

Cute Baby 9

Nina clenched her fists and blushed.

“That’s right. Just say yes. It’s a win-win situation.”

A cunning smile appeared on Harrison’s face.

It was said that Gabriel, the CEO of the Empire group, never flirted with women. He was eccentric, arrogant, cold, and ruthless.

“You can stay here for one night today. The Gu family will come to pick you up tomorrow morning.”

Then he left.

Nina stood still expressionlessly.

Nina suddenly came to her senses. Her two babies would definitely look for her if they didn’t go home today.

Then she took out her phone from her pocket and dialed Celia’s number.

The phone was soon connected and Celia’s voice came through.

“Celia, I have something urgent to deal with. I won’t go home today. Please take care of Cheney and Hanna for me.”

“Mommy...”

Before Celia could say anything, the two babies who heard the voice of Nina called her Mommy.

A bright smile appeared on her little face.

A pair of deep dimples and canine teeth were clearly shown on her face.

She rushed to Celia like two wheels.

“Cheney, Hanna...”

Hearing the two babies’ voices, Nina felt warm in her heart and happily answered them.

“Mommy, when will you come back? We miss you.”

The two little babies got close to the phone and said coquettishly.

“Baby, I have something to deal with today and can’t go back. You can follow aunt Celia first. Be obedient, okay?”

Nina gently told the two babies.

All of a sudden, the two babies fell into silence. They were still very young, but Cheney frowned his lovely little eyebrows. He might be a little sad.

Nina could feel their emotions, so she added.

“Mommy will take you to play for a whole day when she comes back, okay?”

Nina coaxed Cheney and Hanna.

“Okay, Mommy agreed. She will take us to play for a whole day and eat delicious food. We will wait for you to come back.”

Hanna was in a better mood in an instant. Her tightly frowned eyebrows were slowly loosened, and her pink mouth pouted upward.

“Yes, sir! You can go wherever you want to go.”

Nina answered them dotingly.

“Mommy, come back early after you finish your work. I will take good care of my sister.”

Cheney picked up the phone and put his mouth on the phone, telling Nina not to worry about them.

“My good boy, Cheney. Mommy knows you are sensible. I will come back early. Call aunt Celia. I have something to talk to her.”

Then he handed the phone to Celia.

“Celia, thank you for taking care of the two kids. I will tell you something when I go back.”

Nina said in a hoarse voice.

“Okay, I know. Be careful outside.”

Celia exhorted. She knew that Nina wouldn't let go of the two children unless there was something important.

Seeing that she was in such a hurry, she didn't need to ask more. She would tell herself when she came back.

Nina went back to the room arranged by Harrison and was stunned.

“Why are you here?”

As soon as she entered the room, Susan was already in the room.

“This is my home. Why can't I be here?”

Susan said with a long face.

Five years ago, Nina hadn't quarreled with Susan, but now she came to provoke her again. She was about to lose her temper.

“How do you feel when you come back to the Ning clan again?”

Susan wrapped her arms around her chest and walked beside the stream.

Nina kept silent and didn't want to say anything more to her.

“You are going to marry into the Gu family for me. Do you really need to thank me for giving you this opportunity?”

Susan walked to the side of Nina and smiled sarcastically.

“Susan, don’t go too far!”

Nina couldn’t stand it anymore and shouted at Susan.

“What can you do even if I go too far? If I don’t want to marry, I’ll ask you to do it for me.”

Susan stimulated Nina.

Five years ago, her parents didn’t believe her and only believed in Susan. But now, Susan was unwilling to get married, so she asked her to marry her.

Susan was right. No matter how much she had done, it didn’t matter. Her parents would help her solve it.

“Yes, I’m afraid you don’t have the fortune to be Gabriel’s wife. Many women dream of marrying the CEO of the Empire group.”

Nina didn’t know why she said that. She was really angry with Susan, so she’d better do as she said.

“Nina, I’ll wait and see how you, his wife, can make the CEO of Empire group obsessed with you.”

Susan squinted at Nina with disdain and left the room after saying sarcastically.

Nina sat on the bed angrily.

She took a deep breath. Nina, don’t be angry with such a person. You have already known what kind of person she is. Think about your two cute babies.

Nina sat on the bed. Thinking of Cheney and Hanna, he slowly calmed down.

On the early morning of the second day.

Wearing a wedding dress, Nina sat on the bed, waiting for the wedding. Her heart was particularly heavy.

Not long after, the bridesmaid of the Gu family came.

“Miss Ning, I’m the butler. I’ll take you to the Gu mansion.”

It was the first time that Nina saw the housekeeper greet a bride. He was surprised.

But she didn’t show it. After all, the man she married was a rich man. She didn’t say anything.

Then she left with the housekeeper.

Then she left the Ning family, got in the car of the Gu family, and drove away.

“Miss Ning, please.”

The Butler got off the car and opened the door for Nina carefully.

Nina smiled politely.

After getting off the car, she came to the Gu mansion.

But she found that there was no joy or wedding process at all.

She was taken directly to the Gu family.

More importantly, the bride and groom hadn't shown up yet.

Nina felt strange and surprised.

Then, the servant led her to the living room.

Looking at the hall of Gu's family and the wedding dress she was wearing, she suddenly felt all kinds of irony.

When Nina entered the living room, she saw an elegant woman sitting on the sofa, wearing a dark green coat, an emerald bracelet on her hand, and a particularly dazzling Vintage Ring on her middle finger.

“Madam, I'm leaving now.”

The woman nodded slightly.

Then the servant left.

Madam? This should be Gabriel's mother.

It looked a little familiar as if they had met before.

Nina looked at the woman, wondering where she had seen her.

Hearing Darren calls the woman, Nina guessed.

“Have a seat.”

When the woman saw Nina, she invited her to sit on the sofa.

Nina sat opposite her. The atmosphere was unusually heavy at the moment.

Time stood still for a while, and the two of them fell into silence.

In order to break the awkward atmosphere, Nina was about to speak, but Caroline, who was sitting opposite him, spoke.

Nina stared at Caroline with her dark eyes.
