

Crazy Wife 311

Chapter 311: Can I Go With You? (4)

“Haha!” Everyone couldn’t help laughing out loud when they saw how scared the little black dog was.

“Blackie! From now on, can we enter your mystic realm at any time?” Feng Da asked after laughing enough.

The little black dog raised his little head and said, “I can let you in when the mystic realm opens but not when it’s closed because the rules of the mystic realm will repel you.”

“Oh!” Everyone nodded.

“Blackie! Then if we need materials in the mystic realm, can you take them out for us?” Old Zao asked with a smile.

“Yes, that’s not a problem,” the little black dog said with certainty. Hehe, as the spirit of the mystic realm, he still had these little privileges.

“Phew! That’s good,” Old Zao said happily. With Blackie, they would have an inexhaustible natural treasure vault! It was great.

Everyone was chatting and laughing and kept feeding Blackie delicious food, trying their best to please him...

“Ah! You can exchange your points now,” Blackie suddenly shouted excitedly.

“How?” Leng Ruoxue looked around doubtfully but found nothing.

“Don’t worry. It’ll begin soon,” Blackie said.

Just as Blackie finished speaking, a small screen appeared in front of Leng Ruoxue and the others...

Leng Ruoxue looked at the screen and was surprised because this screen was actually similar to the LCD screens in her previous life. There were several options listed on the screen. She tapped one of them with her finger, and countless more options appeared...

She looked at the touch screen in a daze, her doubts deepening...

The others were completely dumbfounded because they didn’t know how to operate this thing.

“Uh, how do we use this thing?” Feng Da asked what everyone was thinking.

“Choose whichever option you are interested in and touch it with your finger,” Blackie explained.

“You have to choose seriously!” Blackie added.

After returning to her senses, Leng Ruoxue looked through all the items carefully. She then exchanged 2,000 points for two accumulation elixirs. The accumulation elixir was a pill that could promote a Spiritual Supremacy to a Spiritual Deity. She exchanged the rest of her points for herbs and minerals. As for holy beasts and divine beasts, she didn’t exchange for them because the points required were too high. Moreover, she didn’t really need them.

Leng Ruoxue was the first to finish exchanging. Not long later, Freak also finished.

“Xue’er, here you go.” Freak took the initiative to hand over his exchanged item to Leng Ruoxue.

Leng Ruoxue took the storage ring from Freak, sent the items inside into the Heaven and Earth Bracelet, and then returned the ring to him.

“Xue’er, Grandpa is done exchanging too.” Leng Qingtian also handed her a storage ring.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue took the ring and did the same.

“Xue’er, here!”

“Miss, here!”

“Lass, for you!”

After a while, Leng Ruohan, Feng Da, and the others also finished exchanging their points and handed the things in their hands to Leng Ruoxue for safekeeping.

“Big Sister, the points are exchanged. You’re going out soon!” the little black dog said excitedly.

Leng Ruoxue nodded. Everyone came to the garden and waited together.

Before long, Leng Ruoxue and the others felt a strong light enveloping them.

“Big Sister, send me into your space.” The little black dog put away the house and jumped into Leng Ruoxue’s arms.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue nodded, sent Blackie into the bracelet, and closed her eyes...

When the strong light disappeared, Leng Ruoxue and the others opened their eyes. They had already returned to the general’s mansion.

“Hehe, we’re finally back,” Leng Qingtian said emotionally.

“Grandpa, it’s late today. Everyone should rest early! Let’s discuss the future tomorrow,” Leng Ruoxue said.

“Okay, everyone, go and rest!” Leng Qingtian urged.

Everyone nodded and returned to their rooms to sleep.

The next day after lunch, Leng Ruoxue and the others gathered in the living room.

“What are your thoughts? Let’s talk about them!” Leng Qingtian looked around at everyone.

“I’ve decided to enter seclusion,” Leng Ruoxue said first. She had yet to break through the third level of the Heaven Defying Art, so she had to hurry up.

“I’ve also decided to enter seclusion. If I can break through to Spiritual Deity by myself, I won’t have to take the accumulation elixir,” Lin Liang said.

“Haha, as long as the lass breaks through to Spiritual Deity first, I don’t need to be in a hurry,” Old Zao said with a chuckle.

“Dream on! Don’t drag us down!” Old Man said with displeasure.

“Tch, even the lass doesn’t care. Who do you think you are?” Old Zao said disdainfully.

“Stop arguing. Listen to me. Anyone who wants to enter seclusion can enter seclusion. But it’s best if you wait for me to break through before you advance. This way, we can leave the Ling Feng Continent together. But I don’t know how long it will take me, so you have to be patient,” Leng Ruoxue said after some thought.

“Little Girl! I’m not in a hurry!” Old Man said.

“Lass, I’m not going into seclusion. I want to refine artifacts. Leave some materials for me before you enter seclusion!” Old Zao reminded.

“Okay. You can ask Qing Jue for more if there’s not enough.” Leng Ruoxue nodded.

“Big Sister, Mo Yingyue is about to give birth.” Qing Jue’s voice sounded in Leng Ruoxue’s mind.

“Ah! Wait!” With a thought, Leng Ruoxue moved everyone in the living room into the bracelet.

“Xue’er, why did you send us into the space?” Leng Qingtian asked doubtfully.

“Big Sister Mo is going to give birth,” Leng Ruoxue explained.

“Ah! Bring me there quickly,” Old Man said anxiously.

“Qing Jue,” Leng Ruoxue called out softly, and everyone instantly appeared at Mo Yingyue’s residence.

Chapter 312: Departure (1)

“Old Patriarch, Ruoxue, you’re here.” Li Yuan, who was pacing around anxiously outside the room, greeted everyone when he saw them before he began circling the house again.

“Stinky brat, how is the situation?” Old Man asked anxiously.

“She’s giving birth,” Li Yuan said with a pale face. At this moment, Mo Yingyue’s painful howl came from the room, causing Li Yuan’s heart to wrench again! He paced faster...

“You stinky brat, are you done circling? My head is dizzy because of you,” The distraught Old Man roared at the top of his lungs.

“Old Patriarch, I...” Li Yuan looked at the furious old patriarch aggrievedly and stopped obediently. Boohoo... He was nervous. As soon as he emerged from seclusion, Yingyue was about to give birth. This was too sudden for him. He wasn’t prepared at all!

“You what you! Go outside to the yard,” Old Man shouted with widened eyes.

“Yes, Old Patriarch.” Li Yuan looked pitiful as he walked to the yard.

Leng Ruoxue looked at Li Yuan sympathetically and asked in disapproval, “Old Man, why are you being so fierce to him!”

“He’s useless here. He’ll only add to the chaos,” Old Man said angrily.

“Wah-wah!” A baby’s cry sounded from the room just as Old Man finished speaking.

“Born!” Li Yuan yelled happily and jumped in directly from the yard.

“Old Patriarch, Young Master, Young Madam gave birth to twins.” A maidservant walked out of the room and bowed to report.

“Boys or girls?” Li Yuan asked anxiously.

“They are two young masters,” the maidservant said happily.

