Chapter 1751: Crossing the bridge in secret (4)

At this moment, they would never have dreamed that this was a trick played by Bao Bao and the other beasts to intimidate them and gain more bargaining chips for themselves.

After seeing them land, baby walked up to them with a little pride and said, "You've all seen my ability! Now, let's talk about my conditions!"

"En!" The people and beasts in the sphere nodded and looked at the treasure with eager eyes.

"Actually, my request is very simple. You just need to pay me a reward equal to your status, and I'll let you out." Baby said with a smile. There was definitely a trap in its words. Who asked it to not know the identity of these people, so it did not dare to casually state a price. Otherwise, if they could not afford it, then wouldn't they have worked for nothing? Moreover, it didn't want to be a creditor. To put it bluntly, it didn't give credit. Among these people or beasts, whoever could pay the money, it would take them away. Otherwise, they could stay here! It did not have any sympathy.

When the people or beasts in the sphere heard treasure's words, they couldn't help but look at each other. Was he asking them to bid for themselves? However, they were penniless now, so how could they afford the pay?

"Little fox! To be honest, we don't have a single cent right now." One of the whales in the ball said.

"No money? It's fine if you have medicinal herbs and materials of equivalent value. I'll make do with it." Baby thought for a while and said.

"That's not it either! All the good things on us were taken away by the Men in Black when we were caught, so ..." The whale said with some embarrassment. It did not finish its sentence, but it believed that the smart little fox would understand.

"Then what do we do?" Baby was a little dumbfounded. Woo...Its money-making plan! Was the fetus going to die in the womb just like this? No! It was unwilling! He didn't want to work for free!

"Why don't we owe him first? Most of us are respected in the divine realm, so we definitely won't renege on your debt." The whale promised with a hint of anticipation in its eyes.

"I don't buy on credit." Baby said a little gloomily, but in his heart, he was thinking about how to get the good things that the black-clothed man had taken from them into his bag. It seemed that he would have to let Yu Xueyan try it later, hehe! If he could find those things, they would all belong to him. However, it didn't have much hope for this, because there were many places here that feather couldn't see through, such as this secret room.

"Little fox! Seeing that we're all Beastie, please make an exception! Our Beastie is the most trustworthy, we definitely won't go back on our word." The whale pleaded.

“Alright then! Since you’ve said so, I’ll give you face. The beasts can write me an IOU, but humans can’t!” Baby thought for a moment, and then said very seriously. Humans are the most cunning. Except for master and the people around master, it doesn’t like any other human.

“Little fox! You can’t be racist! This is a clear difference in treatment. ” The human trapped in the sphere immediately became anxious when he heard this.

“I have no choice! I’m not a human, and I’m not familiar with you. If you lie to me, who can I cry to?” Baby clearly didn’t believe them. As he said this, his silver eyes revealed a trace of innocence.

“Little fox! To tell you the truth, I’m an elder of the Yao family. Our Yao family is one of the eight great divine regions, and our status is only second to the ning family. So, don’t worry, I won’t lie to you. How about I swear on the Yao family’s reputation? Just trust me!” An old man with a white beard and a Haggard face in the ball said patiently.

“You’re an elder of the Yao family?” Hearing the old man’s words, baby squinted his silver eyes and asked calmly.

“MMH! It seems like you’ve heard of our Yao family, little fox. That’s great. ” The Yao family elder said happily.

Looking at the slightly excited old man, baby’s heart was filled with 120000 points of sympathy for him. Of course, it had heard of the Yao family. Speaking of which, the Yao family seemed to have some grudges with them! However, looking at the old man’s excitement, it really couldn’t bear to discourage him. Sigh! Who asked it to be a kind-hearted little fox!

After thinking about it, the baby spoke again with a cautious expression, “Actually, I can’t bear to leave you in the lurch. But as you all know, we beasts have never had a good impression of humans. However, seeing that you all are quite pitiful, I’ll be kind this time!”

“Little fox, you’re a good beast. Thank you.” The Yao family elder immediately tried to curry favor with his baby.

“Wait! Don’t worry, I’m not done yet!” Baby reminded. Then, it continued, “I can save you, but your reward will be at least twice as much as theirs. Furthermore, you have to swear an oath to your family that if you agree, I will let you out. Otherwise, you can continue to stay here!”

“I ... I agree.” The elder of the Yao family thought for a while and said.

“What about you guys?” Baby’s beautiful silver eyes were flowing with light as she looked at the others in the sphere and asked.

“I also agree!”

“I also agree.”

The people trapped by the sphere expressed their opinions.

Although the people he had saved had agreed to Baby's Request, it was still not happy because these people had no money and had to write an IOU for it. Sob ... It clearly did not want to be a creditor, but the situation forced it!

The depressed baby stood in front of the ball on the ground and imitated the black-clothed man's method, striking out the magic art in his memory. In an instant, the ball broke into pieces, turned into Starlight, and disappeared ...

Chapter 1752: Preparing for a rainy day (1)

As soon as the sphere disappeared, the humans and beasts trapped inside regained their freedom.

They slowly got up from the ground and walked in front of the little fox one by one, saying, "Little fox, thank you for saving us."

Everyone's thanks were sincere, but their gratitude was completely crushed by the treasure.

"You don't have to be so polite. I didn't save you for nothing." Treasure said disapprovingly. Then, he took out a pen and paper from his storage space and handed it to the crowd and the beasts.

When everyone saw this, they all understood what the little fox meant. All the Beastie present also transformed into human form, took a pen and paper, and wrote down the first IOU in their lives.

After keeping the IOU, baby reminded, "Now you can swear an oath. Remember! You must swear on your family's bloodline!"

"What?" Everyone was dumbfounded. Didn't he swear on his family? Why did it become an oath on the bloodline of the family? One had to know that these were two completely different kinds of oaths! Most of the time, swearing on the family name involved the family's reputation or status, while swearing on the family's bloodline involved the descendants. He only owed it a little reward, and he wanted them to swear an oath with their family bloodline. This was a bit too much!

"What, didn't you hear me clearly? I'm asking you to swear on your family bloodline!" Baby asked with a puzzled look. Could it be that its words were difficult to understand?

"That little fox, we won't go back on our word. So, there's no need to swear on our family bloodline, right?" The elder of the Yao family spoke on behalf of the crowd. After all, he was the first one to agree to this. If he didn't do it, he would have offended all the people and beasts present.

"You've misunderstood me. I asked you to swear on your family's bloodline because I'm afraid you won't be able to pay off the debt you owe me, hehe! If you can't pay them back, you'll have to ask the descendants of your respective families to pay them back. That's why I want you to swear on your family bloodline. In this way, they can't deny it even if they want to." Baby explained.

"I don't have any intention of asking you to curse your own descendants!" Baby added, worried.

This time, everyone and the beasts understood. However, they were still a little unwilling in their hearts. After all, it involved their own family's descendants, so they had to be careful.

Seeing that the crowd and the beasts were silent for a long time, treasure smiled again, "It seems that you want to go back on your word. It doesn't matter, I, a great beast, am magnanimous and won't hold it against you. You can slowly stay here and wait for your death!"

"Little fox! You've misunderstood, we're thinking about how to make the oath!" The whale quickly said. He had to calm down this bad-tempered little fox first. Otherwise, if it left, they could only wait for death here.

"Is there a need to think about this?" Baby raised its eyebrows. It didn't believe the whale at all.

"Of course we have to consider it. It's fine if we swear on our own, but this concerns our future generations, so we have to be careful." The Yao clan elder said with a serious expression.

