

Crazy Wife 2641

Chapter 2641 Speculations From The Outside World \(2\)

The mountain was depressed again when he heard that. So even when Leng ruoxue said that she was a man in a woman's outfit, they didn't really believe her! What the hell is this!

Big mountain felt his eyes turn wet. He really wanted to cry!

"Hehe! It's too magical!" The Golden Eagle saw that the mountain was not in a good mood, so it smiled awkwardly and flew around him a few more times before it finally stopped looking at him in surprise.

The mountain remained silent. He did not know how to respond to the Golden Eagle.

After a long time.

When Leng Xiaoqing and Leng Xiaoxiao were done being surprised, the two brothers decided to take their leave and leave the remaining time for Leng ruoxue to catch up with her little beasts!

Before he left, baby did not forget to remind Leng Xiaoxiao, ""Remember our compensation!"

When Leng Xiaoxiao heard this, he staggered and almost fell. He did not expect this little thing to still remember this! He had thought that the little fellow would have forgotten about such a warm gathering of the master beasts! From the looks of it, Leng Yiqun would not be able to escape this calamity!

Nodding his head, Leng Xiaoxiao indicated that he would not forget. He then pulled his elder brother and left the falling snow garden as if they were running for their lives.

Leng ruoxue's curiosity was piqued when she saw the two Leng clan's elders running away as if they were being chased by evil spirits and heard the treasure mention compensation.

"What compensation? What did you guys do?" Leng ruoxue was still unclear about what had just happened outside the city gates, and did not pay attention to the movements of baby and the rest. However, based on her understanding of her beast, no matter what the compensation that baby had mentioned meant, her beast would definitely not suffer a loss.

He just didn't know who would be the unlucky one this time!

"Cute master, someone is bullying us! Sob ... We're so pitiful, we almost didn't get to see our cute master!" When baby heard Leng ruoxue's question, it suddenly remembered that it had yet to complain to its master! What a big mistake it was to be a Beastie that was good at acting coquettishly! No! It had to work hard to correct its bad habit of forgetting business when it saw its master.

"It's that serious?" Hearing her precious's words, Leng ruoxue could do nothing but feel astonished. To be honest, she didn't believe her precious's words. In this world, even if someone dared to bully her Beastie, the one who would suffer would definitely not be her own child. However, since her precious had already said so, it wouldn't be right if she didn't cooperate!

So, after she asked the question in her heart, she revealed a pained expression again. She gently stroked her own Beastie's soft and smooth fur and patiently waited for her baby to complain to her. She also wanted to see who had the guts to bully her child, Hmph! She couldn't even bear to touch a single hair of her little friend, let alone others!

"En!" Baby's Silver eyes were filled with tears as he nodded heavily. He then said, "It's a guy called Leng Yiqun who bullied us."

Following that, the five little beasts explained to their master what Leng Yiqun had done at the city gates with added oil and vinegar. After listening to it, Leng ruoxue's forehead was filled with black lines while mountain and his son, who were listening by the side, broke out in cold sweat!

They swore! In the future, no matter who I bully, I will never bully these five little beasts. They are really too terrifying! Not only did he vividly describe what had happened at the city gate, he even described Leng Yiqun as a criminal who had committed a great crime and wanted to obstruct their master beast from meeting! If da Shan and his son were not involved at the scene, they might have believed the five little fellows and blacklisted Leng Yiqun as an important enemy. In addition, he had to think of a way to avenge his Beastie. But now, they did not have such thoughts at all. Instead, they felt deep sympathy for that unlucky fellow named Leng Yiqun!

Of all people to provoke, he had to provoke these five black-hearted guys, sigh! He was really too pitiful.

However, as much as they pitied Leng Yiqun, they were also curious as to what Leng ruoxue would do to that unlucky fellow when she heard what the few little beasts said. What made them even more confused was the strange expression on Leng ruoxue's beautiful face.

Rage? It didn't look like it.

But it didn't make sense for him to not be angry. Based on their understanding of Leng ruoxue, they knew very well how protective this master was of their Beastie. Now that he heard that his Beastie was being bullied, why did he have such an expression?

The father and son were very confused. They truly felt that they could not guess the thoughts of the strong.

In reality, the reason why Leng ruoxue acted this way was because she felt that the Leng Yiqun she knew was not the same person as the one her beasties were talking about. Even though she did not have much contact with Leng Yiqun and he was a little self-righteous, he was definitely not the kind of person that her precious and the rest were talking about—a tyrant-level character!

Based on Leng Yiqun's intelligence and courage, he was just a tyrant. If they wanted him to show off his power in front of outsiders, they might as well wait for the iron tree to bloom!

After some thought, Leng ruoxue could not help but ask, "Is the Leng Yiqun you're talking about from the Leng family?"

"Of course it is!" Baby laughed evilly.

"But the Leng clan shouldn't have anyone with the same name! Why is the Leng Yiqun that you guys are talking about different from the one I know?" Leng ruoxue asked in bewilderment.

"Hehe! Cute master, people are multi-faceted! What you've seen should only be one side of him, while what we've seen is the other side. In short, he looks down on us beasts. We should really throw him to the beast clan. In the beast clan, he will definitely be a different species. At that time, let's see if he still dares to not treat us as humans!" Baby said with a face full of anger. When he got to the point of excitement, he even clenched his claws into small fists.

Upon hearing this, Leng ruoxue and big mountain broke out in cold sweat. They really wanted to say, "you weren't humans to begin with!" However, it seemed that it was better not to say this, or it would affect everyone's relationship!

Leng ruoxue caressed the obviously agitated baby in a comforting manner and said, ""That's a good idea. I support you. "

"Yes, we support you too." The mountain father and son quickly replied in unison.

"And me." The mother parasol tree, who had been pretending to be invisible, also said.

"I also support it. We must let those humans who disrespected us receive the most severe punishment." The Golden Eagle said.

"Then it's a deal! By the way, cute master, how much should we charge Leng Yiqun for his mental damage?" Baby thought for a while and asked.

"You guys can do as you see fit. I'll bear the consequences for you. Do whatever you want!" Leng ruoxue said calmly.

Baby nodded in satisfaction when he heard this. The mountain father and son were moved to tears. What a good master! Sob ... When they heard Leng ruoxue's words, they had the urge to recognize her as their master!

The mountain father and son sighed with emotion. At that moment, several excited voices rang in their ears.

"Master! We finally meet again!" The representatives of Wanshan city, led by the chief Steward, appeared in the garden of the falling snow garden.

These tall and strong men had tears in their eyes, and they were so excited that their bodies were trembling.

Chapter 2642 Speculations From The Outside World \(3\)

The head butler of Wanshan city knelt down in front of Leng ruoxue and started bawling.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue was a little speechless. However, she did not stop him. Instead, she allowed him to cry without caring about his image.

The head butler cried until he was covered in snot and tears. When he had cried enough, he suddenly realized that he seemed to have embarrassed himself. He was a man, but he was crying like a woman. Master wouldn't despise him, right?

At the thought of this, he felt so wronged that he wanted to cry again.

"Master!" The head Butler's eyes were filled with tears as he called out shyly like a little wife.

Leng ruoxue looked at his expression and felt even more embarrassed. However, she couldn't let her subordinate down, so she could only smile awkwardly and say, "We meet again, head butler."

"Master, we've missed you so much." Only then did the head butler remember the Wanshan city representative who had followed him here to meet his master, and he said with some embarrassment.

"I also miss you guys very much. This time, I've come back to bring you guys to the divine realm. In the future, everyone in the Wanshan city will develop in the divine realm!" Leng ruoxue laughed.

"Yes, we will all listen to master. However, if we leave, what will happen to Wanshan city? We've been developing there for so long, and there are already rules there. It's a pity to give up just like that." The head butler said with some reluctance. He had the deepest feelings for Wanshan city, and Wanshan city represented all his hard work. Therefore, it was really difficult for him to part with it when he left this time.

Of course, no matter how important Wanshan city was to him, it was not as important as his master. Back then, if it wasn't for the fact that he was arranged to stay behind to protect his master's career, he would probably have gone to the divine realm with commander ye and the others at that time. And now, although it was a few years later than that time, he was still quite happy to be able to leave with his master.

"Sell Wanshan city! We won't be coming back to the Haotian continent in the future, and there's no use for us to keep the Wanshan city." Leng ruoxue replied honestly.

"That's good." The head butler nodded his head. He was indeed reluctant to let Wanshan city go to waste. If he could find a good master for Wanshan city, he would be able to leave with a peace of mind. However, he had to carefully choose the candidate for the future master of Wanshan city, so as not to destroy Wanshan city.

