

Crazy Wife 2431

Chapter 2431 A Spy \(2\)

"Thank you, boss! However, there's no hurry. I've brought food and wine. Let's have a good meal first!" The goal had been achieved, and with the help of the boss, the current leader of the hidden guards felt relieved.

Wu ... With boss around, it was as if he had a pillar of support. His heart was extremely calm!

The young man nodded with a smile.

After the two finished eating, they slowly made their way to the peacock tribe.

When they arrived at the entrance of the peacock clan, the young man directly asked to see Lord Lian Wu.

When the peacock guard heard this, he sized them up and told them to wait while he went to report.

Seeing this, the young man couldn't help but sigh. "Al! The peacock tribe was different from the past! In the past, when they saw the Phoenix Clan, they would directly invite us in. There was no need to report!"

"Boss," When the current leader of the hidden guards heard this, he tugged at his boss's clothes, indicating that the walls had ears. These words could not be heard by the peacocks. Otherwise, those peacocks who now had a backer might gang up on him.

Who knew that the young man would just smile nonchalantly and say, "Don't worry, I'm telling the truth. Lord Lian Wu won't be so stingy. "

"You're an interesting Phoenix. " At this moment, a female voice sounded in the young man's ears. When the two heard it, they immediately looked around, but they didn't see any trace of a woman. Seeing this, the current leader of the hidden guards couldn't help but change his expression.

I'm finished! The boss's words were caught red-handed.

What was this good? If Lord Lian Wu became angry because of this, boss might be in danger, and he might not be able to complete his mission!

"The Lord wants you to go in." Without giving the current leader of the hidden guards a chance to let his thoughts run wild, the peacock guard who appeared later said directly.

"Thanks. Let's go!" After thanking him, the young man immediately pulled his slightly dazed subordinate and walked straight into the territory of the peacock clan.

The two of them were so familiar with the peacock clan's territory that it was like their own backyard. When they arrived at the courtyard where the Peacock king's palace was located, they found Leng ruoxue sitting there drinking tea.

"Hello, Lord lianwu." The two of them greeted him politely in unison.

"Hello." Leng ruoxue returned the gesture and invited them to take a seat. She then directly asked them why they were here.

When the two of them saw how direct Leng ruoxue was, they were both a little surprised. However, it was also because of this that the young man had a good impression of her. He liked to interact with people who were quick to do things.

After explaining the purpose of her visit, Leng ruoxue remained silent for a long while. However, her beautiful eyes were sizing up the two of them.

Under Leng ruoxue's gaze, the young man remained as calm as ever. The new leader of the hidden guards felt like he was sitting on pins and needles.

The pressure that Lord Lian Wu gave the new leader of the secret guards was too great, even greater than the Phoenix King! This made him feel rather incredulous. How did this happen?

The newly appointed leader of the hidden guards couldn't figure it out.

After sizing them up for a long time, Leng ruoxue saw that the Old and New head of the hidden guards was calmly drinking his tea while the other was breaking out in cold sweat. She stopped teasing them and smiled, "It's not impossible to exchange for my pills. However, my pills are very precious. Are you sure you can afford them?"

"This ... I don't know what Lord Lian Wu wants to do with this exchange?" After swallowing his saliva with difficulty, the current leader of the hidden guards asked carefully.

However, the young man didn't ask that. Instead, he said, "I can afford it! I can afford it! The Feng clan is very rich!"

Leng ruoxue was extremely calm when she heard the two's different answers. On the other hand, the current leader of the hidden guards broke out in even more cold sweat when he heard his boss's words.

Now, he was very suspicious. Did this boss follow him to ruin his reputation? Otherwise, why would he expose his own weakness before the conditions were agreed? Ah no! It wasn't short, it was their own trump card!

That ... They were from the Phoenix Clan, right? At this moment, he deeply felt that he was not here to talk about other people's Affairs.

"Since you can afford it, then bring me the herbs according to what is written here!" Leng ruoxue said with a smile, then handed the two of them a piece of paper.

After the young man looked at it, he didn't say anything and passed it to his stupid subordinate.

The current leader of the hidden guards took a quick glance and immediately widened his eyes.

F * ck! What was written on it? Although he didn't know many words, he could still recognize most of them. But, but wasn't the number and name of these herbs a little too much? What he had brought was not even a drop in the ocean of the requirements!

His cold sweat instantly increased by quite a bit. His face was even paler.

"What's the matter?" the young man asked. "Did you not bring enough herbs?" When he said this, he had no intention of avoiding Leng ruoxue. His voice was not soft either, and in an instant, the current leader of the secret guards was so agitated that he came back to his senses.

The current leader of the hidden guards looked at his boss with a hint of resentment. He wanted to cry but had no tears. Boss, please wake up! You're a member of the Feng clan, don't ruin my reputation like this!

He didn't bring enough herbs, but you should know that. Why did you have to tell him? Being exposed like this, the current leader of the hidden guards felt very embarrassed. However, the young man didn't think as much as he did.

The young man directly said, "if you didn't bring enough herbs, you can go back and get them!" The king will not blame you!"

Hearing this, the current leader of the hidden guards regretted asking his boss to come with him.

Originally, he thought he was stupid and hoped that his boss would come to boost his prestige and haggle with Lord Lian Wu. However, after this boss came, not only did he not plan to haggle, but he even kept tearing down his stage. Wu ... He really wanted to strangle his boss!

"Yes, I also support you to go back and get it. If the Phoenix King wants to exchange it with me, it's absolutely impossible to do it without paying a lot of money!" Leng ruoxue was still smiling as her beautiful eyes kept on scanning the two men in front of her. She found their interaction to be rather interesting.

Sob ... Seeing that Leng ruoxue had said the same thing, the current leader of the hidden guards felt that it was hard to back down now. Especially since she had clearly stated that it was impossible for the king to not pay a huge price if he wanted to exchange the pills from her! He didn't know what to say when she was so honest.

Call him a profiteer! She didn't beg you to change! You can call him a villain! He had made everything clear! In short, even though he was depressed by Leng ruoxue's words, he could not find a single fault with her.

After hesitating for a while, the current leader of the hidden guards stood up helplessly and said, "Boss, let's go back first!" He had to go back and report this to the Phoenix King, and he knew that the Phoenix King would be furious.

Who knew that the young man would listen to his subordinate's words, but he had no intention of returning to the clan at all. He said, "You can go back by yourself. I'll wait for you here."

Chapter 2432 A Spy \(3\)

"..." Hearing this, the current leader of the hidden guards was a little dumbfounded.

What! What kind of situation was this?

The boss didn't want to go back with him, but instead wanted to stay with the peacock tribe? In an instant, the current leader of the hidden guards felt as if he didn't recognize his boss anymore.

Wu...How could this be?

"En en, quickly go back and gather the herbs according to my requirements! I'll treat your boss well!" Leng ruoxue joined in the fun.

The moment she finished speaking, the current leader of the hidden guards, that poor little thing, turned even paler. Even Leng ruoxue started to pity him. However, he had a boss who was not under anyone's control, so he could only endure it.

"I ... I'll go back first then." After a long while, the current leader of the hidden guards, that poor little thing, finally spat out these words. Then, he slowly left with his tall and hunched body. There was still a trace of cowering and desolate aura around him, looking quite pitiful.

"Why didn't you go back with him?" After the current leader of the hidden guards left, Leng ruoxue glanced at the young man and asked curiously.

"He should learn to grow up and learn how to refuse." The young man said honestly. In fact, he still had one thing to say. He was very interested in Lord Lian Wu.

"That's true!" Leng ruoxue nodded her head in agreement. She then reminded, ""When he goes back, the Phoenix King might use him as a punching bag. Don't be sad when that happens."

"I watched them grow up and raised them into my secret guards. Now that I've been relieved of my job, I can't continue to look after them, so they have to adapt to living on their own." The young man sighed and said.

After saying these words, he was a little surprised. He didn't know why he would say these things to the human in front of him. And these words were said by him inadvertently.

Leng ruoxue, who had also heard this, nodded her head in satisfaction. Then, she suddenly asked, ""Do you know Feng mo?"

"Feng mo? I don't know him!" Hearing these two words, the young man's heart skipped a beat. However, he quickly calmed down. The flash of panic in his eyes did not escape Leng ruoxue's eyes.

"You really don't know him? Then you should be familiar with this name!" Leng ruoxue asked.

"I've never heard of this name. " The young man denied.

"Fengchuan, you don't even recognize your ancestors!" Suddenly, an angry voice rang in the young man's ears. Then, an angry woman in red appeared in front of him.

When the young man, Feng Chuan, saw this woman, although his heart was already in a state of shock, he still pretended to be calm and asked carefully, ""May I know which senior you are?"

This woman gave him a lot of pressure. He was very sure that he did not know this woman. However, the fire attribute aura on this red-dressed woman was unusually strong. This made him have to be careful.

"I'm the mother parasol tree. " Wu Tong said while suppressing her anger.

"Ancestor! Greetings, ancestor!" Hearing this, Feng Chuan immediately knelt down to the mother parasol tree. The excitement on his face couldn't be described with words.

He knew that the ancestor of the parasol tree would not die so easily! Feng Chuan was so excited!

However, Leng ruoxue was puzzled when she saw Feng Chuan addressing the mother parasol tree as 'ancestor'. This doesn't make sense, right?

