

Crazy Wife 1681

Chapter 1681: Old man, have you seen enough?(3)

“Sit on me!” Big rock said after some thought.

“Alright then!” The second elder was helpless. He stood up and sat on the big stone that could speak.

However, as soon as he sat down, the big rock started to shout, “Aiyoo! Why is your butt so smelly? I’m dying from the smell! Quickly go wash up in the river!”

“You ...” Big Rock’s words made the second elder so angry that he stood up from the rock with a ‘bang’. He cursed in his heart. F * ck! How was his butt smelly? it was clearly this big rock that didn’t want him to sit on it, so it deliberately slandered him! This was preposterous! The second elder was furious!

“What about me? Go and wash yourself in the river, or else you’re not allowed to sit on me!” Big rock said stubbornly.

“Don’t come to my River to wash your smelly ass, or I’ll bite you!” When the fish on the shore heard this, it immediately shouted anxiously and even deliberately bared its teeth. Coming to its house to wash your ass would pollute the water in its house!

When second elder saw that one of them didn’t allow him to sit and the other didn’t allow him to wash, and the reason was that they thought he was smelly, he was so angry! F * ck! Have you ever seen such a thing? They didn’t even have a place to stand after paying.

With a heavy heart, the second elder walked to the side of a huge artificial mountain and leaned against it. Hmph! Since she despised him, he should stay away from her, right?

Big rock and Yu Yu saw that the second elder seemed to be really angry, and they couldn’t help but look at each other and smile. Then, Yu Yu jumped onto big Rock’s body and bounced to the front of the second elder.

Seeing this, the second elder was furious! F * ck! If you don’t like me, why are you still coming to my side? Did she think that he was easy to bully? He really wanted to kick them away when he saw the two hateful faces, but he didn’t dare to do so here, in case it caused him unnecessary trouble.

“Old man! You’re the first human to come here, so let’s have a good chat about the outside world!” Big rock said shamelessly, not feeling the disdain he had for second elder at all.

The second elder glanced at them but did not speak.

“Old man! Don’t be so stingy!” The fish said.

The second elder simply turned his head and did not look at them.

“Bang!” With a crisp sound, a ray of white light hit the second elder’s face. The second elder, who was not prepared in the slightest, was hit.

“Dammit! You sneak attacked me?” The second elder glared at the culprit who had just hit him, the white fish. At this moment, the fish was staring at him with its watery black eyes and an innocent face. The thing that had attacked him was a jet of water that had come out of the fish’s mouth.

“I just want you to turn around.” The fish said innocently, but in its heart, it was laughing. Now, the old man’s face was wounded, and the position of the wound was excellent, just right on his eye. At this time, one of the second elder’s eyes was normal, while the other had been beaten blue, becoming a one-eyed Dragon! The fish was very happy with its masterpiece!

“I don’t want to talk to you! You guys get lost!” The second elder said angrily. At this moment, the second elder had completely lost his demeanor. If he continued to be provoked like this, he would definitely go crazy! Therefore, he was really annoyed to death by the two guys in front of him!

“Old man! In the next year, we’ll be neighbors, so we’ll live in peace. Don’t be like this!” Yu ‘er persuaded him earnestly.

“I don’t want to be your neighbor!” The second elder said through gritted teeth. If he were to become their neighbor, his life would definitely be shortened.

“Hehe! Old man! This is not up to you!” Big rock laughed.

The second elder was speechless at the words of these two buffoons. He really didn’t know how to communicate with the beast race. Moreover, these two guys weren’t ordinary beast race. They could anger people to death.

On this side, the second elder was fuming with anger. The seventh elder and the others who had been constantly challenging the trials in the trial space were also not having a good time.

Ever since they complained that Feng Da and the others were raising the price on their own, Feng Da and the others did not give them any face. Moreover, as the number of failures in the last round increased, the medicinal pills in their hands became more and more difficult to make ends meet. Seeing the number of medicinal pills decreasing day by day, some of the elders began to feel anxious.

“Feng Da! How did you guys do in the last stage?” In the dusky space, the seventh elder, who had a heavy responsibility, asked.

“It’s alright! We’ll be able to clear it after a few more times. ” Feng Da, who was sitting in the corner, raised his head and said with a smile that was not a smile.

“Hehe! Then congratulations!” The seventh elder said with a smile.

“Seventh elder! It’s not too late for you to congratulate us after we’ve passed the last stage! It’s a little too early to say that now. ” Feng Da reminded him with a smile.

“Not early! It’s not early! I’m just afraid that you’ll be immediately expelled after passing the last level, so I’m telling you in advance. ” The seventh elder explained with a smile.

“Oh!” Feng Da responded softly and didn’t have any other reaction.

“Feng Da! Can you sell us some of the pills you have?” Seeing Feng DA’s cold reaction, the seventh elder was embarrassed. However, he had to ask. After all, he had been asked by many elders to come here.

"I can sell it to you, but the price ..." Feng Da did not finish his sentence, but his meaning was clear. If the price could not be agreed upon, then there was no need to negotiate.

"The price will be as you say!" The seventh elder quickly said. Since the matter had already reached this point, there was no point in discussing the price, because he knew that Feng Da and the others would not sell it to them at a low price. Moreover, they had a request this time, so they naturally did not dare to bargain.

"That's good! Since you're our big customers, I'll sell you two hundred top-grade crystals for each bottle." Feng Da said with a smile.

Two hundred? When the elders heard this price, they couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air. One bottle cost two hundred top-grade crystals. This was really not just ordinarily expensive! After all, those were just some ordinary pills for healing and replenishing Shen power. This was already considered a sky-high price.

Feng Da looked around and took in the expressions of all the elders. He sneered in his heart. That's right! He wanted to brazenly slaughter these Fat elders, and they had no choice but to buy it!

The elders were silent for a long time. Finally, it was the seventh elder who took the lead and said, "I'll take 200 bottles!"

"No problem!" Feng Da took out a piece of paper and a pen and handed it to the seventh elder. The seventh elder wrote down an IOU, which was equivalent to a slave contract with tears in his eyes. In fact, he still had enough pills in his hands. He was just worried that there would be an awkward silence if no elders were willing to buy them, so he led the way. However, after this incident, he had also decided to ignore these elders 'Affairs in the future. When they asked him for help, he also asked on their behalf. In the end, no one said they wanted to buy it! Wasn't this a slap to his face?!

Feng Da kept the IOU and handed the two hundred and one bottles of pills to the seventh elder. He then explained, "Second elder! This extra bottle is my personal gift to you. As for the discount we talked about last time, it's been canceled because of that."

"Oh! Thanks a lot." The second elder said gratefully, but he couldn't help sighing in his heart. Look at how good he is! Although he didn't have this idea because of a bottle of pills, compared to the ning family's old Gu who only thought about their own interests, the words and actions of others really made people feel comfortable. Even if they were being slaughtered, they would be slaughtered as if it was a matter of course, AI! This was the difference between people!

"Seventh elder, you don't have to be so polite. This is purely for the sake of our personal friendship." Feng Da laughed.

"I understand! I understand!" The seventh elder was very happy. After keeping the elixir, he didn't even look at the other elders and went to the side to rest. In a while, he would prepare to continue challenging the levels.

"You guys aren't buying?" "What's the matter?" Feng Da asked as he shifted his gaze to the other elders.

"I'll buy it!" An elder shouted.

“If you can buy it, come over and write an IOU, then we’ll trade. The time limit is half an hour, we won’t wait for you if you’re late! “Besides, this is the last time we’re selling pills here,” Feng Da reminded.

After hearing Feng DA’s words, many of the elders wavered. After all, he had said that this was the last time he would sell the elixir. If they still didn’t buy it this time, they might not be able to buy it in the future. Therefore, as soon as Feng Da finished speaking, the elders came one after another ...

Half an hour later, all of the elders had bought what they thought was enough. Although the price was so painful that they were about to vomit blood, it was still worth it compared to being trapped here.

With enough elixirs in their hands, the elders continued to attempt the last level. Not long after they entered the trial space, Feng Da and the others also got ready and went into the trial space.

Three months later.

The White Rabbit’s voice finally rang out again. This time, it was naturally here to deliver good news.

“The seventh elder has also successfully passed the last stage! Good luck, you guys!” After the White Rabbit finished speaking, it disappeared again.

From then on, whenever someone passed the last level, the White Rabbit would appear and inform them.

Another three months passed, and the White Rabbit appeared more and more frequently. Naturally, it came to report the good news. During this period, Feng Da, Lin Yuan, Leng Qingtian, Leng ruohan, Cheng Xuan, and the rest had all passed the last level. The number of people left in the trial space had also decreased.

