

Crazy Wife 2971

Chapter 2971 The Ninth Weapon Tribulation \(14\)

However, when he saw Yao Nan, he realized that he had been too naive.

The Yao Nan that the Yao family head had seen seemed to be mentally normal. His clothes were clean, and there were no wounds on his body. It was clear that he had not suffered any inhuman abuse, but for some reason, Yao Nan had refused to return home with the Yao family head.

"Nan 'er, be good! Come home with father!" After thinking for a moment, the Yao family head patiently coaxed him.

"I'm not going back, I want to stay here to serve senior Cang. " Yao Nan carefully peeked at Cang. He was really afraid that because of his father's arrival, senior Cang would vent his anger on him. At that time, wouldn't he have to suffer again?

Moreover, it wasn't that he didn't want to go home with his father, but he didn't dare to! Although senior Cang had said that he could leave, according to his experience over the past few days, senior Cang was most likely just joking. Therefore, he couldn't take it seriously! If he really did, he would be miserable!

It was because of the above reasons that he refused to leave!

After trying to persuade him to no avail, the Yao family head could only leave with elder qu and the others. Before he left, he had specially asked senior Cang to teach Yao Nan a lesson if he did anything wrong. As a courtesy, Cang had also given Cao Ling to the Yao family head.

Cao Ling didn't want to leave either. She knew that since she was in the hands of the Yao family, she wouldn't have a good ending. At least she could keep her life here. However, Cang wasn't as interested in her as Yao Nan, so he threw Cao Ling to the Yao family head without thinking.

Dragging Cao Ling, master Yao was depressed. Even though he had not been able to take Yao Nan away, he had at least resolved his conflict with Leng ruoxue. He had not come in vain!

After the head of the Yao family left, Cang Cai looked at Yao Nan with a curious expression and asked with a smile, "I really didn't expect that you and the Yao family's brat are actually father and son?"

"Uh! We've been father and son for many years. " Yao Nan replied uneasily.

Upon hearing this, uncle long, who was watching from the side, couldn't help but burst into laughter. It was undeniable that Yao Nan had made a lot of fun of them, which was the main reason why they were reluctant to let him go.

"You're the eldest son of the Yao family head?" Leng ruoxue asked.

"Yup!" Yao Nan nodded, not understanding why Leng ruoxue would ask such a question.

"No wonder!" Leng ruoxue understood. The strong would usually favor the eldest. Otherwise, the Yao family head wouldn't have wanted to bring his son back even after Yao Nan had caused such a huge disaster. Even though part of it was to receive punishment, the main reason was probably because he was afraid that Yao Nan would suffer! She hadn't forgotten how the head of the Yao family had inspected Yao Nan from head to toe!

Hearing Leng ruoxue's "no wonder," Yao Nan still didn't understand. He looked at Leng ruoxue in confusion.

However, Leng ruoxue stood up and returned to her room. Cang naturally took Yao Nan away. Now, he couldn't leave this pistachios!

After leaving Demon City, patriarch Yao didn't return to the Yao family's divine realm. Instead, he went to the CAO family's territory.

As such, the CAO family was naturally going to be in deep trouble.

The head of the CAO family, who was Cao Ling's father, saw that his daughter had returned. Before he could say anything, he could feel the anger of the Yao family head.

Although he had only seen the image of the Yao family head in the memory crystal, this did not affect his understanding of the Yao family head. When he saw the Yao family's head aggressively coming to his door, he was instantly terrified.

"Yao, Yao family head ..." The CAO family head stammered, unable to finish a complete sentence.

"Who told you to lie to the forces and say that the ning family was completely annihilated?" Grabbing master Cao's neck, master Yao questioned.

"No, no one!" After struggling for a while, the CAO family head said with some difficulty.

"No one? Do you think I'll believe you? If no one had instructed you to do so, would you have dared to deceive so many forces? You even dare to play with our Yao family, you really have some guts!" The Yao family head said angrily. He was really angry. He had only been in closed-door cultivation for a few decades, and some people thought that he was easy to bully? How dare he lie to the Yao family and make them hate him? he was unforgivable!

Moreover, he had lived for so many years and had seen all kinds of people. Only a ghost would believe that someone as timid as master Cao had not been instructed by someone!

"I, I really didn't!" The CAO family head said stubbornly.

"No? Then I won't ask anymore, you can go to hell!" The Yao family head said coldly. After saying that, he increased the strength of his hand.

"Cough, cough! No, let me go! Wu...I can't say it, I really can't say it. If I say it, the CAO family will be exterminated!" The CAO family head, who was already suffocated by the Yao family head, coughed violently and hurriedly said.

"If you don't tell me, I'll destroy the CAO family right now." The Yao family head threatened.

"Wuu ... Alright! I'll tell you, I'll tell you. A Man in Black told me to do this. He, he's from the Divine Master's estate." The CAO family head said with a face full of fear.

"Is everything you said true?" The Yao family head asked with uncertainty.

"Yao family head, I wouldn't dare to lie to you! Whether it's the divine lord's estate or the Yao family, our Cao family can't afford to offend either of them. Wu ... Let me go!" The CAO family head begged.

"I don't think you would dare to lie to me!" The Yao family head loosened his grip and let go of the CAO family head. This was because master Cao's answer was too shocking. He had never thought that everything was actually caused by the divine lord's estate. Just what was God Lord fogriple trying to do? Was he trying to sow discord between them and Leng ruoxue? She had to admit that she had succeeded.

If he had not come out of seclusion, the hatred between the Yao family and Demon City would have deepened.

However, he didn't want to pick a side at all. To him, the best strategy was to remain neutral and not offend either side. It was because of this that he let go of the CAO family, who might be the minions of Wu Han, and left with the Yao family.

On the way back, elder qu and the others didn't even dare to breathe loudly. Even when they returned to the Yao family's divine realm, the Yao family's head had a long face.

After much consideration, master Yao still told Leng ruoxue about this news. Leng ruoxue did not expect that the CAO family was actually under Wu Jing's orders. No wonder the rumors were getting more and more outrageous! However, she was very curious. As the rumored female lead, what exactly was Wu Han's mood?

It must feel unusual to be spreading gossip about me, right?

In fact, these things were not directly instructed by Wu Xiao. After all, she was now fully focused on healing her injuries and did not have much energy to care about other things. But before this, Wu Xuan had ordered that when they had nothing to do, they would find trouble with the ning family. As a result, her black-clothed subordinates spared no effort to cause trouble.

Although it wasn't their wish to have God Lord mist ripple as the female lead, the result was that they couldn't control the rumors. As a result, the black-robed men's subordinates decided to act ruthlessly and personally direct such a good show. However, it seemed that this act had failed.

The next day, the news of the CAO family's extermination reached Leng ruoxue and the others. At the same time, Leng ruoxue also received a message from the Yao family head, "Our Yao clan didn't do this."

Chapter 2972 The Ninth Weapon Tribulation \(15\)

Even though master Yao's voice transmission sounded like he was trying to hide something, Leng ruoxue still chose to believe him. She was going to kill him anyway, so it really didn't make a difference to her who did it. But even so, considering that the Yao family head had previously told her about the mastermind behind the CAO family, she still warned him, "You guys be careful."

After telling demon evildoer and Cang what master Yao had said, Cang also nodded, "It really wasn't the Yao clan's doing,"

"What is this old man trying to do? Are you trying to get on our good side?" Master ning couldn't help but ask. After knowing that his death was the work of the God lord's estate, his opinion of master Yao had naturally decreased a lot. However, if he saw master Yao again, he would still not give him a good face! Who asked them to live like this for so many years!

"Not necessarily! He probably doesn't want to offend us too much. As for the God lord's estate, they also don't intend to offend them. Otherwise, they wouldn't have let the CAO family off. " Leng ruoxue analyzed.

"Neutral? That's not easy! If you're not careful, you might be crushed to pieces. " After hearing Leng ruoxue's words, uncle long added.

"That's none of our business. However, as long as the Yao family doesn't side with rime ice, I won't touch them. " Leng ruoxue made her stand clear. Even though she was ruthless to her enemies, she was not bloodthirsty. As a result, as long as the other party did not touch her forbidden lamella, she would not kill him under normal circumstances.

"Don't worry, that old man is very cunning. He knows what he wants and where his bottom line is. Therefore, unless he is forced to, he will not make any choice. " Master ning, who knew master Yao quite well, laughed when he heard Xue 'er's words.

"That's good. I just hope he doesn't stand on the wrong side. " Leng ruoxue laughed.

In fact, how could the Yao family head have the mood to pick a side at this time? just the matters of the Yao family alone were enough to make him dizzy.

After compensating the ning family with a lot of property, the Yao family's financial resources shrank sharply, to the point that it was a problem to build a main house that was exactly the same as before.

Money was the biggest problem the Yao family was facing now.

