Chapter 1731: Awkward Moments 1

Fang Xiao's face turned even redder as she lowered her head. She had eaten almost half of the can of Porridge, but she did not know if it was because she suddenly stirred it twice with a spoon, but the porridge was actually emitting a lot of steam. The steam kept drilling into her eyes, making her eyes instinctively moist.

He did not mock her, did not despise her, and did not even ask her why she was pregnant. It was because she and Qiu Yitang were clearly not married yet.

The nurse did come very quickly. She carried the clean blanket and bed sheets in. When she saw the dirty blanket on Fang Xiao's bed, she frowned instinctively. Then, she could not help but say, "remember to be careful. The hospital has a limited number of bedsheets and bedsheets. Usually, they are changed every three days."

Fang Xiao immediately acknowledged that. Perhaps the nurse saw that she was indeed too weak, and Dongfang Yunheng was at the side, so she did not say anything more. She quickly put on the clean blanket and bed sheets and left.

Fang Xiao ate her porridge, picked up the shopping bag that Dongfang Yunheng brought back, and carefully walked towards the washroom. Fortunately, the ward was not big, and the coffee table was only a few steps away from the washroom. She was very careful, and fortunately, the emergency measures were not left behind.

Taking a step into the washroom, she let out a long sigh of relief. She closed the door and checked the things in the shopping bag. She found not only several packets of sanitary pads, but also a pack of underwear and a set of pajamas.

She only felt a piercing pain in her eyes and a sour nose. She hugged these pajamas tightly, and suddenly felt as if she had returned to the United States and New Jersey. She had returned to the days when she was in love with the poor boy Xi Lingheng.

Fang Xiao slept very well that night. Although Dongfang Yunheng gave her a few words of advice after she changed her clothes and left, she still felt a trace of warmth in her originally cold heart.

When she woke up again, it was already bright outside. The bright and beautiful sunlight shone through the Beige curtains, showing that a new day had arrived.

The night shift nurse brought the day shift nurse over to do the handover procedures. Then, she simply told her that she did not need to hang another drip. She would observe for one day today. If she was fine, she could be discharged the next day.

Fang Xiao felt that she was already fine. In fact, she was still in the hospital to rest. It was already good enough. She wanted to accompany Luo Qili for an abortion surgery a year ago, but she only went back after resting for two hours after the surgery.

She got up and went to the bathroom to wash up. Then, she prepared to use hot water to wash the clothes that she had changed into yesterday. She only had clothes to wear because she was going to be discharged the next day. She could not possibly leave the hospital wearing the pajamas that Dongfang Yunheng had bought for her, right?

However, the clothes that she had left in the bathroom the night before had mysteriously disappeared. She could not help but frown. Could it be that the clothes had grown wings and had disappeared without a trace?

Could it be that they had been cleaned up by the cleaner? She remembered that she had gone to bed after Dongfang Yunheng had left last night. Just as she was in a daze, the ward door opened again and someone walked in.

She opened her eyes almost instinctively and saw that it was the cleaner, so she did not think too much about it. Then, she closed her eyes again and went to sleep. Of course, the cleaner would go into the bathroom to clean up the things in the trash can. However, she did not expect that her bloody clothes and pants had also been cleaned up by the cleaner as if they were trash.

Her clothes were gone, so she had no choice but to walk out of the bathroom. She was about to go to the cafeteria of the hospital downstairs to buy breakfast, but she did not expect Qiu Yitang to actually come. And in his hand, he was actually carrying a lunch box.

Chapter 1732, why are you so excited

“Mr. Qiu, what are you doing here?” Fang Xiao stood there and coldly looked at Qiu Yitang who had already placed the lunch box on the coffee table. She asked with a cold face?

Qiu Yitang’s heart almost instinctively twitched. He was obviously dissatisfied with Fang Xiao calling him Mr. Qiu. Even if they did not have a so-called relationship, they were still engaged for four years, right? Was there a need to be so estranged to this extent?

However, looking at her pale and colorless face, thinking that she had just experienced that kind of pain last night, and that the sequela was left behind, she did not act up in the end.

