

Crazy Wife 2411

Chapter 2411 Are You Causing Trouble?\(3\)

Hearing this, an elder of the Phoenix tribe was in a dilemma.

Stay and help? What did you help? Shouldn't they be watching the fun? A certain elder of the Phoenix Clan was complaining non-stop, but he really didn't dare to force Leng ruoxue to leave. If she were to complain to lady Wuli, the Phoenix Clan would definitely not be able to bear the consequences.

At this moment, a certain elder of the Phoenix tribe was truly resentful of the Phoenix King. Why did he have to provoke this guy? Great, this is embarrassing, right?

Even though the elder of the Phoenix Clan hated the Phoenix King for not living up to his expectations, he knew that the Phoenix King represented the face of the Phoenix Clan. If the Phoenix King were to be disgraced, the Phoenix Clan would be disgraced as well. Hence, after some thought, he discussed with Leng ruoxue, "Lord Lianwu, look at our King's current situation. Can you let these peacocks leave for a while so as not to disturb his rest? If there's anything, why don't we wait until the king awakens?"

"Alright then!" Leng ruoxue nodded in agreement. Then, she gave the peacocks a look. Those peacocks who had not seen enough of the commotion left the Phoenix King's Chamber unwillingly.

A certain elder of the Phoenix Clan who was in a dilemma felt relieved when he saw that the bedroom of the Phoenix King was finally much quieter. However, when he turned around and saw that Leng ruoxue had no intention of leaving, his heart tightened again.

Those peacocks were easy to deal with, but this person was not so easily chased away. What should he do?

A certain elder of the Phoenix tribe was at a loss.

In the end, he steeled his heart and took the initiative to pull Leng ruoxue's arm affectionately. They walked out of the palace together and even tried to get closer to Leng ruoxue, "Lord Lianwu, let's go, I'll treat you to a few drinks!"

Leng ruoxue didn't reject this.

When they walked out of the main hall and saw the peacocks, Leng ruoxue purposely mentioned, "The elders of the Feng clan want to treat us to a few drinks. It's more lively with more people."

The peacocks all cheered when they heard this.

The face of the old Phoenix who came up with this idea instantly darkened!

With so many peacocks, how much must he drink and eat to have enough!

At this moment, another Peacock said to Leng ruoxue with a look of yearning, "My Lord, the Phoenix clan's hundred flower wine is not bad. We should drink more."

He even wanted to drink the hundred flower wine!

The poor elder's heart skipped a beat, and he wished he could just faint as well! Initially, he had only suggested this to find an excuse to drag Leng ruoxue out of the Phoenix King's Chamber. After all, the Phoenix King's current appearance was not suitable for outsiders to see. However, he had never expected these peacocks to have such a huge appetite. They even wanted to drink the Phoenix clan's hundred flower wine!

Could anyone drink that Hundred Flowers wine?

One should know that unless it was an important Festival of the Phoenix Clan, even the elders of the Phoenix Clan were not qualified to taste the hundred flower wine! And these hateful guys actually asked for the hundred flower wine, wasn't this asking for his old life?

However, Leng ruoxue was obviously very interested in the peacock's suggestion. She smiled at a certain elder of the Phoenix Clan who had a dark expression on her face and said, "Then we'll have to trouble this elder to prepare some hundred flower wine for us!" She wouldn't be polite!

"I will try my best! The hundred flower wine is quite rare, I can't guarantee it." An elder of the Phoenix Clan, who was already numb from anger, said with a constipated expression.

Unfortunately, Leng ruoxue wasn't satisfied with his answer. She immediately put on a straight face and said, "Is this how your Phoenix Clan treats its guests? Such a petty man, how disappointing!"

"It is! You're too stingy!" All the peacocks agreed in unison, and a certain Phoenix tribe elder almost fainted from anger.

A certain elder of the Phoenix clan's face was flushed red as his lips trembled as he looked at Leng ruoxue. Just when Leng ruoxue thought that this elder was about to explode, who knew that the elder would actually squat down and start crying.

Was there a need to? Leng ruoxue was speechless.

It's just a little wine! He had actually made an elder cry!

Al! Leng ruoxue sighed helplessly. She felt as if she was riding a Tiger and couldn't back down. However, when she saw the expressions of anticipation on the faces of the peacocks, she didn't want to disappoint them. After some thought, Leng ruoxue took out a bottle of wine, opened it, and placed it in front of a certain crying Phoenix Clan elder. She deliberately shook it, and in an instant, the sobbing Phoenix Clan elder was attracted by the fragrance of the wine.

The elder of the Phoenix tribe was not the only one who was attracted by the wine. All the peacocks of the peacock tribe were craning their necks to look at the wine.

The Peacock King, who was the only one who had tasted the wine, saw his master take out the wine again. His eyes lit up, but he immediately understood his master's meaning. He couldn't help but jump up and down in anxiety!

However, before he could stop her, he heard Leng ruoxue say to the elder of the Phoenix Clan, "How about I use this wine to exchange for your Phoenix clan's hundred flower wine?"

"Our Phoenix clan's hundred-flower wine uses a hundred types of fire-attribute flowers. It contains rich fire-attribute spiritual Qi, which is the most suitable for our Phoenix Clan." A certain Phoenix tribe elder said, suppressing the temptation of the liquor worm in his heart. He said this only because he wanted to gain some capital for the Phoenix tribe.

Who would have thought that Leng ruoxue would only smile faintly after hearing his words, "This wine of mine is brewed using over a hundred types of heavenly treasures. The spiritual Qi contained within it is suitable for humans and beasts of any attribute. Compared to your Phoenix clan's hundred flower wine, its grade is not just a little bit higher! Of course, if you don't think it's worth it, you don't have to trade with me!"

"My dear, don't exchange with them! We've lost too much!" When the Peacock King heard this, he quickly stopped her. When the other peacocks heard that their master's wine was brewed with over a hundred heavenly treasures, they were all excited and strongly requested not to exchange the hundred flower wine with the Phoenix Clan.

Compared to master's wine, the hundred Flowers wine is simply not enough!

However, when Leng ruoxue heard the peacocks' words, she laughed nonchalantly, "Wine is meant to be drunk. Since you've never tasted the Phoenix clan's hundred flower wine, I'll exchange some for you to try. As for my wine, you can drink as much as you want in the future. You don't have to feel bad about it!"

Look at how heartwarming Master's words were!

In an instant, all the peacocks were moved to tears. Some of the more emotional peacocks even choked on their tears and shouted, "Long live Daren! Daren is really too good!"

The excitement of the peacocks made a certain elder of the Phoenix tribe feel deeply jealous.

All of a sudden, he felt that he was very pitiful. He had been toiling like a horse for the Phoenix Clan, but he didn't even have the chance to taste the hundred flower wine!

Leng ruoxue glanced at the depressed elder of the Phoenix Clan and smiled seductively, "I'll have to trouble elder to help me exchange some hundred flower wine for a taste. This bottle of wine will be your reward!"

With that, Leng ruoxue did not care whether the elder of the Phoenix Clan rejected her or not. She immediately stuffed the bottle of wine she had taken out into the hands of the elder.

The elder of the Phoenix Clan put away the wine without a second thought. With a charming smile, she nodded and said, "Lord Lianwu, don't worry. I definitely won't let you down! However, how do you want to exchange this wine?"

"I want a 1:5 ratio. If the Phoenix Clan can accept it, I'll exchange it for 100 jars!" Leng ruoxue said after counting the number of people on her side.

Buzzzzz! An elder of the Phoenix tribe drew a sharp intake of breath upon hearing this.

"A hundred pots! As expected, he was a rich man who spent a lot of money!"

Leng ruoxue had only given him a small bottle, but a jar of wine could hold at least a hundred bottles. Hence, a hundred jars of wine was definitely not a small amount, and that was the amount offered by the other party. On the other hand, according to the one-to-five ratio for the Phoenix Clan, that would be five hundred jars!

Five hundred pots! He didn't know if the Phoenix Clan could afford it!

At this moment, Leng ruoxue noticed that the elder of the Phoenix Clan seemed to be hesitating and whispered something into his ear. The moment the elder heard this, he immediately perked up as if he had been injected with chicken blood. He promised again and again that he would do his best.

Soon after, a certain elder of the Phoenix Clan, who was so excited that he was almost on cloud nine, left the Phoenix King Palace. As for the unlucky Phoenix King who had fainted, he had long forgotten about her.

Seeing the abnormal behavior of the Phoenix tribe elder, Peacock King moved closer to Leng ruoxue with a curious expression and asked, "My dear, what did you say to that elder of the Phoenix Clan?"

Ignoring the word 'dear', Leng ruoxue calmly replied, "I only told him that the wine bottle I gave him was a spatial wine bottle, and there was at least half a jar of wine in it. If he couldn't do it, he had to return it to me!"

Half a jar! The Peacock King's words were instantly attracted by these two words. He didn't hear Leng ruoxue's words clearly as he shouted, "What a waste! What a waste! Wuwu ..."

"Look at how stingy you are. If you don't give him something in return, will he do his best to exchange wine for us?" Leng ruoxue glanced at the pained-looking Peacock King and said with a hint of disappointment.

"My dear, I think we've suffered a great loss. You still want to exchange for a hundred jars! Wu ... Let's not exchange, okay? We won't drink the hundred flower wine, okay?" The Peacock King suggested with a bitter face. He really felt that it was not worth it!

"Not good! It didn't hit! I also want to try the Phoenix clan's hundred flower wine." Leng ruoxue smiled evilly. In fact, the reason why she wanted to change so much was because of Feng Zhan's request. The old phoenixes in the bracelet missed the taste of the hundred flower wine very much, and her wine was nothing special to those old phoenixes. Therefore, she didn't feel that it was a big deal!

