Chapter 1671: The shadowless claw (2)

“Little rabbit, be good! Don’t be afraid! He’s pretending to faint!” At this time, Feng Da comforted him.

“Really?” The little white rabbit’s eyes were misty with tears, and she said with a pitiful expression.

“I guarantee it’s true! He loves to play dead.” Feng Da promised.

When 19th elder heard this, he was so angry that he almost jumped up from the ground and cursed. He was indeed pretending to faint, but unfortunately, Feng Da had exposed him. He was so angry! However, he still lay on the ground without moving, planning to make sure that he was unconscious.

When the White Rabbit heard Feng DA’s words, it was also very angry. However, it was angry that this damned old man had deceived its pure feelings. It had thought that this old man had really fainted! Hmph! If one dared to deceive it, they would have to pay the corresponding price. It was not that easy to deceive.

With that thought, the White Rabbit hopped over to 19th elder’s side and sat down on his face. It kept wriggling around. The fluffy fur on its body made 19th elder’s face itch, and he almost broke down. However, he was still cursing in his heart. F * ck! The detestable rabbit had actually pointed its butt at him. He was so disgusted that he almost vomited, but he endured it in order to pretend to faint.

“Old man! I don’t care if you’re really fainting or pretending to faint, I’ll be here with you.” The little white rabbit said affectionately.

When Feng Da and the others saw this, they couldn’t help but sigh. Poor nineteenth elder! Was he being stared at by this little rabbit? Let’s see what you’re going to do now. Moreover, they were all guessing when the nineteenth elder would be unable to resist jumping up from the ground. They were also a little curious. Wasn’t this little rabbit’s butt smelly? The 19th elder was really patient!

Just as Feng Da and the others were letting their thoughts run wild, they suddenly heard a ‘pfft’. Then, the little white rabbit said shyly, “I’m sorry! I farted!”

Ugh! When Feng Da and the others heard this, they admired this little rabbit even more. Now, they were even more certain that this rabbit was definitely messing with the nineteenth elder. However, they admired their young lady even more. The space manager she made could actually fart!

Immediately after, everyone smelled a pungent smell in the air. Immediately, everyone covered their mouths in unison. Originally, many people were skeptical about whether this rabbit could fart, but now that the evidence was conclusive, they had no choice but to believe it.

After everyone covered their mouths, they were surprised to see that nineteenth elder was still lying on the ground without moving. Suddenly, everyone’s opinion of him rose and they admired his determination. They couldn’t stand such a strong stench, but nineteenth elder still insisted on not getting up. This kind of perseverance was beyond anyone’s reach!

In fact, what they didn't know was that it wasn't that nineteenth elder didn't want to jump up, but that he had already fainted from the farts released by the White Rabbit. Even if he thought about it, he wouldn't be able to get up. However, it wasn't like he didn't have any unexpected gains! At the very least, everyone had a higher opinion of him.

However, if nineteenth elder was clear-headed, he would definitely not want such an unexpected gain.

"Old man! How can I wake you up?" At this moment, everyone heard the White Rabbit mumble to itself again. Instantly, black lines appeared on their foreheads. Was this rabbit still thinking about this? However, such a stinky fart couldn't wake the nineteenth elder up, so he must have made up his mind to pretend to be unconscious to the end.

"Feng Da! Quickly think of a way for me!" The little white rabbit asked for help.

"Uh! This ... Why don't you let out a few more farts! Who knows, maybe he'll wake up!" Feng Da deliberately thought for a while before he said hesitantly. However, after listening to his idea, the others couldn't help but silently pray for nineteenth elder. Nineteenth elder! You take care! I hope I can still see you alive and kicking, bickering with us!

"This is a bit difficult! I'll brew it!" The little white rabbit frowned and said with some difficulty. It had finally made a smelly fart, and it wanted to make a few more, but it didn't know if it would work!

Then, the little white rabbit held it in with all her might, until her fluffy little face turned red and her little body trembled. She looked like she was having a hard time. Seeing this, everyone couldn't bear it anymore. This idea seemed to be quite difficult for this little rabbit.

After holding it in for a long time, the White Rabbit finally let out another smelly fart. Then, it continued to brew. At this time, Feng Da and the others ran as far away from them as possible, in case they fainted before the nineteenth elder woke up.

Just like that, the little white bunnies brewed first, then, one by one, they started farting. At this time, the entire gray space was filled with a foul smell, and there was no way to stay.

Seeing this scene, everyone covered their mouths and looked at Feng Da with a face full of blame. Their eyes were red as if they were saying, 'it's all your stupid idea! We're also suffering because of him.

However, Feng Da felt wronged. How could he be blamed for this? He could only blame the nineteenth elder for pretending to faint. Moreover, he did not expect this little rabbit to be so persistent and so honest. He had only made a suggestion, and it actually did it! Ai! He was speechless.

"Captain! Could it be that 19th elder had really fainted? Even we can't stand such a stinky fart, how can he?" At this moment, Lin Yuan could not help but send a voice transmission to Feng Da.

"Uh! It's not impossible!" Feng Da said as he wiped the cold sweat from his forehead. He had been thinking about how to deal with the nineteenth elder, and had not expected such an outcome.

After some thought, Feng Da said, "little rabbit!" You rest! The nineteenth elder might have really fainted."

"Argh! No way? Then wouldn't I have farted for nothing? "Wuwu ..." The little white rabbit began to cry gloomily, and its tears fell like raindrops, quickly wetting its fur.

“That ... Don’t cry anymore. You’d better think of a way to wake up the nineteenth elder!” Cold sweat dripped from Feng DA’s forehead as he reminded.

“Mm! What you said makes sense. I must turn my grief and indignation into strength and wake this old man up.” The little white rabbit said confidently as it clenched its little paws.

“Good luck!” Feng Da encouraged.

“We will!” After the White Rabbit finished speaking in all seriousness, it began to jump around on the nineteenth elder’s face. Seeing this, everyone’s forehead was filled with black lines.

What was this little thing doing? It couldn’t possibly think that with its small body, it could wake up the 19th elder by jumping, right? Everyone was dumbfounded. Then, they saw the White Rabbit extend its sharp claws. With a flash of silver light, the four-clawed rabbit began to draw the same pattern on the nineteenth elder’s face ...

Ugh! The crowd wiped the cold sweat from their foreheads with lingering fear. They felt the deepest sympathy for the nineteenth elder. Poor nineteenth elder! The previous mark on her face had not disappeared, but this time, a new injury was added.

Chapter 1672: The shadowless claw (3)

However, the White Rabbit’s trick was very effective because the nineteenth elder had already woken up from the pain. When he opened his eyes and saw the hateful rabbit in front of him, as well as its claws that were shining with a cold light, he immediately sat up on the ground. The White Rabbit, who was not prepared for this, rolled down his face like a ball. Seeing this, the nineteenth elder grabbed the White Rabbit in his hand and said fiercely, “Damn rabbit! You want to scratch me again, don’t you?”

“Old man! I’ve already finished scratching, and I even woke you up.” The little white rabbit saw that the nineteenth elder was a little forgetful, so she kindly reminded him.

When 19th elder heard the White Rabbit’s words, he suddenly reacted. Yes! Didn’t he wake up from the pain? After seeing this damned rabbit, he was so angry that he forgot such an important thing. Thinking of this, he became even angrier and held the White Rabbit even tighter. However, he didn’t hear the damned rabbit’s begging as he had hoped.

Not only that, but the White Rabbit also seemed to be enjoying it. It looked at him with a smile, its face full of satisfaction. Seeing this, 19th elder was depressed again. What kind of situation was this? did this damned rabbit not know pain?

At the same time, he couldn’t help but increase the strength of his hand. The poor little rabbit’s head was still exposed, and its small body was completely buried in his palm.

“Nineteenth elder! You’re too cruel. How could you attack such a cute little animal? Is this something a human can do?” Feng Da couldn’t stand it anymore, so he criticized.

“Yup! The 19th elder! You’re an adult, how can you bully the weak? Even though this world is ruled by the strong, you can’t go too far!” Lin Yuan also echoed.

“Nineteenth elder! This little thing likes you so much, but not only did you not appreciate it, but you also attacked her. You’re really too vicious.” The disheveled old man added fuel to the fire.

Then, other than the ning family elders and Cheng Xuan, everyone else began to criticize the nineteenth elder. In fact, Cheng Xuan also wanted to interject, but considering the friendly relationship between the Cheng family and the ning family, he had to give the nineteenth elder some face. However, it felt good to hit him when he was down, but unfortunately, he didn’t have the chance. He couldn’t help but complain in his heart.