“Why are they both boys?” Li Yuan murmured, his handsome face full of dissatisfaction.

“What’s wrong with boys? Stinky brat, quickly go in and see your wife.” Old Man raised his leg and kicked Li Yuan’s butt fiercely, directly kicking him into the room.

“Haha!” Everyone laughed when they saw Li Yuan in such a sorry state.

“Grandpa, let’s go back first. Don’t get in their way,” Leng Ruoxue said to Leng Qingtian and the others. Mo Yingyue and her husband must have a lot to talk about.

“Okay, let’s go back and see the babies tomorrow,” Leng Qingtian said tactfully.

After leaving Mo Yingyue’s residence, Leng Ruoxue and the others didn’t leave the bracelet but returned to their bamboo houses.

After entering the purple bamboo house, Leng Ruoxue went to the refining room with Freak. She planned to refine a small gift for the two babies.

“Xue’er, what do you want to refine?” Freak asked curiously when he saw Leng Ruoxue preparing to refine artifacts.

“I want to refine a pair of longevity locks,” Leng Ruoxue said. People in this world traditionally gave longevity locks to newborn babies, so she had to follow the customs.

“What should I give them then?” Freak frowned in slight distress. He didn’t know how to refine artifacts or concoct pills.?Alas! What should I give them?

“You don’t have to worry. Won’t my gift count as yours too!” Leng Ruoxue said in realization.?Damn Freak, he was waiting for me to say this!

“Hehe, what Xue’er says makes sense.” Freak’s incomparably handsome face was full of pride.

Leng Ruoxue lit the furnace fire and threw the materials into the furnace one by one. After the materials melted into liquid, she began to remove the impurities and purify them. Then she controlled the liquid to mold it according to what she imagined in her mind and finally tempered and finalized it...

After she completed this set of procedures, two small and cute golden locks lay quietly in her white palm.

“So cute. Aren’t they a little small though?” Freak picked up a longevity lock that wasn’t even as big as his fingernail.

“They will become normal size after acknowledging their masters,” Leng Ruoxue explained.

“Defensive sacred artifacts?” Freak said in realization.

“Yes.” Leng Ruoxue nodded.

“Freak, I’ve decided to enter seclusion after visiting the babies tomorrow. What about you?” Leng Ruoxue asked.

“I will accompany you in your seclusion!” Freak said matter-of-factly.

“Uh!” Two drops of cold sweat dripped down Leng Ruoxue’s forehead. What does Freak mean? Is he going to enter seclusion with me?

“Xue’er, I promise I won’t disturb you,” Freak promised very seriously. He just didn’t want to be too far away from her! Boohoo... I’ll go crazy if I don’t see Xue’er for too long.

“Alright! We’ll enter seclusion tomorrow,” Leng Ruoxue said helplessly.

The next day, Leng Ruoxue and Freak went to see the babies, informed Leng Qingtian and the others, and then officially entered seclusion.

After Leng Ruoxue went into seclusion, Leng Qingtian and the others also began to enter seclusion one after another.

...

Three months later, in the Heaven and Earth Bracelet...

“Eh, Brat Lin, you’re out of seclusion?” Old Man, who was sitting on a stone bench, asked when he saw Lin Liang emerge from his bamboo house in high spirits.

“Yes, where are the others? Haven’t they come out yet?” Lin Liang asked curiously when he saw that only Old Man was here.

“No, you’re the first to come out,” Old Man explained. Except for him and Old Zao, everyone else chose to enter seclusion.

“Where’s Old Zao? He didn’t enter seclusion either. Why are you alone?” Lin Liang asked in puzzlement.

“He went to the Dragon clan,” Old Man said lightly. When Little Girl and the others weren’t around, the old thing had begun to show off everywhere. After a while, he had urged his dragon to bring him to the Dragon clan to play. He had gone for more than a month.

“Wasn’t he going to refine artifacts? Why did he go to the Dragon clan? The dragons don’t really welcome humans. Isn’t he afraid that he won’t be able to return?” Lin Liang said speechlessly. Why is Old Zao so worrisome?

“It’s better if he doesn’t come back!” Old Man gloated. At the thought that Old Zao might not come back, his old face was about to bloom with laughter.

“Old Zao is back.” Qing Jue’s words dampened Old Man’s beautiful dreams just as he was gloating happily.

“Little baby, are you sure?” Old Man asked gloomily.

Chapter 313: Departure (2)

“See for yourself if you don’t believe me. And he didn’t come back alone.” Qing Jue pointed outside.

Old Man and Lin Liang looked in the direction Qing Jue was pointing. Their expressions changed immediately. W-what did this mean? Did Old Zao become a hostage?

“Qing Jue, let me out to take a look,” Lin Liang said to Qing Jue after some thought.

“No need.” As Qing Jue spoke, he had already moved Old Zao into the bracelet from outside.

“Damn old thing, what did you do!” As soon as Old Man saw Old Zao, he chased after him and started fighting him.

“Ah! It’s not my fault. Ahhh... They insisted on following me. I’m wronged,” Old Zao cried out while hiding everywhere.

“Brat Lin, save me!” Old Zao pleaded with Lin Liang for help.

But Lin Liang turned his head to the side and pretended not to hear him.

“What are you doing?” A dignified voice interrupted them all of a sudden.

“Ah! Old Leng, save me! This old man is crazy!” Old Zao ran to Leng Qingtian and hid behind him.

“You two old men are hundreds of years old. Why are you still acting like children?” Leng Qingtian said helplessly. As soon as he emerged from seclusion, he saw one old man chasing the other around. Fortunately, there were few people here now. Otherwise, it would be ridiculous if the younger generation saw them!

“Ask him about the good deed he did!” Old Man said angrily.

“What did you do again?” Leng Qingtian looked at Old Zao in puzzlement.

“What do you mean again? I didn’t do anything!” Old Zao pouted aggrievedly.

Leng Qingtian turned his eyes to Old Man with a questioning gaze.

“You’ll know when you look outside,” Old Man reminded.

“Uh, what happened?” Leng Qingtian looked out of the bracelet and was shocked. There were at least a thousand dragons in human form and beast form outside.

“It’s all his fault,” Old Man said.

“What do they want?” Leng Qingtian asked unpleasantly, frowning.

“I don’t know either. They said they wanted to see the lass and insisted on following me back. Ahhh... I had no choice!” Old Zao was so aggrieved that he was about to cry.

“Hmph! You still have the cheek to say that. If you didn’t go to Dragon Island, would they have followed you back?” Old Man roared furiously.

“You went to Dragon Island?” Leng Qingtian glared at him.

“Yes, I went for a tour,” Old Zao said quietly.

“In that case, we’ll leave these big fellows to you,” Leng Qingtian said disloyally.

“Boohoo... Lass, come out of seclusion quickly!” Old Zao prayed with tears in his eyes.

At this moment, Leng Ruoxue, who was in seclusion in the purple bamboo house, was at a critical point in her cultivation. The heaven and earth spiritual energy in her body was approaching a saturated state after she had absorbed it over this period of time. It was just that there were no signs of a breakthrough. But she had already vaguely felt that she was on the threshold of advancement these two days, so she had been sprinting with all her might...