It was a pity that the Peacock King didn't understand the situation! Therefore, he was so remorseful that his intestines turned green. He didn't have a good expression on his face when he heard the peacock's suggestion to drink the hundred flower wine. Instantly, the atmosphere was so tense that the peacocks present didn't even dare to breathe.

Not long after, the elder of the Phoenix Clan, who was in charge of getting Leng ruoxue some wine, came running back in a hurry.

"Lord Lianwu, it's done! I've brought the hundred flower wine, shall we exchange now?" An elder of the Phoenix tribe said excitedly. This time, he had really gained some face!

"Yes." Leng ruoxue nodded and took out a hundred jars of wine.

The elders of the Phoenix Clan also brought out the wine they had brought with them. After a quick check, both parties were very satisfied.

After rejecting the Phoenix Clan elder's polite invitation to stay, Leng ruoxue led the peacocks and Feng Xiu's family out of the Phoenix Clan in a grand manner. Of course, before she left, Leng ruoxue did not forget to tell the Phoenix Clan elder to inform her when the Phoenix King woke up. She still had a score to settle with the Phoenix King!

Chapter 2412 Banquet At Hongmen \(1\)

After hearing Leng ruoxue's words, a certain elder of the Phoenix Clan who had watched Leng ruoxue and the others leave, was petrified.

Wu ... Why does this Lord Lian Wu still remember this? Did he really think that Lian Wu Daren had already forgotten? What should he do?

In fact, the reason why the elders of the Feng clan had so readily agreed to exchange wine with Lord Lian Wu was that the wine was indeed rare. Another reason was that they hoped Lord Lian Wu would forget The Grudge between him and the Phoenix King. Otherwise, if he really wanted to find fault with the Phoenix King, it would make them quite conflicted and embarrassed.

It wasn't that they couldn't beat Lord Lian Wu, but that her identity was too troublesome. They couldn't fight, but they couldn't! Therefore, after a quick discussion, the elders decided not to provoke that fellow. As for those who had been provoked by the Phoenix King, they would let the Phoenix King find a way to settle them!

Most of the elders of the Phoenix Clan wanted to keep things at peace, so they naturally didn't want to cause trouble for themselves. However, they also knew that it was very difficult for the king and Lord Lianwu to live in peace. However, as the head of the clan, the Phoenix King should have the spirit of sacrifice. When they thought about it this way, the elders of the Phoenix Clan calmed down and naturally believed that the king had to take full responsibility for this matter and shoulder the mission of building a good relationship with Lord Lianwu!

Of course, the unconscious Phoenix King was still not clear about the thoughts of the elders. Otherwise, she would have fainted again from anger!

When an elder of the Phoenix Clan passed on Lord Lian Wu's words to the elders of the Phoenix Clan, they were even more determined to let the Phoenix King come out and settle this matter.

However, the Phoenix King was still in a coma, so this matter could only be temporarily postponed.

In order to appease Leng ruoxue's anger, the elders of the Phoenix Clan had already come up with a plan. On the other hand, after Leng ruoxue left the Phoenix clan's territory with a group of peacocks and Feng Xiu's family, she held a huge banquet. Leng ruoxue even ordered the Peacock King to invite the magical beasts that she was on good terms with as guests. However, when the Peacock King heard these words, he was in a difficult position.

Leng ruoxue blinked her eyes when she saw the expression on the Peacock King's face. She asked in a speechless manner, "What? don't tell me you don't have any befriended beasts?"

"There's no one!" Peacock King said embarrassedly. The competition among the beasts in the Phoenix territory was very fierce. He had always been taken care of by the Phoenix King. Therefore, he had become the target of public criticism. However, God knew that he did not want the Phoenix King to take care of him with ulterior motives, but he did not dare to resist. As time passed, his relationship with the beasts in the Phoenix territory became very delicate!

Moreover, due to the coveting of the Phoenix King, he rarely stepped out of the peacock tribe's territory. Otherwise, just the ambiguous gazes of the Phoenix territory's beasts would be enough to break him down! And he had also become the most otaku Beastie in the history of the Phoenix territory!

Of course, these were all his sad history. Other than the members of the peacock clan, he was too embarrassed to share it with others. However, from the Peacock King's ugly expression, it was not hard for Leng ruoxue to guess that he did not have a good relationship with the beasts!

After some thought, Leng ruoxue said, "go and invite them!" It's good that they're here, it'll save me a lot of trouble. If they're not, I'll have to trouble myself to make a trip here. "

"Uh!" The Peacock King nodded his head in a daze. He could not help but guess in his heart. The master said that he would make a trip personally. Could it be what he was thinking?

Following that, the dumbfounded Peacock King saw his master hand him a list of names. On it were the names of a few beasts. These beasts were the ones that Leng ruoxue was planning to recruit.

According to Leng ruoxue's thoughts, they might as well have a feast at Hongmen! This saved her the trouble of making another trip. She felt that she should be waiting for the Phoenix King to wake up at the peacock tribe and give her all to make things difficult for the Phoenix King. Therefore, she naturally did not have any extra time to communicate with those beasts. The best way was to gather all the beasts that she wanted to recruit together!

It was best for those beasts to be tactful. If they dared to disobey, then don't blame her for using violence!

The more Leng ruoxue thought about it, the more she felt that her idea was good. However, when she saw the evil smile on Leng ruoxue's ugly face, Peacock King could not help but break out in cold sweat.

He seemed to have already foreseen the fate of the beasts who came!

However, now that Leng ruoxue was his master, he naturally could not help an outsider. Hence, he handed the task to his most capable subordinate without any shame. After that, he arranged for the other clansmen to make all the preparations.

Of course, the most important thing was that the defense work had to be done well to prevent those beasts from escaping!

The peacock clan was busy preparing for the upcoming banquet, but the beasts who had received the Peacock King's invitation were confused.

Although they lived in the Phoenix territory and were all subsidiary races of the Phoenix tribe, they did not have much interaction with each other. Therefore, the beasts who received the invitation could not understand what was wrong with the Peacock King to actually invite them to the banquet!

However, the peacock tribesman in charge of the invitation had made it clear that he was inviting them to drink the hundred flower wine. Upon hearing this, although the beast clans were puzzled, they still couldn't resist the temptation of the hundred flower wine and agreed to the appointment!

When the Peacock King heard the replies of these clans, he felt rather complicated deep down in his heart. This was because he deeply felt that these Beastie beasts would not be able to return.

With master's means, how could he let these beasts who came to his door go? Although he was the one who invited these beasts, it wasn't up to him to decide if they would come or not! And from the moment these beasties decided to come, their fate had already been decided!

Out of sympathy, the Peacock King was generous when he learned that the invited families would come. He ordered his people to bring out the best collection of the peacock tribe. They would leave the Phoenix territory soon anyway, so this meal was equivalent to a farewell meal!

The beast clan leaders who had been invited were all secretly shocked when they saw the generous hospitality of the peacock clan. A few of them could not help but wonder if the Peacock King had already become a member of the Phoenix King's harem. Otherwise, why would he be willing to take out so many good things to entertain them?

Especially when they saw the pots of hundred flower wine on the table, the beast clan leaders couldn't help but widen their eyes.

It really was the Phoenix clan's hundred flower wine! And so many jars! Oh my God! What was going on?

The Phoenix clan's hundred flower wine was stored in a jar unique to the Phoenix Clan. They had all been lucky enough to see it before, so they naturally recognized it. When they had been invited, they had heard from the Peacock king's messenger that he would treat them to the hundred Flowers wine. In fact, the leaders of the beast clans had been skeptical, but the hundred Flowers wine's temptation was simply too great. Even if they didn't completely believe that the peacock clan would be willing to bring out the hundred Flowers wine to treat their guests, they still came with the purpose of finding out what was happening.

Chapter 2413 Banquet At Hongmen \(2\)

But now, after seeing the jar of hundred flower wine with their own eyes, they had no choice but to believe! Seeing so much hundred flower wine, the tribe leaders knew in their hearts that the peacock tribe had definitely bled a fortune!

As for why, they had no idea!

Just as the few beast clan leaders were making wild guesses, the Peacock King and Leng ruoxue walked towards them.

They naturally recognized the Peacock King. As for the ugly woman beside him, they had never seen her before. However, they didn't think too much about it, thinking that she was the Peacock King's subordinate or something!

After exchanging pleasantries with the other beast patriarchs, the Peacock King invited them to take a seat. At this moment, the elders were surprised to find that the ugly woman was sitting beside the Peacock King. This woman was definitely not his subordinate.

The Peacock King glanced at the bewildered expressions of the beast leaders and said with a faint smile, "This is my master!"

"What?" The beast patriarchs paled in shock upon hearing this!

Did they hear wrong? That ugly woman was actually the Peacock King's master. What was going on? When did this happen? Why didn't they receive any news?

"I will be your master in the future!" At this moment, Leng ruoxue spoke again.

As soon as these words were spoken, the faces of the beast patriarchs instantly darkened!

The Peacock King looked at his master helplessly. Was he going to deal with these guys before dinner? Wasn't master a little too impatient?

Faced with the Peacock King's helpless silence, the beast patriarchs understood that this woman wasn't joking. However, wasn't this too much of a bully? They had no intention of finding a master for themselves!

At the thought of this, the Eagle tribe leader, who had the worst temper, shouted angrily with a dark expression, "If you want to be our master, we'll have to see if you have the ability!"

With that, the Eagle race's leader, who had transformed into his human form, immediately returned to his original form. With a heaven-devouring force, he pounced towards Leng ruoxue's direction furiously.

