Chapter 1741, first memory

After dinner, Fang Xiao went to take a shower while Xi lingheng pushed the bed against the wall. Then, he took some extra bedding and spread it out on the floor.

When Fang Xiao came out of the shower, his floor was ready. Fang Xiao could not help but laugh. "Haha, this way, your place will be more like a snail's nest."

He laughed too. He stood up and walked towards her. He reached out and pulled her into his arms. His face rubbed against her delicate face that had just taken a shower before he said, "If I can live with you, then so be it. Besides, in America, it's already good enough to have a floor bunk."

Fang Xiao smiled again and pushed him away with her hand. Then, she walked towards the bunk and asked with a smile, "Lingheng, are you asking me to sleep on the bunk?"

Xi Lingheng was slightly stunned, then he said noncommittally, "fine, don't be so picky. It's already good enough to have a bunk. Don't tell me you want to sleep on my bed?"

Fang Xiao immediately stuck out her tongue, while he had already taken his pajamas with a smile and turned to go to the bathroom.

Fang Xiao was afraid of the cold, so she slept on the bunk again. So, she turned up the heat and then laid down on the bunk. Just as she laid down, Xi Lingheng had already come out of the bathroom. He took a quick shower tonight.

"Hey, you're really sleeping on the floor," he called out to her with a smile and kicked her foot. "Go, climb onto the bed. The floor is mine. A girl like you will get cold if you sleep on the floor."

"Didn't you say that's your bed?" She rolled her eyes at him.

"You won't be able to sleep on my bed sooner or later?" He had a double meaning, so he pulled her up and pushed her onto the bed.

So, she obediently lay down on his bed again. She did not know whether it was because she was going home tomorrow or because she was sleeping in the same room as him, but she actually could not sleep.

"Ling Heng, do you feel that the two of us are a little like a young couple tonight?" She lay on her side and saw him sleeping on the floor.

He simply sat up with a smile in his eyes. He said softly, "why don't people say that marriage is the Tomb of love? Do we... want to experience the taste of the tomb in advance?"

The taste of the tomb Before she could react, he had already swiftly pulled her hand. With a little force, she directly pulled him from the bed to lie on his body.

"Hey..." Fang Xiao could not help but let out a low groan in panic. However, she could only let out a low GROAN. The rest of her words were stuck in his throat.

“Hey...” Fang Xiao could not help but let out a low groan in panic. However, she could only let out a low GROAN. The rest of her words were stuck in his throat.

His hand was not idle. He had already lifted up her pajamas and was trembling as he covered her.

They were both very nervous. Although they had been dating for a year, the most intimate thing they usually did was French kissing. There was no further action, even though many people at the University of New Jersey guessed that they had been living together for a long time.

He kissed her enough until her whole body was trembling. His thin lips moved past her pink lips and slowly moved to her earlobe. His rough tongue licked her round earlobe. “Xiaoxiao, I want you...”

He wanted her. Her heart and her body were trembling, even though the noblewoman had just told her a week ago that she was not good enough for him and asked her to leave him.

He wanted her. Her heart and her body were trembling, even though the noblewoman had just told her a week ago that she was not good enough for him and asked her to leave him.

Chapter 1742 menstruation

She was not worthy. Their love had already drifted in the wind and rain. She did not know if the noblewoman had told him to leave her?

She must not have. Otherwise, this week, he would not have acted as if nothing was on his mind.

It seemed that a mother was still afraid of hurting her child, so she hinted for her to take the initiative to leave.

Love was a luxury, but the reality was very cruel. Her love with him would definitely not go to the grave in the end.

They had been dating for a year. Regardless of whether there was a future or not, they had at least fallen in love. Since he wanted it, she would give it to him. ...

She knew that there would be no ending, but like him, she wanted to experience the taste of the grave.

So, she nodded at him and allowed him to do what he wanted. The moment she nodded, he had already used his hands and feet to kick off her originally loose Pajama Pants.

Everything seemed to be going very smoothly. Just as it was about to happen, she felt a warm current flowing down from her lower abdomen. Then, her body tightened. ...

