Chapter 2001: I will exchange my marriage for Fang Xiao's freedom

Gu Chenchen's move against Fang Chen had already been predicted by him. That was why he sent Wu Jianping to the special school to keep an eye on Fang Chen. Initially, he thought that she would make a move last night. He did not expect that she would only make a move this morning.

The whole incident of Gu Chenchen Kidnapping Fang Chen was within his expectations and control. It could even be said that Wu Jianping's men had deliberately allowed Gu Chenchen's men to kidnap Fang Chen. Now, Gu Chenchen's men were all under Wu Jianping's control Why did he rush back?

There was no need to rush back. He had to save Fang Xiao on the mountain and then bring Fang Xiao to save Fang Chen. At the same time, he had to take the opportunity to tell Gu Chenchen what kind of opponent she had chosen and what kind of teammate she had chosen.

Qiu Yitang saw Du Caiwei was stunned Then, he said indifferently, "alright, Caiwei, the matter between us has nothing to do with President Dongfang and Miss Gu Chenchen. You'd better release Fang Xiao quickly. This way, we can hurry up and complete the transaction. Then, everyone can go down the mountain. It's already noon. If we go down later, it'll be troublesome. "

"Humph, do you think I'm an idiot?" Du Caiwei snorted coldly at Qiu Yitang's words Then she said angrily, "Yitang, I know it's wrong to use such a method to force you to marry me, but I had no choice. If you had married me earlier, I wouldn't have made such a move, don't you think so? "

"I'm not saying whether you're right or not now," Qiu Yitang said impatiently, "it's no use saying this now. Whether it's right or wrong, in short, we've already come this far. I'll use marriage to exchange for Fang Xiao's freedom. That's it. Hurry up and let her out. "

"I've already said that we have to get the marriage certificate first. " Du Caiwei did not give in. She looked at Ah Kun who was standing behind her with a determined look.

Although Qiu Yitang had brought the civil affairs bureau staff and Dongfang Yunheng up the mountain, there were only three of them. On Her side, Ah Kun had six people.

In terms of numbers, her side naturally had the advantage. Similarly, in terms of terrain, her side also had the advantage because her position could be said to be commanding. She could retreat, defend, and attack. There was no need to worry at all.

On the other hand, Qiu Yitang's side was clearly at a disadvantage. This was because Qiu Yitang only had three people. At the same time, their position was also below them. Moreover, that place was narrow. People had to stand carefully. If they were slightly careless, they would have to slide down the mountain.

Ah Kun had chosen this place. At that time, Du Caiwei had thought that climbing the mountain was troublesome. She had said that it was slippery and unstable. However, at this moment, she had chosen this place so well.

Qiu Yitang frowned slightly and whispered a few more words to Dongfang Yunheng. Then, he nodded and was about to give in. "Alright then, let's get a marriage certificate first. However, the prerequisite is that you must let us see Fang Xiao and let us know that she is indeed here and that she is still alive. Only then will we feel that you are sincere. "

Du Caiwei was slightly stunned by Qiu Yitang's request. This was her first time being a kidnapper. To be honest, she did not understand many of the rules. Therefore, she did not know if Qiu Yitang's request was considered excessive.

Therefore, she turned her head to look at Ah Kun behind her and asked him in a low voice if he could do it. Ah Kun nodded his head and whispered into Du Caiwei's ear, "okay, promise him. "

Chapter 2002 don't look at me

"Alright then. I'll let you guys take a look at her first. I don't want you guys to think that I don't keep my word and think that I don't have Fang Xiao in my hands. I'm here to trick you. "

After Du Caiwei said that, she immediately walked to the door. Just as she was about to use the key to open the door, Ah Kun immediately went up and grabbed her hand. Then, he shook his head at her, indicating that she shouldn't open the door.

"How can we let them see Fang Xiao if we don't open the door?" Du Caiwei was confused. Didn't Ah Kun say that he would let them see Fang Xiao?

"My small wooden house has windows," Ah Kun said. He immediately pressed on an inconspicuous spot next to the door that looked like a stutter on a piece of wood. Then, a piece of wood next to the door was lifted up, and a window that was less than 0. The five-square-meter window was revealed.

"I really didn't notice that your small wooden house has quite a lot of traps?" Du Caiwei immediately looked at Ah Kun with admiration. For the first time, she realized that this average-looking middle-aged man was actually so meticulous.

"There are many things that you didn't realize," Ah Kun said with a double meaning. Then, he shouted from the window, "Miss Fang, someone is here to see you. Stand by the window for a moment. "

Originally, Fang Xiao had vaguely heard someone talking outside the cabin. However, because the cabin was completely closed, she didn't hear it very clearly. She knew that someone was talking, but she didn't know what the content was.

Therefore, she walked to the door and pressed her ears against the door. She wanted to hear what the person outside was saying, but unfortunately, the person outside didn't say anything at this time.

Just as she was puzzled, there was a sudden clanging sound from the wall beside her. Then, a wooden board was lifted up, giving her a big fright. Before she could figure out what was going on, the driver's voice came.

She hesitated for a moment and walked to the window. Although the window was not big, it was enough for her to stick her head and shoulders out of the window. Therefore, she saw from afar that there were people at the foot of the mountain looking up at her cabin.

Although the distance was a little far, she was still looking down from above. Therefore, she could see clearly the three men below. One of them was unknown, and the other two were Qiu Yitang and Dongfang Yunheng!

Fang Xiao's eyes immediately felt hot, and her eyes were pricked until they hurt. She had thought that Dongfang Yunheng might look for her. Even if he and Gu Chenchen did not break up, he would not let her go just like that.

However, she did not think that he would rush here because Du Caiwei's kidnapping would only inform Qiu Yitang, not Dongfang Yunheng. He should not know that she was kidnapped by Du Caiwei.

Why would Dongfang Yunheng come here Why would he be with Qiu Yitang?

Fang Xiao naturally could not understand these questions at this moment, because she had to ask Dongfang Yunheng after she went out. However, if she wanted to go out, Qiu Yitang would have to pay a certain price.

She did not know if Dongfang Yunheng would also pay a price. Fang Xiao thought so in her heart and could not help but look at Du Caiwei outside the window. Could it be that this woman wanted to get a marriage from Qiu Yitang.. Did she want to get something else from Dongfang Yunheng?

"Don't look at me." Du Caiwei was very dissatisfied with Fang Xiao's glance She pointed at Qiu Yitang and Dongfang Yunheng under the Big Rock and said, "look at them. One of these two men is your ex-husband, and the other is your current lover. Fang Xiao, you are really charming. When I kidnapped you, your ex-husband and lover appeared together. "
