Chapter 1801: Where Are you going

“What? You’re going to change jobs?” Luo Qili looked at Fang Xiao. She couldn’t help but remind her, “Fang Xiao, you have to think carefully. If you can’t get a job and don’t get a commission, and a month’s salary isn’t enough for your own expenses, then what about your brother’s tuition and miscellaneous fees?”

Fang Xiao bit her lip lightly. Then she sighed deeply and said, “actually, I don’t have to change jobs. I’m just trying to find a job and see if I can find one. I’ll still go back to western district beach to work. After all, a monthly salary of 5,000 isn’t something an average company can afford.”

Fang Xiao really did not want to leave the western district beach, so she saw that her brother did not quit after he went back that day. She did not even tell any of her colleagues that she had applied for a job before.

She thought that although the work at the western district beach was hard during the holidays, it was usually relatively easy. The most important thing was that the boss trusted her very much, which made her work very comfortable.

However, two weeks later, when Dongfang Yunheng came to look for her again, it forced her to leave the western district beach and go to another place to work.

The Day Dongfang Yunheng came to look for her happened to be the night shift. The night shift was at four in the afternoon, so she could rest in the morning and noon.

However, she did not rest today because it was her mother’s birthday. Although her mother had died more than half a year ago, she still remembered that her mother liked birthdays the most.

During the Qingming Festival, the business at the beach was very good and she was busy with work, so she did not come to visit her parents’ graves. Therefore, she pushed the matter of visiting the graves to her mother’s birthday.

Because she was not in a hurry, she slept until nine o’clock in the morning before she got up. By the time she washed up and tidied up, it was already ten o’clock in the morning when she went downstairs.

She took her bag and walked out of the dormitory building naturally. Then, she walked towards the road outside that led to the town center, because there was a bus on the side of the road.

However, as soon as she walked under the Longan Tree, she was immediately stopped by someone. And the person who stopped her was actually Dongfang Yunheng, who had just gotten engaged a few days ago.

She immediately frowned, because she did not expect Dongfang Yunheng to actually come looking for her. In her mind, she should have already severed all ties with him.

Thus, she still spoke very politely and formally, “Mr. Dongfang, are you... looking for me?”

Dongfang Yunheng was very dissatisfied with her calling him Mr. Dongfang, and he was also very dissatisfied with her expression and tone when she saw him. He finally managed to find out that she was working the night shift today. When she rushed over early in the morning, not only did she not have the slightest bit of joy.. She actually still had such a distant expression.

“where are you going?” He suppressed the dissatisfaction in his heart. He thought that he had specially come to look for her and did not want to make things difficult for her, so he spoke gently.

“I’m going to sweep the grave for my parents.” Fang Xiao glanced at Dongfang Yunheng and then said indifferently, “So, now, Mr. Dongfang, can you move aside?”

“I’ll drive you there.” As Dongfang Yunheng spoke, he had already turned around and helped her open the door of the passenger seat, indicating for her to get in the car.

Fang Xiao stood there without moving. She looked at Dongfang Yunheng and said indifferently, “I think...”

“Your colleague is coming out,” Yun Heng reminded her indifferently. “If you don’t get in the car, I think your colleague will be curious about me. Of course, if I do anything else...”

Chapter 1802, I’ll send you there

Fang Xiao quickly got into Dongfang Yunheng’s car before he could finish his sentence. She understood Dongfang Yunheng well. Sometimes, he would not be able to take into account the position and feelings of others when he did things.

A smile tugged at the corner of Yun Heng’s mouth. He also quickly got into the car in the driver’s seat. Then, he quickly backed out of the car. Then, he stepped on the accelerator and the car quickly drove in the direction of the town center.

Fang Xiao sat in the car without saying a word. When the car reached the town, she looked straight ahead and said, “Mr. Dongfang, please pull over. I still have something to do, so I won’t trouble you.”

“I also have something to look for you.” Dongfang Yunheng did not stop the car. He turned to look at Fang Xiao and said, “I’ll go take care of your business first. Then, I’ll tell you about my business.”

