

Crazy Wife 751

Chapter 751: Black Mist Cliff (4)

“Lass, if I’m not mistaken, that woman should be a young lady from the Sun family,” the little old man said after some thought. He had unintentionally discovered the Sun family’s emblem on a guard just now.

“Miss, I heard a year ago that there was another genius after the Sun family’s young master, Sun Teng, She advanced to Mystic Monarch at the age of 22. If she’s the Sun family’s young miss, then the new genius of the Sun family should be her,” Cheng Wu said after some thought.

Back then, when they quietly followed their young miss, they had collected a lot of news from the various families. Therefore, after hearing the little old man’s words, he combined his intelligence and easily guessed the woman’s identity. Well, if it weren’t for the young miss and the others, advancing to Mystic Monarch at the age of 22 could indeed be considered a genius. Moreover, she was a woman, so this was even more precious! After all, there were really too few female powerhouses in this world.

“Oh,” Leng Ruoxue answered lightly, obviously not too interested in the woman’s identity.

“Xue’er, let’s discuss who will go down the cliff with you tomorrow!” Empty reminded her.

“I definitely want to go down with Xue’er,” the freak said before anyone else could say anything.

“Twant to go down too.” Feng Wu looked at everyone and said resolutely. Well, she believed that she had an obvious advantage over these people!

Feng Da and the others looked at each other, and no one said anything, Boohoo... They also wanted to accompany Miss down the cliff, but there were really too many perverts around Miss, and they actually couldn’t compete!

“Miss, bring me!” Cheng Wu said. Well! He was already a Mystic Supremacy now, but he still had his fighting spirit!

“Stop arguing. The freak, Empty, Grandpa Du, Feng Wu and I will go. Stay in the space!” Leng Ruoxue said resolutely after some thought.

“Woman, you can’t leave me behind!” Little Flame, which had been pretending to be a bracelet, couldn’t take it anymore seeing that Leng Ruoxue didn’t mention it. Well! It was a born king of great poison. It had to go down and take a look because it could already feel that there seemed to be a lot of poisonous things down there! This was absolutely a huge challenge for it and also a great supplement, so how could it let go of such a good opportunity!

“But there are only five antidote pills...” Leng Ruoxue was in a dilemma. Little Flame’s poison was very powerful, but she didn’t know if Little Flame could withstand the poison under the cliff. Moreover, being nourished by the poisonous fog, there must be a lot of poisonous things growing below. This strong dragon couldn't suppress the local snake, so she really didn't think much of Little Flame. After all, other than poison, Little Flame didn't have much attack!

"Woman, I don't need antidote pills," Little Flame said proudly. Hehe, as a spirit poison nurtured by heaven and earth, its status was countless times higher than those poisonous creatures below the cliff. Therefore, this poisonous fog might be very powerful, but it couldn't hurt it. Moreover, its goal was the poisonous creatures living in the bottomless abyss. Boohoo... Its current strength was too low, and it needed those nutrients to improve itself.

"Little Flame aren't you afraid of this poisonous fog?" Leng Ruoxue said in surprise. Well, Little Flame's resistance to poison was really extraordinary!

"No, these poisonous fog contain a trace of spiritual energy, which is also beneficial to me," Little Flame explained.

"Oh, then go down with us tomorrow!" Leng Ruoxue was relieved.

"Yes, yes." Little Flame nodded vigorously and then found a spacious place to cultivate.

"Let's rest early today! We still have to do missions tomorrow," Leng Ruoxue said to everyone as she looked at Little Flame that coiled up.

"Okay." Everyone nodded and then found a room to rest

At the same time, the man who brought Leng Ruoxue and the others in just now came to the back mountain of the entire Black Mist Cliff

The man came to the back mountain and made a few hand seals in the void. A door automatically opened in the empty back mountain, and the man walked in directly

After entering, the man strode to a hall. At this moment, there were three people sitting in the hall, two men and one woman. Their eyes couldn't help widening when they saw him.

"Xiao Fan, you should be on duty today!" the only woman reminded him teasingly when she saw him.

"I know. I came to tell you that someone wants to do missions. Moreover, they chose the two most difficult missions." Xiao Fan smiled proudly.

"Really?" The three of them stood up from their chairs in surprise when they heard this. Their faces were full of disbelief. They knew the difficulty of the mission very well, so not many people dared to choose to do the mission after so many years. However, they didn't expect someone to do the mission today.

"Would I lie to you! Moreover, it's not just one team. However, the other team is just for show. The chance of failure is very high," Xiao Fan said after some thought.

"Uh! What's going on?" The three of them were a little puzzled. They were all looking forward to success since someone was willing to do the mission. However, Xiao Fan's reaction was really strange!

“Look at it yourself!” Xiao Fan said and waved his hand gently. A light curtain appeared in front of the other three people, and what happened in front of Black Mist Cliff just now appeared in front of them.

“Which family does that woman belong to? She’s really courting death!” the woman said with disdain on her beautiful face.

“That woman is Sun Meiting from the Sun family, which is the new genius of the Sun family. Well, as for the other one! Guess?” Xiao Fan kept them in suspense.

“Say it if you have something to say. Spit it out if you have something to say,” the woman roared, very displeased.

“Baixi, you’re really too crude. Alas! You’re a woman. How can you marry in the future like this!” Xiao Fan said worriedly.

“I’m not getting married. Tell me quickly! Stop keeping me in suspense!” Baixi roared furiously and raised her fist threateningly.

“Don’t scare me. I’m scared. The other woman is Leng Ruoxue.” Xiao Fan said honestly. Boohoo... What a terrifying violent woman! Yet he couldn’t beat her!

“The Leng Ruoxue who destroyed the Wu family and dealt with Feng Yun?” Baixi’s eyes lit up. Hehe, she was just looking for an opportunity to meet this Leng Ruoxue. She didn’t expect her to deliver herself to her door. This would be a great opportunity...

Chapter 752: The Cliff Mission (1)

“Yes.” Xiao Fan nodded.

“Are you sure?” Baixi asked uncertainly.

“Do you doubt my intelligence network?” Xiao Fan was very angry that someone questioned his ability. Therefore, he had to pretend not to know anything else about Leng Ruoxue.

“I’m afraid you got the wrong person,” Baixi said honestly. Well, she was only interested in Leng Ruoxue. She would be angry if Xiao Fan got the wrong person!

“I’m sure she is Leng Ruoxue,” Xiao Fan said confidently.

“Oh, when will they begin the mission?” Baixi asked curiously.

“Tomorrow!” Xiao Fan replied.

“Then I have to see her tomorrow. After all, it’s not easy to have a woman that I like,” Baixi said after some thought.

“Admit that Leng Ruoxue is very beautiful, but you’re not a man. Why are you so interested in her?” Xiao Fan asked in puzzlement. Well, he thought that Baixi was interested in Hong Ying! Who knew that she would actually be interested in a woman.

“Who said I can’t be interested in her? Hmph! You men! Your brains are always full of nonsense. I only admire her purely. It’s not what you think,” Baixi said with a face full of disdain.

“I didn’t do anything?” Xiao Fan was very aggrieved. Boohoo... He really didn’t! He was just a little curious!

“Not all men have such thoughts, so don’t compare us,” a handsome man said while adding insult to injury.

