Chapter 4

NICOLE'S POV

My eyes stared into the crowd searching for my brother. Well, I caught the beta, Lucas, kissing a lady. Awww.

I kind of mind linked him, he turned and narrowed his eyes trying to locate me and then he finally saw me. I smiled and he returned with a little smile of his. He started coming towards me with the lady.

"Good day," I said.

"How was your journey?" He asked.

"Fun," I said.

I introduced him to my friends and he introduced me to the lady. I found out that she was his mate.

"Where is my brother?" I asked him.

"He is on his way here." He replied.

"Alright," I said.

"Enjoy the party girls." He said before leaving us.

XANDER'S POV

"Where is my sister?" I asked Lucas.

"Over there." He replied pointing in the direction.

I went over there and met her with her friends, a smile crept on my lips. As I got there, she saw me and ran to jump on me. I was quick to catch her.

"My sweetest brother." She said.

"How much I missed you," I said planting a kiss on her forehead. At this time my wolf was trying to tell me something but because I was just seeing my sister for years, I could not grasp what he was saying.

"And who are these pretty ladies?" I asked and they all blushed. There has been this sweet intoxicating scent that filled my nostrils but I do not know, it seems to be coming from one of her friends.

"Meet my friends, this is Ella, Stacy, Olivia, and lastly Eunice." She introduced by pointing to each of them.

"Well, you guys should know that he is my brother." She said to her friends.

They stretched their hands out and I shook them, then it came to this beautiful blonde girl. I stared into her emerald green eyes and shook hands only for sparks to erupt in our bodies, wait... She is my mate.

"Mate," I growled, now I see the reason Killian was feeling nervous.

I went closer to her.

"What is your name?" I asked her.

"Eunice." She replied shyly.

"A beautiful name for a beautiful mate," I said and she blushed.

"Oh my goodness, I can not believe this so Eunice is your mate she is my sister-in-law," Nicole said while I nodded.

"Please excuse us," I said holding my mate's hands and went away. I guess Nicole already told her about us.

CIARA'S POV

"The Alpha summons you". The guard said.

"For what?" I inquired.

"How am I supposed to know?" He said annoyed.

"Huh, sorry, let us go," I said.

I noticed we are not going to the Alpha's office but the route to the dungeon.

"Oh, did he see me?" I thought regretting my action already.

Oh, please moon goddess, save me, please.

As you already know, she does the exact opposite of my prayer. The Alpha walked in.

"Oh, hi, Ciara." He said in a mocking tone.

"Greetings to you, Alpha Xander." I greeted bowing my head.

He kept taunting and teasing me and while doing he was whipping me. Then he suddenly stopped and walked out of the dungeon.

I stood up with the newly made bruises from the whippings and left the dungeons for my house.

On getting home, I closed my door and slid down crying... The pain is way too much...

Suffering for what I did not do... Ah... My life

I drifted to sleep on the floor...

Next morning.....

Grrrrrrr! Grrrrrrr! Grrrrrrrr!

The sound of the alarm woke me up.

"Ugh... Another day." I said going into my bathroom. After doing the needful, I came out and dried my hair with a worn-out towel then I slipped into leggings that have gone crazy due to the beatings and tank top with a t-shirt.

With the injuries on my body, even a mannequin is more beautiful than me. Looking into my half-broken mirror, I saw how tattered I was, injuries that already turned purple due to lack of treatment.

Sighing, I got out of the house and walked to the packhouse. Cleaning and cooking are my daily chores, I need not be told what to do.

I prepared pasta and chicken sauce for breakfast. I ate mine and left for school.

NICOLE'S POV

Finally, my brother found his mate and that to be my best friend, Eunice. I am yet to find my mate. I cannot wait at all. Eunice is quite lucky.

I am going to school today, I already missed my friends. Going downstairs, I met Stacy, Ella, and Olivia.

"Where is Eunice?" I asked knowing where she is.

"Where else will she be?" Stacy said smirking.

"With her mate of course." Ella chipped in.

I smiled.

"Do you girls want to leave me behind?" I heard a voice from behind me, I turned to Eunice with my brother holding her by her waist.

"I was thinking you would not want to go since you are with your mate, he could teach on the bed, you know," Olivia said teasing her. Eunice blushed.

"Okay, girls enough of the teasing, let us go or we will be late," I said after giving my brother a brief hug.

"Yeah, c'mon," Eunice said carrying her bag and giving my brother a little goodbye kiss.

"I never knew math could be this possessive and touchy," Eunice said.

"You are just getting started babe," Stacy said.

As we got to school, we met Kira, Janet, and Lola.

"Oh, hey, Kira," I said to her.

"You are in school today." She said happily to me.

"I just decided to come to a lively environment not as we need it," I said shrugging.

"Meet my friends, Stacy, Ella, Eunice who is my brother's mate, and Olivia." I introduced them to her.

I noticed her countenance changed before she masked it and introduced her friends to them, since we already know Janet, she introduced Lola.

We chatted and talked while going into the cla. As we were about to enter the cla, we bumped into a disgusting-looking lady. I felt irritated and shocked, the doctors had told me to stay away from anything that will be a shock to me, I had this issue since my parents' death. With the shock, I fainted.