In its true form, the Condor tribe leader was close to two meters long. When its two huge wings were spread out, it was about ten meters long. It was also a rare snow Condor and had an extremely beautiful appearance. Leng ruoxue was quite satisfied with this Condor at first sight. When she saw the enraged Condor tribe leader pouncing towards her, she did not even try to Dodge. Instead, she smiled at the ferocious giant condor.

The giant Eagle was already very close to him, and seeing this ugly monster looking down on it, it became even more angry. It flapped its huge wings and fiercely swooped down from above ...

Following that, all the beasts present heard a loud bang. A huge creature flipped a few times and fell out of the main venue of the banquet. Before the beasts could see what was going on, the huge creature crashed into the fence built by the peacock clan. A huge net fell from the sky and caught the huge creature.

At this moment, the Beasties could see clearly that the person caught in the net was the Eagle tribe leader.

"....."

All the Beastie were silent.

Everything had happened too quickly, and they did not see clearly how the Eagle tribe leader had flown out, hit the fence, and was caught in the net!

However, the Peacock King, who was standing beside Leng ruoxue, was well aware of everything.

The one who had sent the Condor tribe leader flying was the little white cat in his master's arms. He looked at the little white cat's small and exquisite claws, then glanced at the Condor tribe leader's huge body. Comparing the size of the two beasts, the Peacock King was about to kneel!

Terrifying! It was too terrifying!

How could this little kitten be so violent? There was clearly a great disparity in strength! However, that kick had come from the snowy white cat!

To be honest, if it was his master who did it, he would feel better, but it wasn't!

How could the pet cat that only knew how to let its owner hug it all day ...? The Peacock King couldn't think of any words to describe this cat. However, he knew that he must not provoke this seemingly harmless but violent and bloodthirsty cat in the future!

* Sob ... * The Peacock King's little heart was experiencing an unprecedented test at this moment. He even thought to himself that he had never provoked this cat before, right?

The Peacock King carefully recalled the past. On the other side, the other beast patriarchs were also shocked speechless.

Their positions and angles weren't as good as the Peacock King's, so they couldn't see clearly who had attacked. However, they knew that it wasn't the ugly woman, but someone else!

Who was this person?

Although the Condor clan's chief's abilities could not be compared to the four great king divine beasts, his abilities were still ranked among the beast clans. Now, he had been sent flying without even using a single move. Not only could the Condor clan's chief not accept it, they could not accept it as well!

Looking at the petrified and clearly dispirited Eagle tribe leader, the Eagle tribe leader endured it for a long time. In the end, he could not hold back the curiosity in his heart and asked, "May I ask, who was the one who attacked the Condor tribe's chief just now?"

"It's me! What, you want to take revenge for this stupid bird?" Hearing the Eagle tribe leader's words, Cang arrogantly said.

Because the area of Azure was too small, at the start, the Eagle tribe leader only heard the sound and did not see anyone. Later, after feeling Azure's anger, the Eagle tribe leader's face was covered in sweat as he realized that the one who spoke was the little kitten in the ugly woman's arms!

This fact immediately threw the Eagle tribe leader into a state of confusion!

Never in his dreams would he have thought that this petite and seemingly weak little cat would actually be able to send the powerful eagle tribe leader flying with a kick! Was this reasonable?

This was absolutely illogical!

The Eagle tribe leader felt that it was very likely that he had been fooled, so his face instantly turned darker than the bottom of a pot. At this time, the other beast tribe leaders also came to a realization and looked at Cang with constipated expressions.

After watching for a long time, they still could not tell that this little kitty had the ability to send the Eagle tribe leader flying with a kick. The few tribe leaders secretly discussed it and finally decided to send someone out to test the depths of this little kitty!

The beasts that were sent out were from the Eagle Clan.

The Eagle Clan was a rather large beast clan with a wide variety of Eagles. The Eagle that was sent out was the number one warrior of the Eagle Clan. It came from the Golden Eagle Clan and had extraordinary strength.

However, when Cang saw the Golden Eagle in front of him, he didn't even lift his eyelids and only said indifferently, "You want to fight me one-on-one?"

"It is!" The Golden giant Eagle looked at Cang, not daring to be careless. Seeing that Cang didn't take it seriously, its proud self-esteem couldn't take it anymore!

Then, the Golden Eagle roared again, "If I win, you'll have to follow my orders in the future!"

Chapter 2414 Banquet At Hongmen \(3\)

"No problem," he said. "Then what if I beat you?" Will your Eagle Clan listen to my Niu from now on?"

"This, this ..." The Golden Eagle stammered. This was not something it could decide.

"So you can't make the decision!" Cang laughed, his face full of disdain.

"You can't make the decision," ye Cang said. "Then find someone who can make the decision to fight me one-on-one!"

Hearing this, the giant Golden Eagle turned to look at the Eagle tribe leader.

The Eagle tribe leader was a little angry and cursed in his heart. Why are you looking at me?

To be honest, he only wanted to send someone to test the cat's strength. He didn't want them to use the fate of the Eagle Clan as a bargaining chip! But now, it seemed that if he didn't agree, this little kitten wouldn't accept the challenge at all!

"I promise you!" The Eagle tribe leader gritted his teeth and pondered for a long while before helplessly replying. He didn't believe that the cat was that strong.

"Hehe! That's the way!" Cang said with satisfaction. Then, the beasts saw a white lightning bolt shoot out from Leng ruoxue's chest.

Then, the beasts heard a scream. When they took a closer look, they saw that the beautiful Golden Eagle was now covered in wounds and most of its beautiful golden feathers had fallen off. It was a horrible sight!

After a pained cry, the proud Golden Eagle couldn't accept the difference in strength between it and Azure, and fainted from the pain.

At the sight of this, the Eagle tribe leader's face turned ashen! He didn't even see how the cat had attacked, and the number one warrior of his tribe had already been seriously injured! Such a difference was too much of a blow to the beast!

Then, he thought of what he had promised the kitten. Instantly, he shriveled up like a frost-beaten eggplant!

Seeing the dejected look on the Eagle tribe leader's face, the few beast tribe leaders who were still relatively safe at the moment did not dare to make a sound. One had to know that the Eagle tribe leader was the most powerful among the beast tribe leaders. But now, he was in such a state ...

The other beast chieftains were so depressed that they were about to vomit blood. The Eagle chieftain had not even made a move, and he had already become someone else's beast. What were they supposed to do then?

All of the beast patriarchs were on the verge of tears. They could sense that they wouldn't be able to struggle for much longer.

Sure enough, they heard Cang say, "Now it's your turn! Do you want me to make a move, or do you want to surrender?"

Wu...It was their turn so soon!

"I, I surrender!" A thin-looking young man took the lead to speak. He was the leader of the goose clan. The strength of the goose clan was incomparable to that of the Eagle Clan and the Condor clan. Since they could not beat this cat, he deeply felt that there was no need for him to continue resisting!

"You're a good child. " Azure nodded in satisfaction.

The leader of the Wild Goose tribe was not happy at all after being praised, because he had already felt several unfriendly gazes. He knew that because of his good-for-nothing surrender, the other leaders of the beast tribes had some opinions about him. But, what could he do?

He was a disadvantageous group, sob ...

After taking the initiative to surrender, in order to reduce the huge pressure on himself, the Yan clan leader could not help but move closer to Leng ruoxue so that he would not become the punching bag for the other beasties.

When Leng ruoxue saw this, she could not help but laugh to herself!

However, in order to cooperate with Cang, Leng ruoxue deliberately put on a straight face and said, "I'll give you five more minutes to think about it. If you still don't give me an answer after five minutes, I'll have to use force!"

"Girl, don't wait for five minutes, use force now! I think these guys won't give up until they see the coffin. It's useless to give them 50 minutes and they're even delaying our meal. So, let's not wait any longer. " When Cang heard Leng ruoxue's words, he was extremely anxious.

If it wasn't afraid that these guys would delay its meal, it wouldn't even bother to attack! Therefore, its only hope now was that these beasts would be tactful and not let it worry too much! Otherwise, it would be angry!

After hearing Cang and Leng ruoxue's conversation, the few clan leaders of the beast clans who had yet to express their stance were on the verge of tears. This was definitely forcing them!

Why did they have such a hard life? If I had known, I wouldn't have come for this meal! Wuuu ...

"Even if you didn't come for this meal, we would still find you. So, just accept your fate! Don't put up a stubborn resistance, it's useless!" After hearing the inner thoughts of the beast clan leaders, Azure told them this terrifying truth. When the beast clan leaders heard this, their expressions became even uglier.

Cang could no longer stand mo Wuxi's attitude and immediately, a few of the beast leaders fell to the ground.

Including the Eagle Clan leader, the other beast clan leaders all had pale faces as they looked at Cang in disbelief. This cat had only released a little bit of its aura and it was able to suppress them to the point where they couldn't breathe. What kind of strength was this?

I'm afraid that even the Phoenix King ... Can't do anything to this cat!

After sensing Cang's strength, the other beast tribe leaders who had wanted to ask for help from the Phoenix tribe gave up on that thought. They then looked at Cang like wives and said with a wronged expression, ""We, we are willing to surrender!"

Sob ... The situation is pressing!

Seeing that the matter was settled, Azure smiled in satisfaction, ""It would have been better if you had known earlier."

None of the beast leaders dared to reply.

Then, they heard Cang you Mutter to himself, ""Although you've surrendered, you've wasted our precious meal time. So, I'm going to punish you. None of you are allowed to drink today!"

“.....”

Hearing this, the leaders of the beast clans became even sadder.

Is there any justice in this world? It was already frustrating enough to be forced to surrender. Now, even the right to drink was taken away. It was too cruel!