“Fang Xiao, I brought breakfast for you.” Qiu Yitang pointed at the lunch box on the coffee table and said with a hint of flattery, “it’s your favorite soup dumpling, stuffed with Shiitake mushroom and chicken.”

Soup dumpling This time, Fang Xiao was really stunned. Qiu Yitang should know the reason why she was hospitalized, right? She thought that he came here today to take the opportunity to humiliate her, and even get back the so-called justice for his beloved woman, Du Caiwei.

She never thought that he would actually bring her breakfast. No wonder the sun came out so late today. It must have risen from the West, right?

“Is there really Shiitake mushroom and chicken stuffing in this soup dumpling?” Fang Xiao looked at Qiu Yitang with suspicion. “Do you promise that there isn’t anything added in it that can make me silently go to the West?”

Qiu Yitang's face instantly turned the color of a pig's liver. He had brought her breakfast out of kindness, but she didn't appreciate it. How could she say such things about him?

In her heart, was he such a vicious person?

"Fang Xiao, you... what do you mean?" Qiu Yitang suppressed the displeasure in his heart and asked in a low voice.

He was her fiancé. He had indeed been a little excessive to her before, but that was also because she had wronged Cai Wei first, wasn't it? If she had never treated Cai Wei like that, he wouldn't have treated her like that, would he?

"That's what I mean?" Fang Xiao looked at Qiu Yitang and said indifferently, "Mr. Qiu hates me to the bone because of the woman he loves, Miss Du. He is bent on avenging Miss Du's family. Now, only me and my retarded younger brother are left in our Fang family. I don't think people like Mr. Qiu would be able to lay their hands on mentally disabled people, right? Then, if you don't attack me, could it be that the Fang family has someone else to attack you?"

"enough, Fang Xiao." Qiu Yitang was so angry that his face turned black. He let out a heavy breath. Then, he said a little irritably, "yes, it's indeed not right for me to bring Cai Wei to humiliate you on the wedding day. I can apologize to you for this. However, I'll repeat it again. The Fang family going bankrupt has nothing to do with me. It's your father's own matter. Believe it or not, it's up to you."

"Mr. Qiu, why are you so agitated?" Fang Xiao looked at him coldly. Then, she said mockingly, "could it be that the Fang family has completely gone bankrupt and everything has been sold? Therefore, you have no way to turn the Fang family into the Du family. Therefore, when desperate, you bought the West Mountain Villa that my father originally gave to me and gave it to Miss Du. You reluctantly comforted your beloved woman, right?"

"Fang Xiao, can you not be so stubborn?" Qiu Yitang only felt a headache. Looking at the woman in front of him whose face was as pale as paper, he felt extremely unbearable. So he hurriedly said, "alright, your father prepared the West Mountain Villa for you. I won't let Cai Wei stay there again. Consider it as an apology. I'll return the West Mountain villa to you."

Chapter 1733. Why didn't I see it before

Qiu Yitang paused for a moment before adding, "I'll get someone to move all her things out today and restore the West Mountain Villa to its original state. You can go back to the West Mountain Villa after you're discharged from the hospital."

"Hehe, so young master Qiu's heart is actually so good. Why didn't I see it before?" A mocking smile quickly surfaced on Fang Xiao's face. Then, she said mockingly, "I think young master Qiu knows the reason why I'm hospitalized this time, right? As my fiancé, doesn't young Master Qiu find it strange?"

Qiu Yitang was stunned by instinct. He looked at Fang Xiao's mocking face and felt a little suffocated in his heart. He pondered for a moment. Then, he clenched his teeth and said, "alright, Fang Xiao, those things are all in the past. From now on, I won't let such things happen again."

“Such things?” Fang Xiao raised her head and looked at Qiu Shaotang. Her ice-cold eyes hit Qiu Shaotang’s face like an ice blade. Then, she persisted and asked, “what kind of things do young master Qiu mean by such things? Can Young Master Qiu explain?”

“Yes...” Qiu Shaotang looked at Fang Xiao’s ice-cold face and opened her lips twice, but in the end, she didn’t continue ...

