeing ning Qi 'er like this, he deeply felt that it was a mistake to bring her along to the divine mainland. Otherwise, they wouldn't have caused so much trouble.

"Great elder, you want to be a good person, but unfortunately, he doesn't appreciate it!" Feng Da said with a hint of ridicule.

"Yup! I wanted to ask ning Fei to stop punishing them for the sake of our friendship with their ancestors. "Who knew ..." The great elder's face was also filled with regret, and he couldn't even continue.

"Great elder, I apologize to you on behalf of Qi 'er, please don't be angry." Ning Haoran quickly said.

"Ning family boy, you're a sensible one, but you're not the one looking down on me. I won't accept your apology, sigh! Forget it, you guys should go back! I heard from ning Fei that you two are sick. Go back and have a good rest, and go back to the main residence to work tomorrow!" The first elder said with a sigh. His face was filled with disappointment.

"Great elder!" Hearing the great elder's words, ning Haoran became anxious. He grabbed ning Qi 'er's arm and pressed her to the ground, ordering, "Hurry up and apologize to the Grand Elder."

Ning Qi 'er had always been concerned about her reputation, but now that ning Haoran had treated her like this in front of outsiders, she couldn't accept it. So, she yelled at the top of her voice, "Brother, I'm your sister, how can you do this to me? Why do I have to apologize to him? what did I do wrong?"

"What did you do wrong? How dare you be so rude to the great elder! What else do you want?" Ning Haoran said in a low voice.

Chapter 1145: The God of plagues 'purpose (2)

"What great elder? He was just a servant of Leng ruoxue's family. What was so great about him? He even said that he would help us plead for mercy, Hmph! How could ning Fei listen to him? who does he think he is?" Ning Qi 'er said disapprovingly.

"Hahaha!" Hearing ning Qi 'er's words, Feng Da and the others couldn't help but laugh wildly. Ning Haoran's face turned black and white, and he was so angry that he was trembling.

"First elder, I only found out today that you're my family's young miss's servant!" After laughing, Feng Da looked at the depressed first elder and chuckled.

"Yup! I only found out about it today." The great elder was speechless. He really didn't know what to say to this ning Qi 'er. Sigh! The daughters of the ning family! It was really a headache.

When master ning heard ning Qi 'er's words, his expression was not very good either, because he felt that his face had been completely lost by this unfilial grandson. Especially when he saw the first elder's resentful expression, he was even angrier.

Suddenly, 'pa!' A crisp sound was heard. Ning Qi 'er's beautiful face was slapped, and the one who hit her was naturally ning Haoran.

After ning Qi 'er was hit, half of her face immediately swelled up. She even looked at her brother in disbelief. After a while, she said, ""Brother! You actually hit me?"

"Qi 'er, we've all spoiled you." Ning Haoran said angrily. When he heard ning Qi 'er's words, there was a moment when he was dumbfounded. He was scared to death. He was afraid that his life would be ruined because of ning Qi' er's rudeness. That was why he couldn't help but hit ning Qi 'er.

"I say, noble son ning! If you want to teach your sister a lesson, can you please go back to your room? We're not interested in admiring it. " Feng Da didn't want to get involved in the grudges between the siblings, in case ning Qi 'er blamed them for this matter. So, he very implicitly asked them to leave.

"I'm sorry, I'll take Qi 'er back first. I'll come and ask for your forgiveness another day. " Ning Haoran finished speaking, then picked up ning Qi 'er from the ground and dragged her away.

After the ning siblings left, the big elder didn't say a word for a long time. Feng Da and the others saw this and didn't disturb him. However, master ning couldn't stand it when he saw the big elder's face.

"I say, old man, if you're angry, go and teach ning Qi 'er a lesson. I'm so scared of you now!" Master ning said with a frightened look. He was afraid of being slaughtered! He was afraid that this old thing would blame him for this matter. Then wouldn't he have to bleed a lot again? No! This definitely can not happen!

"How would I dare to teach the young lady of the ning family a lesson! I'm just a servant. " The great elder glanced at master ning and ridiculed him.

"Hehe! I didn't say that. Every injustice has its perpetrator, and every debt has its debtor. You can go find whoever said that!" Master ning said irresponsibly.

"Ning Qi 'er is your descendant, right?" The first elder asked indifferently.

"So what if I am? She's her, I'm me, don't mix them up! Besides, she only has half of our ning family's bloodline. You can go and get the other half from someone else!" Master ning said shamelessly like a wife.

"I don't care, her surname is ning. Don't even think about getting away with it. I'll calculate how much compensation you owe me!" The great elder said with a smirk. After he finished, he even deliberately counted with his fingers, making master ning gnash his teeth in hatred.

After a while, the great elder finished calculating and said to master ning with a smile, ""Old man ning, for the sake of our many years of friendship, I won't ask you for more. Just give me one million top-grade crystals and some blacksmithing materials."

