

Crazy Wife 1921

Chapter 1921 Search And Rescue \(2\)

"How can that be? But who are you guys?" Leng ruoxue asked curiously.

"Me, Liu Feng, Shen nuo, first elder, we will all return with you." Liuyue explained.

"Oh! "However, my place has only just started construction. When we left for the Imperial City, the construction was not completed yet, so ..." Leng ruoxue was a little hesitant. She was not sure what her place looked like now. It was unlikely that she would be able to meet anyone.

"It's okay, we won't mind. You have a portable house anyway, so we don't have to worry about not having a place to live." Liuyue said disapprovingly.

"In that case, let's go together!" Leng ruoxue felt a little helpless. Since they had already put it this way, she naturally couldn't reject them. Actually, she really didn't have the intention of inviting them over as guests. After all, her territory was still in its initial stages of construction. However, these people weren't considered outsiders. Since they wanted to go now, she definitely wouldn't reject them.

Seeing that Leng ruoxue had agreed, Liuyue's handsome face broke into a smile. He knew that this little girl would not reject them.

After chatting with Liuyue for a while more, Leng ruoxue stood up and bade her farewell.

Three days passed by quickly.

When the beast race's competition officially began, only a few dozen clans from the human race remained to watch the battle. Most of them were people that Leng ruoxue knew.

Ji Yun, Yu Chen, and the others had all stayed behind.

On The Day of the Beast race's competition, Leng ruoxue and the rest arrived at the competition grounds early in the morning.

Yu Chen, who had arrived a step later than them, couldn't help but tease them when he saw them, ""I've never seen you so enthusiastic in the human race's competition. "

"That's right! What's there to see in a competition between humans? Beastie is cuter!" Feng Da said disapprovingly.

"The beasts are cute, but the beasts that are participating in the competition may not be cute. Didn't you notice that there are many unfriendly gazes here?" Yu Chen said in a low voice.

The majority of the audience were magical beasts with only a small portion of them being humans. As a result, they seemed to stand out from the crowd. Not only that, but many of the magical beasts did not assume human form. Instead, they sat in the audience with the appearance of beasts. They looked even more petite and exquisite among the small mountains.

On the right side of Leng ruoxue and the others 'seats, there was the Python clan. The giant pythons were all sticking out their tongues and would look at them with cold eyes from time to time, causing everyone's hair to stand on end.

On their left sat the adorable members of the leopard clan. The Leopards from the leopard clan were all in mimicry, which made them look even more adorable. These two extremes rendered Leng ruoxue and the rest speechless. However, the leopard clan's attitude towards them was not much better than that of the Pythons!

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue finally realized the insurmountable gap between the magical beasts and the humans. If it were not for the fact that the competition was organized by the Divine Master's residence, the magical beasts would not even share a room with the humans!

At this moment, Leng ruoxue suddenly felt an itch by her feet. Lowering her head, she saw a palm-sized snow-white leopard rubbing against her feet. That cute little appearance made one's heart soften.

Leng ruoxue bent down and picked up the little leopard. At first, the little leopard only struggled for a while, but then it lay quietly in Leng ruoxue's palm. Seeing this, Leng ruoxue took out a red fruit and teased the little leopard.

Junior leopard stretched out his little paw to take the fruit that was emitting an alluring fragrance. However, Leng ruoxue would not let him take it so easily. After a few rounds of teasing, junior leopard pouted and his beautiful silver eyes became misty. Then, with a "waa" sound, he burst into tears.

"Uh! Don't cry! Don't cry! Here you go!" Leng ruoxue saw that she had made the little fellow cry and hurriedly tried to comfort it. After the little leopard had obtained the fruit, it continued to stare at Leng ruoxue with an aggrieved expression, as if it was complaining about her heartlessness.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue felt helpless. It seemed like this little fellow wasn't easy to coax! Thinking of this, she could only take out another fruit to bribe this little guy.

However, who knew that junior leopard would only close his eyes slightly. It was obvious that he did not buy Leng ruoxue's bribe. When everyone saw this, they could not help but laugh.

"You little thing, it's quite difficult to serve you." Leng ruoxue was a little speechless. At this moment, a similarly snow-white leopard walked over from the neighboring seat. It looked at Leng ruoxue and the rest with a nervous expression, "Please return my child to me, okay?"

It was obviously a female leopard. When she spoke, her beautiful silver eyes were filled with uneasiness. Leng ruoxue and the others were at a loss for words. Looking at the mother, it was as if they were bad guys who specialized in kidnapping and tricking children. However, they couldn't blame the female leopard for being so nervous. After all, when humans saw beasts, they would only think of forming a contract. This was especially so for a young beast, which was much easier to form a contract with than an adult beast.

After Leng ruoxue heard the mother leopard's words, she let out a soft sigh and placed the little leopard onto the mother leopard's back. When the mother leopard saw this, she thanked her softly and brought her naughty child back to their seats.

At this moment, the beast race's competition began under the judge's command.

The rules of the beast race competition were not much different from that of the human race. However, each race could only send three participants. Moreover, half of the beasts would be eliminated in the preliminary round. From this, one could see how fierce the competition was!

Among the beast clans, the most powerful were the four Royal divine beasts, namely the Dragon, Phoenix, White Tiger, and Qilin. Next were the Fox clan, Lion Clan, leopard clan, and other beast clans. Moreover, the strength of the beast clans was extremely uneven. The beast clan was the most powerful and had the noblest bloodline. Therefore, if there were no accidents, the champion would be one of the four Royal divine beasts. There was almost no suspense.

Leng ruoxue was also very clear about this situation. The reason why she stayed behind to watch the battle was mainly to target the four King divine beasts.

Not only did the four great beast Kings have the highest status among the magical beasts, but their strength and status couldn't be underestimated even among the humans. After all, once they became reverent-god level, their origins, races, and so on were no longer that important. It was also because of this that human powerhouses treated magical beasts as equals. If there was a conflict between the two races, it was usually resolved by the human and magical beast powerhouses.

Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes scanned the representatives of the four King-level divine beasts who were seated closest to the main platform. The representatives of these four clans were seated in human form. Furthermore, the four clans had distinctive features. The leader of the dragon clan was dressed in a Golden Dragon robe. He had golden hair and golden eyes, and he had the aura of a King. The leader of the Phoenix Clan was a lady dressed in fiery red. It was as if her body was burning with flames, and the air around her was instantly roasted dry. The leader of The White Tiger clan was dressed in white. He was as intimidating as a deity. As for the Qilin clan, their leader was also a man. His appearance and temperament were all top-notch, and he had a gentle smile on his face. However, Leng ruoxue could clearly see that the smile on this man's face did not reach his eyes.

Chapter 1922 Search And Rescue \(3\)

The leaders of the four clans were all as strong as reverent-god level cultivators. It was obvious that their status in their clans was not low.

However, the four of them ignored each other. It seemed like they didn't have a good relationship.

However, Leng ruoxue was not interested in their relationship. What she wanted to know more was the current situation of the four clans. However, it was obvious that no one would tell her about it and the timing was not right.

Following that, Leng ruoxue watched the competition with a peace of mind.

The beast race's competition was much more bloody than the human race 's. After a few rounds of competition, all the participants were wounded. Feng Da couldn't help but widen his eyes when he saw this. He said with a face of disbelief, "This is only the preliminaries, is there a need to go all out?" He could not understand.

"What do you know? We magical beasts are all hot-blooded, and we won't put on airs like you humans!" As soon as Feng DA's voice fell, a giant python that heard his words roared in dissatisfaction. As it spoke, its huge snake mouth was still exhaling a foul smell, which made Feng Da and the others miserable. They had to quickly cover their mouths and stare at Feng Da with accusing eyes, as if to say, 'why are you talking so much!'

Seeing this, Feng Da shrank his head and didn't dare to make a sound. He just covered his mouth even more tightly. This smell was too horrible to look at!

The stench in the giant Python's mouth did not dissipate for a while. Instead, it showed signs of spreading and even spread to the leopard clan to the left of Leng ruoxue. However, those mimicked junior leopards were unusually calm. They even cast sidelong glances at Leng ruoxue and the others with disdain. Their red eyes were filled with the word 'tsk'! Humans only had this level of self-control! This taste is nothing!"

After reading the meaning in their eyes, Leng ruoxue could no longer sit still. She stood up and left her seat. Feng Da and the rest saw this and followed behind her.

When they returned to their residence, Leng ruoxue finally heaved a sigh of relief. However, she soon sighed. He had lost a lot of face today, being looked down on by a group of Beastie.

However, it didn't seem like they could be blamed for this. That giant Python's breath was simply too smelly, even more smelly than the stink bombs she had refined. It would be strange if they could stand it!

As soon as Feng Da returned home, he was warmly 'received' by green peach.

When it was time for dinner, they saw the dark circles under Feng DA's eyes, and they couldn't help but laugh.

"Captain, your new look is pretty good!" Someone joked, not afraid of death.

"Why can't you shut your mouth when you're eating?" Feng Da was furious when he heard this.

