

Crazy Wife 2481

Chapter 2481 Tofu Isn't That Delicious \(1\)

Not being able to take advantage of the beauty made the lecherous man quite dissatisfied. Immediately, the man said angrily, "Damn it, you actually dared to Dodge!"

"If I don't Dodge, the pig's trotter is going to touch me." Leng ruoxue glanced at the man who was trying to take advantage of her and said indifferently.

When uncle long and the others heard this, they couldn't help but burst into laughter.

Pig trotters? It was quite an image. The man in front of him was slightly chubby and his claws were chubby. He looked like a pig waiting to be slaughtered. In the eyes of uncle long and the others, he was already a dead pig.

He dared to flirt with their Xue 'er, dying once would be letting him off easy.

However, this place ... Was the nine nether netherworld prison. They were very curious about where this guy could go. Thinking up to this point, everyone's gazes couldn't help but float to the demon's body, wanting to see what kind of reaction he would have. However, to their disappointment, they actually didn't see anything, because the dignified Mistress of the Dark World actually had a calm expression on her face.

Could this be the legendary calm before the storm? It definitely was! They didn't think that the evildoer would let go of the guy who teased Xue 'er. With this thought in mind, no one planned to step forward so easily. They had to give this chance to the man who saved the beauty! They just had to wait for a good show.

At this time, the perverted man did not realize that danger was coming. He saw that only the beauty seemed to have the intention to resist, and the others did not even dare to make a sound. Suddenly, the perverted man's momentum was greatly boosted. This was the rhythm of their fear! Furthermore, he didn't realize that the pig's feet Leng ruoxue was referring to was his claws. He asked with a puzzled look, "Where did this pig trotter come from that dares to touch my woman? I'm definitely going to chop off that pig's trotter!"

"..." When everyone heard this, they fell silent. They didn't object to you wanting to stomp your pig trotters, but how did their Xue 'er become your woman? Where do you place the Dark Lord?

As they secretly complained in their hearts, uncle long and the others once again turned their eyes to the demon without changing their expressions.

Still no reaction? Still so calm?

Ugh! I'm finished! This is a big deal!

This man, who would usually fight with Xue 'er and his beasts for favor, actually had no reaction to a scoundrel who was teasing his woman. This was clearly the rhythm of wanting to make a big deal out of it!

Tofu was not that delicious! Uncle Long and the others glanced sympathetically at the wretched man who didn't understand the situation and continued to pretend to be invisible.

At this moment, Leng Ruoxue spoke again, "Then chop off the pig's trotters!"

As Leng Ruoxue's voice fell, a dark light flashed and disappeared. Following that, a howl that sounded like a pig being slaughtered rang out, causing Uncle Long and the others to tremble in fear.

The sound was too horrifying. But what was even more tragic was the wretched man's hands. At this time, both his hands had been cut off from his wrists. The wounds were smooth and neat. One look and one could tell that the cut was done with great skill. There was not even a bit of hair.

The dark red liquid spurting out from the wound on his wrist, shocking the people nearby so that they jumped a few meters away to avoid being affected.

The wretched-looking man, who was in unbearable pain, quickly passed out.

"Young master!" At this moment, a few servants ran over from the distance and helped the vulgar man up in a flurry. One of them glared at Uncle Long and the others with a resentful expression and said, "Just you wait, you're going to be in big trouble!"

After shouting, the servants carried the unconscious man and quickly left the dangerous place without daring to stay. Of course, they did not forget to pick up the man's hands before they left.

As he watched them leave, Feng Chuan blinked and repeated, "We're going to be in big trouble! What should we do now? Should we stay here and wait for them?"

With so many people around, Feng Chuan didn't think they needed to be afraid of them. However, he didn't expect that the demonic man would attack so quickly. They didn't even have time to react. They only saw a ray of light and that lecher's hands were cut off. He was really ruthless!

While sighing, Feng Chuan was also a little excited. For so many years in the Feng clan, their lives had been quite dull. Now that they were in the nether nether prison, their lives must be a lot more exciting, right?

Just think about it, they had just arrived at the first city, and they had already provoked a guy who might have a powerful background. How could this not make them feel excited? Feng Chuan could clearly feel that a liquid called hot blood was already boiling in his body, and it was roaring to fight! He had not felt this way for many years! Just thinking about it made him excited!

However, Feng Chuan's words were unanimously despised by everyone.

"Why should we wait for them?" Uncle Long asked directly. So what if he's a Big Shot? Why do we have to stand here and wait for him to come back? Hmph! It's fine if they want us to be unlucky, but let them take the initiative to find us! Let's find an inn to stay in, we won't be leaving for the time being!"

"Uh!" Hearing this, Feng Chuan couldn't help but wipe the cold sweat on his forehead. He thought to himself, this Uncle Long's aura is so strong! Could this be the legendary saying, "a powerful Dragon should suppress a snake in its territory"?

"Little Phoenix, don't be afraid. We also have people backing us!" At this time, Dongfang Lin also patted Feng Chuan's shoulder and consoled him.

"I'm not afraid! I just want to test the strength of the people in the ninth nether prison!" Feng Chuan said the truth. To put it bluntly, he wanted to fight!

"Let's find an inn to stay in first!" Suddenly, the demon spoke, and everyone's mood instantly brightened when they heard this! Hehe! They didn't expect to see such a show when they just arrived at the nine nether nether prison. Everyone was quite satisfied with this arrangement.

Leng ruoxue broke out in a cold sweat when she saw how they looked as if they wanted the world to be in chaos. However, it wasn't that she was afraid that uncle long and the others would be at a disadvantage, or that she felt that she and the others couldn't defeat them. She just felt that this was the territory of the evildoers. Was it appropriate for them to fight with the local tyrants the moment they arrived?

Seeing through Xue 'er's thoughts, the evildoer immediately pulled Xue' er into his arms and said with a faint smile, "It's okay. Some people do need to be taught a lesson. "

In other words, he didn't care what kind of trouble uncle long and the others would cause in his territory! When Leng ruoxue heard this, she no longer felt conflicted.

After that, everyone began to look for an Inn in the city with excitement.

Who knew that even after searching the entire nine capital city, Leng ruoxue and the rest could not find a single Inn that was willing to take them in.

He asked many inns and was told that there were no empty rooms.

Leng ruoxue and the rest were rather surprised. The nine capital city was cold and cheerless, and it didn't look like an Inn that was full of people. However, since the inn manager had said so, they couldn't say anything.

When they asked about the last Inn in the nine capital city, they were also told that there were no empty rooms. Just as they were about to leave, they heard the inn manager asking another guest who had just entered the inn what room he needed. After the guest told them his request, the manager immediately arranged the room for him.

Chapter 2482 Tofu Isn't That Delicious \(2\)

When Leng ruoxue and the rest saw this scene, what else was there for them to not understand?

The Furious uncle long rushed forward and grabbed the inn manager by his collar. He dragged him out from the front desk and questioned him fiercely, "Aren't there no more rooms? What's up with that person just now?"

"Y-yes, there are no more rooms!" The inn manager trembled as he said, "Wu.....How can this person be so barbaric!"

"Then where did you get the room from? Don't tell me you built it on the spot!" Uncle long roared like a fiend.

"That, that room ..." The inn manager was so frightened by his fierceness that he couldn't even speak properly. He stammered for a long time and couldn't say a complete sentence.

Uncle long lost his patience and continued to shout, ""Where did you get that room? Just say it! If you don't explain it to me today, I'll smash your shop!"

"You, don't mess around! My boss isn't someone to be trifled with!" After being threatened by uncle long, the innkeeper was finally able to say a complete sentence and even brought up his backer. However, uncle long was not afraid of the boss that he said was not to be trifled with.

"Your boss isn't to be trifled with, but do you think we're to be trifled with?" uncle long roared. I'm telling you, old man, you'd better quickly arrange a room for us. Otherwise, I'll really smash your shop!"

"You ... You're really not afraid of death?" The manager was so angry that he couldn't say anything. He had never thought that these gods would not only dare to come to the nine nether nether prison, but also threaten him. These gods really didn't want to live anymore!

The inn manager was very worried. Although he had not lived for a long time, he had never heard of a God who dared to be so arrogant in the nine nether nether prison. This was a heaven-defying move! No, he had to report this to his family. A deity had come to the nine nether nether prison. This was definitely a big deal!

After making up his mind, the inn manager's attitude suddenly changed. He didn't give uncle long a chance to speak and said softly, ""I know you guys are not afraid of death, but I am! Your Excellencies, please don't make things difficult for me. I'm just a small fry, I can't do much. "

Hearing this, uncle long could only swallow back the words 'I'm not afraid' that he was about to say. Then, he looked at the inn manager with a face full of question marks.

What the hell was this old man doing? He had just used his boss to threaten him! Why did his attitude soften in the blink of an eye?

Uncle long wouldn't naively think that it was his domineering aura that had intimidated this little old man. Oh! There must be a conspiracy!

