

Crazy Wife 2361

Chapter 2361 Emergency Meeting \(1\)

However, after looking forward to the stars and the moon, the day of the official ceremony had finally arrived. Xue ran and Xue Qiao couldn't hide the excitement in their hearts. They had been looking forward to this day for a long time!

In their hearts, they truly felt that as long as Mei officially ascended to the throne as the snow fox King, they would definitely feel a sense of responsibility towards the snow fox Tribe. This was because, through their interactions with Mei over the past few days, they knew very well that Mei was a very kind and responsible little fellow. Therefore, it could be said that they were extremely satisfied with Mei.

Unfortunately, they were happy too early.

The Mei was very kind, but it depended on who she was dealing with.

Towards her master, Mei would definitely listen to everything and be extremely obedient. However, to outsiders, that might not be the case. The current snow fox Tribe was definitely not considered Mei's wife. Hence, the Mei's kindness was completely out of respect for Xue Ying. Or rather, it was an act.

As for the sense of responsibility! It was the same.

However, the overjoyed Xue ran and Xue Qiao were not aware of this. Thus, the two of them were still sitting on the throne, dreaming of creating a glorious future for the snow fox Tribe!

A moment before the ceremony began, Xue Mu had already sent people to invite Leng ruoxue and the rest to the VIP seats. Mei had also been taken away by him to make preparations.

Sitting in the VIP area, Jiang Ning looked around with a curious expression on his face.

"Hehe! To think that I would actually have the opportunity to participate in the snow fox clan's inauguration ceremony. This is truly unbelievable." Jiang Ning couldn't help but say proudly after looking around.

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but raise her brows and ask, "What, you're the dignified Alchemist Guild's vice guild leader, isn't it easy for you to participate in the beast clan's succession ceremony?"

"Of course it won't be easy. Although I'm an Alchemist and have a good relationship with the magical beasts, they won't invite humans to participate in such grand events. So, no matter how high my position is in their hearts, I don't have the chance!" Jiang Ning said gloomily. It was all thanks to this little girl that he was able to participate in the snow fox tribe's succession ceremony today.

"According to what you're saying, we're not human?" Leng ruoxue said on purpose.

"Uh! Xue 'er, you're definitely looking for trouble, okay? How can you be the same as us! Your Beastie is the future King of the Snow fox Tribe. If these snow foxes dare to not invite you to participate, the demon will definitely go on strike. Therefore, they will definitely not dare to neglect you." Jiang Ning said.

"That sounds reasonable." Leng ruoxue smiled.

"It's more than reasonable. Xue 'er! Big brother will be following you in the future, so you can't abandon me!" Jiang Ning said with a fawning expression.

"What?" Hearing this, the demon frowned unhappily and glanced at Jiang Ning with a faint smile. The expression on his face was also very unfriendly.

He was very sensitive to the word 'abandon'.

"Uh! Don't misunderstand, what I mean is, Xue 'er will be my boss from now on!" Seeing this, Jiang Ning quickly explained.

The demon nodded in satisfaction. However, cold sweat was dripping from Jiang Ning's body.

Wu ... This is too much, she actually threatened him!

Although the evil man did not say a word, his little heart could not stop trembling! There was too much pressure in her heart, wasn't there?

Just as Jiang Ning was trembling in fear and being extremely careful, the inauguration ceremony finally began.

This was also the first time Leng ruoxue and the others had attended such a ceremony. Furthermore, if they had not come to the immortal realm, they would not have known that the beast race would be so serious about the succession of the throne. Not only did they organize a ceremony, but they even had a Master of Ceremony. The snow fox Tribe elder who was hosting the succession ceremony was the snow fox tribe's Grand Elder.

The snow fox tribe's great elder walked up to the stage that had been set up in advance with a face full of joy. He first said a bunch of symbolic and encouraging words before announcing the official start of the ceremony.

Then, the music started playing.

With the music playing, Mei walked up the stage.

The Mei had returned to her original form.

He had a tall body, snow-white fur, a pair of soul-shaking purple eyes, and a purple-gold crown on his head. He looked extraordinary and heroic. However, at this moment, the expression on its face was extremely serious. However, the snow foxes of the snow fox Tribe went completely crazy when they saw its majestic image.

All the snow foxes shouted, howled, cheered, and jumped for joy. They were all extremely excited. Some of the more emotional snow foxes had tears in their eyes at this moment.

"King! The great King! I love you!"

"King! You're my idol! He's so handsome!"

The wild and passionate voices of the snow foxes rose and fell. However, the Mei did not feel excited at all when she heard these voices.

Yes! It was very unhappy, very unhappy.

It had always kept a low profile with its master. It was not used to such an occasion where it was in the limelight, and it did not like such an occasion. It originally thought that it would just follow the rehearsed ceremony. Who knew that the snow foxes of the snow fox Tribe would be crazy to this extent?

However, these were all trivial matters. What it was most dissatisfied with was its current image.

Although it still had the body of a Fox, it did not look like a mimicry. Not only that, there was a heavy iron shelf on its head, and a yellow silk ribbon was tied to its body.

Xue ran and Xue Qiao told it that the iron shelf was the crown of the snow fox King, but it looked like a stove used by its master for barbecue. And the silk belt. The two old foxes also said that it was to show off the unique noble status of the snow fox King, but no matter how it looked at it, it was like a promotion lady, no, a promotion little fox!

"You bastard!" Mei really wanted to curse.

His outfit was really too ugly! However, it couldn't not wear it like this, because as long as it showed that it didn't want to wear it, the two old foxes would stare at it with tears in their eyes, making it look like it had done something wrong!

Later, after the two old foxes had laid down countless unfair conditions, the Mei finally compromised!

After reluctantly standing on the stage, Mei only hoped that the inauguration ceremony would be completed as soon as possible. However, after unintentionally feeling her master's gaze, Mei Zhen wanted to find a hole to hide in.

Looking at Mei, who had suddenly lowered her head shyly, Jiang Ning asked in confusion, "Xue 'er, what are you being shy about? Could it be that you're frightened by this big scene?"

"Of course not! It's thinking that it's dressing too unsightly. " Leng ruoxue laughed. As the master, how could she not know what her own beastly beast was thinking? however, she had not expected the snow fox Tribe to make such a big fuss for the inauguration ceremony. Wasn't this a little too much?

Glancing at the countless fanatical snow foxes, Leng ruoxue could not help but break out in cold sweat. She could not help but think to herself, 'charm seems to have gained quite a few fans!' Under such circumstances, if she wanted to take Mei away, would she encounter any difficulties?

Chapter 2362 Emergency Meeting \(2\)

Leng ruoxue had already predicted that it would be impossible for her to take Mei away so easily. However, with Mei around, those old foxes would not dare to go against her. She was also very confident in Mei, so she was not worried that those old foxes would play any tricks on her. She was just not sure what kind of excuse they would use to keep Mei. She was looking forward to that.

At this moment, the Mei who was on the high platform had already started the succession process in an orderly manner. Leng ruoxue's attention was also attracted to the high platform.

Looking at the tall and snow-white Mei's powerful aura that could swallow mountains and rivers, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but feel a little cocky. As expected of her Beastie, it was so stylish!

Even though the entire process of the ceremony was complicated, the ceremony of ascension to the throne was very simple. The Mei only knelt three times towards the sky before the snow fox tribe's great elder announced her as the snow fox tribe's King. After that, the snow fox tribe's great elder's voice was drowned out by the cheers of the snow foxes.

Next, the snow fox great elder patiently waited for the tribesmen to calm down, because he was also feeling unusually excited.

Although the snow fox Tribe did not only have one purple-eyed snow fox since ancient times, the purple-eyed snow Fox's succession this time was personally managed and hosted by it. To it, the significance was different. Therefore, its excitement was much greater than the other snow foxes.

After a while, as they knew that the ceremony had to continue, the snow foxes only cheered for a while before they quieted down again. Then, the great elder of the snow fox Tribe announced that the snow fox King would give a speech to the tribe.

When the Mei heard this, she was momentarily dumbfounded.

A lecture? What's with the scolding? No Fox had told it about this, so it didn't know that it had to speak. It didn't rehearse the ceremony either.

At this moment, the Mei received the look from the snow fox great elder. Seeing that the old man seemed to be asking it to say a few words, it could only helplessly open its mouth and say, "That ..."

Just as it said two words, the Mei stopped again. It did not know what to call these snow foxes. Call them clansmen? It seemed that it couldn't open its mouth, because in its eyes, these snow foxes were at most of the same race.

"That ... Hello, I'm very happy to be the king of snow foxes. Under the leadership of my master, our snow fox Tribe will definitely be able to regain our former glory. Please believe me." After hesitating for a moment, the Mei decided not to say anything and just speak directly. However, the moment it finished speaking, the snow fox great elder on the stage and the snow foxes below the stage were all stunned.

Did it say something wrong? Why did the snow foxes in front of him turn into stone? Mei Xiang didn't understand. The snow fox great elder, who had finally regained her senses, looked at the Mei with a helpless and troubled expression. She thought to herself, my King! Who asked you to say this? You even said that the snow fox Tribe will return to its former glory under the leadership of your master. Is this what they want to hear? They didn't want to be led by humans!

