

Crazy Wife 2891

Chapter 2891 Explosion \(1\)

Reining in her excitement, Leng ruoxue was about to throw the other herbs into the pill furnace. However, before she could do anything, the medicinal liquid in the pill furnace started to boil and bubble. Leng ruoxue could not understand what was going on.

What was going on?

But before she could figure it out, the pill furnace in front of her suddenly emitted white smoke. Then, she heard a loud bang and the pill furnace exploded in front of her.

"....."

Leng ruoxue was completely dumbfounded. The demon who had just come back from outside heard the explosion and his expression changed. He hurried over to see what was going on.

Seeing the room in a mess, Xue 'er sitting in front of the broken pill furnace with her clothes dirty, her face and body covered with charred explosives, the demon was extremely worried and quickly hugged the dazed Xue' er into his arms.

"Xue 'er, are you hurt?" The demon searched Leng ruoxue's body for possible injuries and was extremely worried.

However, Leng ruoxue did not give any response. This time, the demon was even more worried.

"Xue 'er, don't scare me! Why don't you say something!" The demon shouted.

It was a pity that Leng ruoxue was still like a wooden person, dull and silly.

"What happened?" At this moment, the anxious Grand Elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters and the others also ran in from outside in a panic.

They had just been brought back by the Mistress of the Dark World, and before they could even step into the house, they heard a loud bang, which gave them a shock.

If this wasn't the land of chaos, they would have thought that their homes had been attacked by the miasma again. However, they then remembered that Xue 'er was refining pills, so they didn't dare to delay and all ran towards the pill refining room.

Looking at the mess in the alchemy room, everyone immediately understood that the explosion had occurred because of the failure of the alchemy.

However, they couldn't understand it. Wasn't it normal to fail in refining pills and weapons? He had never heard of anyone's pill furnace exploding! At the thought of this, uncle long and the others all turned their eyes to the alchemists and artifact Masters present.

"Why are you guys looking at us? You should be worried about Xue 'er now!" The Grand Elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters was extremely speechless.

"A failed pill refinement will cause an explosion? Is it that dangerous?" Uncle long blinked his eyes and asked in confusion. He wanted to care about Xue 'er too! However, with the Mistress of the Dark World around, how could they dare to stand out? what if the Mistress of the Dark World was in a bad mood and threw them to an unknown, strange place? where would they go to cry then?

Therefore, even if they wanted to ask about Xue 'er's condition, they did not dare to get close. They could only pray that Xue 'er would be fine.

"Generally speaking, they won 't. It's very safe to refine pills and weapons, but we can't rule out unexpected situations. " After some thought, the head elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters explained.

"..." When uncle long and the others heard this, they truly felt that it was as good as nothing!

What was an emergency situation? Xue 'er should be fine now, right?

However, what they were more concerned about was what to do after the sudden situation. Xue 'er looked like she had suffered a blow, but she didn't say a word. This made them very worried!

At this moment, the room they were in creaked again! Creak!' The moment everyone saw this, they immediately raised their guard. The demon carried Xue 'er and left the alchemy room immediately. Uncle long and the rest followed closely behind.

Just as everyone ran to the courtyard, they saw the house in front of them collapse.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Your sister! This house was a divine artifact! Could refining a pill have such great power?

That was not all. After one of the houses collapsed, the rest of the houses collapsed one by one, as if it was the domino effect ...

"....."

Looking at this Grand occasion, everyone suddenly felt a little numb.

After looking at each other, they turned to look at the demon, hoping that he would make a decision.

"What are you looking at me for? Hurry up and clean up this rubbish. Oh right, think of a way to restore it to its original state, don't let Xue 'er find out anything!" The demon ordered in a bad mood.

He was a little angry.

If Xue 'er didn't think that it was taking too long and asked him to bring these people back, he would have been able to stay by Xue 'er's side and she wouldn't have to face the explosion alone.

Xue 'er ... Must have been frightened!

The demon's heart ached when he thought of this! They looked at uncle long and the others with cold and unfriendly eyes.

How could he still remember that he was the one who had sent uncle long and the others away?

In any case, it was their fault for letting Xue 'er face it alone and be frightened!

After that, the demon carried Xue 'er and left the dilapidated courtyard.

After the demon left, everyone was once again dumbfounded.

The Mistress of the Dark World wanted them to restore this place to its original state ...

However, the houses here were all refined by Xue 'er. Without Xue 'er's help, it would be difficult for them to build identical houses. After all, Xue 'er's armament refining skills were unparalleled.

More importantly, the materials used to refine these houses were all ordinary materials. Even if the first elder and the other armament Masters could refine the same ones, the hardness of the houses would definitely be different. At that time, wouldn't Xue 'er be able to tell with one look?

More importantly, no one believed that Xue 'er would not have heard what the Mistress of the Dark said just now. Xue 'er wasn't really stupid, she was just shocked for a moment.

Al! What should they do now?

Everyone couldn't help but sigh.

After sighing, they all turned their gazes to the few craftsmen present.

"Great elder, I'll have to trouble you. We'll be in charge of building the houses, so we'll have to leave the forging to you." Uncle long said helplessly.

It wasn't easy for him to find a place to stay in the land of chaos. Now, he was back to square one.

"We ... We'll do our best!" The head elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters said with a headache.

"Yes, yes. If there's anything you need help with, just tell me!" Uncle long said. Of course, he was just being polite because he knew that they couldn't interfere in the matter of weapon refinement at all.

When the head elder of the craftsmen's Guild heard this, he only nodded his head indifferently. Then, he brought the other craftsmen to find a place to refine.

Of course, the place they were referring to was the palace of the demon. Now that their own residence was destroyed, they could only rely on others again.

After finding the captain of the guards who was familiar with him and explaining his intentions, the captain of the guards was obviously in a difficult position.

"What, can't I?" The great elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters asked again when he saw that someone had not given a reply after a long time.

"Sure, but you guys won't blow up our place too, right?" The guard Captain asked worriedly. They had spent a long time and effort to build this Palace.

"Don't worry, we won't. We're only using ordinary materials." The chief elder of the craftsmen's Guild guaranteed.

Chapter 2892 Explosion \(2\)

"Alright then! Follow me," The captain of the guards unwillingly led the chief elder of the craftsmen's Guild to the backyard. Although he was unwilling, he did not dare to reject these people's requests. After all, they were the future netherworld Empress's people! More importantly, he was afraid that these people would complain to his Lord.

After leading the craftsmen Guild's Grand Elder and the others to a remote courtyard, the guard Captain turned around and left with a worried look.

After a certain team leader left, the armament Guild headquarters' Grand Elder and a few others looked at each other, then sighed again before starting their heavy armament refining work.

After half a month, with the efforts of several craftsmen, they finally built two courtyards. However, even so, uncle long and the others still complained about their low work efficiency.

Upon hearing this, the chief elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters was unhappy and immediately went on strike. He only left a message for uncle long and the others, "You guys can refine it yourselves!"

"....."

Uncle long and the others were collectively driven mad by the strike led by the first elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters!

"You bastard!" If they knew how to refine artifacts, they would have helped long ago, but they didn't know how to do it!

What should I do now?

Looking for Xue 'er? The Dark Lord would beat them up! More importantly, Xue 'er had been in a dazed state of silence for the past half a month, which made them extremely worried. They didn't dare to let Xue' er worry about such a small matter.

With no other choice, uncle long and the others could only go and beg the proud craftsmen. After coaxing them for a long time, they finally resumed work.

After this incident, uncle long and the others also deeply realized that in this day and age, no matter who you offended, you couldn't offend a guy with a skill! Look, they went on strike just like that, throwing the mess to them, and they just couldn't fix it! This fact made them extremely depressed.

However, even though they were depressed, they didn't dare to bring this matter up to the demon. This was because the Mistress of the Dark World had been emotionally unstable recently. She was like a time bomb that could explode at any time.

In particular, the area within a hundred-mile radius of the Mistress of the Dark World's main hall was extremely cold, almost turning into an ice cave!

The Dark Lord's main hall.

Leng ruoxue, who was placed in the main hall by the demon, sat there in a daze without saying a word. Although the demon at the side was so anxious that his hair was about to turn white, he didn't know how to comfort Xue 'er. Because no matter what he said, Xue 'er would not respond to him, which made him go crazy!

As time passed, he could only sit quietly by Xue 'er's side.

The evildoer, who had been staring at Leng ruoxue, suddenly felt Xue 'er's finger move. He quickly ran to her side and held her hand, ""Xue 'er, you're willing to talk to me now?"

Unfortunately, there was still no response.

The infuriated evildoer ran to the courtyard and roared, ""Qing Jue, damn Qing Jue, get out here!" Damn it! Green vessel must have known about the explosion, or else he would not have asked Xue 'er to come out and refine pills! However, he didn't disclose this matter at all! No one was prepared for such an outcome.

The demon was burning with anger.

However, no one responded to the demon either.

At this moment, Qing Jue, who was in the bracelet, was also gloomily drawing circles in the corner of the wall. Opposite him, a cat with a snow-white body was glaring at him with a pair of fire-spewing eyes.

"What else do you have to say?" Cang asked coldly, the hair on his body was standing up, it was obvious how angry he was.

However, green vessel ignored it. This fact made Cang even angrier.

How detestable! Do you want to be a turtle after doing something wrong?

"It's no use pretending to be mute! You have to give me a clear explanation. " Cang da roared.