Seeing through Leng ruoxue's thoughts, the parasol tree explained helplessly, "The parasol tree Tribe and the Phoenix tribe have always accompanied each other. The little phoenixes either grew up on our parasol tree or grew up together with the little parasol tree. So, it's only natural for him to call me ancestor!"

"Does he not doubt your identity? He believed you when you said you were the mother parasol tree? Don't forget, the Phoenix tribe has been saying that the mother parasol tree is no longer around." Leng ruoxue could not help but remind him.

Hearing Leng ruoxue's words, the mother parasol tree glared at her helplessly and rebuked, "Little girl, which side are you on? Are you trying to undermine me?"

"Hehe! I'm just curious!" Leng ruoxue said, a little embarrassed. If it was her, she would not easily believe the words of others.

Listening to the conversation between the two, although Feng Chuan found it very interesting, he still kindly explained, "We phoenixes are born with a sense of closeness to the parasol tree, so I felt a sense of closeness when I saw the old ancestor. It was just that I didn't know her identity at first, but my intuition told me that she must be related to me."

"You brat, since you're calling me old ancestor, do you still dare to deny that you know Feng mo?" The mother parasol tree said viciously, as if it was going to destroy him if he denied it.

Feng Chuan was helpless when he heard the words of the violent parasol tree Grandmaster. After glancing at Leng ruoxue, he said with a slightly aggrieved tone, "Lord Lian Wu is the Divine Master's man, of course I can't admit it."

"Then why do you dare to admit it now?" Leng ruoxue asked with a smile.

"With ancestor Wu Tong here, I guess your identity is definitely not simple!" Feng Chuan wasn't stupid. He knew very well how much the parasol tree mother tree hated the mist ripple God Lord and the current Phoenix King. Naturally, it wouldn't join the two of them in their evil ways. Thus, he naturally had new speculations and ideas about this Lord Lian Wu's identity.

"Hmph! You're smart! This little girl is Leng ruoxue!" The parasol tree revealed Leng ruoxue's identity.

After Feng Chuan heard this, his eyes instantly widened, and his face was full of disbelief.

L-Leng ruoxue? Was she the Leng ruoxue that he had heard of?

"Leng ruoxue, the one who has a grudge against God Lord fogripple?" After a long time, Feng Chuan couldn't help but ask.

He had always been secretly paying attention to Leng ruoxue's achievements and had thought that one day, he might be able to contact her. Who would have thought that before he could do anything, this

Leng ruoxue, who was rumored to have turned the entire God world upside down, had actually appeared on her own!

He saw a living one!

At the thought of this, Feng Chuan's eyes widened even more. He sized Leng ruoxue up and down as if he was trying to see what kind of superhuman abilities she had that could make the entire beast clan panic. Whenever the Phoenix King mentioned her, he would clench his teeth in hatred!

But after looking at him, Feng Chuan was obviously disappointed.

He had seen Leng ruoxue's image before, but it was not the same person as the one in front of him. Obviously, the poor child didn't know about the existence of appearance-changing pills in the world.

Just as Feng Chuan was still puzzled, Leng ruoxue nodded calmly and said, "That's right, it's the one who has a grudge against Wu Cheng."

"Liar! Leng ruoxue doesn't even look like you?" Feng Chuan, who had always been calm and collected, was suddenly possessed by a baby and complained.

"I've taken a disguise pill! Now that I'm here at the Feng clan, you can't possibly ask me to show my true face, right? If that were the case, the Phoenix King would have already attacked me!" Leng ruoxue said helplessly as Feng Chuan's IQ suddenly dropped. The look of distrust on Feng Chuan's face made her even more furious.

"Oh! So that's how it is." Feng Chuan nodded. He knew it! No matter how a person dressed up, it was impossible to make themselves unrecognizable!

Then, he seemed to have thought of something and asked in embarrassment, "Can you let me take a look at the disguise pill? this is the first time I've heard of this pill!"

"Sure!" Leng ruoxue felt rather helpless. She then took out a disguise pill and gave it to Feng Chuan.

Feng Chuan was curious and ate it without thinking. After that, she bounced around and asked the two of them excitedly, "Forefather, Lord Lianwu, has my appearance changed?"

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue exchanged a look with the mother parasol tree helplessly. Her eyes were red as she said, 'this is the secret you guys have planted?'

Yes! This Feng Chuan, who was normal at first sight but not very normal now, was the secret line that Feng Mo and the mother tree of Wutong had buried. However, the mother tree of Wutong had never looked for Feng Chuan. And that Feng Mo, who was the leader of the secret guards of the previous Feng King, had the foresight to bury Feng Chuan as a secret line after he noticed the abnormality of Feng Tong. In the war hundreds of thousands of years ago, in order to protect the Feng King at that time, he was seriously injured and sealed with Feng Wu. Therefore, Feng Chuan's role as a secret spy was left idle.

Feng Chuan, who could be considered smart, in order to hide his identity, had always done his job as the leader of the secret guards and had withstood all kinds of tests from Feng Tong. In general, Feng Tong was quite satisfied with him. The only dissatisfaction was that Feng Chuan was too old-fashioned and always used the rules to do things.

Every time this happened, Prince Feng would be angered to death by Feng Chuan. But even so, the Phoenix King was not willing to fire him. But this time, the elders of the Feng clan went on strike, which made the Phoenix King really angry. Feng Chuan happened to become cannon fodder and was severely punished by the Phoenix King.

However, Feng Wang felt that he had severely punished Feng Chuan, but Feng Chuan didn't think so! He couldn't wait to be free! Because no one could understand how painful it was to look at and protect one's own enemy every day. There were even a few times when Feng Chuan almost couldn't hold back and wanted to make a move. But at the last moment, his rationality controlled himself.

He knew that he could not reveal himself. With his current strength, he was no match for the Phoenix King. Thus, all he could do was to be patient.

After finding out Leng ruoxue's identity, Feng Chuan had been excited for a while. He felt that he had found a companion. Who asked Leng ruoxue to have a common enemy with him?

However, out of caution, he did not dare to act rashly. He had been secretly collecting information related to Leng ruoxue. Furthermore, he did not expect to see Leng ruoxue so soon. He was not prepared at all and had obviously lost his composure.

And Leng ruoxue knew about Feng Chuan's existence because the parasol tree had revealed it to her.

Chapter 2433 You're Not Fighting Alone \(1\)

When Leng ruoxue first found out that the previous Phoenix King had a trick up her sleeve, she was extremely shocked. It was only after the parasol tree's detailed explanation that she realized that things were not as she had thought.

Feng Wu and Feng Tong were sisters. Feng Wu trusted his sister very much and gave her a lot of power. The only ones who felt that Feng Tong was not the same on the surface and abnormal were the mother Phoenix Tree and the leader of the secret guards beside the Phoenix King. However, the two of them knew Feng Wu's character very well. Although they had hinted to the Phoenix King not to give Feng Tong that much power, it was a pity that the Phoenix King didn't care.

In the Phoenix King's heart, Feng Tong was her only sister. How could she harm her?

When Leng ruoxue first heard about this, she had already expressed her disapproval of Feng Wu's low vigilance. She truly felt that the Phoenix King was too stupid and too naive. One must know that sometimes, the knife of a family member was much sharper than the knife of an enemy! More importantly, one could defend against the enemy's saber, but not the saber of one's family.

However, Leng ruoxue was also clear that this matter could not be entirely blamed on the Phoenix King. It could also be that this little sister of hers was too good at acting, to the point that the wise Phoenix King that the parasol tree spoke of did not notice at all. In short, for her to fall for the trap of her kin, she must have some sort of weakness.

For example, the trust in family, the desire for family, and so on.

When she thought about it this way, Leng ruoxue felt a little more sympathy for the previous Phoenix King on account of Feng Zhan. After all, if it was possible, no one would be willing to be plotted against by their own family. It was precisely because of this that she was more interested in the hidden spy that the parasol tree had mentioned. She also had more expectations.

But now, it seemed that she had been looking forward to it a little too early.

Or could it be that this child was under too much pressure, so he had gone crazy?

Looking at Feng Chuan who was still jumping around excitedly, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but glance at the mother parasol tree. The other party also returned her a helpless look. The two of them sighed at the same time, expressing that they were powerless to comment on Feng Chuan's actions.

After a long time.

After finding the organization, Feng Chuan, who was extremely excited, finally calmed down.

As soon as he calmed down, Feng Chuan immediately felt embarrassed. He also knew that his reaction just now was a little abnormal, but he did not know what was wrong with him to actually do such an embarrassing thing.

Al! Please understand that after being alone for so many years, the moment he heard that he also had a backer, he became abnormal! Leng ruoxue's eyes softened as she looked at Feng Chuan.

Poor kid. Leng ruoxue expressed that she could understand his agitation. He was not fighting alone.

With that thought in mind, Leng ruoxue revealed a kind gaze as she looked at a junior and said, "Welcome to my pirate ship. You're not fighting alone."

"Hehe! I'm very happy too." When Feng Chuan heard that Leng ruoxue wanted to join them, he was immediately excited. However, he seemed to have heard the word 'pirate ship', or did he hear it wrong?

"A pirate ship?" Feng Chuan was a man of action. If he had any questions, he would ask them. So, these two words became his biggest doubt at the moment.