"Hehe! I just wanted to praise you!" That person continued.

"I don't need it! However, if you like this image, I'm more than happy to help you. " Feng Da said with a smile that was not a smile. The expression on his face was very unfriendly.

"Uh! No need! I still think that captain's appearance is better. I don't dare to look exactly like Captain. " The man quickly said.

"It's okay, I don't mind. " Feng Da said with a smile. After he finished speaking, he rolled up his sleeves.

"But I mind." After that person finished speaking, he ran off like a wisp of smoke.

"You're quite fast!" Feng Da was furious.

"Otherwise, do you really intend to make him end up like you?" Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

"Uh! Miss, this is also going through difficulties together!" Seeing that Leng ruoxue had spoken, Feng Da immediately became listless.

"So, we have to accompany you to smell the stench?" Leng ruoxue's smile was extremely bright, but her dazzling smile made Feng Da break out in cold sweat for no reason. He had a bad feeling!

"Young miss ..." Feng Da called out pitifully. However, Leng ruoxue ignored his act and continued, ""You've caused us to run away today. You've lost a lot of face. What do you think we should do?"

As soon as he said that, everyone looked at Feng Da with gloating eyes.

"Miss, I've already been punished." Feng Da pointed at the dark circles under his eyes.

"That doesn't count. That's a punishment from green peach. But we haven't even settled the score with you yet!" Leng ruoxue laughed evilly.

"Miss! You can't bully me like this!" Feng Da was so anxious that he was about to cry. Wu ... Young miss was really too bad. How could she be like this!

However, Leng ruoxue didn't care about his bitter expression. After giving Lin Yuan and the rest a look, she was prepared to sit at the side and watch the show.

When Lin Yuan and the rest received Leng ruoxue's signal, they swarmed forward ...

"Argh! You bunch of brats! I won't let you off!" In an instant, Feng DA's angry roar was deafening. Then, the courtyard was in a chaotic battle ...

Leng ruoxue watched the show for a while before she was pulled away by the evildoer.

Late at night.

The hurried knocking on the door woke Leng ruoxue and the rest up from their dreams.

After the door opened, a group of flustered and exasperated leopards rushed in.

Those leopards were aggressive. When they saw Leng ruoxue and the rest, they did not have a good expression.

At this moment, the female leopard that Leng ruoxue had seen during the day walked up and looked at her with tears in her eyes, ""I'm sorry to disturb you. I wanted to ask if you've seen my child."

"Your child? Isn't it with you?" Leng ruoxue was a little surprised.

"It used to be, but it's gone now. Wuwu ..." After the female leopard finished speaking, she began to cry, and bean-sized tears kept rolling down.

"If it's gone, then quickly go and find it! What's the use of crying!" Leng ruoxue was speechless when she saw the female leopard bawling her eyes out. Could it be that the little leopard would return just by crying?

"I've searched many places, but I can't find it!" The female leopard said. After she finished speaking, she cried even more sadly.

"Then it's no use for you to come to me! I didn't see it either!" Leng ruoxue was at a loss for words when she saw these leopards approaching menacingly. Did they think that the junior leopard was with her?

"My child has only come into contact with you." The female leopard was very reserved, but Leng ruoxue understood.

"So what?" Leng ruoxue was truly speechless. Could it be what she was thinking?

"Human! As long as you return Xi 'er to us, we won't make things difficult for you." A leopard that seemed to be rather well-respected opened its mouth and spoke. Obviously, it should be the leader of these leopards.

"I don't know where the little leopard is. How can I hand it over to you?" Leng ruoxue was helpless. Were these leopards still planning to cling onto her?

"Human! Xi 'er is still young, so even if you take her in as a Beastie, she won't be able to help you much. Why don't you let her go, and I'll be willing to replace her as your contracted beast, is that not enough?" Another leopard said righteously. Even though they had come in an aggressive manner, they did not dare to fall out with Leng ruoxue and the others. Instead, they had a good discussion. The main reason was that they were certain that their baby was with Leng ruoxue.

The leopard's words made Leng ruoxue sigh.

Did she really look that insincere? Moreover, just as the leopard had said, what could she do with the little one? She couldn't lift it with her hands or carry it with her shoulders, but she still had to feed it. No matter how she thought about it, it wasn't worth it. So, she really couldn't understand why these leopards were so stubborn and believed that the little fellow was with her.

The more Leng ruoxue thought about it, the angrier she got. If she knew who made her the scapegoat, she would never let that person off!

"I don't lack Beastie. It's really not with me." After a long while, Leng ruoxue finally spoke. Furthermore, in order to gain their trust, Leng ruoxue had directly moved the Silver Wolf Clan out of the bracelet. It should be easier to communicate with the beasts.

The appearance of thousands of wolves immediately occupied more than half of the courtyard. Those fierce leopards could not help but widen their eyes after seeing these silver wolves. What, what was this situation? they were all dumbfounded.

"They're all my Beastie." Leng ruoxue explained.

"Really?" The Leopards couldn't believe it. How could a human contract so many beasts? was he still a human?

"Your child is indeed not with my master." The Silver Wolf King had already heard their intentions from the bracelet, so it did not waste any words and spoke directly.

As soon as the Silver Wolf King finished speaking, the mother leopard who had lost her child started crying again. The other leopards had grave expressions on their faces. Compared to Leng ruoxue's words, they were more willing to believe these silver wolves. After all, even if the magical beasts had acknowledged their master, they would not harm their own kind. However, the Silver Wolf King's words had also shattered their greatest hope.

The Silver Wolf King could not bear to see the Leopards' desolated expressions. It was also a Beastie with children, so it could naturally understand the pain of losing them. After thinking for a while, the Silver Wolf King suggested, ""Master, let's help them find that little leopard! Maybe it got lost because it wanted to play. "

"Mm! Feng Da, you guys should help them look for it too!" Leng ruoxue nodded and instructed Feng Da and the rest.

"Yes!" Feng Da and the others replied.

"Thank you!" The female leopard said gratefully when she heard their words.

After that, everyone split the work with the silver wolves and leopards. The beasts were responsible for searching from house to house. After all, the beasts 'sense of smell was far better than that of humans. Feng Da and the others searched along the streets of the Imperial City. They even searched the area within a hundred miles of the city.

At dawn, they finally found junior leopard's whereabouts ...

Chapter 1923 The Foodie Xi 'Er \(1\)

It was like this.

After Feng Da and the others searched the streets, they walked toward the city gate.

At the city gate, Feng Da bribed the city guards and asked them which families had left the city from the afternoon to the late night. After getting an accurate answer from the guards, Feng Da and the others split up and chased after those teams ...

There were three families that left the city, so Feng Da and the others split into three groups. After all, in their knowledge, the possibility of junior leopard getting lost was not high. The biggest possibility was that he was taken away by others.

Among the three groups, the other two groups received news very quickly. The other party did not have junior leopard in their hands. Of course, this was confirmed by the leopard tribe.

On the other hand, Feng Da had caught up with Murong ni and her group along with the woman who wanted Feng Da to follow.

When the woman saw Feng Da, she was immediately overjoyed, and her face was full of smiles.

"Feng Da, I didn't expect you to catch up to me. Why? Have you thought it through? are you going to follow me in the future?" The woman said excitedly after seeing Feng Da.

As for Murong Fei, she was frowning, apparently not expecting to see Feng Da again.

When Feng Da heard the woman's words, he indifferently said, ""Miss, you're mistaken. I've never thought of changing owners. However, I really have something to ask of you. I hope you can cooperate."

"I wonder what business brother Feng has? As long as I, Murong Fei, can help, I will definitely not shirk my duty. " The moment she heard this, Murong Fei quickly expressed her position.

"Thank you, young master Murong." Feng Da courteously replied. Then, he told Murong Fei about the matter and observed the expressions on Murong Fei and the rest's faces. He found that when he mentioned junior leopard, the woman's expression was extremely unnatural. Immediately, he paid attention to it.

After Murong Fei heard Feng DA's intention, although she was a little angry, but she still asked politely, "Brother Feng, do you think we took the little leopard away?"

"No, I'm just here to confirm. It's best if young master Murong and the others have nothing to do with this. Otherwise, if the leopard clan gets angry, I'm afraid the consequences will be unimaginable." Feng Da reminded. The beasts that had come to participate in the elite competition would definitely not allow this to happen. This incident might even become an excuse for the dispute between the beast race and the human race. After all, the two races had maintained a peaceful surface for many years.

After hearing Feng DA's words, Murong Fei immediately calmed down and seriously considered the truth in his words.

After thinking for a while, Murong Yuan had to admit that Feng DA's words made sense. If the Divine Master's estate found out that little Beastie was lost in the elite competition, they would not let it go. After all, it was a slap to the Divine Master's estate's face. Moreover, the Divine Master's estate had the obligation to ensure the safety of the participating beasts. This was the consensus of everyone.

"Brother Feng! I really didn't see the little leopard you mentioned. We left after packing up today. " After thinking for a moment, Murong Fei explained.