"Old man! You care so much about your descendants, but when you were trapped here, did they come to save you?" Baby said with a hint of ridicule. In fact, it was well aware that these old foxes who thought they were cunning were afraid that it would use the oath to threaten their descendants. In fact, it wanted to say, "you're thinking too much. In its eyes, their descendants are not worth mentioning at all." However, in order to prevent these old guys from falling out with it, it had no choice but to ask them to swear on their family bloodline. It did not expect them to still be hesitant. If it had known this earlier, it really should not have saved them! The treasure was filled with hatred!

"Uh! They don't know that we're trapped here, and with their strength, they won't be able to come back even if they come to save us." The Yao clan elder said somewhat embarrassedly.

"We already know, how could they not know? Then isn't your Yao clan's Information Network a little too lacking?" The baby sneered at the Yao family elder's words. This old man was clearly finding excuses for his descendants and giving him face. If they were weak, could the Yao family's strength be weaker than theirs? They all dared to come in, but where was the Yao family?

"Uh!" The Yao family elder was completely out of power. This little fox really had a sharp tongue! He realized that he couldn't outtalk it! This fact made him a little depressed.

"What's with the 'uh'? Have you guys considered it? I'll give you five more minutes. If you're still hesitating after five minutes, I'll leave you guys be." Baby made the final announcement.

"Little fox! We don't know how to say this oath, why don't you give us an example?" The whale said carefully when it saw that its baby was unhappy.

"You're still the smartest, you can even teach your beast taming!" Baby said politely.

"Listen up! I, so-and-so, owe my precious master a reward of double my status. Now, I swear by the bloodline of the family that I will do my best to pay off the debt in my lifetime. If the debt is not paid off in my lifetime, my family's descendants have the obligation and responsibility to carry on this debt until the debt is paid off." Baby cleared his throat and said.

"By the way, Beastie's pay is double, don't make a mistake." Baby added.

"En!" The whale nodded and helplessly swore.

Following that, people began to swear on their bloodlines, and the contract rules continued to descend in the secret chamber ...

After a long time.

After everyone and the beasts had finished their vows, baby smiled in satisfaction and added, "I forgot to tell you that my debt has a time limit. You have to pay it off within a month. Otherwise, there will be interest, hehe! The interest is a compound interest! Therefore, you must make the best use of your time."

The baby's additional explanation made everyone and the beasts so angry that they almost vomited blood. What did she mean by 'forgot to say'? this detestable little fox clearly did not want to say it on purpose. Now that they had finished swearing on their bloodline, she told them about this waste of time. This was clearly not giving them a chance to regret! However, now that things had come to this, they really had no room for regret.

Moreover, they finally understood why this evil little fox wanted them to swear on their family's bloodline. It turned out that she treated them as a long-term meal ticket. As long as they couldn't pay off their debts on time, they and their descendants would have to run around to pay off their debts in the future. This fact made their joy of being rescued vanish.

Seeing their troubles, baby said in a very understanding manner, "Actually, you don't have to be so depressed. As long as you pay off your debts within a month, everything will be fine, right? Don't forget, the reward I ask for is equal to your own status. It's only double that of a human 'S. So, you can do as you see fit. Pay me however much you think you're worth. There's no need to be so embarrassed. I don't mind how much you pay me, really!"

Baby's words were reasonable, but it was completely not the case in the ears of the people present. Many people could not help but think in their hearts, "you didn't say how much we should pay you, but you said you want a reward equal to our status. In other words, they will pay each other however much they think they are worth, and every person or beast here more or less has some reputation in the immortal realm, so they naturally wouldn't do something that would lower their own status." It wouldn't be good if word got out. How would they face others in the future? Therefore, even if it was for the sake of their own face, the price they offered couldn't be too low! Otherwise, he would not have the face to continue living in the divine realm in the future.

"That ... We don't have any money now. If we can't leave this Mystic realm within a month, how are we going to settle this?" The Yao family elder asked after some thought.

"That will count as interest. After all, we are only responsible for bringing you out of this secret chamber. As for whether you can leave this secret realm or not, it is not within our scope of consideration." Baby said matter-of-factly.

“Little fox! This won’t do! You brought us out of here, so you can’t just leave us alone! With our current physical condition, if you don’t care about us, it won’t be long before we’ll be caught again.” The whale quickly said in fear.

“Yup! You can’t just abandon us.” The other humans and beasts also chimed in.

“What, you’re still counting on me to finish the whole pack? Besides, I’m not human.” Baby said in an unpleasant tone.

“Little fox! You’re the kindest and most adorable little fox, you won’t leave me in the lurch, right?” The whale coaxed.

“You’re wrong! Although I’m cute, I’m not kind. I’ll definitely not save you if I see you in danger. Besides, don’t you know that I saved you for money? So, you don’t have to flatter me. I don’t buy it.” Baby said arrogantly as he turned his head.

“However, if you want me to take you out of the mystic realm, you’ll have to pay extra. And I can tell you clearly that our escort fee is very expensive!” Then, the baby changed the topic and brought up money again.

When everyone and the beasts heard baby’s words, they all wiped their sweat. F * ck! I’ve never seen a Fox that likes money so much. What’s wrong with it having eyes for money? Of course, they would never have dreamed that the baby wanted to accumulate wealth so desperately, all for the sake of its lovely master.

Seeing that the people and beasts present were silent again, baby smiled and said, “Hehe! If you want to seek our protection, then write me an IOU and make a bloodline oath! If you can’t pay it all off, don’t you have your descendants to help you? So, don’t feel any pressure and think about it!”

Baby’s words made everyone look at each other and speechless. They really didn’t know what to say. This little fox was not just greedy for money! Moreover, they couldn’t find any fault in its words, so it made them feel even more depressed.

“Little fox! If we accept your escort, can you guarantee that you can bring us out of here safely?” The whale asked again after a while.

“This is a must! The escort fee will be paid within a month of your departure. If there is any delay, the interest will also be compounded. However, I will not be responsible for your clothing, food, accommodation, and transportation here. If it is up to me to arrange it, the cost will also be calculated separately.” The treasure’s Silver eyes quickly flashed with a trace of calculation as it explained.

This time, baby’s words were very clear, but everyone or the beasts were very depressed when they heard it. However, it was a good thing that their strength was there. They didn’t need to eat anything and could just find a place to spend the night. Therefore, they didn’t need to trouble the little fox in terms of food, clothing, shelter, and transportation, they thought.

“Little fox! We can take care of our own basic needs.” Everyone looked at each other and said in unison.

“Mm! Alright then! You only need to pay me one million top-grade crystals or medicinal herbs, ores, and materials of the same value, and I promise to bring you out of the secret realm.” Baby said with a faint smile.

“What? A million? You’re a robber!” When the crowd and beasts heard this number, they were all dumbfounded.

“Do you think it’s easy to bring you old, weak, sick, and disabled out of the secret realm? In my opinion, this amount of money is too little!” Baby raised his cute little head and said with an aggrieved face.

“You’re trapped in the secret realm, so you should know better than anyone else how dangerous and terrifying this secret realm is. Otherwise, how could you have been captured with your strength? And we’re taking a risk by bringing you guys out, so how can we be at peace if we don’t ask for more money? Why would we be willing to take you guys with us?” Without giving them a chance to speak, baby’s Silver eyes were filled with tears as he argued.

“Uh!” Baby’s words made everyone speechless once again. They were indeed a burden now. However, as long as they thought of how much money this little fox had asked them for, their hearts ached.

Baby saw through their thoughts and said with great sincerity, “Money is just a worldly possession. Do you think a mere one million top-grade crystal stones is worth less than your life? If you really value money more than your lives, then I have nothing to say. After all, this is your choice. We’ll meet again! I hope that I’ll still be able to see your figures in the divine realm in the future. I look forward to the day we meet again.”

