Chapter 231: The Strange Encounter in the Volcano, Feng Zhan vs. Long Hao (4)

"I missed you, so I came to see you," Feng Zhan said softly, as if their relationship was good.

"Bah, I don't miss you. You don't have to come see me," Long Hao[1] said disdainfully. Who would believe this sly old fox? Nothing good happened every time this fellow came.

"You're really too insincere. I came all the way here, but you didn't even invite us in," Feng Zhan complained lightly with an aggrieved expression on his face.

"Get lost! I didn't invite you!" Long Hao roared furiously. He really couldn't stand Feng Zhan's damn appearance. He was clearly a bird, but why was he more cunning than a fox?

"Hehe, please... I won't come if I'm invited. I like to come uninvited," Feng Zhan said provokingly.

"You... Damn it!" Long Hao's anger soared, and he charged directly at Feng Zhan.

"Don't hurt my master, you stupid fat dragon." Feng Zhan returned to his original form and blocked Long Hao's path.

"Huh? Your master? Did I hear you right? Hahaha!" The angry Long Hao was stunned for a moment before he started laughing hysterically... It was too funny. This bird, who was even more cunning than a fox, actually found a master for himself. Wasn't it just looking for trouble? Haha, how could there be freedom being ordered around all day?

"Laugh all you want. You will cry later." Feng Zhan smiled nonchalantly. He had already expected this stinky dragon's reaction, but he believed that it wouldn't be long before this stinky dragon cried.

"Hmph! I won't cry. Feng Zhan, take this!" Long Hao didn't forget the important matter after laughing enough. He still had to teach this bird a lesson!

"Come on!" Feng Zhan lightly flapped his enormous wings and looked at Long Zhan with slight contempt.

Soon, the bird and dragon tangled in a fight. Fiery red spiritual power flew everywhere, dazzling in the sky. The two colossi each used their flame and dragon breath to attack each other...

"Do they fight as soon as they meet?" Leng Ruoxue asked helplessly as she looked at the dragon and phoenix in the sky. The dragon was on par with Feng Zhan, and it was difficult to determine the winner.

"Yes, they fight all the time. Master, you just have to get used to it," Feng Miao said nonchalantly. There had never been any peaceful coexistence between dragons and phoenixes, and they would always start fighting the moment they met.

"Oh, Inflammation, quickly help me gather dragon scales. They are good materials for refining artifacts," Leng Ruoxue hurriedly ordered unscrupulously while looking at the dragon scales that fell to the sea and on the beach.

“Big Sister, leave it to Inflammation.” Inflammation flew to the surface of the sea excitedly and grabbed a dragon scale that was many times larger than his body with his two little claws. He flew back happily to Leng Ruoxue and handed the dragon scale to her.

“Inflammation is so awesome. Thank you, Inflammation.” Leng Ruoxue caressed Inflammation’s cute little head and coaxed him.

“Little Sister Ruoxue, I’ll help too!” Feng Ling’er directly returned to her original form and flew to the surface of the sea. She flapped her wings, and a strong gust of wind immediately blew on the sea surface, causing the dragon scales scattered on the sea surface to all roll onto the beach.

Standing on the beach, Feng Miao and Inflammation helped Leng Ruoxue pick up the dragon scales.

Long Hao, who was engaged in a fierce battle with Feng Zhan in the sky, almost fainted from anger when he saw the situation on the ground.

“Seems like my master is very satisfied with your dragon scales! I’ll pluck some for her!” Feng Zhan said very calmly. After he spoke, his two sharp and hard claws directly grabbed onto Long Hao’s thick dragon body.

Suddenly, the dragon scales on Long Hao’s body fell like snowflakes...

“Aaahhhh! You damn bird! I’m going to kill you!” Long Hao roared furiously. He was utterly enraged by Feng Zhan and began clawing at his body...

Dragon scales that were even larger than a washbasin and fiery red feathers glittering colorfully fell from the sky...

Looking at the two beasts who had completely given up on using their skills and switched to brawling, Leng Ruoxue was at a loss for words...

“Little Sister Ruoxue, they...” Feng Ling’er seemed to want to say something, but she opened her mouth and closed it again in the end, leaving a helpless expression on her face.

“Stop it!” Leng Ruoxue shouted at the dragon and phoenix in the sky.

The two beasts, which were in the midst of intense scratching and biting, were startled by the sudden roar and instinctively stopped.

“Human, how dare you order this emperor around!” Long Hao hollered in displeasure. He was already depressed enough that this woman dared to shout at him!

“You’re not allowed to be so rude to my master.” Feng Zhan’s dark red phoenix eyes widened in warning.

“Tch, she’s your master, not mine,” Long Hao said disdainfully. No one dared to order him around in this world!

“Is that so?” Feng Zhan smiled mysteriously. But he accidentally pulled on the wounds on his body and couldn’t help taking a deep breath. It really hurts! Damn, this stinky dragon is really ruthless!

“Of course.” Long Hao looked at Leng Ruoxue provocatively.

“Don’t think I won’t dare to beat you just because you’re a dragon.” Leng Ruoxue narrowed her beautiful eyes coldly. ?This old dragon really deserves a beating!

“Haha! Haha!” Long Hao laughed hysterically. ?Did I hear it right? This woman says she wants to beat me up.

“A mere Spiritual Supremacy like you?” Long Hao asked mockingly while his huge dragon eyes sized Leng Ruoxue up from head to toe.

“You can try,” Leng Ruoxue said expressionlessly.

“Such arrogance. I’m going to teach you a lesson today!” Long Hao said fiercely. ?Hmph!?No human had ever dared to speak to him like this, much less beat him up. ?This woman really doesn’t know what’s good for her.

“Little Sister Ruoxue, Big Sister will help you,” Feng Ling’er quickly said.

“No need. Big Sister can just be my audience,” Leng Ruoxue said confidently. She had yet to fight anyone since she became a Spiritual Supremacy! She could start practicing with this dragon.

[1] Long means dragon in Chinese.

Chapter 232: The Unlucky Dragon Clan Being Schemed Against (1)

“Okay. Be careful, Little Sister Ruoxue. The dragon’s breath is very powerful,” Feng Ling’er reminded.

“Okay, got it.” Leng Ruoxue nodded and released the wind-attribute heavenly spiritual skill ‘Wings of the Wind’. A huge pair of green energy wings immediately appeared on her back and carried her into the air to maintain the same height as Long Hao.

“Even if you can fly, you’re not my match,” Long Hao said arrogantly, not taking Leng Ruoxue seriously at all.

“Didn’t anyone tell you not to underestimate your enemy?” Leng Ruoxue said calmly. She turned her head slightly and looked at the wings behind her. This was her first time using the skill Wings of the Wind, and it looked to be effective.

“No,” Long Hao answered truthfully. He knew that his race was very powerful before he was born. Therefore, he had never known what underestimating the enemy was. It could be said that he had never considered this concept of underestimating the enemy. He had always looked down on humans except for the beast races who had comparable strength to him.

“You will know today.” Leng Ruoxue reminded him very kindly and then launched her first attack.

“Feather of the Fire Phoenix.” A crisp voice sounded in everyone’s ears, and a small fiery red feather flew toward Long Hao.

“What is this? Is it the feather of that bird? Haha!” Long Hao laughed out loud as he looked at the feather flying toward him, which wasn’t even as big as his claw.