“I’m sorry, I’m not interested in your business.” Fang Xiao felt frustrated and could not help but raise her voice by two decibels. “Mr. Dongfang, I really don’t want to sit in your car. Can you please not force others?”

It was as if Dongfang Yunheng did not understand her words and continued to drive. Fang Xiao was so angry that she had no choice. His car was fast, and it was impossible for her to open the door and jump out of the car unless she wanted to die. However, she did not want to die now.

Therefore, she could only sit in the front passenger seat and ignore him. She wanted to see where he could drive the car today. Fortunately, Dongfang Yunheng’s car continued to drive in the direction of Hui city until it entered the city district of Hui city. Then, he turned to look at her and asked, “which cemetery is it?”

Fang Xiao could not help but sigh. She did not understand this man. That day, he came to her early in the morning to ask her to treat him to a meal. In the end, it cost her more than five thousand yuan. Today, he came to look for her again. She did not want to spend another few thousand yuan. Otherwise, Fang Chen's tuition fees for the next year would be gone.

So.. She said unhappily, "Mr. Dongfang, let me make it clear first. I don't have the money to treat you to a meal, so don't say that you forgot to bring your wallet or anything like that. If you insist on eating something, I can at most buy you a bucket of instant noodles to treat you. "

Dongfang Yunheng could not help but laugh when he heard her words. It seemed that it was not wrong for him to ruthlessly rip her off that day. Now, this woman had a deep impression of him.

"Why don't you hurry up and tell me which cemetery it is?" Dongfang Yunheng avoided her topic and went back to the main topic. "where am I going to drive my car? Don't tell me I'm just going to drive around the city? "

Fang Xiao was really helpless. She didn't know why Dongfang Yunheng was looking for her, and she felt that nothing should happen between them.

In the end, of course, she told him about the cemetery and let him drive her to the cemetery.

She bought a bunch of white chrysanthemums from the shop at the entrance of the cemetery and some sacrificial items. Then, she took these and slowly walked into the cemetery.

Her parents were buried together, so she didn't have to worry too much. A bunch of white chrysanthemums was enough. As for her mother's birthday, she remembered that her mother liked to eat birthday cakes the most. She had originally planned to buy the smallest birthday cake from the bakery. However, because Dongfang Yunheng forced her to take a car, she naturally could not buy it in the end.

She stood in front of her parents'tombstone for a long time and reported Fang Chen's situation to them. She said that her brother could barely take care of himself now and that he had made progress in the special school. Moreover, she had gone to visit her brother two days ago. Fang Chen even knew that he had taken the initiative to wash the dishes after dinner.

Chapter 1803 I didn't bring any money

Of course, from the beginning to the end, she didn't tell her parents about what happened to her. She married and divorced Qiu Yitang, and in order to prevent her and her brother, Fang Chen, from going to jail, she eventually lost one of her eyes.

Her parents would definitely be very sad if they knew about these things, and she didn't want to make them sad, so she picked up all the good things and told her parents, saying that she now had a job and five thousand yuan a month. She could earn money to support herself and her brother.

In order to stall for time, she had been staying in front of her parents'tombstones in the cemetery. She thought that Dongfang Yunheng's patience wasn't good, so he probably wouldn't wait for her to drive away.

Dongfang Yunheng's patience was indeed not good. He waited under the cemetery for an hour and a half. Seeing that Fang Xiao still hadn't come down, he simply went up the mountain and dragged Fang Xiao away in front of Fang Xiao's parents' tombstones.

"Hey, I haven't finished the incense and candles." Fang Xiao struggled to not follow him. Moreover, she had bought a bunch of incense and candles. If she didn't finish them this time, she could take them back. The next time she came to visit her parents, she didn't need to buy more.

Dongfang Yunheng had never heard of her words. He directly dragged her out of the cemetery gate and then forced her into the car. Fang Xiao insisted on getting out of the car. He couldn't help but SNORT and say, "incense and candles are only worth a few dollars. Can't you just buy them next time?"

Hearing this, she immediately fainted from anger. Thus, she refuted him coldly, "of course, you're a rich CEO who enjoys delicacies every day. You never know the hardships of the poor. Otherwise, why would du Fu leave behind the everlasting song 'Zhu men's wine, meat, and stinky road, frozen to death' He was talking about the distance between you and me."