The Yao family head was busy raising money while Leng ruoxue continued to refine the houtian Chaos Divine weapon. The Men in Black in fog had also stopped for a while. The entire God World seemed to be peaceful, but in reality, there was an undercurrent. However, other than the few experts at the top of the pyramid, the ordinary deities could not feel the inexplicable tension of the low pressure.

As the saying goes, the ignorant are fearless!

It seemed that this was indeed a wise saying! Only those who knew nothing could live happily!

The days were as usual!

The Cheng clan's encampment in Demon City was also slowly being established. The hundred clansmen chosen by Cheng Xuan were all brought here. They had been informed of the various rules before coming to Demon City. As a result, they were as obedient as newborn beasts upon reaching Demon City.

Cheng Xuan was quite satisfied with this. However, he didn't dare to tell these people that he had brought them here just in case, so that he could leave a trace of the Cheng family's bloodline. More than half of these 100 people were young children. This way, uncle long and the others had something to do.

It was their responsibility to train new students!

Cheng Xuan couldn't ask for more when uncle long and the others volunteered to be the race's coach. After all, it wasn't easy to find a godly venerable-level coach! Even in the Cheng family, he didn't dare to say that he could let the Supreme divinity personally guide these little guys. Now, these little guys were in luck, and Cheng Xuan was happy for them.

With work to do, uncle long and the others were instantly full of energy again. This way, it was just hard on the little guys of the Cheng family. However, whether it was Cheng Xuan or the head of the Cheng family, they were in favor of their child's suffering. After all, one could only rise above others by suffering! If he suffered a lot when he was young, he would definitely save a lot of effort when he grew up!

Moreover, the personal guidance of the reverent-god level cultivators was also very beneficial to these little fellows. Uncle long and the others were even more strict teachers. Even the Cheng family head, who had personally witnessed how they trained his own children, knew that he couldn't be as meticulous as them.

"You've worked hard. " The Cheng family's head personally thanked uncle long and the others, his eyes glistening with tears. He was so touched! These people were so cute.

However, uncle long and the others couldn't tell that he was touched. Uncle long even joked, ""Why are you crying? didn't you just let your child suffer a little? It's not a big deal! Is it worth it?"

"Uh! I'm not feeling heartache, I'm just touched. Can't you guys tell?" Hearing this, the Cheng family head said dejectedly.

"Are you touched? I really couldn't tell. " Uncle long laughed evilly.

The head of the Cheng family, who had been hit hard by uncle long, squatted in a corner and started drawing circles.

Ten years later.

Leng ruoxue's weapon refining work was still ongoing. However, Cheng Wu and the rest had already come out of their closed-door cultivation. Of course, he did not want to come out of his closed-door cultivation, but he was kicked out of his bracelet by Qing Jue. Therefore, the posture of the large group of people coming out of their closed-door cultivation was quite beautiful.

Other than Leng Qingtian and Leng ruohan, who had received special treatment from Qing Jue and had come out in a normal posture, the rest of the people had fallen from the sky with their limbs facing the sky and landed in the garden's pond.

It could be said that too many people had fallen into this garden pond, including uncle long and the others. The result of this incident was that the small animals in the pond had once again suffered a psychological blow. They all went to the bottom of the water and did not dare to come out.

Uncle long and the others, who were sitting in the garden and chatting, were dumbfounded for a long time when they saw the people falling into the water. Finally, they came to their senses and looked at the wet people and asked, ""Can you guys advance?"

These people were already divine emperors when they were in seclusion. They had also been in their bracelets for so long, so their spiritual energy was already very abundant. Hence, uncle long had no doubt that they were kicked out by green vessel because they could advance.

But looking at the expressions of these people, it didn't seem so.

"I'm still lacking a little." Leng ruohan laughed.

"State of mind?" Uncle long and the others understood. Indeed, the advancement from a divine Emperor to reverent-God was a hurdle for all deities. Once they crossed this step, they would be able to reach the heavens in a single step. If they couldn't cross this step, they would forever be considered second-rate experts. The key to advancing to the next level was not only to have enough spiritual power, but also to have a strong mental state.

However, these little guys had a good state of mind and pure thoughts, so uncle long and the others had high hopes for them. Uncle long and the others couldn't help but laugh out loud when they learned about their current situation and looked at their current appearance.

"Uncle long, are you done laughing?" Cheng Wu, who was completely drenched, said gloomily.

"No, I didn't," Uncle long and the others replied in unison, their laughter still loud and clear.

Looking at the few old men who were laughing without any care for their image, Cheng Wu really wanted to squat in a corner and draw circles to curse them that they would not have any food to eat tonight! It was really too despicable. He actually laughed at them.

Chapter 2973 The Ninth Weapon Tribulation \(16\)

In fact, these old men were just too bored. Now that they saw a little guy being kicked out of seclusion, they were naturally in a good mood.

Especially when they saw the depressed expressions of these little guys, they laughed even more heartily. When they finally stopped laughing, Leng ruohan could not help but ask, "Uncle long, where is Xue 'er? Why don't I see her?"

Although he was in seclusion, he still missed his sister the most.

"Her! He's refining!" Uncle long replied in a mysterious manner.

"Oh! Then I'll go find her." Leng ruohan laughed and ran towards Leng ruoxue's weapon refining room.

After a round of searching, he still could not find Leng ruoxue, so he could only return to the garden.

"Uncle long, I can't find Xue 'er!" Leng ruohan asked in confusion. Qing Jue had said that Xue 'er was not in the bracelet, so where did this person go?

"She built a temporary weapon forging room outside ..." Uncle long was only halfway through his sentence when he heard a loud bang in the garden. He simply shut his mouth.

"Uh! What's that sound?" Leng ruohan and the others were curious.

"Weapon refining explosion." Uncle long said calmly.

"Argh! Xue 'er! Where is Xue 'er?" When Leng Qingtian heard this, he immediately became anxious. This sound was definitely made by Xue 'er.

"The empty space outside." Uncle long said calmly.

As soon as he finished speaking, Leng Qingtian and the others rushed out of the door impatiently. In the end, they found Leng ruoxue and the others in an empty space far away from the main residence.

At this moment, Leng ruoxue and the others were completely black. Only two pairs of clear, watery eyes were exceptionally clear.

"Xue 'er?" Leng Qingtian called out softly. He did not dare to recognize her. Was this little black person his beautiful granddaughter?

"Grandpa, you've come out of seclusion?" The moment Leng ruoxue saw Leng Qingtian, she immediately pounced towards him. Back then, her grandfather and the others had been in a hurry to enter seclusion, and she had not seen her grandfather for so long, so one could imagine how much she missed him.

Leng Qingtian hugged his precious granddaughter tightly, not caring about Leng ruoxue's dirty appearance at all. The two of them were just short of hugging each other and crying.

"Xue 'er, did you not see big brother?" Leng ruohan, who had been standing by the side for a while, saw that Xue 'er only cared about her grandfather and her heart could not help but bubble with bitterness.

He was jealous!

"Brother!" Seeing her brother acting like a child who couldn't get any candy, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but be speechless. However, she still let go of her grandfather and gave her brother a hug.

Leng ruohan, who had gotten what she wanted, instantly felt that her life had been fulfilled.

"Miss, what about us?" At this moment, Cheng Wu also said.

"Do you need a hug?" Before Leng ruoxue could speak, the evildoer beside her had already spoken.

"Argh! No need! No need!" When Cheng Wu and the rest heard the demon's words, they were so scared that their little hearts trembled. Guild leader ye is always so imposing! It was just a light sentence, but it made him feel that the world had become dim.

Sob ... Isn't this bullying? Moreover, miss would definitely not stand on their side and help them! Her young miss was famous for valuing her beauty over her subordinates.

"You guys are out too?" Leng ruoxue, who was holding back her laughter, finally spoke. Then, she looked at Cheng Wu and the rest in surprise and asked, "You guys fell into the water?"

"Uh! There's a problem with the way we came out. " Cheng Wu couldn't help but say.

"You were kicked out?" Leng ruoxue finally understood.

"Miss, don't be so smart!" Cheng Wu and the rest blushed.

"Yo! You're already an adult, and you're still blushing? However, you came out at the right time. Uncle long and the others are too bored, so you should spend more time with them!" Leng ruoxue warned.

"Miss, we have to go out and gain experience!" Cheng Wu reminded them. Their mental state was a little weak, so even if they had enough spiritual Qi, they still could not advance. Thus, it was extremely necessary for them to go out and train.

"Yes, bring uncle long and the others." Leng ruoxue laughed. Actually, on one hand, it was to solve uncle Long's boredom. On the other hand, she was afraid that the witch from ripple mist would take advantage of the situation to cause trouble. Hence, she had requested for them to bring along uncle long and the other powerful bodyguards.

When Cheng Wu and the rest heard this, they could only smile bitterly in their hearts. They knew very well how destructive uncle long and the others were. If they brought them along, they could imagine that their carefree days would be gone forever.

However, they couldn't disobey the young lady's words. Therefore, if they wanted to go out and train, it was necessary to bring uncle long and the others!