“Why don’t you just Rob someone? I’m telling you, I don’t have any money. How about I give you ning Qi ‘er, and I’ll give you ning Haoran as a partner? what do you think?” Although master ning’s tone was negotiable, everyone knew that there was no room for discussion.

“I don’t want it. Don’t always stuff your ning family’s trash to me, okay? I don’t have the money to support them.” The great elder said with a look of disdain. In his heart, he despised master ning for being so stingy.

“You don’t have to take care of them. Let them be your servants and earn money to support themselves.” Master ning suggested.

“I don’t have money either. If I don’t look at your big family and business, I can’t afford to keep a servant.” The great elder said in a poor voice.

Watching the two old men go back and forth, Feng Da and the others couldn’t stand it anymore. They simply left the living room, leaving the two of them to play.

After ning Haoran dragged ning Qi ‘er back to her room, he threw her on the floor roughly and gave her a few slaps. Then, he said fiercely, “Do you know who you were talking to just now? Even if you’re tired of living, don’t drag me down with you!”

“He’s just a servant! You actually hit me for the sake of an outsider. I will definitely tell mother when I return to the divine realm.” Ning Qi ‘er threatened. The two of them had the same father and mother, and her mother had always doted on her, and was her biggest backer.

“It’s useless no matter who you tell. The clan head won’t let you off for offending the first elder.” Ning Haoran said coldly. She was really a woman with long hair but short knowledge. The ancestor had so many descendants, how could he care about them? they had offended the great elder of the craftsmen’s Guild. He would not be surprised if the ancestor handed them over to the great elder to deal with.

“What great elder! He’s just a dog of Leng ruoxue’s family!” Ning Qi ‘er didn’t know the great elder’s identity, so she didn’t think much of it.

“Shut up. What do you mean by Leng ruoxue’s dog? he’s the great elder of the craftsmen’s Guild and our old ancestor’s best friend.” Ning Haoran growled in a low voice.

“How ... How is this possible? How could he be the head elder of the craftsmen’s Guild?” Ning Qi ‘er’s face was filled with disbelief. Why was the great elder of the craftsmen’s Guild here in the divine land instead of the divine realm? If he really was ... Then what should she do? At this moment, she also knew that things were not good. No wonder her brother was so angry. What should she do?

“Why is it impossible? Don’t tell me you didn’t recognize him?” Ning Haoran was speechless. He had only recognized the great elder that day at the auction. He had thought that ning Qi ‘er would recognize him as well, but who knew that this incompetent sister of his would not recognize him at all, and even offended the great elder! Just thinking about it gave him a headache.

Chapter 1146: The God of plagues ‘purpose (3)

"I ... I've only met the armament Guild headquarters 'great elder once, and it was when I was very young, how could I remember!" Ning Qi 'er said, feeling wronged. In her heart, she blamed her brother. If her brother had told her about this earlier, she would not have dared to scold the first elder!

"You pig brain!" Ning Haoran cursed in exasperation. The great elder had said that he would plead for them, but it was a pity that it had been ruined by this disappointing sister. Now, the great elder would probably not care about them anymore.

"Brother! What should they do now? I really don't know his identity. Otherwise, I wouldn't dare to say this." Ning Qi 'er was a little scared. She didn't care about the pain on her face and held Ning Haoran's arm tightly.

"You're asking me, but who should I ask? The only thing we can do now is to coax the elder. If he is willing to plead for us, the ancestor might spare us." Ning Haoran said after thinking for a while.

"Don't we still have Leng ruoxue?" Ning Qi 'er reminded.

"He's cultivating, why would he care about us? our biggest hope now is the great elder." Ning Haoran said rationally.

"But I just offended the great elder." Ning Qi 'er said in a low voice.

"You know about it too? You have to apologize to me tomorrow. You have to be sincere and not throw a tantrum. Otherwise, we'll stay in the godly mainland for the rest of our lives." Ning Haoran warned.

"Why don't you go now?" Ning Qi 'er could not help but ask.

"Are you an idiot? He was just offended by you, and now he wants to see us?" Ning Haoran said unhappily. He used to think that his sister was quite smart, but now he realized that she was actually an idiot. He had even hoped that Ning Qi 'er could help him, but now it seemed that she had only made things worse. If he had not brought her to the divine mainland, perhaps things would not have ended up like this. He had not even started to do anything! It was already difficult for him to take a single step! When he thought of this, he was really depressed.

"Oh!" Ning Qi 'er nodded and became more honest.

The next morning.

The Ning siblings, who had not slept for the entire night, came to Leng ruoxue's residence early in the morning.

However, the two of them were denied entrance.

However, they did not give up. They continued to guard Leng ruoxue and the others' door, unwilling to leave.