Moreover, after they successfully passed the trial, they were all transported to another beautiful and mysterious space without exception.

In the other space, the second elder would be extremely excited whenever he saw familiar faces. However, his heart would be filled with depression immediately after that. He could see them, but he could not talk to them, as if there was a layer of barrier between them ...

Chapter 1682: The dream Mirror (1)

Every time the second elder wanted to call out to them, the other party did not respond at all. However, he could clearly see the other party’s every move. This fact made him extremely angry.

F * ck! What was going on? The second elder was burning with anger. He was extremely angry. Of course, he didn’t think that the other party was deliberately ignoring him. The only truth was that there was something strange here! The reason why they didn’t know each other was because someone had done something to them.

The first suspect was naturally the creature inside and the detestable little rabbit.

“Old man! Don’t worry! When you’re all here, you’ll naturally have the opportunity to meet.” The fish consoled the second elder after seeing through his thoughts. At this time, it used its fins to support its body as usual, half standing on the shore, occasionally teasing the depressed second elder.

“Why?” The fish’s words left the second elder puzzled.

“Hehe! Naturally, it’s because you don’t have enough people!” The fish laughed evilly. In fact, the real reason was that they wanted to earn more money. Therefore, they deliberately separated them. Moreover, whatever happened to second elder would also happen to others. Of course, Feng Da and the others were the exception. After all, they were on the same side and could not be charged.

“Is that really the case?” The second elder’s face was filled with suspicion. To be honest, he didn’t dare to believe this fish’s words! Moreover, although he could see the seventh elder and the others, he could not hear what they were saying. However, he could guess from their expressions that they had most likely encountered the same problem as him.

“Yes, yes!” The fish nodded its little head hard and thought to itself, ‘even if it’s not like that, you have to believe it! You have no way to prove it anyway, so it’s not afraid.

“Did you guys take their money too?” The second elder asked directly. This question had been in his mind for a long time and he had always wanted to ask.

“That’s a must! You have to pay to come to our place. We can’t let you see or sit for free, so it’s natural to pay.” The fish said disapprovingly.

“Uh!” Hearing the tone of the fish’s voice and its matter-of-fact expression, the second elder was dumbfounded and speechless. All the living creatures here had the same character, including the trees, flowers, and so on that he had just gotten to know. All of them asked for money. After understanding this fact, he was extremely glad that he had booked the whole year. Otherwise, just the money he paid them would probably be a large sum of money. Sob ... These vampires! He was really into money. He was really curious, what did these guys want money for? Could it be that they could leave this place, so they really wanted to save some money?

“Old man! I’ll eat you if you say “uh” again!” When the fish heard this ‘uh’ again, it said in an extremely displeased manner. It couldn’t help but feel disgusted in its heart. He couldn’t even speak properly, so why did he have to keep hiccuping?

“Uh ...” The second elder didn’t expect that the fish would threaten to eat him again. After letting out a “uh” sound, he quickly closed his mouth and looked at the fish carefully. He felt so wronged in his heart. Wu ... This fish is really hateful! He always liked to threaten himself. Although he was a little curious about whether this fish could eat him, he had to be careful in this strange place. Otherwise, if he was really eaten by a fish, he would regret his wise life!

“Old man! I especially don’t like this “uh”! So, don’t talk about it in the future!” The fish roared angrily. Then, it continued, “However, I’ll forgive you this time. If there’s a next time, I’ll just eat you!”

“Yes! I got it.” The second elder was full of grievances, but he had no choice but to agree.

“Good girl! As long as you’re obedient, I’ll treat you well.” When Yu Yu saw the second elder’s cautious appearance, there was no need to mention how satisfied she was in her heart. Hmph! So what if he was a reverent-God? In this place, they had to be obedient. Now, making the second elder listen to him had already become something that gave him a special sense of accomplishment, hehe!

The second elder nodded, but he was extremely depressed. He was really being bullied by the fish! The fact that a palm-sized fish had bullied a divine Lord made him extremely frustrated. More importantly, he couldn't do anything to the fish. If he was outside, he would have caught this fish and steamed it.

In fact, he was not the only one who felt this way. The elders who were isolated in the other space also felt the same way.

They had thought that they would be able to leave this place after passing through the ten stages of the second realm of the illusory sky. Who knew that they would be sent to this place that looked like a paradise but was actually filled with evil demons. Every grass, tree, mountain, stone, and small beast here had intelligence. Not only could they speak, but they only recognized money and not people. No matter what they did, money was the top priority. Therefore, although they arrived at different times, the number of IOUs they had increased. This was a fact. They were so depressed that they almost vomited blood.

More importantly, they didn't know how long they would have to stay here, nor did they know where they were. The spiritual creatures that accompanied them every day often angered and threatened them.

They were sighing in this beautiful space, but those who were still in the trial space didn't feel good.

As the number of people who had passed the last level increased, the number of people who remained in the dusky space also decreased. Thus, among those who remained, those who had slightly weaker mental fortitude became restless, and the pressure on them also increased.

However, the nineteenth elder was the most depressed one. Not only did he not have any close progress in the last stage, but he also had to bear the double mental and physical torture of the White Rabbit every day. In addition, he knew that most of the ning family elders had left, so he was also unusually annoyed.

As for Leng ruoxue and the demon, they had already left the illusory heaven. They stayed in their bracelets every day, watching every move in the illusory heaven through the light screen. They were in a rather pleasant mood.

In the bracelet.

Leng ruoxue and the evildoer sat in the garden. Their eyes were smiling as they looked at the elders who were sighing with a face full of worry. Their hearts were already rolling with laughter.

"Xue 'er! Are these little things really created by the illusion?" The demon asked curiously. The images of those little things were too realistic. In his opinion, they were no different from real existences.

"Yup! This is not an ordinary illusion. Everything in that space is real. Otherwise, I'm afraid the second elder and the others would not be so depressed." Leng ruoxue laughed.

"Xue 'er! The second elder and the others must be depressed. They thought that they would be able to come out after passing the last stage of the trial space, but who knew that they would be sent into the illusion again. More importantly, they still don't know that it's an illusion. " The demon said with a face full of sympathy. If he was one of those people, he would probably be depressed as well.

Chapter 1683: The dream Mirror (2)

"Hehe! The training space and this illusion are originally one, although one is a two layer domain and the other is a three layer domain, but they can't be completely separated, otherwise, the training space would be incomplete." Leng ruoxue explained with a smile.

"Mm! Xue 'er! When do you plan to start the illusion?" The demon nodded and couldn't help but ask.

"Hahaha! When they are all here, the illusionary realm will naturally open. " Leng ruoxue said with an evil smile.

"Uh! Would they be able to do it together? Isn't 19th elder still in the hands of that little rabbit?" The demon said, a little speechless.

"Don't count him in!" Leng ruoxue said softly.

"Oh! Right now there are still ten people in the training space, if they stay in the last stage for another half a year, I'm afraid second elder will have to pay for another year. " The demon gloated. He couldn't help but laugh at the thought of this.

"If they don't stay for half a year, they should be able to pass the last level." Leng ruoxue said in understanding. Now, she would pay attention to the progress of those who were still in the trial space every day. Hence, she was very clear that they would be able to pass the last level very soon.

Just as she had expected, in less than two months, the last ten people had successfully passed the last level. However, before they could celebrate, they were immediately transported to the space where the second elder and the others were.

When they reached there, they could feel the same treatment that the second elder and the others had received. However, compared to the people who had arrived before them, they were even more depressed. This was because their trial space had been too difficult. They had thought that they could finally leave, but who knew that they would end up in another place?

On a certain day.

Just as the second elder and the others were doing nothing and staring at the sky in a daze as they did every day, they suddenly felt the space around them shake. Then, they finally saw each other.

"Second elder!" The seventh elder shouted excitedly after seeing the second elder.

"Seventh brother! I didn't expect to see you in person. " The second elder's eyes were filled with tears as he spoke emotionally. Before they met, he was afraid that he would never have the chance to see them again. Although he knew that his worries were groundless, he couldn't help but think so. Now that they could finally meet, he was extremely excited.

“Second elder! It’s so good to see you!” After hearing the second elder’s sorrowful words, the seventh elder also felt sad.

“I say, aren’t you two old men jealous? It’s just that we haven’t seen each other for a while, is there a need for you to put on such an appearance?” The fish on the shore, who had been observing for a long time, said with a look of disdain.

“That ... We haven’t seen each other for too long.” The second elder’s face was slightly red as he explained in embarrassment.

“How is it long?” The fish asked.

“You don’t understand our relationship.” The seventh elder also interjected.

“Alright! I don’t understand! Could it be that a day apart feels like three years to you?” Yu Yu’s Black eyes were wide open, and his face was filled with curiosity.