"I've picked out a few buyers from the top forces. When you're free, you can get in touch with them and see who's more suitable to be the new master of Wanshan city. Then, you can sell Wanshan city to him!" Leng ruoxue explained in an understanding manner as she could tell the head Butler's thoughts and his reluctance to part with Wanshan city.

"Yes, yes." The head butler was happy to hear that. Then, he asked about what had happened back then.

Leng ruoxue saw that other than the head butler, the others were also curious and wanted to know, so she briefly explained it to them. When they heard how Leng ruoxue had managed to escape, they all broke out in cold sweat for him and sympathized with the Wen family.

At the mention of the Wen family, the head butler quickly added, "Master, many people from the Wen family have come up from the Haotian continent. I think they were brought back by Sun Tao from the divine realm."

"Yes, the Wen family in the divinity no longer exists. The Wen family on the Haotian continent should be their only hope of survival. However, the messenger of the Wen family is a disaster. What happened to the Wen family back then had a lot to do with me, so they can't be kept." Leng ruoxue said honestly.

She had never thought of herself as a good person. Hence, she would never let go of the Wen family just because she was too soft-hearted and let them off. Most importantly, she did not want to bring herself more trouble in the future. After all, she had only interacted with Wen Yuan for a short while and she knew that the Wen family was ambitious. Besides, Sun Tao was also around. She could not let the Wen family off.

"Master, what do you need us to do?" The head butler nodded in agreement and asked.

"Let's observe the changes first. Also, I'm sure you've found out how many members of the Wen family are with Sun Tao and where they are." Leng ruoxue asked. This time, she had sent her precious little beasts to the Wanshan city. This was one of the missions she had assigned them.

"Yes, we've been keeping track of the Wen family's situation ever since the incident in Luo city." The head butler said proudly, but in the next second, his face immediately fell and he said in frustration, "Master, we couldn't help with the matter in Luo city."

This was also one of the chief Butler's greatest regrets in his life. He had always blamed himself. After all, they were all his master's subordinates. They had failed in their duties when they only found out about the other party's accident after the incident.

"You can't be blamed for this. After all, the Luo family is still in the light and they've been developing too quickly. It's only natural for them to become a living target for the other party. Besides, no one expected Sun Tao to lead the Wen family back. Back then, I thought that he had fallen along with the Wen family! If I didn't return to the Haotian continent this time, I wouldn't have thought that he was still alive." Leng ruoxue consoled.

"Truly a disaster that lives on for a thousand years!" The head butler was not fond of Sun Tao and was rather disgusted. Just the fact that he had kidnapped his master with his master back then was enough to make him hate Sun Tao to the bone.

"Don't worry, he won't have a good ending." Leng ruoxue smiled as she promised.

"Yes, with master around, Sun Tao will definitely not be able to escape this time." The head butler said with a smile.

Leng ruoxue didn't expect the head butler to learn how to suck up to her. She smiled and nodded. After exchanging pleasantries for a while, everyone busied themselves with preparing food and wine, preparing to celebrate.

After preparing food and wine, it was late at night. The chief butler and the others left Luo Xue yuan reluctantly. Of course, they were all carried away by the Leng family's attendants.

After they left, the mother parasol tree, who had also drunk quite a bit, looked at Leng ruoxue with a smile and said, "Xue 'er, your subordinates can drink a lot, but they can't drink as much as I can! Look! They were all taken down by me. Hey! Don't move, I'm talking to you!"

Hearing the mother parasol tree's drunkenness, Leng ruoxue laughed and said helplessly, "Senior, I didn't move. You're drunk!"

After saying that, she couldn't help but hold her forehead. In her entire life, this was the first time she had seen a drunk tree. It seemed that no matter how high the cultivation of the tree in front of her was, when it was drunk, it was no different from ordinary people.

However, the drunk mother parasol tree would never admit that it had drunk too much. Instead, it looked at Leng ruoxue unhappily and said, "Little girl, I'm not drunk. You're the one who's moving! You can't fool me."

Alright! Leng ruoxue gave up on arguing with someone who was so drunk that she could not differentiate between North and South. She supported the mother parasol tree back to her room and helped her lie down before she left and went to the garden again.

When they reached the garden, Leng ruoxue was even more speechless.

His Beastie was so drunk that it was lying on the ground. The mountain father and son were each hugging a small stone bench, drooling as they slept.

After picking up all her little Beastie, she looked at big mountain and his son again. Finally, she called for two servants to send them back to their room.

Chapter 2643 Speculations From The Outside World \(4\)

The next day, the people who woke up began to have headaches. Leng ruoxue didn't kindly give them The Hangover medicine either. Instead, she pretended to look at them with an unhappy expression.

Knowing that they were in the wrong, the little beasts and the father and son, the mountain, did not dare to speak. Even the mother parasol tree became very obedient.

Seeing them like this, Leng ruoxue was already laughing in her heart. However, she did not show it on her face. Instead, she continued to look at them with a serious expression. In an instant, everyone present, be it humans or beasts, felt their hearts stir from Leng ruoxue's calm gaze. The atmosphere was also unusually tense.

"What's going on?" Suddenly, a curious voice was heard. The two brothers, Leng Xiaoqing and Leng Xiaoxiao, walked over and found an empty seat.

The moment baby saw Leng Xiaoxiao, he cleverly changed the topic and said, "Leng family's old ancestor, are you here to give us compensation?"

As soon as it said that, the other four little beasts, the father and son of the mountain, and the mother parasol tree immediately turned to look at Leng Xiaoxiao.

Leng Xiaoxiao became nervous when he saw that he had instantly become the focus of attention of the people and beasts present. He then said carefully, "We've already prepared the compensation, but we didn't bring it this time."

He didn't expect that after drinking so much last night, this little guy still hadn't forgotten about it. Sigh! What should he say?

"Are you ready? Do you know how much we want as compensation?" Hearing this, baby blinked innocently and asked.

"Uh!" Leng Xiaoxiao was speechless. From what he was saying, the other party must have an ideal amount in mind! Could he refuse? He knew that they might not be able to accept the number that the other party had said.

However, looking at the serious expressions on his precious little beasts, he knew that no matter how much the other party wanted for the emotional damage, they would not refuse.

"Hehe! I'm ready, but you can tell me if you have any ideas. We'll discuss it. " After a moment of awkwardness, Leng Xiaoxiao quickly corrected himself.

And baby was waiting for him to say this.

Then, the baby turned to look at its master with a fawning smile and said, ""Master, let's discuss the amount of emotional damage!"

"Is there even a need to discuss this? How much assets does Leng Yiqun have in total, including all his assets in the Leng family in his future life, as well as his small gold vault, you can just bring them all over. " Leng ruoxue said nonchalantly.

Leng Xiaoqing and Leng Xiaoxiao broke out in cold sweat when they heard this. However, the two brothers were glad that Leng ruoxue had given them some face and did not ask the Leng family to pay the compensation. Otherwise, they would have to beg for food when they reached the divinity. As for what kind of treatment Leng Yiqun would receive, they couldn't care less now. It was because the two of them had the same thoughts in their hearts-they couldn't implicate the entire Leng family just because of Leng Yiqun.

Therefore, when the two of them heard Leng ruoxue's words, they immediately nodded their heads in agreement. Leng Xiaoqing even expressed that if this was not enough, they would make Leng Yiqun their slave and servant. No matter how Bao Bao and the other beasts did, they would not say a word.

Just like that, Leng Xiaoqing and Leng Xiaoxiao easily threw Leng Yiqun to baby and the rest. Although baby wasn't too satisfied with the result, it still obediently agreed to it in order not to anger its master.

In fact, the reason why it wanted to discuss the compensation at this time was mainly to divert its master's attention so that he wouldn't be angry with them. But now that its master was willing to pay attention to them, it was relieved and completely at ease.

Al! It was really a false alarm! Baby couldn't help but sigh.

After that, Leng Xiaoqing and Leng Xiaoxiao finally had the chance to return to the main topic.

The two of them had come to look for Leng ruoxue mainly to ask about Xue 'er's next plan. That was because all the forces on the Haotian continent, other than the few who had secretly pledged their allegiance to Sun Tao, had agreed to hire Leng ruoxue. Now was the time for them to start working.

When Leng ruoxue heard the reason for their visit, she asked casually, ""How did you deal with the people from the other forces who submitted to Sun Tao?"

"I haven't dealt with it yet! I only temporarily locked them up in the Leng family's prison. Although many forces have requested for them to be killed directly so as to give Sun Tao a warning, I didn't listen to them. " Leng Xiaoqing explained.