“Boohoo... You’re bullying me!” Hong Ying looked at the man who spoke and said pitifully. There was really no justice in this world. The three of them were bullying him. Hong Ying might not have said anything, but he knew that that fellow was in the same pants as them!

“When did we bully you?” Baixi asked in puzzlement.

“You do! Boohoo... I’m a disadvantaged group. I want to seek support. I want to look for Leng Ruoxue,” Xiao Fan said half-truthfully.

“Idiot!” Baixi’s pink lips spat out softly.

“Uh!” Xiao Fan was depressed. He was actually being treated as an idiot. Boohoo.

“Alright, are you done?” Hong Ying, who had been pretending to drink tea but was actually watching the commotion, said.

“That’s enough.” The three of them became well-behaved after hearing what Hong Ying said. They found a chair and sat down obediently.

“What are your plans for tomorrow’s mission?” Hong Ying looked at the three people in front of him and asked lightly.

“Big Brother, Sun Meiting definitely won’t be able to complete the mission tomorrow, so we don’t have to count on her,” Xiao Fan said bluntly.

“Oh! Do you think so highly of Leng Ruoxue?” Hong Ying said in surprise. He knew that Leng Ruoxue had some strength, but the difficulty of the mission was really too high, so he didn’t have the intention to definitely complete it.

“Okay.” Xiao Fan nodded. In fact, he didn’t know why he was so confident in Leng Ruoxue, but he had a feeling that Leng Ruoxue would definitely succeed.

“What do you think?” Hong Ying turned his gaze to the other two.

“Won’t we know tomorrow! Why think so much!” Cao Yi, who was stared at by Hong Ying, said uncomfortably. Well, Big Brother’s gaze was still so oppressive!

“Of course I hope Leng Ruoxue can succeed. However, don’t forget that the last mission is the most difficult compared to these two missions. It will probably be very difficult for anyone to complete that mission in this world,” Baixi said worriedly.

“How will we know if we don’t try?” Hong Ying said with a deep gaze.

“Big Brother, will you kill Leng Ruoxue if you can’t complete the last mission?” Baixi couldn’t help asking curiously.

“Won’t you know then?” Hong Ying actually kept him in suspense. Then he said, “If the first two missions fail, they probably won’t survive without me killing them.”

“That’s true,” Baixi said after some thought. Alas! If she couldn’t even complete the first two missions, there would naturally be no third mission, so her worries were really a little unnecessary.

“Xiao Fan, send someone to the Sun family to send a message to Sun Meiting!” Hong Ying ordered coldly.

“Okay.” Xiao Fan nodded. Well! The news that Hong Ying mentioned was naturally news of death! Because Sun Meiting was already a dead person in their hearts.

“Let’s send them off tomorrow,” Hong Ying said.

“Okay!” The three of them nodded.

After that, the four of them discussed some details and left alone.

The next morning.

Leng Ruoxue and the others saw Xiao Fan standing in the yard waiting for them as soon as they walked out of the room. However, his gaze was fixed on Fiery, who was lying on the stone table cultivating.

Xiao Fan looked up at them in surprise after sensing the auras of Leng Ruoxue and the others. “Why are there only the five of you? Where are the others?”

“Only the five of us went down the cliff. The others didn’t go, so they stayed in their rooms to cultivate, hoping that no one would disturb them,” Leng Ruoxue explained lightly.

“Oh! Don’t worry, it’s very quiet here. My subordinates won’t barge in without your summons,” Xiao Fan promised.

“By the way, I didn’t introduce myself yesterday. I’m Xiao Fan, the fourth butler of Black Mist Village,” Xiao Fan added.

“I’m Leng Ruoxue. They are my family,” Leng Ruoxue said politely. She didn’t intend to introduce anyone else but herself.

“Okay, please follow me.” Xiao Fan nodded and then left with Leng Ruoxue and the others.

Leng Ruoxue and the others followed Xiao Fan to the edge of a cliff. The cliff that was not very spacious at this time was already full of people. There were a few people they had not seen before other than Sun Meiting and the others they saw yesterday. However, the aura on their bodies was identical to Xiao Fan’s.

“You came so late even though you knew you were going to do a mission today, wasting our time.” Sun Meiting took the lead to launch an attack before Leng Ruoxue and the others approached. Hmph! Why couldn’t they do the mission first without this woman! She was really about to die of anger thinking of this..

Chapter 753: The Cliff Mission (2)

Unfortunately, her provocation didn't receive a response from Leng Ruoxue and the others because in their eyes, Sun Meiting was similar to a dead person. Who would waste time on a person who was about to die! Especially when she was courting death.

"Hey! You're too rude. I'm talking to you! How dare you not answer me?" Sun Meiting roared furiously.

"Miss Sun, who said that we have to answer you if you talk to us? Moreover, we each do our own missions. If you can't wait, go down first. I don't want you to wait," Leng Ruoxue said speechlessly, but she couldn't help but grumble in her heart. She really didn't know how the Sun family educated their juniors. Why were they all so annoying!

"Hmph! Do you think I want to wait for you? They were the ones who asked me to wait." Sun Meiting pointed at the two men and one woman standing quietly beside her.

"Oh!" Leng Ruoxue raised her beautiful eyes to size up the two men and one woman not far away. These three people were very outstanding in appearance, and their temperament was very similar to Xiao Fan's. Therefore, if she was not mistaken, these three people should be the other three butlers of the Black Mist Village. Well! She didn't expect them to take this mission so seriously, the four butlers were actually all here.

At this moment, Hong Ying and the others were also looking at Leng Ruoxue and the others. However, the more they looked, the more surprised they were because they actually couldn't see the true strength of these five people with unknown means. The five of them were Great Mystics on the surface, but they wouldn't believe that a Great Mystic could deal with Feng Yun even if they were beaten to death.

"Everyone is here now. The mission can begin!" Sun Meiting, who was waiting impatiently, urged.

"Miss Sun, are you in such a hurry to die?" Baixi said speechlessly. Alas! The ignorant were unafraid! She felt some pity for Sun Meiting.

"Damn it, who are you talking about? They're not even afraid of a few great mystics. What's there to be afraid of as a Mystic Monarch!" Sun Meiting roared angrily.

"Miss Sun, your courage is commendable, but we have to say the ugly things first," Baixi said with a smile.

"Tell us quickly. We're in a hurry," Sun Meiting said anxiously.

"Miss Sun, do you know what the mission is?" Leng Ruoxue suddenly asked curiously.

"I can do any mission as long as you can do it," Sun Meiting said confidently.

“Oh, that’s good!” Leng Ruoxue was a little speechless.

“Misses, these are antidote pills. Eat them first!” Baixi handed each of them five black pills and reminded them.

Leng Ruoxue took the pills and distributed them to the freak and the others before taking them herself.

Sun Meiting mimicked Leng Ruoxue and distributed the pills.

“Miss Sun, aren’t you going to leave one for your beast?” Baixi asked with a naughty smile.

“Why should we give it to a beast? It doesn’t need to do missions,” Sun Meiting said nonchalantly.

“But the beasts have to carry you to the bottom of the cliff! What if your beasts are poisoned on the way? At that time...” Baixi reminded, but she only spoke halfway, leaving everyone with imagination.

