

Crazy Wife 2501

Chapter 2501 Doing A Good Deed Every Day \(3\)

After saying all this nonsense, Rou Ji looked at Leng ruoxue, who didn't seem to be impatient at all. After hesitating for a long time, she couldn't help but ask, "Miss Leng, I have something to tell you ..."

Seeing Rou Ji hesitating, Leng ruoxue smiled and said, "You're asking me about my man's identity, right?"

"I ..." Leng ruoxue's straightforwardness made Rou Ji feel embarrassed for her own thoughts. The reason why she wanted to chat with Leng ruoxue alone was because she felt that it was easier for women to get along with each other. More importantly, women were the most soft-hearted.

"You know him?" Leng ruoxue asked with a faint smile.

"Not really. I've only seen my Lord from afar once. Moreover, the person beside you looks slightly different from my Lord. However, as your subordinate, I know my Lord's aura." Rou Ji replied honestly. Since Leng ruoxue was willing to ask this, she knew that her guess was almost right. This fact made her feel ecstatic.

"You're the demon's subordinate?" Rou Ji's identity surprised Leng ruoxue.

"Yes! I used to be a guard of the city Lord's mansion in Jiuyou city. However, something happened, so I came to the nine capital city." Rou Ji avoided the important part and said.

"Since you're a guard of Jiuyou city, you should know my temper. What's your purpose in deliberately getting close to Xue'er?" Suddenly, a devilish cold voice came from the room. Rou Ji's delicate body trembled when she heard it.

Then, a slight ripple appeared in the air of the room, and the tall figure of the evildoer appeared.

Seeing this, Rou Ji immediately knelt down and lowered her head. She said with respect, "Greetings, my Lord."

"Hmph! Answer my question!" The evildoer ignored Rou Ji's respect and snorted coldly.

Seeing the man in front of her cause her blood Qi to surge up with just a cold snort, Rou Ji's fear of this evildoer deepened.

Rouji didn't dare to hide anything and said the truth, "I befriend miss Leng only because I want to confirm master's identity. I don't have any ill intentions towards miss Leng."

Hearing this, the evil man's pitch-black eyes stared deeply at Rou Ji, as if he wanted to see into the depths of her heart. Rou Ji felt the evil man's eyes and didn't dare to move. However, her heart was beating so fast that it almost jumped out of her chest.

This was his Lord, an extremely powerful man!

How could a promiscuous and promiscuous Piao Yao be worthy of such a man? Thinking about how Piao Yao coveted her master, Rou Ji felt ashamed. However, she could foresee Piao Yao's tragic future, which also made her fearful mood instantly better.

After a long time.

Only then did the demon restrain his massive aura. "Why would a guard of jiuyou city marry the Lord of Jiudu city as a concubine?" he asked.

The guards of the jiuyou city Lord's mansion were the elites of the nine nether nether prison. Even if one couldn't say that 100% of the guards were geniuses in meditation, there were at least 80% of them. Rouji couldn't have become a guard of the jiuyou city Lord's mansion by relying on her face! However, rouji had married the governor of a small city, and she had become his concubine. He couldn't help but feel puzzled.

When did the guards of the city Lord's mansion in jiuyou city have such a low status? It was a huge humiliation to the city Lord of jiuyou city to let the guards of jiuyou city be the concubines of a small city Lord.

"Master, this subordinate has a secret that is difficult to disclose." Hearing the demon's question, Rou Ji really wanted to pour out all her grievances to her Lord. However, she also knew that her Lord wouldn't care about such a trivial matter. If she really told him, he would definitely think that she was a waste. With this thought, she didn't dare to say anything.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue walked to rouji's side and gently helped her up. "Since your master has asked you, why don't you seize the opportunity? If you really suffer, we can help you. "

Leng ruoxue had a pretty good impression of rouji. She was also the first person she had made friends with since she came to the nine nether nether prison. Therefore, she didn't mind being a busybody. As the saying goes, do a good deed every day! Today, her kindness would be shown to rouji.

When rouji heard Leng ruoxue's words, she was moved to tears. How long had it been since an outsider, other than the nine capital city Lord, had shown such concern for her? Leng ruoxue's words, compared to her fear of her master's might, made her feel closer to her.

After that, Rou Ji started to narrate her experience to Leng ruoxue and the demon as if she had found a vent.

It turned out that rouji had become the concubine of the nine-capital city Lord because she was guilty.

However, she had been set up. The first culprit was naturally Piao Yao, and the other two were the city Lords of Jiuhoa city and jiuming city.

Back then, rouji had also accidentally caught a glimpse of Piao Yao and the nine underworld city Lord's sexual relationship. The two of them were afraid that the matter would be exposed and Piao Yao's reputation would be ruined, so they had joined forces to frame her for stealing the city Lord's mansion's valuable items. At that time, in order to live, she admitted to the crime and was then sent to a remote small city like the nine capital city.

But even so, Piao Yao still refused to let her go. She didn't know what the other party's purpose was, but he actually forced her to marry the nine capital city Lord.

Although Rou Ji was a prideful woman, she was also a woman who knew what was good for her. She knew that in terms of power, she was no match for Piao Yao, so she had to compromise.

After Rou Ji had finished her story, Leng ruoxue stared at her for a long time. When Rou Ji was about to lose her cool, Leng ruoxue said, "If I'm not wrong, one of the poisons in your body should have been planted by piaoyao, right?"

"Yes, you know there's more than one poison in my body?" Rou Ji was shocked by Leng ruoxue's words.

"I didn't know at first, but after I heard about the characteristics of heartbreak, I found that you didn't act up from time to time like the others. This can only prove that there is more than one poison in your body, and that more than two kinds of poisons are mixed together, which just happens to play the role of fighting poison with poison. Therefore, your situation is the lightest among the other people." Leng ruoxue explained with a smile.

"Have you been injured before?" Leng ruoxue asked again after a moment.

"Yes, you're right. After I was injured, my strength was greatly reduced, and I could only submit myself to the nine capital city Master and become his concubine. But fortunately, he was quite good to me. For so many years, if it wasn't for him protecting me, I'm afraid I would have died long ago." Rou Ji heaved a long sigh and said with a grievance.

"Take it," Hearing this, Leng ruoxue didn't waste any time and handed Rou Ji a small white jade bottle.

Rou Ji carefully opened it and sniffed. She immediately looked at Leng ruoxue in surprise and asked, "This, this is a healing pill?"

"Yes! Go back and take the healing pill first, then recuperate. Come find me tomorrow, I'll help you detoxify." Leng ruoxue said calmly.

"Miss Leng, I have no way to repay your kindness. From now on, Rou Ji is willing to go through water and tread on fire for you, no matter what." Rouji was so excited that she knelt down in front of Leng ruoxue.

"Get up! I don't like it when people kneel for no reason." Leng ruoxue said seriously.

"Yes!" Rouji quickly stood up to avoid angering Leng ruoxue.

At this moment, rouji heard the demon's cold voice. "Rouji, while we're in the nine nether nether prison, you'll be in charge of protecting Xue 'er!"

"This subordinate will do as you command!" Rou Ji replied happily. The fact that her Lord was willing to entrust her with such an important task meant that everything was in the past. Now that she had Leng ruoxue and her Lord's legs, her future would be much better.

When she thought of this, she finally relaxed her tensed mood for many years.

The next day.

Leng ruoxue saw rouji, who was extremely excited after her old illness was cured.

Rou Ji's strength was even greater after her injuries were healed. Leng ruoxue was shocked to find out that Rou Ji had the cultivation of a underworld Supreme. Such strength was equivalent to a reverent-God in the divinity.

"Miss Leng, thanks to your healing elixir, I actually advanced! I'm really grateful to you. " Rou Ji said with great excitement.

The future netherworld Empress's healing pill was simply too effective. Not only had it healed her many years of internal injuries, it had also allowed her to advance in rank. She had no idea how she could repay Leng ruoxue. Even if she were to go through fire and water for her, she felt that it would not be enough to express her gratitude towards Leng ruoxue.

The nine capital city Master, who was standing beside rouji, was also very worried.

Sob ... Rouji's strength had surpassed his. What should he do in the future?

In the past, he could still rely on the fact that he could protect rouji and rightfully occupy rouji. Now, her power was already Ming Zun 's, why would she need his protection? If so, how could he still have the face to stay by rouji's side?

Although rouji had said that she wouldn't despise him and that their relationship would be the same as before, his male chauvinist heart still didn't feel good.

Leng ruoxue, who was watching coldly from the side, saw the two people's completely different expressions and laughed in her heart. Then, she whispered a few words to rouji, who immediately glared fiercely at the nine capital city Lord.

When the nine capital city Lord saw this, he immediately acted like a well-behaved little wife.

