

Divorce 1761

Chapter 1761. A long pain is better than a short one

“What about me “I’m different from you. I can’t do anything without working hard. I’m the only hope my parents have. Our family depends on me alone. So, if I have a better future to choose from now, then I will definitely choose my future and a good life without hesitation. My fianc❖❖ can make me a wealthy lady and let me live a luxurious life. Can you give me all this? ”

“Even if you can, can you make the decision? If you can make the decision for your own life, then you won’t have to step on a bicycle every day to earn a salary and have to eat three meals a day, right? ”

In the snowstorm, Xi Lingheng’s entire body was trembling continuously. Fang Xiao’s words were like a snowstorm that was hard to come by in the past few decades, mercilessly hitting his body and his heart.

No, her words were even colder and stiffer than the snowstorm that was hard to come by in the past few decades. Her words were so painful to hit his body and so hard to hit his heart. It almost completely shattered his heart in an instant.

He was so helpless as he looked at her. There was a step between the two of them, but his hand was still holding hers. There was a snowflake between them.

The snow was so big, but he still looked at her without blinking. It was as if if he blinked, he would never see his Xiaoxiao again.

His Lips quivered in the snowstorm. After a long time, he could finally say something. However, because the snowflakes flew into his mouth and blocked his throat, his voice sounded particularly deep and hoarse. In the snowstorm, there was endless sorrow and desperate struggle.

“Xiaoxiao, I love you. I don’t listen to what you just said. I don’t want to listen. I only know that I love you. Xiaoxiao, please don’t go, okay “I know that there is a barrier between us, but I will work hard. Xiao Xiao, please don’t go. If you go, from now on, in the vast world, in the vast sea of people, where will I find you? ”

Fang Xiao felt as if her heart was suddenly bound by a rope. Her nose became sour again, and snowflakes flew to her eyes. Because of the warmth of the liquid in her eyes, they quickly merged into water, mixing with her warm liquid They flowed down her face together.

Fang Xiao used all her strength to pull at her wrist. She just wanted to break away from Xi Lingheng’s control as soon as possible, break away from Xi Lingheng’s Big Palm, and completely break away from him.

However, Xi Lingheng held her wrist very tightly. He had no intention of letting go of her at all. Therefore, she did not use the other hand that was originally holding onto the scarf to break her fingers. One by one, she used almost all her strength.

However, Xi Lingheng’s fingers were as hard as iron. She used all her strength to break one, but when she tried to break the other one, this finger bent down again and held her wrist tightly again. She did not give her any chance to break free at all.

She broke it for a long time and finally gave up. Then, she became ruthless and lowered her head. She opened her mouth, and her lips that were numb from talking suddenly bit on the back of his hand.

She used all her strength to bite down on him. She knew that she must have hurt him because her teeth were aching so much that they were about to fall off.

However, she did not give up. There was a saying that it was better to be in pain for a long time than to be in pain for a short time. She would rather be in pain for a while. As long as he could be fine in the future, as long as he did not lose many things because of her, as long as the Fang family in Hui city could bring back the dead.. As long as everyone was fine, then she would rather bear the pain. . .

Chapter 1762: Don't tell me you can't bear to part with her

However, despite the pain, Xi Lingheng still did not let go of her hand. Instead, he held her wrist tightly, with no intention of letting go at all.

Perhaps it was because of the pain that he had the instinct to clench his fists even tighter, but the hand that held her wrist became more and more forceful instead. Fang Xiao could almost feel the bones in her wrist cracking. It was as if they were about to shatter in an instant.

She finally gritted her teeth and steeled her heart. She raised her other hand and swung it fiercely at his face that was covered in snow and white. Only a trace of black eyebrows and purplish lips could be seen.

“SLAP!” The crisp sound of a slap resounded in the square, which was so quiet that only the sound of their breathing and heartbeats could be heard except for the falling snow. It was clearly a cold winter, but it was like thunder that shocked both her and him at the same time.

Such a heavy and decisive slap obviously landed on Xi Lingheng's face, but it also landed on her heart at the same time. It was so painful that her heart instantly shattered into dust and flew in the air as the snowflakes danced. It instantly dyed the silver snowflakes into a dazzling bright red color.