It wasn't until night time that the great elder 'couldn't bear to let them in, so he let Feng Da in.

In the living room.

The great elder sat on the main seat and looked down at ning Qi 'er, who was kneeling in front of him and asking for forgiveness. He pretended to be puzzled and asked, "Miss ning, why are you so polite the moment you come in? Get up quickly, I can't stand it as a servant."

"Great elder, I didn't know your identity. Please forgive me if I've offended you." Ning Qi 'er's beautiful eyes were filled with tears as she begged pitifully. For today's apology, the two of them had rehearsed the entire night last night and had even thought of many excuses to move the great elder.

"What do you mean by" forgive me "? hehe, you're just a young man! "It's nothing to have a bad temper, but ..." The great elder said disapprovingly, but he suddenly changed the topic and did not continue. Suddenly, the hearts of the two siblings were raised high.

"However, you have to change your temper. It's not right to scold people. Even if you don't know my identity, you should still respect the elderly!" The first elder said with a smile.

"I know I was wrong. Please forgive me, great elder!" Ning Qi 'er's attitude was very sincere, and after knowing the great elder's identity, she did not dare to be presumptuous.

"I'll forgive you, but if you don't change your temper, something bad will happen to you sooner or later!" The first elder spoke in a concerned manner as an elder.

"Thank you, great elder. I will change." Ning Qi 'er said through gritted teeth.

"It's good that you've changed. Since you've learned your lesson, I won't hold it against you for what happened yesterday." The first elder said magnanimously.

"Thank you, great elder." Ning Qi 'er finally heaved a sigh of relief.

"Hehe! There's no need to thank me, I'm not someone who would be too calculative with a junior. If there's nothing else, you can go back." The Grand Elder began to ask him to leave.

"Great elder, you promised yesterday that you would intercede on our behalf." Ning Qi 'er couldn't help but remind the first elder when she saw that he didn't mention it.

"Oh! This matter! Don't worry, I'll keep my promise." The great elder promised.

"Thank you, great elder. We will take our leave first." Ning Haoran was relieved after getting the first elder's promise. He left with ning Qi 'er.

After the ning siblings left, Feng Da looked at the great elder with a strange expression. He thought to himself, why is this old man so easy to talk to today? This didn't seem like his style. Although he didn't know what the great elder was up to, he knew that this matter definitely wasn't that simple. The ning siblings probably wouldn't be able to escape the hands of these two old foxes.

"Hehe! It's getting late, I'm going back to my room to rest." The great elder was frightened by Feng DA's scrutinizing and probing gaze, so he stood up and slipped away.

With the promise of the great elder, ning Fei came to the ning family's house the next morning and told them that they didn't need to go to the main house anymore. The ning siblings were completely relieved after hearing this.

Ning Haoran's room.

Ning Qi 'er looked at ning Haoran and said smugly, "Big brother, we finally don't have to do the work of those servants anymore."

In fact, what she wanted to say was that it was all thanks to her.

"En, Qi 'er, you can't mess around anymore." Ning Haoran was too lazy to expose his sister's smugness. However, he still had to warn them. Besides, they were only fine for the time being. After all, the punishment from the master had not been withdrawn yet! Therefore, he could not let his guard down.

"I know, I will control my temper." Ning Qi 'er promised. In fact, she did not know if she could control her temper.

Ever since the ning siblings had been taught a lesson, they had become much more low-key. They were also particularly enthusiastic when they saw Feng Da and the others, especially ning Qi 'er. In order to atone for her mistake, she had been trying her best to get close to Lu Tao and Cui Zhu, both openly and secretly, to find out about Leng ruoxue's situation. Ning Haoran, on the other hand, often appeared in front of the great elder, trying to please him in all ways, which annoyed the great elder.

Chapter 1147: The God of plagues 'purpose (4)

In the living room.

The great elder looked at master ning with resentment and said, "Old man ning, hurry up and settle your family's matters. I don't want to stay here any longer."

"Hehe! I thought you were enjoying that unfilial grandson's flattery!" Master ning said with an evil smile.

"Enjoy my ass! If it wasn't for you, I would've sent him flying with a kick." The first elder said, somewhat speechless. If it was the little girl who was trying to please him, he might still enjoy it, but it was better to forget about the ning siblings! Al! He did not know when the young woman would come out of her room. He even missed her a little.

"You can kick me if you want to. You don't have to give me face." Master ning said unappreciatingly. Because of ning Haoran and his sister, he had been plundered by this old man a lot. Once he thought of this, he could no longer be close to the two.

"I'm just afraid of ruining your plan, not giving you face! But, when do you plan to make your move? I'm afraid that little girl can't wait any longer. Otherwise, she wouldn't have closed her door in her room." The great elder could not help but ask. Xue 'er had originally planned to leave this place and find a quiet place to cultivate in seclusion. However, she had been hiding in her room from time to time and had not come out.

