

Crazy Wife 2871

Chapter 2871 First Time In The Chaos World \(2\)

Everyone could not help but sigh.

At this time, mu li blinked her eyes and asked carefully, ""What's the relationship between the land of chaos and the chaos World?"

"The chaotic lands are the chaotic world, it's just called differently." Suddenly, a voice interrupted. Mu li looked up and then quickly turned back.

He couldn't afford to offend this guy, wuu ...

"Girl, I can bring you to the land of chaos." The little white beast jumped into Leng ruoxue's arms and said with a smile.

"Cang, if you leave, what will happen to the divine realm?" Leng ruoxue asked worriedly. Right now, fog ice did not dare to cause trouble for Demon City. Her injuries had yet to fully recover, and her fear of Azure was another reason. If Azure was not around, that woman might cause trouble again.

"Her? Don't worry, her injuries won't heal so quickly. " Azure smiled evilly. Ever since Niu and the others destroyed Rime's new base in the ning family's divine realm, it could be said that the old b*tch's injuries were even worse. Thus, he was not worried at all that Rime would take advantage of his absence to do some small tricks.

"Uh! Can I say something?" Hearing the conversation between the man and the Beast, mu li, who had wanted to play dumb, asked in a low voice.

"Speak!" Leng ruoxue was speechless. Why was mu li acting like a mouse seeing a cat when she saw Cang? was there a need to be so afraid of Cang? When he saw Cang Lai, he spoke so carefully and even asked.

"If you have a fart, then let it out." Cang ye said. His words were rough, and this guy was the demonic man's confidant, so he was naturally within the range of his rejection.

"In fact, I wanted to say that master is in the chaos World!" Mu li took a few deep breaths and looked at Cang hou vigilantly before telling the truth.

"Where's the demon?" Leng ruoxue was astonished. Why did that fellow run off to the land of chaos? Are you bored?

"Yes, my Lord and little Tian have been living there for several years." Mu li nodded.

"Little Tian?" Leng ruoxue furrowed her brows. She didn't know why, but when she heard these two words, she felt a little uncomfortable.

On the other hand, Azure had an evil smile on his face as he provoked, ""So that evildoer can't stand loneliness and is cohabiting with someone else! Girl, dump him! There are many good men out there!"

"....."

Leng ruoxue was silent. How should she respond to this?

Mu li was so scared that he broke out in a cold sweat! This was slander! It definitely was!

My Lord! It's none of my business! It's that cat who wants to sow discord. If you have any dissatisfaction, please settle it with that cat! Sob ... It really had nothing to do with him!

Mu li wanted to cry, but no tears came out. Uncle long and the others who were listening by the side were also drenched in cold sweat. Did they hear some confidential information that they shouldn't have? Would he be killed?

The evolution of the divine realm was becoming more and more dangerous? It made uncle long and the others want to go back to their hometown and hide. But it seemed like hiding was useless, right? They didn't understand the battle between high-end people!

At this moment, uncle long and the others felt how small they were. Whether it was Cang or demon, if these two were to fight, it would definitely be a world-shaking battle! If things were not handled well, the divine realm would be in trouble. And now, they could only pray that Xue 'er was rational and wouldn't be angered by Cang's words!

Xue 'er! Calm down! He had to stay calm!

After turning their expectant gazes to Leng ruoxue, uncle long and the rest smiled ingratiatingly, making Leng ruoxue exceptionally speechless.

Did uncle long and the others think that she would be angry? Ai! Even if she was angry, she would not vent her anger on an innocent person.

After giving uncle long and the rest a comforting look, Leng ruoxue smiled at mu li and said, "Since the demon is currently in the land of chaos, I'll have to trouble the muli City Master to cooperate with me and open the space Channel! I'm going to find him!"

"Girl, there's no need to go through so much trouble. I'll Take You There! It's better to leave these trash here. " Cang didn't give mu li a chance to reply and quickly replied. Of course, the trash it was referring to was mu Li, Ming GE, and the others.

"Yes, we should stay here! Let senior Cang take you there!" When mu li heard this, he immediately agreed and very tactfully used the word "trash" on himself. In fact, every time he saw them, Cang would directly call them trash. As he called them that, he got used to it.

"What about uncle long and the others?" Leng ruoxue asked again as she looked at uncle long, who was obviously looking forward to it.

"Let's go together. I'll also bring the little fellows of the divine realm to experience it. You should know that such an opportunity is rare!" Azure waved his fat claws.

Uncle long and the others were very excited to see Cang agree. He had to bring them along to broaden their horizons. Such opportunities were rare.

"I ... Can I come along?" Seeing that he didn't seem to have a share, Ming GE still didn't give up and wanted to confirm.

"You're not from the divine realm, I don't care! I want to go find your master. " Azure said in an unfriendly manner.

"Sob ..." Ming GE burst into tears."Don't people always say that the guest will do as the host pleases?" Why did the host leave the guest behind to look after the house? What kind of master was this?

Mingge was so sad. As a guest, he really had no status. At the thought of this, he could not help but turn to look at Leng ruoxue. However, Leng ruoxue only smiled apologetically and said with a smile,""I'll leave Demon City in your hands,"

These words broke Ming GE's heart. He deeply felt that he would never love again.

Sobs ... What a pitiful customer!

The heartbroken Mingge glared at the excited uncle long and the others with tears in her eyes. Then, she disappeared from the spot.

He didn't want to see these hateful people anymore. They were too annoying!

"Hehe, you guys go and have fun! Don't worry, I'll take care of Ming GE and the others. " Mu li was afraid that Leng ruoxue and the rest would feel awkward, so he quickly expressed his opinion.

"We're not worried. " Leng ruoxue replied honestly.

Ugh! Alright! He had done too much. Mu li was in tears.

After that, Leng ruoxue and the rest started to make preparations for their journey.

He brought all his family members, whether they were in closed-door cultivation or not. This was mainly to guard against the miasma's surprise attack, and those weak little guys became cannon fodder for no reason. With this, Demon City was practically empty.

After the poisonous snakes, the Golden Bee clan, and the three clans 'fresh blood that had returned from their training were all taken away by Leng ruoxue, the Qilin clan's Qilin clan also strongly requested to go for a trip when they heard the news. In the blink of an eye, only mu li and a few others were left in the huge Demon City.

Looking at the empty main residence and the entire Demon City, mu li really felt like a gatekeeper. And this feeling was really not good!

However, Leng ruoxue couldn't care less. After packing everyone up and bringing along quite a bit of food, she carried Azure and left Demon City for the God-protecting Pagoda.

After leaving Demon City and reaching the foot of the mountain, Leng ruoxue was suddenly blocked by a White Tiger that had appeared out of nowhere.

The White Tiger blinked its watery blue eyes and looked at Leng ruoxue. As she watched, she suddenly burst into tears without any warning. Leng ruoxue's face darkened.

Chapter 2872 First Time In The Chaos World \(3\)

Who was this White Tiger?

Leng ruoxue's face was filled with question marks. These beasts all looked the same in their original forms. Unless they had been with each other for a long time, she really couldn't recognize them. Especially when The White Tiger was still crying.

Leng ruoxue was annoyed by her crying and said in a bad mood, ""Why are you crying? Did I bully you?" She was the one who was blocked, okay? Didn't people say that good dogs don't block the way? Now, it was actually a Tiger blocking the way.

"Miss Leng, please don't leave us alone!" The White Tiger immediately sobbed when it heard this.

"Do I know you?" Leng ruoxue blinked her eyes. Hearing this, could it be that she had given up on him?

"I'm the great elder of White Tiger! Don't you recognize me?" The white-colored great elder said with a sad expression.

"Uh! It's you! Is there something you need?" Leng ruoxue played dumb. She had heard about the three beast clans 'request from uncle long and the others. However, she was powerless to do anything about it. Moreover, she didn't expect that after three years, The White Tiger great elder was still guarding the foot of the demon city's Mountain. His perseverance made her admire him a little.

Although three years was nothing more than the blink of an eye for a cultivator, it was clearly not easy for the proud White Tiger first elder to guard him for three years. This could also prove that The White Tiger race was really at a life and death juncture. Otherwise, this old man wouldn't be loitering around here.

"Miss Leng, only you can help us." The White Tiger first elder said with tears in his eyes. After guarding for three years, he had finally met Leng ruoxue. It had not been easy!

"I wonder how I can help you?" Hearing this, Leng ruoxue smiled faintly.

"Some of our clansmen are still in the hands of that witch ..." The White Tiger Grand Elder cut straight to the point.

"I'm sorry, Grand Elder White Tiger. You've seen my strength for yourself. I can't beat that fogriple bitch. " Leng ruoxue interrupted the first elder of The White Tiger clan before he could finish his sentence.

"I know that it will be difficult for young miss Leng to exterminate miasma right now. We can wait. As long as young miss Leng is able to exterminate that woman and rescue The White Tiger tribesmen one day, it will be fine. As a reward, I am willing to lead the White tigers to acknowledge young miss Leng as their master." The White Tiger first elder gathered his courage and said. It was afraid that Leng ruoxue would not let it finish its sentence, so it spoke very quickly. It was willing to acknowledge her as its master because it had heard from a certain clan member that Leng ruoxue needed to be tamed. As such, it felt that the other party would definitely be satisfied with its reward.