More importantly, not all of the snow fox Tribe members knew that their new king was taken. Therefore, the snow fox great elder did not dare to imagine how the snow foxes would react after this secret was exposed.

As expected, as the snow foxes regained their senses one by one, the audience immediately burst into an uproar.

"The king has a master?"

"Heavens! This is too scary!"

"How can a King have a master?"

The snow foxes were in a heated discussion. Although their voices were not loud, there were too many of them. Hence, their voices were heard by Leng ruoxue and the others.

The Mei naturally heard it clearly as well. However, it did not care about this, because it did not think that having a master was something to be ashamed of. On the contrary, it was very proud.

However, the expression of the great Elder Snow fox, who was the emcee of the ceremony, was rather unsightly. Its originally snow-white fur was already faintly showing signs of black. It was only when it received Xue ran's voice transmission, asking it to continue with the ceremony, that its expression became slightly better.

Because of this small accident, the rest of the process of the snow fox tribe's great elder was carried out very quickly. It could almost be considered a formality. Even the ceremony of paying respects to the fallen hero of the snow fox Tribe was carried out very quickly. This also caused the succession ceremony, which should have taken an hour and a half, to be completed in less than an hour.

Although the snow fox first elder felt a little regretful, it was more afraid that there would be any more mistakes. After consoling itself that it was all for the king's sake, it was slightly relieved.

The Mei was quite satisfied with such an outcome.

After the simplified ceremony was completed, it was time for the celebration party held by the snow fox Tribe. Initially, Leng ruoxue and the rest only wanted to show their faces for a bit before leaving. However, when she saw the Mei's resentful expression, she relented and stayed.

It wasn't easy for her to endure until the Mei could leave. Leng ruoxue immediately led everyone away and returned to her own residence. Only then did she relax.

The snow foxes had been eyeing her covetously ever since they heard what the Mei had said. She could even feel a few unfriendly gazes from them, so she really did not want to stay with them any longer. Not long after they returned to their residence, the Mei had caught up with them.

When the Mei saw Leng ruoxue and the rest, she still put on a resentful expression. When Leng ruoxue saw this, she could not help but feel a headache coming on. "Mei, what's wrong with you? We've been with you the entire time at the banquet!"

"I want to live with you!" The Mei said pitifully.

"Didn't senior Xue ran agree to let you stay in the palace for three days?" Leng ruoxue held her forehead and said. After Mei became the snow fox tribe's King, she had her own palace. Although the palace was still shabby compared to their residence, it was still the symbol of the snow fox tribe's King. If she had not stayed there for even a day, it would not be right. Hence, when Xue ran discussed it with her, she had agreed. After all, this was not an unreasonable request. However, she did not expect that Mei, who had promised her well, would come back right after the inauguration ceremony.

"I've been there, but it's so cold and cheerless. I can't stay there for a day." The Mei grumbled with tears in her eyes. Then, she pounced into Leng ruoxue's arms and even put on a look as if she had been abandoned. She was really as pitiful as she could be.

"Uh! Then what do we do?" Leng ruoxue was helpless.

"I want to stay by master's side." The Mei lifted her head and looked at Leng ruoxue with her beautiful purple eyes.

"No!" Before Leng ruoxue could say anything, a voice rejected her flatly. The person who spoke was Xue ni, who had come to look for Mei.

When Xue ran and Xue Qiao saw their Queen acting like a little pet in Leng ruoxue's arms, they felt a headache coming on. If their Queen's appearance was seen by her clansmen, it would damage her tall and imposing image!

"Can 't?" The Mei narrowed her eyes upon hearing this.

"King, don't be willful, be good! Didn't we agree that you will stay in your own palace for three days? Three days later, if you want to live with this girl, you can move back." Xue ran could tell that Mei was displeased and quickly coaxed her. She then kept winking at Leng ruoxue, hoping that she would help to persuade her. This little fellow only listened to her!

Chapter 2363 Emergency Meeting \(3\)

However, Leng ruoxue acted as if she didn't see its eye signal and looked up at the sky. It wasn't that she didn't want to help, but she had already helped. But Mei had agreed and then gone back on her word. What could she do? She couldn't possibly help others to bully her Beastie! She had never been someone who would side with an outsider!

"I don't want to stay there for even a day." The Mei looked at Leng ruoxue and said with certainty.

"Why? Did someone offend the king? Tell me, I'll punish it on behalf of the king!" Xue ran guessed.

"No, I didn't! I just don't want to leave master." Mei Zhen said honestly.

"But didn't we agree that you would stay in your own palace for at least three days? Three days later, you'll be able to live with this girl!" Xue ran reminded.

It was very worried by the words of the demon. However, they could not do anything to the demon. Who asked this treasure to be the purple eyed snow fox that the snow fox Tribe had obtained after much difficulty! How rare!

"I said I don't want to live there for even a day. I can't wait another day! If you really want me to live there, then I won't be the king of snow foxes!" The Mei said lightly. It was going on strike again.

Hearing this, Xue ran and Xue Qiao both burst into tears.

Wu...Bad boy! Little brat! That detestable brat! They had already made so many unfair agreements, so why did he still have to bully them?

The two big white foxes had tears streaming down their faces. They had nowhere to complain to, and their fragile glass hearts had also shattered into pieces.

However, the Mei would not sympathize with them. The main reason was that it did not take the snow fox King too seriously. Naturally, it did not want to do something that it was not willing to do for a throne that it did not care much about. Furthermore, the snow fox Tribe in the divine realm had too many things to do and many rules. They were not as carefree as the tribe it used to have.

One had to know that in the snow fox Tribe that it belonged to, when the tribesmen became adults, they would leave the tribe and wander alone. Therefore, many of the tribesmen might not have even seen each other, but once they met a fellow tribesman, they would feel very close.

However, in the snow fox Tribe of the divine realm, the tribesmen basically lived together and were managed by the snow fox King. As a result, there were naturally many disputes between the tribesmen. Before he agreed to take over the snow fox Tribe, he did not know that the snow fox Tribe was in such a situation. This made him, who had originally planned to be a hands-off manager, regret it.

Moreover, the elders of the snow fox Tribe had to ask it for instructions on everything, which was unbelievable to it. Sometimes, when an elder came to ask it for instructions over some trivial matter, it would want to shout back, 'you are all dead!'

However, its good upbringing allowed it to hold back, but this did not mean that it was not angry. It was precisely because it had the thought of regret that it did not want to be so obedient and let these snow foxes manipulate it.

It wanted to be itself!

After the Mei finished speaking, it did not make another sound. Instead, it laid comfortably in Leng ruoxue's arms and enjoyed its master's caress. It was very clear that no matter how much it had done to the snow fox Tribe, its master would not blame it!

After Mei finished speaking for a long time, the sorrowful Xue Mu and Xue Qiao could not come back to their senses. When they finally came back to their senses, they saw Mei sleeping in Leng ruoxue's arms.

The two white foxes burst into tears again.

After that, they said helplessly, "Little girl! Since the king has fallen asleep, then, then let him stay here with you!"

He had no choice but to stay here! He threatened them with the snow fox King at the drop of a hat. How despicable! They were filled with hatred.

With that, the two lonely and tall figures left Leng ruoxue's residence like leaves in the autumn wind.

"They're so pitiful. " Watching the two snow foxes "desolated backs, Jiang Ning said with a face full of sympathy.

"Hehe!" Leng ruoxue was speechless. What was so pitiful about those two foxes? they didn't do anything to them anyway. Following that, she stretched out her fair, Jade-like hand and gently stroked Mei's soft fur. She said softly, "Alright, they've already left. Stop pretending to be asleep!"

"Hehe! Master. " Mei opened her eyes, a hint of shyness flashed across her face.

"Speak! Why did you go back on your word?" Leng ruoxue asked indifferently.

"Master, I don't want to be the snow fox King anymore. The snow fox Tribe has too many things to do, and they have to ask me for help for every trivial matter. My goal is to be a hands-off shopkeeper, not to lose my freedom for the snow fox Tribe!" Mei said with a bitter face.

"Mei, actually, the magical beasts and humans in the divine realm are all like this. A magical beast is equivalent to a large family clan. If all the clansmen live together, there will definitely be more things to do, and the responsibility of a King will also be heavier. However, I feel that no matter what kind of rules the snow fox clan has, you will be the snow fox King in the future. If you're not satisfied with their rules, you can just change them. " Hearing Mei's words, Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

"Furthermore, you have already promised Xue Ying that you will be the snow fox King. You can't be so willful as to say that you don't want to be the snow fox King! I also hope that you can become the snow fox King. Otherwise, I can only use my own methods to subdue the snow fox Tribe. " Following that, Leng ruoxue added that if the succubus had not become the snow fox King, the snow fox Tribe would have ended up like the snow rat, Snow Leopard, and the other beast tribes-all of them would have been hers.

Furthermore, on account of Xue Ying, she did not want to take in the snow fox Tribe by force. The best way was for Mei to become the snow fox King. She believed that this was something that Xue Ying would be happy to see. Therefore, until now, she was still considered friendly to the snow fox Tribe.

"Yes, yes! If you don't like any of the rules of the snow fox Tribe, you can change them all. You can't not be the snow fox King. " Jiang Ning also advised.

