Chapter 1231: God devouring vine (1)

“Argh! No way! Wouldn’t that make it difficult to deal with?” Feng Da said gloomily. He hated these flesh-eating creatures the most. Since he had encountered them, he had to destroy them. However, they already had spiritual intelligence, so it was not so easy to deal with them.

“It’s definitely difficult to deal with. Moreover, the vines we see now aren’t the main vine. So, in order to deal with the man-eating vines, our first goal is to find the main vine. As long as the main vine dies, these vines will be easy to destroy. Otherwise, no matter how many we destroy, these vines will continue to grow.” Leng ruoxue explained calmly. She hated the man-eating vines as well, and she hated the smell of blood even more. Hence, these man-eating vines had to be eliminated.

“Miss, what should we do now? Are we still going in?” Feng Da couldn’t help but ask. There were too many people going in, and he was afraid that he wouldn’t be able to take care of them. However, if he waited outside, who knew what kind of danger there would be? so, he was very conflicted.

“All of you, go in! However, everyone must be on high alert and be on high alert. If anyone is caught by the man-eating vines, they must shout for help, in case we don’t notice them.” Leng ruoxue said after some thought. It was just as Feng Da had thought. It might seem safe to leave a group of people outside, but there might be unknown dangers. If that happened, they would definitely not be able to rescue them in time. Hence, it was better for everyone to enter together.

“Godfather, you guys have to be careful of these man-eating vines too.” Leng ruoxue reminded him again. Even though Godfather was a reverent God, he might not be able to deal with these annoying man-eating vines. After all, these man-eating vines grew in the God Realm. Even the gods would be helpless against them.

After some thought, Leng ruoxue moved the fire spirit out of her bracelet. The moment the little fire spirit came out, it smelled the blood in the air and wrinkled its nose in disgust. Then, it said in dissatisfaction, “Where is this place? Why are there such disgusting things here?”

As the King of Fire, what he hated the most was all the filthy things in the world. These vines that liked to suck blood and flesh were naturally on his blacklist. Therefore, he had to destroy them.

Thinking of this, he released a big fireball without hesitation and threw it at the nearby vines. When the vines felt the fire Spirit’s temperature, they all cowered and shook their branches. The timid ones even let go of the small animals they had trapped and wanted to escape. However, how could the fire spirit give them the chance to escape? it threw a few more big fireballs in succession, cutting off the path of the vines and burning them to ashes in one fell swoop.

“Sister, I’ve destroyed all those vines. It’s much cleaner here, but the smell of blood is still there. I’ll purify it in a while, and it’ll be suitable for other plants to grow.” The fire spirit said with a proud tone.

“Little fire spirit, you’re so capable. However, you’ve only destroyed a portion of it. We haven’t found the main vine yet!” Leng ruoxue chuckled.

"It doesn't matter. With big sister's and my flames, no one can escape from these disgusting things. Big sister, why don't you let QiuQiu come out and try? That little thing is the most sensitive to things that have developed intelligence. Perhaps it can find the whereabouts of the main vine." The little fire spirit suggested.

"That's good." Leng ruoxue nodded, and then moved QiuQiu out of the bangle. The first thing QiuQiu did was to get intimate with Leng ruoxue, then it was the first elder, master ning, and the others who received its greetings and enthusiasm. The cute little QiuQiu naturally won the love of everyone.

"Sister, the main vine of the man-eating vine should be hidden underground. It's hidden very deeply, so I can't sense it. However, as long as big sister annihilates all of its descendants, you'll naturally be able to force the man-eating vine to come up." QiuQiu pointed at the tender vine that had just grown and suggested.

"I'll do it." The little fire spirit volunteered. After it finished speaking, it continued to release large fireballs, burning away the vines that had just grown out and were still tender green in color.

However, as soon as he finished burning it, new vines would immediately grow out and he would continue to burn them. This cycle repeated and the growth of the vines became slower and slower while the little fire spirit burned more and more vigorously. In the end, the little fire spirit was getting impatient while waiting for the vines to grow.

"Vines, Oh vines, you guys are growing really slowly. I've been waiting for so long that the flowers are wilting." The little fire spirit looked at the tender vine that had just emerged and muttered to itself.

"Hahaha! This little thing is taking advantage of us and still acting innocent. No matter how fast those vines grow, they can't keep up with the speed at which he burns them all!" Master ning couldn't help but smile.

"That's right! The little things around the girl are more arrogant than the other." The first elder also laughed.

"Hehe! That's right, this is called being close to Vermillion makes you red, and being close to ink makes you black! They're always with my Junior Sister, so it's not strange for them to learn from her." Bing Yao also said with a smile.

"Senior brother! May I ask if I'm Zhu or mo?" Leng ruoxue asked with a half-smile.

"Uh! Of course you're Vermillion, red." Bing Yao quickly said, and then secretly wiped the cold sweat on his forehead, because the other person's unfriendly gaze made him feel very scared.

"Miss, are we just going to wait here forever?" Feng Da asked curiously. After the vines had been burned, the place could be considered barren. As far as the eye could see, except for some places that had just revealed some tender green, the rest of the land was dark red.

"Yes. If the main vine doesn't come up on its own, we can't go underground to find it. We can only use this method to force it up." Leng ruoxue laughed evilly. The vines that the little fire spirit had burned could be considered as branches of the main vine, and also its descendants. So, as long as they kept burning, the main vine would definitely come to settle the score with them! After all, the burning of the vines would definitely cause the main vine to feel pain.

“Hehe! Then let’s just wait here!” Feng Da said with a smile. Then, he took out a knife from his storage ring and walked to a newly sprouted vine. He raised the knife and cut down on the vine. Suddenly, a dark red liquid with a foul smell flowed out of the two halves of the vine. The liquid quickly corroded the ground, turning the surrounding ground into a charred black.

Chapter 1232: God devouring vine (2)

“Wow! These vines are really too powerful.” Seeing this, Feng Da was speechless. If this liquid dripped on a person’s body, wouldn’t the person’s skin be burnt?

“That liquid is poisonous, be careful! Don’t get it on your body.” Leng ruoxue reminded.

“Okay, I’ll be careful.” After Feng Da finished speaking, he raised his knife and slashed at the other sprouts. He seemed to be addicted to it. When the others saw this, they also took out their own weapons and gave the growing sprouts a fatal blow.

Leng ruoxue looked at Feng Da and the rest’s actions speechlessly. She couldn’t help but let her imagination run wild. Oh, were they considered to be harming young seedlings? Even though those seedlings weren’t anything good.

At the same time, in the depths of the earth, a huge plant was trembling with anger. Countless branches were flying everywhere, and wherever the branches went, everything collapsed into ruins.

“Damned human! Despicable humans! If you dare to kill my children, I will not let you off!” A vicious woman’s voice reverberated in the depths of the earth, and the dust around it also fell down. One could imagine how intense its anger was at this time.

Although the voice belonged to a woman, it could not be considered a human, because it was just a plant. Although it had a beautiful woman’s face, its body was still a plant.

“Hehe! I’ve already said that you’ll face retribution, and now it’s finally here.” A weak female voice was heard.

“Thank you for your concern, but you’ll definitely leave before me.” After the half-human half-plant woman finished speaking, she brought the object that made the sound to her eyes. The object was only the size of an adult puppy, and its originally white fur had turned dark yellow. Moreover, it was all tangled together. It could be seen that it had been trapped here for a long time.

“You’re finally willing to kill me?” The Beastie that looked like a small dog said. Could it finally be free?

“In your dreams. I won’t kill you. I’ll let you stay here with me. However, I’ll consider killing your child. You still don’t know! Your child has been born, and he’s here!” The half-human, half-plant woman smiled smugly. Seeing the little beast in front of her in pain, it was particularly happy.

“If you dare to touch my child, I won’t let you off even if I become a ghost.” The weak little Beastie’s slightly dim eyes burst out with endless hatred as it threatened fiercely.

“Become a ghost? You can only be my toy and puppet for the rest of your life. You won’t have the chance to be a ghost, haha! I’m going to kill your child, I’m going to make you suffer, I’m going to make sure you’ll never be able to free yourself.” The half-human, half-plant woman laughed wildly. After she finished speaking, she even inserted one of her branches into the weak little beast’s body and began to suck its blood.

The weak little beast’s face showed a painful expression, but it did not make a sound and closed its eyes. It knew that the hateful vampire demon would not let it die so easily. The demon had always enjoyed torturing itself, and the more it resisted, the more excited the demon would be. Therefore, it would not satisfy the demon’s perverted hobby.