“Can I understand that you won’t let me have the so-called pornographic photos again? Or, you won’t let me have the so-called abortion again?”

Although Fang Xiao’s voice was still extremely cold when he asked this, there was already a faint smile on his face, but that smile didn’t reach the bottom of his eyes.

Qiu Shaotang’s forehead was covered in cold sweat. Because Fang Xiao’s question was so sharp, he couldn’t answer such a question, and he didn’t know how to answer it.

“Mr. Qiu, if you have nothing else to do, please go back quickly.” Fang Xiao closed her eyes slightly when she saw that he was silent for a long time. Then she said faintly, “you are the big CEO. You can arrange your time however you want, but I’m a part-time worker. I have to go to work when I get out of the hospital tomorrow. Could you please not delay my work time, Mr. Qiu?”

“then... you should rest first.” Qiu Shaotang finally came back to his senses. Then, he pointed at the lunch box on the coffee table and said with a slightly hoarse voice, “well, the soup dumplings were bought fresh in the morning. You should eat them when you have time.”

“Mr. Qiu, I have already said that I am a timid person.” Fang Xiao immediately rejected him. Then, she said coldly, “if I remember correctly, the woman Mr. Qiu loves lives next door. You should bring her over to eat. Maybe she will be happy and help you have a child in two months.”

Qiu Shaotang’s face instantly turned white. He looked at Fang Xiao and said irritably, “well, Cai Wei was transferred to the hospital in Huicheng last night. You will be discharged tomorrow. I will come to pick you up tomorrow and bring you back to the West Mountain villa. Then...”

“there is no ‘then’ between us. I have my own things to do.” Fang Xiao quickly cut off Qiu Yitang’s words. Then, with a cold face, she ordered him to leave. “Young Master Qiu, can you please leave? This is the ward. I want to rest. If you still don’t leave, I will call the nurse and security.”

Qiu Shaotang did not expect Fang Xiao to be so disrespectful to him. He was about to open his mouth to refute Fang Xiao, but the nurse pushed the door open and came in. She looked at him and frowned. He could not help but ask coldly, “Fang Xiao, is this your family member? Why are you making so much noise here early in the morning?”

Chapter 1734: a handful of water lilies

Because this nurse had only come to pick up the day shift this morning and had never seen Qiu Yitang, and Du Caiwei, who was next door, had gone away last night, she had asked this question.

“No,” Fang Xiao immediately answered with certainty, and then added, “please ask someone to send him out. I need to rest, he is here to disturb my rest.”

Thus, the nurse very politely made an inviting gesture to Qiu Yitang. "Sir, please. Since our patient needs to rest, she doesn't welcome you, so you'd better leave quickly."

Qiu Yitang was so angry that his face turned green. He didn't expect to receive such treatment from Fang Xiao. Last night, when he was transferring Du Caiwei to another hospital, he had seen Zheng Zihao guarding Fang Xiao's ward.

For some reason, he found that Zheng Zihao felt particularly uncomfortable with Fang Xiao. An unconvinced feeling quickly surged up in his heart. In an instant, he thought, Fang Xiao is my fiancée. I can't let other men peep at her.

Actually, grandma had been asking him about Fang Xiao's whereabouts. He always found an excuse to say that he didn't know. Then, he tried to persuade grandma to accept Du Caiwei because Du Caiwei was already pregnant with his child.

However, grandma's thoughts were very feudal. She didn't like Cai Wei and even said that Cai Wei was a mistress. She insisted that he bring Fang Xiao back.

In the past, because he didn't want to have anything to do with Fang Xiao, he felt that Cai Wei's revenge had been taken, so he didn't go to Fang Xiao. However, now that Fang Xiao had appeared in his sight.. Should he consider grandma's suggestion?

Fang Xiao originally planned to be discharged on the third day, but Qiu Yitang came in the morning and completely disrupted her plans. She felt that she had to be discharged early.

Originally, she was only staying in the hospital for observation, but she felt that there was no need for observation. So after Qiu Yitang left, she immediately called Wu Jianping and told him that she wanted to be discharged.

