

Crazy Wife 2751

Chapter 2751 The Shrewd Buddha's Hand Flower \(3\)

Leng ruoxue had delegated this huge project to Feng Ye.

When Feng Ye heard Leng ruoxue's order, he instinctively wanted to reject her. However, he remembered what he had said not long ago and felt that he should not slap himself in the face. So, he could only resign himself to his fate and go pull out the weeds.

Seeing that Feng Ye was working hard with his butt sticking out, fire Yue gave Leng ruoxue a look of admiration and said in a low voice, "Miss Leng, you're so good at controlling your husband!"

"..." Don't you know how to talk, dear?

This wasn't a word that could be used casually! Leng ruoxue broke out in a cold sweat. Luckily, the demon was not here. Otherwise, she would have exploded in anger if she heard this!

Leng ruoxue carefully observed her surroundings. When she realized that no one was paying attention to her and Huo Yue, she replied softly, "Your Excellency fire Yue, you've got it wrong. He's not my husband, so you can't say that I'm good at controlling my husband!"

"Oh! Then what should I say?" Huo Yue asked in high spirits, not feeling ashamed to ask.

Leng ruoxue's face darkened again. Then, she put on a straight face and said in a serious tone, "You don't have to say anything. He's my servant now. Whatever I order him to do, he has to do it obediently!"

"Yes, yes, you're a Good Queen!" Huo Yue's eyes were full of stars as he said with a face full of admiration.

"....."

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue fell silent. She wanted to cry but had no tears.

Was this the fire Yue she knew? Are you sure it hasn't been replaced? After sizing up the fire Yue from head to toe, Leng ruoxue had no choice but to admit pessimistically that the fiery red Qilin with Starry Eyes was undoubtedly the fire Yue. However, she had no idea why the acting clan leader of the Qilin clan, who was still considered normal before, had suddenly become like this.

However, this kind of fire Yue was rather terrifying, wasn't it?

After taking a few deep breaths, Leng ruoxue was at a loss for words. But at least, she was at peace now. Then, she found a place to sit down.

After an unknown period of time, the Qilin's that had been sent out by fire Yue to carry out a carpet search returned to the gathering point with nothing.

Afraid that the Qilin's would be sad, Huo Yue consoled them first. Then, they temporarily lived in the house that master ning had contributed, monitoring every grass and tree in the mountain at all times.

Just like that, half a month passed by quickly.

The cunning Mimosa and Buddha's hand flower that Huo Yue mentioned still didn't appear.

For a moment, the Qilin's were somewhat anxious. Seeing that they could not keep their cool, Leng ruoxue could only tell them that the reincarnation grass had already grown into a ten-thousand-year-old reincarnation grass to comfort them.

As expected, after hearing the good news, the Qilin's morale was boosted, they decided to find Mimosa and Buddha's hand flower as soon as possible.

On a certain day.

Green vessel, who had been monitoring the situation in the mountains, suddenly spoke to Leng ruoxue, ""Sister, I think I've found those two little fellows."

"Really? Where are they?" Leng ruoxue asked in surprise.

"If I'm not wrong, they should be hiding in the mountain wall." Qing Jue replied.

"Inside the mountain wall? Can treasures of heaven and earth be found there?" Leng ruoxue was very surprised. However, if Qing Jue's senses were correct, those two little fellows were really good at hiding.

"I don't think so, but all treasures have their own abilities. Those two little guys might be able to hide there." Qing Jue said after thinking.

As he did not have these two treasures, green vessel only knew some of their well-known characteristics. He did not know anything about the two little fellows. As such, he did not dare to be too confident. However, it was enough for Leng ruoxue to understand what he meant.

After that, Leng ruoxue called for the fire Yue. She brought the Qilin, uncle long, Godfather and the five little beasts, and they headed towards the weakest part of the mountain.

When they arrived at the mountain wall, Huo Yue looked at Leng ruoxue with uncertainty. "Miss Leng, is it really possible that the two heavenly treasures are living here?"

"I don't know. We need to go in and look for it." Leng ruoxue said irresponsibly. She did not want to expose Qing Jue, so she could only play dumb.

When fire Yue heard this, it was indeed very depressed. However, it had no other choice. It could only order the Qilin to smash a cave that was half the height of a human on the mountain wall. Then, the Qilin all transformed into their human forms and walked in together.

When they walked into the cave, they were surprised to find that the mountain wall was indeed empty. The spiritual Qi inside was actually very rich. This time, Huo Yue's confidence increased greatly. The Qilin's search also became more vigorous.

They searched little by little. After an unknown period of time, Leng ruoxue and the others still did not find anything. Instantly, the Qilin's spirits were once again dampened.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue's sharp eyes noticed two rays of green light sneakily passing by their feet. Without a second thought, she immediately chased after the two rays of green light.

When fire Yue saw this, it did not hesitate to cooperate with Leng ruoxue to surround and block them. At this time, everyone present reacted. For a moment, the scene was extremely chaotic, but the two green lights were also being chased in all directions.

"Hahaha! As expected, he's here. Let's see where you can run to now!" Huo Yue was a little excited. He had recognized the two green lights to be the Mimosa and the Buddha's hand flower that they had been looking for.

Then, the fire Yue threw out a translucent net. The net directly ran towards the two green lights and quickly fell, enveloping the two green lights.

Just as the net was about to be pulled back by the fire Yue, a green light escaped. The fire Yue saw this and quickly pulled back its net. At this time, there was only a lonely pink flower in the net.

The pink flower was only the size of a palm. It had emerald green leaves that were shaped like a human palm. The veins on it were clear and crystal clear. It was quite beautiful and exquisite. It was the Buddha's hand flower.

However, this little flower obviously had a bad temper. After being caught, it kept struggling and even scolded Huo Yue for being shameless.

However, after waiting for so long, he finally had some gains. Therefore, Huo Yue was in a good mood and allowed the Little Flower to curse in his hands.

Leng ruoxue took the angry Buddha's hand flower from Huo Yue's hand and gently stroked its petals. The flower quieted down instantly and stopped making noise. It just stayed quietly in Leng ruoxue's hand.

Upon seeing this, Huo Yue was quite surprised. He reached out to poke the petals of the Buddha's hand flower out of boredom and sighed, "Are you bullying the weak and fearing the strong?"

Although Huo Yue had never thought that he was a pushover, the truth was right in front of his eyes. He had no choice but to believe it! Al! This was really bullying!

"Get lost! Don't touch me, you big pervert!" The Buddha's hand flower felt that it had been taken advantage of. After being poked a few times by the fire Yue, it roared in anger. Then, it rubbed against Leng ruoxue's Jade-like hand as if it had suffered a great grievance.

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue's forehead was covered in cold sweat.

This little Flower's mind was really complicated!

Huo Yue, who was scolded as a pervert, immediately pulled a long face.

"You're just a flower, okay? You can't even transform, and you dare to call me a pervert?" Huo Yue felt that he was really wronged. This broken flower was really too unreasonable! Hmph! If it wasn't for the fact that it was still useful, Huo Yue couldn't guarantee that it wouldn't destroy it!

"You bastard!" It was really too detestable!

However, the Buddha's hand flower was obviously very bold, or perhaps it felt that Leng ruoxue was backing it up. Hence, it replied fearlessly, ""Hmph! So what if I can't transform? Just because I can't transform, I can be jabbed around by you? I'm telling you, I'm a Buddha's hand flower with principles. You guys stay away from me! I'm not interested in you guys!"

"I'm not interested in you either!" Upon hearing this, Huo Yue was so angry that he almost exploded.

Hearing Huo Yue and the Buddha's hand flower bickering, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but want to cover her face. This quarrel was really too meaningless.

At this moment, a weak voice sounded, ""I beg you, let the Little Buddha go!"

"Xiaoshan, don't beg them. Leave this place quickly. As long as they can't catch you, they won't kill me!" Upon hearing this, the Buddha's hand flower, which was in high spirits and quarreling with Huo Yue like a cock fight, immediately changed its target and said to a light green delicate grass.

"No, I'm not leaving. I can't watch you get caught by them. I have to save you!" The light green grass said stubbornly.

"Why are you so disobedient?" When the Buddha's hand flower heard this, it immediately became anxious.

Then, it had a flash of inspiration and the flower turned to Leng ruoxue and said, ""Human, I know you're with them, but you have a presence that I like. So, if you're willing to help us, Xiaoshan and I are willing to follow you. But you can't hand us over to these Qilins."

Leng ruoxue could not help but laugh when she heard the Buddha's hand flower's conditions. This Buddha's hand flower was really smart. It didn't look like a treasure at all. More importantly, this little flower was very bold. It had already been captured, but it still dared to negotiate and even seemed to be instigating.

"What do you think, human?" Seeing that Leng ruoxue only smiled slightly and did not speak, Buddha's hand flower could not help but ask.

"Not much. Don't you know your current situation? Do you think you have the right to negotiate with me?" Leng ruoxue teased him on purpose.

"That's right, little broken flower, you're too overconfident!" Huo Yue sneered.

"Get lost, stinky Qilin! It's none of your business! You can go play in the mud! I'm not even talking to you!" Huo Yue's interruption made the Buddha's hand flower rather unhappy. Hence, it didn't reply to Leng ruoxue's words and instead took the lead to attack the fire Yue verbally.

Chapter 2752 The Secret Of The Qilin Clan \(1\)

After attacking Huo Yue, the Buddha's hand flower immediately shook its pink petals and rubbed against Leng ruoxue in an attempt to please her. It said gently, ""Human, although I've been captured, I'm not afraid. At worst, I'll just die! What's the big deal! However, I want you to know that I'm more useful alive. At least, I'm much more useful than these stinky Qilin. So, you won't regret choosing to protect us!"

