

Crazy Wife 2671

Chapter 2671 Who Are You?\(1\)

"Oh, really? What if I have to offend him?" Faced with President PU's threat, Leng ruoxue wasn't angry. Instead, she laughed and openly threatened him.

"You, you will regret this! Our mission Guild will not let you off! The God lord's estate won't let you off either. You'd better kowtow to me now and I might forgive you. Otherwise, you'll be dead!" President PU saw that Leng ruoxue was clearly a dead pig that wasn't afraid of boiling water and was furious! He couldn't understand how this woman could be so bold to provoke the God lord's estate's Mission Association. Wasn't she just courting death?

Some people! You won't die if you don't seek death! President PU thought to himself.

"You've reminded me. So the quest guilds belong to the divine Lord's residence!" Leng ruoxue pretended to be enlightened.

"It's good that you know. So, I can't be offended." Seeing that Leng ruoxue had finally understood, President PU's confidence grew.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue turned to look at the parasol tree and asked calmly, ""Senior, the mission Guild belongs to the divine lord's estate. What should we do? Should we smash it or not?"

"What's wrong with the God lord's estate? I'll smash it as well!" Upon hearing this, the mother parasol tree's momentum rose and it cooperated fully.

"Old man, did you hear that?" After hearing the parasol tree's reply, Leng ruoxue turned her gaze towards President PU and asked with a smile.

"You ... You guys are really bold." The conversation between the two of them made President PU, who thought that victory was in his grasp, break out in cold sweat and his little face turned pale.

These two women are so bold! They already knew that the Guild for missions belonged to the divine lord's estate, yet they still wanted to destroy it? President PU wanted to cry but had no tears. Ever since he became the Guild Master of the Ying city missions Guild, he could get whatever he wanted. He could do whatever he wanted without fear. All the major families on the godly mainland had to give him some face and address him as "Your Excellency". But now, he felt a deep sense of powerlessness. The two crazy women in front of him didn't take him seriously at all. He really didn't know where they had come from. To dare to go against the Divine Master's estate, if he wasn't a lunatic, what was he?

"Yes, you're right. We're very bold." Leng ruoxue agreed with a smile. She then tugged on his collar and asked, ""I'll ask you one last time, are you going to help us handle this matter?"

"I ... I ..." President PU struggled on his deathbed, not daring to relent. Although the threat of these two women made him feel afraid, his end would be even worse if he offended the ascender Alliance. After all, the ascender Alliance's influence in the divine realm was not small.

However, his hesitation had already made Leng ruoxue and the parasol tree unhappy. Leng ruoxue took out her cold shadow and drew a few sword strokes in the air. The cold Qi released by the cold shadow was directed at President PU's neck, causing him to be so frightened that his heart was trembling.

Wuwu...Too bad! This woman was too evil! He actually dared to threaten him with a weapon! President PU was filled with grief and indignation. He was so frightened that his eyes were filled with tears as he looked at Leng ruoxue pitifully.

"Don't, don't be like this. It's not good for women to play with such sharp weapons." President PU reminded him pitifully, his heart trembling.

"I don't want to either! It's your fault for not cooperating." Leng ruoxue said helplessly. She then used the sharp blade of the cold shadow to pat President PU's round face, causing the cold shadow to tremble in anger, and the cold aura became even more terrifying.

"Look, even my sword is looking down on you." Leng ruoxue saw that Han Ying was protesting, so she smirked at President PU.

"Then let it stay away from me!" President PU begged. Wu ... This was too bad. He was so scared that he had to pee. Fortunately, he held it in. Otherwise, it would be embarrassing.

"Sure, as long as you promise to help me break my slave contract." Leng ruoxue stated her conditions.

"This, this isn't ..." Guild leader PU really didn't have the guts to help and wanted to reject it, but just as he said a few words, he was interrupted by the mother parasol tree impatiently.

"Xue'er, don't talk nonsense with him, let's do it ourselves!" The mother parasol tree said impatiently.

"Do it yourself?" Leng ruoxue blinked her beautiful eyes, her face filled with innocence.

"Well, he's just the president of the Guild of missions! As long as we know the procedure to terminate the contract, we can do it ourselves." The mother parasol tree reminded.

"That makes sense. Why didn't I think of that?" Leng ruoxue was enlightened. She felt that the mother parasol tree's idea was brilliant. She then contacted Qing Jue in secret and asked it to help her read his mind.

In just a few minutes, Qing Jue told her that it was done.

Now that she knew the procedure, Leng ruoxue naturally had no use for this timid fellow. He threw him to the side and handed him over to the mother parasol tree to look after, while he sat in the seat of the president.

"You, what do you want to do?" President PU listened to the conversation between the two of them. Now that he saw Leng ruoxue sitting in his seat, a bad feeling rose in his heart.

"Nothing much. I'm just borrowing the official seal of your Guild President." As soon as Leng ruoxue finished speaking, she took out a Silver Seal from the drawer. The seal was not big, and it looked even more exquisite in her palm. In the middle of the seal were the words "Ying city", and at the bottom was the symbol of the Divine Master's estate.

As for the process of removing the slave contract, it would first be the application submitted by the subordinate branch of the mission Guild. Finally, it would be reviewed and approved by the divine realm's headquarters. The headquarters would also send over a method to remove the restriction, and the slave contract would be removed.

To be honest, after Leng ruoxue knew the procedure, she felt that it wasn't too difficult to cancel the slave contract and decided to do it herself. However, she still needed President PU's cooperation in the process. In order to prevent the official seal of the quest Guild from being abused by others, a little bit of the blood of a certain guild leader was needed.

After Leng ruoxue was done with the application and stamped it with the official seal, she walked over to President PU with a smile. She took out a small and exquisite dagger and waved it in front of President PU's eyes a few times before saying, "I'm sorry, guild leader, I need to borrow some more blood!"

"No, don't! Don't mess around, you'll regret this!" When he heard that Leng ruoxue wanted to use his official seal, President PU was already scared out of his wits. Now that he heard that she wanted to use his blood, he suddenly came back to his senses and decided to defend his blood with all his might. He definitely couldn't let this evil person in front of him succeed!

Unfortunately, a small arm was no match for a large thigh. The parasol tree kicked President PU to the ground and took the dagger from Leng ruoxue's hand. It stabbed President PU ruthlessly at the most fleshy part of his body. Blood gushed out immediately. A certain president's shrill cry sounded like a pig being slaughtered. However, the soundproofing of the president's Room was too good so no one in the Guild could detect his situation.

After Leng ruoxue had collected enough blood and completed the process of terminating the slave contract, she was ordered to wait on President PU and requested him to settle this matter quickly. At this moment, the waiter saw President PU sitting on the chair with a smile and nodding at him.

Seeing this, the waiter immediately promised that he would finish this matter as soon as possible.

Chapter 2672 Who Are You?\(2\)

Leng ruoxue was very satisfied with the waiter's working attitude. She also told him that if he could complete this task within two days, she would reward him.

As soon as he heard that there was a reward, the waiter immediately promised that he would do his best. However, he kept thinking in his heart, what kind of reward would it be? Would he give him another piece of high-grade crystal? He was looking forward to it.

After the waiter left, President PU who was sitting on the chair immediately became listless and his entire body slid from the chair to the ground. The mother parasol tree who had been standing behind him saw this and picked him up, saying, "Sit tight. You're the Guild leader of the quest Guild. You can't be so listless."

"Wuu ... I've already done as you said, what else do you want? When will you let me go?" President PU, whose wounds were still hurting, looked at the two evil women in front of him with tears in his eyes.

Other people were bullied by dogs when the Tiger fell into the sun, what was this? How did the fallen Ping Yang get bullied by two vicious dogs? How could he be so unlucky? He really didn't know where these two fiends had come from. Wu ... He really regretted letting these two vicious dogs in. Now, great, they had their retribution!

"Sister, he's calling you two vicious dogs in his heart!" Suddenly, Qing Jue's voice rang in Leng ruoxue's mind.

"Is that so?" After Leng ruoxue heard this, she turned to look at the dispirited President PU and said indifferently, "I heard you were scolding us?"

"No, no! There's absolutely no such thing. How would I dare to scold you?" When President PU heard this, his little face immediately turned pale and he quickly denied it.

"Don't try to lie to me. My Beastie can read minds. I know everything you're thinking." Leng ruoxue laughed nonchalantly.

"..." How did this happen?

President PU was so shocked that he was dumbfounded and couldn't come back to his senses for a long time.

This fact was a huge blow to him. Couldn't he just scold them in his heart to vent his anger? Sob ... Why was his life so hard? It wasn't easy for her career to take a turn for the better, but she actually met two fiends.

After regaining his senses, President PU looked at Leng ruoxue warily. He did not dare to let his thoughts run wild anymore. However, his fearful gaze made Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree laugh.

"Xue 'er, this old man seems to be afraid." The mother parasol tree gloated.

He was not afraid, he was very afraid! The cheeky President PU thought to himself unconsciously.

"Senior, he just called us vicious dogs in his heart!" Leng ruoxue reminded.

When President PU heard this, he became even more indignant. Why was he bringing up old scores?

"I see!" When the mother parasol tree heard this, it cooperated with Leng ruoxue and revealed a smirk. Then, it took a few steps forward and looked down at President PU, "If you call us vicious dogs, what are you?"

