

Crazy Wife 1901

Chapter 1901 Dreamdust Space \(3\)

When they met this woman, she was being attacked by a young man and his men. Later, they found out that the man was the woman's fiancé. Suddenly, a group of crows flew over their heads and they felt that they had been too nosy! Especially Feng Da, who was extremely depressed as if he had eaten a dead fly. What made him even more mad was that the woman actually pestered him and wanted him to be his guard!

Hearing Lin Yuan's threat, the woman's face turned pale with fright. However, she still refused to admit defeat and said, "You, you dare! If you dare to do that, I won't let you off. "

"You can try and see if I dare to or not!" When Lin Yuan said this, his eyes were looking in another direction, which was the direction of the woman's fiancé. As if their hearts were connected, the young man was also staring at them.

Upon seeing this, Lin Yuan's lips curled into a smirk.

Although the two of them were engaged, their relationship seemed to be very unusual.

"If you dare to hand me over to him, I won't let you off!" The woman was at a loss for words. Other than this sentence, she could not think of anything else to threaten Lin Yuan with. However, Lin Yuan did not care about her threat at all.

"Isn't that man your fiancé? Isn't it only right and proper for him to protect you?" Lin Yuan said with a smile.

"Who needs his protection? even if I die, I don't need his protection!" The woman shouted in excitement.

"Tsk ts! Hearing this, your fiancé will be so sad!" Lin Yuan said with a look of sympathy. As expected, the man's expression changed.

"You shut up!" The woman felt the cold wind behind her and couldn't help but shout.

"What do you think I like to talk to you?" Lin Yuan said in an infuriating manner. After he finished speaking, he really did not say anything else.

The woman glared at him with her watery eyes, unable to vent her anger. Her face turned from red to white, and from white to red again.

Looking at the tense atmosphere, Leng ruoxue sighed softly and said, "Miss, although I don't know what's going on between you and your fiancé, it's a private matter after all. Feng Da has helped you once, and he won't help you a second time. So, don't bother him anymore. Let's put an end to this matter!"

"I ..." The woman was not convinced and wanted to retort. However, under Leng ruoxue's sharp gaze, she could only obediently shut her mouth.

Following that, Leng ruoxue introduced Ji Yun and the others to Feng Da and the others. After exchanging some pleasantries, they completely ignored the woman's presence. The woman was so angry that she stood at the side and stared helplessly. However, no one paid her any attention!

The more she thought about it, the angrier she got. She stomped her feet and turned around to leave angrily.

As she watched the woman's back, Leng ruoxue asked curiously, "Who's that woman? How did you manage to save her?" From what she knew, Feng Da and the others shouldn't be people who liked to meddle in other people's business!

"Miss, it's depressing to say that I didn't plan to save her at all. It was just that when she had a conflict with her fiancé, we were dragged into it. So, I had no choice but to help. Otherwise, that man would have killed me." Feng Da explained.

"There's such a thing?" Looking at the depressed Feng Da, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but laugh. It seemed like this was an unexpected disaster for Feng Da.

"Yes, ever since I accidentally saved her, my good days have come to an end." Feng Da put on a bitter face and said pitifully.

"Hehe!" Upon hearing this, Lin Yuan could not help but chuckle.

"You're still laughing?" Feng Da glared at Lin Yuan and said fiercely.

"Don't you think it's funny? I've been here for so long, if I don't have these jokes, I'll be depressed to death." Lin Yuan said with some schadenfreude. He had almost become used to seeing one of them chasing and the other hiding every day. If he didn't see them for a day, he would feel that something was wrong.

"You! Just you wait, after we leave this place, I'll challenge you to a one-on-one fight!" Feng Da was so angry that he had to hold it in for a long time before he could say this.

"Let's fight one-on-one then, who's afraid of who!" Lin Yuan didn't mind. Anyway, with Miss around, Feng Da couldn't do anything to him!

"Stop bickering. You haven't told me who that woman was!" Leng ruoxue saw the two of them bickering as if there was no one else around and could only remind them. "Know yourself and know your enemy, and you will never lose a hundred battles!" She didn't want that woman to cause any trouble for them.

"Uh! We don't even know who she is. Even though she always asked, 'do you know who I am?' However, she has never revealed her identity!" Lin Yuan scratched his head and said in embarrassment.

"Uh!" When everyone heard this, their foreheads were full of cold sweat. They thought to themselves, this matter is so troublesome, and they still don't know that woman's identity!

"Miss, do you want me to ask her?" Lin Yuan saw everyone's expression and probed.

"There's no need to ask her, someone's coming." Leng ruoxue said.

As soon as she finished speaking, a young man strode up to them and said very politely, "Good day, everyone! I'm Murong Fei!"

"What are you doing here? We don't welcome you." Feng Da looked at the young man and said in an unpleasant tone.

"Hehe! This brother, we had some misunderstanding earlier and I, Murong ni, would like to apologize to you." Feng Da's reaction was within Murong Fei's expectations but he wasn't angry. Moreover, he didn't expect that these people would have relations with the ning family. In this case, he had to apologize sincerely.

Feng Da shot a glance at Murong Fei and snorted coldly as he turned his head away. It was obvious that he was still angry. After all, no one would be nice to someone who had tried to kill them.

"Murong Fei? The young master of the Murong family?" At this moment, Yu Chen, who had heard Murong Fei's self-introduction, said indifferently.

"Yes, young master Yu, I've long heard of your great name!" Murong Yuan nodded her head to express her good will.

"I don't dare! I should be the one who's been looking up to young master Murong for a long time." Yu Chen replied courteously. Then, he transmitted a message to Leng ruoxue, "Little sister ruoxue, this Murong clan is also one of the top clans in the divinity. Even though they are ranked behind our Yu clan among the many top clans, they have always been mysterious and no one would dare to look down on them. Therefore, if possible, try not to offend them at this time. Otherwise, if he uses some tricks behind our backs, we will also be in trouble."

"En!" Leng ruoxue nodded her head slightly. Before she could figure out Murong Fei's purpose for coming, she would of course not take the initiative to offend him.

Hearing Yu Chen's words, Murong Fei knew that he was just being polite so naturally she wouldn't take it seriously. After all, among the many young masters of the families, Yu Chen's reputation was rather great. However, he was giving him face so he had to appreciate it.

With a faint smile, Murong Fei opened her mouth again, "Young master Yu, who are these people?"

"These three are from the Ji family. This is my little sister, her husband, and her subordinate." Yu Chen pointed at Leng ruoxue and the others as he gave a simple introduction.

"Oh! I had some misunderstandings with them before, so I'm here to apologize and clarify the misunderstanding." Murong Fei smiled as she explained, and she swept a glance at Feng Da and Lin Yuan.

"Is it a misunderstanding that you want to kill us?" After hearing Murong Fei's words, Feng Da questioned her coldly.

"At that time, I was in a fit of anger, so what I said was a little ... I hope you don't take offense!" Murong di said shyly.

"It's fine if you don't want us to take offense. Just keep your fiancée in check and don't let her bother us. We'll pretend that nothing happened!" Lin Yuan stated his conditions.

"I'll try my best, but Lin 'er has been spoiled by her family since she was young, so she's a little willful" Murong di said, but before he could finish, he was interrupted by Lin Yuan.

"You mean you can't control her?" Lin Yuan said with a look of disdain.

"I'll try my best. " Murong Fei said very implicitly. In fact, he really couldn't control that detestable woman and didn't want to control her.

"Then we'll wait and see." Lin Yuan said with a smile.

Murong Fei unwillingly nodded her head. She knew that this fellow didn't think highly of her but she couldn't blame him for this. Who asked his previous performance to be like this!

Initially, he wanted to get closer to Leng ruoxue and the others. However, he saw that the crowd did not seem to welcome him, so he could only take his leave embarrassedly.

After Murong Fei left, Leng ruoxue looked at Feng Da and Lin Yuan indifferently and asked, ""As long as he takes care of his fiancée, you really won't care about him trying to kill you?"

"En!" Feng Da nodded his head heavily. As long as Murong Fei was able to control that top quality woman, it didn't matter if he suffered a little. He was really frightened by that woman.

Looking at Feng DA's fearful expression, Leng ruoxue laughed in her heart. It seemed like that woman was quite powerful. She could actually resolve the enmity between them and Murong Fei. However, this was good too. At least they could focus on the competition.

Before Leng ruoxue could put down her thoughts, an extremely mechanical voice suddenly rang out in the huge public square.

"Welcome to the Dreamdust space, everyone. I am the space spirit of this place! It's also the final decision for your competition!" The mechanical voice spoke in a very calm tone. Furthermore, it was impossible to tell if it was a male or female from its voice. However, everyone present understood its meaning. It seemed like they were going to have a competition here! But, it shouldn't be like this, right?