While the Buddha's hand flower was talking, Mimosa had been floating nearby, looking at them worriedly. Leng ruoxue, on the other hand, didn't give any response after listening to the flower's rambunctious words.

Seeing that, the Buddha's hand flower was a little anxious, but it was always calm, so it didn't show it. Instead, it was Mimosa who couldn't hold it anymore and said loudly, "Human, don't kill the Little Buddha. Wu...I'm willing to exchange myself for his freedom! Please let it go!"

With that, Mimosa wanted to run towards Leng ruoxue, but the Buddha's hand flower was so angry that it stopped him, "Xiaoshu, stay where you are and don't move! Otherwise, I'll never talk to you again!"

The Buddha's hand flower was very anxious! Silly little shyness, if you fall into the hands of these bad guys, they really won't have any way to live!

However, Mimosa didn't understand the anxiety in Buddha's hand flower's heart at all, but it was very obedient, so when Buddha's hand flower told it to stand still, it really did.

Leng ruoxue was rather surprised to see this. It seemed like between the two little fellows, Mimosa was following the Buddha's hand flower's lead!

At this moment, the Buddha's hand flower said to Leng ruoxue, "Human, what do you think? If you don't agree, we'll just fight to the death! In any case, I won't let myself fall into the hands of these Qilin!"

The Buddha's hand flower was obviously a little stubborn when it said this. At the same time, it made Leng ruoxue not know whether to laugh or cry. Why did this little guy have his eyes on her? Could it be that this was the so-called 'picking the big one from the pile'? Compared to the Qilin, I'm more pleasing to the eye?

Leng ruoxue didn't know if she should feel honored or not. She saw Huo Yue winking at her, as if he wanted her to agree. If that was the case, the two little fellows would be in her hands.

However, Leng ruoxue didn't think that with the Buddha's hand flower, these two little fellows would be at their mercy. Hence, she didn't follow Huo Yue's instructions. Instead, she remained calm and said, "I really want to know what these Qilin did to you. Why do you hate them so much?"

Leng ruoxue could not figure it out no matter how much she thought about it. This was also something that the fire Yue and the other Qilins wanted to know. So, when Leng ruoxue asked this question, they all perked up their ears and listened carefully.

"Hmph! Those bad Qilins captured us to kill us. How could we not hate them? They've also captured us for nearly a thousand years, causing Xiaoshan and I to hide here and there, unable to return home. How can we not hate them?" The Buddha's hand flower said hatefully. The petals it had obtained had turned red to show its anger.

After Leng ruoxue heard this, she looked at Huo Yue with sympathy. Just because of this? Wasn't it normal for heavenly treasures to be pursued after they were discovered? But obviously, the Buddha's hand flower didn't think so. It had even regarded the Qilin clan as its mortal enemy. They would rather rely on her than let the Kirin get them.

Smiling helplessly, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but remind him, "Don't you know that I'm on the same side as these Qilins? You're still willing to follow me? I'm an Alchemist, so I'm naturally looking for you to concoct alchemical pills. In your hearts, this should also be considered killing you, right? Do you still dare to join me?"

"I ..." Buddha's hand flower was speechless.

After a long time, it spoke again, "Although you're an Alchemist, as long as you give us a chance to live, we won't die. But these Qilins are different. They're too rough and don't know how to be gentle with women, so if we fall into their hands, only death awaits us! Hmph! I have too many friends who have been captured by them. I can't end up like my little friends!"

When the Buddha's hand flower said this, it was so excited that its petals trembled even more violently. After Leng ruoxue heard this, she glanced at Huo Yue indifferently and used her gaze to ask him about the Buddha's hand flower.

"All the treasures we've caught are still alive and well. We didn't kill them at all!" Huo Yue had no choice but to say.

"Hmph! Isn't that just a matter of time!" The Buddha's hand flower's impression of Huo Yue was extremely bad. No matter what he said, he didn't intend to believe him. This fact made Huo Yue very helpless. He looked at Leng ruoxue for help.

Leng ruoxue laughed to herself, but she still replied kindly, "His Excellency fire Yue is right. Those heavenly treasures are still alive. Moreover, I will need them in the future. So little guy, you've wronged the Qilin clan. Although they caught you, I might be the one who killed you!"

The reason why she said this was that she hoped that the Buddha's hand flower could recognize the reality in front of it and not recognize the thief as its master! Of course, she was not a thief, but according to the logic of the Buddha's hand flower, she was probably close.

Unexpectedly, after Leng ruoxue finished speaking, the Buddha's hand flower started laughing. Then, the Buddha's hand flower said, "Human, I've said it before. You have a smell that I like. I believe that you will treat the natural treasures well. Therefore, if it ends up in someone else's hands, I'd rather it be you."

Leng ruoxue didn't know whether to laugh or cry when she heard this. She didn't know that the Buddha's hand flower would think this way, but she couldn't deny that it was really smart and knew that she was no threat to it. Sigh! She couldn't help but be soft-hearted when facing this smart little guy!

"Since you've already decided, then follow me from now on! Although I need you to concoct pills for me, I won't kill you. " Leng ruoxue promised seriously.

"Yes, yes, human, I believe you!" The Buddha's hand flower was naturally ecstatic when it saw that its goal had been achieved.

At this moment, the light green grass slowly floated over and hovered around Leng ruoxue. It believed in the Little Buddha's judgment, and the Little Buddha's choice was naturally its choice.

Upon seeing this, Huo Yue and the other Qilins couldn't help but widen their eyes in disbelief.

He ... He was subdued just like that? Mimosa and Buddha's hand flower, who had been fighting with them for almost a thousand years, had obviously thrown themselves into Leng ruoxue's arms. Could this be the aura of a King?

The Qilin's sized up Leng ruoxue from head to toe. They looked at her until her hair stood on end. She turned her head and glared at them before the Qilin reluctantly retracted their gazes as if they were looking at a monster.

Al! Comparing humans to beasts would drive beasts to their deaths!

The Qilin's were a little shocked, but no matter what, this trip was not in vain. With these two medicinal herbs, there was hope for the refinement of the reincarnation pill. As soon as they thought of this, they instantly became extremely excited.

Chapter 2753 The Secret Of The Qilin Clan \(2\)

"Young miss Leng, let's quickly return to the Qilin clan!" Huo Yue, who couldn't wait any longer, immediately suggested.

"Alright," he said. Leng ruoxue nodded. Then, with the Buddha's hand flower in one hand and Mimosa in the other, she followed behind the Qilin and returned to the Qilin clan.

Along the way, Leng ruoxue was chatting non-stop with the flower and the grass. She knew that the mountain wall they were on had a natural barrier that allowed them to hide from the Qilin clan for close to a thousand years. Leng ruoxue was rather surprised by the barrier. If it wasn't for the fact that the Qilin clan was in a hurry to return, she would have returned to the mountain wall to observe it.

The wonders of nature were truly amazing!

After returning to the Qilin clan, Huo Yue immediately sent someone to deliver all the medicinal herbs to Leng ruoxue and strictly ordered no one to disturb her. His purpose was to let Leng ruoxue focus on refining the reincarnation pill.

Leng ruoxue naturally understood the Qilin clan's thoughts. However, she suggested that she hoped the Qilin clan could send someone to Demon City to bring Shen nuo, Jiang Ning, and Liuyue over. With the three vice presidents of The Alchemist Guild headquarters discussing the reincarnation pill together, she believed that they would be able to refine it very quickly.

The fire Yue naturally did not object when it heard this. It had also heard of the three alchemists. Immediately, it sent its subordinates to the demon City.

During this period of time, Leng ruoxue had been staying in the bangle, trying to bond with the two newly-arrived heaven and earth treasures. When the Buddha's hand flower saw its new home, it was even more satisfied with Leng ruoxue. It even said smugly, ""Hehe! Human, I knew I had good taste. This place is perfect for me and shylie. From now on, we don't have to hide here and there like stray dogs anymore!"

After that, the Buddha's hand flower started to wail loudly, and Mimosa cried as well.

Two young and tender voices immediately resounded through the space, attracting the attention of many natural treasures.

Many of the little fellows who could transform gathered in front of Leng ruoxue and called her "big sister" excitedly. Then, they turned their curious gazes to the two new companions.

"Big sister, why are they crying?" A chubby, white baby that Leng ruoxue had never seen before blinked his big, confused eyes and asked in confusion.

"They're crying tears of joy. That ... You are?" After Leng ruoxue finished explaining, she could not help but ask.

"Sister, I'm the reincarnation grass! You were the one who planted me here, so how could you forget me?" The little child said sadly, his dark and bright eyes slowly filled with tears.

Leng ruoxue looked at the other party's stance and felt her head throb. Why was it another little thing that loved to cry?

"Little Samsara, how could I forget you? I'm just a little surprised because I've never seen you in human form." Leng ruoxue coaxed.

"Is that really the case?" The moment the reincarnation grass heard this, its tears stopped flowing. Instead, its eyes continued to well up as it looked at Leng ruoxue with uncertainty.

"Of course it's like this." Leng ruoxue nodded and promised.

"Don't worry, I won't lie. " At this moment, another child at the side testified. With his little friend as a witness, the reincarnation grass immediately believed Leng ruoxue's words and broke into a smile.

At the same time, a confused voice choked with sobs sounded, "Why are you guys calling this human big sister?"

The one who spoke was the Buddha's hand flower that had been wailing earlier. Now, it was no longer crying. Instead, its petals trembled with a curious look. Obviously, it was a little confused.

"Hehe! She's our big sister!" A little child picked up the Buddha's hand flower and touched its soft petals.

