

Crazy Wife 2531

Chapter 2531 The God Of Slaughter Descends \(3\)

"It's because I didn't use enough flames," Feng Chuan couldn't help but explain. He didn't want Leng ruoxue to think that his Natal flames were useless. In reality, he definitely didn't want this fellow to die too quickly!

Leng ruoxue smiled, then threw out a small flame on the snakeboy's body. In an instant, the snakeboy's cries grew louder. There seemed to be a hint of moaning in his pain, which made Feng Chuan and Ming GE break out in cold sweat. But soon, the snakeboy could no longer scream.

"Let's go!" Leng ruoxue dusted her hands and pulled the two dumbfounded men away. The two men did not expect Leng ruoxue to stop so quickly and were rather surprised. However, they still obediently followed Leng ruoxue out of the room.

As soon as they walked out, the room behind them instantly burst into flames, making the two even more dumbfounded!

Then, there was a loud crash and the house collapsed in front of them!

"Argh! Boss is in trouble!" It was unknown who shouted, but Leng ruoxue and the rest heard the sound of frantic footsteps. Not long after, they were surrounded by people again!

This time, Leng ruoxue didn't waste any time. She shouted at Feng Chuan, ""Let's close the door and beat the dogs!"

"Alright!" Feng Chuan gave Leng ruoxue an understanding look, then ran to the door on his own accord, guarding it like a door God.

The subordinates of the local tyrant were not too afraid at first. After all, they had so many people, while the other party only had three people. However, they soon felt the fear of the end of the world. The god-like Leng ruoxue and Ming GE were killing in all directions! In an instant, he had taken care of nearly a third of the opponents present. The speed was so fast that they did not even see what had happened. The companions beside him had already turned into ashes!

This time, many people were afraid!

"Argh! The, the killing God is here! Run for your lives!" Someone shouted in panic. Then, those who were lucky enough to survive suddenly realized that it was more important to escape! Unfortunately, they were too optimistic. When they rushed to the door, they were all stopped by Feng Chuan. This time, Feng Chuan didn't show any mercy. He directly released a large amount of Southern spirit li fire. Soon, most of them were on fire.

Cries of pain and howls were endless. There were wolves in front and tigers behind. The opponents who could not avoid them fled in all directions in the courtyard. Unfortunately, no matter where they ran, there was only one end-death!

Leng ruoxue and Ming GE showed no mercy, while Feng Chuan was in charge of setting the fire. In a matter of seconds, all of their opponents were annihilated!

After eliminating their opponents, Leng ruoxue's specialty was naturally to destroy the corpses and get rid of all traces. After burning down all the houses, the three of them swaggered away as if nothing had happened.

Fortunately, they were brought to the outskirts of the city, and the surroundings could be said to be deserted. Therefore, when they returned to the bustling Main Street, the news of the Snakeman's incident had not yet spread.

After venting his anger, Ming GE's mood was obviously much better. He was afraid that Leng ruoxue would feel burdened, so he explained, "" 90% of the people from the Dead Sea are murderous and bloodthirsty wanted criminals. Therefore, there's no need to worry when you kill them. Saving your life is the right way."

"I know, I don't have any concerns." Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

Ugh! Mingge didn't know what to say. He felt that he had been overthinking things. He should have known that such a tough little girl wouldn't have any burden in her heart about what had happened in the past. Boo...He had been overthinking!

From this moment on, he had decided not to treat the fierce and tough Leng ruoxue as a woman! It was because the most brutal women in the nine nether nether prison were nothing compared to her!

After adjusting his depressed mood, Mingge brought Leng ruoxue and the others to find a hotel to stay in for the time being. Then, he went to the streets alone to find out more information.

Why didn't he bring Leng ruoxue and Feng Chuan along? This was because he felt that if he brought the two of them along, trouble would definitely come knocking on his door. Regardless of whether they were attracted by Leng ruoxue's beauty or by the spiritual aura around the two of them, in short, these two were synonymous with trouble! He didn't want to kill all the Dead Sea city's people before he could get any information!

It was a pity that his wish was beautiful, but reality was incomparably cruel.

He walked around the street for less than half a day and returned to the inn dejectedly. However, he suddenly realized that the people in the inn were looking at him strangely. Most importantly, the inn was still intact before he left. How did the inn change so much after he left for a while?

The inn could no longer be considered a complete house. More than half of the lobby had been reduced to ruins, and the remaining parts were also in tatters. Only half of the stairs were left.

Looking at the only half of the staircase, Mingge hesitated for a moment before she walked up with heavy steps.

Al! Something had happened again! However, he knew that it was definitely not the little girl or the Phoenix who had met with an accident. Otherwise, he would not have dared to leave at ease.

However, he couldn't understand. He didn't bring the two of them along, so how could something have happened?

When they entered the room, they saw Leng ruoxue leisurely sitting on the chair, drinking tea and eating snacks. Feng Chuan was like a boneless man, half lying on the chair and eating melon seeds. Both of them looked relaxed, but the one who was not relaxed was the shivering innkeeper and a few waiters who knelt in front of them.

What was this situation? Ming GE blinked, waiting for Leng ruoxue to answer his question.

"These little bugs wanted to drug us and knock us out!" Feng Chuan kindly answered Ming GE's question.

"So, how do you plan to deal with them?" Ming GE asked, nodding.

If someone wanted to die, no one could stop him! Ming GE did not sympathize with them at all! It would be a waste of the resources of the netherworld prison if such a blind person were to live! It was better to die!

"When you come back, you'll have a taste of your own medicine." Feng Chuan still answered.

"Oh!" This meant that he was going to drug them too.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue threw a few Jade bottles to Ming GE and said, "I'll leave this job to you!"

Alright! Ming GE worked as a Coolie without complaint. After distributing the pills in the Jade bottles equally to the shopkeeper and several waiters, he did not have the mood to check the effects of the pills on these people, and directly threw them out of the window.

Seeing his action, Leng ruoxue's eyes lit up. This move was the signature move of the evildoer! Copyright infringement! This is copyright infringement!

At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue could not help but laugh evilly. "Mingge, you're really a ruthless man! I can't believe I gave them so many bottles of pills!"

"Shouldn't I?" Ming GE blinked. She didn't understand!

"Eating one of each is already enough for them. After eating so many, even the Lord of the Dead Sea can't save them! Al! What a pitiful man!" Leng ruoxue said sympathetically.

"..." Mingge was speechless. 'Little girl, you're just adding insult to injury. Do you have to be so happy?' she thought.

Ming GE was worried. Why did he feel that his hair had turned white after being with Leng ruoxue for so long? This girl was really too evil!

However, Ming GE was in a good mood, so she quickly calmed down and said seriously, "I didn't hear any news about my Lord. He was probably sealed off by the death Sea Master!"

"Is this demon here to meet the master of the death sea or someone else?" Leng ruoxue suddenly asked.

"The master of the death sea." Ming GE said honestly. Since things had come to this, there was no point in hiding it from Leng ruoxue. Besides, he was also a little worried about his Lord, because they had lost contact with her for a long time.

"The master of the death sea is a woman?" Leng ruoxue asked through gritted teeth.

"Uh! This ... I don't know how to put it. " Leng ruoxue's question put Ming GE in a difficult position.

"You don't know what to say? That's it?" Leng ruoxue gritted her teeth. She was filled with hatred. After she found that demon, she would kill her way into the death Sea master's lair and kill that woman! Hmph! Daring to seduce her man, if she wasn't courting death, what was she?

Although she knew that the evildoer would not betray her, he had come to see another woman behind her back. This was also unforgivable! In her heart, Leng ruoxue was calculating if she should create some of Leng ruoxue's ten great tortures and see if he would still dare to act on his own in the future!

Hearing Leng ruoxue's words and seeing that she was silent and thinking of some bad idea, Ming GE was worried again. He didn't mean it that way! Sob ... Why did this bad girl twist his words? It was a pity that he really did not know how to explain to Leng ruoxue about the master of the Dead Sea's identity. That fellow's background was rather complicated! The gender was the same!

However, he was not sure what Leng ruoxue was thinking. Otherwise, no matter how hard it was for him to say it, he would have explained it to Leng ruoxue! And because he did not make it clear, Leng ruoxue immediately identified the master of the death sea as a mistress who was trying to seduce the evildoer. In this way, those extremely evil and wicked people who had settled in the death sea would be in deep trouble!

In the next few days, Ming GE went out to gather information as usual, and the inn was much more peaceful because of the tragic experience of the shopkeeper and the waiters. At the very least, many people who were envious of Leng ruoxue and Feng Chuan had temporarily stopped.

