

Crazy Wife 2421

Chapter 2421 Nouveau Riche Leng Ruoxue \(1\)

As expected of my master! No matter where they went, it would not be peaceful! Old fire couldn't help but think.

Of course, his words were not meant to mock Leng ruoxue, but to express his envy, admiration, and adoration. One had to know that other people didn't have the ability to be like master! Only his master could turn the place upside down and make it a horrible sight! How capable was this!

Old fire's respect for its Master Rose to an unprecedented level. However, it was fortunate that Leng ruoxue had yet to find out old fire's thoughts. Otherwise, she would have been extremely depressed.

Because no matter how she listened to old fire's praise, she felt that something was wrong!

At this moment, Feng Miao, who was waiting for the news at the side, saw her old buddy crying, laughing, and standing there in a daze. She was extremely anxious!

This ... How much stimulation did he have to go through to make this old friend of his like this? Feng Miao looked worriedly at her fellow brother who was in trouble, thinking that she must comfort him later. Sigh! Master must be blaming him!

Feng Miao kept sighing at the side, while old fire's excitement could not be described with words. After chatting with Leng ruoxue for a long time, old fire finally ended the conversation with Leng ruoxue reluctantly. This was a decision that old fire had made with great difficulty after Leng ruoxue had become a little impatient! Otherwise, he would have continued the conversation.

After old Huo ended the voice transmission, he was still a little dazed and touched his moist eyes from time to time. Feng Luan saw this and sighed. "Old fire, don't be too sad. Master is definitely just angry for a moment. He won't really blame you!"

Feng Miao did not know how to comfort old fire, and was not sure if his master was really angry, so he could only guess and comfort him based on his own judgment. However, old fire was confused when he heard what he said.

"Who said that the master is blaming me?" Old Huo blinked his eyes in a daze and said with a blank expression.

"Master didn't blame you?" When Feng Miao heard this, she was also stunned for a moment.

"No, I didn't! Master also said that if she really saw Feng Xiao, she would not make things difficult for him!" Old fire said honestly. As he spoke, he became excited again, and his face instantly turned red.

"Then ... Why are you crying!" Hearing old fire's words, Feng Miao asked speechlessly. So she had misunderstood! However, he couldn't be blamed for this. It was this old thing who made him misunderstand!

"I'm touched and excited! Master is so concerned about us. " Old fire was so excited that he was almost out of breath. After he suppressed his excitement and reported the matter to Feng Miao, Feng Miao was instantly excited as well.

"You said that master is in the Phoenix territory?" Feng Miao asked in disbelief.

"Yup! Didn't I already tell you?嘘! This matter must be kept a secret! When master comes to the Phoenix Clan, we have to pretend that we don't know master!" Old fire could not help but remind him.

"You don't have to tell me that, I know what to do! However, don't you think we should go and see master? It's been a long time since I've seen master, and I've been having weird thoughts!" Feng Miao suggested with some uncertainty.

"Let's just sneak a look at master! Otherwise, I'm afraid that I won't be able to control myself when I see master in public and I'll be exposed!" After thinking for a while, old fire said.

"Alright!" Feng Miao also nodded in agreement. Then, the two old phoenixes waited for Leng ruoxue in the clan with a heart full of excitement.

Who knew that even after waiting for several days, they still didn't hear Lord lianwu coming. Just as the two old phoenixes were waiting anxiously, the two with sharp ears suddenly heard a Clansman wildly shouting, "Lord lianwu is here! Everyone, be on guard!"

"....."

When the two of them heard this cry, they looked at each other speechlessly. They thought to themselves, it seems that master has brought quite a bit of excitement to their own clansmen! However, as a member of the Phoenix Clan, he had to do something for the clan!

With that thought in mind, the two of them revealed a tacit smile and were about to walk out when they were stopped at the gate by the sixth elder.

The sixth elder looked at the two restless phoenixes with an unfriendly expression and said in an unpleasant tone, "Where do you guys want to go?"

"Hehe! Little six, we heard that the legendary Lord lianwu is here, so we want to go and take a look. " Old fire and Feng Miao looked at each other and said in unison.

"Don't go! Stay here obediently. You're still patients!" The sixth elder didn't even think about it and stopped the two old phoenixes who wanted to watch the fun from going out to join in the fun.

When the two old phoenixes heard this, they immediately cried and drooped their heads. Sob ... Little six was really too dictatorial. It was not easy for their master to come here. They really wanted to sneak a peek! Even just a glance would do! However, little six didn't allow them to go out.

What the hell is this? However, the two of them couldn't openly say that she was their master and that they had to see her since she was here at the Feng clan! Ugh! They must not expose their relationship now!

However, if they were not allowed to see their master, the two old phoenixes suddenly felt an itch in their hearts. It was as if a kitten was scratching their hearts with its claws, making them feel quite uncomfortable.

The next moment, the two of them looked pitifully at the overbearing sixth elder. Seeing this, the sixth elder couldn't help but hold his forehead and said with a headache, "It's for your own good that I don't let you out. That Lian Wu clearly came with ill intentions, and the king has no one to use. Don't forget, you haven't fully recovered from your injuries!"

Her words were definitely from the bottom of her heart. The two old phoenixes also understood that little six was doing this for their own good, and they could not directly tell their little thoughts to the sixth elder. Therefore, for a moment, the two old phoenixes were extremely conflicted.

Seeing them like this, the sixth elder's heart softened and he softened his tone, "It's not impossible for you to go out and take a look at Lord Wu, but you absolutely can't go out now. Let's wait until this matter is almost over before going out! Now, all of you go back and take a nap!"

In fact, the sixth elder was also quite curious about what the mist sect would do! However, she knew the Phoenix King too well. She knew that the Phoenix King would definitely find an elder to deal with it. And now, besides her, the sixth elder, who had gone on strike, there were no other idle elders in the Phoenix Clan!

At this time, the elders of the Phoenix Clan were either in seclusion or had left home. Therefore, the sixth elder was definitely not willing to be used by the unrepentant Phoenix King!

When old fire and Feng Miao heard the sixth elder's words, they both smiled evilly and said in unison, "Right! We can't let the king use us as laborers, so let's wait and go out to watch the show!"

When the sixth elder heard this, he nodded in satisfaction. Then, the three old phoenixes, who currently had the highest status in the Phoenix Clan, turned around and returned to their rooms, drinking tea and chatting.

At the same time, Leng ruoxue, who had been treated as a jinx by the phoenixes and was on high alert, led the large group once again. They marched from the main entrance of the Phoenix clan's territory and headed towards the Phoenix Royal Palace.

Chapter 2422 Nouveau Riche Leng Ruoxue \(2\)

This time, due to Leng ruoxue and the others' uninvited arrival, the Feng clan's guards were shocked and only cared about reporting back to the clan. Hence, Leng ruoxue and the others entered the Feng clan without any obstruction as if they had entered an uninhabited place.

The Peacock King was surprised and speechless at the fact that no one stopped them wherever they went. In the past, he had thought that the Phoenix Clan was very powerful. But now, why did he think that the Phoenix Clan was weak?

What was he trying to do? They did not even see a single Phoenix's feather as they walked past. However, he could vaguely feel that many pairs of eyes were hiding in the dark and peeping at them.

Since when did the Phoenix-kind start to do such things? Such a Phoenix Clan was definitely not on the same level as the powerful Phoenix Clan he knew.

Or had the Feng clan been replaced?

The Peacock King's mind was in turmoil. He felt quite depressed about the new understanding of the Phoenix tribe. One must know that in his heart, the Phoenix tribe was once a noble tribe. But now, he was deeply disappointed!

He really wanted to see a battle between the Phoenix Clan and his master! But now, it seemed like it was just his master's personal show! The dignified Phoenix Clan had actually gone into hiding.

How embarrassing! It was too embarrassing!

The Peacock King was glad that he had left the Phoenix Clan. Otherwise, he would have been humiliated along with the Phoenix Clan.

With this thought, the Peacock King's spirits were lifted. He raised his head and puffed out his chest, following Leng ruoxue's footsteps with large strides.

Leng ruoxue, who suddenly felt the fluctuation of aura beside her, raised her head and saw the Peacock King's excited look. She found it funny, but she could not understand why he was acting like a completely different person!

"Peacock King, you're about to meet the Phoenix King. Are you excited?" Leng ruoxue smiled as she teased.

"What?" The Peacock King was about to answer yes when he felt that his master's tone was a little off. The look in her eyes was even more off. The only thing that wasn't affected by the disguise was her beautiful eyes, which were filled with ambiguity.

Instantly, the Peacock King became depressed!

Does master mean that he's excited because he's going to see the Phoenix King?

I'm innocent! This was absolutely a great injustice! He was excited to see the Phoenix King, but it was definitely not the excitement that his master was thinking. He was excited because he knew that the Phoenix King was going to be in trouble!

So, master, can you not be so bad and deliberately wrong him?

Thinking up to this point, the Peacock King's beautiful eyes were filled with tears. He pitifully said, "My dear, how could you misunderstand me? my heart is full of you!"