Leng ruoxue looked at Feng Chuan, who seemed to be slow to react, and felt worried. Was this guy really the leader of the secret guards that the parasol tree had mentioned? In her opinion, Feng Chuan's IQ was obviously not high enough. At least, he couldn't be compared to Feng Da and the others! Look at his silly and cute little appearance now. Oh! She was quite cute.

Cang, who often peeked at Leng ruoxue's inner thoughts, heard Niu say that this guy was quite cute and instantly lost his good impression of this Phoenix. At the same time, he glared at the innocent Feng Chuan.

This guy is cute? Which part of her was cute? Was he as cute as she was? Cang couldn't help but secretly praise him and made up his mind. As long as there was a chance, he would let this guy understand what true cuteness was! It wouldn't allow any beast to fight for its favor!

Hmph! It couldn't win against that annoying man, but it couldn't win against these beasts, could it?

At this time, Feng Chuan, who had been slow to notice, also clearly felt the unfriendly eyes of the little white cat in Leng ruoxue's arms. He was confused. He really didn't know what he had done to provoke this little cat. He also saw the little cat waving its sharp claws at him.

The subtle interaction between the two of them could not be hidden from Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree's eyes. However, the two of them chose to ignore it. Leng ruoxue did not intend to participate in the exchange of feelings between Cang and the spirit beasts. The parasol tree mother tree knew that it could not afford to offend senior Cang, so it had no choice but to remain silent.

"Ahem!" After a long while, the mother parasol tree coughed and changed the topic, ""Fengchuan, we're planning to leave Phoenix territory in a few days. What's your plan?"

"Leave the Phoenix territory? Where is the ancestor going?" Feng Chuan looked at the mother parasol tree with a face full of question marks.

"We're leaving with this little girl. We'll be by her side from now on. " The mother parasol tree replied honestly.

"Argh! Old ancestor, who are you all including?" Feng Chuan asked the most important question.

"We, the sycamore tree Tribe." The mother parasol tree said with a smile. She felt that her decision was rather wise and brilliant.

"Then ... Then what about our Phoenix Clan?" When he heard that the entire sycamore tree Tribe was going to leave with Leng ruoxue, Feng Chuan started to get anxious. Although the Phoenix tribe was not welcomed by the parasol tree now, as long as the parasol tree was still in the Phoenix tribe, the Phoenix tribe would still see hope and wait for the day when they would be accepted, right?

But what Feng Chuan didn't expect was that after all the elders went on strike, the parasol tree Tribe also wanted to move collectively. This ... Was he going to abandon the Phoenix Clan completely? It wasn't hard for Feng Chuan to imagine what the Phoenix Clan would be like without the help of the phoenix tree.

Wu ... How could the old ancestor leave just like that? More importantly, he knew that with the old ancestor leading the way, no parasol tree would be willing to stay. Thinking of this, Feng Chuan was even more afraid, because he knew that the old ancestor was definitely not joking.

"Cold! What does it have to do with me what happens to the Feng clan? The current Phoenix-kind is no longer the Phoenix-kind that we used to be. Therefore, we, the parasol tree clan, will no longer serve the Phoenix-kind. " The mother parasol tree said disapprovingly.

"Forefather, many Phoenix-kind people are innocent." Feng Chuan couldn't help but remind her.

"So what? They were all brainwashed by Feng Tong, and our Phoenix Tree clan is loyal to Feng Wu. Therefore, I won't help Feng Tong cultivate her power! Of course, if a Phoenix is willing to forsake the darkness for the light and acknowledge this little girl as her master, I'm still very willing to accept them!" The mother parasol tree made it very clear. When Feng Chuan heard this, he knew that the mother parasol tree had already made up her mind and it would be difficult to change it. He couldn't help but turn his gaze to Leng ruoxue.

Leng ruoxue understood what Feng Chuan meant. He just wanted her to help persuade the mother parasol tree! However, Leng ruoxue wasn't that kind. What she wanted to say was similar to what the parasol tree mother tree had said."I have the same idea. Unless a Phoenix is willing to forsake the darkness for the light, I support the parasol tree mother tree to cut off their food."

Chapter 2434 You're Not Fighting Alone \(2\)

Hearing Leng ruoxue's words, Feng Chuan knew that there was no point in saying anything more. He couldn't help but sigh on behalf of the abandoned Feng clan and fell silent.

After a while, the mother parasol tree asked again, "Feng Chuan, are you going to leave with us or stay in the Feng clan?"

"I'll leave with you for the time being!" Feng Chuan said after some thought. Although the parasol tree elder had shown that he had absolute trust in Leng ruoxue and he was also aware of Leng ruoxue's identity, he still wanted to observe Leng ruoxue from a closer distance. At the same time, he wanted to see where the parasol tree Tribe lived. Otherwise, he would not be at ease even if he stayed in the Phoenix tribe.

"That's good, you're free now anyway." The mother parasol tree nodded.

"I wonder when old forefather and the others are planning to leave?" Feng Chuan asked again.

"In two or three days." Leng ruoxue replied.

"What about the pills that you want ..." Feng Chuan didn't finish his sentence but he believed that Leng ruoxue would understand what he meant.

"She probably couldn't bear to give me the types and quantities of herbs I asked for." Leng ruoxue laughed evilly.

"..." Feng Chuan was a little speechless. The Phoenix King would definitely be reluctant! However, he could also tell that Leng ruoxue most likely knew that the Phoenix King would be reluctant to part with her, so she had deliberately given such a condition. It was a pity that the waiter was going to suffer.

With a sigh, Feng Chuan silently expressed his sympathy for the waiter, but he couldn't do anything about it.

Just as Feng Chuan had expected, the current leader of the hidden guards returned to the Phoenix Clan and reported Leng ruoxue's conditions to the Phoenix King. The Phoenix King's expression changed drastically and he flew into a rage.

Her anger was even greater than what the current leader of the secret guards had expected. Her face was blacker than the bottom of a pot. The huge Phoenix Palace had been immersed in low air pressure because of the anger of the Phoenix King.

Around the palace, many little phoenixes were trembling. From the aura, the little phoenixes knew that this was the king's aura, and the king was very angry.

Although the little phoenixes wanted to hide and not be affected by the king's anger, they were too weak to withstand the king's pressure. All of them were suppressed to the point that they did not dare to move.

"Your Majesty, please calm your anger!" The current leader of the hidden guards, who was also pale, gathered his courage and said. He was the closest to the Phoenix King, so he was naturally injured by the aura that the Phoenix King emitted. However, he was mentally prepared, so his injuries were not serious. However, the other clansmen were not prepared! He didn't want the king's anger to be directed at his clansmen. That would be a huge disaster for the Phoenix Clan!

"Calm your anger? How can I calm my anger?" The Phoenix King, who was sitting on the throne, roared in anger. The anger that was emitted from her body was almost tangible.

"King, if you don't agree to the other party's conditions, then we won't do this business. There's really no need to be angry! You have to know that anger is harmful to the body. You are angry right now, but the other party not only doesn't know, but may even watch a good show. So I feel that we can't be fooled by Lord Lian Wu!" The current leader of the hidden guards tried to persuade him.

It had to be said that he was quite clever. He knew that the Phoenix King was most concerned about Lord Lian Wu's reaction, so he directly started from this aspect, which really made the Phoenix King calm down and think.

That's right! The more angry she was, the happier that annoying woman would be. Hmph! He must not be fooled by the other party!

With this thought in mind, the Phoenix King slowly calmed down, and the anger in his body also subsided. The little phoenixes who felt the pressure had lightened quickly took the opportunity to leave the place. If they stayed any longer, they would probably lose their lives.

However, although the Phoenix King had calmed down for the time being, she was still very unhappy.

She felt that she had already put down her status and wanted to exchange medicinal pills with that hateful woman. How could that hateful fellow not give her face? He really didn't know what was good for him!

It had to be said that the Phoenix Prince was a rather selfish person. She thought that she had put down her pride, but would Leng ruoxue think so?

The answer was no! Moreover, Leng ruoxue didn't think that the Phoenix King had lowered her status just because she wanted to exchange for another pill! How could there be such a cheap thing in the world!

Of course, the Phoenix King was not clear about Leng ruoxue's thoughts. Otherwise, she would be even angrier at Leng ruoxue's insensiveness.

At this moment, the Phoenix Prince was racking her brain to think of Leng ruoxue's faults and comparing it to her own compromise. The more she thought about it, the more she felt that Leng ruoxue shouldn't have done that. However, Leng ruoxue could not care less about what she was thinking.

But the Phoenix King cared!

The more Leng ruoxue deliberately made things difficult for her, the more the Phoenix King wanted to know the effects of those pills. Sometimes, she even wondered if the effects of those pills were not as good as she had imagined, which was why that damned woman was not willing to exchange with her.

With this thought in mind, the Phoenix King's determination to get those pills grew even stronger. However, how could he obtain those medicinal pills without spending a lot of money?

She was extremely unwilling to exchange pills with the other party according to the requirements on the list.

The current leader of the hidden guards saw the Phoenix King's frown from time to time. However, he didn't want to interrupt at this time, in case he was treated as cannon fodder by the king again.

The current leader of the hidden guards, who didn't want to be cannon fodder, held his breath and tried to lower his presence.