After saying that, baby took small steps and planned to leave.

“Wait!” Seeing that the treasure was about to leave, the whale quickly said.

“Is there anything else?” Baby turned his head and asked.

“I’m willing to pay one million top-grade crystals, but I don’t have that much, so I can only use materials as payment.” The whale thought ruthlessly, ‘this little fox is right. Money is just a worldly possession. What’s the use of money if I don’t even have my life?’ Therefore, he was the first to think things through. He could not be with those anthropology checks that liked to take advantage of small gains, or he would suffer a big loss!

“No problem. I don’t care what you offer as a mortgage. As long as it’s of the same value, I’ll take it.” Baby said with a smile, obviously very satisfied with this whale’s way of doing things. Moreover, this fish was the first one to take the bait when it was playing hard to get, so it deserved its special treatment.

“You’re the first customer to ask us to escort you, so I should give you some benefits. I’ll pay for all your food, clothing, accommodation, and transportation, so I won’t ask you for extra money.” Baby thought for a while and continued.

“Thank you,” he said. The whale was speechless. It didn’t think that it needed to be provided with food, clothing, and accommodation. However, when it saw the food, clothing, accommodation, and transportation, it realized how wise its decision was.

Baby saw the whale’s disapproving look and didn’t explain much. Instead, he turned his eyes to the others.

Chapter 1754: Preparing for a rainy day (3)

“If you don’t need our escort, then let’s part ways! I wish you all good luck!” Treasure said straightforwardly, but there was a faint anger in its heart. These guys won’t shed tears until they see their coffins. It should really let those black-clothed men feed them all to the fish. It thought in its heart.

“I request your escort.” A rather petite man said in a low voice. He was also a Beastie, and his home was in the endless sea. He wanted to return home safely, so he needed their help.

“No problem,” he said. Baby nodded in satisfaction. Very good, another one has taken the bait.

Soon after, another beast requested for the escort of the treasure. Just like that, all the beasts present agreed to the sky-high escort fee, while no one from the human side had agreed to it yet.

Seeing this, Baobao didn’t bother to ask for their opinions. He led the beasts who wanted to be escorted out of the secret room. When the Yao family elders and the others saw this, they immediately became anxious.

Their bodies were extremely weak, and if no one protected them, their lives would be in danger. None of them wanted to die.

“Little fox! Wait a minute, let’s have a good discussion!” The Yao family elder, who had received everyone’s gazes, hurriedly said.

“What’s there to discuss? Since your lives aren’t as important as money, I can only leave you to your own devices.” Baby said without the slightest bit of sympathy.

“Little fox, it’s not that we don’t want to spend money, but your fees are too high, we can’t afford it!” The Yao family elder said with a pained expression.

“What a joke. If these orcs can afford it, why can’t you elders of large clans? If you want to deduct money, just deduct it. Don’t find excuses for yourself, okay? Otherwise, I’ll look down on you!” Baby said.

“It is! They just can’t bear to part with money. Little fox, don’t care about their life or death. Humans and our beast race are not the same.” The whale said, adding insult to injury. Of course, he said this to please the baby. Who asked this little fox to be his life-saving talisman now!

“That’s right!” All the beasts agreed. After their lives were guaranteed, they were naturally incompatible with humans. Therefore, they all added insult to injury.

“Little fox! These humans were rich! If you charge us one million top-grade crystals, I think we can raise the price a bit if we charge them. They can afford it.” A Beastie suggested considerately. He was also playing into the little fox’s favor.

“That’s a good idea, then we’ll take them in ...” Baobei smiled evilly and was about to say a new number. When the Yao family elders and the others saw this, they glared at Beastie who had come up with this bad idea. Then, they smiled kindly at Baobei and said, “One million top-grade crystals, we agree. It’s a deal! You’re a good Fox, so you can’t just set a price on the spot.”

“Alright then!” Baby deliberately put on a reluctant look, but in his heart, he was already laughing. Hehe! No matter how cunning these humans were, how could they scheme against a Fox!

Then, baby arranged for them to write a new IOU. Of course, they had to make a bloodline oath as well. After all, these two were different names.

After everything was settled, Ling appeared and cast an invisibility spell on everyone and the beasts. Then, everyone left the secret room together. Before they left, baby also took away those who were unconscious in the sphere. These were all potential customers! He couldn’t let them go either.

As soon as they left the secret room, baby ran to the Yao family elder and whispered a few words to him. Instantly, the Yao family elder’s face turned ugly, but he couldn’t resist the temptation and finally nodded with a black face. Then, the man and beast sneakingly returned to the secret room ...

The Mei led a few small beasts and the large crowd behind her. They went around the black-robed men outside the valley and stood behind Leng ruoxue and the others.

After leaving the valley and not being discovered by the black-robed men, everyone and the beasts immediately felt relieved. It seemed that the money they had spent was worth it! This invisibility technique was also very useful. No one actually sensed their existence. This time, their little lives were finally saved, and their hearts that had been hanging in the air all this time were finally put at ease.

Not long after, baby with a wicked smile and the Yao family elder also returned to the group.

“Treasure! Where did you go this time?” Mei couldn’t help but ask curiously.

“Hehe! I’ve left some mementos for the flower. I believe it will never forget it.” Baby’s smile was very evil. It knew that there was something strange with that flower, so how could it be left there unscathed? That was not his baby’s character.

“What did you do?” The Mei asked uneasily.

“I didn’t do anything, I just added something to the blood pool!” Baby said in a mysterious manner.

“What did you add?” Mei qiaogen asked.

“Uh! It can’t be that Yao family elder’s urine, right?” Mei’s forehead was filled with black lines.

“How could that old man agree to your request?” The Mei said with some admiration.

“Hehe! I promised to charge him 100000 top-grade crystals less, so he agreed.” Baby explained.

“You’re amazing!” The Mei was full of admiration for the baby.

“No big deal! Actually, I have another reason for looking for this old man.” Baby said, deliberately mystified.

“What’s the purpose?” Mei’s eyes widened as she shamelessly asked.

“He’s from the Yao family. In the future, if there’s any sign of trouble in the Yao family, we can go and ask him. He’ll definitely tell us everything he knows,” Baby said confidently.

“Nothing you don’t know? Would he be so obedient to tell us about the Yao family?” The Mei was suspicious of her baby’s overconfident words.

“He can choose not to tell us. However, if he doesn’t tell us, I’ll make the matter of him peeing in the blood pool public. I’ll see if he still has the face to continue living in the divine realm in the future. Furthermore, if the black-clothed men here know about this matter, they will definitely not let him off.” Baby said with a scheming look.

“You’re ruthless!” Mei wiped the cold sweat from her forehead, feeling sympathy for the Yao family elder. Poor old man! You still don’t know what you’ve gotten yourself into! Colluding with baby would only result in him being schemed against until nothing was left.

“I’m just preparing for a rainy day!” Baby said with a faint smile. Then, he jumped into Leng ruoxue’s arms and kept rubbing against her. While he was invisible, he wanted to take advantage of his cute master’s tender tofu. After all, such opportunities were rare.

Leng ruoxue felt the movement in her arms and sighed helplessly. Then, her beautiful eyes turned towards the middle-aged man.

Previously, she had already made a deal with the middle-aged man. However, less than 300 people had been handed over to her, and none of them were the ones she was most familiar with. However, Leng ruoxue was relieved. As long as her Godfather did not fall into the hands of these Men in Black, it was fine. Otherwise, she was really afraid that her Godfather, The great elder, and the rest would end up like these people, being tortured beyond recognition and becoming thin to the bone.

