

Divorce 1831

Chapter 1831 could not be avoided

Fang Xiao's mouth was blocked by his mouth, and it became difficult for her to breathe. The only thought remaining in her mind was to stop him, because his big hand was actually reaching into her nightdress. Fang Xiao's nerves instantly tensed up Her entire body suddenly stiffened.

So, in a panic, she immediately reached out her hand and grabbed his wrist in the darkness. Her voice trembled as she begged in a low voice, "no... I don't want... "

Dongfang Yunheng's big hand stopped. Fang Xiao secretly heaved a sigh of relief. Unfortunately, she was not done yet... ..

He turned around and directly pressed the woman in his arms under his body... ..

Fang Xiao began to struggle. Even though she was pressed under his body, her hands were still pushing him hard, trying to push him away from her body.

Unfortunately, her weak strength seemed like she was trying to resist... ..

However, his hand did not stop. He fumbled to unbutton her pajamas, and then his big hand reached in just like that.

"Dongfang Yunheng!" Fang Xiao shouted hurriedly in the darkness, trying to stop him with her voice, because her hands were already controlled by his hands.

Chapter 1832, no matter what you look like

"Wu..." Fang Xiao finally cried out in pain. A kind of suppressed pain and discomfort surged up from the bottom of her heart and came out from her mouth. It was actually as unpleasant as a ghost wailing or a wolf howling ...

Such an unpleasant sound was not not scary. The man who had been running on her body with all his strength was finally frightened by her. After she made this sound for a while, he finally hugged her in a panic... ..

And Fang Xiao finally fainted.

In her daze, she felt the weight on her body moving away. In her daze, she felt her body being pulled into a warmer place, and she fell asleep in that warm place without moving.

A man who was so tired that his forehead was dripping with sweat slightly lowered his head and planted a deep kiss on the woman's dry eyes. Then, he whispered, "Xiao Xiao, no matter what you look like... I want you..."

Fang Xiao felt that a person's life was fate. No matter how much you struggled and how hard you worked, you could not escape the arrangement of fate and the calamity that the heavens had arranged for you.

Just like her and Dongfang Yunheng!

Fang Xiao felt that a person's life was fate. No matter how much you struggled and how hard you worked, you could not escape the arrangement of fate and the calamity that the heavens had arranged for you.

Just like her and Dongfang Yunheng!

After that night, Dongfang Yunheng left at five in the morning the next day. She thought that he was probably hiding from the reporters or afraid that Gu Chenchen would look for him, so he left so early. After all, she was a person who could not be seen in the light to him, the great CEO of Dongfang.

After he left, he did not come back for a week. She could not help but secretly sigh in relief. She had less than three months left on the contract of indenture that she signed with him. She hoped that he would not come again this time.

Since the last time she accompanied the general manager to meet a client, the general manager suddenly looked at her ability in a new light. Of course, it was mainly because of her spoken English. Therefore, there was a social event that night, so the general manager asked her to accompany him again.

The general manager's surname was Leng, and his name was Jianxin. He was a man in his forties. He was a little fat, but because he was a northern man, he was tall and well-proportioned.

The client that Leng Jianxin was accompanying tonight came from Singapore. In fact, the client could speak Chinese very well. However, this client in Singapore spoke Cantonese, and manager Leng Did Not Know Cantonese. Coincidentally, Fang Xiao was from the south, so she came in handy.

The Thai food that they ate tonight, the Dongyin Kung Fu soup, was very terrible. Fortunately, the client was very kind. He was a Singaporean, so his normal speaking was not standard, but his Cantonese was very authentic.

The meal was relatively pleasant. This client was originally from Guangdong, so he could talk to Fang Xiao a little. Unfortunately, Fang Xiao knew very little about the history of her hometown, so the client was the one who told her some things.

It was always late to have dinner with the client because they were talking. By the time Leng Jianxin and this Singaporean client finished their meal, it was already past ten o'clock in the evening.

The Singaporean client was very hospitable. He also said that he wanted to go to KTV to sing. This time, Fang Xiao used the excuse that she had a sore throat and couldn't sing, which made manager Leng Unhappy. However, the Singaporean client was very generous and didn't make things difficult for her. He even told her to drink more water or something.

Chapter 1833, accompanying him to a banquet

According to the company's rules, the taxi fee would be reimbursed after working overtime at nine o'clock in the evening. When she came out of this Thai restaurant, it was already half past nine in the evening, so she naturally called a taxi.