Xi Lingheng was obviously shocked as well. Because of her slap, the snowflakes on his face had been completely shaken off, and his face was red. His eyes were obviously filled with disbelief.

But even so, he still did not let go. He still held onto her wrist tightly and refused to let go. It was as if he would not let go of her hand no matter what.

She was finally forced to bite her own lip and point her other hand at her. She started to shout hysterically, “Xi Lingheng, are you still a man? I've already told you very clearly just now that I don't love you anymore. I don't love you at all. Can you stop clinging to me so shamelessly?”

“people say that a man should have ambition. Why don't you have any ambition at all “You still want to continue our relationship, but I'm not willing to go down anymore. Xi Lingheng, let go of me immediately. Let go of me immediately. Don't be like this, okay A man has to act like a man. A man has to be able to take it and let it go. Look at you now, how are you still like a man Do you think I, Fang Xiao, have no backbone Would I love a man who doesn't look like a man I beg you, don't disgust me like this, okay?”

“Don’t tell me that you can’t bear to leave me. Now, I feel disgusted just by looking at you. Let go of me right now. I don’t want to see you again. I don’t want to see you again in this lifetime!”

Fang Xiao shouted like this. She said whatever words hurt the most and were the most vicious. In fact, she did not even know that many of the words were repeated. She just wanted the most vicious words to drive him away.

These words were so unbearable to hear. It was like a heavy and blunt copper hammer that slammed heavily into Xi Lingheng’s chest. His chest was like an iron wall. The copper hammer seemed to have no reaction when it hit him.

However, the heart hidden in his chest was shattered by the copper hammer. The heart that had been shattered into dust instantly flew in the wind like pieces of paper.

Xi Lingheng just stood there without moving. He stared at her face without blinking. His eyes were bloodshot and his eyes were dyed dark red. ...

Chapter 1763 loving someone was so painful

Finally, a strange expression appeared in his eyes. This was because the woman in front of him was no longer the Fang Xiao he was familiar with. She was no longer the youthful, kind, and passionate Fang Xiao he loved.

This was a heartless, cold, cruel, and merciless executioner.

After Fang Xiao finished shouting those vicious words, she no longer looked at him. She tilted her head slightly upward and made the gesture of looking at the stars. Of course, in such a snowstorm, not to mention there were no stars in the sky, even if there were stars, she would not be able to see them.

Because she couldn’t even see the sky. All she could see was the snow that was dancing like goose feathers in the sky and the storm that kept blowing crazily. She didn’t know if she still had the strength to walk back to the dormitory tonight She didn’t know if she would die in the snowstorm just like that.

Xi Lingheng was desperate in the end because the woman standing in front of him was so unfamiliar that she didn’t even look at him. Therefore, the hand that was holding on to Fang Xiao finally loosened, bit by bit. Slowly, she was very reluctant to let go She was very reluctant, but in the end, she let go of her completely.

Fang Xiao quickly turned around and did not look at him again. She was determined and determined. Without turning back, she walked desperately in the snowstorm. Because she was walking against the wind, because the soles of her shoes had been frozen into ice Because she had stood in the snow for too long, her legs and feet were almost numb from the cold.

Actually, walking in this kind of weather was very difficult, but even so, she did not let herself turn back. She gritted her teeth and endured all kinds of pain. Step by step, she walked forward with difficulty.

She did not know how long she had walked because the whole world was silver time. She did not even know if it was dark or not. She did not know how far she had walked. She had never looked back She did not know how far she was from the square.

She walked until she could no longer walk. She walked until her body could no longer hold her body steady. Finally, she fell limply into the snow by the roadside.

It was strange. She fell in the snow, but she did not faint like in movies and television. Her brain was extremely clear. She just looked at this silver world, so cold that there was no trace of warmth. She finally could no longer hold on to herself. She could no longer lie to herself. Her tears could no longer be forced back, so she burst into tears.

It was not known whether her crying attracted help or whether her red clothes were eye-catching in the snow. In short, she was found by the rescuers in the snowmobile, and they helped her into the car.

