

Divorce 1671

Chapter 1671 was called a resume

Fang Xiao quickly said that there was no need. She had rented a single room, so it was no longer a problem for her to stay. Now that she was looking for a job, she did not dare to be idle, and she could not afford to be idle either.

Liu Yijun brought her to KFC across from the Sun Department Store and sat down. Fang Xiao immediately went to buy two cups of Coke with ice. Liu Yijun drank the coke and told her that the Sun Department Store's office was not hiring right now. However, their head office, the Dongfang Group, was recruiting people. They said that she could go for an interview, and she knew an assistant in the head office's personnel department. She would call her later to see if she could make an exception.

"Look, this is the oriental group's signature condition." Liu Yijun found the Oriental Group's signature notice in her notebook and pushed the small notebook in front of Fang Xiao.

Fang Xiao quickly glanced at the Oriental Group's recruitment notice. Then, she frowned and said, "Liu Yijun, the Oriental group's requirements are so high. Look at the recruitment conditions. Famous universities such as Peking University, Tsinghua University, Zhejiang University, Fudan University, and Zhongshan University graduate students... I still need three to five years of experience. I'm just a fresh graduate from G University. I don't have any work experience. How can people like me?"

"Fine, don't look at that." Liu Yijun rolled her eyes at her. Then, she said indifferently, "Besides, a university isn't bad. Besides, you went to the United States to study, didn't you? Later, pass your resume over. Not everyone in the Personnel Department of the Oriental Group is so bright-eyed. Maybe someone who isn't awake will see you as a turtle and recruit you. 'How do you know you can't do it if you don't try?'"

Fang Xiao didn't know what to say after hearing Liu Yijun's words. After all, she had never looked for a job before, and she didn't have any experience in looking for a job. Therefore, she didn't know whether Liu Yijun's words were true or false.

"By the way, have you written your resume? Let me see it." Liu Yijun put down the chopsticks in her hand and motioned for Fang Xiao to pass her resume.

Fang Xiao nodded and immediately handed her the resume that she had written for a long time in the morning.

Liu Yijun looked at her resume and frowned. She couldn't help but ask in a low voice, "Fang Xiao, you've never written a resume before. Haven't you even read other people's resumes?"

"I'm writing it according to the format of the resume." Fang Xiao took out a photocopied resume and looked at it. Then she looked at Liu Yijun and said, "I'm filling it out truthfully. What's wrong? CAN'T I?"

"Okay, okay, wait here. I'll help you write a resume." Liu Yijun pulled her laptop over as she spoke and started typing furiously.

Fang Xiao felt that Liu Yijun was a little funny. She had only met her once before, and this was the second time they had met. The only thing they knew about each other was that Luo Qili had told her about this person. How could she help her write her resume?

However, twenty minutes later, Liu Yijun pushed her laptop in front of Fang Xiao again. "Take a look. This is called a resume. That's your personal profile. "

Fang Xiao stared at the document on the notebook for a full ten minutes. She frowned and pondered for another five minutes. Finally, she asked hesitantly, "Liu Yijun, whose resume are you writing? "

Liu Yijun was drinking a coke with ice. When she heard Fang Xiao's question, she almost spat it out. However, she coughed twice. She wiped her mouth with a tissue and rolled her eyes at her. "Didn't you see Fang Xiao's name clearly written on it? "

Chapter 1672, fate years

Fang Xiao bit her lip. She had seen the name, but the resume was so gorgeous that she felt like she had been struck by lightning. That was why she had asked Liu Yijun that question.

If a ring was used to describe a resume, then the resume that Liu Yijun had written for her was undoubtedly a ten-carat pink diamond, while her previous resume was at most a straw-woven circle.

"Okay, don't be sad. I'll help you put your resume in the recruitment mailbox of the Oriental Group. " Liu Yijun reminded her as she left. "When you're looking for a job, you don't rely entirely on your real education. A lot of times, you have to rely on luck. "

Not only did Liu Yijun help her send her resume to the recruitment mailbox of the eastern group, but she also sent a copy to her usual email account, telling her that if the eastern group didn't succeed in applying for the job.. Then she would send a few more copies of these resumes to other large companies.