"Oh! Then does that mean Xiaoshu and I will have to call her big sister in the future?" Buddha's hand Hua Sha nodded and asked.

"It's up to you, you can call it whatever you want. " Leng ruoxue said to the Buddha's hand flower with a smile.

"No, I have to do as the Romans do. This will be my home in the future. I can't be special!" The Buddha's hand flower disagreed.

Hearing the Buddha's hand flower's theory, Leng ruoxue was truly impressed. How did this little flower know how to do as the Romans do when in Rome? it was too amazing!

What she didn't know was that the Buddha's hand flower and Mimosa had seen too many humans and beasts during their battle with the Qilin clan. Hence, they had learned a lot of languages. The thing about languages had always been broad and profound. The Buddha's hand flower was smart enough to draw inferences from one instance. Hence, it created the Buddha's hand flower that Leng ruoxue was looking at.

However, ever since the Buddha's hand flower discovered the special feature of the mountain wall, it and Mimosa had been on the run for less and less time, so the knowledge it came into contact with was limited.

However, just this alone was enough for Leng ruoxue to feel that this little flower had its own opinions and was different from the rest.

On the contrary, Mimosa always looked shy, which made people want to dote on him more.

The two little fellows each had their own merits. Leng ruoxue's team of heaven and earth treasures had two new members.

As for the other medicinal herbs that Huo Yue had given her, although there was no lack of treasures of heaven and earth among them, very few of them had spiritual consciousness. Even if they had spiritual consciousness, it was very weak. Thus, Leng ruoxue could not communicate with them at all. She had handed them over to Qing Jue to handle.

A few days later.

Shen nuo and the rest had arrived. However, it was not only the three of them who came. The first elder, Mo Yan, Liu Feng, and the cheapskate old ancestor had all come. Of course, Leng ruoxue absolutely believed that the four of them were just here to join in the fun out of boredom.

The entire Qilin clan welcomed them warmly, and they could not help but feel overwhelmed by the unexpected favor.

They really wanted to know what Xue 'er had done to deserve such treatment from the Qilin clan. Don't tell me that the Qilin race has admired them for a long time? That was just a lie to a child!

Even if Shen nuo and the other two were alchemists, they would not think that the Qilin clan would treat them so well. After all, the pride and reclusiveness of the Qilin clan were well known in the immortal realm.

The few of them who could not figure it out pulled Leng ruoxue aside and asked her for a long time before they finally found out the reason.

When they heard that Leng ruoxue was preparing to refine the reincarnation pill, Shen nuo, Jiang Ning, and Liuyue's eyes widened in disbelief. They were so excited that they were speechless.

Seeing their reaction, Leng ruoxue knew that the three of them must have heard of the reincarnation pill.

When Liuyue saw Leng ruoxue's expression as if she was waiting for them to explain, she laughed in embarrassment before saying, "The reincarnation pill is a legendary pill. However, this kind of legend is obviously different from the other legends because this pill is a real pill that can not be successfully refined. "

"First of all, the number of herbs required is quite shocking. It's not possible to collect all of them in a short time. To put it in a way that would strike a blow to their morale, top forces like the eight divine regions would probably never be able to gather enough medicinal herbs to refine the reincarnation pill in their entire lives. Secondly, the reincarnation pill also had a requirement for the heat control, and this heat control was basically reflected in the flame. An ordinary Alchemist's flame would not be able to melt all the medicinal herbs within the specified time. In this way, it would definitely affect the medicinal properties of the medicinal herbs. Even for the reincarnation pill, this is an insurmountable gap. As such, the reincarnation pill can only become a legend. " Liuyue sighed and finally gave a simple explanation.

Chapter 2754 The Secret Of The Qilin Clan \(3\)

"Xue 'er, we've only heard of this reincarnation pill in the historical records of The Alchemist Guild headquarters. According to the legends, the reincarnation pill was created by master Yu and only master Yu has ever successfully refined it. However, the only reincarnation pill in the legends should have fallen into the hands of Wu Yan." Shen nuo recalled for a moment and continued Liuyue's sentence.

"Xue 'er, you said you want to refine the reincarnation pill, but Where can I find the herbs? What you have in your hands is not enough!" Jiang Ning said with an excited expression.

"The Qilin clan will provide the medicinal herbs. They have been collecting for tens of thousands of years just for one reincarnation pill. However, I'm not sure if I can successfully refine it, so I asked Huo Yue to bring you here to study it together." Leng ruoxue said with a smile.

"Hahaha! I knew Xue 'er was the best, she didn't forget to think of us even when there's such a good opportunity. However, we really don't have much confidence in the reincarnation pill, at most we'll be your assistants. " At this moment, Jiang Ning was being modest.

"With three Alchemist Guild's vice guild leaders assisting me, my treatment is really good enough. Thank you all." Leng ruoxue teased him and thanked him sincerely.

However, Jiang Ning and the others didn't need her to be so polite. Following that, Leng ruoxue unintentionally caught a glimpse of first elder's pensive look. She could not help but ask out of curiosity,""What's wrong, Grand Elder? Is there something on your mind?"

"No, I'm just thinking if the Qilin race is asking for the reincarnation pill for their chief." The great elder suddenly burst out with shocking words.

"You're saying ..." Hearing this, master ning and uncle long immediately reacted and looked at the first elder without blinking.

The two of them had lived for a long time, so they naturally understood what the great elder meant. But was this possible?

But thinking about it carefully, the fact that the Qilin race was willing to spend tens of thousands of years to collect these herbs, the importance of this reincarnation pill was naturally self-evident!

At the thought of this, master ning said to Leng ruoxue with a serious expression,""Xue 'er, it's a good thing the Grand Elder reminded me. The reason why the Qilin race needs the reincarnation pill is probably for the patriarch. Tens of thousands of years ago, not long after master Yu fell, there was a rumor that the Qilin clan leader was severely injured and would not live long! However, at that time, none of us believed it, because the Qilin clan leader was the most powerful Beastie in the immortal realm. It was possible to say that he was injured, but to say that he would die was obviously false news that someone had intentionally released to confuse us. That's why most people don't believe it. "

"Afterwards, the Qilin clan's patriarch personally appeared and proved that the rumors were false. However, the Qilin clan's patriarch used seclusion as an excuse and never appeared in the divine realm again. Of course, to cultivators, it was normal to go into seclusion for tens of thousands of years. However, for tens of thousands of years, the Qilin clan had been collecting the medicinal herbs to refine the reincarnation pill. This was somewhat abnormal. After all, the reincarnation pill was not an ordinary healing pill. If it wasn't for the fact that an important figure of the Qilin clan was injured, how could the Qilin clan be in such a state?"

Everyone nodded at master ning's words. Then, uncle long said, ""Xue 'er, the patriarch of the Qilin clan is also my senior. Furthermore, that senior's reputation in the divine realm is rather high. It can be said that he's a great figure like a god in the eyes of all the magical beasts in the divine realm. If it's really as we've guessed, that he's heavily injured and needs to consume the reincarnation pill, then I hope that you'll do your best. This is not just to build a good relationship with the Qilin clan, but also for the development of the magical beasts in the divine realm. The current beast race really needs such an important figure to lead them!"

"I understand!" Leng ruoxue nodded her head seriously. After that, she brought Shen nuo, Liuyue, and Jiang Ning into seclusion to research the reincarnation pill.

The process of waiting was naturally extremely long. Ever since Leng ruoxue went into closed-door cultivation, the entire Qilin clan, from the fire Yue to the ordinary Qilin, had their eyes on the room that Leng ruoxue had used as her temporary pill room.

Seeing how nervous they were, uncle long couldn't help but comfort them, ""Your Excellency fire Yue, I suggest you calm down! Pill refining is different from other things, especially refining this kind of legendary pill, it can't be completed in a short time. So, if you guys continue to be so nervous, I'm afraid that you'll collapse before Xue 'er's reincarnation pill is refined. "

"I understand, but I can't help but be nervous! We've been collecting herbs for tens of thousands of years just for this moment!" Huo Yue said with a worried expression.

Upon seeing this, uncle long carefully asked, ""Is it for the Qilin clan leader?"

"How did you know?" The fire Yue was shocked. It didn't say anything! How did the other party guess it?

Seeing Huo Yue's frightened face, uncle long was speechless. He thought, 'it's written all over your face. How can I not know?' How low was his IQ then!

"Other than the Qilin clan leader, I can't think of any other reason that would make the entire Qilin clan go all out. Ah! The Qilin clan leader is a true hero in my heart. Other than master Yu, he is the one I admire the most!" Uncle long said, playing the emotional card.

Upon hearing this, Huo Yue's shock turned into excitement. He excitedly pulled uncle Long's arm and said, ""Brother, thank you for your appreciation of our clan leader. Just as you said, the chief is also the hero of our Qilin clan, the God in our hearts! And since you've already guessed it, I won't hide it from you. The reason we want to refine the reincarnation pill is indeed to save the patriarch. "

"For the sake of the Qilin clan, the clan leader has done his best. Therefore, we will also die for him! As long as you can cure the clan head, our Qilin clan is willing to pay any price! Right now, our only hope is for the clan head to wake up safely. This is also the wish of all the clansmen of our Qilin clan. Now, it's all up to Leng ruoxue to help us realize it. " After a pause, Huo Yue continued.

"Don't worry, Xue 'er will do her best. We must have faith in her. " Uncle long encouraged.

"Yes." Huo Yue nodded. It was confident in Leng ruoxue's alchemy skills, but it could not help but be worried.

However, with uncle Long's comfort, it felt much more at ease.

"By the way, how did the Qilin clan leader get injured?" Uncle long continued to ask.