“Laugh, continue laughing. You won’t be able to laugh later,” gloated Feng Zhan, who had tacitly stood to the side to watch the battle. He had seen the destructive power of the feather with his own eyes.

“Blazing Tree Silver Flower!”

“Meteor Moon Slash!”

Leng Ruoxue unleashed two more skills in succession while Long Hao was getting carried away. Sparks flew in the sky and transformed into shooting stars that charged directly at Long Hao. The small and exquisite feather also began to split... and slowly coiled around Long Hao.

“T-this is impossible.” Long Hao was dumbfounded. Apart from the stinky bird’s Southern Spirit Flame, there were no flames that could hurt him. But this human woman’s flames made him feel a piercing pain. W-who could tell him what was going on?

“Master, although this stinky dragon has thick skin and flesh, he can’t withstand being burned.” Feng Zhan looked sympathetically at the dumbfounded Long Hao.

“Don’t worry. I’m just teaching him a lesson. It won’t take his life,” Leng Ruoxue said understandingly. Well, that old dragon was indeed foolish. At first, he underestimated his enemy. But later on, he was scared by her flames and even forgot to attack. Hehe, she liked opponents who didn’t fight back like this.

“Who’s worried about him!” Feng Zhan reacted strongly and roared. He and that stinky dragon were mortal enemies, so he wouldn’t care about him!

“I understand. I understand.” Leng Ruoxue was very understanding. At the same time, she retracted her fire-attribute spiritual power to prevent burning the old dragon ripe.

“Haha! You’ve become a roasted dragon now!” Feng Zhan couldn’t help laughing hysterically when he saw Long Hao’s charred body. He was just short of rolling on the ground.

Long Hao was on the brink of tears. He looked at his originally beautiful and dazzling scales that had turned black and felt regretful! Boohoo...? He couldn’t help sneaking peeks at Leng Ruoxue with his big, teary dragon eyes. Boohoo... This woman is really terrifying. She looks so petite and cute, but why is she so ruthless?

“Do you still want to fight? Oh, right, you didn’t even have the chance to attack just now. Why don’t I let you go first this time?” Leng Ruoxue said with an absolutely fair appearance.

“I-I won’t fight anymore,” Long Hao said fearfully. This woman was a devil. He couldn’t afford to offend her! Moreover, he believed that he definitely wouldn’t be able to take advantage of this woman even if he attacked first. Boohoo...? His body was still in pain, and he didn’t want to suffer any more pain.

“This is for you. It won’t hurt anymore after you eat it.” Leng Ruoxue was very kind and threw Long Hao a pill. But she was impressed in her heart. This old dragon was quite sensible. After this lesson, he should be able to happily return Feng Da to her later. Hopefully, her opening gambit was not in vain!

Long Hao took the pill and threw it directly into his mouth. But the pill was too small and melted in his mouth, so he didn’t taste it at all. He only felt a light fragrance lingering in his mouth, leaving a rich aftertaste. What was more magical was that his injuries were all healed, and his beautiful scales regrew.

“Are there any more? Give me another one,” Long Hao asked shamelessly, as if he had forgotten that she was of the human race that he despised the most.

“Scram!” Feng Zhan roared while rolling his eyes at Long Hao.

“Master, I want one too!” Feng Zhan looked at Leng Ruoxue pitifully like a puppy after yelling at Long Hao. ?Boohoo... A lot of my feathers were plucked off by that stinky dragon!

“Take it!” Leng Ruoxue forced a smile and threw Feng Zhan a similar pill.

“Thank you, Master.” Feng Zhan took the pill and hurriedly threw it into his mouth. In an instant, his injuries healed, and the feathers that had fallen regrew.

“Dragon Emperor, it’s not impossible to obtain pills,” Leng Ruoxue said softly while looking at Long Hao’s gigantic body.

“Really?” Long Hao was pleasantly surprised. This pill was really something good!

“But I can’t give any to you for free. You have to exchange something for them.” Leng Ruoxue revealed her purpose after tossing out the bait.

“What is it? I’m very poor and don’t have money,” Long Hao said with a bitter face.

“Bullshit! You dragons are the wealthiest, yet you claim to be poor. How embarrassing!” Feng Zhan exposed him unceremoniously. Dragons were the best at plundering good things.

“I don’t want money.” Leng Ruoxue rolled her eyes at Long Hao helplessly. She had long heard that dragons were greedy, lustful, and petty. Seeing one today, she thought that they were indeed worthy of their reputation.

“That’s good.” Long Hao didn’t care about Feng Zhan’s sarcasm at all. He was greatly relieved when he heard Leng Ruoxue say that she didn’t want money.

“Then what do you want?” Long Hao asked.

“Dragon Emperor, why don’t you invite us in?” Leng Ruoxue asked instead of answering his question.

Chapter 233: The Unlucky Dragon Clan Being Schemed Against (2)

“Uh, I’m sorry. I forgot. Please come in!” Long Hao said, slightly embarrassed. To be honest, he hadn’t intended to invite them in before, but things were different now.

After Long Hao finished speaking, a bridge immediately appeared between Dragon Island and the beach. Under the guidance of the Dragon Emperor, Leng Ruoxue and the others stepped onto the small bridge and entered Dragon Island.

Upon entering Dragon Island, Leng Ruoxue found that the entire island was unbelievably large. The small mountain she saw outside was merely the tip of the iceberg of Dragon Island.

However, this Dragon Island... was a little too desolate. Even though Dragon Island stretched as far as the eye could see, there wasn’t a single tree on the island. The island was full of cliffs and precipices with countless caves carved into the walls...

“That is where we dragons live,” Long Hao explained when he saw Leng Ruoxue looking at the caves.

"Don't you dragons come out during the day?" Leng Ruoxue asked curiously. She often saw phoenixes in the Phoenix clan's territory, but she didn't see a single dragon on such a big island.

"Dragons like to sleep, so they spend most of the year resting in their caves," Long Hao said implicitly, his face slightly hot.

"Just say that you dragons are too lazy." Feng Zhan's cool voice drifted over.

"You damn bird! No one will think you're a mute if you don't speak!" Long Hao roared and glared at him.

"My mouth is mine. I can say whatever I want. It's none of your business!" Feng Zhan replied. Hmph! He just liked to go against Long Hao.

"Stop quarreling," Leng Ruoxue said with slight displeasure. Her beautiful eyes lightly glanced at them, and Feng Zhan and Long Hao immediately shut their mouths sensibly.

"This is the main hall of our Dragon clan. Please enter, Miss Leng," Long Hao said politely while pointing at a cave after they walked for a while. It was like he was a different dragon from the violent one outside of the island just now.

"Okay." Leng Ruoxue braced herself and walked into the cave.

The cave was relatively clean, but it was pretty shabby compared to the main hall of the Phoenix clan. There was nothing else besides a few rows of stone chairs on both sides of the throne.

"Please take a seat, everyone!" After entering the cave, Long Hao transformed into a human and sat directly on his throne.

Leng Ruoxue casually found a chair and sat down. Her beautiful eyes looked at Long Hao, who was sitting on the head seat. This dragon was also a stunningly beautiful man. He looked about twenty years old, with a tall body, purple-golden hair, golden eyes, and a body full of kingly majesty.

Why are the human forms of spirit beasts so beautiful?? She didn't understand.

"Miss Leng, what would you like to exchange for the pill?" Long Hao asked eagerly after they sat down. He was very interested in the pill.