Cheng Xuan was not the only one who had such thoughts. Listening to everyone’s criticism, even the elders of the ning family almost couldn’t help but speak out. Moreover, in their opinion, what the nineteenth elder had done was indeed not right. Although that little rabbit had angered the nineteenth elder, it was still somewhat unacceptable that the nineteenth elder had attacked such a little thing and was so serious.

Some of the elders who felt that 19th elder’s actions were a little embarrassing even turned their heads away uncomfortably. Their cheeks were slightly hot, all of which were due to shame.

“Thank you for speaking up for me. However, the deeper the love, the deeper the hate. Beating is affection, scolding is love. This old man cares about me too much, that’s why he’s so jealous! Ah! He’s too charming, what can we do!” At this time, the little white rabbit, who had been silent for a long time, gave a long speech. Everyone who heard it sighed. This rabbit was too narcissistic.

When nineteenth elder heard this, his face turned livid with anger, and the veins on his forehead throbbed. At this moment, he wanted to strangle the rabbit to death. However, no matter how hard he tried, the rabbit did not hurt or itch. It even looked at him affectionately. This fact made him so depressed that he almost vomited blood.

“Old man! You’re so good to me!”

“Old man! I know you care about me the most, don’t worry! I’m also the best to you!”

“Old man! Let’s just stay here and depend on each other in the future!”

“Old man! I will treat you well!”

The little white rabbit’s endless confession was nauseating and nauseating. The hair on everyone’s body stood on end as they listened. The nineteenth elder was getting angrier and angrier as he listened, and his chest was so tight that he could barely breathe. Soon after, everyone watched as the poor nineteenth elder fainted from anger again. This time, he did not even have time to treat the wound on his face.

Ugh! How pitiful! The crowd muttered sympathetically to themselves. However, they also felt fortunate that they were not the ones targeted by the rabbit. Otherwise, they would probably be as depressed as nineteenth elder.

“Why did you faint again?” The little white rabbit looked depressed and sad.

Then, it called out to Feng Da, “Feng Da, he fainted again.” As she spoke, tears welled up in her eyes.

“Uh! That’s right! He was excited! He’s too happy.” Feng Da was afraid that the little rabbit would flood the Golden Mountain, so he quickly coaxed her.

When everyone heard his words, they all looked at him with contempt, their eyes saying, ‘you’re lying! This was definitely cheating a child! Feng Da also replied with his eyes, ‘do you have any good ideas? Whoever could coax this rabbit would go! Don’t forget, it’s the owner of this place!’”

After a tacit exchange of glances, everyone silently agreed.

At this moment, the White Rabbit’s voice rang out again.

“Really? Did he really faint from happiness?” The White Rabbit’s watery eyes were filled with suspicion.

“Of course, why Would I Lie to You? Why don’t you ask the second elder and the others?” Feng Da smirked and kicked the ball to the second elder and the others.

When the second elder and the others heard Feng DA’s words, they were so angry that they rolled their eyes. What kind of person was this? How could there be such a detestable person in this world? They had really learned a lot today. However, although they were disdainful of Feng DA’s actions, they said after receiving the White Rabbit’s expectant gaze, “That’s right! He fainted because he was too happy.”

This time, the fact that 19th elder was happy was finally confirmed. The White Rabbit also smiled through her tears and solemnly promised, “I’m relieved now. I’ll treat him well in the future!”

“Mm! Just treat him well!” In order to please this little rabbit, the seventh elder also specially urged that sacrificing the nineteenth elder in exchange for the friendship of this space manager was quite worth it.

However, he couldn’t understand why nineteen elder was always targeted by Beastie. Previously, he had been imprisoned by a few bears as their exclusive property, and now, he had caught the eye of a rabbit. This nineteenth elder’s charm towards beasts was really irresistible!

“I will! However, can anyone tell me how to wake him up again? I can’t bear to see him lying on the ground like this, he’ll catch a cold.” The little white rabbit said with a pained expression.

“This ... Try your shadowless claw! It seems that the effect is not bad!” Feng Da suggested with an evil smile.

“Feng Da! You’re the smartest!” The little white rabbit praised with a smile.

“Of course!” Feng Da was very proud.

Following that, everyone saw the little white rabbit use its ultimate skill, ‘shadowless claw’. Its four little claws flew up and down, and white light danced in the sky ...

‘Whoosh! Buzzzzzz! Whoosh!’ The sound of clothes being torn rang out in the gray space. In just a few dozen minutes, the nineteenth elder’s clothes had been torn into strips, and one could vaguely see his body. Moreover, the skin that was exposed was full of claw marks, and blood was seeping out of the wounds. It was a terrible sight.

However, even though 19th elder had suffered quite a few injuries, the little white rabbit had no intention of stopping before 19th elder woke up. Instead, it became more and more courageous as it tried to use its 'shadowless claw'.

After a long time.

19th elder's body was already a bloody mess, but he was awoken by the pain.

Opening his eyes with great difficulty, nineteenth elder grimaced in pain. This time, he was very clear-headed and knew that the damned rabbit must have done something to him again. Otherwise, his body would not be in so much pain.

"Old man! You're finally awake! I was so worried." The little white rabbit said with tears in her eyes.

Damn rabbit! Get lost! The 19th elder opened his mouth to curse, but he was disappointed to find that he couldn't make a sound. What was going on? he wanted to sit up again, but he was in so much pain that he couldn't move. This time, he wanted to cry.

"Old man! You've been unconscious for too long, don't speak! Just obediently lie down!" Seeing the depressed expression on the nineteenth elder's face, the White Rabbit consoled him. However, the nineteenth elder was so angry that he wanted to kill someone!

"Nineteenth elder! You'd better listen to me and lie down!" Feng Da walked to the 19th elder's side and asked with concern.

"Get lost!" The nineteenth elder shouted in a hoarse voice. This time, he could finally make a sound, although his voice was very unpleasant.

"Nineteenth elder! No wonder you're so annoying. I'm just trying to comfort you out of kindness, but you actually told me to get lost! Hmph! In the future, don't cry and beg me to help you!" Feng Da said in a bad mood. After he finished speaking, he turned around and walked away without looking back.

"Who would beg you!" The nineteenth elder said in disdain.

When the second elder and the others heard his words, they could only shake their heads and sigh. The 19th elder really liked to offend people.

"Old man! Don't be so angry! It's not good for the body! Ai! Forget it, I'll take you to a good place to recuperate!" The little white rabbit said helplessly when she saw the 19th elder getting angry.

Then, with a flash of white light, the White Rabbit and the unlucky nineteenth elder disappeared ...

Chapter 1673: The mystery prize (1)

Everyone stared at the place where the White Rabbit and the nineteenth elder had disappeared. They were all very puzzled. Where had the rabbit taken the unlucky nineteenth elder to? This time, the nineteenth elder, who was so popular with the beasts, had once again become the exclusive property of that rabbit. At this moment, they did not know if they should sympathize with the nineteenth elder.

After all, to be able to be fancied by the space manager here, it could not help but be considered a kind of opportunity!

After the nineteenth elder was taken away by the White Rabbit, no one else bickered with Feng Da and the others. Therefore, they also calmed down and cultivated. However, they could always hear a miserable scream coming from a certain space. The sound was very similar to the nineteenth elder they knew.

Every time they heard this voice, everyone's mind couldn't help but wander. They were also very curious about what the nineteenth elder was doing at this time. And this had also become their only joy in this trial space.

At the same time, Leng ruoxue was also struggling with the final stage of the trial space. Right now, she had already walked more than half of the journey in the final stage. However, just as she was about to reach the finish line, she failed again. This fact made her extremely depressed.

Seeing Leng ruoxue being transported out of the trial space, the demon smiled and pulled her into his arms.

"Xue 'er! Don't be too anxious, take it slowly." The demon consoled. He wasn't in a hurry anyway, and he was more than happy to stay here with Xue 'er for a while longer!

"En!" Leng ruoxue nodded, but there was still no smile on her beautiful face.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue and the demon suddenly heard a painful howl. Black lines immediately appeared on their foreheads. What was going on? How could someone be screaming so miserably? Furthermore, they had heard it. It seemed like the sound insulation in this space was not very good!

With a thought, the White Rabbit appeared in front of Leng ruoxue. The moment the rabbit saw her, it immediately jumped into her arms and rubbed against her affectionately.

"Little white! What the hell are you doing?" Leng ruoxue asked, feeling a little speechless.

"Hehe! Master, I'm helping you deal with the nineteenth elder!" The little white rabbit said with a fawning expression.

"Uh! How are you going to deal with him?" Leng ruoxue's curiosity was piqued. Even though she had unintentionally refined this little rabbit, it was still considered her Beastie. Hence, it was understandable that it wanted to stand up for her. However, she really could not think of what kind of idea this little rabbit could come up with to deal with nineteenth elder.

