

Crazy Wife 2881

Chapter 2881 Devil, Be Honest \(3\)

"You're also maligning me!" Cold couldn't help but reveal an aggrieved expression when he heard evildoer's words.

"Stupid cat, I don't care what you say. Tell me, what did mu li tell you?" The demon continued to ask. If he didn't understand the whole story, he felt that no matter how he explained it, it would be a little unclear. That damn mu li didn't dare to respond to his call!

Hmph! This was definitely a sign of a guilty conscience! The demon convicted mu li.

As for the unlucky mu li, he had no idea what he was about to face because he was already in a terrible fix.

Looking at the dark purple ball of lightning that kept jumping in front of him, mu li had a rhythm that made him want to die.

F * ck! How did this guy come all the way to the divine realm? Didn't his Lord say that it didn't dare to come to the divine realm? And after he came, little Tian actually came to find him directly, which made him feel a little worried.

He really wanted to play dead! What to do?

Mu li, who felt that his good days were coming to an end, forced out an ugly smile and said unwillingly, "Little Tian, w-why are you here?"

"I missed you, so I came to see you." The sound of the laws of heaven and earth came from the lightning ball. At first glance, it sounded like the joy of not seeing an old friend sew again in many years, but in fact, the laws of heaven and earth were so nervous that their hearts were trembling.

It was afraid that the violent man and woman would find out that it had left the chaotic world. Otherwise, once they caught it, its good days would be gone forever!

Al! He had a home he couldn't go back to now! Therefore, it could only hide in the violent woman's territory. Anyway, that woman wouldn't be back for a while, and she wouldn't know that it was in her house!

Hehe! Didn't humans say that the most dangerous place was also the safest place? Today, it was here to verify the truth of this sentence, and what made it happy was that it actually saw its good friend here. This was a pleasant surprise for it!

Unfortunately, although it was happy to see mu li, mu li felt that a disaster was coming!

Sob ... He really wanted to go home! But now that he had been caught by Xiaotian, could he go back?

Especially now that she said she missed him and came to see him!

Could he tell her not to come and see him? He didn't dare to! He was not his master, so he did not dare to offend the rules of heaven and earth.

"Xiao Li, don't you miss me?" Seeing that mu li had not answered him for a long time, the heaven Earth Law could not help but ask.

"Yes, yes!" Mu li wanted to cry but had no tears.

At this time, Mingge, who had been watching their interaction, quietly poked mu li and asked in a low voice, ""Who is this?"

"It is the law of the world." Mu li explained.

Upon hearing this, Ming GE and the others 'mouths were agape in disbelief, and their eyes almost popped out of their sockets.

T-the laws of heaven and earth?

The legendary rules of land inheritance, the rules of heaven and earth that could decide their fate, looked like this?

Mingge and the others suddenly felt a little disappointed. How could the laws of heaven and earth be a ball? Wasn't this an image that didn't conform to the laws of heaven and earth?

However, since the other party was such an existence, he obviously couldn't offend him. Therefore, in the next second, as if he was half a master, Mingge enthusiastically said to the laws of heaven and earth, ""Your Excellency, rules of heaven and earth. Since you've come to visit the city Lord of muli city, please stay here for a few more days!"

As soon as he said that, Mingge felt a pair of sharp eyes shooting at him, which made him feel very confused.

"Yes, don't worry. I'll stay here for a few more days!" The regulations of heaven and earth were very happy to hear Ming GE's words. They also felt that this little guy had good eyes and knew its difficulties. Hehe! Of course, it would stay for a few more days. It had to stay until Leng ruoxue left the primal Chaos World! Otherwise, it wouldn't even dare to return home!

Al! Look at the way he was living! He was really so cowardly!

However, in the following days, the heaven Earth Law felt an unprecedented joy! Because Ming GE and the others, who didn't know the truth, respected it very much. Not only did they ask about its warmth, but after knowing that it liked to listen to stories, they also told it good stories every day. As time went by, the rules of heaven and earth felt more and more nourished. With Mingge and the others 'flattery, mu li was completely liberated. In this way, he would not hold a grudge against Ming GE for letting the laws of heaven and earth settle down! Who asked him to share the attention of the laws of the world with him? However, he still had to be on guard against the sudden appearance of the laws of heaven and earth from time to time. Thus, he still lived in fear.

However, the evildoer had always been in an abyss of suffering.

Xue 'er was ignoring him, and he wanted to see Xue' er but was blocked. This was simply driving him crazy!

"You bastard!" When would such days end?!

In the end, the evildoer could not take it anymore and finally decided to get green vessel to send him out.

When he heard this request, green vessel was 200% willing to fulfill it. After the demon went out, he had the idea of getting Azure out as well.

Cang saw through green vessel's thoughts and sneered, ""What, do you want to kill the cat after you're done?"

"Hey! It's good that you know!" Qing Jue didn't care that his thoughts were seen through by Cang and laughed very proudly.

"You broken bracelet, you'll get retribution if you do this, you know? Or do you not want to work with me in the future? I'm telling you, if you dare to send me out, I'll join hands with that demonic man!" Cang threatened.

Its threat made green vessel hesitate.

It was difficult to deal with one of these two guys. If they really joined forces, he would definitely be the one to suffer! With this thought in mind, the tactful green vessel had no choice but to give up the idea of killing the cat after it was done grinding and let it continue to stay in the bracelet and be an eyesore.

After the demon went out, his whole body was emitting cold air, which scared his subordinates so much that they didn't even dare to breathe. Uncle long and the others were also silent like cicadas in winter. If they could avoid the powerful weapon of the ten-thousand-year-old iceberg, they would try their best to avoid it. Otherwise, if they were frozen to death, they would have no place to cry.

However, they couldn't figure it out either. Didn't people say that absence makes the heart grow fonder? This pair of little lovers had not seen each other for so long, and it was the time for them to be deeply in love with each other, so why was the demon's reaction so fickle?

Uncle long and the others didn't understand, so they wanted to figure it out. However, none of them dared to stand out. After a careful discussion, everyone unanimously decided to let Ice Spirit take care of the dark mistress.

Ice Spirit was so depressed that her hair almost turned white.

What the hell is this? He wasn't familiar with that person, and they hadn't even spoken a word to this day, yet he directly asked him to inquire about such private information? This was definitely a trap!

However, Ice Spirit felt that it was time for him to do something for the little girl when he saw everyone's anticipation. So, he braced himself and went to find the demon.

The demon was in a bad mood, but he still welcomed ice soul. Ice soul and the demon sat down face to face, but she didn't know what to say.

"I've long heard of the dark master's name. It's my honor to meet you today!" After thinking for a long time, Ice Spirit finally decided on an opening remark.

The demon didn't say anything after hearing this. He waited for the rest.

Seeing that the other party did not respond and only kept releasing cold air, Ice Spirit obviously lost his confidence! This cold Qi was definitely not of the same family as his ice attribute. That ... Could he withdraw?

Ice Spirit broke out in a cold sweat under the pressure of the monster. He felt unprecedented pressure!

At this moment, the demon said indifferently, "If you have something to say, just say it!"

"Uh!" Can't you just tell me the truth? If he were to say it directly, would that be considered as prying into the mistress's privacy? Would he be killed by the Mistress of the Dark World in a fit of anger?

These thoughts flashed through ice soul's mind. After thinking about it, Ice Spirit decided to go all out! Therefore, at the next moment, he said without hesitation, "I want to ask on behalf of everyone, what's wrong with the Mistress of the Dark World and Xue 'er?"

We're very worried about you!

He was worried that his life would be in danger at any moment!

"One of my subordinates wrongly accused me of cohabiting with someone, so Xue 'er is angry with me." Miraculously, the evildoer was very cooperative and spoke of his troubles. In fact, he had long wanted to find someone to talk to, but he was a little embarrassed, so he had been annoyed until now.

"Uh! What kind of subordinate was this! How could he do such a thing? He's really too much!" Ice Spirit said angrily. He absolutely hated the betrayal of his subordinates. In addition, he was not present when mu li told him about this. Therefore, he did not know the truth. He could only stand on the side of the demon and fight against the traitor together.

Hearing his words, the demon felt even more wronged and asked tentatively, "Do you know what he said?"

"What?" Ice Spirit blinked her eyes in confusion when she heard the Mistress of the Dark World's question. Why did she ask him? Should he know?

"It seems like you haven't heard about it." Seeing Ice Spirit's reaction, the evil true form said.

"Mistress of the Dark World, not only have I not heard of it, but I also don't know the subordinate who said this!" Ice Spirit reminded.

"Mu li told me. He's been living in Demon City for several years." The demon said with an expression that said "you definitely know him."

"He said that? That's impossible, right?" Ice Spirit didn't believe that the Overlord would slander the Mistress of the Dark World.

"Al! I can't contact him now, and I can't confirm what he said. I thought you would know!" The demon was disappointed.

"I don't know about this, but uncle long and the others should have heard of it, right? Why don't I go ask them?" Ice Spirit wasn't stupid. He understood what the demon was implying, so he took the bait.

"Then I'll have to trouble you." The demon was naturally happy to see that the other party was so understanding. In fact, he had thought about asking uncle long and the others personally, but he was afraid that they would not dare to tell him the truth!

"It's no trouble at all. " Ice Spirit said with a smile and left.

After that, he went to find uncle long and the others. After everyone heard the whole story, they immediately sympathized with the evildoer. Uncle long even sighed, ""The Dark Lord's path of pursuing his wife is a long and arduous one!"

Chapter 2882 This Is What You Call Efficiency \(1\)

Everyone understood uncle Long's words, but Ice Spirit didn 't, so he could only look at everyone with a big question mark on his face and wait for answers.

However, after waiting for a long time, everyone was still immersed in their own thoughts. No one had considered the existence of a muddleheaded person like him. Finally, ice soul, who could not bear it any longer, pointed at the crowd and said, ""Who can tell me what's going on?"