After a long time, the Phoenix King finally responded.

"Go and tell that B * tch Lian Wu that I've agreed to use the items on the list to exchange for her pills!" The Phoenix King gritted his teeth and said.

"..." The current leader of the hidden guards was obviously stunned when he heard this. He did not expect the king to agree. And it was after thinking about it for so long. This was really too unbelievable. One had to know that he was very curious as to why the king had changed his mind. However, he did not dare to ask such a question, because he could see that the king did not look very good.

"Yes!" After being stunned for a moment, the current leader of the hidden guards immediately reacted. He turned around and was about to leave.

"Wait, tell her that I need three days to gather all the herbs. Tell her to come to the Feng clan to get them herself!" After calling out to the leader of his secret guards, the Phoenix King was so angry that he gritted his teeth so hard that they were about to break. His voice was also squeezed out from the gaps between his teeth.

"Yes," the current leader of the hidden guards replied. He immediately headed to the peacock clan.

When Leng ruoxue heard this news, she was stunned for a long time. Never in her dreams would she have thought that the Phoenix King would actually agree to her conditions. What had provoked the Phoenix King? If he had known that she would agree, he would have asked Qing Jue to write more.

Leng ruoxue truly regretted it!

However, she also believed that if she wrote more medicinal herbs on it, the Phoenix King would not agree even if he died!

But now ... Sigh! Why did he feel a little depressed when the Phoenix King agreed? Could it be that she had guessed it wrong?

Chapter 2435 You're Not Fighting Alone \(3\)

Leng ruoxue believed that this was definitely not the reason. She wasn't arrogant enough to think that everything was within her calculations, so why would she be depressed?

After thinking for a long time, Leng ruoxue finally understood!

She didn't want to exchange the pill with the Phoenix King at all! Right! This must be the reason!

Leng ruoxue, who felt that she had thought things through, raised her head and saw the current leader of the secret guards, as well as Feng Chuan, who was still in disguise, staring at her.

"What are you still doing here?" Leng ruoxue glanced at the leader of the hidden guards and asked in confusion. Wasn't the little Phoenix supposed to be here to pass on a message? Now that she knew, why was this guy still here? She had thought that the Phoenix had already returned!

"..." The current leader of the secret guards, who had been ignored for a long time, was speechless for a long time. He thought to himself, he has always been here, okay?

"I, I want to ask, where's my boss!" After hesitating for a moment, the current leader of the hidden guards asked.

"What?" Leng ruoxue looked at the dumbfounded head guard and then at Feng Chuan, who had just regained his senses. She asked him with her eyes, 'doesn't he know you are him?'

Feng Chuan gave Leng ruoxue an innocent look. He was also shocked by the fact that the Phoenix King had agreed. How could he have the chance to say that he was their boss! Moreover, he really felt that he shouldn't scare the waiter anymore. Otherwise, if the waiter knew that he had changed his face, he would be scared half to death!

Leng ruoxue could tell from Feng Chuan's expression that he didn't want the other party to know. So, she could only helplessly say, "Your boss has already returned to the Feng clan. Didn't you see?"

Leng ruoxue was very serious when she said this. The current leader of the hidden guards didn't doubt her at all because he felt that there was no need for Lord Lian Wu to lie to him. As soon as he heard that his boss had gone back, he also quickly left.

The moment the current leader of the hidden guards left, Leng ruoxue glared at Feng Chuan and said, "You're not leaving? That little fellow will definitely come and find you. "

"Yes, I have to go back and make some arrangements. Where should we gather?" Feng Chuan nodded and asked.

"There's a small mountain 1000 m away from Phoenix territory. Do you know that place?" Leng ruoxue told them the rendezvous point that she had agreed to meet demon and the others at.

"Yes." Feng Chuan nodded. Then, he asked Leng ruoxue for the antidote for the disguise pill and left the peacock clan.

The moment the two of them left, Leng ruoxue immediately took out the mother parasol tree from her bracelet.

The parasol tree mother tree thought that Leng ruoxue was looking for it for an urgent matter. Who knew that Leng ruoxue would only look at her calmly and asked, "Senior, do you know where the Phoenix clan's treasures are kept?"

"What?" The mother parasol tree was stunned for a moment before it reacted, "Little girl, could it be that you're thinking of getting your hands on the Phoenix clan's treasure?"

"Yup! I should at least prepare some gifts for my Beastie! Don't you think that all the treasures of the Phoenix Clan should be inherited by Feng Zhan?" Leng ruoxue laughed evilly. Of course, by taking away the treasure of the Phoenix Clan, she could also make the Phoenix King have no medicinal herbs to exchange for medicinal pills with her. This was also what she had planned for a long time, but she had not taken action yet.

When the parasol tree heard Leng ruoxue mention Feng Zhan, it nodded its head and said, "That's right. All the treasures of the Feng clan belong to Feng Wu. It's only right that Feng Zhan, that little fellow, inherit them."

"I know where the Phoenix clan's treasure vault is. However, there are many traps there. I'm afraid it won't be easy for us to enter without alerting Feng Tong." The mother parasol tree continued. She could not help but shiver at the thought of the traps in the treasure room of the Phoenix tribe. Those traps were all designed by a cunning old Phoenix in the Phoenix tribe. They were definitely a trap.

"With Cang here, I'm not afraid!" Leng ruoxue saw that the mother parasol tree was gritting her teeth when it mentioned that area. Even though she did not understand the reason, she was smart enough not to ask.

When Cang heard Leng ruoxue's words, he raised his snow-white Claws and said, "Girl, there's no need to ask this old tree. I can find the treasure vault of the Phoenix Clan. You have to believe in my ability!"

"Uh! I just wanted to save you some trouble!" Leng ruoxue explained helplessly. Of course, she believed in Cang's ability. However, with a spy in the Phoenix Clan, was there a need for Cang to look for him? It would be a waste not to use such a convenient resource!

"..." The mother parasol tree listened to the conversation between the man and the Beast and was deeply worried. She ... Why did she have the thought that she would be led astray by them one day? This was too terrifying!

The mother parasol tree did not dare to think further. However, she was quite clear that with senior Cang, who was famous for his destructive nature, if he really found the treasure room of the Phoenix tribe, it would not be able to be preserved!

No! That treasure room was the fruit of Feng Wu and a certain someone's wisdom. They only needed to take the treasures. She would do her best to protect the treasure room! With that thought in mind, the mother parasol tree urged him anxiously, "Little girl, when are we leaving?"

"There's no time like the present, let's do it now!" Leng ruoxue saw how anxious the mother parasol tree was and decided to play along.

"Alright, let's go then." With that, the mother parasol tree pulled Leng ruoxue along and prepared to leave.

"Wait, senior. You can't go like this. Also, you have to restrain your aura." Leng ruoxue hurriedly called for the mother parasol tree to stop. She had only found out today that the mother parasol tree was still an impatient person.

"Uh! Then how do we go?" The mother parasol tree stopped in its tracks and looked at Leng ruoxue in confusion. At the same time, it retracted its aura.

Leng ruoxue took Ling out from the bangle and instructed, "Ling, make us invisible,"

"Yes, master!" Ling Ying said, and at the same time, he cast an invisibility technique.

Before they left, Leng ruoxue specially went to inform the Peacock King so that the little Peacock wouldn't be anxious when it couldn't find them. However, when the Peacock King heard that his master was going to the Phoenix clan's treasure vault, his thoughts immediately became active and he strongly requested for his master to bring him along.

In fact, the Peacock King had been longing for his master's invisibility for a long time. Now that he had such a good opportunity, how could he let it go? Especially since the place they were going to was an important place of the Phoenix Clan. He had long heard that there were many rare treasures there, so he naturally wanted to see it first.

The mother parasol tree was extremely unwilling to bring along this child who was a burden. However, Leng ruoxue's heart softened when she saw how pitiful he was. She agreed to bring along the Peacock King who was looking at her with a pitiful expression. As a result, the mother parasol tree complained that she had pampered her Beastie too much.

Leng ruoxue laughed nonchalantly and thought to herself, 'if she doesn't pamper her own Beastie, who else would she pamper!'

Just like that, he brought along Leng ruoxue, who was a burden, and the mother parasol tree, and headed to the Phoenix Clan in high spirits.

On the way, the mother parasol tree introduced the treasure vault of the Phoenix tribe.

There were two treasure rooms in the Phoenix Clan. One of them was used to store rare and precious treasures, while the other was used to store precious natural treasures and precious ores.

When the mother parasol tree asked Leng ruoxue which one they were going to first, Leng ruoxue didn't even think and directly said that they were going to the one with the herbs.

Who asked him to be an Alchemist! The thing he was most interested in was, of course, the herbs. Oh right, he was also a blacksmith, so ores were also quite important! Although the time she spent on refining weapons was much less than the time she spent on refining medicinal pills.

However, after hearing Leng ruoxue's answer, the mother parasol tree frowned deeply. Finally, she could not help but remind her, "Little girl, Are you sure? That place isn't the most precious place for the Phoenix Clan. "

"I'm sure, I'm sure, and I'm certain. I'm very interested in that place, but I'm not that interested in the other treasure room. " Leng ruoxue said honestly.

"Little girl, I always thought you knew a lot about treasures! Today, I know that you're an outsider. " The mother parasol tree was deeply helpless.

