

Crazy Wife 1781

Chapter 1781: Sowing discord (2)

“Since senior insists, then we’ll respectfully comply.” After he finished speaking, the wretched-looking old man gave everyone a look. Immediately, they turned their attention to uncle long.

In fact, they had long wanted to teach this reverent-God named uncle long a lesson, but they were not confident in fighting him alone. But now, it was different. They were going to fight him as a group! Therefore, they were not so afraid of uncle long.

When uncle long saw that they had turned their attention to him, he was overjoyed. He rubbed his hands together and waited for them to make their move. Hehe! It looked like he would be able to satisfy his craving today. Furthermore, these people could be beaten up however they wanted. There was no pressure in beating them up, and there was no need to show mercy. This was great!

“Go!” At the wretched-looking old man’s command, the people surrounding uncle long all attacked. In an instant, several rays of multi-colored divine power attacked uncle long. Just as the divine power was about to reach uncle long, a light barrier appeared in front of uncle long, blocking the divine power. Then, uncle long attacked ...

The shadow of a huge monster appeared behind uncle long. The monster had the head of a Dragon and the body of a whale. Its body was so huge that it almost covered Half the Sky. The aura on its body was sharp and terrifying. Its angry dragon eyes stared at the humans who attacked it with viciousness and contempt.

With a Dragon’s Roar, the monster’s Phantom image leaped into the air. With a gentle swing of its huge tail, dozens of people were swept away by it. The remaining people began to tremble in fear when they saw the monster’s Phantom image. W-what is this thing?! They had lived for so long and had never seen this monster before. However, the monster’s innate powerful pressure made them feel unusually depressed. Some people’s legs had already begun to tremble. At this time, a shrill scream came from the distance. Immediately, the timid people sat on the ground and wet themselves in fear ...

“A bunch of useless things! It’s a waste of air to keep you alive, so why don’t I clean up your family’s mess?” Uncle long shouted. Then, the monster behind him swung its tail again, and dozens of people were thrown out. Many of the others fainted when they saw this.

“Uncle long! Spare me! We were wrong!” Those who were still conscious begged for mercy. The miserable shrieks from the distance made them feel even more pressured. Wuwu ... There were so many of them, and the weakest was a divine Emperor. They couldn’t even defeat a reverent-God when they worked together. This fact made them feel quite depressed.

“Spare you? In your dreams!” Uncle long said, leaving no room for discussion. Then, The Phantom of the monster behind him immediately shrank to the size of a human. Then, there was a ‘pa pa’! Pa pa! The monster used its tail as a hand to slap the faces of the remaining people. In less than a quarter of an hour, their faces were swollen like a pig’s head. After the monster had enough of the slaps, it was about to throw the remaining people away like the previous two times when it was interrupted by an urgent voice.

“Uncle long! Please show mercy!” A hurried voice interrupted, and then three people came out of the house.

These three people were the family heads of the Yao family, the Wen family, and the yin family, and the one who spoke was the Yao family’s family head.

The two family heads of the Yao family and the Wen family saw that their own family members were being punished by uncle long. They were burning with anxiety and ran out of their houses, not caring about their injured bodies. As for the family head of the yin family, he was purely here to watch the show because there were no people from the yin family among the people who were causing trouble.

“Who are you? Why should I show mercy? Hmph! Since they dared to offend me, they should be prepared to be taught a lesson by me. ” Uncle long cast a sidelong glance at the head of the Yao clan and said in an unpleasant tone. In the divine realm, only the strong are respected. Once one becomes a top-tier expert, one’s background is no longer that important. Regardless of whether one is a human or a magical beast, one should be respected by everyone. Unfortunately, there are some people who are self-righteous and think that they can look down on other experts just because they have someone to back them up. Thus, uncle long was ruthless to them today, other than because they were being unreasonable to him. He also wanted to avenge the beasts who had been enslaved by the humans. He wanted to let them know that beasts were not to be trifled with!

“I’m the head of the Yao family. I’ve long heard of uncle Long’s name, and today I finally met you. You’re indeed worthy of your reputation. ” The head of the Yao family said with a fawning expression. He never dreamed that this uncle long in front of him was actually the one from the endless ocean. If he had known earlier, how could he have indulged his own junior to find trouble for no reason! However, it was too late to say anything now, because that person was famous for being difficult to talk to. More importantly, uncle Long’s strength was unfathomable. Even if he was at his peak, he wasn’t sure if he could defeat this uncle long. Moreover, he was injured now. Moreover, he didn’t want to be enemies with uncle long. After all, the beasts in the endless ocean all followed uncle Long’s lead. If he really made uncle long unhappy and caused a riot in the endless ocean, even if the Yao family was one of the eight great divine regions, they wouldn’t be able to withstand it!

“So it’s the Yao family’s little fellow! I didn’t expect you to have grown so big. ” After hearing what the head of the Yao family said, uncle long smiled, but his words made the head of the Yao family depressed.

Alright! He admitted that uncle long was older than him and had lived longer than him, but he couldn’t call him a little guy in front of so many people! Wu ... How could he face others in the future? the head of the Yao family was depressed, but he didn’t dare to refute uncle Long’s words and could only smile foolishly.

As Leng ruoxue listened to their conversation, she couldn’t help but burst out laughing. She didn’t expect uncle Long’s seniority to be so high. In his eyes, the head of the Yao family was just a little fellow, and that constipated old man didn’t even dare to refute. This was really too funny.

“Yao family’s little brat, is there something you need from me?” Uncle long played dumb.

“Uh!” The head of the Yao family was very depressed. Didn’t he tell uncle long to show mercy? Why did uncle long ask if he was okay? He really didn’t know if he didn’t make it clear enough, or if uncle long had Alzheimer’s disease. How could he have forgotten what he had said before in such a short time?

“Uncle long! Please show mercy and let go of these Yao family juniors!” After taking a few deep breaths, the head of the Yao family reiterated.

“Oh! Just this matter! Actually, it’s not that I can’t let them go, but what about the fact that they bumped into me?” Uncle long raised his eyebrows and said with a smile.

“I’m willing to apologize to uncle long on their behalf.” The head of the Yao family hurriedly said.

“You’re done with an apology? Uncle long has lived for so long, but I’ve never been bullied like this by a human or a beast!” Uncle long said, feeling wronged.

“Our Yao family is willing to compensate for uncle Long’s mental damage. We hope that you will forgive us and let these juniors go.” The head of the Yao family made up his mind. He knew that he had to pay a huge price today, but fortunately, most of the remaining people were from the Yao family. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have asked for mercy.

Chapter 1782: Instigating (1)

“Uh!” Leng ruoxue’s cold attitude caused the two of them to be at a complete loss. They looked at Leng ruoxue nervously and pitifully said in unison, “Xue ‘er, we know we were wrong. Don’t be angry.” After they finished speaking, the two of them lowered their heads like children who had done something wrong, not daring to look at Leng ruoxue. Fortunately, there were no outsiders here. Otherwise, they would be shocked to see the two of them in this state! One must know that the two of them held a very important position in the firmament. However, in front of Leng ruoxue, they could not display any dignity at all. The main reason for this was that they had a guilty conscience.

“Oh, really? Where did you go wrong?” Leng ruoxue said with a half-smile.

“We shouldn’t have hidden our injuries from you. We shouldn’t have lied.” The two of them whispered.

“Since you know, then accept your punishment!” Leng ruoxue said coldly.

“Uh!” He still had to be punished? They couldn’t help but cry out in fear. They had already apologized, but this little girl still didn’t plan on letting them go. Wu ... They really had a bitter life! As the two of them reproached themselves, they couldn’t help but steal glances at Leng ruoxue with pitiful and aggrieved eyes. Unfortunately, Leng ruoxue was completely unmoved.

“It’s fine if you don’t want to be punished, but don’t say you know me in the future.” Seeing through their thoughts, Leng ruoxue said directly.

“We are willing to accept the punishment.” When the two of them heard this, they quickly said, “Wu...Xue ‘er actually bullied them and said that she won’t acknowledge them in the future. How can this be!”

“That’s good! Don’t appear in front of me for half a month. If there’s anything, I’ll send my baby to find you.” Leng ruoxue said after some thought. Her punishment for them was to give them the cold shoulder for half a month and see if they would remember!

“Alright then!” The two of them lowered their heads and tucked their tails between their legs as they walked away.