If he made it clear, he could reply to the Mistress of the Dark World!

Ice Spirit was a little anxious. It was not a good job to be a peacemaker. These bad guys had pushed this task to him but did not give him enough information in case of emergencies. They were so irresponsible!

Ice Spirit was so angry that cold air was emitted from his body. Everyone was so scared that they could not help but move away to avoid being frozen by his sudden cold air.

After staying at a safe distance, they all winked at uncle long, asking him to explain to ice soul.

The helpless uncle long glared at the crowd and sighed. He said to Ice Spirit, ""Senior, this involves Xue 'er's Beastie and the master of The Dark World fighting for favor, so I can't explain it in a few words."

"It's okay. You can tell me slowly. I have all the time in the world." Ice Spirit said with a smile.

"Uh! Alright!" Uncle long had no choice but to report everything he knew to ice soul ...

Ice Spirit frowned and asked with uncertainty, ""According to what you're saying, the Mistress of the Dark World's love life is bound to be filled with disasters?"

"You can say that Xue 'er's beasts love to fight for her favor. In their hearts, Mistress Dark is definitely their biggest enemy. So, it's fine when there's a big problem. Everyone is busy fighting against the outside world and they don't have the time to bully Mistress Dark. But during peaceful times, the beasts will definitely not let Mistress Dark take advantage of Xue' er so easily!" Uncle long explained.

"Yup! This is also because most of Xue 'er's beasts are in closed door cultivation, otherwise it would be even more lively. " After uncle long finished speaking, the great elder of the craftsmen's Guild also added.

"Uh! Why do these beasts even care about their master's personal affairs?" Ice Spirit was speechless. Wasn't he being too nosy?

"Why not? In the hearts of the beasts, their master was their private property. How could they let others take advantage of them? Ah! It's only because the Mistress of the Dark World's strength is unpredictable that those beasts more or less know how to restrain themselves. If it were anyone else, I'm afraid they would be bullied until not even their bones are left. " The first blacksmith elder sighed.

"Poor Mistress of the Dark World, why is it so difficult to get a wife?" Ice Spirit also sympathized with them. In their Qilin clan, as long as the Qilin clan liked each other, their parents would not care. So when he first heard that a beast wanted to care about its master's relationship, he found it unbelievable.

"Ah! Who said it wasn't! However, most of the beasts were still fine, the most difficult one was probably Cang. I originally thought that Xue'er's act of being separated by the laws of heaven and earth had already made senior Cang realize the importance of the dark mistress to Xue'er. Unfortunately, even though he realized it, he still stirred up trouble. " Uncle long said helplessly.

"There's also Qing Jue. That little fellow isn't content with his lot either. " The first elder of the blacksmiths continued.

"Ah!" Ice Spirit sighed and asked, "Then what's the situation with the rumor that the Mistress of the Dark World is living with someone else? Did the city Lord of Muli City really say that?"

"Cough cough!" Uncle long coughed twice and said with a troubled expression, "Senior Azure warned us not to speak of this matter." In other words, he didn't want the Dark Lord to know.

"It's fine to tell me. " Ice Spirit said.

"Then you can't tell the Dark Lord!" Uncle long looked around vigilantly and whispered.

"Don't worry, I promise I won't tell him!" Ice Spirit said seriously. At the same time, he couldn't help but think that it was none of his business if the other party had heard it.

Ice Spirit believed that the Mistress of the Dark World might be eavesdropping on their conversation.

It turned out that the ice Spirit was the truth.

The demon was really eavesdropping. It was mainly because he was too eager to know the answer. When he heard from Uncle Long that he was not allowed to tell him, the demon couldn't help but think that it was a close call. Fortunately, he didn't foolishly ask himself. Otherwise, he was afraid that he would have to use violence to get the answer he wanted.

After that, the demon pricked up his ears and listened carefully.

At this moment, Uncle Long also waved at Bing Po. Bing Po also extended her head and whispered to Uncle Long. After that, Bing Po was shocked and said in disbelief, "The city Lord of Muli City only said that Mistress Dark and little Tian have been living in the chaotic world for a few years. He didn't say anything about cohabiting?"

"I really don't. However, it's a big problem to live there for a few years!" Uncle long said carefully.

"Uh! What do we do now?" Ice Spirit thought about it and agreed. Especially when someone with ulterior motives deliberately played dirty tricks on him, he was afraid that even if nothing happened, he could still cause some trouble. Now, he sympathized with the evildoer even more.

"Cold mix!" Just as uncle long was about to reply, an angry voice suddenly interrupted. Everyone's heart trembled when they heard this.

Then, everyone saw the great Mistress of the Dark World appear in front of them like a gust of wind, her face dark.

Uncle long and the others looked at the infuriated evildoer and immediately became as obedient as primary school students. They all looked at the Mistress of the Dark World with silly smiles on their faces.

That ... They didn't say anything! It was the Mistress of the Dark World who heard it!

Everyone shirked all responsibility in their hearts, but the demon didn't pay them any attention. He directly shouted into the void, ""Cang, you d * MN cat, get out here!"

"Xue 'er, I'm innocent! Don't you believe that d * MN cat!"

The demon shouted a few times, but no one responded.

At the same time, Leng ruoxue, who was in the purple bamboo house, felt that she had heard the demon's voice and walked out of the house.

As soon as she came out, Cang and Qing Jue wrapped themselves around her, hugging her legs and hugging her in their arms. Upon seeing this, Leng ruoxue could only carry the two little fellows and said, ""The demon seems to be calling me."

"No, I didn 't! Girl, you've heard wrong. " Cang immediately said, and then gave Qing Jue a warning look.

Qing Jue shuddered and nodded, "Sister, you really misheard."

Wu ... Qing Jue was so sad, a single misstep would cause eternal hatred! He had mistakenly entered this cat's pirate ship and couldn't get out no matter what.

"It doesn't matter. We'll know once we go out and take a look." Leng ruoxue said with a smile. Don't think that she didn't know what these two little fellows were up to. She just didn't want to expose them.

Moreover, she felt that she should also go out. Otherwise, the demon outside would be even more restless.

Leng ruoxue felt a little guilty because of her own bad taste. However, she still had to clarify the matter of them living together. Besides, she also wanted to know who Xiaotian was.

Chapter 2883 This Is What You Call Efficiency \(2\)

This person could actually stay with the demon in the land of chaos. The relationship between the two must be extraordinary! Perhaps she really was his potential love rival!

Although she believed that the evildoer would not betray her, in these days, the firepower of a mistress was quite powerful, so she had to be careful. The best way was to strangle San in the cradle, so that she didn't dare to have any thoughts!

With this thought in mind, Leng ruoxue consoled green vessel for a while before leaving the bracelet with Azure in her arms.

The moment the demon saw Leng ruoxue, he immediately pounced forward to hug her. However, he was blocked by Leng ruoxue's hand.

"Xue 'er ..." Seeing how Leng ruoxue was treating him, the demon was heartbroken.

"Let's make things clear." Leng ruoxue said calmly.

"Xue 'er, I'm innocent." The demon said hurriedly. When uncle long and the others heard his words, they were hesitating whether they should retreat immediately. Otherwise, it would be bad if they saw something they shouldn't see when there was domestic violence.

To put it bluntly, uncle long and the others were terrified! The firepower of the three in front of them was too strong for them to withstand. If they stayed here, they might be turned into cannon fodder at any time, so retreating was the safest choice.

However, as they wanted to retreat, they couldn't help but want to enjoy the gossip ...

He was conflicted! He was extremely conflicted! He was extremely conflicted!

Just as he was hesitating whether to leave or not, Leng ruoxue asked, ""Who wronged you?"

"That's right, who wronged you?" Azure also laughed evilly. Hehe! This demonic man would never be able to clear his name no matter where he jumped!

Cohabitation is cohabitation, what's the point of quibbling! With it around, there was no need to explain!

"This d * MN cat!" The Furious demon pointed at Cang and shouted.

"How did it wrong you?" Leng ruoxue put on an extremely serious expression and asked in confusion.

"Right, how did I wrong you? Evil man, don't slander me, or I'll Sue you!" Azure furiously waved its furry little claws.

"You're slandering me for cohabiting with someone, and you still won't admit it?" Cold's argument was within evil's expectations. So, he calmly pointed out this fact that everyone already knew, but his heart was about to explode.

"Don't tell me you're not cohabiting with anyone? This is what your mu li city Lord said personally. That guy is your trusted aide, right? Did he betray you?" Azure laughed as he spoke with reason.

"He didn't betray me, but what he said and what you understand are definitely not the same." The demon explained.

"Oh, really? But he said that you've been living here with someone for a few years. Isn't living here for a few years considered cohabitation?" Azure asked with a smile.

"Of course not!" The evil fire roared and then looked at Leng ruoxue, "Xue 'er, don't listen to their nonsense. Although Xiaotian and I have been living here for a few years, we are definitely not cohabiting."

"Who's little Tian?" Leng ruoxue asked calmly.

"Little Tian is the law of heaven and earth!" The demon replied in a daze. He couldn't help but think to himself, didn't he say that?

The evildoer, who was angered by Cang, suddenly remembered that he didn't explain the identity of the legendary cohabiting partner. This was really not right?

Miscalculated! It was really a mistake!

If he had told Xue 'er about little Tian's identity earlier, Xue 'er would definitely not have misunderstood!

Demon's thought process was perfect. He thought that once Xue 'er found out about little Tian's identity, she would understand that Cang had wrongly accused him. However, he did not expect that Leng ruoxue would not only not be at ease when she heard that the rule of the heaven and earth was little Tian, but she even frowned.

This gave the evildoer an ominous feeling.

This wasn't right! It shouldn't be like this!

Just as the demon was about to say something to explain, Leng ruoxue said, ""No wonder it's trying to stop us from meeting!"

"....."

What! What was the meaning of this?

The demon was dumbfounded.

Uncle long and the others were also dumbfounded.