Dongfang Yunheng arrived at Fang Xiao's dormitory at seven o'clock in the evening. He first went up to the dormitory to look for her, but the dormitory door was tightly shut. When the people in the neighboring dormitory saw him, they said, "Fang Xiao is working overtime tonight. "

Therefore, he went back to the car downstairs to wait for her. This wait lasted for a full three hours. During these three hours, he smoked five cigarettes and received four boring phone calls. Just when he was extremely frustrated, he saw Fang Xiao get out of a taxi.

He immediately pushed the car door open and walked over to her. When she saw him, she was obviously stunned. She looked as if she did not expect him to be here, which made him a little unhappy.

"What kind of lousy job is working so late? " He did not care about her expression, but took the lead to ask her about work.

"The company has a Singapore client. I'm going to accompany the manager for social events. " Even though she did not like to see him again, she still explained indifferently and was about to walk into her dormitory building.

"I'm not staying here tonight. " He reached out to grab her wrist, pulled open the passenger door and shoved her in. When he closed the car door, he could not help but mutter, "your manager treats you as a public relations ambassador? "

"No, it's just that the client tonight doesn't speak Mandarin and only speaks Cantonese. I'm from the south, so I was called over. " Fang Xiao sat in the passenger seat and glanced sideways at the man who was starting the car. "where are you taking me? "

"You'll know when you get there. " He was focused on driving and did not even look sideways as he said, "do you have the right to ask me where I live? "

Fang Xiao immediately fell silent. No, she really did not have the slightest right. After all, she had sold herself to him as a slave, and he was her financier.

"I'll go to work at nine o'clock tomorrow morning. " She did not turn her face to look at him, but only reminded him lightly. She did not want him to drive too far away, and that would delay her from going to work.

He did not say a word, as if he did not hear her words. Therefore, she could only lean against the passenger seat and close her eyes slightly under her special glasses.

After about twenty minutes, the car finally stopped. She opened her eyes and realized that it was actually the heavenly cloud pavilion. She was slightly stunned, but she still pushed the door open and got out of the car without saying a word.

It was already 10:30 pm, but Bincheng was a first-tier city. At this time, the nightlife was very rich, so all the places were brightly lit. At night, Bincheng seemed to be more prosperous than during the day.

She followed him upstairs. The VIP elevator went directly to the 39th floor. He used the key to open the door. When he saw a pair of women's sandals placed at the door, his face immediately turned green and he ran straight to the bedroom.

Fang Xiao was sensible and tactful. Under such circumstances, she could only pretend that she was blind and did not see anything. She quickly walked towards the balcony outside the living room. A few minutes later, the sound of a woman crying could be heard from the living room. Obviously, she was very dissatisfied with her being chased away at the last minute.

It was unknown what he said to that woman, but before she left, she seemed to throw a fierce sentence, "Dongfang Yunheng, I want to go back and complain!"

From the beginning to the end, she did not turn around, nor did she look at what that woman looked like. Because she did not look at what she should not see, and did not know what she should not know. After all, her contract with him was only over two months.

Chapter 1834 'you're not willing'

She had come to the heavenly cloud pavilion once, the time when she had signed a contract with him to sell her body. However, that time, she was very disappointed and fainted in his bathroom. In the end, it was still the doctor that he had found for her.

This place was a typical one-bedroom-one-living room. The bathroom was in the only bedroom. The kitchen was as clean as the model room of a cabinet store. It could almost reflect a person's shadow. It was obvious that it had never been used before.

"there are pajamas and bath towels prepared for you in the closet," he reminded her who was standing at the kitchen door lightly. "Is it still early? Didn't you say that you have to work tomorrow?"

"Oh." She immediately turned around and walked to the bedroom. It was not the first time anyway. What should come will come. It was only two months. The only thing she prayed for was that he would be busier during this period of time, and time would pass faster.

When she opened the closet to get her pajamas, she was worried that it would be too perverted. However, when she saw the conservative cotton pajamas, she could not help but secretly sigh in relief. She quickly took her pajamas and went to take a shower.

When Fang Xiao climbed into the spacious bed in his room to sleep, Dongfang Yunheng had not come in yet. She was really sleepy, and his was really soft. Moreover, the comfortable 26-degree air conditioner in the room made her tired and fell asleep very quickly.

