

Divorce 1811

Chapter 1811 relying on her brother

Back at the company, since her colleagues were busy with the luxurious wedding tomorrow, she and the accountant were the only two people in the company. They sat down to drink some water, then picked up the phone and ordered a fast food from a nearby restaurant.

When the phone rang, she was in the bathroom to go to the bathroom. The accountant answered the phone, and when she came out.. The accountant handed her a note. "This is the address of a client who just called to meet them. They said they are free at noon and asked you to hurry over. They still have to work in the afternoon. "

Working at a wedding company did not have Saturdays and Sundays. Because the more holidays there were, the more people would get married. Therefore, Fang Xiao usually had almost no holidays and only had one day off every month.

It was not easy to find a day off, but it was not Saturday or Sunday. Fang Chen had classes, so she could not take him out during the day. She could only wait for him to finish school in the afternoon before she could pick him up.

She had originally made an appointment with Luo Qili to pick up Fang Chen at the gate of the special school at five o'clock sharp. However, when she arrived at the gate of the special school in the afternoon, Luo Qili informed her that Fang Chen had physical training at night, and the basketball teacher had taken a leave of absence two days ago That was why he had specially come to make up for lessons tonight. Fang Chen especially liked to play basketball, so he refused to rest tonight and wanted to practice playing basketball with the teacher.

Fang Chen liked to play basketball. He was already 175 years tall a year ago and was only 14 years old. In the past six months, he had grown taller again because of practicing basketball. The last time Fang Xiao came over, she found that he had grown a lot taller. She asked Luo Qili and found out that he was actually 178 years old.

Fang Chen had to play basketball at night and could not take him out to play. Luo Qili said that Fang Chen's IQ had stopped developing, so it was not reliable to let him study. It would be better to let him study sports. Perhaps, like forrest gump, he would be able to achieve something in the end.

Therefore, Fang Xiao only met her younger brother for a few minutes. Fang Chen was very excited because he could practice basketball at night, and also felt sad because he couldn't accompany his sister. Therefore, his face flushed red and he kept apologizing to Fang Xiao.

The sister and brother had always been on good terms, especially after they lived together in the detention center. Fang Chen became more and more dependent on Fang Xiao, so he couldn't help but act coquettishly when he saw her. A 178-year-old boy acted like a four-or five-year-old boy when he acted coquettishly Fang Xiao couldn't help but feel pity for him.

Fang Chen wanted to have dinner with Luo Qili, so Fang Xiao said goodbye and was about to leave. Coincidentally, Liu Yijun came to look for Luo Qili, and Luo Qili didn't have time, so she said to Fang Xiao, "then you should entertain my cousin. I'll help you take care of your brother. "

Fang Xiao smiled. She had interacted with Liu Yijun a few times, and now they were familiar with each other. Therefore, she invited Liu Yijun to dinner and asked her where she wanted to play, saying that she would take her there.

Liu Yijun immediately smiled and said, "I'm very familiar with Huicheng. As for dinner, I'll treat you. You just changed your job. You can treat me when you receive your salary. "

Fang Xiao was a little embarrassed because Luo Qili and Liu Yijun were always taking care of her. However, Liu Yijun insisted on not letting Fang Xiao treat her. In the end, she had no choice but to let her go.

"I might have to return to Huicheng to look for a job, " Liu Yijun said to Fang Xiao while eating.

"Yeah. " Fang Xiao was obviously stunned. She stopped the chopsticks in her hand and looked up at Liu Yijun. "Why? Isn't your job at Sun Department Store Pretty Good? "

Chapter 1812 watching a movie

"Work is good, but there are some things... " Liu Yijun smiled bitterly Then she sighed deeply and said, "maybe it's not his fault. It's my own wishful thinking. In this world, Cinderella was never used, let alone a princess like you who has such a rough fate. "

Fang Xiao immediately stopped talking. She knew very little about Liu Yijun's feelings. Luo Qili had once told her that Liu Yijun liked her boss, and her boss liked her too However, the young deputy general managers of companies under the Oriental Group like Sun Department Store were probably rich second-generation hedonists. How many of them were sincere?