“Little Yu ‘er! You can’t just use words like that.” When the second elder heard what the fish said, a few black lines immediately slid down his forehead. What the hell was this?

“I didn’t use it! Don’t think that I don’t understand what you’re trying to say just because I’m a fish. Let me tell you, I know everything.” The fish roared, and a pink flash appeared on its palm-sized pure white body, indicating that it was about to get angry.

“But, we really didn’t do what you said.” The seventh elder couldn’t help but shiver. He said with some disgust. This fish’s thoughts were really too complicated. Don’t guess what the fish is thinking!

“Really? Why doesn’t it look like it? Big rock! Don’t you think they’re the kind of people who feel like three years have passed when we don’t see each other for a day?” The fish didn’t believe the words of the two elders in front of it and directly asked big rock, who it trusted more.

“Xiaoyu is right. I think they are that kind of people too.” Big rock said with certainty.

“Hehe! I knew it! How could I be wrong?” The fish felt more and more pleased with itself.

The second elder and the seventh elder listened to their conversation and their attitude towards their relationship. After looking at each other, they were both speechless.

They finally realized that no matter how they tried to explain, it would be useless. This was because the fish and the rock had already determined that their relationship was not simple. They should just keep their mouths shut!

At this moment, the 11th elder walked over and greeted them warmly, “Second elder, seventh elder! I’ve missed you guys so much.”

Second elder and seventh elder didn’t dare to respond to 11th elder’s words. Both of them kept winking at him, hoping that he would shut his mouth and not talk nonsense. However, 11th elder, who was too excited, didn’t understand their intentions.

Seeing that the two of them were ignoring him, the 11th elder said with an aggrieved expression, “What’s wrong? You don’t like to see me?”

“Of course they don’t like to see you, you third party! Don’t get between them! Otherwise, I won’t let you off.” The second elder and the seventh elder didn’t even have time to speak before the fish spoke. As soon as it finished speaking, the eleventh elder was already dumbfounded.

F * ck! What did he just hear? Third party? He didn’t hear wrong, did he? How did he become a mistress? Moreover, it was between the second elder and the seventh elder. What he couldn’t accept even more was that these words came from the mouth of a fish.

In an instant, the 11th elder was on the verge of exploding in anger. However, he immediately realized that this was not normal, so he had no choice but to suppress it.

As for second elder and seventh elder! As they listened to the fish’s words, more and more black lines appeared on their foreheads! And even their faces turned dark! They knew that they would not hear anything good from this fish! They were clearly very pure family, but in this fish’s mouth, it became ambiguous. What was this?

Although they were so depressed that they wanted to vomit blood, none of them dared to say anything at this moment. Otherwise, this fish would definitely have something to say again. So, it was better for them to remain silent.

In addition, they also secretly blamed the eleventh elder. They had clearly given him a look, but who knew that this guy actually didn’t understand their meaning? he was really stupid!

They glared at the 11th elder in exasperation. The 11th elder, who was glared at, felt a stomach full of grievances. In fact, he didn’t say anything, did he? How did she become a mistress? He still didn’t understand.

“Come with me!” Seeing that the three of them did not have much of a reaction, Yu Yu directly pointed at the eleventh elder and ordered.

“Me?” The 11th elder was surprised.

“Nonsense! Who else could it be if not you?” The fish said unhappily, but in its heart, it couldn’t help but think, this guy is really too stupid, no wonder he can only be a third party!

Chapter 1684: The dream Mirror (3)

“What is it?” The 11th elder’s face was filled with vigilance.

“Come with me. Don’t disturb their reunion.” The fish said matter-of-factly.

“I didn’t!” The 11th elder’s face was full of grievance. Why did this fish target him? This was preposterous.

However, the second and seventh elders were not happy at all after hearing this, because this meant that the fish had completely recognized their relationship, but they were too lazy to argue with a fish.

“You still dare to say no? Didn’t you notice that after they saw you, their faces all turned very ugly? Don’t quibble, my eyesight is very good, I saw everything clearly!” The fish roared angrily. It hated mistresses the most in its life because its former favorite fish was seduced by another fish. So, when it saw the little three, it must kill them. However, it could only take this little three to the other side and separate them.

The 11th elder was speechless. He felt that no matter how eloquent he was, he couldn't argue with a self-righteous and unreasonable fish, because the fish only believed in his own thoughts and ignored everything else. In this way, even if they had 10000 Reasons in front of them, they were afraid that they wouldn't be able to understand this fish. So, he could only respond with silence.

"Follow me! I'll take you to a good place." Seeing that eleventh elder didn't say anything, the fish thought that he had admitted it. Then, it jumped onto big Rock's body and left the stream with big rock carrying it. Behind them, eleventh elder followed involuntarily.

When they arrived at their destination, Yu 'er pointed to the place in front of them and said to the 11th elder, "Old man, you can stay here from now on! It's very quiet here, and no one will disturb you."

When the 11th elder heard this, he looked up at his surroundings and his face immediately darkened. What the hell was this place? The surroundings were bare, without even a single blade of grass, but no one was disturbing them! Could this be The Good Place in the fish's eyes? Then why didn't it stay here? However, what he couldn't understand was why he had followed them here.

"Old man! You can stay here! We're going back." The fish didn't care about the eleventh elder's lack of reaction. After it finished speaking, it was ready to let the big stone take it away.

"Wait! You're just going to let me stay here?" Seeing this, the eleventh elder quickly called out.

"What's wrong? you're not satisfied? It's good enough that a mistress like you can have a place to stay. Don't be so picky, I'm very busy and don't have time for you." Yu 'er said in an extremely dissatisfied manner. After she finished speaking, she left with the big rock head without looking back. The eleventh elder wanted to chase after him, but he realized that he was blocked. This fact made him extremely depressed.

Second elder and seventh elder, who were standing in their original spots, saw Yu 'er and big rock return with smiles on their faces, but there was no sign of 11th elder. They couldn't help but feel worried.

"Little Yu 'er! Where did you take the eleventh elder?" The second elder bent down and asked softly.

"Old man! We all know that you can't be half-hearted. You already have this old man, so don't think about other old men. You can get into trouble if you two-time! You'll regret it then!" Yu Yu's face turned serious as she angrily rebuked.

The second elder, who had been scolded, was completely speechless. The seventh elder, on the other hand, explained, "Fish! We're family, and our relationship isn't what you think it is."

"Oh, really? Hehe! Although I'm a fish, I'm not that gullible! So, you can't fool me with your words." The fish said confidently. Its words also meant that the seventh elder's words were in vain.

"Fish! We're really family! It's not what you're thinking!" The seventh elder still refused to give up completely and explained again.

“Old man! I don’t want to hear this anymore! Don’t think that I don’t know about the complicated feelings of you humans. There are always ambiguous feelings between cousins. Aren’t they family?” Yu Yu asked back with a smile.

This time, the seventh elder was completely out of power, and could only obediently shut his mouth.

After dealing with the seventh elder, Yu ‘er stood on top of the huge rock and said loudly, “Everyone! Welcome to our home! Here, you will enjoy our home-like service. Each of us will treat you as a family member. So, you don’t have to be polite if you need anything. However, even blood Brothers settle their accounts clearly! So, you’ll have to pay for the extra service!” Obviously, the last sentence was the main point it wanted to say.

Ugh! When the elders heard the fish’s words, they were all speechless. They couldn’t help but think to themselves, what a money-grubbing bloodsucking fish! He hadn’t even done anything yet, and he was already coveting their money. Sob ... This was really too hateful.

“You guys have fun!” The silence of the elders was taken by the fish as consent. After it finished speaking, it jumped off the big stone and went into the stream.

Everyone gathered in twos and threes and started chatting. This time, Yu ‘er did not appear to accuse any of them of being the third party. Therefore, their hearts were all temporarily at ease. After all, they had heard about the incident with the eleventh elder.

After enjoying a few days of rare peace in this strange space, the elders of the ning family began to probe the elves. They wanted to figure out the situation here too much, and it always made them feel very uneasy.

However, after chatting with them for a few days, they had gained nothing, which made them feel a little helpless.

On this day, everyone was gathered together to chat as usual when suddenly, a familiar voice rang out, “Hehe! How have you been these past few days?”

It was that rabbit! Other than the second elder, the other elders were all shocked. They had heard the rabbit’s voice again. Didn’t that mean that they were still in the illusory sky? However, they had clearly passed the last stage! How did this happen?

“You must be surprised to see me!” The voice was accompanied by a flash of white light, and then, the White Rabbit appeared in front of everyone.

“Little rabbit! Is this place also under your jurisdiction?” The seventh elder asked curiously.