"I also want it to end quickly! But the time isn't right!" Master ning said helplessly. He was fishing! However, the fish did not bite the hook. Sigh! He was also anxious!

"Then let's wait! I'm not in a hurry to leave now." Suddenly, Leng ruoxue's voice entered their ears.

The two of them looked up and couldn't help but reveal a surprised expression as they said in unison, "Little girl, you've finally come out."

“Godfather, great elder, I just came out to tell you that I plan to cultivate in seclusion here. So, you can have fun! I’m not in a hurry to leave.” Leng ruoxue chuckled. She had been in closed-door cultivation for the past few days, and the results were not bad. She could feel that she was about to break through soon, which was why she came out to tell them so that they wouldn’t worry.

“Alright, little Xue ‘er, you can go into seclusion in peace! With your Godfather here, no one will dare to disturb you.” Master ning promised.

“Then I’ll thank Godfather first. Oh right, this is your token, I’ll return it to its owner.” After Leng ruoxue finished speaking, she took out master ning’s token from her bracelet and returned it to him.

After that, Leng ruoxue officially went into closed-door cultivation.

After Leng ruoxue went into closed-door cultivation, Feng Da and the rest rarely left the inn. They would have someone guard outside Leng ruoxue’s room every day to prevent anyone from disturbing their miss. In reality, they were just putting on an act. After all, miss was not really in her room.

However, when the ning siblings saw that Leng ruoxue had not come out after a long time, they could not help but feel a little anxious.

A month later.

The ning siblings had been waiting for her for a long time. Feng Da and the others couldn’t help but laugh secretly when they saw them come to ask when their miss would come out of seclusion every day, but they would return in disappointment every time.

Ning Haoran’s room.

Ning Qi ‘er looked at her brother with dissatisfaction and couldn’t help but shout, “Brother, when can we leave this place?”

She didn’t want to stay here any longer. Although they didn’t have to do heavy work anymore, they were forbidden from leaving the inn. To put it bluntly, they were imprisoned.

“We have to wait for Leng ruoxue to come out of her closed-door cultivation! She has ancestor’s token in her hand. If we want to be exempted from punishment, she must be the one!” Ning Haoran said helplessly. Right now, he could deeply feel the importance of the token. Therefore, he was even more eager to get it. Even if it was only a temporary possession, he still wanted it.

“Don’t we still have our ancestor? That doesn’t mean that Leng ruoxue is the only one who can do it!” Ning Qi ‘er said unhappily. She didn’t like to place her hopes of being exempted on the woman she hated. It didn’t feel good.

“You can find our ancestor? Even if you can find it, the ancestor will definitely show mercy and spare us.” Ning Haoran retorted. To him, it was more unreliable to look for the old ancestor than Leng ruoxue. After all, the old ancestor’s identity and status were there for all to see! Why would he care about the life and death of two juniors? however, Leng ruoxue was different. In his eyes, he and Leng ruoxue were people who could speak.

"I ..." Ning Qi 'er was speechless. She really couldn't find the old ancestor. Who knew that the old ancestor, who appeared and disappeared like a ghost, had run to that corner!

"Have some patience and wait!" Ning Haoran said helplessly.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue had been in closed-door cultivation in the purple bamboo house. She had cut off all contact with the outside world, and even Qing Jue could not wake her up. Hence, she had no idea about the ning siblings' punishment or their expectations.

Another month passed.

Leng ruoxue still showed no signs of coming out of her closed-door cultivation. After Feng Da and the rest had arranged everything, they also chose to go into closed-door cultivation temporarily. After all, there were master ning and the first elder here, so safety was definitely not a problem.

After everyone had gone into seclusion, the originally Lively Living room was often left with only five men sitting there.

In the living room.

The first elder, master ning, Mo Yan, Liu Feng, and Liu Yan were all sitting there, looking at each other in boredom.

After a long while.

The great elder couldn't help but say, "I say, old man ning, how long do you plan on fishing for this fish?" It's been two months, why haven't I seen the fish take the bait yet!"

"What's the hurry? hasn't Xue 'er been in closed-door cultivation all this time?" Master ning said disapprovingly, sigh! After those little guys went into seclusion, the living room suddenly became quiet. This made him, who was used to the liveliness, a little uncomfortable!

"I'm bored." The great elder spoke the truth. He was a little tired of seeing these people every day. However, it was fortunate that Liu Feng and the others didn't know how to read minds. Otherwise, they would be depressed to death.

"Yup! I'm also quite bored. QiuQiu and Baobao, those two disloyal little guys, didn't even say that they would come out to accompany us." Master ning complained. The little girl was in seclusion, and the two little things didn't come out either. He felt so miserable now.