Fang Xiao woke up late this morning, so she was late for work. This was the first time she was late since she started working at Baihe Wedding Company.

Last night, she had dinner with Liu Yijun. She had planned to go home, but Liu Yijun said it was still early. Why don't we go watch a movie? It had been a long time since she had seen a movie.

Fang Xiao agreed after thinking for a while. It had been a long time since she had seen a movie. Most importantly, Liu Yijun was obviously in a bad mood. Liu Yijun had given her a lot of help, and now she was in a bad mood It was only right for her to accompany her to watch a movie.

In fact, it was when the golden armor was in full swing. The big cinemas in Hui city could see the full golden milk. Fang Xiao asked Liu Yijun if she wanted to watch the golden armor, but Liu Yijun said she wanted to watch "hurt city. "

Fortunately, there were cinemas in "hurt city, " so Fang Xiao went to buy two movie tickets. Then, she and Liu Yijun walked into the small cinema in Hui city.

The movie was very smooth. Suspense, love, the culprit, the police, and so on were intertwined. It was fascinating, and people unknowingly spent a hundred minutes.

After the movie ended, Fang Xiao and Liu Yijun walked out of the theater together. Although the ticket price was not cheap, they both felt that the movie was worth it. At least, they would not regret watching it.

“I didn’t expect Liang Chaowei to die,” Liu Yijun sighed, her voice a little hoarse.

“I didn’t talk about it either,” Fang Xiao looked at the gray sky and said in a low voice, “I didn’t expect him to love each other so much.”

At the end of the movie, Xu Jinglei’s wife, Jin Shuzhen, looked at her husband. There was no need to blame her. Instead, she said in a heart-rending tone, “you didn’t love me...”

At that moment, Fang Xiao’s heart and her body were trembling. A person who loved her wholeheartedly finally realized that he didn’t love her. She had deeply experienced the gray despair.

After returning to the dormitory last night, she didn’t sleep well. Her mind was filled with Jin Shuzhen’s words and Liang Chaowei’s husband’s final reward, the bullet that shot into her glabella.

She was late. Fortunately, the boss had not arrived yet. Her boss, ah Qing, only said a few words to her lightly, probably to try not to be late. Then he told her that he had already punched her time card, and that it would not happen again.

Because she did not have breakfast in the morning, she ordered takeout at 11:30 pm. She had just eaten less than half when the phone rang. It was the front desk ah Hua who picked it up. She said that a girl had called and wanted to hold a wedding. They were waiting at the old tree cafe She asked the salesperson to go over and talk to her.

This type of person who didn’t specifically ask a salesperson to go over usually took turns. Fang Xiao was on leave yesterday, so today’s first order was her turn.

Chapter 1813 the customer was an old friend

Hence, ah Qing naturally called out to her, “siyu, don’t eat anymore. You can eat when you come back. Hurry up and go over. Don’t wait too long for the customer. Right now, fate of this world is competing with us for the customer.”

Fang Xiao did not say another word. She immediately put down the half-eaten fast food box, carried her bag on her back, and carried her own file bag. She immediately ran to the side of the road outside the door.

Normally, people who were not in a hurry could wait for a bus. For people who were in a hurry, they had to hail a taxi. Although there were only two or three stops, for the sake of this business deal, they could not care less about the travel expenses.

The old tree cafe was considered a high-end cafe in Huicheng. It was as famous as the famous classics Cafe and Hua Muxi Cafe.

Fang Xiao was wearing a decent business suit and a pair of plain glasses. Of course, the lenses still changed color. It was just that she could see the world outside the same as ordinary lenses. However, when people looked at her glasses, they could not see her eyes. They could only see a dark blue patch.

When she first arrived at the Lily wedding company, her colleagues were a little curious about her glasses. However, after a long time, everyone was used to it, so no one talked about her glasses anymore.

She got out of the taxi and hurried to the old tree cafe, because Ah Hua at the front desk said that the other party was already waiting for her at the cafe.

Entering the old tree cafe was equivalent to entering an elegant environment. There was a melodious sound of the piano in the room. Even if Fang Xiao did not know much about music, she knew that this was a world-famous song.