The child! Had its child really come? Don’t! Don’t come here, there is a demon here! Little Beastie screamed in its heart. It didn’t want its child to be trapped here like it, unable to live or die. It wanted to save its child, wanted to see its child, but it didn’t know if it would have the chance in this life. It was very conflicted.

When the half-human, half-plant woman saw the little Beastie’s self-deprecating look, her interest in sucking its blood was dispelled. She threw the little Beastie in a corner in disgust, then shook her branches and leaves and crawled back to the ground ...

Hmph! Damn humans, you’re asking for death. It hasn’t had fresh human blood for a long time. Today is a good time for a change of taste! Moreover, these humans did not seem to be weak. At the thought of this, its heart was excited and jubilant. Its desire for blood became stronger. It even began to fantasize about the pleasure of tying these humans to its branches.

It must make these humans its exclusive property. It must drink their blood and eat their flesh every day, making them suffer a fate worse than death, just like this little beast. Just thinking about it made it feel unusually happy.

However, its happiness did not last long. The branch that had just reached out of the ground was destroyed again. Seeing this situation, it was furious! Countless branches continued to drill into the ground ...

Little Beastie, who was left in the corner, saw the half-human, half-plant woman’s face changing like a palette, and it felt very satisfied.

The corners of the little Beastie’s mouth curled up into a faint smile as it gloated, “What, heavy losses? It seemed that those humans weren’t easy to deal with! Moreover, he clearly didn’t put you in his eyes.”

Although it didn’t know what was happening on the ground, it could guess from the evil demon’s face that many of the branches that helped the evil demon hunt for food had been destroyed!

Actually, this little Beastie was only half right, because the half-human half-plant woman’s branches were not mostly destroyed, but all of them. Otherwise, the other party would not be so angry.

“You shut up! How can those humans be my match? Hmph! This is my territory. I will be the one laughing in the end. Those humans, including your child who came with them, will all become my food. None of them will be able to escape!” The half-human half-plant woman roared in anger.

“Oh, really? If your useless descendants could deal with those humans, would you still be so angry? I suggest you go to the surface and see for yourself! Otherwise, I’m afraid your descendants will all be dead.” The little Beastie provoked with evil intentions. That was indeed what it had hoped for in its heart.

“Don’t worry, I know what to do!” The half-human and half-plant woman roared angrily. Damn it, this detestable little beast actually laughed at her, Hmph! It would not let go of the humans who had killed its descendants, let alone that little bastard. As for the little beast, it would not kill it because it wanted the little beast to watch how it would eat the little bastard.

“I’m just concerned about you. After all, we’ve known each other for so long.” The weak little beast said with a smile. Its only purpose in living was to witness the death of this demon. Now that someone finally dared to deal with this demon, it felt that it had something to look forward to, and its child. If it could see its newly born child before it died, it would die without any regrets.

“Hmph! I don’t need your concern. You should be more concerned about your bastard! I won’t let it go, it’s dead.” The half-human half-plant woman sneered.

“If you dare to touch my child, I’ll fight you to the death.” The little Beastie said fiercely. It forced itself up from the ground and glared at the huge plant.

“You want to fight me to the death? Hahaha! What a joke.” The half-human half-plant woman used a branch to roll up the little beast and brought it in front of her eyes, her face full of disdain and ridicule.

“I’m not joking. We soul-gnawing beasts have a secret technique that uses our lives as the price and perishes together with our enemies. Once I use it, even if my enemies are stronger than me, they won’t be able to withstand it. So, don’t force me!” The weak little Beastie warned.

“Hahaha! If there really was a secret technique, would you have waited until now? You can’t lie to me.” The half-human half-plant woman had a look of disbelief.

“Believe it or not, but don’t force me to die with you.” The weak little Beastie said disapprovingly. It didn’t want to die unless it was forced to because it still wanted to keep its life to see its child. However, if this demon wanted to use its child to force it, then it couldn’t be blamed.

“Hahaha! Perishing together! Alright! I’ll be waiting for you! However, I don’t have the time to deal with your business now. I’ll deal with you slowly after I capture those humans.” After saying that, the half-human half-plant woman threw the weak little beast back into the corner and ignored it. Instead, she focused on dealing with the humans on the ground.

It then extended countless branches out of the ground and directed its branches to attack Leng ruoxue and the others who were on the ground ...

Leng ruoxue and the others who were waiting for the green vines to grow were overjoyed when they saw the thick vines that suddenly emerged from the ground. This meant that the main vine that was hiding underground was no longer able to hold its breath. The little fire Spirit's actions were even faster. Before the others could react, it had thrown out a few large fireballs, burning the vines to ashes.

"Little fire spirit, you're too bad. You didn't even give us a chance and got rid of those vines yourself!" Feng Da and the others couldn't help but complain.

"Hehe! I'm sorry! I really can't bear to see those filthy things appear in front of me, and my mission is to destroy them." The little fire spirit said righteously. Everyone couldn't help but laugh when they saw that cocky little appearance.

And just as everyone was ridiculing him, countless more vines drilled out from the ground. This time, it was the little fire Spirit's quick hands and eyes again. After throwing out a few large fireballs, the vines all turned into ashes.

"Little fire spirit, can't you leave us some?" Feng Da said, a little speechless. He still wanted to try his own knife! However, who knew that this little thing would not give him any chance at all. Sigh! This was really infuriating! If it was any other team, they would have been running for their lives if they encountered these man-eating vines. However, they had to resort to snatching, and they would not be able to snatch them!

"You guys don't need to be anxious. I'm just trying to force the main vine out. When it comes out, you guys can deal with it." The little fire spirit saw everyone's complaints and quickly comforted them.

Reading on Mybo xn o vel. com ,Please!

"Oh! That's true, then you should do it! Your speed is fast!" Feng Da and the others thought for a while, then they walked to the side and left their seats empty.

Immediately after, countless more vines emerged from the ground. Without exception, they were all burned by the little fire spirit. Just like that, the cycle repeated until night. The main vine didn't dare to show itself. However, the vines that it sent to the door all became dead souls under the little fire Spirit's fire.

Deep underground.

The half-human, half-plant woman trembled with anger, and a large number of branches were still dancing in the air. The little beast in the corner was very happy to see this scene, and it couldn't help but secretly sigh. It seemed that the humans outside were not easy to deal with. Otherwise, this demon would not be so angry from embarrassment, haha! That was great. Although it didn't dare to expect the humans to destroy this demon, it was already very satisfied that they could make this demon suffer. How many years had it been since it had seen a demon like this? it really missed it!

"Hmph! Damn it, I won't let you see me as a joke." The half-human half-plant woman once again wrapped the little beast in the corner with her branches and shook it up and down as she said fiercely.

"Isn't it too late to say this now? You must be very angry right now, right? I can't even do anything to those humans you look down on." The half-human half-plant in front of it called itself the God eating vine, which meant that it could even eat gods. However, after knowing it for so long, it had not eaten many gods so far. After all, this was not the real God World, and the God eating vine could not leave this place with its current strength.

“Hmph! Those humans will become my food sooner or later. Do you think I’ll let them go after killing so many of my descendants?” The half-human, half-plant woman said arrogantly.

“Don’t just talk. I think you don’t even dare to leave this place. You even want to kill him.” The small beast’s face was full of mockery and disdain. In its opinion, if the evil demon dared to go up to the surface to take care of its so-called enemies, it would have gone up a long time ago. Since the divine devouring vine hadn’t made any big movements so far, it was likely that the humans would be difficult to deal with.

“Don’t provoke me. I won’t be fooled.” The half-human, half-plant woman roared angrily.

“Do those humans make you feel fear? Are you really scared?” The little Beastie continued to speak in an unconcerned manner. The smile on its face became even more obvious.

“Hmph! I’m not afraid of them, I just don’t want to go up now.” The man-eating vine with the human face and plant body still said arrogantly.

“When do you want to go up?” The little beast’s face was full of curiosity. Its child should be with the humans above. Although it was a little worried about its child’s safety, the human who could make the God eating vine afraid must be quite powerful. Therefore, it spared no effort to stimulate the God eating vine. Its purpose was to make the God eating vine reach the ground quickly. This way, it would have a chance to see its child, even just for a glance.

“When the time comes, I’ll naturally go up and deal with them. You should worry more about yourself!” The God eating vine reminded him with a cold smile.

“What do I have to worry about? other than torturing me, can you bear to let me die too quickly?” The little Beastie said.