"I'm a pig! It was a stupid pig! Wu...I was wrong, I won't dare to speak nonsense anymore, please let me go!" President PU cried and begged, he was so close to hugging the mother parasol tree's leg and begging for mercy. Of course, it wasn't that he didn't want to hug it, but he didn't have the guts to do so!

These two women were not human at all! In order to borrow some blood, she actually stabbed him with a dagger. Was this something a normal person would do?

"Let you go? Didn't you just want us to marry you? What, you don't need it now?" The mother parasol tree was also an expert in digging up old debts, and it kept provoking President PU who was trembling in fear.

"No need! No need! I really don't deserve you two, please let me go!" When President PU heard the mother parasol tree's words, his little face turned even paler and he hurriedly admitted his mistake.

"This isn't a matter of being worthy or not. The key is that those who dare to have ideas about us usually don't have a good end. How do you want to die?" The mother parasol tree threatened with an evil smile.

"Wuu ... I don't want to die! I don't want to die! I beg you to let me go! Just treat me as a fart and let it go! I was wrong, I was really wrong. " President PU started crying again. He was so remorseful that his intestines turned green. He shouldn't have had any ideas about these two! Now, it was time for retribution!

"I've said it before, this isn't a matter of letting go or not. Isn't the mission Guild's purpose to take people's money and get rid of disasters for them? But did you do it? Not only are you not helping us, but you're also trying to get your hands on us. Do you really think you've lived too long?" The mother parasol tree said casually.

"Do you really think that a branch president of a mission Guild is that great? You dare to scheme against anyone?" At this moment, Leng ruoxue interjected.

"I know I was wrong. I was afraid that the ascender Alliance would take revenge on me, so I didn't dare to help you easily. " President PU choked with sobs.

"Aren't you afraid of them taking revenge if we marry you?" Leng ruoxue asked with a cold smile.

"She's my woman, of course I have to protect her. " President PU's heart trembled and he spoke the truth.

"According to your logic, we should be able to do whatever we want to you, right? After all, you're not anyone to us. Did you offend us again?" Leng ruoxue looked at the pale-faced President PU and smiled.

"Don 't! I know I'm wrong. I didn't recognize Mount Tai and offended the two ancestors. Please be magnanimous and let me off this time! In the future, I promise that I'll handle all of your matters properly, and it won't be like this. What do you think?" President PU smiled as he discussed.

"Senior, what do you think?" Leng ruoxue looked up at the mother parasol tree.

"Trash like him? What can he do?" The mother parasol tree looked at President PU in disdain.

"I can, I can do a lot of things! My son-in-law is the confidant of the tenth elder of the headquarters. With him around, I can help you in many ways as long as you two ancestors are willing to give me the opportunity. " President PU carefully pleaded.

"Xue 'er, I still think he's useless." The mother parasol tree was completely unmoved.

Hearing this, President PU's eyes became wet again. Was he really going to die? He was really unwilling to accept this!

"It's indeed useless. If we kill them, we'll only dirty our hands. Why don't we ..." Leng ruoxue only said half a sentence before she stopped.

However, her inferiority made President PU's heart jump to his throat. Cold sweat covered his entire body. Wu ... This can't be so scary!

"Why don't we give him another chance?" After a long pause, Leng ruoxue finally spoke.

Seeing that his life was finally saved, President PU's entire body collapsed.

Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree revealed a tacit smile. Actually, it was enough to just teach a small fry like him a lesson. They did not intend to kill him initially, but they would not let him off either.

After that, Leng ruoxue took Li Zhong out from the bracelet and pointed at President PU, "Big brother, let him be your servant!"

"..." This was the president of the mission Guild! Even though it was only a branch.

Chapter 2673 Who Are You?\(3\)

Looking at President PU who was paralyzed on the ground, Li Zhong was drenched in sweat. Even though he hadn't been in the godly mainland for long, he knew what kind of guild quests were.

The Guild of missions was said to be omnipotent. There was nothing that others couldn't think of, but there was nothing that they couldn't do. Furthermore, their fees were extremely high. When they had wanted to look for Leng ruoxue, they had considered the Guild of missions. However, after knowing their lowest fees, they had given up. But now, Xue 'er wanted him to take in this branch as a servant. Was this a fantasy?

Li Zhong felt like he was in a dream. It was too unreal.

"I don't want to be a servant. You can't do this to me." Hearing the two's conversation, he suddenly realized that they were talking about his President PU and immediately tried to raise his spirits to protest.

"You don't have the right to refuse. You can either become my big brother's servant or die! It's your choice. " Leng ruoxue said coldly.

"Old man, it's better to be a servant! At least I'll be able to keep my life. " The mother parasol tree also advised.

"I ... I ..." President PU was so anxious that he stuttered. He turned his gaze to Li Zhong, trying to find a breakthrough from him.

When Li Zhong saw this, he wasn't moved by President PU's pitiful gaze. He was thinking that since the other party was from the God lord's estate, offending the God lord's estate would be very disadvantageous for them.

Hence, Li Zhong could only remind Leng ruoxue that President PU was from the Divine Master's residence.

"That's right," President PU said loudly. "I'm a member of the Divine Master's estate. If they find out about this, they won't let you off."

With the God lord's estate as a Fox exploiting the Tiger's might, President PU's spirit was instantly lifted. He was so scared that he had actually forgotten the big backer behind the mission Guild. This was really too much.

"God Lord's mansion? The Divine Master's estate is nothing. Let me tell you, I have a grudge against the Divine Master's estate." Leng ruoxue smiled faintly.

Li Zhong and President PU were both stunned.

A grudge against the Divine Master's estate? What was the meaning of this? The two of them didn't dare to understand!

Upon seeing this, Leng ruoxue calmly said to Li Zhong, "Big brother, I forgot to tell you. That B * tch, Wu Han, is my enemy. One day, I will get rid of her. Therefore, the God lord's estate is my enemy."

"You ... You dare to curse at God Lord fogriple?" When President PU heard Leng ruoxue's words, he was so frightened that his face turned even paler. His body was like a Fallen Leaf in the autumn wind, trembling non-stop.

He had been scared out of his wits!

If it was really as the other party had said, that he had a grudge against the God lord's estate, then it would not have been easy for him to keep his life. Thinking of this, President PU became even more afraid.

When Li Zhong heard President PU's words, he was also stunned. The mist ripple slut that Xue 'er spoke of was actually a God Lord of the divine world? Since he dared to curse at the Divine Master like that, it seemed like he really had a grudge against the Divine Master!

For a moment, Li Zhong looked at Leng ruoxue with a complicated expression. He couldn't understand why. Xue 'er had only just arrived in the firmament! How did he become the Divine Master's enemy? However, looking at Xue 'er, she didn't seem to be afraid at all, so she probably didn't suffer any losses. Oh! He could rest assured now. At the same time, he was also glad that he had not asked the quest Union to find Xue 'er. Otherwise, regardless of whether they could find Xue 'er, they would have become the God lord's estate's prisoners.

Wiping the cold sweat on his forehead, Li Zhong looked at Leng ruoxue, who didn't think much of it, and made up his mind, "Xue 'er, since that's the case, I'll accept this great president as my servant. Big brother will thank you in advance."

"Big brother, you're welcome. I suddenly remembered that guilds that do missions are very rich. Do you think I should recruit a few more guild leaders to help us accumulate wealth?" Leng ruoxue seemed to be talking to herself. This was something that she had suddenly thought of. She definitely couldn't let Wu Xuan have it easy. Since they were already at odds with the God lord's estate, why not cut off her source of income first?

The more Leng ruoxue thought about it, the more she felt that this was a good idea.

The mother parasol tree agreed immediately after hearing that. Li Zhong naturally didn't have any objections.

President PU, who had been listening to their conversation, wanted to faint immediately. Sob...Did this count as him hearing the inside story of these people?! This time, President PU knew that he couldn't escape. Not only that, but the entire mission Guild couldn't escape.

But fortunately, there were people who were in the same boat as him, so he felt more balanced! After all, some people's hearts were so dark that they couldn't bear to see others do well even if they were unlucky.

"Little old man, why don't you recognize me as your master first? There will be someone to accompany you later. " Seeing through President PU's thoughts, Leng ruoxue's smile was extremely bright. But her alluring smile, in President PU's eyes, was like a devil's smile. Although it was charming, it was also fatal.

Sob ... Could he refuse? Since she couldn't, why did she still ask for his opinion? Wasn't he playing him like a monkey?! At the thought of this, President PU was filled with grief and indignation.

Seeing that the other party did not respond, Leng ruoxue took it as a silent agreement. Then, she turned her beautiful eyes to the mother parasol tree and asked with a faint smile, ""Senior, you're very knowledgeable. Do you know what kind of contract is suitable for him?"

She didn't want to use a slave contract, nor did she want to use a bloodline contract of a higher standard for the other party. As for the master-servant contract, she was afraid that with the fog, it wouldn't be binding enough, and then her efforts would be in vain.

"I do know of an ancient contract. It's a combination of a slave contract and a master-servant contract, but the effect is obviously better. More importantly, no one can break this kind of contract." The mother parasol tree understood Leng ruoxue's meaning and gave it some thought.

"That's good, let him use it!" Leng ruoxue pointed at President PU. Seeing President PU's worried expression, she smiled and comforted him, ""Don't worry, there will be someone to keep you company. "

President PU's heart was finally balanced, but he had nothing to say. Who could be happy about this kind of thing! Now, he really regretted it. A single misstep could cause a thousand bones to be filled with hatred!