Oh heavens! The earth! This was too beastly!

The dejection in the hearts of the beast tribe leaders could not be described with words, and Azure was completely uninterested in what they were thinking. He ordered the peacocks in charge of serving the beast tribe leaders to bring the wine in front of him, and Azure immediately began eating.

Following that, Leng ruoxue also started eating with a smile on her face. When the peacocks saw this, they cheered in unison and started eating without holding back.

Seeing the snowy white kitten not far away, holding a bone that was at least twice its size and gnawing on it, the other Chiefs of the beast clans who were also gnawing on the bone but didn't know what they were feeling. In short, they were very complicated.

Especially when they saw the meat of others accompanied by wine, they were even more depressed!

Why was he so aggrieved at this banquet of Hongmen?

Before the banquet started, there was an additional host, and he didn't even have the right to drink!

The Eagle tribe leader had even guessed that this person might not even have prepared a portion for them. Otherwise, why would he take them down before they even started eating? Normally, shouldn't he only attack when they were full and dazed?

It had to be said that the Eagle tribe leader was right.

Leng ruoxue really thought that way! Even though it was a treacherous plot, Leng ruoxue had no intention of treating them to a meal before she settled them, so as not to waste her own food! After all, being thrifty was a virtue! She felt that the number of beasts she had to raise was increasing, so she naturally had to be more careful with her calculations!

As for not giving them wine to drink, it had nothing to do with Leng ruoxue. To put it bluntly, that was entirely Cang's own decision. Cang, that stingy fellow, would not bear to feed these idiots good wine!

Just like that, Leng ruoxue led the peacocks to eat and drink to their heart's content. As for the few beast clan leaders who had come for the wine, they could only smell the wine without any complaints. Otherwise, if the little kitty were to go on a rampage, none of them would be able to hold it back!

After the feast at Hongmen in their eyes ended, the few beast clan leaders took the initiative to acknowledge their master. Under Leng ruoxue's arrangement, they returned to their clan to pack their things and also to appease their clansmen who were still unaware of the truth.

Leng ruoxue, on the other hand, continued to stay in the peacock clan. She also informed the clan leaders that if there were any difficulties that they could not solve, they had to tell her and she would settle it.

Hearing this, the hearts of the other beast clan leaders began to tremble. Could they say that they didn't dare to trouble their newly minted master?

Now that they knew Leng ruoxue's identity, it wasn't hard to imagine how violent and bloodthirsty their master would be when he said he would settle her!

With a heart full of fear and anxiety, the leaders of the magical beasts fled from the territory of the peacock clan. They made up their minds that if any of their clansmen dared to oppose the peacock clan, they would be the ones to suppress them!

As he watched the backs of the beast patriarchs leave, the Peacock King couldn't help but tease, ""Master is still the best! Look at how they all ran away when they heard that master was going to make a move!"

"Yes, so be good and don't make me do it." Hearing this, Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes narrowed as she smiled faintly.

"Uh! I've always been a good girl!" Hearing this, the Peacock King broke out in a cold sweat. He looked at Leng ruoxue with a fawning expression. On his beautiful little face, it was written 'master, please praise me!'.

Leng ruoxue was speechless when she saw the expression on the Peacock King's face. Cang ze glared at the Peacock King fiercely, causing him to shiver in fear!

Wu ... He had actually forgotten about this violent person. This little cat was definitely ten times scarier than its owner!

The Peacock King was extremely conflicted. Just as he was thinking about how to please this little kitten, he suddenly heard the Guard's voice, ""Master, King! The Phoenix King is awake!"

Upon hearing this news, Peacock King was excited. He quickly told Leng ruoxue, ""Master, let's go see the Phoenix King!"

Chapter 2415 Feng Xiao's Biased Side \(1\)

Seeing how anxious the Peacock King was, Leng ruoxue let out a faint smile. She then sized him up and only let him go when she was about to make the Peacock King's hair stand on end. She then said with a look of understanding, ""I didn't expect you to care so much about the Phoenix King. It seems that you really can't forget your old feelings for her! Why don't I grant you your wish?"

Upon hearing this, the Peacock King almost knelt down. With a long face, he looked at Leng ruoxue with an aggrieved expression and said pitifully, ""Master, you can't wrong me like this!"

"Oh? How did I wrong you, this 'person'? Weren't you the one who wanted to see the Phoenix King the moment you heard that she had woken up?" Leng ruoxue pointed out this fact with a calm expression.

When the Peacock King heard this, he even wanted to strangle himself. He couldn't help but cry out in his heart that he was wronged. He really didn't rush to see the Phoenix King because he was concerned about her. He mainly wanted to see how his master would bully the Phoenix King. He felt that such a scene was quite lovely!

After some thought, the Peacock King spoke with a serious expression, ""Master, I have no old feelings for the Phoenix King, you know that! I just wanted to see the Phoenix King make a fool of himself. It's definitely not what you think!"

The Peacock King felt even more aggrieved as he spoke.

In fact, he knew very well that his master was just playing with him. However, he really did not want to be involved with the Phoenix King. Therefore, he must do his best to defend his reputation. He must not be sullied by that female pervert, the Phoenix King!

With this thought in mind, the expression on the Peacock King's face became more and more serious. It was as if he would die if Leng ruoxue accused him wrongly!

Seeing him like this, Leng ruoxue naturally knew that it was time to stop joking. She stopped teasing him and said, "It's only a matter of time before I go to see the Phoenix King! However, the Phoenix Clan hasn't sent anyone to inform us that the Phoenix King has woken up. This is enough to show that the Phoenix King can't see anyone now. So, we'd better wait! After all, we have to give the Phoenix Clan some face, right?"

The Peacock King nodded, but he didn't think so. He didn't believe that his master would give the Phoenix tribe so much face. He probably had other tricks up his sleeve. Thinking of this, he was instantly excited.

As the saying goes, a good meal is not afraid of being late. It's fine to find trouble with the Phoenix King a few days later! After the Peacock King had thought it through, he looked at his master with a coquettish expression. However, Leng ruoxue only said to him, "I'm going to rest!"

After she finished speaking, she patted her butt and left!

Only the dumbfounded Peacock King was left standing there.

The Peacock King couldn't understand why his master suddenly wanted to rest. There was no sign of it at all!

Al! No one could guess the master's thoughts!

The Peacock King sighed and went to rest.

At the same time, the Phoenix King, who had just woken up in the Phoenix Clan, was also facing the threat of a treacherous plot. However, there was no food or wine to eat in this treacherous plot.

All the elders of the Phoenix Clan gathered in the Phoenix King Palace.

They had already discussed the countermeasures and results, and all of them were staring at the sick Phoenix King who was half-lying on the bed, their faces full of helplessness.

After the elder and the Phoenix King stared at each other for a long time, the Phoenix King finally couldn't help but burst out, "How long do you plan to watch me? If you have something to say, say it! Get lost after you're done, I still need to rest!"

The Phoenix King's tone was extremely unpleasant. When the elders of the Phoenix Clan heard this, they were even more dissatisfied with her.

At this moment, an elder of the Phoenix tribe, under the encouraging gazes of the other elders, said in a slightly reproachful tone, "Phoenix King, although you are the Phoenix King, we are also the elders of the Phoenix King. How can you speak to us so rudely and impolitely?"

"Dammit! You still know that I'm the Phoenix King? So many of you elders have come to see me, what is the meaning of this?" The Phoenix King was also very dissatisfied. She was not a fool. Looking at the elders' expressions, she knew that these elders had something to tell her. Moreover, it was a very important thing. Otherwise, they would not have come in such a neat manner.

Apart from the elders who were not in the clan, almost all the elders were present!

"The king has just woken up. As a member of the Phoenix Clan, isn't it only right for us to come and see the king on behalf of our clansmen? Or is it that the king hopes that we won't come to see you? To tell the truth, there were still many clansmen who wanted to express their concern for the king! However, we were afraid that too many of our clansmen would come and disturb the king's Rest, so we stopped them!" The elder of the Phoenix Clan who had spoken earlier on was not blushing at all. His heart was not beating fast as he explained his reasoning. Furthermore, at first glance, it sounded so reasonable.

From this, it could be seen that the elders of the Phoenix Clan had their reasons for letting him be the representative. After all, his eloquence was one of the best in the Phoenix Clan. Even if he couldn't bring the dead back to life, he wasn't far from it!

Sure enough, after hearing this, the Phoenix King was silent for a while. She couldn't refute these words at all. She couldn't be angry just because he was concerned about her! If she offended all the elders, how could she, the Phoenix King, manage the Phoenix Clan well in the future?

Thinking of this, the expression on the Phoenix King's face immediately eased, and his tone became much more amiable.

"Thank you for your concern, elders!" The Phoenix King said. After she finished speaking, she suddenly thought of a certain person that she hated so much that she gritted her teeth and asked, "Did that Lian Wu get lost?"

"Your Majesty, Lord Lianwu is the divine Lord's man. As the saying goes, even if you don't give face to the monk, you should give face to the Buddha. Even if you're talking to God Lord Fogriple, you can't speak to him like this. It's a good thing Lord Lianwu isn't here right now, or else I'm afraid he'll laugh at our Feng clan for being impolite!" The eloquent elder of the Phoenix Clan advised.

When the Phoenix King heard this, he was so angry that he almost spat out a mouthful of blood. When did that damned Lian Wu manage to bribe the elders of her Phoenix Clan?

However, without giving the Phoenix King a chance to get angry, the elder continued to speak eloquently, "King, since you've mentioned Lord Lian Wu, then I'll represent the elder Council and have a good talk with you!"