Looking at the question marks on everyone's faces, the mechanical voice continued, ""The competition this time will be slightly different from the previous ones, but the results will be the same! So, just bring out your true strength, because the final winner of this competition will get a special prize!"

Chapter 1902 Chaotic Battle \(1\)

Special award?

Only a small number of people were happy to hear these words, while most of them had some doubts in their hearts. At least in their opinion, the special prize that the other party had mentioned was a little hot and not so easy to get.

Thus, everyone fell silent.

The mechanical voice sensed the calm reaction of the crowd. Although it was slightly surprised, it did not show it. Instead, it continued to coax, ""Aren't you guys curious about what the special prize is and how you can get it?"

In fact, what he didn't know was that it wasn't that most people weren't curious, but that the recent series of changes in the special space had made most of them extremely vigilant. After all, no one wanted to lose their lives here.

As soon as the mechanical voice finished speaking, someone really asked.

"What's the special prize? How can I get it?" The person who asked the question was a very wretched-looking young man. His shifty eyes were looking around restlessly, and there was a trace of a lecherous smile on his face. Those who didn't know would think that he was observing the situation here. In fact, his eyes were looking at the beautiful women here. Moreover, he felt that his eyes were not enough, and he wished he could have a few more pairs of eyes.

"No comment!" The mechanical voice replied indifferently.

"You ... Didn't you want us to ask you? I asked but you didn't answer. What does this mean? You're playing with me!" The wretched-looking man roared in anger.

Seeing him being played like a monkey by the mechanical voice, many people couldn't help but burst out laughing.

"What are you laughing at? What's so funny?" The wretched-looking man's face was flushed red, and his embarrassment turned into anger.

Then, he shouted at the empty space, "Damn it, you have to give me an explanation!"

"Hmph! Why should I give you an explanation? This is my territory. If I want to tell you, I'll tell you. If I don't want to tell you, no one can force me!" The mechanical voice said in a very characteristic manner.

"Oh, really? We're the elites of the big families. If our families find out that you're toying with us like this, they won't let you off!" The wretched-looking man was furious and couldn't help but threaten.

When many people heard his words, they couldn't help but shake their heads! I really don't know which family this guy belongs to. How can he be so brainless? He actually dared to threaten his master in someone else's territory. Wasn't he courting death?

Sure enough, not long after they thought about it, they felt a gust of cold wind coming from where they were. Then, they heard 'pa pa'! The resentful and disgruntled man's face immediately swelled up, and blood continued to flow from the corner of his mouth ...

Everyone was shocked. The speed of the mechanical sound was so fast! They had just felt that something was amiss, and the vulgar man was already injured. However, they could tell that the mechanical voice was only trying to punish the vulgar man. Otherwise, he would not have been beaten up so badly.

After the wretched-looking man was beaten up, not only did he not restrain himself, the hatred in his heart rose even higher. He roared at the void indignantly, "What a good guy who hides his head and shows his tail. If you have the guts, come out and we'll fight one-on-one! What kind of ability is it to stab people in the back? You'll only be looked down upon!"

After he finished speaking, the people who were closer to him subconsciously stayed away from him to avoid being accidentally affected by him. However, the perverted man was still unaware. When he saw that the mechanical voice did not respond, he thought that the other party was afraid of him and could not help but feel smug.

Unfortunately, extreme joy begets sorrow!

Just as he was feeling extremely pleased with himself, his entire body suddenly twitched and white foam came out of his mouth. Then, he fell limply to the ground. This time, the people present didn't even feel a slight movement. The vulgar man had already died.

Seeing this scene, everyone was even more bewildered. This, this guy's old habit acted up again, or did he make a move? Now, they had no way to distinguish between the two.

Everyone looked at each other and became even more cautious.

As for the vulgar man's family, when they saw this, they didn't even dare to breathe loudly, let alone seek justice for him.

Not long after.

The mechanical voice finally spoke again.

"Hmph! How dare he act so arrogantly in my territory? I'll definitely let him know why flowers are so red." Now, everyone was finally sure that the man's death was related to the mechanical voice.

Their hearts trembled, and they became even more careful.

When Leng ruoxue heard the mechanical voice's words, she couldn't help but feel speechless. It seemed like the phrase "why are flowers so red" had already become a classic. Even this unknown person in the God Realm knew about it. Indeed, anything was possible!

"If you have any questions, just ask!" The mechanical voice continued.

However, after hearing his words, no one dared to speak.

After all, no one wanted to die!

The mechanical voice was getting impatient with the silence.

"Are you guys going to ask or not? If there's no problem, I'll kill you all directly. It's better than you being an eyesore here!" The mechanical voice was very violent, and the consequences were very serious.

When everyone heard his words, they felt extremely aggrieved!

The person from before had also died!

Now that they were asked to ask again, if their words did not win this person's heart, wouldn't they end up the same as the previous person?

However, if they didn't ask, this person would destroy them again! This was clearly making things difficult for him! Sob ... You can't be such a bully! Everyone wanted to cry to death.

After the mechanical voice finished speaking, it deliberately waited for a while. Who knew that most people were still remorseful and no one responded at all? suddenly, the owner of the voice was furious ...

"Ah!"

With two ear-piercing screams, two more people died.

As for how the two of them had died, everyone was confused because they did not see or feel the other party's attack. However, the two of them had died.

What a strange speed!

What, what a strange technique!

Everyone felt a chill down their spine, and their hair stood on end. Those who were less courageous had already begun to tremble. However, at the same time, the image of the violent mechanical voice had also been deeply engraved in the depths of their hearts. What was even more terrifying was that this was someone else's territory. They would probably be crushed to death as easily as ants.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but frown. This guy was too casual when he killed people. It seemed like he really didn't care about the people here!

However, she couldn't let the owner of the voice continue to be so brutal. It wasn't that she was a Saint, but she was afraid that the weird guy who didn't play by the rules would hurt the people around her.

At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue smiled faintly and said, ""What do you want us to ask? If we asked, would you answer us without reserve?"

"It depends on the situation! It depends on my mood!" The owner of the mechanical voice said arrogantly.

"You killed them because of your mood?" Leng ruoxue understood. From the looks of it, he was also a willful and reckless fellow.

"Of course!" The mechanical voice said matter-of-factly, and its tone was also very annoying, making many people's anger burst out! However, in view of how terrifying this guy was, no one dared to say what they were thinking.

"Oh! Not bad! I really admire your carefree attitude!" Leng ruoxue complimented. However, her words caused some dissatisfaction among the people present, especially those families who had lost their members.

"That damned woman! What did you just say? You actually admire a guy who kills innocents?" Someone immediately jumped out and criticized.

"What's wrong? I can 't?" Leng ruoxue's beautiful face was filled with astonishment. Who was this guy?

"Of course not! Do you still have any humanity! He killed so many of our men, and you still admire him? Are you in cahoots with him?" The man was so embarrassed that he became angry and tried to sow discord.

"You've never killed anyone?" Leng ruoxue ignored the person's words and asked indifferently.

"I, I ..." The man was at a loss for words. Of course, he had killed people before, but all cultivators had blood on their hands. But, how was this the same?

"What's wrong? Are you thinking that you're also inhumane?" Leng ruoxue said with a smile that was not a smile. In a world where the strong were respected, there were many inhumane people. However, these people had all sorts of strange reasons for killing. Of course, there were also people like the owner of the mechanical voice who killed the other party because they did not like the look of the other party. This had nothing to do with human nature, but was due to the environment! These people couldn't possibly use the moral standards of the secular world to set a standard. After all, this was the divine realm!

"I ..." The man continued to be speechless.

At this time, the mechanical voice snorted coldly. The man's face turned pale with fright and he immediately shrank back into the crowd, not daring to make a sound.

Seeing his cowardice, everyone's faces revealed a look of disdain.

He didn't have that much ability, yet he still dared to stand out. Wasn't this courting death?

However, to Leng ruoxue and the mechanical voice, it was just a small interlude. Neither of them took it to heart.

As for the mechanical voice, seeing that it finally found someone to talk to, it magnanimously let the guy go.

Then, he turned to Leng ruoxue and said, "Little girl, I think you're quite pleasing to the eye. If you have any questions, just ask. As long as it's something I can answer, I'll tell you everything I know."

These two attitudes and two different treatments made everyone present envious. Many people even hated themselves for not being women. Look at the difference between before and after. Men were killed directly, and women were more pleasing to the eye! This was clearly gender discrimination! Although many people felt that it was unfair, in the face of the mechanical voice that was full of emotions, no one dared to stand out and express their thoughts.

"Thank you! I want to know, how are we going to proceed with the next match? The strength of everyone present is clearly not on the same level. If everyone were to compete together, it would seem unfair to us who are of lower strength!" Leng ruoxue replied bluntly after hearing the mechanical voice.

