Chapter 1301 honeymoon in Angola

After flying for nearly twenty hours, they finally arrived in Luanda, Angola. Lei Zhenyu let out a long sigh of relief. Ru Yu had slept on the plane twice. However, he had not been able to fall asleep because of the alternating feelings of anticipation and fear.

They did not have much luggage, but they still had to check it. The thing that shocked Lei Zhenyu the most was that he could not understand English. It was all in Portuguese. He opened his eyes wide and watched as Ru Yu communicated with the airport staff using the familiar Portuguese language.

Fortunately, everything went smoothly. There were not as many troublesome things as others. It was probably because Ru Yu had been here before and knew some of the rules of the industry. He really became a follower and Coolie. He just followed by her side and helped carry her backpack.

Finally, he walked out of the airport. In fact, the airport was so simple that it could not be described with words. Moreover, there were many mosquitoes in the terminal building. He instinctively avoided them. He was really afraid that he would be targeted by these mosquitoes and would be infected with cholera.

Compared to his fear, Ru Yu was much calmer. It was as if she did not see the mosquitoes. After completing the formalities, the two of them walked out of the airport together. Of course, they hailed a taxi. There were taxis too, but that car was really not that good. It was actually a dilapidated van.

When he was in Seoul, it was hard for him to imagine a woman like Ru Yu who loved to drive a clean and famous car to work in a dilapidated van. However, at this moment, Ru Yu acted very naturally. When she saw him standing on the side blankly.. She even urged him, "hurry up, the driver is getting impatient and won't pull US anymore. Are you waiting to walk? "

He hesitated for a moment and stuffed his bag into the back of the van. Then, he looked at the van that was about to fall apart and could not help but ask, "are you sure this car won't rot on the road? "

Ru Yu rolled her eyes at him and immediately reached out to pull his hand into the van. Then, she slammed the door shut. He could not help but exclaim, "Ms. Ru Yu, can't you be gentler? What if this car falls apart because of your action of closing the door? "

"Go, I'm too strong. I don't know how many times I have to run every day. " Ru Yu could not be bothered with him. Then, she directly used Portuguese to communicate with the driver in front. She was probably telling the driver where they were going.

Lei Zhenyu could not understand the bird language that the two of them spoke. Alright, whatever language he could not understand was called bird language. Hence, he could only look out of the car window. Only then did he realize that the car had already driven out of the airport. However, there was actually trash everywhere outside the window. The vendors in shabby clothes chased after the cars and sold them. The roads were bumpy, and the cars swayed along with them.

It was said that Angola had a lot of oil, and diamonds were the most abundant in Africa. However, it was in such a country that war raged year after year, and people were busy fleeing for their lives. No one came to build anything.

Angola was once part of Portugal, and the official language was Portuguese. Of course, it was also one of the most portuguese-speaking countries in the world. The other country was Brazil, so Angola was also known as Portugal. It was just like how Brazil was known as Portugal.

There were no large buildings along the way, and of course, Lei Zhenyu did not know where he would stay at night. Thus, when Ru Yu did not communicate with the black driver, she could not help but ask her, "where are we staying at night? I can't even see the tall buildings."

Ru Yu glared at him fiercely, and then teased, "the tall buildings are waiting for your Lei family to build them. We'll stay at the Chinese guild hall at night."

Chapter 1302 honeymoon in Angola 1

"A Chinese Guild House? A THREE-STAR ONE?" Lei Zhenyu looked outside. It was unlikely to find a four-star or five-star house in this place. Of course, he would occasionally see a well-built house, but that was a villa. It was probably a private villa built by rich people in Angola, so it would definitely not be rented out.

"PFFT..." Ru Yu could not help but laugh out loud. Then, she glanced at him and said, "you'll know when you get there. This is already considered a good place, and the rent is not cheap. It's 150 dollars a night."

A double room was a hundred and fifty dollars, a little over a thousand RMB. How could this not be a four-star or even five-star fee? Lei Zhenyu thought to himself, with such a price, it wouldn't be too bad.

However, when he arrived, he understood that it wasn't that it couldn't be too bad, but it was so bad that he couldn't even imagine it. A small, Shabby three-story House. The room was so simple that people couldn't bear to look at it. Inside, there were two single beds leaning against the wall. The Middle Aisle could probably allow one person to pass through smoothly.