"We know that King and Lord Lianwu have some misunderstandings, but it's not easy to make enemies. The other party is also a trusted aide of God Lord Lianwu. Thus, after some discussion, our Elder Council has decided to be on good terms with Lord Lianwu. As for the matter of roping in Lord Lianwu, King will have to personally appear!"

"I hope that Your Majesty can put aside your grudges and live in harmony with Lord Lianwu and the Divine Master's estate for the future of our Phoenix Clan. After all, the current Phoenix Clan is different from the past, and we can't put on the airs of the past! I hope that Your Majesty can understand the elders' efforts and help us rebuild the glory of the Phoenix Clan!" The more the elder spoke, the more agitated he became. Very quickly, he had infected the emotions of all the elders present. However, the Phoenix King's beautiful face turned darker and darker after hearing what he said.

'Damn it!' What was going on? Why did she not recognize these elders of the Phoenix Clan after she had been unconscious for such a short while?

Chapter 2416 Feng Xiao's Biased Side \(2\)

The Phoenix King was furious. He looked at the elders with his fiery red eyes, which shot out two clusters of raging flames. The flames of anger seemed to want to burn all the elders present into ashes.

The elders had already expected the Phoenix King's reaction. Therefore, they were not surprised at all. Instead, they calmly looked at the Phoenix King's beautiful eyes that were spewing fire.

There were even elders who couldn't help but think in their hearts, their King! Other than being lecherous, the Phoenix tribe's biggest flaw was their stubbornness. They could tolerate their lecherous nature, but they could not tolerate their stubbornness. Otherwise, the Phoenix tribe would become a second-rate beast tribe sooner or later. That was something they did not want to see. Otherwise, they wouldn't have taken this opportunity to try and correct some of the Phoenix King's bad habits!

Perhaps they would have to pay a huge price for this, but they could not allow their King to continue like this. After all, the Phoenix Clan now was no longer the powerful Phoenix Clan that was filled with talents tens of thousands of years ago!

It was imperative for the Phoenix Clan to reform!

It was with this goal and thought that the elders had already decided that they would not compromise this time. They had to change some of the king's bad habits!

After the Phoenix King and the other elders stared at each other for a long time, seeing that these elders had no intention of retreating at all, he began to think in his heart.

Something must have happened that she didn't know about. Otherwise, these elders who had always listened to her would never dare to go against her like this. One had to know that there were many of his trusted elders here! Now, they were all going against him. Didn't this mean that things were getting serious?

After thinking for a while, the Phoenix King put on an aggrieved expression and said, "I can understand that you want to be on good terms with Lianwu, but do you know how I was injured?"

Hearing this, the elders of the Feng clan looked at each other. Did this mean that Lord Lianwu had something to do with King's injury? However, they were also present at the time. Although they were outside the house, they were very sure that they didn't hear the sound of Lord Lian Wu's attack. However, presumably, the king wouldn't lie to them because of such a matter, so they still had this bit of confidence!

Seeing the confusion on the elders' faces, and some of them even put on a humble look to ask for advice, the Phoenix King could not help but smile proudly in her heart. Damn Lian Wu, you want to fight with her? no way!

Then, the Phoenix King continued, "It's all because of Lord Lianwu that I was heavily injured!"

When the Phoenix King said this, she deliberately pretended to be pitiful. As soon as she finished speaking, her confidants and elders immediately showed sympathy. However, those elders did not say anything. Instead, the elder with the excellent eloquence spoke on her behalf, "King means that your injury is related to Lord Lianwu?"

He needed to make sure.

"Didn't I already tell you?" The Phoenix King was a little angry from embarrassment. Was this guy deaf?

"But we are sure that Lord Lianwu didn't make a move." The elder replied honestly. As soon as he finished speaking, the other elders of the Phoenix Clan nodded in agreement. The Phoenix King's face darkened even more.

F*ck! Were these guys really the elders of the Phoenix Clan? Aren't they the subordinates of that damned Lian Wu?

The Phoenix King had lived for so long and had seen many ungrateful people, but she had never seen an elder who would side with outsiders like this. She felt that she was really going to die of anger! Especially when she saw that many elders agreed with her, the anger in her heart could not help but rise to the top of her head.

"She didn't do anything, but she disturbed this Prince's mood. At that time, this Prince was at a critical moment and was frightened by her. Naturally, this Prince was injured. Do you think this Prince's injury has nothing to do with her?" After taking a few deep breaths, the Phoenix King spoke without shame.

Actually, the Phoenix King's words were definitely a little exaggerated. When she heard the Peacock King complain to Leng Ruoxue, she had already held her breath. However, she was in high spirits at the time and could not refute it. Following that, she heard Leng Ruoxue's curses and saw Leng Ruoxue leading a group of people into her Palace Hall. In that instant, she was so angry that she could not catch her breath and fainted.

As for over-indulgence, it was the crime Leng Ruoxue had arranged for her. The elders of the Phoenix Clan were not surprised that the Phoenix King, who had a criminal record, had fainted because of this. After all, their King was indeed lustful!

However, the Phoenix King didn't think that there was anything wrong with her liking men. Not only was she not ashamed, but she was also proud of it. Moreover, she also really felt that fainting from doing something was better than fainting from anger.

As such, the Phoenix King naturally found a good reason to pass out. However, when the elders of the Phoenix Clan heard the Phoenix King's shameless words, they blushed in embarrassment and wished they could find a hole to hide in.

How could the Phoenix King have the nerve to say this? Some of the elders with high self-esteem were embarrassed and angry, and their faces were red with anger. Many of the elders expressed their helplessness towards the Phoenix King.

They had truly experienced the king's thick skin today!

Al! No wonder all the little phoenixes now ...

"King, this matter can not be completely blamed on Lord Lianwu. As the king of the Phoenix Clan, Lord Lianwu is also a guest of my clan. How could you only care about your own enjoyment and not properly entertain the guest?" Under the expectant gazes of all the elders, the elder who was highly anticipated by the crowd once again opened his mouth to criticize.

His words naturally resonated with most of the elders. They looked at the Phoenix King with more and more disapproval.

When the Phoenix King saw this, he was truly angry!

F * ck! This damn guy, is he bent on going against me? He clearly knew that he hated Lian Wu, yet he still dared to accuse him of not treating his guests well?

Why did she have to treat that guy well? She really wanted Lian Wu to get lost as soon as possible!

Wait a minute!

The Phoenix King suddenly had a flash of inspiration and remembered something.

Didn't Lian Wu go to find the parasol tree? Why did he come back so quickly? Could it be that no sycamore tree was willing to leave with her, so she came back early?

Thinking of this possibility, the Phoenix King burst out laughing.

Seeing the Phoenix King's anger and laughter, the elders were all speechless. What had triggered the king? Could it be that he was really angered by them?

At that moment, the elders of the Phoenix Clan heard the Phoenix King ask, ""Where's Feng Yun? Get Feng Yun to come see me!"

Feng Yun was The Clansman of the Phoenix Clan who had accompanied Leng ruoxue to look for the parasol tree. He was also one of the trusted aides of the Phoenix Clan and was extremely favored and trusted by the Phoenix King.

Upon hearing the order from the Phoenix King, the elders looked at each other again.

The king was really abnormal. They were talking about Lord Lian Wu, why did they look for Feng Yun?

Chapter 2417 Feng Xiao's Biased Side \(3\)

The elders, who didn't know what was going on, gave their representatives a look, and the eloquent elder of the Phoenix Clan quickly reminded, ""King, Feng Yun isn't here, so let's first discuss the matter between you and Lord Lianwu! You can summon Feng Yun later!"

"No! I want to see Feng Yun now! I don't have anything to discuss with that Lianwu!" The Phoenix King said willfully.

"My King ..." A certain elder looked at the Phoenix King with a slight headache.

At this moment, Feng Yun, who the Phoenix King wanted to see, was brought over by the guards.

The moment Feng Yun saw the Phoenix King, she immediately wailed and cried, ""My King! The Wutong tree, the Wutong tree was taken away by Lord Lianwu!"

"What did you just say?" Hearing this, the Phoenix King stood up immediately. The expressions of all the elders of the Phoenix Clan changed drastically as they looked at Feng Yun nervously.

In fact, Feng Yun had just woken up from his coma. Just as he was about to report this matter to the Phoenix King, he coincidentally received a Guard's notice that the Phoenix King wanted to see him. The moment he heard it, he couldn't wait any longer and came to the Phoenix King Palace.

"The sycamore tree is gone." Feng Yun repeated when he saw the shock and disbelief on the faces of the Phoenix King and the elders.

Following that, Feng Yun explained everything that happened in the parasol tree forest to the Phoenix King and the elders. After the Phoenix King and the elders heard it, they were all as anxious as ants on a hot pan.

The Furious Phoenix King could not help but vent all her anger on the elder who had been speaking up for Lian Wu. She said fiercely, "What else do you have to say now? Do you still want our Phoenix Clan to be on good terms with that damned Lianwu?"

The Phoenix King was furious, and the consequences would be severe.

Originally, she just wanted to ask Feng Yun and Lian Wu about the situation in the parasol tree forest. She didn't expect to hear that all her parasol trees had disappeared. This time, the hatred in her heart for Lian Wu rose a few steps.

However, after the elder of the Phoenix tribe who had been scolded heard that the parasol tree had disappeared, he calmed down. He glanced at the Phoenix King and asked, "According to what this subordinate knows, it was King who personally agreed for Lord Lianwu to go to the parasol tree forest. King even swore that if Lord Lianwu could move the entire parasol tree forest away, King would not have any objections. Now that Lord Lianwu really did that, why is King regretting it? If you want this subordinate to say a few words of Justice, Lord Lianwu is not in the wrong. After all, Wang Youyan was the one who started it!"