Although she knew that this little girl was only using Feng Zhan's name to empty out the Feng clan's treasure vault, she didn't mind. After all, Feng Zhan had acknowledged this little girl as his master! This girl had done a great favor to the Feng clan, and she would find a way to save Feng Wu in the future. So, she really felt that it was reasonable for the Feng clan to give her the treasure. This was the Feng clan's reward in advance.

Besides, even if she didn't do this favor now, Feng Zhan, that ungrateful little fellow, would still want to give all his good things to this girl. Since he knew this, why not do her a favor? In addition, she really didn't want the Feng clan's treasure to fall into the hands of that B * tch Feng Tong. That would make her depressed!

After comparing the two, she was smart enough to choose Leng ruoxue.

However, this little girl's taste really made her speechless! Those medicinal herbs were not worth much money at all. The most valuable things were in the other treasure room!

What if ... She was saying what if Feng Tong found out about their theft? at that time, that B * tch would definitely be more vigilant. At that time, if they wanted to go to the other treasure room to steal something, it would not be so smooth.

However, Leng ruoxue was completely unaware of the mother parasol tree's internal struggle. As for Azure, even if he knew, he wouldn't care.

Hmph! It was just the Phoenix Clan! What's the big deal! If they really startled Feng Tong, at worst, they would just rob her openly!

One had to say that Cang's Bandit attributes weren't light.

Just like that, while the mother parasol tree was in a dilemma, she still brought Leng ruoxue, Cang, and the Peacock King to the treasure room where the herbs and ores were kept.

When they reached the door of the treasure room, Leng ruoxue was surprised to find a formation that was in operation.

After observing for a while, Leng ruoxue could not help but ask, ""Who set up this formation?"

The formation in front of him looked very simple, but it was quite exquisite. It was not difficult to see that the person who set up this formation was also a person who had studied formations.

"It's the high priest of the Phoenix tribe!" The mother parasol tree gritted its teeth and said in an evil tone.

Chapter 2436 It Feels Good To Have Someone Caring For You \(1\)

"The high priest of the Phoenix tribe?" Leng ruoxue was not unfamiliar with these words. However, from the tone of the parasol tree's voice, could it be that there was a story between the mother tree and the Phoenix tribe's high priest that had to be told?

Leng ruoxue's curious gaze drifted towards the mother parasol tree, causing the mother parasol tree to fly into a rage. This girl's gaze was too ...

At the thought of this, the mother parasol tree could not help but roar in anger, ""Bad girl, what's that look in your eyes? I'm really going to die of anger!"

The mother parasol tree was furious. The consequences, the consequences ...

However, the consequences weren't too severe. As soon as she finished shouting, Azure's icy glare landed on her body, causing the mother parasol tree's heart to tremble in fear.

Sob ... How could she have forgotten about senior Cang? this was such a huge low-level mistake! She shouldn't have ignored senior Cang's existence just because he looked like a harmless kitten!

But now, he had just shouted at his master, and senior Azure was furious!

The sudden change made the mother parasol tree instantly act like a mistreated little wife. It lowered its head in grievance, and its beautiful dark green eyes were still filled with tears.

Leng ruoxue was also shocked by this scene. She did not expect the parasol tree mother tree to have such a side to it. This was really too unexpected and also very scary ...

However, Leng ruoxue only looked at the mother parasol tree in disbelief for a short while before shifting her attention to the array. Coincidentally, she saw the Peacock King extending his claws towards the array out of curiosity. She was so frightened that she quickly stopped the Peacock King.

"Little Peacock, don't do anything stupid!" Leng ruoxue broke out in cold sweat from the Peacock King's audacious actions. However, the Peacock King replied in an extremely aggrieved manner, "I want to help you break the formation."

"..." Leng ruoxue was stunned when she heard that. Did she hear wrongly? This little Peacock said that she would help them break the formation? Does he also know about formations?

"You know about formations?" Leng ruoxue, who couldn't believe it, took a long time to react and ask.

"I know a thing or two! Master, let me try! I'm very interested in the formation that the high priest of the Phoenix Clan set up. " The Peacock King pleaded as tears welled up in his eyes.

"Uh! Alright!" Leng ruoxue's heart softened when she saw the Peacock King's pleading face. However, she was more shocked than surprised by this Peacock King who knew how to use arrays.

One had to know that Beastie who knew how to use arrays were rare, but in such a short time, she had already heard two. One of them was the high priest of the Phoenix tribe, and the other was the Peacock King.

Following that, Leng ruoxue watched as the Peacock King's delicate and snow-white fingers moved about, forming a series of hand seals in midair before floating towards the center of the array ...

After about half an hour, the exquisite formation outside the door became dimmer and dimmer. Ten minutes later, the light of the formation weakened and gradually extinguished.

"It's done!" The Peacock King said with sweat all over his head. Breaking a formation was really a matter that consumed a lot of physical strength and divine power! He felt that he had never been so tired before, not even after running for hundreds of thousands of meters.

That's right, when he felt aggrieved, he would run around Phoenix Ridge. When he was tired from running, he would stop and then have a good sleep. This way, he would forget his troubles. Of course, most of the time, he rarely had any troubles, and his troubles were basically created by the Phoenix King. Therefore, every time the beasts of the Phoenix territory saw the Peacock King acting rashly, they would know that he was being harassed by the Phoenix King again. Every time he thought of this, he would feel depressed.

As he recalled his tragic past, the Peacock King instantly became listless. Leng ruoxue thought that the Peacock King was tired from breaking the array. After instructing him to rest well, Leng ruoxue began to observe the array that the Peacock King had broken.

The formation had truly been broken. Furthermore, the process of the Peacock King's decoding of the array was also recorded in her mind. Leng ruoxue carefully recalled that every step of the Peacock King's was very compact. There was not a single waste or unnecessary art.

She really didn't expect that the Peacock King actually had such talent. It seemed that she had picked up a treasure! After Leng ruoxue's initial shock, her heart was filled with joy.

She knew it! His Beastie was definitely extraordinary.

The mother parasol tree, which had its head lowered all this while, had also raised its head at some point. It looked at the array that had been broken and its face showed a dazed expression.

That ... Could she say that she knew how to dispel the array at the door?

The mother parasol tree shrunk her neck. This thought had just appeared in her heart, but she quickly suppressed it. Wu ... She did not dare to say it out loud. She was afraid that this little girl would fly into a rage if she said it!

Just now, she had only cared about her sorrow and had not thought that the quick-handed Peacock King would be the first to undo the defensive array outside the door. But what she had not expected even more was that this seemingly unremarkable, weak little Peacock King was actually an array master!

To be able to undo the formation of that hateful old priest! He was definitely not simple!

The mother parasol tree was stunned. Her beautiful eyes first looked at Leng ruoxue, then stopped at the Peacock King.

At this moment, Peacock King had just taken a pill to recover his divine power and was adjusting his breathing. However, the gaze that fell on him was too intense. Peacock King's entire body was burning.

The Peacock King had no choice but to open its bright eyes. When it realized that it was the mother parasol tree that was staring at it, the Peacock King tactfully swallowed the words that it was about to ask. It remained silent and unconsciously moved closer to its master.

Master, please protect me! This old woman looks like she wants to eat your little Peacock! It was too terrifying! Wuuu ...

After receiving the message from the Peacock King's eyes, Leng ruoxue could not help but wipe the cold sweat off her forehead. She then picked up the little Peacock King, who had already recovered his energy and was glowing with health. She gave the mother parasol tree a look and led the way into the secret room.

Entering the secret chamber, Leng ruoxue was dumbfounded.

W-what was this?

Leng ruoxue was speechless as she looked at the colorful, operating small scale formations.

This was because every place that she could see, or it could be said that every place where the herbs and ores were placed, was protected by a small and exquisite array. If she wanted to take away those herbs and ores, it was not impossible, but she had to remove the array one by one.

This secret room was not small, and the herbs and ores inside were piled up like mountains and scattered all over the secret room. There were at least 8000, if not 10000, of these small protective arrays. How long would it take to solve them?

Was this the pace of exhaustion?

Leng ruoxue was deeply worried.

After being in a daze for a long time, she slowly reacted and pulled the equally dumbfounded mother parasol tree over, asking, "These formations were set up by the high priest of the Phoenix-kind? Is he trying to tire the thief to death?"

Chapter 2437 It Feels Good To Have Someone Caring For You \(2\)

"Yes, little girl, you're right! When the high priest was responsible for the construction of these two secret rooms, he had said that whoever dared to steal from the Phoenix Clan would be exhausted to death! If the thief didn't die from exhaustion and even managed to steal the treasure of the Phoenix Clan, then it's his good fortune and the Phoenix Clan will definitely let bygones be bygones. " The mother parasol tree explained in a low voice after wiping the cold sweat off her forehead.

"..." Leng ruoxue expressed her helplessness. The Peacock King, who was initially excited, had turned numb after seeing so many formations.

Previously, breaking a single formation had already used up a third of his divine power and physical strength. Now that there were so many formations before him, the Peacock King was certain that he would be exhausted to the point of spitting blood.