Upon hearing this, Leng ruoxue's face was filled with black lines. She had miscalculated. She shouldn't have teased this little Peacock in the Phoenix clan's territory. Once this little Peacock was in the Phoenix clan's territory, out of caution, it would call her "darling" in a nauseating manner! Yet, she couldn't say, "don't call me that!" Who asked this to be the Phoenix King's territory!

At this moment, Leng ruoxue deeply felt that she had shot herself in the foot.

As for the other peacocks who had come to watch, cheer, and watch the fun, they all had goosebumps when they heard these mushy words. Many of the exaggerated peacocks even lowered their heads and pretended to look for something, not daring to look at their disgraceful King.

As for the Peacock King, he received Cang's icy cold gaze without exception. However, the strong and brave him still ignored Cang's gaze.

When Cang saw this, he was furious.

However, it didn't act rashly. Instead, it made a mental note of the Peacock King.

Hmph! Someone will take care of you! Cang said hatefully.

At this moment, after listening to the Peacock King's words, Leng ruoxue, who had been silent for a while, looked deeply at the Peacock King before continuing forward. Seeing this, the Peacock King hurriedly followed behind her like a guardian angel.

With a depressed heart, Leng ruoxue brought a large group of peacocks and arrived at the entrance of the Royal Phoenix Palace in no time.

When they arrived at the entrance of the Royal Phoenix Palace, Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes swept across the place and saw the guards who were all ready to guard the Royal Phoenix Palace shiver. The leader of the guards even summoned up his courage and said, "Lord Lianwu, the Phoenix King is currently recuperating and won't see anyone. So, so, please go back!"

When the leader of the guards said this, he mustered all his strength, and his little heart was trembling non-stop. However, Leng ruoxue did not take his words seriously at all. She only asked indifferently, "Does the Phoenix King know that I'm here?"

"I, I know! Ah! No! I don't know!" The leader of the guards was speaking incoherently. One moment he knew, the next moment he didn't. Hearing this, Leng ruoxue was anxious for him.

"Alright, you don't have to be in a difficult position. It doesn't matter if you know or not. Go and report that I want to see the Phoenix King!" Leng ruoxue ordered.

"Which, which ..." When the guard leader heard Leng ruoxue's words, he was so conflicted that he was on the verge of tears.

Even though he wanted to say that the Phoenix King had said that she did not want to see him, when he saw how determined Leng ruoxue was to see the Phoenix King, the leader of the guards did not dare to say the words that were already at the tip of his tongue.

"Do you want to go in and report yourself, or do you want me to use force?" Leng ruoxue said impatiently when she saw the guard leader trembling again.

Wu ... Hearing this threat, the guard leader's eyes were filled with tears. He couldn't help but cry out in his heart, my Lord! You can't do this! Aren't you making things difficult for me?

However, Leng ruoxue clearly did not care if the other party was making things difficult for her. The peacocks behind her even took advantage of her authority and shouted in unison, "Quickly go and tell the Phoenix King that my Lord wants to see her! I'll beat you up if you dawdle!"

"..." The guard leader was silent. Was this considered as the Phoenix falling into the sun and being bullied by the peacock?

The leader of the guards was quite depressed. He was actually bullied in his own territory! How useless was this! However, after the peacocks finished their roars, they felt extremely comfortable. An unprecedented sense of satisfaction filled their bodies. This feeling of exaltation was simply too wonderful.

"Quickly go! What are you doing?" After a while, seeing that the guard leader was standing still, another Peacock tried to roar.

The leader of the guards was so depressed that he wanted to bang his head against the wall. He raised his head to look at Leng ruoxue, but he still did not move.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue glanced at the peacocks and said calmly, "Didn't you say you were going to beat him up? Why aren't you doing anything?"

"Ah!" After the peacocks heard this, they cried out in surprise. Then, they suddenly realized that their master wanted them to beat someone up!

Cheering, the peacocks swarmed up. The unlucky human guard leader didn't even have the time to attack before he was beaten to the ground by the huge number of peacocks.

The peacocks didn't know how to control their strength, and many of them took the opportunity to take revenge. Therefore, the extremely aggrieved guard leader didn't react at all. The other guards present were all scared silly when they saw the fierce and brutal appearance of the peacocks.

Chapter 2423 Nouveau Riche Leng Ruoxue \(3\)

This also led to no guards coming to the rescue after the leader of the guards was beaten. After the leader of the guards fell to the ground, no guard dared to stand out.

Moreover, the guards of the Phoenix tribe could not understand when the peacocks had become so ferocious. Were these the peacocks they knew?

Injected with chicken blood? Or did he take hormones?

In contrast to the Phoenix clan's guards' gloominess, the peacocks were excited again. They looked at Leng ruoxue with eyes full of admiration.

It's better to follow master! In the past, they never had the chance to beat up Phoenix! Not to mention that they didn't have the chance, more importantly, they didn't have the guts to do so!

But now, not only did they treat these phoenixes as nothing, but they also had the opportunity to beat these phoenixes up. At this moment, they truly felt that they were too blessed!

Hehe! As expected, there was meat to eat, wine to drink, and a Phoenix to beat following master!

Leng ruoxue was very satisfied with the peacocks' swift and decisive actions. After giving them a look of praise, her beautiful eyes swept over the guards present. Even though she did not say a word, many of the timid guards could not help but tremble.

"I, I'll go and inform the Phoenix King." One of the Phoenix clan's guards said in an unyielding manner under Leng ruoxue's threatening gaze.

However, no matter how important a backbone was, it couldn't be more important than his life, right? These vicious and brutal guys would really beat the Phoenix to death! What made them feel aggrieved was that all the peacocks attacked in close combat, not giving them any chance to attack.

After thinking about it, the tactful Feng clan guard put down his moral integrity and went to run errands for Leng ruoxue.

Not long after, Leng ruoxue heard loud banging sounds coming from the courtyard of the Phoenix Palace. Following that, a guard with a swollen face and a bruised nose appeared in front of Leng ruoxue and the others. He said with tears in his eyes, "Lord Lianwu, I've already informed the Phoenix King!"

He was even beaten up by the Phoenix King, sob ...

"You've done well. This is your reward," Leng ruoxue said with satisfaction. With that, Leng ruoxue threw a small white jade bottle to the guard.

The guard opened the bottle in confusion. The fragrance from the bottle instantly filled his nose. The guard was shocked and immediately poured out a pill and ate it. He then quickly closed the bottle and kept it carefully. After that, he looked at Leng ruoxue with an even more charming gaze.

He wasn't a fool and naturally knew that Lord Lianwu had given him a healing pill. However, the effect of this healing pill seemed to be even better than the best healing pill in their clan!

In the blink of an eye, he felt that the injuries on his body were no longer painful. When he touched it with his hand, he realized that the injuries on his face and body had all healed!

This guard was quite knowledgeable and knew how serious the injuries that the Phoenix King had caused him were. Even if he had taken healing pills, it was impossible for him to recover so quickly. However, the pills that Lord Lian Wu had given him were very effective, so there was no need to doubt it.

The guards were very grateful to Leng ruoxue and no longer stopped her from entering the inner court of the Phoenix King Palace. As for the other guards who had seen the effects of Leng ruoxue's elixir, they were not as determined as before.

Now, they also felt that this Lord Lian Wu really couldn't be offended. Look at how generous he was, directly giving a bottle of healing medicinal pills. The effect of that medicine was so amazing, and such a good healing medicinal pill would probably be sold for a sky-high price in the divine realm. However, after giving a bottle, he didn't even blink.

How rich was he? What a nouveau riche's behavior!

When the other guards looked at the guard who had received the pill, their eyes instantly burned with desire.

"Do you guys really want that pill too?" Leng ruoxue chuckled.

"Yes, yes." When the guards heard this, they all nodded in unison, the expression on their faces was like a puppy asking for a caress, as cute as it could be.

"I still have a lot of them!" Leng ruoxue smiled in satisfaction.

Hearing this, the guards suppressed the desire in their hearts and looked at Leng ruoxue. None of the guards present were stupid. They knew that Lord Lian Wu would not give them such a precious pill for no reason. Thus, they were all waiting for Leng ruoxue's conditions.

At this moment, she heard Leng ruoxue say, "actually, I want to be on good terms with the Phoenix Clan. The elders of the Phoenix Clan also have the same intention. However, your Phoenix King refuses to agree no matter what. She even chased away those elders. Sigh!" I pity you ordinary clansmen! The Phoenix-kind now has no elders to help the Phoenix King. In the future, your King will be a commander with nothing but light! I'm afraid the status of the Phoenix Clan is also ..."

Leng ruoxue purposely didn't finish her sentence. When the guards heard what Leng ruoxue had to say, they all fell silent.

In fact, the elders 'strike was no longer a secret in the clan. However, many clansmen didn't know why the elders went on strike. However, as the guards of the Phoenix King, they definitely knew more than the ordinary clansmen.

Now that they heard Leng ruoxue's words, the guards could not help but hold a grudge against the Phoenix King. Especially after seeing Leng ruoxue's precious pills, the guards deeply felt that befriending Leng ruoxue would definitely bring more benefits than disadvantages to the Phoenix Clan!