After listening to the elder's words, the Phoenix King was so angry that her whole body trembled. She pointed her white jade-like finger at the elder, unable to say a complete sentence. This time, she was really angry. This, this damn guy, he clearly wants to go against me!

To side with an outsider like this, could it be that he had already been bribed by that hateful Lian Wu?

As soon as the seed of doubt was planted in the Phoenix King's heart, she instantly lost her good face towards this elder who only knew how to go against her. She also felt that this elder was extremely unpleasant to the eye. Moreover, the more she looked at this elder, the more suspicious she became. In the end, she was even certain that this guy had definitely been bribed by Lian Wu.

However, before the Phoenix King could voice out her thoughts, an elder agreed and said, "Elder Xiao's words are very reasonable. This matter was indeed started by Wang Youyan. It was the king who was too careless!"

Upon hearing this, the Phoenix King felt a mouthful of blood surging up her throat. Her mouth was instantly filled with the taste of blood. She suppressed her anger and swallowed the mouthful of blood. Her already unhealthy face turned white and black, black and white.

However, at this moment, no elder cared about the king's expression. Instead, he suggested in all seriousness, "If even Lady Wu really took away our parasol trees, we have to be on good terms with her. You must know that not everyone can take away those parasol trees, unless they are willing!"

"Yup! I didn't expect Lord Lianwu to have such ability to make those parasol trees listen to her. If we get along well with her, Lord Lianwu will be happy and might even return those parasol trees to us! After all, she's not from the Phoenix Clan. Those parasol trees are useless to her, aren't they?" The more the elder spoke, the more excited he became. The anxiety, shock, and disbelief on his face had all turned into joy.

When he said this, many elders also deeply agreed, feeling that it was exactly that logic!

Hearing the discussions of the elders, Feng Yun who originally came to complain was instantly dumbfounded.

How did this happen? This shouldn't be the case!

After knowing that the Wutong tree had been stolen, shouldn't these elders be so angry that they would gather their clansmen to snatch the Wutong tree back? Then ... What was the situation now?

Feng Yun was at a loss.

The Phoenix King was so angry that he was speechless.

At this moment, the eloquent elder Xiao smiled and said, "All the elders have a point. To us, befriending Lord Lianwu is absolutely of utmost importance! However, the king doesn't seem to agree with this!"

As he spoke, elder Xiao changed the topic to the Furious Phoenix King.

"Your Majesty, don't be angry anymore. It was indeed your fault for not being careful with your words, which caused our Phoenix tribe to lose our parasol tree. Therefore, you must make up for your mistake. Otherwise, you will be a sinner of our Phoenix tribe!" As soon as elder Xiao's words fell, there were immediately elders who criticized the Phoenix King with righteous words. Naturally, these words were highly praised by the other elders.

The Phoenix King's brain was buzzing from all the noise. Although she endured it, in the end, she couldn't take it anymore and shouted angrily, "All of you shut up! I know what to do, I don't need you to teach me!"

The Phoenix King's anger could not be described with words. Especially when she saw elder Xiao looking at her with a smile and anticipation, the anger in her heart deepened.

Now, even if she insisted that Feng Xiao had been bribed by Lian Wu, the elders would not believe her. It was really too detestable!

Knowing the anger and dissatisfaction of the Phoenix King, Feng Xiao said without fear of death, "Then when will the Phoenix King meet Lord Lianwu? This matter should not be delayed. Otherwise, if Lord Lianwu leaves, I'm afraid that Your Highness can only go to the Imperial City to find her, and you may not be able to find her at that time. "

"Why can't I find her?" Hearing the last few words, the Phoenix King suppressed his anger and asked.

"Wang, have you forgotten? That Lord Lianwu is the advisor of God Lord Fogriple, and one of the more secretive ones at that. We rarely hear of her name, so it can be seen just how well God Lord Fogriple has hidden her! Did the king think that he would be able to find out anything about an advisor who usually did not see the light of day? Or are you planning to personally ask God Lord Fogriple? I don't believe that God Lord Fogriple would be happy to tell you." Feng Xiao's words were sincere and earnest as he explained patiently.

When the Phoenix King heard this, it seemed to make sense. However, she did not know why, but she was extremely unhappy!

At this moment, she glanced at Feng Yun who had a deathly pale expression and asked with uncertainty, "Have all the parasol trees in our parasol tree forest really disappeared?"

"Uh! This subordinate only heard many sycamore trees say that they would leave with Lord Lianwu. Then, this subordinate fainted. This subordinate does not know what happened after that. By the time this subordinate woke up, he was already back at his own residence." Feng Yun didn't dare to hide anything and spoke the truth.

"So you didn't see the parasol trees leave with Lord Lianwu?" After hearing this, Feng Xiao quickly asked.

"No, I fainted." Feng Yun said with some embarrassment. At this moment, he felt a few dissatisfied gazes and immediately felt guilty.

"Your Majesty, since Fengyun is unable to confirm this matter, why don't you send someone you trust to the parasol tree forest to confirm it?" Feng Xiao suggested.

"Well, Feng Yuan, take some people with you to take a look." The Phoenix King nodded and then instructed an elder present.

After receiving the order, the elder immediately led the guards to the parasol tree forest. Not long after, they returned and reported truthfully, "Your Majesty, those parasol trees are still here!"

"Still here? Feng Yun, what do you say?" The Phoenix King narrowed his eyes. He was obviously a little unhappy.

"Your Majesty, it must be because Lord Lianwu couldn't take away so many parasol trees at once, so he left them behind. I think she will definitely come back to take them away. I think we should think of a countermeasure as soon as possible. We can't let Lord Lianwu take away all the parasol trees!" Feng Yun's forehead was covered in sweat as he thought about what to say.

"What do you all think of Feng Yun's idea?" After hearing Feng Yun's words, the Phoenix King turned to look at the other elders and asked.

"Your Majesty, this is inappropriate!" Feng Xiao said sternly. Then, he began to reason, "King, you've already made an oath. If Lord Lianwu can take away those parasol trees, you can't stop him. Otherwise, the laws of the world will definitely punish you. Once this matter is spread out, our Phoenix Clan will probably become people who go back on their words. The reputation of our Phoenix Clan can not be ruined by breaking our promise!"

"Then what do you suggest we do?" When the Phoenix King heard Feng Xiao's words, he roared again in anger. She really wanted to scold him, "you ungrateful wretch, what benefits did Lian Wu give you to make you speak up for that ugly woman?"

In fact, there was a sentence in her heart that she had never had the chance to say. That was, "I can't stop you, but can't you?" But at this time, the Phoenix King believed that as long as she revealed this thought, she would be despised by the elders who valued the reputation of the Phoenix Clan, especially that Feng Xiao who sided with outsiders. Who knew what kind of great reason he would come up with! With this thought in mind, she could only give up on this idea!

Chapter 2418 The Consequences Of Getting Lost \(1\)

"In this subordinate's opinion, if Lord Lianwu really comes back to take those parasol trees, we will naturally let him go!" Feng Xiao said matter-of-factly, and after that, he deliberately paused and looked up at the dark face of the Phoenix King.

When the Phoenix King heard this, he was furious.

F * ck! She knew that this damned Feng Xiao would say this. At this moment, she felt even more that Feng Xiao had been bribed by that hateful Lian Wu. Otherwise, why would he always favor an outsider? Look, where did they all go? The divine realm was almost unable to contain him, right?

However, despite being angry, the Phoenix King miraculously did not roar out immediately this time. Hmph! She wanted to see what kind of reaction the elders of her family would have after hearing Feng Xiao's words.

Just as the Phoenix King had expected, after Feng Xiao's words came to a temporary end, Feng Yun, who was in charge of bringing Leng Ruoxue to the parasol tree forest, immediately shouted with a face full of disbelief, "Elder Feng Xiao, how could you suggest this? If Lord Lianwu takes away all the parasol trees, how do you want our Phoenix Clan to live?"

At this moment, other than Feng Yun, no other elder said anything. Feng Yun did not want to say these words, but he knew the king's personality well and was afraid that the Phoenix King would blame him. Thus, he could only stand out. However, after he bravely said these words, he saw the satisfied expression on the Phoenix King's face from the corner of his eye. Instantly, he relaxed and felt that he had made the right choice.

After Feng Xiao heard Feng Yun's words, he did not reveal a guilty or flustered expression as the Phoenix King had hoped. Instead, he smiled faintly and said, "I haven't finished yet! Why are you in such a hurry?"

"Uh!" Feng Yun was a little dumbfounded. Was this considered to have resolved his question? Wasn't this a little too easy?

"What I mean is, for the sake of our Phoenix clan's reputation, we can't stop Lord Lian Wu from taking away those parasol trees. This is all for the sake of our Phoenix clan's credibility. However, we can be on good terms with Lord Lianwu. As long as we can make Lord Lianwu happy, Lord Lianwu should return the parasol trees to us. After all, she doesn't have much use for those parasol trees, right?" Looking at the elders present with a smile, Feng Xiao repeated the words of an elder with a smile. His words also received the approval of most of the elders. For a moment, almost all the elders had their eyes on the Phoenix King.

Because the elders of the Phoenix tribe were not stupid. The key to being on good terms with Lord Lianwu was their Queen!

When the Phoenix King heard that the topic had changed back to him, he was furious!

F*ck! Were these elders determined to force her to lower her head to Lian Wu? She didn't even take fog seriously. If he wanted her to lower her head to Lianwu, wasn't that asking for her life?

The Phoenix King was extremely unwilling, but when he saw the determined looks on the elders' faces, the Phoenix King couldn't help but feel a little irritated.