With this thought, uncle long smiled and patted the manager's shoulder. ""Hahaha! Although you can't do much, you still have the right to arrange rooms for us!"

"There is, but are you sure you want to live there?" The innkeeper asked carefully. He didn't dare to say that he didn't have any more, otherwise this person might use some means to bully him! He was only a manager of a guest house and couldn't withstand a punch from someone else.

The manager of the inn was quite tactful.

"Shopkeeper, of course we're staying. Do you think we're looking for inns all over the city for nothing better to do?" Uncle long said, pretending to be unhappy.

"Hehe!" The inn manager smiled awkwardly. Of course, he knew that these people were looking for inn guests. Not only him, but all the Inns in the nine capital city knew. However, no one dared to accept them. Who asked them to hurt the son of the nine capital city Lord?

At first, he didn't dare to accept them. However, if he didn't accept them, he was afraid of being beaten up. Besides, he had decided to report to the family head that a God had come to the nine nether nether prison. Therefore, he had no choice but to keep them in the inn. At least, he had to try his best to make them stay without knowing the family head's intention.

With this thought in mind, the inn manager became attentive and thoughtful again. Not only did he personally arrange rooms for them, but he also personally led them to their rooms.

After bringing Leng ruoxue and the rest to the door of the room, the innkeeper could not help but ask, "There are so many of you, is one room really enough?"

"Enough! Shopkeeper, don't disturb us if there's nothing important. We like peace and quiet." Uncle Long said in an unpleasant tone.

"I know. Have a good rest, Sirs! I won't disturb you any longer." Although the innkeeper said this, he didn't think much of it. Hurting the city Lord's young master was equivalent to slapping the city Lord's face. It would be strange if they stopped!

The shopkeeper knew that these people were going to be in trouble, but he didn't dare to say it.

After watching the innkeeper leave, Uncle Long and the others pushed open the door and walked in together.

After entering the inn's room, Leng ruoxue took out her portable house and the group entered it.

Before they could enter the garden, a snow-white figure turned into a ray of light and flew towards Leng ruoxue, landing in her arms.

"Girl, I missed you so much." Cang you glared at Evildoer resentfully before speaking to Leng ruoxue pitifully.

As everyone listened to a certain beast acting coquettishly, black lines appeared on their foreheads. They thought to themselves, how long has it been since we separated! A certain beast was teasing his woman in front of him. Could they say that he was looking for death?

As expected, Evildoer grabbed the snow-white ball of fluff in Leng ruoxue's arms and threw it far away. Cang immediately drew a perfect arc and was thrown far away.

After Evildoer threw Cang out, he said to Leng ruoxue in a serious tone, "Xue 'er, ignore that fellow. I told you not to bring it along, but it insisted on following us!"

"Why didn't you bring me along? Why didn't you bring me along?" As soon as the demon finished speaking, an angry voice immediately rang in everyone's ears. When everyone heard this, they all turned their heads in unison. There might be a fight later, so it was better for them to pretend to be invisible.

"You're the God protection tower of the divinity, so of course you can only stay in the divinity. If the laws of heaven and earth find out that you've come to the nine nether prison, they might punish you." The demon laughed evilly. Back then, he had wanted to use this reason to get rid of this third wheel. Unfortunately, he didn't care and insisted on following them. As such, he could only request that unless it was absolutely necessary, he wasn't allowed to leave Xue 'er's house. Otherwise, he wouldn't bring him along!

Facing this kind of threat, there was no other way than to compromise. However, Cang was a narrow-minded person and naturally bore a grudge in his heart. Now that Azure heard what evildoer said, he was filled with hatred.

"You're the master of The Dark World? Aren't you going to stay in the divine realm?" Azure said through gritted teeth.

"That's different! I've already reincarnated many times, and I'm a human cultivator now. Naturally, I can go anywhere I want. " This was also the main reason why he had maintained his strength at the deity Emperor level. Once he advanced to the reverent god level, his massive dark aura might be detected by some laws in the divine world. At that time, the meddlesome laws of the heaven and earth might expel him from the divine world. He did not want to leave Xue 'er.

Chapter 2483 Tofu Isn't That Delicious \(3\)

"If you can do it, I can too!" Azure fire roared.

"Oh, really? Have you forgotten the rules of heaven and earth?" The demon reminded him with a smile.

"Don't mention that damn thing to me. It can't control me. " Azure said hatefully.

"It might not be able to kill you, but it can punish you." When the demon thought of this, he was filled with hatred. This was because the laws of heaven and earth were simply too biased. They actually looked down on his darkness attribute!

When he heard this, Azure immediately wilted.

It was undeniable that the demonic man was right. The rules of heaven and earth had the power to punish, and that guy liked to talk about rules. He would not allow them to do this and that. It was so annoying!

Seeing that Cang had suddenly wilted, Leng ruoxue gently touched its soft fur and coaxed, ""Don't worry, we won't let the laws of the heaven and earth discover us. "

"That's right! I'll be careful!" Cang received Leng ruoxue's encouragement and his aura suddenly rose.

Seeing that Cang had pulled himself together, Leng ruoxue was naturally relieved. Uncle long and the others were relieved when they saw that the two of them didn't fight. They took the initiative to change the topic and talked about a certain perverted man.

"Xue 'er, I wonder what that fellow will do to us?" Uncle long and the others asked curiously. 'I'm looking forward to it' was written all over their faces.

Leng ruoxue saw how excited they were and really didn't know what to say. However, she wasn't worried at all that someone would come to seek revenge.

At the same time, the injured man had already been carried back to the city Lord's mansion. After the city Lord learned of this matter, he was naturally furious.

The city Lord had never dreamed that someone would actually dare to injure his own child in the nine capital city. Although the injured child was not the one he doted on the most, he was still his son. As the saying goes, you have to look at the master before you hit the dog! No man would be able to stand being slapped in public on his territory, right?

In the room of the vulgar man.

A beautiful lady sat by the bed, watching her unconscious child cry. Her beautiful face with tears was extremely alluring. However, the middle-aged man who was pacing back and forth in the room was not in the mood to appreciate the Beauty's pitiful state. He was extremely annoyed.

"Don't cry!" Suddenly, the middle-aged man roared in anger.

The beautiful lady was shocked by the roar. She looked up at the middle-aged man with a bitter expression and said, "City Lord, I know you don't like Cheng 'er, but he's still your child. Are you just going to watch as he gets injured by someone and do nothing? If you don't care, then I'll have to go and beg my brother. "

Hearing that the woman was going to look for her brother, the man became even more irritated. He grabbed his hair and glared at her. "You're not allowed to look for your brother over such a small matter!"

"Then city Lord has to think of a way to avenge Cheng 'er!" The woman requested.

"I know, I'll take revenge for Cheng 'er!" The middle-aged man promised.

"When? City Lord, you better give me some time. " The woman pressed on. After living with this man for so many years, she knew her husband's timid character all too well, so she had to force him to make a decision.

"How can I give you time for such a thing? I have to investigate the background of those people first, right? You know, those people dared to hurt my son in the nine capital city, do you think they don't have a backer? If the other party is someone we can't afford to offend, then even if I wanted to avenge Cheng 'er, I wouldn't be able to!" The middle-aged man said with a headache.

It had to be said that he was still very rational. Although he was quite angry that he was slapped in the face, at least he did not lose his mind and immediately settle the score with those people. From the news that he had received, he knew that those people had come from the divine realm, so he did not dare to act rashly.

If the people of the divine realm didn't have something to rely on, would they dare to come to the nine nether nether prison? What's the difference between that and death! More importantly, the deities who dared to come to the nine nether nether prison were definitely not ordinary people. Thus, he had to be even more careful. Otherwise, his many years of management would be destroyed.

Unfortunately, the woman in front of him couldn't understand his thoughts at all. After the woman heard his words, she said disapprovingly, "What's there to be afraid of with someone backing you? Don't we have any backing? City Lord, you can rest assured and take revenge for our son! If you need anything, my brother will support you. Don't forget that my brother is the castellan of Jiuhua city, one of the ten main cities in the nine nether nether prison. I don't believe that no matter how powerful their background is, it can't be more powerful than mine. "

The woman's words were quite confident. She had always been proud of her identity. Moreover, it was also because of this identity that she was able to firmly grasp the man in front of her in her hands. Although she was not the only woman of her husband, it was undeniable that she had the highest status among all the women! There were many times when even he, her husband, did not dare to show her any attitude.

Hearing the woman's words, the middle-aged man really hesitated. After all, the mayor of Jiuhoa city had a high status. It should be known that in nine nether nether prison, except for nine nether city, which was a capital city, the other ten main cities were not ranked in order. The only difference was the strength of the city Lord. If the city Lord of a city was powerful, the corresponding city's status would be at the top of the ten main cities. However, to be able to become the city Lord of the ten main cities, which one of them was not a powerful expert? therefore, most of the time, their strength was equal. It would be even more difficult for the ten major cities to decide who was better.