Could it be that women liked to let their thoughts run wild? Uncle long and the others would never think that this monster had any ideas about the rules of heaven and earth, but whether the rules of heaven and earth had any ideas about the Dark Lord, they would not know. So in fact, they had some doubts.

Their eyes involuntarily drifted to the evildoer. Everyone could not help but sigh. The Mistress of the Dark World was truly a rare, one-of-a-kind, peerless beauty! No wonder even the laws of the world were tempted.

It had to be said that the plot in everyone's minds was powerful! However, the demon was extremely depressed. He could clearly feel that the way uncle long and the others looked at him had changed from sympathy to inquiry! It was as if he had really done something shameful.

"Xue 'er, it's stopping us from meeting. It definitely doesn't have any thoughts about me. Believe me!" Seeing this, the demon could only explain.

"Tsk! Who would believe this! It's good to deceive silly boys!" Cang replied without waiting for Leng ruoxue's reply. Instantly, the demon was angered.

"You shut up!" The evil fire roared. Cang's debt would be settled later, but now he had to clear his own name.

"Girl, look at him, he's angry from embarrassment, right? These are all signs that I've predicted correctly. " Cold smiled evilly and ignored evildoer's words as he continued to provoke him.

The demon was extremely angry. Although he wanted to cut Cang da University into eight pieces, he did not want Xue 'er to think that he was killing a cat to silence her. Hence, after taking a few deep breaths, he suppressed the burning anger in his heart and said to Leng ruoxue pitifully, "Xue 'er, don't you believe me?"

"The laws of heaven and earth are female?" Leng ruoxue gave an irrelevant answer.

"Uh! That guy doesn't have a gender. " The evildoer was stunned for a moment before he replied truthfully.

"Can be male or female? This is even more difficult to handle. " Leng ruoxue seemed to be talking to herself.

"Xue 'er, what are you saying!" The demon didn't understand, his handsome face was full of question marks.

"I said it's too dangerous to be a man or a woman." Leng ruoxue said with a serious expression. Then, she suddenly reached out and touched the evildoer's face, taking advantage of him. She asked, "Tell me, did it take advantage of you?"

"No, definitely not!" Hearing this, the evildoer quickly raised his hand and promised. However, he could not understand what Xue 'er was thinking. Did she trust him? You still don't believe me?

The demon was quite uncertain. He truly felt that after not seeing her for a few years, Xue 'er seemed to have become a little hard to grasp.

"Not even a little bit?" Leng ruoxue confirmed.

"It really didn't. It likes mu li." In order to clear his name, the demon did not hesitate to betray his own subordinates.

When they suddenly heard gossip again, uncle long and the others couldn't help but widen their eyes and drop their jaws.

Was this a love affair?

This was big news! However, since the laws of heaven and earth liked mu li, why did he go to the immortal realm? This didn't seem like the attitude of a winner!

Chapter 2884 This Is What You Call Efficiency \(3\)

Uncle long and the others' imaginations were already so strong that they couldn't be any stronger. Fortunately, the demon didn't know how to read minds, and mu li wasn't there. Otherwise, these two would be depressed to death.

Leng ruoxue was also rather surprised by the demon's words. However, she then asked suspiciously, "Then why don't you fulfill their wish?"

"....."

The demon was helpless. The regulations of heaven and earth were not human, so how could they help? Moreover, when mu li saw the rules of the heaven and earth, he was like a mouse seeing a cat. He absolutely had no love for the rules of the heaven and earth. He couldn't just drive the duck to the frame, right?

"Mu li is not interested in little Tian." Sighing lightly, the evildoer satisfied everyone's gossiping spirit.

So that was how it was! From the looks of it, this was the one-sided wish of the laws of the world! However, he couldn't encourage the idea that he didn't want others to get love just because he didn't have a suitable relationship! Uncle long and the others continued to imagine and felt sympathy for the demon.

As for the evildoer, he could feel that the way uncle long and the others looked at him had changed once again. This time, he had no strength to complain, nor did he want to find out why their gazes had changed. He only wanted Xue 'er to quickly understand that she had been wronged!

In reality, how could Leng ruoxue not understand that the evildoer was wrongly accused? But when she thought about how the laws of heaven and earth had not only sent the evildoer back to the nine nether prison, but also prevented them from meeting even when she had arrived in the land of chaos, she was filled with anger!

"Where are the laws of the world hiding? I'm going to teach it a lesson!" After a long time, Leng ruoxue finally spoke angrily.

"Let's go find it together! In fact, I've lived here for so many years just to make things difficult for it." Seeing that Xue 'er was no longer angry, the demon quickly explained.

"Eh? Why didn't you say so before?" Leng ruoxue rebuked.

"What I want to say is, if there's a chance!" The demon felt wronged. He then looked at Xue 'er and said carefully, "Xue 'er, you believe me, right?"

"Did I say I don't believe you?" Blinking her eyes, Leng ruoxue laughed evilly.

"Uh!" The demon was depressed again. Could it be that he had imagined Xue 'er getting angry? Xue 'er was not angry at all?

This fact made the demon rather worried, because he suddenly realized that after not seeing her for a few years, Xue 'er seemed to have learned bad things!

Wu ... And his pure, beautiful, and cute Xue 'er!

After being depressed for a while, the evildoer looked at Leng ruoxue with hidden bitterness and said coyly, ""Xue 'er, you've misunderstood me. You have to make it up to me!"

"Compensate you my ass, girl, are you forgiving him so quickly? I'm so disappointed!" Cang rushed to say, and even looked at Leng ruoxue with disappointment and sadness in his big watery eyes.

Leng ruoxue touched Cang Rou's soft fur helplessly and sighed in her heart. Let's stop while we're ahead! Don't be angry with this freak anymore.

Her heart ached when she saw the demon looking a little Haggard!

Sensing Leng ruoxue's thoughts, Cang kept quiet. However, he decided to be the third wheel to the end. He definitely couldn't let this damn evildoer get his way with Niu's soft tofu. Hmph!

Seeing that Cang had stopped, Leng ruoxue pulled the demon over and said, "Let's go find the laws of heaven and earth to settle the score!"

"Yes, but Xue 'er, shouldn't you compensate me for my mental loss before you settle the score with it?" The demon reminded.

"You've already lived with the laws of the world for so long, who can I go to to compensate for my mental damage?" Leng ruoxue asked with a smile after hearing the demon's words.

Instantly, the demon choked. After a long time, he said aggrievedly, ""I'm innocent. "

"But I heard from Qing Jue that you have prepared a room for the regulations of the heaven and earth? It seems that you two are getting along well? By the way, didn't you just say that you wanted to cause trouble for the laws of heaven and earth?" Leng ruoxue smiled like a flower as she continued to ask.

"..." The evildoer felt that he was in a tragic situation. This was all because he wanted to take advantage of her!

Sob ... He only wanted a little compensation and to take advantage of her. Why did she have to treat him like this?

That's right, he did collect rent!

At the thought of this, the demon quickly took out a storage ring and said, ""Xue 'er, it's just a tenant here. I'm collecting rent! I've collected a lot, you'll be satisfied!"

Leng ruoxue took the ring and glanced at it. Oh! There were some medicinal herbs and ores that she didn't quite recognize, but they were really what she needed.

However, she did not immediately express her opinion after reading it. This time, the demon was nervous again.

"Xue 'er, you're a bastard who doesn't earn money, right? Of course, I wouldn't reject something that was delivered to my door, so I gave it a room and let it live here. But there is absolutely nothing between me and it. It likes mu li!" The demon once again used the poor mu li as a shield.

When Leng ruoxue heard him say this, she felt a little sympathetic towards mu li.

What kind of Lord is this! In order to clear his own name, he used his subordinates as cannon fodder!

"Xue 'er, you should give a reaction!" Seeing that Leng ruoxue didn't say anything, the devilish little heart started to tremble again.

"You have permanent residence rights with this little rent? You really don't know how to do business. " Leng ruoxue said with a straight face on purpose.

"Too little? Don't worry, when we catch it, we'll exploit it together!" The demon promised.

"That's a good idea, let's go find it now!" Leng ruoxue could not wait any longer.

"Yes." The evildoer was well-behaved now and did not dare to mention compensation for the time being. Otherwise, he would definitely be the one in trouble!

As they watched the two of them disappear, uncle long and the others wanted to ask, can't you bring them along? However, after considering the consequences, everyone gave up on that idea.

Al! In this day and age, it was obviously better to avoid trouble!

However, even if they had said so, the demon had no intention of bringing them along! He couldn't wait to have some alone time with Xue 'er! How could he bring so many light bulbs with him!

As he thought about the two of them alone, he happened to see the little white cat in Xue 'er's arms. The evil demon was depressed for a moment, and in the end, he decided to ignore Cang's existence.

After searching the chaotic world for a long time with Xue 'er, the two of them found nothing.

"Xue 'er, that guy must have slipped away." The demon said regretfully. If he didn't grasp the regulations of heaven and earth, he probably wouldn't be able to get any tender tofu!

"What's wrong? Wasn't this its home? Where can it escape to?" Leng ruoxue was a little surprised.

"I don't know where it is! In reality, the laws of the heaven and earth can go anywhere and stay anywhere, so it's quite difficult to find it. " The demon explained.

"In that case, I can only let it go for now?" Leng ruoxue was unwilling to accept this.

"Xue 'er, don't worry. It will appear sooner or later. As the saying goes, the monk can run, but the temple can't run. Although the rules of heaven and earth can be used everywhere as its home, it still likes this place the most. Therefore, it will definitely come back!" The demon said with certainty.

"Yes, if it doesn't come back, I'll occupy this place so that it can't go home and wander around!" Leng ruoxue said hatefully.

"Hahaha! I think so too. Why don't we just destroy this place?" The demon still had this thought and suggested.