"Explain what?" Qing Jue raised his head and asked gloomily.

He didn't think he had anything to explain to the cat, and more importantly, he wasn't in the mood to explain.

Sob ... His sister was ignoring him! No matter how he called out, his sister ignored him! This made Qing Jue extremely depressed.

His sister must be angry with him!

Qing Jue's heart was filled with guilt. He did know that the materials in the land of chaos would explode if they were not controlled well. However, he did not hide it on purpose. He only hoped that his sister would discover the secret herself. After all, the person who refined the pill was his sister, and he was eager for her to become a dragon.

However, he had never dreamed that an explosion would cause such a huge blow to his sister. It even made his sister close her heart, making it impossible for him to know what his sister was thinking. This made him feel extremely uneasy.

Sister, don't tell me you don't want me?

Sob ... Qing Jue was a little scared. And at this time, that annoying fellow Cang was still looking for trouble with him.

"What do you mean explain? I'm warning you, don't play dumb! Although I can't teach you a lesson here, you'll come out one day. At that time, I'll definitely teach you a lesson. " Azure roared.

"I don't have anything to explain to you," After Qing Jue finished speaking, he immediately shifted the eyesore, Cang, out of the room.

He had wanted to do this for a long time, but he was not in the mood to execute it.

Cang, who was sent out, saw that the scene in front of him had changed. In front of him was a demonic man who was also staring at him with wide eyes. The anger in his heart rose.

"What are you looking at, haven't you seen me before?" Cang shouted in a bad mood. After shouting, he immediately ran into the room to see Leng ruoxue.

It took a while for the monster who was shouted at to come back to his senses.

Your sister! He had called for Qing Jue. Why did he call this fellow out?

"Qing Jue, I told you to get out. Why did you let that cat out?" The demon was furious again.

However, at this moment, he was not in the mood to settle the score with Qing Jue. He quickly turned around and entered his room.

As soon as he entered the room, evildoer saw Cang Xiaoxiao curled up in Leng ruoxue's arms. Instantly, his anger rose again.

Damn it! Even at this time, he still did not forget to take advantage of Xue 'er!

The Furious evildoer took a few steps forward and wanted to throw Cang out of Leng ruoxue's arms. However, Cang only smiled calmly,""What, you want my position too? You're just jealous, right? If it's too big, you won't be able to get in!"

"You ..." Evildoer Azure gritted his teeth in anger. However, he couldn't deny Azure's words because he really wanted to!

"Don't quarrel. " Just then, Leng ruoxue suddenly spoke.

Hearing Xue 'er's voice, evil demon and Cang Quan were stunned. The dispute was quelled in an instant. The man and the Beast stared at Leng ruoxue in disbelief, afraid that what they heard was just an illusion.

"X-Xue 'er, are you talking?" After a long time, seeing that Xue 'er had only said that one sentence, the demon asked carefully again.

"Yes, I'm sorry to have made you worry." Leng ruoxue said guiltily.

"It's fine, it's fine, as long as you're willing to talk. " The demon was overjoyed. Xue 'er was finally awake. If he continued to ignore her, he couldn't guarantee what he would do.

Chapter 2893 Explosion \(3\)

Hearing the demon's words, Leng ruoxue felt even more guilty. In fact, she had been awake the whole time, but she was too immersed in her own thoughts. Therefore, even if she heard the demon's voice, it was like a projection, making her unable to divert her attention to respond. Everything that had happened during the pill refining process was like a movie that kept on flashing past her mind. It was only now that she was able to regain her senses.

She reached out and hugged the evildoer. Leng ruoxue didn't know what words she could use to express how touched she was.

At this moment, Cang, who was unwilling to be ignored, also spoke with a slightly choked voice, "Girl, are you trying to scare me to death!"

"I'm sorry, I didn't mean to. " Leng ruoxue gently stroked Cang's fur and said apologetically.

"You can't be blamed for this. It's all that bastard Qing Jue's fault! He knew that the medicinal ingredients would explode, but he didn't tell you. Hmph! He's the worst, Niu, don't bother with him in the future. " Cang took the opportunity to sow discord.

"Hmph! As expected, he knows. " After confirming his guess from Azure's mouth, evildoer was also furious.

"Don't be angry. I believe Qing Jue has his own reasons. " Seeing that the demon and Cang Du were angry because green vessel did not warn them in advance, Leng ruoxue could only play the peacemaker. However, deep down, she also felt that Qing Jue was really a B * stard who tricked her sister.

"Girl, you're actually speaking to him." Azure's face was filled with jealousy, and evildoer's expression was not good.

Helplessly, Leng ruoxue's thoughts changed and she brought the human and beast into the bangle.

When he felt the fluctuation of space and the familiar aura, green vessel was so excited that he came out from a corner and appeared in a flash. He then hugged Leng ruoxue's thigh tightly and wailed.

"Wuu ... Sister, Qing Jue knows his mistake! Qing Jue just wants you to figure it out yourself, really!" Qing Jue explained as he cried like a little cat.

"My ass! You just want to watch Niu's show. " After hearing this, Cang immediately roared. It would not believe green vessel's explanation!

"No, no! I'm really doing this for my sister's good. In the past, the old master had been bombarded many times when he was refining artifacts, so I didn't say anything!" Qing Jue was afraid that Leng ruoxue would not believe him, so he even brought up the embarrassing story of the imperial family.

After hearing this, Leng ruoxue was even more certain that this little thing was a fellow who had set her sister up. However, since the matter was already in the past, let's just forget about it!

However, Leng ruoxue still replied with a serious expression, "Although you want me to experience the properties of the materials in the land of chaos, you could have reminded me in advance!"

"Sister, for this kind of thing, it's better to experience it yourself than to be reminded by others. That's why I didn't say it." Qing Jue continued to reply carefully.

"....."

Leng ruoxue was depressed. Could she say that Qing Jue's words made no sense?

As it turned out, she was not mentally prepared at all. After experiencing the last explosion, she had a deep impression of it that she could not forget it even if she wanted to.

"I've already experienced it. Is there anything else I need to take note of? can you tell me now?" Leng ruoxue sighed and asked helplessly.

"I still can not! It's better for big sister to figure it out herself. " Qing Jue's mouth was still as tight as a clamshell. Although his sister had suffered a blow previously, he would still not say anything if he was asked to make a new choice.

"....."

These words nearly drove Leng ruoxue mad!

Alright! She had to figure it out herself!

After bidding farewell to green vessel, Leng ruoxue helplessly left the bracelet with evildoer and Cang.

After leaving the demon Palace, Leng ruoxue planned to go home and take a look at how destroyed it was. However, the demon was worried that Xue 'er would be provoked again, so he thought of all sorts of excuses to let Xue' er continue to stay with him.

Leng ruoxue knew what the demon was worried about, so she could only guarantee that she was fine. However, the evildoer was still worried. He reminded Xue 'er not to be sad no matter what she saw.

Hearing the demon's words, Leng ruoxue smiled helplessly.

She wasn't that weak, okay? The demon was simply treating her like a fragile glass doll.

However, when Leng ruoxue saw the state of her residence, she was still shocked.

Ugh! It seemed like all the houses had collapsed.

She could tell at a glance that the houses that were standing now were not her work.

As for uncle long and the others who were busy, they were all stunned when they saw Leng ruoxue appear. They quickly came back to their senses and ran towards Xue 'er.

"Xue 'er, you're finally fine! We were so worried. " Uncle long said with a sigh of relief. Only when Xue 'er was well would their lives be safe! Otherwise, who knew when a certain man would go crazy?

"Bad girl, I was so worried!" Master ning's eyes were also wet as he sobbed.

"I'm sorry to have made everyone worried. " Seeing everyone's reaction, Leng ruoxue could only apologize sincerely.

At this moment, the great elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters and the others also rushed over after hearing the news. However, they were not as emotional as uncle long and the others. The great elder even directly held Xue 'er's hand and said,""Little girl Xue 'er, you've come at the right time. Quickly come with us to refine our weapons."

After he finished speaking, he did not give the crowd a chance to react. He pulled Leng ruoxue and ran.

"What the hell is this!" Uncle long said speechlessly as he watched the two of them.

"Hehe!" Liu Feng didn't know how to respond and could only smile foolishly. He then gave the others a look and the few craftsmen quickly disappeared just like when they came.

"They escaped really quickly." Master ning was also speechless.

"Let them go!" Although he was left behind, this time, the evildoer was not angry.

He really hoped that Xue 'er could forget about the previous explosion and devote herself back to alchemy and forging. The great elder and the others were not only proficient in alchemy and forging, but they were also very knowledgeable, so they could guide Xue' er.

To put it bluntly, he was still worried that Xue 'er would have a shadow in her heart.

But in reality, Leng ruoxue wasn't as weak as he thought. Even though she had suffered a blow, after a long period of thinking, she had completely pulled herself together. Otherwise, she wouldn't have woken up from her dazed state.

After being pulled by the Grand Elder to a newly built courtyard dedicated to pill and tool refinement, he said with an embarrassed expression, "Xue 'er, it's okay to have an explosion while refining pills. In the past, I also had an explosion when I was refining a weapon. This is normal, don't take it to heart!"

"Yeah, I won't take it to heart." Leng ruoxue laughed lightly. She knew that first elder was only trying to comfort her. As for whether he had really exploded because he was refining a weapon back then, she had no way of finding out.