Because of this, the ten main cities of nine nether nether prison could be compared with each other. The nine capital city's status in nine nether nether prison was naturally not comparable to Jiuhoa city. However, he didn't know if the Lord of Jiuhoa city, his wife's brother, would be willing to stand up for his son.

He knew very well in his heart that his wife's older brother did not like his incompetent son at all. He had even warned him more than once not to let go of Cheng 'er, and if anything happened to Cheng 'er, he should not look for him. His wife's older brother had clearly stated that he would not interfere in Cheng 'er's matters. Unfortunately, his wife was not clear about these things at all, and he did not dare to tell this woman who was not clear-headed.

When he thought of this, his previous hesitation disappeared without a trace, because he really did not dare to risk his family's future. With such a noble relative, he naturally had to make good use of him. He absolutely could not anger his big backer because of a prodigal son.

"Madam, your words are not without reason. However, this matter must be considered at length. So, you should be patient. I will definitely give you an explanation for this matter." After thinking about it, the middle-aged man decided to comfort the woman who had lost her mind first, in case she did something irreparable and made it impossible to clean up.

After saying this, he didn't wait for the woman's response and immediately turned to leave. The woman trembled in anger when she saw his irresponsible behavior.

How detestable! It was really too detestable! It was fine that he was usually indifferent to her son, but when such a big thing happened to his son, as a father, he actually didn't care about it. Was this reasonable?

The more the beautiful woman thought about it, the angrier she became. She called her trusted servant and whispered a few words to her. The servant turned and left the city Lord's mansion.

Not long after, several more teams left the nine capital city and rushed in all directions.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue and the others were still unaware that someone had already spread the news of their arrival at the nine nether nether nether prison to many people. In an instant, many powerful clans in the nine nether nether nether prison knew that a deity had arrived.

Not long after the news spread, the entire nine nether nether prison was in an uproar!

However, Leng ruoxue and the rest were completely clueless about this. Furthermore, they had already been staying in the inn's room for a few days.

It wasn't that they didn't want to go out, but the gazes of the people of the nine capital city were too intense.

After secretly observing Leng ruoxue and the rest for a few days and seeing that no one from the city Lord's residence came to find trouble with them, they were relieved and boldly coveted Leng ruoxue and the rest. However, due to the fear of a certain person's power, many people only dared to secretly covet them. Even so, it was enough to drive them crazy, especially the people who were drooling at them. There was a trend of increasing, and the number was doubling every day. Who would be the target of so many eyes? Who could stand it?

Uncle long and the others went crazy. No one was willing to go out and be seen as a rare species. They were drooling.

Leng ruoxue wanted to go out for a walk, but every time she brought up this idea, she would receive all sorts of disdain and resentment from uncle long and the others. Uncle long even asked Leng ruoxue directly, ""Xue 'er, do you have a grudge against the nine nether nether prison?"

He believed that as long as Xue 'er went out, there would definitely be a murder in the nine capital city! Because Xue 'er's face clearly said, 'hurry up and find trouble with me!' These few words.

The moment Leng ruoxue heard this, she did not dare to bring up the idea of going out for a walk even if she wanted to.

In the end, the evildoer couldn't bear to let her go and told Leng ruoxue that if she wanted to go out, she could do so. There was nothing to be afraid of!

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue was very touched and immediately pulled the evildoer out of the room.

Based on Leng ruoxue's thoughts, she couldn't possibly hide in her room like an ostrich, right? It's just being watched and drooling! What's the big deal! Moreover, other than watching from afar, there were not many who dared to come forward and cause trouble. Otherwise, she would definitely not be the unlucky one!

Chapter 2484 Taking Action Upon Hearing The News \(1\)

After they left the room, Leng ruoxue and the demon did not plan to go far. They went downstairs and headed straight to the dining room.

Not long after they went downstairs, the door of the room was opened again. Uncle long and the others came out unwillingly.

It wasn't that they were eager to go out for a walk, but that Xue 'er refused to let them into the house. This tragic fact was all because of uncle Long's words: "Xue 'er, do you have a grudge against the nine nether nether prison?" What happened after that, to put it bluntly, was Xue 'er's petty revenge.

However, that ... They weren't afraid of being alone in the room. They mainly didn't want to be looked down upon. Hence, when they saw Leng ruoxue and the demon walking out of the room, the crowd could not stand it any longer.

"Where are Xue 'er and the others? How did he disappear so quickly?" Uncle long was shocked. He was nervous. They had been left in the inn in a foreign place. What if, he was saying what if, the natives came to their door with hunger. Should they fight or not?

If they fought, they would definitely anger all the natives of the nine nether nether prison. However, if they didn't fight, they would be in trouble since they didn't have the support of any demon! Thinking of this, uncle long was in a dilemma.

Boohoo ... Xue 'er was a bad girl. She was actually not letting them into the mobile home. This was definitely a huge nightmare for everyone. Not only that, but even the first elder's mobile home had been banned from use. All of this was because he had said that Leng ruoxue was suspected to be a troublesome person!

Uncle long felt really wronged. He wasn't the only one who had such thoughts, but he was the only one who said it.

"What are you still standing there for? hurry up and chase!" The master of the ning family quickly said.

"Oh!" When everyone heard this, they hurried down the stairs.

The innkeeper, who was standing guard at the front desk of the hall on the first floor, was shocked at first when he saw their flustered formation. He couldn't help but Mutter in his heart,"it's been calm these days, and no one from the city Lord's mansion has come to find us. Why are these people so flustered?"

"Everyone, are you all going out?" The shopkeeper went up to him and asked with a smile. The news from the main family yesterday told him to keep a close eye on these people. The main family would send more people over soon, so he didn't dare to lose them.

"Shopkeeper, did you see a man and a woman come down?" The master of the ning family saw that the shopkeeper took the initiative to talk, so he asked casually.

"You are asking about the man and woman who were with you?" The innkeeper blinked his eyes and thought to himself,"I've really seen it before."

The two men went straight to the restaurant after asking him where it was.

"Right! Have you seen it before?" The master of the ning family asked.

"They went to the restaurant." The shopkeeper said honestly.

"Where is the restaurant?" Uncle long asked.

"Just go through that door." The good-tempered shopkeeper pointed at a carved wooden door and said.

Before he could even catch his breath, the group of people in front of him swarmed forward and ran toward the restaurant.

The shopkeeper shook his head as he watched, and couldn't help but sigh inwardly. He didn't expect the people of the immortal realm to be so restless.

However, uncle long and the others were not in the mood to know what he was thinking. When they arrived at the dining room, they saw Leng ruoxue and the demon sitting at a table by the window. They were drinking tea and eating snacks leisurely.

"Xue 'er," The crowd followed the master of the ning family and uncle long to the table.

Leng ruoxue had already guessed that they would follow her. She smiled calmly and said, ""You're here, sit!"

Upon hearing this, master ning, uncle long, and the rest sat down in the empty seats beside Leng ruoxue and the demon. The rest of them also found their own tables and sat down.

"Xue 'er! Why did you find a table by the window?" Through the open window, uncle long could see the situation on the other side of the street. It happened to be a restaurant. At this time, the window of the restaurant was full of people. Many pairs of red eyes were staring at them. This fact made uncle long feel a little uncomfortable.

"The view is good by the window, and we can watch the fun." Leng ruoxue laughed.

"Uh!" That's not good! Uncle long couldn't help but wipe the cold sweat off his forehead. This made it easier for the people outside to watch. With their presence, the business of the restaurant opposite was full every day. Even so, there were still many people waiting in a long line outside the restaurant. They naturally hoped to use the restaurant opposite to have the opportunity to admire their every move.

Fortunately, the management of their Inn was quite strict, so not all of those talents swarmed into the inn. The restaurant was also not open to the public, and only the guests who stayed in the inn could use it. Otherwise, they would be depressed to death.

But what uncle long didn't know was that ever since they had moved into this Inn, the business of this Inn had been several times better than usual. Every day, the shopkeeper would smile from ear to ear and naturally wouldn't let anyone disturb them easily. But if they left this small piece of land, it would be out of his control.

"Uncle long, calm down!" Leng ruoxue looked at uncle Long's gloomy expression and laughed evilly. She was in a good mood.

"Alright! I'm calm. " Uncle long was very worried, but then he thought, 'no matter what, I'm still a reverent God in the divine world. It doesn't make sense for me to become a steamed bun in the nine nether nether prison!"

He believed that no matter how different this place was from the immortal realm, his strength would definitely be ranked among the top here. The only thing he couldn't stand was that those people were treating them as prey. This fact would definitely drive everyone crazy.

After adjusting his state of mind, uncle long pretended to be calm as he picked up the teacup in front of him and took a sip. Then, he widened his eyes in surprise and said, ""This tea is actually not that different from the divine realm's tea?"

"Of course there's no difference, because this tea was obtained from the divine realm." The demon said indifferently.

