

Crazy Wife 74

Chapter 74: Abducting a Family (2)

"I'll leave my big brother to you." Leng Ruoxue patted the male white tiger's head. She had already told the white tiger couple the general situation on the way back, hoping that they could protect her brother.

The male white tiger nodded his huge head. Even though it was a pity that he couldn't acknowledge Leng Ruoxue as his master, he still had a good impression of this man.

As soon as Leng Ruoxue left her brother's room, she saw her grandfather.

"Xue'er, Grandpa thanks you!" Leng Qingtian said from outside the door.

"Grandpa, why are you being so polite with your own granddaughter?" Leng Ruoxue deliberately sounded displeased.

"Grandpa was wrong. Grandpa shouldn't be polite with Xue'er," Leng Qingtian quickly coaxed.

"That's right!" Leng Ruoxue dragged her grandfather away and told him about what happened today.

"Big Sister, it's time." The pink little Qing Jue appeared in the purple bamboo house and reminded her. His big sister went into seclusion the night after returning from the Misty Woods.

"Got it," Leng Ruoxue answered and slowly opened her beautiful eyes. Her body was like a bottomless pit. No amount of spiritual energy could satiate her hunger, even though absorbing spiritual energy was faster in the Heaven and Earth Bracelet.

"Lü Tao," Leng Ruoxue called out softly after exiting the Heaven and Earth Bracelet.

"Miss." Lü Tao opened the door gently and walked in.

"Is Feng Da back?" Before she went into seclusion, she had already told Feng Da to pick her up this morning.

"Not yet," Lü Tao replied.

"Okay."

"Where are the others?"

"Having breakfast in the front hall."

Leng Ruoxue nodded, washed up, and went to the front hall with Lü Tao.

"Why hasn't Miss come out yet?"

"I'm out." Leng Ruoxue and Lü Tao heard Lin Yuan muttering to himself just as they entered the front hall.

"Xue'er, come and have breakfast!" Leng Qingtian said happily when he saw his granddaughter.

"Okay." Leng Ruoxue sat down in the empty seat next to her grandfather.

Feng Da returned after breakfast.

“Miss, everyone is here. They’re in the garden!” Feng Da said directly when he walked into the front hall and saw Leng Ruoxue.

“Then let’s go to the garden!” Leng Ruoxue stood up and walked out with everyone.

“From now on until the selection competition, we won’t be training in the academy. I’ll divide you into two teams and bring you to the Illusionary Forest for training,” Leng Ruoxue explained to the puzzled-looking students in front of her.

The Illusionary Forest! That place is very dangerous. The expressions of some timid students changed when Leng Ruoxue mentioned the Illusionary Forest.

“If anyone is afraid and doesn’t want to go, you can let me know!” Leng Ruoxue added after seeing their reactions. Everyone had their own aspirations, and she didn’t want to impose on others.

The students looked at each other, and their hearts gradually became firm. In fact, they also knew that they shouldn’t be timid and afraid of trouble if they wanted to become strong.

“Since no one is backing out, you must absolutely obey your leaders’ arrangements when you are there. Otherwise, you will have to bear the consequences yourself!” Leng Ruoxue warned. She didn’t need students who didn’t follow orders.

“Yes!” everyone answered in unison.

“Your leaders are Feng Moran and me. Those whose names are called, follow me. The others follow Feng Moran,” Leng Ruoxue said and motioned for Lin Yuan to start calling out names.

Lin Yuan took out the name list of prearranged teams and started reading it...

“Qiao Hua!”

“Xiao Ting!”

“...”

After sorting the teams, Leng Ruoxue let Quill out. After appearing, Quill immediately enlarged himself, and the giant black eagle instantly occupied nearly the entire garden.

“Grandpa, Big Brother, we’re leaving,” Leng Ruoxue said when she saw that everyone was seated on Quill’s back.

“Okay, get going. Be careful!” Leng Qingtian couldn’t help reminding her.

“Xue’er, Big Brother will miss you.” Leng Ruohan felt slightly reluctant to part.

“Quill, let’s go!” Leng Ruoxue patted his head helplessly. Ah! Grandpa, Big Brother, don’t make it so sad!

Leng Qingtian and his grandson watched as Quill flew farther and farther away. They only returned to their rooms reluctantly when they could no longer see him.

...

After Quill became a level nine holy beast, his flying speed was nearly twice as fast as before. And they arrived at the Illusionary Forest a few hours later.

After entering the Illusionary Forest, they didn't walk far before they reached a fork in the road.

"Big Brother Feng, Feng Da, let's split up and gather here ten days later," Leng Ruoxue said to the two of them. Feng Da's team were all members of the Blazing Flame Mercenary Group, so she had nothing to worry about. Then she led her team down the right path.

"Let's camp here today!" After walking for a while, Leng Ruoxue stopped and looked at the open space in front of her. She had stayed here for a few days before and knew that it was very safe.

"Okay." Ye Chen was also very satisfied with this place. Since they couldn't do much today, it was better to rest early so that they could adapt to the environment here.

"Quill and I will go break through," Leng Ruoxue said quietly to Ye Chen.

"Alright." Ye Chen nodded.

Quill carried Leng Ruoxue to the place where he used to live. It was inside a giant tree and a different world after they entered. There was a wide cave connected to the tree and a hot spring inside.

"Quill, this place isn't bad!" Leng Ruoxue exclaimed.

"It's okay." Quill scratched his head with his wings shyly.

"Let's begin!" Leng Ruoxue said after looking around Quill's former home. She had been storing her spiritual power diligently since Quill advanced to level nine holy beast. Otherwise, she would not have advanced so quickly.

Quill nodded and threw a green spirit pill into his mouth. Then he half laid on the ground and waited to advance.

After about an hour, the spiritual power in Quill's body finally broke through the threshold. Quill successfully advanced to divine beast with the descent of heaven and earth laws.

"Master," Quill, who had transformed into a human, called out happily.

"Hmm, not bad." Leng Ruoxue looked at Quill's human form with satisfaction. Another handsome and beautiful man with black hair, black eyes, and a cold temperament. Even though he wasn't as alluring as Charm, he was beautiful enough for human aesthetics. But the benefits that Quill brought her due to advancing to divine beast didn't allow her to break through. She only had a lot more spiritual power in her body. Alas, since I cultivated the Heaven Defying Art, my body has become a bottomless pit that no amount of spiritual power can fill.