At this moment, Liu Feng and the rest had also returned. When they saw Leng ruoxue, they said the same thing.

"Did all of them explode when you were refining pills and weapons?" Blinking her eyes, Leng ruoxue deliberately asked with a smile that was not a smile.

"Uh! Of course! It's not a big deal, it's normal. " Liu Feng said with a disapproving look.

Seeing him exaggerate so much, the first elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters and the others began to break out in cold sweat. Their hearts were beating like drums. They didn't know if Xue 'er would believe them if they said so!

He stole a glance at Leng ruoxue. He seemed to believe it.

How could Leng ruoxue not believe it? Since the other party had already said so, she naturally had to cooperate! Otherwise, it would be a waste of these people's efforts. However, she couldn't deny that she was quite touched at this moment.

After some thought, she said to the first elder and the others in front of her, ""Green vessel told me that the materials in the land of chaos will explode."

"....."

The armament Guild headquarters' first elder and the others were dumbfounded. What did this mean?

It will explode?

Can't you just let me enjoy refining pills and forging equipment?

Looking at Leng ruoxue, the few professionals who were present did not know what to say.

This matter ... Was really depressing!

"Xue 'er, what should we do?" After a long time, the first elder of the craftsmen's Guild headquarters, who was out of ideas, asked.

"I'm thinking if I should send you back to Demon City," Leng ruoxue probed. However, that was what she really thought. A bomb that could explode was as unstable as a time bomb. If it hurt first elder and the others, she would definitely feel guilty.

More importantly, the first elder and the others' bodies were not as strong as hers. Even though the materials from the explosion could not hurt her, Leng ruoxue could not guarantee that first elder and the others would not be injured.

Who knew when those materials would explode!

What if the F * cking materials were to drop ...

Leng ruoxue didn't even dare to imagine the consequences.

However, when the first elder and the others heard this suggestion, their expressions all changed. It was obvious that they were all unwilling to go back.

"Xue 'er, it's not that serious, right?" First elder asked carefully.

"I can't guarantee that," Leng ruoxue replied honestly. In reality, when the materials exploded earlier, she didn't even have the time to react, so she was afraid that first elder and the others would be injured.

Hearing Xue 'er's uncertain tone, the first elder of the craftsmen's Guild looked at each other and then said in unison, ""We're not going back!"

Even if the materials would explode, they would stay here to witness the historical moment. After all, this opportunity was too rare. More importantly, their interest in the materials from the land of chaos far exceeded their fear of explosions.

To put it bluntly, this was a group of people who wanted materials more than their lives!

Seeing how stubborn they were, Leng ruoxue started to think if she should send them back by force. However, when she saw first elder and the rest's eager and hopeful eyes, she could not help but nod and agree to let them stay.

Upon seeing this, first elder and the others were happy. Leng ruoxue was a little depressed. But since she had already decided, she would not regret it.

Together with first elder and the rest, she re-completed the semi-finished product for the residence and handed the follow-up work to uncle long and the rest. Leng ruoxue then led first elder and the rest to restart her bitter path of alchemy.

This time, with the previous experience, everyone's expectations for the melting of materials in the land of chaos were significantly reduced.

This was especially so for Leng ruoxue. She had already quickly concluded the reason for the explosion of the ingredients and was now paying attention to the control of the fire.

When melting the ingredients for the second time, Leng ruoxue would adjust the heat at any time. With the previous experience, the melting of the two herbs in the land of chaos went much smoother.

Half a year later, the materials had already reached the last moment of melting.

At this moment, the alchemy room was already filled with onlookers. Everyone's eyes were fixed on the two stubborn medicinal herbs that were about to melt in the pill furnace.

This time, please don't let it explode!

Chapter 2894 Qing 'Er's Dilemma \(1\)

Everyone was praying in their hearts, but at the same time, they were extremely nervous.

Under everyone's anticipation, the medicinal ingredients that had already dissolved into liquid did not explode. However, everyone still held their breaths nervously, afraid that they would scare the medicinal liquid that had just dissolved.

They stared at it for a long time until they were certain that the medicinal liquid would not explode again. Only then did they feel relieved. At the same time, the other medicinal ingredients that Leng ruoxue had added in were also melting at an extremely fast speed ...

When they saw the speed at which the other medicinal herbs were dissolving, the people present couldn't help but sigh. If only the two medicinal herbs in the land of chaos could be as obedient as the other medicinal herbs. Unfortunately, this could only become their dream.

After an unknown period of time, the medicinal herbs that Leng ruoxue had prepared for the trial were finally all melted. Then, it was time to remove the impurities and purify them. Finally, it was pill condensation.

Every step of the pill refining process was extremely important. And if there was a mistake in any step, it could cause the pill to change. For example, failure in pill refinement or a drop in the quality of the pill.

In the process of congealing the pill, the heat control was equally important.

After Leng ruoxue adjusted the heat, she started to wait nervously.

However, after a long time, the pill that everyone was looking forward to was completed, the unique fragrance of the pill did not come out from the pill furnace. Instead, they smelled a faint burning smell.

Was this a failure?

Everyone thought in unison. However, none of them dared to say it out loud, afraid that they would hurt Leng ruoxue. However, Leng ruoxue was definitely not as weak as they thought. At this moment, she already knew that her pill refinement had failed.

Opening the furnace, Leng ruoxue saw that the medicinal liquid in the furnace had already condensed into black lumps. She calmly threw away the black rubbish and said to the crowd, ""I'll think about it first. Don't disturb me during this time. "

With that, Leng ruoxue flashed into the bracelet.

This time, even the evildoer was left outside.

Seeing this scene, everyone's faces all had a look of regret. What a pity! He had almost succeeded.

Then, they instantly felt the temperature in the alchemy room drop, which scared them so much that they hurriedly formed teams to leave.

Sob ... The Mistress of the Dark World was about to turn into an Ice Mountain again! It was too terrifying!

Everyone was so frightened by the evildoer that their little hearts were trembling, but in reality, the evildoer was not as angry as they thought. However, it was a fact that he had been ignored and left behind, so his little temper still came up.

Then, the Furious evildoer also turned around and left.

At the same time, Leng ruoxue locked herself in the purple bamboo house.

With her master's notes on alchemy in her hands, Leng ruoxue carefully searched for the part related to the chaos Divine pill. In fact, although her master had never refined Chaos Divine pills before, he had studied them and had a half-finished pill formula. The herbs she had used to refine Chaos Divine pills before were based on her master's scattered pill formulas and her own conclusions.

However, it had not been easy for the herbs in the land of chaos to not explode, but the refinement of the chaos Divine pill had not been successful. This made Leng ruoxue rather depressed.

However, she was not someone who would be discouraged by setbacks. On the contrary, difficulties would only stimulate her ambitions.

Normally speaking, in addition to the heat control, the type of medicinal ingredients and proportion were equally important. After Leng ruoxue's control of fire had reached the point of perfection, she focused on the types of medicinal herbs and their ratios.

The two main herbs that she had used to refine the chaos Divine pill were the two main herbs that her master had mentioned in the semi-finished pill recipe. The other herbs were just some supplementary herbs. If the main ingredient was correct, then the problem should be with the supplementary ingredients.

Was the type of supplementary ingredients wrong, or was the ratio wrong? When she thought about the possibility of these two reasons causing the pill refinement to fail, Leng ruoxue's head started to throb.

This was because there were only two main ingredients, but there were at least ten thousand supplementary ingredients ...

However, the process of refining elixirs, especially those that no one had ever refined before, was bound to be extremely long. Leng ruoxue was mentally prepared for this.

After she regained her spirits, Leng ruoxue took out her bracelet again. The space in the alchemy room fluctuated slightly, and the demon appeared instantly.

Looking at Leng ruoxue, the evildoer was filled with resentment.

Leng ruoxue looked at the situation and knew that this fellow was going to be tsundere again.

Sure enough, as soon as she had this thought, the demon complained, ""You actually abandoned me, speak! How are you going to compensate me?"

"Hahaha! Demon, didn't I say I wanted to calm down! Can you stop? After I've completed the heaven-defying incantation and destroyed that foggy B * tch, I'll accompany you every day until you're annoyed!" Leng ruoxue laughed as she coaxed.

Even though Leng ruoxue's words were not considered sweet talk, the evildoer still felt comfortable after hearing them. However, he still said fiercely, ""I won't be annoyed, never!"

"Good! He wouldn't be annoyed! Once we're done with the ripple mist bitch, I'll stick to you every day. " Leng ruoxue continued to guarantee.

"Yes, you said it. You can't go back on your words." The demon's eyes flashed as he asked with uncertainty.

"I promise I won't go back on my word." Leng ruoxue said seriously.

"Then you can continue to refine pills! I won't disturb you anymore. I'll just sit and not talk. " The demon said like an obedient child, but he was extremely proud in his heart. He finally got Xue 'er's promise, hehe!

Seeing that she had appeased the evildoer, Leng ruoxue was relieved. She sat back in front of the pill furnace and began her pill refining journey with full concentration ...

Fiend city in the divine realm.

In the garden of the Leng family's main residence, there were a few Men in Black who were so bored that they were panicking.

One of them was half-lying and half-sitting, and his bones seemed to have broken. The expression on his face was listless. This person was none other than mu li.

"Why aren't Leng ruoxue and the rest back yet?" After a long time, mu li finally spoke.

"I don't know," The man at the side replied with a cold face.