"Uh! Destroy this place?" Leng ruoxue thought to herself, 'could this be considered telepathy? Of course, she was only thinking about it and did not really plan to destroy this place. After all, this was the birthplace of her master, the demon, green vessel, and Azure. If it was really destroyed, she would feel very regretful.

"I've thought about it too, but I was just trying to scare the rules of the world. " After some thought, Leng ruoxue replied honestly.

"I'm not trying to scare it! When it didn't want me to build a Palace here, I had this idea, but it gave up after it compromised!" The demon said honestly.

Leng ruoxue was speechless when she heard the demon's words.

Alright! The Mistress of the Dark World was indeed the Mistress of the Dark World. She was truly not afraid of anything! However, she could not do that. After all, she had not reached that stage yet! Moreover, she felt that since the regulations of heaven and earth were scared away by them, they probably didn't want to have a conflict with them. Otherwise, there was no need for them to run away from home.

Unfortunately, even though the heaven Earth Law had run away from its home to hide, it could not reduce Leng ruoxue's resentment towards it. Thus, the heaven Earth Law that was taking refuge in the God World felt a chill in its heart for no reason and could not stop sneezing!

Seeing it like this, Ming GE almost thought that the laws of heaven and earth were sick. However, the laws of heaven and earth were well aware that this was definitely the curse of the violent man and woman!

Wuu ... It had already come out to hide, and you still don't plan on letting it go?

It had to be said that the heaven Earth Law had instantly changed into a truth Emperor!

Even though Leng ruoxue couldn't find it now, she brought uncle long and the others to start a huge construction in the chaotic world. In just a few days, many small wooden buildings were built.

Although the small buildings only had three floors, they were built side by side and occupied the entire land of chaos ...

The speed at which Leng ruoxue and the rest were building the buildings made the guards and city Lords of the netherworld prison drop their jaws.

Back then, they had spent a lot of effort to lay the foundation so that the master of The Dark World's Palace could stand on the land of the chaotic world. But now, looking at these exquisite little buildings next to each other, the demon's subordinates instantly felt inferior and wanted to find a hole to hide in.

The difference was so great that words could not describe it.

Uncle long, who didn't know what they were feeling, looked at the building in front of him and couldn't help but praise himself, ""This is what I call efficiency!"

"That's right. I thought it would be hard to build houses in the land of chaos, but I realized it was actually quite easy!" The great elder of the craftsmen's Guild also interjected with a smile. He didn't care that the people from the nine nether nether prison wanted to bury themselves in the dust!

This hatred was so obvious!

However, the armament Guild headquarters 'great elder didn't realize this at all. It wasn't until he felt countless cold daggers in his eyes that he realized that something wasn't right!

Turning his head, the great elder looked at the people of netherworld prison who were staring at him with a puzzled face, and asked dumbly, ""What's wrong? Can't bear to see us leave? It doesn't matter, our residences are so close! I'll be going to your place often in the future!"

Who wants you to come and hang out!

The black-clothed men from the netherworld prison glared at the great elder of the craftsmen's Guild. Then, they turned around and ran away with tears in their eyes ...

Chapter 2885 Cang's Small Revenge \(1\)

Watching their backs, the armament Guild headquarters 'Grand Elder was dumbfounded. What was going on? He didn't say anything! Why are they all leaving?

Before he left, the other party's resentful eyes made the chief elder of the craftsmen's Guild feel guilty, but he really didn't do anything?

The great elder was confused, and so were the others. They all turned to look at the demon, and his face turned red.

"What are you looking at me for?" The demon couldn't take it anymore and roared.

"Uh! "Master dark, your subordinates seem to be ..." Ice Spirit hesitated. He wanted to find a more harmonious word to describe the situation, but before he could think of anything, he was interrupted by the angry demon.

"Don't worry about them. It's just an intermittent ventilation!" The demon said unhappily. These brats only knew how to embarrass him.

The demon was quite angry! Why did he feel inferior? It was the most hurtful!

When Leng ruoxue heard this, she couldn't help but think to herself, "Mistress of the Dark World, is it really appropriate for you to speak of your subordinates like this?"

Uncle long and the rest did not know why those people were acting this way. However, with green vessel around, Leng ruoxue was clear about it. However, for the sake of evildoer's face, she could only pretend to be confused. After all, this was really not a big deal. Evildoer's subordinates were really too fragile! Moreover, she couldn't understand why there was such a big reaction when it was just building a house.

In fact, although her houses looked like they were made of wood on the outside, they were not that simple on the inside. This was because these houses were the products of her refining some time ago. However, they were only semi-finished products at that time. Now, they had been assembled by uncle long and the others. Of course, these houses were also divine artifacts. It was just that the materials used to refine them were somewhat ordinary, so they couldn't be carried around. However, they were still pretty good as residences.

As such, she naturally made use of the waste. However, it seemed like he couldn't reveal the fact that these houses were divine artifacts. Otherwise, those glass-hearted subordinates of the demon would definitely be heartbroken!

Al! Leng ruoxue sighed. She really couldn't understand why the people of netherworld prison had hearts made of glass. This was really too unscientific! Logically speaking, the people in that world should not be good people! However, the appearance of these evildoer's subordinates had completely subverted her understanding and made her feel a little uncomfortable!

Looking at the evildoer, Leng ruoxue decided not to think about those messy things. Since she had built a house in the land of chaos, of course, she had to celebrate. After all, this would be her base in the future. Although it was still a problem how to get here, she believed that all these could be solved.

After knowing Leng ruoxue's thoughts, uncle long and the rest immediately went to make preparations. In fact, everyone treated this as a major event. It had been a long time since Demon City had celebrated its victory. Now that they had a new territory, they couldn't afford to be careless.

With this in mind, uncle long and the others decided to make a big one.

Since they were going to make it a big event, they naturally had to have good food. Food was also the main part of the celebration. Therefore, the stock in Leng ruoxue's bracelet was quickly reduced. Qing Jue was so angry that he kept saying that they were wasting food. However, no one cared about it and completely ignored Qing Jue's words. This was also the reason why Qing Jue decided to ignore them!

Blue shared the same hatred as green vessel. It felt that it had been betrayed by uncle long and the others, so it chose to ignore them. As for when it would pay attention to them, it would wait until it was less angry.

As a result, uncle long and the others were in a tragic situation.

Originally, as long as they summoned green vessel, green vessel would move them into the bracelet. However, green vessel did not come out even after they had called for it for a long time. They had troubled Xue 'er a lot because of this, but they could not always ask Xue' er for help, right? More importantly, every time they went to look for Xue 'er, the Mistress of the Dark World would glare at them like a tiger watching its prey. As time passed, they were too embarrassed to trouble Xue' er.

That wasn't all. It wasn't easy for him to go in and get a lot of food, but in the next second, it all went into Cang's stomach.

Looking at Cang's round stomach, uncle long really wanted to say, "senior Cang, do you have a black hole in your stomach? Aren't you afraid of getting full after eating so much?"

Of course, the artifact Spirit would definitely not be able to hold on! However, they had prepared for several days without any results. Anyone would be depressed to death!

Especially when they saw Cang's small stomach become round after eating and then lie down in the garden to bask in the sun after eating, it was easy to imagine how depressed uncle long and the others were.

In the end, they couldn't take it anymore and decided to send someone to negotiate with Cang. The representative they elected was none other than uncle long.

The extremely unwilling uncle long found Cang in the garden and stood beside him without saying a word. He was looking forward to senior Cang taking the initiative to talk to him, but it was clear that Cang Hong completely ignored him.

"Senior Cang?" Uncle long had no choice but to speak up.

"Phew ..." It would have been better if he hadn't said anything. After he finished speaking, he heard Cang's snoring. Uncle long was speechless. The crowd in the distance was also very anxious.

Uncle long was not doing his job well! Just wake Cang up and negotiate!

When he received the looks and movements of the crowd, uncle long was furious.

"You bastard!" All they knew was to say, "come at me if you have the ability!"

In a fit of anger, uncle long went on strike and walked to Dongfang Yue and the others 'side angrily.

"Uncle long, why have you returned?" The head elder of the craftsmen's Guild could not help but ask.

"I'll go on strike! Whoever wants to go can go, I'm not doing it!" Long shuhuo roared.

"Don't, uncle long. We all have high hopes for you. Can you bear to disappoint us?" Jiang Ning interjected.

"How can you bear to!" Uncle long stared at Jiang Ning for a long time and said honestly.

Hearing this, Jiang Ning was dumbfounded. Uncle long was like this, but he wasn't like this!

However, uncle long couldn't hear his inner thoughts! He also made up his mind not to touch senior Cang's head anymore, since he didn't even care about him!

After some thought, uncle long suggested, ""I suggest that someone else go. Senior Azure doesn't care about me at all, and he's deliberately ignoring me!"

"Uh! If you wake senior Cang up, he'll pay attention to you. " Jiang Ning suggested.

"Wake him up? Are you going to take responsibility if something happens?" Hearing Jiang Ning's words, uncle long couldn't bear it anymore and asked. In fact, he was very clear that senior Cang hadn't slept at all. He had been awake the entire time, but he just ignored him.

..."I can't afford it!

Jiang Ning shook his head decisively. It wasn't that he was a coward, but he really couldn't handle the cat.

His reaction naturally made uncle long roll his eyes.

Everyone sighed helplessly.

"What are you guys doing here?" Suddenly, a heavenly voice entered their ears. Instantly, everyone present became excited as if they had been injected with chicken blood.

A ready-made candidate!

Chapter 2886 Cang's Little Revenge \(2\)

Senior ice soul, the heavens are about to give you a great responsibility. Don't let us down!

In an instant, everyone's eyes turned to Ice Spirit. An ominous feeling instantly enveloped Ice Spirit.

Without thinking, Ice Spirit turned around and left.

"You bastard!" These people were so enthusiastic, so it definitely wasn't good!

Ice Spirit, who had once been hurt by it, would not walk into the trap this time. However, the monk could run but the temple couldn't. Uncle long and the others followed him to his residence and blocked him and Bing Yao in the room.