Of course, Liu Yijun had already called the person she knew in the personnel department of the Eastern Group. She told Fang Xiao's name and told her to take care of her.

Liu Yijun went to work. Fang Xiao thought of her ten-carat pink diamond resume and felt uneasy. The Eastern Group was a world-famous large company. It shouldn't be so easy to sneak in, right?

Fang Xiao arrived at Dongfang Group at two o'clock in the afternoon. As expected, there was a recruitment meeting here. Fang Xiao wore a black business suit with low heels and waited quietly with many applicants.

"What position are you applying for? " A girl who was about the same age as her probably was the same person, so she took the initiative to talk to her.

"I . . . I think it's the planning department and the Project Development Department, " Fang Xiao said truthfully because Liu Yijun had filled in the planning department in her resume, and she had indeed studied planning in the past ...

“Oh, then you have two departments to choose from.” The girl was probably bored from waiting, so she immediately started chatting with her. “I’m a secretarial major. I’m here today to apply for a clerical job.”

“Yeah, I think we’re looking for two secretarial assistants.” Fang Xiao glanced at the electronic display in front of the Dongfang Group, and the content of the recruitment was scrolling on it.

“I’m here to apply for a secretarial assistant,” Lin Yile said with some excitement. “I heard that the secretarial assistant of the Dongfang group can often see the president of the Dongfang Group, and the president of the Dongfang Group is very handsome. He’s the diamond man in the eyes of the unmarried women in Bincheng.”

Fang Xiao saw the girl’s infatuated look and could not help but smile and say, “it’s so good to be young. YOU DARE TO DREAM OF ANYTHING!”

“Young?” Lin yile looked at Fang Xiao with a slightly surprised look and could not help but ask, “are you very old?”

“I’m... I’m 24 years old,” Fang Xiao was slightly stunned and said with some embarrassment ...

In fact, what she said about being young was psychological. Her real age was not old, but after experiencing the changes in her family, her psychological age was already very, very old.

“PFFT...” Lin Yile could not help but laugh out loud. She used her hand to pretend to push Fang Xiao and teased, “Damn, I’m 23 this year. You say I’m young, but is 24 really that old? It’s just a natal year.”

“Yes, yes, yes, I’m a natal year.” Fang Xiao immediately nodded and echoed her words. “That’s why I feel like I’m old.”

“Eh, a natal year?” Lin yile heard Fang Xiao’s words and then went on to say, “I heard that a natal year is very bad. Did you wear red inside like other people? To Ward off evil?”

Chapter 1673, the Glorious Dongfang Yunheng

“The natal year is not good.” Fang Xiao looked at Lin Yile, then shook her head and said, “I didn’t wear red underwear in the past, but now I don’t... want to wear it.”

She originally wanted to say ‘can’t wear it anymore’ because her parents had died. Who would still wear red at this time Wasn’t it always black and white?

But she didn’t say that because Lin Yile was a stranger after all. She didn’t need to tell her pain and suffering to a stranger she had only known for a few minutes.

“Oh, if you don’t want to wear it, then don’t wear it. Anyway, those are just superstitions. There’s no scientific reason at all.” Lin Yile didn’t continue to discuss the issue of the birth year with her. Instead, she quickly changed the topic and said, “Oh right, Fang Xiao, have you submitted your resume?”

"I already submitted it online in the morning." Fang Xiao glanced at the Dongfang group's door and said faintly, "I received a notice from the personnel department in the afternoon to come for an interview in the afternoon, so I came over."

There were many people coming for the interview. Everyone waited outside the door according to the instructions of the security guard. Fang Xiao didn't have much hope that she could enter the Dongfang group, so she stood behind the crowd, thinking that she would only go over when she was called.

"Hey, Fang Xiao, look," Lin Yile came over and pulled her. Then she pointed at a car parked at the entrance of the Oriental Group and shouted excitedly, "that's a Bugatti Veyron, it's the CEO of the Oriental Group's car. The CEO of the Oriental Group got out of the car. Wow, he's so handsome, even more handsome than in magazines and TV shows. And the woman beside him is so beautiful, as beautiful as a star." ..