Leng ruoxue could not help but laugh out loud. However, in the face of Leng ruoxue's teasing, the nine capital city Lord did not dare to have any thoughts of anger. He could only look at Leng ruoxue fearfully and pitifully. Woo ... He could not afford to offend this person!

Chapter 2502 A Self-Aware Servant \(1\)

Why were women nowadays so powerful? The nine capital city Lord could not understand, but he could deeply feel that the status of men in the future would be even lower. Perhaps, he should get used to it in advance.

The nine capital city Lord quickly adjusted his mental state and continued to act weak as he looked at Leng ruoxue pitifully.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue laughed even more happily. When she was done laughing, she deliberately took out a black pill and handed it to rouji. Seeing that there was only one pill, rouji felt a bit conflicted.

Although she really wanted to beg the future netherworld Empress to save her useless man, rouji, who already felt like she owed her husband a lot, couldn't bring herself to do so.

The nine-capital city Lord saw through Rou Ji's thoughts and hurriedly urged,"Rou 'er, hurry up and eat! I'll be at ease after you've cured the poison. " He was afraid that rouji would make them unhappy because of this. After all, their lives were in their hands!

"Miss Leng, I ... I ..." Rou Ji really wanted to ask if she could give this pill to the nine capital city Lord. However, looking at Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes that were as clear as the moon, she couldn't bring herself to say such insatiable words.

"You what? hurry up and eat!" Leng ruoxue urged with a smile.

"Yes." Rou Ji was helpless. She looked at the nine capital city Lord apologetically. It wasn't that she didn't care about the nine capital city Lord's life, but she really couldn't say it now. If the other party wanted to give her pills to someone else because of her, the consequences would be unimaginable if he got angry.

With this apprehension, Rou Ji could only bite the bullet and eat the black pill. She wanted to wait until she and the future nether Empress were more familiar with each other, or after she had made a great contribution, she would ask for a reward. This was the only way now.

After eating the pill and spitting out a mouthful of foul-smelling black blood, Rou Ji's face became much rosier. When the nine capital city Lord saw this, his face immediately revealed a sincere smile. He excitedly pulled Rou Ji into his arms and giggled. At this moment, he really didn't know what would happen to him.

Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes sized up the two of them who were over-excited. When they had calmed down, they suddenly realized that Leng ruoxue had another pill in her hand. However, this time, the pill was grey in color.

The nine capital city Lord looked at the elixir in Leng ruoxue's hand, his eyes emitting a green light of desire. This, this was for him? He didn't dare to think too much, and he didn't dare to snatch it. Rouji did the same. The two of them exchanged a glance and then pretended as if nothing had happened. However, their peeking eyes from time to time revealed their thoughts.

Looking at the two of them who had suddenly become pretentious, Leng ruoxue pursed her lips and chuckled. She then threw the pill in her hand to the nine capital city Lord and said, "Eat it!"

"Yes!" The nine capital city Lord was so excited that he didn't know what to say. After he ate the pill, he clearly felt a warm current in his stomach. Not long after, his stomach started to hurt intensely. Then, the nine capital city Lord turned and ran, his face red.

"City Lord ..." Rou Ji wanted to follow him out of worry, but she was also afraid that the future nether Empress would blame her. After hesitating for a while, she pretended to be calm and waited.

Leng ruoxue saw the couple's pretentious expressions and laughed out loud. Rouji was at a loss.

"Miss Leng, what are you laughing at?" After hesitating for a while, Rou Ji couldn't help but ask.

"I am laughing at you! He clearly wanted to beg me to save the nine capital city Lord, but he refused to open his mouth." Leng ruoxue teased.

"I, I didn't. I just want to ask you to allow me to give him my antidote." Rouji immediately said in embarrassment. She couldn't be so ungrateful. After all, he didn't have any obligation to save her, let alone the nine capital city Lord.

"So that's how it is. It's a good thing you didn't say it, because even if you did, I wouldn't have agreed." Leng ruoxue said in all seriousness.

After hearing this, Rou Ji revealed an expression of "as expected."

However, she immediately heard Leng ruoxue say, ""Giving him your pill isn't saving him, but harming him."

"Ah!" Rou Ji's face changed dramatically, and her face blushed. Boohoo ... She had misunderstood again. No, that's not right. The future nether Empress was deliberately making her misunderstand!

After rouji understood what was going on, she looked at Leng ruoxue with a resentful gaze.

Leng ruoxue looked at rouji's expression and felt playful. She stretched out a slender white finger and lifted rouji's chin. She said with a perverted look, "Beauty, your little appearance really makes me feel sad!"

"..." Was she being teased by the future nether Empress?

I'm finished! Would his Lord blame her?

After being teased, the first thought that came to Rou Ji's mind was whether her Lord, who was protective of his food, would treat her as an eyesore and get rid of her. Wu...If that was the case, wouldn't her treatment have been in vain?

At this moment, the nine capital city Lord also returned.

As soon as he returned to his room, he saw his Rou 'er being teased, but he didn't dare to say anything.

But not long after, an angry voice reverberated in the nine capital city Lord's ears, ""Take your woman and get lost!"

"Argh! Rou 'er, let's go!" The moment the nine capital city Lord heard this demonic sound, his face turned pale with fear. Then, he grabbed rouji from Leng ruoxue's demonic grasp and ran out with her. It was as if there were evil ghosts chasing after them. Their movements were so fast that it was absolutely unbelievable.

Not long after the two of them disappeared, Leng ruoxue fell into a strong embrace.

The face of the owner of his arms darkened as he unhappily carried the Restless little woman in his arms. He lowered his head and punished her.

The nine capital city Lord and Rou Ji, who had run far away in a hurry, only stopped to catch their breath when they saw that they were safe. Suddenly, the nine capital city Lord seemed to have thought of something and exclaimed, "We're finished! I forgot to thank the future netherworld Empress and his Highness. "

"You don't have to thank me verbally. In the future, express it with your actions!" Rouji, who already understood Leng ruoxue well, said after some thought.

"Mm, that's true. There's no sincerity in talking. However, I really didn't expect our future netherworld Empress to be able to cure the poison. She's really amazing!" The nine capital city Lord said with a face full of admiration.

"You don't have to tell me that. The future nether Empress is an Alchemist." Rou Ji said with pride.

"Rouji, this is all thanks to your wise leadership! Otherwise, I'm afraid I'd have already offended the future netherworld Empress and her Excellency. At that time, I'm afraid I won't even know how I died." The nine-capital city Lord suddenly said with a face full of affection. It was as if his face was saying that he would listen to everything he said in the future.

"It's good that you know. So, when it comes to the matters between the city Lord's wife and the city Lord, you must not make any mistakes. You must be determined to be on my side, understand?" Rou Ji worriedly urged.

"Don't worry, I know what to do!" The nine-capital city Lord promised. Then, he hesitated for a long time with a conflicted expression, before he said with a desperate expression, ""Rou 'er, I have something to discuss with you ..."

Chapter 2503 A Self-Aware Servant \(2\)

However, before he could finish his words, he was immediately interrupted by an angry rouji. "What do you want to discuss with me? Hells, do you have another woman? I'm warning you, if you dare to be disloyal to me, I'll kill you, so that you won't have the chance to touch a woman in this life!"

Rou Ji's words were so vicious that the nine capital city Lord broke out in a cold sweat. Although he had had a few women in the past, after Rou Ji appeared, those women had become decorations. In addition, Rou Ji was very strict with him, so he had no chance to have an affair. Even the city Lord's wife didn't have many chances to see him in a year, let alone other women. However, at this moment, he had to explain what he wanted to say. Otherwise, if he was really wronged by rouji, he wouldn't be able to clear his name even if he jumped into the dead Sea.

After clearing his throat, the nine capital city Lord said with a serious face, ""Rou 'er, what I want to say has nothing to do with women. I want to talk about Cheng' er. No matter how useless he is, he's still my child. So, I want to ..."

"Don't tell me you want to save him? I'm telling you, he's dead for sure. The Lord won't let him go. Don't be stupid. It's not worth it to implicate your family for such a bastard. Moreover, this Rascal even wanted to kill his own father. Why do you still care about the life and death of such an inhumane thing?" Before the city Lord could finish his sentence, rouji interrupted him again with a face full of disapproval. She almost cursed him in the street.

"Rou 'er, I know that the unfilial son's death is not to be regretted. I don't dare to ask the Lord to let him go. I just want to ask the Lord to leave his corpse intact. Do you think the Lord will agree?" The nine capital city Lord asked carefully.

"I won 't! You don't understand the Lord, and the Lord has never been soft-hearted to his enemies. It's impossible for young master Cheng to leave an intact corpse." Rou Ji said with certainty. In fact, she didn't say that it was impossible for young master Cheng to have a good ending. If it was her, she would not have let that guy off easily either.

