

Crazy Wife 2701

Chapter 2701 So What If You Have More Hands \(1\)

Where was she now?

Leng ruoxue's eyes went dark. She had no idea where she was at all. There were only mountains in front of her, and the sky was dark and chaotic. Moreover, if she remembered correctly, there was no such thing on the map.

"Cang, what is this place?" Leng ruoxue couldn't help but ask as she looked at Cang's calm and composed appearance.

Cang teleported with her for a few days before finally arriving here. However, it was as if nothing had happened here, constantly commanding her to wander around the mountains like a headless fly. Leng ruoxue was a little confused about Cang's intentions.

"This place! Hehe! I'm not telling you yet." Cang laughed evilly. He then saw Leng ruoxue's depressed expression and couldn't help but laugh in his heart.

Leng ruoxue was indeed very depressed. This little thing was actually keeping her in suspense.

"Girl, I'm hungry, let's eat something first!" Cang said after laughing for a while.

"Alright then!" Leng ruoxue was extremely helpless. She could only resign herself to her fate and take out some ingredients to prepare something to eat so that she could feed this little fellow that was driving her crazy.

A moment later.

Leng ruoxue nimbly prepared some fragrant food. Cang didn't say anything and started eating by Leng ruoxue's feet. Seeing that Cang's appetite was so good, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but wonder if this little fellow was here for an outing?

Just as Leng ruoxue was thinking about this, she suddenly heard a rustling sound. Instantly, she raised her guard.

Following that, a huge black shadow pounced towards the man and the Beast. Leng ruoxue immediately picked up Cang and quickly dodged to an empty space at the side.

When the huge black shadow saw that it had missed, it furiously pounced towards Leng ruoxue and Cang. It was only then that Leng ruoxue could see the true face of the black shadow.

It was a giant centipede that was at least a thousand meters long!

The centipede's entire body was as black as armor, and there was a light blue glow on it. Its broad body was as big as a small mountain. She had heard that centipedes had a hundred or a thousand legs, but from what Leng ruoxue could see, this centipede probably had ten thousand legs! The centipede's head was even bigger than her body, especially the two millstone-like eyes on the centipede's head. They were eerie and terrifying. At this moment, they were exuding a frighteningly cold air. Just looking at them would make one feel fear. Its mouth was full of huge teeth, and they were making cracking sounds.

As for this centipede's strength, it was roughly between the eighth and ninth rank. However, based on its size and its ferocity, it could definitely be compared to a true ninth rank sacred beast.

As for Leng ruoxue, she didn't dare to let her guard down when facing this disgusting centipede. After dodging the centipede's violent attacks twice, she had completely angered the centipede.

"Human! Cunning humans! I won't let you off!" The centipede opened its mouth in anger.

Leng ruoxue was speechless. How was she cunning? He only dodged twice and didn't let the centipede catch him. How could this be considered cunning? Could it be that when she saw this centipede, she could only stand still and let it do whatever it wanted? That wasn't not cunning, but stupid, right?

She had to admit that she was very worried about the centipede's intelligence!

"Very well, I won't let you off either." After that, Leng ruoxue replied, unwilling to be outdone. Even though she was not as big as her opponent's head, she would never admit defeat in terms of aura. Otherwise, the centipede would probably laugh at her even more! She was also a little curious about where this centipede came from.

"Ya ya ya! Humans! You're so bold!" The centipede was obviously mad with anger. It waved its countless legs and bared its fangs and claws in front of Leng ruoxue.

Leng ruoxue was very depressed as she thought, so what if you have more hands?

Taking out cold shadow, Leng ruoxue flicked her wrist and drew out several beautiful and dazzling sword rays in the air.

Centipede blinked his eyes in confusion and asked, ""Human, what do you want to do?"

"I'm going to cut off your feet, damn it! You think you're so great with more hands?" Leng ruoxue roared. As she was speaking, the centipede's claws were still moving non-stop, as if it was going to pounce on her. She was furious!

After listening to her, the centipede didn't get angry at all. Instead, it nodded in agreement. "It's quite amazing to have more hands!"

"....."

Leng ruoxue was truly helpless. This centipede was a narcissistic fellow!

Since that's the case, then don't blame her! She didn't have a good impression of centipedes anyway. Besides, the centipede wanted to kill her.

Actions speak louder than words. While Leng ruoxue was thinking this, the cold shadow in her hand had already sent a few cold glints towards the centipede's claws. With a bang, the sword glints struck a few of the centipede's huge legs, creating intense sparks. However, the cold Shadow's sword glints only left a few faint white marks on the centipede's huge legs. Other than that, it did not cause much damage to the centipede.

Leng ruoxue was astonished. This centipede's shell was so hard!

Centipede sneered, "Puny human, you dare to be my enemy? you're really tired of living! Hmph! Today, I'll let you taste the power of my thousand feet!"

As soon as it finished speaking, the centipede's huge and hard tail swept towards Leng ruoxue.

As Leng ruoxue dodged, she could not help but remind him, "Is this your foot? This is a tail, right?"

"You bastard! Did the main body not recognize tails? I'll let you have a taste of my tail first before using it to its full extent, alright?" The corrected centipede was very angry. Its black hard shell seemed to be shining with a faint fiery red. It was obvious that it was very angry.

"Yes, you can! However, I'm afraid that you won't have the chance to use it fully later!" After Leng ruoxue finished her sentence, she quickly infused her fire-type divine power into the cold shadow. In an instant, a few sharp sword gleams flew out again ...

The centipede was huge and had no time to Dodge. It was extremely confident in its own strength, so it didn't think of dodging either. Therefore, it allowed the sword rays to hit its body and feet.

But this time, it had completely miscalculated.

The fiery-red sword light hit its body and feet, and it was so painful that it wanted to roll on the ground. That heart-piercing pain almost took half of its life!

How did this happen?

Centipede couldn't believe his eyes. The other party's sword ray had also hit his body before, but nothing had happened to him, right? Why was it different this time?

Not only was it different, but this time, the other party's sword radiance had also cut off a few of its giant legs. And the pain of the giant foot leaving its body was something it never wanted to experience again in its life!

It was too painful! It was too painful!

Wuu ... Tears welled up in the centipede's large eyes. What kind of trick did this woman use? How could he be so powerful! This woman who was holding a small pet was clearly weaker than it.

Chapter 2702 So What If You Have More Hands \(2\)

The centipede couldn't figure it out. Its heart was bleeding when it saw the giant foot lying on the ground!

"W-what are you doing?" Then, the centipede saw the woman in front of it pick up the few giant legs that had left it. It could not help but ask carefully, why did it feel that something was going to fall on its head?

"I heard that the centipede is a medicinal ingredient, so of course I can't waste it. I'm going to keep your leg for alchemy." Leng ruoxue answered the centipede's question with a smile. Her pair of beautiful eyes kept on sizing up the centipede's sturdy and hard black shell.

At once, the centipede was infuriated by Leng ruoxue's words and the way she was sizing it up. It immediately roared, "human! How dare you! Do you know who I am?"

"I know, you're a centipede!" Leng ruoxue nodded.

"Hmph! Ignorant human. I'm telling you, I'm not just a centipede, I'm also the chief of the entire centipede race in the divine world. At the same time, I'm also a trusted aide of God Lord fogripple. So if you're smart, you'd better leave behind my foot and quickly leave. Otherwise, you'll only die Here!" In a fit of rage, the centipede revealed its trump card.

Initially, he thought that after it revealed his background, Leng ruoxue would be so frightened that she would immediately run away. Who knew that not only did she not leave after hearing his words, she even appeared to be in deep thought. This made the centipede clan leader extremely puzzled.

"As expected of Wu Cheng's subordinate! I cut off a few of his legs, but not only did he not want to take revenge, he even wanted to let me go. " Leng ruoxue laughed indifferently. In other words, she was saying, "little centipede, you're so cowardly!"

"Hmph! It's good that you know. As subordinates of God Lord mist ripple, how could we stoop to the level of puny humans? so, this Lord will be magnanimous and not haggle with you. If you know what's good for you, then quickly leave! Don't force me to do it!" The centipede clan leader did not catch the hidden meaning behind Leng ruoxue's words. Instead, he spoke with pride.

It was honored to be a subordinate of God Lord mist ripple!

But in reality, it had thought of taking revenge after Leng ruoxue had chopped off a few of its legs. It was just that it had some instinctive fear of Leng ruoxue's fire-attribute divine power. Thus, it would rather suffer a little than to be entangled with this human.

However, how could Leng ruoxue be dismissed so easily? Especially after hearing that the other party was a trusted aide of ripple, she would not leave so easily. People from rime ice! How could he let her go?

After some thought, Leng ruoxue continued to smile, ""If you want me to leave, I'll leave. Just take the initiative and offer me your body. Oh! This shell of yours should be pretty good for forging. "

"Despicable human! How dare you try to steal my outer shell? you, you must be tired of living!" After the centipede heard this, it was furious again. It really felt that the woman in front of it really didn't know what was good for her. It didn't even want to argue with her, but why was she still so insensible? Little did it know that Leng ruoxue had only made up her mind to pester it endlessly after hearing it call itself a subordinate of the ripple mist.