He could clearly feel her body stiffening up. His hand that was about to remove her cover suddenly stopped. He just looked at her like that. After a long while, he asked in a hoarse voice, “what’s wrong?”

“I. . . My period is here.” She lowered her head and looked at him with a face full of guilt. She really did not do it on purpose. Ever since that noblewoman came to look for her, she had been in a daze for the whole week and had forgotten such a great problem as her period ...

Xi Lingheng obviously did not expect to encounter such a thing. Was He already on the bow of an Arrow Wasn't this..

His face instantly twisted, and his body froze on top of hers. It was as if he had no intention of retreating. He just stared at her without blinking, as if he was going to spend the rest of his life.

Fang Xiao was so scared that she did not even dare to breathe. She just looked at him nervously. After a long while, she finally closed her eyes and gritted her teeth. "then take it, if you'RE NOT AFRAID OF A bloody battle!"

He just stood there without moving. After a long time, he finally withdrew from her body and ran away quickly. Soon, the sound of running water came from the bathroom.

That night, because her period had suddenly arrived, her lower abdomen began to hurt. He put on his clothes and went out to buy her brown sugar, while she changed into her period at home.

That night, he did not sleep on the floor. Instead, he climbed onto the bed and squeezed with her on the small bed. He hugged her in his arms, and his big hands kept rubbing her lower abdomen.

When Fang Xiaogang Thought of this, Meng ran suddenly felt Dongfang Yunheng's body approaching her. Before she could react, she fell into his broad arms.

Her body struggled instinctively, trying to break free from his embrace. She did not expect him to hug her even tighter Then, he warned her in a low voice, "don't move. If you move again, if the gun really goes off, don't blame me for ignoring your current body."

She immediately obediently did not dare to move, and he did not make any further movements. He only adjusted his body slightly to make her sleep more comfortably. Then, his large hand naturally covered her lower abdomen.

"Let me help you massage it." His voice came from the darkness in a low voice. It seemed to carry a magic power, and it gradually calmed down her originally frustrated heart.

Chapter 1743 was he really back

His large hands seemed to carry a warmth as he gently rubbed her lower abdomen. The faint pain in her lower abdomen gradually disappeared along with the warmth and was quickly replaced by incomparable comfort.

She slowly closed her eyes in the incomparably comfortable embrace and fell into a deep sleep again. ...

When she woke up, it was already the next morning. There was no longer any sign of Xi Lingheng beside her. She could not help but use her hands to touch. The place where he lay last night was already cold.

She washed up and walked out of the room. There was already a thermal lunch box on the dining table. A note was pressed under the thermal lunch box. His elegant handwriting was displayed on the note.

"Xiaoxiao, I'm going to work. I'll get up and eat breakfast. There will be a soup kitchen bringing chicken soup over at noon. Rest well and take care of yourself, Lingheng!"

She gripped the note tightly in her hand, but tears could not help but roll down her face!

Lingheng, Xi Lingheng. Last night, was it really Xi Lingheng who came back?

He was not Dongfang Yunheng, but Xi Lingheng from New Jersey five years ago. He still remembered her and called her Xiaoxiao. Did he still remember his name, Lingheng?

She used her trembling hands to open the insulated lunch box. The inside was actually double-layered. The top layer was her favorite chencun powder, and the bottom layer was also her favorite steamed pork ribs.

She looked at the exquisite breakfast, her hands shaking as she held the chopsticks. She thought that he would take the opportunity to mock her, look down on her, and even take the opportunity to humiliate her. ...

“Love is you and me, a life where our hearts are intertwined. Love is you and me, an unchanging promise in times of adversity...” the sudden singing voice in the room woke Fang Xiao from her thoughts.

She was stunned for a moment before she reacted. The singing voice came from the bedroom. She instinctively walked towards the singing voice. When she walked to the bedside, she realized that the voice came from the bedside cabinet.

She pulled open the bedside cabinet. Sure enough, her phone was flashing and singing. She frowned slightly. Her phone’s ringtone was not like this. Why did it suddenly change to this tone today?