Beside her, Freak had long completed his cultivation, so he had been guarding by her side and didn’t even take half a step away from her.

“Xue’er, you can do it!” Freak murmured to himself while staring at Leng Ruoxue without blinking.

Leng Ruoxue, who was sprinting at full speed, gathered her immense spiritual power. After compression, her spiritual power condensed into a spiritual power thread thinner than a strand of hair. She controlled this thread and circulated it around the meridians in her body for 36 cycles. Then she directed this thin thread to attack the barrier that had become very fragile...

Under the crazy bombardment of the thin thread, the barrier shattered with a bang, and Leng Ruoxue’s Heaven Defying Art finally entered the fourth level.

The Heaven Defying Art broke through the third level and consumed all of Leng Ruoxue’s spiritual power. So her body began to absorb heaven and earth spiritual energy crazily like a bottomless pit again...

After replenishing almost 30% of her spiritual power, Leng Ruoxue slowly opened her eyes. Freak’s incomparably handsome face instantly appeared in front of her.

“Xue’er, you’ve finally broken through,” Freak said happily with an incomparably enchanting smile on his lips.

“Damn Freak, you scared me!” Leng Ruoxue pretended to be angry.

“Hehe, Xue’er, I missed you so much.” Freak hugged Leng Ruoxue’s slender waist tightly and laid his head on her shoulder coquettishly.

“Silly Freak, haven’t we been together all this time!” Leng Ruoxue said helplessly. Freak had refused to enter seclusion alone, so the two of them stayed in the purple bamboo house.

“How can it be the same? Although you were so close, I couldn’t hug or kiss you. Boohoo...” Freak said pitifully as tears welled up in his bright black eyes.

“Alright, stop pretending to be pitiful. I’ll make it up to you in the future,” Leng Ruoxue coaxed.

“I have to continue waiting?” Freak pouted with some dissatisfaction.

“Oh yes, Freak, how long have we been in seclusion?”

“Almost four months.” Freak calculated the time.

“It’s been so long? Freak, let’s head out first!” Leng Ruoxue said.

“Okay.” Freak knew that he couldn’t force Xue’er too much, or his compensation would run away.

When Leng Ruoxue and Freak walked out of the purple bamboo house, Qing Jue was already waiting for her outside.

“Big Sister, congratulations on breaking through again,” Qing Jue said happily. ?Hehe, I can unlock another seal. More importantly, I will have more land!

“Qing Jue, were you guarding outside because you want me to unlock the seal quickly?” Leng Ruoxue asked in realization.

“Yes.” Qing Jue nodded vigorously and looked at Leng Ruoxue expectantly.

“Qing Jue, you haven’t told me what ability you obtained after unlocking the seal last time!” Leng Ruoxue brought up the old score. ?Hmph! I haven’t forgotten this matter at all!

“Hehe, Big Sister, the ability I obtained previously was mainly for defense. When you’re fighting, I can transform into your armor,” Qing Jue explained.

Chapter 314: Departure (3)

“Oh, don’t keep me in suspense this time!” Leng Ruoxue warned. Her hands danced in the air, making hand seals, and unlocked another seal of the Heaven and Earth Bracelet.

After another seal of the Heaven and Earth Bracelet was unlocked, the spiritual energy in the space became denser, and the area expanded nearly twice in size. Moreover, three new pieces of land appeared.

“I have new land!” Qing Jue shouted happily.

“Big Bro Qing Jue, this is great. We can plant more things now.” The little black dog jumped up and down happily.

Two drops of cold sweat dripped down Leng Ruoxue’s forehead as she grumbled in her heart, ?These two farming maniacs are actually more enthusiastic about seeing land than seeing me!

“Big Sister, my new ability this time is the ability to transform into your weapon!” Qing Jue took the initiative to speak before Leng Ruoxue could ask and immediately disappeared after speaking.

“Transform into my weapon? This isn’t bad,” Leng Ruoxue murmured to herself.

“Haha, Xue’er, you’re finally out.” Leng Qingtian and the others, who felt the change in space, all came to the purple bamboo house.

“Grandpa, when did you come out of seclusion?” Leng Ruoxue asked curiously.

“Old Lin and I have been out for almost a month. Ruohan and the others were a little later,” Leng Qingtian explained with a smile.

“Grandpa, should we advance now?” Leng Ruoxue asked.

“Xue’er, wait, we don’t need to rush our advancement. Uh! Erm... The Dragon Emperor wants to see you. He’s staying in the general’s mansion now!” Leng Qingtian said with a troubled expression.

“The Dragon Emperor? Long Hao? Why does he want to see me?” Leng Ruoxue’s beautiful eyes were full of question marks.

“I don’t know. Long Hao refused to tell us! He insists on seeing you,” Leng Qingtian said helplessly. These days, these old men had been asking around about the purpose of these dragons’ visit. But these dragons’ mouths were actually more tightly shut than a clam’s shell. They couldn’t pry them open at all.

“Then I’ll go see him!” Leng Ruoxue sighed.

After exiting the Heaven and Earth Bracelet, Leng Ruoxue and Freak went directly to the Dragon Emperor.

Leng Ruoxue found Long Hao lying in a chair and basking in the sun in the garden and asked directly, “Dragon Emperor, why are you looking for me?”

“Miss Leng, our Dragon clan wants to recognize you as our master,” Long Hao said with a smile.

“That’s it?” Leng Ruoxue was stunned. If that was all, why did the Dragon clan have to be so mysterious?

“Yes.” Long Hao nodded. Alas! It also feels pretty good to be in human form. After coming to the human world, the divine beasts of the Dragon clan had transformed into human form to live these few days. Otherwise, this small general’s mansion really wouldn’t be able to accommodate them.

“Then why didn’t you say anything when my grandfather asked?” Leng Ruoxue really couldn’t understand what these dragons were thinking.

“We were afraid that you would refuse, so we wanted to talk to you face to face,” Long Hao said shyly.

“Uh! You’re right. I have enough beasts now, so I don’t intend to take in any for now,” Leng Ruoxue said honestly. As for whether she would take them in in the future, she didn’t know either.

“Can’t... can’t you make an exception once? On the account that we had a deal before?” Long Hao said weakly. He also knew that they were in the wrong in the previous deal, but he had to worm his way into getting close to her.

“Our Dragon clan is very strong. We will definitely be your greatest help in the future,” Long Hao added.

“Long Hao, although I don’t intend to take in any beasts for the time being, my relatives and subordinates can take you in. So your clan members can acknowledge them as their masters if they’re willing,” Leng Ruoxue reminded kindly. In fact, she knew very well why the Dragon clan wanted to recognize her as their master, so letting them recognize her relatives and subordinates as their masters was also considered doing what they needed!

“Erm... I need to discuss this with the elders,” Long Hao said awkwardly.

“No problem. Discuss slowly! But I want to remind you that we’re going to leave the Ling Feng Continent soon!” With that, Leng Ruoxue pulled Freak away.

