

Crazy Wife 2441

Chapter 2441 Actually, I'm Not A Combat-Type Beastie \(3\)

"Of course it's useful! With this, I can come and go freely in this place, and you can forget about finding an excuse to keep me outside, Hmph!" Azure said with a smug look.

When Qing Jue heard this, he was extremely displeased. Could he say that he did not welcome this fellow? This guy I don't want to see the most? Who asked this guy to call his old master an idiot! However, the most hateful thing was his sister. She didn't tell him about this and he wasn't prepared at all.

At the thought of this, Qing Jue felt sad. Sob ... How could his sister be like this?

He looked at Leng ruoxue with tears in his eyes. Leng ruoxue saw the sorrow on Qing Jue's face. Leng ruoxue felt guilty and looked at Qing Jue carefully, "'I'm so sorry! Qing Jue, I forgot to tell you. "

"You really forgot to tell me?" Qing Jue asked while sobbing.

"It's true! It's absolutely true!" When Leng ruoxue heard this, she hurriedly replied.

However, Qing Jue did not say anything. He only looked at Leng ruoxue with a hidden bitterness.

Leng ruoxue felt her head throb from Qing Jue's expression. Sob ... Let her faint! After she found the traitor, she only wanted to tell Cang the good news as soon as possible and had indeed forgotten to tell Qing Jue. Thus, she could only say that everything was fate!

Sob ... Leng ruoxue was at a loss as to what to do with green vessel, so she could only ask for Cang's help.

When blue saw this, it didn't want to care and admire Niu's embarrassment. However, when it saw Leng ruoxue's pitiful expression, it couldn't bear to do so. It could only speak with loyalty, "Niu really forgot. I didn't tell her not to tell you."

"..." Leng ruoxue was helpless. Wasn't Cang's words a cover-up?

Who knew that when Qing Jue heard this, he only snorted coldly and left without looking back.

Leng ruoxue's heart ached as she looked at green vessel's small and lonely back.

Just as he was about to call out to green vessel, he was stopped by Cang. "Girl, give him some time to accept the truth! He'll be fine!"

It had to be said that dark green understood green vessel better. They were indeed old friends. Not long after, dark green appeared in front of Leng ruoxue and reminded her, "'Sister, you guys should continue with your work."

"Uh!" Leng ruoxue was surprised. Was Qing Jue alright now?

She looked at Cang and then glanced at green vessel. Leng ruoxue felt that the scene of these two little fellows being together was quite lovely. Wasn't this the relationship between a baby and a pet cat?

Leng ruoxue fantasized about the two of them together, but she didn't notice that Cang and Qing Jue were sighing helplessly at the same time.

"Sister, you guys should continue with your work." After a while, Qing Jue reminded her again and interrupted Leng ruoxue's wild thoughts with a helpless expression.

"Oh! Good!" Leng ruoxue nodded her head awkwardly. At this moment, the parasol tree mother tree, who had received Qing Jue's notice, walked out from her own residence.

In the next second, Leng ruoxue moved the original team out of the bracelet. Under the guidance of the parasol tree, they headed to another secret room.

When they reached the entrance of the secret room, Leng ruoxue gave the Peacock King a look. The Peacock King tactfully stepped forward to break the array.

Although the defensive formations of the two secret rooms were slightly different, the Peacock King's method of breaking the formation was much more brilliant with his previous practice.

Ten minutes later, the array outside the secret room had been completely broken by the Peacock King.

"Master, I'm done." The Peacock King said.

"Yes, you've improved since last time." Leng ruoxue praised. Following that, she saw the Peacock King acting tsundere again. Instantly, she regretted her words.

After entering the secret chamber, Leng ruoxue and the rest felt their heads throb again.

The secret room in front of him was more than double the size of the previous one, and the defensive formation was twice as large.

This was definitely going to tire him to death!

Leng ruoxue had entered many secret chambers in the clan. She had no choice but to admit that the secret chamber in the Phoenix Clan was the one with the tightest security and the most formations out of all the secret chambers she had been to.

Furthermore, he had heard from the mother parasol tree that the Phoenix tribe's treasure had never been stolen.

Al! It was obvious that any thief who saw such a secret room would turn around and leave.

I can't afford to be hurt!

Even if the array here couldn't kill people, breaking the array would exhaust people to death!

However, Leng ruoxue knew that she wasn't an ordinary thief. Since she had come, she didn't intend to return-handed. Hence, after giving the Peacock King a look, Leng ruoxue began to work.

When the Peacock King saw this, he could only accept his fate and continue to be a Coolie.

Due to her training in the previous secret room, the formations here could be said to be broken within seconds by Leng ruoxue. Even though the Peacock King could not reach that level, breaking a formation within two to three minutes was not a problem.

The mother parasol tree could not help but sigh, ""As expected, practice makes perfect!"

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue's face darkened.

This wasn't practice making perfect, alright?

Although there were many formations here, most of them were basically the same. Even if they weren't the same, there would only be slight differences. This was the brilliance of the high priest of the Phoenix Clan.

Because no one would have thought that many of the arrays here were repeated. Those thieves who stole things would probably be confused and disoriented after seeing so many arrays. How would they still have the mood to steal?

However, whoever dared to steal the Phoenix clan's treasure must be quite powerful, right? Otherwise, they would have been discovered before they could even succeed. However, Leng ruoxue believed that no matter how strong a cultivator was, they would still have a headache when they saw so many formations!

Time passed minute by minute.

Dozens of hours later, the secret room's array was finally completely cracked.

Leng ruoxue and the Peacock King did not say a word and immediately collapsed onto the ground. This time, they did not rest in between. They only wanted to finish their work as soon as possible. Hence, it was even more tiring than the previous experience.

Seeing the two of them lying on the ground in exhaustion, not wanting to move at all, the parasol tree mother tree, who had finished collecting the treasures, said with heartache, ""Ai! Poor child, you're really exhausted. Have a good rest! All the treasures of the Phoenix-kind are ours now. "

Hearing the mother parasol tree's excited voice, Leng ruoxue really did not want to say anything more. Suddenly, the scene in front of them changed, and they were already inside the bracelet.

It was Qing Jue who saw that his sister was exhausted and took the initiative to help.

After moving them in, green vessel took the initiative to send Leng ruoxue to the bed in the purple bamboo house. He then threw the Peacock King on the cold ground in disdain.

The Peacock King cried when he saw the obvious difference in treatment.

Wu ... It's fine if master's inhumane beasts don't care about my life or death, but why don't my own clansmen care about me too? Was this a rebellion?

The Peacock King was enraged. The consequences would be severe!

After a few howls and summoning a small Peacock in the mother tongue of the peacock race, the Peacock King glared at him and roared angrily, ""Quickly carry me into the house."

When the little Peacock heard this, she was so frightened that she trembled and sobbed, ""No, King! The Eagle tribesman has already threatened us. Whoever cares about your life or death is his enemy, and he will definitely show us what he's capable of!"

"You, you bunch of spineless things, could it be that you're afraid of that guy's threat and don't care about this King's life or death?" The Peacock King's eyes were spitting fire as he roared at the top of his lungs.

"King, the Eagle tribe leader will beat us up! You can't beat him and protect us, so just bear with it! Anyway, it's not very cold here, and it's just nice to let my mind clear up a bit. That ... I won't be here to accompany you, take care, King. " The little Peacock mustered up her courage and ran away in fear, leaving behind the Peacock King who was so angry that he almost vomited blood.

F * ck! He actually asked him to endure it! The Peacock King was filled with grief and indignation. This was a sign that his clansmen didn't trust him! However, he couldn't deny that the little Peacock was telling the truth. He really couldn't beat the Eagle. Woo.....He was such a bully!

The Peacock King lay on the ground in sorrow. Coincidentally, a few leaves from a tree not far away drifted over and fell on his body, making him seem even more sorrowful.

After an unknown amount of time, the enraged Peacock King finally got up from the ground. After patting the dust and fallen leaves off his body, the Peacock King took heavy steps and returned to his room miserably. Then, he laid down on his bed in the shape of a Chinese character.

Sob ... The Peacock King, who had been deserted by his friends and relatives, felt that he would never love again!

Not long after he thought about this, the heartless Peacock King actually fell asleep.

After waking up, the Peacock King's spirit and aura were roused. He felt that he had come back to life!

He left the room in high spirits and went to the courtyard. He happened to see his master sitting in the garden, feeling refreshed. The Peacock King went up to him and said, ""Master, you're awake too. Sob ... I've missed you so much!"

"Did you sleep well?" Leng ruoxue glanced at the Peacock King and asked with a smile.

"Not good, no one's taking care of me. They're just watching me sleep on the ground. They're such bullies!" Seeing that Leng ruoxue had asked, the Peacock King brazenly complained.

"We'll return to the peacock tribe in a while, then come back to exchange for the pills with the Phoenix King. " Leng ruoxue ignored the Peacock King's words and directly told him about their upcoming journey.

"What?" The Peacock King was also a heartless person. He had never expected his master to stand up for him. Therefore, after hearing Leng ruoxue's words, he had completely forgotten his original intention of complaining. Instead, he was completely attracted by Leng ruoxue's words.

But what he didn't understand was, why did they still want to exchange the pills with the Phoenix King? What could the Phoenix King use to exchange with them? Did that old pervert still have money?

"When the time comes, you only need to watch the show." Leng ruoxue did not explain in detail.

After that, Leng ruoxue brought her men back to the peacock clan's territory. She turned around and brought a large group of peacocks back to the Phoenix Clan openly.

As the agreed time was three days, and today was the day that the deadline was due, when the Phoenix King heard that Leng ruoxue had come to visit, he immediately got someone to invite her in ...