Dongfang Yunheng couldn't be bothered with her. He directly drove down the cemetery. After they reached the main road, he said slowly, "Fang Xiao, don't be so ungrateful. I drove all the way from Binhai to look for you. It's already past noon, and I'm still hungry and waiting for you..."

"I don't have any money on me today," Fang Xiao immediately cut him off. Then, she said coldly, "I brought 100 yuan when I went out. I just spent 90 yuan on flowers, wax, and ghost coins, and now I only have 10 yuan on me. If you want to eat, I'll buy a bucket of fast food noodles for you."

"Then I'll treat you." Dongfang Yunheng did not argue with her about this, so he turned to look at her and said, "is your boss particularly mean? What does he usually give you to eat? Why don't you gain any weight, but instead, you're getting thinner?"

Fang Xiao looked at the scenery flying past the window. Her tone was indifferent and distant as she said, "Mr. Dongfang, you have good eyes. You can actually see that I'm getting thinner after being separated for two or three days. Could it be that the six thousand something breakfast that day did not make me gain two or three pounds?"

Dongfang Yunheng immediately became unhappy. He couldn't help but say angrily, "Fang Xiao, have you grown a brain? I came to ask you to treat me to a meal two weeks ago. In the blink of an eye, it's already been half a month, and you actually said that it's only been two or three days?"

Fang Xiao turned her face to the side and saw the anger on his face before Meng Meng reacted. Oh, so he hadn't been gone for two or three days, but it had been half a month. But what did this have to do with her? She was just busy with work and felt that the days had passed quickly and didn't remember clearly. Was it worth him being angry at her?

Besides, even if he was angry, he didn't need to vent his anger on her, right? She wasn't his punching bag. Wasn't he engaged to Miss Gu? If he had a temper, he should vent it on his fiancée, right?

Chapter 1804 — What do you mean

Besides, she had nothing to do with him anymore, and she didn't owe him anything. It was just that he had treated her to an empty restaurant last year, and she had spent a huge sum of money to treat him back?

Dongfang Yunheng said that he was hungry and wanted to eat, but there were almost no restaurants on the road leading from the cemetery to the city. It was not until they reached a service station that they saw two decent restaurants.

"Hey, let's eat here." Dongfang Yunheng drove the car into the parking space of a restaurant and stopped. He turned to look at Fang Xiao and said, "it's already past one o'clock in the afternoon. I'm really hungry. I haven't even eaten breakfast yet. I'll just let them rip me off here."

Fang Xiao could not help but snort coldly in her heart. No matter how much they rip you off, at the very most, the price of the dishes would only be a few yuan or ten yuan more expensive than those in the city. No matter how much they rip you off, they would not let you eat a few thousand yuan in one meal, right?

Restaurants that opened next to the service station usually had drivers or passengers passing by to eat. The prices of the dishes were indeed a little more expensive, but it was not to the extent of being ridiculous.

Dongfang Yunheng ordered three dishes and one soup. Because there were fewer people, the dishes were served very quickly. Fortunately, the rice was not bad. It was a long-grain aromatic dish that was unique to the south, so the dishes were also done sloppily. Fang Xiao felt that the dishes were better than the big pot of food in her kitchen.

Fang Xiao ate quite a lot. In fact, she woke up late in the morning and did not eat breakfast. Usually, the people on the night shift would not wake up to eat in the morning. They would sleep until noon before waking up.

As for Dongfang Yunheng, who was complaining about being hungry, he did not eat much. After all, he was a rich CEO. He usually ate very delicately. It was fine if the dishes in these small restaurants were not good, but the main thing was that the hygiene was not standard. The plates looked a little dirty.

Fang Xiao ate more and ate slower, so she was still eating when Dongfang Yunheng was full. He probably felt that the food was not good, so he went out to smoke to satisfy his hunger.

After Fang Xiao finished eating, she asked the boss to settle the bill. Although it was a rip-off, it was actually not expensive. The two of them only ate less than 100 yuan, so she took out her wallet from her bag and prepared to pay.