Fang Xiao originally had no interest in the CEO of the Oriental Group, but Lin Yile held her hand and kept squeezing into the crowd, as if she would be filled with regret if she did not see the CEO of the Oriental Group clearly.

With great difficulty, the two of them squeezed to the front of the crowd and happened to see an elegant man holding the arm of an elegant and beautiful woman.

"This is Dongfang group's youngest CEO, Dongfang Yunheng," Lin Yile introduced in a low voice as if she had been injected with stimulants. "The diamond man in the hearts of Binhai Women."

This is Dongfang Yunheng?

Fang Xiao stared unblinkingly at the incomparably elegant man. She instantly felt as if she was struck by lightning.

Xi Lingheng was Dongfang Yunheng. This was something she had never thought of before.

When she broke up with him in America five years ago, his name was Xi Lingheng. After returning to China, she had either studied in city g or stayed at home in Huicheng. It was only last year that she heard about the CEO of the Dongfang Group, Jean Xian. It was news that his eldest son, Dongfang Yunheng, would be the CEO.

However, Dongfang Yunheng had always been a very mysterious person. She did not seem to have seen a picture of Dongfang Yunheng in the newspapers and magazines three months ago.

Of course, she did not know if he had been in the newspapers or financial magazines in the past three months because the Fang family had undergone a family change in the past three months. She could not even care about her own father. How could she still care about the financial news or entertainment news?

She remembered that she had seen him on the bus television in Huicheng last week. However, when she saw him, just as she was getting off the bus, the bus rang with a reminder that a passenger had arrived at a stop. Therefore, the sound of the TV on the bus was completely drowned out, and she lost the chance to know his name.

Chapter 1674 he had never been a poor boy

It turned out that he had never been a poor boy. He was born rich. No wonder, five years ago, that rich woman would say to her, “you are not worthy of him! “!

She was not worthy of him. Indeed, she was not worthy of him. Dongfang Group was one of the top ten companies in the world, and he was the eldest son of Dongfang Mo, the Chairman of Dongfang Group.

How many women in the world were worthy of such a proud son of Heaven?

Dongfang Yunheng walked past her and Lin Yile with the beautiful woman in his arms. His gaze swept across the crowd. Fang Xiao thought that he saw her, but his gaze did not linger on her for even a second. Just like that, the woman in his arms walked elegantly towards the Dongfang Corporation’s entrance with her head held high.

Soon, Dongfang Yunheng and the beautiful woman entered the Dongfang Corporation’s entrance and disappeared from everyone’s sight.

Just as Fang Xiao was still guessing the relationship between Dongfang Yunheng and the woman, there were already people who were well-versed in gossip.

“This is Gu Chenchen, Dongfang Yunheng’s girlfriend. I heard that they will be engaged soon. ”

“I heard that the Gu family and the Dongfang family are family friends. They are childhood sweethearts. ”

“They are not childhood sweethearts. I heard that they met at a horse show, ” the other person corrected. “It seems that Gu Chenchen accidentally spilled wine on Dongfang Yunheng, and the two of them fell in love. ”

“Not at all. I heard that they met at a fashion show, ” the other person continued. Very gossipy, he said, “Gu Chenchen is a famous model. At that time, she showed a very nice gown, so Dongfang Yunheng even took a fancy to her and her clothes. ”

While everyone was talking about Dongfang Yunheng and Gu Chenchen, Fang Xiao had already walked to the side. She was actually so afraid to find out about his news.

“I want to go back, ” Fang Xiao said to Lin Yile, who had caught up with her, “Dongfang Group has such high requirements, and I don’t have any work experience. I definitely won’t be able to get the job. ”

“Don’t be so unconfident, ” Lin Yile comforted her, “besides, interviews are sometimes a matter of luck. Maybe the interviewer was in a good mood when he saw you, so he recruited you? ”

When Lin Yile said this, Fang Xiao scoffed in her heart, thinking that Lin Yile was too naive. After all, a girl who just came out of university had not been through the trials of life, so she thought too highly of everything.