After getting into the ambulance, she was still crying. The rescuers thought that she was cold, so they immediately drove to the nearest rescue station, gave her clothes and food, and let her stay in the House with the heater on.

However, she was still crying. She hid in the corner of the House with the heater and cried until she was heartbroken. The rescue workers quickly came over and asked her why she was crying with concern. Was there something that she still lacked?

She told people in Chinese that she did not lack anything. She had just lost something. That thing was called love. For the first time in 20 years, she fell in love with someone. She loved him so much that she was even more confused than herself. However, she had lost him.

She had never known that loving someone was so painful. Once she wanted to separate from him, it was as if her entire heart had been dug out by her. Her heart was clearly empty, but she could still feel the pain. Moreover, the pain spread throughout her body through her blood vessels, all the way to her limbs and bones.

Chapter 1764 ended so cleanly

She had watched melodramatic online novels before, as well as TV dramas and movies. For the scene of the male and female protagonist breaking up, the senior writers always liked to describe the female protagonist's pain with heart-wrenching pain.

However, she felt that her pain was not only heart-wrenching, but also heartbreaking!

She felt that her liver and intestines had been pulled out, as if they were being cut inch by inch, piece by piece, by a sharp blade. Her heart was also stabbed by the sharp blade, one by one, and finally, it was riddled with thousands of holes. Those hearts.. Those liver and intestines were scattered in the heavy snow that filled the sky. They were dripping with blood, but they were still loud and clear.

Xi Lingheng, I love you so much. Even if I have to eat chaff and swallow vegetables, I'm willing to go to the ends of the earth with you as long as I can be with you.

Xi Lingheng, I love you so much, but reality has stopped my love for you. Thus, I'm willing to give my all for your future. Even if you will always hate me in the end.

Xi Lingheng, I love you so much. That is why I am willing to leave you in such a way, even though I know that I will never find a second you in this world!

However, if my departure can give you more of everything, then let me end the everlasting love between us because of my love for you. ...

Later, Fang Xiao often thought that the old saying, “the everlasting love will last forever, and this hatred will last forever” should be the portrayal of her and Xi Lingheng, right?

The so-called Everlasting Love between her and Xi Lingheng had completely come to an end, and what was left was only hatred, and that hatred might really not reach the end.

As for her and Xi Lingheng, it ended so cleanly. It was as if the Siamese twins that were originally close to each other had suddenly been split open by a sharp blade from the middle, cutting through gold and jade. There was no connection at all. It was clear and sharp!

As for the love between her and Xi Lingheng, it was so short that it was only a year. How did it start? She could not remember it clearly. It was like an ancient movie. What was always memorable was the unbearable pain at the end.

In later years, when she dreamed in the middle of the night, she would always dream of the scene when she broke up with him. She would always dream of him shouting at her: I don't believe it, I won't believe it... ..

“Love is you and me, a life where our hearts are intertwined. Love is you and me, a promise that is inconvenient in times of adversity...” Dolan's unique, vicissitudes of life voice came from her bag. It also pulled her from the memories of the past into a reality that was even crueler than the memories.

She quickly went to a pavilion by the square. This place was probably used to give people a nap and to hide from the rain. She took out her phone from her bag and realized that it was actually Luo Qili calling.

She used her trembling hands to answer the call and carefully sent the phone to her dripping ear. She didn't dare to put the phone too close to her ear for fear of getting electrocuted.

Before she could say “Hello” , Luo Qili's panicked voice came from the phone. “Fang Xiao, it's bad. Fang Chen has been picked up by the Qiu family.”

Fang Xiao didn't remember how she got to the Qiu family in Huicheng because she panicked when she received Luo Qili's call in the rain. Then, she went straight to the long-distance bus station in her wet clothes.

When she stood in the Qiu family's hall, shivering and drenched, old Madam Qiu was really shocked. Then, she quickly ordered the maid at home, Ah Tao, to take her to shower and change her clothes. She even said that she was afraid of catching a cold.