"Al! Since that's the case, I've tried my best." The nine capital city Lord sighed softly.

"Yes, let's go back!" Rou Ji didn't want to talk about this matter anymore. She immediately pulled the nine capital city Lord back to the city Lord's mansion.

At this moment, the city Lords who were like ants in a hot pot in the courtyard of the city Lord's mansion immediately surrounded the two of them when they saw them return.

The city Lords "eyes were fixed on rouji. The nine capital city Lord was furious and shouted,"Damn it, what are you doing? Don't have any ideas about Rou 'er. "

After the nine capital city Lord finished shouting, the other city Lords suddenly felt embarrassed.

"Um ... We're not thinking of getting Madam Rou. We just want to ask, what was that breakthrough yesterday? How did you suddenly advance?" A city Lord embarrassedly voiced out their doubts.

After hearing this, the nine capital city Lord looked at the other city Lords for a long time before finally saying,""You want to know?"

"Yes, yes." The city Masters nodded like chickens pecking at rice.

"I'm not telling you. " The nine-capital city Lord said in an extremely infuriating manner. After he finished speaking, he pulled Rou Ji and directly returned to her room.

"..." The dumbfounded city Masters stood in place for a long time without any reaction.

In the next few days, the city Lords would secretly observe the city Lord and rouji when they had nothing to do. Then, they would gather together and discuss their observations. In the end, they came to a conclusion. The city Lord and rouji were fine!

The so-called "fine" naturally meant that their poison had been cured!

After coming to such a conclusion, the city Lords immediately lost their calm.

Because this result was too unexpected, so much so that they couldn't convince themselves to believe this conclusion. However, the truth didn't allow them to deny it. After secretly observing the other party for a few days, these city Lords had no choice but to accept and understand this fact.

They had really recovered! He was alive and kicking, and he was so full of energy every day. Unlike them, they had to suffer a few times a day, and their faces were getting worse and worse. But when they saw how refreshed and energetic he was, they were really envious, jealous, and hateful!

After believing him, the city Lords gathered together to discuss. In the end, they couldn't bear it anymore and blocked the nine capital city Lord in a corner.

Looking at the unfriendly faces in front of him, the nine capital city Lord's heart trembled. He pointed at the city Lords in front of him and said in a trembling voice,""You, what do you want? If you dare to touch a single hair on my head, I'm going to shout for help!"

After saying these words, the nine capital city Lord immediately looked like a good woman who had been taken away by a villain, and stared at the city Lords in front of him with vigilance. He wouldn't be afraid if there was only one of them, but if the few of them attacked him together, he really wouldn't be a match. Wu...Someone save him!

The nine capital city Lord's imagination was running wild, and before he could finish, he saw the faces of the people opposite him turn black with anger. But in an instant, the originally aggressive city Lords immediately hugged the nine capital city Lord's arms and legs without caring about their image and began to cry.

"Wu.....The nine capital city Lord! You have to help us, you can't just leave us in the lurch!"

"Wu.....The nine capital city Lord! We're all comrades of war howl, you can't just leave us to die!"

"Nine capital city Lord, if you don't care about us, we'll die in front of you, and you'll say that you're the one who abandoned us."

"Right! That's right, just say that you abandoned us. If you really don't help us, we'll make a declaration to the entire nine nether prison that we have an affair!"

The few of them took turns threatening him. The nine capital city Lord was stunned as he listened, but when he came back to his senses, he was also furious.

F * ck! These guys are really not human! How could he threaten people like this! And he had an affair with them? In your dreams! Why don't you take a look at what these people are like! Did he really think that he was a pretty boy with soft skin and tender flesh?

However, gossip was a fearful thing!

The nine capital city Lord really didn't want to create a topic for the people in the nine nether prison. Although he would gossip sometimes, he couldn't gossip about himself.

Thinking of this, the nine capital city Lord was really a little afraid that they would go out and talk nonsense. As the saying goes, a barefooted person is not afraid of wearing shoes. One must know that these guys were people who had an incurable poison in their bodies. Why would they still care about the problem of reputation?

But he cared! After struggling for a while, the nine capital city Lord was finally forced to compromise.

However, when the nine capital city Lord told them the truth that the other city Lords wanted to know, the other party was dumbfounded. Taking advantage of the other party's petrification, the nine capital city Lord quickly slipped away.

After returning to rouji's place, the nine-capital city Lord reported to rouji about what had just happened. It was rouji's turn to have a black face.

"They threatened you, and you betrayed miss Leng and his Lord? Do you not want to live anymore?" Rouji immediately pulled the nine-capital city Lord's ear and said hatefully.

Chapter 2504 A Self-Aware Servant \(3\)

"Wuu ... I don't want to either! They're going to spread the word that they have an affair with me!" The nine capital city Lord said with an aggrieved expression.

"What's wrong with saying that I have an affair with you? You're a man, what are you afraid of?" Rou Ji said angrily.

"I also want my reputation!" The nine capital city Lord explained in a low voice.

"What kind of reputation do men need?" Rouji said in a bad mood. After saying this, she immediately held the city Lord's hand and rushed to the inn to report the situation to Leng ruoxue and the evildoer.

After Leng ruoxue heard this, she looked at the nine capital city Lord with a smile that was not a smile. The demon scoffed coldly and said with a calm expression, "So, my identity has been exposed?"

"No, I didn't! No! I didn't dare to tell them that you're the Lord!" When the nine capital city Lord heard this, he quickly explained in a flattering manner. The cold sweat on his body was uncontrollably flowing more and more. The pressure that these two people gave him was really too great.

"But didn't you tell them that I'm someone they can't afford to offend?" The demon's voice seemed to contain icicles, scaring the nine capital city Master so much that he immediately cried out, "Wuu ... I don't want to say this either! They threatened me. If I don't tell them, they'll say that we have an affair ..."

The nine capital city Lord's voice became softer and softer, and finally, his voice was so soft that it could barely be heard, and his head hung lower. At this moment, he suddenly heard the demon's angry roar, "Since you're here, why don't you get the hell in?"

After the evildoer finished speaking, a black beam of light shot towards the door. With a bang, the solid door was broken into pieces. Then, a few people rolled in.

The few of them rolled in like balls and only stopped when they reached the demon's feet. Then, they knelt on the ground and said with trembling bodies, "

After eavesdropping for a while, they also knew the identity of the man in front of them. In the entire nine nether nether prison, there was only one person who dared to be called "Lord".

This fact made the city Lords so nervous that they didn't know where to put their hands. This was especially so for nine Mountain City Lord, who had once flirted with Leng ruoxue in a very cheery manner. His head hung even lower, as if he wished he could bury himself in the dust.

Wu ... The other party's identity not only made him feel great pressure, but also made him want to die! If he committed suicide, would he die more easily? It should be better than falling into the hands of his Lord, right? However, it seemed to be too late to think about this now. Because committing suicide in front of his Lord, that was definitely asking for a beating! If he really did that, his family would also be in trouble. Therefore, he could only think about it. He would never dare to do it.

The city Masters knelt for a long time, but the evildoer did not say a word. The longer they knelt, the more terrified they became. Even the city Masters of the nine cities became nervous.

After an unknown period of time, the demon finally opened his mouth. However, the first thing he said was to order the other party to think about how to die!

When the city Lords heard this, their faces turned even paler, and their bodies trembled even more violently.

"Y-Your Majesty, please leave this lowly one's corpse intact." After a city Lord took the lead in expressing his stance, he wanted to leave a good impression on his Lord.

"What about you guys?" The demon's pitch-black eyes started to size up the other people.

"My Lord, please let this lowly one die a quick death." The nine Mountain City Lord made up his mind and shouted.

Following that, the city Lords all told him the way they wanted to die.

After listening to her, the demon's Black eyes turned towards Leng ruoxue and he smiled, ""Xue 'er, how do you want them to die?"

"I like to make them wish they were dead! If they want to die, wouldn't it be too easy on them?" Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

"That's true! Death would be too easy on them. " The demon agreed with a smile.

Upon hearing this, the city Lords 'hearts immediately turned cold. Wu ... Can't you even die if you want to? Then let the poison take effect now! They prayed with all their hearts.

At this time, the evildoer could not be bothered to look at them. He raised his hand and a gust of wind blew past. A few tall men were thrown out of the window by him.

The sound of objects falling to the ground caused cold sweat to form on Leng ruoxue's forehead. She had recently discovered that evildoer liked to throw people out of the window! Although it was immoral to throw things around, he could not deny that it was quite convenient.

With this thought in mind, Leng ruoxue walked to the window out of curiosity. She saw that the city Lords who had been thrown outside had already gotten up from the ground. Although they looked a little disheveled, they did not dare to move from their original positions.