Chapter 1148: The God of plagues 'purpose (5)

"Those two little fellows are guarding their master! When the little girl comes out, they will come out." The first elder said.

"Al! I wonder when they'll come out." Master ning said gloomily. There was no concept of time for closed-door cultivation. It could be long or short, so he was not sure now.

Suddenly, a strong pressure appeared around the inn, and the five people in the room immediately became alert.

"You three stay here, I'll go out with the old man to take a look," Master ning made a prompt decision.

“Yes.” Mo Yan and the others nodded, and then master ning and the first elder turned into a stream of light. ‘Whoosh!’ Disappeared in an instant.

Out of the inn, the two of them floated in the air and looked at the other people who were also standing in the air not far away. The first elder and master ning looked at each other and suddenly understood.

“Great elder, long time no see.” A person on the other side said with a faint smile.

“Yup! Long time no see, may I know what brings you here, Wen family head?” The first elder played dumb. At the same time, he stole a glance at master ning. It seemed that this old man from the Wen family did not recognize old man ning either!

“I came to the divine mainland for a walk. I heard that my two unfilial grandsons and granddaughters are in the ning family’s divine realm, so I came to see them.” The head of the Wen family smiled.

“Oh! Then why didn’t you go in to find them, and instead released your pressure outside? Wen family head, this is the divine continent, not many people can withstand your pressure. Moreover, my granddaughter and the others are all in closed door cultivation, if your pressure caused them to go into Qi deviation, can you bear the responsibility?” The great elder questioned with a displeased look on his face. He was secretly lamenting in his heart. It was said so nicely! This old God of plagues was clearly here to provoke them. However, the little girl and the others could not be disturbed at this time. Therefore, even if they had to fall out with each other, he could not let this God of plagues show off here.

“I’m really sorry. I didn’t know that your granddaughter and the others were in closed-door cultivation. When did you have a granddaughter?” The head of the Wen family looked apologetic and asked in surprise.

“It’s none of your business. If you want to see your grandson and granddaughter, then quickly go in! They’re in the VIP room on the fifth floor!” The great elder urged him impatiently.

“Great elder, why are you still so rude! I’m just concerned about you!” The head of the Wen family said with a face full of grievance, as if the first elder had done something that was criticized by thousands of people.

“I’m a rough man, it’s right to be rude.” The great elder rolled his eyes.

“Let’s go!” The Wen family head looked at the Grand Elder and said to his subordinate. Although he was a little angry, he did not want to offend the Grand Elder of the craftsmen’s Guild. So, he brought his subordinate and descended from the sky, walking straight into the inn.

After that, master ning and first elder also returned to the inn.

In the living room.

The great elder looked thoughtful, and kept peeking at master ning.

“Old thing, you’re looking at me again?” Master ning said uneasily.

“What’s wrong with looking? You’re afraid of looking at it!” The first elder teased with a smirk.

“Are you going to say that you didn’t expect the God of plague to come?” Master ning understood.

“Hehe! You’re getting smarter, old man. ” The great elder was not stingy with his praise.

“Smart my ass, isn’t it obvious?” Master ning was speechless. Sometimes he really admired this old man’s ability to play dumb.

“I say, old man ning, this God of plague is planning to interfere in your ning family’s family affairs. Don’t let him off easily!” First elder reminded. Hehe! He couldn’t beat the God of plagues, but old man ning could! It would be a waste not to use this ready-made goon!

“Do you have a grudge?” Master ning winked and asked with an ambiguous look.

No, I just don’t like him. Besides, don’t forget that your precious goddaughter has a grudge against the Wen family!” First elder warned.

“Hmph! With me here, I’d like to see who dares to touch that little girl. ” Master ning’s eyes were wide open as he said fiercely.

“It’s always better to be safe than sorry. If the Wen family is behind this, you won’t be able to guard against them!” The first elder was a little worried. In the divinity, the Wen family did not have a good reputation because they preferred to use unscrupulous means in their actions. Hence, he was truly worried about the safety of that little girl. After all, Leng ruoxue and the others were too weak now, and it was impossible for old man ning to stay by their side and protect them forever.

“You want me to make the first move?” Master ning asked in a low voice. After all, the Wen family was one of the eight great divine regions, and the eight great divine regions had in-laws. Therefore, it was not easy to get rid of the Wen family.

“Uh! That’s not necessarily the case, but when it’s time to act, act. Thousand creations, don’t be soft-hearted!” First elder suggested.

“Yes, don’t worry. I know what to do. Since I’ve taken that little girl as my goddaughter, I won’t let anyone bully her.” Master ning promised.

“Master, did master Wen really come just to see ning Haoran and ning Qi ‘er?” Mo Yan, who had been listening by the side, asked suspiciously.