It was a pity that Ming Song had not found anything. He had even snuck into the Lord of the Dead Sea's city Lord's residence, but the Lord of the Dead Sea was not there. Ming GE was even more worried about his Lord!

Leng ruoxue was also furious when she found out that the master of the Dead Sea was not in the city Lord's mansion. After some thought, she said to Ming GE in a calm and collected manner, ""I've thought of a way to force out the master of the death sea!"

Chapter 2532 The End Of The Dead Sea \(1\)

These words made Ming GE's eyes widen instantly. That ... Could he say that they only needed to find out news about their Lord and that they didn't need to find a way to force the death Sea Master out?

That old pervert wasn't someone to be trifled with. If he could, even if he had to pay for it, he wouldn't want to fight with the other party. It was too much of a scam! In addition, he was not that old thing's match. This was what made him feel the most worried.

However, Ming GE would rather die than let Leng ruoxue know about this, because it would really hurt a man's self-esteem!

"Young lady Leng, we ... It's best if we don't force the master of the Dead Sea out." After thinking for a while, Ming GE said in a very reserved manner. However, his words, which were about his reputation, caused Leng ruoxue to misunderstand. She thought that he was protecting the evil third party who wanted to snatch the evil woman away. So, almost instantly, Leng ruoxue burst out in anger, ""Why? you want to protect her?"

"What?" Ming GE didn't understand. What was this?

"Mingge, you'd better think it through. Are you going to protect her or stand on my side? swords have no eyes. It's not good to hurt your own people!" Leng ruoxue's words were a little threatening. Even if Ming GE's reaction was slow, he could sense that something was wrong.

"Miss Leng, why would I protect that guy? I'm doing this for your own good!" Mingge didn't even think about it and immediately expressed her feelings.

"Then let's work together to force that mistress out!" Leng ruoxue gritted her teeth.

Poor Ming GE, he didn't understand what the mistress meant, but his conflicted expression, not knowing what to do, provoked Leng ruoxue. Then, she heard Leng ruoxue use a cold, eerie voice to threaten, ""Either you come with me, or you get lost! I don't want someone who will drag us down!"

"Uh!" Why was he angry again? The pitiful Mingge was once again at a loss. He felt that women were really hard to understand. He thought that he had already made his stand clear, so why did Leng ruoxue still treat him like this?

"My loyalty to miss Leng can be seen by the sun and the moon!" After feeling wronged for a moment, Ming GE promised again.

"Then stop talking nonsense. We'll start tomorrow!" Leng ruoxue didn't want to give Ming GE any more chances to betray her, so she cut to the chase.

"Alright then!" Although Ming GE did not know what Leng ruoxue meant by 'take action', he had no choice but to compromise. If this little girl were to fly into a rage again, he would not be able to answer to his master!

However, there was one thing he felt that he should tell Leng ruoxue first. Thinking about it this way, he said with some hesitation, ""Young lady Leng, that ... I am not the master of the Dead Sea's match. So if there is any danger, you must run away quickly and don't worry about me!"

If it was possible, Ming GE really didn't want to say this. But Leng ruoxue was so stubborn. He felt that if he didn't say it, he might be regarded as her man, which was something he couldn't bear. But after saying it, he breathed a sigh of relief.

"What?" After Ming GE finished speaking, it was Leng ruoxue's turn to be conflicted. Had she misunderstood?

"If you're not the master of the death sea's match, why are you here?" Leng ruoxue couldn't help but ask after some thought.

"Coming here and being able to defeat the master of the Dead Sea are two different things. Furthermore, we are here to look for you." Ming GE reminded. Originally, according to his plan, he had no intention of alerting the master of the Dead Sea. However, this little girl in front of him was too violent and impatient. It had only been a few days and she couldn't bear it anymore. He was also quite helpless about this.

"Uh! Are you trying to say that you have no intention of disturbing the master of the death sea?" Leng ruoxue asked with uncertainty.

"It can be considered so! That guy is very difficult to deal with. It's best not to provoke him if you can avoid calling him out!" Said Ming GE with a nod. He thought that Leng ruoxue had finally realized that the local tyrant was not to be trifled with. Just as he was about to express his relief, he heard Leng ruoxue say, "What if I have to provoke her?"

"..." Such a topic gradually drove Mingge mad. Wu...How could he refuse to answer such a question?

The answer was yes! However, if he refused to answer, Leng ruoxue would take it as a silent agreement.

As expected, seeing that Ming GE was at a loss for words, Leng ruoxue continued to nod, "I understand! The scale of our operation can not be small, we must force the master of the death sea out!"

Now, Ming GE didn't need to say anything. Seeing Leng ruoxue clench her fists and get ready for a big fight, Ming GE was quite worried. But what made him even more depressed was that Feng Chuan, who was standing beside him, did not help to stop her. Instead, he was also in high spirits.

This was simply wishing for the world to be in chaos!

After thinking that she had finished her discussion with Ming GE, Leng ruoxue turned around and went back to her room. Feng Chuan looked at Ming GE with sympathy and said, "Brother, let's do our best to level the Dead Sea!"

"The Dead Sea isn't that easy to level. If it was possible, this place wouldn't have been left here until now." Mingge said helplessly. He knew that he could not Stop That Girl!

"Hehe! With this perverted little girl, the Dead Sea is no different from paper. Believe me!" Feng Chuan's confidence in Leng ruoxue was extraordinarily strong. Hearing this, Ming GE really wanted to bang her head against the wall. Now was not the time to fan the flames, okay?

However, before Ming GE could persuade Feng Chuan to come to her side, he patted his butt and went back to sleep.

The next morning. After breakfast, Ming GE and Feng Chuan were dragged out of the inn by Leng ruoxue. Although Ming GE had no idea what Leng ruoxue's so-called plan was, he had a bad feeling that someone was going to be in trouble.

Just as Mingge had expected, not long after they left the inn, the first group of people who were seeking death came to their door. These people were obviously from the same force, and they were naturally attracted to Leng ruoxue's beauty.

This time, Leng ruoxue didn't want to waste her breath on them, and she didn't want to listen to their nonsense either. After giving the two of them a look, Leng ruoxue immediately took action.

The result was obvious. Without much effort, Leng ruoxue and the other two completed their assault on the streets! No, it should be self-defense!

Of course, they also deliberately left a few alive so that they could have the opportunity to go back and report.

Those who were still alive naturally didn't let him down. They howled and ran away!

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue took out her own recliner and lay down calmly. Feng Chuan did the same thing. Other than the recliner, he also took out some food and tea.

Seeing them like this, Ming GE's mouth twitched.

W-what was this? Did they come out for a picnic? As Mingge thought about this, she was also keeping an eye on the people peeking at them from the corner of her eye. When they were fighting just now, these people had been watching from the side. After seeing them kill like fiends, although those people were scared away, they still didn't want to leave completely.

Hmph! How could it be so easy to take advantage of them! Ming GE exuded cold air very naturally. Leng ruoxue felt a little cold, so she lit a Brazier and placed it beside her to keep warm.

Ming GE was speechless. However, he didn't struggle for long before he saw that the few people who had just run away had indeed brought a large number of people to die. Laughing coldly in his heart, Mingge took the lead and rushed forward.

His sudden attack had thrown the enemy's formation into disarray. According to the enemy's plan, they had brought so many people to overwhelm Leng ruoxue's group of three with their imposing manner. Unfortunately, they did not even have the chance to perform as Ming GE had directly destroyed their deployment.

When the formation was in chaos, people naturally panicked. Especially when they saw Ming GE's god-like aura, many people were frightened. The timid ones wanted to escape, but unfortunately, their path was blocked by the seemingly calm Feng Chuan.

Feng Chuan also didn't say anything and directly spat out the Southern spirit li fire. In an instant, countless people turned into a sea of fire.

"Argh! A demon! Hurry, hurry up and run!" The sounds of noise, chaos, and wails rang out one after another, turning the originally spacious Street into a mess.

Leng ruoxue couldn't help but find it funny when she heard herself and the rest being called demons. Weren't the people here all extremely vicious and evil, villains who killed without even blinking? He actually had the nerve to call them demons? Was there a mistake?

With a faint smile, Leng ruoxue stood up as well. When many people saw Leng ruoxue move, they suddenly recalled that there was a hostage here. They had been so scared by Ming GE and Feng Chuan that they had almost forgotten that there was a soft girl here. With this thought, many people immediately pounced towards Leng ruoxue, wanting to take her as a hostage.