Seeing the pitiful looks on their faces, Leng ruoxue's heart softened and she threw out a small white jade bottle, which happened to hit one of the city Lords. Then, she closed the window with a bang and returned to her seat beside the evildoer.

"Why do we care if they live or die?" The evildoer knew what Xue 'er had done. He pulled Leng ruoxue into his arms and said unhappily.

As soon as he thought about how those ants dared to covet his woman, he wanted to destroy them. However, Xue 'er clearly wanted to spare their lives.

"Hahaha! Don't you think we need a few servants? I haven't experienced the difference between the servants of the netherworld prison and those in the divine realm! Furthermore, they are the city Lords. " Leng ruoxue laughed.

"Their status is too low. How can they serve you? why don't I get the city Lords of the ten major cities to be your servants?" The evildoer was still petty and wanted to replace them. Who asked those guys to court death by flirting with his woman! They were lucky that he didn't kill them immediately.

However, Leng ruoxue didn't agree with him. She said earnestly, ""The status of the city Lords of the ten major cities is too high. I can't afford to use them. What if they give me a hard time? what should I do?"

"They dare?" As soon as he released his aura, Rou Ji and the nine capital city Master, who didn't dare to make a sound, immediately turned pale. The blood in their bodies started to surge up again.

The two of them held their breaths and subconsciously wanted to kneel down and worship him. Fortunately, the demon had retracted his aura at this time, so the two of them felt a little better. However, the two of them were still drenched in sweat, and their bodies trembled in fear.

His Lord's pressure was too terrifying! Even a new Ming Zun like Rou Ji couldn't handle it, let alone the city Lord of nine capital city who was weaker than her.

When rouji and the nine capital city Lord, who was trembling with fear, calmed down, they still couldn't help but want to kneel down because their legs were soft.

Leng ruoxue could only send them back to the city Lord's residence.

On the way back to the city Lord's mansion, the two of them were dazed and at a loss.

The next day.

Rou Ji received Leng ruoxue's order and returned to the inn. However, before she could enter the inn, she was blocked by a few city Lords who had been guarding the entrance.

"What are you guys trying to do?" Rou Ji's face turned black and her tone was extremely unfriendly.

"Nothing! Rouji, don't misunderstand, we just want to thank miss Leng. However, we can't see her, so we want you to pass the message on to her." The nine Mountain City Lord said with a fawning look. In fact, they didn't dare to enter the inn at all. No one could bear the anger of the LORD!

"Hmph! It's nice to say, but you're the cowards who don't dare to enter!" Rou Ji rudely exposed nine Mountain City Lord's words. However, he wasn't angry and just laughed foolishly.

Rouji's current status wasn't the same as before. Besides, she was much stronger than them. They didn't dare to offend this great aunt.

Seeing that the other party was just smiling foolishly, Rou Ji, who could be persuaded but not forced, didn't want to make things difficult for him. She only nodded to show that she understood and walked around the obstacles in front of her, entering the inn.

The reason why Leng ruoxue had asked Rou Ji to come over was because she wanted Rou Ji to bring the group of them to the nearby cities for a tour. Rou Ji was very happy to receive this mission. She immediately said that she would make them have a good time.

On the way, Leng ruoxue had not walked far before she noticed a few people following her. When she called them over, she asked with a speechless expression, "You've been detoxified, so why are you still following us?"

They were already eye-catching enough to begin with, and it would be difficult for them not to attract attention with these slightly famous guys following behind them.

When nine Mountain City Lord heard this, he laughed shyly. "We just want to help you guys out on the way."

This was because the nine capital city Lord had secretly told them that Leng ruoxue wanted them to be her servants, but his Lord was not willing to do so. So, in order to please Leng ruoxue, and at the same time, for the sake of their own lives, they decided that they had to cling onto Leng ruoxue's thick legs. Only then would his Lord spare them. They were very clear about this.

However, when Leng ruoxue heard nine Mountain City Lord's words, she frowned and said, "You all came out. If the castellan of Jiu Hua city comes, he won't be able to deal with it alone, so you'd better go back! It's more important to help the nine capital city Lord."

Hearing this, the city Lords were extremely reluctant. In the end, it was the nine Mountain City Lord who said, "Then let them go back! I'll stay by miss Leng's side to run an errand."

As soon as he said this, he immediately offended the other city Lords. They waved their fists in anger and punched nine Mountain City Lord ...

In an instant, several tall men were fighting.

The moment Leng ruoxue saw this, she gave the others a look, and they immediately left amidst the chaos.

It was only when nine Mountain City Lord was beaten black and blue that the other city Lords stopped. However, it was only then that they realized that Leng ruoxue and the others had long disappeared.

"Damn it, it's all your fault." One of the city Lords roared. After he finished speaking, the other indignant city Lords gave the unlucky nine Mountain City Lord another beating.

After venting their anger, the city Lords went back to the nine capital city dejectedly ...

Chapter 2505 I Want To See The Lord \(1\)

After the city Lords returned to the city Lord's mansion, the nine capital city Lord saw that the few people in front of him were bruised and swollen, their clothes were untidy, and their heads hung low in dejection. He couldn't help but sneer in his heart. Trash like them wanted to stay by the side of his Lord and the future nether Empress? Why didn't he think about what they had done before? Of course, he didn't think his previous performance was good enough, but he had a good woman!

Thinking of Rou Ji, the nine capital city Lord's face revealed a tender side. When the other city Lords saw his infatuated look, they couldn't help but complain, "Rouji isn't here. Don't go into heat. Otherwise, if rouji finds out, you will suffer!"

"You bastard! You're the one in heat! Your whole family is in heat!" Upon hearing this, the nine capital city Lord immediately retorted!

The city Lords only snorted coldly in response, and then they all sat down on the chairs in the living room, looking up at the sky at a 45-degree angle.

Seeing their dead looks, the nine capital city Lord was a little mad and couldn't bear it anymore. He roared, "F * ck! Who are you guys trying to show off? All of you, be more spirited!"

"I can't get my spirits up." One of the city Lords said in a low voice.

The others didn't say anything, but they all agreed with him.

"Al! If his Lord were to see you now, I'm afraid his impression of you would be even worse. " Suddenly, the nine capital city Lord heaved a long sigh and helplessly said.

These words made the city Lords, who were like eggplants that had been beaten by frost, immediately perk up. Nine Mountain City Lord even specially asked,""What's the situation now? Are you spirited enough?"

"Passable! It would be even better if there weren't any bruises on her face. " After the nine capital city Lord sized up the other city Lords, he said in a decent manner.

When the city Lords heard this, they immediately stood up and ran out. When they came back, the injuries on their faces were much lighter and their clothes had been changed. They looked much more energetic than before.

Nodding his head in satisfaction, the nine capital city Lord then said in a serious tone,""Although master and miss Leng are not in the nine capital city, we still have something to prepare in advance."

"You mean the incident with the Lord of Jiuhoa city?" The nine Mountain City Lord asked carefully.

"Yes! We'd better stick to the same story in case the mayor of Jiuhoa city asks and we have different answers. " The nine capital city Lord said with a serious expression.

"What's the point of having a uniform caliber! Wasn't it obvious what the mother and son had done? Can't you just tell me the truth?" Nine Mountain City Lord asked in confusion.

"Of course I have to tell the truth about them, but I can't tell you about my Lord! Master's identity must be kept a secret. " The nine capital city Lord said with a troubled look. However, he was a little excited in his heart. If the Lord of Jiuhoa city offended his Lord because of this, he would have a hard time in the future. Thinking of this, he was a little excited.

"Then let's not mention the Lord's identity! Can't you just say that a few powerful gods took care of the mother and son and saved us?" Another city Lord said after some thought.

"If that's the case, the Lord of Jiuhoa city will blame us for it." The nine capital city Lord pretended to be worried.

"What are you afraid of? the Lord will definitely help us." The city Lord of nine Mountain City said confidently. With his master as his backer, he had nothing to fear from the city Lord of Jiuhoa city!

"Are you sure? What if I say that the Lord doesn't care about our lives?" The nine capital city Lord did not know where the nine Mountain City Lord's confidence came from, so he could only pour cold water on his head to wake him up.

What a brainless fool. Why didn't he think about his identity and what reason his Lord had to help him?

"This ... That ... It's my honor to sacrifice my life for my Lord!" The nine Mountain City Lord pondered for a moment before suddenly raising his aura.

"Yes, Yes, that's right. We're willing to die for our Lord." The other city Lords also agreed.

"At least you understand. Remember, as a part of the nine nether nether nether prison, it is our duty to sacrifice for our Lord. Don't think that our Lord will save us. That is not something we can think of, understand?" The nine-capital city Lord said sternly. In fact, the reason why he said all this today was because rouji had asked him to give them some advice, in case they didn't know their own identity and status.

