Chapter 62: It Turns Out To Be Just a Lizard

“Xue’er gave this to you. Eat it!” Leng Qingtian threw the pill directly into Thunder Night’s mouth.

Thunder Night opened his mouth cooperatively and swallowed the pill. He knew that what his little master gave was definitely something good. But he felt something wrong as soon as the pill entered his mouth!

“Master...”

“What’s the matter?” Leng Qingtian saw that Thunder Night’s expression was a little abnormal.

“Master, I’m going to break through!” Thunder Night said excitedly.

“Oh, break through? What? You’re going to break through?” Leng Qingtian finally reacted and jumped up in surprise.

“Quickly come with me. You can’t be here...” But before Leng Qingtian could finish speaking, heaven and earth laws descended...

Leng Ruoxue and Ye Chen sat on top of Quill with Charm lying in her arms. The two people and two beasts headed straight for the major forests.

They searched several nearby medium and small forests, but they didn’t find a level nine holy beast.

“What should we do? Do we have to go to the Illusionary Forest to look for one?” Leng Ruoxue asked.

“Let’s look around here first. If there isn’t one, we can only go to the Illusionary Forest.” Ye Chen pointed at an unknown forest below.

“Quill, fly lower and take a look,” Leng Ruoxue said.

“Yes, Master.”

“Who has the audacity to come to my territory?”

Just as Quill descended, they heard an angry roar coming from below.

“A level nine holy beast?” Leng Ruoxue and Ye Chen exchanged glances. This mighty pressure was definitely from a level nine holy beast. They didn’t expect a level nine holy beast to be hiding in such an unknown little forest.

“Quill, go down.”

“Yes, Master,” Quill answered. He was also a level nine holy beast, so the pressure of the holy beast below posed no threat to him.

Quill’s sharp eagle eyes locked onto the level nine holy beast and descended directly in front of it.

"It turns out to be just a lizard!" Leng Ruoxue said mockingly while looking at the holy beast as tall as a hill in front of her. She knew that it was a genuine dragon, and it was a fire dragon, the dragons with the worst temper. But the dragons in this world were different from the dragons she knew. The dragons in this world had a large belly and a pair of fleshy wings, causing them to look like a lizard with wings.

"You are the lizard! Your whole family are lizards!" Sure enough, the enormous fire-breathing dragon immediately roared furiously after hearing what Leng Ruoxue said. Two clusters of flames spurted out from its huge nostrils!

"Big lizard, do you want to set the forest on fire?" Leng Ruoxue wasn't only not angry when she heard this, but she was even smiling very happily. Go ahead and be angry. If you're not angry, how can I have a reason to teach you a lesson? Dragons were not to be provoked. It seemed that no one on the Ling Feng Continent had been able to contract a dragon. Everyone knew that dragons couldn't be provoked, and no one dared to provoke them. Moreover, she heard that the dragon race was very united, so she didn't want to provoke them on her own initiative. But if a dragon provoked her first and she was just defending herself, then there would be no problem. Leng Ruoxue schemed very cunningly.

"I am a dragon, a noble fire dragon, not an ugly lizard!" the fire-breathing dragon roared uncontrollably. Damn human!

"Do you have evidence?" Leng Ruoxue asked in disbelief.

"I am a dragon. Isn't this the best evidence?" The fire dragon was stunned.

"Can anyone prove that you are a dragon? I don't think so. What you said doesn't count!" Leng Ruoxue provoked. Why is this stinky lizard not angry? All it knows to do is breathe fire without attacking. Is this what it means by all talk and no action? Leng Ruoxue was a little disappointed. Could this be a dragon that's as timid as a mouse?

In fact, she really guessed right. This really was a dragon that was as timid as a mouse due to having been bullied by other dragons. So this dragon only dared to scare them and pretend to attack but not really daring to at all because the other side also had a level nine holy beast.

"Hey, big lizard, how many days has it been since you bathed? Why do you smell so bad?" Leng Ruoxue covered her nose with a look of disgust. Seeing the big lizard not reacting, she had to add fuel to the fire.

"It probably hasn't since birth. I heard that lizards don't like to bathe," Ye Chen said cooperatively.

"Really? So dirty!"

"What did you say? How am I dirty? I bathe frequently!" The fire dragon, which was thinking about how to prove that it was a dragon, roared irritably. Who says that dragons don't like to bathe? Dragons love cleanliness. It's really infuriating.

"Then why are you still so dirty?"

"Look at my Charm! He smells so good! This is what you call clean!" Leng Ruoxue raised the little fox whose entire body was snow-white, as if she was showing off her fair skin.

Just as the fire dragon was about to speak, it felt a tingling pain on its butt.

“Eh, big lizard, your butt is on fire.” Leng Ruoxue had quietly thrown a fireball at the fire dragon’s butt when it wasn’t paying attention. She didn’t believe that the fire dragon could still endure it.

“It must have caught fire because its skin is too dry from not bathing!” Ye Chen came to an important conclusion.

Charm was sweating profusely. These two are terrible. When they join forces to plot against someone, likely no one would be able to get away. Alas, big lizard, I hope you know your place.

“Nonsense. I just bathed last month!” the fire dragon roared. The two humans were really unbearable. It spat out a mouthful of dragon breath without even thinking.

Leng Ruoxue and Ye Chen dodged lithely. Not bad, it finally attacked. Even though it fell a bit short, it still works.

Leng Ruoxue and Ye Chen each took a side and surrounded the fire dragon. Ye Chen threw a punch at its thick body, causing it to howl in pain.

“Ow! Its hurts!”

Leng Ruoxue threw the advanced fire-element spiritual skill, ‘Flame Feather’, on the fire dragon and made a hole in its body. Then she unscrupulously took out a special jade bottle to collect the dragon’s blood. Dragon blood was something good. She couldn’t let it go to waste.

At the side, Charm was flabbergasted by what he was seeing. Master is so frugal! She doesn’t even want to waste a single drop of dragon blood!

Boohoo... These two people are too evil. The fire dragon had tears in its eyes as it looked at the woman who was collecting its dragon blood aggrievedly. It wanted to run, but its body seemed to be restrained by something, so it couldn’t move at all. It could only watch as she collected its blood. Boohoo... My blood! What it regretted most now was taking the initiative to provoke them. It thought they would be scared when they saw it, but who knew that it would provoke these two devils. Boohoo...