Therefore, the moment it revealed its identity, its fate was already decided.

"You'll know if I'm tired of living after you try. Come on! Let's continue, chief centipede. " Leng ruoxue beckoned at the centipede, whose body was on fire from anger. Then, she flashed out the cold shadow in her hand, signaling for the other party to quickly make a move.

However, the centipede clan leader did not act rashly. He looked at the calm Leng ruoxue, then glanced at the sword in her hand that was emitting a cold aura. Suddenly, he turned around and retreated decisively!

As he left, the centipede clan leader thought to himself, I don't want to waste my time with this lunatic! It was such a waste of time!

Leng ruoxue was dumbfounded when she saw this.

While she was still in a daze, the swift centipede clan leader had already disappeared into the gray fog, without a trace.

Leng ruoxue was extremely depressed!

What a mistake! She had never expected that the giant centipede would escape!

What should he do now? The other party was Wu Yan's subordinate, and he was really unwilling to let her go just like that!

Wait a minute! Why would Wu Yan's subordinates be here? Could it be that it also knew that he was somewhat unsightly, so it hid here? As such, it seemed that she could not let the centipede go! With such a powerful Beastie, it would definitely be a big problem to keep it.

"Cang, we have to find that centipede and destroy it." After thinking for a while, Leng ruoxue spoke to Cang Dao very seriously.

"En, that guy's entire body is a treasure. Not only can it be used to refine pills, it can also be used to refine weapons. It's indeed a rare material!" Azure nodded in agreement.

Leng ruoxue was speechless. That was not what she meant! She just wanted to weaken the fog, but ... She couldn't deny that Cang's words were true. That centipede was a treasure.

"Cang, let's go find that centipede!" Leng ruoxue couldn't be bothered to argue with Cang and directly said.

"Girl, don't be anxious. Wait for another two or three days, and we'll meet it again." Cang had a look of confidence as he said mysteriously.

"What?" Leng ruoxue was puzzled. What did this mean?

"Aren't you curious as to why that centipede is here?" Azure asked with a faint smile.

"Why?" Leng ruoxue was very cooperative. Since Cang had said so, it shouldn't be the childish reason she thought of before.

"There's a precious herb here, and that centipede was ordered to guard it. Originally, this centipede was The Guardian beast of that medicinal herb, but it was later subdued by that B * tch, Wu Han, so it became Wu Han's slave!" This time, Azure didn't keep him in suspense and explained.

Leng ruoxue's interest was piqued the moment she heard the word 'precious'. She asked, ""Is that medicinal herb the reason you brought me here?"

"Yes, that medicinal herb is very important to the rime ice. Therefore, we must get it." Azure clenched his furry little fist and said fiercely.

"In that case, should we call uncle long and the others over? There's strength in numbers!" Leng ruoxue suggested.

However, Azure shook his head, "there's no need to call them over. The two of us are enough."

"Are you sure? What if Wu Xuan comes here?" Leng ruoxue asked worriedly. Even though the fog ripple had been injured, she didn't know how much better the woman's injuries had gotten. She didn't dare to let her guard down.

"I'll deal with her when she comes, but I don't think she'll come here. This place is considered one of her secret bases. It's not even marked on the map of the divine realm, so she definitely won't expect us to come here. More importantly, the guards here are all idiots who rarely move around in the divine realm. They have never seen us before, so they naturally don't know about the enmity between us and fog ice, so don't worry! We'll definitely be able to get those herbs!" Azure was full of confidence.

This was also the reason why it didn't allow Leng ruoxue to call uncle long and the others over. In the land of evil demons, there were countless pairs of eyes watching them. If the spies of fog ice discovered the actions of uncle long and the others, it would definitely alarm fog ice, and it would make it difficult for them to snatch that medicinal herb.

"But we've already been discovered by the centipede. Is that okay?" Leng ruoxue was still a little worried.

"That centipede is an idiot. It was so scared by you that it hid in the hole. Before the herb ripened, it would definitely not dare to leave, so don't worry! It doesn't have the intention to tattle. We just need to stay here in peace. It won't think that our goal is that medicinal herb! At most, they'll think that we've mistakenly entered this nameless mountain. " Cang laughed evilly. Before coming, he already knew the situation here like the back of his hand. However, he deliberately maintained a sense of mystery and didn't tell Niu anything. Now that he thought about it, his decision was indeed right! When it saw Niu's blank face, its mood was particularly good. Fortunately, Leng ruoxue wasn't aware of its little evil interest. Otherwise, she would have vomited blood from depression.

Hearing Cang's words, Leng ruoxue could only let go of her worries and stay where she was. However, she was still very curious about the medicinal herb and finally couldn't help but ask, ""Cang, what is the herb that you said is very important to the rime ice? What's the use of it?"

"That herb is called the blood lotus flower. There is only one of it in the world. At that time, the seed of the blood lotus flower was also contaminated with a trace of chaos Qi. It can be considered a plant born from chaos and has some relatives with the fog. So, after the fog found it and subdued the centipede, the fog has ordered the centipede to guard it for tens of thousands of years. The moment the blood lotus flower matures, the fog will absorb the essence of the blood lotus flower. At that time, the cultivation of the fog will definitely take a big step forward. She might even become the true master of the divine realm. At that time, it would be even more difficult for us to deal with her! But fortunately, she was injured by the demonic man before, so even if she has absorbed the essence of the blood lotus flower, she can't completely use up her strength. However, with the essence of the blood lotus flower that has been around for tens of thousands of years, it will be easy for her to heal Wu Lian's injuries. So, no matter what, we can't let the blood lotus flower fall into the hands of Wu Lian!" Azure said very seriously.

After Leng ruoxue heard these words, she nodded. She had never seen Cang show such a serious expression, so she naturally paid more attention to it.

But she still had some questions.

"Azure, how did you discover the existence of the blood lotus flower?" Leng ruoxue was very curious.

"I've known about it for a long time and have been paying attention to it. However, the blood lotus flower grows extremely slowly. It's been tens of thousands of years. Any other natural treasure would've been able to take form long ago, but that little flower hasn't developed any spiritual consciousness yet. It still recognizes me!" Azure said with a bitter expression.

"Uh! It's been a long time indeed. In that case, you've been eyeing the blood lotus flower for a long time!" Leng ruoxue listened to Cang's complaints and couldn't help but let her imagination run wild. Between this beast and flower, there was clearly ...

"Girl, how can you say that? We can't let it fall into the hands of fog. I hate that woman. My greatest pleasure is to make trouble for her and make things difficult for her. So, we must get the blood lotus. " Azure reminded him seriously.

"Yes, just because that flower is what Wu mo wants, I can't give it to her! However, what kind of flower was the blood lotus flower? And what does it have to do with Xue Lian?" Leng ruoxue could not help but ask.

"It doesn't matter. They just look a little similar. However, snow lotuses are basically white, while blood lotus flowers are as red as blood. They are very bright." Cang explained.

Leng ruoxue nodded her head, understanding the situation. "So the flower will mature in two or three days?" she continued.

"Yup! After it matures, it will be able to develop intelligence. I'm really looking forward to what it will be like!" Azure said happily.

Looking at its appearance, Leng ruoxue was even more certain that there was something going on between Cang and that flower ... Afraid that Cang would find out, Leng ruoxue quickly put away her improper thoughts and smiled, "Congratulations, you finally have the chance to meet!"

"Girl, you'll see it too!" Azure reminded.

"Yes." Leng ruoxue nodded, but she couldn't help but think to herself, 'I'm not looking forward to it as much as you. I just don't want that flower to be obtained by Wu Xiao.'

Just like that, the two of them began to wait patiently.

However, on the second day, the blood lotus flower that Cang had been waiting for did not mature.

On the third day, from the morning, Leng ruoxue could clearly feel the increase in the spiritual energy in the mountain. Furthermore, there was an uncountable amount of spiritual energy swarming towards their location. Seeing this, Leng ruoxue and Cang knew that this was a sign that the blood lotus flower was maturing!

Without waiting for Leng ruoxue to open her mouth, Cang teleported Leng ruoxue to a dark cave. The cave was so dark that he couldn't even see his fingers.

Leng ruoxue wanted to light up a small flame but was stopped by Cang. "Girl, don't light a fire," Cang Huan transmitted. "You'll scare the blood lotus flower. That little fellow is very timid!"

Hearing Cang's words, Leng ruoxue could only give up and silently endure the darkness in front of her. Actually, she really didn't like such a dark place, especially when there were a few other slightly unfamiliar auras besides them here. This made Leng ruoxue even more disgusted.

Needless to say, those unfamiliar auras must have been sent by the mist to guard the blood lotus flower.

Just as Leng ruoxue was feeling depressed that she did not know when the blood lotus flower would truly mature, suddenly, a small spot of light lit up not too far away from her. It was like a Firefly emitting a faint light. Slowly, the light expanded bit by bit. However, the speed at which the light expanded was really too slow. By the time the light was the size of a baby's fist, an hour had passed.

However, the spiritual energy in the cave had obviously increased. Leng ruoxue's sharp senses could also sense that the violent spiritual energy was swarming towards the light from all directions ...

The few auras in the cave all held their breaths, not daring to disturb the blood lotus flower's maturity.