“Xue ‘er, this punishment of yours is quite interesting. Is it useful to them?” Looking at their backs, uncle long was very curious. He didn’t expect that Xue ‘er’s punishment would be not seeing them. This was a punishment he had never heard of before. He just didn’t know if it would be useful to them.

“Oh! Hehe! I’ll wait and see.” Uncle long said, as if he wished for the world to be in chaos.

Then, the three of them walked to the courtyard. At this time, the courtyard was already full of people. After seeing them, many of them had unkind expressions on their faces.

“From today onwards, you will have to stay outside the house during the day. You can go out now.” Leng ruoxue stood in front of them and said straightforwardly. She had already asked the great elder to set up the entry and exit rights of the house. Hence, she now had partial control over the house.

After everyone heard her words, they looked at each other and then began to walk out of the house. After those who took the initiative to go out had all left, the rest of the people in the courtyard did not want to go out.

Leng ruoxue saw that those people had no intention of going out. She didn’t waste any more time with them and immediately moved them out. Then, the three of them walked out as well.

“What right do you have to move us out of the house? we didn’t say we were coming out.” The moment Leng ruoxue and the other two stepped out of the house, they were immediately surrounded by a group of people with aggressive auras.

“I’ve made it very clear. You must stay outside the house during the day. However, you don’t have to go in at night. We don’t take in cowards who are idle.” Leng ruoxue said emotionlessly.

“What do you mean by this? You’ve taken quite a lot of money from us, and now you want to drive us out after taking the money? What about the great elder? We’re going to find the great elder to judge!” Someone shouted.

“The great elder won’t care about this. I’m fully responsible for this house. As for the money you mentioned, I’ll return it to you immediately.” After Leng ruoxue finished speaking, she moved the treasure out and indicated for it to return the money.

Baby took out a list of names and waved its little paw. The premium crystal stones that it had prepared in its spatial ring flew to the front of these people. However, when they saw the crystal stones in front of them, none of them put them away. Instead, they glared at Leng ruoxue with even more anger. Someone even questioned her, “What’s the meaning of this?”

“I’ve already explained it very clearly, don’t you understand? We’ll return your accommodation fees, and in the future, your life and death have nothing to do with us. You’re on your own now!” Leng ruoxue said coldly.

“How can I do that?” When the people surrounding Leng ruoxue and the other two saw that she was being serious, they instantly panicked. It was fine if they were not allowed to stay in the house during the day, but if they were to be driven out at night, would they still have a way out? Wasn’t this forcing them onto the path of death?

“What’s wrong? We are the owners of this house, and we have the right to decide who can live in it. Now, we have already returned the accommodation fees to you, so you’re on your own!” Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

“You vicious woman, you’re forcing us to die! No wonder people say that a woman’s heart is the most vicious. How can your heart be so vicious?” Someone said with hatred, his voice choked with sobs.

Upon hearing this, the others looked at Leng ruoxue with even more hostility. They even closed in on Leng ruoxue in unison, planning to take the opportunity to strike and force her to commit the crime. However, uncle long was one step ahead and stood in front of Leng ruoxue, blocking her way. He glared at her and said, “What are you guys trying to do?”

“Senior! Please don’t interfere in our business with this evil woman!” One of the people who surrounded Leng ruoxue said politely.

“There are so many of you bullying a girl and you won’t let me interfere. Do you want me to stand by and do nothing?” Uncle long said with a cold smile.

“Senior, this is a matter between us and her.” Someone pointed at Leng ruoxue and said.

“Oh! But her business is my business, so there’s no way I won’t interfere! If you want to teach her a lesson, you’ll have to get past me first!” Uncle long said stubbornly. At the same time, he released his pressure. The powerful pressure made the people around them take a step back.

“Senior, since you insist, then we won’t be polite. You should know that we have so many people. If we accidentally hurt senior, please don’t blame us.” A wretched-looking old man said proudly. Actually, if it was possible, they were not willing to go against a reverent-god level expert. After all, behind every reverent-God in the divine realm, there might be a powerful force. Moreover, the strength of a reverent-God was unfathomable. Therefore, no family in the divine realm was willing to provoke a reverent-God easily. However, most of the people in the group this time were from the eight great divine domains and had extraordinary backgrounds. They didn’t mind offending a reverent-God, since they had a reverent-God behind them! They were even less afraid.

“I won’t blame you, as long as you can hurt me.” Uncle long said with a faint smile.

Chapter 1783: The mighty first elder (1)

Although the people present were hesitant, the monsters in the secret realm would not give them too much time to think. As the footsteps got closer and closer, they had to make an immediate decision.

At this moment, an elder of the ning family, who had always been silent, spoke.

“Everyone! Everyone here is basically an elder of their own clan. In the immortal realm, they can be considered to be people with a reputation and status. However, we are now scared out of our wits by these monsters. If this news were to spread, have you ever thought about how disappointed our clan members will be with us? The monster is indeed terrifying, but we should believe in miss Leng’s means. Since she said that she would guarantee our safety, she would not go back on her word. What she is asking now is only our cooperation. Then what kind of men are we? Where is our courage? Where’s our fighting spirit? Where is our intelligence? Don’t let these monsters become a nightmare for the rest of our lives, or they’ll become the demons in our hearts. Even if we’re still alive, we’d rather die. Is this what you want?” This elder of the ning family had never liked to speak much, but every time he said something, it was quite shocking. This time was no exception.

Hearing his words, everyone’s mood turned from hesitation to shame. Soon, some people echoed the ning family elder’s words, and as the thunderous footsteps got closer and closer, everyone’s fighting spirit was instantly ignited ...

“The ning family’s elder is right! How can we face our clansmen if we’re so timid? If they know that we’re so scared of these monsters that we can only hide everywhere, they’ll definitely be disappointed in us. So, we should fight these monsters to the death!” Someone roared in excitement.

“Let’s fight them! Kill them all!” Someone in the crowd took the lead and shouted.

“Right! Let’s fight them to the death!” A deafening sound suddenly rang out, and the Wen family elder’s expression became more and more unsightly.

“Don’t be so impulsive, this is not a joke. ” The elder of the Wen family said earnestly.

“Master Wen, if you’re afraid, you can go back to your house and hide. We’ll stay outside to help miss Leng.” The elder of the ning family said. After he finished speaking, he glanced at the head of the Wen family with disdain. His words immediately resonated with the crowd.

“Wen family head, even if you’re afraid, don’t drag us down! You’ll lower our fighting spirit by saying that. ”

“It is! We’re at the height of our battle intent, so don’t you douse our enthusiasm. If you don’t want to fight, then quickly hide and stop making such sarcastic remarks!”

The crowd began to criticize in dissatisfaction, and their words quickly made the Wen family head’s face flush red with shame and anger.

“A bunch of ungrateful things, you’re clearly looking to die.” The head of the Wen family gritted his teeth and said with a face full of disappointment. However, he could not help but sigh in his heart. Let these monsters teach them a painful lesson. When the time comes, they will know how correct his words are.

“Wen family head, they’re fighting for their own reputation, but you keep saying that they’re courting death. Could it be that you really wish for something to happen to them?” At this moment, Leng ruoxue spoke with a smile on her face. Her timely words made the Wen family head even more embarrassed and angry.

"That's right. Wen family head, are you afraid that something will happen to us?" The elder of the ning family asked.

"I'm doing this for your own good. You ... You won't listen to me. You'll regret it." The Wen family head was so angered by Leng ruoxue that he stuttered. He glared at Leng ruoxue and spoke fiercely.

"Yao family head, Yin family head, are you planning to play along with them?" The Wen family head turned around and said to the Yao and Yin family heads who were standing at the side. He needed to form an alliance to avoid being too conspicuous.

"Wen family head, how can this be considered nonsense? They're not three-year-old children, they know what they're doing." Master Yin said with a smile.

"Yup! You've been famous for many years, so you still have the ability to make such a choice." The Yao family's master said with mixed emotions.

"Your Yao clan is also going to fight with them?" The head of the Wen family asked in disbelief. Many of the Yao family members were injured by uncle long just now, could they still fight the monster? Although he thought so in his heart, the words that came out of his mouth were not so pleasant.

Furthermore, the patriarch's face darkened at his words. He immediately retorted in displeasure, "Wen family head, what are you saying? Could it be that the members of my Yao family are so afraid of death?"