Chapter 1765 I don't want to

Fang Xiao knew Ah Tao. Every time she came to visit the Fang family, she would see Ah Tao. At that time, Ah Tao also thought that she would be the future young Madam, so she treated her very well.

Now, it was impossible for her to be the young Madam of the Qiu family. However, ah Tao still treated her well. She still brought her to the guest room, found her clean clothes and towels, and even thoughtfully put hot water in for her.

She thought, AH TAO was a part-time worker after all. Presumably, her family was not rich, so she did not show the so-called dog-eye-looking-down expression. This was also worthy of praise.

When Fang Xiao finished showering, changed her clothes, and dried her hair, she came downstairs and found that her younger brother, Fang Chen, was already back. Qiu Yitang was sitting on the Sofa playing checkers with him.

“sister,” Fang Chen saw her and immediately ran over. He threw himself into her arms like a four-year-old child and called her coquettishly. Then, he took her hand and came over He pointed at Qiu Yitang and said, “brother-in-law took me to eat mcdonald’s. It was so delicious. I ate hamburgers, French fries, Ice Cream, COLA...”

Fang Chen counted excitedly like a child, while Fang Xiao’s gaze landed on Qiu Yitang’s face. She asked indifferently and distantly, “Qiu Yitang, what do you mean?”

Qiu Yitang smiled and did not immediately answer Fang Xiao’s question. Madam Qiu, who had just left, walked out of the elderly room on the first floor and saw Fang Chen She immediately smiled and shouted at him, “Chen Chen, can you and sister Ah Tao go to the building next door to see your room?”

“Okay,” Chen Chen agreed happily. Then, she let go of Fang Xiao’s hand and immediately followed Ah Tao to the corridor connecting this building to another building. She looked especially happy.

Old Madam Qiu pulled Fang Xiao to sit down on the SOFA Then, she said earnestly, “Fang Xiao, we are also very sad that such a thing happened to the Fang family. And Yi Tang, this child, is indeed lacking in consideration. Your engagement with Yi Tang has not been canceled yet...”

“I can announce it now,” Fang Xiao quickly followed old Madam Qiu’s words Then, she said coldly, “if you are worried that I will use the engagement to Pester you, there is actually no need to go through so much trouble. Just give me a call. I won’t go to the extent of...”

“Fang Xiao, you’ve misunderstood us.” Old Madam Qiu hurriedly took over Fang Xiao’s words Then, she sighed softly and said, “of course, I know that so many things have happened in the Fang Corporation, especially the things that happened on your wedding day. I’ve already harshly criticized Yi Tang for all of these. Now...”

When old Madam Qiu said this, she looked at Fang Xiao and said, “now Yi Tang has already realized his mistake, and is willing to fulfill the engagement with you...”

“I’m not willing.” Fang Xiao hurriedly interrupted old Madam Qiu’s words, then looked at Qiu Yitang and said, “I think that director Qiu shouldn’t agree to marry a ruined woman that he hates so much.”

“I’m sorry. I shouldn’t have said that to you that day.” Qiu Yitang immediately apologized Then, he looked at her with a sincere gaze and said, “Fang Xiao, let’s not pursue the past, okay? I promise you that from now on, I will live a good life with you. I will... break up with her.”

Fang Xiao felt strange when she heard this. What was going on with the Qiu family She was now penniless. There shouldn't be any value in her that they would be reluctant to part with, right Why was she so warm to her at a time like this?

Chapter 1766: the marriage was brought up again

Just as she was about to open her mouth to refuse again.. She heard old Madam Qiu say again, "Fang Xiao, your younger brother Fang Chen isn't really a fool. He just stopped developing his intelligence. If he were to go abroad for surgery, I think he should be able to develop his intelligence. It's not that he's very smart, but at least he won't stay around four years old forever. Don't you think so?"

Fang Xiao immediately fell silent. She had already inquired about this overseas before the Fang family went bankrupt. However, it was said that the surgery was very expensive, costing five to six million yuan. At that time, the Fang family happened to be in a difficult financial situation Her father said that when she got married, the Fang family would use Qiu's money to raise the funds in the stock market and send Fang Chen overseas.