"Stinky dragon, why don't you serve us some tea or snacks? Is this how you treat your guests?" Feng Zhan couldn't help looking for trouble with him again before Leng Ruoxue could reply.

"Come, serve us some fruits," Long Hao ordered while suppressing his anger. He was so angry that he wanted to grill the bird and eat him.

"That's more like it." Feng Zhan nodded with satisfaction, looking as if he was very reasonable.

After a while, a few dragons brought in several plates of fruits and placed them in front of Leng Ruoxue and the others.

"Master, this Dragon clan's ambergris fruit might not be as good as our phoenix fruit, but it's passable. Have a taste." Feng Zhan picked up a green fruit that resembled a pear and handed it to Leng Ruoxue.

“You damn bird! Who said that our Dragon clan’s ambergris fruit isn’t as good as phoenix fruit?” Long Hao hated to hear such words. His loud voice shook the entire cave.

But this time, Leng Ruoxue ignored their argument. She took out a red fruit from her ring, put it to her mouth, and took a small bite. Immediately, the fragrance of the fruit drifted in the entire cave.

“It smells so good!” Long Hao couldn’t help taking a deep breath and staring at Leng Ruoxue with shining eyes.

“Master, where did this fruit come from?” Feng Zhan asked in amazement. The smell alone made people feel refreshed, and it was really too alluring.

“Of course it was planted,” Leng Ruoxue said while eating.

“Who planted it? Is there more?” Feng Zhan asked anxiously. The spiritual energy contained in the fruit was not something that the phoenix fruit could compare with.

“Do you want one?” Leng Ruoxue asked lightly with the expression of the big bad wolf seducing Little Red Riding Hood.

“Yes, of course I do,” Feng Zhan said hurriedly.

“I want one too,” Long Hao quickly said, not willing to be outdone, for fear that the fruits would be gone if he was late.

“How does it compare to your ambergris fruit and phoenix fruit?” Leng Ruoxue looked at the two of them with a smile.

“There’s no comparison!” the two said in unison.

“So, are you still going to argue?” Leng Ruoxue asked.

“No more, no more.” The two smiled apologetically and cooperated very well.

“For you. As for the Dragon Emperor, you can exchange something for them!” Leng Ruoxue threw Feng Zhan a storage ring and then spoke to Long Hao.

“Master, you’re the best!” Feng Zhan quickly put the storage ring away, as though he was afraid that someone would snatch it away.

“Miss Leng, what do you want? Anything is fine except money,” Long Hao said resolutely.

“Relax. I don’t want money,” Leng Ruoxue said helplessly. Are dragons really that poor? So stingy.

“Please tell me, Miss Leng. I will try my best to satisfy you if it’s within my means,” Long Hao said generously.

“Master, I’ll say it for you!” Feng Zhan winked at Leng Ruoxue with a mysterious expression.

Leng Ruoxue nodded and agreed to let Feng Zhan be her spokesperson.

“Stinky dragon, listen carefully. My master’s condition is very simple. First, we want essence restoration grass. This condition isn’t difficult to fulfill, right?” Feng Zhan raised his eyebrows slightly.

"It's not difficult." Essence restoration grass was useless to them.

"Second, you captured a human a while ago, right?"

"How do you know?" Long Hao asked curiously, but his eyes were looking at Leng Ruoxue. Could that human be related to her? In that case, it won't be easy to handle!

Chapter 234: The Unlucky Dragon Clan Being Schemed Against (3)

"To tell you the truth, that human is my master's subordinate." Feng Zhan simply made things clear with Long Hao to prevent him from making wild guesses.

"Oh? Are there any other conditions?" Long Hao wanted to change the topic.

"Yes."

"What?" Why are there so many conditions? Hopefully, they won't make things difficult for me. Long Hao prayed in his heart. He really wanted those fruits and pills.

"My master's subordinates need contract beasts. You dragons aren't bad. Your skin is thick and resistant to attacks, so you should sacrifice a few stinky dragons!" Feng Zhan said with a smile, his expression very amiable.

"Impossible!" Long Hao stood up from his chair angrily and looked at Feng Zhan with a face full of rage. A dragon was contracted with a human, and the Dragon clan almost had a falling out. Those elders would eat him alive if there were more!

"Dragon Emperor, since you're unwilling, I won't force you. Then let's exchange for the essence restoration grass and Feng Da for the time being. If the Dragon clan wants to make other transactions, you can come to the Phoenix clan to find me at any time," Leng Ruoxue said coldly and also stood up while rolling her eyes at Feng Zhan. So, this fellow was targeting the Dragon clan when he said he would find contract beasts for her subordinates. Well, it was a good idea, but the dragons were not so easy to fool.

"Miss Leng, the essence restoration grass is no problem, but I have to discuss the matter of the human with the elders before we can decide," Long Hao said with a troubled expression.

"The mighty Dragon Emperor can't even decide on such a small matter?" Leng Ruoxue asked with slight mockery.

"Uh... actually, that human isn't in my hands," Long Hao said softly.

"Where then?" Leng Ruoxue pretended to be impatient.

"That human was captured by the third elder of our Dragon clan, and he has always been in the third elder's hands." Long Hao explained that the third elder went to the Ling Feng Continent to look for his son but found that his son had actually been contracted by a human. He captured that human in the fit of anger.

"The third elder and that fire dragon..." Leng Ruoxue asked lightly while staring at Long Hao with her beautiful eyes.

“Father and son.” Long Hao betrayed the third elder without hesitation and revealed their relationship.

“Oh, I see,” Leng Ruoxue said with a face full of understanding.

“Dragon Emperor, may I meet the third elder?” Leng Ruoxue continued to ask. If she couldn’t convince that old dragon, then she would have to use force. In any case, she had to take Feng Da away today.

“Uh... sure. But the third elder doesn’t have a good temper,” Long Hao reminded.

“It’s okay. My temper isn’t very good either,” Leng Ruoxue said nonchalantly.

When Long Hao heard this, his face darkened. What does she mean? Is she going to use violence to curb violence? Uh, it’s not impossible. Good luck, Third Elder!

For his own benefits, Long Hao betrayed the third elder easily. After bringing Leng Ruoxue and the others to the third elder’s residence, he found a random excuse and immediately slipped away.

“Master, are we going in?” Feng Zhan asked eagerly. Beating up dragons was his favorite pastime.

“Royal Father, let me take the lead!” Feng Ling’er’s beautiful face was full of excitement. She couldn’t defeat the Dragon Emperor, but that wasn’t the case with the third elder.

“What are you doing? We’re not here to fight.” Cold sweat dripped down Leng Ruoxue’s forehead. What a violent pair of father and daughter!

“Why are we here then?” Feng Ling’er was puzzled. Those stinky dragons were all very stubborn, and there was no helping them unless they beat them up.

“Of course we’re here to negotiate. We have to convince the dragon with reason!” Leng Ruoxue boasted shamelessly, her beautiful face devoid of any shame.

“Oh!” Feng Zhan and Feng Ling’er responded, but their eyes were full of disbelief.

“Stop looking at me like that. I’m a pacifist.” Leng Ruoxue walked directly into the cave without looking at them.

“Human, where did you come from? How dare you trespass into my mansion!”

Leng Ruoxue heard a furious roar coming from inside the cave before she could see what was happening inside.

Mansion?? Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help laughing. This old dragon is quite interesting. He actually called this shabby cave his mansion. It was really unexpected.