But in this matter, these small guards could not make the decision!

"That ... Lord Lianwu, we're just guards. We don't have the right to speak in such important matters of the Feng clan. Therefore, even if we really hope that the Feng clan can be on good terms with you, we're just insignificant people. I'm afraid we can't do anything about this matter." The guards looked at each other and sent a representative to speak.

"I don't need you to have the right to speak. It's enough as long as you have the intention." Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

"Then what does Lord Lian Wu want us to do?" The guard asked.

"Just tell the truth about the elders 'strike to those clansmen who don't know the truth. You don't want the elders, who have been fighting for the interests of the Phoenix-kind, to be misunderstood by the clansmen, do you?" Leng ruoxue gave the guard a 'you're very smart' look before replying.

"This is what I should do!" When the guard heard this, he felt that Leng ruoxue's request was not a difficult one. She just had to spread the truth! In any case, even if they didn't say these things, their clansmen would know one day!

Seeing that the guards had agreed, Leng ruoxue nodded her head in satisfaction. She then took out a few small white jade bottles and placed them in front of the guards. She explained, "The pills inside are all for healing and recovering Shen power. Each person has two bottles. You can divide them among yourselves!"

A tycoon! He was definitely a big tycoon!

When the guards heard this, they were instantly excited. They saw the White jade bottle releasing a green light that was like a Wolf 's. However, in front of Leng ruoxue, they held back and did not make a move. When Leng ruoxue brought her peacocks into the inner courtyard of the Phoenix Palace, the guards immediately swarmed forward and divided the small Jade bottles among themselves.

As the saying goes, "one's mouth is soft when eating others, and one's hands are short when taking something."

The guards of the Phoenix Clan would never dare to take something from someone else without doing anything. Therefore, in just a short while, all the clansmen in the Phoenix clan's territory knew the truth about their elders' strike. In an instant, the whole Phoenix Clan was full of complaints against the Phoenix King.

This whirlwind quickly reached Feng Miao and the other two.

After the sixth elder heard the report from his clansmen, he was stunned for a long time.

When Feng Miao and old fire saw this, they could only stand there in a daze, not saying a word.

"I only found out today that our Feng clan's guards are actually so eloquent." After a long time, the sixth elder suddenly said.

"Yup! We didn't expect it either, but they're telling the truth!" Feng Miao casually echoed.

As far as he knew, the words of the guards of the Feng clan were vivid and vivid. Although there was no lack of exaggeration, but at least eighty percent of it was true. Feng Xiao and the sixth elder were also said to be heroic figures who dared to argue with the Feng King for the benefit of the Feng clan, and they were instantly respected and worshipped by the people.

However, it seemed that their little sixth did not want to be in the limelight!

"It seems that our Elder Council's decision to be on good terms with Lord Lianwu was correct! That Lord actually bribed the guards so quickly, he's really not simple!" At this time, the sixth elder sighed.

In fact, the sixth elder knew very well that some of the clan members had been guessing the truth behind the strike. However, all of the elders had kept their mouths shut. They had also chosen to close one eye to those rumors. They did this not because they wanted to hide the truth for the Phoenix King, but because Feng Tong was still the king of the Phoenix Clan. If Feng Tong's reputation was damaged, the reputation of the Phoenix Clan would be affected as well.

But now, even if they wanted to hide it for the Phoenix King, it seemed that they couldn't! Al! Could this be the will of the heavens? Fortunately, only the members of the Phoenix Clan knew the inside story. Otherwise, the Phoenix Clan would have become the laughing stock of the divine realm!

The sixth elder could ignore the reputation of the Phoenix King, but he couldn't ignore the reputation of the entire Phoenix Clan. After sighing, she was conflicted again. This matter must not be spread out! Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

When Feng Miao and old fire heard the sixth elder's words, they were secretly happy. Their master didn't have a way! It would be strange if any Beastie could refuse such a rich person's behavior of directly throwing medicinal pills! However, only his master would dare to do that. If it were anyone else, even if they had that many pills, they would not have the courage to do so!

With this thought, the two of them were suddenly filled with pride.

Chapter 2424 The Powerlessness Of The Phoenix King \(1\)

After looking at each other, Feng Luan acted as their representative and said, ""Little six is right, but unfortunately, our King doesn't understand this truth. It's really a headache!"

"Yup!" When the sixth elder heard this, he also sighed deeply. They could tolerate the fact that the king was lecherous, but sometimes when the king was stubborn, it was really a headache! Moreover, she didn't need to think to know that without the elders' restraint, the king would definitely not put Lord Lianwu in his eyes. However, now that they had all gone on strike, it was useless to think about this!

Al! Forget it! I'll just follow the king! She could do whatever she wanted. In any case, the Feng clan's reputation was not as good as it used to be, so how bad could it be?

With this thought in mind, the sixth elder decided to go all out. It was her fault for not being able to stop the king's actions!

When Old Fire and Feng Miao saw the sixth elder sighing again, they followed suit and sighed as well. However, their feelings were definitely different from the sixth elder's, because they were hoping that the Phoenix King would become a commander without any power! Otherwise, it would be inconvenient for them to move around, right?

With that thought in mind, Old Fire secretly gave Feng Miao a look, then probed, "If Feng Wu was still here, our Feng clan would never be in this state!"

Hearing this, the two of them saw the sixth elder's face instantly turn pale. Just as the two of them were confused, they heard the sixth elder say nervously, "Don't talk nonsense, why are you mentioning Feng Wu? If this reaches the king's ears, I'm sure you'll be in serious trouble!"

The sixth elder's warning made the two of them look at each other again. They even thought at the same time that Little Six also knew about the previous Phoenix King! It seemed that none of the elders of the Phoenix Clan were easy to deal with. It was just that they didn't show it.

With this thought in mind, Old Huo naturally intended to continue his efforts. He deliberately lowered his voice and asked the sixth elder, "How much do you know about Feng Wu?"

"Why are you asking this?" The sixth elder asked cautiously.

"Hehe! I'm just curious." Old Fire was a little embarrassed. What did Little Six take him for? Did he have to be so guarded against him! Looking at Little Six's expression, he could guess that Little Six should know a lot about the former Phoenix King.

"You don't have to be curious about this kind of thing. Old Huo, I don't care what you think in your heart or how much you know. You must keep the matter of the former Phoenix King to yourself and don't mention it to anyone!" The sixth elder said worriedly. If the king knew that they were discussing the previous Phoenix King in private, the current king would not let them off!

"Alright then!" Old Huo replied helplessly. Looking at the sixth elder's cautious expression, he knew that he wouldn't be able to get anything out of him this time. It seemed like he and Feng Miao still had a long way to go before they could get the sixth elder to defect. At least, it would not be that easy to get past the sixth elder. However, it was fortunate that the sixth elder had a good relationship with the two of them. No matter what he heard from them, he would not reveal it. This way, he and Feng Miao would still be a little safer.

However, he truly hoped that the sixth elder would stand on his side. In the Feng clan, other than their own descendants, only Feng Miao was closer to them! They naturally did not want to become enemies with the sixth elder!

After this matter was returned empty handed, Feng Miao was afraid that old fire and the sixth elder would feel awkward, so she quickly changed the topic. ""Old Huo, little six, I think we can get ready to go and watch the show."

"Not now!" The sixth elder rejected Feng Miao's suggestion.

"Uh! Then when are we going out?" Old fire said anxiously. Although they could observe everything in the Phoenix King Palace through their divine sense if they stayed here, it would be easy for the Phoenix King to discover them. Therefore, it would be better to go to the scene and watch the show. Besides, with the sixth elder here, old fire truly felt that there was no need for him and Feng Miao to secretly meet their master. The two of them could totally appear in front of their master openly with the sixth elder accompanying them.

However, little six didn't agree to it!

"We'll go out when King and Lord Lianwu are almost done with their discussion. " The sixth elder said after some thought. She was absolutely unwilling to get involved in The Grudge between the king and Lord Lian Wu. She only cared about the development of the Feng clan.

Seeing that the sixth elder had made up his mind, the two of them could only nod in agreement. However, they really felt that the sixth elder was too naive. How could the Phoenix King, that scum, let them go? when the Phoenix King sees that there is no one to use, he will definitely send someone to find them!

Sure enough, not long after the two of them thought this, the secret guards of the Phoenix King appeared and conveyed the Order of the Phoenix King. After the three of them readily agreed, none of them immediately took action. Instead, they became calmer.

At the same time, Leng Ruoxue had also brought her men and was approaching the entrance of the Phoenix King's Chamber.

The Phoenix King, who was in the room, heard the sound of footsteps close at hand and the anger in his heart rushed to his head.

F * ck! The elders of the Feng clan actually dared to go on a strike, and she was the last one to know about it. Such an important piece of news, and none of her secret guards had reported it to her! This was preposterous!

Looking at the head of the secret guards kneeling in front of him with disdain, the Phoenix King wanted to cut him into pieces. After glaring at the other party, the Phoenix King roared angrily, ""Do you think I'm dead? The elders are on strike, why didn't you tell me?"

"King, we're only responsible for your safety. Anything else has nothing to do with us! We can't cross the line, this is the rule you set in the beginning. " The leader of the hidden guards said without any shame.