“We have to go to the bottom of the cliff for our mission?” Sun Meiting’s expression changed as she said anxiously. Boohoo.... She knew that she couldn’t enter the bottomless abyss casually no matter how ignorant she was. Legend had it that the bottom was the heaven for poisonous creatures. Anyone who went down would definitely die!

“Of course.” Baixi’s smile was very bright.

“Damn it, did you know all along? You deliberately didn’t say it because you wanted us to accompany you to your deaths? You’re really too devious!” Sun Meiting pointed at Leng Ruoxue and complained resentfully, her fierce gaze seeming like she wanted to eat her up.

“Miss Sun, did you lose your memory? I didn’t ask you to take on this mission.” Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help rolling her eyes and said speechlessly. Alas! There were really all sorts of birds in the forest! It was obviously her fault, but she insisted on blaming others.

“Miss Sun, you can eat whatever you want, but you can’t spout nonsense. You were the one who accepted this mission. What does it have to do with my master?” Feng Wu said mockingly.

“B-But I don’t know that I have to go to the bottom of the cliff! I’ve decided not to do this mission now,” Sun Meiting said after some thought. Boohoo... She was really a little scared when she heard that she was going to the bottom of the cliff, so she would rather play dirty than do this so-called mission.

Moreover, she believed that with her status, these people would definitely not dare to make things difficult for her if she was unwilling to do it.

“Miss Sun, what do you think our Black Mist Stronghold is? How can we let you have your way? I already said yesterday that we have to complete it since we accepted the mission. Otherwise, the consequences are not something you can bear,” Xiao Fan said with slight displeasure.

“How dare you! I’m the most favored young lady of the Sun family!” Sun Meiting said arrogantly. Obviously, she didn’t take Xiao Fan’s threat seriously.

“The Sun family? Who does the Sun family think they are? Even if you are the patriarch of the Sun family, you have to do the mission for me, let alone being the young lady of the Sun family,” Xiao Fan said with disdain. Black Mist Village had always been very low-key, but at times, he didn’t mind letting others understand their true strength.

“Miss Sun, in our Black Mist Stronghold, everything has to follow our rules,” Baixi said with a light smile.

“Miss Sun, you can choose not to do the mission,” Cao Yi reminded her.

“Really? I won’t do it then,” Sun Meiting said hurriedly.

“Okay, then die now!” Cao Yi said emotionlessly and raised his right hand “Wait, I’ll do it!” Sun Meiting had no choice but to compromise when she saw the red mystic energy gathering in Cao Yi’s palm. Boohoo... She didn’t want to die! She still had a bright future! How could she die in this lousy place!

“Miss, it’s very dangerous down there. We’ll definitely die if we go,” the guard beside Sun Meiting reminded her anxiously. Boohoo... They were killed by this willful Miss!

“Do you think I want to go! But if we don’t go down, they will kill us now. If we go, we might be able to complete the mission! Moreover, the few great mystics are not afraid of death. What are we afraid of? If someone really dies, there will still be those people to cover us!” Sun Meiting whispered to her subordinates. This idea had already taken shape in her mind after she felt the threat of that man. In short, she had to live..

Chapter 754: The Cliff Mission (3)

“But...” The guard was a little uneasy but couldn’t say why.

“But what? Do you have a better way?” Sun Meiting glared and questioned softly.

“No.” The guard stopped talking.

“Then do as I say,” Sun Meiting ordered.

Even though Sun Meiting communicated with her subordinates softly, how could she hide it from everyone present!

“Xue’er, looks like we were schemed against!” Empty said excitedly. Hehe, we were schemed against! He liked to be schemed against now.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue nodded. Alas! She couldn’t understand. Could it be that the words ‘I’m easy to bully’ were written on their faces? Otherwise, why did people always treat them as soft persimmons? In fact, they were very toothless!

“Are you ready? Tell me your last words!” Hong Ying said.

“We don’t have any last words,” Leng Ruoxue said calmly.

“Why do you want my last words?” Sun Meiting said with some displeasure, feeling even angrier. Damn it, these people were already cursing them before they even went down. How ridiculous!

“In that case, your mission can begin,” Hong Ying reminded.

“Miss Sun, I still suggest you give one antidote pill to your beast!” Baixi said very kindly.

“know my limits. You don’t have to meddle,” Sun Meiting said irritably.

“alright, consider me meddlesome, as long as Miss Sun doesn’t regret it,” Baixi said nonchalantly. Hehe, actually, she had long known that Sun Meiting wouldn’t appreciate it, but she was kind! She still had to remind her.

“That’s my business too. Hmph! Didn’t they also not give their contract beasts antidote pills! Why don’t you remind them?” Sun Meiting said indignantly. In her opinion, the reason this woman reminded her was obviously to see her embarrassed, so she wouldn’t be fooled!

“I don’t need to remind you.” Baixi looked at Feng Wu and smiled.

“Hmph! Then we don’t need it either,” Sun Meiting said furiously. Then she summoned her flying beast, ordered her subordinates to sit up, and gave Leng Ruoxue and the others a provocative look.

After that, she ordered her flying beast to carry them down the bottomless abyss

“Oh! Miss Sun is really impatient. I’m not done talking yet,” Baixi said with slight regret. Then she turned to Leng Ruoxue and the others and said, “There are still many good things below the cliff even though it’s dangerous. That’s the reward for your mission this time. However, how much you can obtain will depend on your ability.”

“Thank you for the reminder. Feng Wu, take us down!” Leng Ruoxue thanked Baixi and then said to Feng Wu.

“Yes, Master.” Feng Wu transformed back into her original form.

Leng Ruoxue and the others jumped onto Feng Wu’s back, and Feng Wu flew them down the abyss

“Oh! It’s so hot.” As soon as the phoenix with flames flew away, Whitey couldn’t take it anymore and directly released a large amount of water-attribute mystic energy to lower the temperature here.

“It seems like the entire Phoenix Clan belongs to Leng Ruoxue now,” Hong Ying said thoughtfully. Well, that little girl was really not simple!

“How do you know?” Baixi asked in puzzlement.

“Tch, there’s no need to ask! Feng Wu is the patriarch of the Phoenix Clan! Since she has woken up, that means she has recognized you as her master.” Xiao Fan said understandingly. He had read through all the information related to Leng Ruoxue yesterday after knowing her identity, so he more or less understood the people around her.

“Why didn’t you mention these things yesterday?” Baixi said angrily. Hmph! Xiao Fan was in charge of intelligence, but he actually didn’t report such a big matter to them. It was too much.

“You didn’t ask.” Xiao Fan slipped away after speaking.

“Damn it, stop right there.” Baixi hurriedly chased after him.

Hong Ying and Cao Yi quickly transformed into a ray of light and disappeared.

Leng Ruoxue and the others felt that their vision was becoming more and more blurry as they flew down the cliff. Moreover, the lower they flew, the darker it became, the thicker the poisonous fog in the air, and the temperature was so low that they could freeze to death. However, the flames on Feng Wu's body dispelled a lot of the coldness for them.

As for Sun Meiting and the others, they were not so lucky. The beast could not fly down when they were halfway there. Moreover, the beast could not withstand the poison and fainted, and the person on its back naturally fell directly from the sky

"Xue'er, did you hear anything?" Empty, who was lying comfortably on Feng Wu's back, asked with a naughty smile on his handsome face.