Lei Zhenyu frowned. He looked at Ru Yu and immediately smiled again. He quickly stated, "not bad. It's better than I thought. It's actually a building. Moreover, this building is more sturdy. It's Sturdier than sitting in that van today. If there's no war tonight, it definitely won't collapse."

Ru Yu could not help but laugh out loud. She helped him take out a cup of water and passed it to him. "Hurry up and wash up. After that, we'll go and eat. Angola is short of water. Maybe after we eat, there won't be any water."

"If there's no water, how can we take a bath?" Lei Zhenyu asked almost instinctively. He had a habit of not taking a bath before going to bed.

"If you don't take a bath, you can just fall asleep on the bed." Ru Yu rolled her eyes at him and then reminded him lightly, "this is Angola, not Seoul. It's also not your young master Lei's apartment or the Lei family's courtyard. This is just a small hotel."

Lei Zhenyu's mouth twitched and he did not say anything. Alright, this was the che ru Yu that he had never met before. He had always thought that she should be a very particular person. She should be like him and have good habits.

Alright, alright. If Che ru Yu could endure it, then as a man, if he couldn't endure it, then he wouldn't be able to go. Thus, he could only go to the bathroom to wash up.

It was said that it was a bathroom, but to be honest, it couldn't even be compared to the equipment in the cheapest hotel in the country. The water from the simple and crude water pipes wasn't very clean, but it couldn't be disliked. It was said that in Angola, water was far more expensive than oil.

Lei Zhenyu's mind was still thinking about the information that water was more expensive than oil when he washed up. When he and ru Yu went to eat, he truly experienced what was called sky-high prices and the reality that water was far more expensive than oil.

Thought it was almost evening, nearly 20 hours of plane sitting down is not the general tired, so did not go out to find a place to eat, in this Chinese hall to solve.

Simple Fungus stir-fried meat, the only vegetable is beat cucumber, just these two dishes, Lei Zhenyu want a tomato soup, the boss said no tomatoes.

Well, there wasn't even any soup. Lei Zhenyu found it difficult to swallow the two dishes and white rice. However, he looked up at ru Yu who was sitting opposite him. She was eating very naturally. Moreover, she had completely eaten the two bowls of white rice.

Chapter 1303 honeymoon in Angola 2

Seeing that he was in a daze, ru Yu patted his shoulder and comforted him, "Zhenyu, cherish the delicious food in front of you. When we leave Luanda to look for the thousand-year-old Orchid, I don't think you'll be able to eat such a delicious meal again."

Lei Zhenyu immediately kept quiet. Alright, since she said that this was a delicious meal, what else could he say That this meal was terrible Forget it. He could not say it out loud, nor could he afford to lose face.

In the end, he gritted his teeth and ate a bowl of rice. The lady boss asked him if he wanted another bowl of rice, but he shook his head. He would rather die than eat it. This rice and this dish were really not ordinary.

In fact, a few days later, when Lei Zhenyu recalled this meal, he realized how delicious it was. It was stir-fried pork slices with black fungus, dark green cucumbers, and white rice. It was so fragrant.

After dinner, because he didn't drink soup, he went to a nearby supermarket to buy water. Actually, there was only a small store. When a small bottle of distilled water cost 7 RMB, Lei Zhenyu was immediately dumbfounded.

"How much is a liter of oil here?" Lei Zhenyu could not help but ask when he heard ru Yu say that this bottle of water cost 7 RMB.

“It’s about 3 RMB a liter. I’m talking about RMB,” ru Yu explained to Lei Zhenyu naturally. She took two bottles of water and two boxes of bread. Two boxes of milk from Holland came with him to the store owner to pay the bill.

A liter of oil cost only 3 RMB, and a bottle of water cost less than half a liter of oil, yet it cost 7 RMB. Water was indeed much more expensive than oil. Well, it was the first time he learned how precious water was in Angola.

Because he did not understand Portuguese, it was always ru Yu who dealt with the boss. He was only responsible for the payment at the side. For such a small amount of things, it cost nearly a hundred yuan. In China, it was enough to buy a box of water, a box of milk, and a dozen of bread.

When they returned to their simple hotel, the water was indeed gone. Well, according to Ru Yu, the two of them changed into pajamas and then each took a bed to sleep on.