"Hmph! It's all because of that B * tch, Rime!" Huo Yue said through gritted teeth. His eyes were still burning with raging flames, which were almost tangible.

"The Qilin clan chief who was injured by Wu Yan?" Uncle long was shocked. Could Wu Chen defeat the Qilin clan leader at that time?

"Yes, that B * tch is very despicable. She set a trap to capture The Little Prince of our Qilin clan and even used The Little Prince to threaten him. However, the clan leader was not threatened for the sake of the Qilin clan. However, he was still worried about The Little Prince and was distracted. I really hate it! At that time, my strength was too low and I couldn't help the patriarch at all. If it were now, we definitely wouldn't let Wu Yan's plot succeed. " Huo Yue roared indignantly, and it was so angry that all the fur on its body stood up.

This matter was the greatest humiliation to the Qilin clan. From then on, the Qilin clan began to cultivate and cultivate, no longer willing to care about the affairs of the world. Other than occasionally showing their faces in the divine realm, most of the time, they were even more low-key than before.

As a result of enduring hardships and trying to bite the bullet, the strength of the Qilin clan was now much stronger than before. This was also the main reason why Leng ruoxue and the rest could see so many Hierarchy Qilin.

It could be said that the hatred between the country and the family caused the entire Qilin race to be United like never before. All the Qilin were working hard to cultivate and this result was naturally gratifying!

Of course, there would occasionally be one or two idiots in the Qilin race, but it did not affect the overall situation.

"Don't worry, you'll definitely have the chance to take revenge," Uncle long patted his shoulder and said.

"Yes." Huo Yue nodded heavily. At the moment, healing the clan leader's injuries was the most important thing for them. As long as the clan leader woke up, they would be able to deal with the fog.

Uncle long was well aware of the fire Yue's thoughts. Hence, he did not take the opportunity to ask for an alliance with the fire Yue. He believed that the Qilin clan would take the initiative to ask for an Alliance once Xue 'er had successfully refined the reincarnation pill. The Qilin clan had yet to reveal their intentions, so they must have been testing them.

As such, he couldn't say anything. Not only couldn't they say it, but they also had to find a way to show their strength. Thus, using fog as an excuse was the best choice.

After that, the two top beasts, who had a common language, began to talk about Rime without restraint. Of course, uncle long was the one who started it.

Uncle long started from the many times that they had fought with the rime ice. He believed that fire Yue must have heard about these things. However, fire Yue certainly did not know as much as he did, as he had been there in person. Therefore, he explained it in great detail. He even described every step, including how angry the rime ice was, vividly and vividly. Fire Yue was very excited to hear it.

In his joy, Huo Yue also took the initiative to talk about the battle between his clan leader and rime ice ...

Since he had a common language with uncle long, Huo Yue naturally did not feel that the days of waiting were so difficult.

At the same time, Leng ruoxue's trial was in full swing.

The amount of work required to refine the reincarnation pill was undoubtedly huge. To Leng ruoxue and the rest, this was definitely a challenge.

Chapter 2755 Mother?\(1\)

Even though the reincarnation pill required a large amount of herbs, it was fortunate that the amount was not large. Even so, it would take a long time to melt all the herbs within the effective period. During Leng ruoxue and the others' first trial, they had spent three days just to melt the herbs. In the end, their first trial had ended in failure.

After their first failure, Leng ruoxue and the rest were not in a hurry to start the second trial. The four top-notch alchemists sat quietly in the corner of the room, pondering over every step of the previous pill refinement. In the end, they concluded that there should be a problem with the control of the fire.

Although Leng ruoxue's performance was already perfect, the reincarnation pill was different from ordinary healing pills. It had a high requirement on the control of the fire. It was also the first time Leng ruoxue had come into contact with such a tedious refining process, so it was understandable that she had made some mistakes. However, Shen nuo and the other two did not console Leng ruoxue. After all, in their hearts, the failure rate of an Alchemist was nothing. They also believed that Leng ruoxue's ability to endure would not be so bad that she could not take it after just one failure.

The truth proved that they understood Leng ruoxue very well. Leng ruoxue didn't take this failure to heart. She was only worried about the lack of herbs for the trial. Although the Qilin clan had given her quite a few medicinal herbs, she couldn't possibly waste them all, right? With this thought in mind, she became even more cautious in the following trials.

After that, he continued to experiment a few more times, and all of them ended in failure. However, even though he did not manage to concoct the real reincarnation pill, he accidentally concocted some other nameless medicinal pill. After that, when Shen nuo and the other two top grade pill refiners tested and verified it, the medicinal pill that he failed to concoct also had healing effects. Although it could not be compared to the legendary reincarnation pill that could bring one back from the dead, it was still much better than the well-known top grade medicinal pill. With that, Leng ruoxue's confidence was greatly boosted.

After an unknown period of time, when Leng ruoxue had once again completed all the steps of refining the elixir and was patiently waiting for the elixir to be completed, she suddenly felt a sense of panic for no reason. When she opened the elixir furnace, she was surprised to find a purple-gold elixir lying quietly in the middle of the huge elixir furnace.

The purple-gold pill was extremely beautiful. It was the size of a baby's fist and there was a faint glow on it. At this moment, a loud Thunder suddenly came from the sky, and the purple-gold pill became restless.

"Xue 'er, quickly protect the pill. It's the pill tribulation!" All of a sudden, Shen nuo shouted. Immediately after, the three of them quickly surrounded Leng ruoxue to protect her, wanting to help her block the purple-gold pill.

But unexpectedly, the purple-gold pill did not hide under their protection. Instead, it flew into the air and broke through the window.

At this time, in the sky outside, in addition to the rumbling of Thunder, a huge lightning bolt as thick as an arm also fell vertically and smashed on their courtyard wall, splitting it into two!

This deafening sound naturally attracted the Qilin's attention. For a moment, the Qilin clan's Qilin all scrambled to rush towards the direction of the lightning and thunder.

When they arrived at Leng ruoxue's courtyard and saw the scene above the courtyard, all of them widened their eyes in disbelief.

Oh my God! What was the purple-gold object that was spinning in the air and creating a huge vortex? And what was this thunder and lightning?

The Qilin race were all pill refining idiots, so they naturally didn't know what the so-called pill tribulation was. In fact, they didn't even recognize that the purple-gold object was a pill.

The Qilins stared at the sky in a daze. When they saw the purple-gold object that was obviously trying to challenge the lightning, all of them were speechless. If it were them, they wouldn't even dare to challenge the authority of nature. This nameless purple-gold object was really bold!

At this moment, when he saw Leng ruoxue and the rest looking at the sky worriedly, Huo Yue quickly walked up to them and asked softly, ""Miss Leng, what is that purple-gold object? What's going on?"

Wasn't he refining the reincarnation pill? Why did they suddenly cause such a huge commotion?

"You don't recognize that purple-gold object?" Hearing Huo Yue's question, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but ask.

"Uh! I should know?" The fire Yue was a little dumbfounded. It really didn't know him? What was this strange thing?

Looking at Huo Yue who was at a loss, Leng ruoxue sighed softly, "This should be the reincarnation pill that I refined. However, before I could confirm it, the pill tribulation appeared! But this guy shouldn't be simple!"

"Reincarnation ... Reincarnation pill?" The fire Yue stuttered. It had never thought that the reincarnation pill Leng ruoxue had concocted would be so terrifying. Could this pill really be eaten? Would there be any problems?

Looking at Huo Yue's worried expression, Leng ruoxue patted its head as if she was coaxing a puppy. "It's too early to worry. Let's wait for this little guy to pass the pill tribulation first! If you can't pass the pill tribulation, the reincarnation pill you make will only turn to dust. "

"Oh!" The fire Yue unconsciously responded. Obviously, it was completely dumbfounded.

At the same time, the lightning in the sky was even thicker than before. The sky above the Qilin clan's territory was completely covered by dark clouds. The dark sky made people's hearts heavy.

In an instant! A bolt of lightning as thick as an arm descended from the sky. Unwilling to be outdone, the purple-gold pill met it ...

After a long time, the lightning disappeared.

The glow on the purple-gold pill's body had also dimmed significantly. However, very quickly, the purple-gold pill began to repair itself, and the glow on its body became even more dazzling than before!

If it hadn't seen it with its own eyes, the fire Yue would never have believed the truth in front of it. But now, it had to admit that Leng ruoxue was right. This elixir was not simple!

However, would such an extraordinary pill be willingly consumed by a human? Unfortunately, Huo Yue didn't have time to think about it. The second lightning bolt struck down again. This time, it was at least half a circle thicker than the first one. Huo Yue couldn't help but worry about the elixir that he had just refined.

After all, it could be the reincarnation pill! The reincarnation pill was the hope of the Qilin clan. Of course, it didn't want anything to happen to it.

After some thought, it was ready to help but was stopped by Leng ruoxue.

"I have to go help it." Fire Yue said urgently.

"Don't worry, it can handle it on its own. If you help it, it will affect its spirituality. " Leng ruoxue reminded.

"But what if it can't make it through? Wouldn't that be a waste of time?" Huo Yue was very worried.

Leng ruoxue shook her head, "no matter what, this is something it should experience."

From the way this purple-gold pill rejected the protection of Shen nuo and the others, Leng ruoxue knew that this little fellow was a very strong-headed one. Since that was the case, she naturally would not stop this little fellow from improving.

After hearing what she said, although the fire Yue was still a little worried, it did not strongly want to help. However, it kept walking on the ground, revealing the tension in its heart.

Chapter 2756 Mother?\(2\)

As the power of the Thunderbolts increased, the pill tribulation that the purple-gold pill had to bear naturally became heavier and heavier. Its flickering state also made Huo Yue's heart jump to his throat.

It was too exciting and too shocking!