After all, in the nine nether nether nether prison, their Lord was the absolute ruler. If their Lord wanted them dead, it would be their honor!

It had to be said that the reason why the nine-capital city Lord would think this way, in addition to his natural reverence for his Lord, was largely due to rouji's brainwashing.

Rouji had told him more than once that he had to be loyal to his Lord and that if necessary, he would even sacrifice his life for his Lord.

As a result, the demon had a loyal dog.

In the next few days, the castellan of Jiu du city and the others began to prepare for the arrival of the castellan of Jiuhua city. First, they set up spies in the places where the castellan of Jiuhua city would definitely pass by. This way, as long as the castellan of Jiuhua city appeared, they would be the first to know.

However, after waiting for half a month, they still didn't see the mayor of Jiuhua city, which confused the mayor of the nine-capital city and others.

"I wonder if the Jiuhua city Lord will come?" In the living room of the city Lord Manor, the nine Mountain City Lord, who was chatting with a few other city Lords, suddenly asked.

"I don't think so? Unless he really doesn't care about his sister and nephew's life!" Another city Lord replied.

"But it's been so many days. If he wanted to come, he should have arrived long ago, right? Al! It would have been better if he had come earlier, otherwise I would always be worried!" The nine Mountain City Lord said gloomily.

"I'm the same!" A city Lord immediately agreed.

"Everyone, calm down! I believe that the mayor of Jiuhua city will come. After all, this is related to the honor of our family. As the mayor of one of the top ten main cities, his dignity can't be blasphemed by anyone. He has to come for the sake of the family. However, once he comes, our good days will come to an end. So, I suggest you enjoy the days when he's not here!" The nine capital city Lord said earnestly.

"Al! That's right! Once the Jiuhua city Lord arrives, we'll be in trouble. " After listening to the nine capital city Lord's words, the other city Lords also sighed. However, it was just as the nine capital city Lord had said. Right now, they really had to be calm, otherwise, the pressure in their hearts would be too great.

With this thought in mind, the mayor of nine capital city and the others didn't wait for the mayor of Jiuhua city to come and question them. Instead, they did what they had to do!

On a certain day.

The nine capital city Lords were having a banquet with a few other city Lords. Suddenly, the few of them who were drinking in high spirits suddenly felt their breathing stop. Their bodies suddenly became heavy. Then, they felt a huge pressure covering the sky above the city Lord's mansion.

The Lord of Jiuhua city?

The city Lords were shocked. They had indeed come! However, they did not receive any news at all.

Chapter 2506 I Want To See The Lord \(2\)

Just as this thought crossed their minds, a few black-robed Scouts were thrown in front of them. When the city Lords saw them, they were extremely shocked.

He had been discovered! No wonder!

Although the appearance of the Lord of Jiuhua city was impressive, the other castellans didn't want to look too useless. They had to force their blood to rush out and sit up straight with difficulty. However, the difference in strength and their pale faces revealed their true strength.

"Hahaha! These little guys have a backbone, I like it!" A man's carefree laughter entered the ears of the nine capital city Lords and the others. Then, they felt the pressure on their bodies lighten by a lot. They were slightly relieved, but they still did not dare to let their guard down.

As soon as he finished speaking, an extremely handsome man with a devilish charm appeared in front of the nine capital city Lord and the others.

The nine capital city Lords and the others couldn't help but raise their heads, and their expressions changed drastically!

Oh my God! Why was this ancestor here?

The man in front of him wasn't the Lord of Jiuhua city, but he was an even more notorious demon. Of course, calling him a devil didn't mean that his hands were covered in blood, but rather his unique way of doing things.

This man was Ming ze, one of the city Lords of nine pass city, one of the top ten main cities. Ming ze was too egoistic and did things his own way.

He could do anything to the people he liked, but as long as there was a chance, he would become enemies with the people he didn't like, regardless of when and where, or even the overall situation. In short, his happiness was the most important.

More importantly, it was said that he didn't get along with the castellan of Jiuhua city. However, these secrets were not for the castellan of a small city to know, so they couldn't be sure whether Ming ze's visit was a good thing or a bad thing for them!

Ming ze looked at the expressions of the people in front of him and laughed. "You know me, huh?"

"The voice and smile of the Lord of dark swamp City have always been in our hearts." Nine Mountain City Lord said in a slightly nauseating manner.

"You guys think I'm dead?" Hearing this, Ming ze was not happy.

"No, I didn't! No! I mean, we don't know anyone else, but it's impossible that we don't know the dark swamp City Lord!" The city Lord of nine Mountain City saw that Ming ze was a little unhappy and immediately explained. His forehead was covered in cold sweat from fear. Wu ... This Lord was not easy to serve!

"Ming ze, when are you going to stop causing trouble?" Suddenly, an angry voice interrupted, and then a black figure appeared in front of the mayor of Jiuhua city and the others. It was Ming Jian, the mayor of Jiuhua city.

"Am I causing trouble? Little sword!" As if he had been wronged, Ming ze looked at the Jiuhua city Lord with resentment and said sadly.

"Get lost, don't look at me with that disgusting expression, you ladyboy!" Nether sword was so disgusted by Ming ze's gaze that he had goosebumps. He shook his body exaggeratedly and kept a safe distance from Ming ze.

However, Ming ze deliberately moved closer to him and even sniffed his head. Then he said seriously, "You smell like a slut. Which woman's bed did you climb into?"

"None of your business!" Nether sword's face turned red with anger and he couldn't help but roar.

Unfortunately, Ming ze didn't care at all. Instead, he warned him earnestly, "Little sword! I advise you to stay away from women! Be careful that you don't get infected with some dirty disease one day, and you'll be the one suffering. You should know that there are no alchemists in the nine nether nether prison. If you are really infected with some disease, you can only wait for death!"

"You, you get lost!" Nether sword was so angry that he almost vomited blood. This damn guy, it's hard not to go against him for a day, right? The key was that he couldn't beat this guy, so every time he was angered by the other party, he could only secretly sulk. He was really afraid that one day, he would be angered to death by the detestable netherworld swamp.

"If I leave just because I told me to, I'd lose face. More importantly, I can't bear to leave you! AI! You also know that my life is quite boring. Other than chatting with you often, I don't have any other fun, so you can't be so cruel as to take away my greatest fun!" Ming ze didn't care about nether sword's anger at all. His words made nether sword so angry that he vomited blood again.

'Damn it!' So this guy was using her to relieve his boredom! Although he had long guessed that this was a possibility, hearing Ming ze admit it personally made him feel quite uncomfortable.

If he could, he really wanted to cut the smiling man in front of him into eight pieces. Unfortunately, this could only become his greatest wish! Thinking of this, the nether sword became worried.

Looking at the interaction between the two powerful figures in front of them, the nine capital city Lord and the others couldn't help but widen their eyes in surprise. This, this strange scene was really rare for them!

The mayor of the nine capital city knew the mayor of Jiuhua city better than the other castellans because of his close relationship with the latter. However, he swore that he had never seen the mayor of Jiuhua city so angry and helpless.

The mayor of Jiuhua city also believed that the mayor of Jiuhua city was at his most sullen state.

This scene was truly too rare.

The nine capital city Lord and the others looked on with great interest, dumbfounded. Seeing that he was being watched, the mayor of Jiuhua city was furious. He couldn't help but vent his anger on the mayor of the nine-capital city and the others.

"Dammit, tell me clearly, what's going on with my sister and nephew? What happened to them?"
Nether sword bellowed in rage, glaring at the city Lords with his fiery eyes.

"What else could it be? Didn't the nine capital city Lord's letter say it clearly? Your younger sister plotted against her husband and your nephew tried to plot against her father, so they were taken care of!"
Before the nine capital city Lord and the others could answer, Ming ze interrupted them with a calm expression.

When the city Lords heard this, they nodded their heads. Nine Mountain City Lord even added, ""They're going to kill us too! After all, we were appointed by jiuyou city. If we are harmed, the mayor of Jiuhua city will have to explain it to jiuyou city. Therefore, the former mayor's wife and her son not only want to harm us, but they also want to frame you, mayor of Jiuhua city!"

After hearing this, Ming ze gave the nine Mountain City Lord a look of admiration. However, Ming Jian roared with anger, ""In that case, I have to thank you all for thinking so much about me?"

"You don't have to thank me. As long as the Jiuhua city Lord doesn't blame us, we should help each other." The nine Mountain City Lord said, pushing his luck.

"Well said," Ming ze said in agreement.

The nether sword was even more furious. He thought, good my ass! It turns out that the one who was taught a lesson was not your sister.

At the thought of this, nether sword became furious again and roared, ""No matter what, you shouldn't have let a few gods take care of our people from nine nether nether prison. This is clearly a provocation from the divine realm to nine nether nether nether prison! No, I must report this to jiuyou city. We, the people of jiuyou nether prison, can not be bullied by the people of the divine world! Bullying our people in our territory, isn't this a slap to the face of the nine nether nether prison?"