"Protect me? Did you protect me?" Hearing the leader's words, the Phoenix King was so angry that he laughed.

If these guys had really protected her, how could she have been so badly injured? Thinking of this, the anger in the Phoenix King's heart rose a few more steps.

However, after hearing what the Phoenix King had to say, the leader of the secret guards did not panic. Instead, he said calmly, "The king doesn't allow us to get close to him when he's doing business. This is also the rule that the king set in the beginning!"

"..." The Phoenix King was furious.

So she didn't know that the elders really went on strike and that she was injured because of her own actions! This, this was clearly shirking responsibility!

Thinking of this, the Phoenix King was so angry that he shouted again, "What about my secret agents? Were they also mute? Why didn't you tell me about this?"

"The king said that he would not see anyone. Therefore, the guards followed the king's orders strictly. The king's secret agents could not see the king even if they wanted to!" The leader of the hidden guards said matter-of-factly.

When the Phoenix King heard this, he almost vomited blood!

F * ck! She really didn't know how to describe her feelings at this time, because no matter how she asked, the leader of the secret guards had a hundred reasons for waiting for her. More importantly, he said it so reasonably that she couldn't refute it. Who asked her, the Phoenix King, to set many rules?

Chapter 2425 The Powerlessness Of The Phoenix King \(2\)

Could she say that these secret guards were not doing their job well?

However, the consequence of these guys doing their job so well was that she, as the king, knew nothing about what happened in the clan. Wasn't this price a little too big?

"You ... You did that on purpose?" The extremely angry Phoenix King took a deep breath and spoke without thinking.

When the leader of the hidden guards heard this, he immediately felt wronged.

"King, we secret guards have always been loyal to King. How can King doubt us? if King can't even trust the secret guards he personally chose, who else can King trust?" The leader of the hidden guards said very emotionally. Coupled with his fiery red eyes that were filled with tears, it was as if he had really suffered a great grievance.

When the Phoenix King heard this, she suddenly felt a suffocating feeling in her chest. She wanted to spit it out, but she couldn't swallow it down. It was only until her pale face turned red that she finally let out this breath of air.

After taking a deep breath, the Phoenix King panted and shouted, "From today onwards, your position as a hidden guard is revoked!"

She didn't need a disobedient leader of the secret guards. Although the words of the leader of the hidden guards sounded very reasonable, she was still unhappy in her heart. She kept feeling that something was wrong.

At this time, there were some fluctuations in the air not far from the Phoenix King. Then, a Man in Black clothes appeared in the Phoenix King's bedroom.

The man first glanced at the leader of the secret guards who was kneeling in front of the Phoenix King. After frowning silently, he said directly to the Phoenix King, "Your Majesty, this subordinate has already informed the sixth elder and the other two."

"Very good! From today onwards, you are the leader of this King's hidden guards. " When the Phoenix King heard the report, he was in a much better mood.

"Yes!" The black-clothed man replied and then stood to the side.

However, after waiting for a long time, the Phoenix King still did not see the sixth elder and the other two appear in her chamber. Instead, Leng ruoxue did.

Looking at the ugly woman who had pushed open the door of her Palace and was standing there with a smile on her face, the Phoenix King's heart was filled with anger again.

'Damn it!' This woman ...

"You're so rude. Don't you know how to knock?" The Phoenix King said in anger. She didn't want to see this woman the most, but she had arrived so soon.

"Knock on the door? I want to! However, I'm afraid that I'll disturb the Phoenix King's happy occasion and cause the Phoenix King to be frightened again. If that happens, it'll be my fault!" Leng ruoxue said with a smile. When the peacocks behind her heard this, they all chuckled suggestively.

That laughter greatly provoked the Phoenix King.

The Phoenix King stretched out her snow-white fingers and said to the two men in Black, "Someone has trespassed into this king's palace. Take her down!"

Hearing this, no matter if it was the former leader of the hidden guards or the new leader of the hidden guards, neither of them moved.

Seeing this, the Phoenix King's anger rose again.

"Are you guys deaf? Didn't you hear my order?" The Phoenix King was about to go crazy. Why did she feel that everything was out of her control after a few days of rest? It was fine if the elders were disobedient, but how could the secret guards that he had personally trained dare to disobey his orders?

"Your Highness, please calm down. I heard that your secret guards are only responsible for your safety and will only help you when you are in danger. Now that I am not a threat to your life, isn't it natural that they have not helped? Why do you have to make things difficult for them? As the saying goes, nothing can be accomplished without rules. You can't take the lead and break the rules. You must know that secret guards are not attendants or male companions. They have to do whatever you want them to do!" Seeing that the Phoenix King was being unreasonable, Leng ruoxue spoke up for the two pitiful secret guards out of goodwill.

Her words had successfully earned the two secret guards' grateful gazes. However, the Phoenix King looked at Leng ruoxue as if she could not wait to kill her.

However, Leng ruoxue didn't care about these things. She casually found a chair and sat down. Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes swept across the room as she asked curiously, "Eh, it's rare to see no man serving the Phoenix King. I'm not used to it!"

"You, you ..." The Phoenix King pointed at Leng ruoxue fiercely. She was so angry that she could not even form a complete sentence. Was he mocking her on purpose? How could she be so lecherous that she had to be accompanied by a man wherever she went?

"Phoenix King, don't be afraid. I'm not here to fight with you. I just want to seek justice for my little Peacock and some compensation." Leng ruoxue saw that the Phoenix King's face had turned black from anger, so she quickly explained her intentions. She didn't want the Phoenix King to let his thoughts run wild or gather his clansmen to deal with her. If that happened, she would be very tired.

Who knew that after hearing her words, the Phoenix King's face became even uglier and he shouted like a crazy woman without caring about his image, "Dammit! What justice do you have to seek? You still want compensation? Hmph! No way!"

"No way? Even a window would do! I'm not picky!" Leng ruoxue said in an infuriating manner.

After saying this, Leng ruoxue saw that the Phoenix King's face had turned even darker as if she was willing to.

As she laughed in her heart, Leng ruoxue continued, "While I was in the parasol tree forest, you threatened and teased my little Peacock, causing him considerable physical and mental harm. Even now, he still remembers your threat and has nightmares. Therefore, you must compensate me for this. Otherwise, I will report this to God Lord fogriple and beg God Lord to make the decision for me!"

Leng ruoxue's words were extremely serious. If others were to see this, they would not think that she was joking. In addition, with the dumbfounded Peacock King by her side, outsiders would believe her words even more. This was the effect that Leng ruoxue wanted.

However, the Peacock King's dazed look was definitely not because he was frightened by the Phoenix King, but because he was stunned by his master's shameless words!

He ... When did he suffer such a serious injury? When did she have a nightmare? Why didn't he know anything about it?

The Peacock King was puzzled, but he also knew that he could not afford to let his master down. Hence, he had no choice but to cooperate with Leng ruoxue in a distressed manner. At the same time, he put on a frightened expression.

His skin was relatively fair, and coupled with his expression, he looked like a pale, frightened pretty boy. Even the peacock tribe members who knew the truth deeply believed their Master's words at this moment, thinking that the king had really been frightened. From this, it could be seen how well he had acted.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue gave the Peacock King a satisfied look, as if she was a promising student. Then, she turned to the Phoenix King and said, "Phoenix King, look at how you've scared my little Peacock! All! How could you have the heart to scare him? Don't you take other people's men seriously? Or do you think that I don't dare to seek justice for my little Peacock? Hmph! Other people might be afraid of you, but I'm not!"

Her words were so imposing that even the Phoenix King was stunned at first. But very quickly, the Phoenix King reacted and said with a dark expression, "Is the Peacock King really frightened? Then wasn't he a little too timid? You're willing to have such a useless man? Even Lord Wu, I feel wronged for you."

Chapter 2426 The Powerlessness Of The Phoenix King \(3\)

The Phoenix King's words were obviously trying to sow discord. However, she didn't expect that her threat would really scare the Peacock King. Now that she thought about it, she didn't seem to have said anything too serious! Why was the Peacock King so frightened? She couldn't understand it.

When Leng ruoxue heard the Phoenix King's provocation, she did not get angry. Instead, she looked at the peacock Queen considerately and said, "Phoenix King, you're wrong! Your Phoenix Clan is the leader of all birds. Isn't it only natural for the Peacock King to be afraid of your threat? It would be abnormal if he wasn't afraid! Don't you agree?"

When the Phoenix King heard this, he really wanted to lie to his conscience and say that it was wrong! However, she really couldn't bring herself to say such shameless and quibbling words. After all, her skin wasn't thick to such a profound degree, and all birds were afraid of the Phoenix Clan. This was also determined by their nature. If she really denied it, once these words were spread, she, the Phoenix King, would probably be laughed at by all the people and beasts of the immortal realm until their teeth fell off!

It could be said that the Phoenix King still had his own pride in some aspects!

