

Cute Baby162

chapter 162

In the CEO Office of the Empire group.

As soon as he knew that the two babies had an accident, he immediately rushed to the scene of the car accident.

“Stream!”

As soon as gu jin yi got off the car, he saw Ning stream in the middle of the road.

“My chen chen and han han, my lucky star, you will be fine. You won’t...”

Ning Xi held the two babies tightly. She had lost her mind and could not hear anyone. Now she only saw the two babies, as if she was silly.

When he saw this scene, he felt heartache for the first time.

At this time, the ambulance arrived. The medical staff immediately got out of the car and was about to carry the two babies into the car.

“Don’t hurt my children. chen chen and han han are fine. They are just kidding with me. They will wake up soon...”

Ning Xi crazily held the two babies in his arms, preventing the medical staff from touching them.

“Naomi, they are saving chen chen and han han. Calm down!”

Seeing this, gu jin yi held Ning Xi tightly to calm her down.

Then, with the help of gu jin yi, the medical staff carried the two babies into the car.

“Let go of me! My child, don’t take them away!”

Ning Xi paused and found that the medical staff had carried the two babies into the car. She pushed gu jin yi away and chased after them.

But the ambulance had left, and Ning stream could no longer catch up.

“chen chen, han han, my child, don’t leave me. Don’t leave me...”

Then, Ning stream fainted subconsciously.

“Stream!”

At the moment when Ning stream fell down, Jean held it steadily.

ning xiao xi paed out unconsciously.

gu jin yi picked up Princess Ning Xi without hesitation and drove the ambulance to the hospital.

In the hospital.

Ning Xi lay weakly on the white bed sheet.

On the other hand, Edmund was sitting next to Ning stream, holding her hand tightly.

He stared at the unconscious Ning stream with his deep and unfathomable black eyes.

gu jin yi frowned. Maybe it was because of the two babies, or because of Ning Xi.

He was in a bad mood.

Recalling what Ning Xi had done to the two babies just now, he was confused and sighed.

Is Ning Xi acting like an ordinary person to chen chen and han han?The two babies had nothing to do with her, but at that time, everyone would think that she, Ning Xi, was the mother of the two babies.

Looking at her nervous, excited and scared expression, chen chen and han han seemed to be like her own child, asking her to protect with all her strength.

Was it because she liked the two kids too much?That's why.

gu jin yi was still puzzled why his heart was hanging and his breath became deeper and faster because of the two babies.

At this time, Ning Xi's hand moved unconsciously. He frowned and slowly opened his eyes. gu jin yi withdrew his thoughts and quickly stood up from the chair.

"Brook, what do you think?Do you feel uncomfortable? " gu jin yi felt relieved.

For no reason, it was the first time that gu jin yi had been so nervous.

ning xiao xi stared at the ceiling for a while before she came to her senses.

"chen chen, han han..."

Ning Xi murmured to himself and suddenly became excited.

"Where are chen chen and han han?I want to see them! "

ning xiao xi wanted to struggle out of the bed, but when he saw this, he put a pair of strong and powerful hands on her shoulder and pressed her down forcefully and gently.

"Naomi, calm down. chen chen and han han will be fine."

gu jin yi could only comfort Ning Xi.

"Let go of me. I want to see chen chen and han han. I want to see my child!"

Nina tried her best to get up from the bed, but her delicate body was not as strong as the two powerful hands of Jean.

"Naomi, chen chen and han han are our children. We will protect them. They will be fine.Calm down. Doctor chen chen and han han are being rescued. You can see the two soon. " gu jin yi comforted Ning Xi while letting her lie down slowly.

But Ning Xi seemed to hear nothing, and she still struggled to get out of bed.

“Please, please let me go. Please let me see them and my child...”

The voice of Ning Xi changed from sobbing to hoarse. Tears of nervousness welled up in his eyes. His hair was in a mess, and his face was pale and bloodless. It seemed that no one could understand the pain.

Looking at Ning stream like this, gu jin yi's once cold and ruthless heart could not help but feel a heartache.

“Okay, I'll take you to see them.”

At this moment, gu jin yi had no other thoughts. Seeing the weak expression on Ning Xi's face, his heart softened and hurt. It was better to let her struggle as she wished and let her see chen chen and han han. Maybe this was better for her.