She pressed the answer button and Luo Qili’s voice came through. “Fang Xiao, the day after tomorrow is Saturday. Are you free? Fang Chen asked about you again today. He said that he wants you to take him to play.”

Fang Xiao took a long-distance bus to Huicheng on Saturday morning. Because it was a holiday, she was afraid that many people wouldn’t be able to buy tickets for the first bus, so she got up early.

Dongfang Yunheng hadn’t come back since he left a note for her that morning. He hadn’t called her in the past two days, as if the gentle embrace and sleep that night was a dream.

The entire journey from Binhai to Huicheng only took more than two hours on the highway. Because Fang Xiao took the early bus, it was exactly 11 o’clock in the morning when she arrived at the special school in Huicheng.

Because she had been in contact with Luo Qili on the way, when she arrived, Luo Qili was already waiting for her with Fang Chen. When Fang Chen saw her, he immediately ran up to her happily and hugged her like a child hugging its mother.

Fang Chen had already grown into an adult and was taller than her. However, his IQ had always remained at the age of four, so he behaved like a four-year-old all day long.

Fang Xiao took Fang Chen’s hand and said goodbye to Luo Qili. Then, she took him to the bus. Because Fang Chen wanted to eat McDonald’s, and Fang Xiao had promised him, she wanted to take him there today.

Chapter 1744 spending a day with my younger brother

Although Hui city was a third-tier city, of course, it couldn't be compared to the first-tier City Binhai, but the city was still very prosperous, and there were still three or four mcdonald's.

Fang Xiao took Fang Chen to a mcdonald's in the West. Because this place was the closest to Fang Chen's special school, they only needed to take five public bus stops to get there.

Fang Chen sat on the bus very excited, acting like a child. She was also very surprised by the tall buildings outside the window, and kept asking Fang Xiao very simple questions.

"Why is this building so tall? "

"because it's a tall building? Tall buildings are tall. "

"What's that with the lights on it? "

"That's a colored light. It looks good over there. "

"What's that white thing in that person's hand? "

"That's cotton candy. "

"Is cotton candy made from cotton? "

"No, that's made from white sugar. ".

The conversation between the siblings attracted the attention of the passengers in the bus. Everyone's gaze stopped on the two of them. When they realized that the person who asked the question was actually a tall and big boy, they immediately looked at Fang Chen as if he was a monster.

Although Fang Chen's iq was about the same as a four-year-old child, he was still a little scared by everyone's strange gazes. He could not help but point at those people He asked in a trembling voice, "sister, why are they looking at me like that? "

Fang Xiao only felt uncomfortable. Of course, she knew who was treating Fang Chen as a fool, but she could not tell Fang Chen that.

Therefore, she patted Fang Chen's shoulder and said softly to him, "that's because they think Fang Chen is very handsome? Fang Chen is handsome. Do they all like to look at handsome guys? "

"really? " Fang Chen immediately smiled. The smile that was on his gloomy face just now instantly turned into a sunny smile. It just so happened that the bus stopped at the station, so they had arrived at their destination.

Fang Xiao held Fang Chen's hand on the bus, but she secretly thought to herself that she would have to take a taxi instead of taking Fang Chen on the bus when they went back.

Because it was a Saturday and a holiday, there were a lot of people at McDonald's Today, so they couldn't find a seat inside. Fang Xiao secretly breathed a sigh of relief. She didn't want a seat because she was worried that the people would look at Fang Chen strangely later.

Fang Xiao bought two packages from McDonald's and packed them up. Then she took Fang Chen's hand and went to the nearby Huicheng Park to play. There were a lot of people in the park today, but after all, there were not as many people as those people in the Plaza Mall.

Fang Xiao took her brother to sit on the stone bench in the park and ate McDonald's. Fang Chen was holding French fries in his hand and eating tomato sauce. His mouth was red from eating, but he was smiling so contentedly.

After eating lunch, the siblings played in the park again. Fang Xiao took him to ride the Trojan horse. Fang Chen was 172 centimeters tall. Sitting on the Trojan Horse, he smiled as brightly as a child.