However, when she stood in front of the interviewer, she had to admit that Lin Yile’s words were indeed somewhat reasonable. After the two interviewers looked at her resume very seriously, they were very satisfied with her and did not ask her anything more They only briefly talked about the treatment situation of the company and finally said, "Miss Fang, you've been accepted. Remember to come tomorrow morning to complete the entry procedures."

Fang Xiao was shocked. She didn't even say anything during the interview Moreover, that resume was completely fake. Didn't these people have to verify it with her face-to-face?

It was likely that Liu Yijun's friend had already informed the interviewer, or perhaps one of the two interviewers was Liu Yijun's friend, which was why she was able to sneak into the Dongfang Group's Project Development Department.

Before she knew that Xi Lingheng was the CEO of Dongfang Group, Dongfang Yunheng, she had really hoped that she could be accepted by Dongfang Group, but now that she knew that Dongfang Yunheng was Xi Lingheng.. She was in awe of Dongfang Group.

Chapter 1675, Project Development Department

Fang Xiao walked out of the Dongfang Group's entrance with mixed feelings. She saw Lin yile standing beside her with her head lowered. When she saw her, she immediately asked, "Fang Xiao, have you been accepted?"

Fang Xiao nodded blankly In the end, Lin Yile huffed and said, "D * Mn it, why are you so lucky? I still have experience. I used to be the general manager's secretary in other small companies. I came here to apply for a secretary's assistant, but the Dongfang Group actually didn't want me."

Fang Xiao quickly tried to comfort her. It was better to go to work in another company first and come again when Dongfang Group was recruiting again. Moreover, sometimes, working in a big company was not necessarily better than working in a small company.

Lin Yile was very depressed because she did not enter Dongfang Group. When she separated from Fang Xiao, she especially gave her cell phone number to Fang Xiao, saying that she would call her when Dongfang Group was recruiting again in the future.

After she separated from Lin Yile, Liu Yijun called and asked her about the results of the application. She quickly said that she had been accepted, but she did not really want to work in Dongfang Group.

"I spent a lot of effort to get you into the Dongfang Group. I even treated you to a big meal at noon and spent several hundred yuan. If you don't go to work, won't my money go down the drain?" "Are you worthy of me and my cousin? "?"

"Besides, if you don't work at the Dongfang Group, where are you going to work?" "If there's no one in the company, can an inexperienced person like you easily get into a big company? "?"

And in Binhai, would the wages of other large companies be higher than that of the Dongfang Group?

Fang Xiao immediately fell silent. She had no experience in finding a job, and she had even less work experience. Therefore, when Liu Yijun said her, she could not refute anything.

So she thought again, the Dongfang Group was so big, with dozens of floors and so many departments, with tens of thousands of employees. Dongfang Yunheng was the president, so how could he pay attention to her?

Moreover, even if she was accepted by the Dongfang Group's Project Development Department, Dongfang Yunheng might not know. After all, the project development department was only one of the many departments of the Dongfang Group, and she was just a small employee who had just entered.

With this thought, she immediately felt much more relaxed. Seeing that the Dongfang Group's salary was not cheap, and seeing that Liu Yijun had spent so much effort to get her into the Dongfang Group, even if she took a risk, she still had to go to work.

Fang Xiao had always been a vague concept of the project development department, and now that she was so poor that she did not have a computer to use, she could not find out what kind of department the Project Development Department was. So much so that when she went to the Dongfang group the next day to go through the entry procedures, her mind was still in a daze.

After the entry procedures were completed, she was led to the Project Development Department by the personnel department's Miss. She pushed open a door and walked in. She called out to the middle-aged woman behind the desk inside, "manager Wang, there's a new person. I'll leave him to you."

After the personnel department's Miss said this, she immediately placed the file bag in her hand on manager Wang's desk. She turned around and walked out of the office door.

The middle-aged woman looked to be in her forties. She raised her eyebrows and glanced at Fang Xiao. She grabbed the file and threw it into the bookcase behind her. She did not even glance at the contents of the file. Then, she stared at Fang Xiao and asked unhappily, "name, age, what is your graduation, and what are your specialties?"