"Ai! It's so boring!" Mu li said again. Unfortunately, no one paid attention to him this time. In fact, the few people present had already gotten used to mu Li's occasional whimpers.

Normally, during the time when Leng ruoxue and the others were away, Ming GE and the others were still normal. The only one who was abnormal was mu li.

Previously, when the regulations of the heaven and earth were staying here, mu li was quite like a normal person and often hid in the room and did not go out. However, the regulations of the heaven and earth had a lot of work to do, so they naturally could not stay here often. Once the regulations of the heaven and earth left, mu li would become this disdainful appearance.

He was really hopeless!

No! If he wanted mu li to return to normal, he would have to wait for Leng ruoxue and the rest to return immediately.

However, that was impossible!

However, this time, they had left for quite a long time. In the blink of an eye, several decades had passed.

Thinking of this, Mingge felt a little worried.

In order to be a responsible guard for Leng ruoxue and the others, he had not left Demon City for a long time to wander around the divine realm.

Chapter 2895 Qing 'Er's Dilemma \(2\)

The others seemed to have sensed Mingge's thoughts, and suddenly, the atmosphere in the garden turned heavy.

At this moment, a huge white Tiger ran in from the outside in a panic. Before it could stand still, The White Tiger said anxiously, "City Lords, I have something to report."

This White Tiger was the current head elder of The White Tiger race. Right now, it already knew the identities of mu li and the others, as well as their relationship with Leng ruoxue. Hence, it was extremely respectful towards them, treating itself as their subordinate.

"Grand Elder, what's the matter?" Hearing the big white Tiger's words, mu Li's eyelids twitched slightly and she asked indifferently.

"A Little Phoenix has come to ask for help from miss Leng, saying that it is on the orders of the elder of the Phoenix tribe." The great elder quickly reported.

"The Phoenix Clan? Aren't the Phoenix Clan guarding the foot of the mountain with you? Where did this Little Phoenix come from?" Hearing this, mu li couldn't help but frown.

"That Little Phoenix is called Qing 'er, and it seems to know miss Leng. He claimed to be an old acquaintance of miss Leng!" The White Tiger first elder replied honestly, then added, "I've already confirmed Qing 'er's identity from the other phoenixes. That little fellow is indeed from the Phoenix Clan. However, he has already left home many years ago. "

"I see!" Mu li pondered. This matter seemed to be a little difficult to handle because he wasn't Leng ruoxue and he couldn't contact her. If that was the case, he wouldn't be able to prove the identity of the little Phoenix called Qing 'er. If she was sent by the fog ripple sect, the consequences would be unimaginable.

"Let the little Phoenix in!" Mingge suddenly said.

"Are you sure? Aren't you afraid that she was sent by the mist?" Mu li raised his eyebrows and asked.

"What's there to be afraid of? Do you think that bitch, Wu Cheng, will catch us and suck our blood?" Ming GE teased. Their blood was not good to drink! It was filled with the aura of the netherworld prison. If the mist ripple really drank their blood, she would definitely have indigestion.

"That's true," Hearing Ming GE's words, mu li also laughed.

Not long after, Qing 'er was carried in.

The moment mu li saw Qing 'er, his eyes widened in disbelief.

Wasn't this little fellow in a sorry state?

His clothes were in a mess, and he was covered in wounds. He was also unconscious.

How were they going to interrogate him?

"First elder, you're giving us a difficult problem!" Mu li sighed and was speechless.

"Uh! Mu li city Lord, we don't have any good healing pills on hand. " The White Tiger first elder's face was slightly red as he spoke. What he meant was, muli City Master, I'm counting on you.

Mu li was helpless and glared at The White Tiger first elder. Then, he took out a Supreme-grade healing pill and handed it to The White Tiger in front of him.

After receiving the healing pill, The White Tiger great elder couldn't help but take a few deep breaths. His heart was choked with sobs."Oh ... It smells so good!" It was really a good healing medicinal pill. If it could have such a healing medicinal pill, it would be willing to die!

At this moment, a single healing elixir had strengthened The White Tiger first elder's determination to suck up to Leng ruoxue. Following Leng ruoxue would give him meat to eat! This was something that all the beasts had already decided on.

After reluctantly feeding the pill to the unconscious Qing 'er, The White Tiger first elder still felt some pain in his heart! Mu Li's forehead was filled with black lines when he saw this scene. That pill was his, alright? Why did this Tiger's heart ache for her?!

Not long after, Qing 'er woke up.

She looked around and saw a few strange men. Qing 'er was on guard."Where is this place? And who are you?" It was a good thing she knew The White Tiger first elder. Otherwise, she would have taken out her weapon to defend herself.

"You came here on your own, yet you don't know where you are?" Mu li asked with a faint smile when she saw the woman's nervous expression.

"This ... This is Demon City?" Qing 'er asked with uncertainty.

Then, she turned to express her gratitude to The White Tiger great elder. "Great Elder White Tiger, thank you for saving me. Qing 'er will definitely repay this favor one day."

Hearing this, a few drops of cold sweat fell from The White Tiger great elder's forehead. He quickly said, "Little girl Qing 'er, I'm not the one who saved you. It's him!"

The great elder of White Tiger pointed at mu li. He did not dare to claim the credit. If the city Lord of mu li city was displeased, he would be the one in trouble!

However, Qing 'er clearly didn't want to give mu li the credit, and continued to speak to The White Tiger great elder, "Then I have to thank you all. If you didn't bring me here to look for Leng ruoxue, I wouldn't have been able to come here."

The White Tiger first elder was helpless against Qing 'er's stubbornness.

Wu ... Why did Qing 'er, this little girl, decide on me? This made it feel quite uncomfortable.

After taking a few deep breaths, The White Tiger first elder said honestly, "Little girl Qing 'er, I didn't bring you here. In fact, you've already arrived at the foot of the demon city's Mountain."

The White Tiger first elder's words implied that he wanted to say, "don't push the credit to me. I can't take it!"

However, Qing 'er was certain that The White Tiger first elder had helped her, so she had to thank him no matter what. In the end, she made The White Tiger first elder depressed and quickly fled the place.

Watching The White Tiger great elder's back, Qing 'er turned around and said to mu li fiercely, "Even if you saved me, I won't thank you."

"I don't need your thanks." Mu li said nonchalantly. At most, he could ask Leng ruoxue for a few healing medicinal pills!

However, in the face of the little Phoenix who didn't want to repay his kindness but treated him as an enemy, mu li couldn't help but ask, "We know each other? Do we have a grudge? Why are you so hostile to me?"

"We don't know each other, and we don't have any grudges!" When Qing 'er heard mu Li's question, she was stunned for a moment before replying.

"..." Mu li was speechless. Where did the little Phoenix's hostility come from?

Seeing mu Li's confusion, Qing 'er shouted again, "Who asked you to be Leng ruoxue's man!"

Mu li continued to be speechless. He was on Leng ruoxue's side, so this Little Phoenix was hostile towards him? Then why did she come to Leng ruoxue for help? Wasn't this self-contradictory?

He deeply felt that the little Phoenix in front of him was really conflicted.

In fact, Qing 'er was more than conflicted! He was simply depressed.

Even though she didn't really hate Leng ruoxue, she still had a very strong opinion of her for hurting old Grand Madame. Especially after she found out that Leng ruoxue was the main culprit who caused the elders of the Feng clan to run away from home, her opinion of Leng ruoxue grew even stronger. But now, she had no choice but to seek help from Leng ruoxue. This caused the proud Qing 'er to feel so depressed that she wanted to scratch the wall. But if she didn't look for Leng ruoxue, who else could she look for?

In the entire immortal realm, Qing 'er had thought for a long time, but she still couldn't find a suitable candidate.

Those powerful clansmen had already left home a long time ago, so she definitely could not count on them. She did not have the ability to do so either. Hence, even if she was extremely unwilling, she still had to ask Leng ruoxue for help. More importantly, this was also the intention of those few elders. Initially, Qing 'er wanted to go against her words, but after thinking about it, she couldn't find anyone who could help her, and was even willing to help her.

Chapter 2896 Qing 'Er's Dilemma \(3\)

Even though she had gone through a lot of trouble to get to Demon City, she was not sure if Leng ruoxue would be willing to help her. After all, she and Leng ruoxue did not have a good relationship, and it was the same for the Phoenix Clan. Hence, she could not think of a reason why Leng ruoxue would help her.

But even so, she felt that she could not lower her voice and beg Leng ruoxue, who had caused her clansmen to be unable to return home. She had to bring out the pride of the Phoenix Clan!

With this thought in mind, the little Phoenix Qing 'er, who had always been well-protected, began to act tsundere.

"Alright! I'm Leng ruoxue's man, so even if I took out an expensive healing pill to save you, you're still not willing to be grateful. Then may I ask this Little Phoenix, why are you still here to seek help? Asking your enemy to help you? Do you think that's possible?" Mu li asked after a long time.

"It's ... It's old Grand Madame who asked me to come. He said that if Leng ruoxue knew, she would definitely show up." Qing 'er was so depressed that she could only bring up her ancestor. Otherwise, she really didn't know how to face her tangled heart.

"Are you sure?" Mu li sensed something different in her words. Could it be that the old ancestor that the little Phoenix was talking about had some kind of unspeakable relationship with Leng ruoxue?

Mu li guessed to himself. From time to time, he turned to look at Ming GE and the others. Seeing that they also had a thoughtful expression, he knew that these guys had the same thoughts as him.