After a long time.

The glow of the lightning gradually faded, but the dark clouds had not dispersed. Leng ruoxue and the rest could not be sure if the pill tribulation had truly ended. Furthermore, from the state of the purple-gold pill, it seemed to be waiting for something.

As expected. The moment Leng ruoxue and the rest had this thought, the sky changed color. Several bolts of lightning as thick as an arm descended at the same time, striking straight at the purple-gold pill. In an instant, the purple-gold pill was drowned in lightning!

It's finished! I'm finished! It was its reincarnation pill!

Hmph ... Huo Yue felt that the reincarnation pill was going to die this time, because it was already a little difficult for the reincarnation pill to resist the Thunderbolts. This time, he was afraid that it would die!

Huo Yue's heart ached. He stared at the thunder and lightning with tears in his eyes. He suddenly hated them.

Without them, the clan leader might have already woken up! But now, there was no hope at all! Sob ... Why would a pill tribulation appear? It could not understand!

The fire Yue, which was about to turn its gaze to Leng ruoxue for an inquiry, suddenly felt a strange aura. It turned its head abruptly and was surprised to find that the thunder and lightning that had not dispersed for a long time in the sky had disappeared without a trace. Instead, what replaced the thunder and lightning was a golden pillar of light. It looked a little like when the rules of heaven and earth descended. What was this?

Then, it heard a cheerful laughter coming from the light beam!

When the light beam disappeared, a tender and clear child's voice came to everyone's ears. "Hahaha! I'm born!"

"....."

"You bastard!" Who was speaking?

The Qilin clan, led by Huo Yue, were all dumbfounded. They could not find the owner of the voice, so they all turned to look at Leng ruoxue in unison. Leng ruoxue did not know whether to laugh or cry.

"Why are you all looking at me? Don't tell me you think I'm the one talking!" Leng ruoxue smiled helplessly.

"The one who spoke was definitely not you, but you should know." Huo Yue said with certainty.

"Alright! I do know, it said so." Leng ruoxue pointed her finger.

Huo Yue followed Leng ruoxue's finger and turned his head around. He realized that the purple-gold pill had floated behind him.

Ugh! Could it be that Leng ruoxue was referring to it?

No, this is impossible! How could a pill speak? Huo Yue would never believe it.

However, at this moment, a voice suddenly sounded from behind Huo Yue, ""Hehe! Big guy, I'm the one who spoke!"

As the elixir spoke, Huo Yue couldn't continue lying to himself. Then, he was so scared that his legs went soft and he directly collapsed on the ground.

Oh my God! These days, even medicinal pills could speak. Did this still want to live like a beast?

With that thought in mind, Huo Yue ran out of Leng ruoxue's courtyard as if he was being chased by an evil spirit.

Its actions also confused the purple-gold pill.

Floating to Leng ruoxue's side, dan Yao shook his round body and asked Leng ruoxue, ""Mom, what happened to it?" he asked.

Mom?

Hearing this form of address, Leng ruoxue was once again shocked!

Could he not call her that? Even though she had refined this pill herself, Leng ruoxue truly did not wish for this little fellow to call her 'mommy'!

However, after hearing what the little guy said, Jiang Ning was quite interested. ""Little guy, you call her mom, then what should you call us? Dad?"

Jiang Ning's words made Leng ruoxue speechless!

"You bastard!" Wasn't this taking advantage of him? Can you not be like this? Kiss!

Leng ruoxue was very worried. Even if this pill wanted to call him 'father', it wouldn't be Jiangning's turn, right? As for the newly born dan Yao, it was indeed very capable. Its small body leaned to the side and said with a slight disdain, ""I don't need a father. I only need a mother!"

With that, it looked at Leng ruoxue obediently and said, "Mom, I'm good, right?"

"Be good!" Leng ruoxue didn't know what she could say. When the Qilin clan members saw how happy and harmonious they were as a family, they were speechless and didn't know what to say. However, uncle long and the others were quite calm, because Xue 'er's miracles were too many to count. It didn't seem strange that she had a child with medicinal pills. She wondered how the evil man would feel if he knew how many pills he had.

They were suddenly looking forward to it.

But now, this was obviously not as important as the identity of this medicinal pill.

After confirming that the other party was indeed the reincarnation pill, Leng ruoxue and the rest were deeply worried.

This little fellow had already developed intelligence and could even speak. Could it still be eaten?

Even though Leng ruoxue had unintentionally refined an antidote pill that was quite spiritual in the past, that antidote pill could not speak due to its low grade. However, this little thing could! And he kept calling her mother.

It was undeniable that Leng ruoxue's heart had turned soft after hearing this child-like voice. Hence, she was also extremely conflicted. She already knew the importance of the reincarnation pill to the Qilin race, but this pill ...

Everyone sat in the living room, sighing and discussing the fate of the reincarnation pill. The reincarnation pill seemed to know that the time to decide its fate had come, so it was unusually quiet. Seeing it like this, everyone couldn't bear it.

"Xue 'er, why don't we make another reincarnation pill?" After thinking for a while, Jiang Ning came up with an idea.

"I want to, but I'm afraid I don't have enough herbs." Leng ruoxue said, feeling a little angry.

"Al! What should he do then? Could it be that this little fellow is going to die right after it's born?" Jiang Ning looked at the reincarnation pill with sympathy.

The reincarnation pill was also relatively quiet.

"Idiot! Idiot! Who said we're for eating!" At that moment, an unfamiliar voice suddenly rang out in the living room.

Leng ruoxue and the rest raised their heads subconsciously and saw another purple-gold pill floating in front of their eyes. That pill was almost exactly the same as the reincarnation pill beside them. However, it was much bigger and its color was darker. At this moment, the purple-gold pill was throbbing violently, showing the anger in its heart.

When the purple-gold pill saw Leng ruoxue, it snorted coldly, "you're father's new disciple?"

After asking this question, it circled around Leng ruoxue again, as if it was observing her.

Leng ruoxue nodded her head, then graciously allowed the purple-gold pill to be evaluated. She could already tell that this pill was the one her master had refined. However, shouldn't it be in the hands of the ripple witch? Why would he be here?

The astonished Leng ruoxue didn't even have the time to voice out the doubt in her heart when she heard the purple-gold pill say with a tone of disdain, "What an idiot! He doesn't know that the reincarnation pill isn't meant to be eaten!"

Chapter 2757 Mother?\(3\)

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue's face darkened. Wasn't it normal that she didn't know? It was likely that no one in the entire divine realm would know about this. Of course, this was with the exception of her master, who had already fallen.

When uncle long and the others heard this, they couldn't help but reveal shocked expressions. This was the first time he had heard that medicinal pills were not meant to be eaten. Then what was it for? Play?

"The pill recipe and experience that master left me did not have any records about the reincarnation pill. That's why I'm not clear about the effects of the reincarnation pill." Taking a deep breath, Leng ruoxue told herself not to be calculative over a single pill before realizing her dream.

"Like this? It seems that I have wronged you. " The purple-gold pill said after some thought.

Seeing that the new purple-gold pill was willing to correct its mistakes, Leng ruoxue naturally did not hold it against it. However, she still asked out of curiosity, ""Are you the reincarnation pill that my master refined? I heard that you've fallen into the hands of Wu Chen. Why have you suddenly appeared in the territory of the Qilin clan?"

"Of course I am! Hmph! What qualifications does Wu Chen have to obtain me? Although she caught me once, I managed to escape. I've been hiding since then. As for why I'm here, it's because of this!" The purple-gold pill pointed at the reincarnation pill beside Leng ruoxue.

"I didn't expect that it was the reincarnation pill that I concocted that attracted you." Leng ruoxue asked in surprise.

"Hmph! If I wasn't afraid that you would hurt it, I wouldn't have made this trip!" The purple-gold pill said proudly.

"Uh! We don't want to harm it, but the Qilin clan's patriarch can't just leave it be!" Leng ruoxue said helplessly.

"Idiot! Didn't I say that I was afraid you would use the wrong method?" The purple-gold pill roared.

"Thank you, brother!" The reincarnation pill moved to the side of the purple-gold pill gratefully and rubbed against it affectionately.

"You don't have to thank me. Just follow me in the future, okay? Look at your strength, no wonder you were eaten by humans as an ordinary pill!" The purple-gold pill roared with a look of disappointment.

The reincarnation pill, who had been shouted at, looked at the Big Brother beside him with a humble expression, as if he had found his backbone. However, it was afraid that its mother would not agree to it hanging out with its big brother. Hence, it looked at Leng ruoxue very carefully and asked, ""Mom, can I be with brother?"

"Sure!" Leng ruoxue nodded, then turned her gaze towards the purple-gold pill and asked, ""You said that the reincarnation pill isn't meant to be eaten. Can you tell me how to use it to save people?"

"It's very simple, you just need to place us next to the injured! In this way, the spiritual energy we release will naturally heal the injuries of the injured. If the wounded ate us directly, it wouldn't be saving our lives, but killing us! The spiritual energy in our bodies isn't something that just anyone can handle. " The purple-gold pill replied honestly.

Leng ruoxue gave it some thought and felt that it made sense. In itself, the number of medicinal herbs required to refine the reincarnation pill was extremely large. There were also countless natural treasures. The spiritual energy contained in such a pill was naturally huge! If someone could really swallow it, it would be strange if they didn't burst!

However, they were too concerned about it, so none of them had thought of this before! Now that the purple-gold pill had reminded them, they couldn't help but feel some lingering fear. If something really happened to the Qilin race's patriarch because he ate the reincarnation pill, it would be strange if the Qilin race didn't treat them as their mortal enemies! More importantly, they couldn't bear to see the reincarnation pill being eaten. Now that they knew the reincarnation pill didn't need to be eaten and could save the Qilin clan leader, they were naturally happy. This was a win-win situation!

