

Crazy Wife 2201

Chapter 2201 The Hearing \(3\)

"Waa!" The originally beautiful white Tiger cried so hard that it shook the heavens and the earth. Seeing this, long han and the others were all speechless.

"What's there to cry about? didn't I also become a Black Phoenix?" The Phoenix clan's supreme divinity tried to comfort the crying White Tiger with a helpless look on his face. However, The White Tiger didn't appreciate it. Instead, it complained angrily, "How can I be the same as you? I'm white! Moreover, even though you've turned black, your feathers are still there!"

Phoenixes could be reborn from the ashes, so their feathers were not afraid of fire. However, its fur was! This was also the main reason why it didn't like phoenixes.

The Hierarch of the Phoenix Clan, who already felt that he was unlucky, felt aggrieved when he heard The White Tiger's words. He couldn't help but mumble, "I said I would admit defeat."

Yes! He didn't want to fight Leng ruoxue at all. The impression of being instantly defeated by her man was too deep. Hence, he instinctively cowered in his room. The facts had also proven that his sixth sense was right! That little girl was just as terrifying! Compared to the monster who killed him in an instant, he was even better.

"Stop arguing! What's the point of complaining now? He had better think of a way to meet that girl! We've been ignored for quite a few days!" Seeing that they were about to start quarreling, long Jue hurriedly reminded them.

"What do you mean?" Long ao asked in confusion.

"We're captives now. After that girl had people throw us here, she didn't care about us anymore." Long Jue complained.

"Maybe ... She's busy!" Long ao was calm when he heard long Jue's words.

"I think she has forgotten about us!" The White Tiger said unhappily. The tone of its voice was full of resentment. Of course, it didn't realize it, and the others didn't think anything was wrong either!

But in fact, their reactions were very abnormal.

They seemed to have accepted the fact that they were about to have a master and were very dissatisfied with their master's cold treatment of them. However, they absolutely did not realize that the self-righteous beast even felt that it was acting like this because its pride had been hurt.

"Then what should we do? Should we take the initiative?" The Hierarch of the Phoenix Clan suggested after hearing The White Tiger's words.

As soon as he said this, everyone present fell silent and fell into deep thought.

After a long time, long ao said, "let's go see that girl!" After all, she will be our master in the future!"

"Alright!" Upon hearing this, the others nodded their heads in unison. Then, The White Tiger transformed back into its human form. After washing up, they prepared to leave the guest courtyard to meet Leng ruoxue.

However, before they could step out of the guest house, they discovered a very serious problem. They did not know where Leng ruoxue was, and where could they go to meet her?

"Are you guys going out?" Suddenly, a curious voice rang in their ears.

Long ao and the others raised their heads and saw Dongfang Lin and Dongfang Yue standing at the entrance of the guest courtyard.

"We ... Want to go and see Leng ruoxue." Long ao laughed awkwardly.

"Oh! It just so happens that we're also planning to look for her, let's go together!" Dongfang Lin said enthusiastically. Although he hadn't come to see them these past few days, he had arranged for people to monitor them in secret. He knew that they were very obedient, so he had temporarily put down his guard against them.

He naturally knew why these people wanted to see Leng ruoxue! In reality, his eldest brother had the same goal as them. However, those who went to see Leng ruoxue recently were all denied entrance.

Hearing that Dongfang Lin was willing to bring them to see Leng ruoxue, the few headless supreme divinity beasts were naturally overjoyed. Then, they followed Dongfang Lin all the way to Leng ruoxue's residence.

After walking for a while, they had become much more familiar with the Dongfang brothers. Since both sides had the intention of befriending each other, they naturally had a pleasant conversation and were all happy.

However, when they arrived at Leng ruoxue's residence, only a few Hierarchy-level beasts were allowed to enter.

Dongfang Yue was instantly depressed!

As he watched the Hierarchy leave, Dongfang Lin patted his big brother's shoulder affectionately and consoled him, "I think Xue 'er has something important to tell them since she agreed to meet them. Let's go back first! When Xue 'er has time, come again. "

"Alright!" Dongfang Yue nodded dejectedly. He knew that what his brother said made sense, but the disappointment in his heart did not lessen much. However, who could he blame for this?

At this moment, Leng ruoxue, who was in the living room of her own residence, naturally had no idea about Dongfang Yue's low mood.

She was currently staring at several Supreme gods of the beast race!

The six Hierarchy-level beasts had come together. After they were invited into the living room and sat down, apart from long mo and long ao, who were relatively calm, the other four looked unusually nervous. There was still a faint trace of fear in their eyes as they looked at Leng ruoxue.

Every time Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes swept over them, their hearts would jump into their throats and they would be on tenterhooks! The pressure that Leng ruoxue gave them was simply too great!

When they thought of Leng ruoxue's terrifying flames, their hands were trembling!

Leng ruoxue stared at them silently for a long time before she finally spoke.

"You guys came to see me just to stare at me?" Leng ruoxue teased him casually.

Upon hearing this, two Hierarch couldn't sit still. Cold sweat trickled down their foreheads and their faces turned pale.

Seeing them like this, Leng ruoxue was even more bewildered. She tried her best to recall if she had done anything to them because one of them happened to be the Phoenix clan's old ancestor.

However, no matter how much she thought about it, Leng ruoxue didn't think that the Phoenix clan's old ancestor had any reason to be afraid of her. After all, the people who had taught him a lesson were the demon and Feng Zhan, and had nothing to do with her! As such, Leng ruoxue felt that she had been wronged. The way she looked at the Phoenix clan's old ancestor also became a little unfriendly.

After being glared at by Leng ruoxue like a knife, the old ancestor of the Phoenix Clan shuddered. Then, he lowered his head subconsciously and did not even dare to lift it up.

Seeing him like this, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but laugh to herself. This reverent God of the Phoenix Clan was so timid!

At this moment, long ao, who had been calm all this while, looked at his useless companions with a headache. Then, he said to Leng ruoxue directly, "We're here for the master recognition matter!"

"There's no hurry! You won't be able to escape anyway!" Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

Ugh! You're not in a hurry, but we are!

One had to know that it didn't feel good to be hung up like this! Moreover, they didn't want to live under someone else's roof.

"I wonder if miss Leng has any other requests for us?" Long ao couldn't help but probe. After all, from his point of view, Leng ruoxue wasn't in a hurry to make them recognize her as their master because she was still dissatisfied with them.

"Follow me!" Leng ruoxue did not answer long ao's question directly. Instead, she stood up and walked out of the living room. She led the way, while long ao and the rest followed behind her, not knowing what was happening.

Leng ruoxue led them around a few corners. Before long, she had brought the six of them to the underground prison.

The light in the underground prison was extremely dim, and there was a trace of soil and blood smell. At this moment, the smell of blood was especially strong.

The six of them were all people who had experienced hundreds of battles. Naturally, they were not surprised by such a place. However, they did not know why Leng ruoxue had brought them here.

Until Leng ruoxue brought them to the door of one of the cells.

There were three people locked up there, two men and one woman. Long ao and the others naturally knew these three people.

However, at this time, the three of them looked extremely miserable. Their clothes could no longer cover their bodies, and their bodies were a bloody mess. It was almost impossible to tell that they were human!

Even long ao and the others, who had been through hundreds of battles, felt like vomiting when they saw them like this.

"Cute master, you've come!" At this moment, baby, who was guarding the prisoners in the cell, immediately jumped into Leng ruoxue's arms when it saw her. Cang, who was a step slower than it, immediately released its pressure in dissatisfaction and glared at baby with a warning look!

However, in front of its cute master, it naturally had its master's support, so although baby's little body was shaking very badly, it was not afraid of it. Seeing this, Cang immediately felt that His Majesty was seriously challenged. He was about to increase the pressure, but in the next second, he fell into a warm and soft embrace.

Instantly, the angry Cang Mao was smoothened!

Long ao and the other Hierarch felt helpless when they saw Cang happily lying in Leng ruoxue's arms and looking at the little Purple Fox that was occupying the other half of Leng ruoxue's arms. It seemed like the competition between the beasts was very intense!

"Go in!" Leng ruoxue glanced at long ao and the rest, then took the lead to enter and find a place to sit down.

Long ao and the others also found their own places.

At this moment, uncle long, who was in the corner, walked over and smiled at Leng ruoxue, "Xue 'er, are you going to start the interrogation?"

"Yes." Leng ruoxue nodded. Then, uncle long took the initiative to accept this task. He even had a small notebook in his hand. It was filled with all kinds of records. Of course, it was all about the performance of these three people.

The reason why they had chosen to interrogate the three of them at this time was because long ao and the others had taken the initiative to come to their door. In fact, ever since the dust had settled, Leng ruoxue had been waiting for them. As for the interrogation this time, it was specially arranged by Leng ruoxue for long ao and the others to see.

In the early stages of the interrogation, the three of them were naturally in deep trouble.

When long ao and the rest heard the conversation between Leng ruoxue and uncle long, they understood why Leng ruoxue had brought them here.

They were here for the hearing!