"sister, have fun." Fang Chen waved at her and shouted, "sister, come and play too. Chen Chen wants to ride the wooden horse with sister!"

Fang Xiao finally gave in to Fang Chen's request. After the wooden horse stopped, she went over and sat on a smaller wooden horse beside Fang Chen. The siblings spun on the wooden horse and smiled. At that moment.. Fang Xiao really hoped that time could stay forever.

Of course, time could not stay, so she took Fang Xiao around the park. Gradually, Fang Chen was tired, so she held his hand and walked out of the park. Then, she hailed a taxi and was ready to send him back to school.

Chapter 1745 who told you to run out for no reason

However, Fang Chen refused to take a taxi. He said that he liked to take the big bus because there were so many people on it. Fang Xiao coaxed him. The big bus had pulled too many people in the morning and was tired. Now that he was resting, he could only take the small bus.

Fang Chen pointed at the bus on the street and said that the big bus was not tired yet. Wasn't it still running? There were so many people on the bus. He wanted to take the big bus.

Fang Xiao further explained to him that the big bus running was not going to his school. The big bus going to his school was already tired, so he could only take the small bus.

It was not easy to coax Fang Chen, but it was very difficult to get a taxi. The two of them waited for a long time at the entrance of the park, and finally a taxi got on.

When Fang Xiao sent Fang Chen back to school, it was already evening. Luo Qili saw her and said, "I thought you were going to have dinner with Fang Chen before coming back. Our school just opened for dinner. Do you want to eat before you leave?"

Fang Xiao shook her head and said softly, "No, it's already past five o'clock. I still have to rush to the long-distance bus station. The bus seems to be gone by seven o'clock. I can't miss the last bus."

Luo Qili didn't ask her to stay after hearing what she said. She only reminded her to be careful on the road and then reassured her that Fang Chen would be fine with her in the school.

Fang Xiao thanked Luo Qili and said goodbye to Fang Chen. Fang Chen couldn't bear to part with her and refused to let go of her. She comforted him softly and promised to visit him again in two days. Only then did she coax him.

When she walked out of the special school, the streetlights outside were already on. She turned the corner and was ready to take the bus to the long-distance bus station

However, before she reached the bus stop, a car quietly stopped beside her. Then, the window rolled down and a slightly familiar voice sounded, "get in the car."

She stopped in her tracks and instinctively froze. She turned her head and looked at the car in front of her. It was obviously not the car she had driven before, but the maybach she had driven when she first met him at the entrance of the Royal Junjue nightclub.

Seeing that she was stunned, he could not help but frown. He could not help but shout impatiently, "I told you to get in the car, didn't you hear me?"

Only then did she come back to her senses. She hurriedly took two steps forward, pulled open the front passenger door, and got in. Just as she closed the door, he stepped on the accelerator, and the car silently drove away.

Fang Xiao sat quietly in her seat. Dongfang Yunheng's car quickly drove toward the highway junction in the outskirts of Huicheng. It was obvious that he didn't plan to stop in Huicheng, but was in a hurry to return to Binhai.

"Who told you to run out alone?" After getting on the highway, he finally opened his mouth and looked at her from the side. His eyes were obviously filled with dissatisfaction. "I didn't know that you had a miscarriage just now. It's only been a few days? Don't tell me you've completely recovered?"

Fang Xiao bit her lips lightly and then carefully said, "I just happen to be free here, and it's already been a week. I think there's nothing else. Moreover... I'm afraid that I won't have time to come back to accompany my younger brother when I go to work in the future."

Go to work in the future The corner of his mouth curled up into a smile that seemed to be mocking her. However, the night was thick, and they were on the highway. She happened to not have a side profile, so of course, she didn't notice his mocking.

"You sleep for a while. I'll call you when I get there." Dongfang Yunheng didn't say anything more to her. He turned his face to look at her and said in a low voice, "press the button next to your seat. Lie Back and the seat can be put down."