It was a pity that when Leng ruoxue got close to them, they realized that they had miscalculated. It was true that the other party was a soft girl, but it depended on who they were up against! To them, Leng ruoxue was comparable to a female T-Rex!

In the blink of an eye, after Leng ruoxue made her move, they did not even have the chance to sense the arrival of the god of death before they were all dead!

After killing another group of people, Leng ruoxue and Feng Chuan returned to their old ways. Seeing this, Ming GE no longer stood there stupidly. However, he didn't have a recliner, so he calmly went to a shop not far away and borrowed a chair.

He said he was borrowing it, but as soon as the other party saw him, they immediately hid in fear, so Mingge had to do it herself.

The three of them sat in the middle of the street and chatted calmly. The people who were watching from afar had already sent the news back to their respective forces. They didn't know what the other party was thinking. In short, in the two hours they had been chatting, they didn't even see a figure who came to provoke them.

"Miss Leng, are we just going to sit here like monkeys and let people watch us?" After sitting there for a long time, Ming GE was a little unsettled.

"You're tired?" Leng ruoxue lifted her eyelids and said with an understanding look.

"A little!" Mingge nodded helplessly. That wasn't the main point, okay?

"Then let's take the initiative to attack!" Leng ruoxue suddenly said. Initially, she thought that the people here would be more courageous. With such a good bait like her, many people would take the bait. Who knew that a few hours had passed and no one dared to have any ideas about them. This really disappointed her!

"Take the initiative to attack?" Hearing this, Ming GE was shocked. Did it mean what it said? There was still some other meaning.

"Yes, take the initiative to attack!" Leng ruoxue gave Feng Chuan a look. Feng Chuan obediently took out a piece of paper, and it was full of words.

Mingge took it and looked at it curiously, and she was suddenly a little confused.

Isn't this the list of all the major powers in the Dead Sea? When did they get it? Why didn't he know about it?

"This was written by the innkeeper for me. He was afraid that I would offend them in the Dead Sea, so he said that there are still good people in the Dead Sea!" Leng ruoxue praised.

A good person? No way! The inn manager wasn't that kind! They probably had no choice but to submit to Leng ruoxue's tyranny. However, when he saw Leng ruoxue take out the list of the major powers in the Dead Sea, he more or less had an idea of what was going on.

After silently mourning for the various forces of the Dead Sea, Ming GE made an expression of risking her life to accompany a gentleman and said, "Where do you want to go first?"

"How about we split up?" Leng ruoxue raised her eyebrows and looked at Ming GE.

"Well ..." Ming GE hesitated. He was not very willing to do so. If Leng ruoxue was not in front of him, he would not be at ease! Even though he had only spent a short time with Leng ruoxue, he was very clear that Leng ruoxue had a Constitution that would definitely cause trouble.

Unfortunately, his opinion did not matter to Leng ruoxue at all.

With a thought, Leng ruoxue moved uncle Dragon, the others, and the abyss Dragons out of the house. After regaining their freedom, uncle Dragon, the others, and the abyss Dragons were moved to tears. They had only spent a few days together, but they had already formed a revolutionary friendship. In the next second, the human and the Dragon hugged each other tightly.

Ugh! To be more precise, uncle Dragon and the others were being carried by the enormous netherwyrms.

Seeing this scene, Ming GE's face darkened, and the corners of his mouth twitched uncontrollably. After being with Leng ruoxue and the others for so long, it seemed that nothing was new to him.

However, their lively actions frightened the scouts who were watching them from a distance. Some spies had already sent the news back to their forces. "Pay attention! Attention! Emergency alert! Asura's team had expanded again! I don't know where, but a lot of people appeared out of nowhere, as well as several dozen well-behaved netherwyrms. They seem to be quite close, and they're currently hugging each other. "

Uncle Dragon, the others, and the netherwyrms were all quite powerful. Although the spy who had sent the message had thought that he had spoken as quietly as possible, they had still heard everything clearly. In an instant, the faces of uncle Dragon, the others, and the netherwyrms all darkened.

Looking at this comical scene, Mingge didn't know whether to laugh or cry. However, he didn't stop the Furious uncle long and the others. Instead, he gloated at them.

Uncle can endure it, but aunt can't! Unwilling to be laughed at, uncle Dragon and the other netherwyrms all pounced toward the scouts in the distance.

In an instant! Dozens of meters away, it was bustling with activity. As for the spies of the various major factions, they were naturally no match for the brutal uncle Dragon and the other netherwyrms. They didn't even have a chance to struggle before they were all annihilated!

Uncle long and the others were still angry after this. Seeing this, Leng ruoxue did not comfort him. Instead, she smiled and told uncle long and the others, "Uncle long, let's split up and head to their respective lairs!"

"Alright! Xue'er knows us best!" Hearing this, uncle Dragon and the others all rubbed their fists and wiped their palms, while the netherwyrms all excitedly cawed and howled.

These violent people! Why didn't he feel that these people had such violent tendencies when he was at the Jiuyou City Lord's mansion? Mingge covered his face. He knew that his reputation would be ruined if he followed these people! Fortunately, this was the Dead Sea. Even if everyone here died, it wouldn't affect the nine nether prisons much. It was actually a good thing! But in this case, it was impossible not to alert the master of the death sea!

However, Ming GE knew that no one could stop these people now! If he didn't follow the other party, he would lose face. Therefore, he must not let the other party look down on him!

Chapter 2534 The End Of The Dead Sea \(3\)

In order to prevent Ming GE from feeling guilty for killing her fellow townsman, Leng ruoxue kindly assigned uncle long and Dongfang Yue to him. She also assigned a few other reverent-god level experts to Feng Chuan's side. She brought along some of the Grand Elder and the others who were slightly weaker and were obviously just there to watch the show. When Ming GE saw this lineup, she was immediately discontented.

"Miss Leng, it's very unreasonable to divide it like this!" Ming GE protested.

Who knew that Leng ruoxue would look at the situation of the three teams and nod her head in understanding, "It's indeed unreasonable!"

With that, she took Feng Zhan out of the bracelet and said, "Senior, you'll be in the same group as them and be in charge of dealing with the aftermath!"

The so-called aftermath was naturally to destroy the corpse and erase all traces. The old Phoenix understood. Mingge understood, and his mouth twitched again.

He didn't mean it that way, okay? He was referring to the fact that his reverent-god level strength was too strong. To put it bluntly, he was worried about Leng ruoxue.

However, looking at Leng ruoxue's serious expression, Ming GE was too embarrassed to say that she was playing dumb. Instead, it was uncle long who patted Ming GE's shoulder comfortingly and said, "Let's listen to Xue 'er's arrangements!"

Seeing uncle Long's face, which clearly showed that he wanted him to accept his fate, Ming GE was speechless. At this moment, the netherwyrms started making a fuss again. "Boss! Boss! What about us? What are we doing?"

"You guys do as you please! You can move freely." Leng ruoxue said after some thought.

"Alright!" Boss netherdragon nodded obediently.

"Let's go! Contact me at any time if you have any questions!" After Leng ruoxue finished speaking, she gave Ming GE a list of forces and left with the great elder and the others.

"We went that way!" Feng Chuan pointed in the opposite direction of Leng ruoxue.

"Alright!" Ming GE nodded, then led uncle long and Dongfang Yue down the last remaining path.

After Leng ruoxue and the rest left, the abyss Dragons stared at each other for a long time. One of the abyss Dragons asked in a daze, "Where are we going? Did boss forget to give us a list of forces?"

"We don't need a list of forces. Boss said that we can do whatever we want. Why don't we go to the city Lord's mansion to play?" The netherwyrms boss suggested after scratching its head with its large claws.

"The city Lord's mansion? Alright, let's go to the city Lord's mansion." The nether Dragons responded in unison. In any case, they knew that the Lord of the Dead Sea wasn't home. If they didn't go now, when would they? This was a great opportunity!

After making their decision, the netherwyrms collectively flew toward the city Lord's mansion ...

After everyone split up, Leng ruoxue was the first to find the faction on the list. However, just as she walked to the entrance of the faction, the moment the guards at the entrance saw her, they immediately panicked and slammed the door shut. Following that, a roar came from inside, "The killing God is here! Quickly close the door and release the boss!"

"..." When Leng ruoxue, first elder, and the rest heard this, they looked at each other with bright eyes. First elder even said with an awkward expression, "Xue 'er, your reputation is growing."