At this time, Dongfang Yunheng walked in and immediately handed the boss a 100 yuan bill. Then, he said to Fang Xiao, "I promised to treat, how can I let you pay again?"

Fang Xiao did not argue with him. She just walked out of the restaurant naturally. This was a roadside service station. In fact, there were a lot of cars passing by, and outside the service station was a bus stop.

Therefore, she walked toward the bus stop naturally. She thought that she should take the bus back to the western district beach. There was no direct bus here. At most, she could just transfer to another bus or two.

However, before she had walked two meters, she had just reached Dongfang Yunheng's car when he caught up from behind. Without any explanation, he pulled open the door and stuffed her into the car.

"Hey, what do you mean?" FanggXiaoo finally lost her temper. There was a limit to a person's patience, and she couldn't take it anymore.

"I came looking for you, but I didn't want to tell you. I came looking for you for something," Dongfang Yunheng started the car and answered her question calmly.

"What is it? Can't you say it here?" Although Fang Xiao's voice wasn't loud, her anger was clearly expressed in her words. She was very dissatisfied with Dongfang Yunheng pestering her now.

Dongfang Yunheng drove on the road without saying a word. Ahead was the intersection of the expressway. He quickly turned on the road and focused on driving. It was as if he didn't hear Fang Xiao's words.

Chapter 1805. There are many people who like you

Fang Xiao was very dissatisfied with his overbearing attitude. She gritted her teeth and clenched her fists. Because she had lost control of her emotions, there was actually warm liquid rolling in her eyes.

In Huicheng, she was not only a synonym for a ruined woman, but also a vicious spokesperson. Many people who loved to watch the gossip news would point their fingers at her if they had a good memory and could recognize her at a glance.

In the past, when she was studying, she knew that there was a big secret hidden in the imperial court and a small secret hidden in the city. However, she was already a small secret. She had hidden herself at the edge of Hui city, in a small taxi shop on the beach. She only wanted to live a quiet life and earn money for herself and her brother. She did not want to disturb anyone.

She had such low requirements, but Dongfang Yunheng was not willing to let her go. He actually came to disturb her life time and time again.

Dongfang Yunheng's car sped up after driving on the main road. There were not many cars on the road, but he kept cutting left and right. Several times, he almost scraped against other cars. Fang Xiao was so scared that she quickly pulled on her seatbelt.

But after he almost collided with a small car, Fang Xiao finally couldn't sit still. So she quickly reminded him carefully, "Mr. Dongfang, can you drive slower? If you're in a hurry, you can drop me off at the roadside. I can take the car back myself. If you drive like this, it'll be very easy for something to happen."

Dongfang Yunheng turned to look at her and said coldly, "are you so afraid of death? Or are you afraid of dying together with me?"

Fang Xiao immediately became unhappy when she heard this. She couldn't help but say coldly, "of course I'm afraid of death. Besides, why should I die together with you?" "Moreover, if I die together with you like this, won't I not even have a good reputation? Those who know will say that I was forcefully pulled into the car by you. My death was so unjust. Those who don't know will think that I was the one who seduced you. And you are already engaged. Don't people call me a mistress?"

When Dongfang Yunheng heard this, he became even more unhappy. He stepped on the accelerator even lower, and the car drove even faster. Yet, he still found the time to talk to her. "Fang Xiao, can't you see what's good for you? I drove over an hour to look for you. Not only were you not touched at all, but you even looked like you didn't like me at all. Am I so unattractive to you?"

When Fang Xiao heard this, she turned her head to the side and looked at the scenery that was also speeding past. She pretended not to hear his words. He had already disturbed her peaceful life by coming to look for her. Why should she be touched? She did not want to be disturbed by him at all, okay?

"Hey, I'm asking you a question. Do you have ears or not?" Dongfang Yunheng was very angry when Fang Xiao turned her head to the side and did not even look at him. He could not help but raise his voice and call out to her.