Next to the stairs on the second floor was a large Banyan tree. Under the Banyan Tree was a pool of clear water. In the clear water, there were colorful goldfish. The fish were not big, nor were there many, but they just happened to be in pairs.

Fang Xiao looked at the note given to her by the front desk. On it was written the position at the corner of the window on the second floor, so she raised her feet and slowly walked up the curved stairs.

The light on the second floor was a little dim. It was a retro Italian pastoral style. Her eyes naturally looked towards the row of seats near the window, but she was instantly stunned because she shockingly found the seats in the corner near the window. At this moment, there was Du Caiwei and Qiu Yitang sitting there.

Fang Xiao had never thought that she would see Qiu Yitang and Du Caiwei again, because they were no longer in the same circle as her. Even in the same city, in fact, the chances of meeting people from the upper class and the lower class were very rare.

Du Caiwei's eyes were bright and beautiful, and no one could tell that she had been blind before. Her skin was also very delicate under the light because she had taken good care of it. The smile on her face could not hide her happiness.

If Fang Xiao had known that the guests today were Qiu Yitang and Du Caiwei, she definitely would not have come. However, at this moment, she had already appeared in front of them. The most damnable thing was the transparent badge on her chest. It showed the words "Baihe Wedding Company".

It was already too late to hide. It would be even more hypocritical to run away. Moreover, she already had nothing to do with them, so what was there to run away from?

Moreover, she was now Lin Siyu, a woman who had never known Qiu Yitang. A woman who had never known Du Caiwei, in front of them, she was merely a staff member of the wedding company.

Therefore, in a short moment, her heart had already gone through a thousand twists and turns. When she stood in front of Qiu Yitang and Du Caiwei with a formulaic smile, she had already forgotten her identity as Fang Xiao.

Chapter 1814: We're getting engaged

“I’m Lin siyu from the Baihe Wedding Company. I’ll be serving the two prospective newlyweds today.” Fang Xiao stood at their dining table and began his opening speech politely and naturally. “May I know your name, Sir and Miss? “

Qiu Yitang and Du Caiwei were also instantly stunned. Although Fang Xiao had introduced herself as Lin Siyu, both of them almost instantly recognized her.

Qiu Yitang frowned and looked at Fang Xiao who was standing in front of him. He remembered that she had a pair of bright eyes, and her eyesight was very good. It didn’t seem like she was nearsighted. Why did she wear glasses?

Was there a problem with her eyesight Or was her eyes sick?

Qiu Yitang was still puzzled Du Caiwei spoke very politely, “Oh, Miss Lin, my name is Du Caiwei, and this is my boyfriend, Qiu Yitang. We are preparing to get engaged next month. I want an extremely romantic engagement ceremony. I wonder if you have any good set meal introductions? “

The formal smile on Fang Xiao’s face was still very good. Even when she was standing in front of Qiu Yitang and Du Caiwei, she tried her best to speak and act appropriately. She didn’t show the slightest bit of enmity with them, even though her heart was in turmoil It was as if someone had broken into the room. It was not empty, but a wolf borrowing.

Therefore, she sat down opposite the two of them and handed them the exquisite album-like set menu Her voice was extremely polite and formal as she said, “we have a lot of set meals. Of course, if the two of you are in a hurry, we also want to save trouble. I personally think that it is better to use a set meal. If you have time, you are not afraid of trouble. You can hold your wedding according to your own wishes. As long as it is found in this world, our wedding company will do our best to make the customers satisfied. “

Du Caiwei seemed to be very interested in Fang Xiao’s words. She flipped through the introduction of the set meal that Fang Xiao had given her just now Then she said with a little regret, “your set meal is not bad, but I don’t think the way the bride appears is very good. I want an extremely romantic engagement ceremony. Miss Lin, regarding the way the bride appears, do you have any better suggestions for me? “

Fang Xiao frowned slightly when she heard this, feeling extremely uncomfortable in her heart However, she still spoke with a formalized enthusiasm, “of course I do. For example, I’ll put Miss Du into a big balloon and put it in the air. Then, I’ll let Mr. Qiu shoot an Arrow to break the balloon. You’ll directly explode out of the balloon. This is both romantic and classic. The implication is cupid’s Arrow.”