"Xue 'er, why let them go out and gain experience? My Dreamdust space can do it too! Whatever kind of experience you want, I can come up with it. It's definitely real and reliable!" Suddenly, a snow-white figure appeared beside Leng ruoxue and suggested with a smile.

The moment she saw Huan Chen appear, the veins on Leng ruoxue's forehead throbbed. She then said, ""You'll have to ask them," She was a Democratic boss, so she left the choice to her subordinates.

"Are you willing to do so?" After hearing Leng ruoxue's words, Huan Chen turned his pitch-black eyes to Cheng Wu and the rest.

Cheng Wu and the others shivered. Everyone knew how terrifying illusory dust was, but the young lady did not care about it, so they, they did not dare to refuse!

After exchanging glances with each other, Cheng Wu spoke on behalf of his brothers with a long face, ""We ... We're willing."

They didn't dare to refuse! Otherwise, Huan Chen would definitely find an opportunity to teach them a lesson.

Under Huan Chen's silent threat, Cheng Wu and the others decisively ran away. Then, before they could even eat a delicious and hot meal, Huan Chen took over. They did not even have the time to return to their own rooms.

As for uncle long and the others, who thought they would have the opportunity to teach these little guys how to improve their mental state cultivation, they didn't have the guts to snatch them from Huan Chen. Otherwise, that sinister guy ...

None of Xue 'er's artifact spirits could be provoked!

Facing Cang and Huan Chen, uncle long and the others were terrified. These two weapon spirits were simply too powerful. As for green vessel! They were not at their peak, and he was still a little baby, so they were not afraid! However, green vessel was quite scary when it was angry. Hence, uncle long and the others, who were tactful, would not take the initiative to provoke green vessel.

In short, no matter what Xue 'er's people were, they should not provoke them.

After Cheng Wu and the others were taken over by Huan Chen, he decisively targeted Leng Qingtian and Leng ruohan. However, he did not say anything and only looked at the two of them quietly. His gaze made the two of them feel their hair stand on end. In the end, they had no choice but to ask Leng ruoxue for help with their eyes.

"Let Grandpa and brother accompany me for a few days." Leng ruoxue said helplessly.

"Good! I'll come pick them up in three days." Huan Chen was very generous. Seeing that he only gave three days, Leng ruoxue couldn't help but want to ridicule him.

Who was the master here? Shouldn't she be the one in charge? Why did all of them want to make decisions for her? Leng ruoxue was filled with grief and indignation.

Chapter 2974 The Ninth Weapon Tribulation \(17\)

However, when she saw Huan Chen's serious expression, Leng ruoxue nodded decisively and said, "Alright," he said.

Alluring fantasy dust smiled and then disappeared.

At this moment, Cheng Wu and the others, who had been brought into the illusion dust space by the illusion dust, saw this scene through the light screen. Their hearts instantly balanced out. So, the Miss was also afraid of the illusion dust!

"Wu...I'm Xue 'er's ancestor! Why can't you come in three days later?" Suddenly, a bitter voice was heard. It was Leng qianye, who had been cultivating in seclusion for a long time.

Hearing his words, Cheng Wu and the rest looked at him with sympathy. That's right! This fellow was quite unlucky. Not only did he not receive any preferential treatment from green vessel, but he was also treated the same way as them at huanchen. In their hearts, Leng qianye's status was not even comparable to Leng Qingtian and Leng ruohan. When they thought of this, Cheng Wu and the others felt a little sympathetic towards him.

What a pitiful young miss's old ancestor! However, who could he blame? It should be known that everything that the young lady had today was all due to her own hard work. It had nothing to do with the Leng family. Even in the immortal realm, this cheap ancestor still had to rely on the young lady.

It's none of your business to give birth and you've never raised anyone before. Isn't it a fantasy to enjoy the same status as Leng Qingtian and Leng ruohan?

The kind Cheng Wu patted Leng qianye's shoulder and said, "Please restrain your grief!"

"..." Leng qianye was depressed. My condolences, my ass! Can't you comfort me and give me some positive energy? However, it was obvious that it was unrealistic for him to seek comfort from Cheng Wu and the others.

How could a group of men have such tender feelings? even if they did, it would definitely not be for Leng qianye!

"It seems that you guys are in good spirits!" Huan Chen, who had returned to the space, heard their conversation and laughed in a very lecherous manner.

Although there had been quite a few guests who had come and gone from his space, he was most satisfied with Cheng Wu and the others. They were tenacious, determined, and willing to work hard. Training them gave him a sense of accomplishment. Now, these people were only one step away from becoming reverent-god level, so he decided to arrange their training courses well.

Sweeping his gaze across Cheng Wu and the others, Huan Chen understood their situation.

The next day, the simulation training officially began.

Three days later, Leng Qingtian and Leng ruohan were brought in by Huan Chen, who was on time. As for Leng ruoxue, she continued to bitterly refine her acquired Chaos Divine weapon.

Another ten years had passed, and Leng ruoxue's weapon refinement work was still continuing in an orderly manner.

During this period, Feng Da and the rest of the Beastie were also kicked out by Qing Jue. He said that he was out to improve his mental state cultivation.

However, Feng Da and the others' cultivation was still a distance away from Cheng Wu's group. Hence, they had definitely spent much more time than Cheng Wu's group.

After Feng Da and the others were kicked out of their bracelets, the way they came out was very similar to Cheng Wu and the others. They were also laughed at by uncle long and the others. Following that, they felt deeply depressed.

They were depressed because there was still a long way to go before they could advance, and they didn't even have enough spiritual energy stored, so they were kicked out just like that. This was really too much bullying! Don't think that they didn't know that Cheng Wu and the others were only brought out because they had enough spiritual energy.

Feng Da, who was extremely upset, complained to uncle long while the latter listened patiently. When Feng Da finished, he said, "It's good that you're out now. It's better to cultivate outside! There's nothing wrong with gaining more knowledge and broadening your horizons!"

"But the spiritual Qi outside is nowhere near as abundant as the spiritual space!" Feng Da said sadly. Actually, he didn't want the gap between him and Cheng Wu and the others to be too big. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been so angry.

However, since things had come to this, it seemed that this was the only way.

"Calm down. How old are you? when I became a reverent God, I was already tens of thousands of years old. So, compared to us old guys, you guys are simply too happy. In fact, I'm quite jealous of you guys. " Uncle long said honestly.

"Really?" Feng Da blinked his eyes and asked.

"Little guy, Would I Lie to You?" Uncle long pretended to be angry.

Just as the two of them were talking, two laws of heaven and earth descended from the sky. Everyone was shocked and ran out in a hurry.

Outside the courtyard, Leng ruohan and Leng Qingtian were in the midst of a realm-breakthrough.

The laws of heaven and earth enveloped them, giving off a gentle aura. After an unknown period of time, the heaven Earth Law disappeared. However, the two of them did not wake up immediately. And around the two of them, there were a few beasts. Those beasts all had a satisfied expression on their faces, as if they had just eaten a delicious meal.

Seeing this, uncle long and the others could only stay outside.

A day later.

The two finally woke up.

The moment they opened their eyes, both of them revealed satisfied expressions. However, uncle long pretended to be angry and asked, "how did you break through outside?" If someone were to disturb you, it would affect the effects of your advancement. "

Reverent-god level was different from others. Once disturbed, one's strength would be greatly reduced. Therefore, experts were extremely careful when they advanced to reverent-god level and had to find a place with no one around. However, these two people had advanced to the upper-level without a care. It was really ...

If someone were to cause trouble, uncle long would not know how to explain it to Xue 'er.

"We didn't want to. Huan Chen just sent us out and we couldn't control it." Leng Qingtian said with an embarrassed look.

"Uh! I've only heard of people who can't control themselves while giving birth, but this is the first time I've heard of someone who's in such a hurry to advance in rank. " Uncle long said with some jealousy, but he was still happy for them. With two more reverent-god level experts, their side would become much stronger.

However, before they could celebrate, another person fell from the sky and landed beside their feet. Immediately after, the laws of heaven and earth descended.

This time, uncle long and the others witnessed what it meant to lose control.

A certain someone who had suddenly appeared didn't even have the time to get up from the ground before the laws of heaven and earth had already enveloped them ...

The speechless uncle long and the others were much calmer this time. After waiting for an entire day, a certain someone had finally completed his advancement.

"Argh! I'm also a reverent-God! Hahaha!" The one who was a little carried away was Cheng Wu. At this moment, his excitement was beyond words, and no words could describe his current feelings.

However, just as he laughed, he was secretly kicked away by Feng Da, who was burning with jealousy.

When Cheng Wu returned in a rage and wanted to find the murderer, everyone who knew the truth could not help but look up at the sky. However, no one paid him any attention.

Cheng Wu was depressed.

He was the one being bullied, so why did everyone have to cover up for the criminal?

He was so sad!