However, it could never have imagined that the news about it was already old. Leng ruoxue had even told it directly that she no longer needed Beastie.

Upon hearing this grievous news, The White Tiger first elder was immediately dumbfounded and fell to the ground, crying bitterly.

When Leng ruoxue saw this, the black lines on her forehead gradually increased.

The first elder of The White Tiger cried out pitifully as if the sky was about to fall. However, to him, not being able to make Leng ruoxue agree to save his clansmen was no different from the sky falling.

Looking at the huge white Tiger crying like a child in front of her, Leng ruoxue couldn't deny that her heart had softened. After all, she didn't have much of a conflict with The White Tiger first elder. In fact, this old white Tiger had always tried to maintain a good relationship with her. Now that she saw it crying like this, she didn't feel good.

"Alright, don't cry. As long as your clansmen can hold on, I'll naturally save them after the rime ice is destroyed. However, I can't guarantee the time. " Leng ruoxue, who had always been at her wit's end, sighed.

Hearing Leng ruoxue's words, The White Tiger first elder suddenly raised his head and stared at her with his watery blue eyes that had just cried. He was in disbelief.

It didn't hear wrong, right? The other party agreed?

"Thank you, master. I believe my people can hold on as long as you are willing to save them." After obtaining Leng ruoxue's promise, The White Tiger first elder was invigorated.

"Wait! Don't call me master, saving them was just a passing act. " Leng ruoxue stopped him with a look of disdain. She didn't want to take in these useless people now.

When The White Tiger first elder heard this, he was dumbfounded again. He was not allowed to call her master? This meant that he would not accept his reward ...

Was this person really the Leng ruoxue it knew? Was she the Leng ruoxue who would definitely receive payment for helping? Could it have been switched?

Since when did Leng ruoxue not ask for rewards for doing good deeds?

White Tiger's first elder looked at Leng ruoxue as if he did not know her. However, Leng ruoxue couldn't be bothered to explain to the other party. From her point of view, even if she didn't accept these guys, someone else would naturally accept them. If that was the case, why would she bother to do anything?

After that, Leng ruoxue turned to The White Tiger first elder and said,""Now, make way! I have something to do and I don't know when I'll return, so you don't have to stay here. "

"Oh!" The depressed White Tiger first elder opened up a path and sent Leng ruoxue away with his resentful gaze. However, he did not choose to leave and instead gathered more white tigers.

The White Tiger first elder felt that since Leng ruoxue was not around, they should help guard the door and the forest! In case some blind people came to cause trouble. Although the White tigers 'strength had regressed a lot, they still had a deterrent force.

Just like that, without Leng ruoxue's knowledge, a few uninvited gatekeepers appeared at the foot of the mountain.

As for Leng ruoxue, she brought Azure along as they continued on their journey to the God-protecting Pagoda.

"I knew Niu would be soft-hearted." Suddenly, Cang said.

"I can't say that I'm soft-hearted. If the three beast tribes are still alive after we've destroyed fog ice, I'll naturally release them. Therefore, The White Tiger first elder's worries were completely unnecessary. Moreover, I only let him feel at ease because that old man rarely goes against us!" Leng ruoxue said honestly.

"Azure, head to the God-protecting Pagoda. Why don't you teleport?" Leng ruoxue then changed the topic.

"Why did you teleport? Wasn't it good to look at the scenery? It wasn't that far to begin with. " Azure said as a matter of course.

"Uh! Alright! Then can I move uncle long and the others out?" At first, Cang said that it was tiring to be alone. At that time, she thought that Cang could teleport, so she sent uncle long and the others into the bracelet to save some divine power for Cang. Who knew that Cang had planned to walk? as such, uncle long and the others naturally didn't need to stay in the bracelet. It was more lively when there were more people!

However, Cang rejected Leng ruoxue's suggestion and said righteously, ""Let them save their strength! Otherwise, they will have a hard time in the land of chaos!"

Since Cang Du had said so, Leng ruoxue, who had never been to the land of chaos and had no idea what the situation was like there, could only agree.

Two days later, Leng ruoxue and Cang arrived at the God Pagoda.

According to Cang, the land of chaos was closer from the God-protecting tower because there was a spatial tunnel that connected to the land of chaos. Of course, only Cang Cai knew the coordinates of the other end of the spatial tunnel. Moreover, Leng ruoxue would need to be escorted by him for her to pass through.

Leng ruoxue believed Cang's words 100%, and Cang was naturally very proud of himself. When they reached their base camp, Cang brought Leng ruoxue to the top of the God-protecting Pagoda.

It was also Leng ruoxue's first time at the God-protecting Pagoda at the top. Initially, she thought that this place was no different from where Cang usually stayed. However, when she actually arrived, she realized that this place was completely different from what she had imagined.

The spiritual energy at the top level of the God-protecting Pagoda was very dense. However, it was a pitch-black fog, and she couldn't even see her fingers in front of her. However, Leng ruoxue could feel that the spiritual energy here was a little brutal.

"Girl, the spiritual energy in the land of chaos is even more violent than here!" Cang, who knew Leng ruoxue's thoughts, laughed evilly.

"Uh! Will uncle long and the others be able to come out from there?" Leng ruoxue asked speechlessly. She was starting to regret bringing uncle long and the others along. If they were unable to withstand the violent spiritual energy in the land of chaos and got injured, she would feel guilty.

"There shouldn't be a problem with the divine Lord, but he can't stay for long. He could only look through the light screen. Actually, there's nothing much to see in the land of chaos. It's not even as good as my God-protecting Pagoda!" Cold truth said.

"Oh! Cang, when are we leaving?" Leng ruoxue nodded and asked.

"Now, girl, close your eyes." Azure ordered.

Leng ruoxue nodded. The moment she closed her eyes, she could clearly feel a flash of light before her eyes. She started to feel dizzy.

After an unknown period of time, Cang said to Leng ruoxue, ""Girl, open your eyes!"

When Leng ruoxue heard this, she immediately opened her eyes.

What came into view was a beautiful blue sky. Leng ruoxue was completely stunned by the beautiful scenery in front of her.

"What do you think?" when Azure saw this, he couldn't help but be proud. "The space tunnel I took you through is much stronger than that demonic man 's, right?"

"..." Leng ruoxue was speechless. Was there a need to compete in this?

However, not long after Cang finished speaking, the scene in front of Leng ruoxue changed again. This time, Cang was so depressed that he couldn't say anything. This was because it didn't have to be smug for long before the spatial passageway became exactly the same as when the demon had broken through the void!

Extreme Azure Qi! 'Damn it!' He really didn't give it any face.

Leng ruoxue couldn't help but laugh in her heart as she stroked the fur on Cang's body to comfort him.

"Cang, how much longer will it take to reach the land of chaos?" Sensing that Cang was still angry, Leng ruoxue could only change the topic.

"Within five minutes." Azure replied in a depressed manner.

Five minutes later, Leng ruoxue's vision turned even darker.

"Girl, we've arrived," Azure said.

Leng ruoxue stepped out of the space tunnel with Cang in her arms. She looked at the grey and blurry scene in front of her and felt conflicted.

There was no path in front of him, so where should he go?

In addition, the ground under her feet was soft, as if she was stepping on cotton.

Leng ruoxue lowered her head to look at Cang in her arms, her eyes pleading for help.

"Hehe, girl, just walk around. This is how it is. You'll get used to it." Cold laughed evilly.

"Alright then!" Leng ruoxue nodded. Since Cang Du had said so, she could only get used to it as soon as possible. However, the feeling of his feet not being able to touch the ground was really a little strange.

Chapter 2873 Guilty Conscience Of The Rules Of Heaven And Earth \(1\)

After walking for a while, Leng ruoxue finally got used to this head-heavy feeling. Then, with a thought, she moved uncle long and the others out.

When uncle long and the others came out, the first thing they felt was dizziness, and then they swayed violently. After they managed to keep their balance with great difficulty, they finally had time to look at everything in front of them.

Was this the land of chaos? It gave off a desolate feeling! Looking at the square inch of land in front of them, they were quite curious about how the materials here grew. Where did it grow?

After a round of searching, uncle long and the others couldn't find a place suitable for plants to grow. They couldn't find any stones that could be used to refine weapons either!

"Xue 'er, can you really find the materials you need here?" Uncle long asked with uncertainty.

"I should be able to! I just don't know where it is. " Leng ruoxue was also a little confused. She absolutely believed Qing Jue's words! However, she had no idea where the materials were.

"Girl, don't worry. The things you want are definitely here. However, this is the outer area of the land of chaos. You understand!" Hearing Leng ruoxue's words, Cang smiled.

"Alright! I understand. " Leng ruoxue nodded and led uncle long and the others in a random direction.

"Aiyo!" As they were walking, they suddenly heard a scream. Leng ruoxue quickly turned around and saw Liu Feng falling to the ground, half of his body covered by the thick fog.

"Are you alright?" Leng ruoxue hurriedly walked over and pulled Liu Feng up.

"I 'm, I'm fine. I just tripped." Liu Feng stood up in a sorry state, still holding a big gray stone in his hand.

"What is this?" Leng ruoxue asked curiously.

"I don't know. It's probably some kind of forging material that I don't recognize!" Liu Feng hugged the heavy Boulder like it was a treasure, unwilling to let go.

