Chapter 1401 merciless snowstorm 3

Speaking of which, Lei Zhenyu..

This afternoon, the Lei family had indeed gone to the northern land to hold the foundation laying ceremony. Because today's date was calculated by Lei Taihe's people using the yin-yang Eight Trigrams, the foundation laying ceremony was set at three o'clock in the afternoon, after the actual start of the Spring Festival.

In fact, this land had been prepared for a long time, and the public shelter had been built for a long time. In the past, they had been waiting for the approval, so they had waited for three to four months. Now, they had finally received the approval.

The foundation laying ceremony was originally scheduled to be held at three o'clock in the afternoon. However, not long after they had lunch, they saw the weather news saying that there might be a snowstorm in the afternoon. Therefore, Lei Zhenyu had people arrange it in advance. Then, the foundation laying ceremony was moved to two thirty in advance.

However, the foundation laying ceremony was still so long, and there were so many leaders speaking. So when the snowstorm arrived at three o'clock, the foundation laying ceremony had not yet completely ended and was entering its end.

Fortunately, it was not very big at the beginning. After the foundation laying ceremony was over, everyone had to hurry to the public shelter to hide from the snowstorm. Lei Zhenyu went to send off some leaders. Because the snowstorm was coming, they wanted to rush back as soon as possible.

However, the snowstorm came faster and fiercer than they had imagined. On the way home, he sent the director of the planning bureau, but it was blocked by the snowstorm. He couldn't go forward. Fortunately, there was a coffee shop not far from the roadside. He immediately brought the director of the planning bureau to the coffee shop and said that he could only wait for the snowstorm to pass before he left.

The director of the planning bureau even joked with him, saying, "the snow is auspicious for a bumper year. Today's foundation laying ceremony means that it will snow. This means that this piece of land will sell for a good price when it is developed next year. "

Lei Zhenyu didn't know whether to laugh or cry when he heard what the director of the planning bureau said. In fact, most directors drove their own cars or drivers, but the director of the planning bureau didn't know how to drive. However, his driver had something to do before the foundation laying ceremony and left. He probably didn't expect the foundation laying ceremony to be brought forward and thought that it would start at three o'clock. After that, it would be impossible for him to rush over. After all, the snowstorm had blocked the road.

Lei Zhenyu was sitting in the coffee shop, but his heart was on the construction site. Seeing that the snowstorm was getting stronger, he became more and more anxious. However, it was useless to be anxious because it was impossible to leave the house in this kind of weather.

The director of the planning bureau was drinking coffee. He stood up and went to the door to look at the snowstorm outside. Coincidentally, a call came in. He stood at the door and took out his phone to answer the call. Before he could reach his ear in a hurry, he was rushed in by the people outside, and then.. He directly knocked the other person back a few steps, and his phone..

His phone was the most miserable because not only was it knocked to the ground, but it was also ruthlessly stepped on a few times. Those people were practically pushing him in, so they did not deliberately step on his phone No one noticed the situation under their feet.

Well, his phone was sacrificed so heroically, and it died without any value. He had no choice but to go to the coffee shop to pick up the phone and call, but the front desk of the coffee shop was full of people, all waiting to make a call.

The owner of the coffee shop also brought out a big TV to let everyone know the latest situation in Seoul when the blizzard hit. The TV said that the north and west side suffered the most losses, while the south and east side suffered slightly less.

Lei Zhenyu found out on the TV that the public shelter at his construction site and the tempered glass platform that he had just built a few days ago had collapsed. Moreover, it had crushed people to death. He could no longer sit still and immediately pushed open the door of the coffee shop and walked out.

Chapter 1402 the heartless man is even more heartless

The security guard stopped him and said that he could not go out at this time because he could not walk steadily at all. No one could walk on the entire road, let alone drive.

He was so angry that tears came to his eyes. He said that something had happened at his construction site. He wanted to go back and see how the workers were doing. Only then did the security guard learn that he was the president of the Lei Corporation, but he still did not let him go.

The Security Guard said that he had received a notice from the higher-ups that the service places had to provide free refuge for pedestrians. Once the pedestrians entered their site, they could not be casually let out. Otherwise, the security guard would have to bear the responsibility Therefore, the main entrance of the coffee shop could only be entered but not exited. He asked for his forgiveness. Moreover, not letting him out was also for his safety. If he went out now, it would be tantamount to sending himself to death.