"Argh! Really?" Uncle Long couldn't help but widen his eyes in disbelief.

"Although nine nether nether prison and the divine world belong to two different spaces, our two worlds have always been trading with each other. Nine nether nether nether prison is rich in mineral resources, but food is relatively scarce. Therefore, we usually exchange some food, pills, and other supplies with the divine world to improve the lives of the indigenous nobles. This trade has always been carried out directly by the city Lord Mansion of nine nether city and the divine Lord Mansion, so it's not strange that you don't know about it." The demon explained.

"I see." Uncle Long and the others nodded.

At this moment, Leng Ruoxue asked curiously, "Demon, how did the people here know that we came from the divine world the moment they saw us?"

She had been thinking about this question for a few days, but she couldn't figure it out.

Hearing Leng Ruoxue's question, the demon couldn't help but chuckle. He thought that Xue 'er would have asked him the moment she found out about this! He didn't expect Xue 'er to actually endure it for several days.

Chapter 2485 Taking Action Upon Hearing The News \(2\)

Seeing that the demon was actually laughing at her, Leng Ruoxue deliberately put on a straight face and snorted coldly. She even turned her head arrogantly to avoid looking at him. The moment the demon saw this, he quickly said seriously, "Xue 'er, do you know how the beasts feel when they discover a treasure?"

"You mean, in the eyes of the people of netherworld prison, we are the same as natural treasures?" Leng Ruoxue blinked her beautiful eyes as she asked.

"More or less. The cultivators of the nine Underworlds are all called meditation here. Besides the dark attribute, the meditation cultivators don't use divine power, but dark power. Here, the Emperor of the dead is equivalent to the divine Emperor of the divine world, and the revered Ming is equivalent to the revered God of the divine world. However, the meditation cultivators are better at close combat. Their bodies are stronger than the gods, and their personalities are more brutal and bloodthirsty. They like to fight with each other."

"But at the same time, the nine nether prison has a more perfect interpretation of the strong being respected! The evil ghosts we met when we first arrived here were only the lowest level cultivators, and some of them were not even cultivators. They have the lowest status in the nine nether nether prison, and they are usually only allowed to move around in the outer area of the prison. Those who are allowed to enter the city, other than the natives, are required to be a dark practitioner even if they are the weakest." The demon patiently explained the most basic requirements for cultivators in the nine nether nether nether prison, and everyone suddenly understood.

Leng ruoxue could not help but heave a sigh of relief when she finally found some clues. However, what she didn't expect was that this place was quite similar to the immortal realm. It was just that the meditating cultivators here were not living people except for the natives!

"Evidently, do fights happen often here?" Leng ruoxue suddenly asked.

"Of course, this isn't the immortal realm, so there aren't that many rules. There's also an unwritten rule here that if someone dies because they're not as good as their opponent, their clan usually won't stand up for them. However, most of the clans have a tacit understanding, so you don't have to worry about the revenge of the clan after killing a blind guy. This kind of thing rarely happens in the nine nether prison!" The demon laughed.

"No wonder the nine capital city's city Lord's mansion hasn't made any movements. It seems like we've escaped a calamity?" Leng ruoxue teased.

"Not necessarily! Maybe they're brewing a bigger conspiracy!" The master of the ning family was not optimistic about the city Lord here. If his son had been injured outside, he would have ignored it, but this was his own territory. If he didn't even care about his son's injury, how useless would he be as a father?

This was a direct slap in the face! If it was him, he would definitely not be able to bear it!

"No matter what kind of scheme the nine capital city's city Lord is brewing, you don't have to be afraid, I'm here!" The demon said confidently. In his own territory, if he couldn't even protect a few people, then the one who would be vexed would be him, the Mistress of the Dark World. However, before the other party made any big moves, he didn't intend to make a move. After all, he had already punished the guy who had designs on Xue 'er. He couldn't take the initiative to go to their door and kill them all!

When uncle long and the others heard this, they were naturally relieved and made up their minds. If the other party was really that ignorant, then they could not blame them for being ruthless. Especially after hearing the demon tell them the strength levels of the cultivators here, they were even less afraid! After all, they had a few reverent-gods here! He couldn't be underestimated.

Moreover, as they gained a better understanding of the nine nether nether prison, they felt that there was really nothing to be afraid of here. Apart from the burning gazes and the drooling looks of the people here, there was really nothing to be afraid of.

Although the weather here was not as good as the divine realm, it was gloomy all day as if it would rain at any time, the food was not as exquisite as the divine realm, and the people were not as beautiful as the people of the divine realm, other than that, there was not much difference between this place and the divine realm.

After a few days, they had slowly adapted to the climate here.

However, they didn't dare to cultivate in the nine nether nether prison. The spiritual Qi here was a hundred times more brutal than in the divine world, and they couldn't bear it!

Leng ruoxue and the others sat in the dining room, chatting and not rushing back to their rooms. This time, they had completely satisfied the desire of some nether prison people to peep, and more and more people came to watch. However, at the same time, everyone's mental endurance had also been trained, and their hearts had obviously become much stronger! He was much calmer.

After a long time.

Seeing that everyone was almost done chatting, Feng Chuan suddenly sneaked to Leng ruoxue's side and asked in a low voice, ""Xue 'er, when are we leaving this place? It's not good to keep waiting for the city Lord's mansion to come and find trouble with us, right?"

"Do you have any good ideas?" When Leng ruoxue heard this, she couldn't help but raise her brows and ask.

"That ... Why don't we send someone to deliver a letter to the city Lord's mansion and ask them when they will come to settle the score with us? once they know the time, we can make preparations in advance. Otherwise, if we keep waiting like this, it's purely a waste of our own time. What do you think?" Feng Chuan hesitated, but in the end, he still spoke his mind.

But the moment he said this, Feng Chuan immediately lowered his head in embarrassment. He didn't dare to look at Leng ruoxue's face. He was afraid that this little girl would be angry.

When Leng ruoxue heard this, she didn't respond for a long time. Feng Chuan started to feel more and more uneasy. However, uncle long and the others were speechless when they heard Feng Chuan's words.

There were really people who weren't afraid of making a big deal out of it! Sending a letter to the city Lord's mansion to ask when they would come to settle the score with him, why did this sound like a provocation!

Al! In just a few days, Feng Chuan had become bad!

She vaguely remembered that Feng Chuan was still a pure Phoenix! Although they had only met Feng Chuan once when they were in the Phoenix territory. But they never thought that Feng Chuan, who had been so timid when he first came to nine nether nether prison, would come up with such an idea today.

Was this the so-called 'one who is marked by the company of Vermillion' and 'one who is marked by company of ink'?

But uncle long and the others would never admit that they were the ones who stained Feng Chuan's reputation.

This guy was supposed to be black! It must be like this!

After uncle long and the others finished the appraisal, they all wanted to keep a distance from Feng Chuan to avoid being misunderstood. At this moment, Leng ruoxue, who had been silent for a long time, finally spoke, ""That's a good idea. We can't always stay in the nine capital city and wait for them to come and find trouble with us. However, who's going to deliver the letter?"

When Feng Chuan heard that Leng ruoxue had actually agreed to his suggestion, he was so excited that he quickly raised his head and said without hesitation, ""You can ask the manager of the inn to send it to you!"

"Hmm, boss, please have someone go there!" Leng ruoxue nodded in agreement, then gave Feng Chuan a look that said he was a promising young man.

When Leng ruoxue looked at the inn manager with a smile and said that she had a favor to ask of him, the inn manager still adhered to the principle that the customer was God and agreed readily. However, when he heard that the other party wanted him to send someone to the city Lord's residence to deliver a letter, he could no longer remain calm!

Chapter 2486 Taking Action Upon Hearing The News \(3\)

W-what was he doing?

The shopkeeper felt extremely uneasy. The way he looked at Leng ruoxue was as if she was a scoundrel who had forcefully snatched a woman from a good family. That guarded gaze made Leng ruoxue feel depressed!

For a moment, Leng ruoxue almost thought that she had committed a heinous crime. If not, why would a certain shopkeeper look like she was bullying him when he had only sent a letter?

"Shopkeeper, is there any problem?" Seeing that the shopkeeper was only looking at her guardedly without speaking for a long time, Leng ruoxue could only take the initiative to speak.

There was a problem! There was a big problem!

The manager was wailing in his heart, but he didn't dare to say it out loud, because he could clearly feel the powerful cold air being released by someone beside this young lady. It was too, too terrifying, didn't it?

The shopkeeper shivered.

However, to send someone to deliver a letter to the city Lord's mansion, without even thinking, his intuition told him that it was definitely not a good thing. Sigh! He could only blame himself for agreeing too quickly and not asking what it was about.

If he rejected them now, he wondered if these people would be angry and destroy his shop.

The innkeeper was extremely afraid, and his face was getting paler and paler. Tears slowly welled up in his eyes. If possible, please make him faint!