However, Lei Zhenyu tossed and turned on the bed and fell asleep no matter how hard he tried. Therefore, he could not help but call out to the woman on the other bed, “ru Yu, ru Yu...”

“Yes,” ru Yu replied. She turned around and opened her eyes, which were a little dazed. “What’s wrong?”

“I can’t sleep,” he told the truth. The bed was so dirty, and the quilt looked as if it had not been washed for a long time. Even if it had been washed, it had not been washed clean.

He had always been a Germaphobe. To be honest, he had spent a lot of courage when he had just laid down. Now that he was lying on such a bed, he really had all kinds of worries. He did not feel comfortable at all. He kept feeling like there were many unknown bugs on the bed.

Ru Yu knew that it must be the case. Lei Zhenyu was a rich Man’s son. Although he had gone to the United States alone seven years ago to become independent, his life had always been very superior. He had never suffered any hardships.

Life could often train a person. This was indeed very reasonable. Jin Zhengnan had gone out with her and went to many backward tribes, but he had never shown any signs of discomfort This might have something to do with the fact that he was a poor child since he was young.

Ru Yu felt a little helpless, but Lei Zhenyu, who was lying on the bed, was looking at her pitifully. She sighed in her heart and finally said, “If you can’t sleep, come over. Sleep next to me.”

Chapter 1304 honeymoon in Angola 3

“Oh.” Lei Zhenyu was like a child who had gotten permission from his mother. He immediately moved from his bed to ru Yu’s bed. Ru Yu instinctively moved her body to make room for him.

Lei Zhenyu was tall and the bed was a single bed, so it was very crowded for the two of them to sleep on the same bed. Therefore, he instinctively reached out and directly pulled ru yu into his arms.

The two of them were husband and wife. After breaking through that layer of relationship, it was inevitable for them to have intimate actions. At this time, the two of them were hugging each other again. Lei Zhenyu's body almost reacted instinctively when he touched her soft and fragrant body.

"Yu'er," his thin lips whispered her name in her ear. The hot breath sprayed onto Ru Yu's neck. "Well, I want you."

Ru Yu's body trembled instinctively. She raised her slightly red face and asked in a low voice, "Now?"

"Yes," he answered in a low voice, but his hand had already reached into her pajamas. His thin lips licked her earlobe gently. "Can't I? Yu'er?"

Ru Yu's heartbeat accelerated instantly. Logically speaking, she and he were husband and wife. It was not impossible for him to want her. However, the key point was that this was a hotel. Moreover, this was a single bed. It did not seem particularly sturdy. Most importantly.. The walls of this room seemed to be a little thin. She didn't know if there were any guests staying next door.

"Can't... hold it in?" She asked carefully. Although she knew that it was very difficult for a man to hold it in, especially when he was hugging her, and his hot body was pressing tightly against her back, it made her feel that the heat had quickly spread to her entire body.

"those who can hold it in are immortals," he said through gritted teeth. It was obvious how hard it was for him to hold it in. "I'm not an immortal, honey. I can't hold it in. Can you give it to me?"

Ru Yu's face turned red when she heard this. She could not help but point at the wall and the bed. She reminded him carefully, "there might be someone next door, and this bed might not be able to withstand your torment..."

What Ru Yu meant was, 'Zhenyu, you're not a human on the bed. You're a bird in clothing. Don't you know how loud the noise you make is?'

Lei Zhenyu was furious when he heard this. He had the urge to kick the bed. However, he still retained a trace of rationality and told him not to kick it because this was not his home but a hotel.

Therefore, he quickly got up, opened the door and ran out. Ru Yu did not know why he ran out. She hesitated for a moment and followed him to get up. However, when she opened the door, Lei Zhenyu was no longer in the corridor outside.

Alright, where did this clean freak go? She sighed softly. If she had known it was so troublesome to bring a clean freak to Angola, she would not have said that she would come to Angola even if she was beaten to death. Wouldn't it be better to go to Sanya to Tahiti to the Maldives?

Just when Ru Yu was wondering if she should go downstairs to find Lei Zhenyu, Lei Zhenyu ran up in a hurry from downstairs again. He closed the door and locked it as soon as he walked in, then picked up the woman who was about to turn around.