However, no one would care about his thoughts. After the mother parasol tree told Li Zhong about the ancient contract that it knew, it just left it alone. Li Zhong also quickly settled the master recognition ceremony, and President PU became his servant.

Feeling the connection between the two, Li Zhong smiled and ordered, ""Little PU, in the future, remember to hand over the income of the Guild to Xue 'er, understand?"

"Yes, master," After recognizing him as his master, President PU also accepted his fate and immediately entered the role of a servant.

"Be good!" Li Zhong coaxed her like he was coaxing a child before letting Leng ruoxue send him back to the bracelet.

In less than two days.

The immortal realm's headquarters had sent back the method to remove the slave restrictions for Li Zhong and the rest. Leng ruoxue had also rewarded the highly efficient servants as promised. After removing the restrictions for her brothers and subordinates, she brought her men back to the third and fourth alliances. This time, she naturally came back to cause trouble. As for Ying city's guild leader PU, even after Leng ruoxue and the rest left, he was still unable to find out the identity of Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree.

When they arrived at the ascender Alliance's territory, the group first went to the three alliances.

At the entrance of the three alliances, Leng ruoxue did not want to be as polite as she was the last time. However, the guards of the three alliances were rather surprised to see her and the mother parasol tree because there was a rumor that the two of them had been burned to death by a sudden fire in the side courtyard. Who were the two people in front of them now?

However, before they had the chance to voice out their doubts, the mother parasol tree waved its hand and threw out a few green branches. The few guards at the gate immediately stopped breathing and died.

Upon seeing this, Li Zhong and the others broke out in cold sweat. They thought to themselves, what a fast technique! What a powerful senior!

"Go in!" The mother parasol tree turned its head and said, before walking in with large strides.

"You bastard!" She had to find the third alliance master who had sold them out! After living for so long, this was the first time someone had evaluated her value!

Seeing that the mother parasol tree could not wait any longer, Leng ruoxue gave Li Zhong and the rest a look and they immediately split up.

Leng ruoxue followed the mother parasol tree to deal with the third alliance master. As for the eldest miss who had returned to the third alliance, she left her to Li Zhong and the rest to deal with. She also sent her precious little beasts to protect Li Zhong and the rest.

When the three League Masters saw Leng ruoxue and the parasol tree once again, a look of surprise appeared on their faces. However, he immediately sensed that the two of them were different from before and probed, ""Xue 'er, Tong' er, I'm relieved that you're fine."

"We're fine, but you're going to be in trouble. " Leng ruoxue smiled faintly. Ever since she left the courtyard, she had asked green vessel to keep an eye on the people from the third and fourth alliances. The people who were originally in the courtyard had returned to the third and fourth alliances. This was the time when the two alliances had the most people, so it was the best time to make a move.

"Xue 'er, what do you mean by this? Are you jealous that I transferred you to the four Alliance Masters? I really think that it's better for you to follow him than me. The four alliances "financial resources are enough to cure your illness. In addition, when the courtyard was on fire, I also sent people to save you, but the houses where you lived were all burned to ashes. I thought you were also ... I have been sad about this. " The third alliance master said to Leng ruoxue affectionately.

Leng ruoxue couldn't be bothered to look at the other party's Casanova-like appearance. With a look of disdain, she said, ""Stop acting. We're not here to watch you act like you're deeply in love. Your actions are really disgusting!"

"Then what are you here for?" The third alliance master didn't understand. He could tell that the two women in front of him didn't come with good intentions, but he didn't know why they did this.

"I'm here to take revenge for my big brother and his subordinates. " Leng ruoxue did not hide it anymore.

"I don't understand!" The third alliance master was even more puzzled. Although he had done a lot of bad things, he really didn't remember offending the other party's subordinates! More importantly, weren't these two women Gifts from the fifth master? Since it was a gift, it must be someone without power or support, so why would he have a subordinate?

He didn't hear wrong, did he?

"Who are you?" "What's wrong?" the third alliance master finally asked.

"I'm Leng ruoxue. Didn't you already guess it?" Leng ruoxue said indifferently.

Hearing this, the third alliance master's heart skipped a beat. Oh no! The other party was actually Leng ruoxue! It was hateful that he was actually tempted by the other party's beauty and dispelled such thoughts after a moment of suspicion. Now, it was all good. What's done is done. He was afraid that the other party would not give him the chance to remedy it even if he wanted to.

Chapter 2674 Does A Puny Divine Emperor Need My Help?\(1\)

After knowing the other party's true identity! The third alliance master felt like he was courting death! He deeply regretted that he had been so easily seduced by her beauty that he had believed the nonsense that she was not Leng ruoxue. If he had probed more or investigated properly, he wouldn't have made such a low-level mistake!

Alliance master three was filled with regret. However, he wasn't in the mood to think about whether Alliance master five had lied to him. Instead, he was racking his brain to think of ways to salvage his relationship with Leng ruoxue.

After thinking for a while, he frowned and said,""Since it's miss Leng, then this one has offended you before. I apologize to you here, is there any misunderstanding with us? I didn't see your brother or any of your subordinates! If I see them, I'll definitely treat them as distinguished guests. I hope that miss Leng can rest assured on this. "

"Rest assured? Hmph! Can I be at ease? My brother and his subordinates fell into your hands and were forced to sign a slave contract. That's right, although this matter was done by your precious daughter, it's the Father's fault for not teaching the child well, so you can't escape responsibility for this matter. " Leng ruoxue said indifferently. The way she looked at the third alliance master was rather unfriendly, and it also made his hair stand on end.

Never in his dreams would he have thought that this goddess of killing's brother and subordinate would actually be forced to sign a slave contract, and it was even done by his incompetent daughter. Looking at the other party's confident appearance, it was clear that there was enough evidence, and there was no room for him to quibble. What was this good?

The third alliance master was deeply worried. He felt that the consequences of this matter were too serious. If they didn't handle it well, they might all lose their lives. What terrified him the most was that a woman who didn't even care about a Divine Master would care about these so-called ants.

"Xue 'er, he even sold us out!" Seeing that Leng ruoxue seemed to have forgotten about this matter, the parasol tree mother reminded her.

"Yup! Only today did I find out that I'm only worth five pieces of high-grade crystal stones. Third alliance master, do you have any thoughts on this?" Leng ruoxue said nonchalantly.

"No, no, it's not like I don't know your identity! You can't blame me for not knowing!" The third alliance master said shamelessly. He couldn't help but wipe the cold sweat on his forehead. Wu ... He felt like he was already half a step into hell. How could he be so unlucky to have provoked this fiend?

"Just because you said you didn't know, you can shirk responsibility for what you did? Then, I'll cut you guys off first, and then you can say that I didn't do it on purpose?" Leng ruoxue asked with a half-smile.

Ugh! How was he supposed to respond to this? The third alliance master's forehead broke out in cold sweat. He finally understood how difficult it was to deal with Leng ruoxue. In the past, he didn't really believe it when he heard it from others! Now that he had personally experienced it, he knew that it was impossible to let it go today! Ai! It was hard to say if he could even keep his life!

"Third alliance master, we didn't come here today to listen to you shirk responsibility." Leng ruoxue saw that the other party did not say a word and continued.

He knew that it was precisely because he knew that he was even more at a loss on how to save his little life. This was especially so when he had heard that Leng ruoxue would never show mercy to her enemies. Although he could not be considered her enemy, he had clearly done something that crossed her line. The faint sounds of fighting could be heard from outside. He knew that someone had already started to fight.

Just as the third alliance master was racking his brains for a solution, the parasol tree said impatiently, ""Xue 'er, why are you talking so much nonsense with him? Hurry up and do it!"

Seeing that the parasol tree was getting anxious, Leng ruoxue made a rather helpless expression and laughed evilly, ""As you can see, I've already given you a lot of time. Let's not waste each other's time. After taking care of you, I still have to deal with the leaders of the four alliances! He also has a share. "

Hearing that Alliance master four was also involved, Alliance master three miraculously felt better and decided to go all out. He had already crossed the other party's bottom line anyway, and it was obvious that there was no possibility of reconciliation from Leng ruoxue's expression. Since that was the case, why was he still lowering his voice?

Thinking of this, the third alliance master's aura suddenly rose. He then shouted at the two, ""If you kill us, the ascender Alliance will not let you off!"

"It doesn't matter. I'll kill you first." Leng ruoxue was unconcerned. The moment she spoke, the mother parasol tree did not want to listen to the other party's nonsense and charged forward. In just a moment, the other party had already lost his life, dying with grievances.

Before he died, he didn't even have the time to struggle or call for help.

Seeing that the third alliance master had died so easily, the parasol tree mother tree was stunned for a moment, then said embarrassedly, ""Uh! I was a little too heavy-handed and let him off easy!"

"Senior, he is only a high level deity." Leng ruoxue held her forehead speechlessly. With their strength, they could kill these people in an instant. So, if they didn't want them to die too quickly, they could only treat them gently. Otherwise, it would be over.

The mother parasol tree put on an expression of being taught and promised seriously, "'Xue 'er, I will be careful in the future."

Leng ruoxue nodded and started a fire. Then, she pulled the mother parasol tree to the other courtyard.

That was where the Miss of the three leagues lived.