“How could that be? I suspect he also came for old man ning’s token. After all, in the eyes of outsiders, that token is in the hands of the little girl.” The great elder thought for a moment before he spoke very cautiously. He had told her that the sign was a big problem. Now, trouble had come. Fortunately, they were here. The God of plagues did not dare to act rashly. Otherwise, the little girl would be in danger.

“Hmph! He dared? Is my ning family’s things something he can dream of?” Knowing that it was possible, master ning couldn’t help but be a little angry. However, he was more angry at ning Haoran and his sister for being ungrateful. The ning family had raised them for so many years, but they had become ungrateful wolves. How preposterous!

“Don’t be angry. This is just my guess. Maybe she really just came to see her grandson and granddaughter!” The great elder quickly consoled him. Although the possibility of them coming for the token was very high, they didn’t need to be so paranoid without any evidence. However, it was always right to be cautious. After all, the little girl and the others were in seclusion and they couldn’t be disturbed.

“You should lie to a child!” Master ning said unhappily. He didn’t just know the God of plagues today. How could the old God of plagues be willing to do something without any benefits?

“Calm down, calm down!” The first elder said with a smile.

At the same time, in ning Haoran’s room.

The head of the Wen family was sitting on a chair with a dark expression, not even looking at the ning siblings who were standing carefully beside him.

“Grandpa! Say something!” After a while, ning Qi ‘er, who couldn’t stand the oppressive atmosphere, said coquettishly.

“What do you want me to say? Qi ‘er, how did your mother educate you? You’ve really disappointed me.” The Wen family’s head sighed softly and said with a face full of disappointment. He had married his most beloved daughter to the ning family, but in the end, the children that his daughter had given birth to were so disappointing. In this way, all his efforts over the years had been in vain.

“Grandfather, it’s all Leng ruoxue’s fault. If it wasn’t for her, my brother and I wouldn’t have been punished by the family.” Ning Qi ‘er had forgotten the pain after her scar healed. The ning family’s punishment order had not been revoked yet! She then pushed all the blame for her suffering onto Leng ruoxue.

“You still dare to say that? If not for your words, how could the ning family have punished you?” The head of the Wen family said angrily, Hmph! Did they really think that he didn’t know anything? Everything the siblings did in the divine mainland was within his control, so ning Qi ‘er’s words couldn’t fool him.

“Grampy ...” Ning Qi ‘er wanted to continue acting coquettishly. However, the Wen family head did not fall for her tricks.

“Shut up. I don’t want to hear you talk now.” The Wen family head said coldly. To him, descendants who were of no use were useless. In his eyes, ning Qi ‘er was already equivalent to a piece of trash.

Ran er, what’s your plan?” The head of the Wen family turned his head and asked ning Haoran kindly. His attitude towards ning Qi ‘er and ning Haoran now was absolutely different.

“I want to continue befriending Leng ruoxue and the others. However, they have all gone into closed-door cultivation.” Ning Haoran said gloomily. It had been two months and he had not seen Leng ruoxue. He did not know how long he would have to wait.

Chapter 1149: Forbidden from spectating, rank-up (1)

“Oh! Did you find out about her relationship with old man ning?” The Wen family head asked with concern.

“Grandpa, that woman said that she took her mother’s surname. I’m guessing that she might be the ancestor’s illegitimate daughter.” Ning Qi ‘er was not willing to be ignored and quickly said.

“Qi ‘er, don’t talk nonsense without evidence.” Ning Haoran scolded loudly.

“Brother, how am I talking nonsense? isn’t it all over ning city now?” Ning Qi ‘er pouted her red lips and said unhappily.

“An illegitimate daughter? With that old man’s disposition, it’s not impossible.” The Wen family’s master muttered to himself for a moment before he spoke slowly. Actually, the reason why he thought this way was because the great elder of the craftsmen’s Guild had said that Leng ruoxue was his God-granddaughter. However, what he couldn’t understand was that if Leng ruoxue was old man ning’s illegitimate daughter, why would old man ning let his own daughter be the great elder’s God-granddaughter. Wasn’t this a difference in seniority?

“Grandfather, this ...” Ning Haoran was speechless. How could his grandfather take such nonsense seriously? could it be that the old ancestor had a past record in this area?

“Ran er, in your eyes, old man ning is high and mighty, unattainable, but in my eyes, he’s just an ordinary old man. When he was young, he was much more flirtatious than he is now, but now! His cultivation is higher, and he’s older, so his need for women is less. However, he has the most children in our generation, you should know this!” The head of the Wen family said with a hint of jealousy.

“Yes.” Ning Haoran nodded. Of course, he knew that. Otherwise, the ning family would not have so many people.

“However, just keep this matter in your hearts. If this matter were to come out of your mouths, that old thing would not be happy.” Master Wen reminded. After his words, he further confirmed the relationship between Leng ruoxue and master ning.

“Grandfather, this matter is no longer a secret in ning city.” Ning Qi ‘er reminded.