Chapter 2202 Inside Story \(1\)

Moreover, it was probably not just for the hearing. Perhaps they wanted to use the mouths of these three people to tell them some other things. Long ao had thought about this very clearly.

At this time, uncle long looked at long ao and the others indifferently. Then, he turned his eyes to the two men and a woman who were tied to the pillar.

The two men and the woman were unconscious. After uncle long fed them a pill, the three of them slowly woke up.

Uncle long had only given the three of them ordinary healing pills to ensure that they could be interrogated normally. Although their external injuries still looked very scary, in fact, their internal injuries were at least half healed.

Yaoji had just woken up and was still not used to the dim light in the cell. After a short moment of confusion, her dazed eyes gradually focused. Then, she saw Leng ruoxue sitting diagonally opposite her.

"Leng ruoxue, you B * tch! You actually dare to appear in front of me!" Yaoji cursed at Leng ruoxue the moment she saw her. The hatred in her eyes was so intense that long ao and the other five were in disbelief.

What exactly did that lass Leng ruoxue do to that woman?! Why did this woman have such a strong hatred for her?

The six of them had only met yaoji once, so they were not too clear about The Grudge between her and Leng ruoxue. However, from the looks of it, The Grudge between the two of them seemed to run quite deep? But what puzzled them even more was that Leng ruoxue didn't seem to have much of a reaction to yaoji's curses.

This was truly unbelievable.

The few of them really wanted to stand up for Leng ruoxue and teach this woman who spoke vulgarly a lesson. After all, Leng ruoxue was going to be their master soon. No matter how deep the hatred between the two of them was, as Leng ruoxue's beasts, they naturally could not allow anyone to insult their master. However, when they saw that the rabbit and the other beasts in the cell did not move after hearing her words, they did not dare to act rashly, in case they spoiled Leng ruoxue's plans.

However, this feeling of holding back was really uncomfortable.

"Yaoji, I don't understand. I saved your life, so why do you hate me so much? You're clearly repaying kindness with ingratitude, you're an ungrateful Wolf. " At this moment, Leng ruoxue asked with a faint smile. She had already taken in long ao and the other five's reactions. Her question could be considered to have answered their doubts!

"Ingrate? Hehe! So what if I'm an ingrate? So what if you saved me? Do you think I can't hate you because you saved me? I hate women who are prettier than me the most in my life. Even if she is my Savior, I will not be grateful to her. "

"What's more, you're the disciple of the highly-regarded master Yu, and you stole all my glory. That's why I hate you even more! Especially Dongfang Yue and the others, who were all bribed by you! They're all on your side, what about me? What am I in their eyes? I've been through so many hardships with them for so many years, and they abandoned me just like that. All of this is because of you!" Yaoji roared madly. The hatred and madness in her eyes were frightening, but long ago and the others were speechless after hearing her words.

However, long ago and the other five were smart enough not to ask any more questions and chose to continue listening.

"Have you ever thought about why Dongfang Yue and the others were disappointed in you and why they abandoned you?" Leng ruoxue continued to ask.

"It's because I poisoned the people of the buried city! The poison wasn't heavy at all, and I did it to frame you. Why can't they understand me?" At the mention of this, Yaoji's anger rose.

"In order to punish me, they even wanted to imprison me for life! Hmph! It wasn't easy for me to escape from rime ice, how could I want to be locked up again! Don't even think about it!" Yaoji added.

"You hate them too?" Leng ruoxue asked with a look of understanding.

"Right! I also hate them for treating me like this in order to please you! It'd be a wonder if I didn't hate them!" Yaoji's voice was filled with hatred.

"They didn't do it to please me. They punished you because you've done something that disappointed them. For your own selfish reasons, you poisoned your own companion. I believe that no force would allow such a thing! Moreover, they've already shown you mercy for the sake of your many years of friendship. However, with your personality, it's only natural for others to be good to you. If they're bad to you, it's their fault! Right?" Leng ruoxue said indifferently.

"That's right! I've been through so many hardships with them for so many years, it's only right that they're good to me. Besides, why should I let a little girl like you ride on my head? you want me to serve you as my master? no way!" Yaoji spoke the truth. Out of everyone present, she was the one who opposed Leng ruoxue the most.

Other than the fact that Leng ruoxue was prettier than her, Leng ruoxue also gave her a deep sense of danger. She felt that her special position in the hearts of Dongfang Yue and the others was seriously threatened. Therefore, she could not tolerate Leng ruoxue's existence.

This was probably the so-called repulsion of the opposite sex, and a mountain could not accommodate two Tigresses! For Yaoji, only a woman with an extraordinary status like her was enough. Other women didn't need her!

"So, not only did you betray me, but you also betrayed your companion who had been through so many hardships with you? Don't you feel anything when you see your companion's junior die in front of you? Don't you feel guilty?" Leng ruoxue asked aggressively.

"Hmph! They were the ones who let me down first, so why should I feel guilty? What's wrong with me selling them out? I was forced by them!" Yaoji didn't think she was in the wrong. In her heart, she was the biggest victim and the most innocent one!

"Uncle long, I'll leave the rest to you!" After Leng ruoxue asked what she wanted to know, she didn't want to talk to Yaoji anymore. Instead, she handed over the authority to continue the interrogation to Uncle long.

Uncle long smiled and nodded. Then, he continued Leng ruoxue's topic, "What did you say to Wu Jing?"

"Hahaha! I've told you everything I know. I've told her everything, including your identity, your location, the whereabouts of Dongfang Yue and the others, and this underground city! Oh right, and that Totoro! You must not have thought that when Wu Jing found out that we had seen the Totoro, she was so angry that she was about to explode!" Yaoji laughed wildly.

She would definitely answer all his questions and not hide anything. Because she was very clear that this time, she was doomed. Falling into their hands, they would never let her go. Since that was the case, she would not let them have an easy time either!

She might as well tell them everything and let them live like stray dogs in the future. This was her plan!

"I don't know when you became so close to Rime. Your hatred seems to be even deeper, right?" Uncle long couldn't understand the structure of this woman's brain. How could she think of colluding with Wu Chen? What kind of way of thinking was this!

Chapter 2203 Inside Story \(2\)

"That's right! I do have a grudge against Wu Cheng, but the people I hate the most right now are you. So, of course, I have to get rid of you first!" Yaoji answered truthfully. In fact, there was one more thing that she didn't mention. She didn't intend to join the fog City. Instead, she was captured by the people of the fog City after she escaped from the black fog City. She knew that she would definitely die if she fell into the hands of the fog City. Since it was Leng ruoxue and the others who caused her to fall into such a miserable state, why would she bother hiding their whereabouts for them? therefore, she decided to use the information she knew in exchange for a chance to live.

Who knew that after Wu Jing found out about this, although she didn't kill her, she almost sucked her blood dry, causing her to turn into a state that was neither human nor ghost. She thought that it was all because of Leng ruoxue, so she blamed it all on Leng ruoxue. Thus, she became even more hostile towards Leng ruoxue.

There was no lack of such people in this world.

They couldn't see their own mistakes. Even if they did something wrong, they would find all kinds of reasons for themselves and put the blame on others, as if others were always wrong and they were always right! If others couldn't follow her wishes, it would be a great and unforgivable crime. Yaoji was exactly that kind of person!

In the past, although she didn't see eye to eye with Wu Yan, the Divine Master Yu, who she had always admired, was still alive. Therefore, she would more or less hide her nature and didn't dare to go too far.

But now that master Yu had fallen and Wu Xuan had become their mortal enemy, and she was the woman with the highest status on Dongfang Yue's side, her sense of superiority had been greatly enhanced.

Leng ruoxue's appearance had caused her to feel a strong sense of danger. She felt that the fruits of her victory were about to be snatched away and her position was about to be replaced by someone else. In her heart, the reason why Leng ruoxue could easily gain the approval of others was because she was master Yu's disciple.

Without the Halo of being master Yu's disciple, no one would recognize Leng ruoxue! It was precisely because of this thought that her mind was extremely distorted and unbalanced, which led to her series of actions later on.

In short, it was all because of jealousy!

"Did the mist give you any benefits?" Uncle long couldn't help but ask. After hearing yaoji's words, even someone as knowledgeable as him couldn't bear it. This woman ... Was really too crazy!

Fortunately, uncle long didn't know what yaoji was thinking. Otherwise, he would be even more depressed and scared!

However, even if uncle long didn't know, it didn't mean that Leng ruoxue wouldn't know either. Qing Jue, who had been reading yaoji's mind, had told her everything in detail. After she heard it, she had already sentenced yaoji to death in her heart. However, she wouldn't let yaoji die so easily!

"Hahaha! She promised to let me deal with Leng ruoxue!" Uncle Long's question made yaoji laugh madly with extreme pride. Then, her eyes became dazed again. She had obviously fallen into some beautiful fantasy!

"You believe that?" Leng ruoxue, who had been listening for a long time, finally spoke indifferently.

"Why wouldn't I believe it! Do you know how much she wants to catch you? Hahaha! Even if you kill me, she won't let you go, because she already knows of your existence, and the people around you. If I die, you won't have a good life!" Leng ruoxue's cold words caused yaoji to snap out of her daze. Then, she looked at Leng ruoxue smugly, as if she had seen Leng ruoxue's end.