At this moment, with the help of his precious little beasts, Li Zhong and the others were having a great time taking their revenge. They killed many of the dogs from the three alliances, but only the young miss of the three alliances was left to watch.

The lady of the three leagues that Leng ruoxue saw was considered a beauty. Her small face was filled with fear and disbelief. Her body trembled like a Fallen Leaf, and her face was so pale that she looked like she would faint at any moment.

However, baby's little beasts surrounded her and insisted that she take a good look at the miserable state of her subordinates. If she didn't cooperate or watch carefully, baby would use a rusty silver needle as thick as a chopstick to stab the big miss of the three leagues.

In this short period of time, Leng ruoxue had already heard a few howls that sounded like pigs being slaughtered.

Seeing Leng ruoxue and the parasol tree approach, baby immediately jumped happily to Leng ruoxue's side after stabbing the Miss of the three leagues. He shouted happily, "'Cute master, you've come!"

"Baby, this needle?" Leng ruoxue blinked her eyes. This needle looked a little familiar!

"Hehe! It was abandoned by my master and I picked it up. Now, it's finally put to good use. This is much better than a dagger and it's also more painful!" Baby laughed evilly.

"....."

Leng ruoxue didn't know what to say. The mother parasol tree patted her baby's fluffy little head excitedly and praised, "'Baby, you're so smart and know how to save money. You've made good use of this waste."

"Hehe!" After being praised, baby became more and more proud.

At the same time, Li Zhong and the rest had already worked together to eliminate the last guard of the three alliances. They walked quickly to Leng ruoxue's side and said excitedly, "'Xue 'er, this is really too satisfying!"

They were having a great time fighting. Although they usually worked together, as long as they could get revenge for themselves, who cared if it was a group fight or not!

Chapter 2675 Does A Puny Divine Emperor Need My Help?\(2\)

"How do you plan to deal with the Miss of the three leagues?" Leng ruoxue first nodded, then asked. Looking at the eldest miss of sanmeng's expression, there was a trace of unwillingness in her fear. It was obvious that she had a deep resentment towards her situation. Such a person could not be allowed to live.

Fortunately, Li Zhong and the rest had already discussed this beforehand. He smiled evilly at Leng ruoxue and said, "Let's make her a slave contract first. Then, we'll let her experience the various means she has imposed on us."

After listening, before Leng ruoxue could even nod her head, she heard the eldest miss of the three leagues wailing, "You can't do this to me! I'm the young lady of the three leagues! The ascender Alliance will not let you off!"

Sanmeng's young miss shouted herself hoarse. She still didn't know how things had turned out like this. He was clearly her slave, but how did he become the master of the house in the blink of an eye? Not only that, but he also brought a few fiendish beasts to seek revenge. The people of the three leagues couldn't even withstand a single move from him.

Such a fact was really too tragic! She could not understand!

However, no one cared after she shouted. Li Zhong was even more impatient as he slapped her and shouted, "You're no longer the lady of the three leagues, you're just our prisoner!"

After being slapped, the lady of the three leagues saw stars and was forced to accept the truth. She signed a slave contract with Luo Fei as her representative.

After the contract was completed, the young miss of the three leagues was free. Although the succubi would no longer stare at her as if she was a criminal, the young miss still did not escape their sight. What made them even more speechless was that the big miss of the three alliances, who was a slave, had actually not given up and had actually used a beauty trap on Luo Fei. This really made everyone not know whether to laugh or cry.

Luo Fei, on the other hand, was both embarrassed and angry, his face alternating between green and white. He fully fulfilled his duty as a master and severely punished her. At this point, the big miss of the three leagues finally became well-behaved for the time being.

The listless miss of the third league was then brought to the fourth league for her to continue watching. As Leng ruoxue and the rest had acted swiftly in the three leagues and destroyed the corpses thoroughly, the four leagues had no idea what was going on in the three leagues. This made Leng ruoxue and the rest's actions much more convenient.

After using the same method to get rid of the four alliances and leaving behind the four Alliance Masters, Leng ruoxue burned down all the buildings in the four alliances. Then, everyone left. As for the four Alliance Masters, they were treated the same way as the ladies of the three alliances. They were all forced to sign slave contracts, and the beneficiary of their slaves was Li Zhong.

"Xue 'er, where are we going?" Li Zhong asked calmly after leaving the ascender Alliance's territory. Having gotten their revenge, they had never felt so relaxed before.

"Of course, we're going to raid the Guild that's doing quests." Leng ruoxue said calmly. She had tasted the sweetness of the bamboo City Quest Guild, so she didn't want to let the other quest guilds in the godly mainland go. Wu Han's business was really profitable. It was simply a business without capital. She must Rob the other party so that Wu Han would not benefit.

She had so many people to feed, and the construction of Demon City was a bottomless pit. Without money, she couldn't do anything! With this thought in mind, she felt that the robbery mission Guild was a matter of course.

In order to reunite the Luo family, the members of the Luo family, who had originally planned to go into seclusion, were awakened. Now that they heard that they were going to be robbed, they immediately became excited. After living for so long, there were not many opportunities for them to openly Rob others.

"Master, can we join in?" Luo Lin pleaded with an embarrassed look, his sparkling eyes filled with desire and anticipation.

"You're only allowed to look, no talking!" Leng ruoxue requested. In fact, even if Luo Lin didn't say so, she would still let them participate. After all, this was definitely a good opportunity to increase their knowledge!

"Yes, yes. We'll just watch and not talk." Luo Lin promised like an obedient baby.

In the following time, Leng ruoxue was like a spinning top, bringing a large group of people to wander around the various cities in the divine realm. Wherever they went, the Guild masters of the mission guilds would not be able to avoid becoming their own people.

Those who were tactful were accepted as Leng ruoxue's subordinates, while those who were insensible became Li Zhong and the others 'servants. Everyone worked together and earned a lot of money. Soon, all the guilds that were responsible for quests on the godly continent had fallen.

Every guild leader would be so depressed when they were first captured that they wanted to buy a piece of tofu and kill themselves. However, after they knew that they were not the only ones who were like this, they all felt balanced in their hearts and even formed feelings for each other. After all, in the future, when the master changed, they had to perform even better. From this, the chairman of Ying city's mission Guild, President PU, finally knew who the woman he was after was!

Leng ruoxue! It was actually the famous Leng ruoxue! Why didn't he ask for her name in the first place? Otherwise, he would never have provoked that fiend! Sob ... It was too late to say anything now! What's done is done!

President PU was filled with regret. However, there was no medicine for regret in this world. No matter how much he regretted, it would be of no use. With a heart filled with grief and indignation, he decided to collect the appearance of all the experts in the divine realm that he couldn't afford to offend. He had offended Leng ruoxue, and he was at a disadvantage because he didn't know her appearance!

Actually, President PU couldn't be blamed for being blind. After all, the quest Association belonged to the Divine Master's residence. They would never have thought that the other party would set their sights on the Divine Master's residence. Moreover, Wu Cheng wouldn't have instructed his subordinates to guard against Leng ruoxue. If that was the case, wouldn't it be him being afraid of Leng ruoxue? The prideful fog would never do such a thing!

Such a result naturally benefited Leng ruoxue!

Leng ruoxue had earned quite a fortune on the divine mainland. In addition to the wealth she had obtained from the Alliance three and four, she truly felt that robbing was a good way to get rich quickly.

Al! She even had the thought of setting up a Bandit organization and robbing the entire divine realm. Of course, it was just a plan. She didn't have any thoughts of offending the entire divine realm.

If people didn't offend her, she wouldn't offend them. This was still her principle in life. However, once he offended her, she would definitely be very petty and take revenge!

After settling the matters on the divine mainland, Leng ruoxue planned to bring them back to the divine world. At this moment, Li Zhong and the others finally realized that they wouldn't be living in the godly mainland.

When they first heard this news, Li Zhong and the others were stunned for a long time. When they finally came back to their senses, they were all speechless and didn't know how to react.

This matter ... Was really too stimulating! Even Xue 'er had gone to the divine realm! It had only been a few years!

However, Li Zhong and the others' mental fortitude wasn't bad. They quickly adjusted their mental state and looked at Leng ruoxue as if she was their idol. Even Leng ruoxue, who thought she was very thick-skinned, felt a little embarrassed.

Chapter 2676 Does A Puny Divine Emperor Need My Help?\(3\)

In order to hide the awkwardness in her heart, Leng ruoxue immediately moved everyone into her house. Then, she and the mother parasol tree teleported to the transfer array to the God World.

On the way, the mother parasol tree noticed the strange expression on Leng ruoxue's face and could not help but ask curiously, "Xue 'er, what's wrong?"

"The Alliance Masters of the five alliances sent me a message. They said that the ascender Alliance of the divine realm already knows what we have done." Leng ruoxue replied calmly.

"Oh! So what if he knew! What can they do to us?" The mother parasol tree said disapprovingly. The powers that Xue 'er possessed were enough to contend against the ascender Alliance. Therefore, they could do whatever they wanted in the divine realm!

"You can't do anything to us." Leng ruoxue smiled faintly and followed the parasol tree into the teleportation formation.

After a moment of dizziness, he arrived at the God Realm.

Just as Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree stepped out of the transmission array, they were surrounded by a group of fiendish-looking people before they could step out of the light circle.