Chapter 1746 — she was dreaming

"Oh," she replied and quickly found the button. She slowly leaned back with some force, and the seat finally slowed down quite a bit. She chose a comfortable angle and closed her eyes gently.

She didn't feel it when she was playing, but after playing, she realized that she was really tired, especially in her current situation. Her body hadn't fully recovered, and she had been playing crazily with Fang Chen. Now that she was really lying down, she realized that her entire body was weak.

Fang Xiao did not know how long she had slept. In her daze, she felt as if she had returned to New Jersey five years ago. At that time, Xi Lingheng would always ride on his broken bicycle and drive her through the streets and alleys of New Jersey.

At that time, one of her favorite things was to sit behind his bicycle and wrap her arms around his strong waist. She would put her entire face on his back and experience the pleasure of traveling through the wind with him.

No matter where she went, Xi Lingheng would always ride on his bicycle. In his words, she would always be on his bicycle, and he did not like her to ride on other people's cars.

Just like that, Fang Xiao was lost in her dreams. Later on, it was her and Xi Lingheng running on the beach in New Jersey. She was shouting at him, "Xi Lingheng, I want to Tan even more than black charcoal. I want to be a true black girl. "

Xi Lingheng smiled and said, "alright then, I want to use sunscreen. I want to maintain my white skin. I want to be whiter than white people. This way, when we have twins in the future, maybe one will be black and the other white. "

Later on, it was in the ice and snow of New Jersey again. She stood face to face with him. At that time, her whole body was trembling. She had already memorized the script in her heart. She did not know if it was because of the strong wind Her lips actually moved for a long time, but she couldn't open her mouth.

A while later, she returned to New Jersey from the country. He was so happy that he hugged her and circled her like a child. He excitedly shouted at her, "Xiao Xiao, I've learned how to make Tangyuan. We don't need to eat Tangyuan anymore..."

"Tangyuan... Tangyuan..." Fang Xiao muttered Tangyuan in her mouth, but in an instant, she felt as if her body shook, waking her up completely. She couldn't help but open her eyes ...

The neon lights outside the window were already flashing. The searchlights of Dongfang Corporation, the tallest building in Bincheng, were already sweeping not far away. The car had already stopped, and the man beside her was looking at her from the side.

"Are you a pig? Can you sleep anywhere?" Dongfang Yunheng rolled his eyes at her, and then said indifferently, "why aren't you getting out of the car? Aren't you hungry?"

Hungry Only then did Fang Xiao feel as if her stomach was going through a revolution. She couldn't help but take a look at the time in the car. Good Heavens, she remembered that it was only past five when she left Hui city. How could it be past eight in the blink of an eye?

Hui City to Binhai City was more than a hundred kilometers. It took an hour to get there by taking the highway without traffic jams. But who knew that Dongfang Yunheng actually took more than three hours?

“What kind of broken-down car is this? Why is it like a snail?” When Fang Xiao got out of the car, she couldn’t help but stare at Dongfang Yunheng’s car. Could she be blamed for being hungry? Wasn’t it because he drove slowly by himself?

The corner of Dongfang Yunheng’s mouth twitched. Then he said indifferently, “I haven’t even gotten used to it yet, have I? Besides, my old man doesn’t know if I bought this car. If I drive fast, I’ll rub something on it, and if he hears about it, won’t he kill me?”

Fang Xiao couldn’t help but laugh when she heard this, and her mood instantly improved. She originally thought that Dongfang Yunheng was the boss who could do anything with a flip of his hand, but she didn’t expect that he still had a nemesis above him.

Chapter 1747: a Woman’s best sister

“Are you happy to know that someone can suppress me?” He looked at her smug face and could not help but ask gloomily.

“No, I’m not.” She refused to admit it. “Am I not hungry? Aren’t you hungry?”

Hungry? WHO WOULDN’T BE HUNGRY? It was almost nine o’clock in the evening, and those who ate supper early had already started to eat supper. They had not even had breakfast yet.

The two of them entered a Hong kong-style restaurant next door. This restaurant mainly focused on Siu Mei. Fang Xiao was from the south and loved to eat roast goose when she was young, so she naturally ordered roast goose rice after sitting down.