"Uh! I didn't mean it that way." Seeing that he had angered the Yao family's head, master Wen hurriedly tried to explain.

However, Leng ruoxue would not give him a chance to explain. She smiled indifferently and said, "I'm sure master Wen's meaning is that there's a conflict between us, so you're not optimistic about our cooperation. Master Yao, I'm actually quite afraid that you'll drag me down. Why don't you take your family and hide?"

Leng ruoxue's tone was full of negotiation, but it made master Yao feel bad. Their Yao family was ranked second in the eight great divine domains, but now, in this wretched girl's eyes, they had actually become a burden. How could he swallow this?

At the thought of this, the head of the Yao family suppressed his anger and shouted, "Don't worry, miss Leng, our Yao family members are all battle-hardened and will definitely not drag you down!"

"Then I'm relieved! Wen family head, since you're afraid of death, then take these three elders and hide! Don't let the innocent get involved. You have to know that I won't feel guilty!" Leng ruoxue looked at the Wen family head's darkened expression and reminded him with a faint smile. However, looking at the Wen family head who looked like a commander with nothing to his name, she could not help but laugh in her heart. According to what she knew, the Wen family had brought quite a number of people into the mystic realm this time, and more than half of them were elders. However, in just a few months, other than the Wen family head, there were only three elders left in the Wen family. These three elders were extremely timid and had been taught a lesson by uncle long quite a few times. Thinking about their experiences, Leng ruoxue felt sorry for them.

“You ...” The Wen family head was so angry that he was speechless. Furthermore, in order to teach Leng ruoxue a lesson, he decided that he would stand by and do nothing about this matter. Hmph! He wanted to see how this woman was going to deal with these monsters.

At present, not many people knew that Leng ruoxue’s flames could kill monsters. Although she had promised to protect the safety of the people paying, other than a few families that were on good terms with her, many people were skeptical of her words. However, it was better to have hope than nothing. Furthermore, when they received the money, they had agreed that if they could not guarantee their safety and brought them out of the mystic realm, Leng ruoxue would have to pay double the compensation. Hence, from their point of view, this was not a loss to them. On the contrary, it gave them a glimmer of hope. Therefore, other than some people who were dissatisfied with the fees, most people were satisfied.

Leng ruoxue’s main request to them was to listen to her arrangements. The vast majority of people had no doubts about this.

Chapter 1784: The mighty first elder (2)

At the same time, a few people in the house were standing at the door, watching the movement outside the house. Everything that was happening outside was in their eyes.

However, the most surprising thing was uncle Long’s identity.

No one, including the master of the ning family, had expected that uncle long would have such an identity. Furthermore, they were not as blind as the old God of plagues. However, the old God of plagues could not be blamed for this. Among the eight great divine realms, although the Wen family’s strength was not the last, they were the last family to become famous. Their Foundation was not as deep as the other seven families, and they certainly did not know as much about the history of the divine world as them. In addition, uncle long had already lived in seclusion for many years and rarely walked in the divine world. Many people had forgotten uncle Long’s identity. However, uncle Long’s terrifying strength was deeply engraved in everyone’s hearts. Therefore, when they saw The Phantom of the monster, they immediately remembered uncle Long’s identity because it was one of uncle Long’s Supreme talents, the whale swallow!

However, uncle long had been merciful just now because he didn’t use the real swallowing whale. He only showed his illusionary body to scare them. Otherwise, they would have lost their lives long ago. However, there were still some unlucky ones who were caught by the monsters after being thrown out and became their food. However, most of the people who were thrown out were from the Wen family. Did uncle long do it on purpose?

Thinking of this, the ning family master and the others felt very refreshed.

The Wen family had never been popular in the divinity, so they were gloating over their misfortune. However, hearing the approaching footsteps, master ning didn’t know if he should go out and help. Sob ... Xue ‘er had said not to see them for half a month. If they went out, would the little girl fly into a rage out of humiliation?

"The monsters are coming. Let's go out and help the little girl!" The master of the Cheng family suggested, but his words were strongly opposed by the master of the ning family and the first elder.

"No! You can't go out." The two of them said in unison, but the Cheng family head was dumbfounded.

"Why? Could it be that you're also afraid of death?" The head of the Cheng family teased in astonishment, his eyes full of surprise. Shen nuo, who understood the truth, merely smiled and did not say anything. Seeing the aggrieved expressions of the head of the ning family and first elder, he was already laughing inside.

"I'm not that old God of plague, why would I be afraid of death!" Hearing this, the master of the ning family was furious! Wasn't this tarnishing his reputation?! Everyone knew that he was not a person who was afraid of death!

"Then why can't we go out?" The head of the Cheng family was confused.

"That ... Xue 'er found out about our fraud and is punishing us. We can't appear in front of her for half a month, so we don't dare to go out." The master of the ning family said with a look of throwing caution to the wind, but he was secretly lamenting in his heart. Laugh all you want! It would be best if he died from laughing!

Sure enough, the head of the Cheng family didn't let her down. He laughed happily and exaggeratedly. He laughed so hard that tears came out of his eyes. In the end, he laughed so hard that he sat on the ground and kept punching the ground.

"It's not that exaggerated!" The great elder's face darkened as he said unhappily. If he could, he really wanted to chase this old thing out. Wu ... He had finally caught a laughing stock.

"Hahaha! Hahaha! It's too funny. We're finished! I can't control it anymore, only that girl is your nemesis, able to make you all so obedient, I really admire her, Wu! She'll be my idol from now on!" The head of the Cheng clan laughed as he wiped his tears, while the first elder, who was glaring at him, was furious.

"F * ck! You stupid old man, I'll make you laugh! I'll let you go out and laugh as much as you want!" The usually gentle and kind first elder was furious, and the consequences were very serious. Not only did he curse, but he also raised his leg in anger and kicked the Cheng family's head out of the house ...

"Great elder! Mighty!" Seeing this, Shen nuo wiped the cold sweat on her forehead and said, Oh my God! Was this person the great elder? There were actually times when he was so rough. Today, he had really opened his eyes.

"Old man! Good job!" The master of the ning family also gave a thumbs up. If the great elder didn't do this, he would also do it.

After the unlucky master of the Cheng clan was kicked out of the house, he did not land in front of Leng ruoxue and the others as he had wished. Instead, he drew a beautiful arc in the air and leaped over their heads ...

“That’s ...” Leng ruoxue was a little uncertain as she looked at the thing that floated above her head.

“It seems to be the clan head of the Cheng clan.” Uncle long said with a faint smile. Although he didn’t know why the head of the Cheng family would come out of the house in such a manner, he quite admired his unique and innovative move! He was human! It had to be different and have its own characteristics so that people would remember it.

As soon as uncle long finished speaking, everyone heard a loud ‘plop’. The object that seemed to be the Cheng family’s head fell from the sky and landed among the approaching monsters. Everyone was dumbfounded and their hearts were in their throats ...

However, the master of the Cheng family reacted very quickly. After smashing a few monsters to death, he leaped up and suspended himself in midair. The divine power in his hand was constantly released, and he smashed it at the angry monsters with an irresistible force.

Seeing this, everyone admired the Cheng clan’s patriarch for taking the lead. Only such a person was worthy of being the head of the family. Thinking of their previous hesitation, everyone was so ashamed that they wished they could find a hole to hide in. However, it was fortunate that the head of the Cheng family didn’t know their thoughts at this time. Otherwise, he would definitely be depressed to death because he didn’t want to be the first bird. He was kicked out by someone!

“Everyone! The head of the Cheng family is our best example. Let’s attack him together!” At this time, the taciturn eldest ning family member roared and rushed directly towards the monsters with a heart full of enthusiasm. His passion ignited the fire that had been hidden in everyone’s hearts for a long time. Everyone followed closely behind, holding weapons in their hands and also rushing towards the monsters ...

“Everyone’s morale seems to have risen again!” Uncle long looked at everyone’s high fighting spirit and said with relief.

“That old man from the Cheng family doesn’t seem to be such a brainless person. How could he be so impulsive?” At this moment, the slightly dumbfounded Wen family head mumbled to himself. His words also caused Leng ruoxue to cast a sidelong glance.

“Wen family head, Cheng family head, how are you brainless? Could it be that a person who is afraid of death like you has a brain?” Leng ruoxue said with a look of disdain.