“Xue’er, will the Dragon clan agree?” Freak asked curiously.

“Yes. Otherwise, they wouldn’t have come all the way here,” Leng Ruoxue said understandingly. There were probably no dragons remaining on Dragon Island now.

“Where are we going?” The two of them had already walked out of the general’s mansion while they spoke.

“I’m going to advance!” Leng Ruoxue said with a smile.

She walked to a spacious open space and summoned Quill.

“Quill, I want to go somewhere to advance,” Leng Ruoxue said directly to Quill.

“Yes, Master.” Quill flapped his wings, jumped into the air, and slowly became a small black dot that disappeared into the sky.

Quill brought Leng Ruoxue and Freak to an uninhabited valley.

Leng Ruoxue jumped down from Quill’s back and released her beasts. Then she sat cross-legged on a boulder and waited for the heaven and earth laws to descend.

After a while, the heaven and earth laws arrived as expected. Leng Ruoxue absorbed the spiritual energy bestowed upon her by the heaven and earth laws to her heart’s content...

After the heaven and earth laws slowly dissipated, a thought flashed through Leng Ruoxue’s mind: Leave the Ling Feng Continent three days later!

So soon?? Leng Ruoxue didn’t expect to leave so soon after advancing to Spiritual Deity!

After her advancement, Leng Ruoxue and Freak immediately returned to the general’s mansion and told everyone about this.

“Uh, we’re leaving in three days. If you have anything to settle, do it quickly,” Leng Qingtian reminded. After discussing, these old men decided that they would advance in another dimension.

“Me too!”

“Feng Da, go to the Prosperity Pavilion and tell Big Brother Wang and the others that it will belong to them from now on,” Leng Ruoxue suddenly said to Feng Da. After the opening of the Prosperity Pavilion, she hadn’t really cared much about it. Fortunately, Xu Xing wasn’t aware of the relationship between her and the Prosperity Pavilion, so it was able to escape disaster.

“Yes, Miss. Do you want me to visit the Hurricane Mercenary Group and ask them to take care of it?” Feng Da suggested.

Chapter 315: Departure (4)

“Go ahead. Take this to Big Brother Ju while you’re there.” Leng Ruoxue took out two accumulation elixirs and handed them to Feng Da.

“Okay,” Feng Da replied and left the general’s mansion.

After arranging everything and informing the dragons, Leng Ruoxue and the others waited quietly for the moment of departure.

Three days later.

“Grandpa,” Leng Ruoxue called softly while looking at Leng Qingtian standing in the garden. Only her grandfather was still outside.

“Xue’er, let me take one last look!” Leng Qingtian said nostalgically. After leaving today, he probably wouldn’t have the chance to return.

“Okay,” Leng Ruoxue replied.

“Xue’er, send me into the space!” Leng Qingtian said after a long while.

Leng Ruoxue nodded and sent Leng Qingtian into the bracelet, leaving her alone in the garden.

A moment later, a golden beam of light descended from the sky and enveloped Leng Ruoxue. After a few minutes, the beam of light disappeared, and the garden was empty...

When the warm golden light disappeared, Leng Ruoxue slowly opened her beautiful eyes and observed her surroundings. Uh! This place... is very barren. There was no sign of human habitation, and all she could see were barren land, overgrown weeds, and endless mountain ranges...

Leng Ruoxue was dumbfounded. This place... is the Upper Realm?? She was very doubtful. Did the golden light bring me to the wrong place?? Did it mess with me? Otherwise, why would it leave me here in this place without a single trace of humans?? I can’t even find anyone to ask for directions...

With a thought, Leng Ruoxue moved Freak, her grandfather, and the others out of the bracelet.

“Uh, Xue’er, are we here already?” Leng Qingtian was a little confused when he emerged, especially when he saw the desolate wilderness.

“Where is this place? Why is it so... so...” Old Man was stunned and speechless.

“Xue’er, don’t be scared. I will protect you,” Freak said with incomparable affection as he hugged Leng Ruoxue’s slender waist, his eyes full of allure.

“Which eye of yours saw that I was afraid? Hmph! I’m the one protecting you if there’s any protection needed! Ah, this place is so remote. If you meet a bad person who takes a liking to your beauty, you will be in danger,” Leng Ruoxue teased Freak.

“Yes, that’s right. You have to protect me,” Freak said cooperatively.

“Okay, don’t worry!”

“Old Man, what do you know about this world?” Leng Ruoxue turned to ask Old Man.

“Little Girl, to be honest, I don’t know much about this world! Moreover, I’ve already told you everything I know. Oh right, I also know that your Leng family’s seniors have a very high status in this world,” Old Man explained simply.

“Ruoxue, let’s leave this place. There probably won’t be anyone in these barren mountains,” Lin Liang suggested. He didn’t expect the beam of light to leave Leng Ruoxue in such a desolate place. They were unfamiliar with the place and people here, so they were unsure of what to do!

“Grandpa, do you want to advance first?” Leng Ruoxue asked after some thought. This was a good place to advance, where they wouldn’t be disturbed.

Leng Qingtian and the others looked at each other and nodded. “Okay.”

“Lass! I don’t want to advance with you. I want to break through by myself,” Old Zao said stubbornly.

“Ruoxue, we’re not in a hurry either,” Feng Jing and the Feng family’s first elder said at the same time.

“Okay. Grandpa, Old Man, Grandpa Lin, advance first!” Leng Ruoxue nodded and released the dragons who were going to contract with the three of them.

After hearing her proposal, the Dragon clan had been hesitant, but they immediately agreed after knowing that Leng Ruoxue and the others were about to leave the Ling Feng Continent. But the Dragon clan had a condition. They requested to choose their masters themselves, so Leng Ruoxue sent them all into the bracelet to let the dragons cultivate feelings with her grandfather and the others. After a short period of interaction, most dragons had already found their masters, and the first elder of the Dragon clan had decided to contract with her grandfather. Long Hao chose her elder brother...

“Okay.” The three old men let out their beasts, contracted with the dragons, and began to break through with all their might.

About two hours later, three streams of heaven and earth laws descended one by one...

After a while, the heaven and earth laws slowly dissipated, and the three of them officially advanced to Spiritual Deity.

The three old men’s beasts, especially the dragons, advanced separately after receiving the benefits of their master’s advancement...

“Long Sheng, what level are you now?” Leng Ruoxue looked curiously at the first elder of the Dragon clan, who had transformed into his original form.

“Little Master, I am a level six divine beast now,” Long Sheng said respectfully.

“Level six divine beast?” Leng Ruoxue was confused. Isn’t it transcendent divine beast above divine beast? Why is there still level six divine beast?

“Little Master, it’s like this. The divine beasts on the Ling Feng Continent can actually only be considered level one divine beasts. They are limited by the laws of the Ling Feng Continent, so they are unable to advance after advancing to divine beast.

“However, the level of this dimension is higher than that of the Ling Feng Continent, so our strength can continue to increase in this dimension. I am now a level six divine beast, and the divine beast stage is divided into nine levels. Above divine beast is transcendent divine beast, which is also divided into nine levels,” Long Sheng explained. This information was obtained from his inherited memory just now.