“Little girl, what are you laughing about?” With a displeased face, a tall and handsome middle-aged man suddenly appeared in front of Leng Ruoxue. He didn’t know why there was a human in the clan, but this girl was pretty gutsy!

“How does such a shabby cave resemble a mansion?” Leng Ruoxue asked curiously. This old dragon was indeed quite interesting. Other dragons liked their true form, but he actually appeared in human form. Did he yearn for the life of humans?

“A shabby cave is also my mansion!” the middle-aged man roared loudly while glaring at her.

Feng Zhan walked in and said with an accusing face, "Hey, Third Elder, why are you shouting? Don't scare my master."

"Phoenix King! Huh, your master? Who is that?" The third elder was so surprised that his jaw almost hit the ground. Am I deaf? Did I just hear the Phoenix King say 'my master'?

"The master he's talking about is me!" Leng Ruoxue kindly explained. She had been thinking about how to move this old dragon. Her principle was to try not to fight if possible. But if she had to, then she would ruthlessly beat up her opponents until they became well-behaved.

"How can the mighty Phoenix King acknowledge a human as his master? Haha, I wonder if the ancestors of your Phoenix clan will be driven to their graves if they find out." The third elder burst into laughter.

"Third Elder, don't worry. The ancestors of the Phoenix clan will definitely be very grateful to me. I've done a great service to the clan," Feng Zhan said nonchalantly without even frowning.

"Really? Haha! Phoenix King, did you bring this little girl in?" the third elder asked, even though he knew it all along.

"Asking the obvious!" Feng Zhan spat out these words coldly. He turned his face away, too lazy to look at the smug old stinky dragon.

"Third Elder, I heard you captured a human?" Leng Ruoxue probed to see the old dragon's attitude.

Chapter 235: The Unlucky Dragon Clan Being Schemed Against (4)

"So what? Are you here that human?" the third elder guessed. Hmph! He was full of anger at the mention of that human.

"Yes, that person is my subordinate. I hope you can return him to me, Third Elder," Leng Ruoxue said politely.

"Don't even think about it!" The third elder refused without hesitation. That human could forget about ever leaving Dragon Island. He didn't want his son to be enslaved by a human.

"Third Elder, feel free to state any conditions as long as it's within my means," Leng Ruoxue said patiently. She was being polite before resorting to force. If this old dragon continued being so stubborn, then she shouldn't be blamed.

"There's no need to negotiate unless they can cancel the contract," the third elder said stubbornly.

"Third Elder, as a spirit beast, you should know very well that a soul contract can't be broken. Aren't you making things difficult for me?" Leng Ruoxue was a little angry after hearing the old dragon's condition. She was being nice because she didn't want to have a major conflict with the Dragon clan. With her strength, she was not afraid of the Dragon clan. But she was unwilling to use force if there were simple and energy-saving ways to achieve her goal.

"I only have this one condition." The third elder refused to give in.

"In that case, I have no choice but to apologize to Third Elder in advance." Leng Ruoxue directly attacked. A thread-like green spiritual power drifted out from her fingertip and slowly coiled around the third elder, tightly binding him.

"Hmph! You want to deal with me with this little bit of spiritual power?!" the third elder said with a face full of disdain. As a divine beast, he didn't care about such a little bit of spiritual power. So he didn't even dodge or resist and let the thin thread wrap around him...

At the same time, in a cell on Dragon Island...

"Master, Master, that female jinx is here." A fire dragon hurriedly flew to the side of a cliff and shouted at the person locked inside.

"Which female jinx?" the person inside asked calmly.

"It's... the female jinx who captured me to contract with Master," Fire Dragon hurriedly explained.

Feng Da quickly ran to Fire Dragon and asked through the arm-thick railing, "Are you saying that Miss is here? To save me?"

"Yes, but she's no match for those dragons," Fire Dragon said worriedly. ?Boohoo... Poor Master!

"Nonsense. If Miss could teach you a lesson back then, she can naturally teach other dragons a lesson now. Also, you are not allowed to call Miss a female jinx!" Feng Da's big hand slapped Fire Dragon's head as he scolded.

Miss is my idol. There is nothing Miss can't do!?Feng Da thought. His blind admiration for Leng Ruoxue had already risen to an indescribable height.

Boohoo... Master! You've been poisoned too deeply by the female jinx.?Fire Dragon complained in his heart while looking at Feng Da with his huge dragon eyes like a little wife.

"Where is Miss now?" Feng Da asked excitedly. Ha... He knew that his young lady would definitely come to save him.

"At... at my father's place," Fire Dragon whispered, feeling very nervous. ?Boohoo... Father! Don't hurt the female jinx, or Master will blame me.?He knew very well how important the female jinx was in his master's heart.

"Little Fire, your father is going to be in trouble." Feng Da's face was full of schadenfreude. ?Hmph! So what if that third elder is the father of my spirit beast? How dare he capture me and scare me! I have to prepare for my revenge.

The thought of the sea beasts not far away eyeing him like food made him resentful. But he knew that the third elder would not kill him. Otherwise, Fire Dragon would not survive. The third elder's goal was merely to torture him mentally.

“How is that possible? My father is a divine beast.” Fire Dragon really couldn’t believe his master’s words. No matter how powerful that female jinx was, it was impossible for her to defeat a divine beast, right?

“What’s so great about a divine beast? My young lady has many divine beasts,” Feng Da said with a face full of pride, his eyes shining with adoration.

“Uh! That’s true. But there are many divine beasts in the Dragon clan,” Fire Dragon said carefully. There were nearly a thousand dragons in the entire Dragon clan, and there were hundreds of dragons that had advanced to divine beast, so...

“So what?” Feng Da said disapprovingly. He was very confident in his young lady. She wouldn’t fight a battle that she wasn’t confident of winning. Since she dared to come, she probably didn’t care about those dragons at all.

Alas! Master is hopeless!? Fire Dragon couldn’t help sighing and shaking his head helplessly...

At the third elder’s residence...

The third elder, who underestimated his enemy, didn’t expect that this thin thread of spiritual power would actually prevent him from breaking free. Moreover, it bound him tighter and tighter and entangled him even more. In just a short while, green spiritual power covered his body...

The third elder struggled with all his might. But the spiritual power thinner than a strand of hair didn’t budge at all. Slowly, the green spiritual power changed, and green leaves actually grew on it. Then pink flowers the size of a fingernail bloomed...

“Pfft!” Feng Zhan couldn’t help bursting into laughter when he saw the third elder’s current appearance. The... the third elder actually became a tree stump. Not only was his body covered in leaves, but flowers had even bloomed on his body. He just didn’t know if they would bear fruit later. He couldn’t help but be full of anticipation.

“What spiritual skill is this? Why is it so strange?” The third elder also discovered the situation happening to his body and even forgot to be angry. He was curious. He had lived for so long but had yet to see any spiritual skill that could bloom!

“This is a spiritual skill I created myself. It’s called Luxuriant Branches and Leaves. I am using it for the first time today. How does it feel?” Leng Ruoxue asked lightly. Obviously, she regarded the third elder as a lab rat.

“Quickly let go of me. If you are so capable, let’s fight head-on!” the third elder roared while almost vomiting blood in his heart. What was this? He actually became the little girl’s lab rat for experimenting with her spiritual skill. He was so depressed!