"Mm, let them go!" Leng ruoxue nodded.

"Let him go? Xue 'er, they are Sun Tao's men. " Leng Xiaoqing could not understand what Leng ruoxue meant and could not help but remind her.

"They're just a few small fries. There's no practical point in keeping them alive. It's better to let them fight with Sun Tao. " Leng ruoxue smiled.

"Hmm, that's a good idea. Let them fight Sun Tao while we look for an opportunity to launch a sneak attack." Leng Xiaoqing agreed after some thought.

Leng ruoxue smiled and didn't say much.

After knowing her intentions, Leng Xiaoqing and Leng Xiaoxiao immediately bade their goodbyes and released her.

As for Leng ruoxue, she naturally returned to her days of being a hands-off manager.

As long as it was a task that required communication with the major forces, she would hand it over to the chief butler and Luo Lin to do, and she would close her door every day, so no one knew what she was busy with. There were even many speculations in the outside world that she was thinking about how to deal with Sun Tao.

However, only the people closest to Leng ruoxue knew that Leng ruoxue did not do anything at all. She did not even think about it. Every day, other than eating and sleeping, she would either lie in the garden and bask in the sun. Her days were free and at ease.

Chapter 2644 Chaos In The Hearts Of People \(1\)

More importantly, Leng ruoxue did not care about what the outside world thought about her. She was still the same until the mother parasol tree could not stand it anymore. She asked helplessly, "Xue 'er, how long do you plan to be lazy?"

"I'm slacking?" Leng ruoxue, who was lying on the deck chair in the garden, blinked her beautiful eyes and said innocently.

"Of course there is! Do you know that the outside world is guessing what you're doing and when you're going to deal with Sun Tao? many forces can't wait. They're in constant fear every day, afraid that Sun Tao will come to find them. Especially after they heard that the dogs that had submitted to Sun Tao had been released, some forces were furious. You're hiding here and not asking about anything, but the two little guys of the Leng family are so busy. It's really not easy for them. " The mother parasol tree sighed as it spoke, and it conveniently pitied Leng Xiaoqing and Leng Xiaoxiao.

Even though the mother parasol tree said that, Leng ruoxue could hear a hint of schadenfreude in its tone. Furthermore, Leng ruoxue knew that the mother parasol tree had been enjoying the show for the past few days. When it had nothing to do, it would use its divine consciousness to watch the show. Hence, she did not believe that the mother parasol tree would suddenly act up with a sense of justice and wanted to accuse her of being irresponsible!

"Senior, since you feel so sorry for someone, why don't you go and help them?" Leng ruoxue teased with a smile.

"Help them? How can I help?" The mother parasol tree was shocked and immediately became alert. Nothing good would come out of this little girl asking her for help! She could not be fooled.

"I'm just helping them calm down the angry forces! With senior's pressure, I believe they will shut up soon. " Leng ruoxue laughed evilly.

"Girl, you've already signed a contract with them. Can't you just do what you're supposed to do?" The mother parasol tree asked immediately.

"I'm on official business! However, some people are too impatient, so I can only ask senior for help. " Leng ruoxue said innocently.

"You're on business? You eat and sleep every day, then eat again after you sleep, or you'll be sunbathing in the garden. Is this called doing proper business? And those little beasts of yours too, playing all day and disappearing without a trace, leaving early and returning late ... Wait! Could it be that you had them monitor Sun Tao?" The mother parasol tree suddenly thought of this possibility and quickly asked.

"No, they took the Golden Hawk out to play. The few of them have been getting along quite well recently. " Leng ruoxue nodded in satisfaction.

"Girl, I know it's impossible for you to not have any thoughts about it, so don't play dumb with me. Tell me first!" The mother parasol tree pleaded anxiously.

"Senior, can't you see that I'm just waiting for an opportunity?" Leng ruoxue asked with a smile.

"The rabbit is Sun Tao?" The mother parasol tree asked with uncertainty.

"It's only one. " Leng ruoxue said calmly.

"Are you sure he'll come? Why do I feel like he'll hide in a rat hole the moment he hears your name?" The parasol tree mother tree said matter-of-factly, Xue 'er's reputation was notorious, she really did not think that Sun Tao would take the initiative to come to her door and get beaten up! Then how low was the other party's IQ!

"Senior, you don't know him. If he knows I'm in the city, he'll come. If that's the case, do we still need to find him? Just wait here. Besides, just to be safe, he'll also bring the entire Wen family over. " Leng ruoxue said confidently.

"You're so sure?" The mother parasol tree was in disbelief.

"I'm sure, I'm sure, and I'm certain. Sun Tao is an obstinate and self-opinionated person. He thinks that Haotian continent is already under his control, and he has the Wen family as his helpers. Naturally, he won't take me seriously, so he will definitely come. " Leng ruoxue laughed.

"What if he didn't come? Wouldn't you be waiting for nothing?" The mother parasol tree reminded.

"Based on my understanding of him, he won't let go of such a good opportunity, especially when he knows that I'm coming back alone. He'll think that his chance has come." Leng ruoxue was exceptionally confident.

"Since you're so sure, then I can only wait and see." The mother parasol tree did not know what to say when it saw how confident Leng ruoxue was.

Just as she was about to change the topic, she suddenly saw her baby and the rest return from the outside from the corner of her eye. The mother parasol tree smiled and said, "Ah, I actually saw you guys come back during the day. It's really not easy!"

"Wuu ... Master, senior tree, we're on the verge of a mental breakdown!" Hearing the voice of the mother parasol tree, Yu was the first to start wailing.

When Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree saw this, they looked at the dejected little fellows in confusion. What was going on? Who had the ability to make them collapse? The two of them were very curious!

However, none of the five little beasts answered their questions. Instead, they cried together.

Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree were speechless when they saw this.

Did it have to be so exaggerated? Leng ruoxue would never believe that they had encountered something so sad. One had to know that other than Mei, the other four little beasts had always been heartless, but now Mei was crying with them. How serious was this matter?

Left with no choice, Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree carried the little beasts and coaxed them one by one.

"Master, you should throw that Golden Eagle away! If we stay with it, we'll be driven mad." Yu, who was being coaxed by Leng ruoxue, said with a choked voice.

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree looked at each other and understood immediately!

It seemed that the five little guys had also experienced the Golden Eagle's character and were deeply shocked. Leng ruoxue pitied them in her heart and asked again, "Where's the Golden Eagle? Why didn't he come back with you?"

The five little beasts looked at each other, but no one answered.

"Where is it?" Leng ruoxue, who felt that something was amiss, asked again.

"It's very good. We put it in a mountain near the proud cold city. We saw that it liked it there, so we left it there." Yu looked at his master carefully and explained.

"You guys have already thrown it away?" Leng ruoxue was speechless. These little fellows were just asking her to lose the Golden Hawk. So they wanted to act first and report later!

"We didn't leave it behind. It said it liked that place." Yu emphasized. With that, it quickly lowered its little head, not daring to look at Leng ruoxue. Naturally, Leng ruoxue could see a trace of guilt on its face.

"Are there any mountains near the city? Why can't I find it?" The mother parasol tree, who had a map of the Haotian continent in her hand, could not help but ask.

"There is. The mountain isn't big, so it's not on the map. More importantly, it's very quiet there. No humans will come to disturb it." Baby quickly explained.

"You guys ... Are not talking about a barren mountain, are you? Oh my God! That little fellow will starve to death. " When the mother parasol tree heard that, it was a little worried.

"How can that be? it will find its own food. For so many years, without us, it has still lived well." Baby said disapprovingly.

Chapter 2645 Chaos In The Hearts Of People \(2\)

"That's different. If it was a barren mountain without any plants, it would be the first Golden Eagle to die of hunger on the Haotian continent. Xue 'er, we have to go find that little fellow. " The mother parasol tree was kind and full of love, it could not bear to see the little fellow die from hunger.

"Let's go find it!" Leng ruoxue nodded. Then, she pretended to look at the five little beasts unhappily, as if she was blaming them for making their own decisions.

"Master ..." Leng ruoxue's reproachful gaze was too much for the five little fellows. They didn't expect that their master, who had always doted on them, would blame them for a foreign beast. This made them feel very uncomfortable.

"Don't you know where you went wrong?" Leng ruoxue asked coldly.

"We just don't want it to be by our cute master's side," Baby said loudly. Therefore, although they seemed to be getting along well with the Golden Eagle, they were actually trying to find a chance to send it away. After a few days, their desire to do so became stronger, because the Golden Eagle was driving them crazy.