“Hmph! At least you know your own limits.” The divine devouring vine said with a gloomy face. It kept observing the movements outside through its small branches. It was waiting! It was waiting for a suitable time to exterminate these abominable humans and that little bastard in one fell swoop. Because its greatest pleasure was to see the little beast in front of it in pain. Only when the little beast was in pain would it be happy, hahaha!

At the same time, Leng ruoxue and the rest had already started to prepare dinner.

After dinner, Leng ruoxue took out the house and placed it on the empty ground. Then, everyone returned to their own rooms.

Inside the bangle, Leng ruoxue was currently observing the movements outside the house through the light screen. The little fire spirit and QiuQiu were sprawled in her arms, similarly observing the situation.

“Sister! Plants like the man-eating vines love dark and damp places the most. So, it must be hiding somewhere underground right now, peeking at our every move! I reckon that it will launch a surprise attack on us at midnight.” The little fire spirit said with absolute certainty.

“Yes, sister, the little fire spirit is right. That disgusting and ugly thing will definitely come out from the ground when we are all sleeping. So, let’s just sleep now! There’s no need to care about it.” QiuQiu also suggested.

“Then let’s go to sleep!” Leng ruoxue chuckled as she agreed. These two treasures had already decided on their behalf, so they could only follow their orders!

The next morning.

Leng ruoxue and the demon had just walked out of the room when they saw Feng Da and the rest gathered in the courtyard. They were discussing animatedly and each of them had a look of excitement on their faces.

“What’s wrong?” Leng ruoxue asked despite knowing the answer.

“Hehe! Young miss, these man-eating vines surrounded us late last night and are now showing off their might outside!” Feng Da said with excitement.

“Oh!” Leng ruoxue raised her head and happened to see the man-eating Vine’s branches dancing above their house. It looked like it was about to cover the house. Fortunately, there was a thin layer of film above the house that blocked the attack of the branches. Otherwise, the man-eating Vine’s vines would have reached into the courtyard.

“Miss, what should we do now? When are you going to go out and properly deal with those man-eating vines?” Feng Da asked impatiently. He really wanted to try his knife!

“There’s no rush. Let’s let that man-eating vine be smug for a while. Let’s have breakfast!” Leng ruoxue suggested with a chuckle. The enemy was in high spirits, so they would not go out at this time. As time passed, the man-eating vines’ fighting spirit would naturally be worn down. When that time came, it would be the time for them to make their move. Furthermore, she also wanted to understand more about the man-eating vines.

“Alright,” he said. Everyone nodded and began to prepare breakfast. After breakfast, they went about their business, but no one paid any attention to the man-eating vine.

Three days later.

The man-eating vine couldn’t keep its cool and moved its huge body out of the ground. Looking at the house that was already surrounded by its branches and leaves, it couldn’t help but feel smug. However, the other party refused to come out of the house, and it couldn’t do anything to him. This made it very unhappy!

At the thought of this, the man-eating vine could not help but curse, “You cowardly humans, if you have the ability, come out! Hmph! What kind of skill is it to hide in there! Hurry up and come out!”

However, the man-eating Vine’s curses did not receive any response from anyone. At this time, everyone was sitting in the courtyard, observing the man-eating vine through the light screen ...

Chapter 1234: Soft persimmon (1)

“Waa! This was the man-eating vine! He’s so ugly!” Lu Tao looked at the man-eating vine that was cursing outside and said with a face full of disgust.

“Yup! Why does it have a human face but a plant body?” Feng Da was also puzzled. Was this considered a side effect of an incomplete advancement?

“Some kind of accident must have happened when this plant advanced. Otherwise, it’s unlikely that such a situation would occur.” QiuQiu explained with an evil smile. Plant-type creatures were most afraid of being disturbed when advancing in rank, so this plant was in its current state.

“Then is it possible for it to advance normally? Or will it always be like this in the future?” Cuizhu asked curiously. From the looks of it, this plant was a female. If it could only remain like this in the future, it was likely that this female man-eating vine would suffer for the rest of its life! Oh! After a long time, their hearts would definitely change, such as being perverted, being cynical, and so on.

“It’ll be a big deal if it’s always like this in the future. But it doesn’t matter. It won’t live long anyway. It doesn’t matter what it looks like.” QiuQiu said disapprovingly. It was true that it liked heavenly and earthly treasures, but this plant was definitely not on its list of favorites. Therefore, it couldn’t wait for someone to get rid of this plant! Not to mention others, the first one the little fire spirit would not let go of was that man-eating vine.

“That’s true, miss, are we just going to let it scold us like that? When are you going to go out and clean it up?” Cuizhu said somewhat impatiently.

“In a while, I, the evildoer, Godfather, great elder, senior brother, Mo Yan and Liu Feng will go out. The rest of you stay in the house and don’t act rashly.” Leng ruoxue said after some thought. Even though this man-eating Vine’s strength was only equivalent to a high level deity, this was still its lair after all. Furthermore, it had a huge number of vines. She was afraid that it would not be able to take care of everyone. Hence, it was better to let them stay in the house.

“Miss, you can’t not bring me along.” Feng Da quickly said.

“Miss, I want to go too.” Cheng Wu said, unwilling to show weakness.

“Alright, all of you, follow me out. Song di as well. The rest of you can stay in the house and watch the battle!” Leng ruoxue said helplessly. Furthermore, looking at her grandfather and brother’s expressions, she had no choice but to bring them along.

After a simple discussion of their strategy, Leng ruoxue and the rest sat on the ground calmly and steadily, waiting for the right moment.

The God eating vine, which had been scolding for nearly an entire morning, saw that no one dared to come out and court death. It suddenly felt as if it had punched cotton and had no way to vent the gloominess in its heart. Thinking of this, it curled its branches and brought the weak little beast to its eyes.

“Hmph! Did you see that? Those humans who were as timid as mice didn’t dare to come out at all. They were afraid, haha! And you? Do you want to see your child? If you want to, get them to come out and die. I promise you that I’ll let you see your child one last time.” The God devouring vine roared. It believed that the people hiding in the houses could hear it.

"I don't have the ability to call him out for you! If you have the ability, you can call me that!" The weak little beast lifted its eyelids and said with a light smile.

"Dammit! You're really looking for death!" The God devouring vine roared. After it finished, it stuck its branches into the little beast's body and started to suck its blood. It really wanted to taste fresh human blood. It had had enough of this detestable little beast's blood.

"Hahaha! You can't bear to see me die." Little Beastie was very certain. It closed its eyes and didn't look at the divine eating vine.

"Damn it, open your eyes!" The God devouring vine saw that the little beast was ignoring it, and the anger in its heart surged.

However, the little Beastie didn't seem to hear him. Only its weak breathing proved that it was still alive.

In the house, Xiaoxiao's tears began to stream down her face at the sight of this scene. She muttered to herself, "Mother! Mother!"

"Xiaoxiao, is that little Beastie your mother?" Lu Tao asked in surprise. No wonder she found the little beast familiar. However, weren't soul-gnawing beasts supposed to be very powerful? How did her little mother become the man-eating Vine's food? She really couldn't understand.

"Yes, it's mom!" Xiao Xiao cried.

"Xiaoxiao, did you get the wrong person? How could that little beast be your mother? Isn't your mother very powerful?" Feng Da couldn't help but ask. Even Zi Yu, a half-beast human with the strength of a divine Emperor, would feel fear towards an adult soul-eating beast. Therefore, he really couldn't believe that his little mother would be controlled by that man-eating vine, and even become its food.

"Xiaoxiao won't be wrong. That's mommy. Wu...Mommy is in pain. Sister, save mommy!" Xiao Xiao cried and begged, its tears wetting its snow-white fur. At this moment, its pitiful little appearance made everyone's heart ache.

"Don't worry, Xiaoxiao. We'll definitely think of a way to get your mother out. However, Xiaoxiao, you have to do as your sister says, understand?" Leng ruoxue reminded.

"Yes, I'll listen to you. I'll do whatever you want me to do." Xiaoxiao nodded her head vigorously, looking very obedient.

"Alright then, Xiaoxiao. When we go out later, just follow what I taught you and look at your sister's eyes!" After Leng ruoxue finished speaking, she whispered a few words into Xiao Xiao's ear and reminded her again.

"Yes." Xiaoxiao nodded again.

Following that, Leng ruoxue and the rest opened the door of the house and walked out.

When the God devouring vine, which was sucking the blood of the small beast, saw that the despicable humans were finally willing to come out of the house, it threw the small beast in front of it onto the ground behind it. Then, its beautiful eyes sized up Leng ruoxue and the rest.