Lei Zhenyu could not go out, and his cell phone was broken. Therefore, he could only go to the queue to make a call. It was his turn after taking a long photo. He first called the construction site because something had happened at the construction site. However, he made three calls in a row. Two of them could not be connected, and one of them was simply turned off.

He was burning with anxiety. It just so happened that one person was only allowed to dial the number three times. There were only two cell phones in the coffee shop, and there had been too many people taking refuge recently. At this moment, the signal in the north was paralyzed again. The cell phone could not be connected at all, so everyone was staring at the two landlines.

He dialed the number of the workers at the construction site three times. There was no other way. After all, the information from the other side was so bad. Five people were dead, and those that were not found were counted as missing industries.

Lei Zhenyu was worried about the workers, but he did not know that he was also counted as missing industries. Because no one thought that he would personally drive the director of the planning bureau. After all, every director had their own car, so it was self-defeating.

He did not get a call, so he had to line up again. The television was saying that the situation in the West was also very bad. There were houses near Yun Heng Building that had collapsed. He could not help but be shocked. Only then did he remember that he had not called ru Yu. It was all because of the big incident at the construction site that he was confused.

However, he also thought that Ru Yu was in Yun Heng Building and in the studio. She would not go out after seeing the blizzard, so she should be safe. After all, she was in a safe environment.

Of course, Lei Zhenyu did not expect that the television news would say that something had happened at the Lei family's foundation laying ceremony. Because he was on the missing list, ru Yu ignored the blizzard and came to find him.

When Lei Zhenyu queued up again for the big call, the blizzard had gradually subsided. He called the construction site twice. This time, one of them was connected. It said that only two people had died, and the other three were unconscious. At this moment, they had already woken up. There were still some people who could not be contacted, but some of them had tried their best to crawl out.

He knew that the death accident was not that big, but his heart still hurt. After all, they were his employees, and those were all fresh and fresh lives?

He called Ru Yu in such pain, but no one answered the phone at the studio. Only then did he remember that it was probably caused by the power failure. The coffee shop also had a power failure, and the televisions were all used for reserve electricity.

He spoke nicely to the front desk lady again, saying that he was calling his wife and that he could call her again after getting permission. He quickly dialed ru Yu's cell phone, thinking that it would be best if there was a signal on the west side.

However, he was soon disappointed because the message he received was that his cell phone was turned off. Ru Yu's cell phone was turned off, but he could not contact her.

Fortunately, the snowstorm had stopped. He felt a little comforted in his heart, thinking that ru Yu should be fine. After all, Yun Heng building was completely fine.

Chapter 1403: Merciless snowstorm

Four and a half hours later, the signal in the North was finally repaired. It was already past seven o'clock in the evening. Lei Zhenyu borrowed the phone of the Director of the planning bureau to call his brother and briefly told him about the situation at the construction site. Of course, he was not at the construction site in person, so the situation was only reported on television. He would have to go to the site to find out.

Lei Zhensheng was very scared. When he heard his voice, he knew that he was fine, so he quickly said that it was good that he was fine. It was good that he was fine, which scared the whole family.

After hanging up Lei Zhensheng's call, he called Ru Yu's cell phone again. It was still switched off, so he could only call the Lei family's number. He wanted to know if she had gone home or if there was any news.

The call went through. It rang for about three to four seconds before someone picked up. The person who picked up the call was actually Lan Ruoshui. He was obviously stunned. He could not help but blurt out, "Miss Lan, I remember that you moved out. Why are you at our house again?"

"I came back to get my things." Lan Ruoshui was very unhappy with Lei Zhenyu's attitude. Then, she said sarcastically, "Do you think I want to stay here? It's just that people don't leave guests. I have no way to leave."

"then let ru Yu answer the phone." Lei Zhenyu was not in the mood to waste time with her. Besides, Lan Ruoshui was telling the truth. It was such a big snowstorm in the afternoon. It would be strange if she could leave?

"She hasn't come back yet. Don't you know how to call her cell phone?" Lan Ruoshui said angrily. She did not have a good impression of Lei Zhenyu. From the beginning, she did not have a good impression of him since she knew that he was her uncle.

"Her cell phone is switched off. I can't get through." Lei Zhenyu quickly asked, "then did she call back? Do you know her situation?"