Chapter 2442 Top-Notch Treatment \(1\)

When they arrived at the entrance of the Royal Phoenix Palace, the guard looked at Leng ruoxue with a troubled expression and whispered, "Lord Lianwu, the king will only allow you to go in. These peacocks have to stay outside."

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue turned around and looked at the peacocks who were all crying. She shook her head and said, "No! I have to take them with me, they still have to protect me! If I can't reach an agreement with your King and he wants to attack, they're my helpers!"

Leng ruoxue's words were spoken in a matter-of-fact manner. Her voice was not soft either, causing the Guard's forehead to be covered in cold sweat. In the Royal Phoenix Palace, the Royal Phoenix, who was sitting high up on her throne, gritted her teeth when she heard the conversation.

Damn that Lian Wu! Didn't we already discuss the conditions? Why couldn't they come to an agreement? Or was it that annoying ugly freak who wanted to raise the price? When the Phoenix King thought of this possibility, he immediately became angry. His face turned from normal pink to red, then green and then black.

When the new leader of the hidden guards saw this scene, he really didn't want to become the cannon fodder for the king to vent his anger, so he could only try his best to lower his presence. He knew that Lian Wu Daren had the ability to anger the king to death.

However, in the past few days, he had been brainwashed by Feng Chuan a lot, so he had some experience in dealing with the king's orders. Naturally, he wouldn't follow the king's orders like before.

In the main hall, the Phoenix King was secretly angry. Outside, Leng ruoxue was in a deadlock with the guard who was in a dilemma. The peacocks behind her also looked like they had to enter no matter what. The guard really wanted to knock himself unconscious with a piece of tofu.

Sob ... Isn't this too much bullying?

The guard was very worried.

He truly didn't want to go against Lord Lian Wu, but he couldn't disobey the king's orders.

After a long while.

"This is the king's order, I, I can't make the decision," the guard stammered.

"Don't worry, I won't make things difficult for you." Leng ruoxue understood. Then, she stretched out her snow-white hand and aimed it at the Guard's neck. Before the guard fainted, he had a relieved smile on his face. Before he fainted, he was thinking, "this is good. There's nothing for me to do now."

"Let's go in!" After she was done, Leng ruoxue turned to the peacocks behind her.

"Owuuu! Go in! Go in!" The excited peacocks howled and surrounded Leng ruoxue as she pushed open the doors of the Great Hall. When Leng ruoxue saw this, she could not help but cover her face. She thought to herself, can you not cheer like this? You're not wolves!

Upon entering the main hall, Leng ruoxue immediately saw the Phoenix King, who did not look too good. She quickly asked out of concern, "Phoenix King, you haven't recovered from your injuries! Al! It seems that you were quite badly injured last time! Be careful in the future and don't let yourself be indulged!"

"Why do you care?" The Phoenix King was so angry that she gritted her teeth. If it wasn't for the fact that she had to make a deal with this ugly woman, she really wanted to teach this woman a lesson.

"I'm not caring. I'm just casually showing my concern. If you don't appreciate it, then forget it!" Leng ruoxue said disapprovingly. After she finished speaking, she found a chair and sat down without any hesitation.

Looking at the empty main hall, Leng ruoxue said fastidiously, "Your Highness, your place is so deserted! Are the elders still not done?"

She had touched on a sore spot, and the Phoenix King was once again enraged. Red, white, green, and black appeared on the Phoenix King's face one by one. In the end, her face turned into an ugly dark gray. Leng ruoxue's smile became even more cheerful when she saw this.

In order for the transaction to go smoothly, the Phoenix King could only suppress her anger and ignore Leng ruoxue's provocation. However, her fiery red Phoenix eyes were fixed on Leng ruoxue. If looks could kill, Leng ruoxue would have died a thousand times over.

"Phoenix King, if you have something to say, then say it. Don't look at me like that, I'm so scared!" Leng ruoxue feigned fear after receiving the sharp glare from the Phoenix King.

Who knew that when the Phoenix King heard these words, he was quite scornful. Hmph! You're still afraid? Do you know how to write the word "fear"? The Phoenix King knew that although she had not known this woman for a long time, she had a deep understanding of her shamelessness.

The Phoenix King believed that even if all the people in the immortal realm were afraid of him, this woman would not be afraid! Thinking of this, the Phoenix King's anger rose by a few levels. Hmph! Wasn't this annoying woman relying on that B * tch, Wu Cheng, to support her? Without fog, how could such a woman be his opponent? How would he dare to snatch the Peacock King from her?

The Phoenix King's Fury rose once again when she saw the Peacock King standing beside Leng ruoxue like a little bird! I'm seeing this adulterous couple acting all lovey-dovey in front of me again! Damn it!

If it was possible, the Phoenix King really wanted to tear this shameless couple into pieces.

Seeing the Phoenix King's face changing like a color palette, and the flames of anger in his fiery red Phoenix eyes from time to time, Leng ruoxue did not need to guess to know that the Phoenix King was probably very angry. However, it was a good thing that she did not know what the Phoenix King was thinking at this moment. Otherwise, she would definitely be depressed.

At that time, Leng ruoxue would definitely say, "Auntie, what's with your gaze?" There was clearly a fist's distance between her and the Peacock King. How did the two of them become so intimate that they were an eyesore?

However, at this moment, Leng ruoxue, who only knew that the Phoenix King was very angry but did not know what she was thinking, could only remind her when the Phoenix King did not speak for a long time, ""Phoenix King, if you asked me to come here just to stare at me, then I won't accompany you. I still have a lot of things to do! I don't have much time to waste on you. "

With that, Leng ruoxue stood up and was about to leave. However, she had only taken two steps when the Phoenix King, who had regained his senses, called out to her and suppressed his anger, ""Wait! We haven't even made the deal!"

"So the Phoenix King still remembers this!" Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

Leng ruoxue's smile was an eyesore to the Phoenix King.

F * ck! Of course she remembered, but when she saw this damned woman Lian Wu, she almost couldn't control her anger. However, the Phoenix King was clear that he couldn't let this woman leave just like that. Otherwise, who would be able to satisfy her curiosity about the pill? The Phoenix King, who wanted to know if the elixir was really that effective, had been thinking about it for several days!

If she still didn't know, she would go crazy!

After taking a few deep breaths, the Phoenix King forced herself to calm down and quickly said, ""Let's exchange for the pills! I'll order someone to retrieve the item you've requested. "

"Alright," he said. Hearing this, Leng ruoxue sat down again. The expression on her face was unusually calm and composed. However, the heart of Peacock King, who was beside her, could not help but race.

Oh my God! The Phoenix King had sent people to retrieve the treasures. If, if she knew that all those things had disappeared, would she let them walk out of the Phoenix territory alive? Thinking of this, the Peacock King shivered. He had seen the Phoenix King's anger before.

Sensing that the Peacock King was a little afraid, Leng ruoxue stretched out her arm and pulled him to sit down beside her. She then gave him a consoling look. The moment the Peacock King saw this, he immediately felt at ease.

Oh! With master around, they would not let the Phoenix King blame them!

The interaction between the two of them was once again captured by the Phoenix King's eyes. It caused the anger that the Phoenix King had suppressed to rise again.

Actually, Leng ruoxue and the Peacock King's actions were extremely normal. However, in the eyes of the Phoenix King who was burning with jealousy, they were extremely displeasing to the eye.

Right at this moment, the Phoenix King's trusted aide, the head butler, ran into the main hall with a flustered look on his face. With a long face, he cried out in tears, ""King, it's not good! Our treasure room has been broken into. "

"What did you just say?" When the Phoenix King heard this, he stood up from his throne with a whoosh.

"Your Majesty, the treasure room has been broken into. The medicinal herbs and ores inside have all disappeared." The trusted Butler of the Phoenix King trembled as he reported. His pretty little face was as pale as snow, and his body couldn't help but tremble.

"This is impossible!" The Phoenix King said angrily. Then, she teleported and disappeared.

As for Leng ruoxue, she remained calm and composed as she sat on the chair. On the other hand, Peacock King could not help but remind her, ""Master, should we find an excuse to leave? otherwise, the Phoenix King will not let us off."

"Why won't you let us go? We're just sitting here, she can't possibly blame us for what she lost!" Leng ruoxue replied disapprovingly.

"Master, the Phoenix King loves to vent her anger. Even if she has no evidence to prove that we stole those things, she will still think that we are suspicious. In short, if we don't leave now, I'm afraid we won't be able to leave." The Peacock King said worriedly.

"No, we can't leave now. We came here openly, so we have to leave openly. If we leave now, the Phoenix King will have a higher chance to pin the theft on us. At that time, she will fan the fire, and we may be hunted down by the four great king divine beast clans. What do you think?" Leng ruoxue advised the Peacock King with a heavy heart.

The Peacock King thought that it made sense. He no longer tried to persuade his master to leave. Instead, he sat on the chair with a calm heart.

Not long after, the space in front of them distorted, and the angry Phoenix King appeared with a face that was darker than the bottom of a pot. The next second, the Phoenix King roared, ""Men!"

"Thump thump thump!" Many guards pushed the door open and entered under the lead of the head butler, Prince Feng's trusted aide.

"Lock these guys up!" The Phoenix King pointed at Leng ruoxue and the group of peacocks.

"What is the meaning of this, Phoenix Prince?" Hearing the Phoenix Prince's words, Leng ruoxue raised her brows and asked indifferently.

"Hmph! What did he mean? You're the biggest suspect in the theft of the Feng clan!" The Phoenix King roared, and his face darkened even more.