“Fight head-on? Third Elder, do you think I’m teasing you?” Leng Ruoxue smiled mockingly. Does this old man think I have to ask my opponents if they’re ready before we start fighting?

Chapter 236: To Play The Long Game (1)

“What I mean is, you release me, and we’ll fight again. I won’t accept it since you won unfairly like this!” the third elder argued stubbornly.

“As the saying goes, all is fair in love and war. I only want the result. As for the process? It doesn’t matter as long as it achieves my goal,” Leng Ruoxue said calmly. Well, she should still think about how to negotiate with the Dragon clan!

The third elder was so angry that he couldn’t speak, and only after a while did he manage to squeeze out, “You... You’re despicable!”

“Am I despicable?” Leng Ruoxue asked Feng Zhan with an innocent face.

“How can Master be despicable? Those who don’t know what’s good for themselves and do nothing but rely on their identity as divine beasts are the despicable ones!” Feng Zhan said softly without even looking up.

“Inflame, go invite the Dragon Emperor over!” Leng Ruoxue instructed Inflame outside.

“Okay. I’ll go find that stinky dragon now.” Inflame, who was guarding outside, immediately flew happily to find Long Hao.

After a while, Long Hao very reluctantly arrived at the third elder’s residence.

Long Hao looked at the third elder, who was growing flowers, and suppressed his laughter to say dignifiedly, “Erm, may I know why Miss Leng is looking for me?”

“Dragon Emperor, I want to exchange him for Feng Da. Is that okay?” Leng Ruoxue asked indifferently, her beautiful eyes staring at Long Hao.

“I’m fine with it. But I don’t know...” Long Hao glanced at the third elder and stopped mid-sentence. Alas! These elders of the Dragon clan were all stubborn old men. He couldn’t force the third elder to agree even though he was the Dragon Emperor.

“Don’t even think about it. I will never hand him over to you,” the third elder said stubbornly. He would rather die than let his son lose his freedom and be controlled by humans to work like a draft animal.

“Would you rather die than submit?” Leng Ruoxue questioned coldly. What’s wrong with this third elder?? She really didn’t understand why this old man was so insistent.

“Yes, you can kill me. But don’t expect me to hand him over to you!” the third elder said resolutely.

“Why? Give me a reason!” Leng Ruoxue asked patiently. She couldn’t really kill the third elder, right? After all, this old man was the father of that fire dragon.

“I don’t want my son to be enslaved by humans and lose his freedom!” the third elder roared furiously.

“Who told you that being contracted with a human means that you will definitely be enslaved by humans? If I’m not mistaken, the reason why that fire dragon left the Dragon clan was that he was bullied in the clan, right? To tell you the truth, if it weren’t for me, your son wouldn’t have been able to advance to become a divine beast now. Not only are you ungrateful, but you even repaid kindness with ingratitude and captured my subordinate. Hmph!” Leng Ruoxue said with an ice-cold tone, her face covered in frost.

“No, it’s impossible!” How can my son’s advancement to divine beast be related to this little girl? Wasn’t it Ao’er’s own efforts? The third elder was incomparably shocked and was unwilling to believe Leng Ruoxue’s words at all.

“If you don’t believe me, you can call that fire dragon over, and we can confront each other face to face,” Leng Ruoxue suggested. This old man could doubt her words, but he wouldn’t not believe the words of his son, right?

“Come, get Huo Ao to come over,” Long Hao ordered his subordinates.

“No need to get me. I’m here.” A red-haired young man walked in.

“Ao’er.”

“Father!”

“Miss, please show mercy and let my father go!” Huo Ao walked to Leng Ruoxue, knelt down, and begged. It seemed that his master was right. His father was indeed the unlucky one. Alas! The female jinx is really too terrifying.

“You are asking the wrong person. It’s your father who is finding trouble with me.” Leng Ruoxue didn’t even look at the fire dragon, and her tone was even colder than before.

“Father, it’s all thanks to Miss that I was able to advance to divine beast,” Huo Ao explained directly. He had heard everything they said outside.

“Ao’er, is what you said true? But how is this possible? She’s only a human!” the third elder asked in disbelief, his face full of astonishment.

Even Long Hao and Feng Zhan were surprised.

“Miss is an alchemist,” Huo Ao said.

“She can concoct pills that can advance holy beasts?” Long Hao asked anxiously. If this was the case, he would have to reconsider Leng Ruoxue’s position.

Huo Ao stared at Leng Ruoxue for a while and then nodded. “Yes.”

“Miss Leng, I agree to return that human to you. Please let the third elder go!” Long Hao immediately said emphatically after hearing what Huo Ao said.

“Third Elder, do you have any objections?” Leng Ruoxue asked while looking at the third elder.

“N-no.” Although the third elder was still a little unwilling, he knew very well that he had to back down in the face of major issues concerning the Dragon clan.

“In that case, let’s exchange!”

“Okay, Miss Leng. What about our deal?” Long Hao couldn’t help asking.

“As usual, of course,” Leng Ruoxue said generously. She wanted to extend the line to catch big fish, so she would give them some benefits first.

“Very well. Let’s exchange the essence restoration grass and that human first. As for Miss Leng’s other condition, I have to discuss it with the elders,” Long Hao said amiably and sincerely.

“Stinky dragon, you really know how to take advantage of others, don’t you? My master is exchanging her subordinate for your third elder. This has nothing to do with the deal, right?” Feng Zhan said with contempt and ridicule.

“How am I taking advantage of her? Didn’t we agree on this beforehand?” Long Hao retorted awkwardly with a hot face.

“It’s okay.” Leng Ruoxue smiled generously. If she didn’t let these petty dragons take advantage of her first, how could they take the bait? Hehe, anyone who dared to take advantage of her had to pay the price.

“You stupid bird, look at how generous Miss Leng is. No wonder she can become your master,” Long Hao provoked proudly.

Feng Zhan rolled his eyes at him, despising him in his heart.

“Miss.” Feng Da was brought to the third elder’s residence.

“Seems like you didn’t suffer any physical pain.” Leng Ruoxue looked at the excited Feng Da with tears in his eyes. Feng Da’s clothes were a little disheveled, and his face a little haggard, but he was in a better condition than she had imagined.

Chapter 237: To Play The Long Game (2)

“Yeah,” Feng Da answered. He didn’t suffer any physical pain. All he suffered was mental pain. ?Boohoo...

“Third Elder? Haha!” Suddenly, Feng Da saw a middle-aged man covered in leaves and blooming with countless pink flowers. He was stunned, and then he laughed hysterically.

“Third Elder, you met with such fate too!” Feng Da circled him a few times, then stopped in front of him and tugged at a little flower on his body. ?Huh, it’s actually real? How did Miss do it? She’s really amazing.

“Hmph!” The third elder snorted and looked up at the sky without even looking at Feng Da.

“Third Elder, I really want to beat you up. But seeing how beautiful you are now, I really can’t bear to do it. Alas! I’m magnanimous, so I’ll forgive you!” Feng Da said with a smile.

“Hmph!” Another snort came.

“Miss Leng, this is the essence restoration grass you wanted.” Long Hao handed Leng Ruoxue a few blades of emerald green grass.

“Thank you. This is yours.” Leng Ruoxue put the essence restoration grass in her storage ring, looked at the expectant Long Hao, and gave him a ring.

“Dragon Emperor, come to the Phoenix clan to look for me after you have discussed the last condition. However, I won’t stay in the Phoenix clan for too long,” Leng Ruoxue said to Long Hao.