However, who knew that before she got married and before the Fang family could use Qiu's money to raise the funds, the Fang family would go bankrupt, her wedding would be ruined, and the Fang family would go into complete decline. Even her parents had passed away.

Now, five to six million yuan was an astronomical figure to her. She had already given up the idea of sending Fang Chen overseas for surgery. She only wanted to rely on her own hands to earn money back, and then the siblings would live a peaceful life.

Now, old Madam Qiu brought up this topic at this time. She could not help but wonder, why did they do this What benefits did this have for them?

The Qiu family had always been shrewd profiteers and would never do business at a loss. If Qiu Yitang wanted to marry her and help her because of their old relationship, it was even more impossible.

She and Qiu Yitang had indeed been engaged and had been engaged for four years. However, Qiu Yitang had been abroad for those four years. To be precise, there was basically no so-called love between them.

Just as Fang Xiao was puzzled, Qiu Yitang opened his mouth again. "Fang Xiao, let's get married. Next July, Fang Chen will have his summer vacation. When the weather is warm, we will send Fang Chen abroad for surgery."

"You... will really send Fang Chen abroad for surgery?" Fang Xiao was skeptical of Qiu Yitang's words, because this person had once lied to her. Moreover, when she went to him to borrow money, he had humiliated her like that ...

"I have already contacted the American Special Intelligence Development Hospital." Qiu Yitang took out a document from his bag and handed it to Fang Xiao Then, he said to her seriously, "this is the agreement I signed with the hospital. I've already paid a deposit of 100,000 yuan. I've reserved the bed for July next year. If you don't believe me, you can call and ask if I'm lying."

Fang Xiao held the document in her hand. Her whole hand was trembling. She bit the corner of her lips and asked after a while, "about that... why are you helping me like this... with my brother?"

Qiu Yitang was slightly stunned. He thought to himself, of course it's profitable. I, Qiu Yitang, never do business at a loss. Moreover, I have to use my marriage to exchange for it this time?

However, what he said was, "Fang Xiao, we have a marriage contract to begin with. Moreover, my grandmother likes you very much. She feels that she's more suitable to be the daughter-in-law of our Qiu family."

Because Old Madam Qiu felt that she was more suitable to be the daughter-in-law of the Qiu family, the Qiu family was unwilling to break off the marriage contract. Moreover, because Qiu Yitang had made such arrangements for Fang Chen, Fang Xiao was almost forced to the point of no return.

If she was alone in this world, she could completely ignore the matters of the Qiu family. However, it involved her younger brother. Moreover, it was his younger brother's future. She had to consider it.

Chapter 1767 asked me to stay

Of course, she did not agree to marry Qiu Yitang right away because she did not forget the agreement between herself and Dongfang Yunheng. She had signed a contract to sell her body for a year.

Therefore, she lied that she had not resigned from the company and wanted to go back to apply for resignation. Therefore, she left Fang Chen at the Qiu family home and took a car back to Bincheng alone.

When she returned to Bincheng, she was no longer an employee of the Dongfang Group, and she could not take even half a step into the Dongfang Group. Therefore, she had no choice but to call Dongfang Yunheng. This time, it was no longer impossible to get through, but it became an empty number.

Dongfang Yunheng's phone had become an empty number. She was almost instantly stunned. Then, she hopped into a taxi like a crazy person and headed straight for the famous Jiangnan City where she used to live.

Fortunately, the security guards of the famous Jiangnan city still treated her as the owner of this place. She lied and said that she had forgotten to bring her card, but when she reached the floor where Dongfang Yunheng was, she took out her keys and could no longer open the door.

The locks had been changed. He completely did not want her, even though she was a slave that he had bought. Now, as a financial backer, he had even thrown away the slaves that he had bought with money.

She sat at Dongfang Yunheng's door for a long time, until she heard the sound of her stomach growling. Then, she slowly walked down the elevator.

The noon Sun was so cruel. She walked aimlessly in the garden of Jiangnan's famous city. The fountains and the artificial mountains seemed to have become unreal, as if she had lived here before.