At this moment, Feng Da heard the leopard on his shoulder transmit his voice, "Xi'er is in their hands. I can feel Xi'er's aura."

When Feng Da heard that, he immediately became 120000% alert and said in a neither humble nor arrogant manner, "Young master Murong, it's not that I don't believe you, but this friend of mine from the leopard clan has confirmed that the little leopard is with you. I wonder if you would allow us to search for it?" His words were very polite and polite, but he didn't allow Murong ni to refuse. After all, it was not easy to get news of junior leopard, so he naturally didn't want to let it go.

"What?" Feng DA's words made Murong Fei unable to believe it. He had already said so much and the other party still didn't believe him? However, Beastie had its own way of finding its own descendants. Hence, Murong ni could not be sure of the accuracy of the other party's judgment.

"Young master Murong, you are a reasonable person. I hope you can cooperate with us." Feng Da complimented Murong Fei.

"I can let you check, but what if you can't find anything?" Murong ni asked indifferently. Her Murong family was considered to have a reputation in the divine world and if this matter were to spread out, it would definitely damage their reputation. Hence, he had no choice but to find some balance for himself. Otherwise, if everyone were to treat him as a soft persimmon in the future, how would he be able to survive in the divine world!

"If we can't find anything, we will apologize to young master Murong and compensate you for all your losses. However, if that junior leopard is really in your team, I hope that young master Murong can give the leopard tribe an explanation. After all, it's the period of the elite competition. If such a thing were to spread, I'm afraid that the beast tribe would not dare to come to the elite competition in the future."

Feng Da calmly suggested, and when Murong di saw the confidence he was exuding, he was not sure if his request was right or wrong.

However, Murong Fei still nodded her head and the moment the woman beside him saw that Murong Fei had agreed, she immediately shouted out in dissatisfaction, "Murong Fei, how could you agree to such a thing? You're so useless!"

When the woman said this, her face was filled with disdain and when Murong Fei heard her words, her face immediately turned ugly.

"You shut up! I know what I'm doing!" Murong Fei said unhappily. She was extremely angry with this woman who couldn't see the situation clearly because she was very clear that since Feng Da and the others had caught up with them, they must have been prepared. If they refused to let them investigate, they would alert the Divine Master's estate and it would be even more troublesome!

"You, you dare to shout at me!" The woman's face was filled with disbelief but this time, Murong Fei didn't even look at her and directly said to Feng Da, "You guys check!"

Feng Da nodded and gave a look to the leopard on his shoulder. The leopard understood and jumped off Feng DA's shoulder and started to circle around Murong ni and the rest ...

After a few rounds, the leopard didn't say anything. Instead, it went around a few more rounds and sniffed from time to time. Feng Da was depressed. Did he find the leopard or not? One must know that if they really didn't find out anything, Murong Fei would definitely take the opportunity to demand an exorbitant price and he absolutely didn't want to give Murong Fei that chance.

Finally, the leopard nodded. Then, it pointed at the woman with its paw and said, "She has Xi 'er's aura on her, she must have taken Xi' er away!"

After the leopard finished speaking, Feng Da heaved a sigh of relief. He thought to himself, "fortunately, I found it. Otherwise, I'd really wonder if there's something wrong with the leopard's sense of smell. Why did it take so long to smell?"

In fact, he had wronged the leopard. It was not that the leopard's sense of smell was weak, but that the woman's fragrance was too strong and covered the junior leopard's breath. That was why it took a long time to find her.

"Are you sure?" Feng Da pretended to ask.

"Yes." The leopard nodded, then glared at the woman with a fierce look in its eyes. "Hand Xi 'er over, and I'll spare your life. Otherwise, you're dead."

Chapter 1924 The Foodie Xi 'Er \(2\)

"I ... I don't know anything about Xi 'er. Don't wrong me!" The woman's expression suddenly changed and she quickly shouted.

"Hmph! Human, do you think we orcs are so easy to fool? Although the fragrance on your body has almost covered up Xi 'er's smell, it can't hide from the nose of our beast clan. So I advise you to be sensible and hand Xi' er over. Otherwise, our leopard clan will have to ask the Divine Master to seek justice for us. " The leopard threatened.

Before they came to participate in the competition, the Divine Master's estate had made it clear that they would not allow humans to capture them and force them to acknowledge a master. Otherwise, they would definitely support them. It was precisely because of this promise that they dared to bring their descendants here to see the world. Otherwise, they would never have brought the little beasts here.

"Lin 'er, if you're the one who took junior leopard away, hand him over!" Hearing that leopard's words, Murong ni advised with a gloomy face. Although he was half-convinced and half-suspicious of that leopard's words, but based on his understanding of Lin 'er, if Lin' er had really seen that little leopard, it was really possible for her to do such a thing. After all, Lin 'er had always said that she wanted to get a better beast to be her contracted beast. Therefore, she had the motive to do this. It was just that the time was not right now so he could not and would not condone Lin' er's actions.

"Murong Fei, which gang are you on? You're actually speaking to them?" Hearing Murong Fei's words, Lin 'er was enraged.

"I'm not siding with anyone. It's just that this can't happen at this moment. So, you'd better take the initiative to return that junior leopard before things get too bad. Otherwise, no one can save you." Murong Fei said impatiently. Towards this woman, his patience was almost exhausted. If it wasn't for the fact that Lin 'er was his fiancée, he couldn't be bothered to care about her! However, having such a fiancée would not be a matter of peace. It seems that after returning, he would have to have a good talk with the elders in the clan, Murong Fei thought to herself.

"I've never seen any little leopards. " Lin 'er said stubbornly, a classic case of not crying until seeing the coffin.

"F * ck! You damn human, you really don't want face when I give it to you! I've already discussed this with you, but you're still so insensible. Don't blame me for being impolite!" The leopard said angrily. After it finished speaking, it looked up to the sky and howled. When Murong ni saw this scene, she quickly cried out 'not good!' In her heart. The leopard was looking for help.

"Lin 'er, don't make me repeat myself. Return junior leopard to him!" Murong Fei's face was black and her tone had become very stiff.

"Return what? I didn't see any little leopard." Lin 'er's face was flushed red as she shouted at the top of her lungs.

"You ..." Murong Fei was very angry and really wanted to slap this troublesome woman to death. But in the end, he didn't do that. Instead, he said to Feng Da and the rest, ""You can do whatever you want with this woman. I don't care anymore."

When the people of the Murong family heard this, they knew that their young master was angry. However, their young master's decision was not wrong. This woman should indeed be taught a good lesson. She had caused trouble for them for no reason. She had taken away their child at this time. How could they not be angry? The nature of this matter was much more serious than their trip to the forest to catch beasts and make contracts. If the Divine Master's estate knew that someone had done such a thing in their territory, they would definitely be furious!

At the thought of this, the way they looked at Lin 'er became unfriendly.

At this moment, deafening sounds of people running could be heard from the distance. The faces of the Murong clan members turned pale when they heard this.

How ... How many beasts were there?

Those who were timid had already gone weak in their legs. However, Lin 'er continued to hold on. Hmph! She didn't believe that these animals would dare to do anything to her.

"Brother Feng, what do you think?" Murong di shot a glance at the unrepentant Lin 'er, then turned to look at Feng Da, his face gloomy.

"Young master Murong, I can't do anything about this." Feng Da said apologetically. If that damn woman had returned junior leopard just now, she wouldn't have called for help. But now, it seemed that they were in a difficult situation.

"Ai!" Murong di sighed, and at this time, the distance was getting closer and closer.

After a while, the beasts led by the leopard clan arrived. Not only that, but many other beasts from other clans also came. They were obviously here to support the leopard clan.

When Murong Fei and the rest saw this, they immediately sucked in a breath of cold air. My heavens and earth! There was a black mass in front of him. How many beasts had come? Moreover, every Beastie's eyes were filled with ferocity, and they looked at them with an extremely unfriendly gaze.

"Clan leader, Xi 'er should have been taken away by this woman!" The leopard quickly reported.

"Damned human! Hand over my grandson!" The leader of the leopard clan roared in anger. He was an unusually large leopard and was in his original form. Hence, he was more than twice as tall as Lin 'er. The pressure from his body made it hard for the Murong clan members to breathe.

Lin 'er's breathing also stopped and her face was abnormally pale. However, she still stubbornly said, "I've never seen any Xi-er!"

Feng Da and the others didn't know what to say about her stubborn mouth. Did this woman really want to see a coffin before she shed tears? This ... Wasn't this a little too cheap? He was looking for abuse! At this moment, no one was willing to sympathize with her. The Murong family members even subconsciously stayed away from her to avoid the leopard clan's anger.

"Hello, patriarch Bao. I'm Murong ni, the young master of the Murong family!" Seeing that the old leopard was about to get angry, Murong Huo quickly introduced himself. Not only that, but he also lowered his status very much. After all, the old leopard's strength was equivalent to a human reverent-God!