"By the way, little girl, you must be careful in cracking this array because there are traps in these arrays. If you make one wrong step, then the whole secret room's trap will be activated, and at the same time, it will also alert that slut Feng Tong. So, you must be careful!" After observing Leng ruoxue's slightly ugly expression, the mother parasol tree carefully reminded her.

She had no idea how to break the array here. It wasn't that the Phoenix High priest didn't tell her, but that she didn't remember.

She felt so ashamed!

"We ... Will be careful." After Leng ruoxue heard the mother parasol tree's words, she fell silent for a moment before she replied.

Then, she looked at the crying Peacock King and patted his shoulder, "Little Peacock, let's get to work."

"Master, how long will it take to solve this!" The Peacock King was filled with regret. He should not have broken the formation at the entrance! Great, now he had become a Coolie!

Even though he was a little grumbling in his heart, he did not dare to disobey his master's orders. His heart trembled as he followed behind Leng ruoxue and walked towards a small array not far from her.

As for Leng ruoxue, after taking a look at the distribution of treasures in the secret chamber, she chose the most expensive pile of herbs.

After a careful observation, Leng ruoxue began to cast spells one after another. In less than ten minutes, the array that Leng ruoxue had broken first stopped working. The herbs that were protected by the array naturally became hers.

At this moment, she lifted her gaze and looked at the Peacock King. She realized that the Peacock King's array was only one-third undone. Since she did not disturb the Peacock King, Leng ruoxue quickly set off for her next target.

When the Peacock King finally cracked a formation, he wanted to show off to his master. However, he suddenly realized that his master had cracked almost ten defensive formations.

In an instant, Peacock King's eyes widened in disbelief. Is this true? As his master's Beastie, he actually didn't know that his master's attainments in formations were so high. The moment this thought appeared in the Peacock King's mind, he was ecstatic.

Sob...He had finally found his master! He must acknowledge master as his master. If master doesn't accept him, he will cry in front of master!

After making up his mind, Peacock King seemed to be invigorated. He became energetic but Cang really couldn't bear to see Peacock King like this. He glanced at Peacock King and said with an unhappy face, "What are you daydreaming about? hurry up and get to work. Look at your work efficiency, it's really too low!"

Ugh! Hearing this, the Peacock King was depressed! His understanding of formations was clearly not as good as his master's, so wasn't it only natural that he would be slower in breaking them? Why did this cat attack him like this? Beastie, who were also masters, were born from the same root, so why was it so urgent to attack each other?

Although the Peacock King thought this way, he didn't dare to refute the fierce and brutal kitten. He could only lower his head and continue to work.

Little did he know that the Azure Capital was in a bad mood because Leng ruoxue was trying to break the array and could no longer hug him. The Peacock King happened to become the cannon fodder for the Azure Capital to vent its anger. At the same time, the Azure Capital could also sense the Peacock King's inner thoughts and thought to himself, Hmph! He even recited a poem, wasn't this showing that he was uncultured?

Actually, these were words that Leng ruoxue often said to the Beasties. Her intention was to unite the Beasties and unite them against external threats! Now that the Peacock King had used it, Cang couldn't help but feel discontented. He secretly made a note of the Peacock King in his heart.

The poor Peacock King didn't even know that he had unintentionally provoked Cang.

After being pressured by Cang, Peacock King could only lower his head and work. He didn't even dare to raise his head to avoid being scolded again.

The mother parasol tree, who had been observing Leng ruoxue's attempt to break the formation, was shocked when it saw the dazzling array of spells. After observing for a long time, the mother parasol tree could not help but ask, "Little girl, I didn't expect you to know so much about formations. Today, I've really broadened my horizons. If that old priest were to see this, he would definitely be depressed! You must know that it took him hundreds of years to set up these formations!"

Upon hearing this, Leng ruoxue, who was breaking the array, replied in a speechless manner, "Senior Wu Tong, you know that there are so many formations here and you still dare to bring me here? It's a good thing I know a thing or two about formations. Otherwise, wouldn't we have made a wasted trip?"

"Hehe! How could that be possible! You're master Yu's disciple, this small formation can't trouble you. " The parasol tree mother laughed in embarrassment. When she brought Leng ruoxue here in high spirits, she did not think too much about it. She did not even consider if this little girl knew anything about array formations. The main reason was that she had too much confidence in Leng ruoxue. In addition, she had senior Cang's assistance from the side. Hence, she naturally thought that nothing could stump Leng ruoxue. Hmph! What's a small formation like this, right?

One must know that the old priest of the Feng clan had been taught by master Yu in the past. Master Yu had only given him a few casual pointers, but the old priest's achievements in the field of formations were already amazing. Not to mention that this little girl was master Yu's disciple. She must have learned a lot from master Yu. The mother parasol tree thought to itself.

However, she had overlooked one point, and that was that even as the master Yu's disciple, she might not know how to use arrays! At the very least, Leng ruoxue's two senior brothers did not know how to. However, the excited mother parasol tree would not think so much. Now that she saw how familiar Leng ruoxue was with the array, she would not think about all these messy things.

The parasol tree mother tree truly felt that watching Leng ruoxue break the array was a form of enjoyment. Looking at her ten fingers moving around, the spells she executed were so beautiful. Each of them was as beautiful and exquisite as a seven-colored butterfly. It could not take its eyes off them and could not move its gaze away.

She felt as if her mind was being pulled by Leng ruoxue's attempt to break the array. She also felt that two eyes were not enough. In the next moment, the entire secret room fell silent again. Other than the slight sounds of Leng ruoxue and the Peacock King breaking the array, even the sound of breathing was unbelievably soft.

A few hours later, under Leng ruoxue and the Peacock King's hard work, half of the array in the secret room was finally broken. However, the two of them were also exhausted.

Chapter 2438 It Feels Good To Have Someone Caring For You \(3\)

Finding an empty space, the two sat down to adjust their breathing. They took a few pills to replenish Shen power, and their tired bodies were slightly relieved. However, neither of them had any thoughts of breaking the array immediately. Now, they felt like vomiting as soon as they saw the array.

There were simply too many formations.

Glancing at the two of them, Cang Yi snuggled up to Leng ruoxue's legs. After rubbing against her fawningly, she said with a smile, "Niu! I know you're tired, do you want me to do the rest?"

"Azure can also break the formation?" Leng ruoxue was surprised. Why hadn't she heard Cang mention it before?

"I won't! I know how to set up and destroy formations!" Azure raised her head and said proudly.

Hehe! In this day and age, who still put in the effort to learn how to break formations! Just destroy it directly!

"Uh!" Hearing this, Leng ruoxue didn't know how to react. Destroy the formation? If she didn't understand it wrong, it meant to violently destroy the array, right?

Looking at Cang Xiaoxiao's body, Leng ruoxue couldn't understand why this little thing's thoughts were so violent. This was seriously inconsistent with its size!

After a long while, Leng ruoxue finally could not help but remind him, "Cang, if you destroy the formation, you will be discovered by the Phoenix King. The herbs I want will also be destroyed!"

"I won't! Girl, you have to believe me, I will protect these herbs well!" Cang raised his little white paws and promised. If it wasn't for the fact that Niu was so tired that she was about to vomit, he wouldn't help!

Most of the time, Cang liked it when Leng ruoxue did everything herself. This way, she could get some training. However, there were too many arrays in front of them. Their time was tight and their task was very heavy. Hence, Cang knew that he had to act! This was the only way to save time. Otherwise, the longer he delayed, the more dangerous it was for him to be discovered by the Phoenix King.

Although it wasn't afraid of the Phoenix King, their actions couldn't alert the Phoenix King. It must be known that it wasn't a wise choice to fight the Phoenix King now. At the very least, it hoped that when Niu's strength was a bit stronger and was evenly matched with the other party, the two sides would truly shed all pretenses of cordiality, but now! It was not the right time yet.

Hearing Cang's promise, Leng ruoxue pondered for a while before saying, "Cang, I understand what you mean. However, it's better for me and the Peacock King to continue breaking these formations! Although we're about to puke from breaking the formation, this is also a good training for us. It's a rare opportunity!"

"Alright then!" Seeing Niu so stubborn, Azure didn't insist. His heart ached for Niu because she was too tired. Otherwise, he wouldn't have taken the initiative to ask for help. But now that he heard Leng ruoxue reject his help, Cang wasn't angry at all. Instead, he was rather happy.

Hehe! This was what it liked about Niu. As the saying goes, it's better to rely on yourself than on others. After all, relying on other people's help was only temporary.

After resting for a while, Leng ruoxue and the Peacock King continued with their work.

The parasol tree mother tree, who was watching from the side, saw that Leng ruoxue and the Peacock King were so tired that their faces were pale, but they still persisted in their work. She could not help but feel a trace of admiration for the two of them, and the Peacock King's impression in her heart also improved greatly.

Who asked the original Peacock King to be a useless pretty boy in the eyes of the parasol tree! He didn't expect that this pretty boy would still be of some use now! Could this be what humans often said, that you can't judge a book by its cover?

The parasol tree mother tree sized up Leng ruoxue and the Peacock King. From the corner of her eyes, she inadvertently caught a glimpse of Cang, who had a look of relief on his face. Instantly, she shuddered and her little heart trembled. This senior was a violent one. She must stay away from him in the future.