Ru Yu was so scared that she screamed. Her whole body fluttered in the air and fell backward. The result was that Lei Zhenyu fell down with her without thinking. Both of them fell on the BED together.

Chapter 1305 honeymoon in Angola 4

Lei Zhenyu was afraid that he would overpower her, so he immediately rolled to the side. In the end, he almost rolled under the bed. He could not help but curse in a low voice, “d * Mn it, why is this bed so small? It’s not easy for two people to have sex. ”

When ru Yu heard his words, she was shocked beyond words. She had thought that Lei Zhenyu was a modest gentleman, but she did not expect him to curse in bed.

Lei Zhenyu adjusted his body and turned his head to the side. Only then did he realize that the woman beside him was lying on her side. Her beautiful collarbone was sexy and bulging. The sling skirt was pulled back to her waist by him when he picked her up just now. However, she only cared about looking at his sorry state and did not notice it at all. Her face was beautiful because of the blush. At this moment, it was actually full of temptation.

Countless flames quickly rose in his body. The big fire burned his eyes red, but she did not seem to have any reaction at all. She actually had an innocent look on her face. A little of her white teeth were exposed. She pouted her pink lips and slowly pulled them apart. She bit the corner of her lips pitifully, and her pair of big watery eyes looked straight at her.

Lei Zhenyu could not hold back anymore and did not hesitate... ..

Ru Yu had long experienced Lei Zhenyu’s powerful aura in this aspect, so she did not dare to resist. She could only obediently welcome him, afraid that he would make a loud noise and startle the guests in the next room.

... .. The door was closed, and the curtains were already drawn, so Xiao Qiao did not see what happened inside. Her relatives each imagined it in their own minds ! !

“There’s no one in the next room, ” a man who was sweating profusely said with a face full of pride.

Ru Yu finally understood why he had run downstairs just now. Well, Lei Zhenyu, who had always been a gentle and modest gentleman, actually ran downstairs to ask the lady boss if there were any guests living on either side of the room.

Lei Zhenyu, AH, Lei Zhenyu, if you don’t want your face, then I want my face. You made such a big noise tonight, not to mention the next door, even the lady boss on the first floor would probably hear you. How are we going to go out tomorrow? Ah, AH, AH, AH

Lei Zhenyu didn’t care how he was going to meet people tomorrow. He only knew that he wanted her now, in this strange Africa, in this Angola, where water was more expensive than oil, in this simple small hotel, on this single bed

He wanted her, wanted to become one with her, wanted to use this action to tell her that he could make any changes for her, even if he had been a clean freak for thirty years, he could throw it away, as long as he was with her... ..

At this moment, she was only the softest and lowest dust in the universe... ..

At this moment, he was the omnipotent God that she had met in the universe... ..

The fans were angry again. Lei Zhenyu, what's wrong with you? You and little feather have come to Africa, why aren't you showing us the boat show?

Lei Zhenyu had an innocent look on his face: Dear friends, feather and I have already acted.

The fans: But why didn't we see it?

Lei Zhenyu had an aggrieved look on his face: I'm sorry, my mother told us to close the door and the floor-to-ceiling curtains, so... ..

The fans immediately pointed their spears at Stepmother Qiao: Stepmother, what's wrong with you You're no longer in the country, you've come to Africa. I heard that Africans don't wear clothes, what are you afraid of?

Stepmother had an innocent and helpless look on her face, crying: Dear friends, this... .. Xiao Qiao really no way, God, the earth, Xiao Qiao really dare not open the door to open the curtains ah AH AH AH AH

Lei Zhenyu was afraid that he would overpower her, so he immediately rolled to the side. In the end, he almost rolled under the bed. He could not help but curse in a low voice, "d * Mn it, why is this bed so small? It's not easy for two people to have sex. "

Chapter 1307 honeymoon in Angola 6

It turned out that he did not need to be clean at all times. Even in this small hotel, even if they did not wash the water after overlapping the tenderness and intimacy, he still felt that it was incomparably perfect. He even felt that this kind of time was very good It would be even better if it could stop.

Of course, time could not stop, so the sky still had to be bright. Lei Zhenyu could not help but think somewhat wistfully, why did the sky have to be bright this day?

The Sky not only had to be bright, it also had to be bright. It was just that the two of them fought hard several times last night and did not sleep until three o'clock in the morning. Fortunately, under extreme fatigue, it was very easy to fall asleep.