"I have quite a number of Beastie around me, it doesn't matter if it's one more. Why are you all targeting it?" Leng ruoxue could not understand. As far as she knew, although her precious little fellows liked to fight for favor, they had never deceived other Beastie into secretly throwing them away, so she could not understand why they were acting like this.

"It's all for me. I don't want it to take my job. " Yu said in a low voice. The four of them were all trying to help him by targeting the Golden Eagle.

"Yu, Didn't I tell you that no Beastie can steal your job?" Leng ruoxue sighed softly and her tone softened.

"But I'm worried! My instinct tells me that it's a great threat to me. Sob ... Master has so many flying beasts, and many of them are faster than me. I'm useless in the divine world. If I'm replaced by other Eagle clans on Haotian continent, what's the point of me? I don't want to be a burden. I also want to do something for master. " Yu said with an aggrieved expression.

"You fool! Who said you're useless? All of you are irreplaceable in my heart. " Leng ruoxue's heart ached when she heard the Golden Hawk's complaint. These little beasts had been following her since high wind continent. Perhaps they couldn't help her sometimes due to their strength, but in her heart, they were not pure beasts, but family. That was why she never thought that Yu would think that she was useless. Al! It seemed that when she was free, she really had to communicate properly with the beasts to prevent them from overthinking.

"Oh ... Master!" When they heard Leng ruoxue say that they were irreplaceable, the few little beasts pounced into her arms and were so touched that they started bawling again.

"Alright, stop crying. It's as if I'm bullying you." Leng ruoxue said helplessly.

"Master is bullying us. That Golden Eagle is so stupid and likes to talk big. Master is so good to it ..."
Seeing that its master's anger seemed to have subsided, baby immediately began to complain.

In the beginning, they didn't know what the Golden Hawk was like. However, after spending a few days with it, they found that the Hawk was not just unbearable. With this discovery and their master's special treatment of the Hawk, they decided to get rid of it on impulse. Their lovely master treated the Hawk so differently, which made them deeply realize the danger they had never been in.

"Hehe, it seems like you've experienced it too." Leng ruoxue laughed evilly.

"Master is so bad. He knows the Hawk's personality, but he still wants us to get along with it. We are almost driven crazy by it." Baby said with lingering fear.

"This is called sharing blessings and difficulties! As its master, I've endured it for so long. Of course, you guys should experience it too." Leng ruoxue laughed in delight, especially when she saw the five little beasts' resentful gazes. Her laughter became even more cheerful.

"Bad master!" At this moment, if the five little beasts still didn't know that they had been tricked by their master, they would be too stupid. However, after thinking it through, they began to doubt their master's motive for keeping the Golden Eagle.

The Golden Eagle had a special personality, so it shouldn't be master's cup of tea. Why did master keep it?

"Master, when did you change your taste?" Yu couldn't help but ask.

"What do you mean?" This question puzzled Leng ruoxue.

"Why did you take that Golden Eagle in? don't tell us you didn't have time to send it home! We won't believe you now." Baby took over Yu's question and said it very straightforwardly.

"Not having time is one thing, but I do want to keep it. Don't you think it's quite interesting? If there are any difficult enemies in the future, we'll send it into the enemy's territory to brainwash them, and it'll be twice the result with half the effort!" Leng ruoxue said nonchalantly.

The five little beasts were speechless when they heard this. But thinking about it, the Golden Eagle definitely had the ability to drive the enemy crazy, but it was too weak to do anything big!

"That's a good idea. Let us train this Golden Hawk!" Baby thought for a while and said with confidence.

When the Mei and the other little beasts heard this, they were so frightened that their faces turned pale.

Yu trembled and pointed at the treasure with his wing. He said in a panic, "I didn't hear wrong, did I? You still want to train it? Oh my God! You must be crazy! How could you have such a thought?"

"It's not me, it's US!" Baby emphasized.

"I don't want to take on this burden. I'm afraid that before I can train the Golden Eagle, it will drive me crazy or brainwash me. What do you want to see?" Yu said in shock.

"If I don't train it, how many enemies can it deal with now?" Baby frowned and said with a headache.

"That, that still can't be ..." Yu still wanted to fight for it, but he was interrupted by Leng ruoxue.

"Darling, that's a good idea. From now on, I'll officially hand that little fellow over to you. Not only must you train it well, but you must also take good care of it!" Leng ruoxue said firmly.

"Cute master, don't worry. We won't fail our mission!" Baby was full of confidence. However, the four little beasts were not as confident as it was. They were unusually silent.

However, Leng ruoxue was still very satisfied with this outcome.

"Let me remind you, that Golden Eagle has no sense of direction. Most importantly, you guys have lost it on purpose. You can think about it after you find it!" At this time, seeing that the master beast and the others were chatting happily, the mother parasol tree could not help but pour some cold water on their heads.

"Master, the situation doesn't look good. We'd better quickly go and find it!" Treasure replied immediately.

Leng ruoxue was very satisfied with her baby's concern for her partner and nodded. After that, she and the mother parasol tree let the five little beasts lead the way. They planned to find the Golden Eagle that was left in a barren mountain.

Chapter 2646 Chaos In The Hearts Of People \(3\)

After they left the snow garden, the two of them and the five beasts met Leng Xiaoqing and Leng Xiaoxiao before they even walked out of the Leng clan. The two of them were surprised that Leng ruoxue had finally stepped out of the courtyard. After asking around, they found out that they were going to find the Golden Eagle that had wandered into a barren mountain near the AO han city.

The two of them couldn't understand why the Golden Eagle, who had been staying in the Leng family's main house, would go to the barren mountain. They immediately said that they would go with him and help him find it.

Then, without waiting for Leng ruoxue's approval, he followed and sat on feather's back. Helplessly, Yu could only carry two more people and fly to a barren mountain.

Very quickly, Yu arrived at the entrance of the barren mountain. Looking at the barren mountain range that was half a man tall, not even the shadow of a green tree could be seen, Leng Xiaoqing could not hold it in any longer and asked, "Xue 'er, why did your Golden Eagle suddenly run away from home? And even ran here?"

Leng ruoxue fell silent. She felt that she might be laughed at if she told the truth, so she decided to keep her mouth shut.

But baby couldn't help it. He clenched his little fist and said loudly, ""Who said it ran away from home? We're playing hide-and-seek. "

"Alright! I've misunderstood. " Leng Xiaoqing was speechless. She was smart enough not to continue asking.

After entering the mountain, they flew straight to the place where they had left the Golden Eagle, but they didn't find any trace of the Golden Eagle. They only saw a few golden feathers on the ground. Suddenly, the five little beasts were a little anxious.

"Master, let's split up and search!" The Mei suggested.

"Alright, take care." Leng ruoxue agreed. Then, the four humans and five demonic beasts each chose a direction and began a carpet search.

After a long time.

They returned to the meeting place. The five little beasts were all dejected, and Leng ruoxue and the other three did not discover anything.

"Don't worry too much. Maybe it has returned to the Leng family's main house by itself!" Leng Xiaoqing saw that the atmosphere was a little gloomy, so she could only comfort him.

"No, it has no sense of direction. I think it was captured." Baby said with an anxious face, feeling a little guilty in his heart.

"Let's go back first! It might have really gone back by itself. " Leng ruoxue said after some thought.

"Cute master, let's keep looking!" Baby said worriedly. As a Beastie, it really didn't want the Golden Eagle to be taken away by humans. You should know that not all Masters in this world treat Beastie as family like their master.

"There's no need to look for him, let's go back first. " Leng ruoxue gave a half-command. In fact, she knew that there was no trace of the Golden Eagle nearby, and she did not know where the little fellow had gone. However, regardless of whether the Golden Eagle had been captured by humans or not, she did not want her Beastie to have any psychological burden.

It was good that she was biased. In short, for her, the Golden Eagle's status could not be compared with her little Beastie. As for the Golden Eagle, it could only pray for itself.

Just like that, Leng ruoxue's group of four and the five extremely unwilling little beasts returned to the Leng family's main residence.

In the next few days, the five beasts that Leng ruoxue had kept in the snow garden tried all sorts of ways to go out and continue looking for the Golden Eagle. However, they were all caught by their master. This fact made them quite depressed. After that, the five little beasts that wanted to sneak away were sent into the bracelet by Leng RUO.

In the snow garden.

Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree were drinking tea and chatting as usual.

As they were chatting, the mother parasol tree suddenly asked, "'Xue 'er, are you really not going to look for the little Golden Hawk?'"

In reality, she had wanted to ask this question for a long time. However, she had noticed that the five little beasts were not in a good mood these few days, so she did not dare to ask Leng ruoxue what she thought.