Ice Spirit looked at the people in front of him warily and asked, "What are you guys doing?"

"Senior ice soul, I have a favor to ask." Uncle long said with a smile.

"Don't beg me. I'm old and can't be counted on." Instinctively, Ice Spirit refused.

Upon hearing this, the mouths of the people present twitched.

"You bastard!" The divine Lord said he was old? Is there a mistake?

For a reverent-God, age was something of the sort! Those were all fleeting clouds. This was because reverent-god level experts had an endless lifespan. As long as they didn't encounter a Dark Lord or a God Lord, they would rarely die. Of course, that didn't include being beaten up by the other reverent-god level cultivators. However, even if they were beaten up by a group of people, it would still take a lot of effort to kill a reverent-god level cultivator. After all, not everyone had the abnormal flames like Xue 'er.

But now, what did Ice Spirit say? Bing Yao, who was in his arms, sobbed with tears in her eyes when she heard this, "Father! You have to live until I grow up!"

"....."

Everyone was speechless and confused.

What was going on? I seem to have heard about the separation of life and death?

In the entire divinity, there were not many people who could defeat Ice Spirit! But what were the father and son doing?

Senior ice soul, where's your integrity?

In order not to help, it was shattered all over the ground?

"Please let my father go! He's old, let him enjoy his old age!" Taking advantage of the confusion of uncle long and the others, Bing Yao continued to speak.

No! He really couldn't stand this father and son whose moral integrity had been shattered to pieces. They couldn't help but shiver and feel their stomach churning when they saw Ice Spirit looking pleased after hearing her son's words.

What did they miss? Why would a divine Lord enjoy his old age? Was ripple mist dead? You want to enjoy your old age?

"Bing Yao, senior ice soul is still very young ..." Uncle long couldn't help but say.

"My father is already more than 100000 years old. There are too many zeros behind him, so don't make things difficult for him. You can make the decisions for big and small matters. Don't let him worry!" With tears in her eyes, Bing Yao didn't wait for uncle long to finish and continued.

When Ice Spirit heard this, the satisfaction on his face became even more obvious. Look, even his son knows how to protect him! What a good son!

Bing po touched his son's head lovingly, and Bing Yao looked back at his father with adoration. The scene of a loving father and a filial son was too beautiful, and uncle long and the others couldn't bear to look at it.

"You bastard!" So what if you have a son?

Was there a need to be so white?

The crowd was filled with grief and indignation. Then, they turned around and left in anger.

As soon as they left, the father and son looked at each other and smiled.

"Father! You're safe!" Bing Yao laughed evilly.

"Yes, it's all thanks to our son." Ice Spirit said with a smile.

After uncle long and the others left, he suddenly came to his senses. Why did they leave just like that? Wasn't this stimulation a little too great? However, since they had already left, they naturally could not be thick-skinned and return.

They couldn't count on senior ice soul. They could only rely on themselves.

In the end, when uncle long said that he would rather die than show up, Dongfang Yue, who was once the God of War, was thrown out by the crowd.

The depressed Dongfang Yue looked at these disloyal people and could only brace himself to step forward.

Standing next to Cang and seeing everyone giving him meaningful looks and hand gestures, he deeply understood uncle Long's pain.

Your sister! They were all a bunch of guys who didn't mind standing up and talking!

However, since he was being used as cannon fodder, he had to be a useful cannon fodder! Thus, Dongfang Yue didn't even think about it before sitting down on the ground and mumbling non-stop beside Azure's ear.

He wanted to get closer to Cang, so he started talking about the ancient times. He talked about their past and their friendship ...

From a distance, Uncle Long and the others could barely hear what Dongfang Yue was mumbling about. In addition, the other party had deliberately lowered his voice, so Dongfang Yue's behavior was even more mysterious.

"What's your brother doing?" Uncle Long poked Dongfang Lin and asked curiously.

"I don't know. I guess he's trying to get close to Cang!" Dongfang Lin guessed.

Uncle Long nodded. It was very likely.

Then, as if he had thought of something, he said to everyone, "Let's go back to the room and rest first! We don't know when Dongfang Yue will be able to get close to us, so we just need results."

As soon as such disloyal words were spoken, they were immediately responded to by the crowd. Then, they filed out of the garden.

Dongfang Yue, who caught a glimpse of this scene from the corner of his eye, was so angry that he almost vomited blood.

"You bastard!" This group of people was really too much, how could he leave himself to face Cang? Didn't he know that he was also very afraid of Cang? Especially when Cang was angry.

The depressed Dongfang Yue became even more cautious after that.

Who knows how long he talked, Cang was annoyed and finally couldn't bear it anymore and shouted, "Shut up!"

"Cang, you're awake!" Hearing Cang finally speak, Dongfang Yue finally felt that his words were not in vain.

Wake up your sister! It wasn't asleep at all, alright? He just didn't want to talk to this talkative guy.

However, Dongfang Yue would rather think that Cang was moved by his words. After all, they had known each other for so many years and their friendship was not shallow!

However, Cang wasn't as sentimental as he had imagined, and directly threatened, "If you say any more nonsense, I'll stuff your mouth shut."

"Uh!" Dongfang Yue was dumbfounded. Did he hear it wrong? Cang! What about our friendship? Was it thinner than paper? Can't you at least give me some face?

Dongfang Yue was wailing in his heart, but he didn't show it on his face. He continued, "Cang, you see, we've known each other for so many years ..."

"Who has known you for so many years? Don't try to get close to me, I don't know you!" Cang rudely interrupted Dongfang Yue before he could finish.

"Cang ..." Dongfang Yue was heartbroken.

How could Cang say that? He really had no conscience! Wuuu ...

The heartbroken Dongfang Yue was completely speechless.

Could Cang Yun do this? It's fine if she doesn't have a conscience, but she actually said she doesn't know me? This was too much. They had been neighbors for so many years ...

Dong fangyue, who couldn't settle everything, turned around and left the garden with a trace of resentment.

Chapter 2887 Azure's Little Revenge \(3\)

He decided that in the future, he would never deal with Cang, this ruthless guy. Whoever wanted to come, he could come! He was not going to wait on them anymore!

When uncle long and the others found out that Dongfang Yue had also failed, they all looked at Dongfang Lin with anticipation.

Although Dongfang Lin was known for his outstanding intelligence, he admitted that he was powerless in front of Cang. When that guy threw a tantrum, no one could stop him! Therefore, he immediately refused and suggested that they should ask the owner to come forward!

He might not give face to others, but he should at least give face to his master!

However, who should go and say these words to Leng ruoxue became a huge problem for everyone.

In the past, uncle long had always been the one to handle such matters, but this time, he was the first to reject it. He really didn't want to see the Dark Lord's expression anymore.

In the end, it was Dongfang Lin who went to explain the matter to Leng ruoxue.

Under immense pressure, Dongfang Lin went to look for Leng ruoxue. He was trembling with fear as he told her what had happened in a straightforward and simple manner.

After Leng ruoxue heard this, she didn't know what to say. No wonder she didn't see Cang these few days. He had been causing trouble for uncle long and the others!

After a moment of silence, Leng ruoxue immediately expressed that she would have a talk with Cang.

After Dongfang Lin heard this, he immediately took his leave to avoid the Mistress of the Dark World's dagger-like eyes from shooting daggers at him.

Sob ... The pressure is like a mountain, isn't it? No wonder uncle long refused to come!

"Xue 'er, let them handle such a small matter on their own." Seeing that Xue 'er was going to find Cang, the demon was not satisfied.

"If uncle long and the others could handle it, they wouldn't have come to me. When I'm done talking with Azure, I'll come and accompany you." Leng ruoxue coaxed. These few days, she had been keeping the demon company. After all, they had not seen each other for a long time, and the two of them had a lot to talk about.

However, the demon was not satisfied with Leng ruoxue's arrangement and said, ""I'll go with you to find it!"

"You?" Leng ruoxue looked at the evildoer with suspicion. She thought to herself, "what if these two guys start fighting when they meet?" Who should she help then?

"Demon, you stay in the room! I'll go by myself. " After thinking for a moment, Leng ruoxue felt that it was better to avoid them from meeting, especially after the fierce battle between the two of them had just ended! The atmosphere was still tense!

"Don't worry, I won't fight it. " Knowing what Xue 'er was worried about, the demon immediately promised.

"What if it wants to fight you?" Leng ruoxue asked helplessly.

"I won't fight back." The demon continued to guarantee.

Seeing that he had already promised, Leng ruoxue naturally could not reject him anymore. She could only bring along the demon, this child from a previous marriage.

When she arrived at the garden, Leng ruoxue saw Cang still lying on the stone table with his eyes closed. Feeling her approach, Cang ye only opened his eyes slightly and then closed them again.

"Cang! What's wrong with you?" Leng ruoxue asked worriedly as she lifted Cang up. Something didn't seem right! A while ago, he was still full of energy and planned to cause trouble for the demon. Why did he wither these few days?

"Nothing much!" Cang gave her face and replied softly. He turned around and faced Leng ruoxue with his butt.

It was obvious that the little fellow was angry.

At this moment, the demon saw this and smiled faintly, ""Xue 'er, don't worry. I think it's just going through menopause."

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue's face darkened.

Azure was an Artifact Spirit, so how could he have menopause?

When blue heard this, he was enraged and rushed towards evildoer. He stretched out his sharp claws and scratched him. A cold light flashed as he shouted, ""Your sister is going through menopause! Your whole family is going through menopause!"

Facing Azure's rage, evildoer didn't panic. He grabbed the fur behind Azure's neck and held Azure in his hand.

Azure struggled with all its might, but it had eaten too much in the past few days. Its body had become two circles rounder, and its limbs were short and small, so it couldn't break free.

Suddenly, Azure was depressed!

How detestable! Those who bully Beastie are all bad guys!

"Niu! Save me!" Seeing that he couldn't break free, Cang turned to Leng ruoxue for help.