She really fell asleep as soon as she fell asleep. She did not know when Dongfang Yunheng went to bed to sleep. When she woke up, she found herself in his arms, and his hands held her tightly.

She could not help but sigh. This was the first time that she and he had slept in each other's arms, but it was so harmonious. Last night, when she leaned into his arms, she actually did not feel uncomfortable at all.

She used her hand to gently remove his hand, not wanting to wake up the sleeping lion. If he came into heat in the morning, then she probably would not be able to go to work today.

“sleep a little longer. It’s still early.” He didn’t even open his eyes. He only muttered, but his hands that were hugging her tightened. “I’m going to work far away.” She still insisted on moving his hand away. She didn’t dare to stay in the lion’s arms after he woke up.

“Oh.” He finally let go of her.

Fang Xiao rushed to the bathroom. Although it wasn’t eight o’clock yet, there was no direct bus to the company. She still had to transfer to another bus.

When she washed up and went to get the clothes that she had left by the wardrobe last night, she realized that her clothes had disappeared. Just as she was puzzled, he came in with the clothes that he had washed and dried for her.

“tonight, my friend is holding a full moon banquet for his child. You will accompany me to attend it.” Dongfang Yunheng handed the clothes to her and said, “don’t work overtime tonight.”

Fang Xiao thought that she had heard wrong. She raised her head and looked at Dongfang Yunheng, frowning slightly. “Me?”

“You are not willing?” Dongfang Yunheng was slightly dissatisfied with her expression at this moment, and his brows furrowed instinctively.

“This is not a matter of whether I am willing or not,” Fang Xiao explained calmly. “I personally feel that it is not suitable for me to accompany you to such a banquet. I think that it is better for your fiancée to accompany you.”

She did not forget that two months ago, he had just gotten engaged to his beloved woman, Miss Gu Chenchen. She was a slave that he had bought. As a prostitute, she would not be able to enjoy the elegance of the main hall.

“Do you mean that you need to teach me what kind of banquet to bring along what kind of people?” Dongfang Yunheng was obviously dissatisfied with her words and did not wait for her reply. Then, he said coldly, “of course, if you are really unwilling, then forget it. Just pretend that I did not say anything just now.”

Chapter 1835 was getting more and more confused

Fang Xiao saw his unhappy look, as if she had offended him by not agreeing to go to a dinner party with him. She smiled bitterly and said, “let me see. If you don’t work overtime tonight, I’ll go with you.”

Dongfang Yunheng’s expression softened a little. He glanced at her, who was still wearing her pajamas. “Why aren’t you changing? Aren’t you in a hurry to go to work?”

Fang Xiao took her clothes and went to the cloakroom to change. Fortunately, he did not chase her in. She let out a long sigh of relief. Her summer uniform was only short-sleeved clothes and pants. She had tidied herself up in a few minutes.

“Let’s have breakfast together.” He had probably changed his clothes in the bathroom. When he saw her come out, he immediately came over and walked out of the door with her. At the same time, he asked thoughtfully, “what do you want to eat?”

“whatever,” Fang Xiao replied indifferently. Then, she added, “I’m rushing to take the bus. I just need to buy a cup of soy milk and two steamed buns by the roadside.”

The corner of Dongfang Yunheng’s mouth twitched. He ignored her and directly grabbed her wrist and walked towards the elevator.

Qiu Yitang was about to leave work after signing the last document. He did not expect his father, Qiu Boyuan, to call him from the inside line and ask him to go over immediately.

He was a little stunned for a moment, but he still got up and took the car keys downstairs. His father was the chairman of the Qiu Group. In fact, he had almost retired to the second tier. The company was not particularly important, so he usually would not ask about it.

Recently, the Qiu Group was indeed not very lucky. The land that they had originally agreed to cooperate with Binhai Dongfang Group was now gone. Dongfang Yunheng was not willing to cooperate with them, and was even willing to compensate them for the breach of contract.

The old man was furious about this matter. A month ago, he ruthlessly beat him up, saying that he was getting more and more muddled. A company’s president was always acting emotionally.

Back then, the cooperation with the Dongfang Group was actually a function of his cousin, Gu Chenchen. Gu Chenchen’s only condition was for him to marry Fang Xiao. He said that as long as he married Fang Xiao, he and the Dongfang Group could not only cooperate to develop the land There would be other opportunities for cooperation in the future.