"The Murong family? Hmph! We've always minded our own business, but you've taken my grandson away. You're the one who provoked us first!" Old leopard glanced at Murong Fei and said indifferently, but his tone was very unfriendly.

"Patriarch Bao, although this matter has nothing to do with the Murong family, Lin 'er is my fiancée after all. Therefore, I am deeply regretful of what she has done. I hope that you can give me some time. I will try my best to make her hand over junior leopard." Murong ni said after thinking for a while. His words were also considered affectionate and righteous. He not only explained that this matter had nothing to do with the Murong family, but he also did not deny the relationship with Lin 'er. At the same time, he also expressed his goodwill. In this way, even old leopard had a new level of respect for him.

"Good! If you can bring my grandson back unscathed, I will not blame the Murong clan for this. " Old leopard said after thinking for a while.

"Thank you for your magnanimity, leopard chief!" Murong ni was very grateful and at the same time, she heaved a sigh of relief. It seemed that the leopard clan would not vent their anger on her. However, how could she make Lin 'er hand over junior leopard willingly? she was in a difficult position. After all, she knew Lin' er's character very well. She was a rather willful and unreasonable woman. However, she was not without her nemesis. Thinking of this, Murong ni had an idea.

Chapter 1925 The Foodie Xi 'Er \(3\)

After whispering to old leopard, the Murong family brought Lin 'er, Feng Da, and the rest back to the Imperial City.

And Lin 'er was also strictly guarded by Murong Di's men.

Although the leopard clan had not found junior leopard yet, they did not continue to make things difficult for the Murong clan after knowing his whereabouts. However, there were a few more leopards patrolling outside the inn where the Murong clan stayed.

After Leng ruoxue heard Feng Da and the others 'report, she guessed that Murong Fei must have thought of some idea. However, if it was her, she wouldn't be so gentle to that woman, especially when that woman had made her the scapegoat.

However, she wanted to know what Murong Fei would do so she decided to wait and see.

Just as Leng ruoxue and the rest were waiting with the members of the leopard clan, the competition between the magical beasts continued as scheduled.

Although Feng Da and the others still went to watch the battle every day, they did not dare to speak carelessly, in case they were scolded by the orcs again. However, with the leopard tribe's strong publicity, the orcs were much friendlier to them. This could be considered a pleasant surprise!

A few days later.

Murong Fei personally came to visit and sent junior leopard to Leng ruoxue's residence.

As soon as the junior leopard saw Leng ruoxue, he immediately wrapped himself around her. Leng ruoxue did not know whether to laugh or cry.

"Why did you send this little guy to me?" Leng ruoxue didn't understand. Shouldn't Murong Yuan have sent this little leopard to the leopard clan? One had to know that the little fellow's family had been worried to death over the past few days.

"I also want to! However, this little thing refused to go back and insisted that I bring it to you. " Murong Fei said helplessly.

"Uh! Little guy, is there something you need from me?" Leng ruoxue bent down to pick up junior leopard and asked with a puzzled look.

"Good, good food!" The little leopard said in a baby voice. It was still too small to speak properly.

Upon hearing this, Leng ruoxue's face was filled with black lines. Could it be that this little fellow had snuck out of the leopard clan's territory just to ask for good food from her?

In fact, she had guessed it right.

This little leopard had left the leopard clan's protection because of his gluttony. He wanted to find Leng ruoxue, but unfortunately, he had no idea where Leng ruoxue lived. Hence, he had been coaxed by someone and left with Lin 'er. Fortunately, Lin 'er liked him and did not treat him badly. Otherwise, it would have left a shadow in his young heart!

Looking at Leng ruoxue's conflicted expression, Murong Fei couldn't help but snicker, "It knew that you had good food in your hands, so it kept pestering me to bring it to you. In fact, the reason it was taken away by Lin 'er was because Lin 'er had promised it that she would bring it to you. However, Lin 'er was clearly lying to it." This fact made Murong Fei rather speechless but luckily, he had already gotten used to it.

"Uh! You little glutton!" Leng ruoxue was helpless. In order to get good food from her, junior leopard kept playing around and acting cute. He even rolled around on her palm. Leng ruoxue's heart softened when she saw this.

After taking out a few fruits and placing them together with junior leopard on the table, Leng ruoxue left it alone. Seeing that there was food, junior leopard also buried his head and started eating. At this moment, nothing was more important than eating.

Seeing this, Murong di couldn't help but smile, "It seems like it really likes you. By the way, I've already sent someone to inform the leopard clan. I believe that they'll be here soon. "

Who knew that just as Murong Fei's voice fell, a 'Dong Dong' sound rang out from outside the door. Feng Da quickly went to open the door, and a group of anxious leopards ran in.

"Xi-er! My Xi-er!" The female leopard took the lead and rushed towards the little leopard that was eating happily.

Junior leopard raised his head and called out softly, "Mother, you've come." After saying that, it lowered its head and began to eat again. Seeing this, the female leopard carefully sized up the little leopard. Seeing that it didn't seem to have suffered too much, she didn't disturb the little leopard's enjoyment of eating. Instead, she squatted by the table and looked at the snow-white little leopard on the table with a face full of love.

At this moment, the leopard clan leader walked in front of Leng ruoxue and the rest and said, "Human! Thank you for helping our leopard clan find Xi-er!" The leopard clan was extremely grateful for Leng ruoxue and the rest's help.

As for Murong Fei, she was completely ignored by the leopard tribe leader. After all, from his point of view, that was what Murong Fei should do to get rid of this disaster. Naturally, there was no need to thank her. Who asked the woman who stole Xi 'er to be in cahoots with them! Old leopard was very clear about this.

"You're too kind, chief Bao. It's all thanks to young master Murong's cooperation that we were able to find Xi 'er. " Leng ruoxue smiled as she reminded him.

"Hmph! Their people took Xi 'er away, so can't he just not cooperate?" Old leopard wasn't grateful to Murong Fei, but when Murong Fei heard this, she could only smile bitterly. After all, what old leopard said was right, the reason why he did this was all for the sake of the family.

"Little Murong, where's that woman?" At this time, old leopard's shrewd eyes stared at Murong ni as he asked directly.

"She's still locked up in the inn. " Murong di said. Although he did not know what the old leopard wanted to do with Lin 'er, he still told the truth. Without the old leopard's permission, he really did not dare to let Lin' er go.

"Oh! Very good! If you hand over that damned human to me, the Murong family will have nothing to do with this!" The old leopard said with satisfaction.

"I wonder how the leopard clan leader plans to punish Lin 'er?" Murong Yuan could not help but ask.

"What's wrong? I can't bear to part with that woman!" The old leopard's eyes glinted as he teased.

"No! However, the reason why Lin 'er is willing to hand Xi' er over is all thanks to her family's ancestor. So, if possible, please don't take it out on Lin 'er's family. After all, this is only Lin' er's fault. " Murong ni couldn't help but plead. Lin 'er's stubbornness could only be cured by her ancestor. Therefore, as soon as this matter came out, she immediately sent people to invite Lin' er's ancestor over. And the ancestor's action was indeed effective. Although Lin 'er was unwilling, she still handed junior leopard to them. Seeing that junior leopard was a little listless and not hurt, their hearts were immediately put at ease.

"Seeing that my Xi 'er hasn't been hurt, I won't take my anger out on her and won't kill her, but she can be spared from death, but she still has to suffer. She's made us worry for several days, so we naturally won't let her have an easy time!" "You don't have any objections, do you?" old leopard asked directly.

After listening to old leopard's words, Murong ni was relieved and smiled, ""Lin 'er's family's ancestor said that their family's younger generation is insensible. You can punish them however you want. They won't have any objections." As for himself, he would not have any objections.

"That's for the best, kid! When are you going to hand that woman over to me?" Old leopard couldn't wait anymore.

"I'll have someone send her to you in a while. " Murong Fei hurriedly replied.

"Well, you're very smart, kid! Not bad!" Old leopard was very satisfied with Murong Fei's tactfulness.

Following that, Murong ni exchanged a few more words with old leopard and then left.

In the next few days, the beast race's competition had also entered the semi-final stage.

However, as the semi-finals began in full swing, a woman's wail could be heard from time to time in the Imperial City. The wail was extremely miserable, and everyone and the beasts could not help but feel their hair stand on end. It was needless to say that the wail was from Lin 'er.

And these days, the happiest one was undoubtedly that foodie Xi 'er.

In order to eat delicious food every day, it simply stayed at Leng ruoxue's place and refused to leave. In order to protect its child, the female leopard had no choice but to stay. With them around, the Leopards of the leopard clan naturally became frequent visitors. Furthermore, as long as they came to visit, Feng Da and the rest would entertain them with good food and drinks. In a few days, the relationship between Feng Da and the leopard clan had improved by leaps and bounds, and they were only short of calling each other brothers.

The Leopards were also surprised to find that after eating for a few days, their strong and well-proportioned bodies were gone, and each leopard had grown a circle of meat! This fact put many leopards on guard. After all, leopards were known for their speed. If they were too fat, their speed would naturally not be able to increase.