Chapter 1755: Preparing for a rainy day (4)

“When will you leave the rest of the people to me?” Leng ruoxue asked with a smile.

“As soon as I find them, I’ll immediately hand them over to you.” The middle-aged man said.

“That’s good! I’ll be waiting for your good news, but don’t let me find them first! Otherwise, our deal can’t be completed.” Leng ruoxue reminded. If the transaction could not be completed, it would naturally mean that the transaction had failed.

“This is my territory. You can’t find them before me.” The middle-aged man said confidently.

“Good luck then!” Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

After she finished speaking, she led everyone back to the house, and the middle-aged man also returned to the valley with his subordinates.

As for the pitiful Cheng Xian 'er, she was completely ignored by both sides. The unconscious Cheng Xian' er lay on the cold ground with no one caring about her.

After entering the house, the old man and the rest immediately gave Leng ruoxue a deep bow to thank her for saving their lives. However, at the same time, they were certain that they did not know this human lady.

"You old dolphin, I didn't think that there would be a day when you would be in such a sorry state!" Uncle long said to the old man. It was obvious that he was very familiar with this man.

However, the old man did not recognize uncle long. He only felt that this person's aura was somewhat familiar, but he could not remember where he had seen this person before.

"You are ..." The old man was a little suspicious, and there was a trace of confusion in his eyes.

"I'm your uncle long!" Uncle long said loudly.

"Argh! Uncle long! It's actually you, old man!" The old man was suddenly enlightened. No wonder he felt that this person was somewhat familiar. It turned out to be that person!

As for the beasts of the endless ocean, after hearing the two words 'uncle long', they immediately became excited, as if they had been injected with chicken blood. This person was too famous in the endless sea. He was a god-like existence! He was also their idol.

However, uncle long had always lived in seclusion and rarely came into contact with the beasts of the endless ocean. Therefore, most of them had only heard of his name and had never seen him in person. Therefore, it was actually the first time for many of the beasts to see uncle Long's true appearance, and this fact made them even more excited.

"Uncle long!"

In the blink of an eye, uncle long was surrounded by the sea beasts that had transformed into humans.

"Hmph! What did I tell you? Didn't I tell you not to come here? However, none of you were willing to listen. Now, if it wasn't for the little girl who saved you, I'm afraid I wouldn't even be able to see your corpses." Compared to the beasts' enthusiasm, uncle Dragon's expression was rather cold. Furthermore, the first thing he said was to reprimand them. However, none of the beasts dared to refute his words.

"Uncle long! We know we were wrong." The old man lowered his head and said with some shame.

"It's too late for you to realize your mistakes. Your life force is almost exhausted. All on your own!" Uncle long sighed and said helplessly.

To cultivators, although their cultivation was important, their life force was their Foundation. However, it was clear that these people in front of him had their life force taken away by someone else. This was even more despicable than destroying their cultivation. This kind of behavior was absolutely forbidden in the divine world. Therefore, uncle long could not think of anyone who had the guts to do such a thing in the divine world. Was he not afraid of being punished by the heavens?

“Little girl, thank you for saving them.” Uncle long shifted his gaze to Leng ruoxue.

“Uncle long, you’re too polite.” Leng ruoxue smiled. With a thought, a blue mini Dolphin appeared in front of everyone.

“Ancestor!” As soon as the little dolphin appeared, it immediately pounced toward the old man.

“Little Qi! What are you doing here?” The old man looked at the little dolphin in his arms and said in surprise.

“I came in with my master.” The little dolphin said honestly.

“Master? You’ve recognized a human as your master?” The old man said in disbelief. Their Dolphin race had always been proud. Since ancient times, it was rare for them to acknowledge a human as their master. He did not expect that after not seeing each other for a long time, his most beloved junior would actually find a master. This could not help but surprise him.

“Its master is the little girl who saved you.” Uncle long added.

“Oh! Little girl, thank you for saving us.” The old man thanked him again. Since things had come to this, there was no point in saying more.

“You’re welcome. The little dolphin is my Beastie. Naturally, I won’t just stand by and watch its family fall into the hands of those black-clothed men.” Leng ruoxue answered honestly.

“Thank you for saving my life, miss.” At this moment, the other sea beasts once again expressed their gratitude to Leng ruoxue.

After they finished speaking, baby immediately revealed itself and brought the person it brought out to Leng ruoxue. With a pale face, it said, “Cute master! We’ve also brought back the people who weren’t on the list. However, I’ve accepted their payment, baby. This is their IOU. In addition, they’ve also made a bloodline oath, so don’t worry, master! They won’t dare to renege on their debt.” After saying that, baby handed the IOU to Leng ruoxue.

“You’re so capable, baby!” Leng ruoxue looked at the thick stack of IOUs in her hands, her forehead full of black lines. What could she say? In fact, she had sent her Beastie to the bottom of the valley just to let them sneak some people out from there. But they had taken the liberty to charge a fee, uh! Not bad! As expected of her Beastie, it had her style ...

Chapter 1756: Treasure hunt (1)

Leng ruoxue was a person who pampered her magical beast. Therefore, no matter what outrageous things her magical beast had done, it was good. She could clearly see that when her precious beast took out those IOUs and explained the matter to her, some people’s faces immediately turned ugly. However, these people did not have much to do with her, so she did not care about their feelings. As long as her magical beast was happy, that was all that mattered.

“My lovely master! My baby can also earn money for you.” Baby blinked his silver eyes as tears welled up in his eyes and he sighed.

“En!” Leng ruoxue picked up baby’s fluffy little body and caressed its fur. Baby closed its eyes in enjoyment, causing the other beasts to be extremely jealous.

“Master! Without me, there’s no way they’ll be able to get out of there.” Ling Xi pouted and reminded him unhappily. It was also a hero! How did he get cast aside?

“Master! There’s still me! I’ve also contributed.” The referee also warned in an extremely dissatisfied manner.

“Good! Good! You all did well!” Leng ruoxue coaxed them one by one. She was amused. Under such a serious situation, these little beasts actually got jealous. She didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

“Hahaha! Little girl, with these little fellows, your life must be very lively!” Uncle long, who was watching from the side, couldn’t help but laugh.

“Yup!” Leng ruoxue nodded helplessly.

“Argh! I’ve forgotten something very important!” Suddenly, the baby cried out without caring about his image.

Leng ruoxue was astonished. What was wrong with her baby? Why are you so surprised?

“Master!” Baby called out softly and then whispered into Leng ruoxue’s ear.

Leng ruoxue’s expression turned odd after she heard that.

“Uncle long! I’ll have to trouble you to accompany them!” Leng ruoxue said helplessly. Earlier on, baby actually told her that it had forgotten to search for the treasures in the valley and wanted to go back to look for them! Now that the Men in Black had returned to the bottom of the valley, how could she let it go back at ease? although they could turn invisible, she was still worried. Therefore, she could only trouble uncle long, a senior with unfathomable strength, to help.

“Alright!” Even though uncle long did not know where this little girl wanted him to go with her Beastie, he would not reject her request since Leng ruoxue had saved so many of the Beastie’s lives in the endless sea.

“Ling, Yu! Let’s go!” Baby called for two of the most important Beastie in this operation, then jumped on uncle Long’s body and left the house invisibly.

Upon entering the valley, uncle long couldn’t help but ask curiously, “Little guys, you just came out of there safely, why did you go in again?” Uncle long was very puzzled. No wonder the little girl asked him to come along. These little guys really made him feel uneasy.

“Uncle long! To be honest, we’re here for the good treasures in this Valley, hehe! I heard that these Men in Black were quite rich, so we decided to rob the rich to help the poor, and kill them all.” Baby said with a smile, his little face full of pride.