Although it had already observed these people when it was underground, it was still shocked and jealous to see them at such a close distance.

It was shocked that the men in front of it were more handsome than each other. It was jealous of the hateful woman in front of it. How could she be more beautiful than it? this was something it could not tolerate. So, the woman was dead for sure. As for those men, it would let them live well and be its exclusive property. It would suck their blood every day and make these men its captives for life, loyal to it forever! It would always belong to it! Hahaha! The God eating vine laughed wildly in the depths of its heart and was daydreaming!

Chapter 1235: Soft persimmon (2)

“Humans, you’re finally willing to roll out of your house?” The God eating vine said with a disdainful smile.

“Man-eating vine, you must be mistaken! We’ve been waiting for you outside, but you didn’t want to come out from the ground. Now you’re blaming us? this is ridiculous!” Feng Da replied with a mocking smile.

“What did you just call me?” The God eating vine glared at him and roared.

“Man-eating vines! Why? Did I address him wrongly? Could it be that you’re a herbivore?” Feng Da teased with a smirk.

“Damn it, don’t compare me to those low-level carnivorous plants. I’m the God devouring vine, the king of plants! When you see me, you should bow to show respect. However, since this is your first offense, this King will not haggle with you. ” The God devouring vine said with a magnanimous look. Its narcissistic words made Leng ruoxue and the others laugh wildly.

“Hahaha! You call yourself the king of plants? may I ask who approved of this? Don’t tell me you self-proclaimed it? Aiyo! I’m dying of laughter. ” Feng Da didn’t give him any face as he laughed out loud.

Although the others didn’t say anything, the smiles on their faces revealed what they were thinking. The divine devouring Vine’s words were too ridiculous.

“How audacious! This King was born to be the king of plants, and you all dare to look down on me! I will make you regret this. ” The God eating vine was furious, and its pretty face turned livid with anger.

“I wonder how you want us to regret this?” Leng ruoxue asked curiously.

“I will kill you! As for these men, let them be my exclusive property. This King just so happens to need some male pets and food. In the future, you will all be this King’s people. As long as you are obedient, not only will this King not eat you, but this King will also love you well. ” The God eating vine boasted shamelessly.

When Feng Da and the rest heard the man-eating Vine’s words, their expressions became extremely strange. None of them had expected that this man-eating vine was not only narcissistic, but also extremely lecherous. He wanted them to be his male companions, but what did he want them to do?

When Leng ruoxue heard the man-eating Vine's arrogant words, she couldn't help but laugh out loud. She even looked at Feng Da and the rest with a gloating expression and teased, "Oh! Feng Da, you guys will be its male pets in the future, so you guys have to perform well!"

Feng DA's forehead was full of black lines, and he couldn't help but reply, "Miss, you're going to die soon. You won't be able to see if we perform well or not. What a pity!"

"Uh! That's true! Man-eating vines! Don't kill me first! Let me see if they have the qualifications to be your male companions, then you can kill me!" Leng ruoxue was discussing with the man-eating vines calmly.

"Damn it, I told you I'm not a man-eating vine. I'm the noble King of plants, God-eating vine. If you dare to call me a man-eating vine again, I'll eat you right now!" The divine devouring vine was so angry that its branches and leaves trembled, and it roared at the top of its lungs.

"Calm down! Pay attention to your image, no other king would shout like you, it's beneath your status." Leng ruoxue reminded.

"Dammit! That's because I'm angry with you guys. I'll eat whoever dares to call me man-eating vine again!" The God devouring vine threatened furiously. From its words, it sounded as if Leng ruoxue and the others had already become its food.

"Man-eating vine, do you really need men? I suggest you find a plant like green foxtail grass. It's a good match for you!" Feng Da suggested with a smile.

"Feng Da, you're wrong. How can this man-eating vine be worthy of green foxtail grass? Don't humiliate the green foxtail grass. It has its own dignity and will not take a fancy to this man-eating vine." Cheng Wu corrected him with a serious expression.

"Yes, that makes sense. I was wrong. I shouldn't have randomly chosen a couple." Feng Da immediately admitted his mistake and had a good attitude.

However, their cooperation made the divine eating vine even angrier. Now, the divine eating vine was very sure that these two people were doing this on purpose to anger it to death! Thinking of this, the God eating vine stretched out its long branches and swept toward Feng Da and Cheng Wu ...

The branch was soft and long, extremely tough, and extremely fast. Before anyone could react, Feng Da and Cheng Wu had already been swept away by the branch ...

The God devouring vine waved its branches and swung Feng Da and Cheng Wu in the air. Its intention was obvious. It wanted to give them a scare and make them faint.

However, Feng Da and Cheng Wu would not let it have its way. The two of them were having fun in the air, and Cheng Wu kept urging, "Higher! Higher!"

"Yes, yes, throw it higher. Make your movements more intense!" Feng Da also said with a smile.

When Leng ruoxue and the rest on the ground heard Feng Da and Cheng Wu's words, cold sweat trickled down their foreheads. They secretly sighed in their hearts. So, these two fellows were treating the man-eating vines as free labor. The pitiful man-eating vines! He had actually encountered these abnormal humans.

When the divine devouring vine heard the conversation between the two of them, it was so angry that all the branches on its body trembled. More and more branches extended towards Leng ruoxue and the others, and with a 'whoosh', they wrapped around them ...

When Leng ruoxue and the rest saw this, they went with the flow. None of them struggled, allowing the man-eating vines to do whatever they wanted.

When the divine devouring vine saw that it had easily succeeded, it couldn't help but become more and more proud. In its opinion, these humans were too weak and couldn't even withstand a single blow. Otherwise, how could they have been caught by it?

Oh right, where did that little B * stard go? He seemed to have seen it just now! The divine devouring vine searched everywhere and finally found a snow-white figure in Leng ruoxue's arms.

"Damned human, hand over that little B * stard to me, and I'll let you die a quick death." The divine devouring Vine's eyes were filled with hatred as it glared at Xiaoxiao, who was in Leng ruoxue's arms.

"If I don't give you Xiaoxiao, how do you plan on letting me die?" Leng ruoxue asked curiously.

"I'll first suck your blood dry, then eat your flesh. Then, I'll throw you, who only has one breath left, into the forest to feed the wild beasts. I'll let you see with your own eyes that you're being gnawed at by wild beasts, and hear your bones making cracking sounds in the mouths of wild beasts. At that time, you'll wish you were dead! Ai! What a waste of such a beautiful face!" The divine devouring vine said, burning with jealousy.

Chapter 1236: Soft persimmon (3)

Yes! It was jealous! It was jealous of that woman's devastatingly beautiful face and sexy figure because it could never become a real woman again. All of this was because of that little evildoer, so it hated her! It hated all the beautiful women, but it hated those little B * stards even more. Therefore, it would never let go of the two types of creatures that fell into its trap. One was women, and the other was children.

"That's a good idea." Leng ruoxue praised the man-eating vine after hearing its words.

"Hahaha! It's good that you like it!" The God eating vine laughed wildly, and its face became more and more proud.

Suddenly, it felt a burst of pain. It looked up and saw that the two men it had caught had broken free of its restraints and were falling from the air. They were each holding a knife in their hands, and dark red liquid was dripping from the knife. Needless to say, it was its blood.

Seeing this scene, the God eating vine was angry again. It quickly stretched out its branches and attacked Feng Da and Cheng Wu. However, for some reason, the two people's movements became more flexible. It attacked left and right, but it couldn't do anything to the other party. This made it a little anxious. At the same time, the pain from its branches spread to its trunk, causing its heart to tremble!

Seeing the people trapped by it break out one after another and give it a heavy blow before leaving, this fact almost made it go crazy!

“Damned human! I’m going to kill you all!” Looking at its broken branches and leaves, the God eating vine was very angry, because those vines were of great importance to it. They were not only a part of its body, but also shared its strength. Now, those branches were broken, which meant that its strength had been damaged. How could it not be angry from embarrassment?

“Man-eating vine, don’t just say it. You should prove it with your actions!” Leng ruoxue, who was floating in mid-air, suggested with a faint smile.

“I’ll prove it to you, you damn woman.” The God eating vine couldn’t be bothered to correct the other party for not calling it a man-eating vine. Right now, it only wanted to kill this detestable woman in front of it. And these men, it also decided to eliminate them! Because it didn’t need disobedient male pets or food! Hmph! It would make these humans pay the price.