This time, she couldn't suppress her anger at all. The treasures of the Feng clan for hundreds of thousands of years had disappeared just like that. She didn't even know who did it. How could she not be angry? Therefore, Lord Lian Wu, who had come to trade with her, naturally became her punching bag.

At this moment, she couldn't care that this Lord Lianwu was one of that B * tch, Wuyan's people, Hmph! The Feng clan had been robbed, and this woman had to be a suspect. Otherwise, who could she vent her anger on?

It had to be said that the Peacock King knew the Phoenix King quite well. Under the circumstances that he didn't know who the thief was, the Phoenix King could only force the matter on Lian Wu's head, treating them as suspects and venting his anger on them. Who asked the only outsider in the Phoenix territory to be this woman?

If the Feng clan lost something, who else could they look for other than her? This time, this hateful woman can forget about escaping! The Phoenix King thought to herself hatefully. She had already decided in her heart that she would definitely teach this woman a lesson. She wanted to let this ugly woman know the consequences of going against her.

In just a short moment, the Phoenix King had not only identified Leng ruoxue as the biggest suspect in the theft case, but had even thought of how to torture her. When she thought about how she would have the chance to torture this damned woman and the Peacock King, the anger she felt towards the theft miraculously dissipated.

"Phoenix King, do you have any evidence?" Leng ruoxue asked with a faint smile.

"Hmph! There's no need for evidence, you can't escape responsibility for this!" The Phoenix King pretended to be certain, but deep down, she was gritting her teeth in hatred. Leng ruoxue's calm and composed expression made it seem as if she was mocking her. She was an eyesore.

"Convicting someone without evidence? Was this a rule set by the Divine Master's estate? Moreover, according to your excuse, I just lost a piece of low-grade crystal in your Palace. You must have stolen it! You can't escape this, so I'm going to arrest you and interrogate you. What do you think?" Leng ruoxue said in an infuriating manner.

Upon hearing their Master's words, the peacocks around them all burst out in laughter. There were even some peacocks who were not afraid of death, and they started jeering, "Your Excellency, quickly capture this Phoenix King who may have stolen your low-grade crystal! We'll be in charge of interrogating him for you. "

The peacocks assumed a position that they would immediately capture people if their master gave the order. The first elder and the guards, who were the Phoenix King's trusted aide and wanted to capture Lord Lian Wu and the peacocks, were all dumbfounded and petrified.

The words of Leng ruoxue and a certain Peacock made the Phoenix King so angry that the blood in her body flowed backward. A sweet and fishy taste surged out of her throat. In an instant, her mouth was filled with the taste of blood. However, the Phoenix King endured it and swallowed the blood that she had almost spat out.

"Damn it, would I steal a low-grade crystal from you?" The Phoenix King's eyes were spitting fire as he roared.

"It's hard to say," Leng ruoxue was calm and composed.

"What evidence do you have?" The Phoenix King gritted his teeth and asked while suppressing his anger.

"There's no need for evidence. You're definitely involved in this. " Leng ruoxue returned his words.

"You, you ..." The Phoenix King pointed at Leng ruoxue with hatred. She was so angry that she could not even form a complete sentence.

However, Leng ruoxue did not seem to mind and continued to look at the Phoenix King calmly.

The Phoenix King was furious.

For a long time, the Phoenix King's face darkened and he was speechless. Seeing this, Leng ruoxue did not disturb the Phoenix King's thoughts. She just sat quietly on the chair and watched her.

Half a day passed by quickly.

In the end, the Phoenix King had no choice but to compromise, "Sir Lian Wu, the theft of our Phoenix Clan is a big matter, so please forgive me for not being calm just now. However, please understand and assist us in our investigation. Of course, we won't only investigate you. Anyone who has entered and left the Phoenix territory will become our investigation target."

The Phoenix King's words were reasonable. She apologized and asked for Leng ruoxue's understanding. Leng ruoxue was at a loss for words. Furthermore, she did not expect the Phoenix King to be so flexible! He was obviously furious, but after thinking for so long, he could still calm down. With such endurance, it was no wonder that the Phoenix King could successfully usurp the throne.

Chapter 2444 Top-Notch Treatment \(3\)

It seemed like a person's success was not without reason.

Since the Phoenix King had said so, Leng ruoxue had to give him some face in order to prove her innocence. Leng ruoxue said, "It's not a problem for me to assist in the investigation, but I don't want to be locked up as a suspect by the Phoenix King. So, I hope the Phoenix King can understand my feelings. Besides, I also want to ask, the treasure room of your Phoenix Clan should be heavily guarded, right? How did it get stolen? What kind of strength did the thief have to dare to come to the Phoenix King to steal things?! If it was me, I would never have the guts to do that!"

Leng ruoxue's words made the peacocks beside her laugh like crazy. Hehe, master was really too evil. Her words made the Phoenix King depressed to death. However, the peacocks were also glad that they had acknowledged their master. Otherwise, they would have ended up like the Phoenix King today.

When the Phoenix King heard Leng ruoxue's words, his expression turned even uglier. How could she not know that Leng ruoxue's words were correct? however, under the circumstances where she could not find the thief, she had to at least find someone to vent her anger on, right? But now, it seemed that his idea was going to fail.

Lian Wu was worthy of being the advisor of that B * tch, Wu Cheng! He was really difficult to deal with.

The Phoenix King was secretly depressed for a while. Then, he directly ordered his confidant, the head butler, who had just regained his senses, "Invite Lord lianwu to the guest courtyard to serve him."

"Lord lianwu, before this matter is fully investigated, I can only trouble you to stay in the Phoenix Clan." The Phoenix Prince then turned to Leng ruoxue.

"No, I'm not. I've long heard of the beautiful scenery in the Phoenix clan's territory. I've long wanted to live here and experience it. Now that the Phoenix King has given me a chance, I can't ask for more!" Leng ruoxue replied with an expression that said she was very satisfied with this arrangement.

With that, Leng ruoxue immediately stood up and instructed the head butler to lead the way. She then led the peacocks and strolled behind the head butler, who was obviously in a daze, as they headed to the guest courtyard to settle down.

As soon as they left, the Phoenix King's face immediately darkened. However, Leng ruoxue wasn't aware of this. At this moment, she was in a good mood as she brought the peacocks to tour the Phoenix clan's territory!

However, the trusted Butler of the Phoenix King, who led the way, was absent-minded all the way. No one knew what he was thinking.

As they walked, Leng ruoxue suddenly stopped. The peacocks behind her did not know why their master had stopped, but since their master had stopped, they naturally could not continue forward. The moment they steadied themselves, the peacocks heard a loud thud. Following that, they saw a certain head butler who was leading the way had crashed into a huge tree that required at least ten people to encircle him. In the next second, a certain unlucky head butler fell to the ground with a thud.

All the peacocks covered their faces and thought to themselves, this is too tragic to look at.

At this moment, a certain Peacock put on a curious look and asked, ""Why is there a tree here? It's not a parasol tree either!"

"This is just a decorative tree. It's probably used by the Phoenix Clan to admire!" Leng ruoxue sized up the giant tree not far away and made a guess.

It had to be said that Leng ruoxue was right.

This tree had been prepared by the Phoenix Clan for the guests who had been invited here. Since this place was close to the guest courtyard, many of these giant trees had been planted along the way.

As for the unlucky housekeeper, the Phoenix King's confidant, he had been so preoccupied with his thoughts that he had long forgotten about the road conditions here. That was why he had bumped into them.

Seeing that a certain head butler had not been able to get up after falling to the ground, Leng ruoxue could only lead the peacocks forward to express her concern.

"Head butler, are you alright?" Leng ruoxue saw that the Feng Prince's trusted Butler's fingers were still moving. She knew that he was still conscious and had not completely lost consciousness.

However, this person's injuries weren't light!

There was already a red bump the size of a fist on his forehead. His slightly opened eyes were also rippling.

Leng ruoxue started to pity him.

"I 'm, I'm fine!" Upon hearing Leng ruoxue's words, a certain Butler, whose eyes were filled with stars, said with a trembling voice.

Wuwu...It hurts! However, in front of Lord Lian Wu, he didn't want to show his weak side, so as not to embarrass the Feng clan.

However, Leng ruoxue disagreed with him when she saw how he was holding it in. ""Head butler, if it hurts, then cry! We will not laugh at you! It was true! I promise!"

"It's true, it's true ... Boohoo ..." A certain Butler wanted to say that he was not in pain, but he couldn't bring himself to say it. In the end, he couldn't help but cry out loud, feeling deeply wronged.

When he was done crying, he received even more sympathetic gazes. The next second, his old face quickly turned red, and he really wanted to find a hole to hide in.

He had lived for so many years, why was he still so useless? If the Phoenix King knew about this, he would definitely punish him severely. When he thought of the Phoenix King, his heart trembled.

The Phoenix King was so terrifying.

If he could, he really wanted to go on strike like those elders!

Unfortunately, he didn't have the guts!

"Don't be afraid. We won't tell anyone about this. " Leng ruoxue explained in an understanding manner as she saw through a certain Butler's thoughts.

"Thank you, Lord lianwu." The Phoenix King's confidant, the head butler, said gratefully.

After resting for a while, the head butler got up from the ground and said, ""Lord lianwu, the guest courtyard is up ahead. I'll Take You There first!"

"Alright," he said. Leng ruoxue nodded in agreement.

When they arrived at the guest house, the head butler, King Feng's trusted aide, made all the necessary arrangements and immediately went back to his room to recuperate. As Leng ruoxue received the gratitude of the head butler, their treatment in the guest house rose sharply.

After Leng ruoxue and the rest stayed in the guest courtyard for a few days, they were rather satisfied with the service here. With good food and drinks at their service, they would be fools if they did not enjoy it.