The waitress very politely told her that there was no roast goose left. There were only roast meat, pork ribs, Roast Duck, salt-baked chicken, and so on. She asked her which one she wanted.

She then ordered roast pork ribs. Opposite her, Dongfang Yunheng ordered roast meat, and the two of them ordered stewed cups. Yun Heng asked for raw dragon bones, and she asked for pigeon soup.

Dinner was carried out in silence. Dongfang Yunheng’s phone rang twice. Fang Xiao heard him say in a gentle voice, “yes, I’m eating with a client outside. Sleep early.”

Actually, she didn’t need to ask to know who the person who called him was. She just didn’t understand why he was treating her like this since he had such a good relationship with Gu Chenchen?

Maybe he just thought of her as a slave he bought with money, but he was used to being a gentleman. She shouldn’t let her imagination run wild, especially not think of him as the Xi Lingheng from five years ago.

With this thought, her heart that had been awakened gradually calmed down. She didn’t expect him to say in annoyance when he paid the bill, “Oh no, I forgot my wallet.”

She was slightly stunned, and then she took out her wallet to pay the bill. Fortunately, the food was not expensive, and the two of them only ate less than 100 yuan.

After paying the bill, the night was just right, and there were actually stars tonight. This was really rare for a big city, so she did not have to look twice.

The two of them got into the car again. This time, his car was no longer crawling like a snail, but quickly drove toward Jiangnan famous city. When they passed by a shopping mall, he stopped the car again.

“This is nine blessings jewelry’s main store. Go in and pick something.” When he was in a good car, he looked sideways at her on the passenger seat. When he saw that she was stunned, he could not help but frown slightly. “Get out of the car and go in and pick something.”

Nine blessings jewelry was brightly lit. Of course, no matter how bright the lights were, they were not as bright as the semen treatment case that was placed in the counter.

The diamonds were brighter than the stars in the sky. They lay quietly on the black velvet like teardrops, so bright that it hurt people’s eyes.

Perhaps the manager knew him, but he actually came out personally and sent people to send a set of jewelry. The huge diamonds were inlaid on new necklaces, diamonds, or brooches. It gave people the illusion that it was dazzling and ingenious.

Some people said that diamonds were a woman’s best sister, and the reason she could get to where she was today was because she happened to fall into the hands of a sister. As a result, she now avoided the word “sister” as if she was a fish.

Meanwhile, Dongfang Yunheng sat at the side, drinking the tea offered by the beautiful woman and looking at her leisurely. The meaning in his eyes was that as long as she took a fancy to it, it would be fine.

She originally did not want it, because such exquisite and expensive jewelry was usually bought by men either for their beloved or their lover.

As for her and Dongfang Yunheng, their current relationship didn’t seem to count for anything.

Chapter 1748 diamonds were a woman’s best sister

Therefore, she used her hands to push away these things, wanting to get up and leave. However, his expression was obviously displeased, and he could not help but ask indifferently, “why, isn’t there anything you like?”

She could not help but be shocked in her heart. She looked at the manager again and suddenly felt that if she did not jump into something, it seemed to be a slap to the face of his eastern president, and his face was so precious.

She finally sat down again, but she expressed to the manager that she was not interested in diamonds and let the platinum thing come up. The manager only felt surprised, but he still carried row after row of necks with different styles.

In the end, she chose a platinum bracelet with a diamond-shaped star pendant. The style was simple, but she liked the shape of the star. She felt that it was very similar to the star that he had folded with colored paper, so she fell in love with it at first sight.

That year in New Jersey, it was also today. He went to the supermarket to buy the glittering colored paper. In his small apartment, he clumsily folded it for a day, then used red silk threads to string it together to make a bracelet. After dinner, he took it out and put it on her wrist. He took it out like a treasure and put it on her wrist.

“This is the Star I gave you,” he said at that time. Then, he shamelessly stretched out his mouth and said, “well, give me a reward.”