Leng ruoxue didn't know how to respond to this, but Jiang Ning said with pride, "That's right, Xue 'er's reputation is getting bigger and bigger, so we can't be too weak in the future, so just leave this battle to us! You can just go and search for their treasures. "

"Are you sure?" Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes lingered on the Grand Elder, Jiang Ning, Shen nuo, and the rest. The few non-combat type main force members were instantly enraged.

"Xue 'er, don't look down on us. We are also very strong!" Jiang ninghuo roared.

"That's right! I'll let you experience it today. " Shen nuo also said fiercely.

Taking a look at the gentle and handsome Shen nuo, Leng ruoxue was surprised to find that the children around her had all been corrupted. Furthermore, looking at their attitude, it was definitely not going to work if they did not take part in this battle!

The helpless Leng ruoxue could only agree to the words of the pill refiners and weapon refiners who were filled with battle intent. Seeing that Leng ruoxue had given in, the great elder excitedly took out a small black ball and threw it into the door. Following that, the few of them who were calm and collected took a few steps back in unison. Following that, there was a loud explosion, and the door was shattered into pieces.

"Ah!" When the people inside saw that their sturdy doors had been blown up, they became even more panicked. Especially when they saw Leng ruoxue and her group approaching, the more timid ones were so scared that they retreated.

At this moment, a person who looked like the boss shouted at the top of his voice, "Who are you people? How dare you come here and cause trouble?"

That person was very angry, but the Asura's name was too famous. In less than an hour, it had spread throughout the entire Dead Sea. At first, he wanted to join forces with the other forces and find a chance to get rid of these people. Who knew that before he could even put it into action, they had already come to his door.

Although the woman in front of him was very beautiful, he was not in the mood to admire her at this time, especially when this beauty was not to be trifled with. In a situation where he could lose his life if he was not careful, he could not just be greedy for her beauty. Therefore, when he shouted these words, it could be said that he had mustered up enough courage.

If the beauty could be attracted by his domineering aura, that would be the best! Even if he couldn't, he had to let this woman know that fighting was a man's business. It was fine as long as a woman knew how to warm the bed and give birth.

The leader of a certain force was fantasizing in her heart that Leng ruoxue had green vessel to inform her. The thoughts of the man in front of her who was only pretending to be strong but was actually a weakling could not be hidden from her. Hence, she said nonchalantly, "If I don't cause trouble, why would I come to your place? He couldn't have come to see you, right?"

"You, you ..." The leader of the faction, who was not very eloquent, was so angry that he was at a loss for words. He pointed at Leng ruoxue for a long time, but he could not form a complete sentence.

Jiang Ning saw that he had been at a loss for words for a long time, so he lost his patience and threw a few dark gray pills at him. Before he could react, the dark gray pills on the ground turned into a light smoke and blended into the air.

"Dammit, can't you say something before you attack?" Seeing this, the first elder angrily said as he hurriedly stuffed a pill into his mouth.

"Hehe! I'm an impetuous person." Jiang Ning laughed evilly.

The opponent was depressed when he heard them dumbfounded. What was going on? What were those pills just now? Don't blame them for being ignorant and ill-informed, it was really because their knowledge of medicinal pills was too little. They had no idea that there was a kind of medicinal pill in the world called poison pill!

Very quickly, the other party was hit. In the beginning, it was as if there were ants crawling all over their bodies. It was extremely itchy and hard to resist. At this moment, they couldn't care less about Leng ruoxue and the others in front of them. They focused on tickling them. When they finally managed to get over it, their bodies were burning as if they were on fire!

"F * ck! What's going on?"

"Damn it, what the hell is this?"

The opponent who was hit started to curse. Leng ruoxue observed the situation and could only say, "Do it! Give them a quick death!"

"Alright!" Jiang Ning agreed without hesitation. Then, he threw out a few more pills. Leng ruoxue watched as the people in front of her fell to the ground without even having the chance to fight back. Then, she saw with her own eyes how the skin of her opponents, who had originally been smooth and full, gradually shriveled up. Very quickly, her opponents, who looked like dead tree bark, had turned into white bones. In the end, even their bones had been crushed into dust and scattered with the wind.

The corners of Leng ruoxue's mouth twitched. Was this a new poison that they had invented? It was indeed powerful!

"Hehe! Xue 'er, we did well, right?" Jiang Ning looked at Leng ruoxue arrogantly.

"Not bad! You guys continue, I'll deal with the aftermath!" After Leng ruoxue finished speaking, she turned around and left. The place she was going to was the treasure room of this force.

By the time Leng ruoxue was done with her own matters and returned to the front yard, the Grand Elder and the others were already waiting for her. Jiang Ning reported to her with a fawning expression, "'Xue'er, I've cleaned everything up. I guarantee that no fish has escaped the net!'"

"Alright! We've gotten rid of the evil in the netherworld prison!" Leng ruoxue said with a look of righteousness.

After getting rid of this force, they continued to move without stopping.

Although many people in their team were not combat-oriented talents, they were the fastest to take care of their opponents. They even made their opponents unable to fight back. They also adhered to humanitarian principles and tried to kill them in a way that made them feel no pain.

As Leng ruoxue and the others acted too quickly, the organizations that were targeted did not even have the chance to pass on the news to their allies before they were completely annihilated. In less than half a day, the force that Leng ruoxue was in charge of had completely disappeared from the face of the earth.

After finishing their own work, they moved the battlefield to help Feng Chuan.

Who knew that once Feng Chuan saw them, he would be so protective of his food and even recommend them to help Ming GE. When they reached Ming GE, Leng ruoxue helplessly realized that uncle long and the others, who were having fun, didn't seem to welcome them.

"Why don't we go to the city Lord's mansion?" Leng ruoxue suggested.

"The city Lord's mansion? The city Lord isn't in the mansion, why are we going there?" Jiang Ning was a little confused. He wasn't very interested in things like the city Lord's mansion.

"There should be a lot of good things in the city Lord's mansion. There might even be some precious herbs!" Leng ruoxue mumbled to herself.

Hearing this, Jiang Ning and the others immediately agreed, "'Let's go to the city Lord's mansion!'"

Although the nine nether nether prison didn't produce alchemists, there were many medicinal herbs that could be used in medicine. Although most of them were not edible by ordinary people, they rarely made medicinal pills for ordinary people! Therefore, the herbs here were just what they wanted.

Leng ruoxue knew that the temptation of the herbs was greater than the heavens to them. Using the herbs to lure them was the best method. However, when they really arrived at the city Lord's mansion, they realized that the city Lord's mansion's territory had also been occupied.

The netherwyrms were wreaking havoc in the city Lord's Manor, having a lot of fun.

The entire city Lord's mansion was in a state of high alert. Under the leadership of the city Lord's mansion's chief butler, the guards in the mansion were trying their best to defend themselves in an extremely embarrassing manner ...

Why did the guards of the city Lord's mansion only defend and not attack? They had to mention the matter that made them extremely sad and angry. To put it simply, the skin of the abyss Dragons was too thick, and they couldn't move them. However, when the abyss Dragons swung their long tails, all of them had excellent aim, and it was guaranteed that they would hit them. In addition, the bodies of these abyss Dragons were as large as small mountains, and the originally not-so-small city Lord's Manor was instantly filled up by them. No matter where they ran, they would encounter abyss Dragons with lecherous smiles, making it impossible for them to avoid them.

It was as if the abyss Dragons were deliberately toying with them. Their long tails swung back and forth in the air, but they did not kill them, causing their hearts to jump to their throats. This feeling was quite unpleasant, and after dodging back and forth a few times, their hair was in a mess, their clothes were in a mess, and they were panting. In short, everyone in the city Lord's Manor, from the Butlers to the guards and servants, was in an extremely sorry state.

"Dammit! Can you guys be more serious?" It was unknown who it was, but someone couldn't take it and shouted. Leng ruoxue and the others heard a cheap voice reply, "'Of course not. We can't play you to death so easily!"

Leng ruoxue understood the abyss Dragon's meaning. They were simply saying that they only treated them as toys, so they couldn't let them die too quickly. The underlying meaning of the abyss Dragons' words caused Leng ruoxue's forehead to be filled with black lines. She had always thought that these abyss Dragons were still considered innocent. Why was it that now ...

The Grand Elder and the others understood the netherwyrms' thoughts as well. They turned to look at Leng ruoxue in unison. Although they did not say anything, their eyes clearly expressed their thoughts. 'Xue 'er, you've led the netherwyrms astray!'

Leng ruoxue had been wronged! She felt even more wronged than Dou E! She had to find a way to clear her name. However, she had to find an unlucky guy to vent her anger first!