They were living happily, but the Phoenix King had been so depressed for the past few days that he vomited blood and almost hit the wall.

Originally, she had wanted to use the theft of the Phoenix Clan as an excuse to call back the elders who were in seclusion and those who had left home to discuss the matter. However, who knew that the elders who were in seclusion were so thoroughly closed off that she could not contact them at all. She did not dare to use forceful means to force them out of seclusion. Otherwise, if she caused those elders to be seriously injured, she would really be despised as the Phoenix King. Therefore, she had to temporarily put aside the idea of waking these elders who were in closed-door cultivation.

What made her angrier was that the elders who were in closed-door cultivation did not reply to her at all after they received the news that she had sent out. This time, the Phoenix King was completely furious!

Never in her dreams would she have thought that those elders would actually dare to disobey her orders? Were they really that unconcerned about the affairs of the Feng clan? How could the elders not react to such a big theft?

The Phoenix King was enraged, and the consequences were severe.

What she didn't know was that most of the elders who had left home had received the news, but no one believed her. This was because all the elders knew that they couldn't even break the defense in the treasure vault, let alone outsiders! Moreover, who would dare to steal from the Feng clan? It wasn't like he was tired of living.

With this thought in mind, the elders who received the news all took it as an excuse for the Phoenix King to summon them back, so they naturally ignored it.

If they didn't want to come back, the Phoenix King would have no way to vent her anger. Thus, the hot-headed Phoenix King immediately thought of Lian Wu and the others who were locked up in the guest house.

The Phoenix King didn't even think and went straight to the guest courtyard.

When they arrived at the entrance of the guest courtyard, the Phoenix King saw the tight security and felt particularly satisfied. She couldn't help but think to herself, Hmph! Damn you, Lian Wu. Although I didn't manage to lock you up in the prison, you won't be able to escape from here even if you have wings.

After thinking about this, the Phoenix King stepped into the guest courtyard.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue was lying comfortably on a deck chair in the guest courtyard's garden, basking in the sun. Not far away, there were a few Phoenix Clan attendants serving her. Her days were extremely comfortable.

Beasts followed their master. When they saw their master enjoying the service of the Phoenix Clan, they naturally followed their master's footsteps and found a place to lie down in the garden. There were also Phoenix Clan servants serving them by their side.

All the peacocks felt an unprecedented sense of joy when they saw the Phoenix-kind servant's sullen face, but he had no choice but to do this and that as per their requests. It was really too satisfying, the life of ordering these phoenixes around was so satisfying.

When the Phoenix King walked into the courtyard and saw the scene in front of him, he was so angry that his lungs exploded.

F * ck! What was going on?

Why did Lian Wu and the others she locked up in the guest courtyard enjoy such good treatment?

The Phoenix King was furious. Then, she shouted, ""Dammit! What are you guys doing?"

Hearing the Phoenix King's angry roar, Leng ruoxue's eyelids twitched slightly. She said indifferently, "Phoenix King, you've come to see us?"

What for? She was here to cause trouble! The Phoenix King cursed in her heart. But from the current situation, it was obvious that she was the one who was angry!

What was going on? Where's the Butler? Was he so thoughtful as to send people to serve these prisoners?

Even though the Phoenix King had spoken nicely to Leng ruoxue and asked for their assistance in the investigation, in the Phoenix King's heart, she had actually treated Leng ruoxue and the others as her own prisoners. Now, seeing that her prisoners were being treated like top guests, the anger in her heart instantly started to surge ...

Chapter 2445 Arrival Of The Demon \(1\)

Looking at Leng ruoxue's smiling face, the anger in the Phoenix King's heart burned even more. Her beautiful fiery red Phoenix eyes searched the room, but she couldn't find the shadow of the head butler she trusted. She was even more furious.

F * ck! What the hell is this?

How could these prisoners live such a carefree life? especially after their clan was robbed, how could they still live such a luxurious life?

The Phoenix King looked at the precious fruits placed on the table beside Leng ruoxue's reclining chair. The anger in his heart instantly burned like a volcano, and it was out of control.

Leng ruoxue smiled as she glanced at the enraged Phoenix King. She naturally knew why the Phoenix King was angry. However, she had no intention of caring about it. Instead, she stretched out her chubby, snow-white hand and picked up a small red fruit from the table. She placed it to her lips and took a light bite.

'Damn it!' Let go of my fruit!

When the Phoenix King saw that Leng ruoxue had actually eaten his favorite Phoenix fruit, the anger in his heart rose even higher. One had to know that the Phoenix fruit took a thousand years to bloom and ten thousand years to bear fruit. Even she was usually reluctant to eat it. But now, she had actually fed it to an ugly pig. How could she feel balanced in her heart?

Especially when she saw Leng ruoxue's big mouth nibbling on her favorite fruit, she suddenly felt like the Phoenix fruit was being eaten by a pig. She, she really felt that the Phoenix fruit was not worth it!

Although the Phoenix King could not wait to rush up and snatch the Phoenix fruit from the pig's mouth, Leng ruoxue had already finished the Phoenix fruit before she could do anything.

The Phoenix King was at a loss for what to do with such an outcome. However, she had already taken the food into her mouth. She couldn't possibly ask this ugly monster to spit it out, right?

But the next second, the Phoenix King's eyes widened again.

F * ck! Still eating?

When the Phoenix King saw Leng ruoxue's hand reaching for the small table at the side, he picked up another Phoenix fruit. After playing with it for a while, Leng ruoxue smiled and said, "Although this fruit is a little small, it still tastes good. You should try it!"

Leng ruoxue's words were naturally not directed at the Phoenix King, but at Cang. After Cang heard this, his snow-white Claws stretched out unceremoniously and grabbed the fruit that was almost the same size as his claws, then threw it into his mouth.

After chewing a few times, a Phoenix fruit was destroyed by Cang.

When the Phoenix King saw this scene, she was so angry that her eyes were wide open. Her face turned green and then purple, and her towering chest heaved up and down violently. She pointed at Leng ruoxue, unable to say a single word.

F * ck! It was really too detestable! He actually fed her fruit to a cat! If it was possible, the Phoenix King really wanted to tear the cat that ate her Phoenix fruit into pieces. Her angry eyes turned into burning daggers and shot towards Cang. However, Cang didn't feel it and kept smacking his lips, as if he hadn't had enough.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue could not help but laugh to herself. Of course, she could see that the Phoenix King was very angry. However, she was not a person who would restrain herself just because the other party was angry. Moreover, the Phoenix King was also her enemy. She naturally did not need to care about the Phoenix King's thoughts!

Thinking of this, she coldly glanced at the Phoenix King and smiled faintly. "Phoenix King, you are the host. As a guest, I won't treat you to these fruits. By the way, please ask your Chief Steward to send more of these small fruits. There aren't enough to share with so many of us."

Leng ruoxue spoke lightly, but the Phoenix King's face turned darker and darker.

F * ck! Still not enough to share?

Do you all want to eat all of her Phoenix fruits? The Phoenix King gritted her teeth and cursed in her heart. The way she looked at Leng ruoxue was becoming more and more unfriendly. However, she did not know why she could not vent her anger. This fact made her angry and frustrated.

The next second, the Furious Phoenix King disappeared from where she was.

Seeing that the Phoenix King had left just like that, Leng ruoxue blinked her eyes in disbelief.

The Phoenix King only stared at him and left after saying a few words. He didn't even roar. This wasn't the Phoenix King's usual style!

Could it be that the Phoenix King had been switched? Leng ruoxue's thoughts ran wild.

The Phoenix King, who had already returned to the Phoenix King Palace, did not know what had happened to her. Why did she leave so easily? Didn't she go to find that damn Lian Wu to vent her anger? Why was he so angry that he didn't say anything and even ... Even turned around and left?

Not to mention Leng ruoxue, even the Phoenix Prince didn't know how this could have happened.

Could it be because of that B * tch, Wu Cheng? Suddenly, the Phoenix King had a flash of inspiration. When she thought of this possibility, the anger in her heart grew even more. And this feeling of having a fire but nowhere to vent it was really not good.

"Someone, bring the head butler here." The Furious Phoenix King suddenly ordered after a few minutes of silence.

The guard outside the door responded and immediately went to pass the message. Not long after, the Feng King's confidant, the head butler, rushed to the Feng King Palace, panting heavily.

"Your Majesty, why are you looking for this subordinate?" The head butler, Prince Feng's trusted aide, asked directly.

"Let me ask you, who asked you to give Lian Wu such good treatment? She's not an honored guest of our Phoenix-kind, but a prisoner!" The Phoenix King gritted her teeth in hatred.

When the Phoenix King's confidant, the head butler, heard this, he was dumbfounded. After a long while, he said weakly, ""Your Majesty, didn't you say to serve them well?"

"Bullshit! Why would I let you do that?" When the Phoenix King heard this, he thought, damn it, how dare he refute her? He really didn't want to live anymore!

"King, you really said it." The head butler, the Phoenix King's confidant, felt wronged. Boohoo ... Didn't humans always say that the Emperor would never joke? How could she go back on her words? This was really too much.

"You're going to do as I say? You idiot, can't you tell that I'm being sarcastic?" The Phoenix King looked at his trusted Butler with a face full of disappointment and roared.

"Ah!" The Phoenix King's words petrified his trusted Butler. This ... This was ironic? Only humans would be like this, right? How could Beastie be so sneaky to know that its King was being sarcastic!

The chief butler felt even more aggrieved. But this time, he was smart and didn't say a word.