This sleep lasted until daybreak. When they woke up, it was already nine in the morning. Well, although they did not want to get up, they still had to get up today.

Fortunately, the bathroom had already been filled with water. Lei Zhenyu did not care that the water here was more expensive than oil. He immediately used two large basins of water to wash his and Ru Yu's faces and bodies.

The bathroom was very small. Ru Yu originally wanted him to wash up alone before she went in, but who knew that he would directly pull her in. Then, in a few seconds, he pulled the pajamas off her body from the bed.

"I'll help you wipe your back. It's not easy to wash with your hands behind your back," he said very naturally. Seeing that her face was as red as a tomato, he could not help but chuckle. "honey, how many times have we been honest with each other? You're still so shy. We've done everything."

She was so angry that she raised her fist to hit him, but she grabbed both of her hands and pushed her against the wall. He said teasingly, "honey, I don't mind having breakfast in the bathroom."

Breakfast in the bathroom She was stunned for a moment before she came back to her senses. F * Ck, at this moment, both of them were naked... ..

F * Ck, doesn't he know how tired he is Didn't he eat his fill last night He had already eaten all of her, okay?

She glared at him fiercely and then reminded him coldly, "Lei Zhenyu, we came to Angola to look for the thousand-year-old Orchid. We didn't come all the way here to stay in a small hotel."

He smiled and then let go of her. He used a towel to wring some water to help her wipe her back. Looking at the bruises on her body, he couldn't help but feel satisfied. This was his woman. Her entire body was branded with the marks that belonged to him, Lei Zhenyu.

After the two of them finished washing up in the bathroom, they went to tidy up their luggage. Lei Zhenyu stood by the window and looked outside. He saw a black girl wearing only a bra sweeping through their dirty yard not far away There were a bunch of children on the ground in the yard. They were standing, sitting, and lying down. They were all dirty. The younger one was crying loudly, and no one paid attention to him.

Alright, he had long heard of all sorts of things in Africa, but hearing about it and seeing it were two completely different things. He could not help but think of those children in Seoul, and his heart could not help but ache.

The two of them carried their backpacks downstairs. Ru Yu was paying the bill with the lady boss. This lady boss was Chinese, and Lei Zhenyu could speak Chinese, so he felt very familiar with her, so he asked where the thousand-year-old Orchid was.

The lady boss didn't know about the thousand-year-old Orchid, but she only knew about the bread tree. She said that there were many bread trees here, and if people were hungry and didn't have anything to eat, they could eat bread trees, especially in the desert. Seeing bread trees was almost the same as seeing food.

Well, asking was equivalent to asking for nothing. Ru Yu rolled her eyes at him, then waved the guide in her hand and said, "well, I've already prepared it. There's no need to ask. We're going to rent a car now, and I hope we can rent a better car to go straight to the desert."

Chapter 1308: Honeymoon in Angola 7

Emperor Sky refused to accept this. After going through some twists and turns, they finally got in touch with an Odin car. It was a diesel version because most of Angola was diesel.

To be honest, although Lei Zhenyu knew how to drive, he used to drive flat asphalt roads. Even in the countryside of South Korea, they were all cement roads and asphalt roads, so he had never seen this kind of dirt road before.

Therefore, after renting the car, the job of driving was still Ru Yu's. As Ru Yu was always out sketching, she had driven an off-road car on all kinds of roads, so she was still able to drive this bumpy and crowded road with ease.

Alright, Lei Zhenyu was extremely ashamed. He brought her here for their honeymoon, but she was the one who took care of him all the way. It made him feel ashamed. Hence, he carefully told Ru Yu, "why don't you let her try?"

Ru Yu glared at him and said, "This road is not easy to drive. You should sit down first. I will naturally give it to you when the road is easy to drive. I am not trying to discourage you. This indeed requires experience. I am already familiar with the road, but you have not driven it before. If you flip over or something, wouldn't we be in trouble?"

Alright, after hearing what she said, he did not dare to say anything more. At this time, safety was indeed more important than anything else. His Damn self-esteem could only go to hell. As long as he could safely arrive with her, even if he lost face, he would lose face.