"Senior, I've asked green vessel to search the area, but there's no sign of the Golden Eagle." Leng ruoxue replied honestly.

"This is serious. If we can't find the Golden Hawk, your five little beasts will be so guilty!" The mother parasol tree heaved a sigh.

"We have no choice. Now we can only pray that the Golden Hawk will meet a good master." Leng ruoxue said helplessly.

"Al! I hope so!" The mother parasol tree did not know what to say.

She could only say that the Golden Eagle was rather unlucky. In order to prevent Sun Tao's sudden attack, they almost did not dare to go too far away from the proud cold city. Otherwise, they could have gone further to find the little guy.

"Sister, I found the Golden Hawk." At this moment, Qing Jue's voice suddenly rang in Leng ruoxue's mind.

"Where are you?" When Leng ruoxue heard this, she hurriedly asked.

"Outside the city gate." Qing Jue's voice was a little strange.

"Xue 'er, Sun Tao has brought his men to attack the city!" At the same time, Leng Xiaoxiao's anxious voice could be heard in the garden. His voice had arrived before he had even arrived.

By the time Leng Xiaoxiao appeared in the garden, Leng ruoxue noticed that his forehead was covered in sweat.

"Outside the city gate?" Leng ruoxue asked subconsciously.

"Yes, he has brought more than 1000 people with him, and tens of thousands of people with him. Now the entire proud cold city is surrounded by his people." Leng Xiaoxiao's face was a little pale.

"Let's go out and take a look. " Seeing that the rabbit had finally arrived, Leng ruoxue was naturally happy. Especially since that stupid Golden Eagle was also at the city gate, she had to go out.

However, when Leng Xiaoxiao heard Leng ruoxue's words, he immediately became anxious. "'Xue 'er, there are too many of them. Don't go out and find a place to hide! Let us handle Sun Tao. "

The number of people on their side paled in comparison to Sun Tao 's. There was no way to compare them at all, especially in terms of experts. They were even more pitiful. Even if they counted all the elites who were currently living in the AO han city, they did not even have one-tenth of the number of people on their side.

Whether it was the difference in numbers or the difference in strength between the two sides, it had already made many people panic.

At this moment, even if they had confidence in Leng ruoxue, those who had not seen her true strength were completely flustered.

Even Leng Xiaoqing and Leng Xiaoxiao started to worry about Leng ruoxue. It was clear that Sun Tao was here for Xue 'er. Now, the other party was making a scene outside the city, demanding that they hand Xue' er over. How could they possibly do that?

Not to mention that Leng ruoxue was still a member of the Leng family, even if this little girl wasn't from the Leng family, with their pride, they wouldn't allow them to use a woman to resolve the current crisis. If they did that, could they still be considered men?

However, even though they would not do something so uncultured, it did not mean that the other forces would not be moved by Sun Tao's proposal. This was because the two brothers had clearly sensed that some forces had already lost their minds due to their fickleness.

Initially, some of the factions were already very dissatisfied with Leng ruoxue's delay in fulfilling her promise to deal with Sun Tao. Now, Sun Tao had brought so many people with him and even proposed a condition that seemed rather easy to fulfill. As long as Leng ruoxue was handed over, Sun Tao promised to leave immediately with his men and not make a move against any of the factions. To the various factions, this was a huge temptation!

One must know that Sun Tao's conditions would not cause any loss to the various forces. More importantly, the other party had promised never to make a move on them. In the eyes of many forces, this was much more favorable than Leng ruoxue's condition of taking half of their assets before she was willing to deal with Sun Tao. It was easy to imagine the choices of some of the forces who had been forced to sign the contract.

When the two brothers sensed that some factions were showing signs of such a thing, one of them stayed in the city to deal with the other factions 'difficulties, while the other immediately came over to inform Leng ruoxue to escape.

In their opinion, it was not a good time for Xue 'er to step out of the Leng family's residence. Otherwise, she would definitely be attacked by some forces. They didn't want to see that happen!

When Leng ruoxue noticed that Leng Xiaoxiao's tone was a little off, she sized him up and asked, ""What happened? Why did you ask me to Dodge?"

"It's fine. Didn't I say that there are too many of them?" Leng Xiaoxiao said hurriedly.

"You want me to hide just because there are too many people?" Leng ruoxue was speechless. She was not a fool. When Leng Xiaoxiao said this, other than being anxious, he also had a guilty conscience as if he was lying. He was clearly hiding something from her, and it was something related to her.

At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue looked at the mother parasol tree.

The mother parasol tree saw that Xue 'er was asking it with her eyes and said with a look of anticipation, "It's so lively inside and outside the city now. The people outside are clamoring to hand you over, and there are also people inside who are demanding the Leng family to hand you over! Xue 'er, let's go out and watch the show! I can't wait any longer. "

"Let's go!" Hearing this, Leng ruoxue agreed with the mother parasol tree's suggestion. She also wanted to know who had the foresight to want to hand her over.

With that, the two of them ignored Leng Xiaoxiao, who was stomping his feet in anxiety, and left the snow garden.

"Xue 'er, my little ancestor, don't go out!" When Leng Xiaoxiao saw that Leng ruoxue and the other woman had ignored his existence and advice and walked out, he was so anxious that he almost felt his liver burn with anger. He hurriedly chased after them.

However, Leng ruoxue had always had her own ideas, so it was impossible for Leng Xiaoxiao to persuade her. Leng Xiaoxiao realized this later on and could only put on an expression as if he was willing to risk his life to accompany the willful girl. He stayed by Leng ruoxue's side, guarding her like a guardian angel.

He had even decided that if anyone dared to force Xue 'er, he would fight them to the death.

On the way to the Leng family's main residence, the parasol tree noticed that Leng Xiaoxiao was extremely nervous. It even patted his shoulder with a smile and said, "Calm down! Little guy, you're too nervous! Relax!"

He couldn't relax!

Leng Xiaoxiao shot a resentful glance at Leng ruoxue. If this girl was willing to listen to him, he might not be so nervous! But now, he felt that he was so worried that his hair had turned white.

Chapter 2647 The Picky Golden Eagle \(1\)

Unfortunately, at this moment, neither Leng ruoxue nor the mother parasol tree cared about Leng Xiaoxiao's thoughts. The mother parasol tree was eager for the situation to be as lively and chaotic as possible, but Leng ruoxue did not care.

The few of them quickly left the Leng family's main residence. As soon as they stepped out of the main gate, they happened to see many forces 'representatives blocking the Leng family's main residence's entrance, shouting something loudly.

The moment they saw Leng ruoxue, the entire place fell into a momentary silence. After a few minutes, everyone finally reacted. Someone even started to stir things up, "Quickly hand Leng ruoxue over. We'll be safe once we hand her over!"

His words quickly drew a response from many people, and the scene became chaotic. Leng Xiaoqing, who was originally maintaining order, heard his words and his face turned black immediately! "You bastard!" These people were really too lawless. In front of him, the ancestor of the Leng family, they were clamoring to hand over the Leng family. Wasn't this a slap to his face?

Leng Xiaoqing was furious, but he was even angrier that Leng Xiaoxiao had failed to persuade that willful girl, Leng ruoxue, to go into hiding. He had even brought her out. Wasn't this making her a living target?

He glared at Leng Xiaoxiao angrily, and his eyes seemed to be blaming him for not doing a good job. Leng Xiaoxiao looked at his elder brother with an aggrieved expression and did not argue.

After glaring at Leng Xiaoxiao, Leng Xiaoqing turned her gaze to the person who had spoken earlier. She was about to scold him when an even angrier voice suddenly came from behind her, ""Who has the guts to hand over my master?"

The ones who let out this roar were Luo Lin and the others who had arrived after them. Initially, when they heard that Sun Tao had arrived, they wanted to immediately look for Leng ruoxue. Who knew that their master had already left the falling snow garden? when they heard that, they immediately chased after her and happened to witness the scene just now!

Even though Leng ruoxue and the parasol tree mother tree did not have much of a reaction to the scene before their eyes, when Luo Lin and the rest heard someone suggesting to hand their master over to Sun Tao, their anger instantly surged. The head butler of Wanshan city was one step ahead and grabbed the collar of the instigator, loudly questioning, ""Are you the one who wants to hand over my master?"

"No, it's not just my idea. This is everyone's idea. You'd better follow the public's opinion. This is good for you and US!" The person being held by the head butler of Wanshan city was a middle-aged man. At this moment, his face had already turned pale from the fear of the fiendish head butler, and he was even stuttering a little. However, as soon as he thought of Sun Tao and the others outside the city, he still mustered up his courage to express his thoughts.