Seeing that the head butler had nothing to say, the Phoenix King nodded in satisfaction and ordered, ""Be smart. Do you understand what I mean now? Lian Wu and the others are prisoners of our Phoenix Clan. There's no need to give them such good treatment. "

"Yes! Does your Majesty have any other instructions?" The housekeeper, the confidant of the Phoenix King, appeared to be very obedient, but in fact, he was quite dissatisfied in his heart. Although he was the confidant of the Phoenix King, he was not the only confidant of the Phoenix King. The others had long gone on strike, and he was the only one who did not have the courage to support himself. But now, after listening to the words of the Phoenix King, he deeply agreed. He was wholeheartedly working for the Phoenix King, but he was afraid that he would not have a good end!

Chapter 2446 Arrival Of The Demon \(2\)

It was because the Phoenix King was too fickle in her emotions. Moreover, she liked to vent her anger on others. Who knew when she would be cannon fodder?

It had to be said that although the head butler was a little timid, she was still a sensible person. Previously, when the Phoenix King was at her peak of anger, she did think of teaching him a lesson. But on second thought, now that the elders had gone on strike, there were not many people around her that could be used. If she got rid of the head butler who had always been loyal to her because of a moment of anger, she was afraid that she would have no one left to use! With this in mind, the Phoenix King temporarily spared this trusted aide.

However, this debt had been recorded in the heart of the Phoenix King, and it was uncertain when he would settle it. Fortunately, the head butler was not stupid and had already seen through it.

After the head butler, the Phoenix King's trusted aide, left the Phoenix King Palace, he went straight to the guest courtyard where Leng ruoxue and the others were staying.

When they arrived at the guest courtyard, he carefully recounted what had happened in the Phoenix Palace to Leng ruoxue. Then, he said with an apologetic expression, "Lord Lianwu, I can only help you this much. In the future, you should be more careful! The king will not let you off easily. "

Leng ruoxue laughed to herself as she looked at the trusted Butler of the Phoenix King who was trying to curry favor with her. How much of a failure was the Phoenix King? All of them had actually abandoned her? However, even though she was thinking this in her heart, she didn't show it on her face. Instead, she asked with a concerned expression, "Head butler, what are you doing?"

"I'm planning to leave the Phoenix-kin and travel the world like the other elders. " The head butler, the Phoenix King's trusted aide, said calmly. Although he had already thought of this, if it wasn't for the Phoenix King's provocation, he would not have thought of leaving the clan now.

Al! He really couldn't stay in the Phoenix Clan any longer.

When Leng ruoxue saw the worried expression on the face of the trusted aide of the Phoenix King, she thought to herself, 'alright! Yet another one who wanted to run away from home. However, this person's cultivation level seemed to be a little low! The strength of the chief butler was only equivalent to a human Godking. With such strength and status, if he were to encounter a powerful expert, he might be forced to form a contract with him! After all, not all the powerful cultivators were afraid of the Phoenix Clan. If they were really cooked, even if the Phoenix King stepped in, it would be of no use. Moreover, the Phoenix King hated the clan members who had run away from home to death. Would she stand up for them?

At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue revealed a worried expression and reminded, "Head butler, are you sure you want to go out? You must know that it's quite dangerous outside. With your identity, you're the favorite Beastie of many experts. "

"I know, I'll be careful." Leng ruoxue's words touched the head butler, the trusted aide of the Phoenix King. Look at how loyal Lord Lian Wu was! She even knew to care about his safety, sigh! He really wouldn't know if he didn't compete, but once he did, he was shocked! Compared to the Phoenix King, this Lord Lian Wu was really cute!

In reality, the reason why Leng ruoxue said that was because she was truly worried about the Phoenix. More than that, she was trying to sow discord and divide the Phoenix Clan. Only by drawing more and more members of the Feng clan to her side would it be more beneficial for her future actions, right?

Let's see how she'll be able to do anything when the Phoenix King really becomes a commander with nothing.

Leng ruoxue was extremely satisfied with her own thoughts. She even felt that this head butler, who was the Phoenix King's trusted aide, was much more pleasing to the eye. Even though this fellow was the Phoenix King's trusted aide, he treated them pretty well and took care of them very well. Hence, Leng ruoxue naturally would not vent her anger towards the Phoenix King on him.

Not only that, Leng ruoxue even generously took out a few bottles of elixirs and gave them to the head butler. In an instant, the head butler was moved to tears.

"Lord Lian Wu, thank you so much." The Phoenix King's confidant, the head butler, sobbed with gratitude. He really didn't expect this! The pill that King had tried so hard to obtain was actually so easily obtained by him. It seemed that this Lord Lian Wu was not as greedy and lecherous as King had said!

In an instant, the head butler, the Phoenix King's trusted aide, vindicated Leng ruoxue.

"Head butler, you should know that there is some unhappiness between me and the Phoenix King. So, you can't give the pills I gave you to the Phoenix King. Otherwise, if I find out, you will bear the consequences!" Leng ruoxue said the ugly words first.

"I won't! I won't give it to the Phoenix King, I promise." The head butler, the Phoenix King's trusted aide, quickly said. He needed these pills to protect himself when he left the Phoenix Clan. How could he give them to the king? In the hands of the king, would he still have a share?

Although the Feng King's trusted Butler was not very powerful, he was definitely a wise man. Naturally, he would not offend Lord Lian Wu just to please the king. Moreover, Lord Lian Wu was able to take out such a good pill, which made him even more determined to make friends with him.

"That's good." Leng ruoxue nodded in satisfaction.

Following that, the head butler, the Phoenix King's trusted aide, took out a fiery-red Feather and gave it to Leng ruoxue. He said, "Lord Lianwu, I really don't have anything valuable on me. This feather is a very important treasure to our Phoenix Clan, and we won't easily give it to others. Now, I'm giving it to you. If there's anything that can help Lord Lianwu in the future, Lord Lianwu can just tell me."

"Alright! Then I'll accept it." Leng ruoxue replied without any hesitation. From her perspective, this feather should be a token of this head Butler's promise, so she didn't take it to heart and kept it in her bracelet.

Prince Feng's confidant, the head butler, took his leave. After he left, Cang chuckled.

Leng ruoxue saw Cang's silly smile and didn't understand why.

Seeing Niu looking at him with a face full of question marks, Cang laughed even more happily.

"Girl, you must not understand the significance of that feather to the Phoenix Clan!" Azure said with a mysterious smile.

"What?" Leng ruoxue didn't understand. Was there any other explanation for the feather?

"With that feather, I can summon the Phoenix for help at any time. This is also a kind of promise from the Phoenix Clan. Although it's not a contract, as long as the Phoenix doesn't take back its feather, this promise will always be in effect!" Azure explained with a smile.

"I see." Leng ruoxue nodded.

"However, this feather might not be of much use to you, but it's still a token of my heart!" Cang added. Leng ruoxue could hear a hint of sourness in its mouth when it spoke of its intentions.

"It seems like that Phoenix knows how to repay a debt of gratitude!" Leng ruoxue said after feeling a chill.

He had only given him a few bottles of pills in exchange for a feather with the effect of a promise. He had profited, right?

Cang, who knew Leng ruoxue's thoughts, pouted and said, ""Those pills of yours are much more important than that useless feather. So, you've lost out."

"Cang, debts can't be calculated like this!" Leng ruoxue said with a smile. She didn't think that she would be able to gain a Phoenix's favor if she made a loss. What was a few bottles of pills to her?

Seeing Leng ruoxue's thoughts, Cang could only surrender! Who asked Niu to not lack medicinal pills!

Chapter 2447 Arrival Of The Demon \(3\)

"Girl, how long do you plan on staying here?" Azure changed the topic.

After Cang asked the question, he realized that Leng ruoxue was in a daze and didn't hear what he said. Instantly, he was a little angry.

The reason why Leng ruoxue was in such a state was because she had suddenly received a voice transmission from the demon.

He heard the demon ask him where they were. How much longer until this matter was over? Leng ruoxue truly did not know how she should answer because she had made the matter seem a little complicated. When she felt a pain in her arm, she looked down and saw that Cang had made a cut on her white arm with his sharp claws. A trace of blood was already seeping out of the wound.

"Cang, what are you doing?" Leng ruoxue was a little speechless. Then, she quickly consumed an ordinary healing pill. After seeing that her wound had healed immediately, she looked at Cang helplessly.

What was Cang doing!

"You're not concentrating! Hmph!" Azure said with dissatisfaction.

"Xue 'er, what's wrong?" At this moment, the demon's voice rang out in Leng ruoxue's heart again. On the other side, the demon was also extremely worried when he saw that Xue 'er had not replied after a long time.

"The demon just sent me a message. Wait a moment." Leng ruoxue stroked Cang Xue's white fur and consoled her. However, Cang was quite dissatisfied with her words. Hmph! Why was it ranked behind that fellow? Cang Geng was furious. He simply turned his fluffy little head away and was prepared to ignore Leng ruoxue.

After Leng ruoxue reported everything that had happened to evildoer and told him not to worry about her, Leng ruoxue then turned her gaze to Cang. However, she suddenly realized that this little fellow was being a tsundere.

Ugh! Was he really going to ignore her? Leng ruoxue looked at Cang helplessly. She realized that the people around her were getting harder and harder to serve!

However, before she could pacify Cang, a devilish voice came from her heart again, ""Xue 'er, I'll go find you now. Wait for me."

"Uh! Why are you here?" Leng ruoxue asked hurriedly. Her current identity was Lian Wu! The demon was here, and if he was exposed ...

"I can introduce myself and say that I'm your male pet!" After saying that, the demon cut off the voice transmission.

"..." Male, male pet! When she heard these two words, Leng ruoxue took a long time to regain her senses. She couldn't help but cover her face. 'Woah ... What kind of stimulation did this evildoer go through?'