Du Caiwei heard Fang Xiao’s suggestion and immediately snorted. However, she still did not show it on her face. Instead, she looked sideways at Qiu Yitang and asked, “Yitang, you must not be willing to use this method, right? If I fall from the air, will I hurt myself? “

Qiu Yitang said a little irritably, “alright, just choose a set meal according to the successful list. Then why bother? which set meal is not romantic? “

Du Caiwei did not expect Qiu Yitang to be so impatient, so she immediately showed an aggrieved face. She said gently, "alright then, let's choose this diamond set meal. Isn't 200,000 yuan a little too expensive? We are engaged, not married. "

"Mr. Qiu, Miss Du, we don't care if you're engaged or getting married. In short, the procedures are pretty much the same, especially the flowers and the way to appear. It takes time to set up the venue, and the diamond-class package will be held at the Windsor Hotel in Huicheng. That night, we'll even give you a top-class luxury honeymoon room. So, this discount is at most 99% off, and it can't get any lower. "

Chapter 1815. She was not going to pay for them

Qiu Yitang looked at the woman sitting opposite him. She was wearing a pair of eyes on her slightly tanned skin. She had long lost her former frail and fragile appearance as a young lady in a business suit. Now, she appeared to be extremely capable. Her every move showed the ability and wisdom of a white-boned woman in the workplace.

"Yitang, then how about this diamond set meal?" Du Caiwei saw that Qiu Yitang's expression was all on Fang Xiao. She could not help but pull him to remind him that she was still sitting beside him.

"whatever," Qiu Yitang said a little impatiently, then looked at the woman opposite him who didn't even look at him. He said lightly, "we'll just leave this engagement ceremony to Miss Fang to plan. Actually, why do we have to worry about it ourselves? We just have to wait at home to be the bride and groom-to-be when we get married, isn't that enough? "

When Fang Xiao heard Qiu Yitang call her Miss Fang, she had no choice but to raise her head and look at Qiu Yitang. With the same formalized politeness and enthusiasm, she said, "that's fine too. If you two trust me, then choose a set meal that you're satisfied with and pass the information on your relationship to mother Wang. I'll try my best to plan an engagement ceremony that suits you based on your love, requirements, and even the romantic events that happened during your relationship. Of course, our wedding company will also try our best to give you the biggest surprise. Your satisfaction is our purpose. "

Fang Xiao's words were extremely formulaic. She was speaking from the perspective of a dedicated employee of a wedding company. She had heard Ah Qing say this to many clients before. Of course, this was not the first time she had said it.

The reason why the wedding company was doing so well was because people were very busy these days. Very few people could personally participate in the wedding preparations. Usually, they would just hand it over to the wedding company. Then, they would just wait to go directly to the wedding venue to perform.

Of course, Du Caiwei was not happy. She did not know how much Fang Xiao hated her. If the wedding was left to her to plan, she might have some evil intentions against her?

She was not satisfied in her heart, but she could not show it on her face. So, she quickly said, “Aiyu, people say that comparing goods with goods is not a disadvantage. Yitang, why don’t we go to this life’s fate wedding company to take a look? Maybe...”

“Go where? It’s the same everywhere.” Qiu Yitang became more and more irritated. He did not want to hear Du Caiwei continue to nag. He looked at Fang Xiao and said, “alright, I’ll leave this matter to you. 200,000 yuan will be fine. Just do as you see fit. I’ll send the deposit to you this afternoon.”

After Qiu Yitang said that, he stood up and walked out of the door. Du Caiwei was so angry that she stomped her feet behind him. “Yitang, the food we ordered will be here soon. You haven’t eaten yet?”

However, Qiu Yitang didn’t seem to hear Du Caiwei’s words. He directly walked downstairs. Du Caiwei stomped her feet in anger. She grabbed her bag and was about to chase after him, but she was stopped by Fang Xiao.