With this thought in mind, Leng ruoxue glanced at a middle-aged man who was the closest to her. Not only was this middle-aged man short, but he also had a very wretched appearance. In order to express the anger in his heart, the middle-aged man was jumping up and down, waving his fists and cursing!

It's you! Leng ruoxue made up her mind. Uncivilized people should be eliminated first. In the next moment, a small flame floated away from Leng ruoxue's fingertips. The small flame did not attract anyone's attention other than causing the temperature to rise instantly. It was only when the small flame floated to the front of the target's clothes and lit it that the middle-aged man and the people beside him came to a sudden realization. "Head butler, you're on fire!"

"Argh! Put out the fire! Quickly put out the fire!" The scene was in chaos again.

Leng ruoxue had not expected that the target she had chosen was actually the city Lord's residence's head butler. Oh! Alright! To capture the bandits, first capture the leader. Since the master of the Dead Sea was not around, then he would start with this head butler!

The people around the chief Steward helped to put out the fire. However, those people were getting more and more busy. Not only did the fire on the chief Steward not be put out, but the people who put out the fire also caught on fire. This time, the scene became even more chaotic!

"Here's the water! The water's here!" At this moment, someone shouted. Then, a bucket of water was poured on the chief butler and the others. With the help of the water, the fire did not die out, but instead became more intense.

This time, everyone was dumbfounded, including the netherwyrms. However, their thoughts were different from those of the city Lord's mansion. They thought to themselves in an extremely depressed manner, 'boss is here. There's no end to this!' Wuuu ...

The abyss Dragons looked in the direction of Leng ruoxue and the others, feeling extremely wronged. They gave Leng ruoxue a resentful look. Then, they hardened their hearts and attacked from the left and right with their large tails. Whether it was those whose bodies were on fire or those who were helping to extinguish the fire, they were all whipped into the air by their furious tails.

In the air, the people who were on fire quickly turned into smoke and disappeared. The lucky survivors were thrown into the air, but before they could stabilize themselves, they fell again. Unfortunately, the netherwyrms caught them with their tails, and soon, they were thrown high up into the air again.

This cycle repeated for a long time, and the survivors began to foam at the mouth. Those who had a little bit of consciousness couldn't bear it anymore and shouted, ""You evil demons, just give us a quick death!"

"Don't even think about it!" Boss netherwyrm said viciously. These two words instantly shattered all the hopes of the survivors. Their hearts were instantly filled with despair!

Chapter 2536 Beauty, Do You Want To Save Him?\(2\)

After that, the netherwyrms continued to play their games. Leng ruoxue was helpless and could only let them be.

Not long after, Ming GE, Feng Chuan, and the others, who had completed their mission, also came to the city Lord's mansion. Seeing the mess in the city Lord's mansion, Ming GE was so surprised that she couldn't even close her mouth!

He had to admit that he had underestimated the destructive power of Leng ruoxue and the others! These people were simply The Killing Gods among The Killing Gods, the fighter planes among The Killing Gods!

Young miss Leng, that ... Have you been to the city Lord's mansion's treasure room?" Mingge didn't know what she should do, so she could only chat casually.

"I haven't! Go now!" Only then did Leng ruoxue remember that she had been too engrossed in watching the show and had actually thrown the most important thing to the back of her mind. She was really unprofessional!

After she finished speaking, under Qing Jue's guidance, Leng ruoxue led the group of curious people to the city Lord's mansion's treasure vault.

Seeing how familiar Leng ruoxue was with the city Lord's mansion, Ming GE was amazed along the way. She couldn't help but sigh in her heart. It seemed that this little girl had many tricks up her sleeve! Until Leng ruoxue pointed to an unremarkable wooden door and said, ""We're here!" , His eyes widened again.

"Miss Leng, are you sure this is the place?" Ming GE blinked, and blinked again. He couldn't believe that this was the place where the master of the Dead Sea kept his treasures. He wouldn't even believe that this was a warehouse!

"Of course!" Leng ruoxue was full of confidence. Qing Jue's senses were definitely not wrong. Qing Jue had even told her that there would be a surprise here.

Leng ruoxue's curiosity was piqued. She was in no hurry to find out what the surprise Qing Jue was talking about was, so she pushed the door open.

Not locked? Leng ruoxue trusted Qing Jue's judgment and knew that this place could not possibly be a trap. This could only mean that the master of the Dead Sea was too arrogant and thought that no one would dare to enter his city Lord Residence, and that he would definitely not close his doors at night.

If this was the case, the death Sea Master would probably regret it so much that his intestines would turn green! Leng ruoxue chuckled to herself. She pushed the door open and was about to enter when she was stopped by Ming GE, who had a cautious look on his face. "Wait, don't be rash!"

After saying that, Ming GE released a trace of dark power into the door ...

After a long time. Seeing that there was nothing unusual in the door, Ming GE finally felt relieved and said, ""Go in! There shouldn't be any danger!"

"Thank you!" Leng ruoxue was a little speechless. Of course, she knew that there was no danger. However, she still had to thank him for his kind intentions.

After walking through the small door, there was indeed a warehouse. However, this warehouse was not a normal warehouse because it contained the many years of collection of the Dead Sea Master. There were all the precious ores and medicinal herbs that the first elder and Shen nuo had considered as valuable. It was a pity that they were all piled on the ground like trash. When the first elder, Shen nuo, and the rest saw them, they immediately pounced over with heartache.

What a waste! It was really a waste of God's gift! How could such a good thing be piled up like garbage? After the first elder, Shen nuo, and the rest pounced forward, they did not think about anything else and immediately stored the ores and medicinal herbs into their storage rings. Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes searched around, wanting to find the surprise that Qing Jue had mentioned.

Just as Leng ruoxue was looking left and right, she suddenly heard a roar, ""Don't act rashly, or I'll kill him!"

Hearing this voice, Leng ruoxue immediately turned around and saw that Jiang Ning was being held as a hostage by a Man in Black. A shiny knife was placed on Jiang Ning's neck. As for the person who was holding onto Jiang Ning, she found him familiar.

"Heaven-breaking!" Uncle long recognized the person and reminded Leng ruoxue.

"You're actually not dead yet!" Leng ruoxue asked in disbelief. Wasn't this guy sent to the nine nether nether prison by the evildoer to be taken care of? Why did he appear in the Dead Sea city?

"Beauty, do you want me to die so much? I've missed you so much these days. I can't live without you for even one day!" Potian gritted his teeth and glared at Leng ruoxue like a venomous snake.

His feelings towards Leng ruoxue were rather complicated. He could not wait to tear Leng ruoxue into pieces, but at the same time, he wanted to make her his. However, when he saw Leng ruoxue now, he was reminded of the humiliation he had suffered in this godforsaken place. Thus, for a moment, his hatred for Leng ruoxue prevailed.

"I see! Then don't think about me. " Leng ruoxue said with a smile after listening to po Tian.

"Beauty, do you really think so? Unfortunately, I won't be able to fulfill your wish!" Potian laughed maniacally as if he had just done something great. Leng ruoxue was speechless.

Then, potian pointed at Jiang Ning, who he had caught, and said, ""Beauty, do you want to save him?"

"I don 't!" Leng ruoxue did not hesitate at all and went straight to the point.

Potian didn't expect Leng ruoxue to answer so readily. He choked on his words and swallowed the rest of his words.

"Beauty, how can you be so heartless? Isn't he your friend?" Potian was so angry that he was grinding his teeth. However, Leng ruoxue still put on an indifferent look and smiled faintly, ""You're wrong, he's not my friend, he's a rice weevil! If you want him, just take it. I can save a lot of food by taking care of one less person!"

"Yup! There won't be anyone snatching herbs from me in the future!" Shen nuo also echoed.

When Jiang Ning heard their words, he put on a depressed expression and said, ""I knew you've long despised me. Warrior, why don't you take me away? Although I can eat a little, seeing how wise and powerful you are, you shouldn't let me go hungry, right? I'm an Alchemist. As long as you can provide me with enough herbs, I can refine pills for you. How about it? I'll be very useful! Don't hesitate anymore. "

"Yeah! That's right! Hurry up and take this guy away! We're giving him to you!" The great elder and the others continued to jeer, all of them putting on an indifferent expression. Seeing them like this, Ming GE's mouth twitched. Were these people really together? Why did it sound like he was sending the God of plague away? However, he was still quite surprised to be able to meet familiar faces from Leng ruoxue and the others in the master of the Dead Sea's treasure vault.

"You guys ..." Potian was so angry that he was about to explode. Although these people were talking non-stop, what they were expressing was that he should take the hostage away quickly. This fact made him extremely depressed! He couldn't help but wonder if he had caught the wrong person.