However, with so many delicacies in front of them, it seemed quite difficult to make them just watch and not eat. Therefore, for a moment, the Leopards were in a dilemma.

But soon, they came up with a good idea. Every time they had a full meal, they would take the initiative to fight with people. Needless to say, these people were none other than Feng Da and his men.

With food and exercise, the Leopards were happy, but Feng Da and the others were extremely depressed. They were trained by the Leopards every day like dead dogs. Unless they were too tired to get up, the Leopards would never stop clawing!

As time passed, Feng Da and the rest suffered unspeakable hardships, but Leng ruoxue was happy to see it happen. She even encouraged the Leopards to find Feng Da and the rest to spar with. With Leng ruoxue's permission, the Leopards were even more motivated.

Time passed.

Very soon, it was time for the final stage of the magical beast competition. There were a total of ten major races participating in the final stage. Other than the four kings of the magical beast race, the Fox race, leopard race, Lion race, and other powerful magical beast races had also entered the final stage without any suspense.

In reality, from Leng ruoxue's point of view, there was no suspense in the finals. If there were no accidents, the champion should be one of the four King level divine beasts. However, such a legitimate battle was also a rare opportunity for the beasts. Thus, the beasts, who knew that they were only supporting roles, were determined to give it their all ...

Chapter 1926 Banquet \(1\)

On the day of the finals, it could be considered a grand event for the beast race. When Leng ruoxue and the others arrived at the competition grounds, the audience seats were almost fully occupied.

Seeing this, Feng Da could not help but click his tongue. He secretly transmitted his voice to Leng ruoxue, "Miss, I didn't expect so many beasts to be watching a competition without any suspense."

"Didn't that old leopard say it? It was rare for the beasts to have such a lively atmosphere. Therefore, even the beasts who had no chance of winning the finals did not leave. Ah! We're late, and we don't know if there are any seats left." Leng ruoxue said, feeling slightly depressed. The beast race's competition would not specially reserve seats for the human race, so they had to make reservations in advance. However, there was no chance to make a reservation for the finals. Therefore, they had to arrive early and find their own seats. Initially, she thought that she and the others had arrived very early, but who knew that these beasts had arrived even earlier than them!

Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes searched for empty seats, and she slowly felt depressed. As far as she could see, the audience seats seemed to have been filled.

At this moment, a leopard walked up to them and grinned. "Why are you guys so late?"

"Uh! We thought we were early!" Leng ruoxue said, a little embarrassed.

"Come with me! The chief has reserved a seat for you." The leopard smiled, then turned around elegantly to lead the way. Leng ruoxue and the rest were elated when they saw this. It seemed like it was the right decision to build a relationship with the beasts. Isn't there a seat now?

The leopard brought Leng ruoxue and the rest to their assigned positions and pointed at the few empty seats beside them, "You guys can sit there!" After saying that, it also found a place to sit down.

The leopard clan had entered the finals, so their seats were allocated to them by the Divine Master's estate in advance. They were seated relatively at the front and had a good view. Leng ruoxue and the others thanked them and sat down.

Just as she sat down, junior leopard Xi'er came to look for Leng ruoxue again.

Her moist, silver eyes stared at Leng ruoxue expectantly, but she did not say a word. However, Leng ruoxue understood the moment she saw her. This little foodie was here for food. She helplessly took out a piece of dried meat and placed it in front of Xi'er's mouth. Xi'er unreservedly opened her mouth and bit it. Then, she jumped onto Leng ruoxue's lap and started eating with ease.

When the female leopard saw this, she stole an apologetic glance at Leng ruoxue. She did not know what to say about her own child's gluttony.

"Little girl, guess which of the four divine beast Kings will win the championship?" The leopard tribe leader turned around and asked, successfully changing the topic.

"I heard that the Qilin clan is the strongest among the four King divine beasts!" Leng ruoxue told old leopard what she had heard from the old phoenixes.

"Hehe! You're right, but the number of people in the Qilin clan is the smallest, and can't be compared to the other three clans. Thus, it's hard to say who will win." Old leopard reminded with a faint smile.

"It can't be that the Qilin clan can't even find three clansmen, right?" Leng ruoxue could not help but ask.

"This ... Of course you can!" The old leopard nodded. He understood what the little girl meant. As long as there were three people representing their race in the competition, and the participants were carefully selected by each race, they must have extraordinary strength.

"If that's the case, the Qilin clan has a great chance of winning." In reality, from the old phoenixes, she knew that the current Dragon, Phoenix, and white Tiger clans were no longer the same as before. Many of their powerful cultivators had been sealed. Hence, the strength of the three clans was no longer as strong as before. As for the Qilin clan, the old phoenixes were not sure if they had been affected by the incident back then. After all, the Qilin clan had always kept a low profile compared to the other three clans.

As such, they knew very little about the Qilin clan's situation.

Furthermore, Leng ruoxue also wanted to choose one of these four races and interact with them. After much thought, she chose the Qilin race, which she knew the least.

However, she was in a difficult position as to how she could approach the Qilin clan without making a sound. After all, this kind of divine beast clan with a transcendent status in the divine realm was not easy to get along with. More importantly, she could not be too brazen.

"That's reasonable. However, it won't be easy for the Qilin race to win the championship from the other three races. " Although old leopard agreed with Leng ruoxue's words, he did not fully agree with her.

"Hehe! We'll wait and see. " Leng ruoxue still favored the Qilin clan.

As the man and leopard conversed in low voices, the match on the field began.

The first to fight was the Phoenix tribe and the wolf tribe, using a three-on-three system.

As soon as the whistle was blown, the phoenixes released their auras. The werewolves, who were standing in front of them, began to tremble.

Seeing this, the three phoenixes immediately struck while the iron was hot. They kicked the three shivering wolves off the stage. With just one move, the Phoenix tribe won the battle, and most of it was due to the suppression of their bloodline.

In reality, the suppression of the beast's bloodline had no advantage at all to those beasts whose bloodlines were not as noble as their own. Furthermore, using this move right from the start seemed unfair to the beasts. However, the beasts valued the strong more than the humans. Hence, what Leng ruoxue thought was an unfair competition was not unacceptable to the beasts. After all, this kind of suppression was inborn and could be considered a natural advantage of high-end beasts. It couldn't be erased!

The Phoenix Clan had won their first battle.

Next up were The White Tiger race and the lion race.

The Beastie of these two races all looked majestic, especially The White Tiger race. In their true forms, not only were they huge in size, they were also unbelievably beautiful.

Although The White Tiger Tribe didn't display the might of their bloodline as the Phoenix tribe did, their roars still had a certain suppressive effect on the ferocious beasts. This was also a signal for them to attack.

Sure enough, as soon as the long tiger roar ended, three graceful white tigers leaped into the air like three white Lightning bolts, attacking the lion Clan ...

A little.

The lion Clan was completely defeated!

The White Tiger clan directly entered the next round without any dispute.

After that, it was the dragon clan's turn.

The last was the Qilin clan.

The four great king divine beasts had all defeated their opponents without any suspense, and they had not fought in the first round.

After that, through old leopard's explanation, Leng ruoxue and the rest found out that the four King divine beasts had entered the finals as seeded teams. Hence, it was destined that they would not meet each other in the first round of the finals.

The following matches would use the referee ring system.

Apart from the Dragon, Phoenix, White Tiger, and Qilin races, the other beast race that had entered the top five was actually the Fox race, which did not appear to be very strong. The five teams would each compete in four matches, and the final rankings would be determined by the total points.

The five clans "round-robin tournament was divided into four days. Each day would have one round. The opponents would be decided by drawing lots. In other words, there were still four days before the elite Grand meeting would end.

Chapter 1927 The Banquet \(2\)

Before the start of the competition, Leng ruoxue had informed Feng Da and the others that they would be leaving immediately after the competition.

After the five clans round-robin tournament had officially started, the atmosphere in the competition ground became even more heated. If it wasn't for the fact that the leopard clan had taken a spot for Leng ruoxue and the others, they would have been standing and watching the battle.

There were two matches on the first day, and four teams were participating. The Phoenix Clan had a bye.

The Dragon race's opponent was The White Tiger race, while the Qilin race's opponent was the Fox race.

There was no suspense in the battle between the Qilin race and the Fox race. The battle between them was almost one-sided. Therefore, the Qilin race's competition ended in less than ten minutes, which included the time when the two races stared at each other.

Whereas the Dragon race and white Tiger race's match was evenly matched. The two races fought until it was hard to decide. In the end, the Dragon race only used a slight advantage in the air and narrowly won The White Tiger race, obtaining victory in the first match.

After the match, old leopard said with emotion, "Al! There's no way we can compete with those flying in the sky! It's good to have wings!" It was a little envious, jealous, and hateful.

"What's there to be envious about? apart from the dragon clan and the Phoenix Clan, the other beasts that entered the finals didn't have wings." Leng ruoxue glanced at the old leopard who was remorseful and reminded him.

"That may be so, but having wings isn't too much!" The old leopard sighed.