"Let me see." First elder walked over and said.

"If you won't let me see, go find it yourself." Liu Feng dodged, but still held the big stone he didn't recognize tightly.

Seeing this, Cang couldn't help but laugh and said, ""Alright, stop fighting. It's just an ordinary stone."

Puchi! Hearing this, everyone couldn't help but laugh wildly. Only Liu Feng's face was red. He angrily threw the stone on the ground and mumbled in a low voice, "Why are there ordinary stones here? It's unbelievable. "

"Why not? Do you think there are treasures everywhere? Let me tell you, stop dreaming. Other than the year-end fog and the brutal spiritual energy, the living environment here can't be compared to the divine realm at all." Azure smiled as he explained.

"Uh! No wonder there's no one here!" Liu Feng said as he suddenly realized.

Hearing this, Azure was somewhat speechless. He continued, "Those who can live here are not human."

"..." Everyone was silent. Was this considered an insult?

However, they also understood Cang's meaning. This was a place where special life forms were born, so it was naturally not a place where ordinary life forms could live. They had only stayed here for a short while, but they were already finding it difficult to breathe.

Then, everyone continued walking.

This time, even if Liu Feng encountered a rock, he wouldn't be so surprised. However, he didn't plan on letting go of any stones he encountered, but he would first ask Cang, and after getting a positive answer, he would decide whether to keep or leave those stones.

Just like that, the group continued on their way, searching for treasures along the way, and they really did find many materials that could be used for forging artifacts.

When they first saw the materials, the blacksmiths were extremely excited, but Cang doused them with cold water. This was because Cang had told them that they could not use the materials at all unless they had the chaos Divine flame.

Instantly, the weapon craftsmen wilted. Their initial excitement from coming to the land of chaos was doused by Cang, this bucket of cold water.

Anything related to chaos was too high-end and not something they could possess or bear!

Seeing that the weapon craftsmen had suffered such a huge blow, Shen nuo and the other alchemists were no longer confident. However, before they could ask the question in their hearts, Cang very calmly told them that they could not use the medicinal ingredients here either.

In an instant, the excited Alchemist and blacksmith teams suffered a huge blow. The two groups of fellow brothers huddled together and cried bitterly. Sob ... How could they be so cruel?

"Have you cried enough? Really, so what if he couldn't use it! I think it's worth it to come here." Uncle long couldn't take it anymore when he saw them crying.

"Yes, it's already a great opportunity to be able to come, so you guys don't have to be so greedy." Ice Spirit said helplessly.

"You guys don't understand the pain of alchemists and artifact Masters! Seeing the ingredients in front of you but not being able to use them is the most unbearable thing for pill Masters and artifact Masters." First elder raised his head and sobbed when he heard this.

"Then what do you guys think we should do? You don't have the chaos Divine flame." Ice Spirit couldn't help asking.

"Xue 'er, Xue' er, can you help us melt it? No matter what, you have to let us experience the materials of the land of chaos!" After hearing Ice Spirit's words, first elder turned to look at Leng ruoxue with anticipation.

"Alright," he said. Leng ruoxue nodded. She could tell that if she didn't agree, these few people would be in so much pain that they would wish they were dead! Al! Alchemists and blacksmiths! All of them were materials fanatics!

Seeing that Leng ruoxue had agreed, the few alchemists and weapon refiners immediately came to life as if they had been injected with chicken blood. Then, they began to search for the ingredients that could be used in detail like hardworking bees.

Seeing them like this, the people present could only feel helpless.

As they had searched too carefully along the way, they had yet to reach the center of the land of chaos even after walking for a long time.

In the end, Cang couldn't bear it anymore and shouted, ""Don't search here anymore, this is only the outer area, there are more good things inside. "With this, the armament Guild headquarters" great elder and the others gave up on the carpet search and reluctantly quickened their pace.

After walking for an unknown number of days, when Leng ruoxue and the rest felt that the spiritual energy had become more violent, Cang finally told them with certainty that they had arrived at the center of the land of chaos. The spiritual energy in the center was ten times more brutal than that in the outer regions. According to Cang's thinking, anyone below reverent-god level could do whatever they wanted!

After the great elder and the others understood Cang's meaning, they immediately cried, the depression in their hearts unable to be described.

Sob ... They had been tricked! He was even despised! They had clearly agreed that there would be more materials in the center, but now that they were here, they didn't want them to stay outside. Wasn't this bullying?

However, it was undeniable that the spiritual Qi here made the Grand Elder and the others feel a little uncomfortable.

Leng ruoxue did not know how to comfort first elder and the rest when she saw their regretful and worried faces. She could only follow Azure's instructions and send them back to the bracelet.

When they entered the bracelet, the first elder and the others could not help but cry out loud. Seeing this, Qing Jue could only comfort them, ""Al! You guys are too weak. "

Chapter 2874 A Guilty Conscience About The Rules Of Heaven And Earth \(2\)

Too weak? They were divine emperors! In the divine realm, a divine Emperor was an existence that was only second to reverent-god level. Why did green vessel say that his strength was too low? Sob ... Is this how you comfort others? This was like pouring salt on other people's wounds!

With this thought in mind, the first elder and the others from the craftsmen's Guild headquarters looked at Qing Jue resentfully and said, "Qing Jue, do you have a way to get us out? We just want to personally collect the materials!"

They could accept that they couldn't use the materials here, but they couldn't accept it if they couldn't do it in person! They had to go out and witness the birth of those materials with their own eyes!

"This ..." Qing Jue was in a difficult position. His sister had sent them in for their own good. He couldn't go against his sister's wishes, right?

"Qing Jue, you must have a way, right?" Seeing that Qing Jue seemed to have something to hide, the chief elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters quickly asked.

"If I was at my peak, it wouldn't be a problem to protect you outside. But now, I can only let you stay outside for an hour a day. After an hour, you still have to come in." Facing the great elder's expectant gaze, Qing Jue could not bear to lie to him, so he could only tell him the truth.

When first elder and the others heard this, they thought that an hour would do too! It's better than being locked up in the bracelet!

With Qing Jue's guarantee, the first elder and the others strongly requested Qing Jue to send them out. Qing Jue was helpless. He could only bid Leng ruoxue farewell before sending them out.

Faced with the first elder and the others who were so insistent on coming out to personally gather the materials, Leng ruoxue could only helplessly accept it.

Fortunately, the great elder and the others were more punctual and did not cry or make a fuss because of the short time.

Just like that, time passed day by day. Leng ruoxue and the rest slowly moved towards the central region. However, Leng ruoxue still did not discover any traces of the demon.

Initially, she had asked Qing Jue about it. However, Qing Jue's strength had not fully recovered yet and this was the land of chaos, so he could not probe too far away. When she asked Cang, Cang only told her that they would meet if fate brought them together.

Instantly, Leng ruoxue's temper was extinguished by Cang's words.

Alright! They would meet again if fate brought them together. It seemed like she could only wait patiently.

As they were approaching the center of the area, they discovered more and more materials. They had no choice but to slow down. Leng ruoxue was also hoping that the demon would find her first.

However, after an unknown period of time, the demon did not come. Instead, another uninvited guest came.

Looking at the dark purple ball of lightning that was throbbing violently, Leng ruoxue really wanted to know what it was. However, Cang only cared about looking at the other party and did not even bother to introduce it to her.

"Detestable! Who gave you the permission to break open the void?" After a long time, the crazily beating dark purple ball of lightning roared.

Facing the other party's anger, Azure only laughed, ""Who said I broke through the void? What a joke, I'm just going home. Do I need to break the void?"

"How could you come here if you didn't break the void? Azure, don't forget your identity. You can't leave the divine realm as you wish. " The Thunderbolt ball could not help but remind him.

"I didn't leave! It didn't even break the void! Don't tell me you've forgotten that my God-protecting tower is connected to this place? are you trying to stop me from going home?" Azure said calmly.

Ugh! The Thunderbolt ball was stunned. It had really forgotten. However, after seeing Leng ruoxue, the lightning ball couldn't help but shiver. It then roared, ""I can't stop you from going home, but why did you bring so many people to the chaotic world? This isn't a place where they can survive. You're harming them!"

"Don't talk to me about all this nonsense. If that evil man can bring people here, why can't I? Are you looking down on me? Why don't we have a fight?" Cang Qing raised her eyebrows and asked with a smile.

"Who wants to fight you! This isn't a place where you can fight as you please. " The Thunderbolt ball said angrily.

"Tsk, if you can't beat me, just say it. I won't laugh at you." After hearing this, Azure said disapprovingly.

"Who can't beat you? I said, you can't fight here!" The Thunderbolt ball said stubbornly.

"Alright! If you say we can't fight, then we can't fight. However, don't even think about stopping me from taking Niu and the others here!" Azure smiled evilly.

"This is not a tourist spot!" Cang's words made the lightning ball angry again. However, it still asked, ""When do you guys plan to leave?"

"I don't know. I'm here with Niu to collect materials. If there aren't enough materials, I definitely won't leave!" Azure replied with a smile.

"Then what materials are you lacking? I'll give them to you!" After thinking for a moment, the ball of lightning formed.

"It seems like they like to collect it by themselves." Azure said as he played with his furry little paws.

These words made the Thunderbolt ball burn with anger.

