

Cutie Please Marry Me Again Chapter 15

“Grandma, I can help the nurse to measure ruiruirui’s heartbeat at ordinary times, but after all, we have to operate later, so let the professional nurse come.”

Gu shengxia turned his head and looked at the old lady. He said something unnatural.

“Grandma, I’m your grandson!”

Xi Nianchen heard Gu shengxia’s words, and his good-looking eyebrows glanced at Gu shengxia, who was standing on his left.

Short words, but the meaning is very clear.

The old lady smell speech, looking at Xi Nianchen and Gu shengxia two people that delicate atmosphere, eyebrow a pick, said: “also, still let the nurse come.”

Intuition told the old lady that something must have happened to the two men.

Soon, the nurses gave father and son finished the preparation before the operation, then pushed them toward the operating room.

At the door, Gu shengxia still looks at ruiruirui and says, “ruiruirui, it’s OK. Mommy is waiting for you outside.”

Ruirui nodded, “Mommy, you promise me that when I come out, you will always be with me.”

“I hope when I wake up, the first thing I see is Mommy, and of course, grandma too!”

Gu shengxia and the old lady nodded and agreed.

About to go in, Gu shengxia still couldn't resist, went to Xi Nianchen's bed, some embarrassed, also some embarrassed said: "that, it will be OK."

Smell speech, Xi Nianchen cold eyes dark as deep, this hypocritical woman is comforting him?

Oh, how ridiculous!

"Remember, when I come out, it's the beginning of your travel contract!"

Xi Nianchen said coldly in a voice that only two people could hear.

Gu shengxia was stunned, and her whole body became stiff again. She didn't react until they were pushed into the operating room.

He is really a devil!

In the operating room, the nurse told the father and son that they were going to be anesthetized soon. Xi Nianchen turned his head and looked at the brow next to him. Ruiruirui frowned tightly, "are you afraid?"

"I'm not afraid!" Ruirui tightened his brows and said.

No matter how sensible Ruirui is, he is only a three-year-old child.

And in the face of such a big operation, how could he not be afraid?

Xi Nianchen didn't know how to comfort the little guy, but his voice lightened a lot, "don't you have something to ask me? After the operation, you can ask

"Answer all questions?" Ruirui turns his head, and there is some light in his eyes that Xu Nianchen can't understand!

“No

Xi Nianchen’s tone is light, but he doesn’t have that kind of cold feeling.

Rui Rui frowns. He can’t help thinking that his father really can’t talk.

But the strange thing is that the feeling of fear and uneasiness just now seems a little better.

Is it because of what he just said?

Ruirui can’t help looking at Xi Nianchen. This is his father’s man.

Although he has no other expression, it makes him feel that he is not so afraid. Is it because they are father and son?

.....

After all, Ruirui is a child, so he wakes up on the third day after the operation after three days and two nights without food, his pale face is almost transparent, and his eyelashes are trembling.

Because of lack of water and lips appear some dry, such as withered petals, let a person not distressed.

With Xi Nianchen’s short black hair, Ruirui’s face is even paler and still morbid.

It hurts!

The pain at the edge of the knife made him burst into tears.

He endured the pain, gently raised his hand, and found that there was no movement around, and the quiet was unusual.

When he put his hand down, he pulled the wound too hard. Suddenly, he could not help moaning, "Oh, it hurts..."

The oxygen mask on his mouth is obviously to help him breathe better, but now it makes his nose very uncomfortable.

He couldn't help but want to take it off.

But he did not dare to move any part of his body again, which made him hurt.

Slowly opened his eyes, Ruirui found that there was no one around him.

As soon as he frowned, his pale face immediately showed an expression of displeasure. His mother promised him that she would wait for him to wake up.

"Mommy..."

Call a, still no one answers, Ruirui tighten brow.

At this time, the door facing the ward was opened carefully, and then Ruirui saw a surprised but very happy face.

"Ruirui, Mommy's baby, you finally wake up. You're going to scare mommy to death, you know?"

Gu shengxia quickly put the teapot in his hand in the same place, and quickly walked towards the hospital bed, holding Ruirui Rui's small hand very carefully.

Hearing his mother's words, the clever and sensible ruiruirui reluctantly pulled out a smile and said to Gu shengxia: "Mommy, ruiruirui is in pain." "Ruirui, don't move. Mommy will go to the doctor now. You wait for Mommy." Gu shengxia finished, and rushed out.

I didn't expect the doctor to come as soon as the door opened.

As soon as the doctor arrived, he began to check Ruirui.

Gu shengxia crossed his fingers and clenched his fist. He was worried and prayed to God not to let Ruirui have an accident.

God will love Ruirui, the poor baby.

After the doctor's examination, his face, which had been seriously worried, slowly softened.

The operation three days ago was really successful, but after that, Ruirui didn't wake up within 24 hours after the anesthetic, which made them panic.

But these two days, the results of the inspection are within the normal standard.

So at that time, they didn't know why Ruirui didn't wake up within the specified time.

This made them nervous for two days.

After all, anyone will tremble when he hears Xi Shao's warning.

"If my son doesn't wake up, I'll bury all of you!"

Two days ago, I still remember.

It is said that the mysterious Xi Shao is indifferent to his so-called wife and son? How could you be so angry?

But no matter what the reason is, they can't know too much.

Gu shengxia is looking at the facial expression that the doctors eased down at the same time, the heart also is still tightly clenched.

She was waiting for the doctors' examination, but three or four doctors surrounded the bed, but each one spoke.

This made her heart rise to her throat.

Finally, she trembled and asked, "doctor, how's Ruirui's health?"

Smell speech, the doctors just suddenly reaction come over, on the face suddenly flash a touch of embarrassment.

Light cough a, just quickly say: "young madam, just check over, in fact little young master body already didn't greatly hinder."

Then he turned his head and asked Ruirui with a gentle smile: "young master, do you still feel uncomfortable?"