After an unknown period of time, the spirit Qi that had almost turned into liquid finally stopped being violent and slowly stabilized. The fresh air in the cave also made Leng ruoxue feel much more comfortable.

In an instant! The pitch-black cave suddenly became as bright as day. Leng ruoxue could finally see the true appearance of the blood lotus flower in Cang's mouth.

It was a red flower the size of an adult's palm. It was indeed very similar to a Snow Lotus. Its color was very bright, and the bright red petals were like drops of blood. They were crystal clear and beautiful! A faint layer of flowing light covered the petals, making the blood lotus flower appear even more noble. The tiny flower was like a king that no one dared to look at directly.

However, at the same time that she saw the blood lotus flower, Leng ruoxue also saw the three ugly Beastie in front of them.

In addition to the huge centipede, there was also a Spider that was as tall as a building, and a giant black Ant with a golden crown on its head. Needless to say, these three guys were definitely Chiefs, Kings, or something of the sort!

Seeing them, Leng ruoxue wanted to curse, but her good upbringing forced her to hold it in. She looked at the three ugly creatures in front of her with a face full of vigilance.

In an instant, four figures flew towards the blood lotus flower. One of the White figures, which was as fast as lightning, was naturally Azure, while the other three were the three ugly beasts.

When Leng ruoxue saw this, she was prepared to lend Cang a hand to block the three beasts. Who knew that before she could even make a move, the heart of the tiny blood lotus spat out a red mist. Almost instantly, the three ugly beasts took a big step back at the same time. Cang took the opportunity to keep the blood lotus in his arms.

Looking at Cang's careful manner, as if he was holding a rare treasure, Leng ruoxue was even more certain that there was an extraordinary friendship between them. However, this was obviously not the time for gossip. There were still three very ugly Beastie eyeing them covetously!

However, what surprised Leng ruoxue was that after the blood lotus flower was obtained by Cang, not only did the three ugly beasts not immediately rush forward to snatch it, they even looked as if they had suffered a huge blow. Especially the centipede clan leader, his face had completely crumbled and tears were rolling down his face. Following that, he heard the centipede clan leader choked with sobs, "Little blood, how can you treat me like this? I've been protecting you for tens of thousands of years!"

As soon as he said this, the other two also burst into tears, as if they had been wronged, and joined in, "Little blood, you don't want us anymore? In what way can we not compare to that d * MN cat?" After saying that, the other two were still burning with jealousy and glared at Cang fiercely.

Upon hearing this, Leng ruoxue looked at the complicated relationship in front of her. She could not help but imagine, 'could this be the so-called' my lover is married, but I'm not the groom '? No, it should be the lover that he had protected for tens of thousands of years, but the moment he woke up one day, he fell in love with someone else. It was obvious that The Guardian would be very sad!

As for Cang, who was on the other side, he was obviously domineering. He fought one against three, using his small body to fight against three huge monsters!

Leng ruoxue's mind was filled with wild thoughts. Just then, she heard an extremely childish voice ring out by her ear.

"So what if you have protected me for tens of thousands of years? You still want me to die, don't you?" The childish voice sounded very angry.

"You guys can't compare to Azure in any way!" He added.

Look at how smart this little guy is! Although it had just gained sentience, it was clear that these three ugly fellows were not as good as Cang, who was obviously more interested in it!

Leng ruoxue supported the idea of the tiny blood lotus flower. And he quickly expressed it with his actions. She clapped.

"Little guy, you've made a wise choice! These three monsters didn't have good intentions. They were monsters who specialized in deceiving children! Fortunately, you didn't fall for it!" Leng ruoxue praised as she wished for the world to be in chaos.

"Thank you, but I'm not a little guy. You are!" The blood lotus flower corrected Leng ruoxue's words in a serious manner.

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue felt depressed for a moment.

Alright! She understood what the other party meant! She quickly decided not to argue with a plant that had lived for tens of thousands of years because she would lose miserably.

Chapter 2704 Don't Stop Me \(1\)

Leng ruoxue was smart enough to maintain her silence. However, the other three ugly fellows were unwilling to be left out. They were unwilling to be ignored. More importantly, the blood lotus flower's words had caused them to be heartbroken.

The giant centipede had a look of betrayal on its face as it said, "Little blood, how can you say that we are sending you to your death? We're all doing this for your own good!"

"You're sending me to my death for my own good?" Little blood said angrily, its tender voice was so angry that it was a little sharp.

"This can't be considered suicide, right? It's just to maximize your role as a plant. And think about it, if you can become a part of the master God, how great of an honor would that be for you!" The giant centipede tried to persuade the angry red flower.

However, the flower became angrier and angrier when it heard this. It was so angry that it was trembling. Then, everyone heard a red flower that had just gained sentience curse, "Bullshit! Who would want to be a part of that B * tch! Whose grandfather had said that sending one to death was the greatest use of plants? Then why don't you just go and die? F * ck! Why don't you just go and die? Not only can your body be used to refine pills, but it can also be used to refine weapons, so it's much more useful than me. Why don't you take the initiative to offer yourself and let others kill you?"

The blood lotus flower was furious, and the consequences were severe. Moreover, with its anger, the red mist that spurted out from the center of the flower became even more intense. The three Beastie, led by the centipede, hurriedly took a few large steps back in fear.

Azure held the blood lotus flower with an indifferent expression and looked at the three with a faint smile. Leng ruoxue's face was filled with black lines.

She couldn't understand how a little guy who had just gained sentience could learn to curse. Could it be self-taught? The possibility of this should be very low, right? Moreover, that person didn't admit that she was the little guy's flower and even called Wu Chen a bitch! This was most likely the Cang sect!

It had to be said that Leng ruoxue was right!

These words were really from the Azure sect. Although Azure rarely appeared by the blood lotus flower's side, he could still communicate with little flower spiritually! Over time, the pure blood lotus was instilled by Cang into the fog that it was a bad guy! It was a slut! It was the idea of grandmother Wolf, who wanted to eat it, and it was deeply ingrained in the blood lotus flower's heart. As for the three beasts who had been ordered to protect the blood lotus flower, Azure had also spoken ill of them. Because of this, even if Azure didn't appear often, flowery didn't really care about those three.

Moreover, it did not have any intelligence, so even if they wanted to communicate, there was no way. The three beasts definitely did not have Azure's ability to communicate with the blood lotus flower that had no intelligence. As such, the three of them were naturally in a tragedy! Xiao Hua only treated them as servants. At least with someone to protect them, it didn't have to worry too much about its safety.

More importantly, it was very clear that as long as it was not mature, the ripple witch would not be willing to eat it.

That was why it had been living a carefree life for the past tens of thousands of years. Now that it had matured, it meant that danger was coming. It was time for the two sides to fall out. Now that it had the protection of the thick-skinned Azure, it naturally didn't need to fear these three guys!

It had to be said that Azure's upbringing had been very successful, and the blood lotus flower was very dependent on it. The closeness between the beast and the flower had greatly provoked the three ugly beasts, who were burning with jealousy.

Seeing how the other party treated Cang as a love rival, Leng ruoxue was both amused and speechless. However, she knew that the Little Flower was not to be trifled with. The red mist that came out of the flower's pistil was poisonous. Although she didn't know what would happen if she came into contact with it, but looking at the three of them 'fearful expressions, the poison was probably not light.

Leng ruoxue was secretly making guesses at the side. The three Beastie, who had lost their rationality and flown into a rage out of humiliation, were conversing privately through voice transmission. They would even cast their gazes towards Leng ruoxue from time to time, causing her to be baffled.

Why were the three of them looking at it? Just as Leng ruoxue was feeling puzzled, she heard Qing Jue's chuckling in her heart.

She could not help but wipe the sweat off her forehead. Before she could ask, Qing Jue's voice was heard.

"Big sister, they're trying to get their hands on you!"

"What?" Leng ruoxue didn't understand. Even though they were enemies, shouldn't they be dealing with their love rival now? Why did he have any ideas about her?

However, before Leng ruoxue could ask, she saw three huge black shadows Pouncing towards her from the corner of her eye. She dodged nimbly and jumped to a safe place at the side, causing the three to miss.

The three Beastie's anger burned even more when they saw that they had failed. The centipede clan leader was so furious that he spat out a Black Poison at Leng ruoxue. At the same time, the giant spider spat out countless light yellow, web-like threads from its mouth, which were scattered towards Leng ruoxue.

The big black Ant waved its two huge pincers and pounced towards Leng ruoxue once again.

The attacks that these three beasts used were all their most powerful attacks. They had made up their minds to teach Leng ruoxue a lesson, so all three of them were going all out.

When Leng ruoxue saw this, she was so angry that she wanted to curse the heavens! 'Damn it!' This was bullying! She wasn't the one snatching his love away, so why was he trying to force himself on her? If you have the ability, go find a group of people and beat them up!

This bunch of bastards who bully the weak and fear the strong! Leng ruoxue was enraged. She immediately threw out a small flame. The small flame split into three in the air and flew towards the three beasts from different directions.

As soon as the centipede clan leader saw the flame, he was instinctively afraid and slowed down his pace. However, the other two did not know the truth. They continued to shoot out their pincers. The one that was waving its pincers increased its strength, determined to take Leng ruoxue down.