“I’m sorry, Miss Du.” Fang Xiao looked at her. She still spoke in an extremely polite and formal manner, “I don’t know if you have eaten the food you ordered, but I think you haven’t paid the bill yet. If you and Mr. Qiu have left, it wouldn’t be worthwhile for me to pay the bill, don’t you think so?”

After saying this, Fang Xiao looked at Du Caiwei, who was so angry that she was dumbfounded. She immediately turned around and headed downstairs. No matter what, she had to leave before Du Caiwei. They had to pay for their own expenses.

Chapter 1816: Killing with a nod of the head

Fang Xiao walked directly to the entrance of the coffee shop. Du Caiwei obviously did not chase after her immediately. Obviously, she had gone to pay the bill. She only wanted to go to the bus stop next to the coffee shop and take the bus back.

Today’s deal was definitely not going to be successful. It also wasted the cost of taking a taxi when she came. On the way to the company this time, she could not take another taxi because it was too wasteful.

Just as she walked out of the coffee shop’s entrance and turned a corner, she was immediately stopped by someone. She raised her head slightly and realized that the person who stopped her was actually Qiu Yitang. She immediately turned around and wanted to run away, but in the end, she was one step too late. Qiu Yitang directly reached out and grabbed her arm.

“Qiu Yitang, let me go!” Fang Xiao could not help but growl and struggled hard. “What are you doing? Let me go!”

Of course, Qiu Yitang would not stop her. Instead, he pressed her against the wall beside the coffee shop. He reached out and took off the glasses on her eyes. Then —

Fang Xiao’s eyeball, which could no longer move, appeared in front of him. He was immediately stunned and could not help but ask, “Fang Xiao, what happened? Where are your eyes? Ah? Where are your eyes?”

Fang Xiao was controlled by Qiu Yitang. She struggled hard, trying to break free from his control. When she heard his question, she felt extremely nauseous, so nauseous that she wanted to vomit.

Therefore, she gritted her teeth and reached out to grab her glasses from Qiu Yitang's hands. However, she could not get them. Qiu Yitang refused to give them to her. Instead, he stared into her eyes and continued to ask, "Fang Xiao, tell me, what happened? What happened to you?"

No matter how much patience Fang Xiao had, she was finally angered by Qiu Yitang, this shameless person. The moment she raised her head, she happened to see Du Caiwei running over, so she finally could not hold it in any longer and roared.

"Qiu Yitang, people say that killing people is just a matter of nodding one's head. You didn't even spare my Fang family, even my retarded younger brother. It's fine that you set us up, but after killing people, you still pretend to ask them why do you want to die Who is willing to die Aren't you the one who killed people?"

At this point, Fang Xiao finally lost control and started crying She pointed at Du Caiwei, who was not far away, and shouted hysterically, "where are my eyes? Wasn't it you, Qiu Yitang, who asked me to use my eyes to exchange for the freedom of my life and my younger brother's "Now, my eyes are on the face of the woman you love, and my eyes are looking at you all day long. Are You satisfied now?"

Qiu Yitang was stunned. He looked at Du Caiwei, who was not far away, and then looked at the woman in front of him who was crying her heart out, but only had one eye. In an instant, he felt as if he had been struck by lightning.

Fang Xiao took advantage of the moment when Qiu Yitang was stunned and quickly reached out to grab her glasses. However, because she was too anxious, she did not hold them properly when she grabbed them. The glasses actually fell to the ground, and one of the lenses broke.

She couldn't care less anymore. She bent down to grab the glasses on the ground and quickly put them on her nose. She turned around and ran to the other side of the street. She didn't even care about taking the bus.

Fortunately, the broken lens was on the right side. This wouldn't affect the blind eye on the left side. However, she still rushed to an optician's shop and changed the broken lens.

Chapter 1817 who gave you the courage

By the time she finished her glasses and returned to the company, it was already five o'clock in the afternoon. Many of her colleagues were busy, and some were leisurely drinking coffee or making tea.

"Siyu, you're only back now." Ah Qing frowned when she saw her She could not help but say, "there's a big client looking for you in the afternoon, but your cell phone is also turned off. He asked you to call him, saying that he wants to order a diamond-level set meal. But he asked for you by name..."