She actually liked the bracelet that he made by hand, so she kissed his thin lips and was about to leave, but he refused to let her go. He grabbed her, pulled her into his arms, and kissed her affectionately.

“Xiaoxiao, in the future, I will give you a real star,” he promised in her ear.

Now, he was indeed going to give her a real star, but their identities had changed long ago. She knew that she did not even have the right to ask for a star.

The platinum chain was not expensive, only about 500 points. After making the order, she remembered that he had forgotten to bring his wallet when they had just eaten, so she hurriedly took out her wallet to pay for it herself.

She did not expect that he would roll his eyes at her, sign his name on the list sent by the manager, and then leave. Only then did she realize that he had signed the order when he went to these stores.

On the way back, it was very quiet. It was very quiet in the car. He did not speak, and she did not speak again. Only the newly bought chain was stuck to her wrist. The cold feeling made her feel a little uncomfortable.

The car quietly held a meeting in Jiangnan’s famous city. Fang Xiao thought that Dongfang Yunheng would get off the car and go upstairs with her. She did not expect him to put her at the gate of Jiangnan’s famous city, and then quickly drove away.

She slowly walked into Jiangnan’s famous city alone. Seat D was in the middle of the entire Garden, close to the fountain. The night wind was a little cold, so she could not help but pull her hat up.

Just as she walked into the lobby of the corridor in seat D, Her phone rang. She was slightly stunned for a moment, then took it out. It was actually an unfamiliar number. She hesitated for a moment, but in the end, she pressed the answer button as she walked towards the elevator.

Just as she put the phone to her ear, Qiu Yitang’s voice was heard. “Fang Xiao, it’s me.”

She was obviously stunned. She did not expect him to call, so she said coldly, “director Qiu, what’s the matter?”

“Fang Xiao, don’t call me that, okay?” Qiu Yitang was obviously dissatisfied with her calling him director Qiu. Without waiting for Fang Xiao to answer, he quickly added, “Oh right, Fang Xiao, how’s your recovery? My Grandmother said she wants to see you. Our marriage...”

Chapter 1749: Thank You for remembering me

Fang Xiao immediately cut off the phone without hesitation. She felt that Qiu Yitang was somewhat inexplicable. He had already destroyed her family and ruined her reputation. How could he still have the face to mention marriage to her?

The phone was cut off and the elevator door just opened. She immediately stepped in, but she did not expect the phone to ring again. Moreover, it was the previous number.

This time, she did not press the answer button again. Instead, she cut it off without hesitation and then turned off the phone without hesitation. She really did not have any interest to say another word to Qiu Yitang.

When she returned to her room, she only felt tired. It was not just her body, but also her heart. Therefore, she quickly took her pajamas to the bathroom to take a shower. All she wanted was to climb into bed and go to bed as soon as possible.

However, just as she took a shower, the landline in her house rang. The landline here rarely rang. She had lived here for so long, and it was the first time she received a call. Moreover, it was from a woman. That woman was actually Dongfang Yunheng's ex-girlfriend.

Fang Xiao guessed that the big call this time was definitely from Dongfang Yunheng's ex-girlfriend. This was because very few people in his house knew the landline number. Even she herself did not know what the number was. Because she had not used this landline to call her own cell phone.

Therefore, she chose to ignore the existence of the landline and ignored it. Thinking that no one would pick up the phone later, the landline naturally would not ring.

But who would have thought that the caller seemed to be particularly persistent. It was completely as if he would not stop until she picked up the phone. The landline rang and stopped, but two seconds later, it rang again.

She was finally completely defeated. Moreover, the phone rang and she could not sleep. Therefore, she had no choice but to pick up the phone and almost instinctively said, "Dongfang Yunheng is not here today. Can you call him on his cell phone or another day?"

There was a long period of silence on the other end of the phone. Just when she thought that the person on the other end might have heard her clearly and was not planning to speak, and was about to put down the phone, she did not expect a slightly familiar and deep voice to come over.

"Xiao Xiao, it's me." Yun Heng's voice seemed to carry some kind of magic. "Why did you turn off your cell phone? Don't you remember that you can't turn off your cell phone for 24 hours?"

