

Cutie Please Marry Me Again Chapter 11

Gu shengxia's heart was full of fear.

But at the thought of her son who is still suffering in the hospital at the moment, she can only let herself bravely look at Xi Nianchen and ask, "promise me, the operation will take place in two days."

"Go away."

Xi Nianchen's elegant temperament completely disappeared at the moment, and there was only a cavity of anger.

"Ruirui really can't wait."

Gu shengxia said uneasily, she had no choice but to ask the man in front of her.

She knew that her resistance just made him feel unhappy, but he didn't take her wish into consideration and forcibly occupied her?

Gu shengxia also wants to say that Xi Nianchen's mobile phone on the table rings.

He turned around, picked up his cell phone, looked at the caller ID, frowned slightly.

Back to Gu shengxia, coldly said: "five minutes, get out of here, or no one will try to save your son!"

With that, he picked up his cell phone and went to another bedroom.

"You'd better have something important!"

The cold voice made Zhou Lijiang's heart contract suddenly.

However, Zhou Lijiang is worthy of being an assistant who has worked beside Xi Nianchen for so many years.

Just for a moment, he responded and said respectfully, “president, I’m sorry.”

“Before you go to the hospital tomorrow, you need to go to the company...”

Xi Nianchen’s voice is farther and farther away, until the door of the next bedroom is closed, Gu shengxia responds.

Although he just did not explicitly say that he would go to the hospital, she could be sure that he would go from his words!

In a panic, she wrapped up the quilt and went into the bathroom. As soon as she could, she changed her clothes and left the room in a hurry.

What she didn’t know was that she had become a thorn in someone’s eye and flesh when she stepped into Xi Nianchen’s presidential suite.

Even, all her whereabouts have been closely monitored!

“Tut, I didn’t expect that the famous Xi Shao has such a rich emotional history. If it goes out, it will definitely make a lot of money.”

The obscene man hiding in the dark put away his camera and said excitedly.

However, he also knows that these photos in his camera can not be sold at present.

He watched Gu shengxia disappear completely at the end of the corridor, then with a strange smile on his face, he took out his mobile phone and dialed his gold owner.

“How?”

As soon as I got through, I heard the cold voice of the woman on the other side of the line.

“Oh, it seems that your means are not as good as before, even let Gu shengxia take advantage of it.”

“What do you mean?”

“I heard that the old lady of the Xi family wants to have another child. As you know, this big Xi family always needs a healthy child to inherit.”

The man looked at the picture taken in the camera with a successful smile in his mouth.

Although I don't know what happened to Gu shengxia and Xi Nianchen in the room.

But just looking at Sheng Xia's embarrassed expression and the way of walking, it's not difficult to guess that the two absolutely had a relationship.

“So?” The woman's original cold voice, mixed with anger and jealousy.

“Oh, Xi Shao and Gu shengxia have been in for nearly four hours. What can happen to these lonely men and women? Do you still need me to say?”

The obscene man didn't care at all. Because of his words, the woman on the other side of the phone was irritable. He even thought it was not enough. He continued: “it seems that Xi Shao is going to have another child with that woman!”

“Shut up.”

Words fall, the woman is very unhappy to hang up the phone directly, her hands tightly holding the cell phone was hung up, eyes shot fierce eyes.

Three years ago, she was careless.

But after three years, she will never be careless to let that woman have another child!

“Gu shengxia, if you don’t go to heaven, if you don’t go to hell

The next day.

When Xi Nianchen finished handling the company’s affairs and arrived at the hospital, Ruirui was the only one in the ward.

He frowned and pursed his lips unhappily.

What the hell is Gu shengxia doing? She let the little guy stay in the ward alone.

Hearing the sound of opening the door, Ruirui subconsciously turns his head. He thinks his mother is back, but he doesn’t want to meet Xi Nianchen’s deep eyes.

His eyes suddenly brightened, but he was soon replaced by an indifferent expression.

Xi Nianchen sees this, in the heart that can’t say strange feeling, just like germination general, more and more big.

He could feel that the little guy didn’t welcome him, and even didn’t reject his appearance, but he didn’t want to see it.

But even so, who Xi Nianchen is and what he wants to do, no one can stop him, even if he is his son. He opened his long thighs, went to the chair beside Ruirui’s bed, sat down, and said directly, “do you hate me because of your mommy?”

Xi Nianchen thought that the little guy would have such an attitude towards him since he saw him yesterday. It must be because of what Gu shengxia's hypocritical woman said in front of him!

Rui Rui frowned and didn't speak.

"Your mommy said a lot about me in front of you?" Xi Nianchen didn't pay attention to the little guy's words. He just asked.

When hearing this sentence, Ruirui immediately understood.

"My mommy has never said anything about you in front of me. Don't slander my mommy."

Although the tone of speaking is weak, the momentum is not weak.

Xi Nianchen is very satisfied with this, but if he was not born by Gu shengxia, he would be more satisfied.

"You hate me." Xi Nianchen said with great certainty.

"Yes."

Rui Rui did not hide, dark eyes looking at Xi Nianchen, no fear of meaning.

"Can you tell me why?"

Xi Nianchen seems to casually put his hand on his knee, but in fact it is because of Ruirui's answer without hesitation that he is a little flustered.

His son hated him and told him directly.

“You say, what’s our relationship?”

Ruirui didn’t answer the rhetorical question.

But before Xi Nianchen could answer, Gu shengxia came in with a kettle.

“Ruirui, are you bored by yourself?” Gu shengxia closed the door and said in a soft voice as soon as he turned around, he saw a large and small group of people in the ward looking at her.

Seeing her, Ruirui’s pale face immediately smiles and says, “Mommy, he...”

Ruirui watched Xi Nianchen pause for a while, and then continued: “daddy said that he would stay in the ward with me tonight, so Mommy, you can go home and have a good night’s rest.”

“What?”

Gu shengxia smell speech, surprised to see to Xi Nianchen.

Xi Nianchen is also surprised, but not as obvious as Gu shengxia.

“But...” Gu shengxia just wanted to speak, he was interrupted by Xi Nianchen.

“Yes, tomorrow’s surgery. I’ll stay here tonight. You can go.”

Xi Nianchen’s voice is still cold, without any temperature.

Without waiting for Gu shengxia to say anything, he walked towards the door.