"I've been very gentle and used all sorts of cool techniques on him. He's enjoying it now!" The little white rabbit said proudly.

However, when Leng ruoxue heard its words, a few black lines appeared on her forehead. She couldn't help but think to herself, 'it's not a Beastie that I've refined. It's definitely not!' In fact, when she first made the space manager look like a little rabbit, she wanted a cute and simple little guy. However, it seemed that she had made a major mistake. This little thing was clearly a Black-bellied little devil.

"Little Bai, we're still young. We must be good children. We can't do bad things!" Leng ruoxue paused for a moment before continuing.

“Master! I’m a good kid, and I didn’t do anything bad!” The little white rabbit said with an aggrieved expression.

“Then how long do you plan to take care of the nineteenth elder?” Leng ruoxue couldn’t help but ask. Even though she didn’t like 19th elder, that old man was still a member of the ning family. She had to give her Godfather some face.

“Master! I’m so lonely here, I’ve taken a fancy to that old man, so I want him to stay here with me, can I?” The little white rabbit raised its head and said with anticipation.

“Uh!” Leng ruoxue looked at the little white rabbit’s clear eyes and was in a difficult position. How was she supposed to say this? If he agreed to let nineteenth elder stay here, he wouldn’t be able to explain it to his Godfather. He could also say that he didn’t agree to let nineteenth elder stay here! This little rabbit would be sad again, and now she was really in a dilemma.

“Master! That old man won’t be able to get out. He won’t be able to pass these ten levels, at least not in a short period of time. ” The little white rabbit and Leng ruoxue’s minds were connected, so it naturally knew what its master was thinking. Thus, it could not help but remind her.

“In that case, you can keep him for as long as you can! If he succeeds, you can’t force him to stay in there. ” Leng ruoxue warned. This way, she would have something to say if her Godfather asked about nineteenth elder.

It wasn’t that she didn’t allow nineteenth elder to come out, but nineteenth elder didn’t succeed in breaking through the barrier, so he could only stay inside. She believed that Godfather would understand. It was Godfather’s fault for letting him train these elders!

“Hehe! I knew master was the best. ” Hearing Leng ruoxue’s words, the little white rabbit was elated.

“Don’t torment the 19th elder too much!” Leng ruoxue reminded.

“MMH! Don’t worry, master! I know what I’m doing. ” The little white rabbit promised.

“That’s good. ” Leng ruoxue only felt at ease when she heard the little rabbit’s promise.

“Master! If there’s nothing else, I’ll go back first. That old man is still waiting for me!” The little white rabbit said impatiently.

“Let’s go back!” Leng ruoxue nodded her head lightly. Following that, the little white rabbit in her arms disappeared.

“Xue ‘er! This little fellow is quite considerate!” After the White Rabbit disappeared, the evildoer said with a look of admiration. He had wanted to beat up the nineteenth elder for a long time. Now that this little fellow was here, it saved him a lot of trouble. However, when he heard the nineteenth elder’s miserable shrieks, it seemed that he had been tortured quite badly.

“Yup!” Leng ruoxue said awkwardly. Her Beastie had all taken after her, and even this little thing that she had accidentally created was no exception.

“Hahaha! I think the nineteenth elder must be regretting it now. Why did he have to come to the second-layer domain to test himself? If he hadn’t come in, he wouldn’t have encountered this kind of thing!” The demon said with a happy smile.

“He’s afraid that Godfather will find out and blame him. Moreover, he doesn’t believe what I said about him coming to the second level domain to train of his own will. So, all of this is caused by him, he can’t blame anyone else!” Leng ruoxue said.

“Based on my understanding of the nineteenth elder, he’ll definitely put the blame on you. Some people just like to push the blame on others and don’t see their own mistakes. So, I’m afraid he hates you even more now.” The demon guessed.

“It doesn’t matter. I don’t really care.” Leng ruoxue said disapprovingly.

However, the evildoer was right. At this moment, 19th elder, who was suffering from inhumane torture in a certain space, hated Leng ruoxue to death even though his heart was bleeding!

In a certain space, a small white Rabbit was sitting on a man who was covered in wounds and jumping up and down, having a lot of fun.

“Damn rabbit! Get down now!” Nineteenth elder, who was a little weak, shouted weakly.

Chapter 1674: The mystery prize (2)

“I won ‘t!” The little white rabbit said stubbornly. Then, she sat on the nineteenth elder’s face, her butt facing his mouth.

19th elder was so angry that he didn’t dare to speak. He even held his breath, afraid that this damned rabbit was farting. Now that he was imprisoned here alone, this damned rabbit definitely had a way to do whatever he wanted to him, and he didn’t have any scruples from before. Therefore, he didn’t dare to go too far.

However, every time this damned rabbit sat on his face happily, he would shut his mouth obediently, not even daring to breathe loudly.

And that damned rabbit seemed to know that this was his weakness, so it used this trick to threaten him every time, and it worked every time! He really hated it to death.

“Old man! How nice it is for us to be here, don’t you think? Otherwise, we’ll all be lonely old people!” The little white rabbit sighed.

Good my ass! He was not alone! He had a lot of companions, okay? even if he didn’t, there were plenty of women in the divine realm who wanted to accompany him. How could it be his turn to have a rabbit as his companion?

He was trapped in the past because of that damn bubble, so he couldn’t do anything to those detestable bears. However, why was he imprisoned by this damned rabbit again? He could not understand why!

“Ah!” Why! 19th elder roared in his heart with grief and indignation. At this moment, he realized that he really needed a piece of tofu. Wu ... Let him bang his head on tofu! Unfortunately, no one could hear his inner thoughts and could not help him. Beastie, the only one who could help him and was connected to him telepathically, was hiding in the Beastie space for some unknown reason, refusing to come out even if it said it would die. Could it be that he was being deserted by his friends and family? The absent-minded nineteenth elder began to let his thoughts run wild.

A month later.

The nineteenth elder’s screams gradually decreased. This made the people who were used to listening to his screams to cultivate a little uncomfortable. Some people even guessed in their hearts that the nineteenth elder was no longer in this world. Al! Poor nineteenth elder! He had braved so many storms and waves, but he was actually defeated by a little rabbit!

However, the nineteenth elder’s current situation did not affect everyone’s enthusiasm for the challenge. Whether it was the elders or Feng Da and the others, they were getting more and more courageous. After failing again and again, they continued to challenge the pass. This repeated for another year and the elders finally stood in front of the last pass again.

During this period, they bought elixirs from Feng Da and the others for the second time. The high price made Cheng Xuan a little envious. If it were not for the fact that he did not have many elixirs left, he would have taken them out and sold them.

Furthermore, Feng Da and the others had made a fortune just by selling the pills to the elders. But unfortunately, they didn’t receive any money, but a bunch of IOUs.

In the dusky space.

The second elder looked at Feng Da and the others and hesitated.

“Second elder, what’s the matter?” Feng Da asked considerately.

“That ... Do you still have the pills in your hands?” The second elder could not help but ask.

“Of course there is! What, second elder still wants to buy it? Hehe! You can buy as much as you want, don’t be shy!” Feng Da said enthusiastically. These old men were their big customers! Of course, he couldn’t neglect it. Although they hadn’t received the money yet, these old men wouldn’t dare to renege on their debt. Otherwise, he wouldn’t sell it to them!

“There are more?” The second elder was surprised. Although he had only bought two elixirs from them, they had bought a lot the second time in order to save time. However, he didn’t expect Feng Da and the others to have more. They even told him that they had as many as he wanted! This was truly unbelievable.

“There is! We have many alchemists in our family! Therefore, what I have the least lack of are medicinal pills.” Feng Da smiled and said proudly. As for the fact that their family still produced medicinal herbs, he couldn’t tell them. Otherwise, they would be jealous!

“Since you have it, then sell me some more!” The second elder said after some thought. The difficulty of the last stage had increased by nearly tenfold. This fact made him extremely depressed. Thus, in order to pass the stage as soon as possible, he made up his mind to buy another pill. As long as he could get out, he would rather carry a huge debt. Moreover, this last stage was also a huge challenge for him.

“No problem! How much do you want?” Feng Da asked generously.

“Give me 300 bottles of each!” The second elder muttered to himself for a moment before speaking.

” 300 bottles? Are you sure?” Feng DA’s eyes widened in disbelief. Could it be that this old man wanted to eat pills as if they were his rice? Although he admitted that the pills refined by his young miss were very delicious, and they and the young miss’s beasts often ate them, but looking at the second elder, he didn’t look like someone who would eat pills as if they were food.