"You don't have to worry about whether we'll have a good life or not. But I know that you'll definitely live in hell in the future!" Leng ruoxue said. She had already made up her mind. No matter if yaoji was Dead or Alive, she would suffer in hell. There was no way she would die a happy death! She would definitely make yaoji suffer a fate worse than death!

"You want me to live in hell? What right do you have? Do you think it's that easy to go to hell?" Not only was yaoji not afraid of Leng ruoxue's words, but she was also disapproving of them. After all, only the dead could go to hell. She didn't think that Leng ruoxue would bear to kill her!

Seeing her like this, uncle long sympathized with her.

What right did Xue 'er have?

Of course, it was because of the dark mistress's fiancé!

Whoever he wanted to make suffer in hell, it was just a word from that evildoer!

What an ignorant woman!

He didn't even know Xue 'er's background and dared to betray her. If this wasn't courting death, what was?

"I don't know if it's easy to go to hell, but I'm sure you can go!" After looking at yaoji for a moment, Leng ruoxue said with a half-smile.

"Hmph! You don't need to scare me, just kill me if you want to, after all, people will eventually go there after they die!" Yaoji said, fearlessly.

"Do you want to die? I'm sorry, but I'm afraid your wish won't come true!" Leng ruoxue said, feeling very troubled.

"I knew it, you can't bear to kill me!" Hearing Leng ruoxue's words, yaoji replied with a hint of pride. Clearly, she didn't understand the hidden meaning behind Leng ruoxue's words, nor did she think that Leng ruoxue wanted to send her to hell alive.

However, Leng ruoxue didn't care if yaoji understood her or not. She gave uncle long a look, and the latter understood and knocked yaoji unconscious again!

Then, everyone's eyes turned to the two black-clothed leaders.

The two men in Black couldn't even pretend to be unconscious after taking the pills. They had also heard the conversation between Leng ruoxue and yaoji. They weren't stupid and knew what they wanted to say.

However, due to their fear of fog ice, they didn't dare to say what they wanted to say like yaoji.

"Are you going to tell me, or do you want me to ask?" Uncle Long's dark and sharp eyes swept back and forth between the two black-clothed leaders as he spoke indifferently.

"We, we ..." The two leaders stammered, unable to form a complete sentence.

"Pa!" With a crisp sound, a black and shiny whip appeared in uncle Long's hand. The whip was as thick as a baby's arm, covered with sharp spikes and emitting a bloody smell. Some of the spikes even had a few pieces of minced meat hanging on them, which was creepy to look at. At this moment, the whip was still cracking from uncle Long's strikes, making it even more eerie.

As for the two black-robed men, when they saw the black whip, they began to tremble unconsciously, their eyes revealing an intense fear.

"Do you want me to ask?" Uncle long asked again as he swung the long whip in his hand.

The evildoer had lent him the whip. In his words, it was the soul-beating whip used only in the nine nether nether prison. It was mainly used to whip the souls of prisoners or those who had committed heinous crimes. The person who was being beaten could not bear the pain that went deep into his soul. Even a reverent-God could not escape!

Chapter 2204 Inside Story \(3\)

After testing it a few times, Uncle Long found that the whip was indeed useful. Therefore, he almost never left his hand when he was in the cell! When he had nothing to do, he would use the whip to scare the two leaders. As a result, when they saw the whip now, they were instinctively afraid!

"I said, I'll confess!" A leader of the Men in Black couldn't stand the fear and immediately gave in! Although they were afraid of his Lord, his Lord was far away and beyond their reach. But now, they had fallen into the hands of these evil demons. If he did not tell them the truth, he did not know what kind of torture he would be subjected to!

These days, they were really scared of the torture!

"You should've been this obedient earlier!" Uncle Long nodded in satisfaction.

"Um, master ..." The leader of the Men in Black had only said a few words when he heard Uncle Long's voice. "Huh?" He was so frightened that he immediately changed his words, "It's not my Lord, it's Rime!" Wu Chen said that we should kill all of you. However, we should leave Leng Ruoxue, Dongfang Yue, Dongfang Lin, and a few other important people alive. Wu Chen wants to deal with them personally!"

"Wu Yan also told us to be careful of the existence of a Totoro. If we see it, we should not attack for the time being ..." The leader of the Men in Black carefully added. After a long time, he finally told them everything he knew.

After he finished speaking, he seemed to be relieved. He thought to himself, these people won't be torturing me now, right?

"Do you have anything to add?" Uncle Long turned his attention to the other leader of the Men in Black.

"I ..." The other leader of the Men in Black was still a little hesitant, but seeing that his companion had already explained, he naturally couldn't hold on any longer.

"Speak quickly!" Uncle Long shouted. Seeing the other party stutter and look at him in fear, he couldn't help but get angry.

"I said! I'll talk!" The leader of the Men in Black hurriedly said, his heart trembling in fear.

Then, he continued, "Wu Xuan told me to let the magical beasts be our cannon fodder. We'll let the magical beasts deal with Dongfang Yue and the others. We ... We'll only need to capture Leng Ruoxue!" This is our main mission!"

After saying these words, the leader of the Men in Black sneaked a glance at Long Ao and the others. Sure enough, he saw that the faces of Long Ao and the others had all darkened to varying degrees.

The old Phoenix ancestor, who had a bad temper, was so angry that he shouted out, "F * ck you, Rime! You actually want to harm us!"

"I'm not trying to harm you. Your King has agreed to this!" The leader of the Men in Black whispered.

"What did you just say?" Hearing this, Long Aohan immediately stood up and questioned him with a dark expression.

"Your King agreed! You're all cannon fodder they sent. Why else would they send you out?" The leader of the Men in Black said with some sympathy.

"Motherf * cker! What do you know? Can you explain everything to me?" Hearing this, the old ancestor of the Phoenix Clan shot up from her seat in anger. She grabbed the black-robed man's shoulder and roared.

The Man in Black closed his eyes and took a deep breath. Then, he opened his eyes and said, "Long ao is hated by the Dragon Emperor because the woman that the Dragon Emperor has taken a fancy to likes him. Long Chen is too close to long ao, and the Dragon Emperor is afraid that he will stand up for long ao. Thus, he sent them out together."

"What about me? And why was I sent out?" The old ancestor of the Phoenix Clan asked anxiously.

"You're too stupid! You always make the Phoenix King angry in public, but because of your strength, the Phoenix King can't punish you in public. So, he could only take this opportunity to send you out. As for the other reverent-God of the Phoenix Clan, he's just a nobody. He doesn't have much of a presence in the Phoenix Clan, so the Phoenix King used him to make up the numbers." The black-robed man spoke the truth. As he spoke, he looked at the two Hierarchy-level experts of the Phoenix Clan with even more sympathy.

"What about us?" The white-robed man also stood up and asked.

"You're too much of a threat to the Tiger King, and you're too popular in the tribe. The Tiger King has long found you an eyesore! The other one is also a bystander!" The Man in Black said carefully. After saying this, he lowered his head so that he would not become their punching bag.

"Damn it, how do you know so much about these things?" Long ao's eyes turned cold, and he asked a very important question.

"The Divine Master's estate has an Intelligence Department. We know the situation of every reverent-God of the beast race. I happen to be one of the people in charge, so you can't hide your situation from me!" The leader of the Men in Black was very honest. In any case, he had already said what he should and shouldn't have said. Therefore, he had nothing else to worry about. Since he had fallen into their hands, he had no hope of surviving. Now, his only hope was that they would let him die a quick death on account of his cooperation.

Hearing this, long ao and the others fell silent. However, their expressions were obviously not good. After all, this kind of betrayal did not feel good.

Seeing them like this, Leng ruoxue said very kindly, "Today's interrogation ends here!"

After saying that, she walked out of the cell.

When they returned to their residence, Leng ruoxue was hugged tightly by a pair of strong arms the moment she entered her room.

"How's the effect?" The demon asked with a faint smile. He didn't want to go to the prison, so he stayed in the room and waited for Xue 'er.

"It's not just good! I've also learned a lot about rime ice. " Leng ruoxue laughed evilly. Even though she pitied long ao and the rest, the inside information that the leader of the Men in Black had revealed was very beneficial to her. As for the matter regarding Wu Chen, it was naturally Qing Jue who had read her mind.

However, she didn't intend to let too many people know about what had happened in the fog.

"Where are the few Supreme Emperor level beasts? Have they made their choice?" The demon asked again.

"I didn't ask them, because they've suffered quite a big blow!" Leng ruoxue said helplessly.

Originally, her main purpose of bringing long ao and the others to the hearing was to let them understand the grudges between them and fog ice. However, the two leaders of the Men in Black didn't give much information about this, and yaoji was only complaining and scolding her non-stop. Therefore, Leng ruoxue believed that long ao and the others probably only had a rough idea of their identities. However, the things that the leaders told them about long ao and the others were completely out of Leng ruoxue's expectations. However, the consequences of her words made her very surprised.

This way, it would be easier for her to subdue long ao and the others!