“Oh!” Leng Ruoxue nodded. She didn’t expect the division of divine beasts to be so detailed.

“Feng Zhan, Charm, can you advance?” Leng Ruoxue sent a voice transmission to her beasts.

“Master, I can,” Feng Zhan was first to reply. He had been a divine beast for a long time and had already accumulated enough spiritual power in his body. Advancing a few levels would definitely not be a problem.

“Master, me too,” Charm replied.

“Master, I can also advance,” White Dawn echoed.

“Master...”

Leng Ruoxue didn’t expect that most of her beasts would be able to advance. This was definitely good news for her.

Chapter 316: Entering Boundless Heaven (1)

With a thought, Leng Ruoxue released all the beasts that could advance. After they emerged, they immediately transformed into their true forms and found spots to prepare for advancement.

After a while, streams of heaven and earth laws descended non-stop in the barren mountain range, creating a dazzling sight. Only after a few hours did the aftershocks of the advancement gradually disperse. The beasts remained on the spot with their eyes closed to regulate their breathing...

The advancement of the beasts naturally brought incomparably tremendous benefits to Leng Ruoxue. Now, the spiritual power in her body was already showing signs of liquefying.

“Ruoxue! The advancement of your beasts is really too spectacular,” Lin Liang said in amazement. Although it wasn’t the first time he had seen such a scene, he felt incomparably shocked every time he saw it.

“Haha, Grandpa Lin, it will also be like this when you contract more beasts,” Leng Ruoxue said happily.

“I... Forget it. I don’t have abnormal mental strength like you,” Lin Liang said with slight jealousy. Even though the higher the level, the stronger the strength, and the more beasts people could contract, no one could contract beasts infinitely like Leng Ruoxue because their mental strength was limited. If they exceeded the limit of their mental strength, not only would they be unable to contract with any beasts, they would also suffer a backlash and become fools.

“Grandpa Lin, then quickly increase your strength. If you are stronger, there will naturally be many beasts you can contract,” Leng Ruoxue comforted.

“Yes, strength is really too important.” Lin Liang sighed.

“Beloved Master, guess what level your Darling is now?” Darling, who had already consolidated his cultivation, jumped into Leng Ruoxue’s arms in his transformed form and said coquettishly. Boohoo... Beloved Master, you haven’t hugged me for so long. I miss being hugged so much...

Leng Ruoxue raised the small and cute purple fox in her arms and said very seriously, “Level two divine beast?”

“No, Beloved Master, you look down on Darling too much. Boohoo...” Darling complained aggrievedly with tears welling up in his beautiful silver eyes.

“Uh! Don’t cry. I’m just joking with you. I know that you’re now a level three divine beast!” Leng Ruoxue coaxed, her forehead full of black lines. She might not be able to see the levels of other divine beasts now, but she was still clear about the strength of her beasts. But what surprised her was that White Dawn had actually advanced to transcendent divine beast.

“Okay.” Darling nodded in satisfaction and rubbed against Leng Ruoxue’s beautiful face.

“Master.” Charm also transformed, jumped onto Leng Ruoxue’s shoulder, and lay down after consolidating his cultivation.

“Charm, not bad!” Leng Ruoxue praised while caressing Charm’s snow-white fur gently. Charm was already a level five divine beast.

“Master, there’s still me!” A small fiery red bird flew to Leng Ruoxue’s other shoulder.

“Master, I’m the strongest now apart from that cat,” Feng Zhan said proudly.

“You damn bird! How dare you call me a cat! I’ll pluck all your fur out and turn you into a bald bird!” White Dawn roared furiously.

“Master, I was threatened by the feline!” Feng Zhan’s little wings pointed at the white tiger as he glared at him in complaint.

“Don’t call me a feline!” White Dawn hollered.

“Uh! Stop arguing,” Leng Ruoxue said helplessly. Alas! Those old men bicker all day, and my beasts quarrel often as well. She was really helpless!

“Master, I request to duel with this damn bird!” White Dawn said through gritted teeth. Hmph! Master doesn’t allow her beasts to fight, but I can always take the proper route!

“I refuse. You’re stronger than me. This is very unfair to me,” Feng Zhan said indifferently.

“Stop it, both of you,” Leng Ruoxue warned.

“Yes.” The two aggressive beasts immediately became well-behaved.

“Grandpa, let’s leave this place!” Leng Ruoxue turned to her grandfather.

“Okay, let’s go!” Leng Qingtian nodded. The most important thing now was to find a place with people and ask about the situation here.

Leng Ruoxue sent most of the beasts into the bracelet, leaving Charm, Feng Zhan, and Quill out.

“Which way should we go?” Leng Ruoxue asked with a headache as she looked at the winding mountain roads. Although their current location was uninhabited, there were too many forked roads in the mountains that they were unable to figure out.

“Let’s go south!” Leng Qingtian said as he looked at the terrain.

“Okay, Quill, bring us south!” Leng Ruoxue ordered.

“Yes, Master. Come up!” Quill flew into the air and enlarged his body.

After Leng Ruoxue and the others sat on Quill’s back, Quill flew them toward the south.

After flying for a day, they didn’t find a single person. Moreover, they still didn’t leave the mountain range.

“Why is this mountain range so big?” Old Zao grumbled.

However, no one paid any attention to him...

“Master, there are sounds of fighting not far ahead,” Quill suddenly said.

“Let’s go take a look,” Leng Ruoxue said without hesitation. It really wasn’t easy! They finally found some people.

Carrying Leng Ruoxue and the others, Quill flew toward the location of the fight. After arriving at the spot, everyone jumped off Quill’s back and watched the battle not far away.

On one side of the fight was an ugly spirit beast with a body like a small mountain. On the other side were a middle-aged man and a youth of fifteen or sixteen years old. Both of them were spiritualists. The middle-aged man was a Spiritual Supremacy while the youth was a Spiritual Sovereign.

As for the ugly beast, Leng Ruoxue carefully searched for information about it in her mind. It was... an earth alligator. Moreover, it was a level one divine beast. Earth alligators were beasts that excelled at defense. Their greatest characteristic was their thick skin, which was also a good material to refine armor.

The two humans fighting it were gradually showing signs of defeat. After all, they were weaker than this earth alligator. Besides, its defense was extremely abnormal, so it would be only a matter of time before they were defeated.

Chapter 317: Entering Boundless Heaven (2)

“Leave this place quickly! It’s dangerous!” The middle-aged man had already discovered Leng Ruoxue and the others and hurriedly shouted anxiously.

“Haha, so many delicacies have come knocking on my door. Don’t even think about leaving today!” The earth alligator laughed arrogantly, its already ugly head looking even uglier.

“What is this? It’s so ugly!” Leng Ruoxue said disdainfully, her beautiful eyes full of provocation.

“You’re the ugly one!” the earth alligator roared furiously.

“Freak, it said I’m ugly!” Leng Ruoxue complained coquettishly.

"It's okay, Xue'er. I don't mind," Freak teased with a light smile on his lips.