"Among the godly skills of the wind attribute, isn't there the art of flying? Therefore, not all of the people who run on the ground can't fly." Leng ruoxue laughed.

"Little girl, not all of the wind attribute divine skills of our beasts have the ability to fly. Therefore, many of the beasts with the wind attribute can't fly, but their running speed is faster than many beasts, such as our leopard clan!" Old leopard explained.

"Oh!" Leng ruoxue nodded. It was no wonder the old leopard was so depressed. Among these leopards, a good portion of them had the wind attribute. It was a pity that their divine skills were different from humans'.

"Al! Girl, let's go back!" The old leopard was obviously listless.

Leng ruoxue nodded and left the arena with the leopard clan.

For the next two days, Leng ruoxue didn't go to the competition venue to watch the matches. However, Feng Da and the rest did. Furthermore, after they returned, they reported to her about the matches with exaggerated details. As for the matches in the past two days, other than the white fox clan who played the role of accompanying the Crown Prince to read, the other four clans had their own victories and losses. The difference in points between them wasn't that big, so the match tomorrow would be extremely important.

Among the five clans, the Phoenix Clan was temporarily in first place, followed closely by the Qilin clan. And on the last day, their opponents were the Dragon race and the Tiger race.

On the morning of the last day of the competition, Leng ruoxue and the others headed to the competition grounds after packing up. Their seats were still reserved for them by the leopard clan.

"After today, the elite competition will truly end." In the audience stand, old leopard sighed again.

"Will you leave immediately after the match?" Leng ruoxue asked curiously. For the past two days, she had been thinking about how she could get close to the Qilin clan. However, all the plans she had come up with had been rejected by the spiritual beasts. Hence, she could only give up on this idea for now.

"Yes. Although there's a banquet in the Divine Master's estate, we magical beasts are not interested in those things. So, we'll be leaving as soon as the competition is over." The old leopard nodded.

"A banquet?" Leng ruoxue was a little surprised. Why didn't she hear about any banquet after the human race's competition ended? Could it be that the Divine Master's estate was also receiving preferential treatment?

"Hehe! It's a tradition, and it's the same for you humans after the competition. " The old leopard laughed.

"How come I didn't know?" Leng ruoxue was confused.

"Even if you know, you might not go, right? So, I guess someone has rejected it for you. " The old leopard said with certainty. Although it had not spent a long time with this little human girl, it had a clear understanding of her character. This girl was very lazy! Why would she attend a banquet?

"Could it be Godfather?" Leng ruoxue guessed.

In fact, she had guessed it right. The master of the ning family had indeed declined the invitation for her. To be more precise, he had not informed her at all and had attended in her place in the name of the ning family. Master ning's actions were the result of a discussion between the few old men. After all, they did not wish for Leng ruoxue to face the Divine Master so soon.

"It's possible! Hehe! That banquet isn't really that interesting, so it's better to go home earlier. " Old leopard laughed drily.

"En!" Leng ruoxue nodded. In reality, she wasn't too interested in banquets and the like. As the saying goes, there's no such thing as a good banquet. Who knew what would happen at a banquet?

"Hehe! Little girl, when the competition is over, why don't we go together?" At this time, old leopard suggested.

"Alright!" Leng ruoxue did not have any objections to this suggestion. Furthermore, she knew that the leopard clan's territory was on the way to her own land of evil demons.

Suddenly, a loud Phoenix cry resounded through the sky. Leng ruoxue and the rest's attention was instantly drawn to the competition ground.

The match began.

The two matches on the last day would be held simultaneously for the sake of fairness.

The battle between the dragon and the phoenix!

The collision between the Qilin and The White Tiger attracted the attention of many beasts. Naturally, Leng ruoxue and the rest were attracted as well.

In the middle of the arena, there were two huge rings, and each of them had six huge beasts. They were arrogant and proud of themselves!

A dragon's cry, a Phoenix's cry, a tiger's roar, and a Qilin's roar rang out continuously. Following that, several figures that were as fast as lightning tangled together. The beasts, Leng ruoxue, and the rest could only see a blur in front of them. Other than that, there were also the sounds of explosions caused by the collision of divine skills ...

At this moment, half of the sky was dyed red, and the temperature rose rapidly. Without asking, Leng ruoxue and the rest knew that this was the Phoenix clan's Natal flame burning. In contrast, it was the dragon clan's Dragon Breath. It was also something used to roast people, so the temperature rose rapidly.

However, The White Tiger clan seemed to be opposing them. The three white tigers on the stage actually used water attribute divine skills in unison. In an instant, the temperature dropped by a lot! A light drizzle started to fall from the sky. When the Qilin clan saw this, they did not want to be outdone and continued to kick out with their hooves. Suddenly, a strong gust of wind blew on the arena ...

"What are the four clans doing?" Seeing their performance, Leng ruoxue felt a headache. Could this still be considered a competition? It was clearly battle energy!

"Hehe! Girl, you'll get used to it! They've always been like this. On the surface, they look harmonious, but in reality, the four clans are all competing with each other!" Old leopard said.

"Then can this competition be completed in passing?" Leng ruoxue asked with uncertainty.

"I can! They were all determined to compete for superiority! Besides, the Phoenix-kind had the upper hand in the competition a few days ago. Therefore, the other three clans are all holding their breath!" Old leopard said with an evil smile.

Chapter 1928 The Banquet \(3\)

"Oh! I hope they don't destroy the public property of the Divine Master's estate. " Leng ruoxue looked at them and started to worry for the Divine Master's residence out of boredom.

However, just as she finished speaking, everyone and the beasts heard a bang! Bang! A few loud bangs were heard. After that, they saw the tall and sturdy stage collapse magnificently. At this moment, the Dragon race and the Phoenix race were floating in mid-air, facing each other. As for The White Tiger race and the Qilin race, they had naturally landed on the empty ground in the middle of the stage, glaring at each other like tigers eyeing their prey.

"Uh! Miss, you're really good at divination!" Feng Da was speechless.

"Divine calculation? You'd rather say I'm a jinx!" Leng ruoxue lifted her eyelids slightly and said in an unpleasant tone.

"I wouldn't dare!" Feng Da quickly said, although he had thought of it in his heart.

"As a man, if you dare to think, you must dare to admit it." Seeing through Feng DA's thoughts, Leng ruoxue said with a look of disdain. In fact, she didn't think there was anything wrong with her doomsayer mouth. It didn't belong to her anyway, so she wouldn't feel bad if it was destroyed.

"Hehe! Miss is right, Captain, you're not being honest. " When Lin Yuan saw this, he added fuel to the fire.

"Miss, I ..." Feng Da glared at Lin Yuan and looked at Leng ruoxue pitifully. However, Leng ruoxue only snorted coldly and turned her beautiful eyes to the competition arena.

These two matches could be considered a destruction of the divine Lord's residence. After the four clans had destroyed the stage, they had also attacked the audience. At this moment, almost half of the seats had been destroyed by them. The beasts who were watching the battle from the audience had scattered like birds and beasts. The judge had even maintained a safe area with them. However, Leng ruoxue and the others remained calmly in their seats.

"Little girl! The competition seems to be quite dangerous. Why don't we go back first?" Seeing the four clans' stance of not giving up until one of them died, the old leopard was a little timid. If he accidentally hurt his leopards, he would be heartbroken.

"Uh!" Old leopard's words made Leng ruoxue's forehead fill with black lines. What was going on? The match wasn't over yet, and he had to leave early?

"Little girl, in the previous matches, these four clans actually didn't use their full strength, so I think they're all holding back and waiting for this last match! And this last battle should be considered a battle of life and death between them! I think we should just hide!" Old leopard made his words more clear and looked at Leng ruoxue with anticipation, hoping that she would advance and retreat with him.

"But if we leave, we won't know who will win the championship." Leng ruoxue was a little hesitant.

"It doesn't matter. Staying alive is more important. The four clans seem to be ruthless. If we continue to watch the battle, we will certainly be affected. It's not worth it!" Old leopard advised earnestly.

"Alright then!" Although it was a pity, Leng ruoxue had to admit that old leopard's words made sense. Furthermore, if they were injured because of watching the competition between the four clans, they probably wouldn't be able to get any compensation. Thinking about it this way, it was more worthwhile to leave this place.

After making their decision, Leng ruoxue and the rest followed the leopard clan and left the competition grounds. Following behind them were many other beasts. After all, they understood that there were many beasts!

After leaving the arena, Huan Chen's voice rang out in Leng ruoxue's heart.

"Little girl, quickly leave this place!" Huan Chen couldn't wait any longer when the competition was about to end.

"Alright then!" Seeing how anxious Huan Chen was, Leng ruoxue could not bear to dampen his spirits. After all, she was the one who wanted to stay and watch the beast race's competition. Huan Chen had wanted to leave long ago. Now that the beast race's competition was coming to an end, she naturally had no reason to stay.

After communicating with the old leopard, the group of people left the Imperial City quietly with the leopard clan.