In fact, her plan was to arrange for long ao and the others to go back to their respective clans as spies. However, she also knew that this was easy to think about but very difficult to do. Long ao and the others might not be willing to do it.

But now, it seemed to be much easier.

However, she had always been kind to Beastie, so she was not willing to force long ao and the others. Therefore, she did not dare to make a conclusion on whether they could really be used by her. However, if they still wanted to be loyal to the current king of their respective clans under such circumstances, she did not want to force them!

After all, everyone had their own ambitions. If one wanted to be blindly loyal, outsiders could not stop them!

As she thought of this, Leng ruoxue's attitude towards this matter grew increasingly indifferent.

When the demon heard Leng ruoxue's words, his curiosity was piqued. He could not help but ask, ""What kind of blow did they receive?"

When she heard his question, Leng ruoxue explained the entire situation to the demon. When the demon heard this, he could not help but laugh. This was a good thing for them!

"According to what you said, they should be back in their rooms licking their wounds now!" The demon laughed.

"It should be! When I left the cell, they were still standing there like idiots!" Leng ruoxue nodded.

"Al! What a pitiful fellow!" The demon sighed with a look of sympathy.

"I feel that this is very normal. The current Kings of the Dragon race, White Tiger race and Phoenix race were all people who betrayed their previous Kings. Since they have such a past record, it's not hard to understand why they can't tolerate anyone else. Furthermore, I've also heard that the three races have been at odds with each other for a long time. Therefore, it's not hard to understand why their Kings would take this opportunity to eliminate their enemies." Leng ruoxue analyzed.

"Yup! The more chaotic they are, the better it is for us. But now that rime ice already knows your identity, we can't continue to hide in the dark!" This was also what the demon was most worried about.

After all, the current Xue 'er was unable to fight against the fog ice. Even if he and Cang were by her side, they could only ensure Xue 'er's safety at most, but they couldn't easily attack the fog ice! To him and Cang, the price of attacking fog ice was very high! Unless they had no other choice, they could only hide in the dark to protect Xue 'er.

As for green vessel, it had yet to recover to its peak state. More importantly, green vessel's strength was not reflected in its combat ability.

Dreamdust was the same.

To others, Huan Chen was very powerful, but he was also no match for fog ice!

From the looks of it, only Xue 'er was able to deal with the fog ice and was most suitable to deal with it. However, Xue 'er's current strength was clearly not enough to compete with the fog ice.

More importantly, Wu Jing already knew Xue 'er's identity, which was quite disadvantageous to Xue 'er, and at the same time increased the danger of Xue 'er.

Chapter 2205 Choice \(1\)

When the demon thought of this, his clear black eyes could not help but flash with worry. However, that strange emotion was quickly hidden by him. He knew that he could not easily reveal his low emotions, otherwise, it would cause great pressure to Xue 'er. Moreover, with him around, he would do his best to protect Xue 'er!

At the thought of this, the demon took the initiative to change the topic to Dongfang Yue and the others. He asked, "Xue 'er, when do you plan to take in Dongfang Yue and the others? I think they can't wait any longer!"

"When do you think is the right time?" Leng ruoxue asked, seeking the demon's opinion. Even though she still had some hidden grudges in her heart, she felt that those people had learned their lesson after this incident. Moreover, she had also neglected them for a long time. Hence, she did not intend to make things difficult for them anymore!

After all, it was a huge test for her to receive so many resentful gazes every day.

"Long ao and the other Hierarchy of the beast race have been dealt with. During this time, let them suffer a little more. " The demon said after thinking for a while.

"Yes, we have to let them remember this profound lesson!" Leng ruoxue nodded. Actually, for master's sake, even if they weren't too polite to her, she wouldn't hold it against them. However, she couldn't stand their petty kindness. If they hadn't been soft-hearted and let Yaoji off, those people who had sacrificed themselves for the underground city wouldn't have died!

Although Uncle Lian and the others had already suffered from the condemnation of their conscience, that could not save the lives of those who had fallen!

Besides, since it has already happened, what's the point of regretting it?

There was no medicine for regret in this world!

Leng Ruoxue did not appreciate the way Uncle Lian and the others did things.

Not only was he self-righteous, but he was also soft-hearted!

She really couldn't understand why a person like Uncle Lian, who was already an all-powerful expert in her master's era, would still be so childish in his actions. Not vicious enough?

Sometimes, she often wondered if it was because they were not decisive enough that they were controlled by the fog and became its prisoners.

Also, she couldn't understand her master's indulgence of fog. However, her master had already passed away. No matter what she thought, she would respect her Master's Choice at that time, even if she didn't agree with it.

But in the future, how to deal with fog ice would be up to her!

Now that things had come to this, Leng Ruoxue was very clear that she and Wu Jing were natural enemies! The opposition between her and Wu Chen was inevitable. Even if she didn't take the initiative to find trouble with Wu Chen, Wu Chen wouldn't let her off!

There were too many things on her that Wu Xuan coveted, and her strength was not high now. Therefore, Wu Xuan would definitely not let go of this great opportunity! In the future, she would definitely have a lot of trouble!

At the thought of this, Leng Ruoxue felt slightly depressed!

With her current strength, she would be at a disadvantage if she were to fight against Wu Yan. Therefore, she could only hope that the woman would be wary of the constraints of the laws of heaven and earth and not dare to attack her easily. This way, she would still have time to grow!

However, she knew very well that she did not have much time! It was impossible for Wu Cheng to watch him grow without doing anything! If that was the case, she would be seeking her own death. She believed that she was not that stupid!

And her! The most important thing right now was to strengthen himself. Only then could he better protect the people around him. Only then could he live freely in the divine realm!

She didn't want to be chased around by the fog like a stray dog. However, the current her clearly couldn't afford to be high-profile. After much thought, Leng Ruoxue felt that it was better for her to avoid the fog.

After he shared his thoughts with the demon, the demon agreed.

Then, they called uncle long and Dongfang Lin over to discuss the details. However, Leng ruoxue forbade Dongfang Lin from telling Dongfang Yue about it.

After Dongfang Lin heard this, he could only helplessly nod his head in agreement. His heart was filled with 120000 points of sympathy for his big brother. However, who could he blame for this?

In the next few days.

The atmosphere in the underground city was still gloomy. The beasts living in the guest house, especially the six venerate Lord level divine beasts, were in low spirits.

Seeing them like this, the other beasts were so scared that they didn't even dare to breathe. They were on tenterhooks every day, praying that such days would end soon.

After giving them a few days to settle down, Leng ruoxue, the demon, uncle long, and Cang finally took the initiative to visit.

When the beasts in the guest courtyard saw Leng ruoxue, it was as if they had seen their Savior. Their eyes were filled with tears and they surrounded her in excitement.

Upon seeing this, Leng ruoxue's forehead was filled with black lines. What was going on?

"What are you guys doing?" Cang, who was in Leng ruoxue's arms, looked at the passionate beasts and asked in an unfriendly tone.

"Nothing! Don't do anything! We're too happy! It was true! We were too happy to see miss Leng and were a little too excited!" A beautiful white ape spoke up as the representative of the Beasties.

"Get out of the way! Don't surround my girl!" Azure angrily roared. His words were definitely powerful. In the next second, the beasts immediately scattered and looked at Azure with caution.

Although they didn't know the rabbit's origin, they still had a lingering fear of it!

Seeing that these beasts were very obedient, Azure nodded his head in satisfaction. Then, he raised his head proudly and asked, ""What about those six guys?"

"The six of you are in your rooms! No one is allowed to disturb us!" The White ape replied.

"Oh! Tell them to come out, my girl wants to see them!" Azure loudly ordered.

"Yes!" The White ape nodded. Then, it took a few Beastie with it and went to inform long ao and the others one by one.

Not long after, long ao and the other five came out of their rooms.

Leng ruoxue could not help but frown when she saw the six of them in low spirits and dejected looks. Were their mental fortitude that bad? If she couldn't even take this blow, then she would have to reconsider whether to accept these people! Even if they were reverent-gods, if they didn't have a strong heart, she wouldn't be interested in them!

With this thought in mind, Leng ruoxue's face turned stern when she saw them.

"Miss Leng, please come to the living room!" Long ao quickly said.

"En!" Leng ruoxue nodded. Then, she let long ao lead the way and followed them to the living room.

Once they entered the living room, Leng ruoxue and the rest found a seat and sat down. Long ao and the rest also sat down.

However, Leng ruoxue did not take the initiative to speak. Long ao and the rest did not know what to say either. Just like that, the few of them stared at each other.

This situation made Leng ruoxue extremely depressed. Every time she interacted with them, it would start with them staring at each other! Each of these beasts was more depressed than the last, and now they seemed to have a kind of mood called sentimentality.

Chapter 2206 Choice \(2\)

After a long time.

Leng ruoxue and the others drank cup after cup of tea. After drinking God knows how many cups, uncle long finally couldn't take it anymore!

"I say, don't you guys have anything to say?" Uncle long couldn't take it anymore and asked. If they kept silent like this, he really wanted to beat someone up.

"We, we don't know what to say!" Long ao sighed and whispered.