“Then come quickly! I’ll be waiting!” Leng ruoxue urged impatiently.

“Damn woman, you’re asking for death!” The fiery God devouring vine gathered all its branches and leaves together and pounced towards Leng ruoxue ...

Leng ruoxue looked at the man-eating Vine’s extremely fast speed. In the blink of an eye, it had already reached her. Unhurriedly, she released a small flame from her fingertip. The small flame jumped excitedly, as if it was very happy that it could be of use again. After seeing the man-eating vine, it could not wait to fly towards it ...

‘Whoosh!’ The man-eating Vine’s branches were set ablaze, followed by the man-eating Vine’s agonized cries ...

“Argh! ‘Damn it!’ What kind of fire is that? How can he be so powerful!” The God devouring vine endured the pain and cut off its burning branch, questioning angrily.

“It’s just an ordinary flame! Why? I’m really sorry for the pain. I didn’t do it on purpose. I forgot that wood is afraid of fire.” Leng ruoxue laughed evilly. However, there was not a single trace of apology on her beautiful face.

“Ordinary flames? Do you think I’m as gullible as a three-year-old child? That’s definitely not an ordinary flame, and I’m not a piece of wood.” The God eating vine roared in exasperation.

It felt a trace of fear towards Leng ruoxue. The flames had multiplied its fear because it knew very well that it was no match for the flames. If it was an ordinary flame, it would not have been able to burn its branches. However, the flames had not used any strength and had burned its branches into ashes. This was enough to show that the level of the flames was very high. It was also afraid of the flames that the little doll had released.

At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue and the little doll that had not appeared in front of it had become people that it could not provoke for the time being. However, it was not as afraid of the rest.

Since it had made up its mind to kill all the humans, it would not be merciful to them. However, it still had to choose the soft persimmons. After looking around, it chose a soft persimmon, and it chose Bing Yao.

This man was too beautiful. If it wasn't for the fact that these humans were so hateful, it really wanted to keep this man by its side and enjoy him. What a pity! The beautiful man in front of it was destined to be its target. Although it was a little reluctant, it had decided to kill Bing Yao.

After making the decision, all of its branches flew towards Bing Yao in an instant. In the blink of an eye, it had tied Bing Yao up and brought him to its eyes.

Upon closer inspection, the man was stunningly beautiful. Although there were men more beautiful than him among these humans, he was more pleasing to the eye because he was too similar to the person in its heart, whether it was in temperament or appearance.

Bing Yao, who was tied up like a hairpin, felt the man-eating Vine's gaze on him. He did not hesitate and allowed the man-eating vine to admire him. Although he did not like the way the man-eating vine looked at him as if he was its prey, he should not be so stingy when facing someone who was about to die. He would just do a good deed.

"Am I Beautiful?" The God eating vine, who was immersed in its memories, asked with a shy expression.

"So ugly! I've never seen anyone uglier than you!" Bing Yao said honestly. Although he wanted to do good every day, he couldn't lie! No normal human would think that a wooden stake was beautiful.

"Could it be uglier than this?" The God devouring vine was furious. It used a branch to roll up the little beast behind it and questioned Bing Yao.

"At least it's cute! But look at you, you're neither a human nor a tree. You can't be considered beautiful!" Bing Yao said honestly.

"I'm in this state because of them! Hmph! I won't let it go, and I won't let that little B * stard go!" The God devouring vine pointed at the weak little beast and said. Thinking of the past, the anger in its heart became more and more uncontrollable.

"We didn't harm you. It's your own evil intentions. You harmed yourself." At this moment, the weak little beast spoke indifferently. It sneaked a glance at the snow-white little beast in the woman's arms from the corner of its eye, and its heart softened.

"I didn't! Why would I want to harm myself? it's all your fault!" The God eating vine roared angrily, but it didn't get any response from little beast.

"Calm down! You're already in this state, and weird things won't solve the problem, right? I think you're in a lot of pain living like this, so why don't I help you free yourself?" Bing Yao said with a smile, but the words he said were so vicious that it almost made the divine devouring vine vomit blood.

"Even you want me to die?" The God eating vine said with a heartbroken expression.

"Uh! Whether you die or not has nothing to do with me! However, if you don't die, I'm afraid we'll be the ones to die. So, you should die!" Bing Yao thought for a while and said with certainty.

"You really want me to die?" The God eating vine confirmed again.

"Yes, yes." Bing Yao quickly nodded.

“Why? Why? Why do you all want me dead? Hmph! You want me to die, but I want to live well. I’m going to kill all of you!” The God eating vine roared fiercely.

However, no one took its roar seriously. Instead, they watched as it dug its own grave. They couldn’t help but gloat in their hearts. What a pitiful man-eating vine! He originally thought that he had picked a soft persimmon, but who knew that he had picked a hard bone. Did Bing Yao have a face that could deceive the public?

“Damn woman, do you want to save this man in my hands? If you want to, you can exchange it with the little beast in your arms.” The God eating vine said.

“Don ‘t! Don ‘t!” When the weak little beast heard the God eating Vine’s words, it hurriedly said nervously. However, it was too embarrassed to ask them not to use its child to exchange for their people, so after only two shouts, it stopped making any more sounds. The God eating vine also didn’t allow it to speak and directly threw it from the air to the ground behind it, so that this annoying little beast wouldn’t ruin its good plan.

“What if I say I won’t exchange with you?” Leng ruoxue asked curiously.

“You actually don’t care about your friend’s life and death for a bastard of unknown origin, haha! The friendship between you humans is nothing more than this!” The divine devouring vine said sarcastically. Its face was filled with contempt for Leng ruoxue.

“You don’t have to worry about our friendship. Just take care of yourself.” Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

“That damned woman! You really don’t want to exchange with me?” The God eating vine said, unwilling to give up.

“No!” Leng ruoxue was very certain, but the God eating vine didn’t fully believe her words. In the God eating Vine’s heart, this woman was just holding on. How could she ignore the life and death of her human friend for a little beast?

“Don’t regret it if you don’t exchange with me!” The God eating vine reminded.

“You’re so long-winded! I said I won’t trade, so I won’t trade. As for the man you caught, if you can really kill him, I’ll consider you capable!” Leng ruoxue said impatiently.

“Do you really think I don’t dare to kill him?” The God eating vine roared, and its branches trembled in anger.

“If you dare to kill me, then kill me. Stop talking nonsense.” Leng ruoxue waved her hand as if she was chasing away a fly.

“Little Xue ‘er, how could you do this to me! I’m so sad!” Bing Yao’s beautiful eyes were filled with tears as she said pitifully.

However, his act of pity was ignored by Leng ruoxue. The divine devouring Vine’s heart ached for him.

“This woman is so heartless. You’d better follow me in the future! I’ll definitely treat you well.” The God eating vine promised.

“Oh! How are you going to treat me well?” Bing Yao asked curiously.

“I’ll suck less of your blood every day so that you can live longer. I’ll definitely make you live longer than this detestable little beast. ” The God eating vine said with a charitable expression.

“Pfft!” When everyone heard the man-eating Vine’s words, they could not help but laugh. After all this, in the man-eating Vine’s heart, sucking less blood and letting it live longer was already treating it well?

Chapter 1237: Self-destruction (1)

“Dammit! What are you laughing at? No one is allowed to laugh!” The God devouring vine saw that everyone was grinning from ear to ear and couldn’t help but swing its branches in anger, trying to threaten the other party. Unfortunately, it was ignored by Feng Da and the others.

“Man-eating vines! You’re too overbearing, we can’t even laugh!” Feng Da said as he held back his laughter. If it wasn’t for the fact that he felt that the man-eating vines ‘words were too laughable, they wouldn’t be laughing so happily!

“No! No! None of you are allowed to laugh anymore!” The divine devouring vine roared and then glared at Bing Yao.”Do you want to follow me or not? Hurry up and answer me!”

“I don’t want to!” Bing Yao replied without even thinking.

“Why? Didn’t I say I would treat you well? You’re still not satisfied? Why are all men so greedy?” The divine devouring vine heard Bing Yao’s words and roared in anger.

“It’s not that men are greedy, but no man can accept your kindness. ” Bing Yao spoke the truth. Which normal man would be able to accept such kindness? Was it a good thing to suck less blood and live a little longer? Rather than living like that, he might as well kill himself! At least the pain would be less.

However, looking at the man-eating Vine’s crazed appearance, could it have been rejected by the man before? Oh! It was normal to reject it, but it was abnormal to accept it!