She couldn't understand what was going on with these elders. Why did he change into a completely different person in such a short time? she couldn't even recognize him.

In the past, even if the elder Council didn't listen to her, they rarely opposed her orders, let alone forcing her to be on good terms with the woman she hated! In the past, this was something that would have been impossible.

But now? What was with the elders' unyielding expression now? When the Phoenix King saw how unyielding the elders of the Phoenix Clan were, he was so mad that he wanted to bite them!

Damn it! The main culprit of all this was Feng Xiao! The Phoenix King was filled with hatred. The gazes that were directed at Feng Xiao became even more unfriendly. However, Feng Xiao acted as if he did not see it and calmly allowed the Phoenix King to look at him.

Seeing Feng Xiao's attitude of a dead pig not afraid of boiling water, the Phoenix King was completely speechless, and at the same time, he also wilted.

"Let me consider this matter." The Phoenix King said with an irritated face. In her heart, she was thinking of dragging it out as long as possible. She really didn't want to deal with that Lian Wu.

"How long does your Majesty plan to consider?" Feng Xiao, who had seen through the Phoenix King's thoughts, asked without letting go.

"You ..." The Phoenix King was furious. This Feng Xiao is doing this on purpose, right?

"Your Majesty, this matter is easier said than done. Lord Lianwu is still waiting for you at the peacock clan! If she knows that you've woken up and we haven't sent anyone to inform her, perhaps Lord Lianwu will come to see you in anger! At that time, our Phoenix Clan will be in a passive position! Therefore, for the sake of the Phoenix Clan, please make your decision as soon as possible." Ignoring the anger of the Phoenix King, Feng Xiao continued to remind him.

At this time, other elders echoed, "Your Majesty, elder Feng Xiao's words are reasonable. I ask Your Majesty to quickly decide how to befriend Lord Lianwu! Wasn't there a human saying, 'the King of Hell is easy to see, but the little devil is hard to deal with'? Although Lord Lianwu was only an assistant to God Lord Rime, she was even more of an enemy that could not be offended. Otherwise, as long as she gave us some face in front of God Lord Rime, and made things difficult for us, our Phoenix Clan would suffer! I hope that Your Majesty can put aside your personal grudges for the sake of the Feng clan, and the entire Feng clan will be grateful to you!"

These words were once again approved by many of the elders. The Phoenix King's face was also so angry that it was impossible to tell what color it was!

"You guys have to give me a few days to think about it!" The Phoenix King roared in anger as he listened to the long speech.

"Alright then! However, we can only give you three days to consider. I hope you can give us a satisfactory answer after three days. " Feng Xiao knew very well that he could not force the king too much. After a little thought, he represented that the elders had agreed to the conditions of the Feng King.

Seeing that the matter had been settled for the time being, the Phoenix King looked at the elder in front of her and was extremely displeased. She waved her hand and said as if she was shooing away a fly, ""Get lost! All of you, get out! I don't want to see you right now!"

"Your Majesty, we are the elders of the Phoenix Clan. Please respect us. You can ask us to leave, but you can't use the word" get lost "on us! This is a form of disrespect to us!" As soon as the Phoenix King's words fell, Feng Xiao began to criticize him with a righteous look on his face.

When the other elders heard this, they first looked at Feng Xiao in a daze, and then suddenly reacted.

That's right! Feng Xiao was right! They were the elders of the Phoenix Clan. Although their status was not as noble as the Phoenix King, their dignity could not be trampled on by anyone, not even the Phoenix King!

With this thought, all the elders were instantly enraged.

Of course, these words were also reminded by Feng Xiao. Otherwise, they would not have realized what was wrong with the Phoenix King telling them to get lost! Because in the past, when the Phoenix King was angry, she often used this word on them. However, at that time, they didn't feel anything wrong.

But now with Feng Xiao's reminder, all the elders instantly came to a realization. The Phoenix King was indeed too disrespectful to them! They were the elders of the Phoenix Clan! An elder who had been taking care of the affairs of the Phoenix Clan every day, even if he didn't have any merits, he should have worked hard, right? However, not only did the Phoenix King not say a single heartwarming word to them, but he also asked them to get lost!

This was really bullying!

The more the elders thought about it, the angrier they became. Gradually, the way they looked at the Phoenix King became more and more unfriendly.

Seeing this, the Phoenix King was at a loss for a moment.

F * ck! So what if these elders were planning to rebel?

With this thought in mind, the Phoenix King's anger surged up in his heart and he roared out in anger, "What are you guys doing? Do you want to rebel? What's wrong with telling you to get lost? You're just my dogs. If I tell you to get out, you'll have to get out obediently! Now, get out, I don't want to see you!"

As soon as these words came out, the Phoenix King still didn't realize how serious his words were, but all the elders were dumbfounded and petrified.

Was this the king's true thoughts? They were just the king's dogs, so whatever the king asked them to do, they had to do it without any resistance, right?

The elders were furious.

The sixth elder, who had a rather high status among the elders, glanced at the Phoenix King and said indifferently, "Please speak, Wang Shen!"

"Be careful, my ass! Don't you forget your status, Hmph! You actually dare to force me to do something I don't like, you guys are really bold! Just you wait, I won't let you off when I'm better!" When the Phoenix King heard this, he roared in anger.

When the sixth elder heard this, he sighed helplessly. Then, he glanced at the Phoenix King with a sympathetic look and said, "King, you must apologize to us elders for your words and report your mistake to the entire clan. Otherwise, we will go on strike!"

"Right! If the king doesn't apologize to us, we'll go on strike!" The sixth elder's words were echoed by the other elders.

This time, they were really disappointed! In the past, no one had pointed out the inappropriateness of the king's words. Perhaps no one had thought that it was a big deal for the king to treat them like this. But now, after being pointed out by elder Feng Xiao, they could not accept it in their hearts!

This was like a guy who had been deceiving himself and others all this time. One day, he would no longer be able to deceive himself. Then, the deception that he had suffered in the past would naturally be magnified infinitely. And at this moment, it was precisely such a situation. The crime of the Phoenix King was somewhat unforgivable!

However, the Phoenix King obviously didn't believe that these elders would really go on strike. So, he said disapprovingly, "Strike? Hmph! Are you threatening me? I don't buy that. If you want to go on strike, go ahead! Do I care?"

Seeing how nonchalant the Phoenix King was and how he was speaking nonchalantly, the hearts of the elders turned cold. They were even more disappointed in the Phoenix King's words and actions. After exchanging a glance with each other, the elders left the Phoenix King's bedchamber together without looking back.

Before he left, Feng Xiao still kindly reminded him, "King, don't blame me for not warning you. It's better to quickly decide how to get on good terms with Lord Lianwu! Otherwise, when they come to you personally, you'll be in a very passive position!"

Feng Xiao didn't have the mood to tell the Phoenix King that even Lord Wu wanted to settle the score with her!

It was precisely because no one had told the Phoenix Prince that the completely clueless Phoenix Prince only realized that she had a huge problem waiting for her when Leng ruoxue came looking for her.

But at this time, the Phoenix King didn't care about Feng Xiao's words at all. He only felt that these words made her upset. He glared at Feng Xiao and shouted, "Get lost! Don't let me see you again!"

"Don't worry, Your Majesty. Feng Xiao will get lost far away so that the king can't find me!" Feng Xiao smiled indifferently and then left King Feng's chamber calmly.

Without the disturbance of the unsightly elders, the Phoenix King began to recuperate in peace and ordered the guards not to disturb him for anything.

Just like that, the Phoenix King had missed out on many things. By the time she reacted and wanted to make up for it, it was already too late!

As for the elders who had left in anger, they immediately called for an emergency elder meeting when they got back. In the end, they decided to go on strike from now on!

This time, they were definitely not joking! He was determined to carry out the strike to the end!

The elders, who were usually favored by the Phoenix King, did not have any intention to speak up for the Phoenix King at this moment. They were also extremely angry!

After the emergency Elder Council had ended, many elders had decided to leave the Feng clan for a while to take a walk and relax.

The elders who planned to stay in the clan decided to go into seclusion. In case the Phoenix King made him a Coolie! The Phoenix Clan was a rather proud beast clan. Even if the Phoenix King was their King, they were not so cheap as to be treated like dogs by her!

After deciding on where to go, the elders of the Feng clan decided to gather again for the last time. After all, it would be difficult for them to be as united as they were now!

After the meal, Feng Xiao went to see the sixth elder.

The sixth elder was the only one who had no intention of leaving the Feng clan, nor did he have any intention of going into seclusion. After a secret discussion between the two, Feng Xiao left the Feng clan the next day.

The sixth elder, who stayed behind, was no longer in charge of the affairs of the Phoenix Clan. His only job every day was to visit the two severely injured clansmen. They were the two patriarchs of the Phoenix Clan that Leng ruoxue had sent back as spies.

At this time, their injuries had almost recovered, but their memories were still intermittent. It was because of this that the two old phoenixes became patients with peace of mind and did not ask about the affairs of the Phoenix Clan.

The two of them were brothers in the same boat. After the previous battle and the experience of becoming Leng ruoxue's beast together, their relationship had improved by leaps and bounds! The sixth elder, who was usually close to them, was also happy to see this.

The sixth elder had always felt that these two guys were usually too isolated and didn't have any life-and-death friendship. Now that the sparks of friendship had been ignited in a battle, the two of them would have a place to talk in the Feng clan in the future!

With this thought in mind, the sixth elder even arranged for the two to recuperate in the same residence, which was more convenient for her to visit.

When he visited the two powerful patients, the sixth elder naturally told them about the current situation of the Feng clan. After hearing it, the two of them were dumbfounded and their eyes widened.