“Mm! What, is it not enough?” The second elder asked nervously.

“Enough! How could it not be enough! I’ve said it before, we can have as many as we want!” Feng Da said with a smile.

After he finished speaking! He handed! Blank piece of paper and a pen to the second elder. The second elder understood and held the pen! He immediately wrote down an IOU. Oh ... This was the third one. He already owed a lot of money. If he couldn’t pay it back in this lifetime, he would have to sell himself to Leng ruoxue. Although he was now Leng ruoxue’s bodyguard, it was a pity that she didn’t admit it and he didn’t have the self-awareness to do so. However, if he could clear the last obstacle, he would have to think about how to get along with Leng ruoxue. Furthermore, Leng ruoxue still had something on him!

After the pill and the IOU were settled, both the buyer and the seller were happy. The second elder took the pill and directly entered the last trial space ...

At this time, the seventh elder who had been watching the whole time also spoke.

“Feng Da, why do you have so many pills? Don’t tell me you guys always carry so many pills with you?” The seventh elder was very curious.

“How is that possible? We specially brought a lot of pills here because we’re going to the second level domain trial. Moreover, miss told us to bring these. She said that you might need them, but miss didn’t want to sell them to you for cheap. ” Feng Da said with an evil smile.

“Mm! My family’s young miss said that the price inside is different from the outside. If you want to buy pills, you have to follow the price inside!” Lin Yuan added from the side. His and Feng DA’s agreement made many of the elders so angry that they were trembling.

The elders were extremely depressed. So Leng ruoxue was treating them like fat sheep and slaughtering them? Furthermore, they had to be willing to be scammed. Right now, they were very suspicious that Leng ruoxue wanted to sell them the elixirs at a high price. That was why she had allowed them to come here to clear the levels.

Seeing the ugly expressions of the elders, Feng Da didn’t have to guess what they were thinking. However, he didn’t care. Anyway, the price of the pill was this, it was up to them to buy it or not! They wouldn’t force them to buy or sell.

Chapter 1675: The mystery prize (3)

“Sell me more!” The seventh elder sighed softly. Although he was also a little angry, he could not help but admire Leng ruoxue’s foresight. Furthermore, they could not blame her for buying the pills at such a high price. After all, when they were outside, Leng ruoxue had asked them and they had found it too expensive to buy too little. However, they were in great need of the pills after entering this place, so they could only pay a high price.

As the saying goes, “when there are too many debts, there is no need to worry.” He was not the only one who owed debts. There were so many elders accompanying him, so he really was not afraid.

“How many do you want, seventh elder?” Feng Da said in a friendly manner. He had a good impression of the seventh elder, so his attitude towards him was slightly better.

“The same as second elder!” The seventh elder said after some thought. In fact, he could understand the second elder’s desire to quickly succeed in passing the trial. How could he not do the same!

“Alright!” Feng Da also took out a pen and paper and handed them to the seventh elder. After the seventh elder wrote the IOU, Feng Da gave him the elixir.

Seeing this, the other elders also hesitated whether they should buy more pills. The ones they had on hand were really not enough. After thinking for a while, another elder spoke up and said that he wanted to buy more pills.

After Feng Da heard that, his face bloomed with a smile. Then, he said very considerately, “Don’t worry, everyone. One by one, everyone has a share.”

Seeing the proud expression on Feng DA’s face, the elders were so angry that their teeth itched. However, they were helpless. Who asked him to have something they urgently needed! He had no choice but to buy!

After serving the elders, Feng Da and the others smiled at the elders present, “Elders! Now you are our big customers. In the future, if there are any good pills, we will definitely take care of you first! Don’t worry!”

The reaction of the elders present wasn’t too strong toward Feng DA’s words. Some of the elders couldn’t help but think to themselves, “it would be a wonder if I’ll still buy your pills in the future!” After being slaughtered this time, could it be that they were addicted to being slaughtered? They weren’t really fools, they just had no choice.

“Alright! You guys can rest! We’re going to challenge the levels.” Seeing that no one was paying attention to him, Feng Da did not care. After he finished speaking, he took the lead and walked into the trial space, followed by Lin Yuan and the others.

At this moment, there were almost everyone in the second-layer domain trying to break through. All of them were using their own methods to struggle through the final trial. Every step required great perseverance, and the increasing pressure almost made it hard for the people in the space to breathe.

Among these people, Leng ruoxue was the one closest to the finish line. However, the closer she got to the finish line, the greater the pressure she had to bear. The lightning that was wreaking havoc on her body caused her to be in unbearable pain. If it was not for her strong willpower, she would have been transported out by now.

Gritting her teeth and enduring the pain, she slowly advanced step by step. When she was only a dozen steps away from the finish line, a bolt of lightning as thick as a bucket shot straight towards her. Leng ruoxue saw this and quickly dodged. However, the lightning still brushed past her, leaving another wound on her body. Blood quickly flowed out from the wound caused by the lightning.

She hurriedly consumed an elixir and continued on her way.

One step!

Two steps!

Three steps!

Every step was difficult to take, and Leng ruoxue had to be on high alert, carefully observing the lightning attacks around her.

After a long time.

Leng ruoxue had finally reached the end. Even though it was only a short ten steps, she felt as though she had walked for a few years.

As soon as they reached the finish line, the White Rabbit immediately appeared.

“Hehe! Congratulations to master for being the first to pass the trial.” The little white rabbit said happily.

“Thank you! How are the others?” Leng ruoxue nodded before asking with concern.

“They are still working hard. However, that second elder has a good chance. This time, that old man has made up his mind.” The little white rabbit said with a serious expression. The old man had learned his lesson. Every time he walked, he would immediately take two pills to replenish his divine power and physical strength, and heal his injured body. Although this method was a bit stupid, it was very effective. At least every time he faced the fierce lightning, his body was in its best condition. Not only that, but he also seemed to have figured out the pattern of the lightning attacks. Therefore, this time, it was much easier than the countless times he had passed the levels before.

“Hehe! The second elder’s willpower has always been above the other elders. Let me see his trial space!” Leng ruoxue instructed with a smile.

“Alright!” The little white rabbit replied. Then, with a wave of its paw, a light screen appeared in front of Leng ruoxue. The light screen displayed the second elder’s every move in the trial space.

The second elder was currently in the center of the ultimate trial space, very close to the ball of lightning. As a result, he was extremely careful with every step he took, afraid that he would be struck by the lightning from the ball of lightning if he was careless. If that happened, all his attacks would be for naught.

Moreover, he had a strong intuition that he would definitely succeed this time.

It took him about five minutes to move each step with great difficulty, and with the pressure of the space, his legs felt as heavy as lead. The lightning that came out of the lightning ball did not come out all the time. He had been carefully observing it. The lightning came out once every ten minutes, which meant that for every two steps he took, there would be dozens of lightning bolts flying to his side to attack him ...

The resistance of the space made it impossible for him to Dodge quickly, so he was injured every time. The first thing he did after being injured was to immediately take a healing pill. In addition, he also had to be careful of other lightning.

Every time the lightning emerged from the ball of lightning, it would stay in the trial space for a while, from as short as two to three minutes, to as long as it would disappear on its own when the next lightning appeared. Thus, everything depended on one's luck. If one was lucky, they might be able to stay in the ultimate trial space for a longer time, but if they were unlucky, they would find it difficult to move even an inch!

However, the second elder's luck today was obviously not bad. Otherwise, he would not have been able to walk so far.

The second elder knew that this was his best chance, so he did not plan to let it go.

Staring at the ball of lightning in the trial space, the second elder gritted his teeth and walked forward in one breath ...

After a long time, the second elder, who was covered in wounds, finally saw a glimmer of hope. He was only a few dozen steps away from the finish line. This was the closest he had ever been! Before he was punished, he couldn't even make it this far. It seemed like the potential of humans was indeed limitless.

The second elder's mood was unusually happy. He clenched the two pills in his hand and moved forward excitedly. Seeing that he was about to reach the finish line, he began to get excited.

Just hold on for a little longer. As long as he held on for a little longer, he would be able to complete this round. Therefore, he absolutely could not fail, and even more so, he could not fall. Even if he had to crawl, he had to crawl to the end.

Suddenly! A tiny lightning bolt struck him from behind. Immediately, a mouthful of blood spurted out of the second elder's mouth. He knew that he had been careless because he was about to reach the finish line, so he relaxed a little. He quickly swallowed a healing elixir and thought, "that was close!" He had almost died. If the lightning had been a little thicker, he would have had to start all over again.

With the previous experience, the second elder became more and more careful. He didn't want to fail in a small ditch after braving through the storm. If that happened, he would die of depression.