“Why not? I didn’t eat you all, what else do you want?” The God eating vine was furious. Why did all the men it liked hurt it like this? It was like that in the past, and it was the same with the one in front of it now. It couldn’t understand how it couldn’t compare to that hateful little beast.

“You’re being nice to us just because you didn’t eat us?” Bing Yao said sarcastically. Plants were just plants, how could they understand what true feelings were? The man-eating vine dealt with people based on its instincts. In its heart, men were equivalent to food. However, no man with flesh and blood was willing to be food.

“What else do you want?” The God eating vine was confused.

“We want to live with dignity. However, you won’t understand what dignity is. In your eyes, everyone can become food. The only difference is whether you allow the food to live longer.” Bing Yao said calmly.

“Right! You’re right, everyone is my food, so I’m the only one who can decide your life and death! I’m going to ask you one last time, do you want to follow me or not?” The God eating vine didn’t want to waste any more time and asked directly.

"I still have the same two words, no!" Bing Yao said without hesitation.

"Dammit! I've already given you the opportunity, but you didn't know how to grasp it. Don't blame me for being merciless!" The God eating vine was very annoyed. Why did all the men it liked not like it? It couldn't understand why no man liked it when it was so beautiful and had a high status in the Botanic world. Why?

"Whatever you want!" Bing Yao said without a care.

"You asked for this!" After saying that, the divine devouring vine extended its branches towards Bing Yao, who was tied up like a dumpling. If it couldn't get it, it wouldn't let others have the chance to get it. Since you don't want to be its man, then be its food! Eating the man it liked was also one of its greatest pleasures. Because only in this way would the man it liked belong to it forever, and no one could take him away!

However, as soon as the vine reached Bing Yao, he grabbed it with his bare hands. He flicked it with his divine power and the vine was broken.

"You ... How did you break my branches?" The God eating vine looked at its broken branch and said in disbelief.

"Aren't they just some dried branches? What can't be shaken?" Bing Yao said with a faint smile, but his eyes were fixed on the branch in his hand, studying it.

This branch was slightly different from the other branches because its front end was actually something like a suction cup. There were also sharp spikes on it, but the center of the spikes was empty, forming a tube. It could be seen that this branch was specially used by man-eating vines to suck blood.

"Y-you let me go!" The God devouring vine looked at its most important branch being held by Bing Yao for research, and it suddenly became nervous. It was afraid that the man would break the branch it used to suck blood just like the other branches. Moreover, although it had many branches all over its body, this was the only one it used to eat. If it was broken, it would take hundreds of years to grow back. As a result, it would have to starve for the next hundreds of years. As a divine devouring vine, the most unbearable thing for it was not being able to drink fresh blood. Therefore, it would never tolerate its branch being damaged.

"What if I don't? This branch is quite interesting. I really want to cut it open and study it in detail. Do you agree?" Bing Yao asked curiously.

"I don't agree! I don't agree!" The God eating vine immediately cried out. Wu ... It would be a ghost if it agreed! That hateful man! What a terrifying man! Why did it think that this man was easy to bully? Now, it realized that it might have been wrong!

"It's not up to you to disagree," Bing Yao laughed coldly and took out a Silver Dagger from his storage ring. The dagger was extremely sharp and it gave off a cold air. One look and one could tell that it was not an ordinary dagger.

Bing Yao held a dagger in his hand and gestured on the branch, as if he was choosing a suitable place to cut. This scene frightened the God eating vine. The branches all over its body trembled and it used all its strength to pull the branch back from Bing Yao's hand. However, Bing Yao would not give it the chance.

Everyone heard a 'pop' sound and saw a one-foot long gash on the branch in Bing Yao's hand. Red liquid gushed out, and the divine eating Vine's scream was heard.

"Argh! How detestable! How detestable! I won't let you go, you're dead!" The divine devouring vine cried out in pain, and the branches on its body trembled even more violently. However, Bing Yao didn't take its threat seriously at all.

Chapter 1238: Self-destruction (2)

Bing Yao held the branch that was as thick as a baby's arm tightly in his hand. He started to move the sharp dagger up and down again. Then, he found the right position and cut again ...

Then, the God eating Vine's scream sounded again.

Bing Yao seemed to be addicted to it. He cut here and there, and the people could only hear the man-eating Vine's screams never stop. In fact, each scream was louder than the last.

The God devouring vine screamed and cursed. The more it cursed, the more Bing Yao's dagger slashed.

When everyone saw this, they couldn't help but feel a few black lines on their foreheads. They couldn't help but secretly sigh. Bing Yao was so terrifying. He actually tortured the man-eating vines like this. Fortunately, they weren't Bing Yao's enemies. If they were in his place, they wouldn't be able to stand it either. Sigh! The pitiful man-eating vines! Why did you have to provoke Bing Yao of all people? Wasn't this just looking for trouble? The fate of the man-eating vines made them believe even more firmly that one could not judge a book by its cover!

"Despicable humans!" After a long while, the God eating vine was still scolding, but its voice was getting weaker and weaker. Bing Yao seemed to be tired as well. He stopped what he was doing and looked at the man-eating vine with a faint smile.

"I'll rest for a while, and we'll continue later. You should rest too! I don't want to have no energy to scold later." Bing Yao suggested with a smile.

When the God eating vine heard Bing Yao's words, it was so angry that it almost fainted.

However, it did need to rest for a while. This man had too many ways to torture it. If it did not rest up enough, it was afraid that it would be tortured to death! Wuwu...This demon!

"I can't believe you would have this day." Suddenly, a weak voice rang in the divine eating Vine's ears. When the divine eating vine heard this voice, it immediately became spirited again. How could it have forgotten about this little beast that deserved to die? With this little beast here, these humans wouldn't dare to kill it. Thinking of this, it couldn't help but feel a little proud. This little beast was quite useful! He could be its food when he was free, and now he could save its life. It seemed that he had made the right decision not to kill the little beast.

The God eating Vine's long Branch gently rolled back, and the little beast it had thrown behind it was brought to its eyes. Moreover, with the little beast as a protective talisman, it felt a little more relaxed.

"Detestable human, let go of my bloodsucking vines, or I'll kill this little beast!" The God eating vine raised the little beast in front of its eyes and threatened.

"I say, man-eating vine, you must be mistaken! This little beast has nothing to do with us. Do you think it's useful to use it to threaten us?" Bing Yao said, a little speechless.

"Yup! Man-eating vine, do you have a brain?! What does this little beast's life or death have to do with us? if you want to use it to threaten us, you've found the wrong person!" Feng Da also laughed and teased.

"Hmph! It's that little b*stard's mother. I don't believe that you won't save it for that little B * stard!" The divine devouring vine said confidently. Previously, it had asked that hateful woman for that little vile spawn, but that woman had refused to give it to it. Therefore, it was very certain that the woman would definitely save this hateful little beast for the little vile spawn in her arms! At that time, it would be able to escape, because it was now very sure that it was no match for these humans. Hmph! It was never too late for a gentleman to take revenge. When it had achieved some success in its cultivation, it would naturally come back to seek revenge on these humans.

"You said it's Xiaoxiao's mommy, so it's Xiaoxiao's mommy? Do you think we're as stupid as you and will believe your words?" Leng ruoxue mocked calmly.

"Why don't you believe me? This little beast is the mother of the little B * stard in your arms. This is absolutely true." The God devouring vine couldn't help but roar. It was so angry that it was going crazy! These humans were too difficult to deal with. It had seen many humans in the forest, but this was the first time it had encountered such a difficult one. It was really infuriating.

"If you don't believe it, you don't believe it. Do you need a reason? Don't think that senior brother will let you off just because you randomly find a little beast to pretend to be Xiao Xiao's mother." Leng ruoxue chuckled. After she finished speaking, she lowered her head and asked little Xiao, who was in her arms,""Xiaoxiao, the man-eating vine said that the little beast in its hands is your mother. Is it?"

"It's not. Xiaoxiao doesn't have a mother." Xiao Xiao looked up at little Beastie with its watery eyes and said softly. However, it couldn't help but think, mommy! Mother! Bear with it! Big sister will save you.

"Why isn't it? She is your mother! You little B * stard, you don't even recognize your own mother!" When the divine devouring vine heard Xiaoxiao's words, it roared angrily.

"It really isn't! Don't try to find a soul-gnawing beast to pretend to be my mother, I'm not that easy to fool." Xiaoxiao pouted her little mouth and said stubbornly.