According to their thoughts, the woman in front of them was the owner of that hateful cat. As long as they killed this woman, that cat would not be a threat!

He would deal with the cat after he killed this woman!

It had to be said that Beastie also knew how to capture the king before capturing the bandits!

Unfortunately, the weak woman in their eyes was not what she looked like. Therefore, the three Beastie who had this thought were destined to miscalculate.

The first to suffer were the two spiders and ants who did not know the truth and thought that Leng ruoxue was easy to bully! Just as they were about to continue attacking Leng ruoxue, the small flame Leng ruoxue had released landed lightly on their backs. Without giving them any chance to react, the small flame turned into a huge fire with a 'Swoosh'. The raging flames rose to a height of three feet and directly surrounded the two gigantic beasts ...

At the same time, a painful wail came from the fire. The wail grew louder, then gradually faded away, and finally disappeared little by little.

Seeing this, the centipede clan leader was so scared that his legs went weak. He wanted to run, but he could only look at Leng ruoxue with a trembling face. His body, which was thousands of meters long, was so scared that he was paralyzed!

It was completely dumbfounded!

How did this happen? How did this happen?

Chapter 2705 Don't Stop Me \(2\)

What kind of flame was that? how could it be so powerful? Its two little companions didn't even resist, and they went silent.

This ... Was he dead? The centipede clan leader didn't dare to think any further, but its huge body that was trembling violently revealed the boundless fear in its heart.

It had long known that the flame was not simple, but it did not expect it to be more powerful than it had imagined. At the thought of this, it suddenly realized that the woman had not killed it because she had been merciful!

Wuu ... How did this happen?

The centipede clan leader asked himself for the umpteenth time. That woman clearly looked so weak, so how could she have such a powerful flame? This didn't make sense! The centipede clan leader really wanted to roar into the sky! But at this time, what it regretted even more was that it had treated this woman as a soft persimmon. Now, not only was the persimmon not soft, it might even eat it!

As the fear in her heart grew, Leng ruoxue was no longer a weak woman in the eyes of the centipede clan leader. She was a demon! That's right! Brutal demon! It was an extremely terrifying demon that was not even as big as its head!

That ... It really wanted to ask, great demon! Can you let me go? Sob ... It deeply regretted provoking Leng ruoxue.

Just as the centipede clan leader was filled with worry and trying to think of a way, the 30-foot-tall flame not far away gradually extinguished. The flames on the giant spider and ant turned into two small flames and fused with another flame. Then, the small flame slowly floated beside the centipede clan leader, but it did not continue to attack.

But even so, it was enough to scare the centipede clan leader out of his wits. With a casual glance, it discovered that its two little companions were no longer breathing, leaving only two stiff bodies, reminding them that they had once existed, and also reminding the centipede clan leader that everything he saw was not a dream!

"Let, let me go! "Wu ..." After hesitating for a long time, the centipede tribe leader finally gave in under the threat of the little flame beside him!

"I won 't!" Leng ruoxue spat out these two words indifferently. Then, she intentionally said in a dissatisfied tone, "Didn't you just say that the blood lotus flower's sacrifice would be worth it? Now, I also want your sacrifice to be worth it. You see, I've kept the bodies of your two little friends! I'm going to use them to refine weapons. In comparison, your body is more useful. Since you can refine pills and weapons, I've kept them alive!"

With such an explanation, the centipede clan leader finally understood why Leng ruoxue did not kill him. Oh ... So it's because the living ingredients are fresher!

The centipede clan leader was very regretful, so regretful that his intestines were turning green! But was there any use in regretting now? It was a little confused.

After a long silence, the centipede tribe leader finally turned his gaze to the blood lotus flower and sobbed, "Little blood, are you going to watch me get killed by humans?"

"The earlier you die, the earlier you reincarnate. I will pray for you!" The blood lotus flower said without even thinking.

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but burst out laughing. This little flower was quite cute! His words were also sharp. Furthermore, to the centipede clan leader's ears, how sad would those words be!

Sure enough, when the centipede clan leader heard this, tears streamed down his face. At first, he cried silently, but in the end, he simply burst into tears. As he cried, he complained, "little flower, you are too heartless. I have protected you for tens of thousands of years. Now that you have a new love, it's fine if you don't want me anymore. How can you let the owner of your new love kill me?" Wu...How could you hurt my fragile heart like this! I'm so sad! I don't want to live anymore! Wu...Don't stop me!"

As he cried and cried, the centipede clan leader wanted to use his head to bang against the mountain wall. However, before he did so, he intentionally looked at Leng ruoxue. In the end, his gaze stopped on the little red flower for a very long time before he turned back reluctantly. "Don't stop me! I'm going to commit suicide!"

When Leng ruoxue, Cang and the blood lotus saw this, they didn't speak. Other than the sound of sobbing, the entire place was silent. However, at this moment, all three of their attention was focused on the centipede clan leader.

As the centipede clan leader's head got closer to the mountain wall, it should have hit the wall with a bang. However, the three of them waited for a moment, and no one heard the sound of the wall hitting. The centipede clan leader turned his head again and roared with grief and anger, ""You guys are too much! There's no humanity at all! You saw that I was about to commit suicide, but you didn't stop me. Wu...Bad guy! You're all bad guys!"

"Didn't you tell us not to stop them?" Leng ruoxue's forehead was filled with black lines as she said this in a speechless manner.

In fact, what she wanted to say was that she was fine with both the living and dead centipedes, so she didn't want to stop them. Moreover, they weren't friends, so what was there to stop? in any case, the centipede would end up dead in the end! If he committed suicide, he might be able to escape earlier! Thus, Leng ruoxue was very supportive of its wise choice.

"That's right! You already told us not to stop you. If we really do stop you, won't we just ruin your plans?" Azure also laughed evilly.

"I said I'm not allowed to stop you, and you really don't care if I'm dead or Alive? Do you have to be so inhumane!" The centipede fire roared.

"Little centipede, can you please recognize our relationship? Don't be so stupid, you're on our side, what does your life or death have to do with us? Why do we have to be kind to you?" Azure reminded him.

If it wasn't for the fact that Beastie was confused, it wouldn't have said such nonsense to the other party. Fortunately, after listening to Leng ruoxue and Cang's words, the centipede clan leader finally regained some of his rationality and wasn't as stupid as before!

"Wu...You, what do you want? Little blood has already been taken by you guys, I have nothing left, and you guys still won't let me go?" After a long time, the centipede clan leader finally woke up completely and asked.

"You're Wu Cheng's subordinate, it's impossible for us to let you go!" Cang replied with a smile after hearing the words of the centipede clan leader.

"Do you know that you're going against God Lord fogriple? You guys stole her things, she won't let you guys go. Aren't you afraid?" The centipede clan leader asked in confusion. It didn't know where this man and beast had gotten the courage to steal food from God Lord mist Ripple's mouth. This was simply courting death!

"Even if we don't snatch that slut's things, she won't let us off! We're natural enemies, and we're destined to kill each other! So, it doesn't make much of a difference to us whether we snatch her things or not. Do you understand now?" Azure said with a smile.

"Understood!" The centipede race chief wanted to cry, but no tears came out. So these two fellows had a grudge against God Lord mist ripple to begin with! Then it could be considered to have run into the hands of the enemy! No wonder it was unwilling to let it go!

After understanding this, the centipede clan leader felt that he could only wait for death! However, it still couldn't help but ask, ""Can you give me a quick death? Don't let me die too painfully. "

Chapter 2706 Don't Stop Me!\(3\)

"It depends on the situation!" Leng ruoxue replied calmly.

The moment the centipede clan leader heard this answer, he felt extremely unsettled! What was the meaning of this? Can you not torture me like this? Give him a quick one?

Unfortunately, Leng ruoxue did not know what the centipede clan leader was thinking, and Qing Jue did not tell her either. However, she could more or less sense the centipede clan leader's gloominess. She chuckled evilly and continued to ask, ""Since you're the leader of the centipede clan, where are your clansmen? Call him out for me to see!"

Leng ruoxue didn't want to leave any hidden dangers behind. Since she had captured the centipede clan leader, she naturally had to deal with his clansmen to avoid any trouble.

"I don't have any clansmen. I'm the only one in my clan." The centipede clan leader replied honestly.

When Leng ruoxue heard this, she was conflicted. You're alone, and you still have the nerve to call yourself the clan leader? You're clearly a commander with a pole!

"What about them? Where are the clansmen?" Leng ruoxue did not give up. She pointed at the dead spiders and ants.

"They don't have it either!" The centipede clan leader said, a little embarrassed.

"..." Leng ruoxue did not know what to say.

Seeing Leng ruoxue's distrustful gaze, the centipede clan leader was so scared that his heart was trembling. He quickly explained, ""It's like this. The lifespans of insect-type beasts from the deity world are extremely short. Not only are we weak, but we also have many natural enemies. Therefore, it's extremely difficult for us to survive in the deity world. Tens of thousands of years have passed, and our clansmen have either died or been killed. Now, there are only three of us left in our branch. Sob ... We're very miserable!"