Huan Chen heaved a sigh of relief after leaving the Imperial City without any hindrance. However, he knew very well that this was only because his smokescreen had worked temporarily. It wouldn't take long for that woman to react. At that time, the divine realm would probably not be at peace. However, the law did not have its responsibilities. He had given so many divine artifacts to people. Even if that woman wanted to investigate, it would probably take a long time. By that time, the little girl's strength should have improved.

At the thought of this, Huan Chen's mood was obviously better. He did not continue to urge Leng ruoxue to hurry.

By the time they returned to the land of demons, Leng ruoxue was surprised to find that their house had already been built!

Looking at the familiar house, Leng ruoxue and the others were all excited, especially Leng Qingtian. He had deep feelings for his home in the water Margin continent. After all, it carried too many memories. Therefore, when he saw that the God World had a home like The Water Margin continent, he was so excited that tears welled up in his eyes.

"Grandpa!" Leng ruoxue couldn't help but call out in worry when she saw how agitated her grandfather was.

"Hahaha! Xue 'er, I'm fine. I was just too excited. " Leng Qingtian wiped the tears from the corner of his eyes as he spoke in embarrassment.

"Old man, why are you so excited? Go and occupy a room, our rooms will be taken away by others!" When the disheveled old man saw this, he could not help but roar. This was because he knew that the first elder and the others from the craftsmen's Guild headquarters had already gone to choose their own rooms. Hmph! They really didn't know what being polite was! He couldn't help but complain in his heart. However, he only dared to think about it in his heart and didn't dare to say it out loud. After all, those people were his elders!

With that said, the disheveled old man ran off.

Leng ruoxue looked at the disheveled old man's anxious actions and could not help but laugh. In reality, no one would occupy their rooms at all. This was because when she first built this house, she had reserved rooms for those who were on good terms with her. Furthermore, there were many guest rooms in this house. There were also two other courtyards that were not considered small. Other than that, she also had a personal room given to her by the great elder. No matter how she looked at it, she would not be short of accommodation.

"Master! This is our surprise for you!" Seeing its Masters "excited expressions, the silver Rat King said in a soft voice with a shy face.

"Hehe! Thank you, I really didn't expect the house to be completed so quickly. " Leng ruoxue was really happy.

"Hehe! It's all thanks to the help of the beastmen in the land of evil demons. Otherwise, the house wouldn't have been built so quickly. " The silver Rat King didn't dare to claim credit and quickly said.

"Yes, I know! Silver Rat King, go and invite them to be my guests tomorrow night. I want to properly thank them. " Leng ruoxue ordered after some thought.

"No problem!" The silver Rat King replied and immediately left the house.

At this moment, the leopard tribe members who had finished touring the area came to them with faces full of admiration.

The beasts had always been comfortable with their own residence. However, after seeing such an exquisite and beautiful house, they actually became envious. The old leopard even felt that his decision to visit Leng ruoxue's territory was a wise and great decision. Otherwise, they would not have been able to see such a good house.

As a matter of fact, Leng ruoxue's house was not very outstanding compared to many beautiful palace-level buildings in the divine world. However, the house was very practical. Moreover, the feeling of home was unusually warm and strong, even making people involuntarily indulge in it. This was something that many beautiful but cold palaces could not compare with. Otherwise, old leopard would not be so envious.

"Little girl, this house of yours is really not bad. I wonder if I can often bring my clansmen over to be guests in the future?" The old leopard asked deliberately. In fact, it was a greeting in disguise.

"Of course you can!" Leng ruoxue and the rest got along well with the leopard clan, so they naturally wouldn't reject them.

"Hehe! Then I won't be polite. " Old leopard nodded with satisfaction.

"No need to be polite, just treat this place as your own home." Leng ruoxue said with a smile. She had always been generous to her friends.

"Yes, yes!" The old leopard nodded his head repeatedly. Leng ruoxue's words were exactly what he wanted.

In particular, the spirit gathering formation that Leng ruoxue had set up made old leopard even more determined to come here often in the future. At this time, he had never thought that not only would he bring his clansmen here often, but he would also move his territory here.

The next day.

Leng ruoxue then instructed Feng Da and the rest to prepare a large amount of food to entertain the beasts that had been invited.

When the beasts arrived excitedly, they were dumbfounded when they saw the dazzling array of dishes on the long table in the garden. What, what were these? The dishes on the table were all things that they had never seen before. Furthermore, the fragrance of the dishes had reached their noses from far away. If they were not afraid of embarrassing themselves in front of Leng ruoxue, they would have pounced on the delicious food.

Looking at the bewildered expressions on the bewildered faces of the bewildered beasts, Leng ruoxue smiled faintly and said, "I don't know what you like, so I ordered people to prepare some dishes of all kinds."

"There are stir-fried vegetables, hot pot, cold dishes, and your most common barbecue!" Leng ruoxue continued. Following that, she carefully introduced how to eat the various dishes. Many of the beasts were very interested in the small pots and asked about how to eat the hotpot.

After Leng ruoxue answered them one by one and demonstrated to them, the beasts were tempted to give it a try.

A fire Wolf had just picked up a piece of meat as thin as a cicada's wing with its claws when it was knocked away by its companion.

"What are you doing?" The fire Wolf that wanted to eat meat growled angrily.

"Don't use your claws, that's rude!" His companion reminded him in a low voice.

Chapter 1929 Meeting Huan Chen \(1\)

"Then what should I use?" The fire Wolf was confused. They had been eating for so many years, but they had always used their claws.

"Use the chopsticks! You pig!" His companion roared in exasperation.

"You're the pig! I'm clearly a Wolf!" When the fire Wolf heard that it was being called a pig, it was immediately enraged.

"Alright! You're a Wolf that's stupider than a pig. " His companion said in a low voice. As for how he knew that pigs were stupid, he had naturally heard about it from Feng Da and the others, and he had remembered it.

"You said I'm stupid? Don't tell me you know how to use chopsticks?" The fire Wolf glanced at the long and thin chopsticks in Leng ruoxue's hand, its face full of dissatisfaction. Chopsticks were things that humans liked to use, how would they know how to use them?

"Uh! I also don't know how to!" His companion lowered his head in shame. At the same time, he was thinking to himself. Although he didn't know how to use chopsticks, at least he knew that he couldn't use his claws in front of so many important human figures. Otherwise, where would the reputation of the fire Wolf Clan be?

"Then why did you say I'm stupid?" The fire Wolf glared at its companion in anger.

"I just wanted to remind you! We have to be careful of our influence. " His companion lowered his head and whispered.

Although the two wolves 'conversation was very soft, it still reached Leng ruoxue and the rest's ears without missing a single detail. When they heard the conversation between the two little beasts, they could not help but laugh.

"Hehe! Little Xue 'er, these little fellows are quite interesting. " The master of the ning family laughed heartily. He couldn't deny that these two little things had made him happy.

"Yup!" Leng ruoxue nodded in agreement. She had always felt that beasts were cuter than humans.

After some thought, Leng ruoxue smiled and said, ""You don't have to be so formal. I invited you here today to thank you. So, you can eat whatever you want. You don't have to care about what we think. We don't mind."

"Hahaha! That's right! Everyone, do as you please!" The master of the ning family agreed.

When the two little beasts heard this, they immediately opposed in unison, ""No! We have to follow the rules and not embarrass the wolf tribe!"

In fact, what the two beasts were thinking was that since they would be neighbors with these humans in the future, they naturally couldn't be as casual as before. They had to learn some human rules. They weren't afraid that these humans would look down on them, but for the sake of their beastly reputation!

"Hehe! Since that's the case, you can start with the chopsticks!" The master of the ning family said with a smile, not trying to persuade them.

"En!" The two little beasts nodded and were about to pick up the chopsticks on the table. However, when they looked at their claws, they were in a dilemma. Although their claws were separated into pieces, they were very short. Moreover, most of them were meat pads. The sharpest claws and toes were obviously not suitable for holding chopsticks. What should they do?

The two little beasts stared at each other, and then they reached for the chopsticks on the table together. However, the round bamboo chopsticks were as slippery as a Loach, and they could not pick them up at all.

I'll grab it! I'll grab it! I don't believe it! The dignified Fire Wolf Clan could not do anything to two small chopsticks! The two little beasts thought to themselves at the same time, but they really couldn't do anything about the two chopsticks.

However, the two little beasts were very determined. More importantly, they had already gotten into a fight with the two chopsticks in front of them. They wouldn't let this matter rest until they got their hands on the two detestable chopsticks!

Seeing the two of them so insistently wanting to learn how to use chopsticks, Leng ruoxue and the rest could not bear to continue watching. Although they found it funny at the start, they did not think so after watching for a long time.

Wasn't it making things difficult for the wolves by letting them use chopsticks that humans were good at? Initially, Leng ruoxue did not expect them to use chopsticks. However, these two stubborn little fellows were actually at loggerheads with the pair of chopsticks. Leng ruoxue and the rest did not know whether to laugh or cry at this fact.

However, the other beasties who were here to attend the banquet were probably even more depressed.