“This is a good idea! However, do you know the location of the treasure?” Uncle long asked calmly. He should have guessed that the little girl’s Beastie was different, and now it seemed that it was true!

“We don’t know!” Baby said with a silly smile.

“Uh! You dare to come in without knowing?” Uncle long was dumbfounded for a moment after hearing baby’s words. In fact, what he wanted to say was, why are you still so happy? Those who didn’t understand the situation would think that it had found a good treasure.

“Hehe! I have to explore it!” Baby said matter-of-factly.

“...” Uncle long couldn’t help but wipe the cold sweat off his forehead. Now he was even more certain that the little girl had made the right decision to let him accompany her in. Otherwise, this hot-headed little fox might have ruined things!

“Treasure! The Men in Black have already returned to the valley, and their leader’s strength is on par with mine. So, even if we are invisible, we have to be careful, understand?” After being stunned for a while, uncle long spoke earnestly. Otherwise, he was really worried that this cute little fox who liked to run around would cause trouble for him. If he couldn’t bring these three little fellows back safely, how could he face Leng ruoxue’s request? Therefore, he had to keep a close eye on them.

“MMH! Uncle long, don’t worry! The feather can see through things, we will only enter the place it can see! “Ah!” No, we’ll only enter places where it can see treasures. We won’t enter places where it can’t see through!” The treasure reassured uncle long, but the cautious uncle long still didn’t dare to let his guard down.

Uncle long followed behind the three little beasts, keeping only a few steps away from them. His eyes were also very vigilant of his surroundings. It was a pity that his divine sense couldn’t be used here, otherwise, he would have known the situation further away.

“Yu! How is it, did you find it?” After searching for a while, treasure asked impatiently.

“Not yet!” Feather’s eyes glowed with a dim light as she stared at each door for a while. Then, she shook her head and walked to the next room.

There were at least 800 to 1000 rooms in the valley. Therefore, after looking through all the rooms one by one, Yu could not take it anymore. His eyes started to ripple.

Yu quickly crouched down to rest. The black feathers on his body were already drenched in cold sweat.

Seeing this, baby walked to its side with a worried look, “Yu! How are you? If you’re too tired, we can go back.” The baby was very considerate. Although it wanted to steal the good treasures in the valley, its companion’s health was more important. If it tired Yu out while looking for treasures, it would feel guilty.

“I’m fine! I’ll be fine after a short rest.” Yu raised his head and said softly. In fact, the reason why he was working so hard was because he was eager to find a treasure to give to his master.

“Then have a good rest. Quickly eat this!” Baby took out a divine power replenishing pill and handed it to Yu.

“I have one too! You can keep it for yourself!” Yu declined politely. As a Beastie’s master, the thing he didn’t lack the most was pills. After he finished speaking, he took out his own pill and ate one. Immediately, his complexion became much better.

Uncle long looked at the two little beasts in surprise as they casually took out pills to replenish their divine power. The spiritual Qi flowing on the pills gave off a faint glow. With one look, one could tell that they were no ordinary pills. He immediately felt a little depressed.

They were both beasts, but why was it that his life was so bitter, while these two little beasts could casually take out such good pills? He was a little jealous! However, if he knew that Leng ruoxue’s Beastie was simply eating these divine pills as snacks, he would probably be so depressed that he would vomit blood.

Chapter 1757: Treasure hunt (2)

“This pill is so high grade.” Uncle long exclaimed. Actually, he wanted to ask them where they got the pills, but he was too embarrassed to ask.

“Of course, it’s made by my lovely master, how could it be ordinary!” Baby said with a smug look. After he finished speaking, he ate the pill in his hand into his stomach as if it was a matter of course. He had already taken it out, so he couldn’t put it back!

“The little girl made this?” Uncle long was a little surprised by this answer. However, what he couldn’t accept even more was that the treasure had directly eaten the pill that he had taken out.

This was really a waste of God’s gift! That little fox was fine, so how could it directly eat such a good quality pill? One must know that during the battle between the two sides, any one of those pills was enough to change the outcome of the battle and determine the winner. But now, it was eaten by a lively little fox. Was there a situation more wasteful than this? Uncle long almost went crazy.

“MMH! The pills my lovely master concocted are delicious, sweet and fragrant, making us love them more than we can let go. When we’re free, we’ll eat some to satisfy our appetite. ” The treasure was white again, and uncle Long’s face was full of tears.

Wu ... Uncle long couldn’t be jealous anymore. It seemed like comparing beasts to beasts would really anger beasts to death! Why was he living such a good life? Not only did he eat and drink well every day, but he also ate Supreme-grade medicinal pills as if they were rice? He could no longer describe what he was feeling right now. He only knew that he had been dealt a huge blow.

After a moment of silent contemplation, uncle long made a very difficult decision. He decided to cling onto Leng ruoxue, this thick and strong leg!

He didn’t ask for the same treatment as the little girl’s Beastie, as long as enough food was prepared for him every day. Recently, he had been fascinated by those delicious foods and didn’t dare to imagine how he would live without those foods.

After spending so much time with the little girl and the others, he did not dare to imagine how he would feel if he returned to that uninhabited oceanic trench! Sob ... It was so painful!

Uncle long stood beside Yu and was remorseful. Yu, who had already rested, flew up into the air in high spirits. Then, he began to search room by room ...

After searching for a long time, they searched the houses in the valley like a carpet, but found nothing. Suddenly, baby became a little depressed.

“How could this be? Could it be that those black-clothed men have moved the treasure away?” Baby frowned and said unhappily.

“Treasure! Calm down! This Valley isn’t small, and we haven’t finished looking! Don’t be disheartened!” Yu consoled.

“That’s true!” When baby heard this, he immediately became energetic again. He looked at Yu with stars in his eyes and said, “Yu! Why don’t we go to that middle-aged man’s place and take a look? Maybe that miser has brought all the good treasures with him!”

The baby looked at them expectantly, but uncle long objected, “No! It’s too dangerous there. If he finds us, we’ll be in trouble. ”

“Uncle long! We’ll be careful and not let him find out! You forgot that we are invisible!” Baby persuaded, but in his heart, he was thinking, sigh! He was a person with a high cultivation! She just liked to be careful, unlike them, who liked to mess around and let go.

“Treasure! That guy is a reverent God. Even if he can’t see you, you’ll still be in danger if he discovers an unfamiliar aura. So, I can’t let you take this risk. Otherwise, if something happens to you, I won’t be able to explain it to the little girl. ” Uncle long said honestly.

“Then we’ll just watch from the outside, right? We’re not going in!” Baby bargained.

“Alright then! However, you have to listen to me when we get there. ” Uncle long knew that the little fox was a little stubborn, so he took a step back.

“Yes, yes!” The three little beasts nodded their heads vigorously, extremely obedient.

Uncle long smiled helplessly at their cuteness. Then, he carried them in his arms and walked into a dark passage.

That passage just happened to lead to where the middle-aged man was. This was also what he had heard from the black-clothed men. Therefore, it was not difficult for him to find where the middle-aged man was.

“Conceal your auras, don’t let him detect you.” Uncle long reminded them as they approached the entrance of the palace.

“En!” “Yes,” the three little beasts replied and quietly lay in uncle Long’s arms.

Uncle long approached the entrance of the hall and pricked up his ears to listen to the movements inside. At the same time, he sighed. He didn’t expect that he would have a day where he could eavesdrop!

At this moment, in the palace where the middle-aged man was, he was sitting on the throne with a gloomy face. Below him were many black-clothed men kneeling. All of them had their heads lowered and their bodies were trembling.