Cheng Wu looked at the crowd with hidden bitterness, but uncle long and the rest did not feel guilty at all. He should be kicked. He was indeed a little too smug.

"Uncle long, Xue 'er hasn't finished refining yet?" In order to change the topic and continue ignoring Cheng Wu, Leng Qingtian asked about his precious granddaughter. How strange! Xue 'er actually didn't appear when he broke through. This was really too abnormal.

Chapter 2975 The Ninth Weapon Tribulation \(18\)

However, uncle long didn't even have the chance to reply before everyone heard another loud bang.

Instantly, Leng Qingtian and Leng ruohan understood and decisively ran towards Leng ruoxue's armament refining room. Not long after they came out, Feng Da and the others, who were full of remorse and didn't have time to ask about their miss's situation, decisively followed.

When they arrived at the equipment refining room, Leng Qingtian was the first to notice the pitch-black Leng ruoxue. His heart ached as he said, "Xue 'er, why is it so hard to refine artifacts! Are you hurt?"

"No, I haven't. Grandpa, you've broken through, and so has big brother!" Leng ruoxue looked at her grandfather and brother's current strength and said happily.

"Yes." Leng Qingtian and Leng ruohan nodded.

"Miss, I've also advanced!" Cheng Wu, who was unwilling to be ignored, made his presence known.

"Miss, we've been kicked out by green vessel." Feng Da had successfully pushed Cheng Wu to the side as he approached Leng ruoxue and said.

"You can cultivate outside!" Leng ruoxue laughed.

"We will! Although someone advanced to reverent-god level earlier than us, it's still uncertain who will win!" Feng Da looked at Cheng Wu provocatively and clenched his fist.

"That's right, you guys have to work hard. " Leng ruoxue encouraged.

At this moment, a group of furry little beasts swarmed forward and surrounded Leng ruoxue tightly. Upon seeing this, uncle long and the others immediately dodged far away. Xue 'er's beasts were so many that they could scare people to death!

Those little beasts, upon seeing their beautiful and lovely master, began to complain. Naturally, it was green vessel. Moreover, they had a lot of opinions about green vessel. Leng ruoxue did not know whether to laugh or cry.

However, she also understood that these little guys were not happy that Qing Jue had kicked them out with Feng Da and the others! In their words, they didn't need to improve their mental state cultivation, so why send them out?

The little beasts were very puzzled. However, Cang was very clear about green vessel's thoughts. Wasn't it because that guy felt that it was unfair when he saw that Niu only had him and the evil-looking man by her side while he didn't come out? Did they want these little beasts to cause trouble for them? Wasn't that a dream?

It had even thrown that tiny beast God to the ice Spirit's side, not daring to appear in front of Niu. These little beasts were definitely more time-saving and energy-saving than beast gods!

Thinking up to this point, Azure suggested, "girl, leave these little guys to me!" "I'll train them!"

"Argh! Cute master, don't! Don't hand me over to this demon!" When baby heard this, he was so frightened that he immediately burrowed into Leng ruoxue's arms and refused to come out.

The treasure was certain that if they fell into Cang's hands, even if they didn't die, they would lose a layer of skin!

When cold heard that he was rejected, he immediately became furious and grabbed the thick fur on baby's neck, "I'm a demon? Hmm?"

"No, you're not a demon. You're scarier than a demon! Master, save me!" After baby spoke the truth, he immediately turned to Leng ruoxue for help.

"Azure, I'll talk to them." Leng ruoxue had no choice but to plead for him.

"Yes." Cang nodded and threw the treasure back into Leng ruoxue's arms. Then, he watched as Leng ruoxue brought the beasts to a corner.

After reaching the corner, the little beasts acted cute together, saying that they would rather die than let Azure train them.

Leng ruoxue looked at them quietly. When they felt that the atmosphere was not right and did not dare to make a sound, she opened her mouth and said, "Although Azure is a bit fierce and will be very strict with your training, if you refuse its training, I don't think I need to tell you what will happen, right? Your master, I, am now focused on artifact refining and can't take care of you. Think about it, if you refuse and are caught by Cang, what will the consequences be? Or are you guys confident that you can avoid it forever?"

"Master ..." Upon hearing this, the beasts' eyes were filled with tears. Sob ... If they could, of course, they wanted to avoid the demon, but could they?

Now that they had been kicked out by Qing Jue, even the safest place was not willing to take them in. Where else could they hide?

At the thought of this, the beasts were all worried. Leng ruoxue stopped talking and gave them enough time to think.

In the end, the Beasties steeled their hearts and agreed.

Sob ... There were too many bosses, it was difficult for them! However, the guys around their master were fiercer than the other. They didn't dare to offend anyone.

Since he didn't dare to offend them, he could only behave himself.

Cang was naturally extremely satisfied with such an outcome. As for green vessel in the bracelet, he stomped his feet in frustration. He had miscalculated!

That night, to celebrate her grandfather, brother, and Cheng Wu's advancement to reverent-god level, Leng ruoxue took a break for a few days and prepared a lot of food to satisfy everyone's needs.

This celebration lasted for three whole days.

Three days later, Leng ruoxue returned to the weapon refinement chamber. Feng Da and the others were also taken over by Huan Chen. The three new Hierarchy left the demon City together.

In the next five years, the people who entered the bangle with Cheng Wu came out of seclusion one after another and successfully advanced. Of course, after they advanced, they also chose to leave Demon City and go to the real God World to experience it.

In these five years, Leng ruoxue and the other weapon craftsmen had gone through repeated experiments and made great progress in the creation of houtian Chaos Divine weapons. Now, although they would still explode, they would basically only fail at the last step.

Even though the explosion at the end would be more depressing for the armament master, Leng ruoxue was still very happy. This was because it indicated that their work in refining armaments had always been improving.

Now, as long as he mastered the last step, the success of the houtian Chaos Divine weapon could be achieved in a few days.

After a few years, Leng ruoxue finally managed to craft a divine weapon. However, in Qing Jue's eyes, although this divine weapon was also an acquired chaotic divine weapon, it was not up to standard. Naturally, it would not be recognized by the 'heaven-defying art'. On the other hand, Qing Jue's request for Leng ruoxue was that the acquired Chaos Divine weapon that she forged must have a weapon spirit!

"Artifact Spirit? Why didn't you tell me earlier?" Inside the bangle, Leng ruoxue, who was initially excited, felt as if someone had poured cold water on her head. Her heart turned cold. Qing Jue had learned his lesson! He's learned too much! Moreover, this was not the first time green vessel had done this.

"Sister, I'm just afraid of adding pressure to you! Think about it, you haven't even made a houtian Chaos Divine weapon yet. If I tell you that a houtian Chaos Divine weapon that meets the requirements of the 'heaven defying art' must have a weapon spirit, how depressed would you be? Wouldn't it be my fault if I were to strike a blow to your morale? In addition, a real acquired chaotic divine weapon with a weapon spirit must be tempered by a weapon tribulation, just like a Supreme-grade elixir. Otherwise, it can't be called a real acquired chaotic divine weapon. So, sister, continue to work hard! We'll definitely succeed. " Qing Jue laughed and coaxed.

Leng ruoxue was depressed when she heard this. She was extremely depressed. Although she did not deny that Qing Jue's words made sense, she was still depressed.

Chapter 2976 The Ninth Weapon Tribulation \(19\)

After leaving the bracelet in a daze and dejected manner, Leng ruoxue went back to her room without saying a word.

Uncle long and the others were surprised to see this.

"What happened to Xue 'er? Didn't he finally craft an acquired Chaos Divine weapon? Why are you unhappy?" Uncle long was confused. He had not forgotten how happy Xue 'er was when she went to report the good news to Qing Jue.

The demon wasn't sure, but he could feel that Xue 'er was in a bad mood.

At this moment, Huan Chen appeared and said with sympathy, "It's probably because the houtian Chaos Divine artifact that I refined didn't meet my requirements!" It was just a guess, but it was the truth.

"Uh! What do you mean by that?" Uncle long and the others were puzzled.

"I'm guessing that green vessel wants an acquired Chaos Divine weapon like me!" Huan Chen said somewhat narcissistically.

"You? Do you still want to live?" Uncle long couldn't help but shiver. He didn't want Xue 'er to make another demon. That would be a headache! Right now, it was already terrifying enough that Xue 'er had Cang, huanchen, and green vessel by her side. If someone like huanchen appeared, wouldn't they have to tuck their tails between their legs and act like humans and beasts?

That would really be a dead end!

Just thinking about it was scary!

"What do you know? An acquired Chaos Divine weapon like me is definitely something that can only be encountered by luck." Huanchen said proudly.

Uncle long and the others were speechless in the face of such an illusion.

After Leng ruoxue returned to her room, she began to seriously consider Qing Jue's words. It was obviously not easy to refine an acquired chaotic divine weapon with a weapon spirit. Moreover, she had never refined a divine weapon that contained a weapon spirit. Although her chill was a divine artifact that could grow, after so many years, it only had a bit of spirituality. It was still far from becoming an Artifact Spirit!