“Okay, we will give Miss Leng an answer as soon as possible,” Long Hao said quickly.

“Let’s go!” Leng Ruoxue said to Feng Zhan and Feng Da.

The two of them nodded and were about to leave with Leng Ruoxue when Long Hao stopped them.

Leng Ruoxue looked at Long Hao doubtfully, her face full of question marks.

“Miss Leng, please untie the third elder!” Long Hao asked helplessly.

“You can’t untie it. You have to follow the laws of nature.” Leng Ruoxue walked past Long Hao and left.

“Father, I’m leaving too. I’ll come back to see you,” Huo Ao quickly said to the third elder when he saw his master leaving.

“Oh! Dragon Emperor, what should I do?” the third elder asked anxiously as he looked at his son’s disappearing figure and then at himself.

“I don’t have a choice. You should just follow the laws of nature!” Long Hao held in his laughter, comforted him helplessly, and then walked away.

“Miss, what are the laws of nature?” Feng Da asked curiously on the way back to the Phoenix clan.

“Think about it yourself,” Leng Ruoxue said lightly. ?How stupid!

“I can’t think of anything!” Feng Da looked at Leng Ruoxue pitifully with a bitter face.

“How can I have such a stupid subordinate like you?” Leng Ruoxue said in disappointment.

“I know. I know. The laws of nature are the laws of nature!” Inflammation flew to Feng Da’s side.

“Whether it’s animals, plants, or humans, in short, all species must abide by the laws of nature,” Inflammation explained. He was a wood spirit vermilion bird, so no one knew more about nature than him.

“Oh.” Although Feng Da still didn’t know much, he pretended to understand in order not to be despised by his young lady. ?Boohoo...? This little bird really brought him down hard.

“Little Sister Ruoxue, why did you let those stinky dragons take advantage of us?” Feng Ling’er, who had been silent, asked in puzzlement, feeling very uncomfortable.

“To play the long game, of course,” Leng Ruoxue explained with a light smile.

“Master, do you mean that the Dragon clan will agree to that condition?” Feng Miao asked with some uncertainty. They had studied outside for a long time just now, but they didn’t understand why their master wanted to show weakness. After all, with their Phoenix clan’s strength, they were not afraid of the Dragon clan at all.

“Yes, I can advance holy beasts. This bait is big enough,” Leng Ruoxue said confidently. Probably no beast could refuse such a condition.

“Master, our Phoenix clan also has many level nine holy beasts,” Feng Zhan reminded. If all those members of the Phoenix clan could advance to divine beast, how formidable would this force be!

“I’ve got it ready.” Leng Ruoxue took out a jade bottle and handed it to Feng Zhan. How could she forget her own beasts?

“Thank you, Master. I will arrange for their advancement when we get back,” Feng Zhan said with an excited expression on his face as he hurriedly accepted the jade bottle and put it away.

“No rush. Wait for me to finish refining the essence restoration pill before letting them advance!” Leng Ruoxue said after some thought. In comparison, her brother’s matter was more important. After waiting for so long, her genius brother could finally recover!

Feng Zhan nodded shyly. He was being a little hasty!

Back at the Phoenix clan, Leng Ruoxue brought Feng Da, her grandfather, and the others into the Heaven and Earth Bracelet and went straight into the purple bamboo house.

“Where is this?” Feng Da murmured in a daze as he stood foolishly in the space. It’s so beautiful here...

“Captain!” Lin Yuan shouted as he dashed to Feng Da.

“Eh, Lin Yuan, why are you here?” Feng Da asked in surprise.

“And us!” Everyone emerged from hiding.

Feng Da was startled by everyone, and after reacting, he couldn’t help asking curiously, “Huh! What’s going on?”

“Captain, listen to me tell you slowly!” Lin Yuan pulled Feng Da to the side and told him everything that had happened during this period of time...

While they were chatting, the idle Old Man walked to Leng Qingtian and Lin Liang curiously.

“Hey, what are you two doing?” Old Man asked curiously. These two old fellows were staring at the purple bamboo house without blinking. What was the use? Could they get anything out of doing so?

“Go away and play somewhere else.” Leng Qingtian waved his hand as if he was shooing away a fly.

“That’s right. Don’t cause trouble. Ruoxue is concocting pills!” Lin Liang was in no mood to joke with Old Man. He was so nervous that his heart was about to jump out of his throat. This was a big matter related to his precious disciple!

“Calm down. Isn’t it just alchemy? Is there a need for you all to be so paranoid?” Old Man said helplessly. Alas! They are really blinded by concern!

Chapter 238: To Play The Long Game (3)

Compared to the nervousness of the two outside, Leng Ruoxue was very calm in the purple bamboo house.

After entering the alchemy room, she was in no hurry to start concocting immediately but instead took out the pill formula.

The level of the essence restoration pill was not high, and it was not difficult for her. But she still looked at it several times to prevent herself from missing anything to err on the safe side.

Then Leng Ruoxue took out the medicinal herbs she had prepared long ago, took out the alchemy furnace, and officially began concocting.

After lighting the pill furnace and preheating it, Leng Ruoxue placed the medicinal herbs into the pill furnace in order. After the medicinal herbs melted and turned into liquid, she began to purify and condense the pills...

After she completed the last step, the unique fragrance of the pills slowly spread out from the furnace. Leng Ruoxue opened the furnace, took out more than a dozen translucent, round pearl-like silver-white pills, and put them in a special jade bottle.

After concocting the essence restoration pills, Leng Ruoxue immediately left with the pills.

After exiting the purple bamboo house, Leng Ruoxue saw two pairs of shining eyes looking at her anxiously, their faces nervous and expectant.

Seeing the two grandpas' expressions, Leng Ruoxue couldn't help laughing.

"It was a success," Leng Ruoxue said directly to the two without beating around the bush.

Leng Qingtian and Lin Liang sighed in relief.

"Qing Jue, ask Big Brother to come out!" Leng Ruoxue said to Qing Jue, who was not far away. Qing Jue actually sacrificed her Big Brother's beauty in order to lock up that perverted butterfly. Alas!

"Okay." Qing Jue waved his fair and tender little hand, and Leng Ruohan appeared in front of everyone. Of course, the perverted butterfly was with him.

"Hmph! Finally willing to let me out? I was bored to death. Fortunately, there was a stunningly beautiful man accompanying me," the butterfly complained as soon as it left the prison.

"Shut up!" Leng Ruoxue hollered.

The shining butterfly flapped its wings, flew in front of Leng Ruoxue, and persuaded her earnestly, "Girl, be gentle, be gentle!"

"Get lost!" Leng Ruoxue roared. She didn't want to see this abnormal butterfly.

"Girl..." the butterfly looked at Leng Ruoxue with tears in its little black eyes, full of grievance.

"Lil' Purple, come back," Leng Ruohan said softly. His clear and pure bright eyes were full of helplessness.

"Okay." The butterfly flew back obediently to Leng Ruohan's side unwillingly.

Did Big Brother subdue this butterfly?? Leng Ruoxue couldn't help becoming curious after seeing how obedient the butterfly was to Leng Ruohan.

“Big Brother, I’ve successfully concocted the essence restoration pill. You can recover your spiritual power,” Leng Ruoxue said happily while looking at her excellent brother. As for the butterfly, she would leave the matter for another time.