At this moment, he couldn't care less about Lan Ruoshui. Anyway, she was an irrelevant person who was chased out by Lei Zhensheng.

"No," Lan Ruoshui answered straightforwardly and added, "you already said that she can't get through to her cell phone. How can she call back?"

"Oh, I know." Lei Zhenyu thought it made sense, so he quickly added, "Then Tell my dad that I won't go home for now. I'll go to the west to find ru Yu. If ru Yu calls back, tell her that I went to the west to find her."

"got it." Lan Ruoshui said nonchalantly and then hung up the phone.

Not to mention that she was going to leave later, even if she didn't leave, she wouldn't be so kind. Besides, Che Ru Yu was going to the north with Jin Zhengnan to look for Lei Zhenyu, while Lei Zhenyu was going to the West to look for Che ru Yu. She would let them look for each other and kill them!

Lei Zhenyu returned the phone to the director of the planning bureau Then he said apologetically, "I'm going to the West to look for my wife. I don't know what her current situation is. It's just that her phone is turned off, and no one is picking up the phone at her place of work. I'm worried that she might be stuck like me on the road. I'm just afraid that there's no restaurant nearby. If she's stuck in the car for a long time, it'll be troublesome."

The director of the planning bureau nodded and said in a low voice, "it's all my fault. Now that the situation at your construction site is like this, and your wife can't be contacted, hurry up and go. I'll wait here until the snow on the road has been shoveled clean and call the driver to pick me up."

Lei Zhenyu nodded and said goodbye to the director of the planning bureau. Then, he quickly walked towards the door. The security guard advised him to wait for a while before leaving, but he really couldn't wait any longer. Fortunately, the snowstorm had already stopped, so the security guard didn't force him to stay here.

Chapter 1404: Merciless snowstorm

Ru Yu and Jin Zhengnan walked for a few kilometers and finally arrived at the road that led there. The road there was gradually shoveling snow, but it had not been completely shoveled out yet.

Jin Zhengnan frowned and said, "if we walk like this, we will probably walk until dawn when we reach the north. Why don't we drive there? My car is over there. Let's wait a little longer. I think the snow on this road will be almost completely shoveled out soon. At this moment, there are already many snow shovels working, and this road is the main road."

Ru Yu nodded. She also felt that it was unrealistic to walk to the north, so she followed Jin Zhengnan into his car. Jin Zhengnan's face was pale, and there were faint beads of sweat on his forehead.

"Zhengnan, let me send you back first." Seeing that, Ru Yu knew that his body probably could not take it. Thinking of how he had just gone for surgery for half a month, and how he had come to find her despite the snowstorm.. Thinking of how difficult it was to walk in the snow with him just now, her heart could not help but clench.

"It's okay." He wiped the sweat on his forehead with a towel, then forced a smile and looked at her sideways. "I guess I got a little anxious after walking a few kilometers in the snow. I'll be fine after resting for a while."

"Are you hungry then? There's a store over there. I'll go see if there's anything to eat." Ru Yu pointed out the window. There was a store about seven hundred meters away.

Jin zhengnan nodded. "okay, you go ahead. I'll wait for you in the car."

Ru Yu immediately opened the car door and got out. She didn't turn back because she was in a hurry to buy something. If she turned back, she would see that Jin Zhengnan was pressing his hand on his chest and then taking out painkillers from his pocket.

There was food in the store, but because the store was closed, there were no cakes or bread. There was only cold food. Ru Yu said she wanted to make two cups of instant noodles. It was so cold and she wanted to eat something hot.

The store owner smiled bitterly and said, "there's no electricity and no air. I don't know if the gas pipe is turned off or something is wrong, so there's no way to make instant noodles for you."

Hibiscus bought a few bread and cakes and a few boxes of milk. When she returned to the car, Jin Zhengnan looked much better and there were no beads of sweat on his forehead. She finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Although the breads and cakes were cold, and the milk was also cold, the two of them were indeed hungry, so they could not care less and could only eat something first.

Not long after Jin Zhengnan's surgery, he did not eat much. However, Ru Yu was so hungry that she could eat an entire cow, so she ate two breads and three cakes, and drank a box of milk.

"You seem to be eating more than before." Jin Zhengnan noticed that she was eating, and could not help but say, "I remember that you did not have such a big appetite in the past."