However, Leng ruoxue would not give him such an opportunity. She took out a bottle of pills and placed it in front of the manager. She even opened the bottle on purpose and said, ""This is your reward."

She had heard from the evildoer that the people in the nine nether nether prison were all of the dark attribute, so it was naturally impossible for there to be an Alchemist here. Thus, the value of the pills could be imagined.

Sure enough, when the shopkeeper saw the exquisite white jade bottle in front of him and the huge amount of spiritual Qi that it emitted, his eyes suddenly lit up and he almost drooled.

No one could resist such a temptation! Oh my God! Wasn't this asking for his old life?!

This time, the shopkeeper no longer hesitated and directly snatched the White jade bottle, putting it into his storage ring. Then he quickly nodded and said, "I'll take care of the delivery, don't worry. "

Leng ruoxue nodded her head in satisfaction and passed the letter that she had written to the manager. After that, they turned around and returned to their room. The manager was prepared to send someone to deliver the letter.

After thinking for a long time, the shopkeeper still couldn't think of who to send. One had to know that the waiters in the inn were basically all his confidants. If there was really an accident, he would be heartbroken to death! Thus, he was absolutely reluctant to send his trusted aide to deliver this letter that made him very uneasy. In the end, he decided to deliver it himself.

He had made such a decision because he had the confidence. After all, he was the representative of the family in the nine capital city! No matter how angry the city Lord was, he wouldn't kill him so easily, so after thinking about it, he felt that it was the safest to send the letter himself.

With this thought in mind, the innkeeper did not dawdle and immediately left the inn, heading for the city Lord's mansion. When he arrived at the city Lord's mansion, he handed the letter to the guard and immediately turned to leave, not willing to stay for another second.

After the nine capital city's city Lord received this inexplicable letter, he opened it without thinking. After reading the contents of the letter, his face immediately darkened.

F * ck! This was clearly going too far! Because on the thin letter, there were only two lines of words: "May I ask when the city Lord plans to take revenge for your son and deal with us? If he doesn't come in three days, we'll have to leave the nine capital city!"

The contents of the letter almost blinded the nine capital city Lord's eyes. The provocative tone made him even angrier. In his impulse, he immediately gathered his men and prepared to go to a certain Inn to teach the God who lived there a lesson! Otherwise, why would they still care about him, the nine capital city Lord?

However, before he could leave the city Lord's mansion, he was blocked by a beautiful young woman who had heard the news and rushed over. The woman smiled and said, ""City Lord, where are you going?"

"Don't worry about it. This time, I won't listen to you no matter what you say. I will definitely teach those deities a good lesson. " The nine capital city Lord roared in anger.

"City Lord, please calm down. Will you be able to solve the problem if you go in such a rush?" The young woman gently advised, her beautiful eyes full of tenderness and sweetness. In an instant, the nine capital city Lord was captured by this woman's tenderness and his attitude immediately softened.

"Then what do you think we should do? They've come all the way here to provoke me!" The nine capital city Lord said dejectedly.

"City Lord, I still have to advise you to wait and see!" The young woman said with a charming smile.

"How can I take this lying down? I didn't take the initiative to settle accounts with them, but they came to my door. If I didn't have any reaction, wouldn't they think that I was easy to bully? If word of this gets out, I'll be the laughingstock of the other city Lords!" The nine capital city Lord said angrily.

"City Lord, I'm sure you know that the other side has a lot of people. So many deities have come to the nine nether nether prison at the same time, have you ever thought about how they got here? There must be some top powerhouses among them, and with the strength of the nine capital city, if we really fight with that mysterious man, I dare say that we will be the ones at a disadvantage. Therefore, we must not be impulsive. These people are tough bones for us to gnaw, we can't take them, but this doesn't mean that the other families will let them go, so we just need to wait patiently and see what happens. As for whether we will act or not, we can only see how the situation develops. " The young woman analyzed in a soft voice.

"Rouji, you're truly worthy of being my think tank." After listening to the young woman's words, the nine capital city master's previous anger suddenly changed, and his mood turned from dark to clear.

He had to admit that rouji's words were very reasonable.

The reason why the young woman said that was because she could clearly see the attraction of those gods to the major forces of nine nether nether nether prison.

In the eyes of many powerful families in netherworld prison, those deities were simply a piece of good fat meat. She also believed that some powerful families would not let go of such a good opportunity to capture these deities for their own use.

It should be known that these deities were not only great tonics to the people of nine nether nether nether prison, but they were also useful slaves. There were some things on the deities that the people of nine nether nether nether prison did not have, so the deities were naturally more precious.

Besides, in the past millions of years, there had been very few deities in the nine nether nether prison. This time, so many of them had come all at once, which would surely drive the major families crazy.

In fact, it was just as rouji had said. All the major families in netherworld prison had received the news, and the importance they attached to this news was beyond everyone's expectations. Many families were afraid that they couldn't take on these deities alone, so they had secretly formed an alliance. They had even drawn up a plan for Leng ruoxue and the others. However, Leng ruoxue and the others, who were in the nine capital city, naturally knew nothing about this.

They had never thought that their arrival would cause the entire nine nether nether prison to shake.

Everyone in nine nether nether nether prison knew about them. Mu li, who was stationed in nine nether city, had also heard about this.

Who would the God be?

Sitting in the study of jiuyou city, mu li pondered with a curious face. He had not received news of his master's return, so he was not sure if the gods in the rumors were his master. However, he guessed that if his Lord had really returned, he wouldn't have caused such a big commotion.

Could he be the master's enemy?

That's wrong! If it was really his Lord who brought them back, his Lord would definitely ask him to take good care of them! But now, he had not received any news, and she was staying in a hotel in the nine capital city. Such a person could not be the enemy of his Lord. His Lord would not let a person who had offended him live so leisurely. Who was it? Mu li couldn't understand. It was a pity that he was not his master and could not sense everything that was happening in the ninth nether prison. Otherwise, he would not be so troubled.

"Men!" Suddenly, mu li shouted at the sky.

"My Lord!" A Man in Black appeared in front of mu li silently.

"Tell me what's going on outside," Mu li directly ordered.

"Yes! As far as I know, many families have sent people to the nine capital city to get a share of the loot, but I don't know who will win!" The black-clothed man said with some schadenfreude.

"Has your family sent anyone?" Mu li heard the excited tone of the Man in Black and asked with raised eyebrows.

"No, I didn't! They don't dare to go. " The Man in Black said honestly.

"At least they're tactful. Those gods aren't steamed buns." Mu li squinted her eyes and said. Regardless of how those deities came to the nine nether nether prison, just the fact that they dared to stay in the nine capital city showed that they were not ordinary deities.

"By the way, what's the reaction of the city Lords of the ten major cities to this news?" After thinking for a while, mu li continued to ask.

"My Lord, the ten city Lords have not responded to this news yet." The Man in Black reported.

Mu li nodded slightly. At least those guys were tactful and didn't act rashly.

It should be known that the ten main city Lords of nine nether nether prison were all appointed by the city Lord Mansion of nine nether city, where the Dark Lord was located. Those people were all his subordinates, so he naturally had to take care of them and see if there were any fools who wanted to cause trouble. Otherwise, if they really caused trouble, he would be implicated as well!

But now he was relieved, those guys finally had some brains. Thinking of this, mu li suddenly said, ""I'm going to the nine capital city tomorrow. "

He had to personally confirm the identity of those deities.

Chapter 2487 The Visit \(1\)

After hearing mu Li's words, the Man in Black was so shocked that he couldn't close his mouth for a long time. He just looked at his superior in a daze.

Seeing this, mu Li's face turned serious and he said coldly, ""What's wrong? I can't go to the nine capital city?"

"I can! He had to! It's just that this subordinate feels that there's no need for the city Lord to personally attend to such matters. It's enough to send this subordinate over to take a look." The Man in Black suggested sincerely.

"What if I say I must go?" Mu li said indifferently.

"Then this subordinate is willing to accompany city Lord." After thinking for a while, the black-clothed man said very cautiously.

"Alright then!" Mu li was helpless and could only agree. At the same time, he felt that he was really useless as the city Lord. His subordinates even dared to control him. Sigh! However, this loyal subordinate was doing this for his own good, so he couldn't give him a bad attitude. However, it didn't feel good to be controlled.

Seeing that mu li had agreed, the black-clothed man finally let out a sigh of relief. He wiped the cold sweat off his forehead without changing his expression. He was really afraid that the city Lord would refuse to agree! Fortunately, the city Lord had relented. Otherwise, he would probably have to mention a certain Big Shot that the city Lord was afraid of!

Al! It's not easy to be a subordinate! The Man in Black couldn't help but sigh. Then, he left with mu li to make preparations for the nine capital city.

On the other side, after Leng ruoxue and the rest stayed in the nine capital city for another two days, they could clearly feel that the nine capital city was much livelier than a few days ago, and the number of people had increased.