“Why am I so afraid of death that I’m brainless?” When the Wen family head heard Leng ruoxue’s words, he immediately glared at her. He was a reverent-God after all, and now he was being called brainless by a mere God. How could he swallow this? However, just as he was about to act up, Leng ruoxue’s cold voice drifted over.

Chapter 1785: The mighty first elder (3)

“If you’re not afraid of death, then go and fight those monsters!”

As she said this, the words ‘you wouldn’t dare’ were written all over Leng ruoxue’s face, infuriating the Wen family head so much that green smoke started to rise from the top of his head.

“Hmph! I won’t fall for your trick, it’s useless to goad me! Besides, I’m not afraid of death. Those monsters can’t be killed, and fighting them is just a waste of time.” The enraged master of the Wen family calmed down in the next second. He then looked at Leng ruoxue and said with a faint smile, “But miss Leng, didn’t you say that you would protect them? But now, you’re letting them go up and kill the monsters while you sit here and enjoy the fruits of their labor. Your wishful thinking is really good!”

“It’s not time for me to make a move yet.” After hearing the Wen family head’s words, Leng ruoxue replied in a calm manner.

At this moment, the people and monsters in the battle circle were already red-eyed and couldn’t hear what they were saying at all. Otherwise, just based on the few words of the Wen family head, there would be people who would suspect Leng ruoxue’s sinister intentions.

“Hurry up and gather these monsters together!” The head of the Cheng family warned loudly as he circled around the monsters. He couldn’t help but curse in his heart. Why were these monsters targeting him? He had attracted nearly half of the monsters around him, which increased the pressure on him.

At this moment, uncle long joined the battle.

The master of the Cheng family heaved a sigh of relief, but he still didn’t dare to let his guard down, because several monsters had been glaring at him with red eyes!

“Those monsters must have been killed and resurrected by you just now. They felt that it was embarrassing, so they targeted you.” Uncle Dragon chuckled and teased them. He attacked with ease, and the monsters were like fragile glass in his hands. They couldn’t be touched at all. However, he only seriously injured the monsters and didn’t kill them. As a result, the monsters couldn’t be resurrected!

“Uh!” The head of the Cheng family blushed at uncle Long’s teasing. He knew that he had also embarrassed himself. Never in his wildest dreams would he have thought that he would be kicked out of the house in such an embarrassing position. Fortunately, he had killed a few vengeful monsters. However, if he knew that he had also been worshipped by everyone because of this, he wondered if he would be even more depressed.

With the addition of uncle long, the pressure on the group was greatly reduced. Under the command of the experienced uncle long, the monsters were quickly beaten to the point where they were on the verge of death. They were gathered together and in an instant, the monsters had piled up into a small mountain. At this moment, it was Leng ruoxue’s turn to make her move.

Leng ruoxue walked to the front of the pile of monsters and looked at the struggling monsters. On her fair fingertips, there was a small red flame with a hint of purple. She threw it lightly and the small flame that terrified the monsters was thrown into the pile of monsters. In an instant, it turned into a raging flame ...

“Owuuu! Aowu!” The monsters struggled for the last time and roared, their turbid eyes filled with anger and unwillingness. As the fire burned, the monsters’ whimpers became softer and softer, until the mountain of monsters were all reduced to ashes.

Everyone was dumbstruck by this scene.

If they had not seen it with their own eyes, they would never have believed that flames could burn these monsters to death. After all, many of them had the fire attribute. However, their flames were like a bath for these monsters. The monsters were not afraid of them at all. However, Leng ruoxue's flames had shown them what true horror was! Moreover, they couldn't stand the temperature of the flames. Other than watching from afar, they didn't dare to get close.

Al! No wonder he dared to say that he would guarantee their safety. Now that they finally knew the reason, they were convinced.

The way they looked at Leng ruoxue was also filled with fear. Their words and actions were even more careful, afraid that if they angered this little ancestor, she would burn them to ashes.

Actually, they were overthinking. Although Leng ruoxue wasn't someone who enjoyed helping others, she wouldn't kill the innocent. As long as they didn't anger her, she wouldn't take action easily. However, once she took action, it meant that there was no room for negotiation.

"How does it feel to be a bystander, Wen family head?" Leng ruoxue walked to the front of the Wen family head and sneered. She then ignored the Wen family head's angry, pale, and handsome face and said to the people behind her, "Let's go! There are plenty of monsters in the secret plane, and this is just a small test of my skills. I've already made up my mind to eliminate all the monsters in the secret plane, so you have to cooperate with me. "

"Don't worry, miss Leng! We'll definitely listen to your every word!" An elder from the Yao family said with a fawning expression. Now that they had witnessed Leng ruoxue's capabilities, the entire Yao family had become well-behaved and had even become her die-hard supporters. If anyone were to speak badly of Leng ruoxue now, they would be the first to jump out and reprimand her. Who asked Leng ruoxue to give them hope?

"Very good! As long as you're obedient, I'll do everything I can to get you out of here. " Leng ruoxue promised.

Her words also made everyone present very happy. However, a disharmonious voice rang out in a timely manner.

"Miss Leng, you're really shameless! It's not a big deal to kill a few monsters. Besides, the most powerful monsters here are not those monsters!" The moment he finished his sentence, he was immediately subjected to the gazes of the crowd. However, before they could criticize the Wen family head, Leng ruoxue's voice was heard.

"It seems like the Wen family head is quite familiar with this place. I wonder if there's anything to introduce?" Leng ruoxue was neither angry nor annoyed as she asked with a faint smile.

"What's the meaning of this?" Leng ruoxue's words immediately alerted the Wen family's head, and he retorted with a cautious expression.

“It’s nothing! I just feel that you’re quite familiar with this place.” Leng ruoxue laughed as she cast a hand seal to keep the house. She then led the group into the house slowly, while the Wen family head followed behind them at a steady pace with a serious expression.

“Master! What should we do?” At the back of the line, an elder of the Wen family said timidly, “woo...If I knew that this wretched girl was so powerful, I would rather bleed than be isolated!” And now, no one cared about the Wen family! At this time, even if he was willing to pay double the amount, he was afraid that they would not be willing to take them in. This was really a mistake that could cause a thousand bones to regret! He was filled with regret.

“What are you afraid of? With me around, do you think I can’t protect your safety?” The head of the Wen family growled in a low voice. Useless things, aren’t they just a few monsters? She had actually scared them to such an extent. However, that woman’s flames were really not ordinary! Although he was far away at that time, the heat of the flame went straight to the top of his head and burned his hair. If this continued, all the monsters in this secret realm might really be burned by her! Thinking of this, his gaze became gloomy again.

Just like that, Leng ruoxue and her group, who had been travelling for almost half a month and were attacked by monsters a few times a day, finally returned to the small valley.

During this period of time, they had engaged in countless battles with the monsters. In the beginning, the monsters had wanted to kill them relentlessly. However, after witnessing Leng ruoxue’s terrifying flames, the monsters had also become more intelligent. Although they did not dare to appear in front of Leng ruoxue openly, they had learned how to ambush her in the dark. Especially when someone was alone, that person would definitely become their target.

As the number of battles increased, everyone also understood the monsters’ intentions. They simply gathered around Leng ruoxue so that the monsters would not dare to act rashly. However, the number of monsters continued to decrease.

The monsters could not kill anyone they wanted, and their companions died every day. As time went on, they went crazy and the anger in their hearts grew. The unlucky Wen family members became their targets to vent their anger on. As they did not have a good relationship with Leng ruoxue, even though they wanted to borrow some light from her, they did not dare to get too close. Every time the monsters attacked, they would uphold the principle of speed, ruthlessness, and accuracy. Once they snatched someone, they would disappear without a trace. Hence, Leng ruoxue and the rest could only hear screams from afar. However, she did not see anyone from the Wen family.

By the time they reached the valley, the Wen family head had already become the commander of the army.

Although the crowd was not ashamed of the Wen family head’s disregard for the life and death of his clansmen, no one dared to drive him away due to his status in the divine world. However, he had also suffered the contempt of the crowd.

Just as Leng ruoxue was about to enter the house to meet up with Feng Da and the rest, countless Monsters and Men in Black suddenly appeared around them. The monsters howled as they surrounded Leng ruoxue and the rest while the Men in Black glared at them with unkind expressions.