Fortunately, the last dozen steps were calm, so he reached the end in one go.

Just as he reached the finish line, the White Rabbit appeared in front of him. However, it was not as warm to second elder as it was to Leng ruoxue. Instead, it spoke in a routine manner, "Old man! Congratulations on your success! However, you have to thank my master for your success. If it wasn't for her powerful pills, you wouldn't have been able to pass through this lightning domain!"

The little white rabbit's words made second elder a little depressed. Although he was very clear that Leng ruoxue's pills played a huge role in his success in clearing the round, those pills were naturally his since he had spent a huge sum of money to buy them. Why did this little rabbit seem like she was here to claim credit? furthermore, after hearing what the little rabbit said, he felt that it would be unreasonable if he did not thank Leng ruoxue, even if he had bought those pills at a high price.

"I know!" The second elder nodded helplessly. He had to admit that Leng ruoxue's healing and God Power replenishing pills were the most effective he had ever taken.

"Then you have to accept my master's favor!" The little white rabbit said, a little insatiable.

"Uh! I've already spent money on those pills." The second elder could not help but remind him.

"I know! However, if Feng Da and the others refuse to sell it to you, will you be able to pass these ten rounds?" The little white rabbit said matter-of-factly, her beautiful Ruby-like eyes looking at the second elder with some disdain. She thought to herself, "this old man is too unrefined. Not only does he not know how to repay a favor, but he also has the tendency to kill the donkey when the millstone is done."

"You're right. I should really thank them." The second elder strongly suppressed the depression in his heart and echoed.

"Old man! You're still on the right track, hehe! I've decided to give you a big mystery prize, I wonder if you want it?" The little white rabbit said mysteriously.

Chapter 1676: You're sitting on me, old man (1)

"What mystery prize?" Although the second elder had a curious look on his face, he was afraid that this little thing would scheme against him. Therefore, he did not dare to say that he wanted it! Oh! It was better to clarify things first so as not to be deceived. Who asked him to always be tricked in front of Leng ruoxue and her subordinates? Sob ... He was scared.

"Old man, you just have to tell me if I want it or not. As for what mystery prize it is, hehe! You'll know when the time comes, but you have to keep it a secret." The little white rabbit said in a non-negotiable tone.

"But you won't tell me what the grand prize is, so how can I say I want it?" The second elder's words were very reserved, and the meaning between the lines was also very obvious. That was, if you don't tell me what it is, I don't dare to take it.

"If I told you, would it still be called the mystery prize? It's because it's mysterious that I can only give it to you after you say you want it." The little white rabbit smiled evilly and refused to give in.

"Forget it, I'm afraid I can't afford it." The second elder said fearfully. He was afraid that he would be deceived.

"Old man, I didn't expect you to be so timid. I've really misjudged you! Al! Don't you regret it! This mystery prize is very beneficial for cultivation." The White Rabbit tried to tempt him with a disappointed look.

"I'm not a coward." Although he knew that the other party was goading him, he still had to clear his name. However, he was curious about this thing that was very beneficial to cultivation.

"You're quite bold? You don't even dare to accept the mystery prize that I'm going to give you!" The White Rabbit's cute little face was full of contempt, and its beautiful ruby eyes flickered with ridicule.

"You won't tell me what the mystery prize is. No one else would dare to take it!" The second elder couldn't help but defend himself.

"Old man, don't you know what the word 'mysterious' means? Since it's called a mystery prize, how can it be revealed in advance? I'll only tell you if you want it. Otherwise, it'll lose its meaning of mystery!" The little white rabbit began to lay out facts and reason with him.

"That ..." The second elder was at a loss for words. He couldn't deny that the little rabbit's words made sense, but his past experience told him that he couldn't rashly decide if he wanted the mystery prize or not. Otherwise, he might regret it.

Seeing the second elder's hesitation, the White Rabbit's heart was filled with hatred. It couldn't help but curse in its heart. This old man is really too open. Can't he be more straightforward? He really didn't look like a man!

When the second elder saw the disdainful and dissatisfied expression on the White Rabbit's face, he felt a little depressed. However, if he knew that he was not a man in the rabbit's heart, he would probably feel even more depressed. However, as depressed as he was, he did not dare to say that he wanted it before he figured out what the mystery prize was!

"Old man, there won't be such a shop after this village." The little white rabbit reminded him impatiently.

"But ..." The second elder opened his mouth, but he couldn't say the word 'want'.

"I'll ask you one last time, do you want it or not?" The little white rabbit made her final announcement.

"That ... I don't think I'll need it," The second elder spoke after some thought. His words, unsurprisingly, caused the White Rabbit to look down on him even more.

"Second elder! You didn't want this. I wanted to take care of you, but you didn't appreciate it! Hmph! You will regret this." The little white rabbit roared in anger. It was so angry that all its fur stood on end. A faint pink color appeared on its white body. It was obviously angry.

"Uh!" The second elder couldn't help but wipe the cold sweat off his forehead. He thought to himself, "this little thing's temper is really big enough. It's so angry over such a small matter. But fortunately, I've finally passed these ten levels. In the future, I don't have to look at this rabbit's face."

"Hmph! You can go to hell!" The angry White Rabbit said fiercely. Then, a white lightning bolt flew towards the second elder, and the second elder was kicked into a door that had appeared out of nowhere by its shadowless claw ...

This time, the White Rabbit felt great.

Damn old man, I wanted to give you some benefits, but you didn't want it. Now you have fun! It couldn't help but think in its heart.

In fact, it really wanted to give the second elder some benefits, but the second elder had measured the heart of a gentleman with his own mean measure and refused to believe it at all. This fact made it quite angry, so it kicked the second elder to another place without any restraint.

As for what kind of place it was, he would let the second elder slowly experience it! The White Rabbit chuckled evilly and disappeared from the trial space.

Immediately after, it reported the news of the second elder successfully passing the tenth level to everyone. Whether they were resting in the dusky space or in the middle of passing the level, everyone knew about this news. Immediately, everyone's mood became excited, and their enthusiasm for passing the level also increased.

When the White Rabbit returned to its control space, it also told the news to the 19th elder, who was lying on the ground motionless.

When the 19th elder heard this news, he only blinked twice but did not speak.

"Old man! Do you want to continue?" The little white rabbit asked with a smile.

However, the 19th elder still ignored it.

"Old man! I'm very sincere, I've decided to let you continue to challenge the levels." The little white rabbit said seriously.

"You're that kind?" The nineteenth elder was finally willing to speak, but he was very suspicious of the little rabbit's character.

"Yes! I'm the kindest and most adorable little rabbit." The little white rabbit said arrogantly. However, its overly narcissistic words caused the nineteenth elder to look down on it.

This damn rabbit is kind? If it was kind, then there would be no evil people in the world. Moreover, he was afraid that he would never forget the torture that this damned rabbit had brought to him during this period of time. Whether it was physical or mental, it was unforgettable. Compared to this rabbit, the humiliation he had suffered at the hands of the Bears seemed to be a small house seeing a big house.

"What's wrong? You don't believe me? Don't tell me I'm not good enough to you?" Seeing the look of disdain on the nineteenth elder's face, the little white rabbit said with an aggrieved expression.

Good my ass! Nineteenth elder cursed in his heart. If he wasn't under rabbit's control, he would have the urge to kill someone.

"Don't be like this! No matter how I treat you, it's because I like you. To prove that I'm true to you, I can only use such a strong way to express my love for you." The little white rabbit muttered to herself. Then, she sat down on the nineteenth elder's face.

The White Rabbit's bad taste made the nineteenth elder extremely angry. F * ck! Are there no chairs here? Why did she always have to sit on his face and even use her butt to face his mouth? it was really too despicable.

Chapter 1677: You're sitting on me, old man (2)

Although 19th elder really wanted to get this damn rabbit off his face, he knew that it would be useless even if he did. This rabbit was very persistent. Even if he got it off his face, it would still jump at his face regardless of the consequences. In his current physical condition, he could not do anything to this damn rabbit.

"Old man! Do you want to continue challenging the levels or not! Say something!" The little white rabbit asked again when she saw that 19th elder did not respond for a long time.

What nonsense! You're sitting on my face, what do you want me to say? 19th elder was worried. In this situation, if he really opened his mouth to speak, what if this damn rabbit was farting or something? he would not want to live anymore. Therefore, for the sake of his life, he would rather keep his mouth shut and hold his breath than talk nonsense with it.

"Old man, the second elder has successfully passed the trial. Do you want to know where he is now?" The little white rabbit asked again.

The nineteenth elder's eyes turned. He obviously wanted to know, but he would not walk into a trap.