"Wind!" Leng Ruoxue said nonchalantly. Feng Wu's flying speed was obviously much faster after setting up an enchantment. She believed that they would reach the bottom of the cliff safely before long.

"Haha, no! I guess Sun Meiting flew down by herself because she found her beasts too slow," Empty said understandingly.

"They just fell down! What's the big deal? This is within expectations," Leng Ruoxue said very calmly. The more they went down, the more poisonous the air became. The poor beast would not be able to fly to the bottom of the cliff without antidote pills.

"Bang! Bang! Bang!" Several loud bangs sounded from below the cliff just as Leng Ruoxue finished speaking "Well! They're pretty fast. They're already here," Leng Ruoxue gloated. From the sound of it, they must have suffered a serious fall! She didn't know if they still had the ability to complete this mission. Uh! It seemed like Sun Meiting and the others hadn't asked what the mission was yet.

"Master, we're here too," Feng Wu said helplessly. Boohoo... Someone arrived at the bottom of the cliff before it did. It was so big!

"Be careful, everyone," Leng Ruoxue reminded them. She then jumped off Feng Wu's back and looked around

Well! It was pitch-black at the bottom of the cliff, and they couldn't see their fingers if they stretched out their hands. However, there were countless green lights staring at them intently in the darkness. Leng Ruoxue didn't have to guess to know that they had already become the food on the plate of the poisonous creatures at the bottom of the cliff.. However, it was difficult to say who would eat who because she already felt Little Fire's excitement

Chapter 755: The Cliff Mission (4)

"Woman, there's so much food!" Little Flame waved its little tail excitedly on Leng Ruoxue's wrist and said impatiently.

“Little Flame, don’t be too excited. We are also their food,” Leng Ruoxue reminded.

“Yes, I know. Woman, there are a few here that I can’t beat. You have to help me,” Little Flame pleaded with a fawning face.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue had always been protective of her loved ones, so she naturally wouldn’t side with outsiders. Moreover, it was too dark here, and she didn’t like it. Thinking of this, she directly used the light-attribute mystic technique ‘Boundless Light’. In an instant, the originally pitch-black bottom of the cliff lit up like daytime, and the true appearance of this abyss was truly revealed in front of them.

“Lass, there are so many precious herbs here!” the little old man exclaimed when he saw the scene in front of him.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue nodded. After the bottom of the cliff lit up, they saw flowers and various herbs as far as the eye could see. Moreover, the poisonous creatures that were eyeing them covetously just now had all hidden away. It seemed like those things didn’t like the day!

“Woman, my food is missing,” Little Flame said gloomily with tears in its eyes.

“Don’t worry! They will come out again,” Leng Ruoxue promised, but she couldn’t help but sigh in her heart. Alas! The bottom of the cliff in front of her was beautiful. Unfortunately, it was all used to confuse people because every flower and grass here were poisonous.

“Yes, I have to force them out.” Little Flame opened its little mouth to absorb the spiritual energy here after speaking Little Flame was busy absorbing the spiritual energy with poison, while Leng Ruoxue carefully searched for her target. Ten Thousand Root Grass! This grass might have a very ordinary name, but Ten Thousand Root Grass was very rare, and Ten Thousand Root Grass was also one of her missions.

“Lass, I don’t think there’s anyone nearby.” The little old man and the others were also helping to search, but they didn’t find the target beside them.

“Okay.” Everyone nodded and walked to the left together.

The bottom of Black Mist Cliff was wide. Leng Ruoxue and the others walked around the bottom of the cliff for about four hours and only walked a third of the way. However, they gained a lot. Not only did they find more than ten thousand stalks of grass, they also collected a lot of other herbs.

“Xue’er, let’s rest over there!” The freak pointed at a huge rock.

“Okay.” Everyone nodded and then sat down on the huge rock.

“Lass, this bottom of the cliff is really big. We’ve walked for so long, but we haven’t finished yet,” the little old man said in amazement.

“Yes! Grandpa Du, we need to find 15 herbs for the first mission, but we only found five. Alas! There’s still more to find!” Leng Ruoxue sighed softly and said helplessly. There were many herbs under the cliff, but what was needed for the mission was very rare.

“Lass, the herbs here are all poisonous. What a pity,” the little old man said with some heartache. There was no way to refine normal pills if the herbs were tainted with poison.

“Lass, you’re an alchemist! I’ve never seen an alchemist as passionate about refining poison as you!” the little old man said with a dotting face.

“Grandpa Du, there’s nothing wrong with poison. It can save lives at critical moments!” Leng Ruoxue said nonchalantly.

“That’s true,” the little old man said after some thought.

“Empty, what are you thinking? Why are you smiling so cunningly?” Leng Ruoxue unintentionally turned her head and couldn’t help asking curiously when she realized that Empty was smiling secretly.

“Hehe, I’m thinking of another group!” Empty explained with a light smile. He had just used his divine sense to quietly scout around and found many funny things.

“Xue’er, they’re looking for us,” Empty added.

“Oh, they’re still alive?” Leng Ruoxue was a little surprised. Were these people cockroaches? They were quite inactive!

“Yes, but it won’t last long. You’ll know soon,” Empty said with a smile.

“Damn it, you’re actually hiding here!” A sharp female voice sounded from behind them just as Empty finished speaking.

Leng Ruoxue and the others couldn’t help turning around, only to find five beggars standing behind them. Not only were their clothes tattered, but they were also covered in injuries, looking very disheveled!

“Uh! Who is this?” Leng Ruoxue pretended to be puzzled with a smile on her beautiful face.

“Tm Sun Meiting. Damn it, don’t pretend not to know us. Hurry up and hand over what you found,” Sun Meiting roared furiously. Damn, why were they not injured at all, and their clothes were spotless and clean, while they were covered in wounds and ragged clothes? It was really too unfair.

“ya! Do we know each other? What do you want us to hand over?” Leng Ruoxue’s face was full of curiosity.

“Of course it’s the mission items you found. Hurry up and give it to us. Otherwise, we’ll teach you a lesson,” Sun Meiting threatened fiercely.

“Why should we give you what we found?” Leng Ruoxue asked in return. Well! She really couldn’t understand this Miss Sun’s thoughts. Did she really think they were pushovers?

“Hmph! If not for you, why would we accept this lousy mission? It’s all your fault, so be good and hand over the mission items you found. Otherwise, our Sun family won’t let you go.” Sun Meiting took it for granted that the woman in front of her had caused her to accept the mission! Therefore, she had to be responsible until the end!

“Miss Sun, are you an idiot? Did I ask you to take on a mission? Or do you think you still have the chance to leave after taking on this mission? Well! The Sun family probably won’t have the chance to stand up for you anymore. I think you should stay here obediently!” Leng Ruoxue said speechlessly. Alas!

She really didn’t know what the brains of these young ladies from noble families were made of. Why were their thoughts different from ordinary people!

“Damn it, I won’t stay in this damn place,” Sun Meiting roared angrily. Unfortunately, she was ignored by Leng Ruoxue and the others.

“Miss.” At this moment, a guard gently pulled Sun Meiting’s sleeve and whispered.