Chapter 2507 I Want To See The Lord \(3\)

Nether sword's face was filled with righteous indignation. He even elevated the matter of his sister being punished to the level of conflict between the two worlds. Hearing this, Ming ze rolled his eyes at him. The castellan of nine capital city and the others also looked at the castellan of Jiuhua city with sympathy.

Yes! They felt sorry for the Jiuhua city Lord. Although he seemed happy now, they wondered if he would still be so excited when he found out that it was their master and the others. They were looking forward to it.

"Why aren't you guys saying anything?" Seeing that no one present had any reaction after he had finished speaking, let alone someone echoing his words, nether sword couldn't help but ask.

"We don't know what to say. People like us can't get involved in this. Besides, we didn't ask those deities to attack the Lord of Jiuhua city. Madam and Cheng 'er wanted to harm them, so they attacked them." The nine capital city Lord explained helplessly.

He had written all these things in the letter to the Jiuhua city Lord, but the Jiuhua city Lord was playing dumb! The nine capital city Lord was helpless.

"They took action and even captured my sister and her son. Are you not going to stop them? We are all from the nine nether nether prison, what reason do we have to let a few deities interfere in our business?" After hearing the words of the nine capital city Lord, nether sword roared with even more anger.

"Can we stop them? At that time, we were all poisoned and didn't have the ability to fight against those deities. " Another city Lord couldn't help but ask.

"Then let them take my sister and Cheng 'er? Hmph! Nine capital city Lord, you're too useless, you can't even protect your own wife and child!" Nether sword once again directed his anger at the nine capital city Lord. However, the nine capital city Lord was too lazy to pay attention to him and simply lowered his head in silence.

Seeing the nine capital city Lord like this, nether sword was furious. He suddenly shouted, ""Men! Arrest them!"

A group of fierce-looking guards rushed in. The strength of these guards was naturally not comparable to the guards of the nine capital city Lord Mansion. They were all brought here by nether sword.

"I say, little Jianjian, what's the use of venting your anger on them? It's obvious that your sister and nephew have offended someone. Even if you arrest them, the other party won't return your sister and her son!" Seeing this, Ming ze tried to stop him.

"Hmph! They're too useless, letting a few gods show off in our netherworld prison's territory. If we don't punish them for their dereliction of duty, won't they be the disgrace of our netherworld prison?" Nether sword once again put a big hat on the heads of the nine capital city Lords. However, in response to his words, the nine capital city Lords were quite calm, because this was already within their expectations.

In fact, the Lord of Jiuhua city's reaction was a lot less intense than what the mayor of du city and the others had expected. They thought that the Lord of Jiuhua city would attack them without saying anything, but it seemed that he was still wary of someone. If they guessed correctly, it was the Lord of dark swamp City who had come to join in the fun.

It seemed that they were quite lucky. With the city Lord of dark swamp City here, they should be able to keep their lives. At least, they wouldn't be killed by the Furious Jiuhua city Lord. As long as their master and the others returned, their mission would be considered complete.

With this thought, they felt much more relaxed.

Ming ze, who had been secretly observing them, saw that the nine capital city Lord and the others were obviously relieved. He couldn't help but secretly Mutter in his heart.

What was going on with these people? Other than the initial shock and panic when they first learned of their arrival, they had actually calmed down very quickly. This was too abnormal. Could it be that they had some kind of backing?

With this thought in mind, netherworld did not stop netherworld sword from capturing and imprisoning them.

Seeing that Ming ze didn't go against him, nether sword couldn't help but let out a long sigh. At this moment, he heard Ming ze ask with a puzzled face, "I don't see you care much about this sister of yours usually. Why are you so angry about her today?"

"Why do you care?" Nether sword gritted his teeth and said.

"I'm not caring. I'm just concerned about you and satisfying my thirst for knowledge. " Ming ze laughed evilly.

"Take your thirst for knowledge and get out of my sight!" Nether sword couldn't take it anymore.

"Alright! I'll get lost, but don't you think of getting me back! Because I'm far away!" After saying that, Ming ze left while laughing wildly.

Of course, before he left, he did not forget to visit the prison where the nine capital city Lord and the others were locked up.

Suddenly seeing the troublesome Ming ze in the cell, the nine capital city Lord and the others were nervous. This man had never played by the rules, so he had to be on guard! More importantly, they didn't know why Ming ze was here.

Looking at the city Masters in the prison cell who looked as if they were facing a great enemy, Ming ze laughed very happily.

There was indeed something fishy!

"Tell me! What identity do those gods have that you fear? Also, weren't you all poisoned? Looking at you now, you're alive and kicking, so don't you think you should give me an explanation?" Ming ze smiled very affably. However, the nine capital city Lords felt a trace of coldness from the other party's words. This person was clearly a Smiling Tiger who ate people without spitting out their bones!

The nine capital city Lords and the others looked at each other and tacitly shut their mouths.

Seeing them like this, Ming ze wasn't angry. Instead, he was even more certain of his guess.

"Those gods ... Were they brought back by master?" After a moment of silence, just when the nine capital city Lord and the others thought that Ming ze was going to give up on the matter, Ming ze suddenly asked.

These words were like thunder to the nine capital city Masters!

Oh my God! How did this person know? In an instant, the city Lord of nine capital city and the others stared at Ming ze as if they had seen a ghost. Ming ze saw their expressions and knew what was going on. However, he did not continue to ask and turned to leave the cell.

After Ming ze left, the nine capital city Lord and the others were still in a daze. When they finally regained their senses, they looked at each other and said in unison, "I didn't say anything!"

But then, they immediately became worried again. Although they didn't say anything, their expressions betrayed them. What was the difference between this and trying to hide something?

However, it didn't seem to be the time for them to be sad. The nine-capital city Lord quickly remembered the important matter and sent a message to rouji.

When rouji received the message from the nine capital city Lord, Leng ruoxue and the others were having fun in the nearby cities.

After hearing rouji's report, Leng ruoxue and the others didn't rush back. Instead, they continued to play with composure.

But they weren't in a hurry. Someone was so anxious that he was about to get angry.

Nether sword had been waiting in the city Lord's mansion for a long time, but he still didn't see the deity who had captured his sister and nephew. He was so frustrated that he was like a bomb that would explode at any moment.

Chapter 2508 Are You Willing To Let Me Die?\(1\)

He couldn't get anything out of the city Lord of nine capital and the others, and they all said they didn't know anything. What was more infuriating was that Ming ze, who lived in the inn, came to the prison every day, saying that he had a heart-to-heart talk with the city Lord of nine capital and the others. Every time he wanted to use torture to interrogate those city Lords, he would be obstructed by Ming ze in all ways.

Ming Jian hated Ming ze to death, but the nine capital city Lord and the others were very grateful to him. After all, Ming ze was also protecting them, so in just a few days, they had formed a friendship with Ming ze like that of comrades.

"Didn't you get lost? Why do you still come back every day?" After enduring for several days, nether sword finally couldn't take it anymore. One day, he blocked Ming ze in the cell and questioned him angrily.

"I didn't come back to see you. Besides, I didn't take the initiative to appear in front of you. You were the one who took the initiative to approach me." When Ming ze said this, he really felt as wronged as he could be.

"You ..." Nether sword was infuriated by his words, but he couldn't do anything to Ming ze. He could only glare at him.

"I say, little Jianjian! You're one of the ten great main cities' main cities, after all. You can't just rely on your high position and power to bully these small cities' city Lords! This isn't right!" Seeing that nether sword was at a loss for words, Ming ze continued.

"I can't be bothered with you." Nether sword said angrily. After he finished speaking, he turned around and left.

Seeing that the nether sword was so easily dismissed by him, Ming ze felt no sense of accomplishment. This guy was getting more and more angry!

After Ming ze left in anger, he turned to look at the nine capital city Lord and the others and asked, "When are they coming back?"

"I don't know," The nine capital city Lord didn't even need to think to know who he was asking about.

Not knowing the exact time, Ming ze also turned around and left.

A few days later.

Leng ruoxue and the rest had a great time and finally returned to the nine capital city. The news of their return was sent to the nine capital city Lord's mansion and Ming ze's Inn at the first moment.

Leng ruoxue and the rest had just returned to the inn and entered their rooms when they heard a knock on the door.

Rouji went to open the door. When she saw the person standing outside, she was dumbfounded.

Why was this guy here? The nine capital city Lord had not told him that this person had also come to the nine capital city. However, wherever this person went, it would always be very lively.

"I want to see the Lord." Seeing rouji's dazed expression, Ming ze impatiently said.

"Come in!" Rou Ji was hesitating to go in and report when she heard the voice of a demon coming from the room.