"Alright! Then from tomorrow onwards, I will carry out a great reform. If any elder dares to object, I will no longer be the snow fox King. " After thinking for a while, Mei smiled evilly.

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue nodded her head in satisfaction. As long as the demon did not use the snow fox King to threaten the elders, she believed that the elders would not dare to object.

Oh! Aren't they being a little too mean by doing this? Leng ruoxue thought to herself.

When Jiang Ning heard the Mei's words, he felt a deep sense of sympathy for the snow fox tribe's elders. With such a willful king who didn't take the throne seriously, the elders would probably have a headache, right?

Leng ruoxue had finally appeased the Mei, but Xue ran and Xue Qiao were still having a headache.

After they resentfully left Leng ruoxue's residence, they did not return to their own residence. Instead, they hurriedly called for a meeting of elders to discuss countermeasures. Otherwise, that little fellow would keep threatening them with the excuse of not being the king. Who would be able to stand it?

The snow fox elders who had rushed over after hearing the news sat down in the meeting hall. When they saw that there were only the two great ancestors and that their King was not present, they could not help but look at each other.

Ugh! What was going on? He was actually carrying the king?

Although it wasn't said that the king had to attend all the elder meetings, it was the first day that the king had officially ascended the throne. It wasn't very good to throw the king aside and have a meeting in secret, right?

With this thought in mind, all the elders looked at the snow fox tribe's great elder in unison. The snow fox tribe's great elder had no choice but to bite the bullet and ask, "Old ancestor, has the king not arrived yet?"

"I didn't inform the king!" Xue ran raised her eyes and said indifferently.

"Uh!" The snow fox great elder was worried. What did it mean that the king was not informed?

"I summoned you for a meeting mainly to discuss the king's matter. It's not suitable for the king to attend." Xue ran explained.

"Oh!" The snow fox elders nodded their heads in unison. They did not dare to speak at all, because even a fool could tell that their old ancestor was in a very bad mood.

"The king refused to live in his own palace and insisted on living with that human girl. I didn't agree, so he threatened me that I wouldn't be the king. Do you have any good ideas to convince the king, or to make the king feel a sense of belonging to the snow fox Tribe? tell me!" Xue ran asked after a heavy sigh.

"What? No longer a King? How can we do that?" Upon hearing this, the snow fox great elder was the first to panic. Previously, during the inauguration ceremony, the king's words had almost thrown the clansmen into confusion. At the same time, it had also exposed the fact that the king had a master, causing them to be unable to hide it even if they wanted to. After that, it finally sent people to appease the clansmen, and those fellows did not cause any trouble for it. Moreover, because their expectations of the king were too high, this fact had also dealt a heavy blow to many of the clansmen.

However, since things had already come to this, they could only accept it. At least for now, this was the only way. Who asked Leng ruoxue to know their Queen first? The king's feelings for that human were not ordinary deep. Therefore, it was not easy to separate them!

The snow fox first elder was very clear that they could only ignore the relationship between their King and Leng ruoxue. If they were too concerned, it would only force their King further away from them. At this moment, even if their snow fox clan wanted to compete with Leng ruoxue for favor, they would definitely not be able to do so. After thinking about it, it carefully said, "Old ancestor, it's normal for the king and Leng ruoxue to have a deep relationship. After all, they've been together for so long. I feel that we should understand the king on this matter and not force him to do what we want. Otherwise, it might backfire."

"You're saying that we should follow the king's lead?" Xue ran asked.

"Yes, the king can do whatever he wants. We can't stop him, and we can't." The snow fox first elder said with absolute certainty.

Chapter 2364 New Rules VS Honey Trap \(1\)

Although Xue ran and Xue Qiao were a little reluctant after hearing the great elder's words, they knew that the great elder was right. They really had to go along with that little fellow. Otherwise, if that little fellow were to shirk his responsibilities, the snow fox Tribe would be the one suffering.

Thinking of this, Xue ran said helplessly, "Then let's do as the great elder says! You have to remember that the king can do whatever he wants. Also, don't offend that human girl. Otherwise, whoever dares to make the king say that he doesn't want to be the king of our snow fox Tribe will be a sinner of our snow fox Tribe!"

Its words were definitely a warning. It was afraid that some of the snow foxes would not know how important Leng ruoxue was in the king's heart. Therefore, if they offended them, the king would definitely fly into a rage!

After hearing Xue ran's words, the snow fox elders all felt sorry for her and quickly nodded.

Seeing this, Xue ran was very satisfied. Then, she ordered, "That's right, remember to inform the Fox race of the divine realm that our snow fox race has a new king. "

"Old ancestor, if the other Fox Kings want to come and pay their respects to our King, should we let them come?" The snow fox Grand Elder could not help but ask.

Originally, the Ascension ceremony of the snow fox King should have been informed to the other Fox tribes. However, some of the Fox tribes' Kings were very close to the previous snow fox King. They were afraid of causing trouble, so they did not inform the Fox Tribe in advance. Now that the king had inherited the throne of the snow fox Tribe and paid respects to the ancestors, it was a matter of course. Even if some foxes wanted to disrupt it, it would be of no use. Therefore, according to the rules, they should allow other Fox Kings to meet their new king.

However, the situation with the new king was a little different. The new king would say that he did not want to be the king anymore. If the king met with the other Fox Kings and someone insensibly angered the king, it was really afraid that things would go out of control.

"Let whoever wants to come! We'll meet sooner or later. " After thinking for a while, Xue ran said.

"Yes." The snow fox great elder nodded. Then, it got up and left to make preparations.

After the great elder of the snow fox Tribe left, Xue ran did not dismiss the meeting. Instead, she asked the elders present to continue thinking about how to increase the king's sense of belonging to the tribe. This was because Xue ran was very clear that using the responsibility of the snow fox Tribe as an excuse would not work on that little fellow. That little fellow would not care about the responsibility of the snow fox Tribe! This was also a matter that gave it a headache.

When the elder heard this, his mind whirred. Then, he smiled and said, "Ancestor, I have a good idea, I wonder if it will work?"

"What good idea? Why don't you tell me?" Xue Mu immediately ordered.

"That ... The king is the only purple-eyed snow Fox in the Snow fox Tribe for hundreds of thousands of years. He has a high status, but the king is still single. What I mean is, do you want to find a companion for the king?" An elder asked.

"Find a companion? You mean, find it a female fox?" Xue ran asked with uncertainty.

"That's right! I believe that as long as the king gets married and has children, his feelings for our snow fox Tribe will naturally deepen. Furthermore, with the ties of a wife and children, would old ancestor be afraid that the king would not be completely loyal to our snow fox Tribe? At that time, who can compare to the position of family in the king's heart!" An elder said confidently.

"Will this work?" Xue ran was worried. She knew that in Mei's eyes, there was no one else but her master. More importantly, she did not think that this was a good idea.

"It'll definitely work! Old ancestor, the king is also a male beast! As long as it was a male beast, which one could escape the trap of a beauty? Besides, we're all doing this for the king's good. The king has been an adult for a long time, and it's time for him to have offspring!" A certain elder said with a 'I'm doing this for the king' expression.

"Is there any female beast in the tribe that is worthy of the king?" Xue ran asked with a frown. Although she didn't like the elder's tone, she couldn't deny that the best way to deal with a male beast was indeed a female beast!

Since ancient times, the seduction technique had been extremely good for both men and male beasts!

"There are many! There are many beautiful foxes in our snow fox Tribe, and many of the female beasts of the right age have yet to marry, so they are the most suitable for the king. " The elder promised, thinking that his daughter was very suitable.

"Since that's the case, I'll leave this matter to you. Remember, you must do it beautifully and don't embarrass our snow fox Tribe!" Xue ran warned.

In fact, it wasn't very optimistic about this method, but there was no harm in trying. If it really worked, it would be able to solve one of its worries!

"I promise to complete the task. I'll inform all the families tomorrow and ask them to report the names of the unmarried female foxes of the right age and carefully select a partner that the king is most satisfied with." The snow fox elder, who had received the mission, was extremely excited. This was great, he could be in a favorable position.

"Mm, that's all for now! Today's meeting will end here. If you have any good ideas, let me know at any time. " Seeing that it was getting late, Xue ran decided to end the meeting.

When the snow fox elders present heard this, they immediately stood up and took their leave. After they left, Xue Qiao glanced at Xue ran and could not help but ask, ""Do you really think that the honey trap would work on that little guy?"

"I don't know!" Xue ran was only treating a dead fox as a living Fox doctor, and she didn't know if it would work or not.

"The king should indeed have a partner by his side." Xue ran added after some thought.

"I hope that little guy is lecherous!" Snow bridge said helplessly. He truly felt that today's meeting was a waste of time. Other than the great elder's useful words, everything else was just nonsense.

It was not optimistic about the beauty trap at all!

At this moment, the Mei was still unaware that she was about to be sugar-coated by the snow fox Tribe. She was completely immersed in the reform of the snow fox Tribe, and the snow fox tribe's plan to select a beauty for her was also quietly unfolding.