Seeing that the Phoenix King was not responding, Leng ruoxue could only continue to speak non-stop, "Phoenix King, we are all women. I can understand your thoughts. In your heart, you must not want to see the Peacock King live well. However, if your threat was directed at me, I definitely wouldn't blame you. Who asked us to be love rivals? Which love rival would get along with each other in harmony! But the person you're threatening is my little Peacock. You've touched my reverse scale! Thus, I have to make an announcement for my little Peacock. I hope you can understand. Otherwise, where would I put my face?"

Leng ruoxue's words were absolutely reasonable, and even the Phoenix King could not find any fault with them. Furthermore, Leng ruoxue's words had also struck a chord in her heart. As a strong woman, it was only right and proper for her to stand up for her man!

If it was her, and her man was threatened by another woman, she would also seek justice for her man! But now, she was not the one seeking justice, so she felt uncomfortable no matter how she thought about it.

Especially when she saw the Peacock King looking longingly at the ugly woman in front of him, the fire of jealousy in her heart burned again.

F * ck! He was making eyes at her again. Was he looking for death?

The more the Phoenix King thought about it, the more she felt that it was unfair. It should be known that the Peacock King had never shown such a little man's expression in front of her, and she had taken a fancy to the Peacock King a long time ago. Although she had never been able to get him, she could not allow this adulterous couple to be so intimate and intimate in front of her! Wasn't this a slap to her face?

At that moment, the Phoenix King, who initially thought that Leng ruoxue's words made sense, immediately denied her words. Then, the Phoenix King said to Leng ruoxue in a rage, ""You've also said that our Phoenix Clan is the leader of the bird clan. Isn't it normal for me to say a few words to him? What was there to be scared of? You must know that not everyone is qualified to be taught by this King. This is his honor!"

In the face of the Phoenix King's unreasonable words, Leng ruoxue only smiled and said calmly, ""Phoenix King, have you forgotten that the peacock race is already mine? It's none of my business if the Phoenix King wants to educate other birds, but it's not your place to educate my people, understand?"

"Hmph! Even if the peacock clan is already your people, they are still birds, and are under the jurisdiction of our Phoenix Clan. This is the nature of the beast clan!" The Phoenix King quibbled.

"It seems that I can't come to an agreement with the Phoenix King!" Leng ruoxue smiled faintly after hearing the Phoenix Prince's words.

"What, you want to fight? You're only a divine Emperor, and these peacocks aren't of much use to you. You'd better think carefully!" When the Phoenix King heard this, he felt that this was the prelude to a fight! He quickly warned.

"It seems that the Phoenix King really likes to threaten others. However, what I want to say is that the Phoenix King should just take care of yourself. You don't have to worry about us!" Leng ruoxue said without any appreciation.

"Hmph! You don't know what's good for you!" The Phoenix King scoffed coldly and shot Leng ruoxue a disdainful look. If it wasn't for her identity, she would have attacked this annoying woman long ago. However, it wasn't too late. Moreover, this was the other party's initiative to stir up trouble, so she presumably couldn't blame her for it.

When the Phoenix King thought of this, his mood immediately became better.

Who knew that Leng ruoxue would return her gaze and say, ""Since I can't come to an agreement with the Phoenix King, then we won't talk anymore. We'll take our leave."

With that, Leng ruoxue led a group of dazed peacocks and left the Phoenix Clan as if there was no one else present, under the gaze of the similarly dumbfounded Phoenix King.

Even after Leng ruoxue left with the peacocks, the Phoenix King was still in a daze and was completely petrified.

She couldn't understand how things had suddenly become like this. What was going on?

The Phoenix King only reacted when the sixth elder, old fire, and Feng Miao arrived. She grabbed the sixth elder's hand and asked angrily, "Where's that bitch Lian Wu?"

"King, Lord Lianwu has already left." The sixth elder said honestly. They had just happened to see Lord Lian Wu leaving with a large group of peacocks at the gate. Although they had met face to face, neither side had spoken, so the sixth elder was somewhat confused about what had happened.

After the sixth elder finished speaking, he saw that the Phoenix King's face was like a color palette, white then red, red then green, green then black. Obviously, his King was very angry.

The Phoenix King was not only furious! She was so angry that she was going crazy! He was so angry that he wanted to vomit blood!

F * ck! She was already prepared to fight and was planning to teach that B * tch Lian Wu a good lesson. Who knew that not only did she not want to fight with her, but she also directly left.

This was like a person who had long been prepared for battle, but his punch landed on cotton. How powerless was this!

The Phoenix King was depressed! He was still very, very depressed! He felt extremely aggrieved, as if there was a fire burning in his chest, but he couldn't let it out. This feeling was not good.

Looking at the silent and sulky Phoenix King, the sixth elder didn't know what to say. Could she say that she was starting to pity the king?

Based on her understanding of Wang ding, Wang ding had intended to make a move, but his opponent had left so easily that she no longer had the best reason to make a move. And if his opponent had not made a move, Wang ding would not have taken the initiative due to his relationship with God Lord Fogriple! As such, the sixth elder concluded that the king must be feeling extremely aggrieved!

The tactful sixth elder did not want to be the king's punching bag, so he gave old fire and Feng Miao, who were happily watching the show, a look, and the three of them promptly left the Phoenix King Palace.

Sure enough, when the Phoenix King came back to his senses and wanted to ask the sixth elder about the strike, he couldn't find him at all. According to the Guard's report, the sixth elder had left the Phoenix Clan with old fire and Feng Miao to find natural treasures for healing, and the date of his return was uncertain.

Now, the only elder in the Phoenix Clan who wasn't in seclusion had also run away from home!

When the Phoenix King heard the news, he smashed all the decorations in the Phoenix King Palace in a fit of anger.

But what was the use of that? The Phoenix King, who had become the commander of the army, could only sulk alone.

However, old fire and Feng Miao did not run away from home of their own will. The two of them had been dragged out by the sixth elder. Moreover, it was after they left the Royal Phoenix Palace. They didn't even have the chance to return to their rooms before they were directly led out of the Phoenix territory by the sixth elder.

The two of them couldn't understand the sixth elder's actions, and they were even more depressed. They were carrying the mission of instigating a rebellion! If they were to leave the Feng clan just like that, how were they going to complete their mission? More importantly, they had only taken a glance at their master previously. Although they were shocked by their master's appearance, she was still their master! He couldn't even say a word to his master. What a great regret!

With this thought in mind, the two of them looked at the sixth elder with even more resentment.

The sixth elder felt the gazes of the two old men and smiled helplessly, "You don't know the king as well as I do. When she comes back to her senses, she'll definitely find trouble with us. So, in order to prevent trouble before it happens, we'd better leave!"

"When are we going back to the clan?" Old fire could not help but ask.

"I don't know. We'll see!" The sixth elder let out a soft sigh, and a trace of worry appeared on his face.

"Uh!" Old fire was speechless. If they were never able to return to the clan, how were he and Feng Miao supposed to complete this mission? This was the first mission given to them by their master after they had acknowledged him as their master. If they failed, they would be too ashamed to face their master!

Old fire was worried!

Feng Miao was also silent!

The sixth elder kept sighing.

The three aimless old phoenixes were at a loss, not knowing where to go.

However, old fire still reported his current situation to his master. After Leng ruoxue expressed her understanding, she instructed them to take good care of themselves. Just like that, the three old phoenixes began their wandering life in the God World.

At this moment, after Leng ruoxue had left the Phoenix Clan and returned to the peacock clan with a group of peacocks, she was immediately surrounded by a group of peacocks led by the Peacock King.

Leng ruoxue burst out laughing when she saw the peacocks' anxious expressions.

"Master, you can still laugh? Isn't it too cowardly of us to leave the Phoenix Clan just like that? I'm afraid that the Phoenix King will look down on us even more in the future!" The Peacock King said with a face full of hidden bitterness. He had originally thought that his master would have a great fight with the Phoenix King! Who would have thought that after the other party showed their provocative state, they would actually leave with their tails between their legs like a feather.

Chapter 2427 You Don't Have To Rely On Force To Defeat Your Enemy \(1\)

This ... Wasn't this a case of loud Thunder and light rain?

The Peacock King was extremely disappointed! They were full of vigor and energy as they headed towards the Phoenix clan's territory. Who knew that even if they didn't get justice, how could they leave so easily?

Wouldn't this benefit the Phoenix King? That damned Phoenix King would definitely think that they were afraid! However, the truth was that ever since they acknowledged Leng ruoxue as their master, the peacock clan's morale had been greatly boosted. They had almost forgotten how to spell the word 'fear'. Hence, they could not wait to have a great battle with the Phoenix Clan to boost their morale. However, it was clearly impossible now!

The Peacock King was disappointed, but he didn't know what his master was doing. The other peacocks wanted to ask but didn't dare to. Hence, they could only stare at Leng ruoxue with resentment.

When Leng ruoxue saw the peacocks' little expressions, she was indeed laughing quite happily. However, she couldn't help but look at the number of peacocks she had with a resentful gaze. No matter how thick-skinned she was, she couldn't bear the pitiful gazes.