"What right do I have to see you?" Fang Xiao finally turned her face over, but she did not look at him. Instead, she glared at him coldly. "Mr. Dongfang, you have disturbed my life for no reason. Why should I see you? Moreover, there are many people who usually welcome a powerful and influential CEO like you. It shouldn't be a big deal if one of them doesn't welcome you, right?"

Yun Heng could not help but laugh when he saw her panting. As he laughed, his car slowed down. He sighed softly and said, "I know that there are many people who welcome me. However, how many people truly welcome me? Actually, most people welcome me because of my company and my money. They may not necessarily like me as a person."

Chapter 1806 was indeed not to be trifled with

"PFFT..." Fang Xiao finally could not hold it in any longer. She burst out laughing. Her previously cold face was suddenly lit up because of her laughter. It was as if a sun had suddenly appeared in the sky that was filled with dark clouds.

Dongfang Yunheng looked at her smile. Although it was only for a moment, he suddenly felt as if he had returned to the time six years ago when he was in New Jersey. At that time, her face always had a bright smile that was as bright as the sun.

After Fang Xiao smiled, she said calmly, "Mr. Dongfang, you are the president of a large company. You have seen all kinds of people. You should know that in fact, people, especially women, are all the same. When they see a rich man, especially a young and handsome rich man, they generally look at him as well as his money. It's just that some girls are more superficial and show it on the surface. As for me, maybe it's because I have more experience, or maybe it's because I read Romance novels and am more knowledgeable than ordinary women, that's why I didn't show it on the surface. In fact, after you asked me to treat you to a meal last time, I've been thinking about when Dongfang Yunheng will come again. I have to complain to him. I don't know if he will spend hundreds of thousands or even millions to buy me like last year. "

When Dongfang Yunheng heard what she said, his expression clearly turned better. Thus, he went along with her words and said, "Fang Xiao, why do you have to pretend to be so deep? Why did you say that you liked my money? This isn't a very simple matter. Alright, we have an agreement. How about this, I'll give you one million, and you and I will go back and sign another agreement.

"If I only want one million, then my cultivation is indeed too shallow. " Fang Xiao quickly cut him off, then turned her face to look at him with a smile. "Mr. Dongfang, I'm not in a hurry to use the money, so I don't intend to sell myself to you for a million dollars. You know, I work at the beach in the western district. There are often big bosses who drive luxury cars like Lamborghinis and Ferraris to swim there. What if one day a big boss is willing to spend ten million dollars or more to buy me? Then wouldn't it be a huge loss for me to sell myself to you for a million dollars? "

Fang Xiao's words were not what Dongfang Yunheng wanted to hear, so he went all out and stepped on the accelerator. The car, which had been stable just a moment ago, suddenly flew up, scaring Fang Xiao so much that her hands instantly clenched into fists and she immediately closed her eyes.

Dongfang Yunheng was indeed a character that could not be provoked. She did not promise to sell herself to him for a million yuan, but he was already so angry. Could it be that he came here to look for her and really wanted to buy her again?

Although the western district was in the westernmost part of Hui city, it was still in a city and was not particularly far away. Moreover, Dongfang Yunheng drove fast, so half an hour later, they reached the beach of the western district.

It was already past three o'clock in the afternoon. Fang Xiao knew that she had to change into her work clothes and go to work. So when his car stopped, she immediately opened the car door and got out, thinking that it was better to get as far away from Dongfang Yunheng as possible.

Unfortunately, no matter how fast she moved, she was still not as fast as Dongfang Yunheng. She had just closed the car door behind her, and before she could leave in a hurry, he actually went around the front of the car to stop her.

Chapter 1807 was because it was not easy

"What else do you want to do?" Fang Xiao growled at Dongfang Yunheng, who was blocking her way.

Yun Heng saw the anger and impatience on her face. After pondering for a moment, he said softly, "Fang Xiao, I came here today to tell you that there is a cornea in city G. It was donated by the parents of a child with blood cancer. I know the son of the hospital director. I think... "

"There is no pie in the sky. Even if there is a pie in the sky, I am not that lucky. " Fang Xiao quickly interrupted Dongfang Yunheng's words. There was no gratitude on her face. Instead, she became even angrier. So.. He even knew that she was blind in one eye.