These people were made up of both men and women. Of course, men made up the majority. Furthermore, all of their faces were burning with anger. Their eyes were even spitting fire as they glared at Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue remained calm and said, "Is there something?"

She pretended to be stupid as she asked, while observing the strength of these people. Oh! There were more than a hundred deity emperors and most of the others were at the deity King level. There were more than a thousand of them in total.

"Leng ruoxue, we've always minded our own business, but you actually attacked our ascender Alliance! He's really too much!" One of the deity emperors spoke as the representative of his side.

"My principle is that if others don't offend me, I won't offend them! Not only did your ascender Alliance capture my brother and subordinates, but you also forced them to sign a slave contract. How can I not avenge them?" Leng ruoxue sneered as she questioned.

The other Emperor was speechless and couldn't help but argue, "Then you just have to kill the person responsible. Why did you destroy the third and fourth alliances?"

"Wild grass grows again when the spring breeze blows! Do you think I'll give them a chance to take revenge on me?" Leng ruoxue said in disdain.

"According to your logic, you still have to get rid of us?" A certain Emperor thought he had caught onto Leng ruoxue's faulty wording.

Leng ruoxue smiled calmly and said, "Originally, I could treat the ascender Alliance of the divine realm and the ascender Alliance of the divine continent as two different things. However, if you all insist on coming to me to seek revenge, I don't have much of an opinion."

Her casual and nonchalant attitude had thoroughly angered the ascender Alliance. Even though they had long heard of Leng ruoxue's strength, they had not had much contact with her in the firmament and naturally had not experienced it for themselves. Thus, none of them had expected that Leng ruoxue would be even more arrogant than the legends had said!

"Hmph! What an arrogant girl!" Suddenly, an angry roar sounded in everyone's ears. Everyone couldn't help but turn around. When they saw that it was their Vice President, they quickly said respectfully, "Greetings, Your Excellency Zhang Ye."

After saying that, they automatically opened up a path for the Furious man.

This Zhang Miao was one of the Vice Presidents of the ascender Alliance. He had just advanced to reverent-god level not long ago. This was the time when he was the most arrogant and proud of himself. Hence, he looked at Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree with a strong sense of disdain.

Originally, he had only come to support and encourage the ascender Alliance. In his opinion, the ascender Alliance had sent enough people to deal with a woman, so he had no intention of showing himself. However, after listening to Leng ruoxue's words, the anger in his heart was completely aroused. In his eyes, this brat was someone who needed to be taught a lesson. Hence, he decided to personally take action and teach Leng ruoxue a lesson. At the same time, he wanted to let her know that it was best for an ascender who had just arrived not long ago to not go against the ascender Alliance! Even if she had the ning family as her backing!

Of course, he had no intention of killing Leng ruoxue. After all, he knew that he could not afford to offend the ning family, a native with a strong foundation. However, Leng ruoxue was too infuriating, and he had to teach her a lesson! With such thoughts in mind, he looked at Leng ruoxue with an unfriendly gaze.

Today, they had to make Leng ruoxue give the ascender Alliance an explanation! Otherwise, wouldn't outsiders think that their ascender Alliance was afraid of a little girl?

However, Leng ruoxue and the mother parasol tree were not surprised by the reverent God's appearance because they had already noticed his existence. It was just that he did not show himself, so they were kind enough not to expose him. However, now that he had appeared, they obviously could not reject his good intentions.

"Stinky girl, I will not let you off today." Seeing that the two beautiful women in the circle of light were still as calm as before, Zhang Miao became even more furious. However, the self-righteous him attributed this to the fact that the other party did not know his identity, or else he would not have dared to be so casual.

"I know." Leng ruoxue nodded. The mother parasol tree did not even give him a look of pity. She thought to herself, 'a little fellow who has just advanced to reverent-god level is here to show off in front of me. The world has really changed!'

"Do you know who I am?" Seeing that the other party wasn't curious about his identity, Zhang Miao couldn't take it anymore and asked directly.

"What does your identity have to do with me? I only need to know that you are a member of the ascender Alliance. " Leng ruoxue said indifferently, clearly uninterested in his identity.

"I am the Vice President of the ascender Alliance!" Zhang Ye was furious. Seeing that Leng ruoxue wasn't the least bit curious about him, he could only expose himself!

However, after he said this, Leng ruoxue still gave him face and didn't let him down. She looked at him and sighed softly before saying, ""You just became the Vice President, right?"

"You, how did you know? I thought you didn't know who I was?" Zhang Miao looked at Leng ruoxue with a face full of questions.

"I can tell just by looking at you. If you're not a new official, how can you be so angry? Calm down! Don't be impatient, I'll do whatever you want. " Leng ruoxue was all smiles as she spoke in an extremely understanding manner.

When the parasol tree heard Leng ruoxue's words, it could not help but burst out laughing. Instantly, Zhang Miao's old face turned red!

Even though he was a little high profile, he wasn't a fool. How could he not tell that the woman beside Leng ruoxue was laughing at him? in an instant, his anger surged and he fired at the mother parasol tree, ""What are you laughing at? You'll be crying soon!"

"I see! Then let's not waste everyone's time, let's do it!" The mother parasol tree rubbed her fists in anticipation. She had not had a good battle for a long time and was in fact a violent person. Now that she had a Supreme God as her opponent, she was naturally more than happy to have him.

Although this reverent-God was a little stupid, it was better than nothing!

Her straightforward attitude of wanting to start a fight stunned Zhang Ye. It looked like the other party was not just arrogant! He was a reverent-God! However, the woman before him was only a God King, clearly inferior to him. The contrast made him feel a little lost.

Why was this so? Didn't they know that he was a reverent-God? The more he thought about it, the more Zhang Miao felt that this was possible! However, this thought also made him feel a lot more at ease. At least in his eyes, the woman in front of him was an arrow at the end of its flight!

In reality, it was normal for him to not be able to see through the mother parasol tree's abilities. That was because the mother parasol tree had learned from Xue 'er when they were in the divinity and had hidden her abilities very well. Now that the other party could not see through it, she would naturally not reveal it on her own accord.

"Vice-President Zhang, are we going to fight?" The mother parasol tree saw that Zhang Ye was in a daze for a long time, not knowing what he was thinking about, so it had to ask again.

"Hmph! I will make you regret being so arrogant!" In the face of provocation, as a man, Zhang Miao naturally would not let a woman look down on him. Moreover, he had just advanced to reverent-god level and was in high spirits, so he had to maintain his lofty image and set a good example for his subordinates.

Therefore, he took the blow!

After being provoked like this, if he could still hold it in, was he still a man?

The battle between the two of them started at once. When Leng ruoxue saw this, she quickly took advantage of the gap between the two of them before they started fighting to ask, ""You guys have found a good opponent? Then what about me?" She also wanted to spar with this godly venerable rank Vice President, okay? It was a pity that the mother parasol tree, who had not had enough fun in the godly mainland, did not want to give her a chance.

Sob ... Isn't this bullying?! Leng ruoxue was rather worried about this.

After hearing Leng ruoxue's words, the mother parasol tree pretended to be dumb and did not say a word. Zhang Miao, on the other hand, said arrogantly, ""You will naturally be taught a lesson by my subordinates, Hmph! Does a puny divine Emperor need my help?"

"....."

Alright! She knew that she was being looked down upon.

Although she really wanted to say that the mother parasol tree's strength seemed to be inferior to her on the surface, she still felt a little embarrassed. However, she gave up after thinking about it. Since someone was seeking death, why should she be kind?

The mother parasol tree gave Leng ruoxue an apologetic look before she started her lightning-like attack.

She and Zhang Miao quickly engaged in battle. In order not to be affected by the reverent-god level battle, both the ascender Alliance and Leng ruoxue had a tacit understanding to give up their positions, while they all retreated to a relatively wide area on the other side.

Glancing at the battle not far away, Leng ruoxue tried her best to shift the attention of the ascender Alliance's members from the battle to her. "Since a battle is unavoidable, let's not waste any more time," she said.

Chapter 2677 Not Using Divine Power Doesn't Count As A Win \(1\)

After hearing Leng ruoxue's words, the ascender Alliance's people who were originally watching the show could not help but chuckle.

Leng ruoxue was puzzled when she heard that. What was the meaning of their wretched laughter? Was he looking down on her?

At this moment, the Emperor God, who represented the ascendants, answered her question.

"Leng ruoxue, although I've heard that you're quite powerful, there's no need for all of us to go all out to deal with you. Just me alone is enough!" The Emperor who spoke had the air of an expert. As he spoke, he deliberately looked down at Leng ruoxue, putting on a high and mighty attitude.

The meaning expressed by his red eyes was clear. He didn't care about Leng ruoxue at all. In his heart, he really didn't take Leng ruoxue seriously. Even though there were many rumors about how powerful Leng ruoxue was, it was still a false rumor. Without seeing it with their own eyes, the feeling would always be worse.

Furthermore, the Emperor God's position in the ascender Alliance was not low. He was also the leader of the three alliances of the ascender Alliance. The father and daughter of the three alliances' leader, who had been killed by Leng ruoxue, were close friends with him. Thus, when he saw Leng ruoxue, it was as if he was meeting his enemy. He was extremely envious.