While Leng ruoxue was still in a state of shock, the evildoer who had been waiting for her at the gathering point had already told uncle long, Dongfang Yue, and the others about his thoughts.

When everyone heard this, they all bravely expressed that they would follow the demon to find Xue 'er, or else they would not allow him to leave.

The demon had no choice but to report Xue 'er's current situation to them, and brought along many of his children.

When they arrived at the Phoenix territory, everyone shouted a few times towards the inside in a very well-behaved manner, ""Is there anyone? Are there any living things?"

'Shua shua!' As they finished speaking, a few fiery red figures appeared in front of everyone and said angrily, ""Who are you? how dare you trespass on the Phoenix territory?"

"We didn't trespass! We're here to find someone!" Uncle long replied with a smile.

"Looking for someone? Hmph! The person you're looking for isn't in the Phoenix territory, so you'd better leave now. Otherwise, don't blame us for being impolite!" One of the beautiful women, who seemed to have a bad temper, roared.

"This little girl's temper is really bad!" Uncle long turned to Dongfang Yue and said. Dongfang Yue nodded in agreement.

Then, uncle long turned his head back and continued to smile. ""Little girl, the person we're looking for is Lord lianwu. She's been ordered by Lord wuchen to come to the Feng clan to handle some matters, so you can't lie to us! If you delay God Lord fogriple's orders, your Phoenix Clan will have to bear the consequences!"

Upon hearing uncle Long's words, the few phoenixes who were responsible for guarding the periphery of the Phoenix territory were at a loss. Although their status was not high and they did not know much, they had even heard of Lord Wu's name. Now that this ugly old man had said that he had come under the orders of God Lord fogripple, for a moment, these guards did not know what to do.

But it was definitely impossible to let them Enter the Phoenix territory just like that! Because the king had ordered that no one was allowed to enter or leave the Phoenix token, or else they would have to bear the consequences!

The guards discussed among themselves through voice transmission. After a while, an older-looking servant asked, "You were sent by God Lord fogripple?"

"It can be considered so!" Uncle long said after thinking for a while.

"What do you mean by considered?" The guard was displeased. 'Yes, no, no. Why are you still calling it count '?

"It's like this, what about us? They are all servants from Lord lianwu's house. They accompanied my Lord's male pet to look for her. When God Lord riverripple found out, she specifically asked us to pass a message to Lord to quickly bring Feng Xiu back to the Imperial City. Thus, we are mainly here to accompany him in his search for his wife. As for God Lord riverripple's words, we are just here to bring her along. " After saying this, uncle long pointed at the evildoer and said to the guards in front of him. The meaning of his words was, of course, to say that he was the Lord's boy toy.

The demon's mouth twitched when he heard uncle Long's words. However, in order to match uncle Long's words, he deliberately put on a resentful expression and said with a slightly choked voice, "My Lord is naturally dissolute and likes men. I'm really worried about not being by her side for so long. If some random cat or dog seduces her and wants to take my place, I won't even have time to cry. So, I ask the guards to pass on the message. I'll definitely be eternally grateful to you."

After saying these words, the demon felt goosebumps all over his body. As for uncle long and the others who were listening, they were even more confused.

None of them had expected that this person would actually make things up like this. Fortunately, they knew that the demon had said it on purpose. Otherwise, they would have vomited blood from disgust!

When these words came out of the mouth of a demon, the power was really too great, didn't you? Especially when he had accused Xue 'er of being a Playboy and lustful towards men. If Xue' er found out about this, ugh! The consequences were unimaginable.

However, the few guards of the Phoenix Clan who heard the demon's words were not as agitated as uncle long and the others. Instead, they looked at the demon with sympathy.

What was this situation?

Although uncle long and the others were curious, none of them dared to ask the question in their hearts for fear of hearing something terrible.

However, just because they didn't dare to ask, it didn't mean that the demon wouldn't ask either. The demon looked at the few guards of the Phoenix Clan in confusion and asked shamelessly, "Milords, is there something that I don't know about?"

"Well ..." The guards looked at each other. In the end, it was a straightforward male guard who said with a sullen expression, "Hmph! How many women were not lustful? Your Lord Lian Wu has a new lover!"

"....."

The clear sky Thunderbolt!

This was definitely a huge bolt of lightning!

Not only was the demon dumbfounded, but uncle long and the others also felt a sense of fear.

Oh my God! You can't just say this! It would kill!

Uncle long and the others instantly felt the temperature around them drop to at least -100 degrees Celsius. They shivered and looked at the demon in unison, consoling him through voice transmission, "This must be a misunderstanding. Xue 'er can't possibly have a new lover. Don't worry!"

Although they were comforted like this, uncle long and the others were still worried about this time bomb that could explode at any time. This guy was too dangerous. If there was a slight mistake, they might lose their lives!

The Dark Lord!

The legendary brutal and bloodthirsty Mistress of the Dark World was synonymous with slaughter!

Uncle long and the rest were trembling in their hearts as they silently prayed for Leng ruoxue.

Little girl! You're on your own! We can't help you this time! Everyone present could see the demon's hidden anger. However, in order not to ruin Xue 'er's plan, his anger was not sensed by the guards of the Phoenix Clan. However, it could not be hidden from them, who knew the demon well.

At this time, the evildoer, who was full of anger and had no way to vent it, flickered his eyes and tears welled up in his eyes. When the guards saw this, they knew that this man was not feeling good and did not know what to say.

Following that, the guards heard the demon's slightly choked voice ask, "What's going on? Can the guards tell me more details?"

"No problem, I'll tell you." One of the guards said with a sense of justice. Then, he told the demon everything he knew and heard.

As the demon listened, although his expression did not change, the anger in his heart had long turned into a monstrous flame.

Hmph! The Peacock King, right? To dare to snatch Xue 'er from him, he must be tired of living!

At this moment, the demon drew a big cross on the Peacock King that he had never met before. This also meant that the Peacock King would not have a good life in the future. Because no matter what the reason was, if he had a scandal with his Xue 'er, that fellow would not forgive him!

By the time the guard finished his vivid explanation, uncle long and the others were already covered in cold sweat. Although they believed that the Guard's words were exaggerated, no matter what, the Peacock King was destined to be unable to escape the anger of the Mistress of the Dark World!

The kind-hearted uncle long and the others mourned for the unlucky Peacock King for three minutes. They were no longer bothered by this and asked excitedly, "Lord guards, thank you for telling us the truth. That ... Can I trouble you to help us report to the Phoenix King that we want to see Lord Lianwu? We won't mistreat you. "

After saying that, uncle long gave each of the guards a bottle of pills ...

Chapter 2448 You've Recovered From Your Injuries \(1\)

The guards took the pills and immediately put them away without even looking at them. They had long heard that the effects of Lord Lian Wu's pills were surprisingly good. Since the other party was Lord Lian Wu's subordinate, the pills he gave should not be too bad.

With this thought, the faces of the guards present became much more amiable. Even the female guard who spoke first had a smile on her face, not as cold as she was before.

When uncle long and the others saw this, they thought to themselves, 'the charm of medicinal pills to beasts is greater!' Look at these guys, their attitude had immediately changed 180 degrees!

Then, they heard one of the guards say, "Wait a moment, I'll go report to the king."

"Alright," he said. Uncle long and the others nodded gratefully, but the demon still put on a sad look, which made the other guards feel bad.

Al! Taking people's money and eliminating disasters for them!

With this thought in mind, the guards took turns to comfort the evildoer. However, they also knew in their hearts that this person in front of them looked a little apologetic. It was no wonder that Lord Wu would take a fancy to that demonic Peacock King!

She was a powerful woman from the divine realm! A few of them were not lustful. Like their King, didn't he also have women on his left and right?

The guards consoled the evildoer and told him to get over it. They even said that it wasn't a big deal for a woman of status to have a few men ... The evildoer, who was already furious, became even angrier. Uncle long and the others continued to break out in cold sweat.

Were these phoenixes trying to comfort him? Uncle long and the others were very uncertain, because they could clearly feel that the temperature around them had dropped quite a bit.

At this moment, the guards of the Feng clan finally realized that something was amiss. One of them asked in confusion, "Why did the weather suddenly change?" After he finished speaking, he even shivered.

Uncle long looked at the guard sympathetically, but didn't say anything. He only thought to himself, "this isn't a change of weather, this is someone's anger!"

At the same time, the Phoenix King, who was pacing back and forth in the Phoenix King Palace like an ant in a hot pot, heard the Guard's announcement that Lord Lian Wu's male pet had come to the door. She was stunned at first, then suddenly realized that it was Lian Wu, that b*tch's man!

"Hahaha! Hahaha! Ha! The heavens are really helping me!" After hearing this news, the Phoenix King laughed wildly and muttered to himself.

After a long while, when the Phoenix King was done laughing, she asked, "What does Lian Wu look like?"

"I, I'm still alright!" The guard who had come to report quickly said. To be honest, he was a little frightened by the laughter of the Phoenix King and did not understand why the Phoenix King laughed so horrifyingly.

"Oh! Let them in!" The Phoenix King said after thinking for a while. Hmph! The man of the fog? She wanted to see how good Lian Wu's taste was in men. In fact, she wanted to see the man in the mist for another reason, and that was to steal someone's girlfriend. Who asked that damned woman to steal the Peacock King and Feng Xiu, who she had taken a fancy to? To her, this was a great humiliation!

The guard received the order and immediately turned to leave.

Not long after, the demon and the rest were led to the Phoenix King Palace by the guards.

The Phoenix King's beautiful Phoenix eyes sized up the men who were brought into the hall. The more she looked, the more her head hurt. These men were too unsightly to be seen by others, right? She had lived for so long, but she had never seen such an ugly man who was comparable to Lian Wu.