"really?" Ru Yu was slightly stunned for a moment, then she smiled and said, "I should be hungry today. It's almost eight o'clock at night now. Normally, dinner is usually around seven o'clock."

Jin Zhengnan was stunned. She was just hungry, but she could eat so much. He remembered that there were times when she ate dinner even later, but she did not seem to be able to eat so much?

Could it be that she was in a bad mood when she lived with him in the past, so she did not even have an appetite?

Now that she was married to Lei Zhenyu, she was in a good mood, so her appetite increased greatly. So everything tasted good?

He thought that she must have fallen in love with Lei Zhenyu. Otherwise, she would not have ignored the snowstorm to look for him.

Chapter 1405 the merciless snowstorm is even more merciless

After eating the bread and cake, Ru Yu got out of the car to check the surrounding terrain. It seemed that the snow plow had not arrived yet, and she was very anxious to just sit and wait.

Fortunately, Jin Zhengnan's phone had a radio function. She turned his phone to the radio channel, and then the situation after the snowstorm started to spread.

The host on the radio was saying that the road in the north had been closed because houses and trees had collapsed, and the number of deaths in the north was increasing. According to incomplete statistics, the number of deaths had increased to eight, and there were still people who had not climbed out of a construction site. No one knew when the rescue team would arrive, because the rescue team could only wade through the snow with difficulty.

No one had climbed out yet. When Ru Yu heard the news, her heart instantly tensed up. Lan Ruoshui said that Lei Zhenyu was trapped under the snow, so did Lei Zhenyu not come out of the snow?

"Zhengnan, I can't wait here any longer." Ru Yu said a little anxiously, "I have to go and take a look. I won't wait for the snowplow to take a detour. I'll walk. I'll take this mountain road that leads directly to the north. The radio said that the road in the north will probably be closed until tomorrow morning. I can't wait until tomorrow morning."

“Then I’ll go with you.” Jin Zhengnan saw that she insisted on walking So he hurriedly pushed open the car door and followed her out. “Ru Yu, this mountain road is close. It’s about five kilometers to the square in the north. It’s just a very small cement road that was developed thirty years ago around the mountain. Now, almost no cars have passed through this road. It’s already abandoned and very difficult to walk on. You have to climb the mountain again. I don’t trust you to go alone.”

“You can’t go,” ru Yu could not help but raise her voice by two decibels and shouted, “Zhengnan, your body needs to rest now. Hurry back to the car. Even if the road is blocked, you still have a lot of gas. Turn on the heater and wait slowly. Or you can sleep. Tomorrow morning, you can drive back after the snow plow is done.”

“If you want to go, I will go.” Jin Zhengnan insisted and said very stubbornly, “that mountain road is difficult to walk on, and it is an abandoned mountain road. Now that it is covered by heavy snow, you can’t see the road. What if you accidentally step on it and miss it?”

“If you miss it, then you miss it. If you follow, then you miss it.” Ru Yu was a little angry. She absolutely could not let Jin Zhengnan follow him, because he should be in the hospital with his current body.

“I followed you because I’m afraid that if you miss it or if you slip, I can pull you up,” Jin zhengnan quickly explained Then he quickly added, “just like the time we were in the Himalayas, there was a time when you missed it and almost fell off the cliff. In the end, I pulled you up. Have you forgotten?”

“I haven’t forgotten.” Ru Yu looked at him and sighed softly, “I really haven’t forgotten. But, Zhengnan, the situation now is different. You were strong back then, but now you... you should rest well. You don’t have to care about me.”

“How can I not care about you?” Jin Zhengnan said in a hurried tone. Then, he looked at her and said, “Ru Yu, it’s very dangerous for you to walk all the way there. How can I be at ease to let you walk there alone?”

“Jin Zhengnan, whether you are at ease or not, my matter has nothing to do with you now.” Ru Yu was really angry She could not help but raise her voice and said, “we are not related at all now? I am Lei Zhenyu’s wife. You don’t have to be so nice to me. Moreover, I will not come back to eat your grass.”

Chapter 1407 merciless snowstorm

The roads in the north were closed. Lei Zhenyu could only cross these roads on foot. However, the road he took was wide, so it was not too difficult to walk. Moreover, there was only a section of the road that was closed, which was only a few kilometers The snow on this road was not as thick as the mountain road.