"Damn you, you little B * stard. Your father died to save you, and your mother suffered because of you. You don't acknowledge them. You really have no conscience!" The God eating vine roared with a pained expression.

"It's not that I don't recognize it, but I don't even know the soul-gnawing beast you speak of. How do you want me to recognize it? I can't just randomly acknowledge a mother! How can I face my mother who gave birth to me like that?" Xiaoxiao said seriously.

"Quickly tell that little B * stard that you're its biological mother! Hurry up and let it recognize you!" The God eating vine saw this and ordered the weak little beast in its hand.

"Hehe! It's right, I'm not its mother, and I won't randomly acknowledge my own child. So, don't waste your time, I won't let you have your wish." The weak little beast said with a strong backbone. It looked at the little white beast in Leng ruoxue's arms lovingly and prayed in its heart,"child, you have to take good care of yourself!" Mother would rather die than let this demon hurt you. To be able to see you once, mother is already dead without any regrets.

"Do you believe that I will kill you right now?" The God eating vine was filled with hatred when it saw that it couldn't achieve its goal! It hated the humans who had forced it, but it hated the detestable little beast in its hands even more!

"Alright! Go ahead and kill! I've always wanted to accompany brother fan!" The weak little beast said with a light smile. Now that it saw that its child was living well, it had nothing to worry about. Thus, the threat of the God eating vine to it was not of much use.

Chapter 1239: Self-destruction (3)

"You wish! I won't let you die." Hearing the little beast's words, the God eating vine recalled the past. Naturally, it would not let the little beast have its way. Hmph! You want to go down and accompany brother fan? dream on! Even if it meant death! It would not let them be together.

"I knew it. But, even if you die, brother fan will not want to see you." The weak little beast provoked the demon on purpose. The brother fan that it was talking about was its most beloved partner and also its father. However, he was taken by this demon and was eaten cruelly.

"It doesn't want to see me, but it also can't see you! Hahaha! If I can't get it, then no one else can!" The divine devouring vine laughed arrogantly. At this moment, it had even forgotten the threat that these humans posed to it. It only thought of stepping on its love rival.

Feng Da and the others perked up their ears to listen to the conversation between the man-eating vine and the weak little beast. They all thought to themselves in unison,'so that little beast isn't just the man-eating Vine's food!' There was even some gossip about the emotional entanglement between the two of them. However, weren't man-eating vines plants? Why did she take a fancy to a little beast? Xiao Xiao's father should also be a beast, right?

However, on second thought, if even they wanted to keep the man-eating vines as their exclusive property, it was normal for them to take a fancy to a beast, right? From the looks of it now, the man-eating vines had quite a variety of tastes. They ate everything and could take in anything.

The divine devouring Vine's smug laughter continued for a long time, and Leng ruoxue and the others didn't interrupt it. After it was done laughing, Bing Yao said indifferently,""Man-eating vine, you've rested enough! Let's continue. "

"Don 't! I don't want to continue! How dare you treat me like this! I'm the king of plants!" The God devouring vine heard Bing Yao's words and immediately roared to refuse. Unfortunately, Bing Yao was not moved at all. He directly cut off the front end of the bloodsucking vine in his hand with his dagger. In an instant, more red liquid spurted out and landed on the ground, emitting a foul smell.

The divine devouring Vine's screams were even louder, deafening to the ears.

Feng Da and the others couldn't help but cover their ears so that the demonic sound wouldn't pierce through them. At the same time, they couldn't help but resent Bing Yao for letting the man-eating vines out! He should have blocked its mouth first before cutting off its branches!

In the next second, Bing Yao seemed to know what Feng Da and the others were thinking. As expected, he blocked the man-eating Vine's mouth with his ice attribute skill first. Then, he used his dagger to cut the man-eating Vine's blood-sucking vines. At this time, the man-eating vine could not make a sound even though it was in pain.

When Feng Da and the rest saw this! They let go of their hands that were covering their ears and looked at the man-eating vine with sympathy. Poor guy, this is just the beginning!

The God eating vine trembled in pain. Seeing its bloodsucking vine leave its trunk, it was filled with hatred! It wanted to command its vines to attack the detestable man, but it suddenly lost control of its branches. Fortunately, the weak little beast was still tightly bound by it. Otherwise, it would have lost its last bargaining chip. At this moment, it still believed that the detestable little beast would become its protective talisman. As long as the little beast existed, the humans would not kill it.

After cutting off a small part of the man! Eating vine! Bing Yao threw out a few more ice blades! Whoosh! With a few sounds, the man-eating vines' branches were all broken into several pieces!

In the blink of an eye, the originally luxuriant man-eating vines were all cut off except for the trunk that remained intact!

The weak little beast that was bound by the man-eating vines also broke free from the man-eating vines' control and fell to the ground. Seeing this, Leng ruoxue quickly brought the weak little beast away from the man-eating vines' range so that it would not be used by the man-eating vines to threaten them.

"Wuwu!" When the God eating vine saw that all of its things had fallen into the hands of a human, it couldn't help but glare at Bing Yao with hatred in its eyes. However, its mouth was sealed, so other than whimpering, it couldn't say a single word.

Seeing this, Bing Yao kindly removed the restraint on its mouth, and then smiled and said, "Alright, you can say whatever you want to say now."

"Damned human! Return that little beast to me, it's mine!" The divine devouring vine shouted crazily, but Leng ruoxue ignored its words.

Leng ruoxue bent down to check on the weak little beast's condition. Then, she took out a pill from her bracelet and placed it into the little beast's mouth.

After eating the pill, the little beast quickly recovered its strength. Although it was still a little weak, it was much better than its previous sickly appearance. Moreover, because the little beast had lost too much blood for a long time and was malnourished, a small pill was not enough to immediately recover.

At this moment, Xiaoxiao, who was in Leng ruoxue's arms, had already jumped down impatiently and pounced into the arms of the weak little beast. It looked at the adult soul-gnawing beast with tears in its eyes and cried out loudly, "Mother! Xiaoxiao really misses you."

"My child, my child!" The adult soul-gnawing beast hugged Xiaoxiao as tears flowed down its cheeks. It had never thought that its own child would actually recognize it. Initially, it had thought that this child had really forgotten about it. After all, when it had sent its child away, its child had not been born yet.

“Mother! I’ll take revenge for you. I won’t let that man-eating vine off!” Xiao Xiao looked at its mother’s extremely weak appearance and said with a heart full of hatred. No wonder it did not see its parents when it was born. It turned out that it had been captured by these man-eating vines. Wu ... Damn man-eating vines. They dared to torture its mother. It would make them regret it.

“No, don’t! Child, you’re still too young. You’re not a match for the man-eating vines. Don’t act rashly!” When the adult soul-gnawing beast heard this, it was so frightened that it hurriedly reminded.

“It’s okay, big sister will help me.” Xiaoxiao said confidently. She even turned around and smiled at Leng ruoxue in an attempt to please her.

When Leng ruoxue heard Xiaoxiao’s words and saw the way Xiaoxiao was trying to please her, she could not help but laugh. Was this cunning little guy treating her as a fighter? However, it was indeed impossible for her to let this man-eating vine go. It was quite dangerous to have such a disgusting thing in her territory. Forget it, she would just help the little mother and son along the way!

However, before Leng ruoxue could do anything, the divine devouring vine, who had personally witnessed the soul-gnawing beast’s reunion with its mother, was greatly shocked. It roared loudly in disbelief, “Dammit! Didn’t you refuse to admit your relationship with each other? Then what are you looking like now?”

“It’s our business what we want to do, is it any of your business?” Xiaoxiao replied without giving him any face.

“Damned vile spawn, I won’t let you off, and I won’t let you humans off!” The God eating vine said incoherently and angrily.

“I say, man-eating vines! You’ve already said this many times. If you really want to kill us, then do it! Oh! By the way, you’re considered to have no hands now, right? I wonder if you have any other way to kill us?” Feng Da asked curiously when he heard the man-eating Vine’s words.

“I’m going to die with you!” Provoked by Feng DA’s words, the divine devouring vine roared in anger. Then, it mobilized all its strength and gathered it on the remaining main vine. As the main vine slowly expanded, the divine devouring vine also grew bigger and bigger. Soon, its main stem had doubled in size ...

When the adult soul-gnawing beast saw this, it quickly shouted, “Be careful, everyone! The God eating vine is going to self-destruct!”

When Bing Yao heard the adult soul-eating beast’s words, he remained calm and unhurried as he looked at the man-eating vine that was gathering its power. He chuckled and said, “Man-eating vine, you’re too slow. Why don’t I help you?”