After settling a huge matter on her mind, Leng ruoxue personally took the reincarnation pill to look for the fire Yue.

Previously, Huo Yue did not dare to believe the fact that the pill could speak and was quite shocked. Therefore, he did not rush them to ask about the reincarnation pill. However, now that she had the correct method to save the Qilin clan leader, Leng ruoxue was naturally unwilling to waste any more time.

She found a Qilin to lead the way and headed to Huo Yue's residence. The moment she entered his room, Leng ruoxue noticed that he was sitting on a chair listlessly. She had no idea what he was thinking about.

"You're here!" Feeling the swaying figure in front of him, Huo Yue greeted him indifferently.

Leng ruoxue nodded and found a seat.

"I've brought the reincarnation pill," After a long while, Leng ruoxue saw that the other party had no intention of speaking, so she took the initiative to speak.

"Can that pill be eaten? Will something happen to you?" Upon hearing this, Huo Yue finally reacted and asked with a frightened expression.

"You can't eat it!" Leng ruoxue told the truth, and Huo Yue revealed an expression of 'I knew it'.

Wuu ... I knew it! That pill was a monster, it couldn't be eaten at all!

At the thought of this, Huo Yue even began to cry.

Leng ruoxue was forced to swallow the words she wanted to say when she saw its state.

She hadn't finished, alright? How could this guy's endurance be so weak?

Leng ruoxue was speechless, but she kept her silence to save Huo Yue some face.

Unfortunately, the purple-gold pill couldn't bear to see Huo Yue's dead look, so he shouted, ""You bastard! Look at your current appearance, which part of you still looks like a Qilin? Pull yourself together! Don't act like someone else owes you twenty to eighty thousand!"

Leng ruoxue was speechless. This medicinal pill was also quite cowardly when it came to scolding people!

On the other hand, the fire Yue was completely dumbfounded. It stared at the purple-gold elixir for a long time, then glanced at the similar elixir that was obediently floating beside Leng ruoxue. It suddenly reacted and roared, "Mother! Help me! It's too scary!"

It had been scolded by a single pill, so how could there be two reincarnation pills? And this one was obviously much fiercer than the other one!

Seeing that Huo Yue had actually cried for help, Leng ruoxue was also in a mess. She tried her best to comfort Huo Yue, "Your Excellency fire Yue, please calm down. This is really damaging to your prestige as the acting clan leader!"

"Calm down? How am I supposed to calm down? I've lived for so long, but I've never been scolded by a medicinal pill before. This was truly too terrifying! How could such a thing happen?" Huo Yue was a little too agitated and roared.

"Uh!" Hearing her words, Leng ruoxue didn't know how to comfort it.

After that, Huo Yue asked again, "Miss Leng, can you explain why there are two reincarnation pills? Don't tell me that you're the one who refined these two."

"No, I only managed to make one." Leng ruoxue was very honest.

"Then, it ..." Huo Yue was horrified. Could it be that there was really a ghost?

"Idiot! I was made by my father!" The purple-gold pill roared.

"Dad? Who's your father?" Huo Yue asked in a silly way.

"He's my master." Leng ruoxue informed him helplessly. She had wanted to say this just now, but she never had the chance.

"Master Yu?" This time, Huo Yue was even more confused. That reincarnation pill should be in the hands of Wu Chen? In the past, Wu Yan had wanted to use it to exchange for her clan's submission. However, he was rejected by them. They knew very well that even if they managed to save their clan leader with the reincarnation pill, their clan leader wouldn't be happy if he found out!

"Yes, it was attracted by the reincarnation pill I made. That's why you're seeing two now." Leng ruoxue explained.

"Shouldn't it be in the hands of Wu Chen? Why are you running around?" Huo Yue asked with uncertainty.

"You bastard! I'll say it one last time, rime ice did catch me, but I escaped! So I'm free now. Please don't put me together with that annoying woman, Wu Han. Otherwise, I'll be angry! And if I'm angry, don't even think about asking me to save your clan head!" The purple-gold pill threatened.

Upon hearing this, Huo Yue immediately perked up. He looked at the purple-gold elixir nervously and asked excitedly, "You ... You can save the clan leader? But I thought you couldn't eat it?"

That was what Leng ruoxue had said just now, wasn't it?

"I can't be eaten, but that doesn't mean I can't save people, understand?" The purple-gold pill asked indifferently.

"I understand! I understand!" The fire Yue instantly resurrected on the spot as if it had been injected with chicken blood! At this time, all the fear and terror were gone, and only joy was left.

After that, it left Leng ruoxue and the two reincarnation pills behind and scuttled out of the room. It flew around in the sky in excitement and would even howl from time to time.

Looking at the seemingly crazy fire Yue, Leng ruoxue really wanted to say that she didn't know it. In just one day, she had witnessed the many aspects of the fire Yue, which made her deeply conflicted.

In the end, she came to an important conclusion. Huo Yue's character could not be judged by common sense.

The fire Yue's jumping up and down also attracted many Qilin to come and watch. Especially the elders of the Qilin clan. They didn't know why the acting clan leader had suddenly gone crazy. After they caught Huo Yue and asked him what had happened, the entire Qilin clan was in an uproar!

Roars and the sound of heavy objects falling to the ground rang out in succession.

Upon seeing this, Leng ruoxue decisively chose to return to her room.

The entire Qilin clan had gone mad, and she didn't want to be accidentally injured.

After the incident.

After the entire Qilin clan had calmed down, Huo Yue suddenly realized that Leng ruoxue had left without him knowing!

How could this be!

Huo Yue brought the elders to Leng ruoxue's residence. Without another word, he pulled Leng ruoxue along and left.

Leng ruoxue, who was being pulled, used a lot of strength to pull her arm out of the other party's large claws. She then looked at fire Guangdong helplessly and said, ""Your Excellency fire Yue, if you have something to say, say it properly. Don't touch me, okay? My small arms and legs can't withstand your pulling. "

"I'm sorry! I'm sorry! Did I hurt you?" Huo Yue was apologetic when he heard that. Then, he said, ""I was looking for you to save the clan leader with the reincarnation pill! That's why I'm a little anxious. "

It was afraid that the reincarnation pill would not listen to its command. Otherwise, it would not have bothered Leng ruoxue.

"I can understand. Let's go now!" Leng ruoxue nodded.

Chapter 2758 An Outrageous Request \(1\)

She was well aware of the importance of the reincarnation pill to the Qilin clan. Naturally, she would not blame Huo Yue for being reckless. As soon as fire Yue heard this, it immediately put Leng ruoxue on its back. Then, it teleported away at lightning speed.

Uncle long and the others, who had witnessed all this, could only sigh. This was because the old Qilin was really too restless. It had already waited for so many years. How could it be that it was only a few more days?

Of course, it wasn't that they didn't understand the fire Yue's eagerness. They just felt that the person in front of them was different from the fire Qilin they knew. When they first saw the fire Yue, they thought it was a very serious beast. Now, it had completely overturned the unattainable image of the Qilin in their hearts.

Al! With a heavy sigh, everyone went back to what they were doing!

At the same time, Leng ruoxue could only feel the wind whistling by her ears. The speed of the fire Yue was so fast that it brought about a gust of strong wind, causing Leng ruoxue to be unable to open her eyes. By the time she could open her eyes, she suddenly realized that they had arrived at their destination.

At this moment, she couldn't help but suspect that the Qilin had done it on purpose. However, when she saw Huo Yue looking at her apologetically, Leng ruoxue immediately dispelled this thought. Huo Yue was probably just too impatient.

Then, he looked around.

Leng ruoxue was surprised to find that they were surrounded by mountains. Their current location should be in a mountain stream that was even deeper than the Qilin clan's territory.

"Where is this place?" Leng ruoxue's face was filled with question marks as she looked at the fire Yue. Actually, she had more or less guessed it, but she had yet to verify it with the fire Yue.

"The chief is sleeping here." Huo Yue suddenly said with a sad face.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue could only pat its head as if she was coaxing a little pet. This time, the fire Yue protested, "Detestable! Don't touch me like you're touching a dog, okay?"

"Uh! I'm used to it!" Leng ruoxue smiled a little awkwardly, but there wasn't much apology on her beautiful face.

Huo Yue could only sigh helplessly when he saw this.

Alright! It could only treat him as a human who loved beasts! However, it had lived for so long and was still treated like a small beast. This kind of thing was really quite novel to it.

However, despite the novelty, the proper business was more important!

After that, Huo Yue's expression turned serious and he requested, "Please come with me to save the clan leader."

"You lead the way!" Leng ruoxue let out a soft sigh. Even though this Qilin wasn't very reliable at times, at least it didn't forget the proper business.

The fire Yue nodded and used its claws to cast a few spells. Leng ruoxue watched as the mountain walls around her split in the middle and a huge cave appeared in front of her.

Nodding at Leng ruoxue, Huo Yue walked in front and led the way. Leng ruoxue followed closely behind while observing her surroundings.

The formation outside the cave must have been set up by Shui mo. Although it looked simple, there was a secret behind it. If they didn't know the way to activate the formation, they would be in deep trouble. And in such an important place, there definitely wouldn't be many people who knew the magic art. Otherwise, the Qilin clan leader wouldn't be able to stop.

Leng ruoxue's thoughts ran wild as she followed Huo Yue into the dimly-lit cave. She did not know how long she had walked, but her eyes suddenly lit up. At this moment, she had been brought to a door that looked like a secret room by fire Yue.

However, the temperature outside the secret chamber was unusually low, as if they were in an ice cellar.