This was especially so in front of so many people from the ascender Alliance. A certain divine Emperor, who wanted to perform well, hoped to use Leng ruoxue to establish his might. One must know that after Zhang Miao was promoted to the ascender Alliance's Vice President, his position as an elder had been left empty. He had been coveting that position for a long time, and even regarded it as something in his pocket. If he could make a big splash in the limelight during Leng ruoxue's incident, then the empty position of an elder would basically not be able to escape.

This time, it was his and the four Alliance Masters' idea to gather the people to teach Leng ruoxue a lesson. He knew that the leaders of the four alliances also had their eyes on that position. Hence, according to his plan, they had to deal with the famous Leng ruoxue first. After all, making the first move meant that they had the upper hand. Otherwise, wouldn't it be equivalent to giving such a good opportunity to others?

He also wanted to let everyone see how Leng ruoxue, who was unparalleled in the firmament and whose name was like thunder to everyone, would be defeated by him!

Hmph! She was just a woman. No matter how powerful she was, how powerful could she be?

This wasn't just his inner voice. Many people in the ascender Alliance basically thought the same. This included his competitors.

After he said that he wanted to deal with Leng ruoxue, the other divine Emperor interrupted anxiously, "How can we do that? Leng ruoxue is our common enemy. How can you let yourself get away with it?"

Needless to say, the one who spoke was the leader of the four alliances. However, after he expressed his thoughts, the Emperor God from before calmly said, "Why are you so anxious? You'll have your chance! I'm the leader of the three alliances, and I'm ranked before you, so it's only natural that I should make the first move. "

These words seemed so reasonable that no one could refute them, but the leader of the four alliances was enraged. He was so angry that he couldn't stop cursing in his heart. F * ck! You made the first move, so how could I still have a chance?

He also felt that Leng ruoxue shouldn't be hard to deal with, so he wouldn't be willing to let his arch-enemy make the first move. After the other party made a move, it meant that his chance to perform was taken away. Now was the crucial period for the competition to become an elder of the general Alliance. How could he let go of such a good opportunity?

Therefore, avenging the three and four alliances of the godly mainland was pure nonsense! In their hearts, revenge was important but it was nothing compared to becoming an elder of the general Union. Now, their priority was to fight for Leng ruoxue's right to fight.

Before the battle had even begun, the ascender Alliance had already begun to stir up trouble.

Most of the ascender Alliance's people present were from the third and fourth alliances. A small number of them were foreign aid they had invited to help in the battle. The people from the third and fourth alliances were clear about their alliance master's thoughts and naturally sided with him. Hence, while the three and four alliances' leaders were in a heated argument to deal with Leng ruoxue, the other members of the three and four alliances were also in a heated battle.

The first was a scolding battle!

All kinds of curses spewed out from the mouths of both sides, and spittle flew everywhere. The faces of those who participated in the curse battle were all red, fully displaying their excited mood at this time.

Then, the scolding battle escalated to a fight.

Even before they started fighting with Leng ruoxue, the ascender Alliance's internal department had already started fighting fiercely. There was even blood.

Leng ruoxue, who was watching from the side, as well as Li Zhong and the others who witnessed this from their house, were all dumbfounded and in disbelief when they saw this dramatic scene.

What was going on?

Leng ruoxue looked on in a daze. She could not help but wipe the cold sweat off her forehead. Of course, she was not frightened by the other party's vicious methods, but ...

You understand!

She turned to look at the mother parasol tree and Zhang Miao who were still fighting, and then turned back to look at the two sides who were in a chaotic battle. She deeply felt that compared to the normal battle at the mother parasol tree's side, what was happening in front of her was simply a farce.

Didn't he want to fight her? Why can they kill each other?

When both sides of the chaotic battle had already used their weapons, Leng ruoxue was drenched in sweat.

How deep was the enmity between the two alliances?

Blinking her eyes, Leng ruoxue looked innocently at the people on both sides of the chaotic battle falling into a pool of blood before she decisively called for a stop!

In fact, it wasn't that she was too kind. It was just that both sides had lost their minds. Even a small number of onlookers had joined the chaotic battle to help their friends. Many people had been injured. If she didn't call for a stop, she would probably be out of the picture later!

This can't do! She couldn't be an audience member for nothing.

"All of you, stop!" Leng ruoxue shouted with a sense of justice.

Instantly, not only did both sides stop fighting, even the mother parasol tree and Zhang Miao, who heard the commotion, stopped instinctively.

Even though the two of them did not know why Leng ruoxue had asked them to stop, when they saw the scene not far away, their expressions were exactly the same as Leng ruoxue's.

This ...

"Xue 'er ..." The mother parasol tree called out softly. She did not know what to say.

"You bunch of idiots!" Zhang Miao, on the other hand, was extremely furious, and directly shouted at the top of his lungs.

"Senior, I didn't ask you to stop. Please continue! Please continue!" Leng ruoxue turned around in embarrassment when she heard their voices.

"Alright, but be careful. Swords have no eyes. Don't get caught up in their battle." The mother parasol tree warned worriedly.

Her words were clearly adding fuel to the fire, making Zhang Miao almost explode with anger!

However, before Zhang Miao could do anything, the mother parasol tree's attack had already reached him, forcing him to fight with 120000% of his energy.

"You bastard!" How could this woman be so powerful?

Zhang Miao was very depressed! But the battle continued.

On Leng ruoxue's side.

Chapter 2678 Not Using Divine Power Doesn't Count As A Win \(2\)

It was only after the crowd was called to a halt that they realized what had happened.

To be honest, they didn't expect the battle to escalate. They only deeply regretted it after the battle.

F*ck! He had actually forgotten the important matter!

Not only that, they even let Leng ruoxue watch the show and laugh at them. The most infuriating thing was that their battle had been called to a stop, and it was all thanks to Leng ruoxue that they were able to avoid a major disaster.

In an instant, everyone's hearts were filled with all kinds of gloominess and entanglement.

He had never felt this way before, and it was unbearable. Everyone's face turned even redder.

Leng ruoxue blinked her eyes and put on an innocent smile, "What's wrong? Why are you fighting? Aiya, your face is as red as a monkey's butt!"

After she finished speaking, she even deliberately covered her mouth to laugh, making everyone so angry that one Buddha was born and two Buddhas rose to heaven! All of them seemed to be so angry that smoke was about to come out of their bodies!

After she was done laughing, she said guiltily, "I'm sorry, I shouldn't have laughed at you. But I still want to say that killing each other is the worst thing to do. It will affect unity."

"You bastard! Who's killing each other?" The leader of the four alliances, who had a bad temper, was the first to speak up.

"You don't have any? The evidence was still on him! You can't lie with your eyes open!" Leng ruoxue's expression became even more innocent.

After hearing what she said, the Alliance Masters of the four alliances felt their electricity run out. They could only glare at Leng ruoxue with a face full of hatred. Their gazes were like those of a venomous snake, causing one to tremble in fear.

Leng ruoxue was glared at like a venomous snake, but her face did not turn red and her heart did not skip a beat. She merely glanced at the other party indifferently and asked, "Be a good baby, understand? Come, now tell big sister, why did you kill each other?"

These words made everyone speechless. The gloominess in their hearts deepened, especially when they saw the other party calling herself big sister. Did she have to be so shameless?

Whose sister are you? Who has a sister like you who gloats at others' misfortune? Everyone couldn't help but secretly praise him.

"Little girl, have you seen enough? Don't waste any more time, I'm going to deal with you now!" The leader of the three alliances, Huo, roared.

It was too embarrassing! He had never been so embarrassed in his life, especially in front of his opponent!

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue smiled faintly and said in a wronged tone, "I don't think I'm the one wasting time!"

"Good! It's me! It's US, alright! Let's start fighting now!" The Alliance Masters of the three alliances were furious and roared.

Leng ruoxue nodded her head in satisfaction. "Come on!"

However, Alliance master four was not satisfied. Seeing that the two were about to attack, he quickly stopped them and said angrily, "Why should I let you go first? I'm going to make the first move!"

"You ... Do you still want the other party to laugh at us?" The Alliance master of the third alliance gritted his teeth. He had just realized that the Alliance master of the fourth Alliance was even more shameless than him.

Hearing this, although the four alliances' leaders hesitated, they still straightened their necks and shouted.

"I don't care, I'm going to make the first move!"

"Don't snatch! There's still a chance! It doesn't matter who makes the first move!" Leng ruoxue smiled and became the peacemaker. When the Alliance Masters of the three alliances heard this, their faces darkened.

F * ck! What the hell is this? The two of them were fighting for the right to make the first move, but the other party became the good guy! At this moment, he had never felt so depressed before.

"I'll let you make the first move, alright?" The Alliance Masters of the three alliances had surrendered. If they continued to argue with this idiot, the ascender Alliance would lose all its face before the fight even started.

It could be said that compared to the four Alliance Masters, he still had some brains and had not completely lost his mind. Otherwise, he would not have been able to become the Alliance master of the third alliance and forcibly suppress the four Alliance Masters.

As for the 4th Alliance master, who had been holding back for a long time, when he heard that the 3rd Alliance master had given in, he was like a rooster who had won a battle, holding his head high and gnashing his teeth in hatred!

"Little girl, your opponent is me!" The leaders of the four alliances emphasized this before the battle.

"I know. In fact, you guys can attack together!" Leng ruoxue suddenly suggested.

"No!" Two opposing voices rang out at the same time.

Leng ruoxue was puzzled.

Why not? Wouldn't they have a better chance of winning if they attacked together?