When she walked out of the gate of Jiangnan's famous city, the security guard politely handed her an envelope, saying that Mr. Dongfang had left it behind. If he saw her coming, he asked him to give it to her.

She took the envelope and held it tightly in her palm. Under the scorching sunlight, she wandered along the streets of Binhai until she could not walk anymore.

Finally, she opened the envelope. In fact, there was an agreement inside. She had signed the contract of prostitution at that time. On it was her signature, Xi Lingheng's signature, and —

There was also a sentence that he did not know when he had added: Xi Lingheng was long dead!

Yes, Xi Lingheng was long dead. He died in the snowy winter in New Jersey. He died in that night of the snowstorm. Just like Fang Xiao four years ago, he had died a long time ago.

It was over. This time, it was truly over. Her relationship with him, even the relationship between the financier and the slave, was over. It was so complete!

She should not have expected it, but she was still too stupid. When he drove to Hui city, when he brought her to buy the chain, when he called to say 'happy birthday' to her.

She was still too stupid and naive. She had fallen for him once again, but she did not know that everything was just a trap set by him. He just wanted to let her taste the taste of being mercilessly abandoned. ...

She tasted it. The pain, the pain, it was like a fish that was swimming in the sea was suddenly thrown onto the hot beach. The lack of water and oxygen attacked her at the same time. She could not breathe at all. It was a hundred times more painful than death.

Du Caiwei looked at the bank card, plane ticket, and passport on the coffee table. Then she looked at the man who was smoking on the balcony. She finally understood in an instant. Then, tears rolled down her face.

She ran straight over and wrapped her arms around his waist from behind. Her entire face was pressed against his back. She cried and begged, "Yitang, don't let me go. Yitang, I don't want to leave you. Yitang, please, let me stay..."

Chapter 1768: Marrying Qiu Yitang

Qiu Yitang didn't turn around immediately. Instead, he took a long drag on his cigarette and looked up at the ceiling of the balcony. He quickly saw the woman's soft body and boiling liquid behind him, as well as her trembling begging voice.

For a second, he almost blurted out that he would agree to her request. But when he thought of the Gu family's request, the land to the east of Binhai, and the real estate business that he could enter Binhai from now on, of course.. He also thought of how Fang Xiao would have a hard time getting pregnant after she had a miscarriage because of the erotic photos he and Du Caiwei had designed.

Whether it was because of his career or his conscience, he had to marry Fang Xiao, and he had to cut off all ties with this woman in front of him. At least, he had to cut off all ties in Huicheng.

So, in the end, he gritted his teeth and hardened his heart, which had just softened. He forcefully pushed away the hand that was hanging on his waist.

“Okay, Caiwei, it’s not a life-and-death parting.” Qiu Yitang reached out and gently wiped her crystal clear tears off her face. Then, he quickly comforted her, “you’re just going to live abroad, and I’ll come to America a few times every year. I’ll come to America for a vacation, and we’ll be together again.”

“Yitang, you said you wanted to marry me before?” Du Caiwei’s voice trembled as she looked at him and asked, “then how long after you married her will you divorce?”

Qiu Yitang’s heart trembled slightly. He was only getting married to Fang Xiao the next day. He hadn’t even gotten married yet, and he was already saying that he wanted to divorce. This made him feel uncomfortable in his heart?

“I don’t know,” he said truthfully. Then, he looked at her apologetically and said, “I’m sorry, Caiwei. People have a lot of helplessness when they live in the world. You should go to America first. We’ll talk about the future in the future.”

“We’ll talk about it in the future?” Du Caiwei looked at Qiu Yitang and asked with tears all over her face, “how long will your future be? And how long will I have to wait overseas for you to give me eternal happiness?”

“I. . . I don’t know.” Qiu Yitang looked at her with difficulty. Then, he pushed the woman in his arms with his hand and caressed her head to comfort her. “Hurry up and pack your luggage. Where’s the flight at night? What if...”

Before Qiu Yitang could finish his words, Du Caiwei’s pink lips had already pressed against his and quickly covered his mouth. Her soft and boneless little hand was touching his belt buckle, and with a crack, it untied his belt buckle.