"Which one of you is Lord Lianwu's boy toy?" After frowning, the Phoenix King held back her disgust and asked. Seeing these men, her little bit of revenge was forcibly suppressed. These guys, just looking at them made her want to vomit. Did they really want her to seduce them? He might as well kill her!

"I am." The demon whispered like a mosquito, and lowered his head, making a shy and timid look that did not dare to raise his head. This was more in line with her identity as a male pet!

"Raise your head!" The Phoenix King asked, unwilling to give up. Only then did she remember that she had seen the others' faces clearly, except for this person's. What if he was a beautiful man?

"I don't dare. It would be my fault if I scared the Phoenix King." The demon continued to speak in a low voice.

Fortunately, the Phoenix King's hearing was good. Otherwise, he would not have been able to hear what he was saying. However, the Phoenix King wasn't one to be scared. The more the demon said this, the more she wanted to know.

"I'm not that timid. I told you to look up, so look up. Why are you talking so much nonsense?" The Phoenix King pretended to be angry, but in reality, he was extremely curious.

When the demon heard this, he thought to himself, you asked for this! He knew that the Phoenix King was a lecherous person, so how could he not be prepared?

Then, the evildoer raised his head and looked at the Phoenix King shyly ...

"Blargh ..." The Phoenix King only took one look and almost vomited out all the acid in his stomach. F * ck! Was this even human? Was this even a man? How could he be so ugly?

This man was a hundred times uglier than the ones she had seen before. Not only was her face as big as a pig's head, but she also had a pair of bull's eyes the size of copper bells, a pig's nose, and a big, bloody mouth. Such facial features matched her face. It was really frightening!

No matter how strong the Phoenix King's heart was, he was still scared half to death.

However, the Phoenix King was the Phoenix King. No one could guess the thoughts of the Phoenix King.

Although she was frightened and her heart was in turmoil, the Phoenix King's beautiful face did not show it at all. However, it took her a long time to come back to her senses. After she came back to her senses, the Phoenix King wiped the cold sweat from her forehead and said, "Uh! This young master really has a unique appearance. No wonder Lord Lianwu took a fancy to him."

"That's right. My Lord has a strong taste and likes me. What pretty boy? he only won her heart temporarily. After he gets tired of her, she will still abandon him. But I'm different. My Lord will never get enough of me!" After scaring the Phoenix King, the demon's goal had been achieved, so he suddenly became talkative.

Moreover, he had expressed his dissatisfaction with a certain pretty boy in his words. When the Phoenix King heard this, he was happy.

Hehe! You guys go ahead! Strangle her to death! It would be best if this ugly woman could show off her divine might now. At that time, the timid Peacock King would definitely not dare to leave with that slut Lian Wu. If that was the case, who else could the Peacock King look for other than her?

Thinking of this, the Phoenix King suddenly found the demon pleasing to the eye. Even that ugly face was not so scary anymore. After thinking for a while, the Phoenix King complimented, "You're right. You'll get sick of beautiful faces sooner or later. So, a man can't rely on a beautiful face to keep a woman tied down. I ... I support you. The Peacock King is no match for you."

"Thank you for your support, Phoenix King." The demon was happy and grinned. Instantly, he almost made the Phoenix King vomit again.

"May I know how to address you?" After a long while, the Phoenix King finally recovered and continued to ask.

"My surname is Ai, you can call me Lian Wu." The demon blurted out without even thinking.

Chapter 2449 You've Recovered From Your Injuries \(2\)

When Uncle Long and the others heard the name that the evildoer had made up, they had goosebumps all over their bodies! Do you ... Do you have to be so mushy?

And even had the surname of Ai and the name of lianwu? This name was really ... Originally, the conversation between the demon and the Phoenix King was already unbearable enough for them. Now, he gave himself such a name. Wasn't he deliberately trying to make them vomit out their breakfast and lunch? Can we not do this!

Uncle long and the others were wailing in their hearts. When the Phoenix King heard this name, he was also petrified for a long time. After coming back to her senses, the Phoenix King was a little angry. You're also called lianwu, or do you love lianwu? are you afraid that others don't know that you love that ugly monster?

However, this name was quite unique. He believed that the Peacock King would not feel good when he heard it! When the Phoenix King thought of this, his mood suddenly became better.

"That lianwu ... Young master, you have to know that I'm completely on your side. So, you can do whatever you want. I don't dare to say it in other places, but in the Phoenix territory, I have the final say." The Phoenix King was not happy to call young master lianwu by his name again. However, she still fully expressed her position.

Then, the Phoenix King was afraid that the ugly man in front of him didn't understand his hint, so he explained more clearly, ""Actually, the Peacock King that Lord lianwu has taken a fancy to should have been my man, but that vain man has taken a fancy to Lord lianwu's status. So, I'm saying so, if Lord lianwu no longer likes the Peacock King, can young master lianwu return the Peacock King to me?"

"No problem, I can make the decision for such a small matter." When the demon heard this, he quickly agreed. Anyway, he would not suffer a loss if he agreed. He could also win the favor of the Phoenix King and save the Phoenix King from secretly hindering them.

The Phoenix King knew how much this ugly man hated the Peacock King when he saw him agree so readily. While she was secretly happy, she quickly ordered the guards, ""Take young master lianwu and the others to see Lord lianwu!"

"You bastard!" Why did this name sound so awkward? Even Lord Wu and young master Wu couldn't escape the word that she hated the most. The Phoenix King secretly hated it.

The guard accepted the order and quickly left the Phoenix Palace with the demon and the others.

On the way, the guard who led the way finally couldn't help but ask, ""Young master lianwu, what happened to your face?" When they met at the Phoenix territory's Gate, it was clearly not like this! Back then, young master lianwu was indeed a little ugly, but he was definitely not as ugly as he was now.

"Ai! It was a long story! When I get angry, my face will change shape!" The demon sighed and said.

"I see." The guard glanced at the evildoer sympathetically but did not say anything.

When they arrived at the entrance of Leng ruoxue's guest house, they informed the guards at the door of the identities of evildoer and the rest. The guard who led the way then turned around and left. When the guards at the door heard that they were Lord Wu's male companions, they invited them in without thinking.

The demon and the rest walked into the courtyard and saw Leng ruoxue lying on a deck chair in the garden. The demon didn't even think about it and ran over with jealousy burning in his heart. Then, he pulled Leng ruoxue, who had her eyes tightly shut, into his arms. The snow-white furball on Leng ruoxue's body was immediately pushed to the ground in disgust. He then glared at the two beautiful men from the Phoenix Clan who were serving her.

The two beautiful men of the Phoenix Clan felt extremely aggrieved when they were glared at by those sinister and cold eyes. Wu ... They had clearly not done anything! Why did he have to receive such treatment?

At this moment, Leng ruoxue opened her beautiful eyes. When she saw the man who was hugging her, Leng ruoxue was stunned for a long time.

This ... This ugly man was a demon? How many disguise pills did he take? Leng ruoxue shuddered, but a faint smile appeared on her face. She said gently, "You're here. "

"They're here!" The evildoer said unhappily. Then, he snorted coldly and deliberately avoided looking at Leng ruoxue. However, the arm that was holding her was still as tight as a rock.

Ugh! Was he angry? Leng ruoxue felt a little guilty. At this moment, she was still unaware that someone had already told the demon about her relationship with the Peacock King. She was afraid that the demon would be jealous, so she did not say a word.

"Hells, if you want to come, then come! Why did you throw me on the ground?" A dissatisfied voice rang out. Leng ruoxue didn't need to guess to know that it was Cang's voice.

"Hmph! You're really too useless! You actually let someone else take advantage of this!" Evildoer was filled with dissatisfaction towards Cang ye. This guy, wasn't he quite capable when he was competing for his favor? Why did he let Xue 'er have a Peacock King by her side?

The more the demon thought about it, the angrier he became, and his gaze towards Azure became sinister and unkind. However, Azure didn't seem to mind and grinned, "You can't wrong me. I've always done my job!"

"Is that so?" The demon narrowed his eyes and his voice was as cold as ice.

When Leng ruoxue saw the situation and heard the demon's words, she understood everything. She wanted to explain, but when she saw the evil man's unfriendly expression, she felt more and more guilty.

Sob ... I didn't do anything. What was she feeling guilty about? Leng ruoxue was very depressed because of this. Was she a henchman?

Leng ruoxue's heart sank. Uncle long and the others had already seen through the situation. They secretly looked for a safe place to avoid being affected by someone's anger.

This was clearly the rhythm of settling scores! They had to be on guard.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue and the rest heard the demon's roar, "Who is the Peacock King?"

"I, I am!" "Yes," the Peacock King replied softly when he heard someone calling him. Although he didn't know who this man was, he felt that this man was not kind no matter how he looked. At this time, he still didn't completely realize that the other party was here to find trouble with him.

It was only when the demon grabbed the Peacock King by the collar and lifted him up that the Peacock King finally reacted. This guy was here to pick a fight with him! He didn't even see how she came to his side.

"My dear, save me!" The Peacock King could clearly sense a certain man's anger. His heart trembled as he sought help from Leng ruoxue.

As they were in the Phoenix clan's territory, the Peacock King naturally addressed Leng ruoxue as 'my dear'. When the demon heard these three words, his anger rose even more ...

When uncle long and the others heard these three words, they also cried out in their hearts. It's over! It's finished! This time, he was really finished!

Leng ruoxue could not help but cover her face! This idiot! Didn't he feel any danger? He actually called her 'darling'! Great, now she couldn't help even if she wanted to!