Actually, she could have gone through the discharge procedures herself, but her bag was taken away by Wu Jianping. She didn't have any money on her, so she didn't leave the hospital herself.

She had called Wu Jianping, but it was Dongfang Yunheng who came in the end. He brought her some new clothes. Because it was November, even the weather in the south was a little cold He even bought her a thin windbreaker.

Of course, what made her most happy was not the clothes, but the fact that he brought her a bunch of water lilies, which made the entire ward emit a faint fragrance.

She remembered that the water lilies were not sold as bouquets in a flower shop. She didn't know where he brought them from, and the flowers were hung with dew drops.

After getting into the car, she touched the water lilies to her nose and sniffed them. She turned to look at him, who was driving, and asked softly, "this, I don't think the flower shop bought it, right?"

She remembered that very few flower shops used water lilies as a bouquet. Even if they did, it was probably reserved by a customer. Moreover, it was not allowed to break off the branches and leaves like this.

Also, the flowers in the flower shop liked to be wrapped in cellophane. However, this bunch of water lilies was just casually tied together with a thin red rope without any processing.

Looking at this bunch of water lilies, she could not help but remember the water lilies in the small fish pond in front of her family's courtyard when she was young. In fact, the fish pond was very small and there were not many water lilies. Usually, there were only a few of them, but she liked to see them the most.

Chapter 1735 gives you a two-week holiday

Dongfang Yunheng stopped the car at the intersection and turned to look at her. Because she was wearing light pink clothes, her face was no longer so pale and colorless. She looked a little red.

"Of course, you didn't buy them at a flower shop?" He explained calmly "I picked them at the Lotus pond in Jiangnan's famous city. I just came downstairs and received a call from Jianping saying that you wanted to be discharged from the hospital. I happened to pass by the Lotus pond, so I saw these water lilies blooming. I took off my shoes and went down to the Lotus pond to pick them all. I just happened to use them to pick you up and give them to you when you are discharged. It saves me time and money when I go to the flower shop to buy them."

Fang Xiao was speechless when she heard this.

Dongfang Yunheng was such a rich man. How much money and time could a flower shop spend to buy a bunch of flowers?

Thinking of how he took off his shoes and rolled up his pants to pick water lilies from the Lotus Pond, a trace of warmth gradually welled up in her heart, so she held the bunch of flowers tightly in front of her chest.

It was a traffic light, so he had to wait for three minutes. He turned to look at her holding the water lilies in front of her chest. The verdant leaves and translucent petals, against the background of her Light Pink Windbreaker, reflected her fair and transparent face. She was as beautiful as a fairy.

He thought that she just loved these flowers so much that she definitely did not understand the meaning of the water lily he gave her. He just wanted to use this water lily to tell her that in his heart —

She was still as pure and beautiful as the water lily. It was not because she had a miscarriage last night, or even a miscarriage of someone's child, but her purity still did not diminish in his heart.

"Well, I'm sorry," Fang Xiao first apologized to Dongfang Yunheng when she returned to her home in Jiangnan's famous city. She lowered her head like a child who had made a mistake. "I really didn't know that such a thing would happen. . . . Why don't you extend the deadline by another month?"

Yun Heng's face turned green with anger. He wanted to get angry, but seeing her pale and pale face and weak appearance, he suppressed the anger in the end.

Therefore, he frowned slightly and said indifferently, "why aren't you lying on the bed? Don't you know that you have to rest in bed after the miscarriage?"

"I don't know," Fang Xiao muttered softly as she walked into the bedroom. "Isn't this the first time? I don't have any experience, so who knows? Besides, you didn't say that you were going to give me a vacation, did you?"

Dongfang Yunheng was stunned for a moment, then he waved his hand. "Hurry up and go to sleep. I'll give you two weeks of vacation. Come back to work in two weeks. Don't tire the other secretaries to death."

Fang Xiao let out a long sigh of relief when she heard this. She couldn't be bothered to argue with him anymore. She quickly closed the door and walked into the bedroom. She quickly climbed onto the bed and buried her body in the soft bed.