After thinking for a long time, Leng ruoxue's thoughts became more and more chaotic. She had no choice but to walk out of the room.

In the courtyard, the evildoer had been standing guard outside the room. When he saw Leng ruoxue come out, he quickly went forward and pulled her into his arms. He asked with concern, "Xue 'er, it's just a divine weapon. Let's make a few more and there will be a qualified one."

"Qing Jue said to bring an Artifact Spirit." Leng ruoxue wasn't surprised that the demon would know about this and replied honestly.

"Artifact Spirit? Can you catch one?" The demon asked.

"..." Artifact spirits can be captured?

"I've heard from Dreamdust that there's a type of stone that's extremely sentient. There's at least a ten percent chance that it'll produce an Artifact Spirit if it's used to refine an artifact. However, if that's the case, I'm afraid I'll have to start all over again to refine postcelestial chaos artifacts." Evildoer told Xue'er the information he had heard from fantasy dust. The moment Leng ruoxue heard this, she was immediately interested and asked, "Where can I find that kind of stone?"

"I don't know," The demon said helplessly.

"..." The word 'I don't know' left Leng ruoxue dumbfounded.

She didn't know where to find it, so how could she catch it?

"It's possible to find traces of that stone in the deep mountains, canyons, ice sources, and deep seas. It's said that when fantasy dust was made, it also added that stone to cause a mutation." The demon said again.

"This ... Isn't the range a little too wide?" Leng ruoxue was speechless. If they really searched like this, how many years and months would it take?

"It's a little bigger, but there's always hope, isn't there? After all, it's not easy to obtain heavenly treasures." The demon laughed.

"That's true. Then let's go find that stone now!" Leng ruoxue could not wait any longer.

When uncle long and the others heard that Leng ruoxue and the demon were going to search for unknown ores aimlessly, they also expressed that they wanted to go and broaden their horizons. However, it was obviously unrealistic for so many people to follow them.

In the end, Leng ruoxue only brought away evildoer, uncle long, Cang and a group of little beasts.

Three months later.

Leng ruoxue and the demon had brought uncle long and the other little beasts to search the entire divinity. Now, the only place they had yet to search was the largest volcano in the divinity.

As soon as they reached the foot of the volcano, Dreamdust appeared.

"Master, the stone is here." Huan Chen said with absolute certainty. He could clearly sense a familiar aura within the volcano.

"Really?" Leng ruoxue was overjoyed. She immediately brought the evildoer, uncle long, and Cang up the mountain. She couldn't let the stone escape.

When they reached the peak of the volcano, Leng ruoxue only released the phoenixes. As the other beasts did not like fire, she kept them in her bracelet.

As soon as the phoenixes appeared, they flew into the air and searched everywhere.

At this moment, Huan Chen suddenly shouted, "Come out! I know you're here!"

Leng ruoxue's face was filled with black lines. Was he trying to scare the stone away?

"Master, that stone's form is ever-changing, so I can only sense that it's here, but I don't know what it looks like. I can only use this method to call it out! I hope it can give me some face!" Huan Chen explained when he saw Leng ruoxue's doubt.

However, after waiting for a long time, the stone-like object did not appear.

Dreamdust was furious.

Leng ruoxue quickly consoled him, "that stone might be sleeping. We should be more careful!"

"Who said I was sleeping? I came out a long time ago. It's just that your eyes are bad and you didn't see me." All of a sudden, a child-like voice rang in Leng ruoxue's ears.

The moment Leng ruoxue heard this, she immediately looked around and said gently, ""Where are you?"

"Human, lower your head." The voice said.

Leng ruoxue did as she was told. However, when she looked down, she realized that there was only a small blade of grass that was completely red.

Where's the rock?

Leng ruoxue raised her head again and asked, "where are you?" I didn't see you?"

"Idiot! Didn't I tell you to lower your head?" His voice was flustered and exasperated.

Ugh! Leng ruoxue obediently lowered her head once more. There was still only an unremarkable, ordinary-looking blade of grass in front of her. However, this kind of grass could be seen everywhere in the immortal realm and was not rare at all.

However, there was only one here, so it was a little strange.

Crouching down, Leng ruoxue's slender fingers touched the leaves of the grass and asked softly, ""You're talking?"

"It's me!" The little red grass proudly shook its leaves and said.

Leng ruoxue's face darkened. The demon and uncle long were speechless. A blade of grass calling itself a Lord, was this a world-changing story? More importantly, shouldn't Dreamdust be summoning stones? Why would it be a blade of grass?

Grass = stone?

Leng ruoxue and the other two, as well as the phoenixes, could not help but turn to look at Huan Chen. In comparison, this fellow was still the most normal!

Huan Chen, on the other hand, was infuriated by Leng ruoxue's group of three and the Beastie. He was so angry that he stomped on little grass's weak body and cursed, ""Your sister, speak properly!"

"Argh! It hurts! It hurts! You're a bad guy! You're a bully! If I had known, I wouldn't have shown myself! Waah ..."A cry came from beneath Dreamdust's feet.

Chapter 2977 The Ninth Weapon Tribulation \(20\)

A few more black lines appeared on Leng ruoxue's forehead. Was it really okay for such a weak little grass to be crushed like this?

Sensing Leng ruoxue's feelings, Huan Chen laughed, "master, don't worry. This fellow's life force is very strong."

"No! I'm not stubborn at all. " A rebuttal came from beneath Huan Chen's feet. Then, a song was transmitted to Leng ruoxue's group of three and the Beasties "ears,"No fragrance, no height, I'm just a blade of grass that no one knows ..."

"....."

The three of them and the beasts were silent. This grass ...

"Xue 'er, I can see that this grass is obviously not mentally normal! It's clearly a stone, but it's turned into grass, and it's so happy. Is it really good to make an Artifact Spirit with such a material?" Uncle long said what everyone was thinking, while Huan Chen only felt that he had lost face.

As a former comrade, he felt that this broken stone was really not giving him any face.

"Master, this stone is currently the only one in the divine realm," Dreamdust said after some thought. "If we use it as a material, it'll definitely save us a lot of trouble in refining postcelestial Chaos Divine artifacts. After all, artifact spirits are hard to come by." Although this was suspicious of cheating, it was fine as long as there was an item spirit in the acquired Chaos Divine item. Why did he care so much?

"But what about its personality?" Leng ruoxue couldn't take it anymore. It was too noisy!

"Just slowly train him. Although it's a little talkative, it's still bearable compared to its practical value. " Dreamdust said.

"Are you sure?" When Leng ruoxue heard Huan Chen's words, she felt that he was like a grandmother Wolf who abducted a little white rabbit. She just didn't know if the little white rabbit in his eyes was her or the little grass that was a little crazy.

"I'm sure!" Huan Chen nodded heavily.

"But is it willing to become an Artifact Spirit?" Even though Leng ruoxue had agreed, she still had to clarify things. After all, she did not wish to force any living being with spirituality to do something they were unwilling to do.

"I'm willing! It can only transform after becoming a tool spirit. Otherwise, it'll always be a stone. " Without even asking the grass, Huan Chen had domineeringly decided the grass's future, and the grass had no chance to object.

Wu...Its grass rights!

In the end, Leng ruoxue took the grass with her.

After returning to Demon City, Dongfang Yue, master ning, and the others heard that Leng ruoxue had found a stone that could produce a weapon spirit. They were all curious and asked to take a look.

However, when they saw that Leng ruoxue had only taken out a single stalk of grass, everyone was collectively dumbfounded.

"Xue 'er, we want to see the stones." Master ning couldn't help but remind him.

"This is it," Leng ruoxue said with certainty.

"Are you kidding us? This is clearly grass. " Master ning said unhappily. Xue 'er had learned to be bad.

"Grass-shaped stone!" Leng ruoxue explained.

The moment Leng ruoxue finished speaking, the red-colored grass that had been lying listlessly on her palm stood up. It shook its leaves to raise its spirits and said, "Hello, everyone. It's a pleasure to meet you. Please take good care of me. "

"Uh! Hello there!" Master ning and the others responded in a daze. The world was so big, and there were all kinds of strange things! None of them had expected that the material Xue 'er brought back was actually an ordinary blade of grass.

However, the little red grass, which had become a little crazy at the sight of so many people, began to sing again. "No fragrance of flowers, no height of trees, I am a little grass that no one knows ..."

Ugh! Master ning and the others didn't know how to react.

Leng ruoxue and the rest were extremely calm. It was good to let everyone admire this weird grass. Wasn't this sharing good fortune and suffering together?

In the end, master ning and the others, whose endurance was obviously not as good as Leng ruoxue and the others, were crushed by the little grass.

For a few days, they didn't dare to show up, afraid that the little grass that liked to sing would entangle them, because once entangled, the other party would want to treat them to free songs. But they didn't want to hear it at all!