"Hahaha! You don't have to worry about that. When the match starts, the opponent's strength will be adjusted according to your own strength. This is also for the fairness of the competition!" The mechanical voice explained.

"Oh! Then how should we compete?" Leng ruoxue nodded and continued to ask.

"Anything! You guys can compete however you want, I won't interfere. " The mechanical voice said irresponsibly. His words made everyone frown. What did he mean? They didn't understand.

"We can compete in any way?" Leng ruoxue was also a little surprised. Was this considered a competition?

"MMH! You can compete in any way you want. There are too many of you now. If we follow the usual competition format, who knows when we'll be able to compete! "Therefore, I can only let all of you settle this on your own. Whether it's a one-on-one battle or a one-on-N battle, it's up to all of you. In any case, only a hundred people will be left here in the end! As for the others, they can only pray for themselves!" The mechanical voice laughed evilly.

"Uh!" Leng ruoxue finally understood. This fellow wanted them to have a chaotic battle first, leaving only 100 people behind before proceeding with the so-called competition! From the tone of the mechanical voice, she could tell that it was gloating over her misfortune.

"Only the final winner will get the special prize!" The mechanical voice added.

"Can the special general be revealed?" Leng ruoxue asked again.

"Of course not! However, I can tell you that the special prize will definitely move everyone! However, only the final winner will know what the grand prize is. The others can only look at the prize and sigh!" The mechanical voice said with a hint of excitement.

"Hahaha! The preliminaries will begin in half an hour. All the best, you guys!" The mechanical voice spoke again, and then he disappeared.

After the mechanical voice left, many people fell into deep thought. Of course, even more people were communicating with each other through voice transmission, discussing their plans. Leng ruoxue and the others were no exception.

"Miss Leng, we'll listen to you on how to fight!" Elder Yi said with a 'we'll all follow your lead' look.

Leng ruoxue nodded her head, then turned her gaze towards Yu Chen, Ji Yun and the rest.

"Big brother Yu, Ji Yun, what about you?" Leng ruoxue asked. If it was possible, she naturally did not wish to fight with them now. However, the Yu and Ji families might not have such thoughts, so she had to clarify things first.

"Ruoxue! Of course, I'm following you!" Upon hearing this, Ji Yun hurriedly said.

"Why are you following my Xue 'er? It's not like I don't have my own family!" Hearing Ji Yun's words, the demon was unhappy.

"I mean, I'll listen to ruoxue's arrangements." Ji Yun explained with an aggrieved look on his face. Wu...Why is this fellow so annoying? She always picked on him!

"You'll listen to whatever Xue 'er says?" The demon raised his eyebrows and asked.

"En!" Ji Yun nodded, his face filled with anticipation.

"What's the use of you listening? Will the Ji family listen to you?" The demon said with a face of disbelief.

"I will! I have the final say here!" Ji Yun said with a nod. Although the Ji family had sent their own elders to participate in the competition, his words still carried a lot of weight in the Ji family. As long as he agreed, those clansmen would not dare to object!

"If that's the case, then you should go and greet the Ji clansmen! Let's not make a move for now and deal with the others first!" The demon laughed. He knew that Xue 'er had the same thoughts as him. However, he didn't want Xue' er to say these words to Ji Yun.

Chapter 1904 Chaotic Battle \(3\)

"Alright!" Ji Yun glanced at Leng ruoxue and nodded. After he finished speaking, he walked towards the crowd.

At this time, the evildoer's gaze turned to Yu Chen. Yu Chen did not wait for the evildoer to speak and hurriedly said, "I also agree with this method. Let's work together to deal with the others first." After saying that, he went to contact his family members.

"What about you two?" The demon glanced at Zhou kun and Meng Bao again.

Zhou kun shuddered, but he could not make the decision.

Meng Bao, on the other hand, said confidently, "no problem!" We have no objections!"

"You have no objections? can you be the head of the Zhou family?" The demon smiled faintly. He didn't really believe Meng Bao's words.

"I'll think of a way to convince them. " Meng Bao said confidently. After that, he dragged Zhou kun away and left for the time being. Needless to say, Leng ruoxue and the others knew that Meng Bao had gone to talk to the Zhou family.

Half an hour was a very short time, and it passed in the blink of an eye. Therefore, many families seemed to be a little flustered. However, every family basically had a few allies or close families, so even if they were a little flustered, they still managed to pull in a lot of partners for their family before the primary selection began.

There were only a few minutes left until the end of the half-hour. A huge screen appeared in the sky above the square where they were. There were only two lines of words on the screen. One was the countdown to the preliminaries, and the other was the number of participants!

Number of players: 59876251

Leng ruoxue did not expect the public square to be able to accommodate tens of millions of people. This was only the tip of the iceberg for the various clans. After all, each clan had less than 30 participants. One could imagine how many clans were participating.

As the countdown reached the last five seconds, the atmosphere became more and more tense.

When the countdown on the virtual screen reached zero, everyone's hearts couldn't help but jump to their throats. In an instant, someone made the first move, and then the scene fell into a chaotic battle ...

In this preliminary, everyone's strength had not been adjusted to the same level as their opponents. As a result, the stronger ones naturally had the advantage. In almost the blink of an eye, many people disappeared with the white light. Whether it was the losers or those who had lost their lives, none of them would remain here.

The number of people on the virtual screen was also decreasing at a speed that was not visible to the naked eye!

Leng ruoxue and the others did not make a move. Instead, they watched on coldly. However, they did not hold back against those who provoked them and wanted to fight with them. After severely injuring their opponents, they disappeared into the White light without any exception.

"Miss! Have they been teleported out?" Lu Tao asked curiously.

"It should be," Leng ruoxue nodded. It seemed like there was a set of judging criteria here. Those who were determined to be the losing side would be teleported out. However, there were also those who were teleported out immediately after death. After all, not everyone would have a sense of propriety in their attacks. There was a considerable number of people who were extremely brutal in their attacks. They would not care about the life and death of their opponents, as long as they won! Of course, it was also to end the battle as soon as possible. After all, there were too many participants.

"Miss, when do we make our move?" Seeing the other participants fighting in full swing, Feng DA's hands were itchy. However, although they had not made a move yet, they had already defeated many participants. Of course, they were all the ones who came to their doorstep.

"No rush! Let's wait and see for now!" Leng ruoxue said calmly. The number of people was still a little too many to her. If she were to make a move now, they would be exhausted to death before they could clear out all these people.

Leng ruoxue would never do something that was not worth it! Moreover, there seemed to be many people who had the same idea as her!

As the number of people on the scene decreased rapidly, more and more people started to move. Of course, there were also people who had their eyes on Leng ruoxue's group. After all, their strength was not high. However, elder ye and the other members of the ning family had been guarding the periphery of Leng ruoxue's group. Seeing the aggressive ning family, those who wanted to take advantage of them had to think twice.

Leng ruoxue and the rest did not know whether to laugh or cry when they saw how many people were hesitating. It seemed like the power of the ning family was greater! At the very least, with them around, some random people would not dare to come forward.

"Elder ye, with you around, fewer and fewer people will dare to find trouble with us. If this continues, I'm afraid we won't have the chance to make a move again!" Feng Da grumbled. When elder ye heard this, he looked at Leng ruoxue and the rest with an aggrieved expression. Sob ... Could they be blamed? Before he came here, the family head had instructed that not only must he listen to Leng ruoxue, he must also protect her well. Otherwise, if Leng ruoxue were to hurt even a single hair on her head, he would be banished!

Of course, the prerequisite for all this was that they had the chance to meet Leng ruoxue! And now, they were with Leng ruoxue. Hence, in order to prevent themselves from being banished, they could only treat Leng ruoxue and the others as rare animals and protect them closely.

"Calm down! There will be a chance. " Leng ruoxue glanced at elder ye and tried to hold back her laughter as she consoled him.

"MMH! There were still more than 30 million people! You'll definitely have a chance. " Looking at the numbers displayed on the screen, elder ye quickly chimed in.

Although the battle had only lasted for less than an hour, more than 20 million people had already been eliminated. Such a speed was simply the speed of light!

Elder ye couldn't help but sigh. At this moment, a small group of a few hundred people charged towards them. Instantly, elder ye raised his guard. However, when he caught a glimpse of Leng ruoxue and the rest's calm expressions, he broke out in cold sweat! Was he making a big fuss over nothing?

In fact, Feng Da and the others were excited when they saw these people!

Each of them was so excited that their faces turned red, and their eyes were even shooting out hot sparks. Looking at those people who were rushing towards them, Feng Da and the others felt very kind! It was as if they had reunited with their family after a long time. However, the weapons that appeared in their hands shattered the possibility that they were family.

Seeing the excitement of Feng Da and the others, elder ye's forehead was full of black lines. This, this group of people were really a group of warmongers! Forget it! Since they wanted to fight, then he would give them this opportunity! At the same time that elder ye thought of this, he also made up his mind that he and the others would protect them from the side!