“Bang!” A divine power as thick as a baby’s arm shot out from the middle-aged man’s palm. The pillar in the hall shattered into two, and the fear in the black-clothed man’s heart deepened.

“Master, please calm your anger!” The Men in Black said hurriedly.

“Calm your anger? How do you expect me to calm down? Everyone in the secret chamber has disappeared, and you’ve found nothing, not a single clue. Hmph! If you’re so useless, what’s the point of keeping you?” The middle-aged man’s face was black as he said angrily.

Initially, he was quite happy that he had reached an agreement with Leng ruoxue. However, who knew that not long after he returned to the valley, his subordinates would report that the humans and beasts locked in the secret chamber had all disappeared. This haggardness immediately caused his expression to change. After all, this was not a small matter! If his Lord found out about this, they would all be punished, and their Lord’s anger was definitely not something they could bear. Even if he was a reverent-God, as long as he thought of his Lord’s means, he would feel afraid!

The middle-aged man’s reprimand rendered the Men in Black kneeling before him speechless, because they really couldn’t find any clues. However, it was a good thing that the flower in the blood pool was safe and sound. Otherwise, they would probably be beheaded now.

“Master! Those Rascals who sneaked into the valley and rescued the ‘materials’ we locked up in the secret room were indeed very mysterious and impossible to guard against. Moreover, this subordinate investigated very carefully and there were no signs of human destruction in the secret room, so this subordinate concluded that they walked into the secret room openly.” A black-clothed man who was closest to the middle-aged man said. Because he was usually highly regarded by his master, he was the only one who dared to say such a thing at this time. However, when he said this, the Guard’s face turned ashen, because it meant that the guard had seriously failed in his duty.

“You’re saying that there’s a traitor?” The middle-aged man said indifferently.

“Master! This subordinate is innocent!” As soon as the middle-aged man finished speaking, the Man in Black who was guarding the secret room immediately cried out.

“Master! No one dared to betray him. What I mean is that the other party might have some secret technique to enter the secret room without being discovered.” The black-clothed man guessed and looked at the black-clothed man guarding the secret room without a sound. At this time, they were all like grasshoppers on a vine. If one person made a mistake, everyone would be implicated. Therefore, it was not a wise choice to push out a scapegoat. Therefore, the most important thing now was to get rid of the suspicion of their dereliction of duty, not to hit them when they were down.

Chapter 1758: Treasure hunt (3)

“Right! It definitely was! Otherwise, it’s impossible that we didn’t feel anything at all! Master is wise! We’ve never left the door of the secret chamber! If an outsider really did enter the secret chamber, we’ll definitely be able to sense it. ” The black-clothed man guarding the secret room quickly said, and cast a grateful glance at the black-clothed man from before. He had thought that the man was trying to hit him when he was down! It seemed that he had misunderstood.

“Then who do you think has the ability to bring away those dying people and beasts in the divine realm without anyone knowing?” The middle-aged man said with a headache. He knew that his subordinates were telling the truth, but the anger in his heart was stuck in his chest, and he had no way to vent it. This made him more and more frustrated!

“This ... It’s possible that some reclusive reverent God came to save them.” A Man in Black said in a low voice.

“A hidden reverent God? Who would have such an ability?” The middle-aged man furrowed his brows as he pondered. Actually, after the theft, the first person he suspected was that damned woman. However, he then recalled that Leng ruoxue was waiting outside the valley to make a deal with him and had no time to commit a crime. Moreover, with her strength, it was impossible for her to sneak into the valley and rescue those people without anyone noticing. Hence, after some thought, he ruled out Leng ruoxue as a suspect. But who else could it be if not Leng ruoxue? He couldn’t think of this person even after cracking his head.

“Could it be one of those family heads?” The Man in Black thought for a moment. Other than them, he didn’t think there was anyone else who had that kind of strength. However, it didn’t seem possible for those family heads to rescue her without anyone knowing! Unless they had some unknown means.

“Go and contact our hidden chess piece and ask him to quickly tell us their location.” The middle-aged man ordered his subordinates.

“Master! Didn’t his Lord order that the hidden chess piece can not be touched?” The Man in Black looked at his master with some worry. He was afraid that his master would expose the existence of the hidden chess piece, which would anger his master. At that time, they would also be in trouble. This was the so-called “one for all”! One had to know that their fates were closely related to their master.

“We’re in a critical period right now, so we can’t care so much. However, be careful when you contact him. Don’t let him be exposed. ” The middle-aged man was worried. The hidden chess piece was planted by his master. At this time, he was following the old men. Originally, he had no excuse to contact the hidden chess piece and ask him for their specific location. However, after this incident, he had a good excuse to find out their location from the hidden chess piece. In this way, he could find the people that the little girl wanted. This was really killing two birds with one stone. As soon as he thought of the people who had gone missing in the secret chamber, his mood would sink again.

“In addition, when you ask him, if that hidden chess piece has any dissatisfaction, don’t forget to remind him that he is also one of the people in charge of this secret realm. Now that such a thing has happened, he can’t escape the blame! There’s no need to say anything else, he’ll understand. ” The middle-aged man added.

“Yes!” The Man in Black received the order and immediately turned to leave this place of trouble.

After he left, the middle-aged man’s face became serious again, and his mind wandered without a word.

The other Men in Black knelt on the ground, not daring to move.

Suddenly, the earth trembled and the entire Hall shook ...

Seeing this, the middle-aged man stood up from his throne and loudly ordered, "Go and see what happened. Is there anyone attacking?"

"Yes!" The Man in Black who was kneeling on the ground quickly ran out after receiving the order.

Not long after, the Man in Black who had left ran back in a panic.

"Master! Something big had happened! The bloodcherry blossoms in the secret chamber are enraged!" The Man in Black shouted.

"What? How did this happen?" The middle-aged man's face turned pale. This was no small matter! This meant that ...

"Quickly go and take a look!" The middle-aged man didn't dare to waste a single moment. After he finished speaking, he took the lead and ran out of the hall. The black-clothed men followed closely behind.

In the blink of an eye, the entire Hall was empty. After they left, treasure and the other beasts swaggered in.

"Yu! See if there's anything unusual here!" Baby said excitedly. This was the middle-aged man's old nest! It had to walk around!

"En!" Yu nodded. Then, he started to search seriously.

After a round of inspection, Yu did not find anything unusual in the hall. At this moment, a small door in the corner of the hall that was half the height of a man caught his attention. However, the door was foggy and he could not see anything clearly.

"What's wrong with Yu?" Baby could feel that something was wrong with Yu and couldn't help but ask.

"There seems to be something behind that door. Should we go in and take a look?" Yu suggested.

"Alright!" The depressed baby quickly responded.

The three little beasts had just taken a step forward when they were stopped by Uncle Long.

"No one is allowed to go! I can't even see anything there, what if there's danger?" Uncle Long said cautiously. He couldn't let these three little things take the risk. Not even a single hair!

"Uncle Long! Although I can't see what's there, my instinct tells me that there's something strange there. So, I think we should go in and take a look." Yu explained. In fact, he wanted to say that his intuition told him that there was no danger there. However, that would mean that Uncle Long would not allow them to go.

"Uncle Long! If you don't enter the tiger's lair, you won't get the Tiger's child. Since the Men in Black are not here, let's take this opportunity to go in and take a look! It's a rare opportunity!" Baby advised.

"MMH! This is a good opportunity!" Yu and Ling also looked at Uncle Long with anticipation.

“Al! Alright then! However, you’re not allowed to run around. Otherwise, if you’re really in danger and I can’t save you in time, I won’t be able to explain it to the little girl.” Uncle long said helplessly.

“We promise not to run around!” Baby was the first to promise. Then, he immediately rushed into the small door.