"You don't want to know?" Seeing that 19th elder was still silent, the little white rabbit asked in disbelief. The expression on her face seemed to be saying, 'you're really disloyal.'

"Al! Since you don't want to know, then forget it. You should continue to break through! When you can't pass the last level, I'll have even more reason to let you stay here with me, hehe!" The little white rabbit said smugly. However, its words infuriated the nineteenth elder. F * ck! No wonder he was allowed to continue! It turned out that he was trying to find an excuse to stay here.

"Old man! I'll send you there!" After the White Rabbit finished speaking, it jumped down from 19th elder's face. Then, it used its 'shadowless claw' and kicked 19th elder into the door of the trial space.

Hehe! Today, he had kicked two people in a row, and they were even the so-called experts of the divine realm. It was really satisfying! The little white rabbit was very proud of itself. Then, with a flash of white light, it appeared in Leng ruoxue's arms.

"Master! I miss you so much!" The little white rabbit said enthusiastically.

"What bad things have you done this time?" Leng ruoxue, who was waiting in the safe space for the monster to challenge the levels, asked suspiciously when she saw the enthusiasm of the little rabbit in front of her.

"Master! I'm so well-behaved and cute, how could I do bad things!" The little white rabbit said, feeling wronged.

“Such a cute and obedient little rabbit, have you given the thing I asked you to give to second elder?” Leng ruoxue asked with a faint smile. As long as she wanted to know, everything in the illusory sky could not be hidden from her. However, with this little thing here, she could not be bothered to waste her time.

“I wanted to give it to him, but he didn’t dare to take it!” The little white rabbit said with its head lowered.

“You don’t dare to take it? How is this possible?” Leng ruoxue couldn’t understand. The thing she had asked the little rabbit to give second elder wasn’t anything scary, but that old man actually didn’t dare to take it. This was really too inconceivable.

“That old man was too cautious. He doubted my character and thought that I was trying to trick him. So, he hesitated for a long time and didn’t dare to say that he wanted it.” The little white rabbit said angrily. As long as it thought of this, its heart would be filled with anger, and it was still angry.

“This is somewhat similar to the personality of those elders.” Leng ruoxue smiled.

“Master! In my opinion, that old man clearly doesn’t know what’s good for him. People can’t be too kind, otherwise, people will suspect that they have bad intentions. I’m the best example, master! We have to remember this lesson!” The little white rabbit sighed with emotion.

Its sighing words made Leng ruoxue laugh.

She helplessly stroked the White Rabbit’s fur and laughed, “You little thing, you’ve only been born for a short time, but you actually know so much. I really don’t know who you learned it from.”

“Master! I’m smart! Self-taught!” The little white rabbit began to show off.

“Alright! Self-taught little rabbit, everything here will be handed over to you from now on. Also, keep a close eye on those who are in the trial and don’t let anything happen to them.” Leng ruoxue smiled as she instructed.

“Yes! Master! I promise to complete the mission.” The White Rabbit raised a paw and made a vow. Then, it couldn’t help but ask, “Master is going out?”

“En!” Leng ruoxue nodded. They would be out once the demon had completed the last stage.

“Master! I’ll miss you.” The little white rabbit had a look of reluctance on her face.

“You fool! I won’t be too far away from you, so you can just send me a voice transmission if you need me.” Leng ruoxue chuckled. She had not expected this little rabbit to be so clingy. Now, it looked like an innocent and cute little beast.

“Yes, yes!” The little white rabbit nodded its head vigorously and buried its head into Leng ruoxue’s arms. It was only when the demon came out that it had no choice but to leave its master’s warm embrace. Even though it was a little regretful, it was still very afraid of that man!

The little rabbit left reluctantly. However, it did not return to its control room directly. Instead, it ran back to the gray space.

At this time, there were only Feng Da and the others in that space. The elders of the ning family had all gone to break through the barrier.

When Feng Da and the others saw the little rabbit that suddenly appeared, they all greeted it very enthusiastically, "Little rabbit, how come you have time to come today?"

Everyone present was very curious. Wasn't this little rabbit always with the 19th elder? Why did he come to see them today?

"I'm bored again." The little white rabbit lowered its eyelids and sighed.

"Uh! With the nineteenth elder accompanying you, how can you still be bored?" Feng DA's face was full of disbelief. This little guy had a toy. He must be having a lot of fun playing with it! He actually said that he was bored. This was really abnormal.

"That old man went to challenge the levels. I had to give him a reason to stay behind, so I could only bear the pain and let him go." As the White Rabbit spoke, it was as if it was going to flood the Golden Mountain again.

Seeing this, Feng Da quickly changed the topic.

"Where's the second elder? He's already gone out?" Feng Da asked with an envious look.

"No, I didn't! He's gone to another place!" The little white rabbit said mysteriously.

"Another place? Where is it?" Feng Da and the others were shocked. It was not easy for him to pass the last level, but he still could not leave this place. The second elder was really too miserable.

"Hehe! You'll know when the time comes, because after you've successfully passed the trial, I'll also send you there." The little white rabbit said with a smile.

"Could it be the three-layered domain of the illusory sky?" Feng Da guessed.

"The Buddha said, 'can't say!'" The little white rabbit insisted on not revealing it, but its words made Feng Da and the others a little depressed. It turned out that even if they passed the last level, they could not get out?

"Don't be afraid! You're on the same side, I'll protect you!" The little white rabbit patted its chest and promised.

Chapter 1678: You're sitting on me, old man (3)

"Then I'll have to thank big brother xiaotu." Feng Da and the others were very cooperative.

"No big deal! Hehe!" The little white rabbit was a little unsteady from being held and began to show off again.

At this time, the ning family elders who had gone to challenge the trial were all transported out of the trial space. They were not as lucky as the second elder, so they still could not pass the last round.

However, when they saw the little white rabbit, they all looked at it hesitantly. They wanted to ask but were a little embarrassed to ask.

The second elder did not return after he had passed the test. They reckoned that the news of the second elder's success had spread to the illusory sky. This made them somewhat depressed. They had originally thought that the second elder would pass on some of his experiences after he had passed the test, so as to increase their chances of success. However, the second elder did not return. The only person who knew how the second elder had passed the test was this rabbit, but they were not sure if the rabbit would tell them about this. That was why he was a little hesitant.

"That little rabbit! We want to ask you something." Finally, the seventh elder mustered up the courage to speak.

"What is it? You're welcome, speak! I promise to tell you everything I know, but I can't help you if I don't know anything." The little white rabbit replied readily.

"We want to ask about the second elder. How did he pass the last stage?" After thinking for a while, the seventh elder asked in one go.

"This! I can tell you the truth, he completely relies on medicinal pills. However, the method he uses may not be suitable for you, so if you really want to imitate it, you may not necessarily succeed! But it's not like I don't have any confidence at all." The little white rabbit did not speak too confidently. In fact, it was thinking that it did not matter if it told them the second elder's method to clear the stage. This way, they could buy more pills. As for whether they would have the same good luck as the second elder, that was not for it to decide!

After it finished speaking, the White Rabbit even secretly winked at Feng Da and the others, and showed a sly smile. Feng Da and the others immediately understood and gave it a look of appreciation without batting an eyelid. Everyone understood what it meant.

After the seventh elder and the others heard the White Rabbit's words, they pondered for a moment because they didn't know whether they should believe this little rabbit or not. This was mainly because no one had expected that it would actually attribute the credit of the second elder's success to the elixir. In this case, wouldn't they have to continue to buy elixir from Feng Da and the others? They had already signed so many IOUs that they were almost unable to pay it back.

"I've already told you the method that the old man used to pass the trial. As for whether you believe it or not, that's not for me to decide." The little white rabbit saw the expressions on the faces of the elders and knew what was going on. However, it was still a little angry. These damn old men, they didn't want to believe it even after asking. This was too much! It seemed that one could not be too kind! Good intentions don't get rewarded!

After saying that, the little white rabbit disappeared on the spot in a Huff.

After it left, the elders suddenly woke up. It seemed that their reaction had angered the rabbit. What was this good? The rabbit wouldn't make things difficult for them, would it? At this moment, they were a little regretful.

At this moment, Feng Da spoke with a smile.

“Elders, due to the fact that there aren’t many pills left, we’ve decided to increase the price after some discussion.” Feng Da said.

“What? Raise the price?” All the elders were dumbfounded. Why did these people want to raise the price of medicinal pills when that little rabbit had just said that the second elder’s success in clearing the stage was mainly dependent on medicinal pills? This was clearly the behavior of a profiteer! This was the starting price!