She didn't sleep well last night because of the pain in her lower abdomen. And this morning, Qiu Yitang came to anger her, so she returned to the temporary home and lay on the soft bed. She fell asleep not long after.

She slept until night. When she woke up, the room with the floor-to-ceiling windows was pitch black and she could not see anything.

She felt that her lower abdomen was a little swollen and wanted to go to the toilet. So she got up and turned on the bedside lamp in the dark. The Room finally lit up. She looked up and found that the clock showed that it was already past seven o'clock in the evening.

Oh, she could really sleep. However, after sleeping, she felt much better and the pain in her lower abdomen had disappeared.

Chapter 1736 financial backer and slave

After going to the toilet, she washed up with warm water and came out. As soon as she opened the door, she smelled a strong smell of chicken soup. She couldn't help but sniff it.

"YOU'RE UP?" Yun Heng, who was smoking on the balcony, heard the door open. He quickly put out the half-smoked cigarette and walked in. He pointed at the dining table and said, "I think the chicken soup from the stewing soup restaurant is okay. Hurry up and drink it."

"thank you." Fang Xiao lowered her head. She didn't expect him to treat her so well. She thought that, in fact, he could take the opportunity to humiliate her.

The corner of Dongfang Yunheng's mouth twitched, but he didn't say anything. In fact, he didn't do anything. Whether it was food, dishes, or soup, they were all sent from outside. The only thing he did was to fork out some money, and the only thing he didn't lack now was money.

The two of them ate silently at the dining table. Perhaps it was because they didn't go to work today, so there wasn't much to talk about. Therefore, throughout the meal, the two of them barely said a word.

Because they were all sent from outside restaurants, they were all packed in boxes. After eating, they could just throw the boxes away, which was very convenient. They didn't even need to wash the bowls and chopsticks.

Dongfang Yunheng ate fast, so while Fang Xiao was still slowly drinking the chicken soup, he had already gone to the bathroom to take a shower. When she finished eating and tidied up the dining table and returned to her room, Dongfang Yunheng was already rummaging through the DVD room.

“What are you still standing there for? Hurry up and take a shower. After you shower, come and watch a movie with me.” Yun Heng was wearing pajamas. He looked up at her, then lowered his head to look through the pile of discs.

Fang Xiao didn't dare to be negligent. She quickly went to the cloakroom to rummage through the pajamas. Because of the miscarriage, she couldn't choose a nightgown. Fortunately, there were still pajamas here.

By the time she came out of the shower, there was already a sound coming from the video studio. She hesitated for a moment and walked in. He was lying on the SOFA watching an unknown European film.

There was only one sofa in the video studio. It felt spacious for two people to sit on it, but he was lying down alone. Moreover, his legs were tall and long, so he occupied the armguards on both sides of the SOFA. She did not even have a place to sit.

“I don't want to watch it.” She stood behind the SOFA and said softly, “I want to rest early. I did not sleep well in the hospital ward last night.”

“Didn't you sleep the whole afternoon today?” He rolled his eyes at her, took off his legs, and finally sat up straight. He pointed to the seat beside him. “Sit down and watch the movie with me.”

Fang Xiao didn't dare to refuse anymore. After all, he was the patron. Which slave had ever dared to go against his master?

When Fang Xiao sat down, the movie had already been on for more than ten minutes, so she didn't know what kind of movie it was. She only saw a man sitting on the bus stop, telling the people waiting for the bus about his past experiences.

She finally understood after watching it for a full five minutes. So this was Forrest Gump. The silly man in it was Forrest Gump, who had an IQ of less than 80.

She had read the novel Forrest Gump five years ago. At that time, she had read it in the New Jersey School Library. After reading it, she was greatly moved. When she went back, she even told Xi Lingheng that Forrest Gump was the most worthy man in the world to marry.

At that time, Xi Lingheng said, “Silly, actually every man can be Forrest Gump. The key is whether he has the chance to meet his Jenny.”

Chapter 1737: Do you have any worries

“Forrest Gump” was shot in the 1990s. In fact, it had already existed five years ago. She and Xi Lingheng had discussed buying a DVD to watch, but until they broke up, that wish had not come true.