Your sister! If he liked to collect them by himself, did that mean he wouldn't leave for a while? This can't do! It already had quite a few uninvited guests, so it definitely could not allow Leng ruoxue and the rest to stay here. It could not let that demon know that Leng ruoxue was here, or it would be the one in trouble!

To be honest, it was not too afraid of the demon if it was on its own. However, if Leng ruoxue was added to the mix, it had to consider the serious consequences that the other party might bring. Because when it was facing Leng ruoxue, it would always feel a little guilty. And it was this trace of guilt that made it unable to act as self-righteously in front of Leng ruoxue as it did in front of the demonic man and Cang.

It was extremely anxious about the laws of heaven and earth that had transformed into a Thunderbolt ball in its heart. It couldn't understand why it was feeling guilty. It didn't do anything to let Leng ruoxue down. Everything was according to the rules. However, even if it thought so in its heart, when it saw Leng ruoxue, it couldn't help but feel its heart tremble.

It was a feeling similar to meeting a natural enemy. The laws of heaven and earth knew that they had no confidence in front of Leng ruoxue. Even though it did not know what was going on, it wanted to hide the moment it saw Leng ruoxue. It did not want her to meet the demon.

This was also the main reason why that demon had not noticed Leng ruoxue's arrival. It had blocked off the area within a hundred miles of Leng ruoxue.

And the laws of heaven and earth were simply unimaginable. If that demonic man found out what it had done, he would probably use the destruction of this place to threaten it. Hence, it really hoped that Leng ruoxue and the rest could leave as soon as possible. They must not let that demon find any clues! However, as they got closer and closer to the demon, the laws of heaven and earth became more and more uneasy. Otherwise, it would not have appeared at this time.

However, after it appeared, that detestable Cang refused to leave with the rest. Furthermore, Leng ruoxue was eyeing it like a tiger watching its prey. All of this caused the laws of heaven and earth to feel increasingly uneasy.

But could it force him out? If Cang Zhen were to cause a ruckus and alert that evil man, the consequences would be even more unimaginable!

Chapter 2875 A Guilty Conscience About The Rules Of Heaven And Earth \(3\)

Thinking of this, the lightning ball formed by the laws of the world couldn't help but release a deep sense of sorrow. In an instant, the atmosphere turned cold. Uncle long and the others watched from afar, not daring to take a step forward.

Life forms that could live in the land of chaos were definitely not simple! Uncle long and the others were quite tactful about this.

Al! In a high-level battle, they could just be onlookers.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue, who could not figure out the identity of the Thunderbolt ball, finally could not take it anymore and interrupted, "Cang, who is this guy?"

"It! Hehe! Girl, you guess!" Cang Ming knew that Leng ruoxue was very interested in the lightning ball's identity, but he deliberately kept her in suspense, making Leng ruoxue so angry that she gritted her teeth and deliberately said, "Could he be your brother?"

"You bastard! Who's its brother!" The two voices roared angrily in unison.

"Then Who are you?" Leng ruoxue squinted her beautiful eyes and asked calmly.

"I am the law of the world!" The laws of heaven and earth that he was not prepared for blurted out instinctively when Leng ruoxue asked him this question. The moment it said this, it deeply regretted it. It felt extremely uneasy and wanted to retreat, but Leng ruoxue did not give it the chance to do so.

It blocked the path of the laws of heaven and earth. Leng ruoxue confirmed with a cold voice, "You're a law of the world?"

"I, I ..." The regulations of the heaven and earth were somewhat at a loss for words. Could it say that it was not? Wu ... Faced with Leng ruoxue's oppressive aura and her body that was emitting a cold light, the guilty Heaven Earth Law slipped away.

"Is this really the law of heaven and earth? So this is what the laws of the heaven and earth look like?" At the same time, uncle long and the others didn't care about the other party's identity and surrounded him curiously.

It had to be said that they were disappointed to see the regulations of heaven and earth! In their minds, the laws of the world were the Supreme controllers of laws, and sometimes even the divine Lords and the dark Lords had to be restrained by them. However, the high-end laws of the world in their minds were actually just a small ball of lightning. This was something they really couldn't accept.

Disappointment! How disappointing!

A deep sense of disappointment lingered in the hearts of uncle long and the others, and they no longer looked at the laws of heaven and earth with respect. As for Leng ruoxue, she immediately stretched out her hand to grab the lightning ball. However, the heaven Earth Law nimbly dodged it.

"Uncle long, help me catch this guy. I'm going to take care of it!" Leng ruoxue said angrily to uncle long and the others.

Leng ruoxue, who had held a grudge against the laws of heaven and earth for a long time, would not let it go no matter what now that she had seen the laws of heaven and earth! Hmph! Since she dared to separate her from the evildoer, she had to be prepared to accept her revenge!

When uncle long and the rest heard Leng ruoxue's words, they immediately nodded their heads to express that they would definitely cooperate with her! However, after hearing their conversation, the regulations of the heaven and earth couldn't help but shiver and ask, "W-what are you guys doing? I'm the law of heaven and earth, so don't mess around, or I'll punish you!"

"Mm, let's punish him! I'd like to know what kind of punishment I'll receive for beating up the regulations of the heaven and earth!" Leng ruoxue laughed coldly as she approached the laws of heaven and earth.

The laws of the heaven and earth carefully and slowly retreated. Wu...How could he bully the laws of the heaven and earth like this! This woman, why wasn't she afraid of its threat? The laws of the heaven and earth were extremely abnormal! What a big pervert!

If it was anyone else who heard its threat, they would have been so scared that they wouldn't dare to make a move. However, this woman in front of it was still so aggressive that she didn't intend to let it go and even wanted it to punish her?

Your sister! There was no punishment for bullying the rules of the world!

As he thought of this, the laws of heaven and earth became even more sorrowful. Yes! Bullying the laws of the heaven and earth was simply a waste of time, and the laws of the heaven and earth had no way of taking revenge on them. Otherwise, it would also be punished by the laws.

It was not fair! It was too unfair! As the spokesperson of the laws, why didn't he have any personal safety? Protest! It wanted to protest! It demanded human rights! It demanded protection!

Unfortunately, no matter how much the heaven Earth Law protested in her heart, the laws did not move at all. Leng ruoxue, who had planned to use violence, was slowly approaching the heaven Earth Law.

The regulations of the heaven and earth were so frightened that their little hearts were trembling, and they kept shouting, "Stay away, all of you stay away from me!"

"Why are you running? Let's have a heart to heart talk. " Seeing that the laws of heaven and earth were running around like headless flies, Leng ruoxue began to coax them.

"I have nothing to talk to you about! Go away! I'm going home!" The laws of heaven and earth were enraged.

"Where's your home? I'll be the guest!" Leng ruoxue asked with a smile.

"Don't! My family doesn't welcome you. " The regulations of heaven and earth wanted to cry but had no tears. Why was this woman so difficult to deal with? He was the law of the world! The controller of the laws! Could it be that the other party was not afraid of it at all?

Why? What was this for?! The laws of heaven and earth howled in pain.

"Even if you don't welcome me, I still want to go!" Leng ruoxue said with a firm attitude.

"You, you Rascal!" The laws of the heaven and earth were furious. They had never seen such a thick-skinned woman! Was she still a woman?

"Whatever you say. Take me to your house for a chat, or I'll find a way to destroy this place!" Leng ruoxue also threatened.

Hearing this, the grief and indignation in the heart of the regulations of the heaven and earth increased by countless times! Was this what humans always said, "if you're not a family, don't join the same family"?

That damn evildoer threatened it by destroying this place, and now this woman in front of it actually used the same trick! The laws of heaven and earth were really infuriated! However, it really fell for this!

Wuwu ... If it wasn't for the fact that it was sure that the two of them had not met up so far, it would have thought that they had made up.

The heaven Earth Law was somewhat helpless. What should it do? He was really bringing Leng ruoxue home? If that was the case, wouldn't the evildoer be meeting her? No! This was absolutely not allowed!

The regulations of heaven and earth, which were extremely unwilling for the two of them to meet, remained silent for a long time. Leng ruoxue treated it as if it was deep in thought and did not disturb it.

At this time, Cang, who also didn't want Niu to see the devilish man so quickly, opened his mouth and said, "Girl, why go home with it! If you want to clean up, then do it here. There's really nothing to see in this guy's territory. "

"Yup! There's nothing to see in my home, so let's settle our grudges here. " Hearing Cang's words about the laws of heaven and earth, he immediately cooperated.

At this time, it didn't care about being afraid. The most important thing was to not let this violent man and woman who liked to threaten the rules of heaven and earth meet. Otherwise, its good days would come to an end.

However, Leng ruoxue wasn't that easy to fool. Seeing how the regulations of the heaven and earth refused to bring her home as a guest, she became suspicious.

Then, she smiled and said to the rules of heaven and earth, "It's fine if we don't go to your house. Please get my man here. I heard that he's here."

"..." Can I not look?

If he found that evildoer, these two people would definitely team up to bully him! Thinking of this outcome, the regulations of the heaven and earth shook their heads decisively. "I don't know where your man is."

"You really don't know?" Leng ruoxue examined the laws of heaven and earth suspiciously before shouting at the top of her lungs, "Freak! A monster! Where are you? I've been bullied!"