It was only when Huo Yue opened the door in front of Leng ruoxue that she was sure that this was really an ice cellar!

It was a World of Ice and snow inside. It was a vast expanse of white everywhere. The temperature here could no longer be described as low.

Leng ruoxue shuddered and couldn't help but lean closer to Huo Yue's furry and warm body to keep herself warm. Who knew that Huo Yue would just turn around and look at her indifferently. He then reminded her with a serious face, ""Miss Leng, I'm a Kirin that already has a master. You can't take advantage of me, do you understand?"

Upon hearing this, Leng ruoxue was instantly flustered. She couldn't help but kick Huo Yue's butt and roar, ""Who took advantage of you? If it wasn't for the cold here, I wouldn't have come near you!"

Leng ruoxue was furious. No wonder Feng Ye was so stupid. It was because the upper beam was not straight, the lower beam was crooked! She had finally found the root of the problem today!

When she first saw the fire Yue, how could she have thought that this guy was a normal Qilin? Oh my God! At this moment, Leng ruoxue was really regretful. From the way it reacted when it saw the two reincarnation pills, she should have known that fire Yue was an abnormal fellow. It was rare that the Qilin clan had not been led too badly under its leadership. At least, there were still normal Qilin in the Qilin clan!

"Hehe! I'm just teasing you!" Seeing that Leng ruoxue seemed to be a little angry, Huo Yue smiled awkwardly and said.

In fact, it just wanted to ease the tense atmosphere.

Are you kidding me? Leng ruoxue was even angrier when she heard these three words. Did she look that funny? Or was she someone that anyone could tease?

"The last person who dared to tease me is now in the nine nether prison!" Leng ruoxue put on a stern face and pretended to be serious.

"Uh! I was just joking, you don't have to curse me like this, do you?" Huo Yue was very worried. Was the nine nether nether prison a good place to go?

"I'm not joking. " Leng ruoxue's words were unusually serious. She held back her laughter and said, ""You probably don't know the identity of my man, do you?"

"Uh! What is his identity?" Huo Yue was very cooperative and asked curiously.

It had heard that Leng ruoxue had a fiancé by her side. However, Leng ruoxue shouldn't have brought that person along with her to the Qilin clan, right?

"You know the Dark Lord of the nine nether nether prison, right?" Leng ruoxue said with a smile, but she couldn't help but think to herself, so this is what it feels like to have a backer? Oh! Scaring a Kirin shouldn't be a crime, right? Who asked this Kirin to tease her just now? now, of course, she had to get back at him. Who asked her to take revenge!

"Your man is the master of The Dark World?" After hearing Leng ruoxue's words, Huo Yue revealed a constipated expression and couldn't help but ask.

It was undeniable that Leng ruoxue's answer had stunned it. It wasn't that he didn't want to believe Leng ruoxue's words, but the truth was too shocking. One must know that the Mistress of the Dark World was the ruler of the nine nether nether prison while Leng ruoxue was in the God World. How did the two of them get together? was this possible?

It was a little skeptical, but fire Yue, who thought that it did not show any suspicion on its face, could not possibly hide it from Leng ruoxue. Green vessel, the little secret agent, had already reported the Qilin's thoughts to Leng ruoxue.

However, Leng ruoxue did not get angry. Instead, she smiled and explained, ""That's right. Otherwise, do you think that I would still be unscathed despite the fact that fog has repeatedly found trouble with me?"

Ugh! No wonder? At this moment, it was impossible for Huo Yue to have any more suspicions, because what Leng ruoxue said was the truth. If she didn't have some powerful means of self-protection, she wouldn't be alive and kicking now. She was afraid that the mist ripple would have dealt with her long ago.

Chapter 2759 An Outrageous Request \(2\)

"Hehe! I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I didn't know that miss Leng had such a powerful backer, but if you want to be with the Mistress of the Dark World, I'm afraid it won't be that easy, right?" The fire Yue was flexible. Although it was a little frightened at the beginning, it quickly calmed down and continued to inquire about information.

However, Leng ruoxue naturally wouldn't let it have its way. She didn't expect this Qilin to be so gossipy, so she only said indifferently, ""This has nothing to do with you, fire Guangdong. However, if there's another chance, I'd be happy to take you on a tour of the nine nether nether prison this afternoon. What do you think?"

Ugh! It didn't want to go?

Also, what did he mean by 'another chance'? Could they have been there?

Seeing through Huo Yue's thoughts, Leng ruoxue kindly answered, "Just as you thought, we've already been there."

This time, it was fire Guangdong's turn to be confused.

F * ck! How did this girl know what it was thinking?

After the fire Yue was done messing around, it started to feel horrified again. At this moment, it heard Leng ruoxue say with a smile, "Calm down, I can read minds!"

What was Qing Jue's was hers, so Leng ruoxue did not have any qualms when she said this. However, Huo Yue's expression was extremely ugly.

F * ck! The truth was actually like this! Was this still beastly?

At this moment, Huo Yue wished he could just smash his head into the ice and kill himself! Of course, it was only thinking about it and had no intention of actually putting it into action. However, its ugly expression was enough to make Leng ruoxue smile.

Leng ruoxue saw that she had dealt enough of a blow, so she kindly reminded, ""Your Excellency fire Yue, are we still going to save the people?"

"Save him! Hurry up and run!" When Huo Yue heard Leng ruoxue's words, it suddenly reacted. He had almost delayed his official business. This was really too much.

After that, it brought Leng ruoxue through the layers of ice and finally, they arrived at the center of the ice room. Then, it pointed at a huge block of ice with its huge claws and said, ""The clan leader is inside!"

Inside?

Leng ruoxue was speechless.

Although the entire block of ice was white, it was not transparent. Therefore, if one observed from the outside, one would not be able to see the situation inside at all. There was no way to confirm whether the Qilin clan's patriarch was really here.

Furthermore, this ice block was a little too big. Leng ruoxue truly felt that she, who was standing at the tip of the iceberg, was so small and unremarkable. In an instant, she felt a sense of inferiority.

Huo Yue's next words made Leng ruoxue confused again.

Because Huo Yue said to her with a serious face, ""Miss Leng, we have to get rid of this ice."

"Open it? Hmm, you do it. " Leng ruoxue replied rudely. She did not even want to think about the meaning behind Huo Yue's words. Her instincts told her that the other party wanted to use her as a Coolie.

It had to be said that Leng ruoxue was right.

Fire Yue's intention was indeed to get Leng ruoxue to help him. Hence, when he saw Leng ruoxue asking him to come over calmly, Fire Yue's heart was in a deep dilemma. He said shamelessly, "Miss Leng, I can't open this ice block by myself. You have to help me."

"How can I help? I can help you if you want to roast it with fire." Leng ruoxue said calmly.

"Uh! You can't use fire, you'll hurt the chief." Fire Yue hurriedly stopped her. If it was possible to use fire, it wouldn't need to ask Leng ruoxue for help!

"Then how do you want me to help you?" Leng ruoxue was speechless. Could it be that this fellow wanted her to help him break the ice?

"Clan leader Huo Yue, look at my small body, and then look at yours. Do you really think I can help you?" Leng ruoxue asked after some thought.

"It can be done! As long as you're willing to." Huo Yue suddenly said shyly.

"Then tell me, how do you want me to help?" Leng ruoxue asked curiously.

"We just need to use our body temperature to slowly melt the ice!" Huo Yue told her the method, and Leng ruoxue's face turned black immediately!

"You bastard!" What kind of method was this? The other party was the Qilin clan's clan leader, not her clan's old ancestor. On what basis did she have to sacrifice herself? At this moment, Leng ruoxue was completely certain that Huo Yue's head had been kicked by the ball. Otherwise, why would it have such a strange thought?

Seeing that Leng ruoxue seemed to be a little unhappy, Huo Yue laughed awkwardly and added, "This is very easy. If we work together, it will be very fast, and we won't hurt the patriarch's body. Can you help me?"

Help you, my ass! Leng ruoxue was so angry that she wanted to curse. Did this stinky Qilin really think that she was a Coolie? And that it would be faster if the two of them worked together? Why didn't it look for the Qilin to work together? wouldn't that be faster?

With that thought in mind, Leng ruoxue simply said with a cold expression, "Your Excellency Fire Guangdong, I'm only here to save your family head with the reincarnation pill. If you haven't done the preparatory work well, don't waste everyone's time. Besides, I'm not so great that I'll sacrifice myself for others. Of course, if you really want my help, I can only use fire!"

After she finished speaking, Leng ruoxue even deliberately flashed out her small flame and prepared to burn the huge ice block. When Huo Yue saw this, he was so frightened that his heart was trembling. He quickly stopped her, "Miss Leng, your words are too serious. I'm not asking you to sacrifice yourself. I just want to use your body temperature to melt this block of ice. This won't take much effort, really. I guarantee that you won't be in any danger. Please don't use fire! You'll hurt the chief."

"Melt this ice? Rest for a few days? It won't take much effort? There's no danger?" Leng ruoxue repeated her question as her expression turned uglier by the second.

However, Huo Yue did not feel that there was anything wrong with Leng ruoxue's tone. Instead, he nodded vigorously and said, "Yes, yes. I promise there's no danger. This is as easy as lifting a finger for you. How about it? can you help me?"

"Help your sister!" Leng ruoxue finally couldn't help but curse. After that, she was so angry that she kicked Huo Yue's butt again. This time, she used more force and sent him flying. He crashed into a huge ice block.

How detestable! This was really too despicable. Did he think she was a silly boy? No, it was the silly girl! Was she that easy to deceive?

Leng ruoxue was enraged. The consequences would be severe!