Thinking of this, elder ye gave a look to the ning family. Then, they made way for him. Feng Da and the others rushed out like arrows ...

There were only a few people in Feng DA's group. When they rushed into the crowd of hundreds of people, the weapons in their hands were swung at the other party as if they were cutting watermelons

...

His hand rose and his blade fell.

With a flash of white light, dozens of people disappeared in the blink of an eye.

,m And their attacks were absolutely ruthless, accurate, and fast! He didn't waste any opportunity to attack. Every time he swung his weapon at the opponent, dozens of people would be taken away by the white light. Soon, the small group of hundreds of people was left with only a few dozen.

When the dozens of people saw this, they knew that they had met a tough opponent. However, what made them feel even more depressed was that their strength was obviously above the other party's, but unfortunately, they could not beat Feng Da and the others, who only had a few people. This fact was really too hurtful to their self-esteem.

In reality, what they did not know was that Feng Da and the rest had acted as fast as lightning and eliminated them in such a short time. The main reason was that they were afraid that Leng ruoxue would interfere. Once their young miss made her move, they would have nothing to do with it! These people were definitely an instant kill for miss!

After the transition from a few hundred people to a few dozen people, those people who had come with a menacing momentum and treated Leng ruoxue and her group as pushovers no longer dared to attack rashly. They looked at each other without making a sound and actually did the same thing-escape!

However, Feng Da and the others did not even bother to chase after them when they saw them running away. They returned to the group after sneering.

"Uh!" Seeing Feng Da and the others return in high spirits, elder ye swallowed his saliva with some difficulty and couldn't help but sigh in his heart! What a pervert! Truly abnormal, a few people against a few hundred people and actually won! If it was him, he couldn't guarantee that he could scare those people away in such a short time. However, Feng Da and the others had done it, so he looked at them in a different way.

No wonder the family head attached so much importance to them. As expected, they had the ability. At this time, elder Tong could not even feel jealous. His attitude towards them was even friendlier.

"Hahaha! Elder ye, in the future, if there's someone like this, just leave it to us to deal with them. As for those divine emperors and the like, I'll leave them to you. " Feng Da said with a smile. He knew himself well. He didn't feel any pressure dealing with those people just now. After all, the strength of the other party was not much higher than theirs. When their young lady gave them special training, they had the same experience. However, if the strength of the opponent was too much higher than them, they would not have absolute confidence.

"Yes, yes." Feng DA's words made elder ye nod his head repeatedly.

Time passed.

The number of people on the screen was only maintained at a few million. However, the huge public square was still in a state of chaos. Among them, there were still many ignorant people who had targeted Leng ruoxue and the others. However, those who had come to seek death had never returned ...

Slowly, the number of participants surrounding Leng ruoxue and her group decreased. Leng ruoxue and her group were so bored that they simply sat on the ground. Their carefree attitude angered many people.

However, no one had the time to find trouble with them.

The current situation was that the small families wouldn't dare to provoke them, the top families wouldn't provoke them, and as for the participants of the eight divine regions, they wouldn't provoke them right now either. Who asked the ning family to wear the same pants as them ...

Chapter 1905 Throwing The Game \(1\)

After an unknown period of time, the number of people in the Plaza finally dropped from a million to only a few tens of thousands. However, in Leng ruoxue's eyes, there were still too many people. Not only that, more and more people were targeting them. This was because as the others left the Plaza or died, the number of participants with lower cultivation was also decreasing.

Just as Leng ruoxue and the rest were observing the situation in the arena, a few other participants from different families had their eyes on them. It was obvious that these families were in an Alliance.

Leng ruoxue smiled faintly as she looked at the family clans that were slowly approaching them. She then said to elder qu, "Elder ye, you guys should go and find some opponents to play with!"

Play? When elder Tong heard this, he was speechless. So this young lady had been treating them as a joke all this time? This was really infuriating! Most people were extremely nervous because of this competition, but this person was treating it as a game?

Alright! He had to admit that the other party had the ability to play. Moreover, after living for so long, this was the first time he had seen a contestant so free and easy in a competition. Today could be considered as an eye-opener.

"Yup! Elder ye, hurry up and find an opponent to fight with. With you guys here, not many families will dare to come. " Hearing that their miss was driving them away, Feng Da and the others quickly echoed.

Hearing Feng DA's disdainful tone, elder ye and the rest of the ning family were speechless. Weren't they here to protect them? Great, now she was despised by him. Sob ... Was there any justice left in this world? Elder ye and the others were extremely depressed, but they didn't dare to vent their anger on these people, so they could only vent it on the other participants.

Elder ye rushed forward like an arrow and swept the unlucky ones closest to him out of the arena with his weapon. Those unlucky ones didn't even have time to react before they were reported to be seriously injured.

When the other ning family members saw this, they also rushed into the chaotic battle like tigers and wolves, killing without any scruples ...

With their strong intervention, the number of people in the chaotic battle was decreasing at a speed visible to the naked eye. Many families had a headache when they saw this situation!

F * ck! What had happened to the ning family? They had been biding their time before, but now it was as if they had taken stimulants, one after another. If this continued, it wouldn't be long before they were all spread out. This fact that was about to happen made many families vigilant, and they quietly stayed away from the ning family's battle range.

Before they could come up with a good plan, they should get as far away as possible! More than one family present had such a thought.

When Feng Da and the others saw this, they kept cheering for the ning family!

"Elder ye! Good luck, you guys!" Feng Da and the others shouted.

"Oh right! You guys on the left want to run! Don't let them off!" Lin Yuan reminded.

Their actions had undoubtedly angered the masses!

Those families who wanted to avoid the ning family, when they heard this, suddenly all of their faces were red with anger, and their angry eyes stared as if they wanted to swallow them alive.

Some people even rushed toward Feng Da and the others angrily. When Feng Da and the others saw this, they were all smiling and extremely happy.

As for those participants who had come with an overbearing and angry attitude, they had never expected that they would not be able to return. By the time they realized this fact, it was already too late!

Feng Da and the others would never let go of those who took the initiative to provoke them!

Not only that, but Feng Da and the others also continued to uphold the principle of speed, ruthlessness, and accuracy when they attacked. Almost all of their attacks were fatal, which was equivalent to giving a warning to those who wanted to challenge them.

When those people saw Feng Da and the others! Who were full of killing intent! They were completely dumbfounded. Were these guys still human? He looked so weak, but his combat power was so shocking!

In an instant, everyone felt that they had been deceived. Some even thought of running away. However, since they were already here, how could Feng Da and the others let them go back?

Without giving them too much time to think, Feng Da and the others attacked one after another ...

In an instant! Countless blades flashed with dazzling sparks, causing ripples. In addition to the light of teleportation, the scene became even brighter.

Inside the Dreamdust space, the battle was in full swing. At the same time, outside the arena, it was not calm either.

After the second shock, the huge light curtain outside the arena disappeared. As a result, the representatives of the families outside the arena couldn't see the situation inside the special space through the light curtain. This fact had made many families panic.

After all, many families had sent their elite members to participate in the competition. If something happened to them, it would be a huge loss for any family. Not only that, they wouldn't even know how their family members died. This was something they couldn't tolerate.

As a result, after the light screen disappeared, many families went to look for the person in charge of the competition in the divine lord's estate.

Although many families feared the authority of the divine lord's estate, they could not care so much now that the fate of their clansmen was unknown. Therefore, all the families had a tacit understanding to protect their common interests.

Their interference had given the person in Charge of the God lord's estate's elite assembly a headache.

The Divine Master's estate had specially sent a reverent-God to host the elite competition this time. This showed how much the Divine Master's estate valued the elite competition. The reverent-God had fought for this opportunity with great difficulty from many competitors. However, he had never dreamed that he had not gained any benefits! This time's elite gathering was full of problems, causing him to be badly battered!

This time, his opponent would have a good show to watch!

As the saying went, where there were people, there would be competition. The competition in the divine lord's estate was even more intense. Although he was a reverent-God and had a high status in the divine world, his strength was not the highest among the reverent-gods in the divine lord's estate. The one who was on par with him was his biggest competitor! Basically, the two of them would not give in to each other if they could compete.

In the guest room of the Divine Master's estate, the Hierarch was frowning as he sat on the main seat. In front of him were the representatives from the various families who had come to inquire about the situation. Although the representatives looked very polite and respectful on the surface, he was not happy deep down. This was because the representatives of the various families were not prepared to leave before they received a positive answer from him. Instead, they were sitting face to face with him. He still had to entertain them with good food and drink. No matter how he thought about it, he felt depressed!

"Sir Xia Yi, I wonder when you can give us an answer? We're very worried about our clansmen!" After waiting for a long time and not getting any reply, someone finally couldn't help but ask again.