"got it." Fang Xiao immediately understood that it was Qiu Yitang. She would not call him, nor would she accept his engagement ceremony or anything like that. She wanted to leave this place and never let him find her again.

Du Caiwei carefully looked at the man smoking on the balcony. His face was cold and dark, and his whole body was emitting cold air. She was instinctively afraid, and even did not dare to approach him.

She did not expect her luck to be so bad. It had not even been half a year since her eyes regained their sight, but Qiu Yitang had already found out that it was Fang Xiao's cornea. And that Damn Fang Xiao had promised not to appear in front of them.

It was all that D * MN woman. If Qiu Yitang did not want to marry her, she would definitely not let them live well. Qiu Yitang was hers, and the property of the Fang family was also hers.

Qiu Yitang finished his cigarette and turned around. He looked at the pitiful du Caiwei standing there. At this moment, he actually had a feeling of disgust.

"Yitang," Du Caiwei said carefully. She walked towards him and stretched out her arms, wanting to throw herself into his arms. However, Qiu Yitang cleverly gave way, and she missed.

"Yitang, do you hate me?" Du Caiwei's tears immediately fell. The crystal clear tears rolled onto her delicate face like diamonds. She was not unmoved.

"Who gave you the courage to ask for Fang Xiao's eyes?" Qiu Yitang stared at her, his eyes almost bursting with sparks. "Who told you to do this?"

"It wasn't me," Du Caiwei hurriedly denied. "Yitang, it really wasn't me. At that time, the expert in charge of my eyes said that my cornea was too serious. If I didn't hurry to change my cornea, it would probably be useless for a long time. So, he asked me to look for the cornea, and where would I find a blind person? Coincidentally, your assistant came to see me and told me that your lawyer was going to talk to Fang Xiao about a divorce. He said that he could add this clause and let Fang Xiao Exchange her marriage and cornea. "..."

"Don't push the blame onto others." Qiu Yitang quickly interrupted Du Caiwei's words and then coldly growled, "No matter how bold my assistant is, he wouldn't dare to do this!"

Du Caiwei was slightly stunned, but she quickly reacted. Then, she cried even more sorrowfully, "yes, it was me who asked your assistant to add that condition because the doctor said that my pair of eyes only needed the cornea of one eye. This way, she wouldn't be unable to see the world, and I wouldn't go completely blind. You may think that I'm selfish, but have you ever thought that if I don't do this, my eyes would go blind, and I wouldn't be able to see the world, and my eyes would be caused by the two of them?"

Du Caiwei screamed hysterically. Then, she lay on the Sofa and sobbed, "Yitang, if it weren't for their evil hearts, I wouldn't have treated them like this. It was them who wanted to destroy me. They did the first day of the Lunar New Year. Am I wrong for doing the fifteenth?"

Chapter 1818 who is worse off than who

Qiu Yitang stood there, the cold air around him did not disappear because of Du Caiwei's crying. He looked at her coldly. After a long while, he said in a low and hoarse voice, "Caiwei, because of the matter of Fang Xiao and her brother making you blind, my grandmother was so angry that she fell sick on the bed. In order to get engaged to you, I have not told her that your eyes have regained their sight. I have been lying to her, saying that you are blind and I have to be responsible for you. Only then did she reluctantly agree to let me and Fang Xiao Divorce. Now, because of my divorce with Fang Xiao, the land that I should have taken over in Binhai has been sent a letter by the President of Dongfang Group A few days ago, saying that he does not intend to cooperate with us. I have lost the opportunity to enter Binhai real estate. “

Qiu Yitang smiled bitterly when he said this He looked at Du Caiwei, who had already stopped crying, and said, “I always thought that I owed you for our relationship. Five years ago, I shouldn’t have agreed to my father’s engagement with Fang Xiao. Because of this, Fang Xiao had the heart of a legitimate wife to harm you, causing you to be in such a miserable state. Therefore, I vowed to take revenge on Fang Xiao, and vowed to help you get back all your exclusive things. “