Chapter 756: Different Treatment (1)

“What?” Sun Meiting said irritably.

“Miss, don’t anger them first. Let’s clarify the mission and then follow behind them to do the mission. After we complete the mission and leave this place, won’t these people be at Miss’s mercy!” the guard reminded softly. In fact, he saw that Leng Ruoxue and the others were dressed clean, so he suspected that they had a special method to avoid the poisonous creatures here, so he thought of this method.

“Yes, what you said makes sense,” Sun Meiting praised. Then she said to Leng Ruoxue and the others, “I don’t want your things now. Just tell me the contents of the mission.”

Leng Ruoxue looked at Sun Meiting with interest and couldn’t help but sigh in her heart. Alas! This Sun family was really arrogant! They obviously wanted to ask for help, but their tone was still so unyielding. Did they really think they owed them?

“Everyone, we came down in a hurry, so we forgot to ask about the mission content. I hope you can tell us.” A guard had to lower his stance and beg when he saw that Leng Ruoxue and the others didn’t react for a while. However, he knew that his young miss didn’t care to do such a thing!

“Alright! The first mission is to gather fifteen herbs at the bottom of Black Mist Cliff. The second mission is to crack an array formation. The location is also at the bottom of Black Mist Cliff. However, it will only appear after finding all the herbs. As for the third mission! I don’t know either,” Leng Ruoxue explained simply.

“Oh, thank you. May I know what the fifteen herbs are?” the guard asked very humbly.

“There are Ten Thousand Root Grass, Snake Concealed Flower, Scorpion Tail Needle...” Leng Ruoxue said with a light smile. These herbs were not common, and even alchemists might not know all of them. Therefore, she had already seen a big question mark on the faces of Sun Meiting and the others as expected.

“Uh! I hope Miss can tell us in detail,” the guard said helplessly. Boohoo... What were these things! The five of them were puzzled.

“Ttold you in detail!” Leng Ruoxue’s face was full of innocence.

“Uh!” The guard was depressed. They only knew the name of the herb, but they didn’t even know if the herb was round or flat. How could they pick it up! Boohoo.

“Grandpa Du, let’s continue looking! This antidote pill only has 24 hours of efficacy. We have to hurry,” Leng Ruoxue said to the others after resting for a while.

“Okay.” The little old man and the others hurriedly stood up when they heard that. Sun Meiting and the others, who had just sat down and had yet to warm up, also hurriedly stood up.

“Continue resting! We’ve had enough,” the little old man said with a smile.

“No, no need. We’ve had enough rest,” the guard said hurriedly. What a joke. Where could they find these people if they continued resting! Boohoo... It was easy to find them!

Just like that, Leng Ruoxue and the others walked in front while five tails followed behind them.

Sun Meiting and the others followed Leng Ruoxue and the others wherever they went!

Sun Meiting and the others also followed Leng Ruoxue and the others to pick herbs. In their opinion, whatever these people picked would definitely be needed for the mission!

Unfortunately, wishes were beautiful, but reality was cruel. Leng Ruoxue and the others didn’t care if it was a mission item. They would pluck anything that they felt was useful or might be useful in the future. Sun Meiting and the others would snatch it whenever they saw which herb they picked.

However, what looked like it was not the same herb. Therefore, Sun Meiting and the others didn’t realize that what they picked was useless.

“Aren’t there only fifteen types? Why did they pick so many?” Sun Meiting, who was exhausted to death, couldn’t help stopping and complaining. Hmph! These people must have done it on purpose. They knew that they didn’t know these herbs, but they picked so many.

“Miss, we have to follow quickly. Our mission won’t be completed if we lose them,” the guard reminded. Alas! They didn’t know those herbs! Therefore, there was nothing they could do even if they plucked all the grass here!

Oh no, why were those people surrounding each other? They would not be able to see what kind of herbs they were picking if they blocked them. The guard couldn’t help being a little depressed when he saw Leng Ruoxue and the others forming a circle. However, he still thickened his skin and went forward, and he saw them picking a purple-red grass through the gap revealed in the middle of them.

“Xue’er, it’s about time.” The little old man said with a naughty smile after picking about half of the purple-red grass.

“Yes, we can’t pluck all of them. We have to leave some for others!” Leng Ruoxue said very kindly. The five of them continued forward after speaking.

Sun Meiting and the others swarmed forward and hurriedly plucked the purple grass when they saw Leng Ruoxue and the others leave “Ah!” Suddenly, a scream sounded from someone’s mouth.

Immediately after, they heard the sound of fighting

“Xue’er, looks like the battle is quite intense!” Empty said with a smile as he listened to the banging sounds not far away.

“Okay, let’s go back and take a look!” Leng Ruoxue said with a light smile. Well! She couldn’t lead the way for them for nothing! She had to collect some benefits! The benefits were naturally those poisonous creatures!

After Leng Ruoxue and the others returned to the place where the purple grass grew, they saw scorpion that had died lying on the ground. The scorpion was purple-red all over and was the size of a millstone. Sun Meiting and the others were sitting on the ground panting,

After seeing the scorpion, Little Flame on Leng Ruoxue’s wrist hurriedly crawled down from her hand and used its sharp teeth to bite open the poisonous gland on the scorpion’s tail. It sucked it as if it was tasting delicious and even closed its eyes with a look of enjoyment.

“Damn it, we killed that scorpion,” Sun Meiting couldn’t help roaring furiously when she saw a snake coming to share their spoils of war. She didn’t want that ugly scorpion, but she couldn’t let others take advantage of her.

Unfortunately, Leng Ruoxue and the others ignored her words again..

Chapter 757: Different Treatment (2)

After Little Flame was full, it licked its little mouth, then glared at Sun Meiting in a show of force and crawled back to Leng Ruoxue’s wrist. Then the few of them tured and left.

“Damn it!” Sun Meiting was so angry!

“Miss, calm down. Now isn’t the time to lose your temper. Let’s follow quickly!” the guard hurriedly coaxed. Alas! He didn’t want this Eldest Miss to offend those people. After all, they had to rely on them below!

“Okay.” Sun Meiting nodded reluctantly. She might be willful, but she also knew that she couldn’t do anything to Leng Ruoxue and the others here, so she had to bear with it no matter how angry she was. Hmph! She would settle the score with those people after they went out! She calculated in her heart, and then the five of them immediately followed

However, Sun Meiting and the others were depressed the entire way because they were always attacked by poisonous creatures. For some reason, those poisonous creatures would always run out after Leng Ruoxue and the others harvested the same herbs even though everyone harvested the same herbs.

It was really too despicable! What was even more infuriating was that the little red snake would come over to enjoy the fruits of their labor every time they exerted all their strength to kill the poisonous creatures “Xue’er, this is the last place,” Empty said with a light smile as he looked at the radius of 50 kilometers in front of him.

“Yes, we are still short of the last herb. I believe the second mission location will appear after we find it all.” Leng Ruoxue’s beautiful eyes swept the surrounding scenery.

There was a deep pool here, and the water was so clear that the bottom could be seen. There were fish swimming in it from time to time. The fish were silver-white in color, and each of them was the size of an adult’s two palms. They looked very fat and delicious, but Leng Ruoxue knew that these fish were also poisonous. However, it was precisely because they were poisonous that the taste was more delicious.