When he met a snow plow on the road, he picked up the phone of the snow plow driver and called home to ask if ru yu had called back How was her situation in the West now?

Achang said that ru Yu had not called all this time Jin Zhengnan called, but Lan Ruoshui picked up. Lan Ruoshui said that Jin Zhengnan asked when she would be back.

Lei Zhenyu heard Achang's words and immediately felt that Lan Ruoshui's words were definitely exaggerated. Perhaps she was jealous of ru Yu. Now that Jin Zhengnan did not want her anymore, she hated ru Yu, so she deliberately said that Ru Yu was still in the west.

After hanging up Achang's call, he used the snow plow driver's phone to call Che Qixuan to ask for news about ru Yu. Che Qixuan said that he was also in a hurry. Ru Yu called him before four o'clock. It seemed that she was very safe. However, four hours had passed and she did not call again. Moreover, her phone was turned off.

Lei Zhenyu said that he was worried and wanted to go to the West to look for ru Yu. Che Qixuan said that he would go too. Now that the snowstorm had stopped, the road was a little difficult to walk on. However, the wheels of his SUV could be attached with chains. If he could drive in the snow, he would immediately drive out. He asked Lei Zhenyu to keep in touch with him at all times.

Lei Zhenyu thought to himself, my phone is broken. Now, only one card is good. How can I keep in touch with Che Qixuan? I have to hurry and buy a phone?

Therefore, he bought a phone from the driver of the snow plow. The driver immediately shook his head and said that he definitely would not buy his phone. He had to keep in touch with his family at all times. After all, the snow plow was a little dangerous. His family was also worried about his safety.

Lei Zhenyu had no choice but to go down this road. Then, he walked a difficult road and came to the street. He found a phone shop. Fortunately, the shop was still open, so he quickly bought a new phone. However, it was the model of the mobile phone that the shop owner was using. He then forced the shop owner to return the battery in his mobile phone to him because the battery in the new mobile phone was out of battery.

He bought a mobile phone and called Ru Yu's number. It was still switched off, so he quickly contacted Che Qixuan. Che Qixuan said that he was already on the way and asked for his location. Then, he asked him to wait for him there. He said that he would immediately drive his car with a chain to pick him up.

While Lei Zhenyu was waiting for Che Qixuan's car, he called his elder brother to ask if he had any news about ru Yu. Lei Zhensheng said in a bad mood, "how could I have any news about her? Besides, she wouldn't have called me, would she?" "It's too late for her to hate me. I don't really like her either. If she hadn't come to our Lei family, Shaofen wouldn't have divorced me."

Lei Zhenyu didn't know whether to laugh or cry when he heard his brother's words. Then, he couldn't help but remind him, "sister-in-law divorced you because your mistress surnamed Jin was pregnant. At that time, you were the one who wanted a divorce. You believed that that woman was pregnant with your child. Instead of finding a reason for it, you blamed ru Yu instead. Big Brother, you're still a CEO. Why are you so unreasonable?"

Chapter 1408: Merciless Snowstorm 10

"Anyway, if it wasn't for Che Ru Yu, Shaofen wouldn't have known about my infertility. If she didn't know, she wouldn't have divorced me," Lei Zhensheng said with some annoyance. "Alright, let's forget about the past. I won't hold a grudge against her, but I really don't have any news about her. Why don't you hurry up and find her? Don't tell me that you'll only find her when Dongfang Mo comes knocking on your door. Is there a husband like you? Aren't you worried that you can't even contact your wife?"

Lei Zhenyu had initially called with a glimmer of hope to find out more about ru Yu. He did not expect to be reprimanded by his big brother instead. Moreover, his big brother seemed to have been behaving abnormally recently. His words were also contradictory.

He was thinking that women had menopause. He did not know if men also had menopause. And his big brother, Lei Zhensheng, had been behaving like a man in menopause recently.

He became irritated when he did not hear any news about ru Yu. Then, he recalled that he had just told his big brother that he had hit his sister-in-law, Cai Shaofen, and that his sister-in-law and ru Yu seemed to be on good terms. He called her to ask about it.

Cai Shaofen's call was answered in an instant. Lei Zhenyu quickly asked about ru Yu's news and said, "sister-in-law, has ru Yu called you? Have you heard from her?"