"As a man, I naturally say what I want to say. Look at what you guys are like now. Weren't you just abandoned by your King? How big of a deal was it? "Your current king's throne was also usurped. You should know that sooner or later, you will have to return it. Sooner or later, they will have to return what doesn't belong to you. So I think it's good that you have been abandoned by them now. At least, you have a chance to make a new choice. Of course, if you want to follow your King to the end of the road, I have no objections. I can only tell you in advance. Have a safe journey. I won't see you out!" Uncle long said calmly.

Uncle Long's words made long aoliu's eyes widen involuntarily. When he saw that they were only staring at him and had no other reaction, uncle long also widened his eyes and said loudly, ""Don't you understand what I mean?" Could it be that he was being too reserved?

"You should know my identity by now, right?" Leng ruoxue asked indifferently.

Long ao and the other five looked at each other and then nodded in unison.

Before they came here, they only knew that they were here to help the divine Lord Mansion to suppress the rebels. However, they did not pay attention to who the rebels were. Instead, they treated it as an ordinary mission. After all, the divine world was under the control of Wu Xuan. Wu Xuan's words represented the divine Lord Mansion. Those who lived in the divine world could not disobey the divine Lord Mansion's will no matter what!

However, after arriving here, they felt that the encirclement this time was unusual. Especially after hearing Dongfang Yue's name, they suddenly realized that the rebels were none other than the war god of the immortal realm, Dongfang Yue, and the others who had disappeared for hundreds of thousands of years.

They might not have seen Dongfang Yue in person, but they were not unfamiliar with his name. Furthermore, they did not think that anyone would dare to impersonate Dongfang Yue or use his name, because that was a great taboo in the divine realm!

The other day in the prison, they had also heard from Yaoji that Leng Ruoxue was the disciple of the previous Divine Master. Combining all these facts, the identities of Leng Ruoxue and her group were confirmed.

In reality, they were in low spirits these few days not only because they found out from the leader of the Men in Black why they were sent to assist in the battle. There was another more important factor—Leng Ruoxue's identity.

Right now, the dragon clan, White Tiger clan, and Phoenix Clan were all considered Leng Ruoxue's enemies. Naturally, they were as well!

Even though they were still very young when the Great War broke out back then, their family's elders had a part to play in that incident and had supported the current King's position. Once they acknowledged Leng Ruoxue as their master, they would definitely become enemies with their own family! This was something they were unwilling to do.

No matter what opinions or dissatisfaction they had of the king, they could not abandon their loved ones. Thus, they had been very conflicted these days.

One side was his promise, and the other side was his family. They really didn't know how to choose. It seemed that no matter which side they chose, it would not be perfect!

Was there no way to have the best of both worlds?

They really didn't want to be enemies with their loved ones! At the same time, he didn't want to break his promise.

Leng Ruoxue could tell that they were conflicted. She smiled and said, "Now that you know my identity, you should also know how awkward your identities are! To put it more clearly, anyone who colluded with the mist ripple was my enemy! I won't let a single one of them off!"

Hearing Leng Ruoxue's words, Long Ao and the others' hearts couldn't help but skip a beat. They didn't doubt the authenticity of Leng Ruoxue's words at all. Furthermore, they had a deep understanding of Leng Ruoxue's strength. No one could withstand Leng Ruoxue's terrifying flames!

As for the current Leng Ruoxue, she was merely a divine Emperor, but she could already abuse reverent-god level cultivators like them. If Leng Ruoxue were to become a reverent-god level cultivator, it would probably be the end of the three clans!

Thinking of this, Long Ao and the others felt even more depressed!

Observing their reactions, Leng Ruoxue deliberately paused for a moment before continuing, "I've always been friendly to beasts and I know that many of the beasts in your three clans don't know much about what happened back then. Many of the beasts who participated in that battle must have fallen. Those who are still alive should only be a small portion, right?"

"En!" Long ao nodded.

"Are there people close to you among these people?" Leng ruoxue guessed.

Long ao nodded again.

"What do they think about what happened back then? Do you regret it?" Leng ruoxue asked.

"I don't know. Many people are in closed-door cultivation. Moreover, the clan has forbidden people from talking about the past, especially the matters of the former royal family! This has already become a taboo in the clan. " Long ao spoke the truth. He knew a little about it because he could remember things back then!

"So that's how it is! However, what I want to say is that if any of your relatives who were involved in the matter back then are willing to forsake the dark and join the light, I can no longer pursue their past matters. This is all on the basis of your face and the premise that you recognize me as your master. " Leng ruoxue said calmly.

"Of course, if you feel that you can't convince your family and are unwilling to recognize me as your master for your family, I won't force you and will even let you go. However, from now on, you are my enemy! And I never show mercy to my enemies, even if they are Beastie!" Leng ruoxue continued.

After that, she didn't say anything else.

When long ao and the rest heard Leng ruoxue's words, they looked at her in shock.

Did they hear wrong? Had Leng ruoxue given them two choices?

One was to recognize her as her master and she would let her family go! The other was that they could choose not to recognize her as their master and she would let them go. But from then on, they were enemies!

Choose one!

Long ao and the others were so shocked that they couldn't believe what they had just heard. Was this true?

Initially, they had also thought that if they went back on their word and refused to acknowledge Leng ruoxue as their master, their time of death would not be far away. However, they did not expect Leng ruoxue to say that she would let them go even if they did not acknowledge her as their master?

How could there be such a kind woman in this world?

Didn't she know that letting them go was the same as letting a Tiger return to the mountains?

Killing them now was equivalent to weakening the enemy's strength!

This was such an obvious matter. Could it be that Leng ruoxue didn't know what to do? If it were them, they would definitely kill them!

Chapter 2207 Choice \(3\)

But now, Leng ruoxue had given them a choice.

At this moment, the shock in the depths of their hearts couldn't be described with words. It was a very strange feeling. How should they put it? it was as if a small cat's paw was scratching the most itchy part of their hearts. They really wanted to pry open Leng ruoxue's brain to see what was inside. How could she have such an illogical thought?

And it was this illogical thought that made them even more conflicted.

They really wanted to shake Leng ruoxue to her senses and tell her that if they did not recognize her as their master, the best way to deal with her was to kill them while they were still prisoners!

He definitely couldn't let the Tiger return to the mountain!

A woman's benevolence was even more unacceptable!

However, when they saw how calm Leng ruoxue was, they couldn't say anything no matter what. Perhaps they didn't dare to say it! The few of them looked at Leng ruoxue with complicated feelings and remained silent for a long time.

After an unknown amount of time.

Long ao finally could not help but open his mouth to confirm, ""Miss Leng, if we don't recognize you as our master, will you really let us go? You won't regret this?"

"Of course! I've never done anything that I'll regret. I said that I'd let you go, so I naturally won't force you to stay or kill you!" Leng ruoxue nodded.

"I'll still say the same thing. You can choose one of the two!" Leng ruoxue added.

"We need to consider." Long ao said softly.

"Yes! You'd better think it over carefully, because once you've made a decision, I won't allow you to regret it!" After Leng ruoxue finished speaking, she gave the demon and uncle long a look. The three of them stood up at the same time and turned to leave.

When they finally returned to their residence, uncle long had just entered the room and could not wait to ask Leng ruoxue, ""Xue 'er, you're really letting them choose one of the two! What if they chose not to recognize him as their master? Are you really going to let them go?"

"Of course!" Leng ruoxue smiled and nodded.

"That ... That's like releasing a Tiger back to the mountain!" Uncle long said anxiously.

"What's the matter? if we can take care of them now, we will do the same in the future!" Leng ruoxue said confidently.

In fact, the reason why she was so confident was largely because she knew that most beasts kept their promises. These six people were venerable Emperor-level divine beasts and were naturally very proud. How could they let themselves go back on their words?

Furthermore, even though she had not spent much time with the six of them, Leng ruoxue was very clear that they were not blindly loyal. It was impossible for them to not have any reaction after being treated this way by their King and continue to work like a slave for others. However, they had still been conflicted for so long, which proved that there was something else that was bothering them. After meeting them today, Leng ruoxue naturally understood the true reason for their dilemma.

That was why she had said those words earlier, and this was called playing hard to get!

In contrast to uncle Long's worry, she wasn't worried about what the six people would choose. Although she also believed that it was the wisest choice for them to acknowledge her as their master, if they were to lose their minds and choose not to acknowledge her as their master, she would only lose six subordinates.

As for whether these six people would increase the enemy's strength, she really didn't think about it. Because in her heart, only fog ice was her true enemy!

"I hope they will make a wise choice." After hearing Leng ruoxue's words, uncle long sighed.

"Uncle long, don't worry! They will!" Leng ruoxue smiled as she consoled him.

"Ai! I'm not as calm as I was when I was young!" Uncle long suddenly started to complain, causing Leng ruoxue to burst into laughter. She then said, ""Uncle long, you dare to say you're old in front of evildoer and Azure?"

"Uh!" These words made uncle long wipe his cold sweat. He really didn't dare to. In front of those two, he was also a little guy.

"Xue 'er, am I very old?" Uncle long was speechless, but the evildoer asked with a wronged expression.