For the next few days, the Mei buried herself in studying the snow fox tribe's rules and what she should do as the snow fox King. Xue Mei and Xue Qiao were extremely satisfied with her performance. They truly thought that the Mei was working hard for the future of the snow fox Tribe and had no idea that she was bent on reforming the snow fox Tribe. If they knew, they would definitely be depressed.

Seeing that the demon was working so hard that it forgot to eat or sleep, Xue Mu and Xue Qiao were very considerate and didn't disturb it. They even told it gently that if it had any questions, it could ask them at any time.

Mei nodded and continued to study the clan rules. Xue Mu and Xue Qiao left with a satisfied look on their faces.

At Leng ruoxue's residence.

In the living room, Leng ruoxue, the demon, uncle long, and Jiang Ning were all staring at the Mei who was busy working on the table. No one spoke to disturb its thoughts. When the Mei encountered something she was unsure of, she would ask for their opinions.

Chapter 2365 New Rules VS Honey Trap \(2\)

However, when Jiang Ning saw that the Mei general had changed the thick stack of clan rules beyond recognition, he couldn't help but feel a deep sense of sympathy for the snow fox Tribe.

The snow fox Tribe gave the Mei their tribe rules. They were written on paper and were densely packed. The rules were almost half a meter thick, almost drowning the mimicked Mei. However, after a few days of hard work, the thick rules were less than two centimeters thick. The Mei had abandoned the rest.

Even the clan rules on the surviving pieces of paper had been changed a lot.

It could be said that after the Mei's Reformation, the snow fox tribe's rules had long since disappeared. He really wanted to know what kind of expressions the two old foxes and the elders of the snow fox Tribe would have when they saw the Reformed rules. He was looking forward to it!

Just as Jiang Ning was busy fantasizing, Mei, who was busy working on the table, suddenly stretched her back. Then, she jumped into Leng ruoxue's arms happily and said with a proud expression, "Master, the clan rules have been changed!"

"So fast!" Leng ruoxue praised as she stroked Mei Xueyan's snow-white fur.

When Jiang Ning heard this, he was speechless. This was fast? This was clearly the speed of lightning, okay? Moreover, this little Fox's actions shouldn't be considered as changing the clan rules, right? It only took a glance at most of the contents on the papers before throwing them away. Therefore, he really had no idea how to evaluate Leng ruoxue, who was a non-negotiable pet.

Damn it, I've seen people who were good to their Beastie, but I've never seen someone who was so pampered to the point of lying through their teeth. Jiang Ning couldn't help but complain to himself. He had learned a lot today. However, no one cared about what he thought.

pA(nd)A no ve1 "Master, can you help me take a look at the changes to the clan rules?" After acting coquettishly with her master, the charm said as if presenting a treasure.

"Hmm, let me see." Leng ruoxue received the paper from Mei and scanned through it. Then, she nodded and said, "Not bad, Mei has a good leadership ability."

Of course, Leng ruoxue did not mention that Mei knew how to be a hands-off manager.

Originally, the tribe rules had stipulated that there were many things that the tribe leader should be in charge of. However, now, the Mei had delegated those matters to the elders. If there were major matters that could not be decided, they would hold a meeting with the elders to discuss it. If the meeting could not be settled, they would go to the two ancestors of the snow fox Tribe, Xue ran and Xue Qiao. In short, it had nothing to do with this!

Leng ruoxue believed that when elder Xue Mu, elder Xue Qiao, and elder Xue Hu saw the new clan rules, they would be so angry that they would vomit blood.

At this moment, Jiang Ning extended his hand in front of Leng ruoxue and said, "Let me take a look." He had been looking forward to the new rules of the snow fox Tribe for a long time, and he wanted to see it first.

However, when he finished reading the new tribe rules of the snow fox Tribe, his sympathy for the snow fox Tribe deepened. There were a few drops of cold sweat on his forehead. He thought to himself, this little fox is really too ruthless. It actually has nothing to do with the tribe rules! In this way, it, the king of snow fox, would really become a hands-off boss.

"What do you think? my new clan rules are great, right?" Seeing the change in Jiang Ning's expression, Mei said proudly.

"Yes, very good!" He didn't even know what to say.

Following that, the Mei invited Leng ruoxue and the others to accompany her to the meeting hall to announce the new clan rules to the elders.

By the time they arrived at the meeting hall, the snow fox elders who had received the notice had already arrived.

Upon seeing the demon Queen, the snow fox elders all stood up in excitement, especially the snow fox great elder. Tears welled up in his eyes, as if he had just seen his ancestor.

Actually, the reason why the snow fox elders were so excited was because they did not expect the king to call for an elder's meeting so soon. This was a huge surprise for them!

What did this mean?

It meant that the king had already gotten into character and was now concerned about the snow fox Tribe! Although they didn't know why the king had called for an elder meeting, the joy in their hearts was still very strong. Of course, this was all under the situation where they were still unclear of the Mei's goal. Otherwise, they would definitely not be happy.

"All of you, sit! You don't have to be so polite!" Mei glanced at the elders present and said with a smile.

When the snow fox elders heard this, they bowed to Mei before taking their seats.

The Mei allowed Leng ruoxue to carry her to the main seat. The evildoer and the rest who were watching the show casually found an empty chair and sat down.

Although the snow fox elders present were somewhat dissatisfied with the fact that outsiders were participating in their own Elder Council, they did not dare to show it. They had to try their best to ignore them. Otherwise, they would definitely make the king unhappy. This was something they did not want to see. He was even more afraid that the king would quit in a fit of anger.

"The main reason I've called you here today is to announce something." After the elders had all sat down, her beautiful purple eyes surveyed the elders present before she spoke.

The moment they heard that there was an announcement, the snow fox elders immediately sat up straight and listened attentively.

Seeing them like this, Mei Xin laughed evilly and said, "These few days, I've specially studied the rules of our snow fox Tribe and discovered that there are many old rules in our tribe rules. Therefore, I've decided to reform the tribe rules."

"..." Upon hearing this, all the snow fox elders were stunned.

The king convened an elder's meeting for the first time just to reform the clan rules? This, how could this be?

The tribe rules were set by the ancestors of the snow fox Tribe. How could they be changed just like that? However, they did not dare to say this out loud. Otherwise, if they angered the king, no one would be able to bear the responsibility.

At the thought of this, the snow fox elders could not help but look at the snow fox great elder. The great elder was the head of the elder Council. His status was above theirs, so it was only right for him to take the lead.

The first elder, who received the gazes of all the snow fox elders, felt hatred in his heart. However, as the first elder of the snow fox Tribe, he really could not be a coward. Otherwise, where would his dignity be?

"The clan rules have been there for some years, and some of the old rules in the clan rules are indeed not suitable for the current snow fox Tribe. That ... I wonder how the king intends to reform the rules of our snow fox Tribe?" First elder Snow fox agreed on purpose before asking cautiously.

"I've already set up the new clan rules. In the future, you just have to follow what's written here." Mei said with a smile. After she finished speaking, she threw a few pieces of paper to the first elder.

The first elder took the papers in his hand and looked at them. Instantly, his expression changed.

"My King, this ..." The snow fox great elder's entire body began to tremble. It was unknown whether it was from anger or fear, but she could not say a complete sentence for a long time.

Its heart was already filled with anger. Sob ... The king was really bullying the Fox. It actually handed all its work to the elders and appointed it to be responsible for the distribution. In other words, the current snow fox King had nothing to do. Although it did not have the status of a King, it held the real power of the snow fox Tribe.

Chapter 2366 New Rules VS Honey Trap \(3\)

Wu...What exactly is the king trying to do? How had it offended the king? Why did the king do this to it?

After knowing that he held great power, the snow fox great elder was not only unhappy, but also felt as if his own father had died. His heart was unusually terrified. If this was known by the ancestor and he misunderstood that it was trying to bully the king, it would still have a good end!

The snow fox great elder even wanted to die!

However, at this moment, because it was too shocked, it could not say a word or do anything.

The second elder beside him saw this and was confused. Seeing that the great elder seemed to have been provoked, he simply took the initiative to snatch the papers from the great elder's hands. With one look, the second elder fainted from fear.

One ... Leng ruoxue counted silently. The consequences of the snow fox tribe's new rules were more serious than she had imagined.

"Second elder!" Seeing that the second elder had fainted, the elder beside it was extremely worried.

"You bastard!" What was going on? The first elder was dumbfounded, and the second elder fainted! What kind of new rule is this! How could it have such great power?

Out of curiosity, the elder closest to the second elder also took a few pieces of paper that the second elder had seen. With one look, his eyes rolled back and he fainted.

Two ...

Following that, the elders began to pass the information around one by one.

To Leng ruoxue's surprise, all the elders who had seen it passed out as if they had taken over the task. Such a fact made Leng ruoxue rather speechless.

Wasn't this too much of an exaggeration?

It's just a little change in the clan rules, do you have to be like this? Leng ruoxue couldn't understand and started to despise the tolerance of these elders.

These elders! He really couldn't stay calm!

Leng ruoxue looked down on them!

In fact, the reason why these elders fainted was partly because of the clan rules, but more so because they were too angry. After they read the clan rules, they realized that they couldn't oppose it and couldn't stop it. In a moment of anger, they became angry and that was why they fainted.