Then, he helped the weak Ning stream to the door of the resuscitation room.

Ning Xi stared at the bright operating room card with fear. He was so weak that he couldn't stand steadily.

chen chen, han han, my sweetheart, I beg you, please don't let anything happen to me

Ning Xi's voice was so hoarse that she couldn't say anything. She could only struggle in her heart.

All of a sudden, the light in the operating room was turned off. A middle-aged doctor walked out in a hurry.

ning xiao xi and gu jin yi walked forward and asked about the two babies?

“Doctor, how are the two kids?”

“Where is my baby?”

gu jin yi and Ning Xi asked almost at the same time.

gu jin yi looked at the doctor with a frown, hoping that the doctor's answer would make people happy.

Ning Xi had been looking at the operating room, waiting for the two babies to come out.

chapter 163

“Who are the parents? Because the blood type of the two children was relatively special, they suffered a massive haemorrhage in the car accident. The situation was a little dangerous, and they needed a large amount of type AB black blood. The stock of this kind of blood in the hospital is empty now.”

The doctor said in a hurry, with sweat on his forehead.

“Then i...”

gu jin yi wanted to say something, but Ning Xi, who was so nervous and excited, spoke first.

“I’m their mother. Draw my blood! Draw my blood! Please save my two children!”

Hearing the doctor’s words about the two babies, ning xiao xi was on the verge of breaking down. She didn’t think about anything else.

Ning Xi held the doctor’s hand tightly and looked at the doctor with a pale face. She begged him to save the two babies.

“Don’t worry. We will try our best. Are you type AB blood? Then come with me.”

The doctor comforted her.

Ning Xi answered weakly. She was just about to follow the doctor into the operating room.

“I’m sorry. Type A blood is not in accordance with the blood type. Only type AB dark blood can be donated.”

The doctor refused Ning stream with a word, which made the collapsed Ning stream fall into a low valley again.

“What should I do? I won’t...”

Tears of fear welled up in Ning Xi’s eyes again. She didn’t know what to do now? If anything happened to her two children, she wouldn’t have the courage to live on.

“Let me do it.”

gu jin yi walked forward with a poker face.

Ning Xi raised his head and looked at gu jin yi. Her clear red eyes stared at him with all kinds of emotions.

She seemed to have forgotten that gu jin yi, the father of the two children, could save them.

“Naomi, wait here. Don’t worry. I won’t let anything happen to chen chen and han han.”

gu jin yi looked at Ning Xi affectionately with his deep black eyes, giving her a firm look and a sense of security.

At this moment, Ning stream had lost the ability to think. She just sat on the chair numbly.

“Only the type AB black blood can be donated.”

The doctor emphasized again.

“I am type AB blood.”

gu jin yi stood up and said in a low and hoarse voice.

“Okay, come with me.”

“I want to go with you. I want to see chen chen and han han.”

Ning Xi suddenly stood up from his chair, walked to gu jin yi and said in a hoarse voice.

“Naomi, look at me. If you believe me, just listen to me. chen chen and han han will let them come out peacefully.”

gu jin yi stared at Ning Xi with his dark eyes, rearing her.

Ning Xi nodded absentmindedly. She didn't know what was on her mind.

Then, he followed the doctor into the operating room.

ning xiao xi watched them enter the operating room. She had to wait for them here.

After entering the operating room, he lay on the bed beside the two babies.

The doctor didn't waste any minute and second to transfuse blood to the two babies.

When he looked sideways at the two babies who were in a coma, his heart trembled for no reason. That feeling was indescribable, but very painful.

chen chen and han han, you must get better. Dad and mom are waiting for you.

“One hundred milliliters, add more...”

The doctor looked at the blood carefully and operated carefully.

“Doctor, the maximum amount of blood has been drawn.”

An angel in white who was responsible for watching the blood transfusion suddenly said.

The doctor took a look at it and found that it had reached the highest level. If the blood was drawn again, it would be dangerous for him.

“Stop.”

The doctor stopped drawing blood. He couldn't sacrifice another person for one person.

“Mr. Jacob, you can get up now.”

“Is it okay now? When will the two kids wake up? ” gu jin yi focused on the two babies and didn't notice that his blood was not enough.