Chapter 1906 Throwing The Game \(2\)

"I've already reported this matter to the Divine Master, and I believe there will be news soon! Everyone, please calm down!" Xia Yi consoled him with a frown. In reality, he was also a little puzzled. By right, the Divine Master should know everything about the special space like the back of his hand. However, it had been so long. Why had he not sent anyone to inform him of what had happened inside? The last time the barrier was broken, the God Lord had immediately sent someone to inform him. This time, there was no news. It was unusual.

"Sir Xia Yi, please understand our anxiety. The clansmen in this special space are all the elites of our great clans. If they were to suffer any harm, it would be a great loss for us." Someone else said.

"I understand," Xia Yi replied indifferently. He didn't want to argue with them over this matter. In fact, how could there be no casualties in a competition? if the clan suffered such heavy losses just because of a competition, then wasn't the clan a little too weak? He couldn't help but curse in his heart.

"Then, I wonder when Sir Xia Yi will be able to give us an answer?" The man pressed on with an anxious expression.

"I'll inform you immediately once the Divine Master sends someone to inform me. "Of course, if you really can't wait, you can go and see the Divine Master! I believe that the God Lord will give you an answer. " Xia Yi reminded him in a calm and composed manner.

"Uh!" When that person heard Xia Yi's words, he immediately wilted. How could he dare to directly ask the Divine Master? Wasn't that courting death?

"Why do you ask the Divine Master? You're in charge of this matter. " At this moment, a disapproving voice came from outside. Then, a tall middle-aged man strode into the reception room.

The representatives of the various families in the reception room immediately stood up from their seats as soon as they saw the man and saluted him, "Greetings, Your Excellency Huang Wei!"

This person was also a reverent-God, and he was Xia Yi's sworn enemy!

"Hehe! Please don't stand on ceremony, everyone. " Huang Wei said with an amiable smile. He did not put on the airs of a divine reverent. This made everyone feel very comfortable and their impression of him became even better.

"What are you doing here?" As soon as Xia Yi saw this fellow, his tone immediately turned sharp. When everyone present saw this, they immediately understood what was going on! From the looks of it, the rumors that they were at odds with each other should be true!

"I'm here to help you, of course!" Huang Wei said with a faint smile. Then, he sat down in the empty seat beside Xia Yi.

"You're that kind?" Xia Yi asked with a face of disbelief. This fellow was more like a spectator. Why would he help him? Wouldn't it be raining red then?

"I've always been kind!" Huang Wei glanced at Xia Yi and said impolitely.

"You're kind?" Upon hearing this, Xia Yi snorted disdainfully. If this fellow was kind, he wouldn't be able to find an evil person!

"When I heard that there was an accident in the competition, I immediately came to help you. How can I not be kind?" Huang Wei retorted. He couldn't help but laugh in his heart. The Grand meeting of the elites this time was really lively. Every now and then, something would happen. Just by watching it, he was already so happy that his stomach hurt. As for Xia Yi, he must be feeling depressed from his constipated expression! Now, he was glad that he wasn't in charge of this matter. Otherwise, wouldn't he be the one feeling depressed now?

You're kind my ass! Xia Yi could not help but curse in his heart. His expression became uglier and uglier. After glaring at Huang Wei, he simply closed his eyes and pretended to sleep without saying a word. Seeing him like this, none of the representatives present dared to disturb him. After all, he was a divine reverent!

When Huang Wei saw Xia Yi's reaction, he knew that he was quite angry. He smiled indifferently and then started to chat about daily life with the people present to show his closeness.

Although everyone present was somewhat absent-minded at this moment, they didn't dare to not give face to a reverent-God's goodwill.

After a long time, the Divine Master finally sent a guard over.

The guard sent by the master God received many expectant looks as soon as he entered the guest room. He didn't waste any time and told everyone the master God's reply.

"The Divine Master said that this is the normal procedure of the competition. Those people are currently in the middle of the competition, and he asked you not to worry!" The guard said.

"Then why did the light screen disappear?" Someone couldn't help but ask. If the light screen was still there, they wouldn't have to worry about this!

"Hehe! That's to make the game go better. I hope you can understand. The God Lord also doesn't wish for any estrangement to occur between your clans because of this competition, so the competition has been temporarily changed to a closed-off state. I seek everyone's understanding!" The guard said apologetically.

"I see!" Everyone nodded. Since the Divine Master had said so, they naturally could not continue to be entangled in this matter. After reaching this conclusion, everyone stood up and took their leave.

At this moment, the master of the ning family and the others in the arena had naturally learned of this news.

"Brother long! How true do you think the Divine Master's reply is?" The master of the ning family frowned and asked with uncertainty.

"Hehe! No matter how many lies his answer is, we can't be sure that it's not. Since that's the case, why should you be bothered by this? just wait patiently!" Uncle long glanced at the master of the ning family and said indifferently. Then he closed his eyes again.

Seeing him like this, the master of the ning family completely lost his temper. Uncle Long's expression would never change even if Mount Tai collapsed in front of him! It seemed like he still had a lot of training to do!

The great elder swallowed his questions after hearing uncle Long's words. He peeked at uncle long with a hint of resentment, then closed his eyes.

At the same time, in a towering Palace within the Divine Master's estate, a red-robed woman sat on the throne with a dark expression. Her face was like a storm, and her subordinates were all pale-faced and trembling.

"My Lord, please forgive me! We can't contact Dreamdust!" One of the subordinates trembled and said nervously.

"You can't contact him? Then what do I raise you for? You guys are really useless!" The woman, who was addressed as the master, roared in anger. Her originally beautiful face had become somewhat distorted, and her eyes were spitting flames of anger.

That damned Dreamdust! He actually dared to go against her! Hmph! She would not let that guy off! The woman was filled with hatred.

When the subordinates kneeling in front of her heard the woman's words, they felt aggrieved. They also wanted to contact that damned Dreamdust! However, that guy didn't even care about them. What could they do? Even his Lord couldn't do anything to him, so how could Huan Chen listen to them?

Chapter 1907 Throwing The Game \(3\)

"Continue to contact Huan Chen. Tell him that if he doesn't appear, I'll destroy him!" He ordered. The woman saw that her subordinate was silent, so she continued to order with a cold face.

"Yes!" "Yes," the subordinate replied. Then, he stood up and left the main hall.

Just as they left, a figure appeared in front of the woman.

Seeing that detestable figure, the woman's anger grew even more intense!

"What, you're finally willing to come out?" The woman's face was cold as she said in an unpleasant tone.

"Do I dare not to come out? If I don't come out, you're going to destroy me." The owner of the figure said indifferently.

The person who spoke was dressed in white, floating like a fairy. There was a faint smile on his extremely handsome face, but that smile did not reach his eyes. Instead, his originally clear and bright eyes were filled with coldness.

"I only did that to force you out. Do you think I would bear to destroy you?" The woman smiled faintly and said in a flirtatious manner.

"I'm willing!" Huan Chen said coldly. He knew that if he could not be used by her, she would destroy him without any hesitation. Although the price of destroying him was a little high for her, it was better than losing control of herself.

"If that day really comes, you're the one who forced me! Actually, how could I bear to destroy you?" The woman said innocently. Her alluring eyes continued to shoot electricity at Huan Chen, but Huan Chen remained unmoved.

"Is it true that as long as you don't like them and they're not used by you, they're all forcing you?" Huan Chen coldly laughed when he heard the woman's words.

"Of course!" The woman said matter-of-factly.

"Hahaha! You're still as overbearing as ever!" Huan Chen understood.

"It's good you know! Let me ask you, weren't you in a deep sleep? Why did you suddenly wake up?" The woman pressed, her face filled with displeasure.

"I've slept enough, so I'll naturally wake up!" Huan Chen's tone was indifferent, but it was enough to anger people to death! In fact, the reason why he had woken up was all because of this woman. If it wasn't for her, how could he have woken up at this time? However, he would not tell this to the woman in front of him.

"Oh, really? Huanchen, don't blame me for not warning you. You'd better not play any tricks, or I'll destroy you at all costs!" Although the woman didn't fully believe Huan Chen's words, she still glared at him with a pair of flaming eyes.

"Do I dare to play any tricks in front of you?" Huan Chen asked.

"Hmph! Since you don't dare, then be more honest!" The woman continued.

"I've always been honest, you should know that. " Huan Chen said with a faint smile. After saying that, he immediately disappeared.

The woman glared in the direction Huan Chen had disappeared in and gritted her teeth in hatred. Why couldn't that damned guy be used by her? She really hated this weapon spirit with an independent personality.

Huan Chen was none other than the owner of that special space, the legendary weapon spirit.