However, Leng ruoxue did not understand them. She did not understand why they were afraid of the charm going on strike. She only felt that these old foxes were too useless.

After waiting for a while, the old fox that had passed out slowly woke up after being fed a pill by Jiang Ning. Seeing the Mei sitting at the head of the table and looking at them with a smile, the snow fox elders wanted to faint.

"Faint again!" The demon said lightly. "If any of you faint, I won't be the snow fox King anymore!"

When the snow fox elders heard this, they could only suppress the urge to bang their heads against the wall and look at the Mei pitifully.

"My King ..." The snow fox first elder also returned to her senses and looked at the Mei with a face full of hidden bitterness. She tried to gain its sympathy, but the Mei ignored her.

"This will be the snow fox tribe's new tribe rule in the future. The elder Council will have full authority to handle the matters of our tribe. No matter how big or small the matter is, don't trouble me. I believe in your abilities, so you must not disappoint me!" The Mei said very seriously.

Upon hearing this, the snow fox great elder really wanted to cry!

A King! How can you be so unreasonable!

If this gets out, those who know that you don't want to manage things will think that we can't tolerate you.

The reputation of their snow fox Tribe! Was it going to be destroyed like this? The snow fox great elder's heart was bleeding.

"Alright, I've said what I wanted to say. The meeting is over!" Seeing that the elders did not have any reaction, the Mei could only continue.

With that, it pestered Leng ruoxue and returned to their residence, leaving behind a group of dumbfounded white foxes.

Not long after he returned to his residence, Xue ran and Xue Qiao rushed over upon hearing the news. The snow fox great elder and second elder were also following them.

Seeing the Mei Queen, Xue ran said with an anxious expression, "Your Majesty, why didn't you discuss with us about such a major matter like changing the clan rules?"

Hearing this, Mei played dumb and blinked her eyes, "Am I not the King of the Snow fox Tribe? Don't tell me I don't even have the right to change the rules of the clan?"

"Uh! It's not that you didn't, but you've changed so many clan rules that you should still tell us." Xue ran's voice became softer and softer as she spoke. Moreover, she felt a little uneasy. She hoped that the little fellow would not misunderstand her earlier words.

"Didn't I already tell you?" The Mei continued to play dumb.

"My King, I mean before the change." Xue Mu helplessly reminded.

"Oh! However, it's too late for you to say anything now. I've already made the changes and announced that the daily affairs of the snow fox Tribe will be handled by the elder Council. " The Mei said very irresponsibly.

"King, this won't do! You are the King of the Snow fox Tribe. " When Xue ran heard Mei's words, she felt her head throb. Why was this little fellow so difficult to deal with! Furthermore, as long as it thought about how this little fellow didn't want to care about the matters of the snow fox Tribe, it would be so frustrated that it wanted to bang its head against the wall.

"Therefore, the revision of the tribe rules is my first order as the snow fox King. It will be carried out in the future!" The Mei gave the final word.

"My King ..." Xue ran's face was bitter. It wanted to kneel down in front of this stubborn little fellow who didn't want to take care of things.

"King, you are the King of the Snow foxes. The snow fox Tribe will follow your lead. If you don't have any real power, people will look down on you." At this moment, the snow fox tribe's Grand Elder was also trying to persuade him.

"Who said I don't have any real power? I'm just handing over the affairs of the snow fox Tribe to you and giving you full authority to handle them. This is a show of trust in you, so don't disappoint me!" Mei said calmly.

"My King, have you ever thought that if the Council of Elders has too much power, and if an elder becomes ambitious and wants to usurp the throne, at that time ..." The snow fox first elder said again, deliberately leaving out only half a sentence.

"I see!" Mei frowned and deliberately thought for a moment.

Just when Xue ran, Xue Qiao, the great elder, and the second elder thought that their King would change his mind, the Mei continued, ""If there's really such an ambitious elder, what's the harm in giving up the throne to him?"

"....."

At this moment, Xue ran and the other three white foxes were all deeply worried.

It seemed like the king really didn't care about the throne! They had already said so much, but they still couldn't change the king's mind. What, what should they do!

Sob ... The four white foxes were so sad! They didn't know how to make the king change his mind. They really didn't want to be called the king of sky! However, this king who didn't want to improve and didn't want to make any progress would rather be a King in name than to manage things!

The more the four foxes thought about it, the sadder they became. After a private discussion, Xue Mei set her sights on Leng ruoxue and wanted to ask her to help persuade the Mei. However, Leng ruoxue told her that she would respect her Beastie's choice.

Seeing that Leng ruoxue's plan did not work, the four white foxes could only leave resentfully.

Before they left, the four foxes could not help but console themselves. A King in name was still a King! It was better than nothing!

After returning, Xue ran immediately summoned the elder who was in charge of choosing a partner for the king. After inquiring about the situation, she ordered him to speed up the selection process.

The elder quickly agreed.

Three days later.

20 snow foxes with snow-white, glossy fur were brought to the Mei.

Seeing this, Jiang Ning couldn't help but send a message to Leng ruoxue, ""Xue 'er, it seems that my worry was not without reason. Look! The beauty trap was activated! I just don't know if your charm can withstand such temptation, sigh! I'm a little worried!"

"Just keep your heart in your stomach, the demon won't even look at these female beasts!" Leng ruoxue couldn't help but feel speechless after hearing Jiang Ning's words.

After saying that, her eyes could not help but turn to the 20 female foxes in front of her.

These female foxes did look good, but ... She didn't know why, but a few of their eyes revealed deep hostility towards her, which made her feel helpless.

At this point, Leng ruoxue smiled and glanced at Xue ran. She deliberately said, ""Senior xue yuan, are these the maidservants you found for Mei?"

When they heard the word 'maidservant', several proud female foxes revealed displeasure in their eyes. It should be known that they were the best among the female foxes in terms of appearance, figure, strength, and background. How could they be maidservants?

Even if they had to be the king's maidservants, they were not willing!

After being brought here, they were very clear about their status. Hence, most of the female foxes were unhappy that Leng ruoxue had made them her maidservants. However, before they came, the elders had already warned them repeatedly not to offend their King's master. Hence, they could only endure the anger in their hearts.

"Uh! They are the most beautiful female foxes of our snow fox Tribe, not maidservants. " Hearing Leng ruoxue's words, Xue ran explained awkwardly.

"Oh! Since they're not maidservants, why did senior Xue ran bring them here?" Leng ruoxue's beautiful face revealed a puzzled expression.

Seeing this, Xue ran felt even more embarrassed. Although it knew that this girl was most likely acting, it could not blame her.

Just as Xue ran was hesitating on what to say, a gentle voice sounded, ""Miss Leng, we are all candidates for the king's future wife."

The one who spoke was one of the twenty female foxes.

When Leng ruoxue heard this, she lifted her beautiful eyes and looked at the female fox who had spoken. She smiled faintly, "I see. Do you have a name?"

"I'm Xue Mei." The female fox smiled.

"Argh! You're Xue Mei? The number one beauty of the snow fox Tribe?" Without giving Leng ruoxue a chance to speak, Jiang Ning immediately exclaimed in surprise. After he finished speaking, he even looked at Xue Mei up and down curiously. In the end, he came to an important conclusion-she was a Fox.

Chapter 2367 Master's Orders \(1\)

When Xue Mei heard Jiang Ning's words and saw the joy on his face, she was extremely excited. She recognized this man. He was the Deputy Chairman of the craftsmen's Guild and an important person that the snow fox Tribe wanted to befriend. Now that she saw that this important person had heard of her name, she was instantly excited and said softly, "I didn't expect you to recognize me, Sir Jiangning. I'm deeply honored."

When they heard her soft and gentle words, Leng ruoxue and the rest were in a state of confusion.

If these words were said by a human beauty, they could still treat it as a peach flower of Jiangning. However, these words came from the mouth of a huge snow fox that was more than two meters tall. Furthermore, it was so gentle. This was something that they could not accept.

At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue and the others couldn't help but look at Jiang Ning with ambiguous expressions. Their gazes were as if they were watching a good show, causing a man like Jiang Ning to feel embarrassed.

However, Jiang Ning remained calm on the surface. He spoke the truth with a serious face, "That ... Actually, I don't know you. I've only heard of your name." A good child should not lie.

"Oh? I didn't expect to be so famous. Even Sir Jiang Ning has heard of my name." The female fox named Xue Mei had a faint blush on her furry face. Her eyes were shy and she looked very charming and attractive.

At first, Xue Mei was a little unhappy when she heard Jiang Ning's words. However, when she heard that Jiang Ning had heard of her name before, her mood improved again. She couldn't help but Mutter to herself, Hmph! It knew that it had a reputation.

At the side, Xue Mei was feeling pleased with herself. However, when Leng ruoxue heard her words, she could not help but think to herself, 'so the number one beauty of the snow fox Tribe is also an extremely narcissistic fellow. Even though there aren't many narcissistic beasts, it's not as if there aren't any. However, the narcissism of this one in front of me seems to be a little too high.'