Qiu Yitang panicked and immediately used his hand to grab the little hand that was pulling his pants. He then used a little strength to break free from her cherry-like little mouth and called out to her in a low voice, “Caiwei, this miscarriage of yours hasn’t even reached the full moon yet, you can’t...”

“I know,” Du Caiwei’s voice sounded charmingly. Her two hands had already quickly pulled down his pants. Then, her soft and boneless hands held little Qiu Yitang, and her pink and tender lips pressed against his. ...

Fang Xiao and Qiu Yitang’s marriage was no longer as grand as the wedding three months ago. This time, they only went to collect the certificate, and then the Qiu family held a family banquet.

The so-called family banquet was actually the presence of the relatives of the Qiu and Fang families. They would not invite any guests outside. It was actually a very small wedding.

The wedding was held in the West Mountain Villa. This was also the dowry that Fang Xiao’s father had prepared for her. Later, it was auctioned off because of the bankruptcy of the Fang family, but it was bought by Qiu Yitang. Now, this villa was no longer the Fang family’s, but the Qiu family’s.

Chapter 1769 was just a scene

They were said to be relatives of the Fang and Qiu families, but because of the bankruptcy of the Fang family, they no longer had any relatives. Therefore, Fang Xiao's only relative was her younger brother, Fang Chen.

The Qiu family did not seem to have many relatives, so the entire wedding banquet only had five chapters of the dinner table in the West Mountain Villa, and many families were sent out by the whole family.

The relatives of the Qiu family, Fang Xiao, also looked familiar. This was because she had been Qiu Yitang's fiancée for four years, and when she and Qiu Yitang were engaged, some relatives had come.

However, the only thing that she did not expect was that Gu Chenchen was also a relative of the Qiu family. Therefore, when she wore a formal dress and went to toast the guests with Qiu Yitang, she saw Gu Chenchen at the old Madam Qiu's seat.

Fang Xiao remembered that that night at the Gu family's family banquet, Gu Chenchen's uncle's birthday, Qiu Yitang also attended with Du Caiwei. At that time, Qiu Yitang even said that the Qiu family and the Gu family had expressions on their faces.

Gu Chenchen wore a proper formal dress, which made him look particularly dignified and generous. When he saw Fang Xiao, he was also particularly enthusiastic. He raised his wine glass to congratulate the two of them.

"Yitang, Fang Xiao, I wish you a long life together." Gu Chenchen had a proper smile on her face. Then, she licked her lips and said, "Yun Heng originally came to congratulate you, but he couldn't come back because he was out of town on a business trip, so he asked me to bring you his blessings!"

From the beginning to the end, Fang Xiao's face was like a mask, which could no longer express any sadness or joy. When Gu Chenchen said this to her, her face was still wearing the same formulaic and unchanged smile.

Who Was Dongfang Yunheng The president of the Dongfang Group, just a boss that she used to work for. And her relationship with him, wasn't it the relationship between the boss and the employees?

She had no relationship with Dongfang Yunheng, and the man that she used to love, Xi Lingheng, was already dead. So who would bless her and who wouldn't bless her, what did it matter?

The marriage didn't happen too late. Perhaps because Fang Xiao had caused a scandal three months ago, everyone still didn't have a good opinion of her. Even if Qiu Yitang married her, everyone only felt that the Qiu family had a conscience and was magnanimous.

The wedding banquet that started at seven o'clock ended at nine o'clock in the evening. The guests took their leave one after another, and they could not help but say some words of blessing, such as being married forever, having a child early, and so on.

Finally, a show that was meant to be watched ended. Finally, the entire West Mountain Villa quieted down. Fang Chen held Fang Xiao's hand and asked a little nervously, "sister, where do I live?"

“You live in the guest room on the second floor, right next to sister’s room.” Fang Xiao held her brother’s hand and walked upstairs. She did not even greet Qiu Yitang, who was still closing the courtyard door.

There were three rooms on the second floor, two large guest rooms, and a children’s room. Because it was a villa, each room actually had a suite that looked like a washroom.

