

Cutie Please Marry Me Again Chapter 6

Xi Nianchen looked at the miniature version of himself in front of him, especially the pair of ink eyes, there was a moment of absence.

It was not until he heard the child's voice that he suddenly regained his mind.

"Ah Chen, Rui Rui is greeting you. Don't you hear me?" Seeing that Xi Nianchen didn't speak, the old lady frowned.

In particular, just that "Daddy" is enough to make the brain, which has always been flexible and sharp, blank.

When Xi Nianchen became more and more silent, the old lady looked at Ruirui's expressionless face and frowned. As soon as she was ready to speak, a doctor knocked on the door and came in.

As soon as the doctor came in, he respectfully said hello to the old lady and said, "old lady, you are ready. Excuse me, is it convenient for you to pass now?"

Smell speech, Ruirui just looked at Xi Nianchen, eyes indifferent, turned to Gu shengxia, milk voice soft gas said: "Mommy, I'm hungry."

Gu shengxia was stunned for a moment, but soon his eyes were filled with joy.

Since he was hospitalized, Ruirui has no appetite for anything. He only eats a little every time. Even he just ate a mouthful of breakfast and never eats it again.

Now suddenly hear Ruirui said hungry, she is really about to cry with joy.

"Ruirui, wait a minute, Mommy. Mommy is going to buy food for you now, OK?" Gu shengxia said excitedly.

Ruirui nods.

Until Gu shengxia went out, the old lady took a look at her grandson, frowned slightly, and said, “ah Chen, you are here to accompany Rui Rui for a while, I’ll explain a few words.”

Then the old lady left.

In an instant, in the ward, only their father and son were heard.

Ruirui is still expressionless. Except for the self introduction, he is not ready to say anything more

Maybe it’s really the students between father and son. Xi Nianchen feels that after seeing the child in front of him, he always feels very depressed.

“What’s your name, Ruirui?”

Xi Nianchen opened his mouth, but he was slightly frightened by his trembling voice, and the delicate demons’ facial features were full of shock.

“My name is Xi Zerui!”

Although his face was pale, Ruirui’s good manners were still displayed at this moment. He gracefully reported his name and was as polite as a little gentleman.

Just like that, it was like introducing himself to a stranger, which made Xi Nianchen’s heart drop to the bottom.

Once upon a time, when he faced his so-called father, he also used this kind of expression, this kind of alienated tone.

But I never thought that when he met his son, he was treated like this.

Xi Nianchen's narrow eyes flashed a touch of tension.

"Thank you." After two people are silent for a long time, Ruirui suddenly says.

Xi Nianchen a meal, has always been smart brain suddenly stagnated in general, there is less than a moment of reaction.

Wait for him to react to come over, just astringent a few minutes oneself that uneasy mood, low alcohol voice is mixed with a silk of hoarse, "thank me?"

"Well, although granny called to ask you to come back, I appreciate your coming back."

Words fall, Rui Rui that pair of black as ink eyes, deeply looked at Xi Nianchen, turned around, carefully lying back on the bed, back to him.

Seeing this, Xi Nianchen, who has always been cold-blooded and indifferent to everything, is dull.

At the moment, shocked, at a loss, nervous, even a little bit of fear

Countless emotions flashed through his mind one by one. Xi Nianchen felt that he couldn't stay here any longer. An unprecedented panic made him turn around and leave without even thinking about it.

At the moment when the door of the ward was closed, Ruirui, who was lying on the bed, slowly opened his eyes, only that his eyes were no longer dull, but full of tears that would burst the dike at any time.

This daddy, he really likes it.

But he didn't like him!

Gu shengxia happily took the porridge bought in the canteen and walked towards the ward, but saw Xi Nianchen standing on his back in front of the French window at the door of the ward.

After coming out of the ward, Xi Nianchen has been standing here.

His heart has become unprecedented chaos, plus just received her phone call, let him immediately have the feeling of helpless.

He has never faced hundreds of millions of cooperation cases.

However, in the face of the child, but let him have a feeling of hesitation, and even he can not deny that, looking at the child's eyes, he is really flustered.

Gu shengxia looked at it, but she still had a pause. The scene of last night's parting appeared from time to time, which made her feel that she should stop talking to this man at this time, so as not to make him unhappy again.

However, it backfired.

When she went up the stairs, Xi Nianchen had already seen her.

"Gu shengxia!" Cold voice, let the back to Xi Nianchen of her whole body a stiff. Almost subconsciously, as soon as Gu shengxia turns around, he sees the cold face of the man and looks at him like a sword.

The cold and stern man's whole body exudes the frightening momentum, which is even worse than last night's.

At this time, in Gu shengxia's view, like Satan from hell, the temperature in the air seems to drop with the speed of rocket because of his appearance.

Suddenly, Gu shengxia turns around and wants to leave. This kind of fear is so strong that she subconsciously wants to run away.

But then, the attractive thin lips tightly pursed, overflowing the extremely cold voice. The voice was as cold as from the cold pool. "Don't you want to save your son?"

Gu shengxia, holding the incubator in her hand, can't help but feel a little tight. She has no choice but to turn around, but she lowers her head.

"Mr. Xi, I promise you, maybe I can't wait until Ruirui Rui finishes the operation?"

Now she just wants to see Ruirui get better. As for other things, she has no heart and doesn't want to think about it.

"Oh, I said, you didn't say the qualification of the condition."

Xi Nianchen said as he approached Gu shengxia with graceful steps. When the distance between them was negative, he took out a piece of paper with an address from his pocket and lowered it to Gu shengxia's eyes.

"At eight o'clock tonight, I can't see you. Everything is invalid!"

With that, Xi Nianchen turned and walked toward the doctor's office.

At two in the afternoon, the matching results came out.

The old lady and Gu shengxia are very nervous and worried. They are very afraid of unsuccessful matching.

"Old lady, the result of the examination has come out. The match between young master and young master is successful."

"Xia Xia, it's really great that Ruirui can get better. Our lovely Rui Rui finally doesn't have to suffer from the pain any more." The old lady hugged Gu shengxia excitedly and said.

Gu shengxia is also full of smiles. He is very happy.

I don't know why, when Xi Nianchen saw Gu shengxia's happy smile, he didn't feel bored at all.

Perhaps it is aware of someone looking at themselves, Gu shengxia subconsciously look up, then see that pair of deep dark eyes.

At a glance, she understood what he meant.