Rou Ji made way for Ming ze to walk in.

As soon as he entered the room, Ming ze saw the demon and knelt in front of him with joy. He said excitedly, "My Lord, you're finally back!"

When Ming ze said this, his eyes were filled with tears and even his voice was a little choked. However, the demon frowned when he saw him. He couldn't figure out why this guy would appear here.

Looking at the two's expressions, Leng ruoxue laughed to herself. These two fellows, one was so excited to see his own superior that he was almost incoherent, but the other clearly did not like the other. What was going on? The fire of gossip in Leng ruoxue's heart was suddenly burning. She was rather curious.

At this moment, the demon also lazily said, "What are you doing here?"

"Come and see my Lord!" Ming ze said matter-of-factly.

"Me? You know I'm in the nine capital city?" The demon narrowed his eyes.

"I don't know, I just came here to try my luck." Ming ze was very honest.

"Then you're done trying your luck. You can get lost now!" The demon said in an unpleasant tone.

"My Lord, how can you treat me like this? Wu ... I'm not leaving! I won't leave even if I die!" After listening to the evildoer's words, Ming ze seemed to have changed into a different person. He changed his image of a devilish handsome man and instantly turned into an invincible baby. He hugged the evildoer's thigh tightly and cried.

Everyone in the room was dumbfounded by this scene.

What ... What was going on?

Everyone was at a loss.

This man looked normal before, but in the blink of an eye, he had overturned the noble and handsome temperament they had in their hearts. Everyone was disappointed.

However, Leng ruoxue found this scene extremely funny. The demon's expression, on the other hand, was extremely ugly.

The demon wanted to shake off the hands that were holding his legs, but Ming ze was too tight. He couldn't break free. His face darkened even more.

"Let go!" The demon gritted his teeth. His dark eyes were burning with flames of anger, as if he wanted to burn the other party into ashes.

It was really too embarrassing, wasn't it?

Was it too late to say that he didn't know this guy? The demon thought worriedly.

Unfortunately, he had underestimated Ming ze's courage and shamelessness. Ming ze hugged the evildoer's leg and said shamelessly, "I won't! I won't let go even if I die!"

After saying this, Ming ze's eyes were filled with tears, and his little face looked as if he had been wronged.

Everyone covered their faces. They really couldn't take it.

Rouji, who knew Ming ze, stayed far away to avoid being classified as the same as the city Lord.

I've long heard that the city Lord of dark swamp City doesn't play by the rules and likes to do as he pleases. Today, he had finally witnessed it and widened his horizons!

Rouji was sweating like a waterfall. Sometimes, she even felt that wishes were beautiful, but reality was absolutely cruel. Although the legendary dark pool City Master was not very reliable, he was still pretty. He was also the number one figure that all the women in the nine nether prison secretly fantasized about! If those women knew this side of the dark pool City Master, what would the women of nine nether nether prison think? Thinking of this, she was suddenly filled with anticipation. However, she had heard of how terrifying the city Lord of dark glade city was, so she only dared to think about it in her heart and did not have the courage to say it out loud.

"Then you can go to hell!" After an unknown amount of time, he finally couldn't bear it anymore and said,

When Ming ze heard this, tears immediately welled up in his eyes. He then choked and said, "This subordinate does not dare to disobey master's orders, Wu ... But master! Can you bear to see me die?"

"..." Hearing such shameless words, Uncle Long and the others couldn't take it anymore. Leng Ruoxue also sincerely felt that among the people she knew, those who liked to act coquettishly, cutely, and pitifully were simply too weak when compared to this person in front of her.

This guy was the ancestor of playing the fool!

"I'm very willing to do so!" The demon gritted his teeth and the fire in his black eyes burned even more fiercely. If it was not for Ming Ze's thick skin, anyone else would have been roasted.

"Master, you're lying! It's wrong to lie, how could you bear to see me die, I'm so cute!" Ming Ze said in disbelief.

Chapter 2509 Are You Willing To Let Me Die?\(2\)

Uncle Long and the others looked like they were about to vomit. This guy was really strong! Their respect for him was like the waves of the river, endless.

The demon gritted his teeth and glared at Ming Ze for a long time, feeling helpless.

Compared to this guy's shamelessness, his training was still not enough! Evildoer admitted that he had lost and turned to Leng Ruoxue for help.

Leng Ruoxue could not help but laugh when she saw the demon's pitiful expression. He didn't think that there would be someone he couldn't handle! Hehe! Could this be considered as everything having its weakness? However, Leng Ruoxue couldn't just stand by and watch the demon be at his wit's end. So, after the demon cried for help, she immediately walked over and sized up Ming Ze.

For some reason, Ming Ze, who had a calm expression on his face, felt goosebumps all over his body from Leng Ruoxue's probing gaze. His intuition told him that this woman was very dangerous. But in order not to lose in terms of momentum, he didn't show any nervousness on his face.

After sizing him up for a while, Leng Ruoxue smiled and looked at Ming Ze's hand, "How should I address you?"

"Ming Ze, the city Lord of Nine Pass City." Ming Ze took the initiative to introduce himself while secretly guessing Leng Ruoxue's identity. Could this be the legendary future Nether Empress?

Mu Li had only told a few of his Lord's trusted subordinates that his Lord had found him a wife, and Ming Ze was one of them who knew the truth. Hence, he had heard about Leng Ruoxue a long time ago. He had also heard some things about the Netherworld Empress from the city Lord of Muli City. However, no one had seen the Netherworld Empress's true appearance except for the city Lord of Muli City.

In the entire room, other than Rou Ji, there was only this devastatingly beautiful woman in front of him. It was also because of this that Ming Ze easily associated Leng Ruoxue and the Netherworld Empress with them. However, being a cautious person, he didn't directly call out to them. Otherwise, if he made a mistake, he would be the one who would be embarrassed!

"Dark Swamp City Lord, the man you're hugging is my man." After knowing the other party's name, Leng Ruoxue nodded her head and said with a serious expression.

"Uh! He's my Lord. " Ming ze was stunned for a moment and quickly reacted. He was sweating and couldn't help but wonder what this person meant. However, when he heard Leng ruoxue say that his master was her man, Ming ze finally confirmed Leng ruoxue's identity as the netherworld Empress. Instantly, his gaze towards Leng ruoxue turned fiery.

She was the future netherworld Empress that he had long heard of! I finally saw one alive today! One must know that they had been looking forward to seeing the future netherworld Empress for a long time. It was a pity that they never had the chance to see her. If it wasn't for the fact that the timing wasn't right, Ming ze really wanted to suggest taking a photo with Leng ruoxue and signing an autograph as a memento.

"Your Lord's first profession is my man, so quickly let go. No one is allowed to touch my man!" Leng ruoxue suddenly roared in a menacing manner.

"I'm not just anyone!" Ming ze was not the least bit afraid of Leng ruoxue's anger. Instead, he spoke with confidence.

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue could not help but choke. This fellow was really ... Indescribable.

At this moment, the kind uncle long helped Leng ruoxue out of her predicament,""You're not just anyone, but you're also an outsider! Young man, the consequences of snatching my Xue 'er's man are very miserable, you have to treasure your life!"

Uncle Long's words were sincere and earnest, but Leng ruoxue and Ming ze broke out in cold sweat. Leng ruoxue couldn't help but sigh. Today, she realized that uncle Long's imagination was very strong!

"I treasure my life, and I have no intention of snatching a man from the netherworld Queen. Don't worry! I like women, I'm not interested in men. " Ming ze said seriously.

Following that, he looked at Leng ruoxue, then at his master. He steeled his heart and said,""I can't bear to leave my Lord, so I'm willing to try any method that can allow me to stay by my Lord's side. If you don't let me hug his Lord's thigh, how about hugging yours?"

"You're looking to die?" Hearing this, the evildoer flew into a rage. Uncle long and the others also looked at Ming ze sympathetically, as if he was looking for death.

Unexpectedly, Ming ze still had a fearless expression and said,""We'll see! The netherworld Empress definitely won't let me hug her thigh, so the only person I can hug is his Lord. "

Fine, he was still in the right! Leng ruoxue was speechless and helpless.

Towards Ming ze, she also felt a trace of power not following her heart.

Leng ruoxue gave the evildoer a look that said 'you're on your own' and did not want to bother with this pair of loving master and subordinate.

"I'll go rest first. " Out of sight, out of mind. Leng ruoxue decided to leave first.

"Xue 'er ..." The demon called out pitifully as he watched Xue' er's back view enter the room. However, Leng ruoxue didn't even turn her head.

Seeing that Xue 'er had left, uncle long and the others also left tactfully. The master of The Dark World's joke wasn't that good to watch!

After everyone had left, the evildoer cast a barrier between him and Ming ze. Then, he shouted with a dark face, "What the hell are you doing?"