Only the heavens knew how scared she had been when she heard senior Azure say that he was going to use abnormal means to destroy the spirit array here. She was so worried that the little girl would agree to this in order to save time, but she didn't dare to say anything to stop him. Otherwise, this senior would definitely fly into a rage! It was a good thing that the little girl Leng ruoxue had rejected him in the end. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable and would alert the enemy.

She wasn't afraid of being discovered by Feng Tong. Instead, she was afraid that Feng Tong would join forces with rime ice and make the other party on guard. At that time, the difficulty of their operation to rescue Feng Wu would increase greatly. This was not something she wanted to see.

It's alright now! In any case, even if the things here were lost, Feng Tong would not know who did it.

At the thought of this, the mother parasol tree, who had calmed down, could not help but reveal a lecherous smile. She believed that when Feng Tong found out about this, she would be so angry that she would vomit blood!

However, the mother parasol tree did not know that its little thoughts had already been seen through by Azure, but it was too lazy to care.

Three hours later.

The secret Chamber's array was finally cracked.

Leng ruoxue and the Peacock King relaxed and fell to the ground. At this moment, both of their foreheads were drenched in sweat and their faces were frighteningly pale.

In order to save time, the two of them broke through the array while taking pills to replenish their divine power. In addition, they became more and more familiar with the array here, so from the second half of the journey, the speed at which they broke through the array became faster and faster.

Seeing that his girl was exhausted, Azure considerately took out a small handkerchief from God knows where and attentively wiped the cold sweat off Leng ruoxue's forehead. The mother parasol tree was in charge of collecting the herbs in the secret room. In the later stages, in order to not affect the speed of breaking the formation, all the herbs and ores were collected by the mother parasol tree. As for the Peacock King, who was as tired as a dead dog, no one cared about him.

Looking at the cold treatment he received, the Peacock King wanted to cry but had no tears. He couldn't hurt a child without a mother!

Although the Peacock King was not surprised by his treatment, he still felt uncomfortable when he met them. However, he did not dare to let this ferocious kitten and the mother parasol tree take care of him. If that happened, he would die faster.

Al! Looking at the current situation, not only was he a child without a mother, his strength was also inferior to others. Thinking of this, he truly felt that he could only take care of himself.

After taking a few pills to replenish his divine power, the Peacock King immediately sat down cross-legged to regulate his breathing.

Upon seeing this, Leng ruoxue moved the Peacock King into the bracelet. When she saw that the mother parasol tree had also finished collecting the herbs and ores, she then brought the remaining two humans and one beast into the bracelet.

"Rest here! We'll continue to the next room after we've rested enough." Leng ruoxue smiled. Even though she was exhausted, they had gained a lot. Hence, she was in a good mood.

When the Peacock King heard this, he almost jumped for joy. However, he had to still have the strength. After eating a few pills, his divine power had recovered by more than half. Now that he was in his master's magical space, he couldn't care less about his own grievances and sorrow. He quickly took the time to rest. After all, his master could adjust the flow of time at will here! This made him feel that he still had plenty of time!

At this moment, a deep voice sounded in the Peacock King's ears, ""Have some fruit!"

Peacock King raised his head and saw a tall shadow blocking his view. The owner of the shadow was the Eagle tribe leader.

The Eagle was still looking at the Peacock King with concern. It stuffed the fruit into the Peacock king's hand. The Peacock King gave him a face and bit into the fruit. He was moved to tears.

Sob...It felt so good to have someone care for you!

The Peacock King had never expected that the Eagle tribe leader, who had always looked down on him, would suddenly show concern for him. This surprised him greatly. At the same time, his pair of probing eyes kept sizing up the Eagle tribe leader. The Peacock King really wanted to know if the Eagle tribe leader had taken the wrong medicine.

Under the Peacock King's gaze, which clearly said 'you didn't take your medicine today', the Eagle tribe leader's entire body was seething with anger. His face darkened and he said angrily, ""Damn it, what's with that look? I knew I shouldn't be too concerned about you!"

After saying that, the Furious Eagle tribe leader turned around and strode away with his long legs.

The Peacock King saw that the situation was not good and quickly extended his arms to hug the Eagle tribe leader's legs tightly. He howled, "Don't go! Don't go! It's rare for someone to care about me! Wuwu ..."

The Eagle tribe leader could not help but cover his face when he saw the Peacock King hugging his thigh without a care for his image.

This guy was really too embarrassing, wasn't he?

Even if it had a master, why was this Peacock still so out of line and like to embarrass itself as always? At this moment, he was filled with regret. He shouldn't have been soft-hearted when he saw that the Peacock King was exhausted like a dead dog!

However, it was too late to say anything now! The Eagle tribe leader was deeply worried, especially when he saw that there were countless beasts watching from a distance.

At this moment, he heard the Peacock King ask shyly, "That ... Why do you care about me?" she asked.

"You bastard!" Peacock King's bashful appearance made the tough man, the Eagle tribe leader, unable to accept it. Following that, the beastmen heard the Furious Eagle tribe leader roar, "F * ck! Can't you speak like a man? Don't be like that, I can't stand it

The tribe leader of the Eagle tribe was going crazy. If this continued, he had the urge to strangle the Peacock King to death. Of course, if he wasn't afraid that his master would say that they were killing each other, he would have done so long ago.

However, the Peacock King's face had long been trained to be extraordinary. He didn't care about the attitude of the Eagle tribe leader at all. On the contrary, he still smiled and said, "You haven't answered my question yet. Why are you so concerned about me?" This was what he was most concerned about!

"Because we have a common master." The Eagle tribe leader held his forehead and said, alright! He was convinced! He had to admit that he was no match for the Peacock King, alright?

"Just like this?" Peacock King asked with some disappointment.

Chapter 2439 Actually, I'm Not A Combat-Type Beastie \(1\)

"What else do you want to do?" The tribe leader of the Eagle tribe widened his sharp eyes and started grinding his teeth. Not only that, his gaze towards the Peacock King was also burning with flames of anger.

The surrounding beasties could already tell that if the Peacock King dared to pull any tricks at this moment, this old Eagle would definitely fly into a rage!

At the thought of this, the beastmen couldn't help but shiver. Then, they moved to a safe place. Although they were only surrounding to watch, it was hard to guarantee that the angry eagle wouldn't kill the beast to silence it.

Al! Although it was important to watch, his life was more important!

The beastmen were very clear about the current situation. It was a pity that the eccentric Peacock King was completely unaware that the Eagle tribe leader had already flown into a rage from embarrassment. Instead, he spoke with a matter-of-fact expression, "I don't think you should care so much about me just because we have a common master. You should be touched by my dedication and loyalty. You should worship me, right?"

"..." The Eagle tribe leader's eyes turned deep and silent.

All the spirit beasts fell silent.

The Peacock King's surroundings were completely silent.

After a long time.

All the beasts present could hear was the angry roar of the Eagle tribe leader, followed by a series of loud bangs. Finally, it was the Peacock King's painful howl.

"Wuu ... Master, save me! Help me! Someone is going to murder your cute little Peacock! Master! If you don't stop it now, you won't be able to see your little Peacock again!"

"Wu ... We are from the same root, so why are you in such a hurry to torture each other!"

The Peacock King, who was being beaten up, was crying and wailing at the same time. The Eagle tribe leader, who was beating people up, had black lines all over his forehead.

Not far from them. Leng ruoxue's eyes were tightly shut as she lay on a deck chair, turning a deaf ear to the noise. On the other hand, the mother parasol tree's impression of the Peacock King had changed greatly, so she could not bear to do it.

After hesitating for a long time, the mother parasol tree finally said carefully, "Little girl, aren't you going to stop them? If the Peacock King is beaten up by that Little Eagle, no one will help you break the formation!"

After the mother parasol tree finished speaking, it even turned around to look at the Peacock King who was being beaten up.

Aiya! It was really too tragic!

The weak Peacock King, in the face of the strong Eagle tribe leader, did not have any power to fight back. He could only cover his head and hide in all directions. Unfortunately, no matter how he dodged, the Eagle tribe leader would always land a punch on the peacock.

The Peacock King's originally beautiful face was now covered in patches of green and purple. It was a terrible sight.

Did the little girl really not care?

The kind mother parasol tree looked worriedly in the direction of the Peacock King before turning its gaze back to Leng ruoxue. Seeing that the little girl was still resting with her eyes closed as if nothing had happened, the mother parasol tree did not know what to say.

Just as the mother parasol tree was thinking about how to help the Peacock King, Leng ruoxue's voice was heard, "Don't worry about them. The Eagle tribe leader knows what to do. "

"Uh! Alright!" The mother parasol tree replied. Since the master had said so, what else could she say? However, the Peacock King's howl was too ...

Out of sight, out of mind! The mother parasol tree thought for a moment before turning around and returning to her residence.

"Wuu ... Master! How can you not care about your little Peacock? I'm going to be beaten to death by this Eagle!" Not long after the mother parasol tree left, the Peacock King continued to howl, but unfortunately, no one came to help.

At this time, the Eagle tribe leader saw that he had beaten them enough and decided to stop and rest. Besides that, he also decided to stop.

He knew that even if his master didn't care about it, he would still be scolded if he really beat the Peacock King up! Therefore, he had only given this Peacock King who loved beauty some superficial wounds. There were no internal injuries at all. It was just that the outside didn't look good!