Was the heavens helping him? They hadn't even done anything yet! The Phoenix Clan had been torn apart? This seemed to be the work of the Phoenix King.

When the two of them first heard this news, it really took them a long time to digest it before they came back to their senses. Seeing this, the sixth elder could understand their feelings and consoled them, ""You don't have to worry too much. Our only purpose is to make the Phoenix King yield. We won't really leave the Phoenix Clan to die!"

"That's good!" The two of them looked at each other and said in unison. However, they both thought in their hearts that they were not worried at all! They were all Leng ruoxue's people! The more chaotic the Phoenix Clan was, the better it would be for them!

"Al!" After appeasing the two patients, the sixth elder sighed again.

Seeing this, one of the elders of the Phoenix Clan couldn't help but ask, ""Xiao Liu, why are you sighing?"

"..." Hearing the two words "little six", sixth elder was deeply conflicted. The three of them were clearly of the same generation, but these two guys always called her "little six" because they were older. When she heard these two words, she felt very helpless.

"Please don't call me little six, okay?" The sixth elder requested after another sigh.

"Then you're called liuliu? But I still feel that little six is more amiable!" An old Phoenix said with a smirk.

"Forget it, you'll just be called little six!" The sixth elder was helpless. Then, after thinking for a while, she said, ""Feng Xiao ... He has already left the Feng clan!"

"What?" Hearing this, one of the old phoenixes immediately jumped up in shock and spoke with some anger.

"He has left the Phoenix Clan to train!" The sixth elder said honestly. In fact, she had hesitated for a long time and finally decided to tell someone this news, in case someone heard about this from other clansmen and blamed her for hiding it.

"Dammit! Who told him to leave the Feng clan?" A certain old ancestor of the Phoenix race roared out in anger. That B * stard! He didn't care about his father who was severely injured and went out to train at this time? what was he trying to do? Was he rebelling?

"The Feng clan is in troubled times right now. It's a good thing for Feng Xiao to go out and gain experience! Besides, he's already an adult and an elder of the Phoenix Clan. You don't think that any human would dare to bully him, do you?" Seeing a certain someone's extreme reaction, the sixth elder couldn't help but advise. She had promised Feng Xiao that she wouldn't tell anyone about his departure from the Feng clan, but now she had broken her promise. Therefore, she really felt that she had the obligation to appease this furious fellow in front of her.

"Old fire, I think what little six said makes sense. That little guy Feng Xiao has already left. Do you still want to go and catch him back?" The other Phoenix ancestor, who was calm and composed, gave the Furious old Phoenix a knowing look. The old Phoenix, who was called old Huo, calmed down instantly.

In fact, the reason why old fire was so anxious was that he was afraid that his rash descendant would go to find his master. If that kid did something to annoy his master, he simply didn't dare to imagine what kind of consequences Feng Xiao would have. He was afraid that Cang, who was next to his master, would not let Feng Xiao off.

Old fire's heart was filled with regret. If it wasn't for the time when he was chatting with Feng Miao, the other ancestor of the Feng clan, and accidentally mentioned his master, which was heard by Feng Xiao, he was afraid that Feng Xiao would not have such a big opinion of his master! He even said arrogantly that he would meet Leng ruoxue when he had the chance.

He knew very well what his son meant. However, it was also because of their conversation that Feng Xiao inadvertently found out the truth of their mission. He found out about him and Feng Miao's undercover mission and their thoughts. Every time the two of them saw Feng Xiao, they spared no effort in instilling him with the story of the previous Prince Feng.

Although Feng Xiao didn't have much of a reaction at that time, the two of them knew very well that Feng Xiao had long accumulated dissatisfaction with the current Prince Feng. Feng Xiao had also blamed Feng Tong for the two of them being captured. This was also the main reason why Feng Xiao had tried so hard to help an outsider.

Feng Xiao wanted to take revenge for his father! Therefore, even though he clearly knew how much the Phoenix King hated Lian Wu, he still praised Lian Wu in front of the elders and told them not to offend Lian Wu. With his eloquence, his words naturally won the hearts of the elders and inadvertently helped Leng ruoxue a lot.

However, Feng Xiao was not clear about Lian Wu's true identity, so he spared no effort to speak up for her. Otherwise, once he knew that Lian Wu was Leng ruoxue, it was hard to say whether he would help! Who asked him to hold a grudge against Leng ruoxue?

And now, Feng Xiao had secretly left the Feng clan, and it was very likely that he would find trouble with his own master. Thinking of this, old fire was anxious, but under the comfort of Feng Miao's eyes, old fire temporarily suppressed it and tried to hide the anxiety in his heart!

After casually chatting with the sixth elder for a while, old fire deliberately showed a tired state. The sixth elder saw this, so he tactfully chose to leave.

As soon as the sixth elder left, old fire immediately grabbed Feng Miao's sleeve and sent a voice transmission with a worried face, ""What should we do! What should he do! If that stinky brat were to provoke master, would he be able to come back alive?"

"Who Do You Think You Are? Master would not kill innocent people! Don't worry!" Although Feng Miao was comforting him like this, to be honest, he didn't have much confidence. Because he knew that master might not kill the Feng clan for the sake of Feng Zhan and the other ancestors, but that terrifying Cang by master's side might not let go of the fellow who provoked master! Therefore, if Feng Xiao really found his master, it was very likely that he would be in deep trouble.

However, he didn't dare to say these words at this time. Otherwise, it would be strange if old fire didn't go crazy!

Just like now, when the two of them chatted, they could only use voice transmission to avoid others from discovering their identities as spies. It was not the right time to expose themselves!

All of a sudden, Feng Miao had a flash of inspiration, and she transmitted her voice to old Huo with a happy expression, ""Old friend, why don't you contact Master and tell her about the Feng clan, and also about Feng Xiao?"

"Will this work?" Old fire was a little afraid that his master would be angry, because the two of them had not made any progress in their undercover work, but they had exposed their own identity first. Although it was his own descendant who knew his identity, after all, he had not been able to convince that kid to join his master! Therefore, he felt that he was too ashamed to see his master!

Sob ... He was so conflicted and in a difficult position!

"Let's try! "We can't hide this matter. Otherwise, if your Feng Xiao really comes to find master and master doesn't know anything about it and isn't prepared at all, then ..." Feng Luan only said half of her sentence before she deliberately stopped and let old fire think about it.

Old fire quickly thought about it. Finally, he slapped his thigh and made up his mind, ""I'm going all out! I should tell master!"

When he finished his sentence, he did not have any confidence at all. He looked at Feng Miao pitifully, and Feng Miao gave old fire an encouraging look. Just like that, old fire's little heart trembled as he took the initiative to contact Leng ruoxue.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue, who was enjoying herself in the peacock tribe, was surprised to receive a message from an undercover old Phoenix. Then, she saw Cang's smirk and guessed that something must have happened in the Phoenix tribe that she didn't know about. However, the evil Cang didn't tell her.

After connecting to the old Phoenix's voice transmission, Leng ruoxue patiently listened to the old Phoenix's report. Finally, old fire stammered for a long time before he finally mustered his courage and said to his master, ""Master, our identities have been exposed!"

The moment she heard the word 'exposed', Leng ruoxue could not help but worry for the two old phoenixes. She could not help but ask, "Then how does the Phoenix King plan to deal with you? I'm currently in the Phoenix territory. Don't worry, I'll find a way to save you!"

At this moment, Leng ruoxue had already forgotten about the old Phoenix's previous report. In her heart, only the old Phoenix had exposed this fact. On the other hand, when old flame heard this, he knew that his master had misunderstood. However, he was still touched by his master's care and love. When their master heard that their identities had been exposed, not only did he not blame them, but he also wanted to save them!

What a good master!

Old fire was moved to tears. When Feng Miao, who was beside him, saw this, she thought that old fire had been blamed by its master and was extremely anxious!

After slightly calming down his excited mood, old fire was touched and explained to his master the reason for his exposure. He emphasized that Feng Xiao may go to find his master and hoped that his master would be magnanimous and not hold it against him.

After Leng ruoxue understood everything, she felt a little embarrassed. So, she had misunderstood. However, even if the Phoenix King were to find out the identity of the two old phoenixes, she would definitely think of a way to save them! Only she could bully her Beastie. If others wanted to bully him, there was no way!

After figuring out the truth of the matter, Leng ruoxue readily agreed to old fire's request. If Feng Xiao really delivered himself to her door, she promised that she would not make things difficult for that Phoenix.

When old fire heard this, he immediately felt relieved.

Suddenly, old fire came to a realization and said with disbelief, "Master, you, you just said that you were in the Phoenix territory. Did I hear you wrong?"

"You didn't hear wrong! I'm in the Phoenix territory now, but I'm using someone else's identity. " Leng ruoxue laughed.

"Someone else's identity?" Old fire pondered hard after hearing that. If his master really came to the Phoenix territory, it would certainly cause a big commotion. Therefore, he combined the things that the sixth elder had told them in his heart and guessed which one was his master.

After a moment of silence, old fire suddenly roared in shock, "Master, master, I heard that a human called Lian Wu has recently come to the clan, and he's the advisor of fog ice. Is that you?"

"It's me, your master! However, you must keep this a secret!" When Leng ruoxue heard old fire's surprised voice, her mood suddenly turned for the better!

"Don't worry, master. I won't tell anyone!" Old fire promised. The admiration in his heart for his master was like a surging River, endless!

Because he had heard a lot about Lord Lian Wu from the sixth elder and also from the grapevine. At that time, he worshipped the person who could cause trouble for the Phoenix King. Now that he heard that that person was his master, the worship in his heart could not be suppressed no matter what.

Old fire was excited again!