When Jiang Ning heard this, he only frowned with a conflicted expression. Then, he looked at Xue Mei with a profound look and finally decided to tell the truth, "Aren't you the number one beauty of the snow fox Tribe? Of course he was famous. However, I know your name not because of your reputation in the snow fox Tribe, but because I heard an elder say that they had seen you take a bath with the previous snow fox King. So, I remember your name. "

After hearing what Jiang Ning said, Leng ruoxue laughed in her heart. She didn't expect Jiangning to have such an infuriating moment. She didn't teach her this! When Jiang Ning first met her, she was already a black sesame rice ball. Therefore, she had nothing to do with Jiang Ning's behavior.

After Leng ruoxue was done laughing, the first thing she wanted to do was to clear herself of the blame for causing Jiang Ning to go astray. As for the number one beauty of the snow fox Tribe, after hearing Jiang Ning's words, her face turned from red to green and then to black. If it wasn't for Jiang Ning's status and the fact that she had to show gentleness in front of the Mei, Leng ruoxue believed that the number one beauty of the snow fox Tribe would have jumped up and scratched her.

Looking at Xue Mei's face that was darker than the bottom of a pot, her conflicted, embarrassed, and angry expression that she had no choice but to suppress, Leng ruoxue felt a little sympathy for her. She wondered if this number one fox beauty would be furious if she kept it in.

Just as she was thinking this, a loud 'plop' sound rang out beside her ear. When everyone turned to look at the source of the sound, they saw that the snow fox tribe's number one beauty was already lying straight on the cold ground.

He had definitely fainted from anger!

Al! She knew that if she didn't vent her anger and endured it, something would happen sooner or later! Now, he saw it.

After giving Xue Mei a look of sympathy, Leng ruoxue turned to look at Jiang Ning. However, Jiang Ning put on an innocent expression and said, "this has nothing to do with me!" With a wronged expression.

Sighing in her heart, Leng ruoxue looked at Xue ran and said, ""Senior Xue ran, it seems that the body of your snow fox tribe's beauty is not very good! How can such a weak constitution be worthy of my Mei?"

"This, this ..." Xue ran was speechless. Wasn't this all because she was angered by you? Even if they were beasts, they still had a sense of shame, okay?

To become famous by being peeked at while taking a bath, this was definitely a scandal! It definitely was! This kind of fame, even a female beast wouldn't be able to stand it! Furthermore, the other party was the most proud and arrogant person in the snow fox Tribe! However, it didn't expect Xue Mei to be so angry that she made it faint over such a trivial matter!

Al! If it had known this would happen, it would never have agreed to include Xue Mei in the 20 female foxes. However, it seemed to be a little too late to think about this.

She stole a glance at the Mei, who was uninterested and would rather chase her tail than look at these female foxes. Xue ran's head ached even more. From the looks of her King, it seemed that he was not very satisfied with these beautiful, gentle, and charming female foxes!

Al! What was this good?

Could it be that there were so many outstanding female foxes in the snow fox Tribe, but none of them could satisfy the king?

Xue ran really wanted to cry to the heavens. Aren't you too hard to serve?

Just as Xue ran was feeling all sorts of grief and resentment, another female fox spoke up, "Miss Leng, all the female foxes of our snow fox race are very healthy. Not all female foxes have a weak body like Xue Mei."

"Is that so?" Leng ruoxue blinked her eyes and looked at the snow fox who spoke.

This Fox was slightly shorter than Xue Mei. Its eyes were blue and as beautiful and clear as the sea. Its temperament was also natural and unrestrained. It was undeniable that Leng ruoxue's first impression of it was much better than Xue Mei's. At least in the eyes of this female fox, she could not see any ambition or schemes. There was only a clear conscience.

Leng ruoxue's interest was piqued.

"What's your name?" Leng ruoxue asked with a smile.

"I'm Xuelin." The female fox answered very frankly.

Leng ruoxue nodded and looked at the other 19 female foxes. She then turned to Xue ran and said, "Senior Xue ran, I really like this Xue Lin, so let her stay! You can take the rest back."

Hearing this, Xue ran was elated. She was really afraid that Leng ruoxue would not even leave a single one behind! As long as one of them was willing to stay, it believed that with the charm of their snow fox tribe's beauties, the king would definitely fall in love with that little girl!

Although it was a little regretful that Leng ruoxue had only left behind one female fox, it immediately gave itself a strong mental comfort. There was a chance if she left one behind! Furthermore, this Foxy was personally picked by Leng ruoxue. It believed that its King, who would listen to its master, would definitely accept it.

With that thought in mind, Xue ran did not want to stay any longer to annoy others. She hurriedly brought the other 18 female snow foxes that were still alive and kicking, as well as the one that had fainted, and left Leng ruoxue and the rest's residence.

Before it left, the ambiguous expression on its face made Leng ruoxue want to use violence.

After those extremely unwilling female foxes left, Leng ruoxue immediately felt the peace in front of her and her field of vision widened. However, she didn't ignore the unwillingness that flashed in the eyes of the female fox that she had left behind.

Chapter 2368 Master's Orders \(2\)

Hehe! Looks like there's a hidden story!

However, Leng ruoxue didn't want to appear to be too nosy. After sizing up Xue Lin for a long time, Leng ruoxue nodded in satisfaction and said, "You look like a good match for succubus. By the way, do you know how to cook?"

"I will." Xuelin said honestly.

And he's someone who can enter the hall! Leng ruoxue could not help but think to herself, 'looks like the snow fox Tribe has put in a lot of effort in order to keep Mei and increase her sense of belonging to the snow fox Tribe.'

"Do your parents have a position in the snow fox Tribe?" Leng ruoxue asked again.

My father is an elder of the snow fox Tribe." Xuelin answered all her questions.

It seemed that his background was not bad! Leng ruoxue facepalmed. She just didn't know what kind of background the other 19 female foxes had. After some thought, she continued to ask, "Tell me about your flaws."

"Flaws?" Xuelin was stunned. The expression on her face was a little conflicted. Was this her way of exposing her shortcomings? After some careful thought, it said, "I, I'm very stubborn ..."

"Being stubborn is not a big problem. Are you willing to marry Mei?" Leng ruoxue said with a smile, as if she was a big Bad Wolf trying to lure Little Red Riding Hood away. However, Mei, who was lying on her lap, almost exploded when she heard this.

Sob ... Master, I don't want to get married! The Mei was wailing in its heart. However, Leng ruoxue hugged it tightly and even covered its mouth with her hand, so it could not object even if it wanted to.

How could it be so miserable? The Mei did not want to be forced by its master to marry a female fox that it did not like. More importantly, it had no intention of getting married at all.

"Master, master ..." The Mei transmitted its voice to Leng ruoxue. However, Leng ruoxue did not bother with it.

At this moment, the Mei heard the female fox named Xuelin and nodded. "I ... I'm willing."

"Hahaha! Is there a wedding?" Before Leng ruoxue could say anything, Jiang Ning interjected with excitement.

Hearing this, the Mei was filled with hatred!

Happy event my ass! You're the one who's going to have a wedding!

Its master would not force it! It definitely wouldn't! The Mei was terrified and kept on transmitting her voice to Leng ruoxue, "Master! Don't marry me off! I want to stay by your side forever, wuu ..."

"Mei! You're a male, how could I marry you off! I'm going to get you a wife, why are you crying?"

Hearing the voice transmission, Leng ruoxue broke out in cold sweat. Was the Mei scared silly? She couldn't even tell if she was married or not.

"Master, can I not have it?" Seeing that Leng ruoxue had acknowledged it, the Mei hurriedly said.

"Mei, recently, everyone's mood has been very bad because of rime ice. I feel that there should be a happy event that will make it lively, so you should sacrifice yourself! Be good! I'll give you some candy later." Leng ruoxue coaxed him gently, and the undeniable meaning behind her words was clear.

After Mei heard this, she immediately became dejected. Sob ... If she wanted to be lively, she could have used other methods! For example, if they were to find trouble with The White Tiger race, why must they sacrifice it?

The Mei was very depressed. However, as a good Beastie that listened to its master, its master's decision was always right. If its master really wanted it to do that, it was afraid that it could only be driven away by the Fox. It had no choice but to obey its master's orders. It was its master's contracted beast, so it couldn't escape even if it wanted to!

This fact made Mei want to cry but no tears came out. In the end, Mei very obediently choked and said, ""I'll listen to master! Wuwu ..."

"Good girl!" Leng ruoxue caressed Mei's soft fur and said in satisfaction.

After her private conversation with Mei, Leng ruoxue turned her gaze to Xue Lin and said, ""Little Xuelin, since one of you is willing to marry, and the other is willing to marry, I have decided to hold the wedding in seven days. As for the preparations, let the elders Council handle it! In the future, you will be the Queen of the snow fox Tribe. "

Sob...I don't want to marry her! When Mei heard this, she thought to herself with tears streaming down her face.

As for Xue Lin, her expression remained calm after hearing this. Then, she bowed to Leng ruoxue and left.

After Xue Lin left, Leng ruoxue ordered someone to inform the elder Council of Mei Qi's wedding in a few days. In an instant, the entire snow fox Tribe was in full swing. The entire snow fox Tribe was in a jubilant mood. However, many female foxes who once had beautiful dreams of becoming a Queen could not be happy when they knew that their great and wise King was getting married.