Fang Xiao was slightly stunned. Only then did Meng Meng remember that it was wrong of her to turn off her cell phone. No wonder the call lasted so long. It was actually a call from her financier.

"My phone is out of battery," she could not help but tell a little lie. Then Meng felt that something was wrong and quickly added, "I went to take a shower when I came back. I just came out of the shower and was about to charge my phone."

A low, inaudible chuckle came from the other side of the phone. However, it did not dispel her lie. Instead, it was a soft voice, "happy birthday, Xiao Xiao!"

Happy Birthday Her tears finally rolled down uncontrollably. It turned out that he still remembered it. It turned out that he did not forget it. It turned out that he rushed to Huicheng to look for her to celebrate her birthday.

Although the dinner was only a Hong kong-style set meal, and even though she had paid for it, she felt very satisfied at this moment. Even the platinum chain in her hand no longer felt cold.

"thank you..." her voice choked ...

Thank You for remembering me, thank you for remembering this day, thank you for the bracelet, and thank you for saying 'Happy Birthday!' Just now

Chapter 1750 follow him to France

She had thought that there would be no one in the world who would remember her birthday, because those who would remember her birthday had already passed away, and her only relative, her younger brother Fang Chen, was a retard. His IQ was stuck at three or four years old He would not remember her birthday.

But she did not expect that he would actually remember it. He would actually spend such a birthday with her. Although it was short and simple, it was still warm.

"accompany me to France in a week." Dongfang Yunheng's voice came from the phone. It was already an order from the formula.

"Go to France?" She could not help but be stunned. She asked instinctively, "why?"

"You are my personal secretary. If I go on a business trip, can you not follow me?" Dongfang Yunheng's voice was obviously filled with dissatisfaction.

No, OF COURSE NOT!

Therefore, a week later, Fang Xiao returned to the company to work. Her first job was to accompany Dongfang Yunheng to fly to Paris in France. Lin Shanshan did not say what he was going there to do. She only told her to take good care of the president's daily life.

This was her responsibility, so she could not shirk it. Therefore, Wu Jianping drove them to the airport. Then, she and he went through the boarding procedures and flew to Paris in France.

Fang Xiao had always yearned for France, especially Paris, because it was an extremely romantic city. It was said that as long as one arrived in Paris, women could meet handsome men, and men could meet beautiful women.

Five years ago, when she was still studying in New Jersey, Xi Lingheng once asked her, "Xiao Xiao, where do you want to go the most?"

"Paris!" At that time, she answered without even thinking

He smiled and then asked, "Paris is so big, where do you want to go the most? The Louvre, Notre Dame, the Seine River, the Arc de Triomphe, the palace of Versailles?"

"I like the Eiffel Tower!" She announced loudly. "when I have money, I must go to Paris. I must climb the Eiffel Tower!"

Climbing the Eiffel Tower had always been her dream. A week ago, when she was playing with her brother in Huicheng Park and saw the Eiffel Tower on the television, she had thought that her dream would never come true.

But she did not expect Dongfang Yunheng to go to Paris, France, on a business trip. He actually took her with him. The two of them boarded an international flight, so of course, it was first class.

He chose a seat by the aisle and sat down, so she sat down by the window. It was breakfast, and the sun outside the window was slowly rising like a plane.

She wondered what kind of spectacular view the Seine River was from the Eiffel Tower, and if she could make her dream come true this time when she went to Paris?

After arriving in France, Fang Xiao realized that Dongfang Yunheng was not really very busy. He did want to meet a client, but the client was French, and she did not speak French.

Therefore, when Dongfang Yunheng brought her to meet the French client, she could only sit at the side with a smile and listen to him communicate with the handsome old man in fluent French.

The French old man looked at her and asked something, but she did not understand. He did not translate it to her, but answered on her behalf. The way the French old man looked at her immediately became respectful.

On the first day, she met such a client and ate an authentic French meal. Perhaps it was because there was too much honey in the honey shrimp, but Fang Xiao only felt sick of it, so she did not eat much.