“What’s the meaning of this?” Leng ruoxue looked at the Grand and spectacular scene and asked in confusion.

“Hmph! I’ve really underestimated you. ” The middle-aged man said expressionlessly. However, the two little flames of anger dancing in his eyes revealed his turbulent emotions at the moment. He had not expected that this woman would actually find those people before him. In this way, he had no fate with the house. Therefore, after contacting the hidden chess piece and knowing their every move, he made new arrangements. Since the deal had failed, he could only snatch it by force! After making this decision, he sent many monsters to intercept them along the way. Unfortunately, all the monsters he sent returned with countless deaths and injuries ...

Chapter 1786: Biting back (1)

The middle-aged man knew very well that those monsters could not do anything to Leng ruoxue. However, if he did not let those monsters take action, he had no one else to use. As for the Men in Black beside him, his trusted aides had all been killed by his Lord. Now, these men were sent by his Lord to assist him. Their loyalty was only to his Lord, not him. Hence, he could not send these men out easily.

When he thought about the inexplicable deaths of his trusted subordinates, the hatred in his heart rose even higher. Even Leng ruoxue and the others in front of him had become a thorn in his side. This action of his was called taking his anger out on them. Who asked him not to hate his master? hence, he could only transfer his hatred onto Leng ruoxue and the others. In addition to the matter of the house, it could be said that the new and old hatred had collided together.

“I’ve also underestimated you. You’ve actually managed to come back at just the right time.” Leng ruoxue said with a smile as she looked at the man who was glaring at her.

“Hmph! Everything in the secret plane is under my control. Isn’t it a small matter to know when you will return?” The middle-aged man sneered.

“It’s a pity that you don’t know when we left. ” Leng ruoxue was in a good mood, so she didn’t mind the middle-aged man exaggerating his abilities.

“You ...” The middle-aged man was exasperated. He really didn’t know about this. If he had discovered any clues earlier, how could he have given them the chance to leave? moreover, this woman had changed her appearance. He couldn’t even sense her original aura. It seemed that there should be a high-level Alchemist by her side, he guessed in his heart.

“I what? Uncle, now that I’ve found the person, I think our deal can be called off. ” Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

“Alright! Then let it be nullified! Originally, I was very sincere, but you didn’t appreciate it. Since that’s the case, don’t blame me for being ruthless. ” The middle-aged man’s eyes flashed with hostility as he spoke viciously.

“It seems that I’ve really angered uncle, sigh! I didn’t want to. ” Leng ruoxue’s face revealed a helpless smile, and her tone carried a hint of resentment.

“Little girl! What kind of deal did you make?” At this moment, the head of the Cheng clan, who had been listening to their conversation, asked curiously. Although the others did not dare to ask, they all turned to look at Leng ruoxue after hearing this.

“You guys! He took a fancy to this house of mine and agreed to use you guys to exchange for it. However, I found you guys first, so our deal was not needed. This uncle became even more angry from embarrassment. Business didn’t work out, but benevolence and righteousness still existed! However, uncle clearly doesn’t understand this logic.” Leng ruoxue sighed.

“Little girl! You’ve worked hard.” The head of the Cheng family quickly said.

“It’s not hard. You’ve paid anyway.” Leng ruoxue said in a very realistic manner. Since she had already paid, it could be considered as a deal between them. As long as she brought them out of this place, the deal between them would be considered complete, and there would be no problem of who owing who a favor. Furthermore, she really did not want these people to owe her a favor. After all, these people were all famous figures in the divine world. If they really owed a favor to an unknown nobody like her, they would feel uncomfortable in their hearts. If they were a little petty, they might even ... In short, She couldn’t save some ingrates, so she would rather let them pay. The silver and the goods were settled, so no one owed anyone anything.

“Uh!” The head of the Cheng clan didn’t know how to react. This little girl clearly didn’t want to be too deeply involved with them! Forget it, he had originally wanted to use this opportunity to let her have a few more backers in the divine realm, but this girl was obviously not happy.

In reality, he had guessed it right. Leng ruoxue believed that it was better to rely on herself than on others. Unless she was forced to, she would never be willing to cause trouble for others. It was also because they knew her personality that master ning and first elder doted on her so much. After all, their status was obvious! Naturally, they would not show their concern easily. One must know that any slight movement between the two of them would attract countless people’s attention, even though the two of them had been extremely low-key.

And if someone found out that Leng ruoxue was their precious, then naturally, there would be people who would have ideas about her. This was something they didn’t want to see. Hence, in front of outsiders, there weren’t many who knew about their relationship with Leng ruoxue. However, after this incident, their relationship with Leng ruoxue would probably not be able to be concealed.

Leng ruoxue glanced at the frustrated master of the Cheng family, then turned her beautiful eyes to the middle-aged man. She smiled and said,“Uncle, what do you want?”

F * ck! What did he mean by what did he want? The middle-aged man muttered angrily to himself. His burning eyes were like a venomous snake as he stared at Leng ruoxue. However, Leng ruoxue was extremely calm. This fact made the middle-aged man extremely surprised. This wretched girl was actually not afraid of him! This made him depressed.

“Uncle, you should say something! We’ve been on the road for a long time and are tired. Tell us so that we can go back to our rooms and rest early.” Seeing that the middle-aged man was silent, Leng ruoxue could only urge him.

You still want to rest? In your dreams! He had not had a good rest recently. The middle-aged man frowned and said nothing.

“Uncle, your temper can really make people anxious to death! Can’t you just be quick?” Seeing that the middle-aged man had yet to respond, Leng ruoxue spoke again. Her face was filled with an expression of disappointment.

“You wretched girl, I’m going to kill you!” After a long while, the middle-aged man finally couldn’t take it anymore and spoke fiercely.

“Kill us? Uncle, you don’t want this house anymore?” Leng ruoxue asked curiously.

“After I kill you, your house will still belong to me.” The middle-aged man said confidently.

“However, everyone in the secret realm is here now. If you kill us, you won’t be able to find blood to feed the flower in your secret chamber. When your master blames you, I’m afraid your subordinates will become its food again.” Leng ruoxue reminded him in a light tone.

After hearing Leng ruoxue’s words, everyone present was confused. What flowers in the secret chamber? Does it need to be fed with blood? That was definitely not a good thing, everyone knew that.

After the middle-aged man heard Leng ruoxue’s words, he was even more shocked. How did this wretched girl know about this? If someone were to say that Leng ruoxue had entered the secret chamber, he would definitely not believe it. That was because they had been discussing the deal at that time and Leng ruoxue had not been able to attend to many things at once. However, he could not understand how this wretched girl could be so clear about the things in the secret chamber.

Thinking of this, the middle-aged man pretended to be calm and said, “How do you know about this?” He had to get to the bottom of this matter. After all, this concerned his life and death, as well as his position in front of his Lord in the future.

“Does it matter how I know?” Leng ruoxue chuckled as she asked.

“Of course!” The middle-aged man nodded. However, he was not sure if Leng ruoxue would tell him about this.

Chapter 1787: Biting back (2)

“Since you want to know, I’ll tell you.” Leng ruoxue replied in an understanding manner. She had never played by the rules. The more others thought it was impossible, the more likely she would do it. Therefore, the middle-aged man would definitely get what he wanted.

“Really?” The middle-aged man could not help but widen his eyes. What did he just hear? Was this woman trying to scare him?

“It’s more real than pearls!” Leng ruoxue promised. She then continued, “In fact, the reason I know about this is because your hidden chess piece told me.”

Leng ruoxue’s words were light, but everyone present was shocked. A hidden chess piece? F * ck! No way! The fact that there was a hidden chess piece by the other side scared them so much that they broke out in a cold sweat. They couldn’t calm down when they thought of such a hidden danger by their side. However, most of them were experienced, so when they heard this, their expressions were calm, but in fact, their hearts were already turbulent.

When the Man in Black heard Leng ruoxue’s words, he squinted his eyes and stared at Leng ruoxue, trying to see if she was telling the truth.

However, to his disappointment, Leng ruoxue’s expression was extremely calm. She did not look like she was lying at all. Seeing this, he could not stay calm anymore.

Could it be that the hidden chess piece had told her? Otherwise, how could she have known about the existence of the hidden chess piece and the blood-sucking flower in the secret chamber? This was a top secret. Not many people around his Lord knew about this, and those who were known to outsiders were all dead.