As he spoke, the centipede clan leader wanted to play the emotional card again.

However, Leng ruoxue was completely unmoved. She only subconsciously glanced at Cang. Seeing Cang nod, Leng ruoxue then stopped doubting the centipede clan leader's words.

Then, she took out a rope and tied up the centipede tribe leader, who was tactful and did not struggle, firmly. She then threw him into the house with the other two behemoths.

After she was done, Leng ruoxue smiled at Cang and said, "Cang, can we leave this time?"

"Yes. However, there are still some collections of the three Beastie in this mountain. We have to steal them." Azure smiled evilly.

"I know the place!" The blood lotus hurriedly said upon hearing this.

When Leng ruoxue heard this, she felt a little sympathy for the centipede clan leader's three beasties. They were protecting a little flower who was a traitor! However, this was good. It was very much to her liking!

Following that, under Xiao Hua's guidance, the centipede clan leader and the other two beasts 'collection became Leng ruoxue' s. The three beasts had collected a lot of good things over the years, including countless high-quality medicinal herbs. However, according to the blood lotus flower's complaint, these medicinal herbs were collected by the three of them to give to the mist ripple bitch!

When Leng ruoxue heard this, she felt even more at ease! It would be a waste not to take fog's things!

After tidying up the treasures of the three Beastie, Leng ruoxue was prepared to let Cang bring her home. Who knew that Cang would wave his hand and ask her to wait. Then, she heard Cang raise his voice and roar at the sky. "Wavering bitch! I sold your petals for one Jingshi each, and the blood lotus flower that you've been coveting now belongs to me! Hahaha!"

This arrogant laughter, accompanied by the pressure Cang Yan released, spread throughout the entire divine realm.

Upon hearing this, Leng ruoxue broke out in cold sweat!

Why didn't he run away after doing something bad? why did he announce it to the world?

However, in the entire immortal realm, only Azure would dare to do this! He just didn't know if fog would be so angry that she would vomit blood after hearing these provocative words!

Leng ruoxue was suddenly filled with anticipation!

The facts proved that she had guessed correctly!

At this moment, although Wu Xiao had been healing in seclusion, Cang's voice was too powerful. The barrier she had set up could not block it at all. Therefore, when the voice entered her ears, she, who was healing, spat out a mouthful of dark red blood and fainted from anger.

By the time she woke up and teleported to the mountain where the blood lotus flower grew, the mountain was already empty.

The extremely furious Wu Xuan was so angry that she directly used her divine power to bombard the innocent mountain. In the end, she fainted beside the broken mountain rocks.

The frightened subordinates then hurriedly carried her back to the Divine Master's estate.

At the same time, in the Leng family's residence in the land of demons, there was a long silence because of the provocative words that came from the sky not long ago.

At that time, uncle long and the others were chatting in the living room. The people present at that time included the ascender Alliance's chief and Li Jing. As they did not see Leng ruoxue, they did not leave. However, just as everyone was having a good time chatting, the sudden voice gave them a big shock!

In comparison, uncle long and the others were still calm. Although they were breaking out in cold sweat, the ascender Alliance's master and Li Jing had already turned pale and ashen!

Because the petals of rime ice were bought by the two of them!

If this matter was known by Wu Yan, she would probably come to settle the score with them!

After an unknown period of time, the Alliance master's question finally came from the silent living room, "That voice just now, was it miss Leng's little white cat?"

"Yes, I am!" Uncle long looked at the Alliance master sympathetically. He had heard from the Alliance master that Cang had sold two petals to him and Li jingcai to save them. When he thought of this, he immediately consoled her, "Don't worry, no one will know that you bought the petals of the mist ripple bitch!"

"....."

Can you not call her a B * tch in front of them? The Alliance master couldn't help but feel disgusted. He really couldn't take it anymore!

Although he didn't have a good impression of Wu Chen, this illegitimate master God, at least on the surface, he would still respect her. But now, these guys in front of him had to add the word "bitch" when they talked about Wu Chen, which made him quite uneasy!

However, he also knew that the other party would not care about his thoughts! Therefore, he only thought about it in his heart and did not intend to say out such a request that would obviously annoy the other party.

After some thought, he couldn't help but ask, "Who is that little white cat? Gut...So gutsy!"

When he said this, he couldn't help but wipe off his cold sweat. He couldn't deny that he was really a little frightened.

"Do you know Cang? That little white cat is Cang. " Uncle long didn't intend to hide it and told the truth.

"Cang? Are you talking about the God-protecting Pagoda, Ling Cang?" The Alliance master's eyes suddenly widened as he spoke in disbelief. Anyone who had lived in the divine realm for a long time would know of Cang's great name. However, he had never thought that the little white cat would be Cang.

Uncle long nodded and didn't say much.

On the other hand, the Alliance master was still in shock. His mouth was half-open, and after a long time, he finally said, ""Wasn't it said that Azure doesn't have a master? Then what is its relationship with miss Leng?"

"Cang has acknowledged little Xue 'er as his master. Why? haven't you heard?" Uncle long pretended to be surprised, then put on a look of realization. ""It's not strange that you didn't hear about it. How could the ripple witch let such an important piece of news spread? And our Xue 'er keeps a low profile, she's never willing to show off about these things ..."

Hearing uncle Long's words, the Alliance master didn't know what to feel. In fact, he really wanted to ask, "Sir, aren't you showing off by saying this?" However, he knew that he must not offend his master in her territory. At the same time, he felt that he should reconsider Leng ruoxue's position!

From the looks of it, if the ascender Alliance wanted to befriend Leng ruoxue, they were obviously trying to climb up the social ladder! However, he was not willing to make the ascender Alliance think that they were beneath Leng ruoxue. After all, he was an extremely proud person. This fact made him feel rather conflicted. He didn't even know what to do!

However, he was even more unwilling to give up the chance to befriend Leng ruoxue!

The Alliance master fell silent again.

Uncle long and the others also knew that the general Lord had suffered too much today, so they ended their conversation considerately and arranged for the general Lord and Li Jing to rest.

Without outsiders, uncle long and the others were able to chat more freely.

"Al! He didn't know where Xue 'er had been taken by Cang! There's no news either!" Uncle long said with a bitter expression.

"Who said it wasn't! That detestable girl, isn't she afraid that we'll be worried?" At the mention of this, the master of the ning family gritted his teeth in hatred, but he couldn't contact Xue 'er, so he couldn't do anything!

However, he was very clear that the reason he couldn't contact Xue 'er was definitely Cang's doing. Because other than him, no one else had such great ability!

"It can't be considered as no news! Didn't Azure mention the blood lotus flower before?" Dongfang Yue couldn't help but interject when he heard the two old men's complaints.

But then, he received angry glares from uncle long and master ning, and then he heard the two angry, handsome old men shout in unison, ""Do you know where the blood lotus flower is?"

Hearing this, Dongfang Yue could only keep his mouth shut!

Sob ... I can't afford to offend a jealous old man!

Seeing that Dongfang Yue was being honest, uncle long felt that it was not interesting, so he left the living room in a Huff.

After he took the lead and left, the people present also left one by one.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue had no idea that her family was in a small argument because of her whereabouts!

"Cang, where are we going? Aren't you going home?" Seeing Cang bring her to a foreign city, Leng ruoxue was lost.

Chapter 2707 Madam, I Know I Was Wrong \(1\)

"Go back! However, let's go do something else before we go back. " Azure smiled evilly.

"What?" Leng ruoxue was very puzzled. Was Cang still not satisfied after taking away the blood lotus flower that the ripple mist slut had taken a fancy to? What else do you want to do?

It had to be said that Leng ruoxue was right again.

In reality, ever since Leng ruoxue and the others were attacked by the fog, Azure had been holding back a grudge. It was just that it had been holding back and not looking for trouble with the fog. It was so patient because it was waiting for the day the blood lotus flower ripened! It had long decided that the moment the blood lotus flower ripened would be the moment when it would feel the most heartache. After all, who would be able to stand the fact that something that they had been looking forward to for tens of thousands of years now belonged to someone else!

But now, it felt that since it had stolen the blood lotus flower, it could do something else in passing. In any case, they were all rime ice, so it was the same as stealing one, and it was the same as stealing two. In that case, it didn't seem like it was a big deal to get more. With this thought in mind, it brought Leng ruoxue back here. Of course, this was only their first stop. After all, it was the closest to the nameless mountain where the blood lotus flower resided!

"Girl, I remember you saying that you've recruited all the Guild leaders in the godly continent?" Azure asked with a smile.

"Yes." Leng ruoxue nodded. This matter was no longer a secret in the devil's Land.

"What's the use of guilds that do quests in the godly continent? If you want to accept us, then accept those from the divine realm! "You bastard!" Wiping out all the Guild quests in the divine realm is the same as cutting off half of the arm of that wastrel!" Azure couldn't help but remind him.

"You're here for the divine realm's quest Guild?" Leng ruoxue was enlightened. Why would Azure come to an unfamiliar city for no reason? it turned out that he had the intention of taking on the guilds here for quests. However, wouldn't it be a little dangerous to take in all the quests in the divine realm?