As soon as the blood was drawn, he began to ask the doctor about the condition of the two babies.

“Sorry, your blood is not enough. You can only save one child. You have reached the highest amount of blood drawn. You can't draw blood again, or it will be dangerous for your body.”

The doctor said to gu jin yi seriously, so he stopped drawing his blood.

“Then you draw again. Anyway, you must save the two children and let them live a peaceful life in an an.”

“I’m sorry. Our hospital has its own standards. We can’t hurt a person just because he was saved.”

The doctor refused.

“I’m the father of the child. I have the right.”

gu jin yi said without hesitation.

“Are you sure you want to draw blood again?We can’t guarantee the consequences of excessive blood drawn.”

The doctor asked seriously.

“I’ll take the consequences myself. The two kids can’t wait.”

gu jin yi rong couldn’t think any more. Looking at the weak faces of the two babies and thinking of Ning stream waiting for them outside the operating room, he had no more thoughts.

Then, under the consistent insistence of gu jin yi, the blood was drawn again, twice as much as it was drawn.

After all, the blood volume of the two children was twice as much as the normal blood volume.

gu jin yi stared at the two babies sleepily. As long as they recovered, it didn’t matter no matter how much blood he drew.

“The blood type of the three of you is so rare that it’s hard to find it in a short time.Fortunately, your father is here, or no one can save the two children.”

The doctor said with relief. If it weren’t for gu jin yi, they wouldn’t have been able to save the two babies no matter how skilled they were.

When gu jin yi heard this, he was silent for a while and stared thoughtfully at the two little babies lying on the operating table

Soon, gu jin yi came out of the operating room. Ning Xi ran up to him and asked, “how is it going?Where is chen chen and han han?Are they all right?”

Ning Xi said excitedly, only to see gu jin yi come out alone.

“I have promised you that I won’t let anything happen to chen chen and han han. They are fine now.”

A smile appeared on gu jin yi’s deep and delicate handsome face.

When Ning Xi heard gu jin yi’s words, he looked different. An indescribable smile appeared on his pale and weak face.

“Thank you, thank you for saving them. chen chen and han han are finally fine!”

Ning Xi hugged gu jin yi without hesitation. All she thought about now was the two babies. Knowing that they were out of danger, Ning Xi thought this news was better than any news for her.

gu jin yi felt much more relieved when he saw that Ning Xi had returned to his former state, no longer lost his soul and no longer sad.

On the other hand, his long and narrow eyes squinted slightly. His lips were dry and cracked, and his face seemed a little pale.

However, Ning Xi only focused on the two babies and didn't seem to notice anything wrong with him.

At this time, the light of the operating room was dark. chen chen and han han were pushed out of the operating room.

chapter 165

When he was lost in thought, an angel in white knocked on the door and came in.

"Mr. Jacob, here is the blood test list you need."

The nurse handed the blood test report to gu jin yi and left the ward.

"Thank you."

gu jin yi replied politely.

The moment he walked out of the ward with the doctor, he had already taken his own blood and the blood of the two babies for DNA testing. He didn't expect that the result would be so fast.

gu jin yi walked to the French window, picked up the bag of DNA report and opened it carefully.

The moment the test report came out, he saw the key point at the first sight.

The father son relationship was%99.9

When he saw the number on the test report, a warm and satisfied smile appeared on his charming handsome face.

gu jin yi turned around and looked at the two babies lying on the bed. The corners of his lips, which were obviously curvy, subconsciously raised a smile of neither surprise nor favor.

chen chen and han han were his children. How could he suddenly have two so smart and cute children.

Then, he walked to the two babies again. He was so excited that he didn't know how to describe it.

Holding the test report, gu jin yi thought that he had to find an opportunity to ask Ning Xi why he concealed the truth of the two babies from her?

gu jin yi failed to fulfill his responsibility as a father for the past five years.

But when she looked back, she wondered if Ning Xi had some unspeakable reason to choose to hide this matter?For the time being, she'd better not tell her that she had known the identy of chen chen and han han. Since Ning Xi didn't mention it, she'd better keep it a secret, in case she would overthink it again.

gu jin yi put the test report away and stood beside the two babies.