"Ru Yu called me around three o'clock in the afternoon. At that time, she was still in her studio. What's wrong?" Cai Shaofen's voice was filled with concern. "What happened to Ru Yu?"

"Oh, nothing. It's just that her cell phone can't be reached." Lei Zhenyu quickly said, "then I won't bother sister-in-law. If you hear from Ru Yu, just call me."

"Okay," Cai Shaofen agreed on the phone and then reminded Lei Zhenyu, "don't worry too much. Ru Yu is so independent. She spends a lot of time outside sketching. She's in good health. She should be fine."

After hanging up Cai Shaofen's call, Lei Zhenyu thought about it. Ru Yu seemed to have a good relationship with that Lin Yuxin, and he didn't have Lin Yuxin's number because he usually didn't contact these friends of Ru Yu.

Lan Ruoshui should have that Lin Yuxin's number, but she didn't have Lan Ruoshui's number, and he didn't know if Jin Zhengnan had it. After all, Jin Zhengnan and ru Yu had been husband and wife for three years, and when Jin Zhengnan and ru Yu were dating.. At that time, Lin Yuxin and ru Yu, as well as Lan Ruoshui, seemed to have a good relationship.

Lei Zhenyu thought about it and hesitated whether to call Jin Zhengnan or not. At this time, Che Qixuan's car had already arrived. When he saw him, he immediately opened the car door and shouted to him, "hurry up and get in the car!"

"Oh," Lei Zhenyu replied and looked at Che Qixuan's car. Damn, this car was really a special snowland vehicle with a chain. He didn't know that Che Qixuan had such a high-end car.

"I just called Xun Jingying. She said that ru Yu left at three in the afternoon," Che Qixuan said anxiously. "If ru Yu didn't go back to the Lei family, I think she probably went to look for you because you were listed as missing at the construction site. If I didn't receive your call, I would have thought that something happened to you."

"Ah?" Lei Zhenyu heard Che Qixuan's words and became anxious. Then he asked nervously, "then what should we do? Where should we go to find ru yu? Which road will she take?"

"I don't know either." Che Qixuan shook his head and said, "it's almost nine o'clock in the evening now. It has been more than five hours since she walked out of Yunheng building. We have no idea where she went or what kind of environment she is in now."

Chapter 1409 merciless snowstorm 11

"Then, Daddy, do you know the phone number of Ru Yu's good friend, Lin Yuxin?" Lei Zhenyu turned his head to look at the car that was driving. He could not help but admire the car. He used to think that he did not know anything. He did not expect that she could even drive such a snowmobile.

"I don't know," Che Qixuan answered truthfully. He did not contact Ru Yu's friend. Moreover, that girl, Ru Yu, did not bring her friends home. Although he knew that there was a person like Lin Yuxin, he had never contacted her. Because nothing had happened to Ru Yu, he could find Ru Yu anytime in the past.

"Then what should we do?" Lei Zhenyu was really anxious. "I remember that Ru Yu and Lin Yuxin are very close. I wonder if Lin Yuxin knows about Ru Yu's latest situation, even if it was two hours ago."

"Well, I guess Jin Zhengnan knows Lin Yuxin's number." Che Qixuan thought for a moment and said, "when Jin Zhengnan and Ru Yu were dating, he often invited Ru Yu and her friends to eat together or something in order to chase after Ru Yu. The people who often eat together should have contact numbers, right?"

"Oh, then I'll call Jin Zhengnan." Lei Zhenyu nodded. Although he didn't like Jin Zhengnan and had never contacted him, Jin Zhengnan was, after all, the president of a company. Moreover, they had once pretended to exchange business cards at a social occasion, so he still knew Jin Zhengnan's phone number.

He immediately took out Jin Zhengnan's business card from his bag and called the number on it. The call was quickly picked up, and it rang for a few seconds before it was picked up.

Lei Zhenyu did not wait for the other party to speak before he spoke first, "Hello, Mr. Jin, do you know Ru Yu's friend..."

"Zhenyu, is that Zhenyu?" Ru Yu's voice was heard quickly and immediately interrupted Lei Zhenyu's unfinished words.

Lei Zhenyu was stunned because it was actually Ru Yu's voice from Jin Zhengnan's phone. He was wondering if the line was crossed when Ru Yu's voice was heard again quickly.

"Zhenyu, are you alright?" Ru Yu's voice sounded like she was crying due to her excitement.