“Hehe! You’re very smart!” The White Rabbit was very proud. The second and third realms were inseparable, so naturally, they were closely related to it.

“Didn’t we pass the last level? Why are you still in the illusory sky?” The second elder also asked the question that had been buried in his heart for a long time.

“You’ve passed the last stage, but it’s not over yet. You still have three more domains to pass!” The little white rabbit laughed evilly and said proudly.

“A three-layered domain?” All the elders were shocked. In contrast, Feng Da and the others were very calm.

“We didn’t say anything about having a third-tier domain!” An elder couldn’t help but say, “Oh ... Are they being forced by the Overlord?” The second-tier domain was already so difficult, this third-tier domain would definitely take their little lives!

“This is not up to you. Anyone who has participated in the trial space will be transported here after passing the trial. So, you have to participate whether you want to or not. Otherwise, you will stay here forever!” The little white rabbit explained in a threatening manner.

Hearing its words, the elders were so angry that they wanted to curse. F * ck! When they entered, Leng ruoxue did not tell them that they could even pass the third-tier domain! What should he do now? They were in a difficult position.

“Old man, you don’t have to be depressed. Actually, the second and third layer domains are inseparable. You’ll know when the time comes.” The little white rabbit said with a smile.

“Alright! Now you can begin your experience in the three-layered domain. I wish you all the best!” After saying that, the White Rabbit laughed again and disappeared on the spot.

The elders who were left behind were so depressed that they were about to catch fire. Feng Da and the others could only comfort them, “”Second elder, calm down! Since things had come to this, there was no use in frowning like this! I feel that right now, you should be thinking about how to pass these three domains. ”

“Why are we the ones who want to? Don’t you need to think about it?” An elder shouted in dissatisfaction.

“Of course we don’t need to think about it. We’ve always been carefree. No matter where we are, we won’t panic like you. So, we’re not afraid.” Feng Da said loudly.

Feng DA’s words made quite a number of elders feel ashamed because they knew that Feng Da was right. They were indeed a little uneasy. In addition, the experience of passing the second realm was too deep in their hearts. Therefore, they were afraid before the battle, which was very unfavorable to the trial.

The second elder pondered for a long time before slowly opening his mouth, “”I really need to think about it, Al! The future generations are to be feared!”

In the next few days, the elders of the ning family were silent, but Feng Da and the others got along very well with the elves in this space.

They lived in the realm. During the day, other than cultivating, their spare time was to chat. Furthermore, there was night in the realm. During this time, they would choose to have a good rest.

Unconsciously, everyone slowly fell into a deep sleep. However, as they were in their dreams, they did not notice anything and continued to sleep in their dreams ...

Chapter 1685: The Nightmare Realm (1)

Their dreams were extremely realistic, and it was also the most realistic portrayal of their hearts. Perhaps they would not think about these dusty past events normally, but in their dreams, they had truly experienced it once again.

For example, Feng Da and the others were originally mercenaries. Later on, by chance, they became Leng ruoxue's subordinates. What they cared about the most and were most self-conscious about was naturally the time they spent in the bloodshed and passion on the water edge continent.

In the dream, Feng Da and the others had lost their lives and shed their blood. There were countless battles every day, and the friendship between companions had also grown in these battles. It gradually occupied the most important position in their hearts. Therefore, in their dreams, they dreamed of unity, friendship, and team spirit, as well as positive thoughts.

Their dreams started on the Ling wind continent, and then they experienced the Haotian continent and the godly land. Finally, they had a place in the divine world. The dream played in their minds like a movie. There was laughter, sadness, friendship, love, and family in the dream. All of these were important to them. The things that happened in their dreams had long become a part of their lives. The people in their dreams were the most important people to them.

In Leng Qingtian's dream, he returned to the year his son and daughter-in-law passed away. Facing his dead son, daughter-in-law, and two young children, his heart was in a dilemma. He wanted to take revenge for his son and daughter-in-law, but he didn't have the chance. This fact made him extremely angry, but as an official, he could do nothing about it. After that, he placed all his attention on his child. Unless there was a war, he rarely appeared in public, especially at royal banquets.

Leng ruohan also dreamed of his parents. Even though he was young at that time, he could remember things. Hence, he felt much more deeply about losing his parents than Leng ruoxue. In addition, his younger sister had always been lacking in intelligence. Hence, all the pressure had been placed on his young shoulders. That was why he had been working hard on his cultivation, hoping that one day he could avenge his parents. His other wish was for his younger sister to get better.

When she was young, these were the two greatest wishes in Leng ruohan's heart.

However, as he was injured, all the meridians in his body were broken, and he fell from being a genius that everyone looked up to to the clouds, becoming a cripple that everyone could step on. He had been in despair and lost, but later, it was his sister who gave him hope and cured his injuries. Only then did he stand in front of the world again, and no longer had to suffer the strange or sympathetic gazes of others, sister! His sister was the most important person in his heart. When he thought of Leng ruoxue, Leng ruohan's eyes flew open, and he became the first person to wake up from his dream.

Seeing that Leng ruohan had woken up in such a short time, the fish and big rock, who had been observing their situation at the side, revealed a trace of surprise on their faces. It seemed like this brother of their master was not simple!

Feeling the two strange gazes, Leng ruohan subconsciously raised her head and looked at the fish and the big rock not far away. With a face full of question marks, she asked, "What's wrong? is there something wrong?"

“Hehe! Of course it’s not right.” The fish said mysteriously.

“What?” Leng ruohan was still in a daze. He only felt that he had had a very long dream. In the dream, he thought of many things from the past, and he thought that he had long forgotten about those things! He didn’t expect to dream about it.

“Were you dreaming just now?” Yu Yu said with a smile.

“Yes.” Leng ruohan nodded her head honestly. It seemed like they could not hide anything from these little fellows.

“Actually, there’s a reason for you to dream about those things. This is the ability of the three-layered illusionary sky domain. This place is called the Nightmare Realm. The people and beasts in here will involuntarily dream about the things that have been hidden in the depths of their hearts for a long time. Of course, this is not absolute. It mainly depends on what is the most important place in your heart. The things you dream about can be seen as your inner demons. If you can’t overcome these inner demons, you will be trapped in a nightmare realm.” It’ll only be harmful to your cultivation.” The fish explained.

“In addition, the higher a cultivator’s strength is, the more things they’ve experienced, and the more serious their inner demons will be. If the cultivator himself can’t overcome these inner demons, sooner or later he’ll go into Qi deviation. At that time, it’ll be too late to overcome these inner demons with his own strength, and no one can help him with things like inner demons.” The fish continued.

“Then what am I doing?” Leng ruohan asked in confusion. She had heard of inner demons before, but she did not know if she had passed the test of the Nightmare Realm since she had woken up so early.

“Hahaha! Of course, you’ve passed the test. Furthermore, you’re the first human to pass the test of our nightmare realm.” The fish smiled, but in her heart, she was a little infatuated. A beautiful man is a beautiful man! Even a frown was so beautiful. It found Leng ruohan extremely pleasing to the eye now. In the past, it had a good relationship with them all because of its master. However, now, it was sincerely optimistic about Leng ruohan and the others.

“Are you sure?” Leng ruohan asked worriedly. Actually, he did not feel like there was any test. In his heart, it was just a dream. Now that he had woken up from the dream, this fish said that he had passed the test. Was it really that simple?

“I’m sure! He was very sure. Actually, your dream is very simple. It’s nothing more than wanting to work hard and improve. However, there’s an important person in your dream, and that’s our master, your sister Leng ruoxue. The reason why you were able to wake up so quickly was all because you dreamed of her. She gave you a strong will and a tenacious spirit. Master is the most important person in your heart, so why would you be willing to be trapped in a dream and not wake up?” The fish said in understanding.

“Xue ‘er is your master, does that mean you really exist?” Leng ruohan gently lifted the palm-sized fish and stroked its cold scales as she asked curiously.

“Hehe! Of course we are not real, but in this nightmare realm, we are real. This is our home, under our control. That rabbit is our boss, we are just its subordinates.” The fish smiled shyly. Although it was genderless, it would still feel embarrassed to be caressed by such a beautiful man.

“I see!” Leng ruohan understood.

"I wonder when Grandpa and the others will wake up." With that, Leng ruohan looked worriedly at her grandfather and the rest.

"Don't worry! They'll wake up eventually." The fish promised.

"Grandpa has a lot on his mind, unlike me who only has two simple wishes." Leng ruohan said unhurriedly. He could still remember everything that had happened in his dream clearly, so he knew the pain in his grandfather's heart.