“Then you’re not allowed to talk nonsense, especially you, Qi ‘er! Watch your mouth, or else trouble will come from it.” The Wen family head said worriedly.

...

“Yes, Grandpa!” Ning Qi ‘er replied obediently. As for whether she could do it, only God knew.

“Grandpa, when are you taking us out of here?” Ning Qi ‘er asked again, looking at her grandfather with anticipation.

“I don’t intend to take you away. I’m only here to see you today.” The Wen family head said honestly.

“What? Grandfather, I can ‘T. I want to leave this place. I don’t want to stay here anymore.” When ning Qi ‘er heard this, she immediately started to plead in a low voice.

“Qi ‘er, grandfather is an outsider after all. Your punishment was given by the ning family, so how could I take you away without permission? If old man ning were to find out, I’m afraid he would be even more dissatisfied with you.” The Wen family head explained patiently.

“But ...” Ning Qi ‘er refused to give up and wanted to continue begging. However, she was interrupted by master Wen with a wave of his hand.

“Qi ‘er, you should be more sensible now that you’re an adult. So, you have to help your brother as much as possible and don’t cause him any more trouble. And that Leng ruoxue, not only are you not allowed to be rude to her, you have to fight to be good friends with her.” The head of the Wen family warned. Of the two children, he was most worried about ning Qi ‘er.

“Yes.” Ning Qi ‘er nodded unwillingly. In fact, she was still very resistant to the idea of becoming friends with Leng ruoxue. However, she had seen many such things in the family, so it was not completely unacceptable to her. Besides, although she was willful, she was not stupid. She was very clear that if she insisted on doing things her own way and did not follow Grampy’s instructions, her status in the family and the Wen family would definitely plummet. This was not what she wanted. Therefore, she could only compromise.

“Good girl! Ran er, you guys can stay in the godly mainland for now! Remember! Don’t act rashly!” The head of the Wen family reminded him before he stood up and left ning Haoran’s room ...

After the Wen family head left the room, he went straight to the third floor. The purpose of his visit was naturally to have a chat with the first elder.

In the living room.

The first elder, master ning, Mo Yan, Liu Feng, and Liu Yue all looked at master Wen, and none of them spoke.

“Grand Elder, can I have a word with you in private?” After a long while, the Wen family head spoke indifferently.

“There’s no need to talk alone! Don’t be afraid! They’re not outsiders, so they won’t leak the contents of our conversation.” The first elder promised with a serious expression.

“Oh! Actually, I have something to ask you, Grand Elder.” The head of the Wen family said after a pause.

“I don’t dare to ask for advice. If you have something to say, just say it! Don’t waste everyone’s time.” The great elder reminded. In fact, he also had something to ask this old pestilence.

“We haven’t seen each other for so many years, but the great elder is still so direct.” The head of the Wen family teased.

“Yup! I’m a rough person, if you want me to be as erudite as you, I really can’t stand it.” The great elder said proudly. Obviously, he took the old God of plagues ‘words as a compliment.

“First elder, I’ve heard some things, so I want to confirm it with you.” The head of the Wen family changed the topic.

“Oh, then what do you want to confirm? As long as I know, I will tell you the truth.” The first elder said generously.

"I heard that master ning has an illegitimate daughter?" The head of the Wen family did not beat around the bush and asked directly.

"Uh! Who did you hear this from?" The great elder's forehead was full of black lines, and he looked at master ning again before asking.

"This matter is no longer a secret in ning city. I heard about it the moment I entered ning city." The Wen family head said very honestly. Of course, he couldn't say that it was ning Qi 'er who told him about this. Otherwise, the old man of the ning family would make things difficult for the Qi' er siblings!

"I've been in ning city for quite some time. Why haven't I heard of it?" The great elder was puzzled. Was this considered a case of "there's no smoke without fire"? However, who was the one who started this wind?

In reality, they had not heard of this matter mainly because they rarely left the inn. Furthermore, no one dared to gossip in their ears. After all, the rumors were about the master of the main family. Who would dare to gossip in front of Leng ruoxue and the others? Wasn't that courting death? Therefore, those who knew about this matter naturally kept it a secret.

"I guess no one dares to say it in front of you! By the way, where is master ning now?" The Wen family head asked again.

"I don't know where old man ning is, but I can tell you for sure that he doesn't have any illegitimate daughter, so don't take those rumors seriously." The great elder looked at master ning and said with a smile.

"Then why is his token in the hands of a woman? did something happen to him?" The head of the Wen family guessed with a puzzled look.

"Old God of plague! If old man ning were to hear this, aren't you afraid he'd beat you up?" The Grand Elder asked curiously.

"Unless you sell me out, there's no way he'll know." The head of the Wen family said confidently. He was certain that the people present would not reveal his words to old man ning, unless they really wanted to shed all pretenses of cordiality with him.