"Of course! Could the words of the old ancestor be false? What about Leng ruoxue? I want to see her!" Qing 'er nodded with certainty.

"She's not here. " Mu li said honestly.

"Not here? How could he not be here? You're not lying to me, right? The Phoenix's life is in danger, don't joke around!" The moment she heard that Leng ruoxue wasn't around, Qing 'er's intuition told her that the man in front of her wanted to take revenge and lied to her. In her desperation, she was so anxious that she was on the verge of tears.

"She's really not here. She left Demon City a long time ago. If you don't believe me, you can ask your family! Aren't they at the foot of the mountain?" Mu li said unhappily when he saw that he was being doubted. Although he was from the nine nether nether nether prison, he had never lied, let alone being doubted by a little girl. This made him quite angry, so his tone was not very friendly.

But when Qing 'er heard this, she really turned around to confirm it. However, as it was Qing 'er's first time in the newly built Demon City, she was lost in the forest before she could even leave the mountain.

Through the light screen, mu li saw that the little Phoenix had lost its way, but he did not sympathize with it at all. It was Ming GE who couldn't stand it anymore and sent a message to the great elder of White Tiger, asking him to take Qing 'er out safely. Otherwise, the little Phoenix would probably still be running around in the forest like a headless fly!

Once they were out of the forest, Qing 'er didn't waste a single moment as she pulled on a Phoenix and asked, "Is Leng ruoxue really not in Demon City?"

"He's not here. " Phoenix, who was held back by Qing 'er, replied honestly.

"Then what are you guys doing here?" Qing 'er asked.

"I'm looking after miss Leng's house!" The Phoenix said matter-of-factly. The three clans had long reached an agreement to stay here until miss Leng returned. They would perform well and strive to leave a good impression on miss Leng so that they could hug her thigh.

"Guard the house? You're noble phoenixes, but you're actually looking after a human's home? Where is your dignity? Where was his pride? Did you feed them all to the dogs?" Upon hearing the Phoenix's reply, Qing 'er was instantly enraged.

Even though she had come to seek help from Leng ruoxue under the orders of her Grand Madame, she had never thought that she was inferior to her. However, the performance of her clansmen had completely disappointed her!

The Phoenix Clan had always been proud! But now, the Phoenix Clan was Leng ruoxue's watchdog! How could she accept this?

At that time, she had fainted after saying a few words to her clansmen. Hence, she did not realize that her clansmen had already set up camp at the foot of Leng ruoxue's Demon City mountain. Now that she knew about it, one could imagine the impact it had on her.

However, the Phoenix Clansman was obviously not happy to hear Qing 'er's words, and retorted, "Miss Qing 'er, how can you say that? Do you think that the current Phoenix Clan is still the noble, beautiful, and superior Phoenix Clan of the past? Since the elders all left home that year, the reputation of the Phoenix Clan has been greatly reduced. Last time, many of the Phoenix clan's clansmen were captured by that witch, mist ripple. If it wasn't for miss Leng who saved us, I'm afraid you wouldn't be able to see us now. Miss Leng is our benefactor, so as a Phoenix who will repay kindness, I will never allow you to slander us like this. What's wrong with guarding the door for humans? We're repaying a favor!"

This Phoenix spoke with such confidence that the other phoenixes also chided Qing 'er, "Miss Qing 'er, we're not like you, who has a noble status and a direct ancestor like the sixth elder to support you. We're just ordinary members of the Phoenix Clan, and we don't have any backing. We're also weak.

Back then, when you ran away from home, did you consider the situation of ordinary phoenixes like us? What right do you have to blame us now? What's wrong with us guarding miss Leng's door? Miss Leng saved us. Without her, we would have died long ago! Where was miss Qing 'er at that time?"

"It is! You're speaking as if we've done something wrong! If miss Qing 'er has so much dignity and ability, why would she still come and beg miss Leng?"

The phoenixes chimed in one after another, criticizing Qing 'er to the point where she had no place to hide. At this moment, The White Tiger first elder couldn't stand it anymore and walked over. "Don't talk about Qing 'er like that, she just doesn't know our current situation. ai! You can't blame her for this!"

"Great elder, although we can't blame her entirely, she doesn't have the right to come up and criticize us! "At least your White Tiger race still has some elders around, but look at our Phoenix race ..." As she spoke, the Phoenix choked up and couldn't continue.

With one Phoenix taking the lead, the other phoenixes also recalled the current tragic situation of their own kind. For a moment, all of them burst into tears.

As for Qing 'er, she had been too shocked today, and was completely stunned.

Seeing this, The White Tiger great elder could only pull Qing 'er over kindly and explain the current situation of the beast race in the divine realm to her.

As he spoke, The White Tiger great elder sighed, while Qing 'er remained silent. By the time The White Tiger great elder finished his long-winded speech, Qing' er's eyes had already turned red.

The White Tiger first elder could only sigh helplessly.

He could understand Qing 'er's feelings. Whoever found out about their clan's current state would not feel good in their hearts. In comparison, their White Tiger clan was still considered fine. At least they still had him, the great elder, around. As for the Phoenix Clan ... Ai!

"I ... I didn't expect the Phoenix Clan to be like this." After a long time, Qing 'er sobbed. Although she knew that there were no elders in the Phoenix Clan, she thought that the Phoenix King should be there. Who knew that the Phoenix Clan was now without a leader?

"I didn't expect this either! It's all because of that bitch, Wu Yan. " The White Tiger first elder said hatefully.

"Why doesn't the Phoenix King Care about the Phoenix Clan?" Qing er couldn't help but ask.

"Don't mention it, it's a long story!" The great elder of The White Tiger clan obviously didn't want to talk about this matter, and he hadn't told Qing 'er about the Phoenix King's current whereabouts. It was better not to let this little girl know. Otherwise, it was really afraid of causing trouble.

"Has the Phoenix King fallen?" Seeing that the great elder of The White Tiger clan didn't mention it, Qing 'er could only guess.

"Your Phoenix King is not dead. She is our prisoner now!" Just as the great elder of White Tiger was hesitating on how to answer this question, mu Li's voice suddenly rang in their ears.

When he turned around and saw mu li and the others, The White Tiger great elder left tactfully.

"You captured the Phoenix King?" Qing 'er angrily questioned.

"It wasn't us. To be more precise, it was you who requested for Leng ruoxue to capture the Phoenix King. However, he brought this upon himself and can't blame anyone else!" Mu li explained with a smile.

"Why did you capture the Phoenix King?" Qing 'er asked again.

"What, Little Phoenix, you don't know at all? Go and ask your family! I don't have the time to answer your questions. " Mu li said calmly. After that, he led Ming GE and the others away quietly, just like they had come.

Qing 'er's anger rose when she saw that the other party had left just like that. However, she did not forget the reason why she had come here. She adjusted her emotions and admitted her mistake to the clan members. Then, she carefully asked them about the Phoenix King.

Facing Qing 'er, who was willing to change for the better, these ordinary phoenixes were still very forgiving. Knowing Qing' er's question, they patiently explained the unspeakable conflict between the Phoenix King and Leng ruoxue.

This time, Qing 'er finally understood the inside story. The hatred between the Phoenix Clan and Leng ruoxue was as deep as the sea!

But now, these ordinary clansmen were guarding Leng ruoxue's door, and the old Grand Madame had instructed her to seek help from Leng ruoxue. She even said that Leng ruoxue was the only one who could help them.

Such a fact caused the innocent and impulsive Qing 'er to be even more confused. What should she do?

It was obviously unrealistic to ask these ordinary clansmen to go with Leng ruoxue to save the people. However, Leng ruoxue was not around ...

Qing 'er was at a loss.

The great elder of White Tiger could see Qing 'er's dilemma, so he gave her an idea to ask the city Lord of muli city for help.

"Him? That pretty boy? Can he do it?" Qing 'er was rather suspicious of The White Tiger great elder's suggestion.

Hearing Qing 'er's words, The White Tiger great elder's forehead was immediately covered in cold sweat. He pulled Qing' er and said with a face full of fear, ""Little girl, don't talk nonsense! Be careful of trouble from your mouth! Didn't your ancestors teach you that you can't judge a book by its cover? You can't judge a person just by their appearance. I can tell you this, the strength of the MU li City Master is definitely stronger than that of your old ancestor!"

"Really?" Qing 'er was still a little suspicious. She really couldn't tell that the pretty boy was so strong!

"Why Would I Lie to You? Now that miss Leng isn't here, the only people you can ask for help from are the few of them!" The White Tiger first elder said speechlessly. Only now did he realize that some insensible little girls were really not cute.

Chapter 2897 Ordinary Chaos Divine Pill \(1\)

"But ..." Qing 'er was still a little hesitant after hearing The White Tiger great elder's words. She seemed to have offended that annoying man before. Would that man help her?

She had heard that humans were vengeful, so Qing 'er was not sure if they would stand up for the Phoenix Clan. When The White Tiger great elder saw that Qing 'er seemed to be a little unhappy, he immediately felt a little displeased. According to his thinking, at this time, why are you still putting on the airs of a noble Phoenix? Wasn't saving people the number one priority?

Of course, The White Tiger first elder had made the same mistake. So, even if it was dissatisfied, it only treated Qing 'er as an insensible child who had taken the wrong path. Thus, The White Tiger first elder was very anxious to give Qing 'er a chance to admit her mistake.