So what if the other party was an Alchemist? What he wanted now was not alchemists, but a heavyweight hostage so that he could escape from the hands of these people! But now, it seemed that his idea had become an extravagant hope.

No! He wasn't willing to surrender! Originally, he had hidden here in the hope of avoiding the netherwyrms 'pursuit. He did not expect to encounter Leng ruoxue and the others. These fellows were definitely more difficult to deal with than the netherwyrms, and were even more terrifying!

Potian's mind whirred, and then he made up his mind. The knife in his hand moved closer to Jiang Ning's neck, and he threatened, "You really don't care about his life?"

Chapter 2537 Beauty, Do You Want To Save Him?\(3\)

"Didn't I tell you?" Leng ruoxue's face was filled with helplessness.

"You think I'll believe you?" Potian sneered.

"Then what do you want?" Leng ruoxue was tormented by him to the point where she could not even get angry.

"You guys make way, I'm leaving!" Pitian's eyes turned and he suddenly said.

Leng ruoxue and the rest were stunned when they heard po Tian changing the topic. Don't tell them that this fellow had captured a hostage just so he could escape this place smoothly? If that was the case, they would be greatly disappointed!

However, the truth was cruel. That was the original intention of potian to capture the hostage. However, after Leng ruoxue and the others 'performance, he no longer had any hope for the hostage. On the contrary, the hostage had become a burden to him. He was afraid that Leng ruoxue and the others would make a move on him at any moment. If that happened, he would be in an even more passive position.

"Alright! We'll let you leave! It's not a big deal!" Leng ruoxue said nonchalantly. Then, she gave uncle long and the others a look, and they immediately made way for her.

"You can leave! We won't do anything to you!" Leng ruoxue declared.

"You guys aren't going to let me go on purpose and then launch a sneak attack, are you?" Puotian was not at ease with Leng ruoxue's generosity.

"You're thinking too much. We're both from the divine realm, after all. After coming to this unfamiliar place, isn't it only right for us to help each other?" Leng ruoxue replied matter-of-factly.

"Hmph! You're tactful. " Potian believed Leng ruoxue's sincerity. However, out of caution, he still took Jiang Ning as a hostage. It wasn't until ping 'an reached the door that he threw Jiang Ning away and fled the place like an arrow.

After being left behind, Jiang Ning looked at Leng ruoxue and the rest with a guilty look, "I'm sorry, I'm too useless!"

"It's good that you know!" Leng ruoxue said with a straight face on purpose. She wasn't used to Jiang Ning's sudden apology. However, the next second, she saw Jiang Ning smiling as if nothing had happened. "Hehe! I knew you would say that. How can a dignified Alchemist like me be useless!"

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue felt helpless. She knew that Jiang Ning's apology wasn't sincere. Luckily, she didn't take it seriously. Otherwise, she would have been infuriated. Uncle long and the others knew what kind of person Jiang Ning was. So, they just sighed and ignored him. They continued to work.

On the other hand, Ming GE had no idea how they interacted with each other. His eyes were wide open as he stared at Jiang Ning in disbelief. Then, he turned to look at Leng ruoxue. He felt that he had grown up! None of these people are normal!

He also sighed and then asked carefully, "Miss Leng, are we just going to let that po Tian leave like this?" Ming GE did not expect to see a man from the divine realm here, and it seemed that he had a grudge against Leng ruoxue and the others. This was really beyond his expectations.

However, before Leng ruoxue could answer, Ming GE heard a scream from outside. It sounded like the one who broke the sky.

Ugh! He felt like he understood! He knew that that person would not leave so easily! As he thought of this, he looked at Leng ruoxue and the rest with a strange look in his eyes. However, Leng ruoxue and the rest were still as calm as ever. Jiang Ning even smiled happily and said, "Hmph! How dare he take me as a hostage? I'll let him know why the flowers are so red!"

Mingge silently mourned for the heaven-breaker for three minutes to show her kindness. Yes, compared to these people, I'm really too kind! It was wrong! It should be said that compared to them, the people of nine nether nether prison were too kind!

After witnessing so many things with his own eyes, Ming GE immediately raised the status of Leng ruoxue and the others in his heart to the point that they were only second to his Lord in his heart. At the same time, he secretly made a decision that no matter what happened, he would stand firmly on the side of these people. These people were too terrifying!

Leng ruoxue and the others had finished packing up the items in the treasure vault. Seeing that Ming GE was in a daze, they did not disturb him. Uncle long held the dazed Ming GE's hand and left with the rest.

Outside. The netherwyrms were almost done playing. The surviving guards and attendants of the city Lord's mansion were all on their last breath after being played by them, while the more active ones were sky piercer. Even though he was already being held by the netherwyrms' large claws, he was still like a person with ADHD.

Seeing him like this, Leng ruoxue knew that it was Jiang Ning's doing.

Jiang Ning also smiled and moved closer to potian. He first gave him a hard kick and then said fiercely, "You bastard! How dare you take me as a hostage? do you have any guts?"

After saying that, Jiang Ning took out a handful of pills of different colors, opened potian's mouth, and stuffed all the pills in his hand into it.

"Boss, what should we do with these guys?" The nether dragon's heart trembled as he looked at Jiang Ning's actions in fear. He then asked for Leng ruoxue's opinion.

"Except for the heaven splitter, deal with them all!" Leng ruoxue said after some thought.

The boss netherwyrms responded, and then gave the other netherwyrms a look. The netherwyrms cried out again and nimbly leaped into the air, then fell from the air like cannonballs. Bang Bang Bang! After a few loud bangs, the guards and attendants of the city Lord's mansion who were on their last breath finally closed their eyes in happiness. They were finally free.

Leng ruoxue could not help but cover her face when she saw this. She deeply regretted the violence of the netherwyrms. She was definitely not the one who taught them how to deal with prisoners of war like this!

After watching the netherwyrms' actions, Ming GE, who had finally managed to stop her wild thoughts, simply shut her mouth and stopped expressing her opinions.

"The mission has been completed. We can leave now." After the awkwardness, Leng ruoxue said calmly.

"Yes, yes!" The crowd responded immediately. Of course, before they left, Leng ruoxue did not forget to light a fire for the city Lord's residence.

After the operation ended, the number of survivors in the Dead Sea city, other than Leng ruoxue and her group, was less than three digits. These people were lucky enough to survive because they were staying in the shops or inns that guarded the main street. What happened to the various factions in the Dead Sea city was no longer a secret to them.

For a time, the doors of all the shops were tightly closed. The Dead Sea city was filled with a dead aura, which made the already dark Dead Sea city even gloomier.

When they returned to the inn, Leng ruoxue and the rest saw the innkeeper standing at the entrance, trembling as he welcomed them. They shot a glance at the ashen-faced innkeeper, but none of them bothered with him and went straight upstairs.

When Leng ruoxue and the rest returned to their rooms, the innkeeper heaved a sigh of relief. It was only then that he realized that he had broken out in cold sweat, and his clothes had long since been drenched in sweat.

No! He could not stay here and wait for death! The innkeeper quickly packed up his belongings and fled the inn without looking back.

The inn manager ran all the way out of the Dead Sea city. Just as he was hesitating which path was the safest, a huge black shadow blocked his view. He looked up. Oh my God! Isn't that an abyss Dragon?

Chapter 2538 Beauty, Do You Want To Save Him?\(4\)

"W-what are you doing?" The inn manager trembled as he spoke. His expression was like a little wife who was about to be snatched away.

The abyss Dragon glanced down at the inn manager and said with a nonchalant expression, "My boss said that you're only allowed to enter the Dead Sea city. So, you'll have to go back the way you came out!"

"Wuu ... Lord netherwyrms, you should let me go! There's a terrifying killer god in the Dead Sea city. I, I can't stay here anymore! If you stay here any longer, you won't be able to keep your little life!" The inn manager wailed and begged.

"Damn it, who's your uncle? don't randomly claim relatives! Moreover, what does your life have to do with me? You people! Since they dared to live in the Dead Sea city, which one of them was not a wanted criminal who had experienced hundreds of battles and killed countless people? Now you're afraid? Why didn't you know fear when you were bullying others? Don't you know what the Wheel of Fortune is? I'm talking about you guys!" The netherwurm roared.

Although they were also brutal and bloodthirsty by nature, they would not kill the innocent. This was also the main reason why they could live well even though their hands were stained with blood. After all, the nine nether nether prison didn't restrict killing, but there was a limit! If they crossed the boundary, they would be wanted.