Although they had thought of using chopsticks before, they retreated when they saw that the two wolf pups had spent so much effort but could not hold the tiny bamboo chopsticks in their paws.

Moreover, many of the Beasties were praying in their hearts not to let them succeed! Otherwise, it would be embarrassing for them if they used their claws while the other two were using chopsticks. However, hearing the sound of chopsticks falling on the table, it seemed to be embarrassing for all the beasts.

For a moment, the Beasties were in a dilemma.

The thoughts of wanting them to succeed, but at the same time afraid of them succeeding, alternated in their hearts. In the end, they could not figure out their own thoughts.

After a long time.

The two wolf pups were still unable to master how to use the chopsticks. Leng ruoxue and the rest of the Beasties could only sigh and admire their unyielding determination.

The food was cold, and the humans and beasts were all hungry.

In the end, baby couldn't help but eat it first.

Seeing that a beast had taken the lead to eat, the beasts also started to gobble down the food without holding back.

In an instant, many beasts' mouths were stuffed with food, and their claws were also full of food. Their eyes were fixed on the other food on the table. They were eating what was in their claws and looking at what was in their bowls.

Leng ruoxue and the rest looked at the way the Beasties ate like a swarm of locusts. They could not help but feel grateful that they did not sit at the same table with those big eaters. Otherwise, they would have long since lost their share of the food. Thinking up to this point, they started digging in.

As everyone ate, they admired the two wolf pups who spared no effort in learning how to use chopsticks. They deeply admired their enthusiasm for learning. At this moment, a surprised voice rang in everyone's ears, "I know how to use it!"

Instantly, black lines appeared on the foreheads of everyone and the beasts.

They ... Had all finished eating!

"I'm going to pick it up too. " The other one also called out happily.

Everyone was even more silent!

Sensing the strange atmosphere, the two wolf pups were confused.

What was going on? They had learned how to use chopsticks, but why were no humans or beasts happy for them?

Not getting the expected praise, the two wolf cubs were very depressed. However, when they accidentally saw the mess on the table, they were even more depressed.

"Where's the food? Where did all the food go?" The two little wolves howled in disbelief. Then, they looked at each other. From each other's eyes, they saw disbelief!

"We've finished them all!" An elder of the fire Wolf Clan couldn't help but speak up when he saw that no one was paying attention to his clansmen.

"What? How could he do this? You, you've really gone too far!" The two wolf pups howled in anger. Then, the crowd and the beasts saw the two wolf pups, who were on fire from anger, burst into tears ...

"Uh!" More black lines appeared on everyone's foreheads. Why was she crying?

Chapter 1930 Meeting Huan Chen \(2\)

"Why are you guys crying? Don't cry!" Elder huolang's face burned when he saw this. How embarrassing! It was too embarrassing!

"You've all eaten your fill, why don't you let us cry? We're still hungry!" One of the wolf pups howled, while the other glared at its elder. Hmph! His own clansmen! He didn't even know how to leave some for them.

"Uh! Don't cry, there's still some food left!" Elder huolang had a headache and couldn't help but sneak a glance at his King. These two little wolves were the younger generation of the king's bloodline and were considered the nephews of the clan leader. Therefore, he couldn't hit them or scold them. He could only coax them.

"Vegetables?" Upon hearing this, the two little fire wolves raised their teary eyes and looked at the table, instantly becoming even angrier.

There were indeed some leftovers on the table, but they were all vegetables! They were carnivores! How could he only eat vegetables! They wanted to eat meat! They were carnivorous!

"Do you think we're rabbits?" The two little fire wolves were angry, and the consequences were serious.

"Eating more vegetables is good for the body." The fire Wolf elder said in a low voice. When the two little fire wolves heard him say that, they really wanted to jump up and bite him. Wasn't he just standing there and talking without feeling the pain in his back? They were all eating until their brains were full, but he had to eat vegetables like a rabbit? This was really bullying the wolf!

"Yes, I'll suggest to uncle that I should give you more vegetables in the future," One of the small wolves said in a gloomy voice.

The other one didn't want to be outdone and continued, "I suggest that the wolf tribe should eat vegetables instead. We can't let go of good things that are good for health, right? Uncle?"

"Uh! I'm just a bystander. The Queen will make the decisions for the wolf tribe." The wolf King saw that he had been innocently named and quickly said. However, as soon as he finished speaking, he immediately received countless disdainful eyes, among which Feng Da and the others were the most.

This was because the wolf King had stolen the term 'soy sauce' from them.

"I say, Wolf King! You're the king of a clan, how can you do this?" Feng Da couldn't help it. This old wolf was too embarrassing for men.

"How did I do?" The wolf King didn't think that he had done anything wrong. In fact, he had always thought that he was very Democratic and listened to the opinions of his clansmen for all matters. He was also a good man who listened to his wife. What a rare quality this was!

"You're too irresponsible." Feng Da pointed it out directly.

"Uh! I am very responsible! If I don't take responsibility, where did my child come from?" The wolf King rolled his eyes and said with a 'you don't understand' look.

"This is the same thing?" Feng Da was speechless. He and Wolf King were not on the same channel. Otherwise, why would it be so difficult for them to communicate? More importantly, the wolf King didn't answer the question.

"Of course!" The wolf King said matter-of-factly.

"Alright! It's my fault for not being able to understand. " Feng Da was defeated.

"It's good that you know. " The wolf King pushed his nose up.

"You ..." Feng Da was furious. After taking a deep breath, he decided not to stoop to the level of a Wolf. Of course, he kept silent.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue laughed to herself. This Wolf King was a pain in the ass, how could Feng Da possibly explain it to him?

After some thought, Leng ruoxue smiled and said, ""Wolf King, it's getting late. Shouldn't you all go back?" She was a little tired.

After hearing Leng ruoxue's words, the wolf King widened his eyes in disbelief. ""Are you chasing us away? How could you do this? We're not leaving yet!"

"You've already eaten. Are you planning to stay the night?" Hearing the wolf King's words, Leng ruoxue was a little speechless. The other beasties could not help but distance themselves from the Wolf King. It was too embarrassing to stand next to it.

"Why can't I? We're neighbors, so it's only right for you to let us stay for a night. Besides, it's so late now, and it's not safe for us to walk at night. If anything happens, you'll feel guilty, right?" The wolf King said shamelessly. It wasn't that he didn't want to leave, but the food here was too attractive to him. Moreover, the spiritual energy in this house was much richer than outside, so he really couldn't bear to leave just like this!

"What if I say I don't feel guilty?" Leng ruoxue was helpless against the Wolf King. She had never seen such a thick-skinned Beastie before. Furthermore, the evil demon's land was their territory. Would they be in danger here? She would not believe it even if she was beaten to death!

"How is that possible? You can't be that inhumane! You're a good person! I'm very clear about that. So, quickly arrange rooms for us! I see that there are quite a few empty rooms here!" The wolf King urged. In any case, it had already made up its mind not to leave.

However, after it had finished speaking, it noticed that Leng ruoxue and the rest did not move. It then continued, ""Forget it! I won't trouble you, I'll do it myself, I'll go find a nice room myself!" With that, the wolf King turned around and left to find a room for himself.

Seeing the wolf King's self-introduction and shameless actions, Feng Da and the others were even more speechless. No wonder this guy was so famous in the land of evil demons. It seemed that he had no choice but to admit defeat!

"Miss, are we just going to let it be like this?" After a long while, Feng Da whispered to Leng ruoxue.

"Do you have any good ideas?" Leng ruoxue asked with a faint smile. Actually, from a certain aspect, she still admired Wolf King.

"Uh! I don't have any!" Feng Da didn't want to deal with the Wolf King.

At this moment, the fire Wolf clan's Queen walked to Leng ruoxue's side with an apologetic expression. "I'm sorry for the trouble. I'll try to persuade it to leave. "

"It doesn't matter, just let it stay for one night! You guys can stay too. After all, we're neighbors. " Leng ruoxue said generously. The beasts in her house had put in a lot of effort, so it was normal for them to stay the night.

"Thank you! Then we won't be polite. " Upon hearing this, the wolf Queen quickly said. In fact, it was also quite curious about this house.

"You're welcome!" Leng ruoxue laughed. Then, she turned to the other Beastie, "It's indeed a little late today. All of you should stay the night and go back tomorrow morning!" In any case, it didn't matter if they kept one or a group.

When the beasts heard this, they were all excited. In fact, they had been drooling over this house for a long time. They had seen it with their own eyes, but they had no chance to live in it. It was impossible not to be tempted. Although they also felt that the wolf King's thick skin was a little embarrassing, they were quite grateful to the old wolf now. If it was not so shameless, they would not have had the chance to live here!

"Feng Da, help them make the arrangements." Leng ruoxue looked at the happy beastmen and instructed Feng Da. There were too many of them, so one room per person would definitely not be enough.

"Yes!" Feng Da replied. Then, with a wave of his hand, he led the beasts out of the garden.

However, the two hungry little fire wolves did not leave with Feng Da.