After sighing, Leng ruoxue explained helplessly, "What are you guys so impatient for? I didn't say that I would let the Phoenix King go. Don't worry, I will get justice for you. "

Hearing this, the peacocks' spirits were lifted again. The Peacock King looked at his master with a face full of guilt. His eyes were filled with tears, and he said, 'Wu ... Master, I was wrong. I should have believed you. '

Even so, the Peacock King couldn't help but ask, "Master, when are we going to attack the Phoenix Clan? Now that the elders of the Phoenix-kind are not here, it's a great opportunity. "

Upon hearing this, Leng ruoxue broke out in a cold sweat.

When did this little Peacock become so violent? Was this still the Beastie that she knew that had a little suffering attribute?

This was clearly a male T-Rex!

Leng ruoxue was speechless, but she would never admit that this little Peacock had learned to be violent from her! She couldn't take the blame for this.

After coming up with an excuse, Leng ruoxue shot a disapproving glance at the Peacock King and said calmly, "Peacock King, and you little peacocks, master will give you a good lesson today."

After Leng ruoxue finished speaking, she deliberately paused to see the peacocks' reaction.

As expected, the peacocks, including the Peacock King, were at a loss when they heard Leng ruoxue's words.

Teach them? What class?

Or did they do something wrong, and their master wanted to teach them a lesson? However, it didn't look like their master was going to educate them!

They could still feel whether their master was angry or not.

Even though the peacocks did not quite understand Leng ruoxue's words, they all put on a modest front and looked up at Leng ruoxue, waiting for their master's next words.

Leng ruoxue looked at the cute little peacocks who were waiting to listen to her. Her heart was itching. At the same time, she stretched out her snow-white Claws and touched the head of one of the little peacocks. Then, she touched them one by one before she reluctantly retracted her Wolf claws.

The peacocks were even more confused after being touched.

What was master doing?

Taking advantage?

Many peacocks thought so, but they did not dare to say it out loud. They could already feel the little white cat's sharp gaze in its owner's arms. It was turning into ice shards and shooting towards them.

Sob ... That was so scary!

After the peacocks sensed the danger, they all moved back in unison to maintain a safe distance from their Masters.

"Master, you ... Didn't you want to give us a lesson? We'll be waiting!" At this time, an elder of the peacock clan mustered his courage and said under the encouragement of the other peacocks.

"Okay, let's start now!" Leng ruoxue was naturally happy to see the peacocks so motivated. After a few coughs, she continued, "Today, I'll give you all the first lesson. That is, you can't defeat your enemies by force!"

"Uh! If we don't rely on force, then what should we rely on?" An older Peacock asked with a puzzled expression.

To the beast race, force was the best way for them to show off their strength. Therefore, they really couldn't think of a better way than force!

Even though she was interrupted, Leng ruoxue was not angry. She was also very happy that these peacocks took the initiative to ask her questions. She then patiently explained to this old peacock, "Of course it's wisdom,"

When the peacocks heard that it was wisdom, they immediately exploded.

They didn't like to use their brains, as it was too tiring. It was better for them to have a direct fight. However, they had to listen to their master's advice.

For a moment, the peacocks were at a loss.

"Master, we beasts are not like humans who like to use schemes and intrigues. It's better for us to take action directly." After a long time, the similarly conflicted Peacock King finally couldn't help but speak.

To make the beasts use their brains, wasn't this the same as asking for their old lives! It was possible to make the four King divine beasts use their brains for everything because the four King divine beasts had always been proud and arrogant. They felt that they were not inferior to humans and even wanted to be stronger than humans in every aspect. However, ordinary beasts like them did not have such ambitions and did not want to be in the limelight.

To the majority of the magical beasts in the divine realm, as long as they were not bullied by others, had a wife, and had a few children, it was enough for them to live for the rest of their lives. So, what was there to be ambitious about? It was really quite far away from them.

If there were conflicts between the beasts and humans, or between the beasts and beasts, the most common solution was to fight. This was the behavior of a man, and it was more satisfying!

If the beasts were to become like humans, many of them would die of suffocation.

"Take action directly? That was the behavior of barbarians. We're all well-bred Beastie, so we naturally can't do this. " Leng ruoxue replied matter-of-factly.

"Uh!" The Peacock King didn't know how to react. Could he say that he didn't know many words and wasn't cultured?

However, looking at his master's expression, it seemed as if being uncultured was a rather embarrassing thing. Therefore, the Peacock King really didn't dare to say that he was illiterate. Otherwise, he might be despised by his master!

Sob ... Uncultured child, I can't afford to hurt you!

Seeing that the Peacock King seemed to be in a dilemma, Leng ruoxue continued, "Actually, I don't mean that you can't directly attack any enemy. It's not a problem for you to directly attack an enemy of equal strength or even lower strength than you. If you have to use wisdom against such an enemy, then I can only say that you are too weak!"

"The enemy I want you to use your intelligence on must be stronger than you! For example, the Phoenix King. With your current strength, it's not quite possible for you to defeat the Phoenix King. As for me, I can't use my full strength now. Otherwise, my identity will be exposed, and my plan will be in vain. Thus, we need to avoid them as much as possible and find an opportunity to catch them off guard. This way, we can obtain the greatest benefits with the least losses. " Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

Chapter 2428 You Don't Have To Rely On Force To Defeat Your Enemy \(2\)

"Master, are you saying that we should launch a sneak attack on the Phoenix King?" After hearing Leng ruoxue's words, the Peacock King was stunned for a moment before he replied.

"I won't ambush you." Leng ruoxue denied.

"Then, then how do we catch them off guard?" The Peacock King was even more confused now. He felt that he could not keep up with his master's pace. During this period of time, he had seen with his own eyes how Leng ruoxue had toyed with the Phoenix King. She had even made up an identity to fool the Phoenix King.

Apart from his admiration, he also felt that his master would do this because his master was a human. If he let a beast do this, even the Phoenix King would not have the ability to do so. Most importantly, he did not expect it to be like this.

But now, after hearing his Master's words, the Peacock King's not-so-smart brain had turned into mush.

"It's a secret. As long as you know, although I won't confront the Phoenix King directly, I won't let her go!" Leng ruoxue said with a mysterious look. Hearing her words, the peacocks were instantly depressed.

The master said that he was giving them a lesson, but in the end, he still kept them in suspense. This ... Wasn't this bullying? One had to know that their curiosity was all piqued. Wuwu ... How could master be like this!

The peacocks' gazes became even more resentful. However, Leng ruoxue ignored them and said, "As the master, I can't teach you everything step by step like I'm teaching a child. So, the feeling of using my wisdom can only be slowly experienced by you. Now, I'll let Mei and baby teach you how to identify ordinary medicinal herbs. Take advantage of the time before we leave and try to pick all the ordinary medicinal herbs in the Phoenix territory for me, your master. Whoever picks the most will be rewarded!"

After Leng ruoxue finished speaking, she immediately took out the succubus, baby, Ling, mo, and a few other beasts from the bangle. The moment these little beasts appeared, they immediately entered the zone and divided the peacocks into a few groups, teaching them separately.

When the peacocks heard that there would be rewards, they naturally studied very seriously. On the other hand, many peacocks had a basic understanding of herbs and learned relatively quickly.

As soon as they learned it, they immediately scattered like birds and beasts to collect ordinary herbs for their master.

Most of the territory in the Phoenix territory was the Phoenix clan's territory. The affiliated beast clans that lived in the Phoenix territory were naturally those that were stronger or had close ties with the Phoenix Clan. However, the Phoenix Clan only had the Phoenix King as their leader now, and the other beast clans were in Leng ruoxue's hands. Hence, the peacocks gathered the ordinary herbs that the Phoenix Clan did not care about as if they were strolling in their own backyard.

Not only did the beasts not stop them, the Eagle Clan and a few other beast clans, upon hearing that their Masters were interested in those wild grass, also automatically helped to collect them. Their knowledge of medicinal herbs was naturally spread on the spot by the precious beasts.

The Phoenix King had also received the news of this situation. However, she didn't take it seriously.

The ordinary herbs in the Phoenix territory were almost overflowing. Those things that were not worth much were not picked by any beast on normal days. Therefore, the Phoenix King did not even think about it and guessed that this must be the idea of that ugly monster, Lian Wu.

The peacock clan was about to leave the Phoenix territory. That ugly woman must be short of money to raise so many beasts. Those herbs might not be worth much in the eyes of the Phoenix King, but to human alchemists, they could still be sold for a price. However, to the rich Phoenix Clan, that price was too cheap.

This was why the Phoenix King was not interested in the common herbs that could be found everywhere. This was also beneficial to Leng ruoxue.

Even though most of these herbs were fire-attributed due to the geographical location, Leng ruoxue needed them as long as they were herbs. She didn't care what attribute they were. After all, she had many fire-attributed beasts by her side!

Very quickly, the ordinary herbs in Leng ruoxue's bracelet had piled up into a small mountain. These herbs were the result of the beasts' hard work for a day. When she saw these herbs, Leng ruoxue could not help but sigh. It was still better to have more beasts! Look at the quality of the work!

In order to reward the beasts for their hard work, Leng ruoxue tried her best to change the food she ate. While the beasts were satisfied with their food, they were also more agile in their work.

All the beasts worked together for three days and finally collected all the ordinary herbs in the Phoenix territory. They didn't even leave a single root for the Phoenix Clan. They had picked all of them.