“How much do you want to raise the price of the pills?” The seventh elder wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and asked speechlessly. He thought to himself, “that was really close!” Fortunately, he had bought a lot last time. Otherwise, he would have been ripped off again!

“Not expensive! It’s only 100 top-grade crystals per bottle.” Feng Da laughed.

F * ck! It had doubled, and that was not expensive? When the elders heard this price, their faces turned pale with anger. They kept cursing in their hearts, unscrupulous merchant! Black-hearted businessmen! A bad guy who took advantage of others!

“Do you guys want to buy it?” Feng Da ignored the ugly expressions of the elders and asked with a faint smile.

“We ... Don’t have any more money.” The seventh elder spoke on behalf of the other elders.

“You guys didn’t have any money before.” Feng Da reminded.

“We can’t afford to write an IOU.” The seventh elder sighed.

“Then there’s no other way. You can only stay here and accompany the little rabbit. I believe that with so many people accompanying it, it will be very happy.” Feng Da said helplessly. If they didn’t want to buy it, they couldn’t force it.

“But if you don’t buy it now, the price will increase in the future.” Feng Da added after some thought.

“Uh!” This time, the elders were completely depressed. So this was forcing them to buy! How detestable! He actually threatened them with a price increase.

“Things are precious when they are rare! The price of goods will always rise due to the scarcity of goods.” Seeing the expressions of the elders, Feng Da said without blushing or panting.

“Feng Da! Didn’t you say that we’re your big customers? Since he’s a big customer, there should be a discount or something, right?” The seventh elder said with a kind smile.

“There should be a discount. If each of you can buy more than 200 bottles, I’ll make the decision to give you an extra bottle.” Feng Da put on a troubled look.

Two hundred bottles for one extra bottle, what was the difference between that and not giving anything? An elder couldn’t help but think to himself. However, he didn’t dare to say this out loud. Otherwise, if he offended Feng Da and the others, he would raise the price again. It wouldn’t be worth it.

Feng DA's words made all the elders feel conflicted until Feng Da became a little impatient. He couldn't help but urge, "It's a limited time purchase! Buy for 200, get one free bottle. There are limited free gifts, first come, first served!"

"Feng Da! There's a limit to the number of gifts?" After hearing Feng DA's shout, the seventh elder asked in disbelief, "F * ck! He even wanted to curse! These people were really good at doing business. They could even think of such a bad move. No wonder they were so good at making money. Sigh! Why didn't their ning family have someone who was so good at making money! It was undeniable that he was very jealous of Leng ruoxue at this moment.

"Of course I do! First come, first served! Two hundred for one bottle, and so on!" Feng Da said loudly.

"Feng Da! Couldn't the price of the pills be cheaper? If it's the same as before, we'll buy more." The seventh elder discussed with him.

"Seventh elder, we also need to eat! Besides, didn't I already give you guys a discount? Don't be too greedy." Feng Da said with dissatisfaction.

"Al!" The seventh elder knew that the deal was off. He sighed and didn't say anything else. He had enough pills in his hands anyway. As for whether the other elders would buy it or not, it wasn't up to him.

The seventh elder didn't say anything, and no elder said anything. Feng Da saw this and said, "You guys didn't buy it. Don't regret it!"

After he finished speaking, Feng Da sat back in his seat without a care and closed his eyes to regulate his breathing.

After the White Rabbit returned to its control room, it turned the screen to where the second elder was.

At this moment, the second elder was in an unfamiliar space.

This space had beautiful scenery, birds chirping, flowers blooming, and fresh air. It was simply a paradise. The second elder couldn't believe his eyes after seeing the scenery. How could there be such a beautiful place in the world?

Not far away from him, there was a clear stream with a few small fish swimming around happily. When they saw someone approaching, they did not panic. They raised their small heads in the water to look at the second elder, then sank back into the stream.

The second elder was surprised. He had never seen such a spiritual fish! However, what was with the disdain in the fish's eyes? Were the fish in the stream looking down on him? This fact hit him hard.

F * ck! He was a reverent-God after all! Now, he had actually fallen to the point of being despised by the fish. How could he bear this?

After remorseful thoughts, the second elder was puzzled about this place. Where was this place? Was he also under the jurisdiction of that little rabbit?

Just as he was thinking about this, the White Rabbit's voice suddenly rang out in the space, "Old man! This place is not bad, right? Hehe! You can have fun here!"

After saying that, the White Rabbit's signature wretched laughter rang in the second elder's ears again. "Hehe! Hehe! Roar!"

"What is this place?" The second elder suppressed his anger and asked. This rabbit had brought him here, so it was definitely up to no good! Furthermore, after interacting with Leng ruoxue and the others for a long time, his sense of crisis had grown stronger. Hence, his intuition told him that this place was not as simple as it seemed.

"Do you want to know? Hehe! I'm not telling you." The little white rabbit said angrily.

"You ..." The second elder was so angry that he couldn't speak. The anger in his heart was stuck in his chest, making him unable to vent it.

"Old man, you can explore slowly!" After the White Rabbit finished speaking, its voice disappeared.

"Dammit! Don't go! Come back here!" Seeing this, the second elder hurriedly shouted to stop the rabbit, but he did not receive any response.

The depressed second elder sat down on a rock not far away. Suddenly, a rough voice rang in his ear, "Old man! You're sitting on me!"

Chapter 1679: Old man, have you seen enough (1)

The second elder was shocked when he heard the voice. Who was speaking? It wasn't that he was timid, but his intuition told him that this place was very strange, so he had to be careful. In addition, he only heard sounds but didn't see anyone, which made him vigilant.

"Old man! You're sitting on me! Your butt is so stinky!" Seeing that the second elder didn't react at all, the owner of the voice couldn't help but ask.

"Uh! Who's talking?" The second elder asked the question in his heart, and at the same time, he was on full alert.

"Old man! Are you an idiot? I already said you're sitting on me, and you still ask who's talking!" The owner of the voice roared in anger, and his body was trembling with anger. He didn't expect that the first person to enter this place was actually a low IQ idiot! AI! He was really disappointed.

Ugh! Feeling the trembling under his butt, the second elder subconsciously lowered his head. Then, he suddenly jumped up in shock. He looked at the big rock he had been sitting on in disbelief and said in a half-believing and half-doubting tone, "Are you the one talking?"

"Nonsense! Who else could it be if not me?" At this moment, the large rock spoke again. A face with all facial features could be seen on the rock, and it was filled with dissatisfaction.

"It's really you!" The second elder was extremely surprised. As a cultivator, he naturally knew that any living creature in the natural world, whether it was a human or a beast, a flower, a tree, a mountain rock, or anything else, could cultivate as long as they had spirituality. However, for these large rocks with weak vitality, it was extremely difficult to cultivate spirituality and even transform into a human form. However, he did not expect to see a large rock with a spirit in this strange place. This was really too surprising.

“Didn’t I tell you? Don’t tell me that not only do you have low IQ, but you also have problems with your hearing?” Big rock asked with a look of disdain.

“Uh!” The second elder couldn’t help but wipe the cold sweat from his forehead. He felt even more depressed in his heart. Why did everything here look down on him? He was a reverent-God after all, so how could he not be in their eyes? He didn’t dare to ask them to respect him, but it was still okay for them to show him some respect, right?

“What’s with the “uh”? If you say “uh,” I’ll throw you into the river to feed the fish!” Big rock said unhappily.

Feed the fish in the river? The second elder looked gloomily at the small stream that was not even up to his calf. He thought to himself, “could this stone be referring to this small stream when it said ‘in the river’?” Although the fish there were also looking down on him, could a fish smaller than his palm eat him? He would not believe it even if he was beaten to death.

“What’s wrong? You don’t believe me?” Big rock, who could tell what the second elder was thinking, asked indifferently.

“That ... The river you were talking about, do you mean that stream?” The second elder asked curiously.

“Of course! Don’t look down on the fish there, you’ll regret it if you underestimate them. If you don’t believe me, go ahead and try!” Big rock gloated, as if he had already seen second elder’s misfortune.

The second elder was very anxious after hearing big Rock’s words. However, whether he believed it or not, he couldn’t give it a try.

“Old man! I knew you were a coward.” Seeing that the second elder had stopped talking, the big rock began to provoke him again.

“I know if I have the guts or not. I don’t need to rely on this kind of thing to prove it.” The second elder was speechless. He was extremely depressed in his heart. Why did everyone say that he was a coward? That rabbit was like this, and now this stone was also like this.

However, just as he finished speaking, another unfamiliar voice was heard.

“Hmph! If he didn’t dare, he didn’t dare! Don’t find excuses for yourself!” It was the same disdainful tone.

After the second elder heard this, he raised his eyes and looked around for the owner of the voice, especially those stones and trees. However, after searching one round, he found nothing.