Chapter 1676 was transferred to the secretarial department

"Fang Xiao, 24 years old this year. She graduated from G University. She has no work experience and no special skills," Fang Xiao answered manager Wang in a very calm voice.

"She graduated from g university without any experience and no special skills?" Manager Wang was obviously very dissatisfied with her. She could not help but snort coldly and said, "alright, now that the personnel department is recruiting people, don't they have eyes? Is My project development department a place for collecting waste products? You even threw such a person over to me?"

After saying this, he immediately turned his office chair, took her file bag from the bookcase, and threw it to her, "go back to the personnel department yourself. Just say that my project development department doesn't accept trash."

No matter how good-tempered Fang Xiao was, she was still angered by manager Wang. This person had only met her for less than three minutes, yet he was already scolding her with trash. Did he have such a superior?

“You don’t have to use me. In fact, you can just fire me directly,” Fang Xiao’s voice sounded cold and firm. She looked at manager Wang and said, “however, everyone has their dignity. You always talk about trash. From this, we can see that you are one of these things.”

“Wow, you rebelled against me?” Manager Wang stood up immediately and pointed at Fang Xiao, who had just turned around and walked towards the office door. She shouted, “who the F * Ck Are you? Maybe you came in because of some connections? Trash like you...”

“manager Wang, who are you scolding this time?” A young man who was not even 30 years old walked in and interrupted manager Wang. Then, his gaze paused on Fang Xiao for two seconds before he smiled and said, “why? Did the newcomer offend you?”

When manager Wang saw this young man, his anger from before instantly dissipated. He stood up and complained to the young man, “Assistant Wu, don’t you know that the people in the personnel department are getting more and more disgraceful these days? They actually pushed an unknown fresh university graduate who doesn’t have any special abilities to me. Why didn’t they push her to the finance department and the Secretarial Department?”

When this assistant Wu heard manager Wang’s words, she frowned slightly. Then, she took Fang Xiao’s file bag and opened it to take a look. Then, she said indifferently to manager Wang, “you can’t blame the personnel department for this. Miss Fang is applying for the project development department. If I don’t send her to you, where else can I send her?”

“Anyway, I don’t want this person.” Manager Wang raised his head and looked like he was unwilling to compromise. He looked at Fang Xiao with contempt and said, “look at her. She’s wearing black-framed glasses, a loose uniform, and no makeup. She looks like she’s in the dirt. Can she take on the work of the Project Development Department?”

“Why don’t I transfer you to the secretarial department?” The assistant named Wu looked at Fang Xiao with some difficulty and asked tentatively.

“I don’t know how to be a secretarial,” Fang Xiao immediately refused and then added, “how about I find another job if I really can’t? This Dongfang Group has high requirements. I definitely can’t get used to it.”

“Miss Fang, you just finished the entry procedures. If you resign now, according to the contract, you have to compensate our company for three months of losses,” assistant Wu reminded her very friendly. The person who resigned at this time was a fool.

“Isn’t there a probation period?” Fang Xiao was obviously stunned. Just now, the personnel department asked her to sign it and she signed it. In her opinion, any company had a probation period.

Chapter 1677, staff of the Secretarial Department

“You are an official employee who has signed a contract with our company. You don’t have a probation period.” Assistant Wu flipped through her file. Then, she nodded with certainty. “Miss Fang, you indeed don’t have a probation period. Now, you are an official employee of our company.”

Fang Xiao was immediately shocked beyond words. She stared blankly at Assistant Wu. After a long while, she said, "then, your company will fire me. Anyway, I'm so stupid and don't know anything. I'm a burden in your company."

Assistant Wu shook her head. She said helplessly, "Miss Fang, before the contract expires, if we fire you, we will have to compensate you for three months of your salary. You haven't even made a single contribution to the company, yet we are giving you three months of salary for nothing. Do you think there is such a good thing in the world?"

No, of course not. Therefore, after she joined the Dongfang Group, she really couldn't leave for a while. Therefore, she asked helplessly, "then how long will it take for me to resign?"

"according to the contract, you have to wait at least a year," assistant Wu replied in a very formal manner.