Leng Ruoxue nodded with satisfaction and deliberately said loudly, "Okay, what should we do with this big guy?"

"Although this thing is ugly, I heard that its meat is quite delicious." Freak's shiny black eyes sized up the earth alligator.

"Damn humans, I won't let you go. You're dead!" the earth alligator roared. It was so angry! These two damn ugly monsters actually discussed how to deal with it in front of it and said that they wanted to eat its meat. Hmph! It would let these two humans know who would be eating whom!

With a frightened face, Leng Ruoxue snuggled up to Freak. "Freak, we're being threatened. I'm so scared!"

"Don't be afraid. I will protect you," Freak said domineeringly.

Seeing Leng Ruoxue and the others ignoring him, the middle-aged man shouted again, "Hurry up and run! Leave this place!"

"None of you can run away. I'll deal with them after I kill you," the earth alligator said confidently to the middle-aged man. It quickly raised its giant tail, bringing forth gusts of wind that hit the middle-aged man like knives...

"This ugly thing is quite powerful," Leng Ruoxue said coldly.

"Quill, go teach it a lesson," Leng Ruoxue ordered. If she didn't do anything, the people she finally found with great difficulty would die.

"Yes, Master." Quill jumped into the air and flew above the earth alligator. His huge eagle claws directly pressed on the earth alligator's head. With a crack, his sharp claws instantly sliced through its head. The mountain-like earth alligator didn't have the slightest ability to resist and died...

Uh!? The middle-aged man and the youth looked at the scene in front of them in astonishment, dumbfounded. ?This... this black eagle is really too fierce and terrifying...? They were speechless for a long time...

When they returned to their senses, Quill had already skinned and cleaned up the mountain-like earth alligator...

"Thank you for saving us." The middle-aged man led the youth to Leng Ruoxue and the others and bowed respectfully in gratitude.

"It's nothing. Don't take it to heart," Leng Ruoxue said lightly.

"This earth alligator..." Leng Ruoxue looked at the earth alligator again but was interrupted by the middle-aged man before she could say anything.

"Of course this earth alligator belongs to you," the middle-aged man said tactfully. Although these people were Spiritual Sovereigns on the surface, they had to be from a big family to have such a powerful eagle. Moreover, these people were his saviors. Even if they were not, he would definitely not be able to afford to provoke them. He knew his limits.

"I'll take the skin and spirit crystal of the earth alligator. We'll share half the meat," Leng Ruoxue said generously. Although she had saved them, she also needed their help, so she wouldn't be stingy when it was time to be generous.

"Ah! Thank you, Miss." The middle-aged man was stunned, but he quickly reacted and didn't decline, his face full of gratitude.

"Miss, I might be weak, but please feel free to tell me if there's anything you need my help with," the middle-aged man continued. He really didn't expect that not only did he keep his life, but he could also obtain half of the earth alligator's meat. Although half of the earth alligator meat wasn't much compared to the value of the entire earth alligator, it was a considerable windfall for him, enough for his family to eat for half a year.

"I do have something to ask you," Leng Ruoxue said indifferently.

"Please ask away, Miss," the middle-aged man said very respectfully.

"I want to know where we are and what's the situation here," Leng Ruoxue asked bluntly.

"Miss isn't from the Boundless Heaven Continent, right?" the middle-aged man said in realization.

"No." Leng Ruoxue didn't intend to hide it.

"Miss, our continent is called the Boundless Heaven Continent. We are currently in the northernmost region of the Prayer Mountain Range in the Boundless Heaven Continent. There is little rain all year round here, and the weather is hot. Therefore, this can be considered the poorest and most barren region of the Boundless Heaven Continent. Moreover, the population here is very small," the middle-aged man explained simply.

"Where is the nearest town?" Leng Ruoxue asked.

"Miss, to be honest, there are mountains everywhere here, and it will take at least ten days to reach the nearest town."

"Miss, my family lives in the village at the foot of the mountain. If you don't mind, please come to my house to rest first. I'll tell you in detail," the middle-aged man suggested.

"Okay, take us to your house!" Leng Ruoxue nodded in agreement after some thought.

Seeing Leng Ruoxue and the others sitting on the black eagle's back, the middle-aged man hesitated.

"Miss, we..."

"Come up and lead the way for Quill," Leng Ruoxue said.

"Yes." The middle-aged man stored half of the earth alligator meat in his ring and then carefully sat on Quill's back with his son.

"Don't be nervous. Quill won't throw you down." Leng Ruoxue saw the father and son's scared expressions and comforted them.

“Okay.” The middle-aged man nodded. Alas, there was no way he couldn’t be nervous! The blow that this black eagle used to kill the earth alligator had pierced too deeply into his heart. He was afraid just thinking about it.

Under the middle-aged man’s guidance, Quill quickly arrived at the small village at the foot of the mountain.

It was a small village with only a dozen households. Leng Ruoxue and the others’ arrival attracted almost everyone in the village. Dozens of eyes were looking at them curiously, but no one dared to approach.

“Stop surrounding us. They are my esteemed guests. Don’t scare them,” the middle-aged man said.

After hearing what the middle-aged man said, the surrounding villagers immediately left.

“Hehe, please don’t mind. We rarely have outsiders here,” the middle-aged man said apologetically.

“It’s alright,” Leng Ruoxue said nonchalantly with a light smile. Although it didn’t feel good to be watched as a rare animal, she could see that the villagers were very simple, so she didn’t care much. In addition, she found that those villagers were actually spiritualists. What was going on? Her heart was full of question marks!

The middle-aged man led Leng Ruoxue and the others to a small yard and said slightly embarrassedly, “Everyone, this is my home. I hope you don’t mind.”

“It doesn’t matter. We often camp in the wilderness,” Leng Ruoxue said indifferently while looking at the middle-aged man’s home. This house... was very simple. There was only a stone table and a few stone benches in the yard and not a single piece of decent furniture in the house.

“Please have a seat here.” The middle-aged man pointed at the stone benches.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue and the others followed the host’s arrangements and found a place to sit in the yard.

The middle-aged man turned to his son. “Ming’er, quickly go make some food for our esteemed guests.”

“There’s no need to trouble yourselves. Tell us in detail about the situation here!” Leng Ruoxue said.

“Okay.” The middle-aged man sat down beside them and then introduced the basic situation of the Boundless Heaven Continent to them.

After about two hours, Leng Ruoxue and the others finally had a basic understanding of this continent.

This Boundless Heaven Continent was vast, approximately twice the size of the Ling Feng Continent. There were no countries on the continent; it was all cities. But the three largest cities on the continent had always been controlled by the Three Great Families for many years. The Three Great Families were mainly the Leng family, the Lan family, and the Sun family. These three families were fully deserving of being the hegemony on the Boundless Heaven Continent. Their power and status were so great that others could only look up to them.

Moreover, the people on this continent were born with the ability to cultivate spiritual power and become spiritualists. However, the spiritualists in this world could only be considered ordinary people. If they wanted to stand out and be respected on the continent, they had to become mystics. Mystics were the most honorable profession on the continent. But the chance of becoming a mystic was only one in ten thousand.