Now, after five years, both their lives had taken a drastic turn, but she had not expected that he would actually play “Forrest Gump” in her studio, and she would actually have the honor of watching it with him.

The two of them watched the movie silently without a word. Fang Xiao couldn't help but think that he wouldn't let her watch the movie with him tonight, right?

In fact, it didn't matter if she slept enough. Besides, she didn't need to go to work tomorrow, and she could sleep during the day. The key was him. She didn't know if he slept in the afternoon. If he didn't sleep and stayed up all night watching the movie, he would still have to go to work tomorrow. Would he be able to hold on?

"Oh." She immediately got up and walked out of the door. When she came to the kitchen and opened the refrigerator door, she saw the neatly arranged beer. Without hesitation, she reached out and took a bottle.

However, she immediately put it back in her hand because it was so cold. It was already November, winter, and his beer was still perverted in the refrigerator. If she drank it like this, it would be strange if she could stand it.

Moreover, he still had stomach problems. She still remembered the woman who called a few days ago saying that he had stomach problems.

In the end, she turned around and walked out of the kitchen to the drinking fountain in the Living Room. She took his cup and poured him a cup of warm water.

"I want to drink." Seeing the cup she handed him, he was obviously unhappy. "Did you have a miscarriage and lose your hearing? You can't hear human language, can you?"

"It's not good for your stomach to drink cold things at night." She put the Cup of warm water on the coffee table in front of him. "let alone cold wine? Besides, you just said that you were thirsty, but you didn't say that you were addicted to alcohol. When you're thirsty, you should drink water instead of alcohol. Alcohol doesn't quench your thirst."

"But alcohol can relieve your worries," he instinctively argued with her.

"Do you have any worries to relieve?" She Sat Down Beside the SOFA and ignored him.

He immediately fell silent. He didn't.

No, even if he did, he couldn't show it in front of her. What he wanted to show in front of her was how happy he was and how happy he was.

Therefore, he silently picked up the cup of slightly hot water and slowly drank it.

Because there was some soup in the water, it didn't drink quickly. It was rare for him to be so patient. He drank it bit by bit until the Cup became lower. Finally, he felt less thirsty.

Putting down the glass in his hand, on the screen, AH GAN was already running with Abu on her back in the rain of bullets. The director once again used such a shocking method to exaggerate ah Gan's stupidity and persistence.

He could not help but turn his head around. The woman beside him was focused on watching the movie. Her Pale face looked a little hazy under the soft and dim light. Perhaps it was because she had just suffered a severe miscarriage, but at this moment.. Her face no longer had the cold lines that she had pretended to have in the office during the day. Instead, it was a gentle glow.

He knew that she was beautiful. Five years ago, in New Jersey, on a sunny summer day or a snowy winter day, whether her skin was tanned or wheat-colored, or simply the color of her original skin.. He thought that she was beautiful beyond compare.

Chapter 1738 you are my one and only

Her personality had always been cheerful, and the lines of her face had always been gentle. It was as if at this moment, when she was unguarded, her beauty was naturally revealed.

Her long and curvy eyelashes were like a cattail leaf fan gently brushing along with the quivering of her eyes. They were also like butterfly wings gently trembling. In a flash, it woke up his originally frozen heart.

“Come here,” he called her softly, then extended his hand to her, motioning for her to sit a little closer.

Fang Xiao glanced at him from the side. Perhaps it was because of the soft lighting, but at this moment, Dongfang Yunheng looked gentle and gentle. Even his usual cold and hard lines in the office were gone.

She hesitated for a moment, but in the end, she obediently sat over and tossed aside their relationship from five years ago. Even considering their relationship today, she was a slave and he was the financier. A slave did not have the right to reject a financier.

She had just walked to his side when he had already reached out to pick her up and placed her in front of him. He hugged her behind her, and her entire body leaned into his embrace.

Fang Xiao’s body tensed up almost instantly. He was right behind her. His head turned over from her shoulder and his chin rubbed against her shoulder. The warm breath sprayed onto her neck. It was warm and itchy.