Uncle long quickly caught the slippery treasure, looked at it seriously and said, “I’ll go in first!” He would go in first. If there was any danger, he could help the three little fellows block it.

“Alright!” Treasure said in a low voice, a little depressed. Wu ... In front of uncle long, it was useless!

Uncle long rubbed baby’s fur and walked through the small door with a chuckle. The three little beasts followed closely behind.

The moment they entered, they were stunned!

After that, she couldn’t help but rub her eyes. It wasn’t an illusion! The item was still there!

“Waa! I’m rich!” The baby cried out excitedly, and directly jumped onto the top grade crystal stones that were piled up in the center of the ground like a small mountain.

The crystals were colorful and had all kinds of attributes. Uncle long estimated that there were at least tens of thousands of them. Then, he turned his eyes to the other parts of the house.

The room they were in wasn’t very big, only ten square meters in size. In addition to the top quality crystals of various attributes that were randomly piled up like a small mountain in the center of the ground, there were four shelves around the room. The shelves were filled with dense storage rings. Uncle long picked one up and scanned it with his divine sense. His eyes widened instantly. Then, he picked up the storage rings on the shelves and checked them one by one. At the end, He didn’t even know how to describe his feelings.

This was because every item in this storage ring was worth more than the pile of top-grade crystals on the ground. Many of them were legendary and rare items that had long gone extinct. Even he, who thought he had seen a lot of things, was shocked speechless. If it wasn’t for his strong self-control, he would have lost his normal state!

However, when he saw the three little beasts jumping around on the pile of top-grade crystals in the center of the ground, the corner of his mouth twitched uncontrollably. Clearly, in the eyes of these three little fellows, the shiny top-grade crystals attracted their attention more.

“Uncle long! So many top-grade crystals! We’re going to be rich this time.” Baby felt uncle Long’s gaze and said happily.

“Treasure! These top-grade crystals are the least valuable of all the treasures here.” Uncle Long’s mouth twitched as he spoke the truth.

“Oh! Then master will definitely be happy, but I like these crystals more!” The treasure was obviously only interested in these shiny stones, and the other things were not of much use to it.

“Mm! The little girl knows how to concoct pills, so she’ll definitely be happy to see those things.” Uncle long agreed.

“Right! Only when master refines them into pills will they be of use to us.” Baby nodded. Then, it kept waving its little claws and swept all the storage rings on the shelf into its own storage space. Yu and Ling saw this and also helped.

After clearing the small room, the three proud little beasts obediently followed uncle long and left the hall.

“Now that your wish has been fulfilled, can we leave this Valley?” Uncle long asked immediately after they left the main hall. What he wanted to do now was to return the three little fellows with the huge treasure to Leng ruoxue so that he would not have to worry about them.

However, while wishes were beautiful, reality was incomparably cruel ...

Chapter 1759: Blood cherry blossom (1)

After hearing uncle Long’s words, baby said with a conflicted expression, “Uncle long, I want to see that flower.”

“Why are you looking at that flower? We should quickly go back and tell the little girl what we’ve heard so that she can take early precautions.” Uncle long said with a serious expression. The news he had overheard outside the main hall had shocked and angered him. He had never thought that the other party would have planted a spy around the people who had entered the secret realm. If that was the case, the people who had been tricked into the secret realm would be in even more danger. As a result, he had to tell this news to the little girl as soon as possible, before things got to a point where they could no longer turn back.

“That ... The last time I left, I asked the Yao family’s elder to pee in the blood pool where the flower is growing, so I suspect that the flower’s rage is related to this. Therefore, I wanted to go and find out some news and watch the show at the same time.” Baby said softly. As soon as it said this, uncle Dragon, Yu, and Ling Quan could not help but stare at it with their eyes wide open.

“Don’t look at me like that. I’ll be shy.” Baby blinked his watery silver eyes and said with some embarrassment.

“Treasure! Since that’s the case, let’s go take a look! You guys lead the way!” After hearing what the baby had to say, uncle long finally came back to his senses. His face was filled with helplessness. Furthermore, he looked at the baby with a gaze full of surprise and disbelief. He really couldn’t think of how this seemingly cute little fox could have so many unexpected and devilish ideas. This really made him ...

“Hehe! I knew uncle long was the best.” Baby said with a fawning look.

“Treasure! To think that we’re still comrades! You did such a thing and you didn’t even tell us anything! You’re really not a good friend!” At this moment, Ling pouted his lips and spoke out in dissatisfaction.

“I didn’t have time to tell you! After all, there were a group of outsiders present at that time. If they had heard it and word of it spread, how would I be able to survive in the divine realm in the future?” Baby said in a slightly aggrieved tone, her beautiful silver eyes peeking at Ling Heyu from time to time.

“Baby’s words are right, Ling! You don’t have to be so calculative.” Peacemaker Yu advised.

“Yu! You’re too easy to talk to.” Ling glared at Yu and said with some dissatisfaction.

“What else can I do? You can still beat it up!” Yu said helplessly.

Ling didn’t say anything else, but it still stared at the disloyal baby in its eyes.

“Hahaha! It’s done! Why are the three of you fighting among yourselves? didn’t you want to see that flower? Let’s go!” Seeing that the three little beasts were actually bickering, uncle long was suddenly in a good mood. It’s good to be young! He was always so energetic!

“Mm! It’s more important to get down to business!” The three little beasts’ attention was diverted, and they hurriedly nodded.

Then, they brought uncle long to the secret room.

As soon as they entered the secret room, they saw the middle-aged man leading the black-clothed men to kneel before the bright red blood cherry blossom. The flower was shaking its branches emotionally, and the large petals on the flower head were also shaking, in danger of falling at any moment.

The three little beasts were confused. They didn’t know why the Men in Black knelt down to a flower. Their faces were pale as if they were terrified. However, the experienced uncle long understood.

“Dammit! Is this how you guys do things?” A human face could be vaguely seen on the large flower pot. Although the facial features could not be clearly seen, the enchanting voice was enough to tell that the speaker was a woman. The voice seemed to have a hint of charm, so when she spoke, the black-clothed men immediately flushed red as if they were suffering great pain.

“Please forgive me, my Lord!” All the Men in Black said in unison as they endured the indescribable pain.

“That flower is their master?” When baby heard this, he could not help but widen his eyes as he whispered in disbelief.

“It seems so.” Yu replied seriously.

“If I’m not wrong, this flower is only a clone, not the main body.” Uncle long said with a serious face. He knew that there was something strange about the flower the moment he saw it, so he took a closer look at it. The main purpose of this flower was probably to absorb more energy for its owner. However, it was only a clone, and it almost sucked all the powerful beings they had captured dry. From this, it could be seen how powerful and evil the owner was.

“Not the main body? Then wouldn’t that old man of the Yao family have peed in vain?” Baby said disappointedly. It had thought that it could add some nutrients to the flower! Now it seemed like he had worked for nothing.

“Why is there white urine!” Uncle long didn’t know whether to laugh or cry as he patted baby’s little head and said, “This flower is mainly for sucking blood, but you added something else into the blood pool. Do you think the blood pool can still be pure? If I’m not wrong, this flower really flew into a rage because of your masterpiece.”

“Really? Hehe! It seems that my efforts were not in vain!” After hearing uncle Long’s words, baby proudly raised his little head and said.

“Why would I do it for nothing? the effect seems pretty good.” The only pity was that this flower was only a clone. If it was the original body, it would be impossible for the treasure to add anything to the blood pool.

“That’s good!” Uncle Long’s praise made baby’s proud tail almost raise up.

At this moment, the flower spoke again.