"....."

F * ck! Can you not be like this?

The regulations of the heaven and earth were so depressed that they wanted to scratch the wall. Leng ruoxue, on the other hand, was getting more and more excited. In fact, she didn't know if the evildoer could hear her call. However, seeing the way the regulations of heaven and earth were rejecting her, she felt that it was suspicious no matter how she thought about it, so she tried to shout.

As expected, the lightning ball's color darkened after hearing her calling out to the evildoer. Leng ruoxue thought that it was because it was so frightened that its expression changed. From this, she was sure that the evildoer was not far away.

Since she knew that the demon was not far from here, Leng ruoxue started to shout even louder. Seeing this, uncle long and the others also shouted the demon's name loudly. When they saw the rules of heaven and earth, they were so depressed that they wanted to bang their heads against the wall.

It's finished! It's finished! This place was so close to the demonic man's residence. Even if it tried to hide Leng ruoxue's aura, some of her voice would still be heard. After all, it didn't dare to completely hide from the entire chaotic world. Otherwise, the demonic man would have found out about it. Now, it couldn't hide it anymore. More importantly, Leng ruoxue had already started to scurry around, calling out for the evildoer from all directions.

The regulations of the heaven and earth were extremely vexed. It was likely that they had lost this time.

And the truth was just as the heaven Earth Law had thought. The demon who had been cultivating in his room suddenly opened his eyes as if he had heard Xue 'er's call.

However, at the beginning, he had only heard a sound and thought it was an illusion. After all, Xue 'er had been in seclusion and wouldn't come out so soon.

Thinking about this, the demon sighed helplessly. He really missed Xue 'er so much that he was hallucinating. However, just as he was about to close his eyes and continue his cultivation, Xue 'er's voice entered his ears again.

Although the sound was not loud, he heard it very clearly. It seemed to be very similar to his.

With a bitter smile, the demon knew that he was really hallucinating. How could Xue 'er be here? However, he heard uncle long and the others 'voices intermittently after that, which made him alert.

If he had only heard Xue 'er's voice, he might have missed her too much. However, he shouldn't have missed uncle long and the others to the point that he was hallucinating, right?

Thinking of this, the demon decided to contact mu li to ask about Xue 'er's situation.

However, he did not expect that he could not contact mu li.

He stood up with a whoosh. The evildoer had already realized that it might be a certain restless fellow who was up to no good.

Stepping out of the room, the demon directly flashed out of the palace and began to lock onto the position of the law of heaven and earth, but ... Why couldn't he find that guy?

Blocked me?

Chapter 2876 The Light Bulb Duo \(1\)

There was definitely something fishy about this!

The demon only needed to think for a moment before he guessed that there was something fishy going on. He thought he hadn't caused any trouble for little Tian, but little Tian had blocked him. He must have done something shameful!

With such a connection, the demon began to carefully search for little Tian's whereabouts. He believed that as long as he found little Tian, the truth would be clear.

At the same time, Leng ruoxue's voice was getting clearer and clearer. This made the search for the demon even more intense.

"Xue 'er, are you there?" The demon asked loudly as he searched.

Their voices entered the ears of the laws of the world at the same time, causing their hearts to tremble in fear.

Your sister! Was this the rhythm of the male and female leads meeting?

What about after they met?

Recently, it had fallen in love with idol dramas from another time and space and had often watched them secretly using its authority. It had developed according to its script. It deeply felt that the first thing the male and female protagonists would do when they met was to settle the score with it, the bad witch who had broken up the loving couple.

Sob ... What should I do?

If there was only one person's combat power, it could still bear it, but these two people ... They were definitely courting death!

No! He would rather die than let these two guys meet now. Although it could stop them for a while, it couldn't stop them forever. There would naturally be a chance to see these two guys in the future, but the future could be discussed in the future. For now, avoiding risks was the top priority!

The rules of heaven and earth had the rhythm of a turtle hiding its head. It did not care about what was in front of it and did not care about the future. It even felt that when the little human girl who was born with the chaotic divine body became a real master God, she might forget that it had once separated the two lovebirds. Therefore, at this moment, it did not want the two of them to meet.

It believed that time would wash away everything. But now, time was still too short! Therefore, it could only deceive itself and be a coward.

This was also because the heaven Earth Law did not understand Leng ruoxue at all. To Leng ruoxue, hatred was something she could never forget. It was only related to the morning and evening newspapers. From the very beginning, she had no intention of letting go of the laws of the heaven and earth. However, she wasn't sure how she should deal with the laws of heaven and earth. She was even more conflicted after seeing that her true body of the laws of the world was just a ball of lightning.

If the laws of the heaven and earth could transform into a human form, she would be able to give the other party a good beating. But now? Would it know pain after hitting this guy?

These thoughts kept on running through Leng ruoxue's mind, causing her to be at a loss for what to do. Hence, at this moment, she really needed the demon to give her some ideas. After all, they were both born in the land of chaos!

As for Cang?

Leng ruoxue truly felt that she should just forget about it! Based on the series of actions since she arrived at the land of chaos, no matter how slow Leng ruoxue's reaction was, she could tell that the other party would not let her meet the demon so easily! In some aspects, Cang he's goal was completely the same as the laws of the world.

Leng ruoxue was well aware of this! Cang, who was also aware of Leng ruoxue's thoughts, was extremely calm. In reality, it was also conflicted. Every time it saw that Niu was sad because of that devilish man, it couldn't wait to catch the devilish man and let him coax Niu. But now that the two of them really had the chance to meet, it was still a little unwilling in its heart.

But it couldn't stop Niu from coming here to find materials just because that devilish man was here! After all, cultivation was more important!

It was undeniable that the three of them were all conflicted. As for the demon who had been searching for the whereabouts of the laws of the heaven and earth, he was depressed.

After calling out for so long, the laws of heaven and earth didn't even respond. This was enough to prove that this guy was definitely doing something shameful! To be precise, it was something that he couldn't see!

After confirming this thought, the demon began to think about what method he could use to force out the laws of heaven and earth.

After all these years, the control of the laws of the heaven and earth over the chaotic world was definitely stronger than his. Thus, if the other party did not take the initiative to show himself, he really could not do anything about it. Especially when the other party had blocked him, the difficulty of finding the laws of the heaven and earth had increased greatly.

After thinking about it for a long time, there were only two ways to find the laws of the heaven and earth. One was to do an inch-by-inch search, but the weakness of this method was that it was slow! The chaotic world was almost boundless. If they used this method to search and that guy was deliberately hiding, it would take a long time to find him.

The second method was to directly destroy this place. At that time, the laws of heaven and earth would definitely appear to stop him. However, he was a little worried if he really used this method. If Xue 'er and the others really came here, wouldn't they be in trouble?

The demon was deeply worried!

He was in a difficult position!

In the end, out of consideration for the safety of Xue 'er and the others, he decided to carry out an inch-by-inch search! His decision was exactly what the laws of heaven and earth wanted.

The carpet search gave the heaven Earth Law the time to feel for the oil. Of course, no one knew about the idea of the laws of the heaven and earth. Leng ruoxue was in a stalemate with the laws of heaven and earth. On the other side, the demon had already started to search with his divine senses.

The demon searched from the periphery bit by bit, not letting go of any corner of the chaotic world. After searching for an unknown amount of time, he suddenly felt that his divine sense was being obstructed.

It seemed to be here.

"Little Tian! I know you're in there, get the hell out!" After the demon found the suspicious location, he said directly.

Hearing these words, the heaven Earth Law could not help but cower. However, it did not go out obediently. In front of Leng ruoxue, it even displayed a trace of calmness.

But in fact, it was thinking of a way to escape!

Seeing that the laws of heaven and earth didn't respond for a long time, the demon was enraged. He threatened,""Little Tian, if you don't come out now, I'm going to use violence!"

Your sister! You violent man! What else can you do other than using violence? After hearing the demon's threat, the regulations of heaven and earth could not help but curse in their hearts. However, in order not to let Leng ruoxue see anything, it remained calm and composed.

However, at this moment, a loud bang was heard by Leng ruoxue and the others. Instantly, the lightning ball formed by the laws of the heaven and earth dimmed.

F * ck! He's really going to use violence so soon? The heaven Earth Law didn't even need to think to know that it was that damn devilish man who attacked from the outside.

How detestable! Was he so impatient just to see his woman? Can't you even wait for such a short time? The regulations of the heaven and earth were furious. As a rule of heaven and earth, it had never experienced the feelings between a man and a woman. Naturally, it could not understand the demon's urgency and sneered at him!

It truly felt that this evildoer was a disgrace to chaos lifeforms! How could he do this for a woman? This kind of behavior was really not worth advocating!

Chapter 2877 The Light Bulb Duo \(2\)

Forbidden! It must definitely be banned!

The heaven Earth Law was roaring in his heart. The demon's attacks from the outside seemed fierce, but in reality, he was not ruthless. After all, Xue 'er might be inside, and he did not want to hurt her. As for the life and death of the heaven Earth Law, he could not be bothered!

However, the demon's attack, which was as loud as Thunder and as light as raindrops, sounded like thunder to Leng ruoxue and the others.

"There's also Thunder in the chaos World?" The curious uncle long finally couldn't help but ask. After asking, his gaze turned to Cang.