However, Leng ruoxue truly felt that this was a good idea, especially after she had a taste of the benefits in the godly mainland. However, the Guild had also accepted the divine realm's quest. She had never thought about it before. Oh! It wasn't that she hadn't thought about it, but it was only for a moment. After all, she was still afraid of alerting the enemy.

She didn't want to drive that bitch, Wu Cheng, crazy, but looking at Cang's current thoughts, it was clear that he wanted to drive Wu Cheng crazy. Or it could be said that it had already driven the mist ripple crazy!

When she thought of this, Leng ruoxue didn't wait for Cang to reply and couldn't help but ask, "Azure, you've completely angered Rime by snatching away the blood lotus flower. Shouldn't we return to Demon City first to guard against the sneak attack of that wretched Rime?"

"Don't worry, she doesn't even have the ability to launch a sneak attack now. That Bitch was so angry at our little tricks that she vomited blood and even fainted a few times!" Cang covered his mouth with his furry little paws and laughed secretly.

Ugh! You vomited blood because of your little tricks, right? Leng ruoxue could swear that she really did not do anything! She had been completely abducted by Cang! However, she was on Cang's side, so it didn't seem like there was any point in denying it! This was because Wu Jing must have already determined that she was also involved.

"From what you've said, the ripple mist bitch's injuries must have worsened! Why don't we ... Sneak attack her?" Leng ruoxue suggested after some thought. Take her life while she's sick! What a classic saying!

"Girl, although I agree with your opinion, you should know that a starving camel is still bigger than a horse! It won't do us any good if we sneak attack her now. If she decides to go all out and fight to the death, we'll both suffer heavy losses, and that's not the result I want!" Azure calmly analyzed.

After hearing Wan Cang's opinion, Leng ruoxue calmed down. That's right! With the crazy personality of the Rime people, they might really fight to the death with them. Of course, that was if they forced the other party into a corner.

But what they were doing now was not enough to drive Wu Chen crazy? Leng ruoxue was conflicted and at a loss. For a moment, she did not know what to do.

Cang saw through Leng ruoxue's thoughts and smiled, "Girl, although the blood lotus flower is very important to Wu Yan, it's not enough for her to fight to the death. You know, based on my understanding of her, she must be thinking about snatching the blood lotus flower back one day, so this is not a dead end for her. But once we make her lose her way out, she will definitely not let us have an easy time! Ai! I know that bitch too well!"

"Alright, I'll do as you say." Cold's words made Leng ruoxue unable to refute.

Azure nodded in satisfaction, then pointed at the city gate with his claw. "Let's start from here on the quest to conquer the divine realm! Let's go!"

"Oh! Set off! Let's go!" Suddenly, a young and tender voice rang out.

Leng ruoxue's face was filled with black lines. This little flower that had always been in Cang's arms, he didn't expect her to be so eager to see the world in chaos! Moreover, it didn't know who it had inherited its boisterous and lively personality from!

"Let's go!" Leng ruoxue was speechless.

Just like that, a man, a beast, and a flower began their journey to subdue the divine realm mission Guild!

Half a month later, other than the headquarters of the mission Guild in Imperial City, all the other mission guilds in the divine realm were now in Leng ruoxue's possession. Leng ruoxue had earned a lot from those mission guilds. Of course, for the sake of the mission Guild's business of Infernal Affairs, she had left some resources for the mission Guild. Otherwise, the Divine Master's residence would have been suspicious!

With Azure's violent cooperation, the Guild leaders of the major cities 'quest guilds had almost no chance to resist and were obediently captured! Leng ruoxue was naturally happy to be at ease.

After sweeping through the entire God Realm, Leng ruoxue, who thought that she could go home, was in a mess when she found out that Cang was going to the Imperial City and had taken over the Guild headquarters.

The Rime bitch had just been provoked, and now they're taking the initiative to send themselves to her door.

If Rime were to know that the two of them had gone to the Imperial City, she wondered if she would come and chase after them with her injuries. Leng ruoxue was suddenly curious.

However, she was still unwilling to waste her time in the headquarters of the Imperial City. She was a little homesick. More importantly, she knew very well that when she returned home, her Godfather and the others would probably complain again. Sob ... Thinking of this, she was a little sad!

"Azure, are you sure you want to go to the Imperial City?" Leng ruoxue knew that it would be hard to convince Cang, who was in high spirits, so she could only ask.

"Of course, we've already come this far, so how can we return empty-handed?" Cang heavily nodded.

Yes! They were now very, very close to the Imperial City, only less than a thousand meters away. If the guards were more focused, they might be able to discover their presence. Leng ruoxue could not help but secretly praise them. But now, the attention of the city guards was obviously not on them. In other words, she didn't expect the two of them to dare to come to Yu city!

"Then I'll change my appearance!" Jian Cang's will was very firm, so Leng ruoxue could only give up her life to accompany him.

"Why are you changing your appearance?" When Azure heard this, he blinked his eyes and a puzzled expression appeared on his face.

Chapter 2708 Madam, I'm Sorry \(2\)

"You don't want us to enter the city like this, do you?" Leng ruoxue was speechless. Cang had previously said that they couldn't provoke Rime now! If they really went in like this, wouldn't Wu Cheng go crazy?

"Can't I?" Azure asked innocently.

Leng ruoxue looked at Cang, then glanced at the little red flower that it had been holding in its arms. She sighed and said, "Do you think we're suitable to enter the defense city in our current state?"

She was in Wu Xiao's eyes, and Cang was seen as a life and death enemy by Wu Xiao. In addition, the blood lotus flower in Cang's arms had been coveted by Wu Xiao for a long time. This man, beast, and flower was definitely sending a sheep into the Tiger's mouth!

Of course, the Tiger was only injured, but there was no guarantee that the Tiger would not come to catch them when it heard that they were coming!

Such a fact made Leng ruoxue extremely confused. Previously, Azure had said that they couldn't take advantage of a certain someone's illness to launch a sneak attack, as that might make the other party desperate. However, at this moment, wouldn't what they were prepared to do make the other party go crazy?

Leng ruoxue deeply felt that as long as Wu Chen found out that they had entered the Imperial City, that old woman would definitely appear with injuries! At that time, I'm afraid I won't be able to avoid it even if I want to!

She even suspected that although Cang said that he couldn't take advantage of Wu Xiao's serious injuries to launch a sneak attack, he still hadn't given up on the idea of angering her to death.

It had to be said that angering the other party to death was indeed much easier than a sneak attack!

"I don't think it's inappropriate at all! Girl, we're going to Yu city to do something, not to fight with Wu Yan. I think, with her current injuries, as long as we don't provoke her, she won't easily make a move! That person is very patient, you have to believe in her self-control!" Cang knew Leng ruoxue's thoughts and comforted her.

Ugh! Wasn't this considered a provocation? Leng ruoxue was speechless. However, she knew that in Cang's heart, as long as they didn't attack the Divine Master's estate, it definitely wouldn't be considered a provocation!

Moreover, the things they had to do in the Guild for the mission ...

Alright! It was not a provocation if it was not exposed! In normal business dealings, the Divine Master's estate couldn't possibly not make any money!

Just like that, Leng ruoxue calmed down!

Then, she carried Cang, and Cang carried the red blood lotus flower. The human, beast, and flower swaggered towards the entrance of the Imperial City.

When they arrived at the Imperial City's Gate, the guards' eyes almost popped out of their sockets when they saw Leng ruoxue. Their mouths were half-open, and they could not form a complete sentence for a long time. And it wasn't just one guard. The guards at the city gate all looked like they had seen a ghost when they saw her!

Their incomparably shocked and incredulous gazes caused Leng ruoxue to feel depressed. Al! This was the tragedy of being famous! He would be recognized wherever he went, especially when he was in the enemy's territory!

"I want to enter the city!" After feeling depressed, Leng ruoxue immediately adjusted her state of mind. She glanced at the guard and deliberately put on a noble and cold appearance as she spoke calmly.

Upon hearing this, the guards instantly went into a frenzy and caused a commotion! After the commotion, the guard leader braced himself and asked with a vigilant look, "What are we doing in the city?"

"Do you need to ask so clearly? In the past, Imperial City didn't need to do this!" Leng ruoxue pretended to be unhappy.

"This is a new rule." The leader of the guards said blindly, but he couldn't help but think in his heart, "others can choose not to ask, but you, a dangerous terrorist, can't not ask!"

"Oh! I'm going into the city to look for the Guild of quests. I have a quest to issue!" Hearing the Guard's words, Leng ruoxue was kind and did not expose him. Instead, she cooperated and took the initiative to explain.

When he heard that Leng ruoxue was here to issue a mission to the Guild, the guard leader was instantly relieved. However, after he calmed down, he felt that something was not quite right. Wait a minute! You don't have to come to Imperial City to issue a mission, right? One had to know that branch guilds for missions were everywhere in the divine realm! Why did he have to come here?

With that thought, the guard leader began to doubt Leng ruoxue's motive and asked, ""The Guild has quests everywhere. Why did you come to Imperial City?"

These words were met with Leng ruoxue's extremely disdainful gaze. Following that, the guard leader heard Leng ruoxue sneer, ""My mission level is too high, so I can only come to the headquarters. Hmph! If it wasn't for the fact that the mission was always in Yu city, I really wouldn't want to come here! Why don't you suggest that we change the location of the mission headquarters? If that's the case, I wouldn't have come!"