Leng ruoxue could only shake her head and sigh.

Previously, Cang still had a sickly appearance, but after seeing the demon, he was immediately full of life. Now, he had instantly become a helpless little beast.

However, she still took it from the evildoer's hands. Once Cang Yi regained his freedom, he jumped into Leng ruoxue's arms. This time, he didn't have to face Leng ruoxue with his butt. Instead, he looked at Leng ruoxue with tears in his eyes.

Leng ruoxue's eyes were filled with grievances, and she almost felt heartache for Cang. However, when she thought about how lively Cang was before, she gave up on pitying him. She couldn't help but touch Cang's still round stomach and teased, "You've been eating a lot recently, right? Your movements aren't as agile anymore!"

"Girl, you're despising me?" When Cang Yi heard this, tears immediately rolled down his face, but he didn't let them fall.

"Yes, a little. If you continue to put on weight, I won't be able to carry you." Leng ruoxue said on purpose after hearing Cang's words.

"Xue 'er, put it down! Don't tire yourself out!" The demon also gritted his teeth. He was at a disadvantage because he didn't have a cute and fluffy appearance!

The demon was very depressed, but of course, he didn't forget to take the opportunity to sow discord.

"Girl, I'm not fat!" Cang said to Leng ruoxue as he glared at evildoer.

"Cang, you've already rounded it up, Wu! You might not be able to see it, do you want to look in the mirror?" Leng ruoxue asked with an evil smile.

"Don't!" Azure rage knew that he was a little fat, but did he want to be like this?

"Cang, why are you deliberately causing trouble for uncle long and the others!" Leng ruoxue smiled and continued to ask.

"Hmph! Traitor! They are traitors!" Canghuo Avenue.

"Eh? How are they traitors?" Leng ruoxue was confused.

"I already warned them not to tell this evildoer what mu li said, but they still said it!" Cang complained.

When Leng ruoxue heard this, she didn't know how to respond.

That ... Was it alright to complain in front of her? Especially when Cang even admitted that he had done something to make the demon depressed. What did he want her to do?

At this time, uncle long and the others, who had been eavesdropping in a corner, quickly ran out and explained, "Senior Cang, I'm innocent! We Didn't Say That! It was the Mistress of the Dark World who heard it!"

"Hmph! Do you think I'm stupid?" Azure sneered as he looked at uncle long and the others with an unfriendly gaze.

Uncle long and the others knew that they were in the wrong, so they could only turn to the evildoer for help.

"I did overhear it," the demon said calmly. "They didn't tell me."

"Jackals of the same tribe!" After saying these four words, Cang ignored everyone else and buried his head in Leng ruoxue's arms.

Seeing this, Leng ruoxue knew that Cang was not going to pursue this matter. After giving uncle long and the rest a reassuring look, she carried Cang away.

However, she had only taken two steps when she was stopped by uncle long and the others.

"Uncle long, I'm taking Cang with me. It won't cause any more trouble for you." Leng ruoxue consoled him helplessly.

"The little green vessel is not cooperating with us." Uncle long finally blurted out the truth with a constipated look on his face. Originally, he didn't want to talk about such an embarrassing thing, but it had already been a few days, and he had to say it!

Upon hearing this, Leng ruoxue's forehead was covered in cold sweat.

Green vessel and Azure were going to rebel! No wonder uncle long always asked her to help him put in the bracelets. Although she found it strange at that time, she didn't think too much about it. Now, she finally understood.

Sighing helplessly, Leng ruoxue's thoughts changed and she led uncle long and the others into the bangle.

"Sister, why did you bring these wastrels in?" At the same time that Leng ruoxue and the rest appeared, Qing Jue appeared as well. He glared at uncle long and the rest with an unkind expression as he roared.

"W-we're here to get food." Uncle long stuttered. Wu ... When these little guys get angry, their auras are not small!

"Still want to take? Your sister! You've already taken a lot!" Hearing this, Qing Jue immediately became furious.

"The things we took were all eaten by senior Cang." Uncle long explained hurriedly when he saw Qing Jue waving his small fists. He was so angry that he was in danger of charging up and beating him up at any moment.

"Eh? All eaten by this damn cat? You're joking, right? How come it didn't die after eating so much?" Qing Jue sneered, obviously not believing uncle Long's words.

"What a joke, do you think I'll die from overeating? Don't you know who I am?" After green vessel finished speaking, Cang ze immediately raised his head and rolled his eyes.

"So, you really finished it?" Qing Jue confirmed.

"It's me who ate it!" Azure didn't deny it. As a man, he had to be daring and take responsibility for his actions.

"Qing Jue, give uncle long and the others some more! The celebration was my decision. " Leng ruoxue saw that Qing Jue was hesitating and was afraid that he would not agree, so she had no choice but to step in.

"Alright! For the sake of big sister, I can give you some more. " Qing Jue said unwillingly. Then, he glared at Cang and roared,"D * MN cat, if I had known that all the food had gone into your stomach, I would have put some rat poison in it!"

"What did you just say? Stinky green vessel, let's fight one-on-one!" Seeing the other party's provocation, Cang was enraged and pounced towards green vessel. However, green vessel's figure flashed and disappeared, causing Cang to miss. After that, Cang you didn't give up and chased ...

Uncle long and the others were tactful and didn't express their opinions when they saw that the two little guys were suspected to be fighting among themselves. In a short while, the food that Qing Jue had moved out was piled up at their feet.

With food in hand, uncle long and the rest were not willing to stay a second longer. They immediately asked Leng ruoxue to send them out.

It wasn't peaceful here!

After sending uncle long off, Leng ruoxue left with the demon.

It wasn't easy for him to have a chance to be alone with Xue 'er again, so of course, the evildoer wasn't willing to let it go. Immediately, he pulled Leng ruoxue back to the room to express his feelings.

The next day, the celebratory dinner that everyone had been waiting for was finally ready.

After a round of eating and drinking, both the host and the guest were happy. However, after eating this meal, the people from netherworld prison all felt bad again.

Wu ... They were both humans, but why was there such a huge difference?

A strong sense of inferiority surrounded them for a long time and did not go away. However, the current Leng ruoxue didn't have the time to be their intimate sister. She had already decided to go into seclusion to refine pills and weapons.

After knowing Leng ruoxue's thoughts, the demon expressed his support. However, he requested to watch from the side.

Leng ruoxue naturally wouldn't reject such a small request. Because it wasn't just him, the Grand Elder of the armament Guild headquarters and the others also needed to watch ...

Chapter 2888 Disobedient Medicinal Herb \(1\)

After preparing everything, Leng ruoxue planned to start refining in the purple bamboo house's alchemy and weapon refining room. However, after Qing Jue found out about her plan, he smiled at her and said,""Sister, I suggest you go outside and make it."

"What?" Leng ruoxue was dumbfounded when she heard Qing Jue's suggestion. Was she being despised?

"Sister, I sincerely advise you not to ask why." Qing Jue said with a mysterious expression.

"?" "Leng ruoxue's beautiful face was filled with even more question marks when she heard him say this without explaining the reason.

What was going on? Qing Jue had actually kept her in suspense again. This gave Leng ruoxue a bad feeling, but Qing Jue did not say why.

Leng ruoxue was in a dilemma. However, since she had been chased out, she could only bring the demon and the rest away from the bracelet. However, before she left, her resentful gaze made Qing Jue feel rather happy!

Hehe! He truly felt that his sister was very cute!

After leaving the bracelet, Leng ruoxue had no choice but to find a temporary room to act as a pill and weapon refining room. That gloomy mood had been with her the entire time!

Only today did she know how bad it felt to be despised by others!

Sob ... Leng ruoxue looked at Liu Feng with teary eyes and said with a choked voice, "Liufeng, I won't despise you anymore!"

Liu Feng was dumbfounded when he heard this.

F*ck! What did this have to do with him? How did it end up with him?

Flowing maple was quite indignant, but the first elder of the craftsmen's Guild and the others laughed out loud without any sense of loyalty. Liuyue patted her brother's shoulder in understanding. "Brother, you've finally made it!"

"You ... You are all bad guys!" Liu Feng, who was extremely angry, roared.

He didn't offend anyone, so why did he get shot while lying down?

At the thought of this, he looked at Leng ruoxue with a bitter expression. His eyes were red as he said, 'Xue' er, don't you feel any guilt for bullying me?'

Of course, Leng ruoxue did not! Not only that, but when she saw Liu Feng's resentful eyes, her fragile heart was miraculously healed.

It seemed that with someone to accompany him in his misfortune, he could share the burden! Leng ruoxue finally understood!

After sorting out her emotions, Leng ruoxue took out her pill furnace and decided to start with refining pills. After all, compared to refining weapons, she was more interested in pills. After that, she arranged the medicinal herbs in order.

The chaos Divine pill was not part of the well-known divine pill system. According to Qing Jue, it was a magical and omnipotent pill. Simply put, it could bring a dead person back to life immediately after eating it! Of course, a dead person could only be a deity, and that deity's soul and consciousness had yet to completely dissipate. Otherwise, no matter how miraculous this pill was, it would not be able to save him!

But even so, it was enough for Leng ruoxue to be amazed.

She never would have thought that there would be such a miraculous pill in the world. Back then, if his cheap master had such a pill, he might not have fallen. When she told Qing Jue about her idea, Qing Jue told her disappointedly that no one had ever refined a Chaos Divine pill.

Of course, no one was referring to her master. In other words, her master had never refined Chaos Divine pills before.

At that time, Leng ruoxue was once again stunned.

Even her master had never refined it before, so why did she have to refine it?

Could it be that this 'heaven-defying art' was also used to bully newbies? The moment Qing Jue said that, Leng ruoxue realized that the heaven-defying Art's requirements for her and her master were different.

To put it bluntly, it was racial discrimination!