“Miss Leng, I have a map of the Boundless Heaven Continent here for you.” After the middle-aged man finished explaining, he went to his room to take a slightly yellowed map and handed it to Leng Ruoxue.

“Thank you.” Leng Ruoxue took the map and stored it directly in her ring. This map was currently what she needed the most.

“Big Brother Wu, how can I become a mystic?” Leng Ruoxue asked.

“Hehe, Miss Leng, if you want to become a mystic, you have to go to the Mystic Association. There will be specialists there to guide you. But converting your spiritual power into mystic power isn’t easy,” the middle-aged man, Wu Kai, reminded.

“Is there a Mystic Association in the nearest town?” Leng Ruoxue continued asking.

“Yes, but the Mystic Association there is very small. If you want to convert your spiritual power, I suggest you go to a larger branch. That way, the success rate will be higher,” Wu Kai reminded.

“It’s okay. We’re just going to take a look. Big Brother Wu, we won’t disturb you anymore. Goodbye.” Leng Ruoxue prepared to leave after getting what she wanted to know.

“Okay. May we see each other again,” Wu Kai said politely.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue and the others nodded, sat on Quill’s back, and flew toward the nearest town.

Quill was very fast. Leng Ruoxue and the others arrived at their destination, Windless City, in just three days.

Windless City wasn’t big, but it was connected to the three main cities. It belonged to the Sun family of the Three Great Families, and the city lord of Windless City was from one of the affiliated families of the Sun family.

Outside the city gate, Leng Ruoxue and the others jumped off Quill’s back and were about to enter the city on foot when the soldiers guarding the city gate stopped them.

“Please pay the entrance fee. Fifty amethyst coins per person,” one of the soldiers said coldly.

“Uh!” Leng Ruoxue and the others were stunned. It was really too despicable to charge fifty amethyst coins for the entrance fee of such a small city.

One had to know that the common currencies of the Boundless Heaven Continent were amethyst coins and purple gold coins. The exchange rate between amethyst coins and purple gold coins was 100: 1. There were eight of them in total, and if each person had to pay 50 amethyst coins, then they would need 400 amethyst coins, equivalent to 4 purple gold coins.

Leng Ruoxue had always thought that she wasn't in need of money. But she would probably become poor soon with this way of spending money.

"Here." Leng Ruoxue resigned herself to paying. She took out 400 amethyst coins and handed them to the soldiers guarding the gate. Alas! We're new here! Boohoo...

After entering the city, Leng Ruoxue and the others were surprised to find that the city was quite bustling despite being small. The streets were rather busy and crowded as people came and went.

"Lass, when we're stronger in the future, we can build a city and be the city lord to play. We'll charge everyone one hundred amethyst coins for entering the city," Old Zao said emotionally. This money was really too easy to earn.

"Do you think it's so easy to be a city lord!" Old Man said disdainfully.

"Tch, I didn't say I wanted to be the city lord. I just want to collect money," Old Zao said nonchalantly.

"Then you can just be a city guard. What city lord!" Old Man argued.

"You..."

"Stop arguing. We're about to reach the Mystic Association. Don't let others laugh at you," Leng Ruoxue said helplessly.

Chapter 319: Entering Boundless Heaven (4)

"Okay." The two old men obediently shut their mouths and stopped talking.

According to the location marked on the map, Leng Ruoxue and the others found the Mystic Association smoothly. They opened the door and walked in.

Leng Ruoxue walked directly to the front desk and said to the receptionist inside, "I want to convert spiritual power."

The receptionist, who was fiddling with her nails, looked up and asked arrogantly, "Are all of you going to convert your spiritual power?"

"No, only the five of us want to convert," Leng Ruoxue said lightly. Leng Ruoxue and the others didn't hide their strength because the minimum requirement for spiritual power conversion was to be a Spiritual Deity.

"One hundred purple gold coins per person," the receptionist said and then lowered her head to repair her nails.

"What? A hundred purple gold coins? Are you robbing us?" Old Zao couldn't help exclaiming.

"What? You don't have money? How dare you come for spiritual power conversion without money? Not just anyone can be a mystic!" the receptionist said with a face full of mockery and disdain.

"This is five hundred purple gold coins." Leng Ruoxue took out 500 purple gold coins and threw them in front of the receptionist. Fortunately, she had the foresight to go to the bank to exchange amethyst coins for purple gold coins before coming to the Mystic Association. Otherwise, they would be looked down upon by this snobbish woman!

The receptionist was stunned. She didn't expect this unbelievably beautiful girl could really afford 500 purple gold coins. This wasn't a small sum!

"What? Is there not enough money?" Leng Ruoxue said lightly while looking at the stunned receptionist.

"Uh! It's enough," the receptionist said awkwardly after returning to her senses.

Leng Ruoxue glanced at the receptionist and asked coldly, "Then can we convert our spiritual power now?"

"Okay, fill out this form." The receptionist took out a few forms from a drawer and handed them to Leng Ruoxue.

"Grandpa, here you go." Leng Ruoxue distributed the forms to Leng Qingtian and the others.

After filling in the forms, Leng Ruoxue and the others returned them to the receptionist.

"Come with me," the receptionist said uncomfortably and led Leng Ruoxue and the others to the second floor.

After they arrived on the second floor, the receptionist knocked on the door of one of the rooms.

"President, some people wants to convert spiritual power," the receptionist said respectfully through the door.

"Invite them in!" A man's voice sounded from behind the door.

"Please head in!" the receptionist said to Leng Ruoxue and the others before turning to leave.

Leng Ruoxue and the others pushed the door open and walked straight in.

In the room, a man was sitting in a chair and looking at them with a smile on his lips.

The man was about twenty years old. He was handsome, refined, noble, and very friendly.

"Welcome, everyone. It's been a long time since so many people came to our branch to convert spiritual power," the man said with a friendly smile.

"How can ordinary people afford it when it costs so much money! Of course there would be no one!" Old Zao seemed to be muttering to himself, but his voice was so loud that everyone could hear him.

"Our prices are all set by the Mystic Association. If you really have any difficulties, you can pay in installments after the conversion is successful," the young man explained very nicely.

"There's such a thing? What if the conversion fails?" Old Zao asked curiously.

"If the conversion fails, and you really can't afford to pay, you can settle this sum of money as long as you work for our Mystic Association for two years," the young man said.

“Oh? Then why did your receptionist say that we can’t convert if we don’t have money? She also said that not just anyone can become a mystic,” Old Zao asked curiously, his face full of the words ‘humbly asking for advice and shamelessly asking’.

“Uh! Erm... I think she didn’t explain it clearly,” the young man said awkwardly. But he had already decided the fate of the receptionist in his mind.

“I am Lan Ming, the president of Windless City’s Mystic Association. I will be the one to guide you in the spiritual power conversion.” Lan Ming changed the topic.

“Your Excellency Lan Ming, please explain the method of converting spiritual power and the things to take note of!” Leng Qingtian said.