He felt that he wasn't only doing this for himself, but for everyone's benefit. Hence, everyone should be grateful to him for taking the lead to make such a request. One should know that the law couldn't punish the masses. If this was everyone's intention, then Leng ruoxue would have no choice but to comply.

But would Leng ruoxue do what he had imagined? The answer was no.

When the myriad Mountain city's head butler heard the other party's words, he snorted and roared, ""Bullshit! What do you mean by everyone's intention? this was clearly your own idea, and you actually pushed the responsibility onto everyone. What kind of heart do you have? At a time like this, instead of thinking about how everyone should work together to deal with Sun Tao, you're instigating internal strife among us. Speak! Are you a spy sent by Sun Tao?"

"I, I'm not! Don't wrong me!" The middle-aged man was furious. In a short moment, his pale face turned red. It was obvious how angry he was.

It must be known that in the middle-aged man's mind, instigating was one thing, but he definitely couldn't let the other party Pin the blame of Sun Tao's traitor on his head. If everyone suspected him like that, even if Sun Tao didn't attack him, these people wouldn't let him off. So for the sake of his life, he couldn't be wronged like that no matter what.

However, after many years of experience, the head butler of the Wanshan city was no longer the kind Bandit he was in the past. The current him had the aura of a superior. Seeing that the other party seemed to want to put up a last-ditch struggle, he coldly laughed and said, "Wrongly accused you? Do I need to do that?"

"Of course there is. You are Leng ruoxue's subordinate. Because I suggested for everyone to hand Leng ruoxue over, you bore a grudge against me." The middle-aged man quibbled.

"Alright! I hate you so much, so shouldn't I just kill you now? Who asked you to incite everyone to hand over my master! Al! I have no choice!" Wanshan city's head butler said with a face full of evil intent. His cold eyes swept across the others. These fence sitters, he really hoped that Sun Tao could get rid of them all. Otherwise, helping them might just turn out to be a bunch of ungrateful wolves!

"You, you ..." The middle-aged man was so angry that he couldn't speak. After taking a few deep breaths, he turned his head to the people behind him and continued to incite, ""You guys heard it. Because I suggested that we hand over his master, not only did he accuse me, he even wanted to cut me off. Sob ... You guys have to do me justice! Who did I do it for? It was all for everyone's safety! For the safety of the entire Haotian continent!"

The middle-aged man's words were sincere and earnest. Those who had the same thoughts as him secretly nodded. However, some people sneered at his words and suggestions.

"You put everyone's safety and the safety of Haotian continent on the basis of sacrificing a woman. You call this for everyone's good? You're a disgrace to all men. " The LAN clan's old ancestor was the first to speak in disdain. After he finished speaking, he even nodded towards Leng ruoxue, indicating that he was on her side.

Naturally, Leng ruoxue returned him a smile to show that she appreciated his kindness.

LAN lie saw that his ancestor had stood up for him, so he naturally agreed, ""That's right, are you even worthy of being a man? What did your parents teach you? You're always thinking of sacrificing others when you're in danger. No wonder your family is still a small, unranked family. With your thoughts, your family will never be able to become strong. I truly feel sorry for your clansmen. How could they have a clan head like you? "You sacrificed a weak woman when you encountered danger today, but what about next time? If there's any more danger, are you going to sacrifice your family?"

LAN lie's words were malicious and seemed to be trying to sow discord. The middle-aged man's family members listened to LAN lie's words and thought about it carefully. After all, this kind of thing could happen in the future. They knew better than anyone else what kind of person their master was.

He was a timid person. To say that he was a spy planted by Sun Tao was indeed an injustice. Their family head did not have the brains to think of submitting to Sun Tao. Furthermore, their family's strength was too low. Sun Tao might not even be interested in them.

And now, in order to protect himself, the family head had obviously offended those who were close to Leng ruoxue. As such, some of the more flexible-minded people were thinking about whether they should unite with the family head or go against him.

These people were very conflicted. This was because Sun Tao's strength was obvious, while Leng ruoxue's strength was like a flower in the water or the moon in the mirror. No one could figure it out. Therefore, they didn't know what to do for a while.

Chapter 2648 The Picky Golden Eagle \(2\)

Al! This was truly a difficult choice, and if they made the wrong choice, their small family would be directly annihilated and cease to exist.

The middle-aged man had no idea that LAN lie's words had caused some of his clansmen to change their minds. He was so angry at LAN lie's words that he was stomping his feet.

Just as the middle-aged man was thinking of a rebuttal, Leng ruoxue's voice suddenly rang out.

"Which one of you agrees to hand me over?" Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes swept across the crowd as she asked indifferently. Her voice was quite calm, and no one could make out anything from it.

The moment Leng Xiaoqing heard Leng ruoxue's question, he became even more anxious.

"Xue 'er, you don't have to worry about this. Just leave it to me." Leng Xiaoqing said hurriedly. As he spoke, he gave Leng Xiaoxiao a look.

"Yup! Xue 'er! With us here, no one will dare to touch you. " Leng Xiaoxiao quickly added.

"I'm just asking. Like this one said, we have to follow the public's opinion!" Leng ruoxue looked at Leng Xiaoqing and his brother in a consoling manner, then said with a half-smile. However, the two brothers miraculously calmed down after receiving a comforting gaze from Leng ruoxue.

"That's right, you should follow the public's opinion," When the middle-aged man heard Leng ruoxue's words, he thought that she was afraid of the pressure from the crowd. He could not help but feel proud of himself. This was all his credit!

"If that's the case, then make your choice quickly! Also, let me know who thinks that handing me over is the best way. " Leng ruoxue replied with a smile.

When the middle-aged man heard this, he quickly turned around and said to the people behind him, ""Hurry up and tell her that we all agree to do this!"

Silence! For a few minutes, no one made a sound.

"Hurry up and tell her! As long as we hand her over to Sun Tao, we'll be safe. " Seeing that no one responded, the middle-aged man was a little anxious. He could not understand why so many people had agreed to hand Leng ruoxue over just a moment ago. Why was everyone so silent now? If they didn't respond, then what was the point of him acting alone?

Thinking of this, the middle-aged man was furious!

He felt that Leng ruoxue's appearance had given everyone great pressure, causing them to not dare to express their feelings. What should he do?

The middle-aged man was very anxious. His forehead was slowly covered in cold sweat.

"What? weren't you guys yelling and yelling happily before?" Leng ruoxue asked coldly. Are you all mute now?"

Still, no one spoke!

Those who had agreed to hand Leng ruoxue over were now in a dilemma. They had wanted to hand her over in exchange for their own safety. However, the other party's aura was too strong, and it was so strong that they could not breathe. Hence, they were not sure if their decision was right or wrong.

"I'll give you five minutes to think. You must make a choice." Leng ruoxue was starting to lose her patience. She didn't want to waste any more time with them. She deeply felt that it wasn't worth it to waste her precious time on these people. Therefore, she decided to quickly settle everyone's stance, so that she could decide what she should do next.

As soon as she finished speaking, LAN lie was the first to approach Leng ruoxue with a cheeky smile on his face. With a fawning expression, he said, "Xue 'er, I have to stand on your side."

"Do you need to thank your brother?" Leng ruoxue couldn't help but tease LAN lie when she saw him calling himself 'big brother' in front of her.

"No need! No need!" LAN lie was sweating profusely. He could feel a dangerous aura. Wu...Couldn't this girl just let him enjoy being an elder?

LAN lie was very worried!

It looked like in front of Xue 'er, he was destined to never be able to turn things around.

Once the five minutes were up, Leng ruoxue immediately pointed at the middle-aged man and said, ""You can choose now. Those who agree to hand me over, just stand behind this person. "

Hearing this, all the major forces were still watching.

LAN lie took a look and immediately called out to the LAN family members, "The LAN family, stand on my side!"

Everyone from the LAN family looked at each other. Seeing that the old ancestor did not move, none of them dared to make a decision on their own. It was only until the old ancestor of the LAN family sighed softly that he spoke, ""Follow me!"

After he finished speaking, he brought the remaining members of the LAN clan and stood between Leng ruoxue and the middle-aged man. They each took a look at each other before they stood behind the middle-aged man in shock.

Instantly, the middle-aged man was pleased.

LAN lie, the Leng family, and the other major forces were all dumbfounded. What was going on?

The LAN family's old ancestor was speaking up for Leng ruoxue just now and looked down on a certain someone who wanted to sacrifice a woman in exchange for his own safety! Why did the LAN family's old ancestor take the lead to go back on his word in such a short time? Especially since the LAN family's old ancestor and young master had made different choices. Was this the rhythm of the LAN family's division?