The middle-aged man was bewildered. He didn’t want to believe Leng ruoxue’s words so easily, but at the same time, he didn’t want to let go of any hidden danger around him. So, he was in a dilemma.

Leng ruoxue could tell what he was thinking and added fuel to the fire with a faint smile, “I also heard from that hidden chess piece that he emptied your treasure room in the valley.”

“What?” Indeed, when the middle-aged man heard Leng ruoxue’s words, his expression changed again and again. His deep eyes kept scanning the faces of the crowd, and his heart was already in turmoil!

The treasure room in the valley did not belong to him, but the Lord. Furthermore, only he and the hidden chess piece knew about this. However, he had been troubled by Leng ruoxue and the rest’s matter during this period of time. Hence, he had not discovered that the treasure room had long been emptied out. Now that he heard Leng ruoxue’s words, he was really anxious. The things in the treasure room were the Lord’s many years of accumulation! If he really lost it, his Lord would not let him go.

“You guys keep an eye on them. I’m going back to the bottom of the valley.” After some thought, the middle-aged man said worriedly. Although he didn’t completely believe Leng ruoxue’s words, he would feel uneasy if he didn’t confirm it.

With that, the middle-aged man disappeared.

After the middle-aged man left, the black-robed man stared at Leng ruoxue and the rest even more warily. Uncle long could not help but send a voice transmission to Leng ruoxue, “Little girl, you’re really too bad. Do you want them to turn against each other? Hehe!”

“Yup! If they dare to arrange a hidden chess piece for us, they will have to bear the consequences.” Leng ruoxue replied in a good mood. Actually, she already had some clues about the hidden chess piece. However, she didn’t have enough evidence. What she needed to do now was to make them turn on each other and let them give themselves away. This way, it would save her a lot of trouble.

Now that she had revealed these two things, she didn't believe that the middle-aged man and the hidden chess piece would be able to keep their cool. At that time, even if they didn't kill each other, they would find ways to blame the other party for this matter. Of course, the premise was that they were still alive.

"That's right! This is a good move to kill with a borrowed knife!" Uncle long was full of praise.

"Uncle long, I just don't know if these two will be fooled." Leng ruoxue was slightly worried.

"Hehe! If they don't fall for it, we'll continue to expose the information. Anyway, I'm familiar with the path to the bottom of the valley, so they'll believe whatever I say. " Uncle long laughed evilly. He seemed to be looking forward to this.

"En!" Leng ruoxue nodded, a few drops of cold sweat on her forehead. It seemed like uncle long was even more ruthless than she was! However, he couldn't be soft-hearted when dealing with bad guys. Otherwise, he would only regret it.

After waiting for a few minutes, the middle-aged man returned with a cold aura. He could not hide the anger on his face at all. The flames of anger in his eyes were like two small volcanoes, burning fiercely ...

"Uncle, I didn't lie to you, right?" Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

"Today, none of you will leave this place alive." The middle-aged man ignored Leng ruoxue's question and replied coldly. His furious gaze was locked onto a person who was hiding behind the crowd.

"Wen sublimate! How dare you betray the Lord? you're dead!" Then, the middle-aged man shouted and instantly attracted everyone's attention.

Could it be that the Wen family head was the hidden chess piece? everyone was shocked. This was something that none of them had expected. It was too unexpected.

The crowd couldn't help but make way for him. Wen Shuhua, who was also the Wen family head, was exposed to the crowd.

The Wen family head's face turned green and black, his eyes were dark and his heart was filled with hatred! 'Damn it, this brainless fellow. He exposed himself just by instigating him. He even ignored my voice transmission. This is preposterous!'

That's right, he was the hidden chess piece of the Men in Black, and also one of the people in charge of this secret realm. He had also deliberately lured the ning family master and the others in. However, he had disguised himself very well and had not acted rashly. In order to make it look more realistic, he had even injured himself. After all, he would still be walking in the divine realm as the Wen family master in the future. If others knew that he had done such a thing, the forces of the divine realm would not let him off. However ... He never dreamed that his smart partner would fall for a little girl's trick so easily. She even called him out as she wished. As a result, his secret identity could no longer be hidden, but he would not admit it easily.

He was about to argue, but uncle long spoke first.

“Wen family head, it’s a wise decision for you to forsake the dark and join the light. Don’t be afraid of him. With me around, he can’t hurt you.” Uncle long said confidently.

Then, uncle long continued to narrate the great achievements of the Wen family.

“Everyone, you may not know this, but the head of the Wen family was once their hidden chess piece. However, he has now forsaken the dark side and joined the light. He has also told us many secrets of this secret realm. This is the base of the Men in Black. The map of the underground base in the valley has been drawn by the Wen family head for us. Although he has the treasures in the treasure room all to himself, we can’t be greedy and insatiable. We have to let him get some benefits! Therefore, let’s not be too calculative about this matter. After all, as long as we can leave this place, it’s better than anything else.”

Chapter 1788: Biting back (3)

As soon as uncle long finished speaking, the Cheng family’s Master’s Voice rang out.

“I fully support uncle Long’s words. After all, it’s not easy for the old God of plagues. Although he lied to us, now that he knows how to turn over a new leaf, we have to give him a chance to redeem himself! We’ll let him kill this middle-aged man later, does anyone have any objections?”

After the head of the Cheng family finished speaking, he even gave uncle long a tacit look. However, what made the head of the Cheng family angry was that the old God of plagues had actually done such an outrageous thing. He clearly wanted to disregard the safety of the eight great divine regions!

Usually, he would deduct points, scheme a little, and be a little annoying. These were not considered big issues. However, now, he wanted to put the eight great divine domains and a few great guilds to death. He believed that the various powers in the divine realm would definitely not let him off.

Although he didn’t like the old God of plagues, they had known each other for so many years. He really didn’t expect that the old God of plagues would be a hidden chess piece for this mysterious force. After all, the old God of plagues was a Supreme God! And his actions were definitely a disgrace to the reverent-God!

“Clan head Cheng’s idea isn’t bad. Let’s have him deal with this black-clothed man in a while!” At this moment, the head of the Yao family, who had been watching the show for a long time, also spoke up. His deep eyes looked at the head of the Wen family in an extremely unfriendly manner, and the anger in his heart could not be expressed in words.

The Yao family had suffered heavy losses in this trip to the secret realm. Whether it was people or money, they had suffered a great loss. He did not expect that all of this was caused by the old God of plagues. This fact made him more and more angry.

In the eight divine regions, he had always been close to the old God of plagues. Although the relationship between the two could not be said to be very close, they had schemed against each other. However, the two families had cooperated quite a lot. Moreover, they were both less popular among the eight divine regions. Therefore, the two families could be regarded as comrades in the same trench. However, he did not expect that the damn God of plagues had even deceived him! He even caused the death of many elders of the Yao family, how preposterous! He would definitely settle this score with the old God of plagues!

“Yao family head, I know the relationship between your two families has always been good. I think you should help the old God of plagues later! Don’t let this black-clothed man escape.” The head of the Cheng family suggested with a smile.

“Who has a good relationship with him? Our relationship is just average.” The head of the Yao family hurriedly clarified to avoid any misunderstandings from the people present, because he had already felt quite a few strange gazes.

“Al! Yao family head, I know that the old God of plagues was wrong in this matter, but you don’t have to be so eager to cut off all ties with him! We all understand, we won’t force you two to be together.” The patriarch of the Cheng clan said in understanding, his clear eyes filled with disappointment.

When everyone present heard the patriarch of the Cheng family’s words, they all fell into deep thought.

“Master Cheng, the old ancestor is right. We’re not familiar with the Wen family. This is a well-known fact.” An elder of the Yao family said.

“Since you have to put it this way, then fine! I’ll just treat it as you’re not familiar with each other.” The head of the Cheng family said helplessly, but his words made the Yao family even more depressed.

Hearing master Cheng’s words, Leng ruoxue laughed secretly in her heart. Her beautiful eyes were also secretly observing the crowd’s reaction. She saw that everyone was looking at master Wen with disdain, and that old man’s face was even darker than the bottom of a pot.

That’s right, uncle long, the Cheng family head and the Yao family head continued to speak, not giving the Wen family head a chance to refute at all. He was probably already exploding with anger in his heart, but it would be better if he died from anger too. It would save them a lot of trouble if that middle-aged uncle died from anger too!