His cousin was Dongfang Yunheng’s fiancée, the future wife of the CEO of the Dongfang Group. Back then, Gu Chenchen had also studied in the United States, and Fang Xiao, that woman, had also studied in the United States for a year. He guessed that Fang Xiao and Gu Chenchen were very close friends They were even close friends. Otherwise, she wouldn’t have stood up for her.

When Qiu Yitang arrived at the office where the chairman of the Qiu Corporation was, his father and chairman, Qiu Boyuan, was waiting for him. When he saw Qiu Yitang, he immediately threw him a data bag.

“This is the cooperation plan of Binhai Hengda Group. Go back and study it carefully. If it’s feasible, we will cooperate with Hengda to develop the land in the south. It is said that Binhai will focus on building Qianhai there. This is more valuable than the cooperation plan with Dongfang Group at the end of last year.”

“Yes,” Qiu Yitang replied and immediately picked up the information bag from his desk. He looked at his father and said, “well, if there’s nothing else, I’ll go back.”

“How have you been with Du Caiwei recently?” Qiu Boyuan saw that his son was about to leave and could not help but stop him. “What exactly are your plans with that woman?”

“I broke up with her a month ago,” Qiu Yitang said truthfully. He looked at his father and said, “I’m helping her with immigration. After the immigration is done, I’ll let her go abroad. “

Chapter 1836: I’m just getting married again

“Humph, it seems that you still love Du very much.” Qiu Boyuan snorted coldly from his nostrils. He looked at his son and said, “you should understand grandma’s meaning. Tomorrow night, Cheng will hold a party for his daughter. You will go on behalf of the Qiu family. “

“Dad, marriage again?” Qiu Yitang shouted unhappily. He looked at his father and said very irritably, “I am now interested in marriage... “

“NOT INTERESTED?” Qiu Boyuan quickly took over his son’s words and then snorted coldly, “I know you are not interested because you have never been interested in other women except for DU’s woman, but — “

Qiu Boyuan paused for a moment. Then he looked at his son and said, “you know that our Qiu family is in Hui city. Although we’ve always said that we’re the richest person in Hui city and the largest company in Hui city, we know very well in our hearts that we owe the most to the bank, so we must seize any opportunity. The Cheng family runs a large-scale supermarket chain, and is considered the best among the large-scale malls in Hui city. You should think it over carefully. “

Qiu Yitang was silent for a moment, then he said lightly, “Dad, I can go to the party tomorrow night, but I’m not interested in Miss Cheng, and I definitely won’t agree to marry the Cheng family. “

Qiu Boyuan didn’t expect his son to be so stubborn. His face darkened and he looked at him and asked, “you mean, you still want to marry Miss Du? “

“I just said that Cai Wei and I broke up a month ago,” Qiu Yitang corrected his father instinctively. Then, he quickly explained, “what I mean is, I don’t want another Fang Xiao to appear in Huicheng, and I don’t want another Fang Xiao to appear in Huicheng, so... “

Qiu Yitang paused for a moment. Then, he looked at his father and said, “I know dad is very ambitious, but unfortunately, I won’t listen to you this time. I won’t take the path of marriage again. I’ve already hurt a Fang Xiao. I can’t hurt Cheng Xiao or Li Xiao again. “

After saying this, Qiu Yitang immediately turned around and walked out of the door. He was no longer the young man who was at the mercy of others five years ago. He was now the CEO of the Qiu Corporation. Not just anyone could control him, even his father, Qiu Boyuan.

“then you don’t plan to get married in this lifetime?” Qiu Boyuan looked at his son who had already walked to the door and could not help but shout again, “Qiu Yitang, do you want the Qiu Corporation to end in your generation? “

“I didn’t say that I don’t plan to get married.” Qiu Yitang did not turn his head. He just turned his back to his father and said indifferently, “haven’t I already been married? I just want to find Fang Xiao now and want to remarry her. “

After saying this, Qiu Yitang stepped out of Qiu Boyuan's office. He didn't have the mood and time to discuss his marriage with his father. After all, the two of them had different thoughts. Even if they discussed.. They couldn't come up with a single idea.

He went downstairs and drove home. It was actually the West Mountain Villa, where Fang Xiao had married him. It was their home.

Actually, Fang Xiao had married him for less than two months. She had only lived in the West Mountain Villa for that long. Moreover, during that period of time, he didn't go home much at first. Later, he liked to go back.

Chapter 1837 was obediently at his disposal

Unfortunately, many things were destroyed when you liked them. For example, his relationship with Fang Xiao had just been reined in and he was preparing to live her life wholeheartedly when such a thing happened.