Although they didn't know the reason, the people who watched them every day seemed to have become more reserved. For example, when they were wandering around the nine capital city, the people who were ready to watch them at any time and any place would only watch from a distance, maintaining a safe distance from them. In addition, whenever one of them looked back, those who had been watching and following them would immediately turn their heads as if nothing had happened.

Unfortunately, no matter how fast those people's reactions were, it could not change the fact that those people had been following them and watching them! Hence, every time Leng ruoxue saw them trying to cover up something, she would have the urge to laugh. However, when she saw uncle long and the others 'dark expressions, she was too embarrassed to laugh out loud and could only laugh in her heart.

Two days after the letter to the city Lord Residence was sent out, there was still no response from the city Lord Residence. Leng ruoxue and the rest were extremely surprised by this fact. They could not understand what the city Lord of the nine capital city meant. Was it really as the demon said, that the parents didn't care about the life and death of their children?

In the inn.

Seeing that it was the last day of the deadline, Feng Chuan walked around in the inn's lobby like an ant on a hot pot. The shopkeeper, who was doing the accounting at the front desk, saw him and almost fainted. Finally, the shopkeeper couldn't bear it anymore and finally lost his temper.

"Young master Feng! Are you done yet?" Although the inn manager was a little angry, his tone was still very good! However, Feng Chuan didn't understand the meaning of his words. After listening to these words, he just looked at the shopkeeper in a daze.

When the shopkeeper saw this, a sense of powerlessness welled up in his heart. Why did this guy still not understand what others were saying? what should he do?

After making up his words, the inn manager tried to use a tone that was not too hurtful, "Young master Feng, I'm getting dizzy from your spinning. Can you rest?"

"Not good!" After hearing this, Feng Chuan flatly refused. The shopkeeper was so angry that he almost choked on his breath.

The inn manager was filled with hatred. "This guy really, really doesn't understand the ways of the world. Logically speaking, if it was someone else who heard my words, they should have understood what I meant long ago. However, this guy knows nothing. What's more infuriating is that this guy doesn't look like he's pretending to be stupid."

Facing such a person, the shopkeeper's sense of powerlessness deepened.

At this time, Feng Chuan, who didn't know that the shopkeeper was almost angered to death by him, went up to him like a puppy and blinked his eyes innocently, asking, ""Shopkeeper, today is the last day of our deadline. That ... Did you send the letter to the city Lord's mansion? Don't delay our important matter!"

Hearing this, the manager almost vomited blood in anger.

F * ck! How could you doubt my integrity? However, when he heard Feng Chuan mention that today was the last day, he was shocked. The last day? Didn't that mean that they would be leaving tomorrow?

That won't do! We can't let them leave! Otherwise, if the family's representative didn't see him when he arrived, he would be the one in trouble!

With this thought, the shopkeeper didn't care about being angry anymore and quickly said, ""Young master Feng, I swear on my character that the letter you asked me to deliver, I've definitely delivered it to the city Lord's mansion ..."

"Then why haven't they responded yet?" Without waiting for the innkeeper to finish his words, Feng Chuan immediately interrupted him.

"I, I don't know." The shopkeeper was also anxious! For the sake of his integrity, in order to make the other party stay, he thought of many reasons in his heart. But when he saw Feng Chuan's serious look, he was afraid that his reasons wouldn't hold up. So, he was entangled again.

Sometimes, it was really tiring to talk and do things with someone who was too serious and serious! However, the rest of them spent most of their time in their rooms except for the occasional walk on the streets. This guy was the only one they let out to wrangle with him. He couldn't just rush into his room, could he? He was afraid of complaints!

The shopkeeper was very worried. He couldn't help but look up at the sky at a 45-degree angle and sigh. Someone who's reasonable must come down and save him! He was really about to be tortured to death by this dumbass in front of him.

However, his wish was beautiful, but reality was cruel.

In front of her, besides Feng Chuan, it was still Feng Chuan.

The shopkeeper could not believe this fact and closed his eyes. However, when he opened his eyes, he saw a smiling man with an innocent face. He really wanted to buy a piece of tofu and kill himself!

However, tofu seemed to only exist in Jiuyou city, and it was extremely expensive. He couldn't afford it even if he wanted to!

At this time, Feng Chuan, who didn't know what the innkeeper was struggling with, leaned closer to the innkeeper. Their faces were only a few centimeters apart. When the shopkeeper saw the handsome face suddenly magnified in front of him, he was so frightened that he shivered and his little heart started to beat wildly.

W-what was this guy trying to do? You can't be this scary!

The shopkeeper couldn't help but let his thoughts run wild. Then, he heard Feng Chuan say with an embarrassed look on his face, "Shopkeeper, you said that the city Lord's mansion has not responded. Could it be that he did not see the letter you sent?"

Feng Chuan's tone was a little hesitant. In fact, if Leng Ruoxue didn't tell him to be more reserved when talking to the people from the nine nether nether prison, in case they thought he was impolite and embarrassed the divine realm, Feng Chuan might have directly shouted at the shopkeeper because he really wanted the shopkeeper to go to the city Lord's mansion again. But now, in order to be more reserved, he could only wait for the shopkeeper to say these words.

Chapter 2488 The Visit \(2\)

But to Feng Chuan's disappointment, after the shopkeeper heard his words, he was stunned on the spot and didn't even have a reaction.

Feng Chuan was angry, the consequences were very serious!

He truly felt that the shopkeeper was looking down on him. Hmph! He actually dared to ignore his request! This was preposterous!

When he thought of this, he copied what Uncle Long had done in the past. He directly grabbed the collar of the inn manager's clothes and pulled the poor manager over from the front desk.

The innkeeper was jolted awake by Feng Chuan's rough movements. Then, he looked at Feng Chuan with a face full of fear and stuttered, "You, what are you doing? I'm warning you, don't mess around! I can call for help!"

After he finished speaking, the inn manager was like a good woman who had been robbed. His small face was pale and his body couldn't help but tremble.

"I'm asking you a question! Why are you not answering me?" Feng Chuan said unhappily. He was too lazy to pretend to be a little white rabbit.

"Uh! What did you ask me?" The shopkeeper blinked his eyes and said innocently.

"Let me ask you, the letter you sent to the city Lord's Manor, could it be that the nine capital city Lord didn't receive it? did you just ignore it?" Feng Chuan roared in anger.

"Argh! That one! No, no, I didn't ignore it. I was just wondering why the city Lord didn't react!" The shopkeeper saw that the situation was not good and quickly said carefully. In fact, he didn't know why the city Lord didn't react. He didn't think in that direction, because what he was thinking was, what did Feng Chuan mean by this?

However, it was obvious that he had been thinking for too long, and the other party could not wait any longer.

Sob ... Don't misunderstand him! Even though the other party was from the divine realm, he definitely did not have the intention to look down on them.

He knew very well that he could not afford to offend any of those deities. He wished he could worship those people like they were his ancestors! How would they dare to ignore their words?

"Oh, really? Then tell me!" Feng Chuan didn't want to give up. The shopkeeper saw his serious attitude and knew that if he didn't give a proper explanation, the other party would definitely not let him go.

With a wry smile, the shopkeeper gathered his courage and said, "I guess, I guess, the city Lord doesn't know what to do with you all. To put it bluntly, he should be afraid of you all."

After thinking about it for a long time, the shopkeeper knew that this was not impossible. However, if his words were to reach the city Lord's ears, his little life would be in danger. Therefore, when he said these words, he was extremely careful. Before he said it, he deliberately looked around to make sure that there was no one else around. Only then did he dare to say it, and his voice was especially soft.

But Feng Chuan heard it.

After hearing this, Feng Chuan frowned.

After a long while.

Just as the shopkeeper was waiting anxiously for Feng Chuan's reaction and was about to lose control, Feng Chuan finally opened his mouth and said, "I see! Shopkeeper, why don't you make another trip?"

F * ck, Feng Chuan felt that it was too tiring to be reserved, so he didn't try to be so reserved. He also believed that the shopkeeper would understand!

If he dared to play dumb, he would beat him up!

Sure enough, after the shopkeeper heard this, he stared at Feng Chuan for a long time and finally confirmed that the other party's meaning was exactly what he was thinking.

Sob ... Could he refuse?

The answer was definitely no.

Because the shopkeeper had already seen the little flames of anger in Feng Chuan's eyes, which were slowly burning.

Helplessly, the shopkeeper could only bite the bullet and agree.

Feng Chuan, who had completed his task, happily patted the head of the shopkeeper and then walked up the stairs with elegant steps.

Seeing Feng Chuan's back disappear at the top of the stairs, the shopkeeper wanted to cry but had no tears. He knew it, it was not easy to earn pills these days! They couldn't take the after-sales service lightly either!

However, it was only right to take someone's money and help them get rid of a disaster, so he had to put down the work at hand and ran to the city Lord's mansion.

At the same time, Feng Chuan, who had returned to his room, was about to happily report the results of his work to everyone. However, he found that everyone was not interested, and some people were even yawning. Seeing this, Feng Chuan was furious.