How could she know that the two in front of her were treating her as a stepping stone to climb up the ladder and wanted to step on her to get to the top!

"Then, let's do it one by one!" Seeing that she couldn't figure it out, Leng ruoxue didn't want to. Originally, she had wanted to let her babies out to practice their claws, but since the other party wanted to come one by one, it seemed that they didn't need to show themselves.

However, her precious little beasts were very smart. After they sensed Leng ruoxue's thoughts, they transmitted their voices to her and begged, "master, let us go out and join in the fun! We promise we won't use our claws. We'll just watch the battle up close and feel the atmosphere!"

"Uh! Alright!" Leng ruoxue was speechless. 'Trying to feel the atmosphere? To think they could come up with such an excuse.

However, since her own beast had a request, as its master, she naturally had to do her best to satisfy it. Thus, with a thought, a few little beasts were moved out. After thinking about it, Li Zhong and the others were also moved out.

Let's just experience the atmosphere of the venue together!

Leng ruoxue's movements when she moved everyone out of the house were extremely smooth. However, when the ascender Alliance members saw so many people suddenly appear beside her, they were all stunned.

Although the other party didn't have many people, it was enough to make them dumbfounded. Because they had no idea where these people had come from!

"They're my godbrother and my subordinates. I didn't ask them to come out to fight with you. I just wanted them to experience the divine realm. They're not going to join the battle!" Seeing that the other party was very surprised, Leng ruoxue was afraid that they would misunderstand, so she quickly explained.

Li Zhong was even more cooperative as he echoed, "en, we'll only watch. We won't participate in the battle."

Although he said that, he couldn't help but break out in a cold sweat. That ... Could he say that it was also very dangerous for them to watch the battle?

In the mobile house just now, their darling, that quick-tongued little fellow, had already told them about the strength of these people. They were all existences that they could not catch up with even if they tried to, and they had to look up to!

Although it was very rare for them to watch a battle between experts up close with their strength, when this rare action was accompanied by danger, they didn't feel so good.

However, it was hard to get off after riding a Tiger, and they couldn't let Xue 'er's name be tarnished! Now that things had come to this, they had to continue watching!

With this thought in mind, although Li Zhong and the others were somewhat worried, they didn't show it on their faces.

After hearing their explanation, the four Alliance Masters couldn't help but ask, ""They ... Where did they come from?"

"They've been staying in my house. " Leng ruoxue spoke bluntly and didn't hide anything at all. When Li Zhong and the rest saw that she had exposed this big secret, they were all extremely worried.

Sure enough, after listening to the story, the eyes of the third and fourth Alliance Masters simultaneously shot out a green light of greed.

Chapter 2679 Not Using Divine Power Doesn't Count As A Win \(3\)

A portable house! That was something that only existed in legends.

Not to mention how difficult it was to gather the materials to refine this item, there were very few artifact Masters who could refine such a high-end item. However, when they thought of Leng ruoxue's relationship with the few people from the armament Guild headquarters, they understood.

Needless to say, those few people must have given her this!

After understanding the relationship between the two, everyone in the ascender Alliance was filled with envy and jealousy! It was indeed different to have someone backing you up!

Look at how she was doing ...

When they thought about themselves, the ascender Alliance's members instantly felt inferior and wished they could hide in a crack in the ground. However, at the same time, Alliance master three and Alliance master four had greedily set their eyes on Leng ruoxue's house.

As long as he could defeat Leng ruoxue, she wouldn't dare to not hand over that item!

The two of them thought happily in their hearts. Little did they know that Leng ruoxue had already seen through their thoughts. She had also deliberately exposed the existence of her portable house. After all, in the immortal realm, the fact that she had a portable house was no longer a secret. Although it had not been spread to everyone, at least some of the top families knew about it.

More importantly, with the portable house as bait, she believed that the two would do their best!

After instructing her precious little beasts to protect Li Zhong and the others and find a safe place, Leng ruoxue beckoned with her finger. "Come, let's start fighting!"

"You brat, I'll let you know why flowers are so red today!" The four Alliance Masters shouted, and their weapons flashed in their hands as they attacked.

His weapon was a saber. The blade was sharp, but the blade was only a foot long. After he held the weapon in his hand, he stretched his hand forward and a fierce and terrifying cold light was released along the blade.

The cold light was as fast as lightning and as thin as a hair. The pressure it contained made Li Zhong and the others, who were in a safe place, feel fear.

This person was so strong!

If it wasn't for the fact that the treasure had given them enough comfort and told them that these people were no match for their master, they would have been worried to death.

And baby was right.

This was because just as they were sighing about how powerful their enemy was, in the blink of an eye, the cold glint that the enemy had released was knocked to the ground by Leng ruoxue's fire-attribute divine power.

It was Shen power! Without even using a divine skill, his opponent's first move had lost its effect!

"Xue 'er is so powerful! Good luck!" When the overly excited Li Zhong saw this, he couldn't help but take the lead and shout.

Leng ruoxue smiled and waved at them, indicating that she had received it!

Baby was even more excited to take on the role of a commentator. He turned to Li Zhong and the others and said, "My cute master is going to kill the other party! Everyone, open your eyes and look carefully! Let's see how master kills the enemy!"

Its words almost made the four Alliance Masters 'noses crooked.

F * ck! What did he mean by Leng ruoxue almost killed the enemy? Even though he didn't want to take this as a personal matter, it was obvious that the enemy this annoying Fox was talking about was him! It was too obvious. He couldn't even lie to himself!

However, before he could flare up, Leng ruoxue's body leaped into the air and transformed into a stream of light, charging towards him at high speed!

When she was less than a meter away from him, Leng ruoxue decisively kicked out. Her foot landed right on the stomach of the Alliance master four. In an instant, the pitiful Alliance master four, who had yet to figure out the situation, was sent flying like a ball.

With a loud bang, the four Alliance Masters crashed into a giant tree not far away and fainted. His body then slid freely to the ground.

"Hehe! Master has won!" Upon seeing this, the precious little beasts cried out in joy.

However, everyone, including Li Zhong and the ascender Alliance, couldn't laugh.

Li Zhong and the others didn't expect Xue 'er to be so strong. She didn't even use any divine skills, and sent the other party flying with a single kick. This, this was really too amazing!

Li Zhong and the others, whose reactions were obviously slower by half a beat, were stunned for a moment before they immediately revealed their Starry Eyes and stared at Leng ruoxue with fiery gazes.

As for the people of the ascender Alliance, they were a little dumbfounded by this scene.

Could this be considered a victory?

If they didn't count in the other party's victory, how would they calculate the result when their four Alliance Masters fainted?

They could not understand! Then, everyone turned to look at the third alliance master. Other than Vice President Zhang Miao, he was the one with the highest status. And it was obvious that Vice President Zhang Miao did not have the time to deal with this.

The ascender Alliance's third alliance master, who was furious at the anticipation in the eyes of the ascender Alliance's members, also knew that he couldn't just keep quiet at this time. Therefore, he could only brace himself and say, "How can this be considered your master's victory? she didn't use any divine power at all!"

"Not using Shen power doesn't count as a win?" Leng ruoxue blinked her eyes in disbelief.

Originally, she didn't have any thoughts of offending the ascender Alliance too much. Therefore, she had shown mercy by kicking them directly. However, the other party didn't appreciate it! As such, she could only reluctantly accept it.

However, in order to confirm the other party's thoughts, she still kindly asked again, "is it really not considered my win if I don't use my godly skill?"

"Of course not!" The third alliance master said as he endured the pressure. The dignified fourth Alliance master of the ascender Alliance was defeated by an opponent in one move. If such a matter were to spread, it would definitely damage the image of their ascender Alliance. Therefore, he was bound to hold on to this point! No matter what, they couldn't let Leng ruoxue win. Otherwise, where would they put their face?

"Do you really want me to use my divine power to count?" Leng ruoxue still had to confirm.

"That's right! You have to use Shen power, otherwise it can not be considered your win!" The third alliance master's anger rose a little after hearing the other party's repeated confirmation.

"Do you all think the same way?" Leng ruoxue then turned her beautiful eyes to the other members of the ascender Alliance, similarly confirming it.

Under Leng ruoxue's interrogation, the ascender Alliance could only say stubbornly in order to not weaken the ascender Alliance's momentum, "Yes! You have to use Shen power, or else it will be hard to convince the masses!"

"Alright then! You asked me to do this!" Leng ruoxue said helplessly. Then, she turned her beautiful eyes to the side of her baby and asked, "Baby, did you record what they said?"

"Hehe! 'Don't worry, cute master!' I've recorded everything they said!" Baby laughed evilly and showed him a small piece of memory crystal in his claws.

"..." What does this mean? Were they afraid that they would go back on their word?

The ascender Alliance's members' mouths twitched, and their foreheads were filled with black lines. They could not understand Leng ruoxue's actions.

But he believed that it wouldn't take long for them to understand.

In the next moment, a small flame suddenly appeared on Leng ruoxue's fair and delicate fingertips. The purple flame with a tinge of red first circled around her fingers a few times before it floated away from her beautiful snow-white fingers and flew towards the four Alliance Masters.

Everyone present watched this scene intently, not knowing what use this small divine power Flame could have.

This was especially true in the eyes of the ascender Alliance's members. This small amount of divine power that had condensed into a flame was simply not of any great use!