“What do you mean by that?” The tall God eating vine asked condescendingly, its face full of confusion. It really couldn’t understand why these people weren’t afraid at all when they knew that it was going to self-destruct and die with them.

“I despise the fact that you’re too slow in self-destructing, so I want to help you!” Bing Yao said with a smile. After that, he quickly gathered divine power in his hand and threw it at the main trunk of the man-eating vine. In an instant, the man-eating vine was filled to the brim with the external divine power, and it was clearly beyond what it could withstand. In the blink of an eye, the man-eating vine grew several times larger, and its human face showed an extremely painful expression.

Then, Bing Yao cast another barrier, covering the man-eating vine within ...

In an instant!

Everyone heard a loud bang and saw the tall man-eating vine explode violently. The thick main vine was blown into pieces, turning into fragments and falling to the ground.

However, after the self-destruction, the man-eating vine did not die completely. After the self-destruction, the man-eating vine turned into a small bud and hid under the debris. It thought that it had hidden well and no one would discover its plan. Little did it know that Leng ruoxue and the others had long known about its actions. Hence, it was the only one who was pleased with itself and thought that its plan had succeeded. Now, it was only waiting for these abominable humans to leave so that it could find a good place to hide. It had started cultivating again. In this way, it would have the opportunity to regain its human body.

Previously, although it had thought of using the method of rebirth to cultivate again, it was reluctant to give up its many years of cultivation. Therefore, it had never had the heart to self-destruct. Now, these humans had forced it to self-destruct, which could be considered as granting it a new life.

Speaking of which, it should thank these humans properly! And the way it thanked them was naturally to eat them after it had re-cultivated! Letting these despicable humans die for him was the highest honor he could give them. As for those two little beasts, he would continue to torture them. Hmph! If you want the family of three to be reunited, stop dreaming!

“The God eating vine isn’t dead yet! Don’t be fooled by it, it can self-destruct and revive.” Seeing that the God eating Vine’s self-destruction didn’t bring them any danger, the adult spirit-engulfing beast was stunned for a moment before suddenly remembering the God eating Vine’s innate ability. Thus, it hurriedly reminded them.

When the God devouring vine, which was hiding under the debris, heard the adult soul-gnawing beast’s words, it was so angry that it almost fainted. It couldn’t help but curse in its heart. If it had known that the detestable little beast would betray it, it would have taken care of it earlier. However, it believed that those humans would not be able to find it. After all, with so many fragments buried, it would take a lot of effort for those people to find it. As long as it found an opportunity, it would escape ...

Chapter 1240: Nian (1)

However, before the divine devouring vine could be pleased with itself, it heard Leng ruoxue’s voice, “It doesn’t matter, it can’t run away.”

“The divine devouring vine is very cunning. It should be in hiding by now. It won’t be easy for us to find it. If it escapes, there will be endless trouble.” The adult soul-gnawing beast said worriedly.

“There’s no need to find it. As long as we burn this place down, it won’t be able to escape even if it wants to.” Leng ruoxue laughed evilly. She would not let the man-eating vines have their way and let everyone search this place bit by bit! Therefore, she would use the simplest and most effective method, which was to burn the fragments of the man-eating vines to ashes. She did not believe that the man-eating vines would be able to escape under such circumstances.

At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue took the little fire spirit out of her bracelet. Without waiting for Leng ruoxue's instructions, the little fire spirit started to set fire.

He set fire not only to burn the man-eating vines, but also to purify the land so that it was more suitable for the growth of other plants. After all, the soil here had been almost destroyed by the man-eating vines. Other than vampire plants, other plants would definitely die Here.

Following the little fire Spirit's flame, the fragments of the man-eating vine within the barrier were quickly burned to ashes. The man-eating vine that was hiding under the fragments endured the pain in its body and didn't dare to make a sound. Although the flame was very powerful, it was still within the range that it could bear for the time being. After all, it had cultivated for many years, so it still had the ability to bear this. The only hope in its heart now was that the flame could be extinguished as soon as possible. Otherwise, it couldn't guarantee that it wouldn't be discovered by those hateful humans.

The little fire spirit seemed to know what the man-eating vine was thinking and quickly retracted its flame. After a moment of silence, it released a slightly golden flame. The level of this flame was obviously higher than the previous one. The flame flew to the ashes and in the blink of an eye, the ashes of the man-eating Vine's fragments turned into a part of the air and evaporated instantly. He couldn't help but cry out when he was burned by the scorching flames ...

"Argh! It hurts! It hurts so much, you damn human! I won't let you off!" The struggling God eating vine was still clamoring, but no one was moved. Little fire spirit continued to increase the fire, and gradually, the God eating Vine's voice became weaker and weaker, until it completely disappeared ...

However, the little fire spirit was still worried about the God eating vine. Therefore, it decided to conduct a more thorough purification of the place. Thinking of this, it said to Leng ruoxue and the others, "Big sister, all of you go back to your rooms. I'm going to completely purify this place."

"Alright, we'll leave this place first and wait for you outside." After Leng ruoxue finished speaking, she temporarily kept the house and led the group out of the mountain stream, leaving the place to the little fire spirit.

Once they were outside the mountain stream, Leng ruoxue placed the house on an empty plot of land. The group then entered the house and observed the movements in the mountain stream through the light screen.

The little fire spirit in the mountain stream had already turned into a huge flame. The flame was shining with a dazzling golden light and flickered with a heart-palpitating aura.

The little fire spirit transformed into its original form and flew around the mountain stream. Wherever it went, a sea of fire would be set ablaze. All the living creatures in the mountain stream were purified. The originally dark red soil slowly revealed its original appearance as the little fire Spirit's flames burned it. The air here also gradually recovered its clarity.

After a long time, the little fire spirit finished its purification and transformed back into a chubby one-year-old baby. It bounced back into the house and pounced into Leng ruoxue's arms.

“Sister, it’s done.” The little fire spirit asked for credit with excitement.

“Well done.” Leng ruoxue patted the little fire Spirit’s head and praised it.

“Little fire spirit, are you sure that the man-eating vine is dead?” Feng Da asked curiously.

“He can’t be more dead, don’t worry! It’s no longer suitable for plants like man-eating vines to live there, so there shouldn’t be any more blood-sucking creatures in the nightmare forest.” The little fire spirit said with absolute certainty.

“I don’t think the God eating vine will die so easily, so it’s best to confirm it!” The adult soul-eating beast suggested in a low voice. It had been poisoned by the God eating vine for many years, so it could be said that it hated and feared the God eating vine. The influence of the God eating vine was deeply rooted in its heart, so it wasn’t easy to make it believe that the God eating vine was really gone.

“You don’t believe in my ability?” When the little fire spirit heard the adult soul-gnawing beast’s words, it pouted its little mouth and said unhappily.

“No, I just wanted you to confirm it. The divine devouring vine is very cunning, and I’m afraid it will trick us.” The adult soul-gnawing beast said carefully. Facing the aggressive little fire spirit, it felt nervous for some reason.

“Alright then! Big sister, since this little soul-gnawing beast is so afraid of the man-eating vines, I’ll have to trouble you to purify it again!” The little fire spirit said with a smile.

“Al! Alright!” Leng ruoxue nodded in response. She then released a small flame and allowed it to fly out of the house.

The adult soul-gnawing beast looked at the smug little flame with question marks all over its face. It could not help but guess in its heart, where was this little flame going? Why did he run out by himself? However, when it saw what the little flame did through the light screen, it was so shocked that it couldn’t speak.

Oh my God! That little flame was really too terrifying. Such a small flame could actually release such a great power. In just a moment, the entire mountain stream had turned into a sea of fire. Moreover, the temperature of the flame was several times higher than the Golden flame released by the little fire spirit. This time, the mountain stream was completely clean, without a trace of impurities.

Furthermore, after being purified by Leng ruoxue’s flames, the air in the mountain stream was fresher than anywhere else in the forest. The concentration of spiritual energy had also increased by quite a bit. This place had suddenly turned from a filthy place to the most suitable place to live. Many young plants were growing at a speed that could be seen with the naked eye ...

When everyone saw this, their eyes widened in disbelief. No one had expected that Leng ruoxue’s flames could actually promote the growth of plants. This was too unbelievable. Leng ruoxue could tell what they were thinking, but she didn’t bother explaining. In reality, it wasn’t her flames that could promote the growth of plants. It was the place that had undergone some evolution after being purified by her flames. Hence, the growth rate of the plants had also increased.