“Xue’er, thank you.” Leng Ruohan’s face was unusually calm, but his voice was trembling, revealing his nervousness.

“Big Brother, reconstructing your meridians might hurt a little. You have to bear with it!” Leng Ruoxue reminded as she handed him an essence restoration pill.

“Okay.” Leng Ruohan nodded. His beautiful face was resolute as he walked toward his residence.

After a while, painful groans sounded from Leng Ruohan’s room...

Leng Ruoxue and the others, who were guarding outside the house, felt their hearts wrench upon hearing this.

“Xue’er, Ruohan has been in there for so long. Why isn’t he better yet?” Leng Qingtian paced back and forth anxiously.

“Grandpa, reconstructing meridians is a very slow process. Don’t worry,” Leng Ruoxue comforted. In fact, she was quite nervous. But others couldn’t help with this kind of thing, and they could only rely on her brother.

“Yes, all of you are too nervous. Calm down,” Old Man advised helplessly.

Two hours later, the door of the house opened, and Leng Ruohan emerged. The smile on his face was incomparably dazzling, stunning everyone present, even though he looked disheveled.

“Big Brother!” Leng Ruoxue threw herself into Leng Ruohan’s arms excitedly. She knew that her brother had succeeded!

“Xue’er, Big Brother can protect you again in the future.” Leng Ruohan hugged his baby sister happily. He could finally cultivate again. This feeling was really great.

Leng Ruoxue nodded and then said mischievously, “Yes, but I still prefer the feeling of protecting Big Brother.”

“You don’t have to fight. Grandpa needs protection the most. Come and protect Grandpa.” Leng Qingtian couldn’t help joking when he saw that his grandson had finally recovered.

“Disciple, Master also needs protection,” Lin Liang added playfully.

“Hey, do you two not know shame? I’m getting goosebumps. Don’t disgust me here.” Old Man jumped in and accused them before the siblings could say anything.

“It’s none of your business!” Leng Qingtian and Lin Liang said in unison while rolling their eyes at Old Man.

“Hehe, Big Brother, let’s ignore them and talk outside,” Leng Ruoxue whispered to Leng Ruohan while the three old men were arguing again.

“Okay.” Leng Ruohan nodded. As a 24-hour-a-day filial elder brother, he naturally had to listen to his little sister.

Leng Ruoxue left the Heaven and Earth Bracelet with Leng Ruohan and appeared in her room.

“Big White, quickly come out and acknowledge your master,” Leng Ruoxue called out to the space. The beasts she had prepared for her brother had finally come in handy.

“We’re here.” Big White’s entire family appeared in front of them. During their time in the space, Big White and his wife had both advanced to level eight holy beast while their cubs also grew a lot.

“Establish the contract!” Leng Ruoxue said to Big White.

The male white tiger nodded his large head and took the lead in establishing a soul contract. Following that, his wife and children also established soul contracts with Leng Ruohan. The contract arrays descended almost simultaneously, and after they disappeared, the contracts were formally established.

“Big White, you can go back now.” Leng Ruoxue sent their entire family back into the bracelet.

Chapter 239: To Play The Long Game (4)

“Big Brother, I’ll get you a few more dragons to contract in a few days,” Leng Ruoxue said. Those dragons were a little ugly, but they were pretty strong and usable.

“Xue’er, Big White and his family are enough for me.” Leng Ruohan smiled, his face full of satisfaction.

“They are not divine beasts yet. Big Brother has to have a divine beast no matter what,” Leng Ruoxue said very seriously. Their opponents would become stronger and stronger in the future, so the strength of their beasts was extremely important.

“Okay, Big Brother will listen to Xue’er,” Leng Ruohan said helplessly, his face full of affection.

“Xue’er, you naughty girl, where did you go?” Leng Qingtian’s angry roar suddenly appeared in Leng Ruoxue’s mind.

“Haha, Big Brother, Grandpa and the others finally realized that we left.” Leng Ruoxue smiled happily.

“Get the three old men to come out as well, lest they be too anxious,” Leng Ruohan said very kindly with a similarly happy smile on his face.

“Okay, Grandpa, come out!” Leng Ruoxue said to the few anxious old men in the space.

“Xue’er, you naughty girl.” Leng Qingtian glared at his granddaughter with wide eyes, wanting to bore a hole through her.

“That’s right. Ruoxue, how could you abandon us?” Lin Liang said with a sad face.

“Stop acting. I won’t fall for it.” Leng Ruoxue steeled herself and turned her face away.

“Alas! We are old and despised by the little girl,” Old Man said sadly with a heavy sigh.

“Stop. Okay, I’m afraid of you. What do you want? Tell me!” Leng Ruoxue raised her hands in surrender. She was impressed by these three old men. They would stop at nothing until they achieved their goal!

“Xue’er, Ruohan’s injuries have healed. Shouldn’t we celebrate?” Leng Qingtian probed, his face full of anticipation.

“How do you want to celebrate, Grandpa?” Leng Ruoxue asked, pretending not to understand. She knew that these old men were greedy.

“Ruoxue, do you still have python meat?” Lin Liang asked as he swallowed his saliva gently.

“Do you want to eat it?”

“Yes, yes.” Three pairs of expectant eyes stared at Leng Ruoxue.

Leng Ruoxue stopped teasing them and said straightforwardly, “Then let’s go out and eat!”

“Okay.” The three old men had no objections. As long as they could eat, the location was not important.

Leng Ruoxue sent them back into the Heaven and Earth Bracelet and then left the wooden house.

After arriving at the valley where she had advanced last time, Leng Ruoxue released everyone and the beasts from the bracelet.

Feng Da walked to Leng Ruoxue and said as if he was presenting a treasure, “Miss, I have another python here.”

“Just right. There are so many people and beasts, so I was thinking it might not be enough.” Leng Ruoxue gave Feng Da some instructions and then entered the bracelet.

“Qing Jue, where’s the little mink?” Leng Ruoxue asked curiously.

“He’s guarding the fire lotus.”

After hearing what Qing Jue said, Leng Ruoxue went to the field where the fire lotus was planted. As expected, she saw the little silver mink lying motionlessly in front of the fire lotus. Seeing this, she felt a little uncomfortable. Doesn’t this little mink like to stick to me the most? Is this fire lotus female?

“Little mink, what are you doing here?” Leng Ruoxue questioned in annoyance.

“Xue’er, you’re here.” The little silver mink looked up at Leng Ruoxue and then lowered his little head to stare at the fire lotus.

“Do you intend to stay here forever?” Leng Ruoxue said with some jealousy. But she didn’t even realize in the slightest that she was jealous of the fire lotus.

“It’s very important,” the little silver mink whispered while praying in his heart. Grow up quickly! As long as it could grow into a thousand-year-old fire lotus, he would be able to revive.

“It is very important, but you don’t have to stay here. Qing Jue will take care of it.” Leng Ruoxue suppressed her anger. Of course, she knew how important the fire lotus was. But for some reason, seeing this little mink guarding this place made her uncomfortable.

“Xue’er, what’s wrong?” The little silver mink was puzzled. Why is Xue’er angry?

"You are not allowed to stay here," Leng Ruoxue ordered as she picked up the little mink lying on the ground.

"Oh!" the little silver mink answered softly. ?Boohoo... Does Xue'er dislike me?? His imagination began to run wild again.

Leng Ruoxue left the bracelet with the little mink in her arms. After going out, she saw that everyone was almost ready.