“Master, I’m going to catch fish.” Feng Wu looked at the fish in the pool.

“Okay, let’s continue after dinner!” Leng Ruoxue brought everyone to a relatively safe place to sit down after speaking, Alas! They had searched for almost a day, and the first mission was finally about to be completed. In order to complete the mission early, they didn’t even have time to eat lunch, and they had to eat well for dinner.

Before long, Feng Wu had caught more than a dozen fat fish, and Leng Ruoxue and the others had started a fire. They prepared a pot, took out a few pieces of raw meat, and planned to grill them together.

Sun Meiting and the others arrived at the last place at the bottom of the cliff in an extremely sorry state. They were so angry that they were about to explode when they saw Leng Ruoxue and the others already starting a fire and cooking! Damn! They were working tirelessly behind, but these people were preparing to eat.

“Who allowed you to eat? You haven’t found all the herbs yet!” Sun Meiting roared angrily.

“Of course we have to eat if we’re hungry! Otherwise, how can we have the stamina to deal with those poisonous creatures later!” Leng Ruoxue reminded very kindly.

“There... there’s more?” Sun Meiting said gloomily. They had already killed many along the way and were bitten many times. However, they showed no signs of being poisoned, and she attributed all this to the antidote pill they had eaten before descending the cliff.

“Of course there are. Don’t tell me you think only the poisonous creatures you killed are down this cliff!” Leng Ruoxue asked with a naughty smile. Alas! The poisonous creatures had already begun to become restless after Sun Meiting and the others plucked all the food from the poisonous creatures.

However, they still had concerns, so they didn’t dare to attack in full force. This was also letting Sun Meiting and the others off easy. Otherwise, how could they have walked here alive!

“Miss, I’m going to catch fish too.” The guard didn’t dare to not believe Leng Ruoxue’s words, so he volunteered.

“Okay.” Sun Meiting was also afraid that a poisonous substance would run out to cause trouble for them, so she agreed without thinking.

Seeing that Sun Meiting agreed, the guard led the other guard to catch fish like Feng Wu. However, before they could catch the fish, they were bitten by the fish as food. The two of them were extraordinarily depressed looking at their fingers that were gradually turning black! Boohoo... Why was this! They were bitten by poisonous creatures while picking herbs, and the fish was bitten again! Why was nothing happening to them! Heaven was so unfair. However, what they didn’t expect was that the matter of making them vomit blood was yet to come!

Leng Ruoxue and the others had already begun picking herbs when Sun Meiting and the others were done preparing the food.

“Miss, let’s eat quickly. Our mission won’t be completed if they pluck all the herbs.” The guard reminded her with a petty heart as he looked at the five people picking herbs not far away. At this moment, he only wanted to complete the mission quickly and had long forgotten that Leng Ruoxue and the others would not pluck all the herbs at all.

“What are you afraid of? We’ll snatch them if we can’t. Can’t we deal with them with our strength?” Sun Meiting said nonchalantly. Hmph! Don’t blame me for being merciless if these people don’t leave them alone.

“Miss, the mission isn’t completed yet, so they can’t die!” the guard reminded. The bottom of the cliff might seem calm, but he could already feel that the things hiding in the dark had not really appeared yet. If Leng Ruoxue and the others were alive, they could help them block the danger at the critical moment. More importantly, these people seemed to be very confident in the mission, so it was even more impossible to let them die first!

“Yes, I know.” Sun Meiting was not stupid. She knew that before leaving this place, she could not touch Leng Ruoxue and the others no matter how much she hated them. Boohoo... They knew nothing about missions! They would not be able to leave this place without Leng Ruoxue.

The freak who was picking herbs said helplessly as he looked at the malicious gaze not far away, “Xue’er, they’re playing dirty again.”

“Yes, I know, However, we’ll let them go on the account that they can lure Little Flame’s food out!” Leng Ruoxue said with a light smile. Hehe! They were using each other anyway, so she didn’t care what bad intentions Sun Meiting and the others thought!

“Yes, yes.” Little Flame nodded vigorously in agreement after hearing Leng Ruoxue’s words.

“Lass, it’s about time. Leave the rest for them!” the little old man blinked and said kindly..

Chapter 758 Different Treatment (3)

“Yes, Miss Sun. We’re done picking. The rest is for you.” Leng Ruoxue brought everyone to rest after speaking.

“Hmph! At least you know your place,” Sun Meiting said proudly. Then she led her subordinates to pluck the grass in a hurry...

A moment later, everyone present heard a loud bang. Then the ground under their feet began to split apart, and countless giant scorpions, giant ants, and spiders surged up from the ground. Each of them was several times larger than the ones Sun Meiting and the others killed previously. At the same time, countless snakes crawled over from all directions and surrounded them...

“Damn it, where did these things come from?” Sun Meiting said with a tingling scalp. She hated these disgusting things the most, but the number of things in front of her was unimaginable.

“Miss, let’s not act rashly. The five of us alone can’t deal with these poisonous creatures,” the guard reminded very implicitly. What he implied was that he wanted to join forces with Leng Ruoxue and the others.

“I know.” Sun Meiting raised her eyes and looked in Leng Ruoxue’s direction. However, it was fine if she didn’t look. She almost vomited blood when she saw it. Damn! What was going on? Why were there so many poisonous creatures around them while they only had two or three kittens...

“Damn it, why don’t you surround them!” Sun Meiting couldn’t help but fly into a rage out of humiliation and roar at the poisonous creatures surrounding her.

However, when those poisonous creatures heard Sun Meiting’s words, their small eyes revealed looks as if they were looking at an idiot, and they couldn’t help but grumble in their hearts. Damn! Do you think we’re as stupid as you! Those people were not made of tofu. They could afford to offend them! Moreover, before coming, Boss had instructed that no matter who they provoked, they couldn’t provoke that little red snake.

Otherwise, they would bear the consequences themselves!

“Miss, calm down,” the guard said with a headache. He couldn’t help cursing in his heart. What a pig brain. He still wanted to offend her at this time.

“Calm down my a * s! Isn’t this bullying!” Sun Meiting roared irrationally. With that, she wanted to rush in the direction of Leng Ruoxue and the others. However, before she could run, she was bitten by the giant poisonous scorpion closest to her several times...

“Ah! Damn it!” Sun Meiting was angry. She waved the soft whip in her hand and injected mystic energy into it, attacking the scorpion that bit her...

“Pa!” The weak scorpion died before it could retaliate.

The poisonous creatures were angry when they saw their companions being killed in front of them. “Ao! Ao!” After a few howls, the poisonous creatures waved their giant claws that made cracking sounds and attacked

Sun Meiting and the others...

There were many poisonous creatures, but their strength was not high. They were basically not at the level of a Transcendent Divine Beast. Therefore, Sun Meiting and the others were almost one at a time. Soon, the number of poisonous creatures decreased by a third. At this moment, Little Flame climbed down from Leng Ruoxue’s wrist matter-of-factly and dashed to the battlefield to absorb the poisonous glands of the dead poisonous creatures without working...