"Stinky girl, don't tell me you only have this much Shen power!" The third alliance master laughed wildly when he saw this. With him taking the lead, the ascender Alliance's side instantly burst into laughter.

"This amount of flame is enough." Leng ruoxue said with a half-smile.

"Oh, really? Then I'll have to wait and see." The third alliance master laughed so hard that he was out of breath, and his chest heaved up and down because of his unrestrained laughter. But very quickly, he was dumbfounded.

While he was laughing, the small flame slowly flew to the four Alliance Masters and landed on him.

In an instant, the four Alliance Masters' bodies were ablaze with flames that soared into the sky, and the temperature of the scene suddenly rose.

At this moment, everyone realized that although the flame was small, it was not simple.

In just a few seconds, the flames on the four Alliance Masters' bodies quickly shrank again, but the four Alliance Masters who had been enveloped in flames just a moment ago had disappeared without a trace. Everyone was petrified.

Where did the four Alliance Masters go?

Was he ... Dead?

The people in the ascender Alliance who had witnessed this scene could not help but make wild guesses. However, they were all self-deceiving and unwilling to believe this fact.

That was impossible! It was impossible for such a powerful flame to exist! The other party must have used some method to hide the four Alliance Masters. The moment the third alliance master thought of this, he glared at Leng ruoxue and said, "Stinky girl, where did you take the four Alliance Masters? Quickly hand over the four Alliance Masters. Otherwise, our ascender Alliance will not let you off!"

Leng ruoxue was speechless when she saw the third alliance master's righteous indignation. The two of them had just been arguing and even fighting, so why did they suddenly share a common enemy?

In fact, it wasn't hard to understand what the three alliance Masters were thinking. He had to admit that the other party's flames were powerful, and then what? What should he do? The arrow was already on the string, could it be pulled back? If Leng ruoxue was that terrifying, would the other party allow him to back out?

He had no choice but to lie to himself!

"Your four Alliance Masters are dead." Leng ruoxue replied indifferently. She did not take the Alliance master's threat seriously. After all, he was the one who had requested for her to use her divine power. She could not be blamed. She was just killing the chicken to warn the monkey. It was just that the monkey was unlucky and didn't have time to leave any last words.

"This is impossible!" The 3rd Alliance master shouted with a trembling heart.

"If you don't believe me, you can experience it for yourself. How about it? do you want to try?" Leng ruoxue laughed evilly. It seemed that one could not be a good person! She was such an honest child, but he didn't believe her.

Such an outcome made Leng ruoxue feel a little hurt.

The moment he heard that Leng ruoxue wanted him to experience it, the third alliance master's face turned pale and his heart started to beat wildly.

What a F * cking experience! Did he dare to experience it? If he really experienced it, what would he do if he died?

Seeing the unpredictable expression on the third alliance master's face, Leng ruoxue said in disappointment, ""Al! I knew you wouldn't have the guts. "

"Nonsense, who says I don't have the guts!" After Leng ruoxue's provocation, the third alliance master's anger rose again.

"Then you can try!" As soon as Leng ruoxue finished speaking, the little flame that had been floating in the air waiting for the next instruction flew towards the direction of the third alliance master, who wanted to experience it, in a carefree and happy manner.

Chapter 2680 Prepare To Wipe Them Out In One Go \(1\)

The third alliance master's face turned pale as he looked at the little flame that was approaching him. His legs started to tremble, but he still held on to his dignity. However, his trembling legs revealed the nervousness in his heart.

F * ck! He was so angry that he wanted to curse. What the hell was this? Was he threatening him? The third alliance master hated the situation in front of him to death, especially when he saw the floating little flame slowly approaching him without any hurry, as if it was playing with him. He was really anxious and angry.

However, as the leader of the three alliances and the future elder of the general Alliance, he would not allow himself to drop the ball. Therefore, no matter how afraid he was, he had to hold on.

The little flame seemed to have sensed his thoughts. With a whoosh, it floated in front of the third alliance master and looked him in the eye.

The small flame was right in front of the third alliance master's eyes, and his heart instantly jumped to his throat. He stared at the flame in his sight without blinking.

He didn't understand what the flame was trying to do. Was he going to stare at him? However, his little heart was beating wildly, and cold sweat gradually slid down his forehead.

The huge mental pressure caused the three alliance Masters to open their mouths, but they couldn't form a complete sentence. He was so anxious that he wanted to cry. What should he do? At such a close distance, he could clearly feel the heat from the little flame's body.

It was hot! It was so hot!

After looking at each other for a long time and seeing that the little flame in front of him didn't do anything, the Alliance master of the three alliances felt a little relieved. He took a few deep breaths and then gathered his courage to say, "Go! Go away! Get away from me!"

Hearing this, the little flame seemed to twist its body and turned around in a circle before floating back to its original position and continued to stare at the third alliance master.

The third alliance master was dumbfounded. W-what was this thing trying to do? He could not understand what the little flame was trying to say, but he could clearly feel that the little flame was waiting for something.

The little flame trembled and suddenly grew a little higher, turning the third alliance master's face red. The third alliance master was so scared that his face turned even paler. Then, he clearly felt an unbearable heat coming at him ...

In an instant, the small flame reached the third alliance master's body and instantly burned into a huge fire that was half the height of a person, enveloping the third alliance master.

It was hot! The endless heat made the third alliance master's body unbearably hot. He felt as if he was in a sea of fire, and the heat waves that covered the sky seemed to be about to burn him!

After a short while, the third alliance master's painful screams came from the flames!

"Help, help!"

When the flame and the three alliance Masters were staring at each other, the ascender Alliance's members were so scared that they took a few steps back and kept their distance from the flame's sphere of influence. At this moment, they saw the third alliance master being enveloped in a scorching flame that was half the height of a man and even letting out an extremely painful howl. They were so frightened that their faces turned pale, and their bodies trembled like fallen leaves in the autumn wind.

Those who were less courageous could not withstand the terrifying mental pressure and fainted.

After a while, Leng ruoxue saw that it was about time. She used her mind to summon the little flame away from the third alliance master. At this moment, the third alliance master was just standing there in a daze. Other than his entire body turning black, he did not suffer any major injuries. However, the pain in his heart was definitely not small. He believed that he would never want to experience what he had experienced in his life again.

"3rd Alliance master, how do you feel? I've been merciful to you. Otherwise, you'll end up like the four Alliance Masters!" Leng ruoxue smiled faintly.

When the third alliance master heard this, he didn't know how to react. He moved his stiff body and opened his mouth, but he couldn't say a word. He continued to stand there in a daze, making it impossible to know what he was thinking.

After a long time.

Only then did the third alliance master let out a wail, squatted on the ground, and started crying.

The cry was so miserable that it was simply unbearable, as if he had suffered some great grievance or lost a loved one. It was enough to describe it as tragic.

When the ascender Alliance saw this scene, their hearts were filled with complicated emotions. Although they could not empathize with him, they understood that the third alliance master was definitely frightened!

On the side, Li Zhong and the others saw a man squatting on the ground and wailing without any care for his image. Black lines were hanging on his forehead, and he was sweating profusely.

In addition, they also sympathized with the other party. Look at how scared they were. They hadn't even officially fought yet! She abandoned her image and started crying.

Al! He was really pitiful!

However, when the third alliance master cried like this, the little flame, who continued to wait at the side, kindly let him go and targeted the others. The ascender Alliance members were instantly frightened and wanted to run away. However, before they could do so, they found that they were so scared that their legs had turned soft and they could not move.

W-what should I do? The ascender Alliance members trembled in the wind, while the little flame was jumping and cheering excitedly. Now, it was only waiting for its master's order to act.

When Leng ruoxue saw this, she broke out in a cold sweat for her little flame, who was becoming more and more intelligent. One had to know that she had no intention of annihilating all of these people at the moment. However, it was not a bad idea to scare them a little.

At the thought of this, Leng ruoxue revealed a devilish smile and said calmly, "As the saying goes, " we share good fortune and misfortune together. "Since the three alliance Masters have already experienced the power of my flames, how about you all experience it too? Don't worry, I won't let you end up like the four Alliance Masters!"

But they didn't want to experience it either! After hearing Leng ruoxue's comforting words, the ascender Alliance did not let go of their fear. Instead, they became even more afraid. Moreover, was this considered comforting? Would they be happy if they didn't end up like the four Alliance Masters? Sob ... Even if they were only asked to be like the third alliance master, they were not willing to!

It was too embarrassing, wasn't it?

The crowd was filled with grief and indignation, but they did not know how to refute Leng ruoxue's words. Or rather, they did not have the confidence to convince this demoness to let them off.

The facts proved that their thinking was right!

From Leng ruoxue's point of view, since these people dared to gather to seek revenge on her, they must have been prepared to enjoy any consequences. One must know that she was never a soft persimmon.

Now, she, who wasn't a pushover, was about to counterattack!

Looking at everyone's pale little faces, Leng ruoxue's smile became even more charming. At the same time, the little flame, who had received some kind of hint, also happily floated towards the place with the most people in the ascender Alliance.

In an instant!

The flames once again burned fiercely!

Almost everyone in the ascender Alliance was surrounded by flames. A few fish that escaped the net were even kicked into the sea of flames by a few idle baby beasts to enjoy themselves.

In an instant! A painful howl suddenly sounded! It scared Li Zhong and the others so much that they trembled, and their hearts also started to beat wildly.