Chapter 1686: The Nightmare Realm (2)

"This kind of thing has to be thought through by himself. Outsiders can't help him. Moreover, while his strength is not high now, if he is really invaded by the inner demons, there is still a medicine to save him. Otherwise, when his strength is high, these inner demons in the depths of his heart may invade his cultivation. At that time, no one can save him." Yu 'er reminded. This was also the main reason why their master had asked them to come here while they were still weak. As for those old men of the ning family, they were just there in passing. After all, their strength was too high and they would definitely have a lot of inner demons. Therefore, if they could not wake up on their own, then there would be no cure.

"I know," Leng ruohan nodded. How could he not understand what Xue 'er was thinking? No matter when, Xue 'er always thought for them.

Just like that, Leng ruohan, who was the first to wake up, stayed in the Nightmare Realm while waiting for the others to overcome their inner demons. At the same time, she chatted with the elves and occasionally cultivated for a while. As the days passed, under Leng ruohan's anticipation, Leng Qingtian finally woke up.

"Grandpa!" Leng ruohan was extremely excited to see her grandfather. She couldn't help but throw herself into Leng Qingtian's arms, just like when she was young.

"Good child! I've made you worry!" After waking up, everything in the dream was still extremely clear. Immediately, the experienced and knowledgeable Leng Qingtian knew that the dream was not as simple as it seemed.

"Grandpa! It's good that you're awake!" Leng ruohan said, feeling a little embarrassed. After his excitement, he realized that he was still in his grandfather's arms. This made him, who had been an adult for many years, blush.

"Hahaha! I still have my cute grandsons and granddaughters waiting for me! How can you sleep for so long?" Leng Qingtian couldn't help but laugh as he teased his grandson when he saw his grandson's face turn red.

"Grandpa! I'm not going to talk to you if you keep doing this." Leng ruohan was so embarrassed that she wished she could find a hole to hide in.

"Alright! I was wrong, you can't ignore me!" Although his son and daughter-in-law were no longer around, they had left him with two adorable grandsons and granddaughters. He should be satisfied.

“They still haven’t woken up?” Then, Leng Qingtian turned his gaze to Feng Da and the others. He was worried. Feng Da and the others were considered his juniors, so he naturally didn’t want anything to happen to them.

“Grandpa! Don’t worry! It’s only the third day.” Leng ruohan consoled him. He had more confidence in Feng Da and the others than in his grandfather. After all, Feng Da and the others did not have complicated experiences, unlike his grandfather who had lost his loved ones. Although Feng Da and the others did not have any family, they had never cared about such things. If they did not have such things, why would they care?

“Ruohan is right. These little fellows will definitely wake up.” Leng Qingtian said confidently. Then, he looked at his old friends. He wasn’t too worried about these old men, as they were all very smart, and there were very few things that could affect them. However, the one he was most worried about was Lin Liang. Although that guy usually didn’t say anything, he had hidden many things in his heart. What Lin Liang was most concerned about was the time when ruohan lost all her cultivation. He just didn’t know if he could overcome this obstacle in his dream.

“Grandpa! Don’t worry too much! They’ve braved so many storms and waves, so they won’t capsize in this small river.” Leng ruohan reminded.

“En!” Leng Qingtian nodded. ‘This nightmare isn’t a small brook!’ If he wasn’t careful, there was really the danger of capsize. However, he had confidence in the people around him. This wouldn’t be a problem for them.

With her grandfather’s company, Leng ruohan was no longer alone. The two of them chatted every day and recalled many things from the past. Those things seemed to have happened yesterday and were still very clear. However, after they talked about it this time, the two of them felt much more relaxed. The past that they had been unwilling to mention would no longer become a burden to them.

While they were chatting, they were also paying attention to every move of Feng Da and the others. It was only when they woke up from their dreams one by one that their hearts were completely at ease.

“Feng Da! What did you dream of?” Leng ruohan could not help but ask curiously when she saw that Feng Da was still smiling when he woke up.

When Feng Da heard Leng ruohan’s question, he stammered and was a little embarrassed to answer. When he saw Leng ruohan’s expression, a hint of disdain appeared in his watery black eyes as he said, “What else can he dream of? Of course, he dreamed that he had a wife and a son, and he became a reverent-God again!”

“Damned little fish! You actually betrayed me!” Hearing the fish’s words, Feng Da was a little angry from embarrassment. He rushed to the fish and was about to teach it a lesson, but who knew that the cunning fish would actually jump away. Seeing this, he quickly caught up ...

When the other people saw Feng Da chasing after a fish, they couldn’t help but laugh.

“Hahaha! Captain! Your ambitions are quite big!”

“Captain! We’re going to follow your example and work hard!”

Lin Yuan and the others jeered at the side, making Feng DA's face turn red with anger, and he chased the fish even more closely.

"Big guy, I'm telling the truth. How can you kill the fish to silence me?" The fish said provocatively as it jumped around.

"The truth? This is my secret, but you've revealed it to me. Do you even have any professional ethics?" Feng Da was very dissatisfied. He had lost all his face.

"What's the big deal? Humans strive to climb higher, while water flows lower! Which man didn't want to have a wife, children, and a successful career? You don't have to be embarrassed, really! Trust me!" Yu 'er promised with a serious expression.

"Trust you? Do you believe in a fish?" Feng Da was a little speechless. He was not stupid enough to believe the words of a fish, and this fish was a fake fish.

"Don't look down on fish! Otherwise, you'll regret it." The fish warned.

"Are you threatening me?" Feng Da raised his eyebrows and said in disbelief.

"Hehe! How would I dare! I'm just telling the truth, a good kid shouldn't bully a fish." Yu Yu said with a smile.

"Then can we eat the fish?" Feng Da roared in anger.

"You can eat the other fish, but I don't have any meat on my body. Are you sure you want to eat it?" Yu Yu asked with an evil smile.

After Feng Da heard Yu Yu's words, he was stunned and immediately became depressed. This fish could only be considered a virtual image and couldn't be eaten. Thinking of this, he stopped and returned to his original position.

The fish saw this and followed after him.

"What are you following me for?" Glancing at the tail that was bouncing around behind him, Feng Da said in a bad mood. He was so depressed in his heart. Why was he competing with a fake fish! This fish can't be hit, can't be scolded, and can't be eaten.

Chapter 1687: The Nightmare Realm (3)

"I'm not following you! You go your way, I'll go mine! Let's mind our own business!" The fish said matter-of-factly.

"You ..." Feng Da was a little angry. He sat on the ground and didn't say anything. The fish sat next to him with its fins.

Looking at the man and fish, everyone couldn't help but turn their heads and laugh. Seeing their trembling shoulders, Feng DA's anger grew even more."Dammit! Can't you just sit further away from me?"

“We can not! This is my territory, I can sit wherever I want to.” The fish said righteously.

“Alright! You’ve won!” Feng DA’s face darkened. Suddenly, he shouted, “Little rabbit! Come out, quickly send me out!”

The little white rabbit that heard Feng DA’s call appeared in front of everyone after a white light flashed. It looked at the naughty fish, then glanced at the depressed Feng Da, and said in a serious tone, “I’m sorry, Feng Da! I can’t send you out now.”

“Why? Didn’t I pass the test here?” Feng DA’s eyes were wide open as he said in disbelief. He passed the test, but he wasn’t allowed to leave. What was this? Now, he was deeply experiencing the depressed mood of those ning family elders.

“But they haven’t!” The little white rabbit pointed at the second elder and the others who were still in their dreams.

“What do they have to do with me?” Feng Da was speechless. He wasn’t familiar with those elders.

“Of course it’s related. You came in together to take the test. Although I don’t ask you to wait for them to wake up before you can leave together, you can’t just leave them here alone!” The little white rabbit said with a smile.

“Then what do you want us to do? Give me a straightforward answer! When can we leave this place?” Feng Da asked impatiently, but he was so angry in his heart. There wasn’t such a requirement when he was in the trial space of the second-level domain! Why did the request change here?

“Hehe! Of course, they’re asking you to live here for a while. As for when you can leave, it depends on when they wake up!” The White Rabbit explained.

“Didn’t you say that you wouldn’t ask us to wait for them to wake up before we can leave?” Feng Da couldn’t help but ask.

“It’s not a request! However, you must at least wait for half of them to wake up before you can leave.” The little white rabbit said innocently.

“F * ck! What kind of logic is this? We’re not even close to them, why should we stay here to accompany them?” Feng Da roared in anger.

“I have no choice! This is the rule of the Nightmare Realm.” The little white rabbit irresponsibly attributed Feng DA’s dissatisfaction to the rules of the realm. In fact, the Nightmare Realm did not have such rules, but it did not want Feng Da and the others to leave this place too early. It could also be said that it was too bored. With Feng Da and the others here, it could chat with them occasionally. If they left now, wouldn’t it become a loner again?