As Leng ruoxue’s thoughts ran wild, master Wen finally got the chance to speak, “Don’t believe him, I’m not a hidden chess piece! He’s clearly trying to sow discord!”

However, no one present believed his words and they all looked at him with judgmental eyes. After all, if he was not a hidden chess piece, why would the Man in Black have his eyes on him? There were so many people, why didn’t the other party just randomly accuse others?

Moreover, the people present were no fools. How could they not see that this was clearly the Wen family head’s attempt to cover up. Hence, the more he wanted to clear his name, the less people would believe his innocence.

“Me? What a joke! I’m telling the truth. Since you dare to betray the Lord, you should think about how to bear the anger of the LORD! Her Highness will never let you go.” The middle-aged man said ruthlessly. Then, he waved his hand and the Men in Black immediately brought three people out of the valley.

As soon as the three of them saw the Wen family head, they immediately shouted, "Master, save me! They're going to kill us."

They were the three elders of the Wen family who had been captured by the monster.

After seeing them, everyone understood that the people who were thought to be dead were actually alive and well. Moreover, the clothes on them were obviously new and their faces were ruddy. It was clear that they had been taken good care of these few days. In this way, it also confirmed the identity of the Wen family's master as a hidden chess piece.

"Wen family head, do you know these three people? You asked me to take good care of them. I didn't let you down, did I? I've been raising them until they're white and chubby. In a while, I'll feed them to the blood cherry blossoms. I'll have to let them die a worthy death! This is also the interest for betraying his Lord." The middle-aged man's eyes were filled with killing intent. He was like a demon from hell. Then, he raised his hand again and the three elders of the Wen family were taken away.

"Master! Help me!"

"Master! Save us!"

Hearing the howls from afar, the crowd didn't show any sympathy. Instead, they looked at the Wen family's head with a gloating expression. They started to discuss what I said and what he said.

"We'll see! This is the consequence of asking a Tiger for its skin."

"Now the Wen family has lost another three elders. The loss of strength is not small!"

"Who can you blame? If he didn't trick us into coming here, and in order to gain our trust, we also brought in many of the Wen family's people, I'm afraid they would still be alive and well! This is karma!"

"Do you really believe that those three people will die? Maybe they're just putting on an act for us."

The crowd discussed without any restraint while the Wen family head's face alternated between red and white before turning black. His dark eyes were filled with hostility as he stared at the middle-aged man like a venomous snake.

"Everyone, please calm down!" The head of the Wen family spoke again.

The crowd quietened down upon hearing his words and looked at him warily. Actually, they mainly wanted to hear what else he had to say. After all, they could not judge who was right and who was wrong based on a few words from the enemy. If they had more evidence, they would be able to spurn the Wen family head with more ease.

"There is indeed a hidden chess piece by our side. However, that person is not me, but her!" After that, the Wen family's master said some shocking words and pointed at Leng ruoxue.

Chapter 1789: Uncle, are you going to fight?(1)

“Uh!” This time, everyone didn’t know what to say. This, this was considered shirking responsibility? Since Leng ruoxue said that he was a hidden chess piece, he would bite back at her. However, deep down, they seemed to believe that Leng ruoxue was innocent.

Leng ruoxue laughed after hearing master Wen’s words.

“That’s right! He’s biting back at us. Little girl! How could this be good! A thief crying out To Catch a Thief, this time you won’t be able to clear your name even if you jump into the endless sea!” Uncle long teased with a smile.

“Then don’t jump! Uncle, this old man has wronged me!” Leng ruoxue rolled her eyes at uncle long, who loved to see the world in chaos, and looked at the middle-aged man with a wronged expression.

However, before the middle-aged man could speak, the Wen family head spoke again impatiently, “Did you guys see that? She’s on very good terms with this middle-aged man.” He was so angry that he gritted his teeth. He could not wait to skin Leng ruoxue and this middle-aged man alive. These two people were too detestable. They had actually joined forces to deal with him!

“My relationship with uncle is very ordinary. Uncle also wants to kill me, right? Uncle?” Leng ruoxue raised her head and looked at the middle-aged man with a wronged expression.

“That’s right! All of you will die!” The middle-aged man said angrily.

“We’re not afraid of death. However, before we die, we want to know something. You said that the head of the Wen family has betrayed your master. Can you show us any evidence to prove that you two are colleagues? Uncle, you will fulfill our last request before we die, right?” Leng ruoxue said pitifully. Her beautiful eyes were still misty. However, when paired with her disguised face, no one could pity her.

“Hmph! Since you want to know, I’ll tell you.” The middle-aged man said. After he finished speaking, he pulled open his shirt, revealing half of his chest. The demon’s first reaction was to cover Leng ruoxue’s eyes.

“Damn it, why did you suddenly take off your clothes? A exhibitionist!” The demon roared in anger. Instantly, everyone’s foreheads were filled with black lines.

“Didn’t you want evidence?” The middle-aged man gritted his teeth. Damn it, how dare they call him a revealing maniac? where was he exposed?

“But you don’t have to take off your clothes! Don’t you know that there are girls here?” The demon reproached. When everyone heard his words, cold sweat began to drip down their bodies. This was not the main point, okay?

“The evidence is on my chest. On the chest of the Wen family head, there’s a flower that’s exactly the same as mine. If you don’t believe me, you can just pluck it out and take a look.” The middle-aged man suggested.

When everyone heard the middle-aged man’s words, they focused their eyes and indeed found a red flower the size of a baby’s fist on the left side of his chest. The flower looked like a cherry but not a cherry, like a lotus but not a Lotus. It was fiery red, and the petals were overlapping, delicate and beautiful, as if it was alive and growing on the middle-aged man's chest. What was even more amazing was that the veins on the petals were faintly visible, as if blood was flowing ...

After careful observation, they finally confirmed that the flower was alive!

Oh my God! There was a living flower growing on his chest. This, this was too horrifying!

At this moment, Leng ruoxue removed the evildoer's hand that was covering her eyes. She looked at the bewitching red flower. In reality, she wanted to take a few more glances. Unfortunately, the evildoer was guarding against her as if she was a thief, so she could only take a quick glance. Following that, her beautiful eyes turned towards uncle long. Upon seeing this, uncle long nodded his head imperceptibly.

After Leng ruoxue confirmed it, her beautiful eyes stared at the Wen family head who was still calm. She smiled and said, "Wen family head, let us take a look at your chest! To prove your innocence. "

"Hmph! Why should I let you see it?" The Wen family's head said with a look of disdain. In his heart, he hated Leng ruoxue and the middle-aged man to death. Damn it, they actually betrayed him! He would not let these two off! However, what he should be thinking about now was how he could escape from this place. He was a little depressed. The people on both sides regarded him as a traitor. It didn't seem easy to escape from their pincer attack. He knew that everything was Leng ruoxue's fault. Hence, he would never let her off!

The head of the Wen family responded calmly, but he was thinking of a way to escape.

"Are you scared?" Leng ruoxue provoked.

"Wen family head, even if you don't want this little girl to see, shouldn't you at least let us see? If you don't have this mark, we can prove your innocence. " At this moment, the head of the Yao family also said. His shrewd eyes were like those of a venomous snake as he stared at the Wen family head, afraid that he would make any strange moves. After all, they both knew each other very well.

"Good! Since you want to see it, then I'll let you see it!" The head of the Wen family pondered for a moment, then placed a hand on the front of his shirt. Just when everyone thought that he was going to rip off his clothes, he suddenly leaped up and grabbed the person closest to him in his hand ...

"Master! Help me!" The man who was captured cried out for help. Uncle long and the others who were further away could sense the Wen family head's unusual behavior but they were in no hurry to rescue him. After all, the other party was also a reverent God. However, this also confirmed the Wen family head's identity as a hidden chess piece. This time, everyone understood even more without anyone saying anything.

"Wen family head, now you have nothing to quibble about, right?" Uncle long asked with a smile. He was obviously very satisfied with the result.

"Hmph! You've forced me to do this. " The Wen family head said hatefully, the hatred in his dark eyes was so deep that it could not be concealed.

“How did we force you? I only exposed your identity.” Leng ruoxue was a little speechless. Did the Wen family head have persecutory delusions? He actually said that they forced him to.