The occurrence of that incident made him thoroughly understand that no matter who he married, Du Caiwei would not let anyone off. Therefore, he did not look for Fang Xiao this month because he knew that it would be useless even if he found her It would only bring unnecessary trouble to her.

Now, he had to arrange for du Caiwei to immigrate abroad and let her stay abroad for many years. Only then would he and Fang Xiao have a chance to truly start over.

Of course, he would think of a way to make Fang Xiao's eyes see again. There were many people who donated their corneas now. He believed that as long as he worked hard, he would not be unable to contact even a row of corneas for her.

It was always easy to get stuck in traffic during the rush hour. Even in a third-tier city like Huicheng, there would still be traffic jams in the city. Therefore, he had no choice but to drive slowly along with other cars.

At this moment, his phone rang. He took it out and it was actually his assistant, AH Hui. He immediately pressed the answer button Ah Hui's voice sounded slightly anxious. "Boss Qiu, it's not good. I just received a call from Miss Du's neighbor. He said that MISS DU COMMITTED SUICIDE! "

Actually, Fang Xiao did not want to go to the full moon wine that Dongfang Yunheng's friend held for her child. However, she did not reject him thoroughly in the morning. She did not work overtime at night, so she could not refuse.

Therefore, after work, she could only obediently get into Dongfang Yunheng's car and let him take her to the dress shop to buy a dress. Because she understood her position in his heart from the beginning to the end, she didn't seriously choose a dress Anyway, she wore it for him to see. If he said that it was good, then she would wear it.

However, the lady boss of the dress shop looked at her with obvious surprise. She wasn't surprised by the lady boss's surprised look, because she wore a pair of ordinary glasses that didn't look like ordinary glasses Sunglasses did not look like sunglasses.

Presumably, the women that Dongfang Yunheng brought to this shop in the past were all beautiful women. Thinking of her, who looked extremely ordinary, but still wore strange glasses.. Moreover, she was probably the first woman who refused to take off her glasses even when changing into a gown?

Her hair was not long. When she worked at the Barbecue Stall on the Western beach at the beginning of the year, because she often helped the customers' carbon ignition when she first went to work at the barbecue stall, long hair was a taboo. Moreover, the beach was too humid, and she got off work late at night, so it was convenient for her to wash her hair So she cut her hair short.

Her hair had grown a little over the past two months, but it had just spread over her shoulders. Usually, when she went to work, she would just use a hair clip to casually put it on. However, she had to wear a gown tonight, so it did not look good.

In the end, she did not do anything to her hair. She just helped her to straighten her hair, parted it slightly, and just draped it over her shoulders. As for makeup, it was even simpler because she was wearing glasses, and her glasses were brown in color Outsiders could not see her eyes clearly from the lenses, so they did not need to use eye shadow, Mascara, fake eyelashes, and so on. The only makeup she put on was a bit of rouge on her cheeks.

Initially, the lady boss said that she looked good in the red dress, but Dongfang Yunheng said that his friend's wife, the mother of the full-moon child, might wear red tonight, so he helped her choose a light blue one-shouldered dress.

Chapter 1838: Attending the full moon banquet

It was July, the season of fire. Even the air had a fiery smell, but Fang Xiao felt inexplicably cold. Wearing this light blue gown and a pair of stilettos, as she held Dongfang Yunheng's arm.. She instinctively shivered.

Dongfang Yunheng's car had a lot of air-conditioning. She didn't know if it was because the gown was too thin and her arm was exposed too much, but she only felt cold. Even her arm was covered in chicken skin.

Fortunately, the dress shop wasn't too far away from the full moon banquet. It was less than a dozen minutes' drive away. When Fang Xiao got off the car, she felt the temperature was a little higher, but her heart was once again filled with fear and uneasiness.

She didn't know if she would meet any acquaintances at such a banquet. Although she knew very few people around Dongfang Yunheng, in fact, other than Lin Shanshan and Wu Jianping, only Gu Chenchen was left.

She didn't know if Gu Chenchen would come to such an occasion. If he did, then what kind of scene would it be when she and Dongfang Yunheng were together later?

The full moon wine of Dongfang Yunheng's friend's child was actually the full moon wine of Leng Rong's child. The Leng Family was considered a prominent figure in Binhai, and they had many businesses under them. Therefore, the full moon banquet of Leng Rong's child was not set up in any big hotel. Instead, it was set up in the new villa that Leng Rong prepared for his wife.