Xiaohuo was absorbing happily, but Sun Meiting and the others were so tired that they vomited blood. The depression in their hearts was indescribable when they saw Leng Ruoxue and the others standing by the side watching the commotion. They really wanted to faint if possible. Unfortunately, they didn’t dare to! If they really fainted, they would probably become food for these poisonous creatures in the next second.

“Xue’er, when should we attack?” Empty looked at the battle situation and asked.

“Wait a while more. The largest one isn’t out yet!” Leng Ruoxue reminded with a light smile. Well, they had to conserve their energy! It would be impossible to count on Sun Meiting and the others for the largest ones!

“Okay, let’s watch the commotion then!” Empty said with a smile. Then he turned his gaze to the center of the battle and also glanced at the few scorpions surrounding them.

The scorpions shrank their heads after sensing Empty’s gaze and tried their best to reduce their presence. Boohoo... These people were really too deceiving. They looked like small shrimps, but they were true great white sharks in their bones! They couldn’t afford to offend them! They couldn’t afford to offend them! With this in mind, the scorpions looked at each other and quietly slipped away...

“Woman, I’m back!” After some time, Little Flame, which was full, returned to Leng Ruoxue’s side from the battlefield. At this moment, Sun Meiting and the others had also eliminated all the poisonous little minions!

They were sitting on the ground, panting heavily from exhaustion!

“Yes, are you full?” Leng Ruoxue looked at Little Fire’s deflated belly doubtfully and asked curiously.

“No! Hehe! I’ve already digested the venom,” Little Flame said proudly. A slightly cold voice immediately sounded in its ears just as it finished speaking.

“Human, how dare you kill our subordinates. Hmph! You’re dead meat.” The one who spoke was a snake covered in black and covered in poisonous gas. This snake was nearly 100 meters in length and about ten meters in width. Moreover, its gaze was cold and fierce. At this moment, it was staring at Sun Meiting and the others tightly. Not only that, but this snake was also a level-seven Transcendent Divine Beast. On both sides of this snake were two huge black scorpions and spiders that were like small mountains. They were level five and level six Transcendent Divine Beasts. There were many Transcendent Divine Beasts behind them, but almost all were around level two or three.

“Damn it, are you blind?! They have a share too. Why are you only looking for us!” The scarred Sun Meiting couldn’t bear it anymore and roared at the snake, planning to drag Leng Ruoxue and the others into the water.

“Them? They didn’t kill my subordinates. You killed them all!” The cold snake’s eyes rolled between Leng Ruoxue and Sun Meiting. Then the huge snake said, and at the same time, it pouted in its heart. Hmph! Who didn’t know that persimmons had to be pinched by the weak! It wanted to find trouble with the other five, but it could not afford to!

In fact, they also treated Leng Ruoxue and the others as food when they first descended to the bottom of the cliff! However, after careful discussion, they unanimously believed that those people could not be provoked, not because they saw the true strength of Leng Ruoxue and the others, but because of an animal’s intuition and instinct..

Chapter 759 Different Treatment (4)

“You...” The snake’s words almost made Sun Meiting faint. This was too much of a bully. She, who had always been arrogant, never dreamed that she would one day receive such unfair treatment. Moreover, it was the beast she hated the most! How could the proud her bear this!

“Damn it, you beasts, do you know who I am? I’m the Miss of the Sun family! How dare you treat me like this! I won’t let you go!” Sun Meiting roared with a face full of anger. She was so angry that she even forgot that no matter how noble her status was, it was impossible for these poisonous creatures who had lived at the bottom of the cliff to recognize her!

“The Sun family? I’ve never heard of them.” Sure enough, the poisonous creatures led by the giant snake blinked in confusion, their faces full of question marks.

“Big Brother, it seems like she wants to use her identity to pressure us. Let’s not talk nonsense with her. Hurry up and attack!” the scorpion beside the giant snake said impatiently.

“Okay, avenge our subordinates. Go!” The giant snake ordered, and the poisonous creatures beside it swarmed forward...

As the poisonous creatures ran, the bottom of the cliff immediately became poisonous fog. In a few seconds, the scarred Sun Meiting and the others disappeared. They didn’t even have the time to ask for help...

After a while, the poisonous fog dissipated, and Leng Ruoxue and the others could clearly see the poisonous creatures led by the giant snake surrounding them.

“What? It’s our turn now?” Leng Ruoxue’s beautiful eyes gently glanced at the giant snake and said with a spurious smile.

“Uh! Misunderstanding! You’re mistaken.” The giant snake was stunned and then hurriedly tried to curry favor.

“Why else are you surrounding us!” Leng Ruoxue asked in puzzlement. Then she raised a slender jade hand, and a small flame danced on her tender white fingertips...

“What a misunderstanding!” Cold sweat rolled down the giant snake’s body. Boohoo... The flame gave it so much pressure! It would probably be lying on the ground if it didn’t forcefully hold on!

“Oh,” Leng Ruoxue answered lightly and then fell silent.

“Erm... Didn’t you already complete the first mission? I’m here to tell you the second mission location,” the giant snake explained, its little heart trembling non-stop.

“Okay. Do you want to check my mission items?” Leng Ruoxue raised her eyebrows slightly and asked calmly.

“No... There’s no need. I believe in your credit,” the giant snake said hurriedly. Boohoo... Those herbs were all their favorite food! However, they were all gone.

“Haha!” Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help but laugh after hearing what the giant snake said. The poisonous thing that even killed the mission person actually said that it believed her. Wasn’t this very ridiculous?

“What are you laughing about?” the giant snake asked in puzzlement. It knew that these humans were not afraid of it, but there was no need to laugh so happily!

“Little snake, our Little Fire is very interested in the poison in your bodies.” Leng Ruoxue ignored the giant snake’s question and looked at the poisonous thing sneaking glances at her like a little wife in front of her with

“Uh! What do you mean?” The giant snake’s brain couldn’t keep up, and it couldn’t help asking foolishly.

“Give me the poison in your bodies,” Leng Ruoxue said bluntly.

“How can that be?” the giant scorpion interrupted before the snake could answer.

“I’ll give you two choices. One is to do it willingly, and the other is to do it ourselves,” Empty said with a light smile.

“Can I choose the third one?” The giant snake lowered its head and asked softly, but it couldn’t help crying and cursing in its heart. Boohoo... This group of bandits! It was easy for them to accumulate some poison!

“Little snakes, you don’t have a third choice, and I don’t want much. Just give half of the poison in your bodies to my Little Fire,” Leng Ruoxue said with a smile. Well, look at how kind she was! If it were others, they would probably have killed these poisonous creatures long ago. However, these poisonous beasts didn’t attack them, so of course she wouldn’t kill them herself.

Boohoo... A beast with a master is a treasure, a beast without a master is like a blade of grass! The huge snake couldn’t help but grumble in its heart. Then it raised its head and secretly looked at the little red snake that was not even as thick as an adult’s finger, feeling abnormally depressed. It was obviously a little fellow more poisonous than them, but it still wanted to rob them. It was too much!

“You don’t have to be reluctant. I can also share a little of the poison with you as an exchange! However, I’m afraid not many of you can bear my poison,” Little Flame, which was coiled around Leng Ruoxue’s wrist, said.

“Uh! I know. You can only give us five. Forget the others,” the giant snake said impatiently. Hehe, it would be very beneficial to their strength if they could obtain this little red snake’s poison! It couldn’t even ask for such a good thing, so of course it was willing.