The moment the tribe leader of the Eagle tribe stopped, the terrified Peacock King immediately ran to Leng ruoxue's side to seek protection. He hugged Leng ruoxue's leg and sobbed softly, "Master, how can you not care about me? I could only watch as that Eagle beat me up ... Master, you've made me so sad. To think that I've worshipped you so much. "

Upon hearing this, Leng ruoxue opened her beautiful eyes slightly and spat out two words coldly, "Shut up!"

"Master, I-it's not right to leave someone in the lurch." The Peacock King felt even more aggrieved when he saw his master being so fierce to him, and he reminded him in a low voice.

"You didn't die, did you?" Leng ruoxue said speechlessly. If she could, she really didn't want to bother with this fellow. He was too stingy!

"Oh ... I almost never saw my beautiful master again!" The Peacock King cried.

"No, the Eagle tribe leader won't kill you. Just relax!" Leng ruoxue rolled her eyes at the Peacock King and pointed out this fact calmly.

"Master is wise!" When the Eagle Clan leader heard Leng ruoxue's words, he immediately coquettishly replied.

"Alright, stop flattering me! In the future, don't get into so many fights for me, and don't hit me so hard. " Leng ruoxue shot a glance at the pig-headed Peacock King and warned the Eagle Clan leader.

"Yes." The Eagle tribe leader nodded his head obediently, but he couldn't help but think in his heart, master said to fight less, right? Oh! The meaning of "less fighting" could be understood literally. It should mean that they could still fight, but not too much.

At the thought of this, the Eagle tribe leader couldn't help but look at the Peacock King provocatively.

When the Peacock King received this gaze, he instantly felt a chill down his spine. He was so frightened that he shifted closer to Leng ruoxue. The Eagle tribe leader shot a contemptuous glance at the cowardly Peacock King. After bowing to Leng ruoxue, he turned around and returned to his own residence.

After the Eagle Clan leader left, Leng ruoxue sighed helplessly and said with an exasperated expression, "Why are you so useless? don't you know how to fight back?"

"Wuu ... Master, his fist is too hard. I was beaten senseless, how could I think of retaliating! Besides, even if I fight back, I can't beat him! That guy is famous in the Phoenix territory for being bloodthirsty and brutal!" The Peacock King complained.

"Oh, really? Are you sure it's not because you're too useless?" Leng ruoxue squinted her beautiful eyes as she sized up the Peacock King, who had been beaten black and blue.

"Absolutely not!" Peacock King said with certainty.

"But I don't want to believe it. After I'm done with the matters in the Phoenix territory, I'll ask Azure to arrange a special training for you. Your combat strength is really too weak!" Leng ruoxue said after some thought.

"Master ... Can I not do it?" Hearing this, the Peacock King was filled with grief and indignation. If he let that little kitten give him special training, would he still be alive? Furthermore, his specialty was not fighting! Could it be that his master wanted to train him to become another Eagle tribe leader?

Ugh! Thinking of that violent man, Peacock King felt that he really couldn't accept it!

Chapter 2440 Actually, I'm Not A Combat-Type ORCC \(2\)

It was really too rough, wasn't it?

One had to know that he was a man of status, status, and temperament. He definitely couldn't have the aura of a Bandit all over him, as that would affect his image too much.

"You can 't." Leng ruoxue rejected him immediately. Cang ze looked at Peacock King with a smile. "I'll train you well. "

When Peacock King saw Cang's expression of 'you've finally fallen into my hands', he was so scared that he trembled. Then, he said to Leng ruoxue with a sad face, ""Master, actually, actually, I'm not a combat type Beastie."

"Eh? Then tell me, what type of Beastie are you?" Hearing the Peacock King's words, Leng ruoxue's curiosity was piqued.

"I'm a support type Beastie, and my most powerful point is that I have a good eye, which is not something ordinary Beastie can compare to. " When the Peacock King spoke of his specialty, he immediately became proud.

Good eyes?

Leng ruoxue was speechless. This was considered powerful?

However, when she saw the Peacock King's expression of "the heavens are number one, the Father is number two," other than being speechless, Leng ruoxue really didn't know how to react.

After a long silence, Leng ruoxue finally asked, ""What do you mean by good eyes? tell me the details!" She really didn't understand.

"Alright!" The Peacock King was very happy to see his master interested. Then, he began to talk non-stop, ""Master! Our Peacock clan's vision among beasts is absolutely unrivaled! Whenever there's a big or small matter in the beast clan, many beasts would come to ask me how to dress up and how to improve their temperament ..."

By the time the Peacock King was done nagging, Leng ruoxue was already drowsy.

She had already understood. The Peacock King liked to show off, so when Beastie needed help in this area, it would come to him for advice. Moreover, from the Peacock King's words, it was not a voluntary help. The Beastie who asked for help would be paid a certain amount! This was what the Peacock King was most proud of.

After hearing all this, Leng ruoxue really wanted to Pat the Peacock King's shoulder and tell him, "child, if you were in the other world, you would have a bright future in this job. It's a pity that this is the immortal realm where strength is everything. So, you're definitely not doing your proper job."

However, after Leng ruoxue thought about it, she decided not to hurt her Beastie's confidence. Hence, she replied perfunctorily, "Oh! Not bad, you have a bright future. "

"Hehe! I knew master would say that. " The Peacock King was so proud that his tail was about to stand up. Then, he changed the topic and said to Leng ruoxue happily, "Master, let me take care of your image in the future! I'll make sure that no matter where you go, you'll be the focus of everyone's attention. What do you say?"

The Peacock King's request was insatiable, but he didn't realize it.

"Not good, we need to keep a low profile." Leng ruoxue's forehead was filled with black lines when she heard this. She really did not dare to imagine how the Peacock King would dress her up. Was she dressed according to human or Beastie's aesthetic? It would be better if it was a human 's, but if the Peacock King dressed her according to the beastmen's aesthetics, would she still be able to see people in the future?

One could imagine how terrifying that would be.

"Uh! Alright! However, since when did master not keep a low profile? you must let me take care of your image!" Even though Leng ruoxue had rejected him, the Peacock King was still unwilling to give up.

"..." Leng ruoxue realized that she had underestimated the Peacock King's stubbornness.

Feeling his girl's struggle, Cang's claw smacked the Peacock King's swollen face, roaring angrily, "In your dreams. You don't need to worry about Niu's image, just manage your own!"

"Oh ... Alright!" He was being threatened again! The Peacock King was quite worried, but he didn't dare to disobey the words of this little cat. After all, the other party's fist was bigger than his! In front of this cat, he didn't have the slightest thought of resisting, nor did he dare to!

Seeing that Cang had settled this matter so easily, Leng ruoxue looked at him with admiration. Instantly, Cang was so happy that his tail was raised to the sky.

"Argh! Why are you here?" Suddenly, an earth-shattering cry rang out beside Leng ruoxue and Cang. Following that, the space in front of them rippled slightly and Qing Jue appeared.

"Uh!" After hearing Qing Jue's words, Leng ruoxue did not know how to explain to him that she was the one who had brought Cang in.

After leaving Cang outside a few times, Leng ruoxue would feel an inexplicable heartache every time they went out and saw Cang looking at her with a sad expression.

Originally, she wanted to refine a divine artifact for Azure that could conceal his strength. That way, Azure might be able to come in with her. However, Azure told her that such a divine artifact was not of much use to him. Ordinary materials would not be able to withstand his cultivation.

After that, Leng ruoxue flipped through the books and notes left behind by her master and discovered that her master had once refined a divine weapon called the concealed defiance.

The so-called invisibility didn't mean invisibility, but rather concealing one's heaven-defying cultivation. This God tool was also refined by his master for himself, but his master didn't have time to test its effects before he died, which just happened to benefit Cang.

After Leng ruoxue had found the God equipment, she had given it to Cang. Only now did she remember that she had forgotten to tell Qing Jue about this.

What should he do! The little fellow would definitely be angry! Leng ruoxue, who felt that things had gotten out of hand, was so angry that she felt like an ostrich. She really did not dare to look at Qing Jue's expression.

Although Leng ruoxue was afraid that Qing Jue would be angry, Cang was not. It smiled at Qing Jue and said, "I came in when I wanted to!"

"This is impossible! I'm not at my peak right now, so this space won't accept you at all. And it's impossible for me not to sense you when you entered. Speak! How did you get in?" Green vessel didn't believe Cang's nonsense at all. This guy was really scheming!

Seeing that green vessel didn't believe him, Azure had no choice but to raise a small, snow-white paw to show him. There was a golden bangle on the furry paw.

Looking at the bracelet, Qing Jue felt that it looked familiar, but he could not remember where he had seen it before. He could only shamelessly ask, "What is this?"

"This is called hidden rebellion, it was made by that idiot! It's quite useful!" Azure said with a smile.

"That idiot?" Qing Jue did not react in time, while Leng ruoxue could not help but cough twice. Her heart was filled with tears. Sob ... This was the prelude to being exposed!

"It's your previous master, Niu's master," Cang Ming said.

"Argh! How detestable! I was wondering why this thing looked so familiar! So it was refined by the old master! But is this thing of any use to you?" Qing Jue suddenly remembered that he had indeed seen his old master refine such an item. However, his old master had been particularly obsessed with refining weapons for a period of time. He had refined too many things, so he really could not remember what use this item had.