..."Always changing Places? Did he dare to mention it? The leader of the guards was incited by Leng ruoxue's words and instantly wilted. He explained with a smile, ""I ... I just wanted to ask more clearly. I don't have any other meaning!"

Who asked you to be a terrorist? He had to be on guard!

"I understand. I know that my relationship with rime ice has given you a headache in the past, but please believe in my sincerity. This time, I came to Imperial City only to find the mission Guild to issue a mission!" Leng ruoxue was very understanding. The expression on her beautiful face was so sincere, causing the guard leader to feel guilty.

He truly felt that he shouldn't have suspected Leng ruoxue. If she really wanted to cause trouble, would she have obediently entered the city through the city gate?

However, even if he believed Leng ruoxue's words, he didn't dare to make the decision to let her into the Imperial City. He could only smile carefully and say, ""Miss Leng, I can't make the decision if you want to enter the city. You have to go back and ask for instructions. Can you please wait for a moment?"

"Sure!" Leng ruoxue smiled and nodded. At the same time, she transmitted a message to Azure, ""Cang, do you see? They don't trust us and are not willing to let us enter the city. "

"Calm down! They won't dare to offend us at this time, so don't worry! They'll let us in!" Azure said with confidence.

Seeing how confident Cang was, Leng ruoxue naturally didn't say anything more.

However, after the guard leader sent the news of Leng ruoxue's arrival at the Imperial City back to the Divine Master's residence, it caused everyone in the Divine Master's residence to be in a state of panic. When Xia Yi and the other two Hierarch saw this, they could only hold an emergency meeting to discuss this matter.

However, after a long discussion, they still could not come to a conclusion. Not only were their opinions unable to reach a consensus, but they were also divided into several groups. There were those who agreed to let Leng ruoxue into the city to settle some matters, and there were also those who requested to reject her. There were even those who maintained a neutral stance! The number of people in these three groups was similar, so it was difficult to make a final decision in a short time.

In the end, Xia Yi and the other two reverent-god level experts were left with no choice. According to their original intention, they could let Leng ruoxue into the Imperial City. However, as the reverent-God of the Divine Master's estate, her every word and action would attract too much attention. Hence, they could not voice their opinions at will. Otherwise, they might even incur the Divine Master's dissatisfaction!

After thinking for a long time, the three reverent-gods unanimously decided to let the Divine Master make the decision! After sending a guard to inform the black-robed man who was guarding the entrance of the Divine Master's Secret room, Xia Yi and the other two felt that their mission was complete and went back to their own business.

When the Man in Black found out that Leng ruoxue had come to Imperial City, his first thought was that this was a matter of great importance! In addition, the Divine Master had said before he went into seclusion to heal his injuries that unless it was an extremely important matter, he was not to disturb her!

Chapter 2709 Madam, I'm Sorry \(3\)

The Man in Black was naturally aware of the grudges between the Divine Master and Leng ruoxue. Hence, after sensing that the situation was extremely troublesome, he immediately entered the secret chamber for further instructions.

Wu Yan's face was pale. She was sucking blood to heal her injuries. When she heard that Leng ruoxue had come to the Imperial City, she was so agitated that she spat out a mouthful of blood. The Man in Black was so frightened that he knelt down immediately.

"Hmph! She still dared to come here? You're really not afraid of death!" Wu Mo's small face was pale and bloodless. She narrowed her beautiful eyes and said with some resentment.

If it wasn't for Leng ruoxue, how would she be injured? If it wasn't for Cang's provocation, how could her injuries have worsened! But now, not only did those people not know how to hide, but they also dared to approach her. They were really tired of living!

Mist gritted her teeth in hatred, and at the same time, a bone-piercing pain came from the bottom of her heart, causing her face to turn even paler.

How detestable! If she wasn't injured, she would have captured Leng ruoxue and tortured her in every way possible before sucking her fresh blood dry. She believed that Leng ruoxue's blood would be even more perfect than the blood lotus flower since she had the chaotic divine body. However, she could only think about it now!

She hated it!

Delicious food was right in front of her, but she couldn't get it. If this happened to anyone, it would definitely be a fatal blow!

But now, she had no choice but to endure. This was because she was very clear about her own situation. Even though that person had left the God World, she had Cang to protect her. She could not do anything to Leng ruoxue!

"Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!" Wu Yan lost her mind and roared madly. Her embarrassment turned into anger, and her face was twisted with hatred. The kneeling Man in Black was so scared that his whole body began to tremble.

Suddenly, two vines with suction cups flew out of Ripple's hands and stabbed into the man's body. The Man in Black revealed a pained expression, but before he could scream, the Man in Black stopped breathing in a few seconds. After a few minutes, the Man in Black turned into dust and disappeared without a trace.

After venting her anger, Wu Yan gradually calmed down. Then, she shouted towards the outside of the secret room, "Men!"

"Please give your orders, master!" Another Man in Black walked in. After this black-clothed man entered the secret room, he didn't see the person who had entered before. He had already guessed that the person was most likely dead!

"Let Leng ruoxue into the city and send people to keep a close watch on her." Wu Xuan gritted his teeth and said.

She had thought it through. Even if she forbade Leng ruoxue from entering the Imperial City, it would be useless. Not only would that fellow not listen to her, he might even force his way in! At this moment, it was obvious that he had no way of intimidating Leng ruoxue. Since that was the case, why not fulfill her wish? Leng ruoxue wouldn't be able to cause any big waves in his territory anyway!

Wu Yan was very confident in her control of the Imperial City. Otherwise, she would not have dared to make such a decision.

The Man in Black received the order and immediately turned to leave.

At the same time, Leng ruoxue was already getting impatient from waiting outside the city gates.

"Your God lord's estate's efficiency is so low! It's been so long, and you still haven't come to a conclusion?" Leng ruoxue's face was filled with dissatisfaction. After she finished speaking, she even took a bite of the fruit in her hand.

At this moment, she would not just stand there and wait like a fool. Instead, she had already taken out a reclining chair, a pot of tea, fruits, snacks, and other food. She ate while waiting.

Seeing her like this, the guards who heard her words were all speechless. Many of the guards couldn't help but Mutter to themselves, this ancestor! You're eating and drinking, what's wrong with waiting? He wasn't tired. Unlike them! Not only were they exposed to the scorching sun, but they also had to endure the immense pressure from Leng ruoxue and the little kitten! They were on the verge of a mental breakdown!

Of course, no one dared to say this out loud. Otherwise, they would all die! However, they didn't have to wait for too long before news came from the Divine Master's estate. They had agreed to let Leng ruoxue into the city.

Hearing this, Azure smiled proudly. "Girl, I told you that this mist ripple slut knows her own limits!"

"Yes, we're here to do something, not to find trouble. Why can't she let us enter the city?" Leng ruoxue chimed in with a smile.

The guards couldn't bear to listen to their conversation.

After all, they were members of the Divine Master's estate. How could they listen to him calling the Divine Master a B * tch in front of them? At this moment, they wished they had calluses in their ears. Otherwise, if the Divine Master knew about this, he would kill them to silence them!

Sob ... They truly felt that guarding the door was a life-threatening job.

The guards who were cheering in their hearts excitedly sent off Leng ruoxue and Cang's team. Their eyes were filled with tears as they cheered in their hearts. They had finally sent away the terrifying woman and beast! It wasn't easy!

After entering the city, Leng ruoxue, who was walking on the streets of Yu city, could clearly feel that someone was following them in the dark. However, she did not pay much attention to it and continued to walk calmly on the busy streets.

She couldn't be blamed for being so calm. After walking in the city for a while, almost all the passers-by in the city were watching them, so they could only force her to calm down.

When they finally reached the headquarters, Leng ruoxue saw the main doors and quickly entered.

"May I know what ..." You need help with?

When the waiter sensed that someone had entered, he gave a standard welcome speech. However, the moment he saw Leng ruoxue's beautiful face, he forcefully swallowed the last few words.

It wasn't because of how beautiful she was, but because she was the famous Leng ruoxue!

Oh! Oh my God! Leng ruoxue! What was Leng ruoxue doing here? He didn't see wrong, did he?

The waiter's eyes widened in disbelief. He was afraid that his eyes were playing tricks on him, so he even rubbed his eyes vigorously. In the end, he realized that Leng ruoxue was still standing in front of him with a smile.

With a bitter smile, the waiter stuttered.

"Miss, miss Leng, H-welcome, please, may I ask ..." After speaking for a long time, the waiter still couldn't say a complete sentence. His small face was red from holding back, and he was extremely anxious.

When Leng ruoxue saw this, she only smiled faintly and said, "I want to see your President!"

It was said that the current president of the mission headquarters was definitely a confidant of fog ice and was very loyal to fog ice. Sometimes, it seemed that his status was even higher than the three reverent-god level experts in the Divine Master's estate!

Hence, when she found out about this, Leng ruoxue was especially interested in this President of the headquarters.

However, when the waiter heard this, he said with an awkward expression, "It's not convenient for the Guild leader to meet with guests right now!"