The special space that hosted the elite competition was a spatial God tool created by the previous divine Lord. The God tool had been created by the previous divine Lord unintentionally, but due to some accidents during the process of creation, not only had the God tool's quality increased by several levels, but it had also given birth to Dreamdust, a tool spirit with an independent personality.

And it was an uncontrollable, disobedient Artifact Spirit!

Of course, it was mainly because he didn't listen to her! Huan Chen's disobedience was also reflected in his unwillingness to recognize her as his master.

As the previous Divine master's sister, she had naturally become the new master of the divine realm after his death. Logically speaking, all of her brother's good things should have belonged to her after his death, but unfortunately, there were always one or two things that were different from the rest. They refused to be controlled by her or acknowledged her as their master, and Huan Chen was one of them. He was also the most difficult one to deal with.

Huan Chen's space was a semi-open space. It was not only accessible to those who had acknowledged a master. Therefore, although Huan Chen currently had no master, they could still compete inside. This was also the setting of her good brother. However, although they could enter, the control of the inside still belonged to Huan Chen. As a divine Lord, she could only use the outer part of the Huan Chen space. As for the real core, she had no way of controlling it! This was also the main reason why the subordinates she had sent into the special space couldn't find Huan Chen. As long as Huan Chen didn't want to see him, no one else would be able to see him!

The woman's head ached at the thought of Huan Chen.

Many years ago, Huan Chen had chosen to let her fall into a deep sleep in order to resist her authority. She was well aware of this. After all, once Huan Chen fell asleep, she would not be able to cause trouble for him. She would not be able to force him to recognize her as his master. Now that Huan Chen had suddenly woken up and caused such a huge commotion, she did not believe that it was just because he had woken up. However, no matter what his purpose was or what plans he had, it was best not to touch her bottom line. Otherwise, no matter how reluctant she was, no matter how great the price, she would destroy the illusion dust!

After the woman made up her mind, her beautiful eyes flashed with ruthlessness. Then, she also teleported away from the main hall.

Within the Dreamdust space.

The number of remaining participants was getting smaller and smaller. The number of people was still decreasing at a speed that could be seen with the naked eye. Of course, the reason why they could leave so quickly was largely due to Leng ruoxue and the others.

Seeing that the number of people in Leng ruoxue's group was getting smaller and smaller, they let loose and prepared to fight with their opponents. However, some of the participants who had been at a disadvantage against them, upon seeing their aggressive appearance, immediately hid far away in fear. They were afraid that they would immediately find them.

When Leng ruoxue and the rest saw this, they did not bother with those cowards. Instead, they went to find their opponents. In any case, most of these people were still going to leave this place.

Feng Da and the others were looking for their own opponents with great pride. As a result, Leng ruoxue was left alone. When some people saw that she was alone, they instantly locked their gazes on her and treated her as their opponent.

After all, in terms of ability, Leng ruoxue was only a god tier master and rarely fought. Hence, many people thought that Leng ruoxue was very weak and that they should pick the soft persimmons to pinch. Hence, Leng ruoxue was targeted by many people in an instant.

Most of these people had their eyes on her because she looked weak. Of course, a small number of them wanted to take revenge. After all, many families had been humiliated by Feng Da and the others just now. If they could take care of this woman who seemed to be very important to them, they should at least be able to regain some face! At this moment, Leng ruoxue's gender was automatically ignored by them.

Looking at the dozens of people surrounding her, Leng ruoxue's face revealed a hint of disdain. She then mocked, "So many of you ganging up on a woman, aren't you afraid of being laughed at by others?"

"Hmph! We're just making use of the rules. We didn't break the rules. However, if you're afraid, you can just kowtow to us and admit defeat. We'll let you live on account that you're a woman! Otherwise, don't blame us for ruthlessly destroying a flower." Someone laughed in a perverted manner. His perverted eyes were still darting around Leng ruoxue's body.

"I won't blame you. Come at me together!" Leng ruoxue laughed nonchalantly. Then, in an instant, she made her move. A flash of red lightning struck towards the man who had just spoken. The target was naturally his face.

With a 'bang', the man's face exploded, and blood gushed out. His perverted eyes were even more bloody from the explosion, and nothing could be seen clearly.

"Argh! My face! My eyes!" The man, who had reacted half a beat slower, was dumbfounded by Leng ruoxue's lightning-like speed. By the time he could react, he was already injured. Immediately after, a white light teleported him out.

When Leng ruoxue saw the man leave, she felt extremely regretful. Actually, she should have been more ruthless! What happened just now was just a small punishment for him. However, he did not expect that he would be teleported out. She couldn't help but feel depressed!

Then, she turned her beautiful eyes to the others.

Since that man had escaped, she could not let these people go.

At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue pointed the longsword in her hand at the people surrounding her and infused her fire-attribute divine power into it. Then, with a light turn of her wrist, thousands upon thousands of meteors that were shimmering with red flames shot out.

The meteor shower wasn't big, it was like a small fire spark. Although there were many of them, the people surrounding Leng ruoxue didn't pay much attention to them and only dodged them slightly. However, when the small fire sparks touched their bodies, they could feel the excruciating pain. The moment the small fire sparks touched their bodies, they immediately burst into flames. In an instant, everyone was in a hurry to put out the fire. There were also some who couldn't bear the pain that penetrated deep into their souls and fainted.

What they didn't know was that this was the result of Leng ruoxue showing mercy. Otherwise, if Leng ruoxue had directly used her own Natal flames, these people would have been burned to ashes in the blink of an eye. Leng ruoxue naturally didn't want this cat and mouse game to end too quickly, so she had deliberately shown mercy ...

Chapter 1908 A Hundred People Reward \(1\)

And the reason she went easy on him was definitely not because she was kind!

Leng ruoxue looked on coldly from the side. She didn't continue to kill the people who were trying to put out the fire in a fluster. However, after those people put out the fire, they turned their angry and hateful gazes towards her. Leng ruoxue was surprised by this.

It seemed that these people hadn't learned their lesson! That's just right, in case they're afraid and don't come to find trouble with me. I'll definitely be depressed then.

"That damned woman! He's really too detestable!" Someone shouted. He wouldn't shed tears until he saw the coffin.

"Don't let this evil woman off!" Someone immediately agreed!

"Then you two can continue to be together!" Leng ruoxue smiled.

"Hmph! Detestable woman, we'll let you know our power now!" Someone boasted shamelessly. Clearly, he had already forgotten about his embarrassing state earlier and attributed it to his own carelessness.

However, no matter what they were thinking in their hearts, Leng ruoxue had thoroughly angered them. So, in order to protect their face and dignity, they knew that they must not let Leng ruoxue off.

In an instant, the situation changed!

The wretched looking men surrounding Leng ruoxue all attacked her at the same time. Furthermore, some of them used their killer moves as soon as they attacked. It was obvious that they did not want to give Leng ruoxue any chance to catch her breath.

Although it was a pity to kill such a beauty, face was more important than women. Otherwise, how could they survive in the divine realm in the future?

Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes stared unblinkingly at the various types of godly powers that were baring their fangs and brandishing their claws at her. She calmly set up a water wall in front of her. At the same time, tens of thousands of fiery red meteors were shot out from her sword and flew towards the opponents who were surrounding her ...

"Hmph! Do you think that this little flame can hurt us?" Someone had forgotten his embarrassment just now and said with a mocking face. After saying that, the others also laughed.

However, the next second, tragedy struck them.

This was because the meteor shower this time was clearly slightly different from the previous one. In this meteor shower, Leng ruoxue had added some of her Natal flames.

In Leng ruoxue's words, she had played enough!

These clowns were not worth her time.

As for those who had weaker physiques, the moment the small sparks touched their bodies, they were immediately turned into ashes. As for the divine skills that they had used to attack Leng ruoxue, they were also reflected back by Leng ruoxue's wall of water and turned around to attack them ...

Then, terrified screams rang out one after another in the sky above the square. However, the people who were in the middle of the chaotic battle did not pay much attention to this side. Therefore, few people noticed how those people had died.

After taking care of these people, Leng ruoxue realized that she had nothing else to do. This was because many of them were currently fighting with their opponents, and no one actually had the time to deal with her.

"Miss Leng! I want to challenge you!" At this moment, a gentle female voice rang out from behind Leng ruoxue. However, before she could turn her head, she saw a beam of light shooting towards her ...

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue quickly dodged, and the beam of light brushed past her.

Looking at the woman who had sneaked an attack on her, Leng ruoxue squinted her beautiful eyes and said indifferently, "It's miss Ji!" She had thought that this woman had gone missing in an accident! Leng ruoxue did not expect him to be here. She was a little disappointed.

"Yes, I want to challenge you!" Ji min boasted shamelessly. She clearly didn't take the sneak attack to heart.

"Miss Ji, don't tell me you don't know about the agreement between me and Ji Yun? Or is it that Ji Yun can't represent the Ji clan?" Leng ruoxue glanced at Ji min with a half-smile and said in an extremely cold tone.