After that, she confirmed everything from Qing Jue. However, Qing Jue also told her that her master did not need to refine Chaos Divine pills or acquired Chaos Divine weapons because she was born in the land of chaos. The 'heaven-defying art' was associated with her master. Simply put, the 'heaven-defying art' was tailor-made for her master. However, she was not. Because of this, the heaven-defying incantation's requirements for her were also ridiculously high.

However, Qing Jue also told her that although her cheap master had never refined Chaos Divine pills before, she had refined acquired Chaos Divine weapons. In addition, compared to refining pills, her master preferred refining weapons. Leng ruoxue had long known about this!

However, what Leng ruoxue could not stand the most was Qing Jue telling her that there was no recipe for the chaos Divine pill and that she had to explore it on her own.

When Leng ruoxue heard this grievous news, she was in a complete mess!

This was the first time she had heard of a Chaos Divine elixir and he was going to let her explore it on her own? Wasn't this a scam?

As such, Leng ruoxue's heart was filled with tears as she looked at the medicinal herbs in front of her.

Qing Jue, you're definitely a piece of trash that will harm your sister!

Although there were many medicinal herbs in front of him, the feeling of not knowing where to start was really too uncomfortable.

Seeing that Leng ruoxue had not moved for a long time, Shen nuo asked in confusion, ""Xue 'er, why aren't you making the chaos Divine pill?"

"I don't know how to make it." Looking at Shen nuo, Leng ruoxue finally revealed the secret that had been buried in her heart for a long time.

Instantly, the jaws of the surrounding alchemists dropped. This ... This was too much of a joke, right? You're already preparing to refine the pill, yet you don't know the pill recipe?

If it wasn't for Leng ruoxue's extremely serious yet depressed expression, everyone would have suspected that she was just playing with them.

"Without the pill formula, how can I refine it?" Looking at the countless precious herbs in front of him, Jiang Ning's heart ached so much that it bled.

"Green vessel asked me to explore on my own. The only thing he can do is to supply me with an unlimited number of medicinal herbs." Leng ruoxue replied honestly.

"Uh! Did he not know the pill recipe? How did he know about the existence of Chaos Divine pills?" The head elder of the craftsmen's Guild asked in confusion.

"I was born to know!" Leng ruoxue said powerlessly. When Qing Jue said that, she had no energy to even ridicule him. It was really too hurtful, wasn't it?

"Uh! Alright!" Everyone was helpless. They didn't understand the lives in the land of chaos!

"This is an inheritable memory. When we are born, our minds are filled with cultivation methods that are related to us." The demon explained when he saw everyone's reaction.

This time, everyone was even more at a loss for words. They couldn't understand the feeling of being born with high-quality goods!

Leng ruoxue fell silent as well. She looked at the demon with a face full of hidden bitterness.

Seeing this, the demon thought that Xue 'er was worried that she couldn't make it, so he quickly comforted her, "'Xue 'er, don't worry about the herbs. If there's not enough, I'll go and Rob Little Tian!"

"I'm not worried," At this moment, Leng ruoxue really wanted to draw a circle and curse all these scammers, especially with green vessel as their leader!

"Then hurry up and refine it!" The demon said impatiently.

"Alright then!" Leng ruoxue nodded. She stared at the pill in front of her and pondered for a long time. In the end, she chose two medicinal herbs that grew in the land of chaos and threw them into the pill furnace that had been heated up for a long time.

Chapter 2889 The Disobedient Herb \(2\)

As soon as the herbs were put into the furnace, everyone's eyes were drawn to the furnace. They stared at the pill in front of them without blinking.

The decisive moment ... Ugh! In other words, the important moment to witness the melting of plants in the land of chaos had finally arrived.

However, even when everyone's eyes were sore from staring, there was no reaction at all to the medicinal herbs that were thrown into the pill furnace.

The two herbs were still lying in the middle of the furnace, intact.

"Xue 'er, is the fire not hot?" After staring for a long time, Jiang Ning finally couldn't help but ask.

"....."

This isn't hot?

Leng ruoxue felt that if she were to throw a piece of meat in, she would be burned to ashes immediately.

However, she didn't stop Jiang Ning when he tried to reach for the furnace. Then, as she had wished, she heard Jiang Ning's ear-piercing scream!

"Ah ... Ah ... So hot! It's burning me! "Wu ..." Jiang Ning held his hand that was red from the heat and jumped up and down.

The chief elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters took a closer look and said calmly, "It's cooked!"

"....."

It can't be, right?

Everyone was surprised and stepped forward in unison.

At this moment, one of Jiang Ning's hands was red and swollen, and there was even white mist coming out of it. As everyone was amazed, they completely forgot to comfort Jiang Ning, who was in excruciating pain.

"How mature is it?" Liu Feng muttered to himself out of curiosity.

"At least 80%!" The head elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters replied with a smile. However, everyone present obviously had different opinions and each of them had their own guesses.

"Do you have any humanity left in you? I'm in so much pain!" Jiang Ning roared in grief and anger as he listened to the crowd shamelessly discussing how his hand had matured.

"Don't you know how to take your own healing pill? What, do we have to feed you? Wasn't his other hand fine? Don't pretend to be injured!" After hearing Jiang Ning's words, Liu Feng blinked his eyes and said with a look of disdain. It was obvious that he had no intention of sympathizing with Jiang Ning.

In his opinion, Jiang Ning's head must have been smashed by a meteorite. Otherwise, why would he do such a stupid thing? Why was he using his hands to get close to the pill furnace? You might as well jump into the pill furnace!

"I'm already injured, so I'm not pretending!" Although Liu Feng's words were what everyone was thinking, Jiang Ning was so angry that he was about to vomit blood! This bunch of people were indeed inhumane.

In order to seek comfort, Jiang Ning couldn't help but turn to look at Leng ruoxue. He looked at her pitifully and said, "Xue 'er, I'm injured!"

Wuuu ...

"I saw it! Hurry up and eat the healing pill!" Leng ruoxue glanced at Jiang Ning and said in a speechless manner. If it wasn't for the fact that she had noticed that Jiang Ning had restrained the fire under his furnace, this guy's hand would have been crippled!

Therefore, at this moment, she didn't feel sorry for Jiang Ning at all. He was completely asking for it!

Seeing how cold Xue 'er was to him, Jiang Ning's fragile heart was shattered once again.

Wu ... No wonder there's a saying that birds of a feather flock together. These guys are indeed a group of inhumane and cold-blooded B * stars!

Seeing that no one sympathized with and consoled him, the sorrowful and worried Jiang Ning could only resentfully try to save himself. After taking a healing pill, the injury on his hand also recovered.

"Don't do anything stupid in the future. You can't touch a flame that's not your own!" Seeing that Jiang Ning was fine, Liu Feng acted like an understanding brother again and reminded him.

"....."

Jiang Ning didn't have the energy to complain. He lowered his head and walked to a corner to draw circles.

Wuwu ... Bad guy! A bunch of bad guys!

Seeing Jiang Ning's childish behavior, the crowd couldn't help but laugh. As for Jiang Ning, he was so embarrassed that he wanted to hide in a hole.

After this small incident, everyone's attention was once again drawn to the pill furnace, except for Jiang Ning who was drawing circles in the corner.

After their own experience in Jiang Ning, they knew that it wasn't because the flames weren't hot enough. They could only wait patiently.

One day, two days ...

There was still no change in the medicinal herbs in the pill furnace.

Leng ruoxue was going crazy.

Five days had already passed by now, but this medicinal ingredient actually didn't move at all.

What the hell was this?

If it wasn't for the fact that this medicinal herb had no spiritual intelligence, Leng ruoxue really wanted to grab it and interrogate it thoroughly. But now, what could he do?

Seeing that Leng ruoxue seemed to be a little frustrated, the weapon Master Grand Elder consoled her with his experience, "Xue 'er, we can't rush to melt the materials. Let's wait patiently!"

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue really wanted to say that she was already very patient. It was true! It had been five days. If it was in the past, after so many days, she would have already refined who knows how many medicinal pills.

However, there was no other way.

Just like that, everyone decided to split up and guard the pill furnace. This way, they could also take turns to rest.

After the jobs were assigned, the first on duty, the armament Guild headquarters' great elder, drove everyone away.

After the crowd was driven away, the first elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters looked at the two medicinal herbs lying quietly in the pill furnace and frowned with worry.

"Herbs, herbs, why are you so disobedient? Quickly melt it!" The blacksmith would always mutter to himself as he looked at the medicinal ingredients in the furnace.

As a blacksmith, he was quite clear about the bitterness of materials that could not be dissolved. Therefore, even though he appeared to be very calm and consoled Xue'er, in reality, he was quite anxious.

Unfortunately, these medicinal herbs did not give him much face. Several days had passed, but there was no sign of them melting at all.

At the same time, Leng Ruoxue, who was unwillingly dragged back into the room by the evildoer, was also so depressed that she did not want to say a word. "Xue'er," the demon consoled, "the materials from the chaotic world are a little stubborn. Don't worry!"

"I've been refining pills for so long, but this is the first time I've suffered a blow because of the lack of materials. But don't worry, I just can't accept it for a while. I'll be fine after a few days of adjustment." Leng Ruoxue said as she didn't want the evildoer to worry.

"Yes, Xue'er, although I don't know anything about alchemy or equipment refining, I know that nothing can be rushed, especially when it comes to cultivation. So, take it easy, what's this little setback?" The evildoer pulled Leng Ruoxue into his arms and continued to comfort her gently.

"I will. Give me a few days." Leng Ruoxue wrapped her arms around the evildoer's waist and said.

"Xue'er, I'll take you somewhere!" The evildoer added after hearing this.

With that, he did not wait for Leng Ruoxue's response and disappeared with her.

In the blink of an eye, Leng Ruoxue was brought to a foggy area by the demon.

As far as he could see, there was only thick fog around him, nothing else. Looking at the unfamiliar place, Leng Ruoxue could not help but ask, "Evildoer, where is this place?"