However, Azure acted as if he didn't see anything, only lowering his head and playing with his furry little paws.

Hmph! What did it have to do with Thunder?

Seeing that senior Azure was ignoring him, uncle long felt a little sad. He turned to look at the laws of the world, hoping that senior Azure would answer his question.

Who knew that the laws of heaven and earth would ignore him as well? they continued to jump up and down, as if they were brewing something.

Leng ruoxue could also tell that the laws of heaven and earth seemed to have other thoughts. She immediately set her eyes on the other party. Feeling Leng ruoxue's intense stare, the regulations of the heaven and earth roared in anger, ""Little girl, What are you looking at me for?"

"What, you're afraid to look?" Leng ruoxue teased with a smile.

"No, I'm not afraid!" The regulations of the heaven and earth said gloomily, but they couldn't help but wail in their hearts. Sob ... Don't look at it! Do not look at it! It was going to run! How was it supposed to run if he kept staring at it like that?

"Then I'll try my best to look." Leng ruoxue replied immediately after she finished explaining the laws of heaven and earth.

"....."

The laws of heaven and earth were silent.

Your sister! He still had to look hard? Are you going to take responsibility if you break it?

It was obvious that Leng ruoxue had no intention of taking responsibility even if she had a bad eye for the laws of heaven and earth. At the same time, the Thunder in their ears became louder and louder. Then, the demon's warning was once again transmitted into the hearts of the laws of heaven and earth.

"Xiao Tian, quickly remove the shield. Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude!" The demon was furious. This time, he was really going to make a move. Who asked little Tian to be so stubborn!

In the face of internal and external troubles, the rules of heaven and earth quickly weighed the pros and cons in its heart. In the end, it decided that it should run away as soon as possible!

The meeting of this violent man and woman seemed to be unstoppable!

With this thought in mind, the regulations of the heaven and earth first sized up the surroundings, then quietly moved back. Following that, it roared loudly, "Evil man, you bastard!"

Its feint had successfully attracted the attention of Leng ruoxue and the others. When they regained their senses and looked at the laws of heaven and earth, they could no longer see the shadow of the laws of heaven and earth.

At this moment, evildoer also realized that the shield in front of him seemed to have weakened a lot. Therefore, he effortlessly used the same amount of force to break the shield.

"Xue'er!" Looking at Leng ruoxue who was so close to him, the demon could not believe his eyes. At this moment, Leng ruoxue and the others were still searching for the whereabouts of the laws of heaven and earth. When they heard a familiar voice, everyone raised their heads.

"Freak!"

"Mistress of the Dark World!"

Everyone said in unison. Following that, Leng ruoxue pounced into the demon's arms like a young bird in the forest. The demon also hugged Leng ruoxue tightly, not letting go.

Uncle Long and the others held their breaths, not even daring to breathe. Only Cang was coldly snorting. Because Niu threw it into Uncle Long's arms after seeing this devilish man, it was quite angry, extremely angry!

Uncle Long, who was holding Cang, could clearly feel the bitter aura that Cang was constantly emitting. Instantly, he felt like he was holding a hot potato.

Originally, he wanted to persuade Cang that it wasn't easy for Xue 'er and the Dark Lord to meet, so he shouldn't throw a tantrum. But seeing Cang like this, he didn't dare to persuade him anymore!

If he opened his mouth, he would probably become senior Cang's punching bag!

Woo...So scary! Uncle long really wanted to leave Cang BuBaO behind, but he didn't dare to! So he could only silently bear the cold air on Cang's body and use his eyes to glare at those disloyal guys.

How detestable! After Dongfang Yue and the others felt senior Cang's anger, they all hid far away. Only he could not escape while holding Cang!

This is too unfair! Uncle long was a little indignant! In the next second, he walked toward Dongfang Yue and the others with Cang in his arms. Dongfang Yue and the others were so scared that they quickly dodged and kept warning uncle long with their eyes,'don't come over! Don't come any closer!"

However, uncle long didn't care about that. He carried Cang Zhuan and ran to a place with many people. Dongfang Yue and the others were so angry that their faces turned black.

When they were done, the crowd realized that Xue 'er and the demon had disappeared.

"Uh! Are we being abandoned?" Uncle long, who was carrying Cang, said with a worried expression.

"It's obvious!" Dongfang Yue said unhappily. If this guy hadn't been chasing them with Azure in his arms, they wouldn't have lost sight of Xue 'er! But now, they were abandoned in the wilderness, with no village in front and no shop behind!

Waah ... Dongfang Yue really wanted to cry! It's so dangerous here, how can you leave them here? It was obvious that Cang, the only one who could protect them, was not in a good state. Apart from continuously releasing cold air, Cang was not willing to do anything else.

What should he do?

Influenced by Dongfang Yue, everyone was heartbroken.

"You, you all, come with me!" Just as everyone was heartbroken, a voice that seemed to come from the heavens suddenly entered their ears.

It wasn't that the voice was beautiful, it was just that when they were at their most helpless, they heard someone say,"come with me." That feeling was absolutely incomparable!

However, when they looked up and saw that it was an unknown man who had spoken, they were immediately suspicious. Was the other party talking to them? A bad uncle who abduct his little friends?

There were too many bad people nowadays, so even a God shouldn't easily believe the words of a stranger! And don't leave with strangers! Who knows who you are!

The distrust on everyone's faces made the man quite worried.

Everyone, he's not a bad person! Why did she doubt him so much? However, suspicion was suspicion, especially in the land of chaos where there were very few living things. One had to know that senior Cang had said that those who could live here were not human!

At this moment, they didn't feel that senior Cang's words were offensive at all.

And without knowing the man's identity, they could forget about leaving with him!

"I'm not a bad person!" Seeing that uncle long and the others didn't say anything, but their thoughts were clearly written on their faces, the man could only helplessly say,"

Unfortunately, his words sounded like he was trying to hide something. Uncle long and the others didn't believe him.

"Are you even human?" uncle long asked directly.

This question ... Is so difficult to answer!

The man pondered. How should he answer to win the favor of uncle long and the others and trick them away? No, he wanted them to leave this place with him! Seeing that he didn't answer, uncle long and the others immediately understood.

Chapter 2878 The Light Bulb Duo \(3\)

The other party was not human! The appraisal was complete!

This time, it was even more impossible for uncle long and the others to go with him. If he was someone from the laws of the world, then wouldn't they become a tool for that fellow to threaten Xue 'er and the demon?

The man in deep thought naturally didn't know that uncle long and the others had already made up their minds not to go with him. He was even thinking about how to convince these people in front of him.

After thinking about it with great difficulty, uncle long said before the man could speak,""You're a liar! We won't go with you! So, you can give up on that idea!"

The man was depressed.

He hadn't even said anything yet, okay? How did the mission fail? The unwilling man tried to persuade uncle long and the others, but they wouldn't give him a chance. In the end, he was annoyed by the man, so everyone worked together and sent the man back to his hometown ...

Of course, they didn't know where the man's home was, but there was no doubt that the guy had been kicked away by them!

After that, everyone's ears were finally quiet. However, the sorrow that came with it made them feel depressed.

"Come with me!" Suddenly, uncle long and the others heard this and were immediately enraged.

Your sister! Are you done?

He raised his head and saw that it was another unfamiliar man who had spoken. This time, uncle long and the others didn't waste any time and were ready to attack.

The man's face immediately turned pale and he said in a trembling voice, ""You, what are you doing? I'm here on the orders of my master to pick you up, how can you treat me like this?"

The man who had spoken was unusually indignant. He had thought that this would be a good job to please the future netherworld Empress, but who knew that he would be beaten up the moment he said a single word. Wuwu ... This was too much of a bully!

"Which master?" Upon hearing this, uncle long and the others stopped what they were doing and asked cautiously.

"It's the Mistress of the Dark World that you guys are talking about! The Mistress of the Dark World asked me to come and pick you up. " The man who was afraid of being beaten up quickly said.

"You mean, you're someone sent by the Mistress of the Dark World?" Uncle long said warily.

"Of, of course!" The man nodded.

"What evidence do you have?" Uncle long continued to ask.

"This ... Do we still need evidence for this?" The man was dumbfounded.

"Of course I do! Otherwise, who would know who you are!" Uncle long said with a look of disdain.

"Uh! This is my token. " The man had no choice but to take out a black token and show it to uncle long and the others to confirm his identity.

However, after uncle long and the others looked around, they regretfully told the man that this could not prove his identity because they did not recognize the card he took out.

With that, the man was completely enraged. He finally knew that running errands was not an easy job! The key was that these people in front of him didn't believe his identity!

"I'm really sent by the Mistress of the Dark World to pick you up. " The man was still struggling, but uncle long and the others obviously wouldn't believe his one-sided words. He had to be on high alert in the land of chaos! Otherwise, there was a risk of being taken away by bad people at any time!

Especially since Azure didn't care, they could only save themselves for safety!

"Wait for me, I'll go back and get the evidence." In the end, the rather helpless man could only turn around and leave.

Not long after, the man returned. This time, old venomous snake was with him. Seeing old Viper, uncle long and the others burst into tears.

Sob ... Xue 'er had not forgotten about them!

"Master asked me to come and pick you up," old venomous snake said with a smile.