Qiu Yitang walked upstairs and noticed that the lights in the two rooms on the second floor were on. He hesitated for a moment, then very naturally walked towards one of the guest rooms and pushed open the door that was ajar.

Fang Xiao was looking for clothes in the cloakroom. When she heard the sound of the door being pushed open, she thought that her brother Fang Chen had come to look for her, so she quickly walked out. When she saw that it was Qiu Yitang who walked in, she was obviously stunned.

“What do you mean?” Qiu Yitang’s face was dark. He was very dissatisfied that she refused to stay in the master’s room on the first night of her wedding. Wasn’t it obvious that she despised him as the groom?

Chapter 1770: I want to listen to a story

“It’s meaningless,” Fang Xiao replied faintly. She glanced at Qiu Yitang. “I think you should know that I’m still in my confinement period, so I’m probably unable to fulfill my duties as a bride. The other thing is that you shouldn’t have any interest in a ruined woman like me, boss Qiu.”

“Fang Xiao,” Qiu Yitang immediately couldn’t help but growl. He said with great dissatisfaction, “I can understand that your confinement period isn’t full. I won’t force you, but please don’t call me a ruined woman, okay? I . . . I don’t think that way anymore.”

Fang Xiao couldn’t help but sneer when she heard Qiu Yitang’s words. She said indifferently, “then what does President Qiu think now? Could it be that the child that I aborted in my stomach is a fake? Could it be that I’m still a pure and innocent girl?”

Qiu Yitang’s face immediately turned red and white. He didn’t expect that Fang Xiao would tightly hold on to the words “ruined woman”. When he brought Du Caiwei to humiliate her, he didn’t expect that the situation would turn out like this.

If he had known that she would suffer so much, if he had known that she would lose the thing that a woman shouldn’t lose because of this, if he had known that he would be bound to her sooner or later in his life, would he still have done that?

He did not know, because there was no such thing as knowing, so he had already done all the things that he should or should not have done.

Looking at the cold face of the woman in front of him, he was embarrassed and kept silent for a long time before he spoke again, “Fang Xiao, I will give you time. Come to the master bedroom upstairs when you are full of your children. WE ARE HUSBAND AND WIFE!”

After saying this, he immediately turned around and walked out of the door, as if if he stayed for another second, Fang Xiao would say something that would make him even more sad and embarrassed.

Fang Xiao tightly clutched the clothes that she had just gotten her hands on. Her face instantly twisted and became ferocious. She really hated herself. Why was she so useless? Why was she so powerless? In the end, she still couldn't escape from Qiu Yitang's grasp.

Didn't the movies and television always write about how ambitious the female lead was after her fall? Didn't they write about how she would meet a powerful financier to help her take revenge and even take back everything that originally belonged to her? And they even wanted to humiliate the person who had once humiliated her back?

She remembered now. The movies and television had written about the female lead, but she wasn't the female lead. She was just a supporting actress, so none of this would happen to her.

In Qiu Yitang's case, du Caiwei was the female lead, and Qiu Yitang was du Caiwei's lucky star. Therefore, Du Caiwei had taken back everything that she had lost when she was young. She had indeed bankrupted the Fang Corporation, and she had even trampled Fang Xiao under her feet.

"sister, what are you thinking about?" Fang Chen walked over from the children's room opposite. Seeing that Fang Xiao did not even know that he had entered, he could not help but pull on her sleeve and ask.

"Oh, nothing." Fang Xiao quickly returned to the god of Nation. She put down the clothes in her hand and looked at Fang Chen again. "What's wrong? Aren't you going to sleep? Don't you have to go back to school tomorrow?"

"I . . . Can't sleep." Fang Chen pulled on Fang Xiao's sleeve and shook it. "I want to hear a story. Sister will go over and tell me a story."

Fang Xiao was a little helpless. She could only lead her younger brother, who was taller than her, to his room. Then, she took out a fairy tale book from the Cabinet and sat on the bed with him as they talked.

Fang Xiao Drove Fang Chen back to school on her own. Of course, Qiu Yitang also drove this car for her. He said that it was for her to use when she went out. He didn't let her go out to squeeze into the bus or hail a taxi.