Fang Xiao didn't understand. How did she become an official employee when she just joined the company? Could it be that this was also the help of Liu Yijun's friend? If that was the case, then it would really be a bad help. She didn't want to work under the old witch of the Project Development Department. If she didn't tire herself to death, she would probably be scolded to death.

"But I really don't know anything." Fang Xiao still had a very honest look on her face. She said with incomparable distress, "why don't you transfer me to the cleaning department? I think I'll probably be able to clean up or something like that."

Assistant Wu almost laughed out loud when he heard her words. Was this the person that Dongfang Yunheng had instructed him to definitely stay behind? Wasn't this a little too naive?

Although he was puzzled in his heart.. But he still said patiently, "then it's better to go to the secretarial department. Secretary Lin said that her secretarial department lacks a personal secretary, which is Secretary Lin's assistant. The main job is to help serve tea and clean up. You should be able to do this, right?"

The corner of Fang Xiao's mouth twitched a little and she didn't say anything more. She had already come this far, and she couldn't retreat now. She hoped that this so-called personal secretary who served tea and water didn't have to deal with Dongfang Yunheng.

With this thought in mind, Fang Xiao followed this assistant Wu upstairs. When the elevator reached the top floor, she inexplicably had a bad premonition. The top floor of a group seemed to be the president's office.

The entire top floor was Dongfang Yunheng's office. His general manager's office, his secretarial department, and these people all revolved around him.

Assistant Wu directly brought Fang Xiao to Lin Shanshan. Fang Xiao's heart immediately skipped a beat. This Lin Shanshan was Dongfang Yunheng's secretary, and if she came to be her assistant, then wouldn't that be... ..

Lin Shanshan was obviously stunned when she saw Fang Xiao's attire, but she did not say anything and just asked her to go with her.

“Miss Fang, from today onwards, you will be the president’s personal secretary,” Lin Shanshan said to her in a very professional manner. “The duties of a personal secretary are mainly responsible for the president’s daily life, such as making coffee, making tea, ordering meals for the president, helping him tidy up his office... .. And taking care of his clothes when he goes out.”

Lin Shanshan talked about a lot of things, and Fang Xiao wrote them down in a pen. When Lin Shanshan turned to leave, she immediately called out to her, “well, what should I do now?”

Chapter 1678, personal secretary

“The president is in a meeting right now. The meeting will be over in about ten minutes. You have to make a cup of coffee for him. Sometimes, when the president wants to go out for dinner, you have to accompany him.”

“Wait, does the secretary have to accompany the president for dinner?” Fang Xiao quickly interrupted Lin Shanshan. She frowned and could not help but ask in confusion.

“You are the president’s personal secretary,” Lin Shanshan still answered very politely. “personal secretaries don’t do other jobs. They mainly focus on taking care of the president’s life. By the way, the president has stomach problems. When you accompany him for dinner, remember to remind him to drink less alcohol and eat less spicy food.”

“You still drink coffee when you have stomach problems?” Fang Xiao could not help but mutter, but her voice was very low, so Lin Shanshan did not hear it clearly.

“What were you muttering about just now?” Lin Shanshan turned around and looked at her.

“Nothing.” Fang Xiao shook her head, then pointed to the coffee machine at the side and said, “I’ll make coffee now.”

Lin Shanshan nodded and walked out of the spacious Pantry, which was bigger than many people’s villas’ kitchens. This place would be Fang Xiao’s world from now on.

When the staff of the secretarial department saw Lin Shanshan coming out, they could not help but look at her curiously and ask, “where did you come from? And whose relatives are you?”

“What relatives? The personnel department did not have eyes to recruit them. They were originally recruited into the project development department, but manager Wang refused to accept them no matter what. There’s no choice. Didn’t they just shove our secretarial department here?” Lin Shanshan said seriously as if.. She had never seen Fang Xiao before.

“Aiyo, what kind of place do they think our secretarial department is?” Xiao Li beside her was obviously dissatisfied She could not help but twitch her lips and say, “after Xiao Yun left, we were hoping for someone to do things quickly and share some of our work. In the end, with such a person, aren’t we...”