“Okay.” Little Flame nodded and was about to open its little mouth to bite the giant snake, but Leng Ruoxue stopped it.

“Wait, little snake, tell us the location of the next mission first,” Leng Ruoxue said hurriedly. Well, she didn’t know if this snake could withstand Little Fire’s poison, but who would tell them the location if Little Fire fainted from the poison!

“The second mission is under the pool,” the giant snake said and then motioned for Little Flame to begin.

Little Flame nodded, and then bit the giant snake’s poison sack. After absorbing almost half of the venom, it injected another drop of its poison into the giant snake’s body and did the same to the other four poisonous beasts. As for the others, it only absorbed half of their poison...

After a long time.

After absorbing the toxins, Little Flame crawled unsteadily back to Leng Ruoxue's wrist. Then it looked up at her and said, "Woman, I'm going to advance."

"Advance? When?" Leng Ruoxue said in surprise. It usually didn't see how Little Flame cultivated, so why did it advance just like that!

"Immediately." Little Flame transformed into a red light and ran to a spacious place to prepare to advance after speaking.

Before long, the Heaven Earth Laws descended into the abyss...

After advancing, Little Flame crawled back onto Leng Ruoxue's wrist proudly.

Leng Ruoxue held Little Flame in her hand and observed it carefully. Well! Why didn't this Little Flame grow up at all after advancing? Instead, it became smaller and smaller. Moreover, its body became more and more translucent, beautiful and dazzling!

Chapter 760 Advanced Antidote Pill (1)

"Hehe! Woman, I'm even more beautiful!" Little Flame said proudly. This was the first time it advanced since birth!

"Little Flame, what's your current strength?" Leng Ruoxue asked curiously. There really wasn't much difference apart from becoming more beautiful after this Little Flame advanced.

"Strength? What do you need strength for?" Little Flame blinked its ruby-like beautiful eyes, its face full of question marks.

"Uh! Pretend I didn't ask," Leng Ruoxue said gloomily.

"Hehe! Woman, I just want poison," Little Flame said with a face full of pride. Then it looked at the five big poisonous creatures who were dozing off and pondered in secret. Well, if they bit it after advancing, these poisonous creatures would probably have died long ago!

"Oh! Let's go to the pool to complete the second mission!" Leng Ruoxue said to the freak and the others seeing that Little Flame's matter was resolved.

"Okay." Everyone nodded and then walked toward the pool.

Leng Ruoxue and the others watched carefully by the pool, looking for the entrance...

"Master, I think something is amiss there," Feng Wu said after observing it with the unique secret technique of the Phoenix Clan.

Leng Ruoxue looked in the direction Feng Wu was pointing. The bottom of the pool was covered with rocks, and the two pieces Feng Wu chose seemed to be slightly different in color. However, they would not be discovered at all if she didn't look carefully. At this point, she sent a stream of mystic power to hit the two rocks. In an instant, the pool sank, and a secret room was exposed in front of them...

"Xue'er, should we go down?" Empty looked at the pitch-black secret room and asked.

"Yes." Leng Ruoxue nodded.

"Master, I'll go down first!" Feng Wu said and then ignited her vital flame. This way, they wouldn't be hurt even if there was any danger down there.

Feng Wu led the way up the stairs, Leng Ruoxue and the others following closely behind.

The door of the secret room closed as soon as they entered.

"Xue'er, looks like we can forget about leaving this place if we can't break through the array." Empty teased with a light smile as he looked at the closed door of the secret chamber.

"Yes!" Leng Ruoxue nodded and then looked at the secret room in front of her.

The walls of this secret room were embedded with night pearls, illuminating the secret room as if it was daytime. The entire secret room was not big, and there were no items for missions inside. There was an array formation on one of the walls of the secret room. Well, this should be the exit.

Leng Ruoxue and the others came to the wall covered with array formations and observed.

"Lass, I know nothing about array formations! I can only rely on you," the little old man said helplessly. In fact, array formations were not prevalent on the Boundless Heaven Continent. Therefore, very few people specially studied them. Therefore, array formations had almost been lost long ago.

Leng Ruoxue nodded and looked at the array formation in front of her. Well, this array formation was a little familiar. She should have seen it in the array formation collection left behind by her master. What was its name again?

Leng Ruoxue searched her memory. Ah! She remembered that this array formation was called the Illusionary Array! It was an array formation that combined reality and illusion. Moreover, if she remembered correctly, this array formation should be an advanced array formation. Not many people could set it up. She didn't expect to see it here. However, this array should only be considered a simple Illusionary Array!

“Xue’er, is this array easy to break?” Empty asked curiously. Boohoo... He was also an array formation idiot. However, he knew that Xue’er had specially studied it! Therefore, he was not very worried that they would be trapped here.

“It’s not difficult as long as we find the array core,” Leng Ruoxue said and then carefully searched the array formation...

The freak and the others naturally didn’t dare to disturb Leng Ruoxue when they saw that her thoughts were on the array formation.

After more than ten minutes, Leng Ruoxue finally discovered the abnormality and said happily to everyone, “Founzd it, it’s here.”

“Uh!” Everyone immediately looked over, but they didn’t find anything different from the places Xue’er mentioned!

“Take a closer look. There is spiritual energy flowing on the array formation, and the direction and speed of spiritual energy flowing here are slightly different from other places, so I’m sure this is the eye of the array formation,” Leng Ruoxue said confidently. With that, she released a stream of mystic power to strike the location of the array formation. Immediately, the array formation on the wall disappeared, and the exit was revealed in front of everyone.

“This array doesn’t look that difficult!” the little old man said in puzzlement.

“Hehe! Grandpa Du, this array is called the Illusionary Array. However, it can only be considered simple. The true Illusionary Array’s eyes are not so easy to find, so we picked up a bargain!” Leng Ruoxue explained with

“Oh, no wonder! However, no matter what, the second mission is finally completed. Let’s leave this place quickly!” the little old man urged. It felt gloomy here, and he didn’t want to stay any longer.

“Okay, let’s go!” Leng Ruoxue nodded, and then everyone left.

After the array formation of the secret chamber was unlocked, Hong Ying, who was in the hall at the back of Black Mist Cliff, immediately sensed it.

“Leng Ruoxue and the others have unlocked the array formation.” Hong Ying looked at the other three people.

“Really?” The three of them hurriedly stood up in surprise.

“Okay.” Hong Ying nodded. That array formation might only be a simple ‘Illusionary Array’, but there were almost no people in this world who could unlock it. Thinking of this, he couldn’t help paying more attention to Leng Ruoxue and the others. Alas! He didn't know if they could complete the last mission?

"The last mission..." Baixi hesitated, but the other three understood what she meant.

"Don't worry. My intuition tells me that they can definitely do it," Xiao Fan said. In fact, he was not too confident.

"Go do what you have to do. The last mission will probably take a long time," Hong Ying said. Then he was the first to get up and leave the hall...

At the same time, Leng Ruoxue and the others found themselves in another secret room after coming out of the exit.

This secret room was very spacious. There was a table and five chairs in it, as if they were specially prepared for them. Moreover, the spiritual energy in the secret room was very abundant..