"Miss, this is for you." Feng Da handed Leng Ruoxue a piece of cleaned meat.

"Thank you." Leng Ruoxue sat on the ground with the little mink in her arms and began grilling the meat on the fire.

"Big Sister, Baby wants to eat too," Baby said coquettishly while snuggling up to Leng Ruoxue.

"It's not done yet. Don't worry," Leng Ruoxue coaxed. She gently caressed Baby's soft fur and sighed in her heart. ?Why are my beasts so cute?

After she grilled the meat, she distributed the meat to the mink and Baby.

"Be careful. It's hot," Leng Ruoxue quickly reminded Baby as she watched him wolf down the food.

"Why aren't you eating?" Leng Ruoxue turned her gaze to the little mink in her arms.

"I want you to feed me!" The little silver mink pouted his pink lips and acted coquettishly. But he kept repeating to himself in his heart, ?Xue'er won't hate me. She won't!

"Open your mouth!" Leng Ruoxue helplessly tore off a small piece of meat and brought it to the little mink's mouth to coax him.

"It smells so good." The little silver mink licked his lips happily and rubbed his fluffy little face against Leng Ruoxue's beautiful face in satisfaction.

Leng Ruoxue rubbed the little mink's soft fur. When she saw the little thing's satisfied expression, her depressed mood just now was swept away.

Everyone sat together happily. After they had their fill, Leng Ruoxue sent them all back to the Heaven and Earth Bracelet and returned to the Phoenix clan's territory alone.

After returning to the Phoenix clan, Leng Ruoxue went straight to Feng Zhan.

Chapter 240: To Play The Long Game (5)

"Master, why are you here?" Feng Zhan asked curiously. ?Shouldn't Master be concocting pills right now?

"Feng Zhan, go and tell them to advance," Leng Ruoxue said directly. After all those members of the Phoenix clan advanced to divine beast, she would be ready to leave a few days later.

"I'll inform them immediately," Feng Zhan said happily. He disappeared in the blink of an eye.

...

Dragon Island.

In the main hall, Long Hao was sitting on the throne. Below him were the ten elders of the Dragon clan, including the third elder with flowers all over his body.

"You already know what happened. Tell me your thoughts!" Long Hao's sharp golden eyes scanned the elders sitting below him.

"Your Majesty, we dragons are born noble, so how can we be commanded by humans?" The seventh elder spoke first, his wrinkled face full of disapproval.

"Does anyone have a different opinion?" Long Hao's golden eyes narrowed. He had already expected the reaction of the seventh elder, so he was not surprised that the old man would object.

A little old man with white hair stood up and said, "Your Majesty, if that Leng Ruoxue can really help our clan advance, it won't be a loss to acknowledge her as our master."

"Second Elder, you are mistaken!" The seventh elder hurriedly stood up to object when he heard the little old man.

"Seventh Elder, calm down and let Second Elder finish speaking," Long Hao interrupted. But he was thinking in his heart that he had almost made the necessary arrangements, and he couldn't let this stubborn old man spoil the plans.

"Your Majesty, elders, please listen to me. Although Leng Ruoxue is only a human, she has pills that can advance holy beasts to divine beasts. Everyone should know very well how difficult it is to advance to divine beast. Moreover, the Phoenix King has already acknowledged her as his master. I believe that the strength of the Phoenix clan will soon surpass ours. Do you want to see that happen?" the second elder said loudly with his blood boiling. He mentioned the Phoenix clan because he knew that these elders would not want to see the Phoenix clan become stronger than them.

"I think Second Elder makes sense," the other elders agreed. Although dragons and phoenixes were not arch-enemies, they were definitely not friends. In fact, the animosity between the two races had existed for a long time. Therefore, they would always start fighting whenever the two races met.

"Hmph! Who knows if Leng Ruoxue really has that kind of medicinal pill in her hand," the seventh elder said with a face full of disbelief.

"Huo Ao tested it himself. How can it be fake? Moreover, he said it himself," the second elder said hurriedly. What he implied was that even if you didn't believe in humans, shouldn't you believe in your own people?

"He has already acknowledged a human as his master, so of course he will speak up for humans." The seventh elder snorted and quibbled. Anyway, he just didn't agree.

"Seventh Elder, what's the meaning of this? Could it be that you think my son is lying?" the third elder questioned with a displeased face. His son finally became successful, but he was still being doubted. Hmph! How unreasonable!

"I didn't mean that," the seventh elder quickly denied. He didn't want to provoke this violent dragon.

“Stop arguing. We must discuss this matter over a long period of time. Let’s wait and see first!” the first elder, who had not said a word all this while, said resolutely. After the first elder spoke, none of the elders dared to speak anymore.

Alas! Just a little more! Long Hao was depressed. The first elder had a high status in the Dragon clan and had watched him grow up. So he didn’t dare to force it if the first elder did not agree. But there was still hope since the first elder didn’t refuse outrightly.

At the same time, the sky outside the hall suddenly became incomparably dazzling, and lights flashed non-stop.

Long Hao and the others hurriedly ran out of the hall.

“Your Majesty, these are the heaven and earth laws for advancement,” the second elder said as he looked up at the sky. Heaven and earth laws had been descending all the time recently, but they hadn’t been able to identify it the previous few times. This time, the place where the heaven and earth laws descended was clearly the territory of the Phoenix clan.

“Damn it. Those damn birds are actually advancing.” Long Hao felt resentful as he looked at the heaven and earth laws descending from the sky. He turned around and returned to the main hall with a huff.

“Your Majesty, it’s as I expected!” the second elder said with a face full of realization.

“Do you have anything else to say, Seventh Elder?” Long Hao asked furiously.

“I...” The tough and stubborn seventh elder stammered a little in the face of reality.

“Your Majesty, if there is anyone in the Dragon clan who wants to acknowledge humans as their masters, let them go!” the first elder said. He didn’t want to see the emperor vent all his anger on the elders.

“Second Elder, I’ll leave this matter to you,” Long Hao ordered the second elder directly. He was waiting for the first elder to say this!

“Your Majesty, don’t worry. I will definitely settle this matter,” the second elder hurriedly said. This was a good task! He wondered what else that little girl had? He also wanted to exchange some stuff.

...

The Phoenix clan’s territory.

The members of the Phoenix clan who had just become divine beasts crowded around Leng Ruoxue with gratitude on their faces.

“Big Sister, Inflammation also wants to become a divine beast.” Inflammation flew around Leng Ruoxue and kept shouting.

“Inflammation, you’re not an adult yet.” Leng Ruoxue caressed Inflammation’s little head to calm him.

“When will I become an adult? Boohoo...”

“Inflame, don’t make a fuss,” Feng Zhan gently reprimanded and grabbed the noisy little fellow into his embrace.

“Feng Zhan, I’m going back.” Leng Ruoxue smiled at Feng Zhan.

With that, she walked toward her residence. She had just gained so many benefits, so she had to go back and consolidate them.

Leng Ruoxue returned to the wooden house, entered her room, and went directly into the Heaven and Earth Bracelet.

“Xue’er, the scene just now was really spectacular,” Leng Qingtian couldn’t help saying when he saw his precious granddaughter.

“Yes, now that all those members of the Phoenix clan have advanced to divine beast, let’s leave this place after the dragons of the Dragon clan come, Grandpa!” Leng Ruoxue said after some thought.