“Forgive? You’ve ruined my big plan! You’re clearly unforgivable, yet you still want me to let you go!” As the flower spoke, it shook its branches excitedly to show its anger.

Following that, countless feelers emerged from the flower. The feelers were long and thin, and there was a suction cup on the head of the feelers. The surface of the feelers was filled with sharp teeth-like thorns. When the Men in Black saw the suction cups, they immediately froze as if they had fallen into hell. Their eyes were wide open with fear ...

In an instant, the tentacle pierced into the bodies of the Men in Black. In the blink of an eye, the Men in Black fell to the ground one by one. At this time, they were already old and wrinkled, only a layer of skin and bones left.

The three little beasts almost vomited.

This, this was really too disgusting. The person who was still alive just now was sucked dry by the flower in the blink of an eye. This flower was simply comparable to a man-eating flower! It was wrong! It was even more powerful than the man-eating flower! Because the man-eating flower didn’t have its speed.

After sucking all the Men in Black dry, the blood cherry blossom waved its feelers in front of the middle-aged man, but it did not attack him.

“Go and find out who added something unclean to the blood pool. After catching him, bring him to me, I want to deal with him myself! As for you! Seeing that you’re still useful, I’ll spare you this time. If there’s a next time, you’ll end up like them. ” Bloodcherry blossom warned without the slightest hint of emotion.

Chapter 1760: Blood cherry blossom (2)

“Thank you for not killing me, my Lord.” The middle-aged man quickly kowtowed. In fact, he was quite aggrieved. A dignified Hierarch was like a grandson in front of a flower, submissive and obedient. This made him feel quite unbalanced. One should know that Hierarch was the top master in the divine world, but as long as he thought of his master’s magical means, he could not even have the slightest thought of betraying her. Not to mention, his life was still in the hands of his master! Therefore, even if he felt that it was unfair, he had to accept it. This was the sorrow of being a subordinate.

“Good luck,” After the blood cherry blossom warned him, it disappeared.

After a long time.

The middle-aged man stood up from the ground. At this time, the black clothes on his body were mostly soaked in cold sweat. Then, he walked out of the secret chamber with difficulty.

After the middle-aged man left, baby walked to the side of the blood pool and looked at the huge flower that was on the verge of collapse and in full bloom. He reached out his claws ...

"Little fellow, don't act rashly. If we are discovered by the true body of this flower, none of us will be able to leave this place." Seeing this, uncle long was so scared that he quickly held the treasure tightly in his arms. Now was not the time to pick flowers, his life was more important.

"I really hate this flower. I want to pull out its petals and see how it can still suck human blood." Baby said indignantly.

"Little ancestor! You don't want to live anymore! That flower is not simple!" Uncle Long's face turned pale with fear as he hurriedly warned.

"How is it not simple? Wasn't it just a flower that liked to suck people's blood? It's probably the same race as the man-eating flower." Baby said disapprovingly.

"Little guy, I'm afraid even I can't deal with this uncle Hua Long. Don't you think it's simple?" Uncle long asked. Although he wasn't sure about the origin of the flower, he could tell from the pressure that the blood cherry blossom had just displayed that the flower's actual strength was higher than his. Otherwise, why would the middle-aged man address it as his Lord? How could his Lord be weak if he could make a reverent-God submit to him?

"But ..." Baby hesitated, it really wanted to rush the flower.

"Treasure! There's still a long way to go, so it won't be too late to pick up these flowers when you're stronger in the future. Let's quickly leave this place!" Uncle long urged. After he finished speaking, he extended his arm and hugged Ling Heyu before leaving the secret room in a hurry.

On the way out of the valley, even though baby was filled with regret, it was still sensible and did not cause any trouble for uncle long. However, once they returned to Leng ruoxue's house, baby immediately snuggled into its master's warm embrace, unwilling to leave even if it meant death!

Leng ruoxue! Who was sitting in the garden, saw the baby's appearance and a trace of doubt appeared in her beautiful eyes! What's wrong with my baby? It was listless!

"My lovely master!" Baby snuggled in Leng ruoxue's arms, ignoring the evil man's glare, and acted coquettishly with its master.

"Little girl, I have something important to tell you." The helpless uncle long said straightforwardly.

"What?" Leng ruoxue saw the grave expression on uncle Long's face and nodded her head. Then, she brought the evil demon and uncle long to the living room.

After closing the door of the living room, uncle long told her everything that he had heard in the valley. After Leng ruoxue had heard it, her expression turned serious.

He didn't expect Godfather and the others to have the other party's hidden chess piece. With such a time bomb by their side, wasn't it in danger of exploding at any time? At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue started to worry about the safety of her Godfather and the others.

"Xue 'er! Don't worry, the other party won't easily expose that hidden chess piece. Otherwise, the old man of the ning family and the others would have been captured by the Man in Black long ago." Seeing Leng ruoxue's worry, the evildoer consoled her.

"I know," Leng ruoxue nodded. She was being overly concerned. She knew that Godfather and the others were strong enough to deal with any unexpected situation, but she still couldn't help but worry.

"I think as long as we quickly find master ning and the others and tell him about this, we'll find a way to find the hidden chess piece, and everyone's safety will be guaranteed." Uncle long said.

"Mm! Uncle long! Other than the few of us, don't let anyone else know about this for the time being, so as not to disturb their hearts and cause them to go out of control." Leng ruoxue said after some thought.

"I understand!" Uncle long nodded and continued,""Oh right! Little girl, a lot of the life force of those captured people has been absorbed. I wonder if you can concoct some life-restoring pills. If you can save them, they will owe you a big favor. If you need their help in the future, they will definitely do their best."

"A pill that can restore life force?" Leng ruoxue was stunned. She had many pills that could replenish her divine power and heal her injuries, but she had never refined a pill that could recover her vitality.

"Uncle long! How can a pill that can restore vitality be so easy to refine? let's not talk about whether or not it can be successfully refined, I'm afraid we won't even be able to gather the medicinal herbs needed to refine the pill." The demon reminded. Although it would be beneficial for them to make those people or beasts owe Xue 'er a favor, refining a pill that could restore vitality was not a joke. He didn't want Xue 'er to work hard for those irrelevant people. What if she met a few ungrateful people? wouldn't that be asking for trouble?

"I know! However, we just found a lot of precious and rare medicinal herbs and refining materials in the black-clothed man's treasure room. With those, it should be enough to refine vitality-restoring pills, right?" Uncle long said uncertainly. After all, he was an amateur when it came to alchemy.

"What kind of herbs do you have?" When Leng ruoxue heard this, she asked curiously.

"Hehe! There are so many good things that you can't even imagine." Uncle long kept them in suspense. Although he didn't know how to refine pills, he was very familiar with precious natural treasures. This could also be considered a natural talent of Beastie!

"My lovely master! It's all here!" At this moment, baby took out a storage ring and passed it to Leng ruoxue.

Leng ruoxue casually picked one up and inspected it with her divine sense. She was instantly overjoyed.

As expected, they were all good things! And they were all things that she was very interested in.

Then, she changed to another ring to check, and the joy on her face became more and more obvious.

“There’s even Dragon beard grass!” With a thought, Leng ruoxue took out a light green, finger-thick, crystal-clear, and beautiful blade of grass.

This was good stuff! Furthermore, it was the main ingredient in refining the best healing elixir. However, the Dragon’s beard had long become a legend in the divine realm, and she had only been lucky enough to see it among the herbs that her master had left for her. However, the Dragon’s beard was very difficult to cultivate. Therefore, the Dragon’s beard in her hand had always been lying in the storage room of the ‘universal bracelet’. Otherwise, Qing Jue would have made his move.

But now that there was another Dragon’s beard grass, Qing Jue would probably be very happy!