"Not old! I mean, you've lived longer! But this has nothing to do with age!" Leng ruoxue's heart skipped a beat when she heard this and she quickly consoled him.

When the demon heard this, he gave Leng ruoxue a 'I'll let you off' look. However, Cang's eyes were filled with tears as he asked, "Girl, then am I old?"

"Uh! You're not old! None of you are old!" Leng ruoxue broke out in a cold sweat. She was extremely speechless in her heart. 'Tell me, why is this human and beast following us around for no reason?' What she said just now was just to tease uncle long, but she had provoked these two guys. Wasn't she just looking for trouble? Sob ... She felt helpless.

However, when uncle long saw Leng ruoxue's embarrassment, he was in a good mood and laughed out loud.

Seeing that she had managed to please uncle long, Leng ruoxue finally felt that her words were not in vain. She also felt a little comforted in her heart. As for evildoer and Cang, Leng ruoxue had decided that she would try her best to lower her presence!

However, what she didn't know was that when they saw Leng ruoxue's depressed look, evil demon and Azure were already laughing in their hearts.

Three days later.

Long ao and the other five took the initiative to find him.

When they saw Leng ruoxue, they said directly, ""We've thought it over. We've decided to keep our promise and recognize you as our master!"

After thinking for three days, they had thought of many things and many possible outcomes. However, in the end, they still decided to recognize her as their master. The most important reason for this was that Leng ruoxue's strength had left a deep impression on them.

Leng ruoxue only had the strength of a divine Emperor. Once she advanced to the reverent God Realm, the Kings of the three clans would not be her match. Hence, to them, the fate of their three clans was already decided. However, they could not change the fate of their Kings, nor did they want to change it. However, there were still many innocent children in the three clans. When the rebellion occurred, the children were not even born yet! They really did not want to see those little fellows become the sacrificial lambs for someone's desire for power. Hence, in their opinion, only by acknowledging Leng ruoxue as their master could they change the fate of their loved ones and those little fellows.

Once they made up their mind, their mood unexpectedly became better.

After they had made their decision, they could not wait any longer and immediately went to see Leng ruoxue.

"You've really thought it through? Even if your family members are unwilling to forsake the dark and join the light?" Leng ruoxue asked for confirmation after hearing what they had to say.

"We'll do our best to convince them!" Long ao said.

"Yes, but if they are not willing to abandon the dark and join the light, and insist on going their own way, I can promise to spare their lives on your account! As for what kind of treatment they will receive, I can't guarantee it. " Leng ruoxue said the ugly words first.

"Thank you, master!" Hearing this, long ao and the others were completely relieved.

And this "master" was also unusually sincere. Even though they were surprised by Leng ruoxue's promise to them, it was undeniable that Leng ruoxue's words had convinced them. In this way, even if their elders were stubborn and stubborn, they would not be afraid!

"Recognize me as your master!" Leng ruoxue couldn't help but nod to herself when she noticed the huge change in their attitudes.

When the six of them heard 'master recognition!' When they heard these three words, they were momentarily dazed. However, the six of them quickly reacted and took the initiative to sign a soul contract with Leng ruoxue, officially becoming one of her beast companions.

Then, Leng ruoxue moved Feng Zhan, Bai Xu, and the rest of their clansmen out of the bangle, allowing them to interact and build up their relationship.

Feng Zhan was very friendly to the six of them, especially to the two Phoenix clan's Supreme gods. He treated them like his juniors. The two phoenixes also remembered who Feng Zhan was, so they were very respectful to him and the other phoenixes.

After that, Feng Zhan started to talk about himself and Leng ruoxue's great achievements over the years. He praised Leng ruoxue as if she existed in the heavens, but not in the earth. In the end, even Leng ruoxue, who thought she was very thick-skinned, blushed from the praise.

After learning that Feng Zhan was the youngest son of the former Phoenix King, the two Hierarch of the Phoenix Clan suddenly felt at a loss and uneasy.

Seeing this, Feng Zhan snorted coldly and flew proudly to his master's side, ignoring them.

Bai Xu, on the other hand, had no intention of paying any attention to them since they came out. He immediately gave them a butt and buried his head in Leng ruoxue's arms.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue could only smile helplessly.

Long ao and the others could not help but sigh. Master's Beastie really liked to act coquettishly. If it were them, they would not be able to do such a thing.

Even though they were sighing, they were also envious of the deep relationship these beasts had with Leng ruoxue. They did not know when they would be able to be so carefree in front of Leng ruoxue.

Most of the beasts had a good conversation during this short period of time. However, Bai Fan and Bai kun, the two Hierarch-level experts of The White Tiger race, were a little depressed.

Bai Fan was the white-robed man while Bai kun was the other reverent-God from The White Tiger race who did not have a strong presence. Leng ruoxue only knew their names after she had taken them in.

As for the reason why they were depressed, it was mainly because Bai Xu ignored them. No matter how much they tried to please him, Bai Xu would always point his butt at them. When he was annoyed, he would show his sharp claws and threaten to scratch them. This fact made Bai Fan and Bai kun so depressed that they wanted to bang their heads against the wall.

It should be known that most of the beasts gathered in the room were from the Phoenix tribe. Bai Xu was the only one from The White Tiger Tribe. Therefore, Bai Xu naturally became the focus of their attention. However, Bai Xu did not give them any face. This scene made long ao and long min, who had not seen their tribesmen, laugh so hard that they almost rolled on the ground. As for them, they naturally lost all their face!

Chapter 2208 Receiving \(1\)

After the gathering, the six Hierarch experts left Leng ruoxue's residence and returned to their own courtyards. On the way back, Bai Fan and Bai kun's faces were dark and they did not say a word.

When long min and long ao saw this, they helplessly comforted him, "You two should be content! At least we saw a little white tiger. We didn't even see a Dragon. "

Yes! They already knew that Leng ruoxue had many members of the dragon clan by her side. Unfortunately, Leng ruoxue told them that those members were not by her side. She even said that she would introduce them to each other in the future.

Hence, for a few hours, they were just admiring the other people bonding.

Al! That feeling of loneliness was really not a good one!

Bai Fan and Bai kun could only nod in a daze after hearing their words. They didn't dare to provoke these two guys. Otherwise, if they got angry, they really wouldn't be able to take it.

After the matter with the six of them was settled, Leng ruoxue started to prepare to deal with Dongfang Yue and the others.

However, she did not reveal anything before this. She only asked Dongfang Lin to bring the other beasts in the guest house to Dongfang Yue and told him that he could let the people of the underground city contract them.

Everyone in the buried city was overjoyed when they heard this, and they washed away the depression that they had felt for the past few days.

The beasts knew that they could not and could not object. Furthermore, Leng ruoxue had given them a chance to recognize their own master. Hence, the beasts were very proactive and quickly chose a human that they liked to recognize as their master.

For a time, everyone was happy.

After the incident, Dongfang Yue brought uncle Lian and a few other important people to Leng ruoxue to express their gratitude.

Before they came, they were not confident at all. They did not know if Leng ruoxue would agree to meet them. Hence, when uncle long invited them into the living room, Dongfang Yue and the others still had shock and joy on their faces.

After they sat down, Dongfang Yue and the others were so nervous that they were at a loss.

Uncle long laughed to himself when he saw them like this.

It must be known that these people in front of him were already famous and influential figures when master Yu was still alive. But now, in front of Xue 'er, they were as restrained and uneasy as children. This was a rare sight.

The evil-minded uncle long was openly admiring the embarrassment of Dongfang Yue and the others. He had no intention of easing the tense atmosphere at all. After all, he wasn't the one who was nervous, so why did he care so much?

Moreover, he also felt that it was time to let these people learn what uneasiness was! Therefore, he watched the show with peace of mind.

After sitting there for a long time, they looked at Leng ruoxue who didn't say a word and only lowered her head to drink her tea. Dongfang Yue and the others were so nervous that cold sweat broke out on their foreheads. Wu...What was the meaning of this!

Dongfang Yue wanted to speak a few times, but his lips moved, and he couldn't say a word.

It was too awkward, wasn't it?

"Eh? How's your discussion going?" At this moment, a curious voice broke the silence in the living room. Dongfang Yue looked up and saw his younger brother as if he had seen his Savior.

Originally, he had wanted Dongfang Lin to come with them, but Dongfang Lin couldn't leave and told them to come first. He said he would be there soon, so they came first! However, after he came over, he didn't know how to say it.

Now that he had seen Dongfang Lin, Dongfang Yue's eyes were burning with passion! Dongfang Lin felt a little creeped out. Furthermore, he could clearly feel an extremely unfriendly gaze shooting at him.

Did he ruin things?

In fact, when his big brother came to find him, he had nothing to do at all. However, at that time, he did not dare to accompany his big brother because Xue 'er had warned him not to interfere in this matter to see the sincerity of Dongfang Yue and the others. As a result, he could only apologize to his big brother.

Moreover, he had calculated the time and felt that they should have had a good talk after such a long time. But who knew that everyone was silent. He didn't know what they were thinking. Did they talk or not? Or did they not come to an agreement?