"Then what are we waiting for?" Uncle long quickly said. Then, without waiting for the man to say anything else, uncle long and the others obediently followed them and left.

This fact caused the man's grief and indignation to increase.

Sob ... Why didn't she believe his words and caused him to lose face in front of his friends?

The more the man thought about it, the sadder he became. His resentful eyes would occasionally linger on Uncle Long and the others. However, Uncle Long and the others ignored him and asked casually, "Apart from you, did the Mistress of the Dark World send anyone else to pick us up?"

"No, I'm the only one." The man couldn't help but feel flattered to hear the other party speak to him.

F*ck! That guy was a liar!

Uncle Long and the others cursed in their hearts when they heard this answer.

When the man led them to the demon's Palace, they looked at the tall buildings that didn't fit in with the desolate land of chaos. Uncle Long and the others were tempted. Should they also build a base here?

Of course, he had to get Xue'er's approval first.

However, when they entered the palace, they did not immediately see Xue'er. They could understand this. The young couple had not seen each other for a long time and were currently in the midst of their lovey-dovey moment. Of course, they would not invite their own rejections and disturb them.

However, Azure didn't care at all. He shouted from within the palace, "Damn demon, quickly return my Niu, Niu hasn't married you yet! Don't you dare take advantage of her!"

"..." Everyone who heard this fell silent.

However, Uncle Long and the others were calm, while the evildoer's subordinates were panicking.

The other party was causing trouble on their territory. Should they take down the cat?

But how could he take it down?

The subordinates of the nine nether nether prison had a headache. This cat didn't look like someone to be trifled with, and it didn't fear the majesty of its master at all! How were they supposed to attack?

Uncle Long saw the cat's struggle, so he pulled someone who looked like the leader aside and talked to him for a while. Suddenly, the leader showed a constipated expression and gave up on the idea of taking down the cat.

Boohoo ... My Lord, it's not that we've failed our duty, but we can't beat this cat!

From Uncle Long, the leader learned that this cat was also born in the land of chaos. As such, it must be an important figure that an old man could not afford to offend. Therefore, after weighing his duty and the strength of both sides, he decided to give up and let the cat go!

More importantly, Uncle Long had told him that even if he didn't capture the cat, his master wouldn't blame him. In Uncle Long's words, the cat and her master were natural enemies!

But aren't cats' greatest enemies supposed to be that? When did it become his master? The leader couldn't figure it out, so he stopped thinking about it.

Just as Uncle Dragon had said, her Lord didn't move at all after Cang's roar. To put it bluntly, her Lord had ignored the cat's provocation and didn't have time to deal with it.

Azure was even more furious at this result.

Cang flew into a rage and wanted to destroy all the buildings here to vent his anger!

Leng ruoxue, who was watching this scene through the light screen from the bangle, could not help but ask worriedly, "Azure is angry. Are we really not going out?"

"I'm not going out. If it wants to make a scene, it can. At most, I'll just build a new palace." The demon said disapprovingly.

"That's right, sister. We must not let that stupid cat's bad habits die down!" Qing Jue, who had suddenly appeared, also interrupted and echoed.

At times, he was very willing to join forces with the evildoer to bully that cat!

"Uh! Alright!" Even though Leng ruoxue couldn't bear it, it seemed like she had to obey the majority at this moment! More importantly, she and the evildoer had not seen each other for such a long time, and they did have a lot to talk about!

After that, the two of them entered the purple bamboo house. The light bulb Qing Jue wanted to follow them in but was refused entry.

Qing Jue was furious and glared at the door of the purple bamboo house. With a thought, he moved the dead cat he was talking about in. At the same time, Cang would also be a good helper to him!

One had to admit that Qing Jue was a fence-sitter!

Azure was still happily wandering around outside when it suddenly felt a familiar suction force. It immediately retracted its aura and was pulled into the bracelet by green vessel.

After taking a glance at Cang's strength, green vessel was very satisfied with its tactfulness and quick reaction.

"Do you know why I moved you here?" Then, Qing Jue asked with a smirk.

"I don't know," Cang pretended to be stupid, but in his heart he was thinking, this guy wouldn't be so kind to let me be a guest in this broken bracelet!

Hmph! Those who were unaccountably solicitous were either evil or thieves!

Cang became alert and decided that he would not let green vessel lead him by the nose.

Unfortunately, green vessel understood Cang's thoughts and said directly, "My sister and the demon are in the purple bamboo house. I've been refused entry, so I think we can join forces to break in. What do you think?"

"Aren't you the artifact Spirit of this place? Is there a place you can't go to?" Hearing green vessel's words, Azure couldn't help but mock.

"Your sister, it's not like you don't know that I haven't recovered my strength!" Qing Jue said angrily.

This guy, this guy is really too detestable! He knew that he couldn't be nice to it, or else this guy would definitely climb all over him!

"That's true. You're no match for that guy now. But you're too biased. That evil man is also at his peak. You dare to let him in, but don't allow me to come in often. Aren't you afraid that he will destroy your place? You must know that his destructive power is definitely not inferior to mine!" Cang nodded and complained.

"With big sister here, what am I afraid of?" Green vessel said matter-of-factly. The main point was that the demon had always been coming in and out of the bracelet, so the bracelet did not reject him. Therefore, even though he had recovered to his peak, the bracelet still believed that he had achieved it through his own cultivation.

However, Cang was different! This was also the reason why green vessel did not stop the demon from entering his territory. Of course, he couldn't let Azure know about this, or else he would say that he was racist!

When Cang heard Qing Jue's words, he snorted coldly and said, "How do you want me to cooperate with you?"

"With you as the main force, we'll kill our way in to protect big sister's innocence! Hehe! If the demon wants to confess his feelings to his sister, he has to go through us first, right? You must know that we're her family!" Qing Jue laughed smugly.

Hmph Hmph! He was definitely going to be the third wheel! Even if the sky collapsed, they could not stop him!

Chapter 2879 Devil, Be Honest \(1\)

"I'll be the main force? Stupid bracelet, you're not trying to use me, are you? I'm telling you, I'm not that easy to fool!" Hearing Qing Jue's words, Cang was on guard.

"Use you, my ass! This is called cooperation! Do you understand cooperation? You uncultured d * MN cat!" Qing Jue angrily replied.

"Since we're working together, why can't you be the main force? Don't forget, this is your territory. " Azure had a suspicious look on his face. He wasn't stupid and wouldn't let others use him for no reason!

"I want to be the main force, but can I beat that evildoer?" Qing Jue said angrily. Even though this was his territory, he really did not have the confidence to deal with the evil man here. Otherwise, he would not have brought this d * MN cat in to annoy him!

"That's true! Little RUO RUO, come and call me big brother. " Seeing that green vessel had finally admitted that he was weak, Azure was happy.

If he didn't bully this guy now, he wouldn't have the chance to do so when he recovered his strength! This was why Cang didn't want to let go of such a good opportunity.

"Your sister, my name is Qing Jue, not little RUO RUO." Green vessel roared in anger when he saw that chaos had given him a name.

"I know! 'Little RUO RUO' is a nickname I gave you because you're weak! Hahaha!" After Cang finished speaking, he laughed out loud, causing Qing Jue's small body to tremble in anger. The fire in his heart was also bursting out.

Endure! He had to endure! It was never too late for a gentleman to take revenge. Sooner or later, he would take care of this fellow! Qing Jue secretly swore and set a big goal for himself, which was to teach this damn cat a good lesson one day!

Then, he took a few deep breaths. "Silly cat, do you still want to work with me?"

"You bastard!" Time was tight, and the mission was heavy, but this d * MN cat still had the time to mess with him. This was really infuriating!

"Of course we'll cooperate!" Cang smiled. Since he had come in, he naturally couldn't return empty-handed, so he had to destroy it! Hehe! He must be dreaming if he thought that he could be intimate with Niu so easily!

After making up their minds, Cang and green vessel smiled as if they understood each other. The man and beast carefully headed toward the purple bamboo house.

He quietly moved to the door of the purple bamboo house and gave Cang a look. Cang understood and then showed his little claws, grabbing towards the door with a Swoosh.

Five long claw marks were left on the door, but it was still intact.

Seeing this scene, green vessel was filled with grief and indignation. He could not bear it anymore and roared, "You idiot, who told you to scratch? Now that you've scratched the door like this, the door still doesn't open!"

Qing Jue was filled with hatred! This door was made by the old master back then, and it definitely had commemorative significance. Now, there were five claw marks on it. Just thinking about it made him so angry.

However, facing green vessel's rage, Cang didn't take it to heart. "If the old doesn't go, the new won't come. It's just a door, what's the big deal!"

After saying this, Azure struck out with its claws. The door glowed with a blinding light. As its claws rose and fell, the originally intact door was finally destroyed.

"Look, it's done!" Cang GE said proudly.

As for Qing Jue, he looked at the door that was covered in claw marks on the ground and his heart bled. At this moment, he was very sure that this silly cat was doing this on purpose. Did she really think that she was a cat after transforming into a cat for a long time? That silly cat didn't need to scratch at all, and she wouldn't break the door and just knock it open, but now ...

Qing Jue wanted to cry but had no tears. He had definitely invited a cat into the house!

In an instant, he was filled with regret.