When Qiu Yitang said this, he looked at the gray sky outside the window and sighed heavily Then he said, “Cai Wei, although I didn’t insist on our love when I got engaged to Fang Xiao five years ago, I did it out of consideration for the development of the Qiu Corporation. It’s not unusual for children from families like ours to get married for the development of the company. However, I have never truly betrayed you in our love. I even hurt Fang Xiao in order to help you get justice. “

Qiu Yitang couldn’t help but feel pain in his heart when he said this He clenched his fists tightly and said, “you know the reason why I married Fang Xiao before the new year, and now my grandmother agreed to let me marry you because you were blind, and because your blindness was caused by Fang Xiao and her brother. But what about you? “

Qiu Yitang shook his head when he said this and looked at the woman who was lying on the Sofa He took a deep breath and said, “Cai Wei, you have everything that you need. I will give you everything that the Fang family stole. I will also let someone transfer the West Mountain Villa that Fang Xiao’s father originally gave to Fang Xiao to your head, and then... “

Qiu Yitang let out a long breath as he said this. He seemed to have made up his mind and said, “Cai Wei, don’t come looking for me in the future because I don’t owe you anything. As for our love... It ends here! “

After Qiu Yitang said this, he immediately turned around and walked towards the door. He did not take another look at the woman who was still sitting on the ground with tears streaming down her face.

He thought that perhaps he had doted on her too much over the past few years, so much so that he gave her such courage. He even thought of a way for Fang Xiao to use her corneas to exchange for her freedom in life.

Perhaps she just wanted a pair of bright eyes, because her eyes were indeed very beautiful. However, she did not know that her actions made him unable to accept it, nor would he accept it.

When he thought of seeing Fang Xiao’s eyes in the afternoon, his heart actually felt like it was being pricked by needles. Even though she had used some cruel methods to frame Cai Wei in order to punish the woman beside him five years ago, he had also gotten justice for Cai Wei, and even.. She was even more miserable than Cai Wei, because she reckoned that it would be very difficult for her to be a mother in this lifetime.

Chapter 1819 was better to stay away from her

Now, she had even lost her eyes. How was she supposed to live with a retarded younger brother How was she supposed to live?

Also, she was a woman who was difficult to get pregnant. With a blind eye, which man would like her and love her with all his heart in this life Would he give her happiness?

The paralyzed grandmother was right when she scolded him on the hospital bed. He was the culprit. Even if du Caiwei's eyes were blinded by Fang Xiao and her brother, it was because of him. If it weren't for the fact that he was still involved with Du Caiwei.. How could the Fang Siblings do such a thing to Du Caiwei?

Now, he had completely separated from Du Caiwei. Of course, in order to prevent future trouble, he still had to send du Caiwei abroad in the next few days before he went to look for Fang Xiao.

Although he knew that the current Fang Xiao no longer had any value to bring benefits to his Qiu Corporation, he had to pay for the consequences he had caused.

Fang Xiao had proposed to resign that afternoon. The boss was baffled by her sudden resignation He could not help but ask her, "what's wrong? Do you feel that my company is not good? You have two orders this month, and the commission is not bad. Ah Qing also said that you are very capable. In a few months, you should be able to take on the responsibility alone. "

Fang Xiao shook her head and said that it was not the company's problem. Her brother was going to transfer to another school because of her brother's special situation. She was her brother's only relative, so she could not work far away from her brother.

Although the boss of Baihe Company was Skeptical About Fang Xiao's situation, he did not make things difficult for her in the end. He had originally resigned and left without paying her wages, but seeing that Fang Xiao's situation was indeed special, he did not make things difficult for her He still let the finance department pay her wages.

That night, Fang Xiao moved out of Baihe Company's dormitory and rushed to the special school. She told Luo Qili that she was going to leave Huicheng with Fang Chen and could not stay in Huicheng anymore.