After all, they were all members of the beast clan, and it really didn't want to see its little friend in any danger. Thus, after thinking for a moment, it continued to persuade, "Little girl Qing 'er, there's nothing wrong with listening to the great elder! The great elder won't harm you! I'm telling you, as long as you lower your stance in front of these people from Demon City, there's nothing wrong with it! But if you've always thought highly of yourself and want to ask for help ..."

The great elder of The White Tiger clan had only spoken half of his sentence when he stopped. He believed that Qing 'er should have understood his meaning, right?

However, Qing 'er didn't even think in that direction. When she heard The White Tiger great elder ask her to lower her stance, her anger rose again.

"Grand Elder, we're the Best of the Beast race. How can we lower our heads to a human?" Qing 'er said with a face full of dissatisfaction. If the other party was Leng ruoxue, she might have followed The White Tiger great elder's instructions. But now that Leng ruoxue wasn't here, she was truly unwilling to lower her head to a stranger. In particular, she didn't know the man's true strength at all. What if he was just a pretty boy who looked like an embroidered pillow? wouldn't she be wasting her expression and time?

"Little girl Qing 'er, the reality is so! We still need the protection of Demon city's residents. What else do you want if you don't lower your stance? If you continue to act high and mighty like before, you'll be thrown out of Demon City. " The White Tiger first elder said with a face full of disappointment.

It had been thrown away before!

Sob ... The White Tiger first elder choked with sobs as he thought of his own blood and tears. It truly hoped that this Little Phoenix girl would not make the same mistake as it did in the past and face the people of Demon City with the most sincere attitude. However, it seemed that it would be difficult now!

"We four king beast clans are noble, aren't we? Besides, I believe that even if I'm the same as before, the people here won't throw me out. Didn't humans have a saying, 'even if you don't give face to the monk, give face to the Buddha'? They won't dare to throw me out for the sake of our ancestor. " Qing 'er was full of confidence.

When The White Tiger first elder heard these words, he couldn't help but secretly complain. Who the hell is your family's old ancestor! Even if the human Qilin race made a mistake, they would still throw it away, so what more do you have?

Although The White Tiger first elder was disappointed, he felt that he had already said what he needed to say. He had already done his best. Qing 'er was also a person with endless oil and salt, so the first elder, who felt that there was nothing more to say, turned around and went to do what he was doing.

For a time, Qing 'er was completely ignored.

None of the orcs that were stationed at the foot of the demon city's Mountain paid any attention to her. Even if she wanted to talk to orcs, they would say that they had other matters to attend to. As such, she was completely ignored at the foot of the mountain.

Qing 'er only realized this after two days, and she was so angry that she almost vomited blood.

However, Qing 'er had a strong sense of self-esteem. Since no beast was willing to pay attention to her, she wouldn't use her warm face to stick to their cold ass. Thus, in a fit of anger, she entered the forest outside Demon City.

She had thought it through. Since Leng ruoxue wasn't around, she could only pull those few men to make up the numbers.

Although she still had some doubts about the strength of the unfamiliar men, she could only try as a last resort in the current situation.

Qing 'er's plan was very good, but before she could reach the Leng family's main residence, she was lost in the forest again.

In the garden of the Leng family's main residence.

Mu Li, Ming GE, and the others were sitting in the garden, watching the little Phoenix running around in the forest through the light screen. But this time, no one said anything about rescuing Qing 'er.

Several days later, Qing 'er, who was trapped in the forest, was on the verge of a mental breakdown. Driven mad, she simply shouted at the top of her lungs, ""Help! Let me out!"

In the garden, mu li, who saw this scene, laughed very happily. When he was done laughing, he turned around and asked the person beside him, ""Do you want to let her out?"

"Whatever you want! She won't find trouble with me after she comes out anyway. " Ming GE said, gloating.

"You mean, she'll find trouble with me?" Mu li raised his eyebrows and couldn't help but ask.

"Yes." Mingge was certain. Over the past few days, he had gained some understanding of the little Phoenix's awkward character.

The little Phoenix was hostile to the people of Demon City, but it had no choice but to seek help. With such conflicting emotions, it would be strange if the little fellow's temper was good.

However, Little Phoenix's temper was none of his business as long as it didn't provoke him. Of course, he was very willing to see the city Lord of muli city suffer! This was his current state of mind.

Seeing that Ming GE was so certain, mu Li's temper also rose, and she said fiercely, ""I don't believe you. I'll go get her!"

After saying that, mu li teleported and disappeared. When he reappeared, he had a human-shaped piece of trash in his hand.

Mu li threw Qing 'er to the ground and sat down in her original position.

Qing 'er wasn't prepared for that annoying man to be so rough, and she fell to the ground.

Pathetically crawling up from the ground, Qing 'er angrily shouted at mu li, ""You ... You're too much! How can you do this to me?"

"Then how do you want me to treat me?" Mu li blinked and asked in confusion.

"Can't you be gentler? I'm a noble Phoenix after all. " Qing 'er continued to shout.

"A noble Phoenix?" These four words made mu li seriously size up Qing 'er. After carefully looking around, he said with a face full of regret, ""How come I didn't see it?"

At this moment, Qing 'er was still in a sorry state. She was still in her tattered clothes, so mu li couldn't tell that the little Phoenix in front of her had the shadow of a noble Phoenix.

It was more like a phoenix in a sorry state.

"You ..." Qing 'er was very angry, but then she remembered that she didn't look noble at all, so she calmed down.

After a long moment of silence, Qing 'er unwillingly opened her mouth and said, ""You guys, can you help me save my ancestor?"

"We can not! We have to guard the house!" After hearing Qing 'er's words, mu li rejected her without even thinking.

"You ... Are you still a man? You can't even agree to a woman's request?" When Qing 'er heard the other party reject her, her anger rose again and she roared with a face full of hatred.

Chapter 2898 Ordinary Chaos Divine Elixir \(2\)

"What, if you don't agree to a woman's request, you're not a man? If that's the case, then don't treat me as a man. I don't mind! By the way, not all women's requests will be accepted by men. That man would be dead tired!" Mu li said disapprovingly. Ever since the Mistress of the Dark World had netherworld, she had always taught them not to interfere in the affairs of strange women! Otherwise, he would get into trouble! He had always kept this in mind!

"You can reject other women's requests, but you must agree to mine." Qing 'er's voice was overbearing.

"Give me a reason?" Mu li said with a smile. Obviously, he was in a good mood. But Ming GE and the others knew that the city Lord of mu li city was in the mood to tease the little Phoenix because he was too bored. Otherwise, he would have slapped the little Phoenix flat.

"I ... I'm from the Phoenix Clan." Qing 'er said after some thought.

"What's wrong with the Phoenix Clan? Was the Phoenix Clan very impressive? Then why did you seek help from Demon City?" Mu li said disdainfully.

"The old ancestor asked me to come. Do you think I wanted to come?" Hearing mu Li's words, Qing 'er's anger began to rise again.

"You don't want to come, but can you find anyone else to help you? The Phoenix King? Now that he was a prisoner, he was looking for the ripple witch? That woman couldn't wait for a Phoenix to walk right into her trap! Who else could you be looking for?" Mu li said very honestly.

And this truth, had provoked Qing 'er.

The impulsive Qing 'er felt that she had come here today to be humiliated, so she didn't even think about it and shouted angrily, ""I'll look for anyone but you! I really regret coming here! You guys can just pretend I never came! I'll leave now!"

After she finished speaking, the Furious Qing 'er turned around and left.

"Aiya, what an impulsive Little Phoenix. Actually, I was just teasing her. Why can't she hold it in? In fact, if she let me teach her a lesson, I might soften my heart and help her. " Looking at Qing 'er's back, mu Li's face was filled with regret.

"You're just shooting after the horse! He's already gone, so of course you can say whatever you want. " Hearing mu Li's words, Ming GE rolled her eyes and said.

"How can this be considered belated effort? I truly thought so." Mu li said, feeling wronged.

However, his words made Ming GE roll her eyes again.

When Ming Song had enough of his contempt, he asked again, ""Are we really not going to help? This Little Phoenix's old ancestor might have some sort of relationship with Leng ruoxue. "

"So what? There's only a few of us in Demon City now. If ripple mist sends people to ambush us while we're not around, how are we going to explain this to Leng ruoxue?" Mu li said with a troubled expression.

"Why don't we send someone to check on her?" After thinking for a while, mu li said.

"Then who should we send?" Mingge asked calmly. Among the few of them, the muli City Master was the strongest.

"Yup! Who should we send?" Mu Li's eyes darted around Ming GE and the others.

"There's no need to think about it. It's you, city Lord of muli city." Seeing that mu li seemed to be thinking, Ming GE quickly said.

"Why should I go?" Mu li was dumbfounded. He looked at their expectant expressions. They all wanted him to do it personally! This bunch of disloyal things!

"You're the most powerful among us." Mingge said matter-of-factly.

"Shouldn't the most powerful one stay behind to guard the place?" Mu li asked in confusion.

"Since only one person has been sent, the one with the highest strength should, of course, come forward. Otherwise, if we go instead and fail to save the person, we will have to trouble you to save him instead!" Mingge said matter-of-factly.

"..." Mu li was depressed. This seemed to be a reason.

"But, I'm not on good terms with that Little Phoenix." Mu li reminded.

"It's okay. Feelings need to be cultivated slowly. It will get better with time." Ming GE consoled.

Seeing that the people in front of him had already made up their minds to let him come forward, mu li felt that it was useless to say anything more. Then, he teleported again and disappeared.