In the movie, Ah Gan had returned to the United States from Vietnam. He became a hero, a hero that everyone loved. There were people asking him to give speeches everywhere, and Jenny saw him during one of the speeches. Then..

In order for ah Gan to see her, Jenny jumped directly into the pool. Therefore, ah Gan ran down from the stage and directly jumped into the water to Hug Jenny. ...

Fang Xiao could not help but remember that summer five years ago. In June, the sun was shining brightly in New Jersey. The Poor Xi Lingheng was already the most famous person in New Jersey University.

That day was actually a literary event at New Jersey University. Fang Xiao could not remember what the reason was for the literary event. She only remembered that she and Xi Lingheng had a mission in that event.

She actually did not have a performance because their club had a large-scale program. Jenny, Haaka, and the others did not know what to perform. It seemed that they could only sing in a chorus or dance in a group, and none of these were novel enough.

So she thought of the face-changing art in China. Of course, face-changing was a very difficult art. It was impossible for a foreigner to learn it all at once. Even she herself couldn't do it.

But she was very smart. She drew a face mask for everyone and made them wear it on their heads. Then, one by one, they would appear and change positions, so that the Europeans and Americans could see the Chinese face-changing art.

She didn't expect her idea to get everyone's support, so with everyone's cooperation, the school sponsored costumes, props, and so on. With her as the editor and director, face-changing actually succeeded in one go and won the first place in the literary and artistic event.

Xi Lingheng, on the other hand, performed a program. He sang Wang Leehom's "one and only" in Mandarin. He stood on the stage where the lights were blurred He sang affectionately: recently, I can't breathe / even my own shadow / wants to find you / ohbaby / you are my one and only. ...

He sang it in Mandarin and then sang it again in English. The people below the stage were all glowing. She also clapped because she did not expect his singing to be so beautiful. It was almost comparable to a singer's voice.

Chapter 1739

What was even more unexpected was that he actually jumped down from the stage and directly took her hand, pulled her onto the stage, and put his arm around her to Sing: Oh Baby / you are the only one for me. . .

At that moment, everything was silent. At that moment, the crowd was boiling. At that moment, even the stars in the sky showed envious eyes at them.

She stood on the stage with him at the University of New Jersey. Under the cheers and applause of the crowd, he finished singing and just hugged her like that. His thin lips kissed her pink lips deeply.

Thinking of this, her eyes could not help but become moist. It was clearly such a long time ago, but when she thought of it, it seemed like it was still yesterday. He and she, it seemed like they were still in New Jersey?

"What's wrong? Is the movie not good?" Behind her, Dongfang Yunheng quickly felt her emotions fluctuate because her eyelashes blinked twice. There was clearly crystal clear liquid on them.

She shook her head and managed to calm her emotions with great difficulty. After a long while, she choked and said, "No, it's very good, ah Gan... it's really good."

He could not help but smile mockingly. Ah Gan was really nice. Ah Gan was not only nice, it was simply too good. It was so good that it made all the men and women in the world jealous.

But, he was also Ah Gan Didn't she know He loved her like that. He loved her so much that he lost himself. He loved her so much that he could not breathe. But in the end..

How did she treat him She was even worse than Ah Gan's girlfriend, Jenny!

She just sat in his arms. It was unknown if his legs were a little numb. He moved slightly behind her. She immediately stood up and said softly, "why don't I sit next to you?"

"No need. You can just sit in my arms." His voice was so gentle that it seemed to come from New Jersey. It was so soft and unreal.

After watching the movie two hours later, forrest gump was finally with Jenny. However, Jenny still went and left forrest gump with a child.

When forrest gump found Jenny, when Jenny told forrest gump that it was his child, even though the movie was very simple and didn't even have any emotional appeal, Fang Xiao still couldn't help but cry. She covered her mouth with her hand and cried silently.

Later, when Ah Gan and Jenny got married, when Jenny was finally going to leave Ah Gan, when Ah Gan muttered to himself in front of Jenny's tombstone, and when a group of white pigeons flew up behind the tombstone... ..