There were very few trees on the roadside in Angola. This was probably due to the many years of war. At that time, most of the trees had been cut down for the sake of the war, and most of the roadside was bustling with people, groups by groups. Some were standing or sitting, with towels, shoes, and socks in their hands. When there was a traffic jam, they would stand in the middle of the traffic and peddle their wares. Of course, they also wanted to idle around with things on their heads.

On both sides of the road, even the streets were filled with garbage. There were many flattened cans and plastic bottles. Lei Zhenyu could not help but feel a wave of sadness in his heart. In Seoul, these were all recyclable garbage. Logically speaking, they should be classified into garbage cans.

The suffering caused by war was not something that could be imagined by living in a peaceful world. If he had not witnessed it with his own eyes, Lei Zhenyu would never have dreamed that Angola would be so poor.

“Poor?” Ru Yu could not help but laugh when she heard his words. Then, she shook her head and sighed lightly. “I’ll take you to the beach at night. I’ll take you to see the villas of rich people and have a lobster feast. Then, you’ll know if this place is really poor.”

“Is lobster expensive?” Lei Zhenyu could not help but remind her when he heard about the lobster feast. “In this city where mineral water is sky-high, lobster is probably even more unforeseeable, right? I think it’s better not to eat it.”

“Hehehe, lobster is not as expensive as fruits and vegetables.” Ru Yu laughed. Then, she shook her head and said, “do you know that an apple here costs 25 RMB? But lobster is only 60 RMB per kilogram, which is 30 RMB per kilogram. So, you can eat lobster with an open stomach.”

Alright, Lei Zhenyu didn’t say anything. He immediately looked out of the car window. After a bumpy journey, the road surface became flat. Then, he actually saw a statue, and that statue seemed to have some impression.

He pointed at the statue and asked in puzzlement, “that looks like a Chinese statue, right? Why did it move to Angola?”

“PFFT...” ru Yu could not help but laugh out loud. Then, she quickly explained to him, “that’s not a Chinese statue, that’s a statue of the president of Angola. It’s just that that statue looks a little similar to the statue of a certain hero in China from afar.”

Chapter 1309 honeymoon in Angola 8

Ru Yu originally wanted to stay in Luanda for another night because Lei Zhenyu had not experienced the life of a rich person in Angola. She said that she would take him to see the seaside villa and eat Sashimi lobster at night.

Lei Zhenyu curled his lips and said, “forget it. Let’s go to the desert earlier. We can eat lobster and other things anytime in Seoul. The key is the thousand-year-old Orchid. We definitely won’t see it in Seoul.”

Alright, since he requested to go to the desert as soon as possible, she would take him there. However, she was a little worried. He was a young man who had never experienced hardship. When they reached the desert, would he be able to endure the hardship?

The car gradually drove away from the city and slowly walked towards the countryside. Actually, Luanda was not big to begin with. Even the capital city was not that big.

Of course, after entering some villages and towns, what they saw was even more desolate. When ru Yu’s car drove past a place with more people, she saw a few wooden shelves built up. Then, there were things on the shelves to sell. Lei Zhenyu asked curiously if this was similar to their Korean roadside store.

Although this road was dirt and full of potholes, there were people selling things. Although the people selling things were not in the house, but in a relatively spacious place, he felt that in a backward country like Angola.. This was probably the case for the store.

However, ru Yu curled her lips and said, “No, this is a market in a town in Angola. Don’t you see many people gathering together? Everyone is exchanging their own things for the things they need.”

Market Lei Zhenyu was shocked and immediately rolled down the car window to look outside. Sure enough, it was completely different from the market he had been to. This place did not look like a town at all.

Even the houses were on some tall and short hills. There was one room here and one room there. Of course, he did not know if the house could be lived in.

“Of course they can be occupied.” Ru Yu rolled her eyes at him. “That’s how they lived. The houses in this town are not bad. This place is not far from Luanda. When you get to the countryside, you will know what kind of houses rural people live in.”

As Ru Yu spoke, she stopped the car and took out two glasses of water and threw one to Lei Zhenyu. “drink some water? Do you want to buy anything? This market seems to be filled with meat from all kinds of animals and roasted breadfruit. What do you want to eat?”

Lei Zhenyu shook his head. He really didn’t know if he could eat the food in this market. Those people who sold roasted meat simply built a pit and placed an iron rack on top of it to roast the food. As for the meat, he didn’t even see that it had been washed.