“Old man, what are you looking for?” The rock in front of the second elder asked curiously.

“I’m looking for the person who said that.” The second elder replied honestly.

“Idiot! The person who spoke is in the river!” Big rock threw him a disdainful look.

“The river?” The second elder looked at the river in the big stone’s eyes, and the stream in his eyes. He saw a pure white fish the size of a palm, half-standing on the shore with its fins. Its small mouth was still opening and closing, and its watery black eyes were looking at him mockingly.

The second elder wiped the cold sweat from his forehead, his heart filled with mixed feelings. He could see that all the creatures here were at odds with him, and they all looked down on him. He couldn’t understand why. Logically speaking, he shouldn’t have offended these guys, right? He wasn’t like the 19th elder who made enemies everywhere, so he couldn’t figure out why no matter how hard he thought.

“Old man! Are you done looking? If you look at me like this again, I’m going to charge you!” The moment the fish opened its mouth, it mentioned money, causing the second elder’s mood to instantly turn sour, from depression to irritation. Frustration! He was quite frustrated, so frustrated that he wanted to bite someone. However, in this strange place, he had to endure it no matter how annoyed he was!

“You’re just a fish, what’s the use of money?” The second elder’s face was red as he asked speechlessly. This was not normal! Everything here was abnormal!

“Why is it useless? With money, you can buy a lot of good food. ” The fish said with a look of yearning.

“What can you eat?” The second elder couldn’t help but ask. In his opinion, fish could only eat fish food and aquatic grass, and these didn’t need to be paid at all.

“I can eat anything! Besides, can’t I save up some money?” The fish said as if it was looking at an idiot.

S-private money? The second elder was dumbfounded when he heard the fish’s words. This was the first time he had heard that a fish wanted to save up money. Did it have a place to spend it?

“Old man! You’ve been looking at me for so long, quickly pay!” Seeing that the second elder was still staring at it, Xiaoyu’s lips curled into a smirk.

“Uh!” Only then did the second elder react. Because he had been too shocked, his eyes had never left the fish. Now, it was asking him for money. What the hell is this!

“What’s with the “uh”? If you do, I’ll throw you into the river as food!” Yu Yu said in an unpleasant tone.

Hearing the familiar words and the same tone, the second elder was so depressed that he almost vomited blood. As expected of a family, they all spoke in the same tone.

“Hehe! Old man! You’ve sat on me for so long just now, you have to pay me! Otherwise, I’ll file a complaint against you!” At this moment, the big rock spoke again.

The second elder was furious when he saw that they were all demanding a debt from him! I’ve sat on you for a while, and you want money? Now that he was standing on this piece of land, did he have to pay for it? He couldn’t help but curse in his heart.

Chapter 1680: Old man, have you seen enough?(2)

“Old man, you have to pay me!” Another unfamiliar voice rang out.

The second elder turned pale with fright. Who's talking now?

"Old man! It's me! The ground you're stepping on." The owner of the voice was afraid that the second elder would look around again, so he simply pointed out his identity.

"You ... You know what I'm thinking?" The second elder stammered as he spoke. What kind of monsters were there! Just as he was thinking this, he immediately stopped. He didn't dare to continue thinking, in case someone peeked at his thoughts.

"I am the master of this space. Any living creature that stays on my body, no matter what, can't hide their thoughts from me." Black Earth said with a proud expression.

The second elder wiped the cold sweat from his forehead when he heard the earth God's words. He didn't dare to have any thoughts in his heart.

"Old man, pay us the money you owe us first!" The earth God said with a smile.

"I don't have any money on me right now!" The second elder's face was bitter as he spoke with some difficulty. His money had all been used to buy medicinal pills, and he was in a huge debt.

"It doesn't matter! You can also write us an IOU!" The earth said disapprovingly. Big rock and the fish didn't doubt its words at all. Obviously, the earth in this space was their boss.

An IOU! Another IOU! This was really infuriating! Why did they all know this move? His hands were a little weak from writing IOUs, and now he had to write IOUs for these elves. Damn it, what was this?

"I don't have a pen and paper!" The second elder said after a long while.

"It doesn't matter, we have it!" The earth God chuckled. Then, a white light flashed before the second elder's eyes, and a piece of paper and a pen appeared in front of him.

The second elder wanted to cry but had no tears. He held the pen and paper and did not move.

"Stinky old man! What are you thinking?" The fish was getting impatient as it roared.

"I wonder how much I should pay you?" The second elder asked in a low voice. He had no choice but to lower his head! Although he really wanted to write down a number, he was afraid that these guys would not be satisfied. He didn't dare to offend these local tyrants.

"I want a hundred pieces of top-grade crystal stones!" Big rock was the first to speak.

"What? I just sat on you and you want to charge a hundred top-grade crystals? Are you trying to Rob me?" The second elder was left speechless. These guys were clearly taking advantage of him? Although he had no choice but to compromise, he was not willing to be a spendthrift.

"I'm not an ordinary big rock, so it's naturally expensive for you to sit on me. Not only that, if you want to sit on me in the future, you'll have to pay again, and the price will be double. This time, I'm charging less because you didn't know about it." Big rock explained. The face on the rock was smiling so widely that it looked like a flower.

"We're the same!" The fish agreed.

“Mm! Not bad! I won’t ask you for more this time.” The earth God also said.

After hearing their words, the second elder really wanted to hit himself with a piece of tofu. He didn’t know what to say now. At most, he wouldn’t sit or look at that stone and fish, but if this land just stood there and asked him for money, he would probably have to bear a huge debt before he could even get out. Moreover, he didn’t know when he would be able to get out. These guys were really hateful.

After hearing the second elder’s thoughts, the black soil man was in a good mood and laughed, “Old man! Don’t be afraid! My charges are very fair, there are three types of monthly, yearly, or daily payments. Yearly or monthly payments are much cheaper than daily payments, which one do you choose?”

I don’t want to choose any of them! The second elder wailed miserably. This was the first time he had heard of the so-called “year and month contracts”, and this kind of idea actually came from a piece of land.

“Old man! You can’t not choose any of them!” Black soil land said with a smile.

The second elder was shocked. He had forgotten that this piece of land would know what he was thinking. This was a big embarrassment!

“That ... I want to know how to do a monthly and a Nian contract?” The second elder asked carefully.

“It’s a year’s holiday! It’ll cost you ten thousand top-grade crystals a year. At that time, you can sit on any of the stones I have on me. They won’t charge you extra. Also, you can also enjoy the fish in this River as you wish, it’s all free.”

“I’ll charge you three thousand top-quality crystals a month. If you want to rest on the rock or relax by watching the fish here, you’ll have to pay extra. To put it bluntly, except for you who can stand on my body, you’ll have to pay for everything else,”

“As for booking the day! It was 200 top-grade crystals a day! Old man, this is much more expensive than a month or a year. I believe you will know how to make the best choice!” After black soil land explained, he gave the second elder another round of high praise!

“What if I leave this place in less than a year? Can I return the money?” The second elder thought for a moment and asked.

“Of course not! We don’t give refunds!” Black soil land said with certainty.

“If you’re afraid of wasting money, you can pay me monthly!” Black soil land suggested.

“I’ll book the whole year!” The second elder sighed and said helplessly. He didn’t know how long it would take for him to get out of here, but it was obviously more worthwhile to do it for a year than a month.

“Hehe! Old man, I told you that you’re a smart man and know what’s the best choice!” The black soil ground said happily. It didn’t expect its first business to be a great success, it was really happy!

Then, the pen and paper floated in front of the second elder. The second elder smiled bitterly and obediently wrote down another IOU.

“Old man! Do as you wish! You can go anywhere you want here, don’t worry! No one will collect money from you anymore!” The black soil ground promised in a friendly manner.

“En!” The second elder nodded. He had already signed an IOU. If he still couldn’t go anywhere, wouldn’t he be depressed to death?

However, he didn’t dare to sit on the talking stone anymore. He looked around and then sat down on a relatively wide piece of land.

“Argh! How dare you! He actually sat on our boss’s body!” Seeing the second elder sit down, the big rock said with a surprised look.

“I’ve already paid!” The second elder gritted his teeth. Did they think he wanted to sit here? It was all because he didn’t want to sit on the face of that stone. Otherwise, he would feel weird!

“So what if I paid? Get up quickly and don’t sit on my boss! Otherwise, I won’t let you off!” The big rock said angrily. This made it even angrier than the old man sitting on its body.

“Then where should I sit?” The second elder asked dumbly. This annoying stone really liked to meddle in other people’s business! The black soil under his feet didn’t even have any objections, but he was the first to object.