"This is the place where I was born." The demon said directly.

"Really?" Leng Ruoxue was rather surprised. She never thought that the evildoer would actually bring her to his birthplace.

Chapter 2890 Disobedient Medicinal Herb \(3\)

"En, not only me, Yu, green vessel, and Cang were all born here. Oh right, there's also the laws of heaven and earth. We've been nurtured here for a very, very long time, before we finally have a trace of intelligence. And after it gained sentience, who knows how many tens of thousands of years had passed before the two of us that you see now came to be." The demon explained with a faint smile.

"Xue'er, do you understand what I mean?" After explaining, the demon asked again.

"Yes." Leng ruoxue nodded. The demon wanted to tell her that the life forms in the land of chaos could not be born in a short period of time. In other words, it was the same even if there were no materials for life forms here.

"So, you have to be patient when you face us." The demon requested in a serious manner.

Hearing this, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but laugh out loud. She then teased, ""You guys aren't the materials."

"But we're all from the chaosworld! "Think about it, chaos took so long to give birth to life forms like us. Those lifeless materials may appear much later than us, but they were born in the same place as us. This proves that they are extraordinary. If they were placed in the immortal realm, these things would definitely be heavenly and earthly treasures, incomparably precious. Thus, it would definitely take a lot of time to melt them. Also, the materials that can exist here, be it plants or minerals, must be extremely hard. Otherwise, I'm afraid they would have been crushed to pieces by the violent Ling energy here, and you wouldn't have the chance to get them. " The demon said again.

"Evildoer, I understand now. Thank you." After listening to the demon speak so much, Leng ruoxue understood his painstaking efforts. The gloominess in her heart dissipated bit by bit.

At the same time, she didn't want the demon to worry about her because of alchemy.

Seeing that Xue 'er had thought things through, the demon revealed a beautiful smile and said, ""Xue 'er, let's spend a few days here alone!"

"Alright!" Leng ruoxue nodded.

At this moment, she decided to forget everything and stay here with the demon for a few days with all her heart. Without uncle long and the others, and without any disturbance, it should be a true two-person world, right?

In the following days, Leng ruoxue and the demon built a simple house here and settled down with peace of mind.

Initially, the two of them only planned to stay for a few days. However, they had unknowingly stayed for almost a month. It was only when it was Leng ruoxue's turn to be on duty that the two of them reluctantly left the spawn place of the evildoer.

The two of them returned home with a hint of sweetness on their bodies. When uncle long and the others saw this, they deliberately pretended not to know anything and said nothing. However, Leng ruoxue felt a little guilty. Hence, the moment she returned home, she immediately went into the pill refinement room.

Now that Leng ruoxue had run away, the gossipy uncle long and the rest naturally had no intention of letting the demon off.

Looking at the crowd surrounding him, causing him to fall behind and unable to keep up with Xue 'er's footsteps, the evildoer's cold aura dissipated, and he said with a straight face, ""What are you guys trying to do?"

"Hehe, Mistress Dark, where did you and Xue 'er go to play?" Uncle long smiled ambiguously and asked curiously.

"What, you guys want to go too?" The demon didn't answer but asked a question instead. His question stunned uncle long and the others.

Want to go?

They didn't know, but they definitely wanted to gossip!

Unfortunately, the demon didn't give them a chance to speak. With a thought, uncle long and the others disappeared. The people who disappeared also included those who could help Xue 'er with her work.

Looking at the empty garden in front of him, the demon was satisfied.

It's done! He and Xue 'er could have some alone time again!

It was really good! The demon was quite satisfied with his actions.

He was satisfied, but it was a tragedy for uncle long and the others.

Uncle long and the others were dumbfounded when they saw the unfamiliar place.

"You bastard!" Where is this place?

"What am I doing here?" Suddenly, a surprised voice was heard. Everyone turned around at the same time. The one who spoke was Ice Spirit, who was holding her son with a blank face.

Uncle long and the others swallowed their saliva when they saw the ice soul. They couldn't believe it. How did senior ice soul get teleported here? If they didn't remember wrongly, this old Qilin was in the room with its baby at that time.

However, when they saw the familiar face in front of them, they instantly understood. This was definitely the rhythm of getting rid of these third wheels!

But could he let them know before he moved these light bulbs over? They weren't mentally prepared for such a silent response!

Sob ... The unfamiliar environment made everyone cry.

"Who can answer my questions? why am I here?" Ice Spirit asked again when no one answered her.

"Senior Ice Spirit, we can't answer your question because we don't know why we're here." Uncle long said with a bitter face.

"Could it be ... An enemy attack?" Ice Spirit could only imagine. This was too strange. He didn't feel anything before he was moved to another place. Who did this?

Ice Spirit thought for a moment and figured out the truth.

"Is it the dark mistress or Cang?" Ice Spirit asked after sighing. Other than the two of them, no one else had the ability!

"Mistress of the Dark World." Uncle long told him honestly.

"Are we in his way?" As an experienced person, Ice Spirit understood the Mistress of the Dark World's thoughts without even thinking.

"He and Xue 'er went somewhere to spend some alone time together. We just asked, and that's why it's like this now." Uncle long said with an aggrieved expression.

"It's uncle long who asked this, it has nothing to do with us! Why did you bring us here?" After uncle long finished speaking, Jiang Ning didn't know how to answer. They still had their jobs, okay? They could also help Xue 'er, so why did he throw them out like trash?

Jiang Ning was filled with grief and indignation.

After hearing what he said, everyone instantly moved away from him on their own accord to avoid being implicated by this fool.

This hatred was really strong!

Didn't you see how angry uncle long was? He actually dared to say that! AI! You're looking for death!

As expected, as soon as this thought appeared in everyone's mind, uncle long, whose eyes were spitting fire, grabbed Jiang Ning by the collar and gave him a good beating.

As he beat him up, uncle long still didn't vent his anger and roared, "F * ck you, don't tell me you're not curious. I'm only asking to satisfy everyone's curiosity! You want to push all the blame onto me? Hmm?"

"Uncle long, uncle long, Wu...I was wrong! I was wrong! I didn't mean it that way! "Don't hit me, don't hit my face ..." Jiang Ning, who had been beaten up, cried and begged. At this moment, he finally understood the meaning of the words 'cause of disaster'. However, what made him even more depressed was that he was being beaten up, and there was no righteous person who came to stop him.

Sob ... Jiang Ning was heartbroken.

Was there really no one who was willing to do good nowadays?

Obviously, he would not be able to find it now. The reverent-God experts turned a blind eye to uncle Long's anger, so the great elder of the craftsmen's Guild and the other divine emperors were even more helpless.

As such, Jiang Ning's beating was inevitable.

By the time uncle long was done venting, Jiang Ning's face was as swollen as a pig's head.

He felt his face tense. He didn't need to look to know that his handsome face was definitely gone.

"Wuu ... I told you not to hit my face!" Squatting on the ground, Jiang Ning sobbed and refused to raise his head.

"I like to hit people's faces!" Uncle long said coldly.

"Uh!" Jiang Ning didn't dare to speak anymore. He hid behind Ice Spirit like a mistreated wife.

Ice Spirit sighed helplessly and said, "what should we do now?" What is this place?"

He wasn't worried about anything else, but he was afraid that his son wouldn't be able to withstand the spiritual energy here. However, the spiritual Qi here did not seem to be as violent as the place where they lived, so of course, it was not rich.

"I don't know," Everyone shook their heads in unison.

Clearly, everyone was at a loss. Then, everyone looked at each other and sighed.

His heart slowly sank.

From the looks of it, if the Mistress of the Dark World didn't take the initiative to bring them back, they probably wouldn't be able to find their way home, Wu ...

Words could not describe everyone's sorrow at the moment, but the demon's mood was extremely good.

When Leng ruoxue saw the demon who entered the pill refining room, she could clearly feel his jubilant mood.

"Good news?" Leng ruoxue asked curiously.

"It's a good thing for me!" The demon laughed evilly.

"Uh! Doesn't it count for others?" Leng ruoxue was even more curious now.

"Hehe! I don't know. " The demon laughed smugly.

"What did you do?" Leng ruoxue asked suspiciously.

"You've done a good thing! Uncle long and the others were curious about where we could spend our time alone, so I sent them there. " The demon said with a smile, his face full of joy.

He thought that it would be difficult to have real alone time after coming back, but he didn't expect it to be possible!

"..." Leng ruoxue was silent.

This was definitely not a good thing for uncle long and the others. At this moment, Leng ruoxue could already imagine the sorrowful and desolate faces of uncle long and the others. They were trapped in a strange place like pitiful little children, unable to return home ...

Ugh! He was really too pitiful!

However, she had to admit that she had forgotten about her friends when she saw a man. Because she saw how happy the demon was, she actually didn't have the thought of letting him bring uncle long and the others back.

This really shouldn't have happened! But since the demon was happy, she would pretend that she didn't know!

After making up her mind, Leng ruoxue no longer mentioned this matter. It was as if she had forgotten about the existence of uncle long and the others.

However, there was a price to pay for acting dumb.

Without the armament Guild headquarters 'great elder to change shifts with her, she could only look after the pill furnace by herself. However, with the demon accompanying her, she was not lonely.

Two months later, Leng ruoxue, who had been patiently watching over the medicinal herbs in the furnace, finally saw signs of the medicinal herbs melting.

Leng ruoxue was overjoyed when she saw this.

The heavens do not disappoint those who work hard! They finally saw some light!

However, the dawn light seemed to have lasted for a long time, and the speed at which the medicinal herbs were dissolving could be described as the speed of a turtle.

Patience! He had to be patient! Leng ruoxue kept encouraging herself in her heart.

After half a year, the two medicinal herbs finally completely dissolved into liquid.

Looking at the transparent liquid medicinal ingredients in the furnace, Leng ruoxue was so touched that she was on the verge of tears. This was definitely the longest time she had ever refined a pill! And this was only the beginning ...
