

Daddy 1580

Chapter 1580 Explaining Last Night's Events

The only feeling Nigel felt at that moment was anxiety. So, this is what made Queenie so angry last night. Was she at the same restaurant? Did she see me and Ingrid together?

Ignoring him, Queenie headed for her car, but he quickly caught up with her and continued to explain, "Queenie, last night's dinner was arranged by my mom. She didn't tell me it was a blind date, and I only found out about it when I got there. I tried to leave, but my mom wouldn't let me. I also told her that I already have someone I like and that I already have a girlfriend, but my mom won't believe me... Queenie, you can shout at me however you want." After saying that, he oppressively grabbed her arms and forbade her from leaving.

With nowhere to go, she turned to face him and revealed an angry countenance on her stunning face. "Nigel, do you see three words on my face?"

"Huh? What three words?" He was dumbfounded.

"Easy to fool," Queenie said through gritted teeth.

was used to being the one who listened to others' explanations because it was obvious that he was not good at apologizing. Therefore, he grip and sneered. "I thought you were different from Leslie, but I was wrong. You men are all the same. So, you can play all you want in the future, but don't come and his spot as he did not expect her attitude to become night, Queenie had been thinking about how men loved being surrounded by women. The more she thought about it, the angrier and more discouraged she became. She would rather never left the courtyard and had been hiding behind the trees, jealously watching have been able to do it if it had been her. Rather, she would have almost forgiven the door of the driver's seat and got in while the man beside her instantly opened the door and sat on the passenger seat her seatbelt when she swept her gaze across the man beside her and ordered, "Get won't. Unless you listen to what I have to say, I'll keep following you