Right now, their only hope was that Xue 'er could quickly take care of this grass. However, they had forgotten that even if they dealt with this grass, it was also an Artifact Spirit and would still appear. At that time, it would be even more convenient for people to move around.

More importantly, there was only one stone with such a spirit in the world. Hence, Leng ruoxue had to be careful when dealing with the other party's body. If the refinement failed, she would have no place to cry to.

As a result, he had to struggle for quite a few days.

In the weapon refining room, Leng ruoxue was carefully adjusting the temperature of the liquid in the weapon furnace. With her previous experience, she could now perfectly control the temperature of the fire to refine acquired Chaos Divine weapons. Beside her, there were also many finished products of the successfully refined acquired Chaos Divine weapons. However, these finished divine weapons did not have weapon spirits.

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but stare at the floating red grass not far away. Those finished houtian Chaos Divine artifacts were meant for it to live in, but who knew that this fellow had so many demands. It was either dissatisfied with the temperature, unwilling to put them into the furnace, or dissatisfied with the appearance of the divine artifacts. After so many refinements, there was not a single one that satisfied it.

Leng ruoxue was almost driven mad by its torture.

"What kind of body do you want?" Leng ruoxue asked through gritted teeth.

"I don't know!" Red grass replied matter-of-factly.

Leng ruoxue was exasperated.

"Why don't you give me a tower-shaped one?" Red grass thought for a while and said.

Leng ruoxue lowered her head and looked at the Golden Tower not far away.

"Bastard! Don't steal my version!" At this moment, Azure, who had been napping in the corner, opened his eyes and clawed at the grass, smacking it into the ground.

She struggled to get up. There was a small blade of grass on the ground, but Leng ruoxue ignored it.

Then, she heard red grass say, ""Then give me some space!"

Leng ruoxue continued to ignore him.

Hearing this, Huan Chen appeared and stepped on the grass, crushing it.

This kind of thing happened almost every day. Leng ruoxue was already numb to it. Right now, her biggest headache was what kind of home this grass wanted!

After being tormented for a few more days, Leng ruoxue decisively resorted to violence. She grabbed the grass and shouted fiercely, ""I'll give you three minutes to tell me what kind of home you want. Otherwise, I'll make the decision for you!"

"I want a spacious, beautiful, and cute one ..." A certain grass said while counting its leaves.

Leng ruoxue couldn't take it anymore. What was the difference between this and not saying anything?

Al! She knew that she couldn't let this grass have too much authority, or it would climb all over her!

In the next second, Leng ruoxue threw the stalk of grass into the armament furnace. The moment it entered the armament furnace, the red-colored grass let out a shrill cry, ""Argh! It was so hot! It was so hot! It's burning this little master to death!"

However, Leng ruoxue didn't care at all. Guard wing and the rest who were helping out also ignored her. After living with this grass for a few days, they already knew the habits of this grass and would definitely not be fooled. More importantly, the temperature in the furnace was the most suitable for it.

When the sound of the grass gradually weakened, the appearance of the acquired Chaos Divine weapon had already taken shape in Leng ruoxue's mind. Finally, after tempering and shaping, the acquired Chaos Divine weapon was officially completed with the addition of the nameless little grass.

This was a very beautiful house. It could be big or small, and the smallest one was not even the size of a palm. It completely met a certain grass's requirements of being spacious and beautiful. As for its cuteness, it depended on the person.

However, before Leng ruoxue and the rest had the time to admire the view, the house had already run outside in excitement. At the same time, the sky outside was filled with lightning and thunder, and the dark clouds were extremely spectacular.

Leng ruoxue and the rest looked at each other. They knew that this was the weapon tribulation.

After passing the weapon tribulation, this postcelestial Chaos Divine weapon would be officially recorded in the laws of the heaven and earth. She would be able to complete her mission and officially advance.

Thinking about it, Leng ruoxue's heart couldn't help but beat wildly in excitement.

However, the weapon tribulation of an acquired Chaos Divine weapon was far more powerful than that of a top-grade divine pill. Fortunately, the acquired Chaos Divine weapon was a house that was built for both living and defense. Thus, Leng ruoxue was quite confident that it would be able to survive the weapon tribulation. It was just that the personality of the house's weapon spirit was a little worrying!

As the first weapon tribulation descended, a certain house easily survived.

The second lightning bolt, the third ... All the way to the seventh lightning bolt, the house appeared very relaxed. However, at the eighth lightning bolt, the lightning bolts that struck down were obviously much thicker, which made the onlookers a little worried.

Sure enough, the eighth artifact was already a little difficult to carry, but after a long time, it finally passed.

However, after the eighth weapon tribulation, there was no more weapon tribulation. However, the dark clouds in the sky had not dispersed, so no one could tell if there would be another weapon tribulation.

Unfortunately, Leng ruoxue couldn't feed the house any healing pills. The house had to rely on itself for everything. Hence, it could be said that she was more anxious than anyone else.

Sensing Leng ruoxue's anxiety, a certain House member consoled her, "Girl, don't worry, this young master will be fine!"

"Your sister, are you fit to call her" Niu "?" Hearing this, Cang exploded.

"What's wrong with that? I didn't call you!" A certain house was very disapproving.

"I'm the only one who can say that, you're not allowed to!" Azure fire roared.

"Hmph!" A certain house was so proud that it kept quiet. With the two of them stirring things up, the atmosphere at the scene was much more relaxed.

It was unknown how long it had been brewing for. When the weapon tribulation descended once again, Leng ruoxue and the others were shocked by the mighty lightning and thunder in front of them. This ninth weapon tribulation was simply the combination of the previous eight! The lightning bolt was almost ten meters thick, and there were still sparks the size of an adult's arm on it. If it hit a human body ...

The surrounding crowd shivered and left!

After hiding in the distance, everyone watched as the ninth tribulation bolt smashed into the house, instantly turning the beautiful house into a charred black.

Leng ruoxue was so nervous that her heart was in her throat. This house was built by her and was naturally connected to her mind. Therefore, she could clearly feel that the house was in pain, but she could not help. If she interfered with the heaven and earth's test on this house, the weapon tribulation that the house would have to bear would increase by several times. Therefore, she did not dare to make a move at all.

Looking at it from afar, her heart ached so much that it twisted together. Although that grass had a strange personality, it was still her child! The feeling of only being able to watch and not be able to help was really uncomfortable.

The ninth weapon tribulation was indeed extraordinary. It lasted for three days and three nights the moment it appeared. The pain that Leng ruoxue felt in her heart also continued for three days and three nights ...

Chapter 2978 The Final Ending \(1\)

Leng ruoxue could empathize with the pain in a certain house. More importantly, this feeling was too heart-wrenching, and after three days and three nights, she realized that the ninth tribulation didn't show any signs of weakening. Not only that, it even intensified from time to time. This fact made her feel deeply aggrieved.

Leng ruoxue gritted her teeth in hatred as she watched the weapon tribulation swagger around in the sky like a ferocious beast. It was a pity that she did not dare to step forward to help the house withstand the weapon tribulation. Otherwise, the weapon tribulation would only get worse!

Two days later, the weapon tribulation finally weakened. However, the wailing in Leng ruoxue's heart was also getting weaker and weaker. This made her even more worried.

Right before the ninth weapon tribulation disappeared, the pained groans from a certain house had also disappeared. Instantly, Leng ruoxue's expression changed drastically! 'Damn it!' Didn't succeed?

"Xue 'er, what's wrong?" The demon asked worriedly when he saw Xue 'er's already pale face turn even paler.

"The grass's aura has disappeared." Leng ruoxue said in a depressed mood.

"Uh! Did you fail?" Uncle long could not help but ask.

However, as soon as uncle long finished speaking, he received a lot of glares. The onlookers all looked at uncle long and accused him of touching a sore spot, while uncle long felt wronged.

"I don't know. The grass's aura disappeared for a while, but then it reappeared. It was very weak, so I'm not sure if it succeeded." Leng ruoxue said, feeling a little conflicted.

"This, this is indeed hard to judge." Uncle long teased. He didn't know how to comfort Xue 'er.

At this moment, another thunderclap rang out in the sky, attracting everyone to raise their heads in unison. They saw that the sky, which had just had a trace of sunlight, had returned to its gloomy state. Immediately, everyone's hearts sank. Was the weapon tribulation still not over?

Your sister! Why is there no end to this?

Everyone looked at Leng ruoxue worriedly, afraid that she would go crazy. At this moment, Leng ruoxue was really going crazy. However, what made her feel strange was that although the black clouds in the sky had gathered again, they did not descend even after a long time. She did not know what they were brewing.

The 10th weapon tribulation took even longer than the 9th. They had waited for five days before the 10th weapon tribulation descended. However, this weapon tribulation was different from the previous nine. It was in the form of a thick black mist.

The moment the tenth weapon tribulation descended, Leng ruoxue's heart clenched once more. However, this time, she did not hear the pained wail of a certain grass. Instead, she could feel the aura of a certain grass growing stronger.