Fang Xiao could not help but think, many years later, if she also went, was there someone in front of her tombstone, and who was that person?

At that time, the Poor Xi Lingheng of New Jersey, would he still remember a girl called Fang Xiao?

He probably did not remember it Lin Shanshan said that he was about to get engaged, and his fiancée was so beautiful and noble, and they were so well-matched together. ...

"Do you want to watch another movie?" Dongfang Yunheng asked her softly from behind. His hand was wrapped around her waist, neither loose nor tight, and he was holding her slender waist.

She was slightly stunned, and then she smiled and said softly, "as you wish. I'll... do whatever you want."

She really wanted to say, how could I have the right to make decisions You are my employer and I am your slave. Even my employer, you have the right to help me do it, don't you?

"then... rest." He thought for a moment, then put her down, turned off the DVD player with the remote control, got up, and walked to the bathroom ...

Chapter 1740, take two

Fang Xiao naturally went back to her bedroom. She thought that he would not come in because there were two bedrooms here. A noble person like him would not, and would not, stay in the same room with her.

However, she did not expect that he would actually come in right after she laid down. Moreover, he sat down beside her bed. It was obvious that he wanted to go to bed and sleep with her.

She instinctively became nervous, and then said a little hurriedly, "well, it's not convenient for me right now... look..."

He rolled his eyes at her, raised his eyebrows, and said teasingly, "I didn't expect your mind to be like that... did I say what I was going to do?"

Her face was slightly embarrassed. It seemed that she was thinking too much, but he was a man. If he climbed onto her bed to sleep, how could she not think in that direction? What if he couldn't hold it in...

"I'm afraid that no one will massage your lower abdomen at night," he explained plainly to her. "The doctor said that you're currently in the midst of uterine contraction, so massaging your lower abdomen more will help your uterus recover..."

She immediately felt embarrassed and could not help but move her body towards him to make room for him. The bed was so wide and so big that even if she slept in the middle, there was enough space for him to sleep on the side. She just did not want to be next to him.

He pressed the light at the bedside and the room instantly turned pitch black. He lifted a corner of the blanket in the darkness and his entire body slowly slid in.

Fang Xiao clearly felt that the soft mattress had caved in. Her body could not help but tremble a little, and then the muscles all over her body instantly tensed up.

Although Dongfang Yunheng had just hugged her to watch a movie, hugging and sleeping on the same bed were two completely different things. This was the second time that she and he had slept on the same bed.

The first time was five years ago, or more accurately, more than four years ago. That was when she received a call from her parents in China, saying that there was an urgent matter at home and they wanted her to hurry home.

The next morning, she flew back to the country. The night before, she did not stay in the dormitory. Instead, she brought her luggage to the small apartment that Dongfang Yunheng rented because he was going to send her to the airport the next morning.

That night, Xi Lingheng went to a nearby supermarket to buy glutinous rice flour. He said that he wanted to make Tangyuan and that Tangyuan meant reunion. He hoped that she would come back to reunite with him as soon as possible after she returned to the country.

Actually, he did not know how to make Tangyuan, and neither did she. The two of them looked up how to make Tangyuan online. Then, they followed the steps described on the Internet. They mixed the glutinous rice flour with water and kneaded it with their hands.

The two of them put in a lot of effort and finally managed to knead the scattered glutinous rice flour into a ball. Then, they wrapped it up with much effort.

They clearly thought that it had already been wrapped into glutinous rice balls. At least, it still looked like glutinous rice balls on the outside. However, for some reason, when the glutinous rice balls were put into the pot to boil, they actually all scattered and then turned into a pot of stew.

Xi Lingheng was very depressed and kept nagging about how this could have happened. She quickly comforted him, saying that glutinous rice balls were not easy to cook to begin with, and that they could not control the heat well either. It was probably something that had been cooked for a long time. Although it had scattered, it was still in the pot, wasn't it It did not run away again?

Fortunately, it was still edible, so the two of them ate the pot of glutinous rice balls. Although it was not the expected glutinous rice balls, it was still something that the two of them had put in a lot of effort to make, and they ate very happily.