"What's wrong? did you get beaten up?" Leng ruoxue guessed.

"....."

The waiter was speechless. He thought to himself, miss Leng! Do you have a grudge against my guild leader? Can't you think of something better?

However, the waiter couldn't deny that this miss Leng's guess was really accurate. Although the president wasn't really beaten up, he was almost beaten up!

After thinking for a while, the waiter hesitated and said, "The Guild leader wasn't beaten up. He's just sick!"

"You're sick? I'm the best at treating illnesses, let me take a look at him!" The moment Leng ruoxue heard that there was a patient, she immediately perked up.

"This ..." The waiter didn't know what to say. Didn't they say that Leng ruoxue didn't like to meddle in other people's business? Why was the other party's current performance so different from the legends?

"It's settled then. Take me to your President, I'll treat him!" Leng ruoxue couldn't help but urge the waiter when she saw him standing there in a daze.

"Miss Leng knows how to treat illnesses?" The waiter looked at Leng ruoxue in disbelief.

"Ancestral secret recipe, guaranteed to cure all diseases!" Leng ruoxue said with the air of a quack.

"But my president's illness is not an ordinary illness." As the waiter spoke, his face revealed a look of sympathy.

"Then what are we waiting for? Quickly take me to your President, I promise to cure him!" Leng ruoxue promised seriously.

However, the waiter's gaze was still filled with distrust.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue felt a little hurt. She looked at the waiter with hidden bitterness, causing the waiter's heart to beat wildly.

Just as Leng ruoxue was about to force the waiter to bring her to meet a certain President, the waiter could not stand the pressure from Leng ruoxue's beautiful eyes and said, "I'll take you to the president."

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue was elated. He followed behind the waiter.

The waiter brought Leng ruoxue out of the headquarters and turned to the back door. After entering from the back door, they took two more turns and finally, they arrived at a small, desolate courtyard in the back of the headquarters.

Pointing at the small courtyard, the waiter said in a low voice, "The Guild leader is inside! You can go in by yourself! I won't be accompanying you!"

With that, the waiter immediately left. Before he left, he looked around as if he was afraid that someone would discover that he had brought Leng ruoxue here!

Seeing that the waiter was acting sneaky, Leng ruoxue even suspected that the waiter was lying to her. However, she soon heard a slight sound coming from a room in the courtyard. It sounded like a soft cry of pain.

As he walked closer to the room, the pained cries grew louder.

"Aiyo! Aiyo!" The sound continued to enter his ears.

Leng ruoxue was stunned for a moment. Then, she pushed open the half-closed door and walked in.

The room was not big.

Other than a few chairs in the room, there was not a single decent piece of furniture. A man with his back facing them was sitting on a chair, his buttocks slightly jerking, looking like he was in great pain. The painful cry had come from his mouth.

Sensing that someone had entered, the man with his back to the door suddenly turned around and begged for mercy, "Madam! I know I was wrong! I won't dare to do it again!"

Chapter 2710 Heroes Among Women \(1\)

The two of them were stunned. The man who spoke was dumbfounded, while Leng ruoxue was speechless and shocked.

Who was this pig-head? Could he be the Guild leader of the headquarters of the missions Guild? At this moment, the face of the man in front of her was so swollen that one could not even see his true appearance. His eyes were only a slit, and his lips looked like two fat sausages hanging from them. When she saw this image not far away, Leng ruoxue could not help but sigh. The person who created this image was really ruthless!

"Are you Miao Jie, the president of the missions Guild?" Leng ruoxue probed. She really could not believe that the pig-head in front of her was the famous Miao Jie.

"Y-yes. L-Leng ruoxue, what are you doing here?" Miao Jie was shocked. He was extremely shocked. He could not figure out why Leng ruoxue would come here and even see him in this state. Sob ... This was too embarrassing!

At that moment, Miao Jie wished he could just kill himself. It was much better than Leng ruoxue seeing his embarrassing state.

Seeing Miao Jie's apocalyptic look, Leng ruoxue smiled and consoled him, "President Miao, you don't have to feel embarrassed. Who doesn't have a Tiger at home? Al! In this day and age, being afraid of one's wife was the way to go! So, your choice is wise!"

"You, how did you know?" Miao Jie tried his best to open his eyes wide to express his shock, but unfortunately, his eyes were swollen. No matter how hard he tried, there was only a thin slit. However, his subtle expression at this time completely revealed his inner thoughts.

He would never believe that someone would dare to tell Leng ruoxue about his family's matters. How did she guess that there was a tigress in his family? Could it be that Leng ruoxue had been monitoring him all along? That's why she knew everything about him?

Miao Jie made wild guesses.

Leng ruoxue, on the other hand, could tell what he was thinking with a single glance. At the same time, she could not understand how a person who did not even know how to hide his expression could become the president of the headquarters of missions. Could it be that the rumors were true, that he and Wu Yan had an unclear relationship?

Leng ruoxue felt that this was not impossible. After sighing, she replied honestly, "I'm guessing,"

Miao Jie's face revealed an expression of obvious distrust.

Leng ruoxue was speechless. Why didn't the people from the headquarters trust her? She was very honest, okay?

"Al! The scars on your face are too obvious. I'm a woman, and I know that only women like to create such scars on their men to make them behave. Hehe! I'm sure President Miao Jie isn't someone who can't keep his head down, right? Otherwise, your wife wouldn't have treated you like this!" After being depressed for a while, Leng ruoxue gloated.

"W-who said that? Don't wrong me!" Hearing Leng ruoxue's words, Miao Jie was completely enraged! Boohoo ... There's a tigress at home, how would he dare to mess around! Look! This wasn't even a big deal! He had been beaten up so badly that he could not see anyone. If he really did something, he was afraid that his little life would be lost!

"It doesn't matter if I wronged you or not, right? The key is whether your Madam believes you or not!" Leng ruoxue reminded him.

After she said that, Miao Jie was completely listless!

Sob ... It was because Madam didn't believe in his innocence that he was beaten up like this!

Miao Jie complained in his heart. All of a sudden, he had a flash of inspiration. His eyes, which were swollen to the point of a slit, burst out with a dazzling light. He looked at Leng ruoxue with anticipation and said, "Leng ruoxue, you're a woman too. Can you help me?"

"What can I help you with?" Leng ruoxue was taken aback. She truly felt that Miao Jie's train of thought was too erratic. When they first met, he was still shocked and alert. How could he ask her to help him in such a short time?

"Help me think of a way to make my Madam believe me! Wu...No matter how I tried to explain, she wouldn't believe me. I'm really going to die!" As if he had found someone to confide in, Miao Jie started to cry in front of Leng ruoxue.

Leng ruoxue was a little speechless when she saw Miao Jie sobbing and treating her like a close sister. However, she still kindly reminded him, ""Your wife doesn't believe you. It must be because you're untrustworthy."

After saying that, Leng ruoxue deliberately paused for a few seconds to look at Miao Jie's expectant eyes. Then, she continued, "Actually, I'm not very good at dealing with family problems. Besides, I have something important to tell you."

"What is it? As long as you help me solve my problems, I will help you deal with your own!" Miao Jie immediately coaxed him.

"Really?" Leng ruoxue blinked her eyes and asked with a smile.

"Of course! It had to be real! Just help me! As long as you can find a way to make the tigress at home believe me, then you're my Savior!" Miao Jie began to flatter Leng ruoxue.

However, Leng ruoxue was not a three-year-old child. She would not easily believe Miao Jie's promise, so she did not say anything. Instead, she grabbed an old chair not far away, cleaned the dust, and sat down.

Looking at Leng ruoxue's nonchalant actions, Miao Jie felt a little worried.

After choking for a while, Miao Jie began to persuade again, ""Leng ruoxue, please help me think of a way! Wu ... I'm really at my wit's end! If I had any tricks up my sleeve, I wouldn't have come to you for help!"

"I told you I'm not good at dealing with family problems. Why are you looking for me?" Leng ruoxue continued to put on a cold and Noble look.

"Didn't you just make it in time? If I look for someone else instead of you, I'll lose face again. " Miao Jie's words sounded like he was going all out, but Leng ruoxue was speechless.

So it wasn't embarrassing to ask her for help? Just because she had already seen the other party's embarrassing state? Ai! What the hell is this?

Actually, Leng ruoxue was quite happy to see Miao Jie in trouble. Although that guy was not related to him, he was still a member of Fog City! She was happy that the people of Fog City were unlucky. However, she didn't forget why she was here. So, she put on a thoughtful look. After thinking for a while, she said to Miao Jie, ""It's not that I can't help you think of a way, but can you really help me solve my problem?"

Hearing Leng ruoxue's words, Miao Jie suddenly felt that he had made his promise too early. With this thought in mind, he carefully asked, ""What do you want to see me for?"

"Secret! Tell me first if you can help me solve it!" Leng ruoxue wasn't that stupid to tell him her thoughts right now! What if this guy went back on his word?

"Uh! As long as you don't ask me to do anything like murder or arson, I don't think there's any problem.

" After hesitating for a while, Miao Jie probed.

"Don't worry, I won't let you kill or set fire. " Leng ruoxue's solemn promise was only for him to act as a middleman and earn some pocket money for her.