What was going on?

With a stomach full of doubts, Leng ruoxue stared unblinkingly at the house that was enveloped by the tenth weapon tribulation. Only when she confirmed that the house was indeed recovering bit by bit did she finally feel at ease.

"Don't worry, it's fine now. " Leng ruoxue turned to demon and the rest with a faint smile.

"That's good. " Uncle long and the others were relieved.

"Hehe! I'm fine! Oh! It's so comfortable!" At this moment, the sound of a certain house appeared in everyone's ears.

"..." Leng ruoxue was speechless. She had no idea who that weak aura was.

As time passed, the thick black fog that shrouded a certain house was slowly absorbed. After the thick fog disappeared, the house that had been struck by lightning and turned black returned to its original gorgeous appearance.

When Leng ruoxue saw this, she immediately understood the purpose of the thick black fog.

At this moment, a handsome young man jumped out from the house. The moment he appeared, he immediately pounced towards Leng ruoxue. However, before he could even touch the corner of Leng ruoxue's clothes, he was sent flying by a kick from someone.

Leng ruoxue and the others watched helplessly as the fancy-looking young man turned into a shooting star and slowly disappeared before their eyes. At that moment, the crowd was at a loss for words.

This young man should be the little grass that liked to sing, right? What a pity! He hadn't even said a word to them, and he had already passed away! And the main character who created this tragedy was naturally the evildoer.

However, the evildoer did not feel guilty at all after doing all this. To dare to take advantage of his woman, just kicking her away was already considered cheap!

Looking at the evildoer's calm expression, Leng ruoxue calmed down as well. She couldn't possibly blame the evildoer for the sake of a freshly made weapon spirit! More importantly, she deeply felt that the tool spirit should be properly tidied up. At the very least, she had to get rid of his habit of singing to others at random. It was noise! Absolute noise!

Naturally, Leng ruoxue was the happiest after she had refined an acquired chaotic divine weapon with a weapon spirit. Furthermore, Qing Jue had also sent her a voice transmission to confirm that she had passed the test. With that, she could finally advance.

Before she made a breakthrough, she happily pulled the demon, uncle long, and the others to celebrate. Not long after Leng ruoxue and the rest started eating, a disheveled looking young man suddenly appeared out of nowhere. The moment he saw Leng ruoxue, he hugged her leg and did not let go.

"Niu! Girl! You have to help me! Someone is bullying me!" The young man howled, extremely sad.

However, just as he howled twice and before Leng ruoxue could even speak, everyone saw several white lights flash before their eyes. Immediately after, an earth-shattering howl of a Wolf could be heard. On the youth's face, there were ten claw marks that were bright and eye-catching as warm blood seeped out from them.

"....."

Senior Cang is really ruthless!

The crowd and the beasts couldn't help but secretly sympathize with him. However, no one dared to come forward to comfort him. At this time, they saw the young man being kicked and sent flying. Needless to say, this was the work of a demon.

After kicking the youngster away, evildoer and Cang Huan high-fived each other in an unprecedented way to celebrate. However, after a while, the young man crawled back and stood a meter away from Leng ruoxue. With tears in his eyes, he looked at Leng ruoxue with a choked up and aggrieved expression. He started singing again, "No fragrance, no tree master, I'm just a little grass that no one loves ..."

Leng ruoxue was speechless. She knew it! This guy still couldn't change his nature even after becoming an Artifact Spirit!

As long as she thought about how she would have such an obviously abnormal Artifact Spirit by her side in the future, she would feel very conflicted. The sympathy and heartache she had for this grass before had also disappeared!

"Shut up!" Leng ruoxue couldn't take it anymore and roared.

"Wuu ... Master doesn't love me!" The young man sobbed silently. He originally wanted to call Niu, but when he saw the stinky cat in his master's arms glaring at him threateningly with its claws, he decisively gave up.

"As long as you don't sing too much, there will be many people who will love you in the future." Leng ruoxue gritted her teeth.

"It's because I've been alone for tens of thousands of years that I developed the habit of talking to myself ..." The young man said in an extremely aggrieved manner.

"....."

Leng ruoxue was speechless. She did not know if she should sympathize with him.

At this moment, uncle long, who couldn't bear it, walked forward and gently stroked the young man's head. "Little fellow, there will be many people accompanying you in the future."

Chapter 2979 The End \(2\)

"Yes." The young man nodded and said with a serious face, "Please don't call me little guy, okay? I'm not younger than you."

"..." Uncle long was depressed.

Then, the young man took the initiative to greet everyone. "Let's get to know each other again! I'm called Xiao Cao! Hello, little guys!"

"..." All the beasts were depressed. They had never thought that Xue 'er would refine an elder for them!

At this moment, Leng ruoxue stood up and said to the crowd of beasts, "Uncle long, you guys can continue eating! I'm going to make a breakthrough."

If she continued to stay here, she would go crazy! This grass is incurable.

"Uh! It's getting late, we should go back to our rooms." Uncle long and the others said in unison.

With that, the crowd and beasts all disappeared.

Little grass, who was left alone, was completely dumbfounded. What ... What did this mean? He hadn't finished speaking. However, it was obvious that no one was willing to listen to his nonsense.

After Leng ruoxue left, she entered the bangle immediately. The demon entered with her.

After sitting in the purple bamboo house, she began to advance.

The last level of the heaven-defying art required an unimaginable amount of spiritual Qi. Fortunately, she had no lack of spiritual Qi at the moment, and now everything was going smoothly. Therefore, she quickly felt the barrier to the next level. She mobilized the spiritual Qi in her body and rushed forward with all her strength!

The demon watched Leng ruoxue nervously from the side and observed her movements at all times.

A few hours later, Leng ruoxue was drenched in sweat. It was as if she had fallen into water. Her clothes were all drenched in sweat, and a pained expression gradually appeared on her face.

Seeing this, the demon's heart shrank. However, he knew that at this moment, he could not panic. After all, Xue 'er could only rely on herself to advance. Unless Xue 'er's spiritual energy was insufficient, he could not lend a helping hand. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Slowly, Leng ruoxue's pain lessened, and her expression gradually calmed down.

After a long time, Leng ruoxue finally opened her beautiful eyes. Just as she was about to smile at the evildoer, her body went soft and she fell down.

"Xue 'er!" The demon's expression changed when he saw this. He rushed over and hugged Leng ruoxue.

"I'm so tired!" The listless Leng ruoxue only managed to utter these three words before she fainted.

The demon was scared out of his wits and immediately carried Xue 'er to the bed. At this moment, Qing Jue appeared and said, "elder sister is fine. She's just too tired and fell asleep."

"I'm so tired that I fell asleep!" The demon gritted his teeth and repeated, his forehead full of black lines. However, he also knew that it was not easy for Xue 'er to advance. Seeing that she was breathing evenly, he was relieved.

Leng ruoxue had slept for half a month. While she was sleeping, her body was also absorbing the spiritual energy in the bracelet. When she woke up, she no longer felt tired, but there was still no spiritual energy left in her body.

She felt that once she advanced, she had gone from a rich man to the poverty line. She was so depressed that she wanted to scratch the wall. Other people were refreshed and energetic after advancing, but why did she feel like she was going to fall with a single touch? This was really bullying! In her current state, she couldn't even take advantage of the law points of heaven and earth if she wanted to advance to reverent-god level!

There wasn't enough spiritual energy!

The sorrowful Leng ruoxue looked up at the sky at a 45-degree angle without saying a word. The evildoers who knew about her situation didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

He held Xue 'er in his arms and coaxed her, ""Xue 'er, don't be depressed. There will be spiritual energy. Everything will be there!"

"That's right. Sister, please help me break the seal first!" Qing Jue also said.

"Break the seal? We'll talk about it when I'm better. " Leng ruoxue innocently blinked her beautiful eyes and said calmly.

This time, it was Qing Jue's turn to scratch the wall. Was his sister clearly abusing her power to take revenge on a private matter? You can't do this! He was still waiting to unseal the seal and start farming.

It could be said that he was more concerned about the size of his own land than he was about recovering his full strength. However, the current situation was that Leng ruoxue was in a bad mood and didn't intend to let him have his wish!

Qing Jue also knew that his sister was in a fit of anger. Hence, it was best for him to be obedient at this time and not touch his sister's head. Otherwise, his sister would definitely go crazy!

With this thought in mind, Qing Jue forced himself to calm down and looked at Leng ruoxue with hidden bitterness. He wanted to use his gaze to make his sister feel guilty!

Unfortunately, even though his idea was good, this wish was very difficult to fulfill! This was because Leng ruoxue's skin was already thicker than a city wall. She ignored Qing Jue's resentful gaze and focused on being a rice weeper, enjoying the service of the beautiful man.

Seeing how the evildoer treated Leng ruoxue like his ancestor every day, Qing Jue secretly despised him. However, the evildoer did not care. In fact, from his perspective, it was only right for a man to serve his wife. Who would dare to say no?

