

《Do angels exist》

54 Biggest Shock

Zaira came home next day and found a recording on her bed with a note that said , " I think this might help you move on . By Terrence . "

She played the recording and started crying when she heard Junnaid's voice .

" Zaira I'm sorry but I didn't tell you but Anthony ran away from the police station and killed his father . He will definitely try to kill me . You are hearing this it means he have killed me already . Don't cry too much Ok . You know I hate to see you lying on the bed unconsciously , so take care of your health . Try to forget me and move on in life . You'll find someone better than me . You have to be strong as you will be the new boss of my company . Everything that belongs to me is also yours so now my company and whole property is yours . I'm sorry for leaving you . Forget me as a small part of your life . Me and your mom , we both are angels in your life . They don't stay forever but they do exist ..." She was shocked and crying . Terrence came there later to give her food , she was quite .

" Anthony killed Junnaid , right ? " He was shocked on hearing these words from Zaira .

" How did you know about this ?" He asked .

" Junnaid mentioned in the recording ." She said sitting on bed and had red and swollen eyes due to crying .

" I'm sorry he didn't wanted you to get worried so he hid his from you ." He said and begged her forgiveness . She smiled and said , " He wants me to be strong right so I'll do as he wants ." Anthony was confused .

" He wants me to take over his company . You will have to help me ." She said looking at him .

" I..I definitely will . "

He left to do some arrangements . She looked at Junnaid's photograph that was kept near her bed and wiped her tears .

" You want me to be strong so I'll be strong enough that I don't cry for you anymore . After all you don't even trust me right ." She said with a smile .

Junnaid's death was a great shock for her . A shock that changer her . Now she didn't believe in love at all , she became really cold and pain didn't mean anything to her . She stopped crying and all the pain she hid in herself made her really quite and cold . She was strong and bold but everyone was afraid of her as she never smiled after that day . She learned everything about the company and how to manage it . She also learnt fighting skills and shooting . Terrence and May were also shocked on seeing the changes in her and they knew these changes were because of Junnaid .