“Okay. Spiritual power conversion is an important turning point for becoming a mystic. After successful conversion, you will become a respected mystic. The ranks of mystics are divided into six levels: Mystic, Elementary Mystic, Great Mystic, Mystic Monarch, Mystic Sovereign, and Mystic Supremacy.

“The color of the mystic power of Mystics is light yellow, yellow for Elementary Mystics, light green for Great Mystics, green for Mystic Monarchs, light purple for Mystic Sovereigns, and purple for Mystic Supremacies. The mystic power attributes are the same as the spiritual power attributes of spiritualists.

“In addition, the conversion of spiritual power to mystic power will be very painful, so you have to persevere and not give up halfway. Otherwise, the conversion will fail. I have been at the Mystic Association for many years and have seen many people who failed because they couldn’t make it through the last hurdle. I really hope that each of you can succeed, so please remember my words,” Lan Ming said very sincerely.

“Thank you. We will remember,” Leng Ruoxue said.

“This is the incantation for spiritual power conversion. Please remember it.” Lan Ming handed each of them a card that resembled a magnetic card.

Leng Ruoxue and the others took the cards and memorized the incantation on it.

“After your conversion succeeds, these cards will also become proof of your identity as mystics in the future, so please take good care of them,” Lan Ming reminded.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue and the others nodded.

“Now, I’ll bring you to the conversion room.” Lan Ming stood up.

Leng Ruoxue and the others followed Lan Ming to a large sealed room. This room was very spacious, and it was divided into several small rooms.

“Choose a room each and then enter for your conversion!” Lan Ming said.

Leng Ruoxue and the others nodded, and then each entered a small room.

After entering the small room, Leng Ruoxue was surprised to find that the spiritual energy in the room was very dense. The walls of the room were embedded with crystals for spiritual energy gathering. The room was not big, with only a small table and a sitting mat.

Chapter 320: The Four Evils of Windless City (1)

Leng Ruoxue sat cross-legged on the sitting mat, chanted the incantation in her head, and began to convert the spiritual power in her body...

"How long does it take to convert?" Half an hour later, Old Zao, who was waiting in the big room, couldn't help asking.

"It varies from person to person! The longer the conversion time, the higher the aptitude, and the greater the future achievements," Lan Ming explained very patiently.

"How long is the fastest time?" Old Zao asked.

"At least an hour," Lan Ming answered.

"Oh." Old Zao stopped talking and closed his eyes to pretend to be asleep.

But three hours later, none of the five people who had entered came out.

"Say, President, it's been three hours. Why aren't they out yet?" Old Zao asked worriedly.

"This proves that their aptitudes are very good," Lan Ming said calmly. Taking longer than three hours for the conversion was enough to prove that their aptitudes were in the upper-middle range. If they could succeed, such talents would basically be specially nurtured by their family.

Another three hours later, a stream of heaven and earth laws finally descended...

"This is... the damn Old Man's room," Old Zao murmured.

"Seems like he succeeded," Lan Ming said in surprise. It actually took six hours, and it was a success. It was really incredible. Basically, those who succeeded in their conversion after more than five hours had top-notch aptitudes.

"Hmph! It's just blind luck," Old Zao said disdainfully.

"Uh!" Two drops of cold sweat dripped down Lan Ming's forehead. Was there such blind luck? In that case, probably everyone would want to be blind.

After a while, Old Man emerged from the small room, feeling refreshed.

"Not bad. Congratulations on becoming a mystic," Lan Ming said to Old Man.

"Thank you, President Lan," Old Man replied politely.

"You can now drip your blood on your card for it to recognize you as its master. Your identity will then be recorded on it. At the same time, you will also become a member of our Mystic Association," Lan Ming explained.

"What benefits are there for joining the Mystic Association?" Old Man asked very pragmatically after binding the card with his blood.

"The businesses of our Mystic Association are spread all over the entire Boundless Heaven Continent. As members of the Mystic Association, we enjoy the first right to purchase and the lowest discount. The higher your strength and status, the larger the discount you'll enjoy," Lan Ming said with a light smile. Even though this old man's question was very realistic, he admired his straightforwardness.

"We still have to spend money? We don't have money!" Old Man said with a bitter face.

"Uh!" Lan Ming was speechless. He had never heard of any mystic lacking money.

"With your aptitudes, after becoming mystics, your family will definitely do their best to nurture you, so you don't have to worry about money at all," Lan Ming continued to console.

"We don't belong to any family." Old Man sighed.

"That's okay. When you become mystics, many families will want to win you over," Lan Ming said helplessly. But he couldn't help wondering if this old man was doing it on purpose!

In fact, he was right. Old Man was doing it on purpose.

While Old Man was chatting with Lan Ming, another stream of heaven and earth laws descended...

"Hehe, Brat Lin has also become a mystic," Old Man said happily.

Before long, another stream of heaven and earth laws descended again, and Leng Qingtian also became a mystic.

Lan Ming was a little speechless. Seeing the streams of heaven and earth laws descending one after another, he couldn't help muttering in his head, When did becoming a mystic become so easy? Moreover, what's even more unbelievable is that their aptitudes are getting better and better.

Lin Liang and Leng Qingtian walked out of the small room at almost the same time. After they came out, Lan Ming repeated the same words to the two of them. After that, he sat quietly by the side and waited because there were still two people who hadn't come out of the small room. Moreover, he was very curious to know if the last two people could also become mystics.

Time slowly passed. Another four hours passed, but there was still no movement from Leng Ruoxue and Ye Chen...

Gradually, Lan Ming lost his composure. The spiritual power conversion of the top geniuses on the Boundless Heaven Continent only took eight hours. But ten hours had passed, and there was nothing from the two people in the small room.

A day passed, but Leng Ruoxue and Ye Chen had yet to emerge...

Lan Ming was sitting in a chair in the big room and looking at the few old men sleeping soundly not far away. He felt a little speechless. Why aren't they worried at all? Instead, I'm the one guarding here motionlessly. What's going on?

"Are the two of them not out yet?" Old Zao, who just woke up, asked with some confusion in his eyes.

"Not yet," Lan Ming replied lightly.

"Oh, I'll continue sleeping then." Old Zao lay on the ground and even started snoring.

Two days passed...

Three days passed...

On the fourth day, the heaven and earth laws that hadn't appeared for a long time finally descended once again...

"Seems like Brat Ye has converted successfully as well!" Old Man said in realization. In fact, he was already prepared for their success. After all, all of them had taken the little girl's remolding pills. Moreover, they had also eaten so many spirit fruits. If they failed, what would that make them? They could just become pigs.

After a short while, Ye Chen walked out of the small room.

"Grandpa, isn't Xue'er out yet?" Ye Chen looked around but didn't see Xue'er at all. He felt a little disappointed.

"Not yet. Don't worry!" Leng Qingtian comforted.

Alas! I wouldn't have come out so early if I knew that Xue'er hadn't come out yet, Ye Chen muttered in his head.

When Lan Ming saw Ye Chen walk out of the small room, he didn't say a word because he was utterly shocked. He had always thought that his aptitude was good, but compared to these monsters, he knew that his aptitude was nothing to be proud of.