He would rather starve than eat such a dirty thing. He might not get sick if he was hungry, but if he ate that thing, his body might be able to withstand it. He would definitely get sick.

Ru Yu saw the expression on his face and knew that he definitely wouldn’t want it. Fortunately, there was a lot of stuff in the car. After all, when she left Luanda, she bought a lot of things from a slightly larger supermarket.

Ru Yu drank half a bottle of water in one go Lei Zhenyu could not help but remind her, “drink it sparingly. Let’s not talk about how expensive the water here is. I’m worried that when we reach the countryside, there won’t be a small supermarket. Even if we have the money, we won’t be able to buy water. You can use the oil however you want. Anyway, the oil is cheap.”

“PFFT...” ru Yu burst out laughing when she heard his words Then, she shook her head and said, “fine, forget it. The oil is cheap, but when we reach the countryside, it’s very difficult to find a gas station. As for the water, when we reach the countryside, we might be able to find a well that they dug by themselves in a farmer’s house. We can fetch water.”

Chapter 1310 honeymoon in Angola

Lei Zhenyu heard her say this. Well, he was a rookie. He had never been to such a backward place before. This was the first time he had ever been to such a place.

They went to the real countryside at night. This time, Lei Zhenyu really saw the so-called House. It was actually a small space surrounded by some wooden strips. It was square or round. The family lived in a space The place against the wall was piled up with wooden boards. It was not known whether it was to make a bed or not, but it was always piled up or to sleep.

The family that they stayed in was relatively smaller, but they had a few children. The rural people in Angola were not as simple as you might think. They also knew that people came to collect fees.

Fortunately, he and ru Yu did not lack money, so they were very generous. The only thing that they did not expect was that the dry rations that he and ru Yu had moved from the car were immediately robbed the moment they entered the house.

Well, in the end, the family ate their fill, but he and ru Yu did not even have food to eat. Ru Yu had to tell the family that they had not eaten yet. Since they had eaten her food.. Could they find something to fill their stomachs.

Fortunately, the family didn't eat their food irrationally. Instead, they gladly agreed. However, they didn't have much to eat, so they picked some fruits from a big tree at the entrance of their house.

Lei Zhenyu didn't know what this was called at first, because this kind of thing looked like a fruit. The top part was similar to the persimmon peppers in the market, but the bottom part was like a kidney.

Ru Yu pulled his hand and sat down She whispered to him, "these are probably cashews. The cashews we usually buy in the mall are all processed. We really don't know how to eat the ones we pick from the trees. We'll see how they do it later. We can also learn something about the natural environment. "

After hearing what she said, Lei Zhenyu suddenly understood why she stopped moving things from the car. It turned out that she wanted to eat other people's cashews. Of course, if the things in their car kept moving down, they probably would not be able to move it a few times.

This Angolian family was helping them bake cashews. In fact, they were in a pit in front of the courtyard. They used fire to burn the outer skin of the cashews and then peeled out the core of the cashews for them to eat.

Of course, it was very delicious. The core of the cashew was hot and a little hot. Lei Zhenyu tossed it in his palm a few times before he dared to put it into his mouth. He ate it with relish.

Ru Yu looked at him from the side. At this moment, Lei Zhenyu didn't know if he was hungry or not, but he actually forgot that the things that were baked in the pit were very dirty. According to his standards, it was definitely unhygienic, but he actually ate it just like that.

It was said that the environment made people, but this saying was actually not false at all. No matter how particular a person was, once they reached a certain environment, at a certain point in time, at a certain point in time.. They would also throw away some of their so-called good habits because of their desire to survive.

At night, they naturally slept in this Angolans'house. The whole family was squeezed together. Ru Yu and Lei Zhenyu occupied a corner. Of course, the Angolans did not have extra blankets and bedsheets for them because they did not have enough to cover themselves.

Fortunately, they had them in their cars, and it was not cold in Angola, so they just took a thin bed jar and came down.

Xiao Qiao recommended a good friend's strong female essay: Evil Phoenix Defying the heavens: The alluring killer concubine

The relatives could enter the title of the book in the search, or enter the author's pen name, 'no fear, no worry' , and they would be able to find it. It was a very beautiful essay.