As for the ning family’s elders, they weren’t among the people it wanted to chat with. What it liked to do more was to mess with them.

“You’re not lying to me?” Feng Da asked doubtfully. Or it could be said that he didn’t really believe this cunning little rabbit’s words, but he couldn’t go to the Miss to confirm this matter now.

“I’m such a cute little rabbit, why would I lie? The rules are the rules, and I can’t change them. So, you can stay here with peace of mind! Anyway, it doesn’t matter where I stay. I won’t charge you for it.” The little white rabbit said matter-of-factly with a smile on her face.

After hearing the White Rabbit’s words, Feng Da and the others were a little speechless. What did she mean by staying there was not staying there? How could this be the same as his own home? He had a comfortable bed at home, but what was there here? In addition, not charging them was not a reason for them to be willing to stay here. Did they have to live here happily just because he didn’t charge them?

Looking at everyone’s depressed expressions, the White Rabbit continued, “Since you’re already here, then take things as they come. Isn’t that what you all say the most? So, you can just go with the flow and live a good life here! I’ll send you out when half of the elders are awake.”

With that, the White Rabbit disappeared in a flash of white light.

“What do we do now?” After the White Rabbit disappeared, Feng Da asked everyone in the room with a depressed look.

“What other way is there? Of course, I’ll adapt to the situation.” Leng ruohan said with a faint smile. The expression on her face was extremely calm.

“Hehe! Feng Da! You have to learn from the beautiful man, look at how calm he is, unlike you who can’t hold your temper! In fact, it’s for your own good that you’re allowed to stay here. At least you’ll be able to calm down and your mood won’t be so restless.” The fish said softly.

“I know.” Feng Da said unhappily. After he finished speaking, he walked to a corner and sat down cross-legged with his eyes closed to regulate his breathing.

“Ai! I still need to train!” Yu ‘er looked at Feng Da and sighed. However, his words made Leng ruohan laugh.

“Why do you speak like an old man, little fish?” Leng ruohan said, amused.

“I’m just sighing!” Yu ‘er said, a little embarrassed.

“Fish! How long will it take for these elders to wake up?” Leng Qingtian asked curiously.

“I don’t know! However, if their inner demons are too strong, it’s possible that none of them will wake up.” The fish thought for a moment and said. This was definitely not an alarmist talk, but a fact. This was because many of the elders were too ambitious. If they couldn’t get past him, there was a high chance that they would never wake up.

“You can’t wake up? That won’t do!” When Leng Qingtian heard Yu ‘er’s words, he was a little anxious. Those people were all elders of the ning family. Although many of them were not very likable, if they really did not wake up, how would Xue’ er explain it to master ning?

“I have no choice! The only person who can help them now is themselves.” The fish said in understanding.

These ning family elders had lived for a long time and had experienced many things. Although many things had been sealed away, many things that they had experienced now were replayed in their dreams, and many of them were things they did not want to touch. However, what made Yu Yu not know whether to laugh or cry was that a considerable number of elders were most concerned about the fact that they were in debt.

In the hearts of those elders, nothing was more important than a debt.

In their dreams, a considerable number of them had dreamed that they had sold themselves to repay their debts. From then on, they would work like cows and horses for Leng ruoxue. Once they paid their debts, they would spend their entire lives without freedom.

As for the second elder, he had actually experienced the scene of being swallowed by the fish in his dream. However, at the same time, this scene also jolted him back to reality. It seemed that the threat of the fish still occupied a place in his heart.

In fact, if it was any other time, the second elder would not be so weak. It was just that he had just experienced the torture of the trial space not long ago, and his heart was at its weakest. Therefore, in this strange place, the threat of the fish had become a nightmare in his heart. But at the same time, it was also because of the fish that he had woken up.

Looking at the second elder's pale face, which was covered in sweat, Leng Qingtian walked to his side and asked with concern, "Second elder, how are you? Are you alright?"

"I'm fine!" The second elder said with a lingering fear. He couldn't help but curse in his heart. How could he dream of being eaten by a fish? Could it be that what you think in the day is what you dream of at night? Although he had always been curious about how the small fish would eat him, it shouldn't have become a nightmare in his heart, right? He could not understand.

The fish, who knew what he was thinking, revealed the secret with a single sentence.

"Old man! The inner demons were everywhere! Sometimes, even a small matter can become a hidden demon in the depths of one's heart!" The fish warned.

After hearing Yu 'er's words, the second elder could not help but think deeply. Was it really as simple as an inner demon? He couldn't believe that the little fish had become a demon in his heart. In fact, he suspected that his dream had been tampered with.

This was because he clearly remembered that in his dream, he had no ability to resist at all. He could only let the fish swallow him alive, and no one could hear his cry for help. He had to admit that at that moment, he was in despair. The feeling of death was even more shocking than the death he had experienced in the first-tier illusionary sky domain. Now that he thought about it, he still had cold sweat.

However, after he woke up, he knew that it was just a test for him, a test for his inner demons. Now that he had woken up, it was enough to prove that he had passed the test. Although he was a little confused about how he had passed the test, it was better than sleeping forever!

After thinking about it this way, he couldn't help but worry again. Besides him, no elder of the ning family had been able to wake up from their dreams, and if they couldn't wake up on their own, he couldn't do anything!

Chapter 1688: We'll each pay our own bills (1)

The second elder looked at the other elders of the ning family worriedly. Seeing this, Yu Yu consoled them considerately, "Old man! Don't worry! They'll wake up, but even if they don't, they can't blame anyone. It can only be said that their inner demons are too deep."

Although the fish's words sounded like it was comforting, the meaning behind it made the second elder extremely uncomfortable. However, he had no choice but to admit that what the fish said was the truth. If they wanted to overcome their inner demons, it would be very difficult for external forces to have any effect. They could only rely on themselves.

In the Nightmare Realm, the second elder was worried about the heart demons of the other ning family elders. However, the ning family elders in the Nightmare Realm were completely unaware that they were still living in their own dreams in deep waters and suffering.

In the dream.

The elders of the ning family, led by the seventh elder, happened to dream of the scene when they had just arrived at the illusionary sky. From the first layer of the illusionary sky, they had once again experienced the unforgettable test of life and death in their dream. The difficult challenge in the second layer of the illusionary sky, as well as the fact that they had been transported to this strange space after successfully passing the challenge, all flashed through their minds rapidly like a movie. However, what left the deepest impression on them were the IOUs. At this time ... They didn't know how much debt they owed, but they knew that they couldn't pay it off.

After owing a huge debt, they were now Leng ruoxue's people.

In their dreams, they had an endless amount of work to do every day. Furthermore, even a small subordinate of Leng ruoxue dared to order them around. Leng ruoxue's Beastie also bullied them, especially a pure white fish. It would eat them if something was not to their liking. This had caused a serious trauma to their hearts.

Originally, only a portion of the elders were very concerned about this matter. However, later on, for some reason, the elders in the dream actually all became afraid of this matter ...

They kept repeating the same dream in their dreams, and the same nightmare kept happening every day, which made them feel more stressed. This was reflected in their bodies as well. Each and every one of them was pale, drenched in sweat, and twitching from time to time.

The second elder was even more worried.

Before the elders woke up, the second elder's heart was in his throat, and he could not calm down. Every day, he was like a headless fly, pacing back and forth in the Nightmare Realm, making Feng Da and the others dizzy.

"Second elder! Calm down! If you keep turning around like this, we'll get dizzy before they wake up." Feng Da couldn't take it anymore.

"I'm worried about them!" The second elder roared.

"I know you're worried about them, but will you be able to help them?" Feng Da scoffed at the second elder's discomposure.

"I ..." The second elder was left speechless.

"Old man! Calm down! If you can't stay calm, I'll eat you!" The fish threatened.

Hearing Yu 'er's words! The second elder became even more depressed. He was only worried about his family. Was that wrong? And this fish actually threatened him by eating him, it was really too much! However, as someone who lived under someone else's roof, he really didn't dare to provoke this local fish. After all, the bloody and terrifying scene in his dream was still fresh in his memory!

Seeing that the second elder had shut his mouth, Yu 'er nodded her head in satisfaction and said, "In view of your restlessness, we've decided to send you out in advance after some discussion."

"What? He could leave in advance? No! I also want to leave early!" Before the second elder could react, Feng Da, who had heard this, was the first to give in.

"You can't go out early!" The fish didn't even lift its eyelids as it indifferently said.

"Why? If he can go out, why can't I? This is differential treatment! No! I'm not convinced! I'm going to complain to miss!" Feng Da roared in anger.

"I also want to file a complaint! I don't want to go out!" The second elder added fuel to the fire.