The status of Xue Lin's father, elder min, in the snow fox Tribe had also risen.

Originally, elder min's position among the snow fox Tribe elders was neither high nor low. It was very awkward. However, after suddenly becoming the king's father-in-law, many snow foxes began to respect her. This also caused elder min's fame in the snow fox Tribe to soar, even surpassing her baby daughter who was about to get married.

However, even though elder min looked impressive on the surface, she had a headache in private. This was because ever since its precious daughter was chosen by the king, she had been depressed all day long, causing it to be on edge.

Al! It couldn't help but be afraid! This was because it knew that its daughter's heart belonged to someone else. However, for the sake of the snow fox Tribe and its status in the snow fox Tribe, it had no choice but to lock its daughter up. Otherwise, if this daughter of its really caused any trouble, it would be a sinner of the snow fox Tribe.

Why did it think that it was the sinner of the snow fox Tribe?

This was because the two ancestors had said that it was all up to his daughter to make the king feel a sense of belonging to the snow fox Tribe! With the words of the old ancestor, it naturally regarded its daughter's marriage as more important than its own life. Moreover, as long as its daughter was not really married, it would not be able to rest at ease.

As usual, after entering her daughter's room, elder min glanced at her baby daughter who didn't say a word and reminded her, ""You agreed to this marriage yourself. Don't try to cause any trouble at the last minute. Otherwise, you will be a sinner of the snow fox Tribe!"

"I know!" It would not run away from the wedding, because the two ancestors had reminded it how important this marriage was. In fact, it did not think that it had that kind of charm at all, because from the king's appearance, it did not seem to have much interest in it.

"It's good that you know!" Elder min nodded. In fact, it would say this almost every day. If it didn't say it, it wouldn't feel at ease.

At this moment, a guard came to pass on the king's order.

Elder min was excited when she heard that the king was going to meet Xuelin. This was the beginning of their relationship!

Elder min watched as Xue Lin carefully dressed up, then personally sent Xue Lin to the place where King had agreed.

After personally handing her daughter to Wang, elder min tactfully left.

After it left, the big and small foxes stared at each other.

At this time, the place they were at was the most beautiful hillside of the snow fox Tribe. This was also a place where young snow foxes often went for dates. At this time, there were no light bulbs here except for the two of them. Or rather, it could be said that the king was going on a date, so all the light bulbs were cleared.

Xue Lin's beautiful blue eyes drifted as she was immersed in her own thoughts.

Chapter 2369 Master's Order \(3\)

It was too familiar with this place.

However, the person beside her was not the one she had fallen in love with.

Thinking of this, Xue Lin suddenly came back to her senses and remembered her current situation. How could it think of someone else when it was dating the king! This was blasphemy against the king.

Xue Lin felt very guilty. For the sake of the snow fox Tribe, she had to make some sacrifices. This was because the purple-eyed snow fox was simply too important to the snow fox Tribe! And the one in front of him was the only purple eyed snow fox in the God World for hundreds of thousands of years.

Looking at the mimicked King, Xuelin was confused.

For the snow foxes of the snow fox Tribe, they preferred to live in their original form, and no one knew how to mimicry. Therefore, whenever it saw the small and exquisite King lying in its master's arms and acting coquettishly, it could not describe how it felt.

It knew that the king was different from them! This difference was also what the two ancestors and the elders wanted to do their best to change, but it did not think that it had the ability to do so.

Even though it knew this, it still could not refuse to carry out its mission. Moreover, its marriage with the king was personally agreed to by the king's master. It believed that even if the king was unwilling, he would probably be the same as it, unable to refuse.

In fact, from a certain perspective, it felt that it was in the same situation as the king.

Thinking of this, Xue Lin couldn't help but feel a sense of sympathy for the king.

"My King ..." Xuelin couldn't help but call out softly.

"Do you know why I asked you out?" Mei lightly raised her eyes and asked.

"Xuelin doesn't know," Xuelin said honestly.

"I want you to reject the marriage and run away from it ... In short, no matter what method you use or what reason you have, I don't want the wedding to be held as planned in five days." The Mei fiercely ordered.

"Since the king doesn't want to marry me, why didn't you reject your own master?" Xue Lin couldn't help but ask. She knew that the king wasn't interested in her, and now that she heard this, she was even more certain. She even felt relieved.

"You bastard! If I could refuse, I would have long refused!" The Mei growled in frustration.

"King! I'm sorry, but I can't refuse this. If I refuse or run away from the marriage, my parents and relatives will definitely be implicated. I can't let them be unable to raise their heads in the snow fox Tribe because of me." Xue Lin said honestly. Most importantly, their family could not withstand the anger of the two ancestors.

"What if I can guarantee that your family will not be implicated because of this?" The Mei asked.

"This ..." Xue Lin was a little hesitant, but she could not fully believe the king's words. She knew that the king could abandon her, but she could not reject the king first. If that happened, it would be an act of insensibility. Even with the king's guarantee, her family would not be able to survive in the snow fox Tribe.

"What this, that, just tell me straight, do you agree?" The Mei asked impatiently. It was really tiring to talk to these female beasts!

"I'm sorry, King. I can't agree to that." Xuelin hesitated for a moment, but she still refused.

"You ... Hmph! Don't you regret this!" The Mei was furious. After saying that, it teleported and disappeared.

After they returned to their residence, the Mei went straight into her room without saying a word. She did not even stick to Leng ruoxue.

"What's wrong with this little guy?" Jiang Ning asked curiously as he watched the strange-looking Mei.

"I didn't get any advantage!" Azure covered his mouth and laughed.

"Uh! No wonder!" Realization dawned on Jiang Ning's face.

When Leng ruoxue heard these words, black lines appeared on her forehead. She thought to herself, "can the two of you not speak so loudly when you're badmouthing others?" Can't you see that Mei is in a bad mood? To think that they would discuss such a matter behind their backs. At this moment, Leng ruoxue felt that the two of them had gone too far.

Following that, Leng ruoxue heard a loud 'bang'. The room that the Mei was in collapsed before everyone's eyes.

"Charm!" Leng ruoxue was shocked and quickly ran back to her room.

At this moment, a dirty little beast pounced into Leng ruoxue's arms and buried its head, looking as if it had suffered a huge blow.

Ugh! Seeing Mei in this state, Leng ruoxue truly felt that she had gone a little too far in forcing a marriage. However, she did it all for Mei's good! Mei would understand in the future!

Leng ruoxue suppressed the guilt in her heart. She hugged Mei and comforted her for a while, then brought Mei to wash up.

In the next few days, the Mei became quiet.

No matter how much Leng ruoxue and the rest coaxed her, the Mei did not say a word. Leng ruoxue's heart ached when she saw how lonely it looked. The Mei's wedding had also arrived as scheduled under the care of the snow fox Tribe elders.

The day before the wedding, Leng ruoxue heard from the snow fox first elder that many Fox Kings had come to attend the Mei's wedding and get to know the new snow fox King.

When she heard this, Leng ruoxue even specially asked if the other beast clans had come to attend the wedding. However, the snow fox first elder stammered and hesitated for a long time before telling her that he had only informed the Fox clan. When he said this, Leng ruoxue could not help but want to laugh when she saw the snow fox first elder's careful expression.

Was this great Elder Snow fox afraid that she would be angry? After all, only the Fox Tribe knew of such a happy event, so they would feel a little regretful. However, the snow fox Tribe was also clear about her impression in the hearts of the beast tribes, so they probably would not dare to publicize it.

On the day of the wedding, Mei was taken away by Xue ran and Xue Qiao.

Before she left, the Mei's resentful eyes made Leng ruoxue break out in cold sweat.

She really wanted to say, charming! It's just a wedding, not a guillotine. You really don't have to make an expression like the snow fox Tribe has been exterminated. However, after thinking about it, she held back.

"What about Jiangning? It's time to go to the wedding. " Leng ruoxue looked at the time. Evil demon, uncle long, and Cang were all present, but Jiang Ning was not.

"I'm coming!" Upon hearing Leng ruoxue's words, Jiang Ning hurriedly ran out of his room and replied. He then stood beside Leng ruoxue and the others with a face full of joy.

Leng ruoxue was speechless as she looked at Jiang Ning, who was dressed in red and had a happy expression.

"You're going to be a groom?" Leng ruoxue's forehead was full of black lines.

"Uh! I'm going to attend a wedding!" Jiang Ning said in a daze.

"I really think that you should be the groom, because you're even more excited than that little Mei!" Uncle long teased.

"Hehe! I haven't been to a wedding in a long time!" Jiang Ning said, a little embarrassed.

"You're dressed so fashionably, be careful of that little fellow Mei bearing a grudge!" Uncle long glanced at Jiang Ning and couldn't help but remind him.

"No way? It holds grudges?" Jiang Ning was a little terrified.

"Let's do this! It's almost time, let's go!" Leng ruoxue said as she looked at Jiang Ning.

After that, the four people and one beast walked towards the wedding venue.

Mei's wedding was treated as a grand event by the snow fox Tribe. The scale was extremely large, and there were many guests who attended the wedding. Hence, the wedding venue was set in the most spacious courtyard.