"Is the city Lord of muli city angry?" "What's going on?" the weakest among them asked cautiously.

"No, I haven 't. He accepted this fact and went to bond with the little Phoenix." Mingge said with a smile.

Hearing Ming GE's words, the others immediately calmed down.

Not long after, the struggling Qing 'er was carried back by mu li, and this time, she was also thrown on the ground.

"Detestable! What are you trying to do?" Qing 'er was furious. This guy was really too annoying. He actually caught her again.

Hmph! So what if you're strong? Qing 'er was furious.

"I'm helping you, don't you know? A lost Little Phoenix." Mu li smiled calmly.

"Who needs your help? although I've lost my way, I'll be able to get out in a while." Qing 'er said stubbornly.

"If I don't help you, you'll never be able to get out of here." Mu li cruelly exposed Qing 'er's fantasy, and then asked, ""Where's your ancestor now? What's the situation?"

"Why should I tell you?" When Qing 'er heard this, she reflexively refused to cooperate.

"If you don't want to save your ancestor, you don't have to say anything." Mu li said calmly.

"You ... You're willing to save my family's old ancestor?" Qing 'er asked in disbelief. How was this possible? How could this annoying man change his mind?

Could it be that a man's heart was like a Needle at the Bottom of the Sea?

Qing 'er was so shocked that her face was filled with disbelief. Her eyes were wide open, and her jaw was about to fall to the ground.

"Tell me about the situation first." Mu li had lost his patience. This Little Phoenix was really not smart.

"If I tell you, will you help me save my ancestor?" Qing 'er asked with uncertainty.

"You don't understand human language, do you? I'll let you tell me the situation, then decide whether to save or not!" Mu Li's anger rose, and he shouted angrily. He couldn't help but think, "if your ancestor is in the hands of that bitch, do I have to save him?" Wouldn't that be suicide?

"Our ancestor is trapped in the abandoned land." When Qing 'er heard mu Li's words, although she was a little unhappy, she was very cooperative this time and didn't go against it.

"The abandoned land? What is that place?" Mu li and the others looked at each other. They had been in the divine world for a long time, but they had never heard of that place.

"The abandoned land is the place where the Three Kings of the beast clan are sealed. Later on, the number of people there gradually increased, and it gradually formed the current scale. Now, the local people call it the city of abandoned land." Qing 'er explained.

"In order to save me, my family's three ancestors offended the city Lord, so they were captured by the city Lord. You have to save them, please." Qing 'er hesitated for a moment before continuing, crying and pleading. At this moment, she deeply realized that her dignity and pride could not compare to the safety of her ancestors. If she could not save the three ancestors, she would definitely die of guilt.

Chapter 2899 Ordinary Chaos Divine Pill \(3\)

At this moment, she had placed all her hopes on this detestable man in front of her.

When mu li heard this, he frowned and asked, ""How strong are your three ancestors?"

"They're both reverent-god level. " Qing 'er replied without the slightest hesitation.

Reverent-God?

Mu li was at a loss. The three Hierarch-level beasts were all trapped in the abandoned land. He might not be able to save them even if he went alone.

However, he knew very well that if he refused now, this Little Phoenix would probably break down. Mu li, who had no idea what to do, turned to look at Ming GE, hoping that he would give her some advice.

"Qing 'er, Little Phoenix, we still need to think this through," said Ming GE with a smile.

"Then will you help me save her?" The uncertain Qing 'er couldn't help but ask.

"We don't know much about the situation in the deserted land. If we go there rashly, we might be trapped there, let alone save people. And you must have gone through a lot of trouble to escape from there, right?" Mingge asked with a smile.

"Yes, I am!" Qing 'er sobbed. If it wasn't for the fact that they wanted to save her and help her escape from the desolate lands, the three old ancestors wouldn't have to take any risks. But now, she was fine, yet it was unknown if the three old ancestors were still alive or dead. Such a truth was simply causing her to collapse.

"What's the strength of the city Lord of the deserted land? How many reverent-god level experts are there?" Mingge narrowed her eyes and continued to ask.

"I don't know how many reverent-god level experts there are. I only know that their City Master is a reverent-god level expert." After thinking for a while, Qing 'er said honestly.

Hearing Qing 'er's words, Ming GE was truly speechless. How could he save people happily like this? He was not clear about the situation in the abandoned land at all. Wasn't this sending sheep into the Tiger's mouth?

The smart Mingge would never do such a stupid thing. Of course, he wouldn't let mu li do it, so he directly became an evil person and said, "Qing 'er, Little Phoenix, it's not that we don't want to help you. It's just that this matter is a little difficult to handle."

"Why would it be difficult? The great elder of The White Tiger told me that you are very strong, and that you are definitely not inferior to the three ancestors of my family. He would not lie to me! I know, you guys didn't plan to help me save her, did you?" In a fit of anger, Qing 'er became angry again.

"If you really want to put it that way, I can't do anything about it." Mingge was too lazy to explain to the little girl, and she gave mu li a look.

Mu li understood. He picked up Qing 'er's collar and teleported to the foot of the mountain, handing her over to The White Tiger great elder. Of course, before he left, he didn't forget to ask The White Tiger great elder to counsel this Little Phoenix, in case it did anything stupid.

They returned to the garden. Before they could sit down, Mingge said bluntly, "If we really want to save her, we can only inform the Lord."

"You think I don't want to? I have to be able to contact the Lord first!" Mu li said gloomily. Now that his Lord was not paying attention to him at all, he was quite worried.

Wu ... His Lord must be despising him! But he didn't do anything wrong. Mu li felt that he had been wronged.

"Let's all try!" Mingge said helplessly. If they really couldn't get in touch, then they could only blame the three phoenixes for their bad luck.

Mingge nodded, and then the others began to try to contact the demon.

In reality, the demon had cut off his connection with mu li not only because he wanted to punish him, but also because he didn't want him to disturb him. As a result, he didn't receive the news that the laws of heaven and earth were hiding in the immortal realm. Now, mu li naturally couldn't contact him.

As for Ming GE and the others, it had always been mu Li's one-way contact, so it was very difficult for them to contact the demon.

Of course, if the demon was in the nine Underworlds, Ming GE and the others might have a chance to contact him. But the demon was in the chaotic world, where the signal blocking was quite strong. As a result, they had completely lost contact with their master.

At this very moment, Leng ruoxue had been refining Chaos Divine pills for at least a few decades, but she had never succeeded. And the number of times she had tried it was basically uncountable.

After countless adjustments in the types and ratios of the ingredients, two pills were produced. However, after Qing Jue's appraisal, they were not Chaos Divine pills. However, the grade of the pills was not low either. It was just that the effects were unknown. In the end, the pills that were produced by accident were taken advantage of by uncle long and the others.

Right now, the crowd was already rather calm about Leng ruoxue's refinement of the chaos Divine pill. Therefore, other than Shen nuo, Liuyue, and Jiang Ning, who were still surrounding Leng ruoxue to watch her refine pills, the others had long lost interest in this. Even the demon only appeared in the alchemy room from time to time. The rest of the time, he would directly target uncle long and the others.

To put it nicely, he was giving them special training.

Uncle long and the others were quite worried about this. They were already reverent-god level, could they still surpass reverent-god level in special training? The answer was, of course, no! For ordinary cultivators, reverent-God was the highest level. Unless they had the same opportunity as Xue 'er, they would just be reverent-God for the rest of their lives!

But now, the Dark Lord was giving them special training! What the hell is this?

In fact, to put it bluntly, the secret mistress's so-called special training was just to fight with them. They knew that Xue 'er didn't have time to accompany the Mistress of the Dark World, and the Mistress of the Dark World had no place to vent her energy, so she came to them!

But even if they knew this, they didn't want to become live targets, right? Unfortunately, the demon didn't care if they were willing or not. He directly found someone and started fighting without saying a word. As a result, uncle long and the others simply closed their doors and did not come out. However, even so, they could not prevent the evildoers from directly looking for them.

This continued for a long time. Uncle long and the others, who were tortured, prayed that Xue 'er could quickly refine the chaos Divine pill and end their doomsday-like lives.

One day, it was uncle Long's turn to be abused.

Basically, at this time, uncle long would often pretend to be dead and unconscious, but the same method couldn't be used too many times, so this time, uncle long decided to think of another way. Just as he was thinking, he suddenly felt the entire courtyard shake. Following that, a light that seemed to be the laws of heaven and earth enveloped the sky above the courtyard.

Seeing this, the demon stopped, and uncle long was released. Uncle long, who felt that he was out of danger, didn't even have the time to rejoice before the demon grabbed him by the collar and teleported away.

"Xue 'er, did you succeed?" He teleported to the pill refinement room and threw uncle long to the side. He then stared at Leng ruoxue nervously and asked.

"It should be done, right?" Leng ruoxue wasn't too sure either.

At this moment, there was a milky white pill that was the size of a baby's fist lying quietly in the pill furnace. The pill looked like an ordinary pill, so Leng ruoxue could not associate it with the legendary Chaos Divine pill. However, the light that had descended from the sky earlier on had left her confused.

Logically speaking, shouldn't there be a pill tribulation or something of the sort whenever a high-grade pill appeared? However, this pill should be of a higher grade than the reincarnation pill, but there was no pill tribulation. This was something she could not understand. And this pill was different from the previous two, so she really couldn't be sure what kind of pill it was.