"Hehe! Of course, my brother can represent the Ji family, but the agreement between you two can be ended because there aren't many people here!" Ji min said disapprovingly. Since she dared to challenge Leng ruoxue, she had naturally thought of an excuse. She wouldn't let anyone find any evidence against her. Otherwise, how could she be fit to be the eldest miss of the Ji family? Ji min thought to herself, full of confidence.

"Not many people left?" Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes looked at the crowd in the square in disbelief. There weren't many people left, at most a few thousand! Moreover, their numbers were rapidly decreasing. However, there was still a certain gap between them and not many people. If they were to fight now, it would definitely be a little far-fetched. However, since eldest miss Ji had spoken, she naturally wouldn't let her down.

"Of course! Miss Leng, do you dare to accept my challenge?" Ji min said proudly.

"What's there to be afraid of?" Leng ruoxue laughed lightly. She didn't want to be treated like a soft persimmon.

"Since miss Leng has agreed, then Let's Have a Battle to the death!" Ji min said fiercely.

"A battle to the death?" Leng ruoxue furrowed her brows. Was this Ji min trying to kill her? He actually wanted to fight her to the death?

"What, is miss Leng afraid?" Ji min provoked.

"I'm not afraid! What's there to be afraid of? however, I want to make sure that miss Ji really wants to fight to the death and not just stop at a certain point. " Leng ruoxue asked with uncertainty.

"Of course, it's too boring to stop at a certain point. Which real battle isn't a life-and-death battle?" Ji min said disapprovingly.

"Since miss Ji has made up her mind, I will accompany you to the end! However, it's best for us to sign a pre-war contract before the war to avoid any unnecessary trouble in the future!" Leng ruoxue suggested.

"Miss Leng is really cautious! Don't worry, I won't blame you if anything happens to me. " Ji min promised.

"Words are not proof. It's better to sign a contract. After all, you are Ji Yun's older sister, and Ji Yun is my friend. I don't want him to misunderstand me because of you!" Leng ruoxue had made it very clear that she wanted to sign the pre-war contract for the sake of Ji Yun.

"Alright then! Then let's make a contract so that I don't hurt you accidentally and brother ye will blame me!" Ji min said on purpose, wanting to anger Leng ruoxue. However, Leng ruoxue did not take her words to heart.

Following that, the two of them made an oath according to the contract's rules and stated that the life and death contract they had signed would have nothing to do with the other party no matter what happened during the battle. The family, subordinates, and clansmen of the party who had an accident were not allowed to find trouble with the other party for any reason or excuse. Otherwise, they would be punished by the contract's rules!

After the contract was formed, Leng ruoxue specially requested for it to be materialized so that the two of them could each hold a copy.

After that, the battle between the two of them officially began ...

Ji min made the first move, while Leng ruoxue set up a thin water wall in front of her. Then, she watched the battle as a bystander. Of course, she was the other party in the battle, but it was obvious that she was very calm.

Chapter 1909 A Hundred People Reward \(2\)

When Ji min saw how Leng ruoxue was acting, her lungs were about to explode. Damn it, was she looking down on her? This was because Leng ruoxue was only defending and did not attack at all. This fact had severely hurt her pride!

This ... This was really too much of a blow! He was also looking down on her performance!

"Leng ruoxue! Why aren't you doing anything!" Ji min roared, her beautiful face was so angry that it was somewhat deformed.

"I'm out," Leng ruoxue pointed at the water wall in front of her.

"You're just defending!" Ji min reminded.

"Isn't defending considered attacking?" Leng ruoxue was astonished as she asked without blinking her eyes.

"You ..." Ji min was furious! Although she really wanted to say that defense didn't count, she couldn't bring herself to say it. Furthermore, she also felt that Leng ruoxue was intentionally going against her! She did not believe that Leng ruoxue would not understand what she meant!

However, in the blink of an eye, she was no longer entangled in this.

That was because the light arrow that she had released had actually rebounded after colliding with Leng ruoxue's water wall. It then pounced in front of Leng ruoxue at an extremely fast speed. At that moment, she was quick-witted and quickly dodged. However, the light arrow had still pierced through her shoulder. In an instant, fresh blood spurted out from the hole in her shoulder ...

"Ah!" Ji min cried out in pain. She quickly took out a healing pill and ate it. Although the bleeding stopped immediately, her shoulder still ached.

"You ..." Ji min, whose pain had been slightly relieved, glared at Leng ruoxue. However, she was still at a loss for words. She realized that she actually didn't know what to say! Because she was injured by her own light arrow, even though she wanted to blame Leng ruoxue, she couldn't find a suitable excuse. This made her even more depressed!

Just like that, the two of them stared at each other.

Ji min didn't speak and Leng ruoxue didn't speak either. Ji min didn't attack and Leng ruoxue just looked at her indifferently. She didn't attack either.

After a long time.

Ji min was going crazy!

This person ... This person is really too detestable!

Ji min was so angry that she wanted to scratch the wall. Who did this?

She was already injured, yet Leng ruoxue did not take the chance to attack. Since Leng ruoxue did not attack, she naturally did not dare to attack either. The main reason was that she was a little afraid of Leng ruoxue's wall of water. Even though she was not too sure if the wall of water's reflection was intentional or not, but with the wall of water's ability to reflect damage, she had no choice but to be careful. The best way was to let Leng ruoxue make the first move!

However, Leng ruoxue was obviously calmer than her.

Seeing that Ji min only glared at her fiercely, Leng ruoxue was neither angry nor annoyed. Instead, she took out a reclining chair, a small table, and a few plates of fruit from her bracelet. She placed them in front of her and laid down on the chair leisurely. As she ate the fruit, she looked at Ji min indifferently.

Seeing this, the anger in Ji min's heart rose uncontrollably. This, this damned woman, she clearly wanted to anger her to death! He was really, really too hateful!

She had fought countless opponents in her life, but she had never seen such a detestable opponent. Who would lie down and eat while fighting? Wasn't he deliberately trying to anger others to death?

Ji min's anger rose, and her beautiful face was like a color palette, constantly changing colors. However, Leng ruoxue remained the same.

"Leng ruoxue! We're in the middle of a competition!" Ji min suppressed her anger and tried to calm herself down.

"I know! I'm just waiting for you to make your move!" Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

"I was the one who attacked first just now, now it's your turn." Ji min warned. Her vicious, beautiful eyes glared at the water wall in front of Leng ruoxue. With that thing around, she didn't dare to act rashly.

"Miss Ji, didn't you see that my water wall has always been there?" Leng ruoxue laughed, implying that it was Ji min's turn to attack.

However, Ji min had learned her lesson last time and didn't dare to make a move.

Therefore, the two of them continued to be in a stalemate.

After a long while, Ji min took a deep breath and continued, "Leng ruoxue, there's no point in us continuing this stalemate. Why don't we add some stakes to our battle?"

"A wager? What do you want to add?" Leng ruoxue raised her brows and asked indifferently.

"If I win, you must leave brother ye! "And you're never allowed to appear in front of him ever again," Ji min said with an evil smile. Even though that was what she really thought in her heart, the main reason she said that was to infuriate Leng ruoxue.

"What if you lose?" Leng ruoxue squinted her beautiful eyes and asked calmly.

"If I lose, I naturally won't appear in front of brother ye again and I won't disturb you." Ji min said somewhat self-righteously.

"Do you think this is fair to us?" Leng ruoxue laughed coldly after hearing Ji min's words.

"What's wrong? Do you have an opinion?" Ji min pretended to be puzzled, but she couldn't help but cheer in her heart. Be angry!

"You're nothing to us. It doesn't matter if you appear before us or not. Don't you understand? Do you think I'll agree to use this as a wager? Or is it that in your heart, I'm really that stupid?" Leng ruoxue could not help but laugh. She really did not know what Ji min was thinking. She had never heard of such a prize before.

"You ..." Ji min was furious. Even though Leng ruoxue's words were the truth, it had greatly hurt her self-esteem. What surprised her even more was that she didn't expect Leng ruoxue to say it out so directly. She was clearly not giving her any face.

However, she did not think about why Leng ruoxue would give her face. Since she had already said so, if Leng ruoxue agreed, what would Leng ruoxue be?

"I what? I won't agree to such a prize. If you want me to do as you say, then take out a prize of equal value! Otherwise, there's no room for discussion!" Leng ruoxue said emotionlessly.

A prize of equal value! Where was she supposed to find it? Ji min was extremely depressed. Moreover, even if she could find it, this woman would probably not be satisfied! After all, if it was her, she would not be willing to leave her fiancé if someone wanted her to!

As the saying goes, don't give what you don't want to others!

,m However, Ji min wanted to make things difficult for him!