Leng ruoxue gave the Peacock King a 'good luck' look and acted like an ostrich.

Seeing this, Peacock King's face was covered in tears.

Wu...No way! 'Master doesn't care about me? The Peacock King was heartbroken! Was it being abandoned?

"There's no need to look at her, she can't even save herself!" Seeing the man in his hands looking at Xue 'er, the demon laughed coldly.

Chapter 2450 You've Recovered From Your Injuries?\(3\)

"Uh!" The Peacock King was dumbfounded. Even his master couldn't protect himself? Was this man so powerful? This time, he was even more afraid!

However, the demon didn't scare the Peacock King for too long. His fist landed on the Peacock King's beautiful little face. In an instant, the Peacock King let out an 'ah' sound as half of his face swelled up.

How tragic! Uncle long and the others also covered their faces.

Following that, one punch after another landed on the Peacock King's face and body. His incomparably beautiful face was the one that received the most greetings. The Peacock King was beaten until he cried out in pain, but he could only be like a little chick, unable to fight back at all.

The man was holding him too tightly, and he couldn't break free at all. He could only let the steel-like fist hit his body. The surrounding peacocks saw their King's miserable state, but no one dared to step forward. Wu...This man was too terrifying!

The peacocks trembled in fear at this bloody and violent scene, while Azure watched with great interest. Hehe! He knew that this evildoer wouldn't let go of this flamboyant Peacock King! It hadn't even said anything yet! That pretty boy would be beaten up!

Cang felt great in his heart!

The other servants of the Phoenix Clan had also seen this, and their faces had turned pale with fear. Their bodies were shaking like leaves in the autumn wind. They could finally leave this scary place and get away from this scary man!

After an unknown period of time, the demon finally stopped. The pitiful Peacock King had already passed out.

"Useless fellow!" The evildoer said with a look of disdain. Then, he turned his gaze to Leng ruoxue.

"My dear, it's your turn!" The evildoer's voice was cold as he emphasized the word 'darling'. When Leng ruoxue heard this, her heart trembled. In the next second, she fell into the evildoer's arms and the two of them disappeared.

"Dammit! My girl!" Seeing the situation, Cang was so angry that he roared.

"Uh!" In the face of this situation, uncle long and the others felt that it was better not to participate.

Then, they came to the Peacock King, who had been beaten up badly. Uncle long gave the Peacock King a healing pill out of the consideration that they were all beasts. However, it was just the most ordinary kind. If he gave the Peacock King a good one, a certain man would probably attack again when he saw that the little guy's injuries had recovered.

Soon, the Peacock King woke up.

Feeling the bone-piercing pain in his body, the Peacock King's face was already covered in tears. Wu...Was this considered an undeserved calamity? Why did she beat him up? He was still a little confused and didn't know why he was beaten up, but what made him even more heartbroken was that his master didn't help him!

The Peacock King felt that he would never love again!

After thoughtlessly thinking about it, Peacock King finally remembered his injuries. He took out a healing pill and was about to put it in his mouth, but was stopped by uncle long.

"I advise you not to eat it!" Uncle long said seriously.

The Peacock King blinked his eyes and looked at the middle-aged man in front of him with a question mark. "Why?"

"If you recover after eating and someone sees you, you'll be beaten up again. This is from my experience. Trust me!" Uncle long said, as if he didn't believe that he would lose out.

The Peacock King didn't dare to eat it after hearing that. However, he asked in a small voice, "W-who's that violent and terrifying man? Why did you beat me up?"

Uncle long glanced at him sympathetically and concluded that this guy was not the type that Xue 'er liked. He was too stupid. Couldn't he tell? And he had to make people say it?

"It's Lord lianwu's man." Uncle long stared at the unlucky Peacock King for a long time before he replied in a low voice.

"Argh! No wonder!" The Peacock King finally reacted. So that guy was master's man. But why did master's man beat him up? He didn't seem to have offended master's man, right?

Although he had reacted, the Peacock King still didn't realize that he had been beaten up because of a certain boy's jealousy. He also accidentally asked what he was thinking.

Hearing the Peacock King's ignorant question, uncle long and the others could only sigh to express their sympathy.

Stupid! He was really stupid! How dare such an idiot be a mistress?

In the end, the Peacock King's pure and innocent expression made uncle long unable to bear it any longer, and he kindly revealed the truth to him.

"The one just now was Lord lianwu's legal wife, and you are Lord lianwu's new favorite. What do you think is your relationship? You snatched Lord Lian Wu, so why wouldn't the main character beat you up?" Uncle Long's words were very subtle. If the Peacock King still didn't understand, then uncle long would have to express his helplessness.

After hearing this, the Peacock King smoothed out this seemingly complicated relationship in his heart before coming to a sudden realization. He couldn't help but widen his eyes and explain with an aggrieved expression, "I, Lord lianwu and I ..."

"You don't need to say anything. We already know about the matter between you and Lord lianwu." Uncle long quickly interrupted, afraid that the Peacock King would say something wrong.

However, when the Peacock King heard this, he roared in his heart. You guys don't know! You don't know anything at all. Master and I are not what you think!

The Peacock King felt wronged! However, he also knew the severity of the situation. He knew that the Phoenix King had many eyes and ears here, so he naturally did not dare to tell the truth. But it was precisely because of this that he felt more and more aggrieved.

How could he not feel aggrieved? The relationship between him and his master was obviously a show for the Phoenix King to see, but he had actually been beaten up. Moreover, from the words of this middle-aged man, it seemed that he would not only be beaten up once.

Sob ... This time, he really felt that he would never love again. He was not joking!

Looking at the Peacock King's beautiful face, uncle long touched his head with sympathy and said, "My condolences! You'll be fine once you get used to it."

These words made the Peacock King's heart tremble with fear. In the next second, the Peacock King burst into tears.

Beating, beating habit? Who would get used to being beaten up! The more the Peacock King thought about it, the sadder he became. When he cried, it was even more earth-shattering ...

And everything that happened in the guest courtyard was reported to the Phoenix King by the spies.

When the Phoenix King heard the news, he was in a great mood! Although the Peacock King's beating made the amorous Phoenix King's heart ache a little, she felt that when the Peacock King saw the ugly man's violent actions a few more times and couldn't stand being beaten up, would he still be afraid that the timid Peacock King would not throw himself into her arms?

Thinking of this possibility, the Phoenix King laughed madly again, and his laughter spread far and wide.

Three days had passed.

Leng ruoxue and the demon were nowhere to be seen. Although the Peacock King was curious about where they were, he didn't dare to ask. He didn't want to be violently treated by the little kitten.

For the past three days, although they were no longer threatened by the violent man, the pressure that the snow-white kitten gave them was not small either. Because the kitten seemed to have reached menopause, with a gloomy face all day long and a frosty air exuding from its body.

This also made it so that no one dared to stay around blue for more than a minute. Uncle long and the others kept their distance from it to avoid its anger.

Cang listlessly laid on the deck chair. Suddenly, his small white ears moved and he suddenly raised his head. The next second, he quickly teleported away.

Seeing Cang's reaction, uncle long and the others didn't even need to guess to know that it should be Xue 'er and evildoer.

Al! Poor Xue 'er, she must have made countless unfair conditions in the past three days.

It had to be said that uncle long and the others were right.

For the past three days, on the surface, the two of them had returned to their room in the guest courtyard. In reality, the two of them had been staying in the purple bamboo house inside the bangle. Other than explaining the cause and effect of her scandal with the Peacock King to the evildoer, Leng ruoxue had also sacrificed her looks and made many unfair conditions before the evildoer was finally satisfied.

Sob ... Whenever she thought of her experiences over the past three days, Leng ruoxue would feel so depressed that she wanted to bang her head against the wall. It could be said that she had sacrificed a lot of her looks this time. In the past, the two of them would at most kiss on the lips and touch the places that could be touched. However, this time, other than not doing the last step, the two of them were much deeper than before. However, she didn't seem to be at a disadvantage. Her devilish figure was really not just good!

Now, she could still remember the extremely smooth ...

No! I can't think about it anymore! Leng ruoxue put away her perverted thoughts and put on an aggrieved and pitiful look as she followed the demon out of the room.

Just as he took a step forward, a snow-white furball pounced into his arms. That furball first glared at the evildoer with hatred, then looked at Leng ruoxue with tears in her eyes and asked, "Girl, did this guy bully you?"

Cang wanted this demon to deal with the Peacock King, but he didn't expect that this guy would also bully Niu! Thus, it had been very worried about Niu these few days.

"No, I didn't!" Leng ruoxue replied guiltily, "Oh! Those things shouldn't be considered bullying.

"You heard it! Why would I bully my own woman!" The demon said with a smile. He was very satisfied with Xue'er's answer.

"Don't laugh, it's so ugly!" After hearing this, Cang saw the smile on the evildoer's face and said unhappily. He couldn't bear to see this guy being so smug.

"My woman doesn't even think I'm ugly." The demon reminded.

"Hmph! Look at how beautiful you are!" Cang was filled with hatred! He didn't want to bother with the evildoer.

Leng ruoxue saw that the two of them were about to start an internal fight again, so she could only say, "Let's go out quickly! Uncle Long and the others are probably getting anxious from the wait."

After she finished speaking, she directly carried Azure and pulled evildoer as they headed towards the guest courtyard's garden.

When they arrived at the garden, Uncle Long and the others sized Leng ruoxue up at the same time, causing Leng ruoxue's hair to stand on end. However, they didn't look at her for too long before they tactfully shifted their gazes away.

However, when Leng ruoxue saw their relieved expressions, she was still depressed.

At this moment, the demon's gaze turned to the Peacock King and asked with a smile, "Are your injuries all healed?"