Other than being happy, Leng ruoxue also gave out a few bottles of pills to each of the beasts as a reward. When the beasts saw this, they were all moved to tears.

Sob ... There's meat to eat if I follow master! There were pills to eat!

Leng ruoxue's heart ached when she saw how easily these beasts were satisfied. These beasts, none of them were sneaky when it came to doing work, but such a small favor made them shed tears of gratitude. They were really a group of honest children!

Actually, according to Leng ruoxue's thinking, since she had already bribed others and given them pills, she would naturally not be stingy with her beasts. The pills that she had given out were not considered precious in her heart. After all, as an Alchemist who had no lack of herbs, the most she had were pills. Hence, she did not wish for these beasts to be so excited.

As the master, he would not let his Beastie suffer losses no matter what.

After some thought, Leng ruoxue said, "calm down." Don't be reluctant to eat these pills, I'll give you more after you've finished them, so you can eat as much as you want!"

The pills she gave out were the most suitable for these beasts. Most of them were pills that increased Shen power and could be eaten as snacks. However, with her short understanding of these beasts, she guessed that they would most likely be reluctant to give it up, which was why she said this. Now, when the beasts heard her say this, they were even more excited.

Immediately, some beasts couldn't help but take a pill and put it in their mouths. Then, they immediately sat down cross-legged to regulate their breathing.

Not long after, that Beastie actually advanced a rank in front of everyone's eyes, from a first rank sacred beast to a second rank sacred beast. All the Beastie beasts were stunned when they saw this!

Oh my God! This ... Is this true?

He actually advanced just like that!

This was simply too unbelievable!

After they came to their senses, the Beasties went completely crazy!

All the beasts opened the bottles and poured the pills into their mouths. Then, they quickly sat down. A moment later, the laws of heaven and earth that had advanced in rank descended one after another. The peacock clan's territory had become a paradise for advancement.

Most of the beasts had advanced in rank. The weaker beasts naturally advanced in rank more, and the beasts had advanced at least one rank.

After a long time.

Only then did the rank-advancement craze end.

When the beasts woke up, they could not hide the joy on their faces. The beasts were so excited that they couldn't speak.

Chapter 2429 You Don't Have To Rely On Force To Defeat Your Enemy \(3\)

After a while, some of the beasts suddenly reacted. They had eaten all the Shen Power Pills that their master had given them.

Wuwu ... The beasts who had come to their senses suddenly burst into tears. Then, the cries grew more and more.

Leng ruoxue was dumbfounded when she saw this.

Ugh! What was this situation? Shouldn't it be a happy thing to advance? She had also benefited a lot from this, but why were these beasts suddenly crying?

Could it be that he was so excited that he cried tears of joy?

However, the sullen expressions of these beasts definitely did not look like they were crying tears of joy. Leng ruoxue denied her own guess very quickly.

"Peacock King, why are you all crying?" Leng ruoxue helplessly glanced at the Peacock King, who was also bawling his eyes out.

The Peacock King, who had just advanced from a class 7 sacred beast to a class 8 sacred beast, immediately raised his head when he heard his master's question. He said with tears in his eyes, "I've finished all the pills that master gave me. "

The Peacock King was filled with regret! In truth, he was only a step away from becoming a class 8 Saint Godbeast. Even if he didn't eat all those pills, he would still be able to advance in a few hundred years. However, because of his greed, he ate all the pills that increased his divine power. Although he had advanced to the class 8 Saint Godbeast as he had wished, when he thought about how he had eaten all those precious pills in a single moment, his heart ached.

Although the Peacock King had acknowledged his master, he had not fully realized that his master was a nouveau riche. Therefore, after the joy of advancing, his heart ached for those precious pills.

In the entire immortal realm, the most precious medicinal pills were undoubtedly those that could heal injuries and increase one's divine power. It was precisely because of this that he was unable to let go of his own wasteful behavior.

What a precious pill! He had actually finished it so quickly!

The Peacock King was so regretful that his intestines had turned green.

"So what if you've finished it all? it's not a big deal." After hearing the Peacock King's reason, Leng ruoxue didn't know whether to laugh or cry. It turned out that these beasts were crying because they had consumed all the pills! She knew it! Looking at how sad they were, it didn't look like they were crying from joy.

"Master, this is a very serious matter! Those pills are too precious. We shouldn't be so wasteful. " After hearing his Master's words, the Peacock King was so shocked that his forehead was covered in sweat, but he still didn't forget to remind him.

"It's fine. I have plenty of pills. I'm not afraid of you losing. " Leng ruoxue said in an unusually forthright manner. After she finished speaking, she felt like laughing. With her current appearance, she was definitely a true nouveau riche! However, in order to appease these beasts, she went all out. They were her beasts anyway, so no one would laugh at her.

"Uh! Master, you have a lot of beasts around you, so you should be more thrifty. Otherwise, you'll have to sit and eat. " When the Peacock King heard his Master's words, he quickly began to worry for her. He couldn't help but glance at the beasts present from the corner of his eye. Other than the peacock tribe, there were also the Eagle tribe, the Condor tribe, and other beast tribes. How many mouths did they have? The owner would really choke on it!

The more the Peacock King thought about it, the more worried he became. Among the beasts that his master had taken in, other than the Eagle and the Condor race, which were the strongest, the other beast races, including his own Peacock race, seemed to be lacking in combat power. Thinking about this, the Peacock King was deeply worried.

He felt that it was his clan that was dragging his master down.

Wuwu...Master! I've let you down! I'm too useless! Our Peacock clan may seem impressive, but we're actually quite weak!

When Leng ruoxue heard that the Peacock King was so considerate of her, she was very touched. However, Cang immediately told Leng ruoxue about the Peacock King's thoughts. When Leng ruoxue heard it, she also felt depressed.

This Peacock King's worry was too ...

Leng ruoxue did not know how to praise him! He should still be criticized for his distrust of his master. However, after thinking about it, although the little peacock's worry was a little unnecessary, she still had good intentions. She could not reject this favor, but she would feel quite aggrieved.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue heard Cang say, ""Peacock King, what you said makes sense. Since you have this awareness of being diligent and thrifty, then I'll leave the matters of the beasts to you in the future. You'll be Niu's beast chief butler, do a good job!"

"What?" Hearing this, the Peacock King was so agitated that he didn't know how to react. However, Leng ruoxue looked at Cang in astonishment. The meaning behind her words was: Cang, what are you trying to do?

Why did he find her a Butler?

Actually, Leng ruoxue had not arranged for anyone to be the head butler. Basically, all the matters around her were handled by Feng Da and the others. If Feng Da and the others were in closed-door cultivation, someone else would be in charge. All this while, as they were all on the same side, everyone got along very well and did not cause any unpleasant incidents.

However, with the increase in the number of people and beasts by her side, Leng ruoxue knew that she couldn't continue to raise them freely. She needed someone to manage them. Otherwise, her life would be in chaos sooner or later. However, she didn't know if her grandfather and the others would be able to adapt if the Peacock King was the head butler.

That's right, Cang was talking about the beast chief butler, could it be that there was also a human chief butler?

However, no matter what, Leng ruoxue was not optimistic about the Peacock King taking up the position of the head butler, even if it was for her beasts.

Leng ruoxue had great foresight. She truly felt that her beasts would not listen to the Peacock King, so ... Cang's idea would be hard to achieve.

Sensing Leng ruoxue's thoughts, cold one patted his chest and promised, ""Girl, don't worry! I'm here!"

It's precisely because I have you that I'm worried! Leng ruoxue replied with her eyes.

No matter how she looked at it, she felt that Cang was playing a trick on the pitiful Peacock King. She was very clear about how wild and unruly her beasts were. She wanted to let the beasts, who had always been free and unfettered, suddenly have someone to control them ...

Difficult! It was really difficult! It wasn't just difficult!

However, since this was Cang's decision, Leng ruoxue would not interfere. Otherwise, if Cang RUO were to get angry, the one who would be in trouble would be her Beastie. Thinking about it this way, Leng ruoxue decided to turn a blind eye to it.

With that, the Peacock King's identity as the head butler of the beast clan was finally confirmed.

The newly appointed Peacock King had never dreamed that he would become the chief butler of his master Beastie. He was so excited that he felt like he was floating as he walked.

However, after its master entered the bracelet once and saw all of his beasts, the Peacock King calmed down after being dumbfounded and petrified.

Sob ... He knew that the kitten was up to no good!

Although he had been arranged to be the head butler of his master Beastie, there was still the Phoenix Clan among his master Beastie. Would he, would he dare to interfere? He had always been the one being controlled by the Phoenix Clan!

Moreover, he didn't expect that his master would have so many phoenixes as his beasts. At first, he thought that his master was already very powerful when she kidnapped Feng Xiu's family of four from the Phoenix territory. Now, he knew that he had underestimated his master. He was too short-sighted and could not imagine how powerful his master was!

However, what made him quite pleased was that the Beastie that had followed him to visit the master space had only been more petrified than him.