"Ah, I'm fine." Lei Zhenyu finally came back to his senses and quickly asked, "Ru Yu, where are you now? Is it Jin Zhengnan's ward?"

Because Jin Zhengnan was in the hospital, he could only think of Jin Zhengnan's ward. After all, Ru Yu was currently receiving Jin Zhengnan's phone call.

“No, we’re on a mountain road.” Ru Yu finally cried, and she was almost unable to speak. “Zhenyu, quickly bring the rescue team over. Zhengnan, he... he can’t make it... quickly bring the rescue team over...”

“What?” Lei Zhenyu was so shocked that he almost jumped up. He hurriedly asked, “Ru Yu, are you on that mountain road? Are you injured?”

“We’re...” Ru Yu told Lei Zhenyu where she and Jin Zhengnan were, and then she said, “be quick, Zhenyu, you have to be quick...”

“I know, daddy and I will come right away. I will inform Achang and his men to hurry to that road.” Lei Zhenyu comforted Ru Yu on the phone. “You have to hold on, you have to hold on... we’ll be there soon...”

Chapter 1410 the merciless snowstorm was even more merciless

Speaking of which, Ru Yu walked alone towards the mountain road. Because she was anxious about Lei Zhenyu, she did not walk slowly. Although the snow on the mountain road was very thick, the snowstorm was gone, and she just walked forward on the snow.

However, the heavy snow had blocked the road surface. She could only determine where the road was based on the branches that still popped out from both sides. Then, she found a small tree to break off and use it as a pathfinder stick. She was like a blind man walking on the road.

At first, it was relatively smooth because there were branches on both sides. However, after walking for about half of the distance, which was a little more than three kilometers, she suddenly could not see any trees in front of her. It was a vast expanse of whiteness. She could not determine how to walk on the road. Therefore, she could only use the tree trunk to continue exploring.

However, it seemed that there were roads all around her. She sighed softly and did not dare to walk to the side. Therefore, she walked along the straight road. She thought that with this tree trunk, she should be fine.

However, who knew that when she walked to a place where the tree trunk was clearly in front of the road, she would instinctively slip and roll down the mountain road that she had just passed. She was so scared that she closed her eyes and instinctively shouted, “AH!”

Just when she thought that she would definitely roll down the mountain foot this time and might fall to her death, her body suddenly stopped as if she was blocked by something. She opened her eyes instinctively and realized that it was actually Jin Zhengnan who stopped her. And the strength of her fierce rolling down knocked Jin Zhengnan straight to the ground.

Fortunately, her body had stopped rolling, so she quickly got up and quickly climbed to Jin Zhengnan’s side. She gritted her teeth and helped him up. She quickly asked with concern, “Zhengnan, are you okay?”

Jin Zhengnan's face was pale. Just when he saw her rolling down like a snowball, he immediately used his body to block it. Although he blocked it, he used almost all of his strength, and at this time, he couldn't even speak.

"Zhengnan, what happened to you?" Ru Yu saw that he didn't speak and her face was as pale as paper. She was also frightened. However, his forehead was still sweating. Immediately, she thought of something and used her hand to probe his chest.

Jin Zhengnan quickly reached out and grabbed her hand. Then, he shook his head at her. After panting for a while, he said with difficulty, "I'm fine." Ru Yu helped him to the side and sat down with him. Then, she looked at him and couldn't help but scold him, "why are you so disobedient? Didn't I tell you not to come? Why are you following me? Are you trying to drag me back?"

Jin Zhengnan smiled and did not argue. He thought that if he did not follow, Ru Yu would have rolled down like that. If she did not die, she would probably be crippled. Now that he was here, she would be fine. She was still alive and kicking. She could still scold him.

Ru Yu glared at him. She thought that even if he did not come, he would still come. Scolding him was useless. Moreover, if it was not for him, she would not have gone to look for Lei Zhenyu tonight. She might have gone to see the King of hell first.

The two of them sat on the ground for a while. Ru Yu and Jin Zhengnan stood up again. The two of them continued to walk forward with difficulty. As they had already walked more than half of the way, it was better to continue walking forward.

This time, the two of them walked together. Although they still could not walk fast, the two of them could discuss it. Furthermore, Jin Zhengnan said that he had walked on this road twenty years ago, so he had some impression of it. Thus, it was better for Ru Yu to walk alone.