He felt that it was very likely that they didn't come to an agreement, because big brother and the others were good at fighting, but they had to socialize! It was definitely not their strong suit!

"Lin! We haven't even said anything yet!" Dongfang Yue sent a message to his brother.

"Then what are you guys planning? You're all grown up, can't you even handle such a small matter?" Dongfang Lin was helpless. He knew that he couldn't expect too much from them.

"It's hard for us to say. " Dongfang Yue said.

"What's so hard to say? What a good reason to thank him! Can't you guys even say a word of thanks? Big brother, aren't you all too full of yourselves? It's not like hundreds of thousands of years ago, when we can call the wind and summon the rain. I say, it's time for you to put down your airs!" Dongfang Lin was truly exasperated! Xue 'er had already given them a way out, why didn't these people know how to grasp it!

"It's not a problem to thank her, but that girl's face was so cold. When we saw her like that, we couldn't say the words that were on the tip of our tongues." Dongfang Yue felt wronged as well. That girl's aura was too strong, and they had been rejected so many times. Therefore, a trace of fear had involuntarily formed in their hearts. Naturally, they did not dare to speak rashly.

"Big brother, you have to be braver. It's a knife whether you stick your head out or hide your head back. So, you have to go all out! Good luck!" Dongfang Lin gave Dongfang Yue an encouraging look, then cut off the voice transmission with his big brother and found a corner to sit down to lower his presence so that he wouldn't be used as a pawn.

After encouraging himself, Dongfang Yue finally gathered his courage and said, ""Xue 'er, we, we are here to thank you!"

"Oh! For what?" Leng ruoxue played dumb.

"Thank you for letting the buried city's people contract the beasts." After Dongfang Yue finished his first sentence, he was able to speak the rest of his sentence smoothly. However, his heart was still beating very fast. Why didn't he realize that this girl had such a strong aura before?

"You're welcome. Those beasts are not free. After all, you were once master's subordinates. Now that you've encountered such a disaster, it's normal to compensate you with those beasts. Anyway, I don't like those beasts." Leng ruoxue said on purpose, making it sound as if she really despised those Beastie.

"No matter what, we should still thank you," Dongfang Yue said with a bitter smile.

He was well aware that those beasts were Leng ruoxue's spoils of war. After all, Leng ruoxue and her group had contributed the most in this battle. If it weren't for them, the underground city would have been filled with blood and countless of people would have died. Now that Leng ruoxue had given those beasts to the people of the underground city to form a contract, it was mainly because of master Yu and not because she looked down on those beasts as she had claimed.

One must know that the number of beasts that Leng ruoxue could form a contract with was unimaginable. Hence, it was not difficult for her to form a contract with all of them. Among those beasts, although there were no venerable Emperor beasts, there were still quite a number of Sacred Beasts that were seventh level and above. There were many of them, and when they were added together, they were a considerable fighting force.

Moreover, if others could be like Leng ruoxue and contract spiritual beasts without a limit, they would definitely keep these spiritual beasts in their hands! Hence, the people of the underground city were grateful for Leng ruoxue's actions!

Furthermore, Leng ruoxue had saved the buried city's people. They would not be as ungrateful as yaoji. Hence, Leng ruoxue's status in the buried city had never been higher! Even those who had previously been influenced by some people and had some opinions about Leng ruoxue, after this incident, their gratitude towards Leng ruoxue had risen to an unprecedented level.

And this time, they came with the expectations of the buried city's people.

But now, Dongfang Yue felt that he might not be able to complete the task.

"You've already thanked me. If there's nothing else, you can go back." As expected, Leng ruoxue asked him to leave. The moment she said that, Dongfang Yue's face turned pale.

Dongfang Lin couldn't help but cover his face when he saw Dongfang Yue's performance. His big brother's performance was too embarrassing, wasn't it?

You could have said that you had other things to do! He couldn't really be prepared to leave just like that, right? Dongfang Lin's heart was burning with anxiety when he saw that his big brother was not saying anything and was only looking at Leng ruoxue with hidden bitterness!

However, he couldn't interfere in this matter. He could only watch as Leng ruoxue tortured his big brother. Otherwise, he would be the one being tortured.

Suddenly, there was a commotion outside the door.

A little Purple Fox pushed the door open and entered.

"Lovely master, there's a group of people outside. They say they're here to see you." Baby jumped into Leng ruoxue's arms and reported.

"Eh? Let's go out and take a look!" Leng ruoxue glanced at Dongfang Yue and said indifferently.

Then, she walked out of the living room first, followed by uncle long and the others.

Outside the courtyard.

There were at least a few hundred people gathered.

When Qin Dong, who was Leng ruoxue's guard, saw Leng ruoxue and the rest coming out, he immediately reported to her with a troubled expression, ""Miss, they're all from the underground city."

"You guys want to see me?" After hearing Qin Dong's words, Leng ruoxue squinted her beautiful eyes and asked with a face full of question marks.

"Miss Leng, please make us stay!" Someone took the lead and said. After that, hundreds of people knelt down in front of Leng ruoxue.

"What are you guys doing?" Leng ruoxue raised her brows and asked as she looked at Dongfang Yue and Dongfang Lin.

Dongfang Lin sent an innocent emoji back to Leng ruoxue, indicating that he had no idea either. Dongfang Yue, on the other hand, was completely lost.

"Miss Leng has done us a great favor, and we also admire miss Leng's valiant strength very much. Therefore, we want to recognize miss Leng as our master, and we beg miss Leng to take us in!" The leader shouted.

"Who allowed you to come here and say such things?" After hearing this person's words, Leng ruoxue deliberately revealed an unhappy expression.

"No one, we did it on our own!" The man quickly said.

"What a spontaneous move! If I don't accept you, are you going to keep kneeling?" Leng ruoxue laughed coldly, her expression turning icy cold.

"This ..." The leader didn't dare to answer casually. If he answered 'yes', the other party would definitely think that they were threatening her. Even though they hadn't spent much time with Leng ruoxue, they more or less understood Leng ruoxue's style of doing things. Hence, at this moment, the leader started to regret his words.

Sob ... Did I overreach myself?

"Miss Leng, if you don't like us kneeling, we can get up immediately. However, kneeling in front of you is only to express our gratitude to you. We don't have any other meaning. I hope you don't misunderstand." At this time, another person said.

The person who spoke was very young. He looked to be in his early twenties. He was a young man with a very delicate appearance and clear eyes.

This youth had a fearless look on his face, and a trace of unswerving determination flashed across his delicate and pretty face. His tightly clenched fists revealed the nervousness in his heart. Although the gaze he used to look at Leng ruoxue was very firm, but after a long time, when his eyes met Leng ruoxue's, he could not hold on any longer, and cold sweat slowly formed on his forehead.

But the next moment, the young man spoke again, "Miss Leng, my family has all fallen in this incident. If it wasn't for you, who led the city Lord and the others to turn the tide, I wouldn't be alive now. From the moment I was alive, my only wish was to avenge my family. Only by following you will we have the chance to take revenge!"

"Although I'm still very weak now, I believe that one day, I will be able to become your right-hand man. Please give me a chance!" The young man continued.

After he finished speaking, he became even more determined and bravely met Leng ruoxue's eyes. Actually, what he had just said was only a part of his thoughts. There was another part that he did not say. Leng ruoxue had already become his idol, a god-like existence in his heart. So, even if he did not take revenge, he wanted to stay by Leng ruoxue's side. However, he knew very well that at this moment, nothing could move people more than revenge! He could only bury the other reason deep in his heart.

The young man thought that he could hide his thoughts from Leng ruoxue, but he didn't know that as long as Leng ruoxue wanted to know what these people were thinking, it was impossible to hide it.

"What's your name?" Leng ruoxue suddenly asked. This young man was quite smart.

"I'm Shen Jing!" The young man quickly replied.

"This little fellow will follow you from now on!" Leng ruoxue glanced at Dongfang Lin and said indifferently.

"Alright!" Dongfang Lin nodded, but Shen Jing, who was kneeling at the side, was a little confused. What did this mean? Did he succeed or not?

"You can all go back! Don't kneel here. " Dongfang Lin spoke again.

When the kneeling crowd heard this, they could only stand up resentfully. Then, they turned back every three steps and left Leng ruoxue's courtyard door with great reluctance.

After they left, Leng ruoxue and the rest returned to the living room.

The moment they entered the living room and Leng ruoxue sat down, Dongfang Yue knelt down in front of her with a loud thump. Uncle Lian and the others also knelt down upon seeing this.

"What are you guys doing?" Leng ruoxue furrowed her brows and said unhappily. These people couldn't possibly think that kneeling would be of any use, right?

"Miss Leng, I, Dongfang Yue, am willing to represent everyone in the underground city and serve you as my master. I hope that miss Leng will not decline." Dongfang Yue mustered up his courage and said.

"I said, you don't have to do this!" Leng ruoxue said indifferently.

"Miss Leng, our greatest wish is to avenge master Yu. Not only is miss Leng master Yu's disciple, but your strength has also deeply impressed us. So, from now on, we are willing to follow miss Leng. I hope miss Leng doesn't despise us!" Dongfang Yue said sincerely.