As for the people of the Dead Sea city, although they were wanted by the Courts of Hell, they were still alive and kicking because they were under the protection of the master of the Dead Sea! But now, hehe! I'm afraid even the master of the Dead Sea can't save them.

As the abyss Dragon thought of this, it raised its tail high at the same time, throwing the crying Inn manager back into the dead Sea city.

Unable to leave and unable to complain tearfully, the inn manager could only return to the inn with his tail between his legs. However, he was quite pleased that he was not the only one who received such treatment.

In reality, they were thinking too much. Leng ruoxue's target was the various major factions in the Dead Sea city. At that time, they were not among the factions, so Leng ruoxue naturally would not attack them alone. It was a pity that they had done too many bad things and were extremely guilty. They were afraid that the other party would kill them all. Thus, they were so terrified that their hearts were in their throats. They did not know how many more days they could see the sun.

At the same time, nether sword and the others had finally arrived at the Dead Sea city after a long and arduous journey. However, they were extremely nervous. When they entered the city, they suddenly realized that the situation they had expected did not happen.

Dead Sea city was silent.

When they saw that no one was collecting the entrance fee at the city gate, they were puzzled for a while. But now that they saw that there was no one breathing in the Dead Sea city, they were not only puzzled but also shocked.

W-what happened? Nether sword and the others 'hearts sank. If Leng ruoxue and the others had not arrived, they naturally would not have to worry. However, when they thought about how they should have already arrived and how the Dead Sea city had such a scene, their hearts could not help but ache! He just couldn't let go.

If Leng ruoxue were to lose even a single strand of hair, they did not dare to imagine the terrifying consequences.

Nethersword and the others were burning with anxiety as they searched the city without restraint. Finally, they found a few people in a hidden corner who were trembling in fear like chicks that had just been hatched.

After asking for the reason, nether sword and the others were all dumbfounded.

A goddess of slaughter led a group of gods of slaughter and massacred all the major powers in the Dead Sea city? Did they hear wrong? The goddess of killing shouldn't be talking about the master of the Dead Sea. Could it be Leng ruoxue?

When nether sword and the others first heard this news, their first reaction was disbelief. They were very clear about the power of the various forces in the death sea. In addition, with the support of the master of the death sea, the evil forces were like fish in water. Just by stomping their feet on the death sea, it was enough to cause trouble for outsiders. Hence, they could not believe that the goddess of slaughter that these people were talking about was Leng ruoxue.

Even now, the Courts of Hell had not been able to eradicate the various forces in the death sea. Could it be that Leng ruoxue had managed to do it in such a short period of time?

In reality, what they didn't know was that it wasn't strange for Leng ruoxue to be able to do all this because she had too many tricks up her sleeve. On the other hand, they couldn't do it. Other than the hardware, if they really wanted to destroy the forces in the death sea, they would have to pay a huge price. The main reason was that all those forces were under the protection of the master of the death sea. Naturally, the master of the death sea would not just stand by and watch as the people from the Courts of Hell killed all his subordinates.

However, the troublesome master of the death sea was not around and Leng ruoxue and the others had many tricks up their sleeves. Thus, the major powers of the death sea were the unlucky ones. Furthermore, Leng ruoxue treated the master of the death sea as a third party, so she would not show any mercy.

With so many factors added together, Leng ruoxue had succeeded, but nether sword and the others were shocked.

Using the clues they had, nether sword and the others found the inn where Leng ruoxue and the others were staying. They asked the inn manager, who was also trembling with fear, for the location of Leng ruoxue and the others' rooms before they went upstairs.

It was Mingge who opened the door.

Seeing nethersword and the others, Ming GE showed a rare smile. "You guys are so slow!"

These words made nether sword and the others feel indignant. However, the most important thing now was to confirm what they had heard. After greeting Leng ruoxue and the others, they pulled Ming GE along to get to know each other.

Chapter 2539 Master Of The Death Sea \(1\)

After communicating with Ming GE for a long time, nethersword and the others finally confirmed what they had heard.

It was all true!

Oh my God! The goddess of killing was actually Leng ruoxue. Such a fact still greatly agitated Mingge and the others, who had already been mentally prepared. Wuwu...Why did they come so late? What if he missed the moment when the goddess of slaughter showed her might?

From Ming GE's description, they could already imagine how violent Leng ruoxue and the others were. However, they still felt regretful that they had not seen it with their own eyes. As such, they were filled with envy, jealousy, and hatred for Ming GE, who had participated in the entire process.

In fact, Ming GE was also quite aggrieved. She even envied them for not being there at the time! If they weren't there, they wouldn't have been provoked. Could they imagine how depressed they were at that time? Mingge truly felt that he was just a passerby, because Leng ruoxue and the others were much more violent than him! Unfortunately, they only heard the glory of his participation in the whole process, but they could not understand his feelings as a soy sauce.

Mingge sighed. If these people really participated, they wouldn't be envious of him, he promised. However, at this moment, nether sword and the others couldn't understand the truth of his idea!

After hearing Ming GE's retelling, nether sword and the others looked at Leng ruoxue and the others with burning eyes, as if they were dogs looking at a dog's bones. It made Leng ruoxue and the others 'hair stand on end.

Very quickly, nether sword and the rest stuck to uncle long and the others, insisting on getting closer to them. This was especially so after they saw potian's misfortune. Alchemists like Jiang Ning and Shen nuo became their main targets. As for Leng ruoxue, they didn't dare to pester her.

Leng ruoxue, who had nothing to do, saw that everyone was busy, so she could only go and find trouble. At this time, potian was locked up in a guest room. Potian, who was tied up, was in an extremely sorry state. His body and face were covered in scratch marks, and his clothes were also torn and tattered. He had once been a handsome and elegant young master, but now he was no different from a beggar.

When she saw potian, Leng ruoxue first sized him up carefully. After expressing her sympathy, Leng ruoxue then said indifferently, "Potian, how are you?"

"Very well, beauty. It won't be long before you'll be like me, a prisoner!" Potian, who had his eyes closed, opened them after hearing Leng ruoxue's words. His eyes were spitting fire as he spoke fiercely.

"A prisoner? Whose is it?" Leng ruoxue was curious when she heard this.

"Hahaha! Of course, it belonged to the master of the death sea! So, you won't be able to be happy for long!" Potian roared with grief and indignation. He was filled with hatred. He could have escaped, but who knew that the abyss Dragons in the city Lord's residence were in cahoots with Leng ruoxue? this fact almost drove him mad.

"Are you sure that the master of the death sea can capture me?" Leng ruoxue blinked her eyes and continued to fish for information.

"Of course, even the Dark Lord of the nine nether nether prison can't do anything to the master of the Dead Sea, much less you. Hahaha!" As he spoke, potian laughed wildly again.

"You're so sure of my fate? It seems that I really can't kill you now. I have to keep you alive and let you see if I will become a prisoner of the master of the Dead Sea. " Leng ruoxue said calmly. After she finished speaking, she gave potian a meaningful look and turned to leave.

In the next few days, the Dead Sea remained terrifyingly silent. Leng ruoxue even suspected if the master of the death sea had received the news. Why had he not appeared yet? She was getting a little impatient.

Ming GE wanted to tell her that the master of the Dead Sea must have received the news, but he would not be back for a while. He was sure that his Lord had delayed the master of the Dead Sea. Otherwise, they would not have waited for so many days in vain. Leng ruoxue was also very stubborn. She would not leave until she saw the master of the Dead Sea.

Actually, if it was possible, he really wanted to persuade Leng ruoxue to leave the Dead Sea city temporarily. However, whenever he faced Leng ruoxue, he would think of their group's violence, and he would not be able to say this no matter what. Furthermore, he was also worried about his Lord and the others. If his guess was correct, his Lord and the others should be with the master of the Dead Sea ...

Al! Master of the Dead Sea, hurry up and appear! Ming GE believed that if the master of the Dead Sea could roll back in time, his master might also appear. That way, everyone would be happy.

After Ming GE thought it through, he waited for the Lord of the Dead Sea to appear every day. However, after waiting for several days, he still did not see the Lord of the Dead Sea. He could not help but feel a little disappointed.

He was so furious that he rushed out of the inn and started to wreak havoc in the Dead Sea city. When nether sword and the others saw him like this, they only thought that he was mentally unstable. As he went crazy, the few shops in the Dead Sea city were instantly filled with holes and were in terrible condition. Many shops even collapsed directly, and the survivors hiding in the shops screamed and ran away like rats. For a time, the scene became chaotic again.