The sound of the door falling to the ground had also alerted Leng ruoxue and the demon inside the purple bamboo house. When the two of them came out and saw the dead door, they looked at each other. Leng ruoxue was helpless, but the demon was a little angry.

How detestable! Can't these two guys be a little more obedient? Did she have to cause trouble for him?

"Who did this?" The demon asked despite knowing the answer.

"It wasn't me," Azure replied with a smile.

"It wasn't me either." Seeing that Cang did not admit it, green vessel would not admit it either. Your sister! He had already miscalculated and naturally didn't intend to be Cang's scapegoat.

"You don't want to admit? Don't worry, just stretch out your hands and claws and compare them. " The demon was so angry that he laughed, but he still said with a straight face.

"On what basis?" Azure asked indifferently.

"Just because you're all suspects." The demon said matter-of-factly.

"You're also a suspect!" Azure replied with a smile.

"What suspicion do I have?" The demon asked curiously.

"You came out from inside, so it's possible that you opened the door, so you're suspicious." Azure analyzed with a serious face. In any case, it was determined to die.

"Xue 'er, did you see that? This is what it means to be a thief crying thief!" After hearing Cang's words, the evildoer turned to Leng ruoxue and said calmly.

"You bastard! You're the thief! Your whole family is a thief!" Before Leng ruoxue could react, Cang roared in anger.

"My family includes you!" The demon smiled faintly.

"Who said that? When did I become your family?" Azure was stunned and asked in confusion.

"Xue 'er is my woman, and you're her Beastie. Tell me, are you considered my family?" The demon asked with a smile.

"No, Niu hasn't married you yet! Don't try to get close to me!" Azure said unhappily. This guy was really too shameless, wanting to make connections just like this?

"That's only a matter of time. " The demon was full of confidence. His grandfather and the others had long acknowledged his status, so now he was only lacking a title.

"Who said that?" She raised her eyebrows, obviously trying to find fault.

"What, you still want to object?" The demon asked calmly.

"En, I want to object, Niu can not marry you." Azure said with a serious expression.

"It doesn't matter, I'll just marry her." The demon countered every move, not taking Cang's words seriously at all. That guy was nothing to be afraid of!

"You can't marry Niu either!" Cang Huo roared. This damn evil man was so shameless! Didn't you see that her family didn't agree?

"Then who can I marry?" Blinking his eyes, the demon shamelessly asked.

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but hold back her laughter. She truly felt that how could a demon be so cute? Hahaha! The evildoer who said this was really cute!

Leng ruoxue's eyes were brimming with tears as she looked at the evildoer. Sensing her gaze, the evildoer turned back to look at Xue 'er. In an instant, the entire space was filled with gentleness and sweetness, and no one could interfere between the two of them.

Cang, who also saw this scene, was furious. "You bastard!" These two scoundrels actually flirted with each other in front of him. They were really too detestable!

Cang was going crazy! He was even more displeased with the demon. In short, with it around, it would be a dream for the evildoer to successfully be together with Niu!

Chapter 2880 Devil, Be Honest!\(2\)

"You can marry whoever you want!" After a long time, the flustered and exasperated Cang Cai roared.

"I love to marry Xue 'er." The demon laughed in an extremely lecherous manner.

"Niu can 't!" Azure roared, so angry that all the fur on his body stood up.

"Give me a reason," The demon said in a good-tempered manner.

"You're already living with someone, what right do you have to marry Niu?" Cang had an idea and remembered what mu li had said before. He used it at the last minute.

"Who am I cohabiting with?" The demon was confused. This was definitely slander!

Sob ... Xue 'er, I've been wronged! He looked at Leng ruoxue pitifully, his devilish face full of grievances.

With Jing Cang's reminder, Leng ruoxue suddenly recalled that there was such a thing. She deliberately put on a serious expression and asked, "Evildoer, be honest!"

Although Leng ruoxue completely trusted the evildoer, it didn't seem too bad to be able to watch him suffer!

As expected, the moment Leng ruoxue said that, the demon was completely dumbfounded.

"You bastard!" Who was he cohabiting with? Why didn't he know about it?

"Xue 'er, this is a very serious matter, so we can't just talk about it, understand?" In particular, he couldn't be wronged! As the evildoer involved, he strongly demanded that his innocence be cleared.

Leng ruoxue, on the other hand, said with a look of righteousness, "I'm not talking nonsense. The witness said it himself!"

"Right! We have witnesses! You're unwilling to be lonely and cohabited with someone else, Hmph! You want to marry Xue 'er like this? You can dream on!" Seeing that Leng ruoxue was on his side, Cang tried his best to hit her when she was down.

"There's a witness who said that I'm cohabiting with someone? Who was the witness? I request to question the witness!" When a demon was angry, the consequences would be very serious. In his heart, he had already cut the witness who had wronged him into eight pieces.

"Hehe! The witness was mu li! He's your confidant, so you have nothing to say now!" With two evil laughs, Cang betrayed mu li without hesitation.

At the same time, mu li, who was in the divine realm, suddenly felt a chill all over his body, as if something terrifying was about to happen! However, he still didn't realize that his words had been maliciously twisted by Azure, and now he had been betrayed! And it was sold quite thoroughly!

Sure enough, Cang's provocation was quite successful. The evildoer was completely enraged and secretly complained, "what's your confidant?!" As expected, he was unreliable! Now, they all knew that they had wronged him.

After that, the demon suppressed his anger and asked, "What did he say?"

"You can ask him what he said! Why are you asking me?" Azure smiled and didn't intend to answer this question. It wasn't that stupid! If this damn monster in front of him knew what mu li said and explained it to him, he would have nothing to do with it!

Seeing that Cang refused to talk about it, the demon could only turn to Leng ruoxue and said pitifully, "Xue 'er, they've all wronged me. I'm not cohabiting with anyone."

This ...

Looking at the evildoer's aggrieved expression, Leng ruoxue did not know how to react.

Was it only by getting angry that she could reflect her feelings as the person involved? However, the current situation was that she was not angry! On the contrary, when she saw the little evildoer's aggrieved look, she felt quite loving! Even at this moment, Leng ruoxue had a wicked thought. In order to see this demon's little face, she must not reveal who her cohabitate was no matter what, even though she was very curious about who that Xiaotian was!

With such a thought in mind, Leng ruoxue fell silent.

When the demon saw that Leng ruoxue was silent, he thought that she was really angry. He was instantly flustered.

'Damn it!' Mu li, come out!

The demon called out to mu li in his heart, but unfortunately, mu li did not give him any response. Instantly, he felt that mu li was guilty.

How detestable! Mu li was indeed talking nonsense! But the point was, who was his cohabiting partner? This had to be clarified first! However, mu li didn't respond. The demon didn't know who to ask for a while.

Would uncle long and the others know? If she knew, would she tell him? The demon's mind turned quickly as he thought about who he could get all this information from. He didn't know why, but he felt that something was wrong.

He raised his head and looked at Xue 'er, but Xue 'er still didn't speak.

Seeing this, the demon was even more uncertain.

Wu.....Xue 'er, don't be like this! He had really been wronged! However, Leng ruoxue had no idea what the evildoer was thinking. She was still in high spirits as she watched the evildoer's bewilderment.

The more she looked at him, the more she felt that the evildoer's current appearance was cute. However, when she saw the evildoer's aggrieved expression that was on the verge of tears, she deeply felt that she was a little detestable. How could he have such a bad taste? But he couldn't control it! What to do?

Al! Sighing lightly, Leng ruoxue decided to leave first! Otherwise, the demon would be frightened to death. With that thought in mind, she turned around and walked back to the purple bamboo house.

In this way, it really frightened the demon.

"Xue 'er, don't go!" The demon's little heart trembled. He really felt that Xue 'er was angry! Sob ... What should I do? Damn it! It was all mu Li's injustice, and he couldn't defend himself!

More importantly, he had no idea what mu li was talking about! He wanted to chase Xue 'er back to her room! He was blocked by green vessel and Azure again.

"Niu's sad, you scum, don't disturb her!" Cang's face was filled with hatred as he said righteously.

D-scumbag? Was he talking about him?

The demon was a little dumbfounded. Which part of him was scum? He was clearly a good man, alright?

He was obedient and obedient to his wife! She knew how to act coquettishly, how to act cute, and how to take a beating! He never looked at other women, nor did he talk to strange women! Pure mind and body, devoted to love and so on, where could one find such a perfect man?

Thinking of these merits of his, even the evildoer almost fell in love with himself! But now, he was actually called a scumbag by a cat!

"You bastard!" Which part of him was scum!

The demon glared at Azure and roared, ""Silly cat, tell me clearly, how am I scum? If you don't explain it clearly, I won't let you off today!"

"You didn't want to be lonely and cohabited with someone else! That goes without saying!" Azure laughed and said proudly.

Ugh! The demon blinked his eyes and then roared, ""Your sister! I've been wronged!"

"Who cares if you're innocent or not! You're living with someone else anyway!" Azure laughed.

"So, you also want to wrong me?" The demon understood that cohabitation was the key. The silly cat in front of him didn't care whether he was wronged or not.

"Do I need to wrong you?" When Azure heard this, he grinned.

"I need it!" The demon was certain that this fellow had been trying to destroy his relationship with Xue 'er. So, once he got the chance, he would definitely bite on it and not let go!

Oh! This was a cat's habit!