Inside the bangle, Leng ruoxue was recuperating. At the same time, she was trying her best to absorb spiritual energy in preparation to take advantage of the laws of heaven and earth. Outside the bangle, Leng ruoxue, who had not appeared for a long time, also caused uncle long and the others to be worried.

They had no idea what Leng ruoxue's current situation was and felt that Xue 'er's realm-advancement was a little too long. According to past practices, Leng ruoxue would only be cultivating in the bracelet. As long as she had enough spiritual Qi, she would usually come out to advance. However, Xue' er had clearly made all the preparations long ago, so why had she not come out yet?

The more time passed, the more worried uncle long and the others became. However, Cang wasn't worried at all. Every day, he would eat and drink as he should, and also play with a certain grass. One had to say that Azure was the nemesis of a certain grass! Especially when uncle long and the others were annoyed by the grass, as long as they threw the verdant bamboo, the grass would immediately wither.

It could be said that Cang's life was quite comfortable. Later on, the grass learned its lesson and was determined not to provoke Cang. That guy was indeed not someone it could afford to provoke, especially when its master was not around.

Three months later, Leng ruoxue, who had enough spiritual Qi to advance, finally left the bracelet with the demon.

The moment Leng ruoxue appeared, a white figure charged towards her. After sensing that the other party wasn't Cang, she was just about to Dodge when the figure flew out again.

Leng ruoxue was rather calm as she looked at the little dots of white light.

"Xue 'er, you've finally come out." When they saw Leng ruoxue, uncle long and the others heaved a sigh of relief.

"Uncle long, I've made you worry. There was an accident when I was upgrading the 'heaven-defying art', and I used up all my spiritual Qi, so I stayed in there for a while longer. " Leng ruoxue explained with an apologetic look.

"It's good that you're fine. " Uncle long said, relieved.

"It's fine now. I can take advantage of the laws of heaven and earth now. " Leng ruoxue laughed evilly. In the past, when she broke through, she would think that the benefits she received were a gift from the heavens. However, after she understood the laws of heaven and earth, she no longer thought that way.

As the saying goes, it would be a waste not to take advantage of the laws of heaven and earth. More importantly, even if she did not take advantage of it, the laws of heaven and earth might not thank her.

Chapter 2980 The End \(3\)

With such thoughts in mind, Leng ruoxue naturally felt at ease.

After finding an empty spot on the mountain top and sitting down cross-legged, she was surrounded by countless small and exquisite beasts. The demon, uncle long, and the others were standing guard outside to keep an eye on them.

After waiting for a while, the laws of heaven and earth finally descended.

The seven-colored radiance instantly enveloped Leng ruoxue. The moment she advanced to reverent-god level, the spiritual energy stored in her body was once again depleted. However, the lost spiritual energy would be replenished by the laws of heaven and earth.

At the same time, when Leng ruoxue broke through, several laws of the heaven and earth descended. These laws of the heaven and earth landed on Zi Yu, Mei, Feng Zhan, Bai Xu, and Bao Bao who were standing beside Leng ruoxue ...

Uncle long and the others were stunned.

Those few beasts had also advanced to the level of a revered Emperor beast at the same time! Uncle long suddenly felt a little upset when he saw how easily they advanced.

It must be known that he had gone through a lot of hardships to advance to the venerable Emperor level. However, these beasts 'advancement was obviously much easier than his, especially their treasures, which made him envious and jealous.

In his eyes, treasure was not a beast that worked hard. Yet, it had become one of the earliest beasts that Leng ruoxue had managed to advance to the venerable Lord Rank. How could this not make others jealous?

Uncle long and the others continued to watch.

Leng ruoxue's reverent-god level advancement ceremony was obviously much longer than Leng Qingtian's and the others '. They had been watching for a few days, but it was still not over! With great difficulty, the heaven Earth Law that enveloped Leng ruoxue disappeared. Then, several more Heaven Earth laws descended from the sky. Needless to say, their target was none other than the spiritual beasts beside Leng ruoxue.

With such a repeated exchange of benefits, be it Leng ruoxue or the Beastie, the benefits they obtained were extremely huge. The crowd could not help but feel envious, jealous, and hateful.

There were always beasts breaking through, so the laws of heaven and earth continued for a long time. After nearly half a month, the laws of heaven and earth slowly faded.

Leng ruoxue opened her eyes.

"Xue 'er, your advancement is truly spectacular!" Uncle long couldn't help but say. Even though he was mentally prepared, he was still shocked after seeing it with his own eyes.

It was simply too inconceivable!

Compared to Xue 'er's and the other beasties' breakthroughs, uncle long and the others felt that their own breakthroughs were too weak!

At this moment, the beasts gradually woke up. When they saw Leng ruoxue beside them, they all snuggled into her arms. At the same time, baby proudly answered uncle Long's question, ""It's no big deal, we've always been like this!"

"....."

Uncle long and the others were speechless. This little guy really didn't know what humility was! Especially when they saw baby's smug expression, they really didn't know what to say.

What are you showing off for? Wasn't it just a rank-up?

Little guy, do you know how to be humble? Everyone looked at the baby.

The baby replied with his eyes, not understanding! As a beast, he had to be high-profile when he needed to be!

After exchanging glances, uncle long and the others were completely defeated. Because in their eyes, their baby's thick skin had also been trained to a certain level.

After communicating with uncle long and the rest, baby turned to Leng ruoxue and said, ""My lovely master, your treasure is also a reverent-God now! Hehe!"

"Yes, although you're already a reverent-God, it's still better for us to keep a low profile, baby." Leng ruoxue, who didn't miss the interaction between the treasure and uncle long and the others, reminded them.

"Adorable master, your baby has always been very low-key." Baby said, feeling wronged.

"Alright! I think we should keep a low profile." Leng ruoxue said helplessly as she touched the baby's fur.

"Niu's right, he should be like me, not sticking out for anything!" At this moment, Cang's voice rang in everyone's ears. At that moment, the treasure was terrified and buried its head in Leng ruoxue's arms.

When everyone heard Cang's words, they couldn't help but gasp. Senior Cang! Don't you stand out in everything? In their opinion, the most high-profile of the beasts was definitely Azure. However, they only dared to think about it in their hearts and didn't dare to say it out loud. Otherwise, Azure would definitely explode with anger!

However, even if they didn't say anything, from their expressions and reactions, Azure could tell that these people were talking bad about it. It was just that it was in a good mood today, so it didn't bother with these little guys!

At the same time, as Cang took a step towards Leng ruoxue, the beasts could no longer be bothered to get close to Leng ruoxue. They immediately scattered and hid far away.

Uncle long and the others were left speechless by this scene.

Senior Cang has trained these little beasts very well! In reality, baby and the other beasts were depressed to death. However, they were no match for Azure. As such, they could only act like beasts with their tails between their legs!

With a faint smile, Cang gave the Beastie a satisfied look before jumping into Leng ruoxue's arms. He asked curiously, "Girl, your 'heaven-defying incantation' has already reached the great circle. Why hasn't that idiot Qing Jue come out yet?"

This isn't right? Based on its understanding of that idiot green vessel, green vessel, who had recovered its full strength, should have come out to fight it one-on-one long ago. But it had been waiting for a few days, and there was still no sign of the little baby?

This was too abnormal!

"Uh! I still haven't released the last seal on him. " Leng ruoxue said guiltily. Previously, she did not unseal Qing Jue on purpose. However, she had really forgotten about it after that.

"No way? Did he not cause a scene? That guy is most concerned about those few pieces of land!" Azure's eyes widened in disbelief.

"No, I didn 't!" Leng ruoxue whispered.

At this moment, Qing Jue's sobbing voice suddenly sounded in her heart."Sister, it's already been more than three months. When are you going to release the last seal for me? Wu...Big sister is such a bully. "

Ugh! Leng ruoxue felt a little guilty and hurriedly said,""I'll undo the last seal for you now, so don't cry. "

"Sister, you can't lie to me!" Qing Jue said cautiously.

Leng ruoxue was speechless."When have I ever lied to you?!"

This little wimp actually didn't believe her!

"Hehe!" Qing Jue laughed foolishly. He did not dare to anger Leng ruoxue anymore.

"I'll go and unseal Qing Jue. " The helpless Leng ruoxue greeted the crowd and entered the bracelet.

Inside the bangle, Leng ruoxue arrived at the seal. After casting a few spells, the space within the bangle immediately started to shake. After a short period of shaking, the space expanded by several times and the spirit Qi became denser.

At the same time, a few more images appeared in Leng ruoxue's mind. Those images were the scenes of her master being persecuted by the foggy rippling B * tch. When those scenes flashed through Leng ruoxue's mind like a movie, she understood everything.

In fact, it was just as the demon and Huan Chen had said. In the face of fog ice, who could be considered to have been raised by him, master could not do anything ...