Seeing this, nether sword and the others were also itching to fight. They specifically picked on the survivors who were running around, toying with them but not killing them, causing those survivors to be filled with grief and anger.

"Wuwu ... Kill us!" Someone cried and shouted. Such days were really too painful! They couldn't take it anymore!

Unfortunately, how could nether sword and the others be manipulated by others? Therefore, their wish could only become an extravagant hope. Nether sword and the others chased after the few survivors like cats and mice.

All of a sudden, dark clouds gathered above the Dead Sea city, and lightning flashed and Thunder rumbled! Thick black clouds churned and covered the entire Dead Sea city, causing the already dim Dead Sea city to turn pitch-black as if it was a dark day.

When Mingge and the others saw this, they immediately became vigilant. They stopped what they were doing and maintained a vigilant posture. Leng ruoxue and the others were also attracted by the strange scene outside.

"Who has the guts to cause trouble in my Dead Sea city?" At this moment, an unusually angry roar was heard by Leng ruoxue and the others.

That roar carried a powerful pressure, causing Leng ruoxue and the rest to feel the pressure. Those who were slightly weaker immediately turned pale and felt a heavy pressure on their chests, as if a huge rock was pressing down on them.

Ming GE and the others felt that something was amiss. They immediately moved to Leng ruoxue and the others 'side and released their own pressure to block the attack for them.

"The master of the death sea?" Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes flashed as her mood lifted.

The mistress had finally appeared. However, this mistress seemed to be very strong. Leng ruoxue did not know if she could defeat her!

"I am the master of the death sea!" A tall, beautiful, and sexy woman appeared before everyone.

Leng ruoxue sized up the master of the death sea and could not help but think, 'she is indeed a beauty.' Not only was her face beautiful, but her figure was also so hot that it was daunting. She looked at the other person's huge, shapely chest and then looked at her own. Leng ruoxue was shocked to realize that she seemed to have an inferiority complex!

More importantly, this master of the death sea was not just a pretty face. He was a truly powerful expert. Her abilities were even above hers, so she had no confidence in going up against Leng ruoxue. However, in order to defend her man's territory, she would never admit defeat!

At the same time, the Lord of the death sea's gaze landed on Leng ruoxue. With one look, the Lord of the death sea was stunned beyond words. He did not expect such a beautiful woman to exist in this world. Looking at Leng ruoxue, the Lord of the death sea said, "Beauty, how about you submit to me?"

"..." Leng ruoxue's face was filled with black lines. Was she being teased? The one who was teasing her was a woman?

Uncle long and the others were also at a loss. Was it appropriate for a woman to flirt with another woman? Yield to her? How?

In contrast to Leng ruoxue and the rest, who were shocked, Ming GE and the rest roared in anger, "You shameless ladyboy, don't even think about our future netherworld Empress! The Lord will not let you off!"

"Master, hehe! He couldn't even protect himself now, how could he still care about the Beauty's safety! Beauty, give in to me! Big brother will definitely treat you well!" The death Sea Master said without a care.

Initially, when Leng ruoxue heard that the evildoer could not even save himself, she was extremely furious. However, when she heard the word 'brother', her nerves tensed up.

What brother? Leng ruoxue could not understand. However, she didn't think too much about it, because sometimes, she also called herself a Lord in front of a demon! The woman in front of him was probably a Queen. Otherwise, she wouldn't have called him brother in front of her. However, she wasn't interested in this brother of hers.

At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue smiled faintly and said, "Death Sea Master, do you think I will believe your words? I know better than you what kind of strength my man has. "

"What a beauty! It's a good thing that you're so confident, but when you truly know my strength, you won't think this way anymore. So, while this Lord hasn't gotten angry yet, quickly throw yourself into my arms!" The master of the death sea continued to tempt him without any anger.

"Don't even think about it!" Leng ruoxue was very stubborn. She had no interest in women.

"Right, don't even think about it! My master will definitely take care of you!" Nether sword also said angrily.

"Hehe! It seems like you guys won't give up until you see the Dead Sea! Since you don't believe me, I'll show you the situation of the master you speak of!" The master of the Dead Sea laughed. As he finished speaking, a screen of light appeared in the pitch-black night sky. Following that, three young men appeared on the screen.

"Freak!" Leng ruoxue's eyes widened as she stared at the screen in disbelief.

"Besides my Lord, Ming ze and mu li City Master are also here." Nether sword said.

On the screen, the three of them were sitting on the ground in a circle. It was unknown what they were talking about, but it could be seen that the three of them looked quite depressed.

"Hahaha! Not bad! They're all here and they're my prisoners now. It won't be long before they're swallowed by my death sea water! At that time, you won't be able to see them anymore, and the nine nether nether prison will be my world!" The master of the death sea laughed maniacally as he looked at Leng ruoxue with eyes filled with determination.

"You're dreaming! As long as I'm here, nine nether nether prison will never fall into your hands!" Leng ruoxue was enraged. The consequences would be severe!

However, the master of the death sea did not take Leng ruoxue's anger to heart. Instead, he chuckled and said, "Beauty, you're merely a divine Emperor. I can crush you to death with a finger. What right do you have to be so confident? But don't worry, I can't bear to kill you. In the future, you'll still be the nether Queen of the nine nether nether nether prison, and I'll naturally be the Dark Lord!"

"Keep daydreaming!" Leng ruoxue laughed coldly. After she finished speaking, she attacked without a second thought.

In an instant, a small flame turned into a ray of dark light and teleported towards the master of the Dead Sea. When the master of the Dead Sea saw how small the flame was, he thought that Leng ruoxue was just playing with him and did not take it seriously. However, when the flame actually burned her clothes, she felt that something was wrong.

The flame was too hot!

'Damn it!' The death Sea Master felt a sharp pain from the burn. With a pull of her hand, she tore her clothes apart and a white naked body appeared in front of everyone. Then, she said with a perverted smile, "Beauty, if you want to see my naked body, just say it. Why set fire to it?"

F * ck! When Leng ruoxue heard this, she really wanted to curse. Not only that, but these words also made her feel a little familiar, because she seemed to have heard it from potian's mouth. No wonder the two of them were together.

However, he was also lucky to meet such a beautiful and sexy woman in the nine nether nether prison. Leng ruoxue unceremoniously scanned the master of the Dead Sea's body. Suddenly, she could not help but widen her eyes.

What was that thing below the death Sea master's waist?

Leng ruoxue suspected that her eyes were playing tricks on her. She pulled the nether sword, who was the closest to her, and asked with uncertainty, ""Do you see that thing below her waist?"

"Uh!" Hearing this question, nether sword lowered his head in embarrassment. He didn't know how to answer. Uncle long and the others quickly looked up at the sky to prevent Xue 'er from asking them.

Actually, they had all seen the thing below the death Sea master's waist. When they first saw it, they were quite shocked. However, they immediately thought of the innocent Leng ruoxue. Hence, they acted as if nothing had happened, afraid that they would arouse Leng ruoxue's curiosity.

However, things had already gone against their wishes, and Leng ruoxue still discovered it.

"I'm asking you a question. " Seeing that nether sword did not reply, Leng ruoxue gritted her teeth and said.

"I see it!" Nether sword said in a low voice.

"Isn't she a woman?" Leng ruoxue roared. These words were heard by everyone present, including the master of the death sea. However, the master of the death sea only smiled lewdly as if he was proud of it.

"Beauty, I'll tell you! I can be a man and a woman whenever I want! Haha, you must be envious!" The master of the death sea laughed complacently.

Envy, my ass! You ladyboy! Leng ruoxue's heart felt as if there were thousands of alpacas galloping. This fact almost drove her crazy! Although in her previous world, transvestites were not rare, she had never seen one with her own eyes. Now that she had seen one, she only felt nauseated!

No one actually told her that the master of the death sea was a transvestite. Not only that, she was even teased by a transvestite! Really, uncle can endure it, aunt can 't!

The Furious Leng ruoxue's white and tender fingertips suddenly had a few small flames dancing around them. Finally, the small flames merged together and formed a ball of fire the size of a baby's fist. In the next second, the ball of fire was thrown out by Leng ruoxue and it went straight for the master of the Dead Sea.

When the Dead Sea Lord saw the hot-tempered beauty set fire again, it would be a lie to say that she wasn't depressed. One must know that even though she was strong, she hated fire the most. However, the beauty in front of her was a frequent arsonist, so much so that she couldn't guard against it! This time, the temperature of the ball of fire was obviously much higher than the small flame last time, which made her a little angry.

However, she, who was full of tender feelings for women, could not bear to lay her hands on such a beauty, so she could only hide.