However, he immediately thought of the identity of these people and softened.

Out of the corner of his eye, he saw the mother parasol tree that was chatting with Leng ruoxue. Feng Chuan pounced on the mother parasol tree and hugged the beautiful woman's leg, crying, "Wu...Old ancestor, these guys are too much of a bully! You have to help me!"

The mother parasol tree saw this and stared at Feng Chuan for a long time, not knowing how to react. Leng ruoxue, on the other hand, smiled and said, "Little Phoenix, how did we bully you?"

"It's not you, it's them," Feng Chuan could feel the terrifying cold Qi that was being released not far away. He shook his body and quickly pushed Leng ruoxue out of the way. He pointed at uncle long and the others.

"Then how did they bully you?" Leng ruoxue asked as she held back her laughter.

"They, they were so rude. They didn't even cooperate with me when I spoke." Feng Chuan complained.

"Just like this?" Leng ruoxue blinked her beautiful eyes, as if she was saying, 'you're making a big fuss over such a small matter!'

"This is a very serious matter! When I was downstairs, I spent so much effort to make the shopkeeper willing to run errands! Shouldn't they be listening to me?" Feng Chuan said matter-of-factly.

"What if I say that they already know?" Leng ruoxue blinked her beautiful eyes and said with a look of sympathy.

"Eh? No way! How dare you eavesdrop on us. " Feng Chuan was stunned for a moment, and then he realized that his every move had been seen by her! No wonder ...

Feng Chuan was burning with anger. After he came to his senses, he took the lead and pounced on Dongfang Lin, who looked like he was easy to bully. Then, the two of them got entangled. Then, the crowd who wanted to join in the fun joined the battle one after another.

Looking at this scene, the mother parasol tree could not help but worry, ""They won't kill anyone, will they?"

"I won't. Senior, don't worry! Let them relax." Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

As expected, after everyone started fighting, the two of them acted as if nothing had happened. They even asked Leng ruoxue for a lot of food before gathering in twos and threes to eat and drink.

This was the first time the mother parasol tree had seen something like this. It took a long time for her to regain her senses. Leng ruoxue consoled her when she saw her reaction, ""You'll get used to it,"

"Alright then!" The mother parasol tree calmed down upon hearing that. It seemed like she had to get used to many things.

Leng ruoxue smiled faintly. Then, she took out many delicacies for the mother parasol tree to try.

While everyone was enjoying the delicacies, the innkeeper, who had gone to the city Lord's mansion to run an errand, returned and reported to Leng ruoxue and the rest solemnly. He then conveyed their intentions to the city Lord's mansion. As for whether the city Lord's mansion would send someone over, he had no idea.

Chapter 2489 The Visit \(3\)

Leng ruoxue expressed her gratitude to the innkeeper and took out some food for him to try. She then sent the innkeeper off, who was in a good mood.

Even when he went downstairs, the shopkeeper was still thinking in his heart, as expected of someone from the divine realm, look at how good he is!

The shopkeeper was in a good mood, but after receiving a message that seemed to be urging and provoking him, the nine capital city's city Lord's face darkened again. This time, he was even angrier than before.

Sitting in his own study room in the city Lord's mansion, the nine-capital city Lord cursed at the top of his voice, ""Damned God! It was really too detestable! This was preposterous! This time, don't stop me. I'm going to take some people and teach them a good lesson! I want them to know whose territory they are on!"

In the face of the nine capital city Lord's angry words, the beautiful woman sitting not far away only calmly sipped her tea, not paying any attention to the nine capital city Lord's anger.

After an unknown amount of time, seeing that no one agreed with his anger, the nine capital city Lord became dispirited and said dejectedly, ""Rouji, you should give a reaction!"

"City Lord, were your words just now directed at me?" Rou Ji blinked her eyes and looked at the nine-capital city Lord with a puzzled face.

"Uh! There's only the two of us here. If I'm not talking to you, who else could I be talking to?" The nine capital city Lord said gloomily.

"I thought you were talking to yourself, but it seems that rouji has misunderstood." Rou Ji said with a gentle smile.

When the nine-capital city Lord heard this, he couldn't describe the depression in his heart with words. However, at this moment, he really needed rouji's advice, so he didn't dare to annoy her. Otherwise, if this petty woman decided to quit in a fit of anger, who could he find to find a solution?

With this thought in mind, the nine capital city Lord's tone softened and he said softly, ""Rouji, I've come to provoke you again. Do you want me to endure this time?"

"City Lord, if you can't bear it anymore, there's no need to bear it. However, if there are any consequences, city Lord should be mentally prepared." Rou Ji smiled.

"Uh!" The nine-capital city Lord was listless. He was afraid that rouji would say this.

"Castellan, the situation isn't clear yet, and our nine capital city isn't very powerful. If you do something irredeemable in a moment of impulse, I believe that even the castellan of Jiuhoa city can't help you. By the way, did the Jiuhoa city Lord reply to the castellan?" Rouji saw the pitiful expression on the nine capital city Lord's face and subconsciously softened her voice.

"Jiuhoa city ... Okay! I'll continue to endure. " Remembering that there was still no news from Jiuhoa city, the mayor of nine-capital city had to suppress his anger.

"If rouji isn't wrong, the Lord of Jiuhoa city is also in a dilemma," Rouji saw that the nine capital city Lord was so unwilling and could only say.

"How is this possible? Jiuhoa city is one of the top ten main cities, and except for jiuyou city, the city Lord of Jiuhoa city can do whatever he wants in nine nether prison. " The nine capital city Lord said with a face of disbelief. He felt that rouji's words had boosted his morale and diminished his own.

"Castellan, jiuyou nether prison belongs to the Dark Lord. Although Jiuhoa city is one of the top ten main cities, it doesn't dare to challenge jiuyou city. Jiuyou city hasn't made any response yet. Do you think the castellan of Jiuhoa city dares to act on his own?" Rou Ji laughed contemptuously. She couldn't help but sneer in her heart. The so-called ten major cities "city Lords were just dogs raised by the Mistress of the Dark World. If she wanted them to die, she could just say the word. Only the city Lords of small cities like nine capital city would take the ten major cities seriously.

Al! How pathetic! In order to survive, Rou Ji had actually fallen to the point where she had to give herself to a timid man. But fortunately, this man listened to her every word. Just this point alone made her very satisfied.

After hearing Rou Ji's words, the nine-capital city Lord became more and more lost. Seeing him like this, Rou Ji sighed helplessly."City Lord, if you believe that I won't harm you, then you should listen to me!"

"Rouji, of course I believe you. I know you're doing this for my own good. " When the nine capital city Lord heard this, he immediately expressed his heartfelt feelings.

"It's good that you understand. City Lord, I know you're angry, but in this situation, you must be able to control yourself and not be incited by others, understand?" Rou Ji reminded him worriedly.

"I know, I'll be careful. But rouji, are we really not going to do anything? I mean, we should at least show our attitude, right? Otherwise, my dignity as the city Lord will be swept to the ground. " Although the nine-capital city Lord had agreed to rouji's request, he was still a little unwilling. However, he was also afraid that he would make rouji unhappy, so he was quite hesitant and uncertain when he spoke.

Rouji nodded to show her understanding. "City Lord, why don't you make a statement in the name of the city Lord's mansion? As the city Lord, you should stand on the side of justice. Therefore, you can't blame the guests who came from the divine world for this matter. Not only that, you should also apologize to them on behalf of the city Lord Mansion to show our friendship. "

"It can't be?" When the nine capital city Lord heard this, his mouth was wide open in disbelief, and he was unable to come back to his senses for a long time.

What did he just hear? It was already annoying enough for him to explain that his son had brought this upon himself, so why did he have to apologize to those gods? Damn it, if he wasn't sure that rouji was a native, he would have thought that this woman was a spy sent by the divine realm to nine nether nether prison.

This was too much bullying, wasn't it?

But the city Master still gave rouji face. If it was someone else who said this, he would have ordered them to be put in jail. But he couldn't bear to do it with rouji!

After he finally came back to his senses, the nine capital city Lord looked at rouji with a meaningful gaze. However, he was facing his beloved woman, so he could still hold back his anger.

"City Lord, you just need to know that I'm doing this for your own good," said Rou Ji with a light smile.

"Alright then!" The nine-capital city Lord compromised. All these years, rouji's ideas had benefited him a lot. Otherwise, he wouldn't have trusted her so much.

Rou Ji personally watched as the city Lord finished writing a notice from the City Lord Mansion. She then sent her confidant to post the notice. After that, she smiled at the city Lord and said, "City Lord, I've decided to go to the inn to meet those deities. Do you want to come with me?"

"What? You still want to see them?" The nine-capital city Lord became even more depressed when he heard this. After writing the announcement, he felt even more aggrieved and depressed. If he went to see them personally, he was really afraid that he would not be able to control his anger and directly attack!