Fang Xiao held Dongfang Yunheng's arm and walked into this extremely luxurious courtyard-style villa with him. The style of the villa was very good. It was baroque style, and it had the charm of Portugal everywhere.

When they walked into the banquet hall, they were immediately surrounded by red roses. The entire hall was filled with Red Roses, and the happy picture of the family of three was also surrounded by champagne roses in the shape of a heart. The child, who had just reached the full moon, was sitting in the middle of his parents. There was actually a slight smile on his face, and the parents who looked the most radiant were the ones holding the child.

The entire banquet hall was brightly lit. Their clothes were fragrant, and their hair was shaded. They toasted each other, and the crowd was noisy. Everyone's faces were filled with smiles, as if it was a happy thing to congratulate this couple.

Of course, because it was a full-moon banquet for the children, the guests inside were not like the usual banquets that were filled with politicians, business celebrities, and even entertainment celebrities. The guests who were here tonight.. Were mostly relatives and friends who had a very good relationship with the host.

The Moment Dongfang Yunheng led Fang Xiao into the banquet hall, the originally noisy banquet hall instantly quieted down. The people who had been talking enthusiastically stopped talking. Their gazes could not help but look in the direction of the two of them.

Fang Xiao also instantly felt that she and Dongfang Yunheng had become the spotlight of the entire banquet hall. This feeling made her heart beat faster instinctively, and a bad premonition spread in her heart.

Although she did not know the parents who held the full moon wine for their children, the three of them should be the main characters tonight. Her gaze quickly swept across the hall, and she immediately saw the woman wearing a long red dress that covered the floor. The woman had exquisite makeup on her face and her hair was tied into a bun. She still had a happy smile on her face. In fact, no one could suppress the demeanor of the main character.

The man standing next to the woman could almost be described as dashing and elegant. His handsome face, a pair of flirtatious eyes, straight eyebrows inserted into his sideburns, and the Black Tuxedo on his body and his wife's red gown complemented each other perfectly. At a glance, one could tell that they were a beautiful couple.

Chapter 1839, the full moon banquet

With such a pair of masters standing here, she would only be wearing ordinary gowns. Why would these people turn their attention to her? Could it be that everyone was surprised by her appearance, or perhaps they thought that Dongfang Yunheng should bring Gu Chenchen here tonight?

Fang Xiao was very puzzled, but the outstanding couple had already walked towards them. The female protagonist looked at her with a smile, then looked at Dongfang Yunheng and asked jokingly, "Yun Heng, how should I address her?"

Dongfang Yunheng's face blushed slightly, then he turned to Fang Xiao and introduced her, "this is Leng Rong, the CEO of the Leng Corporation, and this is young Madam Leng, Cheng Yajun. "

"Nice to meet you, President Leng, and Young Madam Leng. " Fang Xiao greeted them very politely, then extended her hand to Cheng Yajun, "my name is Fang Xiao. "

Cheng Yajun immediately reached out and held Fang Xiao's hand, but she did not let go of it just for a symbolic shake. Instead, she held her hand and studied her face. Then, she smiled lightly and said, "this is the first time Yun Heng has brought a girl to such an occasion apart from Miss Gu. You are a little special to him. "

Fang Xiao frowned slightly when she heard this. Just as she was about to speak, she heard someone shouting beside her, "Leng Rong, the Dongfang couple has arrived. Hurry up and come out to welcome them. They are guests who have come from afar! "

Leng Rong and Dongfang Yunheng immediately turned around and quickly walked towards the main door. It was obvious that they were guests of honor. Otherwise, they would not have sent Leng Rong and Dongfang Yunheng out at the same time.

"Oh, it's sister ru Yu. " Cheng Yajun finally let go of Fang Xiao's hand and turned around. She whispered in her ear again, "Yun Heng's sister and brother-in-law are here. He didn't bring you here today because he wants you to meet the parents first, right? "

Before Fang Xiao could react, Cheng Yajun had already turned around and left to welcome the other guests. She raised her head and saw that not far away, Dongfang Yunheng was talking to a group of young men and women.

The person just now had shouted that the Dongfang couple had arrived, but Cheng Yajun had said that sister ru Yu had arrived. In the end, she said that this was Dongfang Yunheng's sister. It was likely that Dongfang Yu was ru yu.