The originally simple courtyard was also decorated with many red colors. The courtyard was filled with fresh flowers. The road leading to the wedding center was also covered with a red carpet. Every snow fox had a smile on their faces because they knew very well that as long as the wedding was completed, the relationship between the king and the snow fox Tribe would become even closer.

The moment Leng ruoxue and the rest arrived, they were immediately invited to their seats. The moment they took their seats, she could clearly feel a burning gaze fixed on her.

She lifted her head and saw that the person who was staring at her was the clan leader of the white fox clan. If Leng ruoxue had not told her to keep their relationship a secret, the clan leader of the white fox clan would have pounced on her.

Seeing that the master that he had been thinking about day and night had finally seen him, the white fox clan leader could not help but tear up in excitement. A Black Fox sitting beside him could not help but ask,""Old Bai, what's wrong with you?"

"I'm fine, sand got into my eyes. " The white fox clan leader said perfunctorily.

One had to know that this was a Snow Mountain. Where would there be sand? However, the Black Fox beside it actually believed it and even said with a look of sympathy,""Do you need my help?"

"No need!" The white fox clan leader said through gritted teeth. She looked down on the Black Fox's intelligence. However, if it was not so easy to deceive, it would not have made up an excuse! After thinking this way, it felt relieved.

The Black Fox, who had no idea that it had been tricked, was still worried after hearing the white fox clan leader's words. Just as it was about to say, "you don't have to be so polite with me," music started playing. Then, all the Foxes' eyes, including itself, were attracted to the center of the venue.

The person presiding over the marriage was still the snow fox tribe's great elder. The snow fox great elder was deeply honored that he could host the king's wedding. A joyful smile was always on his face.

"Welcome!" The snow fox tribe's great elder announced. "Newcomers, please enter the arena!"

All the Foxes turned their gazes to the entrance at the end of the red carpet. Two snow foxes, one big and one small, were already waiting there.

However, none of the Foxes had expected that the new King of the Snow foxes would actually be in a mimicry state. All the Foxes were stunned.

W-what was the meaning of this?

The Foxes could not figure it out no matter how much they thought about it. They looked at the Mei, then at the conflicted expression on the snow fox great elder's face. The gossiping genes in their hearts were overflowing.

Upon seeing this, the snow fox Grand Elder felt a headache.

What could they do to their willful King! The king refused to transform into his true form no matter what, nor did he allow Xuelin to mimicry him. In order for the wedding to proceed smoothly, they could only let him do as he pleased! They knew very well that their King was not satisfied with this marriage! This was because the wedding was set by the king's master.

When the male and female leads, who were both unwilling, but neither was willing to reject the marriage first, walked to the great elder of the snow fox family, the officiant, ignoring each other, the great elder of the snow fox family looked at the two newlyweds and wanted to announce that they were already husband and wife ...

Chapter 2370 Once And For All \(1\)

However, it was just thinking about it. It really didn't dare to omit the wedding procedure, especially since the wedding procedure was requested by the king's master. If it really simplified it, the human girl would fight it to the death!

In the words of that little human girl, it was her Beastie's first marriage, so the wedding had to be the most perfect. Not only that, they could not use the traditional methods of their snow fox Tribe, where they just had to pay their respects to their ancestors and have a meal. Instead, they had to go through many procedures before they were truly married.

The moment first elder Snow fox thought of the complicated marriage procedure that Leng ruoxue had requested, it felt a pain in its ass. It had a bad premonition that something bad was about to happen. In short, it was very uneasy!

Actually, the wedding ceremony that Leng ruoxue had given to the snow fox Tribe was simplified from the wedding ceremony in her previous world. Although she had changed many things, she had added many more. Furthermore, as the host, she did not choose to sit in the position of the elders. Instead, she gave the two seats to Xue Mu and Xue Qiao. When the two old foxes heard that their Queen would treat them as her elders and bow to them, they were extremely excited! Ever since they found out about this news, their faces had never changed.

The Mei's unwillingness was naturally ignored by the two of them. The two old foxes thought so. Although their King's marriage was arranged by their master, they believed that feelings could be cultivated. As long as they lived with Xue Lin for a long time, the two little fellows would definitely develop feelings for each other. Their King would also have a next generation. At that time, their King's sense of belonging to the snow fox Tribe would definitely be stronger than it was now.

As soon as they thought of that possibility, the smiles on the two old foxes' faces grew a lot more. At this moment, in order to avoid any more trouble, the two of them hurriedly gave the snow fox great elder a look, indicating that it should stop being in a daze and quickly start!

Upon receiving the gaze of its ancestor, the snow fox great elder's heart trembled. It raised its head and puffed out its chest, beginning its great life as a master of ceremonies with a proud expression.

It felt deeply honored to be able to host the king's wedding!

With this thought in mind, first elder Snow Fox's eyes became wet, and even his voice was slightly choked. Just as he emotionally finished reciting Leng ruoxue's congratulatory speech, he looked at Kaiser and Xue Lin very seriously and asked, ""Your Majesty, are you willing to take Xuelin as your wife?"

The Mei blinked her eyes and asked with her eyes, "can you say no?"

"King, you can only say you're willing." The snow fox great elder replied with an innocent expression.

The two of them had been communicating with their eyes for a long time, and the Foxes who had been waiting to watch the ceremony had become a little anxious. Many of the Foxes could not help but whisper in private. Although their voices were not loud, they still reached the ears of Xue ran and Xue Qiao.

The two old foxes weren't too happy, and they were even more resentful of how the great elder handled things. Why did it take so long to ask a question? They were quite dissatisfied.

Xue ran even coughed twice, indicating to the snow fox great elder to stop wasting time.

When the snow fox great elder heard the old ancestor's warning, he felt so aggrieved that he wanted to vomit blood. Sob ... He had finished asking his questions, but what could he do if the king refused to cooperate?

Could it be blamed?

"King, cooperate!" The snow fox great elder pleaded with her eyes again. However, the Mei did not even look at her. She only lowered her head and seemed to be thinking about something.

After a long time.

Mei Cai unwillingly closed his eyes and said in an unpleasant tone, "It's passable!"

C-passable?

What do you mean by passable?

The snow fox great elder had thought that he would only hear 'willing' or 'unwilling', but he had never expected that he would hear 'not bad'. Was this 'willing'?

At this moment, the great elder knew that he was only willing to be the king because he had no time to waste. After spending a lot of effort, he finally managed to settle the king. He then turned to look at Xuelin and asked, "Xuelin, are you willing to marry the king?"

"I ... I'm willing." Although Xue Lin was stammering, she was more cooperative than King. The snow fox great elder finally heaved a sigh of relief after hearing this.

Just as it was about to announce that the two foxes were already husband and wife, it suddenly remembered that there was still one more procedure that had not been completed! However, the program had nothing to do with the king and Xuelin.

"Do you have any objections to this wedding? If there's no objection, I'm going to announce that they're husband and wife!" Then, the snow fox great elder asked the Foxes who were watching the ceremony.

As soon as he said that, all the Foxes were in an uproar!

What was the meaning of this?

You can still object?

However, who would dare to object to the king's wedding? Wouldn't that be courting death?

All the Foxes were secretly lamenting and discussing in low voices. This was because today's wedding was simply too novel for them. They had never seen a wedding like this.

In reality, the plan that Leng ruoxue had proposed was merely a simplified western wedding. Furthermore, the highlight of her plan was the sentence that the snow fox great elder had just said.

Initially, when the snow fox first elder saw those words, she felt very uneasy. To the beast race, the partners of most beasts were free to fall in love. However, the beast race was a world where the strong were respected. When female beasts chose their other partner, they would usually choose a powerful male beast. However, not all female beasts liked this.

There would always be different female beasts that did not choose the strongest among the beasts, and once such a situation occurred, the consequences would often be very serious.

Especially during the wedding, if they dared to ask such a question, their ending would definitely not be harmonious. A big fight was already a light punishment, but if the groom was beaten up, the happy occasion might turn into a funeral. Therefore, the snow fox great elder was really afraid.

It was not afraid that the king would not be able to defeat the snow fox tribesmen, but it was afraid that the king would quit in a fit of anger. Moreover, the king did not really want this wedding. If someone really opposed it, wouldn't that be exactly what the king wanted?

First elder Snow fox was not a fool. On the contrary, he was very intelligent. Hence, when Leng ruoxue told him about it, he had already thought of such a possibility. Hence, he did not dare to agree.

It was a pity that it surrendered the moment Leng ruoxue tried to goad it.

Just because Leng ruoxue said that Mei was not the new King of the Snow fox Tribe? There were still clansmen who dared to respond to its wedding?

When the snow fox great elder heard these words, she thought that it made sense. She did not think that her clansmen would dare to be so bold. In the end, first elder agreed to Leng ruoxue's request after reporting to the two great ancestors.

Now that first elder Snow fox had finally asked this question during the wedding, Leng ruoxue smiled in satisfaction.

Seeing Xue 'er's evil smile, the demon snorted coldly and said with a little dissatisfaction, ""Xue 'er, we haven't even settled our own wedding yet! Instead, it's the succubus ..."

The demon purposely did not finish his sentence. Then, he looked at Leng ruoxue with a face full of hidden bitterness, not even blinking his eyes.