"City Lord, the announcement has already been made. If we go to the inn in person, then the people of the nine capital city will believe that we really don't blame those gods!" Rouji said as a matter of course.

"And then? What if I can't control myself and start fighting with them?" The nine capital city Lord asked.

"City Lord, if you can't even control your own temper, then I suggest that you don't be the city Lord anymore. It's better to give up this position to someone else as soon as possible to avoid getting into trouble." Rou Ji suggested casually as if she was talking about someone else's business.

"Rouji! You ... You've really gone too far. Aren't you afraid that I'll punish you in a fit of anger by saying such things about me?" Sure enough, the nine capital city Lord was furious. He glared at the beautiful woman in front of him with a pair of eyes that were spitting fire. This time, he was really angry!

A man's greatest fear was to be regarded as useless by his woman! And rouji had definitely touched his reverse scale! This was an insult to him.

Unfortunately, his furious tone didn't scare rouji. She still looked calm and said indifferently, "Rouji is telling the truth for the good of the city Lord. If the city Lord doesn't want to hear the truth, feel free to throw me into the prison."

This nonchalant tone instantly made the nine capital city Lord's face fall. In the end, it was the nine capital city Lord who lowered his posture and fawned, "I know rouji is doing this for my own good, hehe! I'm just joking with you. I don't like to hear the truth from others, but I have to listen to you, rouji."

"Then do you want to come with me to the inn to meet those gods?" Rouji raised her eyebrows and asked.

"Go, I'll go with you! I'd like to see what kind of beauty caused my incompetent son to be in trouble!" The nine capital city Lord said through gritted teeth. After knowing the truth, he had been interested in the beauty his son was talking about. However, rouji kept a close watch on him, so he didn't have the chance to see the beauty. This time, he could take the opportunity to see her.

"City Lord, this time we're going to the inn to show the city Lord's mansion's attitude, not to see a beauty. So, you'd better not be like your lecherous son, who wants to snatch a beauty back after seeing her. Otherwise, if you really cause trouble, don't blame me for standing by and watching!" Rou Ji glanced at the nine-capital city Master, her attitude suddenly turning cold.

With that, she immediately turned and walked out of the study room of the nine capital city Lord.

When the nine capital city Lord saw this, he hurriedly chased after her. At the same time, he was extremely vexed. Wu ... What a mistake! How could he face another woman's curiosity as a woman? This was definitely a great taboo!

With this thought in mind, the nine capital city Lord kept apologizing to rouji on the way to the inn and did everything he could to please her.

Very quickly, the two of them and a few of their subordinates arrived at the inn where Leng ruoxue and the others were staying ...

Chapter 2490 Who Is He?\(1\)

The innkeeper, who was still doing the accounts, looked up and saw the people walking into his shop. His eyes instantly widened.

It, it's here!

It's here!

The city Lord is here! And he even brought his most beloved Madam Rou!

For a moment, the inn manager did not know how to react. Were these people here to cause trouble? However, didn't he bring a little too few people with him to cause trouble? One had to know that the other party was extremely vicious! Just the people that the city Lord had brought were probably not enough to fill the gaps between their teeth!

At this moment, he didn't know if he should sympathize with the city Lord and the others, or be envious and jealous of Leng ruoxue and the others' good luck. Did this city Lord think that the other party was too simple? Did he think that as long as he revealed his identity as the city Lord, the other party would bow his head and listen to his orders?

The inn manager stood behind the front desk and kept fantasizing, so much so that he forgot to greet the nine capital city Lord. The nine capital city Lord stood in the corridor for a long time, but when he saw that the inn manager was still in a daze and ignored their existence, he couldn't help but be a little angry.

"Shopkeeper, do you think we don't exist?" The nine capital city Lord roared in anger.

"Argh! I'm sorry! I'm sorry, city Lord, I, I was thinking about something, and I was a little lost in thought! I've been too slow! Please forgive me, city Lord!" After being yelled at by the nine capital city Lord, the shopkeeper immediately came back to his senses and kept apologizing. His little heart also couldn't help but tremble.

Sob ... Could he be blamed for this? It was the city Lord and the others who came too suddenly. He didn't receive any news at all before, so why did the city Lord come to the inn?

At this time, the city Lord's mansion's notice had just been posted, so the shopkeeper had not received the news yet. Otherwise, he would be even more surprised.

Hearing the manager's words, Rou Ji smiled and comforted the nine capital city Master who was like a violent Dragon. "City Lord, the innkeeper didn't mean to neglect us, so please don't bother with him."

"En, en. I was really lost in my thoughts. Please forgive me, city Lord!" The manager looked at rouji gratefully and quickly added.

"Hmph! I'll let it go this time! If there's a next time, don't blame me for not giving your city Lord face!" The nine-capital city Lord roared in a dignified manner.

After the shopkeeper heard this, he could only keep nodding his head, indicating that he would never do this again.

In fact, the shopkeeper was not very afraid of this city Lord. After all, the status of his family Lord was the same as the nine capital city Lord. However, living in other people's territory, he still had to give some face to the city Lord.

Seeing the shopkeeper's good attitude, the nine capital city Lord was satisfied. Then, he asked the shopkeeper to see those gods.

When the shopkeeper heard this, he couldn't help but feel a little awkward. If you want to see him, why are you talking to him! He couldn't make the decision! Moreover, he really didn't want to get involved in the feud between these two families. If the nine capital city Lord didn't care about what happened before, it wouldn't be a big deal for him to inform them. But if these two groups of people started fighting as soon as they met, who would compensate for the losses of his shop?

Seeing the shopkeeper's hesitation, Rou Ji smiled gently. "Shopkeeper, we just want you to pass on a message that we are here to visit."

"Then please wait for a moment, city Lord and Lady Rou." When the innkeeper heard this, he knew that he couldn't keep a low profile. However, if it was just an errand, he could still do it. His only wish was that these two groups of people didn't fight in his Inn. He didn't know if his small wish could be realized!

After saying that, the shopkeeper turned around and went upstairs.

Watching the back of the inn manager, the nine capital city Lord said in dissatisfaction, "Why are you being so polite to that old thing? I'm the nine capital city Lord! There's no need for us to lower our heads to him!"

Seeing the nine capital city Lord's barbaric look, rouji helplessly pouted her lips and thought, "be more polite. If you offend someone and they report to your master, won't you offend another city Lord?"

As the saying goes, you have to look at the owner before you hit the dog! Unfortunately, this one-track minded and low-intelligence nine capital city Lord didn't understand this principle. Every time this happened, it was rouji's biggest headache.

But fortunately, the nine capital city Lord was still obedient. Therefore, rouji couldn't have high expectations of him.

As rouji's thoughts ran wild, the shopkeeper came down from upstairs and came to the nine capital city Lord. "City Lord, miss Leng and the others would like to see you upstairs."

When the shopkeeper said this, he still felt a little regretful. I can't watch anymore! If he met them in a restaurant or the main hall, he could act as a fire extinguisher in case they got into a disagreement, so that they wouldn't destroy the decorations in his shop. However, they had chosen to meet in the room, so he couldn't just follow them in!

Of course, the shopkeeper only dared to think about these things in his heart. He would never dare to show it. Otherwise, not to mention Leng ruoxue and the rest, even the nine capital city Lord would be the first to beat him up!

At this moment, the nine capital city Lord nodded in satisfaction after hearing the manager's words. Then, he held Rou Ji's slender waist with one hand and the two of them strode upstairs.

When he found the room number the manager told him, the nine capital city Lord was just about to get the guards to knock on the door when the door opened by itself.

Feng Chuan, who was standing at the door of the room, glanced at the nine capital city Lord and said lightly, "City Lord, please come in!"

Hehe! He's finally here! They had not waited for so long in vain. However, looking at the nine capital city Lord's appearance, it didn't seem like he was here to pick a fight!

The nine-capital city Lord nodded and strode into the room.

The moment he entered the living room, the nine capital city Lord was completely stunned.

Oh my God! This, how many godly people had come? Although he had sent people to keep an eye on the situation of these gods, he had never asked about the approximate number of them. Therefore, when he saw that the living room was filled with gods, the nine capital city Lord was shocked!

But what made him even more frightened was that he couldn't even see the strength of most of the deities? W-what did this mean?

This meant that the other party's strength was above his. As for how much higher, he had no idea. However, at this moment, the nine capital city Lord had completely put away his contempt for these people, and did not dare to treat them as his prey.

Sob ... Rouji was right. He couldn't eat these people! At this moment, the nine capital city Lord was quite glad that he had listened to rouji's words. Otherwise, he would have foolishly led his men to attack the inn, and the consequences would have been unimaginable!

Thinking of this, the nine capital city Lord couldn't help but carefully turn his head to look at rouji beside him. He suddenly realized that rouji was also in a daze. Rou 'er must be frightened too!

The nine-capital city Lord forced himself to calm down. At the same time, rouji also came back to her senses.

Rouji didn't expect that these people's strength would be beyond her imagination.