Because of the distance and because she only had one eye, she could not see the faces of the young couple clearly. However, she vaguely felt that they were a handsome man and a beautiful woman.

Thinking about it, if Dongfang Yunheng was so devilish, wouldn't his sister be very beautiful? And his brother-in-law must also be very handsome.

The child's full moon wine was said to be a family banquet, but there were still many guests. Fang Xiao went to the dining area to look for something to eat before Dongfang Yunheng returned.

This was not to say that she was very hungry. It was mainly because she did not know the people here. The only person she knew, Dongfang Yunheng, was busy receiving his sister, so she could not be bothered with her. If he did not eat anything to pass the time, could he just stand there in a daze?

He brought the food to the dining table, but before he could sit down, the lights in the entire banquet hall dimmed. Then, Leng Rong and his wife carried their child to the temporary stage. They began to show everyone the fruits of their love.

The dining area was a little far from there, and the entire banquet hall was filled with people and laughter. Leng Rong said something, and Cheng Junru said something, but she could not hear it.

Fortunately, she did not want to hear it. In fact, when she saw the child, she instinctively had the urge to avoid it. She thought that she had lost a child before, and she only found out about the child after she lost it.

Chapter 1840 meeting a young girl by chance

Although she did not know who the father of that child was, he was still her child after all. She lost him just like that for no reason. At that time, she was indeed relieved of a heavy burden, but after being relieved, she still felt an indescribable sadness.

The lights in the banquet hall were once again as bright as day. The happy ceremony had just been completed. Perhaps it was because of the sudden glare of the lights, the child actually burst into tears at this moment. That voice was clear and loud. Just hearing it made people feel happy.

The banquet hall was filled with people talking loudly. Everyone raised their wine glasses to congratulate Leng Rong and his wife. Dongfang Yunheng was not back yet. Fang Xiao simply ate something. Looking at the crowded banquet hall, she felt very bored.

Therefore, she simply pushed away the finished dinner plate and did not go to get any more food. She got up and walked towards the back door of the villa. For this kind of single-family Villa, the garden at the back was usually bigger than the garden at the front. She wanted to enjoy the shade.

As expected, the Back Garden of Leng Rong's Villa was very large and had many flowers. Among them, the roses were the most numerous. It was the middle of summer and all kinds of flowers were blooming. This could be said to be a world of flowers.

There were so many varieties of roses, red, yellow, white, and even champagne roses. She thought that this was a place where love was blooming. Cheng Yajun was lucky.

Many years later, she realized that these flowers were not planted for Cheng Yajun. It was just that at that time, Cheng Yajun was no longer in this villa. Of course, this was a later topic, so she did not mention it here.

Not only were there flowers in the back garden, but there was also a pavilion and attic. There was even a small pond with many Koi fish in it. She was a little tired after a day at work, so she sat down in the pavilion and watched the Koi fish in the pond rest.

Anyway, Dongfang Yunheng was a busy man. Most of the people here were probably his family and friends, so he did not care about her. She tactfully found a place to not go and give him trouble.

Not long after she sat down, the door to the back garden was pushed open again. Fang Xiao did not care much because in this place, she was not familiar with anyone except Dongfang Yunheng. She could not stop anyone from coming. After all, it was not her place.

However, the footsteps seemed to be coming towards her. She felt that it was a little strange and could not help but turn around. Only then did she realize that there was a woman standing behind her. No, to be precise, it was a girl.

The girl was very tall, about 168 years old. She was wearing a pair of flat-heeled shoes. She was even taller than her. She was only 165 years old.

In fact, she was obviously an adult. However, her face and her relatively flat chest allowed people to tell at a glance that she was still a young girl. It was estimated that she was only 14 or 15 years old.

This girl was wearing a white bubble sleeve princess dress, a pair of white flat sandals, white stockings, and a bow tied on her slightly curly hair. She was completely dressed like snow white Her pink face was as beautiful as a Barbie doll.

She did not know this girl, but this girl continued to stare at her without blinking. Her gaze made her hair stand on end, and she could not help but use her hand to adjust her glasses. She thought that this girl was probably interested in her glasses.

Sure enough, the girl smiled and said to her, “sister, your glasses are so special. Can I borrow them? “

“No! ” Fang Xiao rejected without even thinking. She was dizzy. Her glasses were on the bridge of her nose and could not be removed. Once they were removed, her eye would be exposed. She did not want everyone to know that she was a one-eyed person.