"Since you don't agree with my suggestion, let's change it!" Ji min's eyes rolled and she smiled.

"Oh! Tell me about it!" Leng ruoxue said indifferently.

"If you lose, I won't ask you to leave brother ye, but you have to allow me to stay with brother ye. How about it?" Ji min requested.

"Are you so sure that I will lose and you will win?" Leng ruoxue laughed. Right now, she really wanted to pry open Ji min's brain to see what was inside. How did she come up with such a weird idea?

Chapter 1910 100-Person Reward \(3\)

"Of course!" Ji min was very confident in this. She knew her own talent.

"Miss Ji, it's good to be confident, but overconfidence makes you a little arrogant! I'm sorry, but I can't agree to your proposal!" Glancing at Ji min, Leng ruoxue stated her decision calmly.

"What, are you scared?" Ji min provoked.

"I'm not afraid. I just won't use my man as a bet. Besides, even if I really agree to your request and you win, you can't stay by his side, because he will kill you without hesitation." Leng ruoxue said.

"This is impossible!" Ji min didn't believe it.

"Miss Ji, that's all I have to say. Believe it or not! However, what I want to tell you is that when you look at a man, don't just stare at his face. There are some men that you can't provoke. " Leng ruoxue reminded him softly. After she finished speaking, she did not say anything else.

"Hmph! You're afraid, aren't you? I'm afraid I'll take brother ye away!" Ji min refused to admit defeat and said.

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue did not even look at her. Instead, she took the treasure out of the bracelet and hugged it in her arms.

"Leng ruoxue! We're in the middle of a competition!" When Ji min saw Leng ruoxue take out another small fox, she was even angrier! Damn it, he didn't even take a look at what time it was, and still had the mood to tease his pet!

"What's wrong with the competition? Hasn't my adorable master been waiting for you to make a move? Ugly woman! Hurry up and don't waste my lovely master's precious time!" Before Leng ruoxue could speak, the baby spoke first. However, the moment it opened its mouth, Ji min was infuriated!

Ugly woman? Was he talking about her? Ji min was so angry that her whole body was trembling! F * ck! He actually dared to call her ugly? Which part of her was ugly? She was also a famous beauty in the immortal realm, but now she was being called ugly by a little fox. How could she accept this?

Ji min, who was filled with anger and hatred, was obviously muddled by the words "ugly woman." Without thinking, she directly released dozens of light arrows to attack the treasure ...

As for the treasure, it only widened its curious silver eyes and stared unblinkingly at the dozens of dazzling light arrows. Then, the treasure watched as the light arrows hit the water wall in front of it and bounced back. Then, the treasure smiled.

Looking at the counterattack of more than ten light arrows, Ji min was momentarily stunned, but fortunately, she quickly reacted and completely sobered up!

'Damn it!' She had actually been angered by this detestable Fox!

One had to know that the light arrow she had just released was not the least bit watered. What she wanted was to kill that damn Fox. Now that the light arrow had changed direction and was coming towards her, what, what should she do?

Looking at the dozen or so light arrows in close proximity, Ji min trembled a little. When the light arrows were right in front of her, she suddenly realized that she should Dodge!

However, it was too late to hide now.

Following that, a 'puff' sound was heard. Pfft!' Dozens of light arrows simultaneously pierced through her body, leaving dozens of bloody holes. In the blink of an eye, blood stained her clothes and she fell to the ground, but her angry beautiful eyes were still full of unwillingness!

She never thought that she would be injured by her own light arrow technique. This fact struck her hard. Then, she felt a breath stuck in her chest and fainted from anger.

Looking at the unconscious Ji min, baby's eyes widened and he said with a puzzled face, "Cute master, she ... Is dead?"

"No, I didn't! He just fainted." Leng ruoxue said with a tinge of regret. She really hoped that this scourge would die immediately! Unfortunately, he was still alive.

"Al! How could this be?" Baby sighed softly, his tone full of regret.

"Cute master, should we help her?" Baby made a cracking gesture and said in a low voice.

"Forget it. She is Ji Yun's older sister, after all." Leng ruoxue said indifferently. She didn't even have Ji min with her. Furthermore, this woman was injured quite badly. She probably wouldn't be able to cause any more trouble for the time being. Since that was the case, why should she be the evil person?

"Master is so kind!" Baby said with a face full of admiration.

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue's forehead was filled with black lines. She was kind? Why didn't she think so?

To Leng ruoxue, Ji min's matter was just an insignificant interlude. After Ji min was sent out by the white light, she turned her attention to the others.

There were only a hundred people left in the Dreamdust space, but there was still a gap between them and the 100 people required by the mechanical voice. Therefore, the battle continued, but the strength of those who remained was obviously not just a little higher.

Basically, among the remaining people, with the exception of a few god tier Masters, most of them had the cultivation base of a divine Lord or above. As such, the God tier Masters naturally became the targets of these people.

However, the God tier Masters who were able to stay here weren't pushovers. Once a god tier master was attacked, his or her family members would swarm over. Therefore, those who thought that they could get away with it didn't gain any advantage. In fact, they were even eliminated.

As time slowly passed, the number of people in the Dreamdust space was finally controlled to a hundred.

After seeing the numbers on the screen, everyone stopped fighting in unison.

Among those who remained, other than Leng ruoxue and the others, the seven God domains and the various top clans only took up a portion of the spots.

"Little sister ruoxue, all of you are the most complete. Congratulations." Yu Chen walked to Leng ruoxue's side and said with a faint smile. He was truly happy for Leng ruoxue. If he could, he also did not wish for his opponent to be Leng ruoxue.

"Brother Yu! Your Yu family is also not bad." Leng ruoxue glanced at the people behind Yu Shu. The Yu family had actually left eight people behind. This was quite a high percentage among a hundred people.

Yu Chen smiled, but he wasn't too complacent. It was obvious that he had already received many unfriendly gazes, so he wanted to keep a low profile.

At this moment, the mechanical voice finally sounded again.

"Hahaha! Everyone, congratulations on being able to stay. " There was no emotion in the tone of the mechanical voice!

"How are we going to compete next?" Someone asked impatiently.

"Hehe! You don't have to compete anymore. " The mechanical voice said.

"What?" Upon hearing this, the hundred people present were all stunned. What did this mean? How can we determine the winner if we don't compete?

"Originally! I was hoping that you could determine the winner and give the final winner a special prize, but I've changed my mind! It's already very rare for you to stand out from so many people, so I've decided to give each of you a special award. You'll all be the final winners!" The mechanical voice said with a slightly excited smile.

"Uh!" When the crowd heard this, they didn't know if they should be happy or worried. Moreover, they had never heard of a competition where a hundred people won. Could this be a team competition?

Moreover, in this case, it was hard to determine which family would be the biggest winner in this elite gathering. Thinking of this, many participants from families were in a dilemma.

They came to the elite competition to win honor for their families. However, if the Supreme honor was obtained by so many families, then the honor was too exaggerated, right?

There could only be one champion, so they were not willing to share it with anyone! Many people couldn't help but think.

Although this was what many people were thinking, none of them dared to stand out. Otherwise, if the mechanical voice got angry and killed them, who would they cry to? With this thought in mind, everyone fell silent.

"What's wrong? Are you guys unhappy?" The mechanical voice was a little annoyed when it saw that everyone's reaction was not very strong.

Everyone looked at each other, but no one spoke.

"Little girl, tell me! Are you guys unhappy?" Upon seeing this, the mechanical voice called out a name. The little girl he was referring to was obviously Leng ruoxue.

Seeing the mechanical voice call out the name, Leng ruoxue smiled helplessly before saying, ""I'm not unhappy about anything, but I think the others will definitely be unhappy! They've come for the honor of their families, and they want to win the final victory and achieve success and fame, but you're clearly letting everyone eat a big pot of rice and get a share of the reward. No one will cherish it!"

After hearing Leng ruoxue's words, the mechanical voice fell into deep thought.

Then, he said, "haha!" The special reward that I'm giving you has nothing to do with the final champion of the elite competition. This is because the reward is given to you by me, not by the Divine Master's estate. After you take my ultimate prize, you naturally have a chance to determine the winner and receive another big prize from the Divine Master's estate! In other words, the champion would have two rewards! It's just that you don't need to compete for my reward. " The mechanical voice changed its tone, and everyone's faces immediately showed joy.

"Then, when can we start fighting again?" Someone asked anxiously. Two grand prizes! Who didn't want to get it?

"Don't worry! According to the previous rules, the final Victor would only be determined after leaving the special space! So, you'll have to leave this place for the rest of the competition!" The mechanical voice said.

When the people present heard his words, many of them revealed anxious expressions. However, Leng ruoxue was somewhat speechless towards this fickle fellow.

Previously, this fellow had said that the competition this time would be different from the past and would be held here. Why did he change his mind now?