Everyone was puzzled. On the other hand, Leng Xiaoqing and Leng Xiaoxiao were extremely furious. As everyone knew, the Leng family and the LAN family had always had a good relationship. They were almost on the same boat. However, this time, the LAN family had slapped the Leng family in the face. Therefore, the two men's faces turned black and white in an extremely ugly manner.

However, Leng ruoxue was extremely calm.

As the young master of the LAN family, LAN lie couldn't stay calm at all. He shouted at the LAN family's old ancestor in disappointment, "Old ancestor, how could you agree to hand Xue 'er over to Sun Tao? That guy is a scumbag, he won't let Xue 'er off!"

When the LAN family's old ancestor heard this, he sighed to himself, but his face was so calm that no one could tell what he was really thinking. In fact, the LAN family was also quite puzzled about this. However, since this was the decision of their ancestor, they must support it. At this moment, LAN lie's thoughts were naturally ignored by them. Who asked LAN lie's seniority and status to be inferior to the LAN family's ancestor?

Seeing that the LAN family had agreed to hand Leng ruoxue over, the people who had the same thoughts but did not dare to express them no longer pretended to be invisible. They all stood behind the middle-aged man.

At this moment, other than the Leng family, her own subordinates, and LAN lie, the only one who supported her was Leng ruoxue.

Comparing the two, her side seemed a little cold and pitiful. However, when Leng ruoxue saw this situation, she became even calmer.

In the time that followed, the various forces were all extremely cautious and deep in thought before deciding on their own positions. Leng ruoxue's side did not only consist of the Leng family, LAN lie and her subordinates. The top forces that she had thought highly of all stood on her side in the end. Other than that, the various headquarters and shadow League had also chosen to support her without exception.

What surprised Leng ruoxue was that other than the factions that had wanted to befriend her, there were also some factions with decent strength that had chosen to stand on her side. As for the middle-aged man's side, other than the LAN family, they were all small and medium-sized forces with weak strength. Even though they seemed to have the advantage in terms of numbers, their abilities could not be compared to Leng ruoxue 's.

Chapter 2649 The Picky Golden Eagle \(3\)

"Has everyone made their choice?" Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes swept across the people on both sides as she asked.

"Wait!" Suddenly, the LAN clan's old ancestor spoke.

For some reason, the middle-aged man felt uneasy.

However, the LAN family's old ancestor did not give the other party a chance to speak. He said to Leng ruoxue, "I've thought about it carefully. I still can't support the idea of sacrificing a woman in exchange for my own safety. That's not what a man should do. So, I have to choose a new stand."

With that, he brought the LAN family over to Leng ruoxue's side. Seeing this, LAN lie's depressed mood turned for the better. The LAN family's old ancestor patted LAN lie's head helplessly. LAN lie was even more excited, "Old ancestor, your choice won't be wrong."

Such a huge reversal caught everyone off guard. Especially the middle-aged man's side, everyone was petrified.

One must know that a considerable number of factions had decided to sacrifice Leng ruoxue because of the LAN family's choice. They felt that with the LAN family around, even if the Leng family was still angry, they would not do anything to them easily. However, things had completely exceeded everyone's expectations. The LAN family had turned against them! What should they do?

Learn from the LAN family?

I'm afraid not! Their family didn't have a LAN lie who had a good relationship with Leng ruoxue. Furthermore, LAN lie had been on Leng ruoxue's side from the start. The LAN family could also say that they had compromised for the sake of harmony in the family. What reason did they have?

They had no reason to do so! The factions that supported handing Leng ruoxue over couldn't think of a good solution to the current crisis. The current situation made them feel extremely uneasy. They had a feeling that something was about to happen, and this feeling was terrible.

Leng ruoxue didn't give the other factions a chance to turn against her. She only told them coldly, "Since you've chosen to sacrifice me, I can't keep you here. Please leave this place as soon as possible."

"Y-you can't do this!" When the middle-aged man heard this, he quickly regained his senses and said angrily.

Now that Sun Tao and the others were outside, wouldn't it be sending them to their deaths if they left the city? Would Sun Tao let them off for not being able to hand over Leng ruoxue? The middle-aged man did not have that confidence. But now, he was also not confident that he could take Leng ruoxue as a hostage from the other party. He knew that he had completely offended Leng ruoxue, and the other party would not tolerate him.

"What a joke! Since you're handing me over to Sun Tao, you're naturally my enemy. Do you think I'll let you stay in the city and be ready to bite me at any time? Do you think I'm an idiot?" Leng ruoxue mocked.

When the head butler of Wanshan city heard this, he supported Leng ruoxue with all his might and said, "That's right! You can't stay here any longer. You can choose to leave on your own or to have us kick you out. "

"We won't leave the city, right?" The middle-aged man saw that the other party seemed to want to use force, so he quickly turned around and began to incite again.

"That's right! We're not leaving! "We ..." Before the middle-aged man's group could finish their words, the impatient Chief Steward of Wanshan city directly picked up the middle-aged man and sat on his flying beast. He flew to the tall city wall and gently threw the middle-aged man out.

This scene made many people feel afraid.

However, it was useless to be afraid, because it would soon be their turn.

The people of Wanshan city were like wolves. Seeing that the head butler had taken the lead, they naturally followed suit. Very quickly, those who wanted to hand Leng ruoxue over were all thrown out of the city walls of the proud cold city.

"....."

Looking at the entrance of the Leng family's main residence, which had become much quieter in an instant, the remaining forces were all trembling with fear.

These people were really too barbaric and didn't play by the rules. They actually threw the other party out. One had to know that this wasn't just a matter of losing face, there were still Sun Tao's men outside the city watching covetously!

At the same time, they were also glad that they had made the choice. Otherwise, they would have been the ones to be treated like this.

After doing all this, everyone from the Wanshan city clapped their hands in disgust, as if they had just thrown something dirty. The people they had thrown out of the city were all panicking.

Although it was absolutely impossible for a cultivator to die from being thrown from such a high city wall, it would still be painful even if he did not die. After all, not everyone had the wind attribute and not everyone had the strength of a dark Supreme. Therefore, they fell from the city wall in different postures.

At the same time, Sun Tao and the rest who were waiting outside the city had also noticed the commotion. However, they were extremely puzzled by the commotion.

What the hell was this? Even if they knew that they were no match for them, they didn't have to jump down from the city wall, right? He wouldn't die from the fall and would be completely exposed in front of them. What was the use?

Initially, Sun Tao and the rest were very relaxed. However, when they heard those bangs! After the sound of a heavy object falling to the ground, they could no longer remain calm!

The moment Sun Tao recalled that Leng ruoxue was in the proud cold city, he felt that this could be the cunning woman's plan. Hence, he had no choice but to be on guard.

Summoning his confidant, Sun Tao ordered him to capture a few people to interrogate them about the other party's intentions. Without any effort, a few unlucky people became Sun Tao's prisoners, including the middle-aged man.

After sizing him up, Sun Tao looked down and asked, ""You guys ... Are the spies sent by Leng ruoxue?"

"No, we were thrown out by that bad woman's subordinates." When the middle-aged man heard this, he suppressed the fear in his heart and complained.

"Eh? Tell me about it!" Sun Tao was quite interested in this explanation, and the middle-aged man, who was full of resentment, did not disappoint him. He explained the matter clearly in a few words.

In the end, the middle-aged man even looked at Sun Tao and said, "Senior, I was definitely responding to your call to hand Leng ruoxue over to you. But someone disagreed, and I couldn't do anything. Now, we have been chased out of the proud cold city. Oh ... Senior, you have to help us!"

The middle-aged man cried and begged. Sun Tao patted his head and comforted him, "Don't worry, I will make the decision for you. Your choice is wise. Now, tell me, what kind of people are there in the city?"

"I'm hungry!" Just as Sun Tao was about to ask about ao Hancheng's strength, a bitter voice suddenly rang out.

Hearing that, Sun Tao turned around and scolded, "Eat! Eat! Eat! You only know how to eat! You won't starve to death if you don't eat!"

"You're abusing cute little animals. I'm going to Sue you!" As he spoke, a small Golden Eagle had already flown in front of Sun Tao and landed on the middle-aged man's head. The middle-aged man was so scared that he didn't dare to move, because he could clearly feel the sharp claws of the eaglet on his head. If he moved carelessly, the Eagle's claws would accidentally scratch his head, and his head would probably be cut off.

No one knew whether it was intentional or not, but the Hawk was actually waving its sharp claws here and there. Feeling a chill on the top of his head, the middle-aged man was so scared that his legs went soft. This, this was too much bullying!