After the tour, the clan leaders of the Eagle Clan, Condor clan, and a few other beast clans had even requested Leng ruoxue to let them live in the medium in the future! After obtaining Leng ruoxue's approval, the few clans were overjoyed.

The Peacock King had the same thoughts as them, hoping that the entire clan would stay in their master's space. However, Leng ruoxue had told them clearly that this was not the time. She still needed the peacock clan to put on an act with her!

Upon hearing this, the peacocks immediately expressed their obedience to their master's arrangement.

Just like that, other than the peacock clan, the other spiritual beasts who had surrendered were all moved into Leng ruoxue's bracelet. However, to the outside world, which was to say to the Phoenix Clan, it was said that the spiritual beasts of those clans had all gone into seclusion.

When the Phoenix King heard this news, she was instantly furious. In her opinion, this was the time to use beasts. How could these beasts go into seclusion just like that? Even those damned family patriarchs didn't come to greet her personally. They really didn't put her, the Phoenix King, in their eyes!

She expressed her anger.

The new leader of the hidden guards, who was responsible for reporting the news, had a different view on this. He felt that it was understandable for those beasts to choose to go into seclusion since they had just advanced in rank. Otherwise, the consequences of their strength being unstable would be quite serious.

After tactfully conveying his thoughts to the Phoenix King, the Phoenix King finally wasn't so angry.

At this time, the Phoenix King remembered something and asked, "Did those spirit beasts advance because they ate that B * tch Lian Wu's medicinal pill?"

"Yes, I am!" The leader of the hidden guards replied.

"Are her pills really that good? Can you go and Exchange a few for me to see?" The Phoenix King said after thinking for a while.

"Your Majesty, last time, Lord Lian Wu left in a fit of anger. I'm afraid she won't be willing to trade with our Phoenix Clan!" The leader of the hidden guards said with uncertainty.

"Why wouldn't I? She even takes in the common herbs from the Eagle Clan. I'll exchange the good ones with her, what's there to be unwilling about?" The Phoenix King said matter-of-factly.

She had always thought that the magical beasts of the Phoenix territory had been wantonly gathering ordinary medicinal herbs to exchange for medicinal pills with Leng ruoxue. This was exactly the illusion that Leng ruoxue wanted to give her. After those magical beasts had advanced in rank after eating Leng ruoxue's medicinal pills, the Phoenix King's thoughts became even more intense.

If that pill really had such a good effect ...

That was impossible! There wouldn't be a pill that was so effective!

The Phoenix King's heart was in a dilemma. One moment, she wanted to confirm the effects of the pill, and the next moment, she completely denied it. Because she really didn't want to see Lian Wu's proud face. It was really too annoying!

Chapter 2430 A Spy \(1\)

However, no matter how unhappy the Phoenix King was, she still wanted to test the effects of Leng ruoxue's elixir. After she heard the news, she felt as if a kitten was living in her heart, and it was very itchy.

Seeing that the Phoenix King had made up his mind, the leader of the secret guards had to bite the bullet and accept the task. In fact, he really wanted to say, "Your Majesty, this matter is not under our control." However, compared to the previous leader of the hidden guards, he was a new official, so he was less courageous.

Seeing that this subordinate was so obedient, the Phoenix King was naturally very satisfied. Otherwise, if this new leader of the secret guards were to reason with her, she would be depressed to death.

After ordering the Butler he trusted to bring some of the best herbs, the Phoenix King handed the herbs to the leader of the secret guards he had just promoted. After taking the herbs, the leader of the secret guards turned and left.

However, the leader of the hidden guards did not go directly to the peacock tribe. Instead, he brought some food to the former boss.

After the former leader of the hidden guards was dismissed from his position, he, who had nothing better to do, other than sleeping, taking a stroll, and playing with the birds, uh! She was just teasing the little Phoenix in the clan, and her days were free and unfettered.

At this moment, the former leader of the hidden guards was repeating his daily schedule as usual. He was playing with a bird.

When he arrived at the courtyard of the former leader of the hidden guards, he saw the former boss surrounded by a bunch of little phoenixes. The current leader of the hidden guards smiled helplessly. This boss was still the same as before. He liked to take care of children! One had to know that these secret guards were all raised by this boss. This had almost become boss's instinct!

"Boss, I'm here to see you!" The current leader of the hidden guards said.

"Waiter, you've come!" A young man raised his head and said indifferently.

Hearing these two words, the current leader of the hidden guards was completely depressed.

Wu ... He has a name, can you not call him Xiao er? He felt really awkward listening to her.

Seeing the current leader of the hidden guards crying, the young man smiled even more happily and said, "What, you all call me boss, aren't you just the second among us brothers! There's nothing wrong with calling you Xiao er, so don't give me that face!"

"Boss, I wouldn't dare!" When the current leader of the hidden guards heard this, he immediately said with an aggrieved expression.

"You don't dare? Then why did he look so bitter? Do I owe you money?" The young man's face turned serious as he spoke in an unusually serious manner.

At this time, the little phoenixes around him saw that the situation was not good and all flew away in fear.

"Hahaha! Waiter, you're really stupid! I'm just scaring you! Can't you tell? Ai! What are you going to do! I'm really worried about your future! Forget it! Forget it! It's better if I work harder and keep an eye on you!"

With that, the young man became even more unbridled. The cold air in his body was also slightly released.

The leader of the hidden guards was dumbfounded when he saw that his boss seemed to have taken the wrong medicine and was really angry.

After about three minutes of silence, the young man suddenly burst into laughter.

"Hahaha! Waiter, you're really stupid! I'm just scaring you! Can't you tell? Ai! What are you going to do! I'm really worried about your future! Forget it! Forget it! It's better if I work harder and keep an eye on you!" The young man sighed repeatedly and muttered to himself.

After hearing these words, the current leader of the hidden guards was speechless, and his forehead was covered with cold sweat.

The boss was playing with him! Sob ... Boss is so bad, how can he do this! The current leader of the hidden guards complained. However, he only dared to complain in his heart. He absolutely did not dare to say it in front of his boss. Otherwise, his boss would definitely teach him a lesson.

"Boss!" After thinking about it, the current leader of the hidden guards still pretended to be pitiful and looked at his boss with hidden bitterness.

"What's wrong? Is there something you need from me?" The young man said.

"Yes." The current leader of the hidden guards nodded his head like a chicken pecking at rice, then looked at the young man expectantly and said, "The king asked me to take these herbs and Exchange them for some pills from Lord Lianwu."

The young man frowned and said, "This isn't something a secret guard should do, right? How could you agree to such a thing? You'll spoil him like this! The duty of us secret guards is only to protect the king's safety. We don't care about anything else. Have you forgotten?"

The more the young man spoke, the angrier he got. In the end, his face darkened. Of course, he wasn't angry at this poor little guy whose face was already pale. He was angry that the King of Qi actually used secret guards as servants. Wasn't this overkill?

"I didn't want to either." The current leader of the hidden guards lowered his head and said in a low voice. Without his boss's support, he did not dare to disobey the king! Moreover, he did not have the eloquence and strength of his boss, so he could only be led by the nose by King.

Now, he did not dare to let the boss know that his secret guards had taken on the role of secret agents. If there was anything, the king required the secret guards to report to her without the slightest concealment.

"Al! I've protected you too well!" Looking at the current leader of the hidden guards, the young man sighed helplessly and sighed.

In the past, he had always helped them settle everything. Now, he could no longer help them deal with these things. These little guys naturally had no choice but to let the Phoenix King do as he pleased.

After thinking it through, the young man began to blame himself. All this while, he had treated his subordinates like children and neglected other aspects of their education. However, it was fortunate that he had discovered it early, so there should still be time.

With this thought in mind, the young man smiled and said, "Waiter, you've just taken over the job of the leader of the hidden guards and have no prior experience, so it's understandable that you'll listen to the king. But you have to remember that we are secret guards responsible for the safety of the king, not guards, not stewards, not the king's servants. Other than protecting the king's safety, we don't need to care about anything else, so as not to waste our energy. "

"Think about it. If the king is attacked by a powerful enemy and is seriously injured while you are helping him, will the clansmen blame us for not protecting the king, or will they blame the king for giving us extra work?" The young man deliberately paused for a moment before he continued.

"Boss, I know I was wrong! In the future, I will be like you and will not listen to Wang Yan's orders! Other than protecting the king, I don't care about anything else!" After listening to the young man's brainwashing, the current leader of the hidden guards said with extreme shame. He knew that his boss was right. The hidden guards should not indulge in the king's willfulness. Otherwise, if something really happened to Wang, they would probably have to die to atone for their sins!

The secret guards also had families. Naturally, no one was willing to pay for the willfulness of the Phoenix King! Therefore, such a thing must never happen again! The current leader of the hidden guards thought to himself.

However, he had already agreed to this, so he had to do it.

At the thought of this, the current leader of the hidden guards said with a troubled expression, "Boss, I don't care about the future anymore, but I've already agreed to this. What do you think I should do?"

"Fine, I'll go with you! However, Lord Lian Wu is not someone who will play by the rules, so I can't guarantee whether she will agree or not. " The young man couldn't bear to make things difficult for his subordinate and said after thinking for a while.