Although Ming ze's personality was a little strange, it was rare to see him like this today. Or it could be said that Ming ze almost did not dare to act like this in front of him. Therefore, Ming ze's behavior today was definitely abnormal.

"The city Lord of muli city told me to do so! He told me to report to the Lord when no one was around. " Ming ze, who was afraid of being beaten up, betrayed mu li without even blinking.

"Was he the one who asked you to act as the bottom?" The demon gritted his teeth and secretly hated him.

"The city Lord of muli city asked me to use some extreme methods. There were so many people in the room just now, so I had no choice but to sacrifice my own appearance." Ming ze explained with an expression of "I don't want to either."

"Damn it, did you just sacrifice your body?" The demon glared at Ming ze and said viciously. He had scared everyone, making them think that there was an abnormal city Lord in the ninth nether prison.

"Hehe! Unusual times call for unusual measures. You're a magnanimous person, my Lord, so you won't blame me, right?" Ming ze said with a cheeky smile.

"Speak! Why did mu li send you here? Why didn't he come himself?" The demon was too lazy to argue with this guy in front of him and went straight to the point.

"The city Lord of muli city was going to come, but he received news on his way here, so he changed his route and went to the Dead Sea. Before he left, he sent me a message and asked me to come here and see if the person who brought the deities to nine nether nether prison was Your Highness. By the way, I came here with the Jiuhua city Lord. " Ming ze reported.

"Are there any movements on the other side of the death sea?" The demon asked directly when he heard that mu li had gone to the Dead Sea.

"Not yet," Ming ze said honestly.

"En, don't let Xue 'er know about the matters at the death sea." The demon nodded and warned.

"Yes. "My Lord, the castellan of Jiuhua city ..." Ming ze was about to talk about the castellan of Jiuhua city when he heard a loud bang behind him. He stood up immediately and saw the castellan of Jiuhua city breaking in through the array formation with an aggressive look.

Chapter 2510 Are You Willing To Let Me Die?\(3\)

This was definitely the rhythm of seeking death!

The Jiuhua city Lord entered the room and immediately yelled, "Where are they? All of you, get out here!"

Hearing the roar, Leng ruoxue and the rest walked out of the room.

"Who is this? Such a powerful aura?" Seeing this, uncle long couldn't help but say, his resolute face full of ridicule.

"Are you the gods who came to the nine nether nether prison?" Nether sword asked loudly when he saw uncle long and the others.

"That's right! Who are you?" Uncle long asked calmly.

"I'm the city Lord of Jiuhoa city!" Nether sword shouted as if he was afraid that no one could hear him.

"What brings you here, Lord of Jiuhoa city?" Leng ruoxue asked calmly before finding a chair to sit down. Her voice immediately attracted nether sword's attention.

The moment he saw Leng ruoxue, nether sword was stunned.

Was this a woman from the divine realm? She was indeed a rare beauty!

"Hmph! I heard you captured my sister and nephew?" Although the beauty in front of him had made him fall in love with her, nether sword was still a very rational person. He knew what was important, so he naturally had to deal with his sister and nephew first.

"Yes, they are indeed in our hands." Leng ruoxue nodded and replied honestly.

"I want you to release them now." Hearing this, nether sword immediately made a request.

"On what basis? Who Do You Think You Are? If I let her go just because you want me to, I'll lose face. " Leng ruoxue said with a smile that was not a smile. She was truly suspicious that this B * tch in front of her was feeling too good about herself and thought too highly of herself.

"I'm the Lord of Jiuhoa city!" Nether sword shouted at the top of his voice. To be looked down upon by a beauty was absolutely a great humiliation that he could not bear.

"So what? I'm not under your jurisdiction. " Leng ruoxue still looked as if she did not care.

"Do you know where we are? If I tell the outside world that you gods have captured our people, do you think you can leave the nine nether nether prison alive?" Nether sword threatened with wide eyes.

"This ... I think you can try." Leng ruoxue suddenly laughed. Instantly, it was like a Hundred Flowers had bloomed, dazzling the eyes of everyone in the room.

The demon who had been inside the array formation looked gloomy when he saw Xue 'er's beautiful smile. However, he didn't come out of the array formation. He wanted to see what the famous Lord of Jiuhoa city would do. Of course, he also blamed the Jiuhoa city Lord for making Xue 'er smile.

Seeing this, Ming ze wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and felt sorry for the Jiuhoa city Lord.

This person! If he wanted to die, he would choke to death even if he drank water! Now, he deeply felt that the Lord of Jiuhoa city was such a person! Especially when he accidentally caught a glimpse of his master's sinister black eyes that were spewing fire, he couldn't help but break out in a cold sweat.

At this moment, he was blocked by his Lord in the barrier. He didn't even have the chance to signal nether sword with his eyes. However, even if he had the chance, he probably wouldn't do it.

Damn it, it was already very loyal of him not to hit nether sword when he was down, and he still wanted to help him? In your dreams!

The two people inside the barrier each had their own thoughts on their minds, while the pitiful fellow outside the barrier who did not know the truth was enraged by Leng ruoxue's words. Nether sword's face darkened as he pointed at Leng ruoxue and shouted fiercely, "Woman, I'll let you know the consequences of pissing me off."

"You want to fight? One-on-one or group fight?" Hearing this, Leng ruoxue raised her brows and asked calmly.

"Hmph! Fighting with a woman, and you even need to gang up on her, isn't that a complete disgrace to us men!" Nether sword said with a dark expression.

"You're wrong. You should be saying that fighting with a woman is a disgrace to all men." Leng ruoxue corrected him in a serious manner.

"What, are you afraid? As long as you beg for mercy, I can let you go." Hearing Leng ruoxue's words, nether sword's anger subsided. Instead, his tone carried a hint of teasing.

"Did I say I was scared?" Leng ruoxue retorted.

"If you're not afraid, then why would you say that?" Nether sword asked angrily.

"I'm just correcting you. Since you don't want to hear it, I'll take it back. A group fight or a one-on-one fight, you choose." Leng ruoxue was very generous.

"Like I said, is there a need to gang up on a woman?" Nether sword roared.

"Did I say that you would gang up on us?" Leng ruoxue said as she came to a sudden realization.

Hearing this, nether sword was stunned. Did this mean that the other party wanted to gang up on him? He looked at the strength of the other party. Other than the majority of them being divine sovereigns, there were a few whose strength he could not tell. As such, he was not confident.

Although he was a Ming Zun, and the one who would have the advantage in a fight with a God in the nine nether nether nether prison was a Ming cultivator, he could not stand being beaten by a group of people! After some thought, nether sword could only confirm, "I choose a one-on-one fight."

"Alright then! I'll let uncle long fight you." Leng ruoxue turned her body slightly and released uncle long, who had been rubbing his hands together and had a fierce look in his eyes.

Nether sword was dumbfounded when he realized that the person he was fighting was not the woman in front of him. Had he been tricked? F * ck! He had thought that the person who wanted to fight him one-on-one was this woman. In a moment of carelessness, nether sword asked the question in his heart, "Aren't you the one fighting me one-on-one?"

"Castellan of Jiuhua city, I'm only a divine Emperor. Are you sure you want to fight me one-on-one? Wouldn't it be bad for your reputation if word got out? You're the Lord of a city, yet you're challenging someone with the power of the Emperor of the dead to a one-on-one fight. You're really something!" Leng ruoxue laughed evilly.

"You ..." Nether sword was speechless. It would not be nice if this matter was spread. No matter how thick-skinned he was, he would drown in the saliva of others! In particular, he still had a few arch-enemies, one of whom was in the nine capital city. He was afraid that he could not hide this matter even if he wanted to. As such, he had to be even more careful.

"Then let uncle long do it!" Nether sword agreed after hesitating for a while.

Seeing that nether sword was a rather straightforward person, Leng ruoxue's impression of him changed slightly. It seemed like this person was not without his merits.

Seeing that his opponent had agreed, uncle long was extremely excited. He had long wanted to compete with Ming Zun of the nine nether nether nether nether prison, but he had never had the chance. Dongfang Yue and the others, who saw that uncle long had the chance to fight, were even more envious and jealous of him.

However, Dongfang Yue and the others were staring at nether sword with burning eyes. They could only hope that this guy could take a beating so that they would have a chance to attack. Otherwise, they would regret it for the rest of their lives.

As for nether sword, who didn't understand why the other party's gaze suddenly became so passionate, he had no idea that he was about to experience the most painful experience of his life. At this moment, he still had an excited expression. Therefore, it had to be said that ignorant people were the happiest.

She thought of herself as a person with a rather virtuous heart. Naturally, Leng ruoxue was unwilling to see their battle destroy the public property of this Inn. After all, they still had to stay here for a few days!