It made sense. who was he, Dongfang Yunheng? As long as he wanted to investigate her, wouldn't it take a day or two Moreover, his assistant and secretary were all all-rounded talents. She couldn't even find out such a trivial matter in Hui city.

"This isn't a free lunch." Dongfang Yunheng's attitude towards Fang Xiao was a little uncomfortable He couldn't help but explain in a low voice, "I just... I just want to make your eyes see again. Coincidentally, this is an opportunity..." "why are you suddenly so good to me?" Fang Xiao interrupted him again She looked coldly at the man who was half a step away from her.

This man could no longer like her because she had hurt him so badly five years ago. And last year, when she had sold him that short two months with him, it proved that not only did he not like her, but he also hated her to the core.

A person who hated you to the core suddenly treated you well after half a year. This was definitely not a good thing, and it was very likely to be a sugar-coated cannonball.

Although she was already penniless and had no value, her experience with Dongfang Yunheng last year reminded her that this man was very scheming. She would not fall for the same trick again.

Why was he so good to her Dongfang Yunheng was stunned for a moment Then, he smiled bitterly and said, "I don't know. Actually, there's nothing between us anymore, but I suddenly thought of helping you. Perhaps I was too ruthless when I asked you to treat me to a meal last time. I actually ate your salary for more than a month, so I felt bad. I just thought that I could help you with something, so I just happened to have such an opportunity.". "..."

"There's no need." Fang Xiao took two steps back, a little further away from his courtyard Then she said to him indifferently, "you once treated me to an expensive dinner in Paris, and I treated you to a not-so-cheap breakfast. That way, we'll be even, and we won't owe each other anything. "

As Fang Xiao said this, she had already walked from the back of the car to the other side, preparing to quickly pass by the side. She really didn't have the mood to continue arguing with Dongfang Yunheng.

However, just as she reached the front of the car, she was still stopped by him. His expression was slightly warm and angry as he grabbed her wrist He growled with slight dissatisfaction, "Fang Xiao, can't you recognize a little bit of good and bad? Do you think that a row of corneas is so easy to fight for Dao?"

"It's because it's not easy, that's why I'm not willing to..." "

Before Fang Xiao could finish her words, Dongfang Yunheng's thin lips pressed down without warning, ruthlessly landing on her slightly dry lips...

"It's because it's not easy that I don't want to..." "

Fang Xiao's words had not finished, Dongfang Yunheng's thin lips pressed down without warning, ruthlessly fell on her slightly dry lips...

Chapter 1808 working at a wedding company

Fang Xiao was both angry and anxious. She did not expect Dongfang Yunheng to be so overbearing, so she immediately struggled with all her might. However, because she twisted her head, her glasses fell to the ground. Then, her unrotating, lusterless eyes.. The eyes that were similar to the eyes of a dead fish appeared in his sight without reservation.

But even so, Dongfang Yunheng would not let her go. Therefore, she was exasperated and could not help but kick him. However, he was not afraid of pain, and she was not wearing high heels, so he did not seem to feel any pain when she kicked his leg.

So, Fang Xiao was finally angry and anxious. When he was pressing down on her, she lifted her hand and threw it at his face without hesitation. "PA!" The crisp sound of a slap echoed under the dragon eye tree outside the dormitory building. She immediately stopped Kissing Dongfang Yunheng and was stunned.

Fang Xiao took advantage of the moment when he was stunned and quickly broke away from his embrace. She bent down to pick up her glasses that she had dropped on the ground, and then quickly ran to her dormitory building.

Fang Xiao had directly resigned from her boss after she went to work this afternoon. She found a reason why her younger brother did not have anyone to take care of him in school and needed her to work near the school. She asked the boss to understand her.

Because Fang Xiao was introduced by the school teacher, the boss had already known about Fang Xiao's situation before he came. Now that he heard Fang Xiao say this, he did not doubt him. He only said that he was very regretful. She had originally done very well, so she was also assured of her He had thought that this stall would be completely handed over to her to manage in the future, but he did not expect her to leave again.