“Didn’t they also share our work?” Lin Shanshan’s face immediately darkened With a cold face, she said, “from now on, you don’t have to take turns to go to the pantry. You don’t have to worry about ordering meals for the president to deal with those women. These are the work of the personal secretaries. How is your burden heavier It’s clearly lighter, okay?”

The group of secretaries immediately fell silent. Lin Shanshan was their secretary-general and also Dongfang Yunheng's chief secretary. They all had to listen to her.

Fang Xiao's head started to hurt in the pantry. Lin Shanshan only told her to make coffee, but she did not say what flavor of Coffee Dongfang Yunheng wanted. For a moment, she did not know how to start.

To be honest, she did not know how to make coffee at all because making coffee was a skill, and she did not have the skill. Five years ago, when she and Xi Lingheng were in New Jersey, the two of them were at their most extravagant time. They only bought a packet of instant coffee to drink.

She rummaged through the Pantry. There was actually a packet of instant coffee here. She did not know who it belonged to, perhaps it belonged to a secretary.

However, she could not care less now. She would borrow a packet first. At most, she would go to the mall to buy a packet at noon and return it.

Just as she finished brewing the instant coffee, Lin Shanshan was already calling for her. It must be Dongfang Yunheng who had returned from a meeting. She immediately used a tray to carry the coffee to the president's office.

Chapter 1679, the new secretary

Dongfang Yunheng had indeed returned, but when she went in with the coffee, Dongfang Yunheng was talking to Assistant Wu, and there was only a cup of coffee on her tray.

Dongfang Yunheng frowned and glanced at her. He said indifferently, "go get another cup of coffee. Jianping wants to talk to me about something."

In less than a day, Fang Xiao was about to break down from her work as a personal secretary. She was not only serving tea and cleaning up Dongfang Yunheng's office, but also responsible for ordering food for Dongfang Yunheng and accompanying him to eat.

This afternoon, he was having lunch in his office. Following Lin Shanshan's instructions, she called the nearby Hyatt Hotel and ordered a business package for him.

In the afternoon, Lin Shanshan informed her that the president was going to attend a charity party in the evening and asked her to prepare clothes for Dongfang Yunheng. Of course, she had to iron them so that they did not have any creases.

These tasks were not complicated, but regarding the matching of a suit, shirt, and tie, she did not know what kind of clothes Dongfang Yunheng liked to wear now as the president. As for Xi Lingheng five years ago.. He had never worn a suit or tie before.

Fortunately, Lin Shanshan gave her a record book from the past, so she matched a suit for him according to his previous business gala attire.

Fang Xiao was Dongfang Yunheng's personal secretary. According to Lin Shanshan's instructions, she had to follow Dongfang Yunheng at all times, so she had to go to the charity gala tonight.

She carried the bag that Lin Shanshan had prepared for her and followed Dongfang Yunheng downstairs. When she walked out of the Dongfang Group's Gate, she found Wu Jianping already waiting there with his car.

Fang Xiao carried a briefcase in one hand and a daily necessities bag in the other. She walked up to help Dongfang Yunheng open the passenger seat door. She bent down slightly and said very respectfully, "president, please get in the car."

"You take the passenger seat. I'll take the back seat." As Dongfang Yunheng spoke, he had already opened the door of the back seat and sat in it.

Fang Xiao was obviously stunned. She looked at Wu Jianping in the driver's seat. For a moment, she didn't know whether to get in or not.

"Why aren't you getting in the car? Is it still early?" Dongfang Yunheng's cold voice sounded in the back seat. It was obvious that he was very dissatisfied with her dilly-dallying actions.

Fang Xiao hurriedly got in the car. She was very puzzled that Dongfang Yunheng was going to sit in the back seat. It didn't seem reasonable for a great CEO to give the front passenger seat to a personal secretary like her.

However, her doubts were clearly explained by Dongfang Yunheng's actions ten minutes later. Because ten minutes later, Wu Jianping's car stopped in front of a building, and the beautiful and noble Gu Chenchen walked out of the building's lobby.

Before Fang Xiao could react, Dongfang Yunheng had already opened the car door and got out to greet Gu Chenchen. Wu Jianping whispered to her, "this is Miss Gu, the CEO's girlfriend. Hurry up and get out of the car to greet her."