"If I tell you that even if we don't say anything, he will know, would you believe me?" The great elder asked in a low voice. He peeked at master ning's face, which was getting darker and darker, and laughed in his heart.

"How is that possible? If he knows about our conversation today, then it's you who said it." The head of the Wen family said with certainty.

"Old God of plagues, don't you wrongly accuse me! I'll tell you the truth, even if we don't say anything, old man ning already knows what we've said today." The first elder said with a face full of smiles.

"Could it be that he has arranged for spies?" The head of the Wen family guessed.

“Yes, yes, you’re right. Do you see him? he’s old man ning’s spy.” The great elder pointed at master ning and said mysteriously.

“Is that so?” Master Wen squinted his eyes, and then his aura surged and attacked master ning directly. However, master ning only waved his hand gently and blocked master Wen’s pressure. He even rolled his eyes at master Wen with disdain, as if he despised his behavior.

“Are you trying to provoke me?” Master ning asked calmly.

“Who are you?” The head of the Wen family was in disbelief. Even in the divine world, there were not many people who could easily nullify his attack. Although he could not exert 100% of his strength on the divine mainland, their pressure was 100%. However, this extremely ugly person in front of him not only ignored his pressure, but also easily nullified it. This was unbelievable and it also hit his self-confidence.

“Who I am is not important. However, I am very interested in your provocation. Why don’t we go out and have a one-on-one fight?” After saying that, master ning grabbed master Wen’s arm and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

“Al! You guys wait for me!” The great elder shouted loudly, and also turned into a stream of light and chased after ...

Seeing this, Mo Yan and the other two could only resign themselves to their fate and stay in the inn. Although they also wanted to join in the fun, the safety of Leng ruoxue and the others was more important.

Master ning dragged master Wen to a remote Valley. After letting go of him, he looked at the person in front of him with disdain and said calmly, “Let’s do it here!”

“Who are you?” The head of the Wen family was shocked. His mind was filled with question marks. Since when did such a person appear in the divine realm? why had he not heard of him before? Could it be a reverent God who had hidden from the world?

“It doesn’t matter who I am. But since you want a one-on-one fight, I’ll fulfill your wish.” Master ning said straightforwardly.

After hearing master ning’s words, master Wen was completely depressed. Damn it, why was it me who wanted to fight one-on-one? it was clearly you who dragged me here. However, what made him even angrier was that he couldn’t resist.

Then, the first elder’s figure appeared in their sight.

“Wait for me! I’m here to cheer you on!” The first elder said with a face full of anticipation. He was looking forward to the old God of plagues being beaten black and blue by old man ning, his head bleeding, and his appearance of not daring to see anyone.

“What are you doing here?” When the Wen family head saw the first elder, the anger in his heart rose. Damn it, this old man actually didn’t tell him this person’s strength, causing him to be in such a passive position. Now, he actually still had the face to come and watch the show. He was really about to die of anger.

“Old God of plagues, you’re getting old, are your ears not good? Didn’t I say that I’m here to watch the show?” The first elder said with a regretful expression.

“What are you here for? you’re forbidden from watching!” The head of the Wen family said angrily.

“Tsk, what you say doesn’t count.” The great elder didn’t think much of it. After looking at the two of them, he said as if he was making a judgment, “Alright, you can start the battle now. You must show me a wonderful battle!”

“Don’t worry, you’ll definitely be satisfied.” Master ning narrowed his eyes and struck first.

A light blue ray of light flew out from his palm like a ribbon. It spun in an arc in the air and flew directly towards the Wen family head ...

Seeing this, the Wen family head quickly added a shield in front of himself. The first elder had long jumped out of their battle range to avoid being affected by the innocent. One should know that a battle between reverent-god level cultivators was not a small fight. If one was too close, one would definitely die! Fortunately, they were on the divine mainland, which restricted their power. Otherwise, the ning family’s divine territory would have been destroyed.

“Come on, beat him up!” The great elder shouted. His words caused the two people in the battle to be unable to help but have black lines appear on their foreheads.

“Damn it, shut up!” The head of the Wen family said angrily. He wouldn’t think that the first elder’s words were meant for him, but the first elder hoped that he would be the one to be beaten up.

“Old God of plague, freedom of speech, do you understand? also, you have to focus! Otherwise, if you’re beaten up too badly, you won’t be able to show your face to anyone!” The first elder said in an infuriating manner.

“You ...” The head of the Wen family was so angry that he couldn’t speak. However, his mind was a little distracted, and his shield loosened a little, giving the light blue Ray an opportunity. The light blue Ray and the shield collided violently, and the collision ignited countless sparks. Immediately, the light blue Ray disappeared, and the shield in front of him cracked. Following that, a mouthful of blood flowed out from the corner of his mouth ...