"Hehe! One of you wants to leave but can't, so you're making a complaint. The other wants to leave but can't, so you're making a complaint. It's rare that you're so United. However, I want to tell you that since you're in the Nightmare Realm, you have to listen to us. Whoever we tell you to leave, must leave. Even if you find master, he won't care." The fish said confidently.

After listening to the fish's words, Feng Da and the second elder looked at each other with a rare tacit understanding. Although they were both skeptical of the fish's words, if the fish was not confident in this matter, it should not be so confident. Thinking of this, the two of them fell silent for the time being.

However, the fish did not give the second elder the chance to think. With a flash of white light, the second elder was sent out of the Nightmare Realm.

When the second elder came back to his senses, he realized that he was already standing outside his house. Seeing this scene, he quickly ran towards the Leng family's main residence opposite his own ...

After knocking on the door of the main residence, second elder saw Leng ruoxue as he wished.

In the living room.

The second elder said directly, "Little girl, I want to go back to that nightmare realm or whatever. Quickly send me back."

"Second elder! You've passed the test and come out, so it's impossible for you to go back!" Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

"Why?" The second elder was puzzled.

“The fantasy sky’s second and third realms are inseparable. If you want to return to the Nightmare Realm, you’ll have to go through the ten stages of the second realm. Furthermore, if you want to go through the stages again, the difficulty will be ten to a hundred times higher. Not only that, you’ll have to go through the Nightmare Realm again.” Leng ruoxue explained with a smile.

“Uh! You’re not lying to me?” The second elder looked at Leng ruoxue suspiciously.

“Second elder! I can’t wait for you to challenge the trial again! This way, I can sell quite a lot of my pills.” Leng ruoxue replied with a smile.

Even though Leng ruoxue’s words sounded realistic, second elder knew that she was speaking the truth! If he were to attempt the levels again, he would have to consume a lot of pills. The amount of pills he had on hand was far from enough, so he had to buy them from Leng ruoxue! At the thought of this, he gave up on the idea of returning to the Nightmare Realm! It was not that he was unwilling to part with the money, nor was he disloyal! It was just that he would not be of much help even if he returned to the Nightmare Realm! Sigh! It seemed that he could only stay outside and worry.

Seeing that second elder had made a wise decision, Leng ruoxue smiled and said, “Second elder, I understand how you feel, but they have to rely on themselves for this kind of thing. Besides, aren’t Feng Da and the others still inside? They will take good care of the other elders for you.”

The second elder nodded and thought to himself, “since things have come to this, we can only do this.”

Chapter 1689: We’ll each pay separately (2)

Leng ruoxue settled second elder, but Feng Da, who was still in the Nightmare Realm, was extremely depressed. Second elder had already left, and he couldn’t even see the young lady’s face.

He had thought that the second elder would seek out his lady and request to return after leaving, but after waiting for a few days, he still did not see the second elder. As such, he became extremely dejected.

Seeing Feng Da sitting on the big rock dejectedly, Yu Yu jumped in front of him and said with a smile, “Feng Da, I’ve already gotten him out of here. Now, there’s no one else in front of you. You should be happy!”

“Why should I be happy? I’m the one who wants to get out! It wasn’t him!” Feng Da was a little angry as he roared, “F * ck! What the hell is this? Those who wanted to go out couldn’t, but those who didn’t want to go out were sent out.

“But you can’t go out now, and I saw that he was too restless, so I made an exception and sent him out.” Yu ‘er explained with an aggrieved expression.

“I can’t stay calm either. You can make an exception and send me out too!” Feng Da quickly said.

“No! Even if you’re as restless as him and are running around like a headless fly, I can’t send you out. We’re on the same side after all! Hehe! Of course, we have to take care of our own people!” The fish said matter-of-factly.

“You ...” The fish’s words made Feng Da so angry that he gritted his teeth. At that moment, he really wanted to cook and eat the fish.

However, the fish ignored Feng DA’s anger. Instead, it opened its watery black eyes and stared at him.

At this moment, an elder woke up.

“Eh? An old man has woken up. ” The fish asked in surprise.

The one who woke up was the seventh elder. At this time, he was still a little dazed after just opening his eyes, and his mind was in a mess. But very quickly, he remembered everything that had happened in the dream, and instantly, he broke out in a cold sweat.

“Get away from me! Don’t come any closer!” The seventh elder, who had inadvertently lowered his head, saw the fish that had unknowingly jumped to his side and shouted in shock.

“Old man! Don’t be afraid! You’re just having a dream!” When Yu Yu saw this, he smiled evilly and comforted her. It seemed that the old man was quite frightened!

“Dreaming?” The seventh elder’s mind was clearly not as clear as the second elder ‘s, and he was not as calm as the second elder when he woke up. In addition, everything in the dream was so real, so he did not realize that he had just been dreaming.

Was it really just a dream? So, he wasn’t eaten by this fish? The last part of his dream was exactly the same as the second elder ‘S. He was scared awake after being buried in the fish’s stomach. However, it was a good thing that he was scared awake. Otherwise, if he had been disheartened by death, he would probably never wake up again and would really be eaten by the fish.

“Yup! You’re dreaming, and this is part of the test. You’ve passed it. ” Yu Yu explained with a smile. It seemed that not everyone’s mind was that clear! Among the ning family’s elders, only that old man was smart, it secretly evaluated in its heart.

“I passed the test?” The seventh elder was shocked and couldn’t help but ask,“Can you tell me what the test is?” No matter how he thought about it, he still felt that something was wrong. This dream was really too strange.

“It’s your inner demons!” The fish chuckled.

“Inner demons?” Hearing this, the seventh elder turned to look at the other elders, only to see that they were still in deep sleep with no signs of waking up. Moreover, they were in a very sorry state from head to toe, as if they had just experienced a great battle, which was a shocking sight.

He looked around but did not see the second elder, who had the highest cultivation among the elders. His heart sank and he could not help but ask,“Where’s the second elder? Why isn’t he here?”

“Don’t worry! Your sweetheart passed the test earlier than you, so I’ve already sent him out. ” Yu ‘er said with a ‘ don’t worry ‘expression.

Upon hearing Yu ‘er’s words of comfort, Leng Qingtian and the others could not help but lower their heads and laugh. Even the depressed Feng Da laughed. However, seventh elder’s mood did not improve.

“The second elder is not my sweetheart!” The seventh elder glared at him and said through gritted teeth.

“Argh! Did you have a change of heart so quickly? Speak! Who was that mistress? Is it that old man from that day?” The fish said with rich imagination. It didn’t give the seventh elder a chance to explain and continued, “F * ck! I hate mistresses the most in my life! I’m going to find that old man to settle the score!”

After saying that, it hopped away, leaving behind the dumbfounded seventh elder, Feng Da, and the others who were trying to hold back their laughter.

Looking at the seventh elder’s old face that was flushed with anger, Feng Da and the others could not help but laugh wildly, “Hahaha! The seventh elder! Calm down! That fish will never change its mind, so just admit it!” Everyone consoled him.

“I admit it? What am I going to admit? It’s obviously hallucinating, and you still want me to recognize it?” The seventh elder was a little angry from embarrassment. These hateful guys, not only did they not help him, but they also watched the show. It was really infuriating.

“What else can we do? Can you explain it clearly to a fish?” Feng Da held back his laughter as he looked at the poor seventh elder. His mood was much better now.

“Al!” When the seventh elder heard this, he immediately became dejected. It seemed difficult to reason with a fish that only knew what was in its mind.

“Oh right! Did second elder really go out?” The seventh elder asked worriedly. In fact, he didn’t believe the fish’s words.

“Mm! I wanted to go out, but the fish wouldn’t let me. It only sent second elder out.” Feng Da said. As long as he thought of this, he would feel depressed.

“Will second elder be sent to another place by them?” The seventh elder asked doubtfully.

“I don’t think so! There are only three domains in the fantasy Sky, and this is the last one. He must have gone out.” Feng Da said with certainty.

“That’s good!” Hearing Feng DA’s words, the seventh elder finally felt relieved.

“Al! I wonder when we’ll be able to leave here!” Feng Da sighed. He was the one who wanted to go out the most, so why didn’t they let him go? This was really too much.

“Can’t we get out?” The seventh elder couldn’t help but ask after hearing Feng DA’s complaint.

“That rabbit said that we can only go out when at least half of the ning family’s elders wake up. Otherwise, we can only stay here and accompany them.” Feng Da explained.

“Oh! “Then now ...” The seventh elder looked at the other elders who were in a deep sleep. He could not help but stop halfway through his sentence.

“Including you, only two of the ning family’s elders have woken up,” Feng Da said gloomily.