However, Shen nuo, Liuyue, and Jiang Ning were certain that it was a Chaos Divine pill.

When she asked them why, their answers made Leng ruoxue not know whether to laugh or cry. This was because the three of them told her in unison that her intuition told her that it was!

Leng ruoxue felt helpless when she heard his answer. Now, this freshly baked pill had attracted the attention of the demon and the others ...

With a change of mind, she packed the elixir and directly moved the people present into the bracelet to confirm with Qing Jue.

As soon as they entered the bracelet, Qing Jue appeared and hugged Leng ruoxue's leg. "Congratulations, sister, for finally making the chaos Divine pill."

"Is this really?" Looking at the pill in her hand, Leng ruoxue could not believe what she had just heard. She was afraid that she had rejoiced for nothing.

"En, didn't the laws of heaven and earth descend just now?" Qing Jue reminded her with a smirk.

"Uh! That was the law of heaven and earth! Why is it so different from the past?" Uncle long asked in surprise.

"The laws of heaven and earth have a guilty conscience, so they don't dare to show themselves for too long!" Qing Jue said honestly.

So that was how it was!

龙叔等人明白了。

As for Leng ruoxue, she was holding onto the Jade bottle that contained the chaos Divine pills in a daze. No one knew what she was thinking. Seeing Xue 'er like this, no one disturbed her.

After a long while, Leng ruoxue cried tears of joy and said, "Wu ... It really wasn't easy. I've finally succeeded!"

"Xue 'er, congratulations." The demon hugged Leng ruoxue and said affectionately.

Unfortunately, before Leng ruoxue could respond, Qing Jue poured cold water on her, "It's still too early to say congratulations. Don't forget, there's still an acquired Chaos Divine artifact!"

As soon as he finished speaking, everyone's mood instantly became low, and they couldn't help but complain in their hearts at the same time. This little child was really too not cute. Couldn't he let them be excited for a while longer?

At the thought of the other superior chaos-grade divine weapon, everyone could not help but pity Leng ruoxue. It took him nearly 50 years to make chaotic divine pills. When he finished making a chaotic divine weapon, ugh! I'm afraid a hundred years will pass. This was much longer than Xue 'er's cultivation!

However, this wasn't because Xue 'er's technique wasn't good. It was mainly because the materials in the land of chaos were too difficult to melt. Just the time used to melt these materials alone was more than two-thirds of the time!

At the thought of this, uncle long and the rest patted Leng ruoxue's shoulder and encouraged her, ""Xue 'er, you can do it!"

"I will," Leng ruoxue wanted to cry but no tears came out. She had just concocted a Chaos Divine pill and was not even excited yet! Qing Jue reminded her again that she still had to refine a Primal Chaos grade divine artifact. Sob ... When would such days end!

Leng ruoxue was so depressed that she was about to go crazy. Fortunately, she still had a trace of rationality left. She immediately threw herself into the refinement of the chaotic divine weapon.

Before they started refining the weapon, Leng ruoxue suddenly thought of something and turned to ask the demon, ""Did anything happen in Demon City?"

Chapter 2900 You're Really An Acquaintance \(1\)

"No, I didn 't," After hearing Leng ruoxue's words, the demon replied calmly. In reality, he had no idea if Demon City was fine. It had been a long time since he had contacted mu li and the rest. However, deep down in his heart, he felt that no matter what happened to Demon City, even if it had been wiped out by fog, it would not be as important as Xue 'er's pill and equipment refining. Thus, he said these words with a clear conscience.

After hearing the demon's words, Leng ruoxue smiled and said, ""Then I'll continue to forge. If there's nothing important, don't disturb me."

"Don't worry, with me around, no one will dare to disturb you. " The demon promised. Then, he moved a chair and sat at the door of the weapon refining room like a door God.

Listening to the conversation between the two and seeing the demon's actions, uncle long and the others couldn't help but curse in their hearts. With this person around, no one would dare to disturb Xue 'er! However, the one who disturbed him the most was probably the Mistress of the Dark World.

Of course, he couldn't say this out loud. Otherwise, he would be courting death! Uncle long and the others couldn't help but feel relieved when they saw the monster's reaction. If the Mistress of the Dark World had stayed here, did that mean that their special training would be canceled?

Thinking of this possibility, uncle long and the others were instantly excited, but they didn't dare to show it. After all, there were too many examples of extreme joy turning into sorrow in this world.

However, the demon seemed to have sensed what they were thinking. After sitting down, he smiled faintly and said, "You guys get ready. I'll find time to continue our special training!"

These words made Uncle Long and the others feel that they would never love him again.

Sob ... Mistress of the Dark World, if you're bored, you should find something else to do! Why did he have to torment them? Their old arms and legs really couldn't take it anymore!

Uncle Long and the others wanted to cry but had no tears. However, under the power of the demon, they dared not speak out.

After Leng Ruoxue had enough of the commotion, she ignored the crowd and focused on preparing to start refining.

Chaotic level divine weapons were divided into innate and acquired. Innate Chaos Divine weapons, such as Green Vessel and Azure, were basically born from chaos. As for Houtian chaotic divine weapons, they could be man-made, but only people with chaotic divine bodies could make them. For example, the Dreamdust was an acquired Chaos Divine weapon. In terms of level, he was slightly lower than Green Vessel and Azure. However, because the Dreamdust had undergone a mutation during the refining process, it made up for its inherent shortcomings. If they were to really fight, the Dreamdust might not lose to Azure and Azure.

Right now, Leng Ruoxue was going to craft an acquired Chaos Divine weapon. This was also the minimum requirement for her weapon crafting level for the 'heaven defying art'. However, it was easier to make chaotic divine weapons than chaotic divine pills. Of course, the 'easy' she was referring to did not mean that it was easy to craft an acquired chaotic divine weapon. Instead, she meant that her master had his own set of insights on crafting acquired chaotic divine weapons. In addition, the materials used to refine postcelestial Chaos Divine weapons were much less than that used to refine pills. With that, the difficulty Leng Ruoxue would face would naturally be much lower.

After preparing the materials needed for the refining, Leng Ruoxue was not in a hurry to start refining. Instead, she took out her master's experience in refining weapons and started reading it over and over again.

After confirming that there were no more questions, Leng Ruoxue started to refine it.

Even though Leng Ruoxue had already prepared for the fact that the materials in the land of chaos would be extremely tough after the refinement process started, it was only after they started melting that she realized that the situation was much better than what she had expected.

The materials here were not only hard! He was simply stubborn! More importantly, one of the materials she used was rather explosive. According to her master, that material was one of the main materials necessary to craft acquired chaotic divine weapons. To put it bluntly, that material had to be used. It also played a role similar to stabilizing and fusing all the materials together.

When Leng Ruoxue found out about the use of this material, she really wanted to ridicule it. To let a material that liked to self-destruct act as a binding agent, how much of a masochist would think of this method!

However, even though she was complaining, since her master had said that this material had to be used, she could only follow her master's orders.

While waiting for the materials to melt, his Master's words were verified. Before the other materials showed any signs of softening, the adhesive type material that loved to explode had already self-destructed with a bang.

Fortunately, the people present were mentally prepared and made timely defenses, so the explosion was concentrated in a small area.

However, the explosion of the materials still caused the weapon forging room that Leng ruoxue and the others were in to be blown into pieces.

At the same time, uncle long and the others, who were chatting in the garden, were doing what they were doing calmly after hearing the explosion! Of course, the main purpose of their conversation this time was to find a way to escape the Lord Dark Lord's special training.

Unfortunately, after carefully discussing for a long time, no one could come up with a good idea.

"It exploded again?" Ice Spirit walked into the garden and asked.

"Yes." Uncle long nodded.

"Then shouldn't we go and show some concern?" Ice Spirit blinked and asked indifferently.

"Whoever wants to go, go." Uncle long pouted. If they went, they would be reminding the Dark Lord that they were waiting for the special training! No! No matter what happened, they couldn't show up in front of the Mistress of the Dark World or they wouldn't even know how they died.

At the same time, uncle long and the others couldn't help but look at Ice Spirit with envy and jealousy. They were very curious, how did this guy escape the secret mistress 'special training? Why were they able to live freely while they were on tenterhooks, unable to eat or sleep well? "You bastard!" His spirit was almost weakened by the Mistress of the Dark World!

"You guys are too unsympathetic. Shouldn't you be consoling that little girl at this time?" Ice Spirit pretended to be unhappy when she heard uncle long.

"We'll just comfort them in our hearts. There's really no need to appear in front of them." Uncle long replied calmly.

"I see! But I still feel that it's better to go there personally. After all, everyone lives in the same courtyard." Ice Spirit did not give up.

"Senior ice soul, if you have the heart, go ahead! But we definitely won't go!" Uncle long said, as if he wouldn't listen to her.

"If you guys aren't going, I won't go either. It's better for us to advance and retreat together." Ice Spirit said helplessly and sat down on an empty chair.

As soon as he sat down, uncle long couldn't help but feel sick again. Senior ice soul, you wouldn't dare to appear alone!

Yes! Bing po didn't dare to show up alone. Even though he was curious about Xue 'er's progress, he didn't dare to go and see for himself. That was why he wanted to bring uncle long and the others with him so that they could be his cannon fodder at the critical moment. Unfortunately, they didn't fall for it! As such, he could only give up on visiting Leng ruoxue. He sat in the garden obediently and stared at uncle long and the others.