However, Sun Tao could not understand the fear in the middle-aged man's heart. Instead, he looked at the Golden Eagle in front of him impatiently and said, "Sue me? Where should we go?"

"I'm not telling you! Otherwise, you should think of a way to destroy it. " The Golden Hawk rolled its eyes and said, "I won't be fooled so easily."

Sun Tao was furious. This damn Golden Eagle is so annoying!

Sun Tao waved his hand as if he was shooing away a fly. He shouted impatiently, "Get lost! Get lost and don't appear in front of me again. Otherwise, I'll pluck all your feathers and you won't be able to fly in the sky!"

"If I leave just because you tell me to, then I'll lose face. Let me tell you, sun Moumou, I'm not leaving today! I just want to eat your food and live in your place. Who asked your subordinates to capture me?" The Golden Eagle didn't care about Sun Tao's threat at all, and said with a shameless face.

"You, you're still clinging to us, so what? Didn't I tell you to get lost a long time ago? Why are you still following us?" Sun Tao was going a little crazy when he heard this. It was all his blind subordinate's fault. He thought that he had caught a Supreme-grade flying beast, but who knew that he had actually caught a demon! In just a few days, they were almost driven crazy by the Golden Eagle. What was even more annoying was that the cage couldn't keep it. He couldn't understand this.

It was reasonable to say that this Golden Eagle was not very strong. It was just agile, fast, and slippery like a Loach. But there were so many of them. It was impossible for them to be helpless against it, right?

However, it was the truth. All of them together couldn't even take down a Golden Hawk. This result made everyone quite depressed. As for the Golden Hawk, they tried to get rid of it several times, but it always followed them like a shadow. It even asked them for food and water. If they didn't give it to it, they would be in a mess! If he didn't give her a good one, she wouldn't accept it either. He really didn't know where this ancestor came from. Why was he so difficult to serve?

Sun Tao was confused, but in order to get rid of the Hawk, he threw out a piece of dried meat out of habit, because it was the Hawk's favorite snack. But this time, the Hawk didn't even look at the dried meat, and even said with a disgusted face, "You're letting me eat this broken thing?"

Chapter 2650 How Audacious!\(1\)

"Broken thing? Don't you like it?" Hearing the Golden Hawk's words, the veins on Sun Tao's forehead throbbed. He didn't know why, but he had a bad feeling. He felt that the Golden Hawk was looking for trouble, because this guy never stayed quiet for a day.

Sure enough, after the Golden Hawk heard Sun Tao's words, it said with a look of disgust, ""Don't you know that Eagles also want a change of taste? Eagles are also very picky with their food. Don't even think about using this dry, hard-bound dried meat to deceive me! I'm telling you, this Lord wants to eat roasted meat now, bring me roasted meat!"

Sun Tao's face turned completely black after the Golden Hawk finished its command. "You bastard!" Did this broken bird really think it was a master? You still want to eat barbecue at this time? They were here to attack the city, so how could they have time to roast meat for it?

However, it was impossible to not satisfy the Golden Hawk's appetite. Once the Golden Hawk's desire was not satisfied, it would come up with all kinds of strange ways to achieve its goal. By then, they would be the ones being tortured.

Swallowing his anger, Sun Tao had no choice but to compromise. He called over a subordinate and said, ""Go and roast some meat for this damn bird."

The subordinate was about to leave when the Golden Eagle's voice rang again.

"Don't try to fool me with that meat that has been there for a long time! I want to eat the freshest roast meat!" In other words, the Golden Hawk wanted them to catch some low-level beasts and roast them for it.

Upon hearing this request, Sun Tao and one of his unlucky subordinates were all a little frantic. Damn it, this fellow's requirements were really high. Where would they find the time to catch it now? Wasn't this making things difficult for him?

However, they didn't know that it was hard for the Golden Hawk to do that. The next second, the Golden Hawk said, ""I'm afraid that you'll fool me, so I've decided to go with you to catch sun Moumou myself. Quickly send some people to me!"

The Golden Hawk's request was reasonable, but Sun Tao's face turned even darker after hearing it. The veins on his forehead throbbed even more violently, and the anger in his body began to rise to the top of his head.

He really couldn't take it anymore! Thinking of the time when he went hunting with the Golden Eagle, he felt so sad. It was such a horrible experience!

As for Sun Tao's subordinate who had personally experienced this before, when he heard the Golden Eagle's request, his face immediately showed a constipated expression, and he wished he could just pass out.

With this Golden Eagle, he could forget about hunting any prey!

The subordinate didn't want to take the Golden Hawk with him, and the Golden Hawk could tell that it was being ignored, so it said, "It's fine if you don't bring me along. I'm so bored that I can only stay here and find a place to draw circles and curse you. Poor me! Why is life so bitter? No one loves or dote on you, and you're despised wherever you go. Wu...A child with a mother is like a treasure, a child without a mother is like grass ..."

As it spoke, the Golden Hawk started to sing, but it was a little out of tune, and it was like a demonic sound to the people present.

The subordinate surrendered before the Golden Hawk finished, "I'll bring you! I will bring you along!"

"You bastard!" If he didn't bring this jinx along, he would be the one to suffer if he was really cursed by it!

Sun Tao nodded with satisfaction after hearing his subordinate's words. However, his happiness did not last for a second when he heard the Golden Hawk say, "You can't bring me alone. I told sun Moumou to send more people. I want to enjoy the feeling of being surrounded by people. So, you have to send at least a thousand people to me, or I won't do it!"

He even had to bring thousands of people? Sun Tao was so angry that he almost passed out. Fortunately, a cultivator's body was strong, so it would not be easy for him to pass out even if he wanted to. However, the Golden Eagle's words still successfully made him angry and the others "hearts shivered.

No one wanted to be chosen by Sun Tao to be the Golden Hawk's toy, but how could they not want to?

Sun Tao closed his eyes and waved his hand. A small group of people behind him was assigned to the Golden Eagle. There were more than 900 people in that small group, and they were the weakest among all the groups. Therefore, they naturally became the cannon fodder for Sun Tao to deal with the Golden Eagle. As for the group of people, they all looked as if they had lost their loved ones, and their faces were so gloomy that it seemed like it would rain.

However, the Golden Eagle didn't care about that. Seeing that there were almost enough people, the Golden Eagle flapped its little wings and flew in front to lead the way, while shouting, "Let's go! Let's go! I know there's a mountain up ahead. There should be some animals that can be hunted there. "

Hearing that, the other people immediately followed the Golden Hawk with low spirits.

Sun Tao heaved a sigh of relief when he saw that the Golden Eagle had finally left. He turned his gaze to the middle-aged man and wanted to continue asking.

However, the middle-aged man was clearly scared silly by what had just happened. He spoke incoherently for a long time, but he couldn't say a single useful word. Halfway through, his eyes rolled back and he fainted.

Sun Tao was furious.

Then, he wanted to ask the others, but none of the people brought by his subordinates were able to do anything. Before he could ask them in detail, the rest of them were all foaming at the mouth and unconscious.

The people on Sun Tao's side were dumbfounded.

What was going on? How did this happen?

In fact, even if Sun Tao did not ask them, he had a simple understanding of the situation in the city. However, he thought that it would not hurt to ask more! However, who knew that this would add to his heart's burden. Not only did he not get any information, but this scene also made the people who were thrown out of the city think that Sun Tao had killed them.

So, before sun Tao could send his subordinates to arrest them again, those people had already scattered in fear. When sun Tao saw this, his face turned red with anger and he quickly ordered, ""Capture all of them! Don't let any of them escape!"

As soon as Sun Tao's order was given, the people who were originally gathered immediately divided into several teams and went to capture the people separately. In an instant, the number of people on Sun Tao's side was reduced by more than half.

Seeing this, Wen Yuan, who was standing beside Sun Tao, said worriedly, ""Senior Brother Sun, is it good to split up like this? Our strength will be greatly reduced. "

"It's okay. The people who went to catch them aren't that strong. Their departure won't affect us at all." Sun Tao said calmly.

In his opinion, it would be a piece of cake to catch some small fry. Those people would be back soon, and the strongest of them were still waiting outside the city, so he was not worried that Leng Xiaoqing and the others would suddenly attack.

The truth was just as he had expected. Ao han city was as calm as ever. Leng Xiaoqing and the others did not even show their faces. However, after waiting for a long time, none of the subordinates he had sent to catch those small fries had returned. After a long time, some of Sun Tao's men could not hold it in anymore. Fortunately, Sun Tao managed to calm them down in time.