Chapter 1690: We’ll each pay our own bill (3)

“That ... They will wake up. They just need time.” The seventh elder didn’t know how to comfort Feng Da. After all, it was because the elders of the ning family had not woken up, so Feng Da and the others were trapped here. He couldn’t help but feel a little guilty.

“I know!” Feng Da was helpless. In this situation, he had to wait.

Just as the two of them were chatting, a shrill scream suddenly rang out in the space.

“Argh! Help me!”

The voice was very familiar to the seventh elder, because it was the voice of the eleventh elder.

“Is eleventh elder calling for help?” Feng Da couldn’t help but ask after hearing the voice.

“Yes!” The seventh elder said as he wiped the cold sweat off his forehead. At this moment, he really didn’t know what to say. Hearing this voice, the eleventh elder was probably in deep waters.

“Poor eleventh elder, how could that fish recognize him as the third party?” Feng Da was really curious. The current situation was most likely the fish punishing the mistress!

“I don’t know either!” The seventh elder was speechless. Then, he stood up and said, “No! I have to go and take a look.”

“Wait! I suggest you don’t go. If you go now, I’m afraid it will only make the fish even more angry. So, you’d better stay here! Don’t add oil to the fire.” Seeing this, Feng Da quickly pulled the seventh elder back.

“Mm! Seventh elder, what Feng Da said makes sense. You can’t go there now.” Leng Qingtian also advised. After being with the fish for so long, they more or less understood its habits. If the seventh elder went over now, the eleventh elder would be even more unlucky. If things went wrong, even the seventh elder might be caught!

“Ah! Alright then!” The seventh elder unwillingly returned to his seat. However, the occasional screams of the eleventh elder made him feel as if he was sitting on pins and needles.

After a long time.

The 11th elder finally stopped calling out, and Yu ‘er returned, satisfied.

“Little Yu ‘er! Did eleventh elder also pass the test?” Leng Qingtian asked curiously when he saw the fish.

“No, I didn’t! He hadn’t accepted the test yet! The place he’s in right now can’t be tested.” Yu Yu said with a faint smile.

“So you don’t plan to let him take the test?” Leng Qingtian continued to ask.

“Of course, he has to accept the test. However, it’s not now. I don’t want him to ruin the relationship between these two old men. Therefore, I can only isolate him.” The fish pointed at the seventh elder with its fin.

“Oh! You really are a good child! He has a sense of justice!” Leng Qingtian’s face was full of black lines, but he still braced himself to praise her.

“That’s natural! I’ve always abhorred evil.” Yu Yu was getting a little smug from the praise, while the seventh elder’s expression was getting uglier and uglier. He felt like crying but had no tears in his heart. When would he be able to clear his name?

“Let me out! Let me out!” The eleventh elder suddenly shouted.

“Shut up!” The fish roared impatiently. Then, with a flash of white light, it disappeared.

In the blink of an eye, the eleventh elder stopped screaming.

“If it can teleport, why does it jump every time?” Feng Da looked at the disappearing fish and said with a puzzled face.

“Maybe ... It likes this!” Leng Qingtian guessed. It was just like how they used their godly skills to defeat their enemies, but they preferred to use their fists. They enjoyed the feeling of their fists hitting the flesh, and listening to the ‘Bang Bang’ sounds made their hearts feel especially refreshed.

“Which one do you like?” The white light flashed again, and the fish returned. Moreover, he happened to overhear their conversation.

“We said that you can teleport, but you like to jump. That’s what you like.” Leng Qingtian said with a smile.

“Hehe! It really is.” Yu ‘er agreed without the slightest bit of anger.

“Little Yu ‘er, why do you like to jump?” Leng Qingtian’s face was filled with curiosity.

“I like it! There’s nothing urgent!” The fish said matter-of-factly.

“It’s really like that. This is your territory, and everything is within your control. Of course, you should do whatever you want.” Leng Qingtian said.

“MMH! Master grandpa’s words really hit the nail on the head!” Yu Yu also flattered Leng Qingtian.

“Hehe!”

Then, the man and the fish looked at each other and smiled. However, in the eyes of the others, their expressions were a little abnormal.

Especially Leng ruohan, who could not help but widen her eyes and look at her grandfather in disbelief. She thought to herself, ‘is that half-grown old man who is smiling foolishly really my grandfather?’ However, he only dared to think about it in his heart. He definitely didn’t dare to ask. Otherwise, his grandfather would definitely be furious!

Time passed.

After the seventh elder woke up from his dream, several other elders woke up one after another. However, when they woke up, their condition was obviously not as good as the seventh elder’s. They were completely dumbfounded and did not have any reaction for a long time. After a long time, their first sentence was, "I didn't die?"

Every time he saw the reaction of these elders, the seventh elder would have a resentful look on his face and said in a bad mood, "Nonsense! Of course you're not dead!"

Although his tone was a bit bad, seeing the elders he was familiar with wake up safely, the seventh elder was still very happy. However, only a small part of the ning family elders had woken up, and nearly two-thirds of them were still asleep! This fact made him quite depressed.

Ever since the elders had woken up one by one, the seventh elder's main task every day was to carefully observe the condition of the other elders who were still sleeping. His gaze was placed on those elders who were sleeping almost all day. Once he had time, he would stare at them without blinking, afraid that something would happen to them.

Just like that, the days passed by.

The number of ning family elders who had woken up was increasing, and more than half of them had already woken up. However, the White Rabbit did not appear, and the fish did not mention anything about sending them out of this place.

Seeing this, Feng Da couldn't help but ask.

"Rabbit! Come out!" One day, Feng Da finally exploded.

A white light flashed, and a White Rabbit appeared in front of Feng Da, yawning. It said with a displeased look, "What is it? It's so late at night, can't we talk about it during the day?"

"Can you send us out now?" Feng Da said directly.

"Do you really want to get out that badly?" The little white rabbit asked in surprise.

"Of course! We've been here for a long time. " Feng Da gritted his teeth and couldn't take it anymore.

"But there are still elders who haven't woken up! Are you not going to wait for them?" The little white rabbit said innocently.

"Didn't you say that as long as half of the ning family's elder awakens, we can go out?" Feng Da asked.

"That's right. If you want to go out now, I can send you out. But, after you go out, they're still here taking the test. Can you feel at ease?" The little white rabbit asked calmly.

"Little rabbit, what do you mean? Are you going to let us out or not?" Feng Da had run out of patience. He didn't want to play tongue twisters with a rabbit.

"Of course I'll keep my promise and let you all out. However, there are still people who are undergoing the test! If you leave them here, aren't you a little disloyal?" The little white rabbit said with a smile.

"You ..." Feng Da finally understood the White Rabbit's meaning. The damned rabbit just wanted them to be loyal and continue to stay here with the sleeping elders. Although he really wanted to say that the life and death of those elders had nothing to do with him, if he really dared to say that, the rabbit would definitely have something else to say for him. Therefore, after thinking for a while, he obediently closed his mouth.

“If any of you want to leave, tell me! I’ll make the arrangements.” Seeing that Feng Da had fallen silent, the White Rabbit spoke to the others who were still conscious. However, no one dared to respond to its words, because they were afraid that it would accuse them of being disloyal. So, they had no choice but to continue staying in the Nightmare Realm.

After an unknown period of time, the elders who were still in deep sleep finally woke up. Just as they came back to their senses and figured out the truth of the matter, the fish told them a cruel truth. That was, their annual usage fee in this space had expired.

All the elders were dumbfounded.

“That fish! Do we have to pay too?” The seventh elder blinked his eyes and couldn’t believe what he had just heard. He didn’t hear wrong, did he? They had to pay again?

“Of course! Although our friendship is not bad, that is a different matter! The usage fee and our friendship are two different things, we can’t mix them up.” The fish said very seriously.

“But we’ve already passed the test, haven’t we?” The seventh elder could not help but ask.

“You’re right, but you haven’t left this place! You have to pay for the entire day here, so don’t even think about renegeing on your debt!” At the mention of money, the fish had a tendency to turn hostile.

“Actually, I know that you’re all staying here to guard them out of loyalty. So, logically speaking, your expenses should be paid by them. “You can discuss it properly. Let me know when you’ve come to an agreement on who will pay the money. However, what I want to say is that your time is limited. In two days, the third year will begin. If you haven’t left this place by then, you’ll have to pay an additional year’s worth of money. Of course, you can also pay by the day, but the fee for the day will be higher.” Immediately after, Yu ‘er reminded him with a smile.

When the elders heard this, their faces turned green with anger. He was really a blood-sucking fish! They only know how to exploit their money! The elders suppressed their anger and looked at each other. Then, they said in unison, “We’ll each pay our own bills.” They couldn’t stay here for another day.