Fang Xiao immediately opened the car door and got out of the car. She had a polite and formal smile on her face. She bowed slightly to Gu Chenchen and nodded, "hello, Miss Gu."

Gu Chenchen looked at her with an obviously confused expression. Then, she looked at Dongfang Yunheng and asked softly, "Yun Heng, who is this?"

"Oh, this is my new secretary, Fang Xiao," Dongfang Yunheng introduced her to Gu Chenchen. "Lin Shanshan hasn't been well recently, so I found someone to help her with my daily life."

Chapter 1680 was actually a handyman

"Miss Fang," Gu Chenchen immediately reached out to Fang Xiao with a friendly smile on her face. "I'll have to trouble you with Yun Heng in the future, Miss Fang."

Fang Xiao quickly reached out to shake her hand. It was just that she had been living in abject poverty for the past few months, taking care of her father all day long, making her hand appear incomparably rough. When she shook Gu Chenchen's soft and seemingly boneless hand, she suddenly felt as if she was holding onto a soft silk-like illusion.

“Chenchen, get in the car first.” Dongfang Yunheng used his hand to support Gu Chenchen into the car. When he saw the high heels on her feet, he could not help but frown and say, “why are you wearing such high heels again? Didn’t I tell you not to wear too high? Too high heels are easy to twist your ankle.”

Gu Chenchen revealed a blissful smile and said softly, “who asked you to grow so high for no reason? Wasn’t I just trying to match your altitude?”

“Oh, so it’s my fault for making your feet suffer.” Dongfang Yunheng immediately said with a face full of guilt, “If I had known earlier, I wouldn’t have grown so high.”

Gu Chenchen covered her mouth with her hands and laughed. She leaned into Dongfang Yunheng’s arms and said coquettishly, “then I won’t do it. I’d rather have my feet tired than let you grow taller. Only a man with a high altitude is bold enough.”

Fang Xiao sat quietly in the front passenger seat. She completely ignored the display of affection between the two people in the back row. Like Wu Jianping, she stared straight ahead with a focused and serious expression.

They finally arrived at the venue of the charity gala. Without waiting for Wu Jianping to speak, she pushed open the door and got out of the car as soon as the car came to a stop. She quickly came to the door of the back seat and pulled it open with her hand, politely inviting Dongfang Yunheng and Gu Chenchen to get out of the car.

The heels of Gu Chenchen’s shoes were indeed a little high today. They were at least seven inches tall. Although this way, she and Dongfang Yunheng would be more harmonious when standing together, but her two feet were probably enough for her to endure.

Fang Xiao was carrying the responsibility of a personal secretary. She originally wanted to go forward and help Gu Chenchen up, but Gu Chenchen was already holding onto Dongfang Yunheng’s arm. She was practically snuggling up to him as they walked into the venue.

Fang Xiao did not know what the personal secretary should do at this time, so she hesitated behind him. Wu Jianping quickly walked over. He ordered her in a low voice, “hurry up and follow him. The briefcase in your hand contains the president’s phone and some necessary stationery, while the personal bag in your hand contains Miss Gu’s cosmetics and feminine products.”

“Okay, thank you.” Fang Xiao finally understood. The so-called personal secretary was actually a handyman. It turned out that the two bags in her hand were things that Dongfang Yunheng and Gu Chenchen needed at any time.

Dongfang Yunheng was the executive CEO of the Dongfang Group. In the entire Dongfang Group, he was the biggest except for the chairman, Dongfang Mo. Therefore, the charity party arranged for him to sit at the front of the VIP seats.

Dongfang Yunheng and Gu Chenchen sat at the VIP seats. As a personal secretary, she could only find a small stool in a corner not far away and sit down. However, her gaze was always on Dongfang Yunheng and Gu Chenchen. Because she did not know when they would need something.

She sat down and began to check the two bags. It turned out that in the briefcase, in addition to Dongfang Yunheng's phone, there was also a cheque book, a palm-sized Computer, two pens, a notepad, and an important customer registration record.