According to the rules, if she left in such a hurry, she would have to deduct her pay. However, because of Fang Xiao's special situation and because she was introduced by an acquaintance, the boss did not deduct a single cent of her pay in the end He gave her the rest of her pay and let her leave.

Fang Xiao worked overnight to manage the dormitory building at the western district beach because she did not know if Dongfang Yunheng would go crazy again. What if he came again in a day or two?

Of course, she moved to a special school and lived in Luo Qili's dormitory. She told Luo Qili that she was going to work at the Baihe Wedding Company because she called in the afternoon and the boss of the company agreed to let her go to work.

However, Fang Xiao did not want to use her name anymore because if Dongfang Yunheng wanted to look for her again, he would definitely find out where she worked very quickly. Therefore, she wanted to change her name.

Therefore, Luo Qili lent her cousin's identity card in the countryside. She said that her cousin had gone abroad and was wearing glasses. Her face was also thin and her skin was a little tanned. She was similar to the current Fang Xiao, so she decided to use this name.

Therefore, the next day, Fang Xiao took Luo Qili's cousin's ID card and went over. In fact, the boss of Baihe Company knew who she was. After all, Huicheng was not big, and Fang Xiao had once appeared in the newspapers because of sex. Most importantly, she used to be Qiu Yitang's wife.

Fortunately, the boss of Baihe Company was a good person. When he heard Fang Xiao say that he needed to change his company's name to Lin Siyu, he did not have any objections. He even said very considerately, "alright then, I will give you cash for your salary in the future." This way, it would also prevent you from using someone else's ID card to open an account at the bank. In the future, it would be troublesome to withdraw money.

Therefore, Fang Xiao settled down at Baihe Wedding Company. From now on, she would be called Lin siyu. There were about ten colleagues at the wedding company. Perhaps it was because she wore glasses, or perhaps it was because she changed her name. In short.. No one connected her with the female lead, Fang Xiao.

Chapter 1809 work at a wedding company

The lobby of Baihe Wedding Company was decorated like a wedding hall. Anyone who walked in would feel jubilant. However, their office was on the second floor because the first floor was mainly a showroom and reception hall.

Because Fang Xiao was a newcomer, in fact, it should be said that Lin siyu was a newcomer here, so when she went, she followed an old employee. This old employee was called Liu Xiaoqin, and everyone called her ah Qing.

In the blink of an eye, Fang Xiao had been working at a wedding company for a month. During this half a month, ah Qing had been bringing her along and telling her some of the key points of the wedding company and how to capture customers.

Of course, during this month, Fang Xiao had followed ah Qing to meet two pairs of clients. Both of them were young people in their twenties. They were preparing to get married. As they were salaried workers, they had directly chosen the discounted package.

Ah Qing said to her, "Siyu, the Commission for the normal package is relatively low because the total price of the package is low and the cost is not very low. However, the package is easy to sell. Many people, especially those with limited time, will choose the package service. Of course, the Commission for the deluxe package is also acceptable. "

In the beginning, when Ah Qing or other colleagues called her Siyu, she always had to wait for a while before she could react. Gradually, as time passed, everyone called her 'siyu' and 'siyu' . Gradually, she had almost forgotten her own name.

As Fang Xiao came in May, her luck was not bad in the first month. She actually received two orders under AH Qing's lead. One of them was not for the set meal, so the commission was still barely decent.

Of course, she knew that this was not her credit. In fact, it was mostly ah Qing's function because she had never met a client alone. When she went to meet a client with AH Qing, she usually took a statement while Ah Qing talked to the client about various details.

That morning, a client called. Ah Qing was still answering other calls, so siyu picked it up. It was a client who wanted to hold a wedding. He said that his requirements were very high, so he asked her to go over and discuss it in detail.

“Siyu, you can go and talk about this case yourself.” After ah Qing heard her message, she directly said to her, “I have a lot of things to do today because a new couple is getting engaged tomorrow. Today, my colleagues have all gone over to help set up the scene. Just now, they called and said that the Hawaiian fire crane flower that the new couple will use tomorrow has arrived. The boss told me to hurry over. The Flower is very expensive, so I can’t lose anything. “. “...”