Maybe it was because of the excessive blood transfusion and the poor rest, he sat on the chair and began to feel dizzy. His vision was blurred, and then he slowly lay on the edge of the bed of the two little babies.

In the villa of Gu family.

Ning Xi changed his clothes and rushed to the hospital. She always felt uneasy if she didn't see the two babies. She had to stay with them to rest assured.

In the hospital, Ning Xi rushed to the ward, fearing that the two babies would wake up at this time and not see him crying.

"Is chen chen and han han awake?"

Ning Xi pushed the door open and asked directly.

But she found that the room was quiet. She saw the two little babies lying quietly on the bed and gu jin yi leaning against them.

Ning Xi approached him step by step until he came to his side.

Ning Xi thought gu jin yi was asleep, so he wanted him to get up and go home or sleep on the sofa. But he suddenly found that his face was pale and his lips were bloodless. Ning Xi frowned and seemed to feel something.

"What's wrong with you, Sheffield?Wake up. "

Ning Xi called gu jin yi nervously, but he didn't respond at all. Ning Xi began to worry, and she called the doctor at the first time.

With the help of the doctor, they helped gu jin yi lie down on another bed.

The doctor was examining gu jin yi

"Doctor, how's it going?Why does he suddenly look so bad? Is he okay? "

It was the first time for Ning Xi to see him in such a state. He had never been sick since they knew each other. Ning Xi's face suddenly turned so pale, and Ning Xi felt a pang of pain in his heart.

"Nothing. Mr. Jacob will be fine after a good rest."

The doctor listened to the beating of his heart, and after a careful examination, he answered Ning stream with relief.

"Is the doctor really all right?Her face was so pale.Please check him again. "

Nina seemed to be worried too much. In her eyes, he was a man who could never fall down.

"Mr. Gu is fine. Mrs. Gu, please rest assured. He is in a temporary coma because of excessive blood drawn."

After the doctor's examination, she was temporarily relieved.

At first, gu jin yi didn't intend to tell Ning Xi these things, and asked the doctor not to say too much. At this moment, the doctor blurted out without thinking too much, and Ning Xi also understood, and she noticed it.

"Doctor, do you mean..."

Ning Xi looked at the doctor with a confused look. There was a complicated emotion in his eyes, and he didn't know how to describe it.

"Because Mr. Jacob's blood drawing can only save one child, but in order to save another child, he drew out twice the blood. That's why she is in a coma now."

The doctor thought that they were a couple after all, and Ning Xi should know about it, so that she could take good care of him and make him recover.

"Thank you, doctor. I see..."

Then the doctor left the ward.

Ning stream slowly approached him and sat down beside him.

She stared at him with her clear beautiful eyes mixed with all kinds of emotions.

gu jin yi, you saved chen chen and han han. You saved them

Ning Xi held gu jin yi's big hand and looked at him meaningfully. Should he tell you the identities of the two babies? They are your children, your own children.

Maybe God is destined to let chen chen and han han meet and you live together.

Ning Xi was suddenly lost in thought, and suddenly had an idea that wanted them to recognize each other.

ning xiao xi, what are you thinking about? Do you want them to recognize each other just because of this matter? Aren't you afraid that gu jin yi will take the child away from you? You will never see them again.

Ning Xi came back to his senses and suddenly felt that he was crazy. How could he have such an idea.

ning xiao xi gazed at gu jin yi again. His face was pale and bloodless, but it couldn't resist his tempting charm and another morbid beauty.

Ning Xi looked at gu jin yi, who was thinking about something. Frowning, he slowly opened his eyes.

"Brook, you are here."

gu jin yi said in a low and hoarse voice.

"You're awake. Do you feel uncomfortable?"

Ning Xi immediately stood up from his chair and asked nervously.

"I'm fine."

gu jin yi stood up with his hands, and Ning Xi hurried to support him.

“Just lie down for a while. You fainted just now.”

ning xiao xi said in a hurry and looked flustered.

Seeing this, gu jin yi smiled with satisfaction.

“Are you caring about me?”

gu jin yi asked knowingly and wanted to hear Ning Xi’s answer in person.

“Thank you.”

Thinking of the excessive blood transfusion for the two babies, ning xiao xi was touched. She suddenly threw herself into gu jin yi’s warm and broad arms and held him tightly.