After kicking the fire Yue away, she did not even bother to look at it. She directly turned around and walked out of the ice room. Then, she left alone.

Not long after she left, the fire Yue slowly slid down from the ice block that was stuck to it. As soon as it turned around, it immediately hugged the ice block behind it and cried, "clan leader, did it hurt you? I didn't do it on purpose. That woman was too rough ..."

Huo Yue hugged the ice block and complained endlessly. Leng ruoxue, who had left the ice room, searched for a long time like a headless fly before she finally found the way back to her residence.

It was almost evening.

Chapter 2760 An Outrageous Request \(3\)

When uncle long and the others saw Leng ruoxue, they thought that she had already completed her task and that the Qilin clan leader had been rescued. Who knew that Leng ruoxue wouldn't say a word after entering the living room? it was obvious that she wasn't in a good mood.

"Xue 'er, how's the situation?" After a long time, master ning could no longer hold back his curiosity and asked.

"No progress." Leng ruoxue was finally willing to talk to someone, and uncle long and the others were very pleased.

However, what did it mean that there was no progress? Didn't that fearsome reincarnation pill say that they had a way to save the Qilin clan leader?

Could it be ... That he had been injured for too long? Can't be cured?

Everyone's imagination ran wild as they looked at Leng ruoxue in unison. Their faces were filled with question marks.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue was helpless and could only explain simply, "I didn't see the Qilin clan leader at all. I only saw a huge block of ice."

"Uh! What was the meaning of this? Ice?" Uncle Long's face was filled with even more questions.

"The Qilin clan leader was sealed in an ice block. Huo Yue asked me to help him get out, but I refused. So, I came back alone." Leng ruoxue said through gritted teeth.

When everyone saw her resentful look, they knew in their hearts that something had happened.

"Xue 'er, since Huo Yue asked you to help, you should help! It's easy to melt ice with your flame anyway."
" Jiang Ning asked carefully.

He was simply too curious, but Leng ruoxue had not been clear about what she was saying. He had no choice but to slowly probe and find out the truth that they wanted to know.

Who knew that after Leng ruoxue heard his words, the expression on her face became even more conflicted. The resentment in her tone also deepened as she said,""If I could use fire to roast it, would I still need to be so angry that I came back?"

"Uh! Then what will you use to save it?" After learning a bit more, the curiosity on everyone's faces grew.

"Body temperature!" Leng ruoxue gritted her teeth and spat out these two words.

Body temperature? Everyone was horrified!

No wonder Xue 'er was angry! Huo Yue's request was really too much. Xue 'er was not a member of the Qilin clan at all, and she had done them a favor, so how could the fire Yue be so insatiable?

This was really ... Enough to make them speechless.

"Xue 'er, isn't the fire Yue angry that you came back like this?" Uncle long asked, thinking about Huo Yue's reaction.

"I don't know. I kicked it away before I left. I guess it's holding the ice and crying now!" Leng ruoxue guessed.

She had to admit that she was right again!

"Uh! Good job, but what should we do now? Are you leaving or staying?" Uncle long was conflicted.

If he left, how would he deal with his relationship with the Qilin clan? However, if he didn't leave, Xue 'er's anger would obviously not subside for a while. Ai! He was really in a difficult position!

"Stay! I still want to see what Huo Yue is going to do next!" Leng ruoxue said very calmly. Although she was very angry with Huo Yue, she could tell the severity of the matter. Naturally, she wouldn't leave so easily.

Leng ruoxue's words made uncle long and the others understand instantly. Xue 'er was not planning to give Huo Yue any face.

And the truth was, not only did Leng ruoxue not give Huo Yue any face, she even despised Feng Ye who had been staying with them.

Feng Ye, who had been chased out of their residence, was like a poor and helpless child. He guarded Leng ruoxue and the others outside the courtyard and wailed. Sob ... He felt so wronged! He wasn't the one who started this, so why did he have to vent his anger on him?

Although Leng ruoxue and the rest turned a blind eye to Feng Ye's cries of pain, it still attracted the attention of many members of the Qilin clan.

Bingyun had also come.

When she saw Feng Ye hugging a big tree outside the courtyard and sobbing without any care for his image, bingyun's face darkened.

What was this guy doing?

"Feng Ye, enough? Don't you think it's embarrassing enough?" Seeing Feng Ye cry without end, bingyun angrily rebuked.

However, Feng Ye clearly did not care about his reputation. Facing the crowd, he remained calm and replied fiercely, "I've been abandoned and chased out, so why can't I cry? Don't tell me that you've never secretly cried before? Back then, when you were heartbroken, you cried a lot too! What right do you have to despise me for being embarrassing? Besides, the person I lost was my own person, it's none of your business!"

"You ..." Bing Yun trembled with anger at Feng Ye's words. It's fine if you embarrass yourself, but why bring up his past?

Feeling that the surrounding clansmen seemed to be pointing at him, bingyun retreated and was too lazy to care about Feng Ye's matter. He just snorted coldly and turned to leave.

After Bing Yun left, Feng Ye became even more unscrupulous, and no one could control him.

After crying for a long time, the elders of the clan who had been waiting for the good news of the fire Yue all arrived together.

After clarifying the situation, the elders were all depressed.

So it was the acting clan leader who did this? More importantly, why didn't the guards report to them about Leng ruoxue's return?

The elders immediately had an emergency discussion and finally decided to meet Leng ruoxue personally.

As for what they should say when they saw Leng ruoxue, they were not sure now. Al! He had to see how angry Leng ruoxue was, right? Right now, no matter who they offended, they would not dare to offend Leng ruoxue. After all, there was no one who could command the Samsara pill.

However, the moment they thought of the reason why Leng ruoxue was angry, they could not help but secretly blame the acting clan head, who would occasionally be silly.

Wasn't it just looking for trouble? You want me to help you melt the ice? Why would they help? This was originally the Qilin clan's matter. They should be very grateful that he was willing to help cure the clan leader. They really should not have any additional requests!

Too much! He was really too much! Many of the Qilin elders felt that the acting clan head was acting a little out of line. Hence, the first thing they did after meeting Leng ruoxue was to apologize to her.

However, Leng ruoxue was obviously still in a fit of anger. She asked indifferently, ""Why are the elders apologizing to me? Has your Qilin clan done anything to let me down?"

"Uh! We're here to apologize on behalf of the clan leader for his reckless behavior. He really shouldn't have such an excessive request of miss Leng. " The Qilin race's Grand Elder spoke on behalf of the other elders.

Unfortunately, Leng ruoxue did not accept the elders' apologies and said, ""This is not the elders' fault, so it's not your turn to apologize!"

When the elders heard this, they all knew that the other party was asking for the substitute clan leader to come personally!

"The acting clan leader has not returned yet. When he returns, he will definitely come and apologize to miss Leng personally." The Qilin great elder quickly declared.

"Actually, from the fire Yue's point of view, it's understandable for it to ask me to make a sacrifice. After all, in your hearts, your chief is the Supreme and irreplaceable one. But please remember, I'm not from the Qilin clan, and it's not my duty to save your chief. I'm only willing to refine the reincarnation pill for you because I see it as a hero. So, please don't take my actions for granted. You don't have the capital to do that!" After the great elder of the Qilin clan had expressed his stance, Leng ruoxue did not show her usual courteousness to express her satisfaction. Instead, she reminded the great elder of the Qilin clan with an angry expression.

When the Qilin great elder heard Leng ruoxue's words, he was also rather surprised. He had already lowered his voice, so why did the other party become even more unyielding? This was definitely not the Leng ruoxue he knew before!

Or could it be that this was Leng ruoxue's true face? The friendliness and gentleness that the other party had shown earlier was actually to give face to the Qilin race?

After thinking about it this way, he suddenly recalled the rumors about Leng ruoxue in the outside world. The more he thought about it, the more he felt that Leng ruoxue might have given them too much face, to the point that they felt that Leng ruoxue did not live up to the rumors.

Now that Leng ruoxue had revealed her domineering aura, the Qilin great elder was immediately alarmed. It seemed like the rumors outside were true. Leng ruoxue truly couldn't be provoked!

Look, didn't something happen? He was no longer as polite to the Qilin clan as before.

Al! This Ma Feng's nest was obviously stabbed by the acting chief, but he probably couldn't clean it up!

After leaving Leng ruoxue and the rest's residence resentfully, the elders did not dare to delay and went to look for Huo Yue.

After they left, uncle long and the rest stared at Leng ruoxue without saying a word.

"Uncle long, if you have anything to say, just say it!" Leng ruoxue said helplessly when she felt the puzzled gazes of uncle long and the others.

"Xue 'er, you're the one who asked me to say it!" Uncle long sighed and continued, ""The Qilin race is different from the Dragon race, Phoenix race and white Tiger race. We can use more brutal means to deal with those three races, but to the Qilin race, shouldn't we do the same thing as before?"

Leng ruoxue understood what uncle long meant by 'like before', but she didn't want to be polite to the Qilin clan anymore. At the same time, she also believed that not all Qilin were like Huo Yue, who thought that it was only right for them to do anything for their most respected clan leader.

Of course, if the entire Qilin race thought this way, then she could only say that she had misjudged the beast! However, the Qilin clan's head elder, who she had little contact with, was clearly a reasonable beast. Otherwise, he wouldn't have specially come to apologize to her.

In addition, she had a hard time being polite in the Qilin clan, so now she had to face these Qilin with her true appearance.

She wanted to let these Qilins know that she was arrogant and proud! Her status wasn't any lower than the Qilin Qilin of the four Supreme God kings. In fact, from a certain perspective, her status was even higher than them. She was being polite to them because she was giving them face. Now, she took back her face! He didn't want to give it anymore! In case some Qilin didn't understand!