After giving her instructions, ah Qing left in a hurry. Fang Xiao knew that the newlywed who was going to get engaged the next day was from a wealthy family. In fact, he was the son of the owner of Huicheng’s largest supermarket chain. Just the cost of this engagement alone was more than 100,000 yuan for the wedding company Therefore, the wedding company was all nervous and did not dare to make any mistakes because wealthy families could not afford to offend them.

As for the phone call that Fang Xiao had just received, it was from a client whom she had never met before. She did not know what door it was, so she, who had just arrived at the company for less than a month, was sent to receive the newlywed.

Although Fang Xiao had been working at the wedding company for almost a month and had met the client a few times by AH Qing’s side, this was the first time she had met the client alone, so she was particularly nervous. As she sat on the Sofa in the coffee shop, waiting for the client.. Her Palms were sweating.

She was still a little worried. She was always worried that she would not be able to handle it later. Therefore, before the client arrived, she took out the workflow schedule that Ah Qing had told her that she usually recorded and looked at it. Then, she silently memorized some important points in her heart

Chapter 1810 the wedding was just for show

First, greet the client with a smile. Being proactive and enthusiastic was a necessary requirement. Second, talk to the client in a polite and gentle manner, asking if the client wanted to get engaged or get married. Finally, of course, it was to the client. ...

Fang Xiao had yet to remember the last part when a shadow cast over the dining table. She quickly looked up and saw a slender young man with a pair of gold-rimmed glasses standing by her dining table, looking at her with a smile.

Fang Xiao immediately stood up, not forgetting her work temperament and procedures She greeted the young man with a polite smile. “Hello, sir. I’m Xiao Lin, a salesperson from Baihe Wedding Company. I’ll be receiving you today. May I know your name, sir?” After greeting the man, Fang Xiao looked behind him She had not been able to find his girlfriend and could not help but be stunned. Usually, when they came to talk about weddings or engagement weddings, they would come in pairs. Why was there only one person here The moment Fang Xiao shook his hand, a bad premonition immediately welled up in her heart. Today’s business deal was probably not going to be successful, because Ah Qing had once said that when a person came to discuss a wedding with you, the success rate was mostly very low.

“My surname is Huang, my name is Huang Haoran.” The man appeared to be extremely polite and gentlemanly. After shaking hands with Fang Xiao, he sat down. Then, he politely handed her a leather envelope. “This is our information. Xiao Lan can’t come today because she has something to do, but it doesn’t matter. We can have a simple chat first.”

Fang Xiao nodded immediately. Then, she opened the envelope with her hand and took out the information inside.

The groom-to-be was called Huang Haoran, Huang Jinxiao Kai. His family background was middle-class, and the bride-to-be was called Chen Xiaolan. She was from a well-off family and had graduated from a famous university in a foreign country. She could be considered to have come back with a layer of gold.

After Siyu finished reading the information he handed her, Huang Haoran smiled and looked at her. His voice was mellow and slightly magnetic. “Xiaolan studied literature since she was young. She likes poetic things. She said she wants a princess-like wedding.”

Fang Xiao could not help but laugh when she heard this. In this world, if any animal called a woman had the chance to get married, and it was with the person they loved, who would not want a princess-like wedding?

But the key was, after a princess-like wedding, would there be a happy marriage like a princess? And would this marriage last? Did this really need to be a question mark?

She briefly discussed with Huang Haoran about the packages available at the wedding celebration company. Of course, in line with the principle of making money first, Siyu first recommended a diamond-level package to him, saying that although the price was a little more expensive.. However, a person like Mr. Huang did not care about that little bit of money. The main thing was to give himself and his future wife an unforgettable wedding.

Huang Haoran said that the wedding matters still had to wait for his girlfriend, Xiaolan, to decide. When the time came, he might not use the package. Of course, money was not a problem. The main purpose of the wedding was to make Xiaolan happy, as long as she felt happy.

On the way back to the wedding company, Fang Xiao thought of Huang Haoran’s words and thought it was funny. Could a wedding make people feel happy? In fact, a wedding was just an interpretation for people to see. Whether one was happy or not, the most important thing was the married life after the wedding.