Luo Qili found it strange and could not help but ask, "why are you so afraid of Qiu Yitang? Don't you have nothing to do with him? If he still comes to look for you, can't you just ignore him? Why are you avoiding him? "

Fang Xiao shook her head and said, "this is not a question of whether I should ignore him or not. Qiu Yitang's thoughts are hard to understand. The most important thing is that woman du Caiwei. The two of them are in cahoots. Now that they know that I am in Hui city, they might think of a way to find trouble with me one day. I think it's better to stay away from them and live a quiet life. "

Luo Qili heard Fang Xiao's words and did not try to persuade her anymore. After all, the matter of Fang Xiao and Fang Chen being caught in the detention center last year had left her with a lingering fear. She did not want such a thing to happen to the two of them anymore.

So, Luo Qili immediately helped Fang Chen contact the school. Of course, there were special schools in almost every city, but they had to find a school with acquaintances, and the price was reasonable.

In the end, Luo Qili made a few phone calls. Then, she let out a long sigh of relief and said to Fang Xiao, "I just called the basketball coach. He said that Fang Chen should go to Binhai because he's also in Binhai. He said that Fang Chen is good at sports. He knows the principal at Binhai's special school. If he lets Fang Chen go, he can be admitted as a top student in sports. In this way, he will be given a certain amount of care and preferential treatment. ". ."

Chapter 1820 office chores

Finally, Fang Xiao discussed with Luo Qili for a long time. Then, she found Fang Chen and asked him if he wanted to go to the same school as the basketball coach. Fang Chen liked playing basketball very much and especially liked the basketball coach, so of course, he was very happy to agree.

So, the next morning, Fang Xiao helped Fang Chen pack his luggage. The two siblings pulled their luggage and left the special school with their luggage bags, heading to another city that was not unfamiliar to them.

Luo Qili was worried about the two siblings. She kept sending them to the long-distance bus station and repeatedly reminded them to call her if anything happened. She even said that she would go to Bincheng to visit them when she was free.

When they got off at Binhai, Liu Yijun had already come to pick them up. She hailed a taxi and went straight to Fang Chen's new school. The basketball coach had long known that they were coming, so he had already prepared the dormitory for Fang Chen in advance.

Although Fang Chen's iq had not improved, his physical ability had gradually improved. Now that he was living alone in a dormitory, he almost did not need anyone to take care of him. Moreover, he had fallen in love with long-distance running and big basketball. This made Fang Xiao very happy.

After Fang Xiao arranged for her brother, she found a job in Binhai. Initially, she wanted to find a job in a lily company, but Liu Yijun said that it was too hard and there were no holidays. It was better to find another company to work for?

In the end, it was Liu Yijun who helped her. In fact, Fang Xiao vaguely felt that it was Liu Yijun's boss, her boyfriend, who helped her find a job in a foreign company.

Foreign companies had a very high requirement for English. It just so happened that Fang Xiao had gone to the United States to study, so her English was quite good. The main thing was that her spoken language was very fluent, which the manager of the foreign company took a fancy to.

The days settled down just like that. Moreover, this foreign trade company had a rule that one could not use their Chinese name while working in the company, which meant that everyone had to give themselves an English name.

Fang Xiao used to have an English name. After all, she studied in the United States, so when the company asked her to give herself an English name, she did not think much about it and directly adopted her previous English name, Susan.

One good thing about foreign companies was that people called each other by English names. In fact, it was to prevent employees from getting close to each other. Many employees even did not know their colleagues' Chinese names after work.

Fang Xiao was a newcomer and had never had any experience. In fact, she had to rely on some connections to enter this company. Therefore, after she entered, although she had a desk space, she spent most of her time doing odd jobs. None of the actual work was assigned to her.

She did not mind it. She could not do it in the first place. The Ada sitting next to her was the team leader. She seemed to be very busy all day, so Fang Xiao was helping her with her coffee and fast food.

Of course, all the colleagues in the office were very busy. Everyone was either communicating with the foreign businessmen on the computer or using the phone to communicate with the customers. The entire office was in the English-speaking world. There had never been a Chinese language, which made people mistakenly think that they had gone abroad.

Most of the colleagues spoke English, but most of the time, they were calling her

“Susan, is my coffee ready? “

Her days were spent in such a busy manner. Although she was busy, it was also fulfilling. Although her job was similar to doing odd jobs in the office, the benefits offered by foreign companies were good and her salary was high. Just like her, her monthly salary was six thousand yuan.