“Wretched girl, it’s all your fault. If it wasn’t for you, the Wen family members wouldn’t have died and my identity wouldn’t have been exposed. I won’t let you off.” The Wen family’s head roared with a ruthless expression. His eyes were bloodshot and filled with a murderous glint, as if he was going to swallow Leng ruoxue alive.

“Old man Wen, you’re being unreasonable here! You’re the one who caused the Wen family’s death, yet you’re blaming it on me. Isn’t this bullying the weak? As for exposing you, I’m just telling the truth! A good child should not lie! Moreover, if you dare to do it, you must dare to admit it. You’ve already done it yourself, so why don’t you let others say it? Right! Uncle? He’s really too unreasonable.” Leng ruoxue said with an aggrieved expression. As she spoke, she dragged the middle-aged man into the water.

However, this time, the middle-aged man did not pay any attention to her. Instead, he crossed his arms and watched the show. He could not wait for Leng ruoxue and the rest to kill the Wen family head! It was also to help him vent his anger. Then, when both sides were heavily injured, he would make a move to eliminate these people in one fell swoop and atone for his sins. Right now, his only hope was that his Lord would be lenient on him. Hence, he cooperated with Leng ruoxue’s words and revealed the hidden chess piece.

This was because he was very clear that after such a slip-up, only one of them could live. If one did not do something for themselves, they would be destroyed by heaven and earth. Whether the Wen family head had really betrayed them as Leng ruoxue had said, it was no longer important. What was important was how he could reduce his punishment. Hence, he had hit him when he was down, just as Leng ruoxue had hoped.

Chapter 1790: Uncle, are you going to fight?(2)

Besides, even if he were to die, he would have to take someone with him. He believed that master Wen must be thinking the same thing. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have taken the initiative to gain the upper hand. Now that he saw master Wen in such a passive position, he was happy. At least, there was hope for his life to be saved. If he couldn’t, master Wen’s days would probably not be good, because he knew very well how terrible the punishment for traitors was!

It was a good thing to have so many people to accompany him before he died. Looking at Leng ruoxue and the rest, the middle-aged man thought to himself and began to plan.

However, was it that easy to be an Oriole?

Seeing through the middle-aged man’s thoughts, Leng ruoxue’s expression became even more aggrieved. Her beautiful eyes were filled with tears as she said in an aggrieved tone, “Uncle! Can’t you say something fair? After all, you were once colleagues. You should be more familiar with the Wen family head’s character, right?”

The middle-aged man still ignored her. On the contrary, the Wen family head couldn’t hold it in anymore and roared, “Black one, I won’t let you off!”

“The same! Both of them! Hei er, I won’t let you off either.” The middle-aged man finally responded.

“Damn it, don’t call me hei er! I’m Wen sublimite!” The head of the Wen family said angrily. Every time he heard the ‘name’ black two, he would remember that he was ranked after black one. This fact made him extremely vexed.

“You will always be black two in my heart.” The middle-aged man said in a serious tone. His words made Leng ruoxue burst out laughing.

“Hahaha! Uncle, you’re so cute! Your words are so affectionate, I’m almost touched by you.” Leng ruoxue said with a face full of admiration. When the crowd heard Leng ruoxue’s words, they all laughed without restraint.

“Hahaha! It seems like there’s something going on between them!” Uncle long laughed.

“MMH! This is a must, the old God of plagues has always liked both men and women!” The head of the Cheng family chimed in with a smile. Their echoing of each other made the crowd laugh even more heartily. Meanwhile, the middle-aged man and the head of the Wen family were so angry that their faces turned ashen, and they seemed to be on the verge of losing control.

“Dammit! All of you, shut up! Otherwise, you’ll regret it.” The middle-aged man bellowed in rage. His gaze was like a sharp sword as it shot towards Leng ruoxue. This damned girl. It was all her fault. He would never let her off.

“If you’re talking nonsense, I’ll kill him!” The head of the Wen family also placed the sword in his hand across the neck of the hostage in his hand and threatened with a dark face.

“Don’t! Don’t kill me! The clan head! Help me!” Hearing this, the hostage was scared and quickly asked for help.

“Uncle, Wen family head, your hearts are so United! You even threatened us one after the other. Have you discussed this beforehand?” Leng ruoxue smiled, her face filled with curiosity.

“Who discussed it with him?” The two men’s faces were black as they said in unison, but the moment they said it, they regretted it so much that they wanted to bite off their tongues. Was this a cover-up? In addition to the ‘sure enough’ expression on everyone’s faces, the anger in their hearts burned even more exuberantly. They really wanted to kill someone now!

At the thought of this, the head of the Wen family unconsciously tightened his grip on the sword in his hand. The sharp blade easily cut open the hostage’s neck and blood flowed down the tip of the sword. Seeing this, the hostage cried out again, “Master! Help me!”

The crowd looked at the hostage and then at the head of the Yao family, but no one expressed their opinion.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue opened her mouth helplessly, “Wen family head, what are you trying to do? Are you using this man to threaten us?”

“Hmph! You’re right! You’d better make way for me, or I’ll kill him!” The Wen family head said after some thought. He thought about it and felt that it was better to leave this place first. Otherwise, with these people around, he was afraid that he would lose his life. Moreover, he was very clear that neither side would let him off now. All of this was naturally because of this wretched girl. However, it was never too late for a gentleman to take revenge. He would wait until he left this place first and make some arrangements before he came back to take revenge on these people! In short, he would not let anyone here go.

“I’ll open up a path for you so that you can have a chance to escape and then come back to take revenge on us, right? Do you think we’ll let the Tiger return to the mountain?” Leng ruoxue said with a half-smile.

“Hmph! You don’t have a choice! Move aside, or I’ll kill him!” The head of the Wen family said proudly.

“If you want to kill, then kill! He’s not anyone to me!” Leng ruoxue said emotionlessly. She was a little speechless. This hostage belonged to the Yao family. Would it be useful to use the Yao family to threaten so many of them?

Let’s not talk about how unwise it was to let go of the Wen family head, let’s talk about the hostage in his hands! Most of the people present didn’t like the Yao family, and now was a critical time, so there must be some sacrifices. If she let the Tiger return to the mountain, she was afraid that there would be endless trouble in the future. Therefore, she believed that no one present would be willing to let go of the Wen family head, this vindictive villain. Otherwise, he would be asking for trouble. Therefore, even if the Yao family head wanted to save his descendants, he would probably be powerless. After all, he would not make so many forces his enemy just for one family member!

“Yao family head, don’t you feel any heartache?” When the Wen family head heard Leng ruoxue’s words, he immediately turned to look at the Yao family head, a smug look flashing across his face.

“Wen family head, if you dare to hurt a single hair on his head, I will make your Wen family die with him! However, don’t think that we’ll let you go. You have two choices now. One is to surrender, and we might let you live. The other is that if you continue to resist, we’ll kill you!” The head of the Yao family said coldly. Although he really wanted to save his descendants, he also knew that he couldn’t let this old plague go. Otherwise, he would bring endless trouble to his family. It would be best if he could save this descendant, but if he couldn’t, he would take good care of this descendant.

In fact, the reason why the head of the Yao family made such a decision was that he had no choice but to recognize the situation. After all, the Yao family was now alone. If he insisted on releasing the old God of plagues, he was afraid that it would cause public anger. Therefore, he could only choose to give up on his descendant, hoping that his sacrifice would be worth it and that the people present would be grateful.

However, his wish was good, but he was destined to be disappointed. Because no matter what decision he made, no one present would be grateful to him. On the contrary, everyone thought that the Yao family was held hostage because of his carelessness, or that there was something fishy between the Yao and Wen families. Otherwise, why would the Yao family be the hostages? After all, it was common knowledge that the two families had a good relationship.

One must know that at this moment, no one was willing to have any relationship with the Wen family. Otherwise, it would only cause public anger.

Moreover, after such an incident happened, everyone's suspicion had increased. Therefore, although the Yao family's choice was to their liking, the seeds of suspicion had already been planted in their hearts. Therefore, when they saw the Yao family, they couldn't help but let their imagination run wild. It was impossible to make them grateful for the Yao family's sacrifice. More importantly, even if the Yao family's head wanted to save his descendants and let the old plague go, he would have to see if they allowed it! After all, the old God of plagues was not only the Yao family's enemy! No one could bear the consequences of letting the old God of plagues go.