"Yup! Miss Leng, we were too arrogant in the past, but after this lesson, we have also realized our mistakes. I hope that miss Leng can give us a chance. We are willing to follow miss Leng's lead. In the future, if miss Leng says one, we will definitely not say two! If miss Leng asks us to go east, we will definitely not go west!" Uncle Lian also said.

Chapter 2210 Acceptance \(3\)

Hearing uncle Lian's words, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but laugh to herself. Could it be that the little episode earlier had deeply provoked these experts who had been famous for many years?

At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue only said indifferently, "All of you, get up! I don't like to be kneeled by others. "

So, did he agree or not?

Dongfang Yue and the rest thought to themselves at the same time. However, they still stood up obediently so as not to make Leng ruoxue feel disgusted.

In reality, Dongfang Yue's current state was not entirely due to the influence of those little fellows in the underground city. It was because he felt that they really owed Leng ruoxue this kneel. When Leng ruoxue had saved them, they should have done this!

However, there was some unhappiness between the two parties at that time.

Al! Dongfang Yue's intestines turned green with regret! It seemed that some things really couldn't be indulged! However, he would have to bear the main responsibility if his relationship with Leng ruoxue turned sour! Thinking of this, he felt even more ashamed.

"Miss Leng ..." Dongfang Yue wanted to repent properly, but he was interrupted by Leng ruoxue and changed the topic.

"Have the little ones who have lost their loved ones settled down?" Leng ruoxue suddenly asked.

"Yes." Dongfang Yue nodded and was about to continue confessing. However, Leng ruoxue did not give him the chance.

"Inform everyone to pack up and prepare to leave this place!" Leng ruoxue said without any rhyme or reason. After she finished speaking, she patted her butt and left, leaving behind a few dumbfounded men!

"Big brother, let's go!" Patting the dazed Dongfang Yue, Dongfang Lin said with a look of sympathy. However, no matter what, they had finally passed!

"Wait! What did that girl mean? Pack your things and go where?" Dongfang Yue felt as if he was in a dream, and he was still dizzy.

"Of course we're going to the land of demons. We've already been exposed here, we can't stay here any longer!" Dongfang Lin explained. In reality, Leng ruoxue had already discussed with him to bring the buried city's people out of here. However, this news was kept a secret, and other than him, no one else knew about it. Who asked Leng ruoxue to punish her big brother and the others? thus, he had to help her keep it a secret. But now, it should be over! Hehe! Shouldn't he be thanking those little guys for their unintentional actions?

He had long known that Leng ruoxue had a tough mouth but a soft heart. Otherwise, big brother and the rest would have a long way to go! But now, it had finally come to a satisfactory conclusion. He would no longer be stuck between Leng ruoxue and his big brother.

"Isn't the land of demons that girl's territory? Where are we going?" Dongfang Yue could not help but widen his eyes in disbelief at Dongfang Lin's words. Moreover, he did not dare to think too deeply about the meaning behind his words for fear that he had misunderstood.

"Yes, Xue 'er said that it's too dangerous for us to split up. If rime ice attacks again, we may not be so lucky. After all, Xue 'er can't possibly stay here forever." Dongfang Lin said.

"But we're also going to the land of the demons. If Wu Yan attacks there, won't we be wiped out by her?" Someone couldn't help but ask after hearing Dongfang Lin's words.

However, as soon as he finished speaking, he immediately received several cold glares. The person who spoke was so scared that he shrank his neck and quickly shut up.

"If we don't go there, we'll die even faster. Or do you have the confidence to withstand another attack from the miasma?" Dongfang Lin raised his eyebrows and mocked.

"I'll immediately give the order for everyone to pack up. " Hearing Dongfang Lin's displeasure, uncle Lian gave him a meaningful look. Then, he was the first to escape from the living room. If he stayed any longer, it was hard to guarantee that Dongfang Lin wouldn't fly into a rage, even though that guy seemed to have a good temper! However, when he was really angry, he was also very frightening!

When uncle Lian ran away, the others saw that the situation was not good, so they also left. Especially the one who said the wrong thing, he ran away faster than a rabbit.

"Lin, did you and that girl reach an agreement long ago?" Dongfang Yue asked after staring at Dongfang Lin for a long time. The moment he said this, he felt that he had been slow to react.

Lin and Leng ruoxue's relationship had always been much better than theirs. However, their younger brother was not willing to interfere in their matters. Didn't this already show that there was a problem? However, he had not noticed it at all. He even felt that they had angered Leng ruoxue, so it was only right for them to step in to salvage the situation. It would also show their sincerity.

But now that he thought about it, it wasn't that his brother had given them the chance to perform, but that he couldn't interfere at all. It could also be said that Leng ruoxue did not allow him to interfere. In this case, his younger brother's performance during this period of time could be understood.

Dongfang Lin nodded. He knew that it was impossible to hide this matter forever. In fact, he did not want to hide it. It was just that his big brother and the others' attention was not on him. That was why they only found out about his unusual relationship with Leng ruoxue so late.

"The last time I went to look for her, she immediately acknowledged me as her master," Dongfang Lin continued.

Then, he briefly explained the situation to his big brother. Of course, he would never tell him that he had sold himself to pay off his debt because of a plate of hot and sour shredded potatoes.

Dongfang Yue didn't ask any more questions after hearing that. He just muttered to himself, ""You're far more far-sighted than us!"

Hearing this, Dongfang Lin broke out in cold sweat! How could he have more foresight than his big brother and the others! He only knew more about Leng ruoxue. Otherwise, he might end up like his big brother and the rest! But no matter what, this matter was finally resolved, and he could finally heave a sigh of relief.

After that, the two brothers left the living room together.

At the same time, Leng ruoxue had returned to her room with the demon. The moment they entered the room, the demon immediately pulled Leng ruoxue into his arms and said, ""They're lucky!" He was referring to how Leng ruoxue had let those people off easily and did not continue to make things difficult for them.

"They are master's subordinates after all." Leng ruoxue laughed helplessly. She didn't intend to make things difficult for them. At most, she would give them the cold shoulder. However, she didn't expect them to kneel down to her today. She knew that it wasn't easy for Dongfang Yue and the others. Other than her master, they had probably never knelt down to anyone in their entire lives!

Moreover, the little guys who had lost their loved ones in the underground city had indeed softened her heart. Since she had already decided to take them in, why should she continue to make things difficult for them? It was undeniable that Dongfang Yue and the others had also borrowed their glory to a certain extent.

"Hmph! If they weren't the subordinates of dummy Yu, I would have dealt with them long ago. " The demon gritted his teeth.

"I know you love me!" Seeing the demon gritting his teeth, Leng ruoxue tried to curry favor with him. The demon took advantage of the situation and said impolitely, ""Then how are you going to reward me?"

"Uh!" Leng ruoxue blinked her eyes and thought to herself, "is this the rhythm of taking advantage of me?"

Alright! Since that was the case, she didn't need to be polite.

As she thought of this, Leng ruoxue pulled down the evildoer's head and delivered her tender and alluring pink lips.

Their lips had only touched for less than three seconds, and before the demon could even savor Xue 'er's sweetness, a world-shaking, weeping roar rang in their ears. "Argh! Lecherous Wolf! Quickly come catch the pervert!"

"Where's the pervert?" Uncle long ran out of the room and asked loudly. Long ao and the others also rushed over when they heard the noise.

"In Niu's room," Cang, who was sitting by the window, pointed at Leng ruoxue's room.

When uncle long heard this, black lines immediately appeared on his forehead. He didn't need to ask to know who the pervert that senior Cang was talking about was. How could he be so stupid to run out of the room on reflex? In fact, this wasn't the first time Azure had done this! Uncle long really wanted to lower his presence and sneak into his room without making a sound!

However, even if he knew the situation, it did not mean that long ao and the others knew it as well.

Therefore, when long ao and the rest heard Cang's words, they all nervously ran towards Leng ruoxue's room and forcefully opened the door ...

"Master, you didn't get taken advantage of by a pervert, did you?" The old ancestor of the Phoenix Clan asked after she entered the room. Long ao and the others knew that they had been reckless when they saw the couple in the room. They had been fooled by the rabbit!

At this moment, they were also at a loss. They wanted to leave the room, but they found that their legs went soft under the angry glare of a certain demon.

"Get out!" Long ao and the others immediately ran away as if they had been granted a special pardon. The old ancestor of the Phoenix Clan finally reacted and ran away faster than a rabbit.

The six of them ran back to the guest courtyard, their hearts still beating wildly.

"What do we do?" In the room, the six people looked at each other and said in unison.

This time, they seemed to have offended that evil man!

Wu ... Thinking of the cruelty of a certain evildoer, the two unlucky Supreme gods who had once been abused couldn't help but tremble.

They had been on tenterhooks for two days. It was only when Leng ruoxue summoned them that they dared to appear in front of her.

This time, Leng ruoxue met them in her own room.

The moment the six of them entered the room, they couldn't help but look around. When Leng ruoxue saw their expressions, she laughed lightly and teased, "The demon isn't here, don't be afraid!"
